LONDON, Aug. 9.—The peace of Europe is again threatened with disturbance and the Balkans are once more looming in the news of the day, with sensational reports of uprisings in various parts of Russia, which, while unconfirmed, indicate serious apprehension is being felt over the possibility of a general European war.

WANT BESSARABIA

It is known that the Soviet government is determined to regain Bessarabia, the rich corner of Rumania which Russia covets and which Rumania is equally determined to retain. If necessary Rumania will appeal to the League of Nations to aid her in holding on to this territory and to defend herself if attacked. It is feared that the Soviet government may take advantage of any uprisings by attributing them to Rumanian intrigue with the idea of setting Bessarabia free. On the other hand, Marshal Plisnoid is said to be nearing the opinion that it is time to smash the Soviet regime, and it is possible that he may try to interfere in Bessarabia.

BOY IS RESCUED

Falls Over Wharf and is Pluckily Saved by Roy Mallat

Word has been received from Plympton, N. S., that eight-year-old Gus Blinn was nearly drowned there recently, when he fell off the wharf. The little fellow was standing near the edge of the wharf, with two other boys about his own age, throwing stones into the water, and lost his balance. His cries were heard by Roy Mallat in the hayfield 200 yards away. Mr. Mallat ran to the wharf and despite the weight of all his clothing, jumped into the water and caught hold of young Blinn's arm as he was sinking for the third time. After swimming to shore, Mr. Mallat succeeded in bringing the little fellow around.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—Viscount Rothermere, the owner of the London Daily Mail, which in its columns referred to America's war debt collection methods as akin to those of "Shylock," has washed his hands of responsibility for his paper's stand, and resigned Andrew J. His statement was in the nature of a signed editorial in the Sunday Pictorial, another of his papers. It reads: "One of my newspapers, the

VOCATIONAL SCHOOL CONFERENCE INCONCLUSIVE

MORE DETAIL TO BE HAD AT NEXT GET-TOGETHER

Various Factors Gone Into at Meeting of Council and Officials

COST FIGURES ARE NOT FULLY KNOWN

Unable Yet to Determine What Charges Next Year Will Be

The cost of the vocational school, its annual up-keep charge, the proportion of the civic taxes chargeable to the schools and school accommodation were all touched on at a conference held this morning in the office of the Mayor by the members of the Council and the vocational committee.

Mayor White welcomed the delegation and said he had invited them to discuss with the council the probable cost of the vocational school next year. This request was made in a spirit of criticism, but with an idea of finding out whether the city could afford to carry on or not.

The city was represented by the members of the council, the chairman and controller and the vocational committee by Dr. L. M. Curran, T. H. Carter, John McKinnon, Thomas Nagle, Fletcher Peacock and A. G. Leavitt.

Mayor White welcomed the delegation and said he had invited them to discuss with the council the probable cost of the vocational school next year. This request was made in a spirit of criticism, but with an idea of finding out whether the city could afford to carry on or not.

Dr. Curran, chairman of the school board, said the committee had not known exactly what the council wanted to discuss with them and therefore had not the detailed figures. He was very glad to see the Mayor and they were willing to co-operate. He said that in the original estimate there had not been included anything for the grounds and for the architects' fees.

These two items, with that of interest on the construction of the building due to its not having been taken over from the contractors, would have to be cared for in the assessment for next year.

In regard to the item of interest, he said he thought money had been saved by not taking over the building as they were getting a better job. When the complete financial statement was ready he would be very glad to sit down with the council and go over it. The aim of the board was to have the equipment complete and practice all reasonable economy.

SITUATION IN SCHOOLS
Mayor White asked if the city schools were overcrowded and Mr. Leavitt replied that they were not to any great extent.

Commissioner Wigmore asked about the High School and Mr. Leavitt said this had been overcrowded but until after the opening of this year it was impossible to say what the conditions would be. Mr. Leavitt criticized the apportionment of the rate on the back of the tax bill this year as unfair to the school board. He claimed that last year the school share was only $1.09.

The Mayor said this was beside the question under discussion and any inquiry into the matter would be a digression.

THE CONTRACT for the construction work of the vast Grand Falls power development scheme was signed by representatives of the International Paper Company and the Dominion Construction Company at New York Saturday afternoon, according to authoritative information received by The Times-Star yesterday.

formation on the apportionment desired by Mr. Leavitt could be secured through the proper channels.

COST OF BUILDING.
He asked what the contract price of the building was and was told it was $462,000. This meant then, said the commissioner, that the architect's bill would be about $20,000.

Commissioner Bullock said that in the estimate the cost of the building was placed at $300,000, less the government share, making the city's share $200,000. Now it was found the cost of the building was $462,000, plus architect's fees and the land, a total of $482,000, and it was supposed at the time that the estimate included all costs.

AS TO NEXT YEAR.
Fletcher Peacock, director of the Vocational School, said it was impossible to give exact figures of the cost of maintenance for next year until the school was in operation and it was found how many pupils attended. He would say that the prediction that it would be double that of last year was wide of the mark. Speaking of the cost of education here, he said that the City of London, Ont., the cost per pupil was $20 a year, while here was $60.60 a year.

This was challenged by the chairman, who said that he made it nearly $80 a pupil a year. Mr. Peacock said that in 1922 the percentage of taxes used for education in all the Ontario towns was 66 per cent. of the total levy, compared with a little less than one-third here.

Commissioner Frink said what he wanted to know was whether the requirements of the vocational committee for next year would be greater than this year.

