Do you love Jesus ?

Is Jesus precious to your soul ?
 Speak to your brother by the way,
 The gift is better than fine gold
 Tell it, then, without delay.

CHORUS :—

At the foot of the cross there is life,
 If you look at the crucified one,
 Gone is all trouble and strife
 For Jesus has victory won.

Lift up Jesus on the cross
 Who suffered to redeem our lost,
 Repent, believe, and then obey,
 Christ will wash your sins away.

I was a rebel in misery and sin
 I rejected the great God of love,
 But He died my salvation to win,
 All glory to Jesus above.

Unworthy I fell at His feet
 He bade me arise and go free,
 When I look at the cross it is sweet
 For Jesus has died to save me.

BOYNE

For the Mission of Garnet Ave., Toronto

We start our mission for Jesus our King,
And loudly His praises we want to sing;
Looking to Jesus, who was crucified
Saviour of sinners, for you and me died.

CHORUS :—

Sing praises to Jesus, our Heavenly King,
Our souls for pardon to Jesus we bring;
We are all unworthy, O hear our cry
Lord, in Thy great mercy, pass us not by.

We want Thee, O Jesus, our strength is small,
O renew our strength when on Thee we call;
We are only a little pilgrim band
We claim thy promise for a better land.

Jesus, I know Thy promises are sure,
O wash away our sins, make our hearts pure,
Renew in us Thy spirit, our faith is small
O Saviour, hear us' when on Thee we call.

From this little mission may souls begin
To cry for mercy to the King of kings,
He always listens to the sinner cry
On His heavenly throne beyond the sky.

A Broken Heart

When thy heart is sorry and full of grief
And vain is man to give thy soul relief,
Go to Jesus in secret, tell him all
The great Physician will hear when you call.

CHORUS :—

Jesus is willing to set thy heart free,
Poor sinner, how much he cares for thee ;
Bring thy poor weary heart broken and sad
Come to Jesus, he will make thy heart glad.

A broken heart, Jesus will not despise,
He ever listens, oh my soul be wise ;
Simply trusting Jesus, he has paid it all
On Calvary's cross, oh hear Jesus call.

Tis finished, and the victory won,
Oh listen and hear the angels song,
Holy, Holy, Holy, cry night and day
Sinners, Jesus is Truth, life and the way.

Watch, be ready, Christ is coming once more,
To call His bride to the beautiful shore,
Glory to Jesus, all the saints will sing
Crown Jesus forever king of all kings.

Christian Worker

Advance, christian working men
And preach salvation free,
The great God in His love has sent
Jesus to set us free.

CHORUS :—

Cheerfully carry your cross
If you wish to wear the crown,
Keep your face Zionward
With Jesus you will be found.

Live lives of truth and purity
Lift up Jesus on the cross,
Tell all men for a surety
Christ came to seek the lost.

Tell of Jesus' power to save
To keep you pure within,
In mercy, Jesus, His life He gave
To cleanse us from all sin.

Tell of Jesus wondrous love
To seek and set us free,
He left His heavenly throne above
To die and plead for me.

True Light

To know Thee, my God, is life
 Cleanse my heart from evil and strife,
 Fill my soul with heavenly grace
 I would adore Thee, face to face.

CHORUS:—

Keep my heart within Thy loving light.
 Fill my spirit pure and bright;
 Oh may Thy love within me shine
 Lead Thou me on, and keep me Thine.

He leads me by the river of life
 My soul is kept from sin and strife,
 I look away and there behold
 My Jesus, and the streets of gold.

Alone with Jesus, I would walk
 Commune with Thee and hear Thy talk,
 To kneel and worship at Thy feet
 And praise Thee on Thy mercy seat.

BOYNE

Will I Pass

When I come to the river alone,
 Say, will I pass?
 Sorrow and care have flown
 Jesus at last.

CHORUS:—

I shall pass with Jesus right through,
 And live with the King will you?
 In that beautiful city of day,
 My brother and sister you may.

