NOT SO WARLIKE THIS MORNING

And Yet There is a Feeling of Uneasiness in Diplomatic Circles.

FINANCIAL MEN DO NOT EXPECT A FIGHT

London Bankers Say It Will be Nothing More Than a Newspaper War-The French Yellow Book on Fashoda Has Not Marchand's Report-Salsbury and De Courcel Are Playing the Diplomatic Game.

ADDITIONAL WAR NEWS ON PAGE 7. The Fashoda war cloud has lifted a little during the past 24 hours, but still the diplomats are uneasy. However, the financial circles of London and Paris are taking the situation coolly...

ONLY A NEWSPAPER WAR

Yet There is an Uneasy Feeling in Diplomatic Circles-Bankers Are Not Yet Alarmed. New York, Oct. 23.-The London correspondent of The Tribune in cabling to his paper today reviews at length the Fashoda affair and the probability of war between Great Britain and France...

THE FRENCH YELLOW BOOK

Does Not Include Marchand's Report-France Claims to Have a Right at Fashoda. Paris, Oct. 23.-A semi-official note issued this evening says: "There is no foundation for the alarmist rumors regarding the relations between France and Great Britain..."

TRAFALGAR DAY

Yesterday was Trafalgar Day. The Nelson column was splendidly decorated and surrounded with patriotic crowds from the head lines of the newspapers hawked in the streets...

GAME OF NEWSPAPER BATTLE

Singularly enough, the same opinion is held in the newspaper offices. Scarcely as the headlines may be, and portentous as the leaders invariably are, I do not know any London editor who believes that there will be war over Fashoda...

MARCHAND GOT THERE FIRST

Judging from the yellow book despatches, the foregoing represents the French standpoint. M. Delcasse considers that as Marchand reached Fashoda first, England had no right to demand an evacuation of Fashoda prior to negotiations...

NO ROOM FOR DISCUSSION

Current diplomatic opinion in London may be summarized as follows: England cannot allow France to occupy Fashoda, or even discuss the question as one open to negotiation. This contention cannot be abandoned whether the Sudan is Egyptian by previous conquest or British and Egyptian by reconquest and actual possession.

ROSSLAND SHIPMENTS.

Considerably More Than Twice as Many Tons Went Out Last Week as Same Week Last Year. Rossland, B.C., Oct. 23.-[Special.]-Orders for the week were: Le Roi, 2700 tons; War Eagle, 1083; Iron Mask, 70. The cross-cut which is being run from a point in the west drift in Sunset, 200 feet from the main shaft to the top of the Discovery vein, at a depth of 500 feet, is now in 100 feet. It is expected the vein will be struck the end of next month.

THE OLD MISTAKE.

Gordon Atkinson Was Playing With a Revolver and Now Has a Broken Jaw. Gordon Atkinson, the 16-year-old son of J. L. Atkinson of 121 Borden-street, met with a painful accident yesterday afternoon. It was another case of playing with a revolver and not knowing the chambers were loaded. The lad and two companions, Reggie McKinnon and Charlie De Geer, were out at the back of Wells' Hill, when a revolver was produced by young Atkinson, who wanted to show his friends how it worked. There were two empty chambers in it, and he thought, when he pulled the hammer back and let it go, that it was over one of these, but no, it was the old mistake, and the boy shot himself in the upper part of his mouth, the ball entering just under the nose and coming out of the right cheek, breaking his upper jaw and carrying away some of his teeth. Dr. F. C. Hood of 710 Spadina-avenue, who was near at hand at the time, dressed the wound and the boy was taken to his home by County Constable Tomkinson. When his father was seen last night by The World, he said that the results would not be serious.

FEASTIVE DAYS IN FURS AT DINEEN'S.