FUTURE CONFERENCE.
The Mayor said he thought the conference had been productive of good, but they had gone as far as possible at present. He suggested that another conference be held when the financial figures were available, and then, if it was thought it was beyond the city's means, curtailment would have to be considered.

Commissioner Wigmore said that he agreed with the Mayor that another conference would be desirable. He wanted to know the cost of the building, complete, the cost of the equipment, and the cost of carrying on. Commissioner Frink said that this year the assessment for the vocational school was $48,000, and there had been expended to date about $9,000. This, he said, would give them a nice credit balance to start the year with.

The meeting adjourned, to reconvene at the call of the Mayor.

SCHOOL BOARD CHAIRMAN.
Dr. Curran, chairman of the school board, said the committee had not known exactly what the council wanted to discuss with them and therefore had not the detailed figures. He was very glad to see the Mayor and they were willing to co-operate. He said that in the original estimate there had not been included anything for the grounds and for the architects' fees.

These two items, with that of interest on the construction of the building due to its not having been taken over from the contractors, would have to be cared for in the assessment for next year.

When the complete financial statement was ready he would be very glad to sit down with the council and go over it. The aim of the board was to have the equipment complete and practice all reasonable economy.

CLEMENCEAU AIDS PUTTING OFF DEBT APPROVAL

OPEN LETTER TO COOLIDGE MEETS WITH FAVOR

"Tiger" Says Independence of His Country is Threatened

MATIN OPPOSES

PARIS, Aug. 9.—Whatever may be the effect of the open letter from Georges Clemenceau, France's war-time premier, to President Coolidge in the United States, it is clear that it will strengthen a portion of Premier Poincaré's cabinet favoring a postponement of action on the ratification of the Washington debt pact.

The war-time premier's sudden incursion into the arena of politics made a good impression both in political circles and among the general public. It is almost unanimously approved. A notable exception, however, is the Matin, which is regarded as being close to Premier Poincaré.

INDICTMENT OF AMERICA.

Stephané Lauanne, in an article in the Matin under the caption "A guilty party rises in accusation," observes that M. Clemenceau, believing that "the lamentable debt business" is not sufficiently troublesome, has decided to make matters worse by writing a letter to President Coolidge, which is a veritable indictment of America and Americans. The writer goes on to say that the whole trouble had its origin in a peace of which M. Clemenceau was one of the principal authors, and that therefore M. Clemenceau would not be better advised to continue to preserve the silence he maintained for six years, instead of making the situation harder "by abusing an ally."

England Identifies Her Unknown Dead

LONDON, Aug. 9.—England is slowly, almost imperceptibly, uncovering the identity of her "unknown" soldiers. Although the war has been over for nearly eight years, one section of the British government is still running down clues which may solve the fate of soldiers reported "missing" or the dead who were buried as "unknown."

Piles Disappear

External treatments seldom cure piles. The cause is inside—had circulation. The blood is stagnant, the veins flabby. The bowel walls are weak, the parts almost dead. To quickly and safely rid yourself of piles you must free the circulation—send a fresh current through stagnant pools. Internal treatment is the one safe method. Ointments and cutting won't do it.

J. S. Leonard, M. D., a specialist, set at work some years ago to find a real internal remedy for piles. He succeeded. He named his prescription HEM-RID, and tried it in 1,000 cases before he was satisfied. Now HEM-RID is sold by druggists everywhere under guarantee. It is a harmless tablet, easy to take, and can always be found at Wassons two stores, who will gladly refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied customer.

JAIL FOR TELLING CLIENTS TO LIE

Max G. Cohen, Who Served Term For Similar Offense, Guilty in Perjury Case

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Max G. Cohen, New York bankruptcy lawyer, was convicted of subornation of perjury by a jury before Judge Edwin R. Holmes in United States District Court. He was sentenced to eighteen months in Atlanta penitentiary. Cohen had previously been convicted of subornation of perjury in Portland, Ore., in 1915, after he had served some time as a police magistrate. He was sentenced to two years in MacNeil Island penitentiary but was paroled after serving a year. In August, 1919, his civil rights were restored by President Wilson, and a few weeks later he was admitted to practice in the United States courts in the southern district of New York.

Cohen was convicted yesterday of charges growing out of the failure of Deffin and Kling, furriers, who were convicted of concealment of assets and sentenced to Atlanta for eighteen months each. Cohen was charged with advising them to lie to a special master about their assets during the investigation of their bankruptcy.

After the release of Deffin and Kling, John L. Strong, government investigator, brought the circumstances surrounding the bankruptcy to the attention of the United States Attorney and the Bar Association, which deferred action pending the criminal proceedings. Abraham L. Menin, Cohen's counsel, filed an appeal and asked a stay of execution. Judge Holmes deferred decision.

Mrs. Charles Hargreaves, of Boston, is visiting Mrs. George Murray, Pitt street, during August.

Midnight Fire In Douglas Avenue

Fire about 12:35 Sunday morning did considerable damage to a two-story dwelling house at 338-360 Douglas avenue, owned by the Eastern Securities Co., Ltd., and occupied on the ground floor by Harold LeBlanc and on the upper flat by Landowne F. Edrys. It is understood that both the house and contents are covered by insurance. Mr. LeBlanc was in the country when the fire started. The origin is unknown.

POWER BOAT MEN AT SERVICE ON RIVER

Scene is Impressive at Gathering at Crystal Beach on Saturday

The annual service of the Saint John Power Boat Club yesterday at Crystal Beach, while somewhat marred by a heavy shower of rain, was very impressive with a large number in attendance. St. Mary's Band led the music. Rev. A. J. Patstone, rector of Westfield and chaplain of the club, officiated and was assisted by H. Usher Miller. Appropriate hymns were sung and Mr. Patstone preached an impressive sermon. The Motorship D. J. Purdy made a special trip from Saint John and carried people from the city to the service.

