"COME WITH US AND WE WILL DO THEE GOOD."

Notes.

The Committees which have not yet organized for work should meet at once and appoint officers who will lead in the work. We have sufficient organization. Oh, for the Holy Spirit to move the wheels.

The Financial Statement for the past year was encouraging. We will need to raise more money this year for current expenses. We can easily do it. Only a small proportion of our membership contributed last year. This ought not to be. Every member ought to give something or receive something. Let every member secure "weekly offering envelopes" and use them.

Are you doing personal work for the salvation of sinners? Are you interested in a revival of true religion amongst us? We have great reason to thank the Lord for a prosperous season financially, are we as anxious to have this one prosperous spiritually? Oh, for a mighty coming up of the people of the Lord. Brethren, let us get down on our knees before God and confess our sins.

Our Revenue.—This Church is supported by the free will offerings of the people. Every member, young and old, is expected to contribute regularly. If each one gives as "God has prospered," no one will be burdened, and there will be ample means for support of every department. Subscriptions may be made at any time to the Treasurer, Deacon W. T. Harris, and the Chairman of the Finance Committee, who will supply "weekly offering envelopes."

All Seats Free.—Application for sittings should be made to Deacon Jas. McPherson, Chairman of Pew Committee, who will also provide envelopes. The seats are assigned—not rented. Each pew holder is expected to be a contributor.

Notices for "Our Calendar" must be given to the Pastor not later than Thursday evening.

The Pastor will be glad to speak with you at the close of each service. Kindly inform him immediately concerning the sick, strangers, any without regular church home, and where a visit will be helpful. All are urged to use the information cards in pews.

COME AGAIN.—Strangers and new comers to our City are heartily invited to all our services. Welcome; come again.