Rain spoiled a pleasure to many ladies last Friday and Saturday-the anniversary opening days at Dineen's, and prevented the usual large attendance which graces Dineen's on such occasions. But the festive displays of new fur fashions and new styles in hats and the festive air of a special celebration are preserved in full radiance with rich attractions in every department of the new store. And they are grand enough to interest visitors all through this week. Dineen's have inaugurated the new season with the lowest cash prices ever offered to cash buyers.

SEVERAL LUCKY CANADIANS

Returned From the Klondike Country With Nuggets and Dust. Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 23.-[Special.]-The steamer Rosalie H. has arrived from the north with 200 passengers, bringing a quarter of a million in gold dust. There was scarcely a passenger on board who had not some dust in his possession. The most lucky ones were Canadians-Capt. Garland, Messrs. Warburton, Tracey, Barker, Hibbert, Cross and Bowker. Two of these gentlemen had 100 pounds of gold nuggets and dust between them. They said that they had walked over ground in the Klondike, including Eldorado, Hunker, Dominion, Sulphur and Bear, that could not be panned dry in five years. News not yet published was from Stewart River. Two new creeks were struck, of great richness, Bruin Creek and Crozier Creek. The passengers named claim to have seen $300 taken from a strike on the former by two men in sixteen days in bar work. Stewart River is very rich. Colors were found everywhere and men are making in many places $21 to the pan. Mr. Warburton spoke of Hunker, in the Klondike as now the richest creek. He said shovels of dirt from this creek pan out $10. Seven members of the Dominion of Canada survey party, sent to survey the Stewart river, had covered 200 of the 500 miles of river. They report that prospectors are thick enough, but don't know their business, and have gone over ground with a curse that afterwards panned out very rich. The steamer J. C. Barr was placed by and will be succeeded to streets by this winter. Dysentery is raging with terrible fatal results in Dawson at present.

SHOT BY BURGLARS.

Tweed Butcher in Critical Condition Resulting From an Encounter With Suggested Tramps. Tweed, Ont., Oct. 23.-Mr. Robert Perry of this place was shot yesterday evening. He was about to close up his butcher shop when two men stepped up to him and told him to throw up his hands and demanded his money. He struck the one nearest to him and knocked him down, and the other shot a revolver at him, the ball entering the lower jaw close to the neck. The men escaped, and are supposed to be tramps. He boarded a freight train going west, which was in at the time. One of the men has been arrested at Peterboro. The ball has not been extracted as yet, and Mr. Perry is in a very critical condition.

CAUGHT AT PETERBORO.

Peterboro, Oct. 23.-[Special.]-James McFee, alias Harry, was arrested here today at the request of the Tweed authorities, where he is wanted for shooting a man named Perry. When arrested a revolver was found on him, one chamber of which was empty.

ARMED TO THE TEETH.

Copper River Clean-Up. Victoria, B. C., Oct. 23.-[Special.]-The City of Seattle arrived with nearly 300 miners from Klondike and Copper River. Ten members of the Great Government exploration party have reached the coast from Copper River. The Copper River clean-up amounts to $50,000.

IS THE ROMEO HALL LOST?

Gothenburg, Sweden, Oct. 23.-Considerable anxiety is felt in shipping circles here as to the safety of the steamer Romeo Hall. The vessel, which is now three days overdue, has on board a number of Americans and carries a cargo of American horses.

CALM BEFORE STORM.

The Internal Affairs of France are Giving Pessimists Anxiety.

THE REPUBLIC DIVIDED AGAINST ITSELF

Revision of the Dreyfus Case Causing Vituperation-Struggle for Supremacy May Strike at the Very Foundation of the Republican Form of Government-Trouble Feared on Tuesday.

