HOUSE MAY NOT MEET UNTIL NEW YEAR

Ministers Will Be Kept Busy With Departmental Work Following Absence From Ottawa and Much Important Legislation Demands Consideration.

OTTAWA, Sept. 3.—(Special).—All signs of the political horizon at the present time point towards a late meeting of parliament. It is the general belief in official circles now that there is a strong probability of the opening of the session being delayed until after the Christmas holidays.

It is pointed out that there is much legislation of a constructive nature to be got in readiness for introduction. During the summer most of the ministers have been away from the capital and their departments, and this will add greatly to the space of time and amount of work which now confronts them before parliament can meet. Considerable time will have to be given to the consideration of the naval question, as it is now a practical certainty that nothing definite as regards policy has yet been decided upon and will not be before it is given these and mature consideration by the entire cabinet council. Mr. Hazen, it is understood, is going to the Pacific Coast after his return here, and will likely be away for two weeks. This would seem to indicate that the question of the navy will not be taken up for some weeks, probably not until October.

There is much information which could not be secured from the admiralty while the ministers were in England on account of the strenuous session of the British house. This is expected to be sent here with all possible despatch, and it is not thought that in any event it will involve any delay.

But quite apart from the navy, there are a number of other important matters awaiting to be acted upon as regards the policy which the government will pursue. While some of these matters, as for instance, the C.P.R. stock issue, will likely be turned over to parliament for discussion, there is a great amount of work for the cabinet to be done. Mr. Borden on his return is going to spend a few days in Nova Scotia, and, as scheduled, to speak at a number of banquets in his honor. It is altogether unlikely that the cabinet will get down to real work before October, and it is felt that it will be too late in November, when they are ready to summon parliament until after the new year.

This trend of events is much regretted in political and official circles, as it is felt that a late meeting will inevitably bring the session being carried through the warm months of next summer, and there is also a strong impression that parliament should meet just as soon as possible and deal with the numerous important questions awaiting settlement.

TWO PEOPLE INJURED WHEN EATON'S LAUNCH WAS TOTALLY BURNED

Miss Margaret Daly and Theo. Burrell Were Severely Burned, and Two Companions Escaped, When Engine Exploded on the "Shamrock," R. W. Eaton's $6,000 Gasoline Launch.

One woman was seriously burned and two men slightly scorched and R. W. Eaton's $6000 gasoline launch "Shamrock" was sunk in the western bay when the engine of the boat exploded as she was passing thru that channel on her way to take a party of four to see the Exhibition fireworks at 9 o'clock last night. The explosion, which occurred in the enclosed engine in the bow of the boat, completely wrecked that section, throwing the occupants into the water and setting fire to the craft. The boat was in charge of Theo. Burrell of Dowling avenue, who operates it for Mr. Eaton. Miss Margaret Daly, 187 Sumach street, 22 years of age, was the most seriously hurt. Her face, both hands and both legs are severely burned. The left leg is scorched from knee to ankle, while her hands were terribly scorched and swollen. She was removed to St. Michael's Hospital, when the party were picked up by the harbor commission's life saving launch, which was on the scene in less than three minutes after the explosion.

A Fast Launch.
The "Shamrock" was constructed of solid mahogany thruout and was a fast launch. Driven by Burrell on Labor Day she made second place in the class for launches of 40 feet and under. Her length was 39 1/2 feet. Ordinarily this boat carried an automobile top, but she was still stripped for racing when the accident occurred, and this was fortunate, because in the confusion it would have been difficult for the occupants to have got overboard and the top most certainly have caught fire, when they would have been entrapped in a seething house of flame.

Something Went Wrong.
When the explosion came Mr. Burrell was sitting at the steering gear immediately aft of the 21-foot decked-in space at the bow. He said to the "World" last night, "Something went wrong in the engine. I think the carburettor back-fired. It was thrown over the side of the boat and grabbed a life preserver as I went. I did not see what became of Miss Daly until I was in the water. Edwards and the other girl were sitting in the stern. A sheet of flame swept clear to them and they, too, jumped overboard. Edwards threw a life belt over the girl and assisted her to keep afloat. The lifeboat arrived almost immediately and made straight for our boat. I was some little distance from the launch and was almost run down by the life-savers. But they did splendid work, I can tell you."