When I reach that beautiful gate
 Say, will I pass?
 To my mansions and royal estate,
 With Jesus at last?

I shall worship the great God above
 Say, will I pass,
 Return His love with love
 Home at last?

Then with the redeemed I shall sing
 Pardoned and Past,
 All glory to Jesus our king
 As long as Eternity last.

Bear each other's Sorrow

We each have a cross, dear brother,
 And we think we have more than our share
 But we could not carry another
 God knows how much we can bear.

CHORUS:—

Only tell it to Jesus, brother,
 Alone in thy closet be brave,
 Open thy heart to Jesus
 For Jesus alone can save.

The world cares not for your sorrow
 It is very selfish and hard,
 They will forget all your troubles to-morrow
 Tell it to Jesus, my Lord.

Tell Jesus thy sorrow, my brother
 He is acquainted with sorrow and grief,
 He will bind up thy wounds, dear brother,
 He alone can give you relief.

Humbly carry thy cross, my brother,
 If with Jesus you would be found,
 Look upward and onward, my brother
 Then you will wear the crown.

After Storm, Sweet Rest

Afresh, again, the nails I've driven,
 Alas! alas, thy wounds have riven,
 My poor soul to Thee I bring
 Simply to Thy cross I cling.

CHORUS :—

Thy love hath drawn my soul to Thee
 Thou alone can set me free,
 Unto Thee I give my heart,
 Oh may I never from Thee depart.

I humbly kneel at the foot of the cross
 Although my soul is tempest tossed,
 Driven about from wave to wave
 Thou alone my soul can save.

I bring my burden Lord to Thee
 Thou alone can set me free,
 I plead for mercy, now, to-day
 Do not cast my soul away.

When I look at Thy face divine,
 Mercy and grace in Thee I find ;
 The raging storm within my breast
 Is gone, Sweet rest, sweet rest.

Press Forward

Leave the valley and leave your sins
 Take up your cross and the mountain you climb
 Look up my brother, do you see the light
 At the top, His face is shining so bright?

CHORUS :—

Brightly beams the Saviours face at the top,
 Look not behind thee, my brother, do not stop,
 Press forward, brother, He pleads for thy soul
 To gather thee into His loving fold.

The valley below is all full of sin
 Then upward to glory brother begin,
 Look not behind thee in the valley below
 Brighter is the way as upward you go.

The cross will fall off, thy steps will be bright,
 Into thy soul comes the heavenly light ;
 Planted within is the master of all
 Jesus leads the way, then you cannot fall.

Glory to Jesus His love is untold,
 On top of the mountain His face behold ;
 My soul looks up at the King of all kings
 Eternal ages His praises shall sing.

Keep Me True.

Jesus take my heart, keep it from sin,
 Oh wash me, make me pure within,
 With Thy holy Spirit feed me
 In Thy love oh Jesus lead me.

CHORUS :—

Lead us on oh Saviour King
 And loud hosannas we will sing,
 Protected by Thy loving care
 Then we shall all Thy glory share.

My Jesus, leave me not alone
 But with Thy blood my soul atone,
 Humble at the foot of the cross
 While there, my soul cannot be lost.

When this short span of life is o'er
 Then I will my Jesus adore,
 And sing His praises evermore
 Upon the great Eternal shore.

Rest

Soldiers of Jesus, lay your arms at His feet
The battle is ended the conquest complete,
The laurels you have won now lay by His side
For Christ is your life, your hope and your guide

Resting in Paradise, Jesus, with Thee,
Thy love and Thy beauty we plainly see,
Being taught by Jesus, more glory to know
As into His image and likeness we grow.

Walking with Jesus through streets of gold
Talking with Jesus, sweet peace to thy soul,
Holy love, all undefiled
Pure and innocent as a little child.

Love, purity and truth we find
In this beautiful city, there are no blind,
They need not the light nor the heat of the sun
For the city is illumined by the glorified one.