Paris, Oct. 23.-The absolute calm of the past week is thought by pessimists to be that which precedes the storm. On Tuesday parliament will meet under circumstances, which, for more than a generation, are without a parallel. France is avowedly divided against herself by the violence and vituperation of both the opponents and the partisans of revision-for when Frenchmen quarrel among themselves they show no mercy-measured with a conflict for supremacy of the civil and military authorities, which may strike at the very existence of the republican form of government; confronted with the possibility of war with England over about half an acre of malarial African swamp; exasperated by professional patriots, nationalists, revolutionists, socialists and reactionary leaders, popularity hunters and free-lance journalists. Add to this the volatile Parisian population, largely composed of hot-headed students just back from holidays and youthful livers from the slums and exterior boulevards, all keenly eager to create a "journé historique," and you have the stage-setting in which are to be enacted the two great events so much dreaded by timid observers-the assembling of the Chamber on Tuesday and the opening of the Dreyfus revision by the Court of Cassation on Thursday.

ROYALISTS ARE ACTIVE.

Meanwhile, Royalists like Louis Desmoulin encourage street demonstrations and declare that the "Republic having at least destroyed every other form of authority, the ground is now prepared for the advent of Judge Lynch, who will certainly put in his appearance in Paris on Tuesday. "Moderate and well-balanced papers, like The Figaro, The Temps, The Debats, The Matin, The Soleil, and even M. Millerand's Socialist Beppe, call imperatively upon all good citizens to hold aloof from public manifestations of every kind.

WHAT ABOUT THE CABINET?

What will become of the Brisson Cabinet when the Chamber meets is the question on everyone's lips. Its downfall is predicted from almost all quarters, but in parliamentary circles the belief is gaining ground that as Fashoda looms up as an ever-increasing danger, and as the feeling of the country is absolutely opposed to going to war for it, the Opposition will insist that the Brisson Cabinet shall be compelled to bear the prohibition of yielding to Lord Salisbury's demands, and will not permit the resignation until a satisfactory arrangement with England is concluded. In other words, just as Sagasta's adversaries in the Cortes will not permit him to withdraw until he has drained his cup to the dregs by signing the treaty of peace with the United States, so Brisson's opponents in the Chamber will not allow him to resign until he has disposed of the Fashoda nightmare as best he can. Consequently Fashoda is the "crux" of the situation, whether regarded from the point of view of home or of foreign politics. Notwithstanding the widespread opposition to them, some of the supporters of the Brisson Cabinet express confidence that they will be able to weather the storm by refusing to discuss the Fashoda question in the Chamber and by boldly taking issue on M. Cavaignac's interpretation, in which the Minister of War declares his intention of moving from the Court of Cassation and be intrusted to a court martial, but the drift of opinion is that as soon as the Brisson Ministry shall have been compelled to humiliate itself by making a satisfactory arrangement about Fashoda its days are numbered.

ARCHBISHOP O'BRIEN SPEAKS.

His Grace of Halifax Says to Come to Toronto Would be a Backward Step For Him. Halifax, N.S., Oct. 23.-The World's despatch published here concerning Archbishop O'Brien's reported transfer to Toronto created immense interest and was the subject of conversation. You correspondents saw His Grace at the transfer and was informed that the Archbishop said it would be a step backwards for him, as Halifax was the older see of the two, and he had but two in his jurisdiction. The Archbishop did not believe there was any foundation for the report. He thought it was only a newspaper story, and the person who furnished it clearly did not understand the case. "The successor to Archbishop Walsh will probably be selected in the usual way," said His Grace. "The two bishops will send three names to Rome, and the first name or one of the three will be appointed. New York and Baltimore are a parallel case. New York has the largest Catholic population, but Baltimore is considered to be the more important see by the church."

PEACE JUBILEE BEGINS.

Opened With Special Services of Prayer and Thanksgiving. Philadelphia, Oct. 23.-The Peace Jubilee began today. It fittingly opened with special services of prayer and thanksgiving in all the churches of the city. Sermons were preached on the horrors of the war and the blessings of victorious peace, and there were services of song and worship on these themes. This was the spiritual inauguration, the material and spectacular beginning will not be until Tuesday.

BELLEVEILLE NOTES.