Found in Water.
Burrell, Edwards and the other girl were found in the water by the life-saving crew, and Miss Daly was picked up clinging to the burning launch. When the life-saving launch arrived the Queen City yacht club boat Miss Daly was delicious and did not recognize her friends. The boat was still afloat and burning when the life-savers drew away, but when they had returned she had sunk.

FRENCH MINERS IN LIVING TOMB

Nearly Two Score Men Believed to Have Perished Thru Explosion of Firedamp in Mine Near Bruay—Three Dead Bodies and 23 Living Men Taken Out.

LENS, France, Sept. 3.—(Can. Press).—Thirty-seven coal miners are believed to have been killed by an explosion of firedamp this afternoon in the Clarence coal mine, near Bruay, in the Department of Nord.

The explosion was a severe one and badly wrecked the mine. Seventy-three men were working in the pit at the time. The work of rescue was started without delay, but it proved most difficult, as the passages of the mine were filled with a dense black vapor and the walls were continuously collapsing.

Up to Nightfall
Up to nightfall the rescuers had taken out three dead-bodies and 23 living miners. All those rescued alive were fearfully burned. Only ten miners, who were working near the mouth of the shaft, escaped uninjured.

Their Doom Sealed.
Crowds of relatives of the men crowded are pressing about the gates of the colliery, hoping against hope that they will be rescued unharmed. Although the rescuers have not relinquished their task of getting into the mine, the farther they penetrate it the more choked up they find the passages, showing that the explosion was a terrible one. The entrapped men were working in a remote part of the pit and officials of the mine believe that it will be impossible to save any of them.

NO BALLOT FOR WOMEN OF OHIO
Strong Opposition to Extension of Franchise Shown—Important Amendments Carried

COLUMBUS, Sept. 3.—(Can. Press).—The women of Ohio failed today in their efforts to gain the ballot, according to indications of the early returns tonight. While the earliest figures on which this result is based came almost entirely from the larger cities of the state, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Columbus, Toledo and Dayton, it was in those places where the suffragists waged their most determined fights and politicians said the result would not be changed by the final results.

DIED ON WAY TO HOSPITAL

Adam Stein of Waterloo Was Seized With Apoplexy and Died in Ambulance.

While leaving the Exhibition Grounds last night, and just as he was about to board a car which would take him to the Union Station, Adam Stein, proprietor of the City Hotel of Waterloo, was suddenly stricken with apoplexy. A police ambulance was hurried along and he, in company with his daughter, Mrs. Scribner of 27 Mansion street, Waterloo, were taken to the Western Hospital. When the ambulance arrived at the hospital, Mr. Stein was dead.

W. R. Newell Was Dismissed From Moody Church, Chicago On Charges of Misconduct

Revivalist Who is Now Holding Meetings in Toronto Was Found Culpable in Three Counts by an Investigating Committee of Eighteen Office-Bearers Who Gave Three Verdicts Against the Eminent Theologian.

Why are Toronto church doors now bolted against W. R. Newell? That is a question which has become a live one within the past few weeks. Several years ago this Chicago evangelist held weekly Bible meetings in Massey Hall, and was regarded as a second Moody. This spring a warning was given to Canadian church trustees to refuse the use of their churches to Mr. Newell, or as he was first called on visits to Toronto, "Prof." Newell.

It transpired yesterday that the relationship of Mr. Newell with the big Moody Church and its five thousand members in Chicago had been severed as an act of discipline by that leading Chicago church, and that he was still considered to be under the finding of the committee which passed on his case.

The agitation among a few of Mr. Newell's adherents increased until it threatened to divide the church. The matter was then referred to the elders for investigation. The great majority of your committee knew Mr. Newell well and loved him.

After several attempts had been made to induce Mr. Newell to meet the brethren in regard to these charges the elders held a hearing and listened to the testimony of R. A. Torrey, our former pastor, now an elder of the church; Norman H. Camp, the evangelist; O. M. Temple, pastor at Parkersville, Wisconsin; and Marcus A. Scott, pastor at Detroit, Mich. All of these men were intimate friends of Mr. Newell and expressed strongly their desire to help him. Their testimony was given with great reluctance, after every effort to restore Mr. Newell had failed, in hope that this would lead him to repentance and confession.