SERVICES IN STATION

One London church holds its services in the waiting room of a railway station. The Mystical Church of the Comforter holds its regular meetings in an unused waiting room of the Denmark Hill station of the Southern Railway. The church is not connected with any other sect and its two main characteristics are mysticism and symbolism.

STAMP COLLECTION IS BEST IN WORLD

King George Rated as One of Best Philatelists in The Business

Some people say that King George is the premier private stamp collector of the world. He began his collection during his days in the navy; at first it was rather miscellaneous, but when, on the death of the Duke of Clarence, it became clear that "Prince George" was destined to become "King George," the young naval commander got rid of his odds and ends, his picturesque "Chinese dollar stamps" and his scattered specimens from other lands, and set out to gather the world's first complete collection of the stamps of the British Empire, its dominions, its Free States, its colonies, its protectorates, and now he is said to be in pursuit of the stamps of the various British "mandatories."

Falls Out Window While Watching Fire

While watching a fire in the three-story wooden building, Main street, Springhill, a spectator, J. B. McIsaac, fell from a two-story window. His leg was fractured and his nose broken. The fire was in the hardware store of D. M. Smith. Some $30,000 damage was done. The loss, it is said, is covered by insurance. Other tenants of the building were Aubrey Rushton, barber; Lyman Austin, fruit and confectionery; and J. W. Hobin, druggist. Miss Alice Townsend returned to the city on Friday after spending two weeks in Montreal and Quebec.

Solid Helium Made in Dutch Laboratory

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 9.—Helium, now the most extensively used gas in lighter-than-air dirigibles, has been reduced to a solid by Professor Keesom of Leyden University. The gas was first reduced to a liquid in 1908, but more than 20 years of effort to bring the gas to a solid form through use of powerful pumps and low temperature. The gas had to be reduced to 409 degrees below Fahrenheit zero before pressure could be applied, it is said. The new element is clear, crystalline and transparent.

Several Occur in City and Vicinity Over the Week-End

Oscar Dick's car, while standing in front of his residence in Carmarthen street and unoccupied, Saturday, started away and proceeded down the hill. It ran into a pole which was snapped off about 12 feet from the bottom. The car was damaged.

When a young woman driver attempted to shift gears of a car which she was driving on a hill near Grand Bay Saturday night, something went wrong and the car backed down a short distance and turned over on its side in a ditch. The occupants, all ladies, were brought to the city in another automobile and the damaged car was towed in.

While Cecil McKenit was cranking his automobile in North Market street about midnight Saturday, the car started ahead and collided with an Essex coach owned by John Durban, pinning Mr. McKenit between the two cars. The impact of the two cars caused Mr. Durban's auto to collide with another automobile, No. 6247, but the latter was undamaged.

The automobile of Arthur Barnes, 270 Pitt street, and street car No. 114, operated by K. P. Thompson, collided on Sunday morning. A wheel of the auto was broken.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., AUGUST 9, 1926.

DON'T MISS THIS TIDE.

A good word for the parts of Saint John and Halifax was heard at the Charlottetown hearing before the Duncan Commission, when a cloud of witnesses on behalf of the Prince Edward Island Government, the chief Island towns and cities, and the Island shippers, in asking that facilities at the ports of Charlottetown, Summerside and Georgetown be expanded, pointed out that anything done in the way of port development at Saint John and Halifax would prove of large and immediate benefit to the export trade of the Island.

Saint John during the next few weeks should concentrate upon the problem of port development. The time for definite action—such action as will give this city new life, new heart, and an invaluable confidence in its future—is now extremely favorable.

We have a general election impending. We have the Duncan Commission almost upon the eve of making recommendations, which will certainly include the development and vast increase of use of Maritime ports. We have under consideration by the Board of Railway Commissioners, which was given a sharply defined mandate by Parliament, the questions of greater use of these ports, of the recapture and retaining of the immense volume of Canadian traffic now diverted through American channels, and of railway rates affecting not only our export trade, but our more favorable entrance into the Canadian markets west of us.

We were able to tell the Duncan Commission that there is but one city in Canada—Saint John, the natural winter port of the Dominion—whose citizens put their hands in their pockets to the tune of $2,000,000 to provide import and export facilities for their own port leadership of a high order many years ago in Saint John, and what the Dominion Government, whatever its political stripe, would have continued to neglect Maritime harbors and used increasingly the American Atlantic ports. In spite of the vision, energy and sacrifice of those Saint John men who laid the foundations for our present seaboard traffic in spite of what the C. P. R. has done here, in spite of the extraordinary lesson given during the war when men, migrations and other supplies of the most vital character were poured through Saint John for the Western front in amazing volume at a time when the United States was still the greatest neutral in all history; in spite of the fact that this port is inhabited and owned by Canadians and affords the shortest haul to Atlantic seaboard, government after government has failed to equip it for the business already at hand, not to speak of preparing it in advance to secure and handle the traffic which would naturally come here if the facilities were adequate.

If we are to send to Parliament in the near future either Liberal or Conservative representatives who are not prepared to insist resolutely that, on national as well as on Maritime grounds, the ports of Saint John and Halifax must be provided with the equipment justified from the standpoint of sound national transportation, not to speak of patriotic and imperial considerations, that will be our own fault. We should test them before we elect them, and be sure that they will stand up and be counted when the testing hour comes.