Belleveille, Ont., Oct. 23.-James Scott, a sneak thief, was today sent up for two months. Alva Spencer has been committed for trial on the charge of appropriating cattle. Bull in 220 was accepted. In a trap shooting contest yesterday afternoon at Massena Park the Wolman's Corners Club defeated Striding and the Quinte Gun Club of Belleveille. The match was for the district championship.

As Mr. DeBlow's, the President of the London Times, "Never before has there been such a state of fever as is in Great Britain nor so great a public feeling over a matter which is so trivial."

Only in Making a Distinct Suit for Both Jones and Brown can the peculiarities in form and shape of each be brought out.

If one is not particular how one's clothes hang on one's self the coat made to certain measurements may satisfy one. But most men like to know they are wearing clothes made for themselves, not for another—that the measurements are from their own form, not some dummy Indian or automaton who has been allowed to stand for a class and that they have been counted in that class.

WORLD HEADLINE NEWS

Never Since the Beginning of the Disputes Has the Situation Been So Critical.

BRITAIN IS IN THE SOUDAN TO STAY

Salisbury Gives Baron de Courcel to Understand What He Means—Punch's Cartoon Shows the Popular Feeling in England—France is Putting Her Navy in Shape and Britain is Manning Her Warships.

London, Oct. 22.—Never since Great Britain and France began to dispute over Egypt, nor during the most acute stage of the Nile differences between those two countries, has the situation looked so ominous as to-day.

In spite of the grove expressed in the sober journals of both countries that the matter would be amicably arranged, it is a fact that the French naval and military authorities are making feverish preparations for war, and though calm reigns at the British dockyards at Portsmouth, Chatham and Devonport, it is only the calm of preparedness, and significant orders have been arriving there from the Admiralty indicating the belief that Great Britain and France are on the brink of war.

Both Ready for War. The London Times, writing correspondent of the London Times, writes to-day: "Never before has there been witnessed such a state of fever as is now prevailing in Great Britain nor so great an exaltation of public feeling over a matter of foreign policy, while on her side France is promptly and rapidly, without looking forward or backward, preparing to fight any power provoking her."

The French statesman, however, still cling to the hope that the Marquis of Salisbury will offer some exchange which will ensure to retire from Fasoda with out apparent sacrifice of dignity.

"This hope is based on a conversation between Lord Salisbury and Baron de Courcel (the French Ambassador at London), which figures in a most important despatch in the yellow book which the French Government will issue to-morrow."

What France Wants. It is learned by the Associated Press that Baron de Courcel in this despatch says he has asked him what were the desires of France in the Sudan.

To which the Baron replied that France wished for an outlet on the Upper Nile. Lord Salisbury then responded that he could not promise anything and must consult with his cabinet.

How Punch Hits It Off. Punch hits off the position in this matter in a cartoon illustrating John Bull outside his door-step. The organ is labelled "Fasoda" and a monkey in French uniform is sitting on the organ.

French Naval Preparations. The French naval preparations were at first declared to be mere routine arrangements, but they are now admittedly directed against Great Britain.

British Self-Confidence. On the British side, the absolute self-confidence is displayed. "Every thing ready," is the burden of all the statements from naval quarters.

WORLD HEADLINE NEWS

Never Since the Beginning of the Disputes Has the Situation Been So Critical.

BRITAIN IS IN THE SOUDAN TO STAY

Salisbury Gives Baron de Courcel to Understand What He Means—Punch's Cartoon Shows the Popular Feeling in England—France is Putting Her Navy in Shape and Britain is Manning Her Warships.

London, Oct. 22.—Never since Great Britain and France began to dispute over Egypt, nor during the most acute stage of the Nile differences between those two countries, has the situation looked so ominous as to-day.

In spite of the grove expressed in the sober journals of both countries that the matter would be amicably arranged, it is a fact that the French naval and military authorities are making feverish preparations for war, and though calm reigns at the British dockyards at Portsmouth, Chatham and Devonport, it is only the calm of preparedness, and significant orders have been arriving there from the Admiralty indicating the belief that Great Britain and France are on the brink of war.