In the Garden

Alone, Jesus wept and prayed in the garden
 To obtain us rebels' pardon,
 Not my will, O Father, but thine be done
 None could utter these words but God's dear Son.

What pain and agony He bore for man
 No mortal flesh could understand,
 His hands and feet were nailed to the cross
 To redeem all sinners lost.

The sun refused to give his light,
 The day was turned as dark as night,
 They buried Him in a tomb of stone
 The loved disciples how they mourned.

'Tis finished, and the victory won
 He has ascended on high to plead for men,
 For whosoever will believe
 Shall everlasting life receive.

Glory be to God on high
 Who gave His son for us to die,
 Oh, Holy Spirit, from above
 Sweet messenger of God's own love.

Jesus the King of Kings

When thy heart is weary and sad,
 Oppressed and in trouble so bad,
 And thy soul is troubled within
 Go tell it to Jesus the King.

CHORUS :—

Jesus takes all burdens away,
 If unto Him you watch and pray,
 Relieves thy troubled heart within
 For Jesus is the King of kings.

He listens to hear the sinner's cry,
 With mercy He is very nigh ;
 He loves the sinner's heart to win,
 For Jesus is the King of kings.

With out-stretched hands He waits to save,
 In love for all his life He gave ;
 With hearts uplifted let us sing,
 For Jesus is the King of kings.

A Crown of Life, a sure reward
 For those who love and fear the Lord,
 Glory to God with angels sing,
 For Jesus is the King of kings.

The Love of God to Man

gave My only Son for thee,
 He paid the debt and set you free,
 Hear His gentle pleading voice
 My friend take Jesus as your choice.

CHORUS:—

I'll come to Jesus at the foot of the cross
 With sins red as scarlet, guilty and lost,
 Thy power is sufficient, in the fountain I'll go
 Then Jesus will wash me as white as snow.

My poor lost child come back to me
 O how I yearn to set you free,
 Onward, take me as your guide
 I'll keep thee ever by My side.

All thy troubles and sorrows I'll share
 All thy wants shall be my care,
 I'll pour my spirit into Thy soul
 And keep thee safe within the fold.

Thy peace no man shall take away
 Walk strictly in the narrow way,
 Then my beauty you will behold
 When I my glory shall unfold.

The Love of Christ

O the death that Jesus died for me
On the cross of calvary,
Oh what love and what compassion
For our lost and ruined condition.

His hands and feet were nailed fast
To redeem our soul at last,
The blood flowed down His wounded side
To redeem a world so wide.

Oh that from temptation I was free
That I could wholly worship Thee
That I with Jesus should ever be
Forever in eternity.

All glory to His holy name
To the heavenly Father be the same,
O, Holy Ghost, one yet three
We worship the holy Trinity.

Keep Me Humble

Holy Jesus, keep me Thine
 May thy pure love within me shine,
 May my spirit ever be Humble, obedient unto Thee.

O keep me humble in the dust
 That I may always watch and trust,
 From temptation keep me free
 That I may only worship Thee.

Simply to Thy cross I'll cling
 Sorrow and cares to Thee I'll bring,
 Holy Jesus, save my soul
 Keep me safe within the fold.

All honor to Thy glorious name
 For ever and ever be the same,
 Holy angels sing Thy praise
 Unto Thee their voices raise.

And when I pass through death's dark land
 Holy Jesus, take my hand,
 Unto Thee I'll sing Thy praise
 When with Jesus I shall raise.

Redeem Your Time.

Your time is swiftly gliding by
 With troubles and cares and many a sigh
 To be redeemed, should be your cry.
 What have you done for Jesus?

CHORUS :—Jesus suffered all for me
 Hanged upon the accursed tree,
 He alone can set you free.
 What have you done for Jesus?

You have gathered up lots of gold in store
 Your barns are full unto the door,
 You think you never can be poor.
 What have you done for Jesus?

The Master comes to-night my friend
 On earth you've no more time to spend,
 Eternity, it has no end.
 What have you done for Jesus?