Let us remember that during the next few weeks and months we have an opportunity far more inviting, far more fraught with possibilities, than ever before in our history. Let us unite forces so far as this matter is concerned, mapping out a definite programme of our needs, our demands and pledging would-be members of Parliament to staunch adherence.

Let us know that they will be true to their salt. We had at one time members of Parliament representing Saint John who forced the Government of the day to abandon the plan to subsidize with Canadian money a line of steamers which had Portland for its western terminus. They did so by placing their resignations in the hands of the then Prime Minister. Are our Saint John and New Brunswick men who aspire to Parliament today made of weaker stuff? Let us find out. No consideration of partisan politics should for a moment stand in the way of rapid and satisfactory progress in harbor and traffic development here or in Halifax.

The Maritime ports, ever open, the natural harbors for an immense flow of traffic, both winter and summer, must come into their own in the near future, or we shall have missed the rising tide. Let us look to it.

THE HANGMAN AND THE HUMANITARIAN.
A Dr. James Drever, speaking at Oxford before the Association for the Advancement of Science, told the learned members of that body that capital punishment increases the frequency of murder. It would be interesting to know how he got that.

"September Morn"

—The Daily Express, London.

Queer Quirks of Nature

HE FASTS FOR TEN MONTHS.

IN LATE May and June, and until the middle of July, you sometimes see this moth about electric lights, or find it crushed beneath your feet on the sidewalk.

This is our largest moth, measuring usually from five to seven inches across the wings. It is so large that when flying it is commonly mistaken for a bat.

It is a very pretty moth, gray, more or less shaded with red; the margins of the wings are earthy gray, and each wing has a narrow line of white. The feelers or antennae are beautifully feathery, much broader in the males than in the females.

This moth, called the cecropia, is really very much more common than it seems to be, but it flies only after dark, and usually high above the ground, the males with a strong erratic dodging flight, the females almost in a straight line.

It will sometimes come to lights, but as a rule it does not pay much attention to them. It spends the day quietly resting in the trees or bushes, usually high up among the branches.

A curious thing about it is that it never eats. In fact it cannot eat, as its mouth is so imperfect as to be quite useless. It lives entirely on the surplus food material stored up within its body from September until the following

The Cecropia, largest of moths, often has a wing-spread of seven inches.

Being an enormous moth, the cecropia naturally has an enormous caterpillar. These huge caterpillars, of a beautiful green color, are quite common in late summer. They feed on about 20 kinds of trees and shrubs. Their appetites are prodigious; they have to be, for they must eat enough to last them all through their latter stages, as a chrysalis and as a moth.

A SHIFTLSS specimen of humanity came down town one morning, and, joining a group on a corner, announced that he was going to leave town—said he could not live in it any longer. Someone asked him what was the matter.

"Well, that's the town is all right; but it's the hardest place in the world for a woman to get work in."

HE DASHED into the police station at midnight, explaining that his wife had been missing since 8 o'clock that morning, and asking that search be made for her.

TRUTH AND ACTION (Providence Journal).
It is a popular belief that civilization has been built up on a foundation of truth, painfully acquired after vast gropings in the fields of error, but now we have this new thought that all things are founded on fiction. If we are inclined to doubt the whimsical theory we have only to turn to those comparatively recent demonstrations for convincing proof. What could be more impressive than the sal-

THE CUSTOMS ABUSES.
(Ottawa Citizen).
The Customs has never sought to be little the importance of the customs investigation. It has no doubt that the serious abuses existed under the King government and previous governments, that it was right that attention should be drawn to these, and that the machinery of administration needed to be strengthened in order to cope with difficulties of an extraordinary kind. But it is one thing to admit the imperfections of human nature and another thing to try to create the impression, as some of the Conservative stumpers are doing, that the government is blackened by the exposures. No charge of bribery or dishonest conduct has been made against Mr. Boivin or his colleagues. There is no reason why Canadians should be ashamed of their government, no matter how they may blame certain officials who misused their positions. Nor can it be said that the government was guilty of making light of the evidence brought before it, or refusing to investigate and reform. It co-operated heartily with the association of business men led by Mr. Sparks. It lent them Inspector Duncan, authorized him to engage assistants, and armed them with new powers. It procured the enactment of legislation drafted by the Protective Association of the Garment Workers' Association, and the Toronto Board of Trade.

IMMIGRATION AND EXODUS (Toronto Mail and Empire).
In the four years between March 31st, 1922, and March 31st, 1926, the number of immigrants who entered Canada was 422,272. The number of arrivals in April last given as 17,468 and brings the total for four years and one month up to 440,866. In the four years and five months between January 1st, 1922, and May 31st, 1926, a total of 526,220 persons is officially reported to have left Canada to live in the United States. This total might be increased were it possible to take into account the thousands who have gone into the States under the King government with that country's immigration regulations. Thus, it is apparent that, under the economic conditions existing in Canada, the Dominion has lost more money by the United States that it has secured by immigration from all sources.

AFTER FIVE YEARS (Ottawa Journal).
Five years of Mackenzie King were years of impotence and humiliation. They were years which saw triumph of sectional and racial prejudices over calm consideration of national issues. They were years which saw depression, a retarding of development, contraction of immigration, failure to pay off debts, inability to grapple with any major problem, the loss of hundreds of thousands of our best blood to a foreign land. They were years, too, which saw Parliament reduced to a mere debating society, and the national treasury to purchase power and office. And they concluded with revelations of corruption shocking to the national conscience; coupled with a desperate attempt to cover the rout of a discredited Ministry by a despicable attack upon the Crown.