Both Ready for War. The London Times, writing correspondent of the London Times, writes to-day: "Never before has there been witnessed such a state of fever as is now prevailing in Great Britain nor so great an exaltation of public feeling over a matter of foreign policy, while on her side France is promptly and rapidly, without looking forward or backward, preparing to fight any power provoking her."

The French statesman, however, still cling to the hope that the Marquis of Salisbury will offer some exchange which will ensure to retire from Fasoda with out apparent sacrifice of dignity.

"This hope is based on a conversation between Lord Salisbury and Baron de Courcel (the French Ambassador at London), which figures in a most important despatch in the yellow book which the French Government will issue to-morrow."

What France Wants. It is learned by the Associated Press that Baron de Courcel in this despatch says he has asked him what were the desires of France in the Sudan.

To which the Baron replied that France wished for an outlet on the Upper Nile. Lord Salisbury then responded that he could not promise anything and must consult with his cabinet.

How Punch Hits It Off. Punch hits off the position in this matter in a cartoon illustrating John Bull outside his door-step. The organ is labelled "Fasoda" and a monkey in French uniform is sitting on the organ.

French Naval Preparations. The French naval preparations were at first declared to be mere routine arrangements, but they are now admittedly directed against Great Britain.

British Self-Confidence. On the British side, the absolute self-confidence is displayed. "Every thing ready," is the burden of all the statements from naval quarters.

Storm on Lake Erie. Many boats encounter Saturday's fierce southwest gale.

A Chat About Millinery Matters.

"Nothing to equal it outside of New York or Chicago, and even there few stores, if any, devote so much space or carry such a well-assorted stock," is the way one competent critic, who is in a position to know, expressed it when speaking of our Millinery Department.

The remarkable growth of our Millinery trade has been a big surprise to ourselves. It is proof positive that we know the Millinery business thoroughly, and that the experts in charge know how to buy, what to buy, and where to buy. They visit the world's foremost markets in search of the choicest novelties and styles, and there select the goods we want and you want.

THE TORONTO WORLD ONE-CENT MORNING PAPER.

A GREAT GERMANIC ALLIANCE. We do not profess to have any special knowledge as to the political situation in Europe, but we would not be surprised if a new departure came out of the visit of the Kaiser to Germany, to the Holy Land.

The despatches of yesterday state that it was the intention of the Sultan to present the Kaiser with an island and with other substantial territorial tokens of esteem. We would not be surprised if Germany acquired considerable territory and commercial concessions in some part of Asia Minor, and that all of a sudden the Kaiser should declare that thereafter he intended to be considered in everything that concerned the Mediterranean and the countries adjoining it, and that with this declaration would go an intimation to Russia that Germany intended to have more than a say and more than a share in the partition of the Turkish Empire, whenever that event arrives.

Should Germany take this position and prepare the way for her becoming one of the heirs to the Sultan, Russia would have all she could do in looking after Germany, and would have to give England a wide berth for the time being; and if we can read the signs of the times aright it is that England and Germany have now some understanding in regard to the East. For generations the Russians have been by policy, by diplomacy, by money, preparing the way for Constantinople and the most of Turkey in Europe forming a portion of the Czar's domains—probably with Constantinople as the capital of all the Russias. This is their religion by day and their dream by night.

Supposing now that the Kaiser and the German people with him sought an outlet for their superfluous trade and energy in the countries about the Mediterranean? The Germans have had the truth brought home to them that without colonies and without expansion they must be a power secondary to Great Britain, to Russia, to the United States. "Expansion" is the word in Britain, in Russia and is now the word used in the United States for going to the West Indies and into the Pacific. Germany, too, must expand, and we believe that the German is equal to the task of reconstructing the classic country around the Mediterranean. We believe that Germany could do this work better than any other of the powers, and if Germany once takes it up she will find a way through Austria or elsewhere of touching the great inland seas that lie south of Europe. But such a policy, on the part of Germany would be to disturb the dream, the fond hopes of Russia. The smart of the bear would be deep and bitter beyond calculation. But the bear might have to submit to it.