Oh! ask of mercy, make up your mind,
 Those evil works and ways decline,
 Henceforth to live and do the right
 To go and work for Jesus.

For Jesus is the sinner's friend
 He came to live on earth with men,
 To teach us what we ought to do.
 Oh! go and work for Jesus.

The King and the Blind Beggar.

Thoughts on Mr. Moody's sermon on Nov.
Massey Hall, Toronto.

The blind beggar called upon the King one day
When passing through the city He pas'd his way
His dark, I cannot see ;

O, thou Son of David, have mercy on me.

The blind man then hosanna did sing
And through that city his voice it did ring,
For Jesus had healed him and bid him go free
The blind man said thankfully, I can see, can see

In sin and shame how many are blind
Speak all evil words to each other unkind,
Just listen and hear what Jesus will say
You may have your spiritual eyesight to-day

Man, woman and child, wherever you are
Just look and see the gates ajar,
For Jesus is waiting to bid you go free
The blind beggar now the King he could see.

See the King in his beauty and love divine
His holy love on your face will shine,
When dwell with Jesus for ever more
Upon the great eternal shore.

Waiting.

Waiting in silence, watchful in prayer
 Oh may my God my soul prepare,
 For the Master will come as a thief in the night
 May I be ready to take my flight.

CHOR.—Waiting to welcome the King of Kings
 Listen, the angels his praises they sing
 Oh help me then my voice to raise
 I also would sing the Saviour's praise.

Waiting to know when the bridegroom is here
 At the feet of Jesus contented so near,
 Sorrow and trouble is gone with all care
 I shall with Jesus eternity share.

Waiting to walk in a robe of pure white
 The army of Jesus led on by His might.
 A crown of bright glory I then shall wear
 When I shall with Jesus eternity share.

Waiting to welcome the King in his beauty
 Christians arise, attend to your duty,
 What power and love will shine in his face
 Waiting alone, I'm saved by God's grace.

Weary.

Tune Swanee River.

Sin sick, sad and weary
 Far from Thee I roam,
 Take me in thy arms dear Jesus
 Come and take the wanderer home.
 Alone you see I have fallen
 Into the depths of sin,
 Nothing but Thy blood can redeem me
 Come and take the wanderer in.
 I will arise and go to Jesus
 Repenting of my sins,
 Then my Jesus will forgive me
 He will take me in.
 And with his arms enfolded round me
 I know I cannot fall,
 Satan and his charms cannot harm me
 Oh hear the blessed call.
 And now I live with Jesus
 All is peace within,
 For Jesus is my Saviour
 He is my heavenly King.
 All my friends that have gone before
 I shall meet up there,
 Then my blessed Jesus
 I shall Thy glory share.

Look Up.

Tune 66—There is no one left to love that little boy of mine.

The heavenly gates are opened wide just here angels sing
For Jesus Christ the Saviour is our heavenly
Just listen to the Cherubims as they their anthems
The lamb that was slain but lives again for you for me did die.

Then if you follow Jesus He'll be your heavenly
And you shall live forever and loud His praise
From victory to victory you shall go on
All glory be to Jesus and this shall be our song

Live with charity with all men and you shall find-

The blessed love of Jesus it on your face will Be willing and submissive, walk in the narrow
Always look to Jesus and you will win the day

And when you cross the narrow stream He'll you on the way,

He'll lead you out of darkness into the light
You will behold the Jasper walls and walk the of gold

And then your loving Jesus his glories will Take My Heart.

Take my heart, oh Father, take it
 Take and make it all thine own,
 Turning from the path unholy
 Of this proud and sinful world.

Humble at the foot of the cross
 Oh may my soul not be lost,
 Jesus, thou art the sinner's friend
 On Thee, Oh God, my soul depends.

Oh, guide me, Father with thine eye
 I pray leave me not alone,
 Under the shadow of thy wing
 Father claim me for thine own.