MEIGHEN AND NOVA SCOTIA (Sydney Record).
Does any thinking person in Cape Breton really believe that if Premier Meighen were returned to power he would make any move that would really give any material assistance to the coal and steel industries? His whole record, and the record of his party, shows the absurdity of believing anything of the kind. Liberalism granted bounties to the iron and steel industry years ago; the Tories, coming into office in 1911, did not continue the bounties. In 10 years of office the Tories and Meighen Governments did nothing for the steel and coal industries. Last year Mr. Meighen and all his Commons' followers argued against the increase in the coal duties.

HIS WAR-TIME POLICY (Toronto Globe).
Mr. Meighen evidently forgot to mention his wartime election policy to the loyal folk in the Maritime Provinces.

The National Federation of Women Workers' Society has made her honorary secretary.

POEMS I

LOVE BY WALTER DEAN THOMAS

"The Light of Other Days," by Thomas Moore.

THE most musical of singers, Moore sometimes gets on one's nerves; for once in a while one longs for a slip—a dissonance, if not a discord. His poetry is too perfect; and to read him at length is to get an effect of monotony, if you will.

Of in the stilly night,
Ere slumber's chain has bound me,
Sad memory brings the light
Of other days around me.

The smiles, the tears
Of boyhood's years
The words of love then spoken;
The eyes that shone,
Now dimmed and gone,
The cheerful hearts now broken!

Thus in the stilly night,
Ere slumber's chain has bound me,
Sad memory brings the light
Of other days around me.

When I remember all
The friends so linked together
I've seen around me fall
Like leaves in wintry weather,
I feel like one
Who stands alone
Some banquet-hall deserted,
Whose lights are fled,
Whose garlands dead,
And all but departed!

Thus in the stilly night,
Ere slumber's chain has bound me,
Sad memory brings the light
Of other days around me.

MERELY CURIOUS

OTTAWA—Probably the least investigated language on earth is that of the Arctic Eskimos. This defect, however, is about to be remedied; for Dr. D. Jenness, chief of the division of Anthropology of the Canadian Museum here, has sailed for Nome to make an intensive study of the Eskimo languages of the far north. In his preliminary report, Dr. Jenness has discovered that the Eskimos of Labrador use many words that are identical with those in the language of Point Barrow, Alaska, tribes. By tracing linguistic traits, it is expected that clues will be found of early tribal and racial migrations within the Arctic Circle.

POPULATION AND WAR

(London Spectator).
Militarists in all countries demand an increasing population, in order that an unending supply of recruits may ensure the national safety in the next war; but they also hold that wars are inevitable owing to the pressure of expanding populations.

JAPAN AND CHRISTIANITY

(St. Catharines Standard).
When one hears about the remarkable rise of Japan in the world, a people of the best bravery and a noble code of chivalry, it is well to read the view of the Tokio Mail and Times in this development. It is an amount of sophistry will hide the fact that it is the Christian workers and Christian civilization that have lifted Japan above the darkness of old ideas and backward customs and put her on the path of progress and higher culture. Modern Japan may have been an apt pupil; but she has had her days of tutelage, and her tutors have been neither Buddhists nor Confucianists, but the Christians and their Christian civilization.

QUEBEC'S TURN

(Edmonton Journal).
From Quebec strong complaints are coming regarding the misrepresentation on which the matter has been projected by writers of American fiction. The characters, that so long did service in stories that were supposed to be about Western Canada, have now been transferred. While we are very glad in this part of our Dominion that these authors have changed the locality in which they place the creatures of their imagination, we must be the same in Quebec. A novel based on the life of that province that is worth anything at all must be the product of extended and careful study of conditions there. But after a fortnight's fishing in the Laurentians a New York novelist announced that he was going back home to turn out a story of French Canada.

PUT COUNTRY FIRST

(Montreal Family Herald).
Canada needs a new parliament! Parliamentary government has broken down in Canada. A house of commons that chops and changes as our last one did within the compass of six days could no longer be entrusted with the control of this country's affairs. It votes against a government on Friday night—it sees a new government but partially installed on Tuesday afternoon—it votes confidence in that new government on Tuesday night and again on Wednesday night. It votes want of confidence in that same two-day-old government on Thursday night. This must be a record in instability. A parliament that takes its duties and its obligations to the people so more seriously than that has surely signed its own death-warrant. Dissolution was necessary. Let us be glad that we have it, and let our plans to send the finest brains of the country to pull us out of the mire, and legislate for the country, not for a party, and not for their own interests.

THE ELITE OF THE LAND

(L'Action Catholique).
The farmer must be something more than a healthy man and a worker. He must be a man of foresight and a man of sound judgment. In the city it is possible to make shift for a living, although deprived of these qualities because the employer can do the thinking for his employees. In the rural districts it is otherwise. Every landowner depends for his success as much upon his judgment and prevision as upon his manual labor. Farming has become more of a science than a trade, and a very extensive science. It is true that governments taking account of the situation have set up many schools and experimental establishments which can undertake research that individuals would find impossible to undertake themselves. But it still remains true that individuals must have sufficient intelligence to understand the importance of these researches, to follow them up, and enough judgment to fit the service thus rendered to their own particular problems. As a result, farming operations properly conducted demand a variety of qualities only met with in the choicest people.