If, then, you are watching politics, watch Germany as she looks for a field of expansion, watch her movements in the East, watch her efforts to secure a railway connection through Turkish territory reaching toward India, watch her become of a sudden the more than bitter enemy of Russia, and the marplot of the fondest dreams of the Muscovite. If Russia must struggle with Germany for a piece in the Mediterranean, Russia will have no time to worry England in Asia. Nor will France be a menace in such circumstances.

Is it that Germany and England, with the United States at their back, are about to "expand" in a marvelous way, and that Russia and France are up against a combination that no man ever dreamed of two years ago?

MONTREAL'S NEW CHARTER. Out of the features which it is proposed to incorporate in the new charter for Montreal is the introduction of the "cabinet" system, whereby the city would be governed by a select number of aldermen, responsible to the council for the due administration of the city's business. This is analogous to the system which prevails in Toronto, our Board of Control representing the aldermanic cabinet. Such a system is undoubtedly an improvement upon that which now prevails in Montreal. The administration of the city, it seems, is in the hands of the various aldermanic committees, each with greater or less independent authority. We in Toronto know too well the defects of this system. Montreal can make no mistake in taking the executive out of the hands of these practical and extravagant committees. But now that it is about to take the bull by the horns and clean out the Augean stables we would advise our sister city to go one step further, to improve upon the Toronto system by having the business of the city done by a Board of Commissioners instead of by an aldermanic cabinet, or Board of Control. The men who run for aldermen are not the material out of which a first-class business administration can be secured. Men of business ability cannot afford to give the time that is necessary for the discharge of the duties they would assume as aldermen. Men with a sense of honor would shrink from the indignities it is necessary to undergo to secure election and to discharge their duties conscientiously at the Council Board. When a man falls in the contest he is eminently qualified to become an alderman, and if he can talk well and is good at intrigue he is eligible for the Board of Control. The Toronto system has failed to secure in the Board of Control any class of men as the responsible duties of the office call for. The system under which the board is constituted is primarily responsible for its failure to attract men of undoubted business ability. The members secure their election by wire-pulling and intrigue, and in deciding the business that comes before them from time to time their own advancement or their personal security as members of the board is frequently a greater factor in reaching a conclusion in any question than the merits of the question itself. A case in point will illustrate this: The Board of Control has had before it for more than a year the installation of elevators in the new city building. What with wire-pulling and intrigue the board has not been able to award the contract for this work, although tenders have been called for three or four times. The aldermen are continually being pulled this way and that way so that it is difficult to get them agreed at any particular time. They are not only not able to adopt the cheapest and best system, but they cannot agree on any system, good or bad.

If the decision as to these elevators has been left to a business man or to a Board of Directors, it would have been decided in a few days. The bungle that has been made in this case in Toronto illustrates very well the faults which underlie a Board of Control, constituted of aldermen who have to seek the suffrages of the people from year to year.

We are glad to see that some of Montreal's most influential citizens, who are cognizant of the defects of the Toronto system, are advocating the appointing of commissioners in lieu of the proposed cabinet of aldermen. Mr. R. Wilson-Smith, ex-mayor of the city, strongly advocates the appointment of commissioners, as against aldermen. In his paper, Insurance and Finance Chronicle, he thus expresses his views: "Three or more commissioners, to whom should be paid good salaries, could administer the business of Montreal to advantage, and, with the assistance of an advisory board consisting of the mayor, as chairman, and the heads of the various departments, would be able to make Montreal a model city. These commissioners being solely responsible to the taxpayers for the general management of the city, they would be able to make the city as the bank or insurance manager has in the institution he controls. Of course, the council in its legislative capacity would have supreme power; but the recommendations of the advisory board already referred to could only be defeated by a majority vote of two-thirds of the entire council. If the people of Montreal are wise they will appoint a Board of Commissioners elected by the taxpayers in preference to a Board of Control, nominated by aldermen. And we trust the day is not far distant when Toronto also will be enabled to change its system and have its executive in the hands of capable and efficient administrators."