Jesus, when death surrounds my soul
 Hand in hand, lead thou me on ;
 When Zion I reach, bless His name
 Sing praise, Hallelujah.

The Boy That Was Hiding.

Within a dark garret in a tenement house
 A good man discovered one day
 A heap 'neath the rafters, of shavings and chips
 On which a poor little lad lay,
 Pray what are you doing in this place my boy?
 Be sure that you answer me well
 With fear and with trembling he made this reply
 "I'm hiding, but please sir don't tell!"

CHORUS.

I'm hiding, I'm hiding, I've answered you well
 I'm hiding, I'm hiding, but please sir don't tell.

From what are you hiding in this place my boy?

Why lay upon this rude bed?

Your mother where is she, why does she not come?

He answered, "Kind sir, she is dead."

Then where is your father, why not go to him?

"Please hush sir, don't tell him, look here,
 Just see how I'm wounded with cruel hard blows
 And then you will know why I fear."

The Boy that was hiding (continued)

Who beat you like this my boy, what was it for
 My father sir, he could not fail,
 My father got drunk sir, I'm sorry to tell
 And beat me cause I would not steal ;
 Kind friends at a mission sir, told me of God,
 Of Jesus my Saviour, and heaven,
 My father may kill me, I'll never steal more,
 I'll pray sir, that he'll be forgiven.

You must not stay longer my boy you will die,
 Wait patiently here till I come,
 I'm going away a kind lady to see
 I'll find you a happier home
 Oh! thank you, kind sir, but just wait ere you go
 Let me sing you a sweet little song
 The motherless friendless bruised and forlorn
 The song about Jesus the Lord.

His song at last ended he said "Sir good-bye."
 The stranger departed for aid
 But soon he returned, climbed the ladder and found
 That Jesus had had come in his stead.
 The chips and the shavings lay there as before
 The lad yet lay on the rude bed
 One hand in his bosom one hand by his side
 But the poor little fellow was dead.

The Blind Man

Father, imagine if you can
The hardships of a poor blind man,
Who in this world is bound to be
Shut out from all he pines to see.

Mother, that lad upon your knee
Your own is good and fair to see,
But in life's duties short decree
Is crushed and blind he cannot see.

Sister, all dark I cannot see
But pray do not weep for me,
Do duty's call with all your might
Trust in God and do the right.

Brother, I face the world with thee
You rise, I stop, I cannot see,
Weary and sad I work my way
All will be well I know some day.

The King's Highway

Kind friends please pay attention to what I have to say
 I try to make my living upon the King's Highway,
 I want to do my duty, my cross is hard to wear
 Please give me your sympathy my burden to bear.

I led my gang to work as well as any man
 They brought me home in the evening, surmise it if you can
 With my face all shattered and broken, one eye lay on my cheek
 My leg and arm were broken, and blinded for life, why weep.

But I am only one of many who fell at duty's call
 For myself I ask no pity, but for my family that is all,
 My little children sitting on my knee, looking to my face, oh (God, I cannot see
 Such a cross is very hard to bear, I know with me, you will agree.

When you meet me on the king's highway don't pass me by (with scorn
 For God's all seeing eye is just, you to might have to mourn,
 For a cup of cold water in Christ's name
 Shall be rewarded for the same.

While all is dark to me below
 Christ will wash me white as snow,
 The star of hope within my breast
 One day I shall see and be at rest.

Jolly Jack Tar

All the watch around the capstan does sing
 We weigh up the anchor, the fiddler joins in,
 Square yards to the wind let the sails fall free
 Hurrah my lads for the deep rolling sea.

CHO—I am a jolly jack tar, ship ahoy!
 We stand to our guns or aloft my boy,
 My messmates join in and loudly they sing
 Like true British sailors, we fight for the (Queen.

Drums beat to quarters, the gunner he shouts
 And spikes right and left run in or run out,
 The powers all know that we do our work clean
 We will blow all their ships to "fiddler's green"

We will court no danger and fear no foe
 But defend our country wherever we go,
 Liberty, freedom, we defend the right
 Like true British heroes defend the fight.