TAFT'S GRIP ON VERMONT SHAKEN

PROGRESSIVE PARTY SHOWS POWER

The returns from the Vermont elections, the incomplete, indicate a remarkable uprising of the people in response to the three days' stumping tour thru the Green Mountain State by Theodore Roosevelt.

For the first time in the history of the state the Republican party has failed to elect its candidate for governor in a presidential year. True, the Republican plurality at the state election would seem to ensure the electoral vote of the state for a reduced majority.

ENGLISH CADETS RUSH TO THE EXHIBITION AT WAREHOUSE

Even the "Coney Island" Boys From Eton and Winchester Colleges Air Their "Superiority" and Are Rendered Homeless by the Frolicsome Cadet Brigade Who Resented Their Conduct.

There was a merry little battle in the Imperial cadets camp at 11.30 Monday night, when 15 boys from Eton and Winchester Colleges, England, who comprise the English team runners, were hazed. This corps arrived in camp on Sunday from Ottawa, where they were the guests of the government at the D.R.A. meeting.

At several of the public were relieved of their boots in a rapid manner by the waiters. In many cases twenty-five cent pieces were tendered for two "hot dogs."

Colony Farm, Mt. Coquitlam, B.C., has a great show of Clydesdales, Shires, hackneys and ponies. They occupy more than one full barn. This stable has been very fortunate in the matter of prizes; in fact nearly every animal shown has had a prize ribbon placed on it.

Trade With Empire. "I would like to give you a few figures with reference to the trade of Australia with the British Empire. It stands in this way: Seventy-five per cent of everything we buy outside of Australia is bought in the world-wide empire from the rest of the world—only 25 per cent. We do not ask the empire to buy from us at that rate, because some countries buy 14 per cent more in proportion than they sell to us 25 per cent."

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 3.—(Can. Press.)—Lieut. Herbert G. His acquittal was due in a large part to his own testimony.

ONTARIO GOVT'S AGRICULTURE EXHIBIT A STRIKING DISPLAY

Is Situated Beneath Dome of New Government Building and Represents Highest Achievements of 200 Farming Societies of the Province—Grain Samples, Standing Crops, Vegetables, Roots of All Kinds Are of Highest Quality Ever Shown in Canada.

Occupying almost the entire central section of the new government building at the Exhibition is the wonderful and varied exhibit of agricultural products of the Province of Ontario. This comprises exhibits from the department of agriculture, the technical college at Guelph, the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph, the great lighting dome is set up a huge octagonal pyramid about forty feet in height and with a base of 35 feet diameter, about which are arranged striking displays of fruits, grains and vegetables. The whole is crowned with a great shaft of ripe wheat, eight feet in diameter. Glass globes displaying the quality of the various descriptions of grain are arranged upon the tiers of this pyramid together with alluring stalks and sheaves of grain. The sides of the pyramid are dressed with samples of fruits, roots, vegetables and flowers. All of these exhibits are entered as contestants in the prize competition and represent the highest achievement of 200 agricultural societies covering the entire province. The five highest awards in each local field competition were alone allowed to enter in this great competition at the fair.

Shown upon the pyramid there is also a quantity of vegetables entered by the Ontario Vegetable Growers' Association. Vegetables and roots of every description are here shown at their best. The arrangement of the exhibit is most striking and impressive. In charge of Mr. Law and Messrs. Lee and Messrs. Ill. These gentlemen are assisted by a staff of assistants, while explaining the advantages of the various products shown. Paul Arbenz of Waterloo is in charge of the company, and Mr. W. J. Molino, Ill. were occupied by this exhibit.

Upon the adjacent sections of an octagonal stand and reflected from mirrors artfully arranged in the centre and surrounded by a tasteful decoration of palms and ferns, are shown the fruit division of the department of agriculture. This big stand is 28 feet in diameter and holds a wonderful display of boxes of fruit, apples, peaches and plums. Essex County occupies the adjacent stall and here is shown a display of seed corn for ensilage purposes. Essex has a reputation for this product and supplies much of Eastern Ontario with a splendid quality of seed corn. There are also peaches from this county of good size and color. An interesting feature of this booth is a sample of the tobacco grown in Essex with the living plants growing in jars. The whole is surmounted with a three-foot cob of corn variegated in wood.