ACTION WOULD AID SHIPPERS, INQUIRY TOLD

Eight Witnesses Stress Need for More Facilities at Charlottetown

PULLMAN AND MAIL CAR SERVICE ASKED

Additional Warehouses at Island Harbors is Also Advocated

CHARLOTTETOWN, Aug. 8.—Development of the ports of Halifax and Saint John as a further aid to island shippers was strongly urged yesterday before the Royal Commission investigating the ills of the Maritime Provinces.

The witnesses heard, eight in all, stressed the need for additional facilities at the ports of Charlottetown, Summerside and Georgetown, but agreed that anything done for Halifax and Saint John would prove of immediate benefit to the export trade of Prince Edward Island.

WITNESSES EXAMINED

The witnesses examined yesterday were John F. Wheat, port office inspector, Robert M. Munn, wholesale merchant, Charlottetown; William L. Peole, general merchant, Montserrat; Hon. John A. MacDonald, Minister without portfolio in the Dominion government, Cardigan; Wilfred Bouter, assistant commissioner of agriculture; Wallace F. Higgins, secretary, Charlottetown Board of Trade; J. O. Hyndman, president, Maritime Boards of Trade, and Frederick B. MacRae, farm engineer, Vernon.

SECOND FERRY URGED

They supported the general statements made in the brief on transportation presented by Donald Kinross, K. C., on behalf of the Associated Boards of Trade, and urged the construction of a second ferry, through pullman and mail car service between Sackville and Charlottetown, a second train service throughout the season of open navigation, and additional warehousing and shipping facilities at island ports.

Must the Girl Who Doesn't Have Beau Start to Drink and Pet in Order to Have Dates?—The Homely Young Man Who Doubts His Beautiful Fiancee's Love—Stay-at-Home and Run-Around Girl.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I have just about everything a normal girl needs to make her happy, except beau. There is that eternal man problem, and because I will not drink nor pet boys will have nothing to do with me. Now my question: Do you think I am right in not being fast? Do you think that some day I will find a man who can love a domestic girl who has a higher ambition in life than just to have a good time? I am willing to wait, but will my Fairy Prince ever come to old-fashioned me in this day of flappers who smoke and carry flasks? PRISCILLA.

ANSWER: I am no prophet where men are concerned, Priscilla, and I don't know whether the hero of your dreams is on his way or not—though I think he is—but I can tell you one thing for certain, and that is that even if your Fairy Prince never shows up you are a lot better off than you would be if you had gotten too fast. The girls who pet and neck and smoke and drink, and with whom a man must associate to get a date, have more dates than the modest, dignified, self-respecting ladies. But they do not outmarry her.

Men like to play around with the fast girl, but when they want to pick out a wife and the mother of their children they look around for some maiden who hasn't been kissed by every Tom, Dick and Harry of their acquaintance, and whose breath doesn't smell of synthetic gin. That is, if the man is worth having. It is the men who are tin-horn sports who marry the girls who are good sports and who later on clutter up the divorce court docket.

No girl makes a mistake in being a good girl, Priscilla. If she has to buy the attentions of men with her modesty, she pays too high a price for them, because she pays not only with her self-respect but she pays with the respect of the men themselves.

But if you have everything else in the world to make you happy, why do you worry so much over the man problem, anyway? It seems to me that there is nothing else so tragic as the fact that girls put the attentions of men above everything else on earth, and that if they are not bearded around by some calow little jelly bean without two ideas in his head, or 23 in his pocket, all the rest is chit-chat, ash and dust to them.

The world is so full of a number of things besides patent-leather shoes, there are books and music and art and travel and theatres, all forms of sports and pretty clothes and good company, and yet they are looking to a girl if she hasn't got a date! Why don't you try to look at the things that give you more pleasure than you get out of a date? Instead of sitting around on the anxious seat quaking your thumb and praying God to send something in trousers along that way? Why don't you quit worrying over whether drug-store cowboys make dates with you or not?

And this is the queer thing about it, Priscilla. As soon as you reach the point where you are indifferent to men and don't care whether they notice you or not, they will begin to get crazy about you. DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR MISS DIX—I am a young man, not at all good-looking, and I am engaged to a very pretty girl. She knows I love her, and she says that she loves me, but do you suppose she is telling me the truth? She is so beautiful and attractive to other men that it makes me jealous. Do you think it best for a man to wait until he has enough money to keep a girl the way she wants to before he marries? I. L. Y.

ANSWER: You have no reason to doubt that the girl loves you, if she says she does. Because a man's appearance, provided he is neat and clean, cuts no ice with a woman.

Women have more sense in this respect than men have, and they do not pick out their mates because of their beauty. They want something more substantial, some charm that is going to last longer than a peach-and-cream complexion or naturally wavy hair or a willow figure. Men marry women solely because of their looks, but not many women want a living picture for a husband. They prefer a good, honest character to hang on their walls.

As a matter of fact, few women admire pretty men. They feel that beauty is a prerogative that belongs to the feminine sex, and they want to be the living picture in their own particular households. They don't want husbands who are so taken up with admiring their own charms that they can't notice their wives.

They don't want husbands who will attract every woman's attention, and especially they don't want husbands who will present an invidious contrast to them and make everybody wonder why in goodness that handsome man married that homely woman.

The man who knows himself ugly has to cultivate other attractions of manners and conversation and so he often becomes a fascinating man to women.

I think that a man should wait to marry until he can support a family in reasonable comfort. A young couple does not need riches to start out on, but they should have some assured way of making a living and a little laid up in the bank against a rainy day. DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR MISS DIX—I am a stay-at-home boy who is engaged to a run-around girl. She is crazy about parties and jazz. Do you think we will be happy if we are married? JOHN.