SPAIN WANTS MORE TIME.

Endeavoring to Delay Peace Negotiations With Anglo-French Crisis Develops.

Paris, Oct. 23.—A correspondent cables: The Peace Commission proceedings have reached a serious deadlock. The American Commissioners now appear to be satisfied of what has been patent to outside observers for the last fortnight—that the Spaniards are adopting a deliberate policy of delay.

The Spaniards were definitely and decisively informed that the United States could assume no responsibility for the Cuban debt and they were invited in firm language to proceed to the consideration of a new alternative proposal. To-day's session was the longest the joint commission has yet had, but no progress whatever was made with its work. The reading of these futile memoranda occupied the majority of the day. The Spaniards evidently wish to prevent any definite step being taken until the Anglo-French crisis has been settled. The possibility of a new war would afford a chance for further delay in completing the treaty. They are pursuing on the contrary and generally of the American Commissioners, who have treated their dilatory tactics with unique consideration.

Snow in European Russia.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 23.—Snow has fallen throughout European Russia, except in the Caucasus and the Tauric Chersonese. The Volga has been partially suspended, but the Baltic ports are still open.

SWINDLERS FOILED.

Two Wealthy Englishmen Nearly Fall Into the Clutches of the "Gold Brick Man."

New York, Oct. 23.—Two wealthy Englishmen traveled across the ocean for the purpose of being swindled. The fact that they escaped was due to the keenness of the Detective Bureau, which, after a long search, discovered a $40,000 better off on this account, and Robert Roe, alias Morton, alias Martin, 52 years of age, a native of England, who had been a crook, is under arrest, charged with attempted grand larceny.

TRUE BILL IN LAMBERT CASE

The Ottawa Doctor Will Have to Stand Trial at the Assizes.

Other Cases Which Were Brought Before the Grand Jurors—Man Killed at Arnprior—An Explanation on Behalf of the Chief Justice.

Ottawa, Oct. 23.—At the Assizes to-day, the grand jury made its presentation, as follows:

Queen v. Emile Lambert, charged with indecent assault on Nellie Christopher—a true bill.

Queen v. Evan Stone, Robert Morin and Peter Saue, charged with stealing from the person of James Russell—true bills in each case.

Queen v. Austin Bowen, highway robbery, two indictments, and W. J. Mosely, conspiracy to rob—true bills.

The accused were arraigned and pleaded not guilty.

Man Killed at Arnprior.

A man named J. R. Brown was struck by the O.P. express when crossing the trestle, over the Madawaska River at Arnprior, on Monday last. Brown had been in Arnprior and had been drinking. He wanted to take a short bill for a few miles out, but missed it. He then started to walk, and got as far as the trestle, when the express struck him.

His body was recovered shortly after.

His Body Did Not Say It.

A few days ago a despatch was sent out from Quebec, and published in a number of newspapers, making certain charges against the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada. In effect, the charge was that the Chief Justice had taken offence during the argument of one of the appeals to the fact that one of the Quebec judges was incompetent and should be dismissed.

It is stated on good authority that no such remarks were made in that connection by Sir Henry Strong, and that the whole matter was a mere misunderstanding. One of the Quebec appeals, the Chief Justice called the attention of the latter to the conduct of one of the subordinate judges of the court, whereupon the Chief said that the man was to appear before the court, and that the Chief Justice was taking place, one of the judges sitting next to the Chief Justice called the attention of the latter to the conduct of one of the subordinate judges of the court, whereupon the Chief said that the man was to appear before the court, and that the Chief Justice was taking place, one of the judges sitting next to the Chief Justice called the attention of the latter to the conduct of one of the subordinate judges of the court, whereupon the Chief said that the man was to appear before the court, and that the Chief Justice was taking place, one of the