In looking over the exhibit one is struck with the great variety shown

Twice yesterday did Heloise, V. H. Gooden's hydroplane win over the American invader, Reliance IV. The two races were held at the Exhibition. Heloise made the best of it in the first race, winning second place in a series of three. The local aquaplane made the best of it in the second race, and the Reliance boat made the best of it in the third. Heloise's record was 36 miles an hour, and the Reliance boat made the best of it in the third race, winning first place in a series of three.

Class B Results. A little less exciting was the race between the Class B boats, which a couple of years ago would have been considered very fast. Heloise's boat was disqualified. The other boats in the race were: Reliance IV, 34.12; Heloise, 33.12; Reliance IV, 33.12; Heloise, 33.12.

LEAFS DROP DOUBLE-HEADER HUSTLERS ONLY THREE BEHIND

Lush Blows Up in Eighth Innings of First Game—The Second is an Utter Rout—Play in Buffalo Today.

ROCHESTER, Sept. 3.—The champions put new life into the pennant race today by trimming the league leaders, Joe Kelly's Leafs, in both games of a double-header, 6 to 2 and 9 to 2. Both Hughes and Keefe pitched sterling ball and received glib-edged support, while the champions hit every hurler Kelley produced.

The champions are now three games behind the leaders and expect to cut down the lead before the week is out. In the first game after having departed seven innings, the Leafs' batting department went up in the air in the eighth inning, and before the Hustlers were retired five runs had come in. Lush gave way to Drucke, who was so wild he hit two men, and he in turn was followed by Mueller.

Rochester scored one in the sixth, when Blair walked, Hughes bunted, and Lush threw a sign to Jordan, both runners being safe. Blaine bunted to Lush, who threw to third too late to get Blair. Martin got by Drucke on a hit, Rochester's first safe. Drucke then pitched to Mueller, scoring the first run of the game. Lush pitched to Mueller.

The second game was one-sided, the Leafs winning by 9 to 2. In the first inning after having departed seven innings, the Leafs' batting department went up in the air in the eighth inning, and before the Hustlers were retired five runs had come in. Lush gave way to Drucke, who was so wild he hit two men, and he in turn was followed by Mueller.

WHEATON, Ill., Sept. 3.—H. H. Hilton of England, golf champion of the U. S., was defeated 2 up and 1 to play in the first round of the U. S. Open Golf Championship by Walter H. Sargent of Chicago.

The first half of the round match play had Hilton one down at the turn and five holes to go. Hilton, the former British champion was off his game and lost all the way. Hilton fought gallantly for his title and left the links almost in tears.

Friends and strangers crowded around Hilton with praises and congratulations. Hilton, after shaking Sargent's hand, dolefully tried his last put over and walked away. Hilton says his defeat to the excessive heat.

A Lesson in a Candlestick

Shakespeare says "There are sermons in stones, and good in everything," which means that common, everyday objects may furnish us with priceless lessons.

Look at a Candlestick, and consider that the first Gasman died a pauper because people were prejudiced against his invention. To-day it is different. This is the age of "The open mind."

THE DAVIS' "NOBLEMEN" CIGAR

proves it. With many smokers, the "NOBLEMEN" cigar has superseded "imported" brands, because it is the same thing at half the price. "NOBLEMEN" is a discovery which saves the "open-minded" smoker 50 per cent.

"NOBLEMEN" is made from Havana tobacco, and made by Cuban workmen.

"NOBLEMEN" size, 2-for-a-quarter, "FANTELAS" size, 10c straight, "CONCHA FINA" size, 3 for 25c.

TORONTO C.C. BY 135 RUNS DEFEAT WINNIPEG WANDERERS

Henderson, Hynes and Davidson Bat Best for Winners and Cave for the Visitors —Fine Fielding by Toronto.

Yesterday Toronto by 135 runs secured the championship of Canada and retained possession of the John Ross Robertson cup, the challengers being the Winnipeg Wanderers. Had fielding in Toronto's second innings destroyed whatever chance the visitors had of lifting the cup—a prospect rendered possible by the breakdown of Toronto's batting against the exceptional bowling of Vidal and Price.