ANSWER: No, I think that you will be miserable and that your life will be spent in a continual bickering over how you will spend your evenings. You would want to sit by the fire with your slippers and pipe and book, and she would want to be stepping out, and think you a mean and horrid old thing because you wouldn't take her.

The most important thing in matrimony is congeniality and the only happy married couples are those who have the same ideas and ideals, who enjoy doing the same things, and who like the same kind of food and religion and pie.

Pick out for a wife a girl who also likes to stay at home and you will be happy. Marry a gadster and you will be miserable. The people with whom you like to live are those whose opinions agree with ours. Nobody wants to be involved in a continual family argument and dispute. DOROTHY DIX.

The "regulars" seek plausible excuses for being in town. All the "first string" critics are missing. This is the season when the runner's up get their chance. It's not the thing for a "regular" to be caught in town in hot weather.

A DOZEN reckless ones desert the theater before the last act. They go to a night club to "cool off." Laugh that off, if you can. Star-waitresses sit it out to the end. Wonder what the lawyer gent thinks about that night? All about the city steams in its clammy broth. Humans bob around in it like bits of meat in a boiling stew.

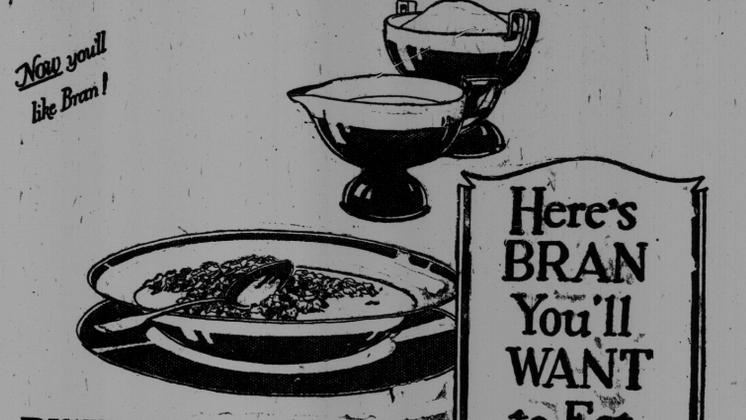

A GENERAL rush for the doors and one orange juice stands of the neighborhood. The night becomes maudlin with their cries for service. They mill and push for standing space, hands reach over heads and filled glasses trickle over and spill. Fright glances pass. "That clumsy cat pulled his sock all over me!" More fright looks. The audience returns for the next act.

AIRPLANE HOP TO SOUTH POLE PLANNED TO START IN OCTOBER

ANTON PAULY GIVES DETAILS OF THE TRIP

Austrian Engineer Now Carefully Organizing Expedition

NO TIME LIMIT

Believes Antarctic Pole to be on Plateau 10,000 Feet in Height

By NELSON J. RILEY.

BUENOS AIRES, Aug. 9.—Organization of a new South Pole air expedition, to be initiated next October, has been announced here by Anton Pauly, Austrian engineer and explorer, whose intention is to conduct the first airplane trip to the bottom of the earth.

Pauly plans to start from Buenos Ayres in a sailing ship near the end of October in order to make the coast of Graham Land about the middle of November. According to plans, the ship will land the expedition on Wandel Island at 65 degrees south latitude, where the primary base of operations will be established.

The next step will be the establishment of another base 10 degrees farther south. Eight trips by airplane are calculated to be sufficient to transfer food and fuel supplies to this point, which will be 800 miles nearer the Pole. Following the establishment of this last base the party will digress temporarily from its prime goal to make explorations in the Weddell Sea and to Chartland.

FINAL PREPARATIONS.

Following these explorations a final preparatory move will be made to a point at 85 degrees south latitude, 600 miles nearer the Pole than the previous base. This point is calculated to have

Social Notes of Interest

Miss Margaret Henderson entertained delightfully at dinner at the Riverside Country Club on Saturday evening. Covers were laid for thirty. A profusion of pink and cream roses arranged in silver bowls, adorned the table, and dainty cards and favors marked the places of the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Peniston Starr chaperoned the party which included Miss Ruth Robinson, Miss Constance White, Miss Viola McAvity, Miss Margaret Tilley, Miss Eleanor Angus, Miss Jean Angus, Miss Elizabeth Armstrong, Miss Florence Puddington, Miss Ruth Starr, Miss Constance Starr, Miss Margaret Page, Miss Helen Holmes, Toronto, Miss Frances Gilbert, Mr. Dick Starr, an altitude of 6,000 feet above sea level, and from here the fliers will make their dash to the South Pole, a flight of 600 miles.

According to Pauly's statement the Pole is a plateau 10,000 feet high. He states: "We will stop at the Pole long enough to make necessary observations and to try to find messages left there by Captain Scott in 1922. We shall then continue the flight to Wales Bay, where we hope to find the deposit left by Amundsen. This distance is about 80 degrees base nearly 1,800 miles."

In the actual flight across the polar region Pauly plans to carry two passengers beside himself, a pilot, observer and mechanic. Two months' food supplies and equipment for a sledge expedition to be used in case of accident to plane will complete the cargo carried on the flight.

NO TIME LIMIT.

No time limit has been set for the expedition, which is expected to end at Melbourne, Australia. Pauly is confident of his success and is laying careful plans to insure against mistakes in preparation. He has long been associated in ventures of exploration and research.

Pauly is the author of several volumes on geographic conditions in little known parts of South America and has long since established himself as a leading mining engineer in Chilean and Bolivian fields.