Captain on deck like a king takes command
 Issues his orders we all understand,
 Aloft or below we gallantly go
 Like jolly sailors I want you to know.

What is Man

Remember man thou art but dust, must die
 Diamonds or gold death will not hear thy cry
 Prepare thy soul for the great world unknown
 For only Jesus can thy soul atone.

On guard at our post we silently sit
 We are subjects to scorn and sarcastic wit,
 Only ignorance, ill mannered unkind,
 To make their wit at the expense of the blind.

Not all alike there are noble hearts that beat
 To help the blind they meet upon the street,
 But we all must to the will of God resign
 Friends, it was not my will that I am blind.

Then duty's call, some work, some wait,
 But onward, upward to the golden gate,
 But we must let the Master work his way
 Through the eye of faith look up and say.

I'll carry my cross, through my sorrow be brave
 Remember the man of sorrows who gave,
 His life for thy ransom he paid it
 All glory to God and hear the Masters' call.

The Labor day of Ninety-five
 With our City Fathers all alive,
 The labor organizations are going for a run
 Off to the Island Park for fun.

Visitors from every nation
 Come to our city for recreation,
 To get rest for their body as well as their mind,
 The Island Park will suit them fine.

Steamboats carry passengers all along the line
 Off to the Park you will find,
 Tired mothers with sick children will get a good breeze
 It will save the expense of going down to the sea.

On the sands by the lake shore I say it is fine
 Thoughts steal o'er you almost sublime
 To hear the wash and the water roll
 It sounds like music in your soul.

The waters are dotted with graceful swans
 As if it was touched with a magic wand,
 The new Iron Bridge is all complete
 The Island Park is quite a treat.

The Ferris wheel and round about,
 Just hear the children laugh and shout,
 For a game of foot-ball sir, or base
 The Island Park is just the place.

To spend a summer's day
 Take in the balmy breeze and hear the band play,
 Or if you want a pic-nic or a good cup of tea
 Take a boat at Yonge street and come along with me.

If in Toronto you should chance to roam on a summer day
 Be sure you see the Island Park before you go away,
 A pleasure you will not forget no matter where you be,
 So take the boat at Yonge street and come along with me.

Stand by the Life Buoy.

Go help thy brother you see he is sinking
 In sin and crime away he is drifting
 He thinks he is forsaken and lost
 Go tell him of Jesus who died on the cross.

CHORUS—Stand by the life buoy
 Some brother is drifting away
 Go help thy brother to Jesus
 For Jesus can save him to-day.

Jesus will speak peace to thy troubled soul
 And bring you back into his fold
 All your sins will be washed away
 Then you may rejoice and say.

Walk strictly in the narrow way
 Put on your armour watch and pray
 Oh keep us humble in the dust
 That I may in my Saviour trust.

Mother

Those dove like eyes and winning face
From my memory never can be chased,
In this world or any other
Never can I forget my dear mother.

Gently bending o'er my bed
Asking God's blessing on my head,
That my path may be bright and clear
• As through this world my course I steer.

Our dearest mother our wants attend
And while we sleep our clothes she mends,
Not forgetting our dear father
Who is so kind as gentle mother.

A true mother's love can never be told
It's purer than the finest gold,
When she dies that heavenly band to swell
May I with Jesus and mother dwell.

To My Friend

Friend of my heart I miss thee
 Thy vacant chair is bare,
 Only gone on before lad
 You know we shall meet up there.

Our sorrows and joys we told
 When the days were long and cold,
 Read the paper through to me
 My friend, you knew I could not see.

I miss thy manly voice sure
 Of a welcome at your door,
 Shared the best you had, lad
 Friend Dun, I feel so sad.

Mrs. Dun, he loved you well
 Now please do not weep or fret,
 Side by side you have done your part
 As one gentle loving heart.