Having a lead of 98 runs and 9 wickets to fall, Toronto continued their second innings at 12. Davidson, not out 20, and Beemer, not out 6, in oppressive weather, and a bad leg, Beemer pulled Vidal round to leg for 4, and at 45 the right-arm bowler got Davidson in two minds and he was clean bowled. Captain Lowmber joined Beemer and opened his account by driving Vidal along the carpet for 2, but at 49 he was cleverly taken at the wicket by Broadfoot of the same side, and Winnipeg had got rid of Toronto's leading batsman very cheaply.

Heighington came in and Beemer, with a single, sent 50 up, the second innings having then been in progress 49 minutes. The newcomer made a wild stroke at a good length ball from Vidal and was bowled. Henderson, partner Beemer, but with the score unaltered, the last named was out to a beauty from Price, and Seagram arrived.

The rapid fall of Toronto's wickets altered the complexion of the game and the visitors' bowling and fielding reached a high standard. The light was very bad and the delivery of Price and Vidal necessitated careful watching. Another wicket should have fallen at 52. Seagram presenting Flint with an easy chance, Vidal being the sufferer. Henderson pulled Price finely to leg for 4, all run, and Seagram sent 50 up with a clever pull from a full toss from Vidal. The left-hander pulled Price round to leg for 3, and the two batsmen gave a fine exhibition of running between the wickets for singles. At 75 the prolonged stand brought on Dr. Smith vice Price and the change proved effective. Seagram being out to a splendid ball which broke a little from the leg. The sixth wicket had put on 25 runs and Winnipeg paid dearly for Flint's mistake.

Hynes joined Henderson and pulled a full toss from Vidal to the off boundary, sending up 80 after an hour's play. At 89 Captain Smith made a fine attempt to take a running catch offered by Hynes, but he barely touched it with one hand. Two runs later Price crossed over to the Varsity end, and since the advent of Hynes brighter cricket was witnessed. He placed the fast bowler prettily to leg for a brace, and a leg-bye caused the hoisting of the century at 121. Henderson was well set and with a fine drive for 4 hours in his individual scope up to 22, and at 103 Captain Smith took up the attack at the north end. Hynes cut the new bowler thru the elbow for a couple, and Henderson scored a similar number off his opening over. The left-hander pulled a short-pitched ball from Price to the boundary twice in one over, making his score 23. He failed to get proper hold of the next ball and was caught by Laver, fielding close in at point. Henderson's 33 included four fours, one three and four twos, and he had assisted to take the score from 51 to 123. After playing himself in he played with great skill in choosing the proper balls to hit. His runs were made at a time when Toronto's wicket-makers were failing fast and the visitors, encouraged with success, were bowling their best. Henderson had, in common with the rest of the batsmen, to contend with a bad light, and he inspired confidence in the remaining players. He was loudly applauded on his retirement and McCaffrey came in Vidal resumed bowling at the north end in place of Captain Smith, but runs came freely. Hynes playing a great game, the complexion of the game had taken a decided turn in Toronto's favor again and Winnipeg's fielding deteriorated. Hynes and McCaffrey kept the fielders busy and runs from overthrows were frequent. The score was 142 when Hynes attempted to drive Price, missed the ball, and was martyred by Broadfoot. The retiring batsman had assisted in taking the score from 78 to 142, and his fine innings of 21 included a four an delight twice. While Hynes was at the wicket the cricket was never dull and he received an ovation as he retired. Rathbun was the newcomer, and at 146 Flint was introduced in the attack. The change was successful, McCaffrey being caught off his first ball by Dr. Smith at cover point, and J. Wright joined Rathbun. The newcomer was missed at the wicket off Price, the score being 153, and he showed his appreciation by drawing the left-hander for a brace. Flint finished off the innings, J. J. Wright presenting him with an easy return, and the innings closed for 155, a score which represented two hours and a half actual batting, making Toronto's lead 220 on the match.

Winnipeg's Second Innings.

Requiring 221 runs to win, Winnipeg commenced batting after lunch at 2.10, the opening pair being Broadfoot and Cave, and the bowlers Beemer and Rathbun. Runs came slowly, the bowling and fielding of the home team admitting of no liberties being taken. Ten overs produced eight runs and five maidens, and with the score 8, Seagram relieved Beemer. Cave sent 10 up with a two off the fast bowler and one run later Henderson opened his account by pulling Beemer. The batsmen were taking no risks, and the play was very keen. Cave put one up dangerously near Rathbun at mid-on, Henderson being the bowler. With a splendid drive to the boundary Cave sent the 20 up after 50 minutes' batting. Seagram's first four overs were maidens, and Captain Lowmber changed his bowling talent frequently. At 27 Lowmber relieved Seagram, who had sent down six overs for four maidens and two runs. Winnipeg's batsmen left the off-balls severely alone, having evidently profited by experience. Broadfoot drove Henderson to the off for two but he falls due properly get hold of the next ball and was caught in the long field. Broadfoot had played capital cricket for 1 1/2 runs, and Crichton joined Cave.

Cave's Fine Innings.

Rathbun resumed the attack vice Lowmber, and with the score 42, the latter brought off a splendid running catch and Crichton retired. Dr. Smith came in and the score was increased to 46 when the fourth bowling change was made. Hynes relieving Rathbun. Cave sent the 50 up after the innings had lasted an hour and thirty-five minutes, and immediately after gave an easy catch to Beemer which was not accepted. Cave was 24 at the time and the bowler Hynes. The mistake did not prove costly, for at 52 Cave's fine innings was brought to a close, a ball from Hynes whipping across and disturbing his wickets. Cave's 25 included one four, one three and four twos, and was the result of an hour and forty minutes' batting. Dr. Williams joined his medical confrere and Rathbun went on for Henderson, who had taken two wickets for 31 runs. Dr. Williams opened his account by pulling Hynes to the leg for four, following with a couple. At 62 Dr. Smith was easily caught by McCaffrey from a tame stroke, and Vidal partnered Dr. Williams. The first innings' arrears had now been rubbed off at a cost of four wickets, but the total was only 71 when the doctor returned a ball tamely to Rathbun. Laver joined Vidal and Beemer bowled in place of Hynes. Two runs were added when Laver was brilliantly caught at third slip by Beemer, who secured the ball with one hand and fell in making the catch. A dangerous man was thus got rid of cheaply, and Price came in. A single was added when Vidal was well caught by J. J. Wright at fourth man and while the first wicket had put on 37 runs, six more wickets fell in doubling the score. Marshall was the ninth man, but he was out first ball to "Jack" Yorker, from Beemer, and Captain Smith, joined Price, thus providing two left-handed batsmen to face the attack. Four byes were added when Captain Smith was clean bowled by Beemer and Clint whipped in. He dispatched Beemer to the leg for four, but in attempting to repeat the stroke he was well caught by Heighington, and the innings which had opened so well closed for 85, leaving Toronto in possession of the John Ross Robertson cup for another year.

TEUTONIC HOLDS 2 NEW RECORDS

From Liverpool Bar to Father Point and From Quebec to Montreal.

Two new records were made by White Star liner Teutonic on the trip which ended at 5 p.m. on Saturday. It is claimed that her run of 6 days, 1 hour, 40 minutes from Liverpool Bar to Father Point is a record from the Morse to Canadian waters, while the run from Quebec to Montreal, accomplished in 9 hours exactly, is 15 minutes better than the previous record, which was held by C. N. R. liner Royal George. Teutonic has also made a very fast run from Quebec to Liverpool this season of 6 days and 15 minutes, but as to whether this constitutes a record there seems to be considerable difference of opinion. Teutonic left Quebec at 8 a.m. on Saturday and arrived at her berth at Montreal by 5 p.m. precisely.

IRREGULAR TONE IN LONDON MARKET

LONDON, Sept. 3.—Money rates were harder and discounts were steady today. The stock market issued an irregular and unprofitable day. A recent speculative favorite, Under-ground rails and rubber and mining shares were the most affected.

POLITICAL FACTORS

Erickson Perkins and Co. (J. G. Beatty) wired: With public interest in stock trading at an extremely low level and backed by the continuous stream of political literature flooding the daily press, professional operators took courage of their convictions today and succeeded in making a profit on the leading issues, both rail and industrial, nearly 2 points.

MONEY IS FIRMER

Charles Head and Co. to J. E. Osborne: The market developed weakness today, with aggressive selling by the bear party, which made the most of their earlier gains. There is a lack of support on the part of the large interests, which tended to make trading pessimistic. Steel was the target, but other leading issues were also actively sold.