How he loved his girls and boys
 With all his manly heart,
 Right up to the very last
 He played a good father's part.

Father in thy great mercy
 The widow, fatherless see,
 Up hold them with thy right hand
 Until Jesus makes you free.

Our Fireman

God bless our firemen noble and bold
 Who brave every danger through heat and cold,
 All honor to our firemen manly and gay
 Where duty calls they fly to obey.

They watch and listen to catch the alarm
 Then off to the fire they go like a charm,
 We brave every danger our strength to display
 When duty calls we fly to obey.

They climb the ladders some soul to save
 Or with branch pipe in hand the fire brave,
 God bless their manly souls we say
 When duty calls we fly to obey.

Our city is blest it is plain to behold
 Our noble fireman are worth more than gold,
 When danger threatens we hear them say
 Where duty calls we fly to obey

May we watch and listen the last trumpet to hear
 May they with Jesus their Saviour appear,
 Ready, aye ready, we hear each one say
 Where duty calls we fly to obey.

Then hurrah for our lads dressed in blue
 Who's deeds we all much admire,
 Then Hurrah for our lads dressed in blue
 Who saves and protects us from fire.

The Blind Man's Daughter

Ada, you are my little queen
 Although your face I've never seen,
 For you have been my eyes to day
 To lead you father on his way.

On the sidewalks about the town
 You lead me on my daily round,
 Or when to a neighbor's a visit I pay
 You guide me that I may not stray.

Oh Ada, do you understand
 That Jesus dwells at God's right hand,
 And if you always watch and pray
 He will lead you on your way.

Ada, may you ever be
 Pure, innocent and free,
 And may your path forever shine
 With deeds of kindness you've left be(hind

Ada darling, though we are poor
 I know we'll meet on the other shore,
 With our heavenly Father we shall be
 And then my little queen I'll see.

Boyne's Lament

O heart that is broken and soul that is sad
 Why are you troubled or why feel so bad,
 Neglecting a Saviour, so good and so kind
 To all his children seeing or blind.

Our chances past which ne'er shall be returned
 Or deeds done or friendships spurned,
 But listen awhile to me I pray
 I'll tell you why I'm sad to-day.

February month to me ever will accursed be
 For from that time t'was willed I no more (should see,

Blown up was I with dynamite
 And that was how I lost my sight.

Fathers imagine if you can
 The hardships of a poor blind man,
 Who on this earth is bound to be
 Shut out from all he pines to see.

But this sad life will soon be o'er
 And we'll enter on the other shore,
 With all those I love to see
 Forever in eternity.

The Race

In the race of life I've been outrun, so please on me take pity
 Though blind, I've come to settle down, in this great Toronto (city

Of all the cities I've been in, where the chirping sparrow perches
 It is the greatest one of all for its charities and churches.

In this race you'll plainly see that Christ's church is the goal
 And all who start to win the race must not play the fool,
 In starting you must careful be, no false weights to carry
 For in this race, my friend, you'll have no time to tarry.

Keep up good heart and steadfast be, if you would not tumble
 You will find trouble on your way, tis easy now to stumble,
 But if your training right has been you'll sure to be the gainer
 Then you'll sit down with the King and be his guest forever.

All glory to our God and King, we see this race has started
 So never be deceived with sin nor never be faint-hearted,
 For when the laurelled crown you have won
 You'll forever live with God's dear Son.

The Blind Shall See

The beauties of nature I no longer see
 The birds, the trees, or the humming bee,
 Then farewell to this valley of tears
 Behold, my blessed Saviour appears.

In regions of glory with its beauties untold
 Whose walls are of jasper and streets of bright (gold,
 In mansions of glory and a robe of pure white
 I shall dwell with my Saviour and have a clear sight.

O blind of this world, why will you not see
 O come unto Jesus and thou shalt be free,
 For Jesus is calling, calling for thee
 The spirit is waiting from its bondage to flee.

In that heavenly land where all sorrow is gone
 We'll sing unto Jesus that ever new song,
 Hunger nor thirst there never shall be
 All glory to God the whole Trinity.

The Sabbath

The Sabbath bells are chiming clear
 Bidding the people of God draw near,
 It is the best pay of the seven
 To prepare our souls for heaven.

The hum of the city now is stopped
 And the chiming bells their echoes drop,
 Sounds of a nation singing praise
 Unto God their voices raise.

Our trials and troubles we bring to Him
 For God is the Almighty King,
 He will guide us on our way
 If we humbly watch and pray,

To Jesus then for salvation cry
 O Lord to save us or else we die,
 He will light us on our way
 To an eternal Sabbath day.

Our Sabbath day will soon be past
 O receive our souls at last,
 Then loud anthems we will sing
 All glory to the Immortal King.

The Old Home

In a neat little cottage how well I remember
The snow coming down in the month of December,

By the fire a father and mother I see
Telling the story of their children three.

Now the father with old age was bent
His race was nearly run,
The gray haired mother a picture lent
As she sat by the fire and spun.

Our Jack a noble boy was he
He entered into the Queen's navy,
He sends us letters with money to back
God bless and keep our sailor Jack.

Our dear boy Tom was tall and strong
When from our home he started,
A soldier ten years to serve so long
We were nearly broken hearted.

Our daughter Mary, that little pet
You know on her our hearts was set,
I would not call her back she's gone to rest
And with the Saviour she is blest.

Wife you have played a noble part
You have been good to me,
Yes, dear John, you've done your best
We've loved our children three.

The Blind Man to his Boy

My boy, when I launch my bark away
 Across the narrow stream to stay,
 The loving God who guards us here
 Will guide your father through all clear.

My boy, my boy, my bark cannot be lost
 Although it might be tempest tossed,
 Dark and rough may be the waves
 My boy remember Jesus saves.

My boy, with faith look up to Him
 You too must cross the narrow stream,
 It may not be yet for a little while
 But God will call you too, my child.

Take up your cross then every day
 Walk strictly in the narrow way,
 Prayer makes the christian's armour bright
 Trust in God and do the right.

It is not far from shore to shore
 All praise to God whom we adore,
 Holy spirit, heavenly dove
 Give us thy blessing from above.

O Father may we all be Thine
 May Thy pure love within us shine,
 May I meet my Father all above
 Where we will give Thee love for love.

The Wandering Boy's Return

My mother's prayers were not in vain,
 I will return to God again ;
 Ask forgiveness for the past,
 Jesus can save a poor outcast.

CHORUS :—

Alien from God for many years,
 My mother's prayers ring in my ears,
 From the downward way I trod,
 I now look up to mother's God.

In sin and vice there is no joy,
 Mother take back your wayward boy ;
 At thy knee would I kneel and pray,
 For Jesus to save my soul to-day.

In heaven you will see your boy,
 Praise God together, oh what joy,
 How the angels they all will sing
 When the outcast boy is brought in.

Thanksgiving Day of '96

I'm thankful for Thy loving care,
 Health, food and clothes, I've had my share,
 Blind, by the wayside, I seek my bread,
 By thy loving hand I have been fed.

I am thankful for friends of the past
 In mercy may their friendship last,
 To cheer a poor brother by the way,
 For time is short we cannot stay.

In gratitude I look up to Thee,
 Monuments of mercy Lord are we,
 All the rich and poor on Thee depend
 We pray Thee O God ; Thy blessing send.

We thank Thee best for Thy gift of love,
 For sending us Jesus from above,
 To die on the Cross our souls to save
 For all poor sinners His life He gave.

Then with thankful hearts our voice we raise,
 To give the Heavenly Father praise,
 Trusting in Thee for Thy tender care,
 O Lord may we all Thy glory share.

Sorrow all gone in the City of Light,
 Jesus reigns supreme and O so bright ;
 Friends of Toronto here let me say,
 'Tis a continual Thanksgiving Day.