WESTERN UNION MESSENGER IS SEVERELY HURT

Wm. Bourque, on Bicycle, in Collision With Automobile

HEAD IS INJURED; MAY BE FRACTURE

Collided With Car Driven by J. B. Patchell, at Market Sq.

William Bourque, about 18 years of age, a messenger boy with the Western Union Telegraph Company, collided with an automobile, driven by Joseph B. Patchell, proprietor of the Avenue Service Station, Douglas avenue, about 11 o'clock this morning at the corner of Dock street and Market Square, opposite the Ogilvie building, and received very severe injuries to his head. In the impact he was thrown from his bicycle, hurled several feet in the air and landed forcibly on his head on the cobble stones. He was picked up unconscious and taken to the General Public Hospital where his condition is causing grave anxiety to relatives.

DRIVER'S STATEMENT
According to eye witnesses of the accident young Bourque was riding his bicycle down Dock street. Mr. Patchell had just come out of the western section of Market Square and was heading into Dock street. He said that he saw the messenger boy coming down Dock street, apparently "hugging" the street car track. The front section of his car had practically passed the boy and he gave him no more thought.

A second later he was surprised to hear a crash and felt that something had hit his car. He immediately stopped the car which, he says, was not proceeding at any extraordinary rate. The boy was lying several feet away from his car alongside his bicycle. He was picked up and taken to the hospital where it was determined whether or not he had suffered a fractured skull but the belief is that he has. He was still unconscious this afternoon.

PERHAPS FRACTURE
Young Bourque was placed in Mr. Patchell's car and taken to the hospital. It was said this afternoon that he had received three severe cuts about the head in addition to bruises about the mouth. It had not yet been determined whether or not he had suffered a fractured skull but the belief is that he has. He was still unconscious this afternoon.

Conversation that Policeman Young had with L. French, auto truck driver for the C. N. R. express, and John Connolly, eye witnesses of the accident, lead him to believe that the young Bourque, who is said to have been riding his bicycle with his head down, suddenly became conscious of the automobile and was too late to swing out. He struck the rear mud guard of the car, and the mud guard and also smashed in the left hand glass window of the car.

Young Bourque is said to be a native of Madocton and had been with the Western Union as messenger boy for two years. A sister, Mrs. J. C. Lunnay, resides at 48 Elm street.

SEE THE FALLS

At high tide the water of the Bay of Fundy reaches a higher level than the water of the Saint John River and forces its way through the gorge of the Falls, creating "Falls" running up river.

At half tide, when the level in the Bay and River are about equal, the Falls disappear entirely, and the water of the Falls becomes smooth as the surface of a lake.

To fully realize the wonder of the world it should be seen at all three stages.

The best time to view this phenomenon is:

GLAMS TAXES ON LANCASTER LANDS TOO HIGH

Commissioner Presents Bills and Council Will Pay Under Protest

VALUATION SET IS UNDER CRITICISM

Chamberlain Figures Out Tax Rate of Over 5 Per Cent.

The Common Council, sitting this morning in committee of the whole, decided to pay under protest the tax bills rendered by the Parish of Lancaster and to appeal to the Board of Assessors of the parish from the valuation placed on these lands. Commissioner Bullock said he wished to pay the bills in order to get the discount. One bill, that on the school lot (so-called) was $1,601.20, an increase of $182.00 over last year, and this in spite of the sale of 35 lots, most of them in this area, last year. Two other bills, one for $335.84 and the other for $2,647.40, a grand total of $4,574.44 were also presented by the commissioner. Last year he said the amount of taxes was $8,971.65 and the city received in rentals $2,502.25 and the city had to charge $3,975.60 to cover and under-expended balances.

SOME VALUATIONS

The total valuation placed in the city lands in Lancaster was $174,700 and the chamberlain figured out that the tax rate was in excess of 5 per cent. A lot which had been sold to the parish for the fire station at $300 was valued by the assessors at $1,000 while the councilors of the parish valued it as not worth the $300 asked by the city. The site on which the Wilson Box factory was located was valued at $5,000, the Firemen's Park at $3,000 and Park Place at $75,000.

Commissioner Bullock said there should be some way to get this matter before the assessors of the parish. It looked like the city as a good market from which to obtain revenue and was acting accordingly.

Commissioner Harding asked if the city commissioners by reason of their duties could not control expenditures in the parish calling for payment by bond issue.

Commissioner Prink: "Absolutely." Commissioner Harding: "Then I can see where we are ourselves at fault."

WOMAN WRITER ENTHUSIASTIC OVER MARITIMES

Mrs. Madge McBeath in City Gathering Material for Publication

Mrs. Madge McBeath, of Ottawa, one of Canada's most successful authors, now in the Maritimes gathering material for publication work for the Maritime Provinces, is so enthused with what she has seen that she asserts that only a realization of what we have to offer is required to bring tourists here in droves.

Speaking to a Times-Star reporter this morning, Mrs. McBeath, who is at the Royal Hotel, the most enthusiastically of her trip, which included visits to the principal points of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. She will leave this afternoon for St. Andrews on her return to Montreal.

Mrs. McBeath has made many notable contributions to Canadian literature, and hopes to publish in the near future her first novel, which is entitled "Shackles." Among the most widely read of her books is "The Paterson Lullaby," an intensely interesting story, with an underlying thought of forest conservation. "Keath," her story of the Yukon, has recently been dramatized and shown on the picture screen under Robert Service's title, "The Law of the Yukon." Mrs. McBeath was also the author of the first radio play, entitled "The Super Woman," which was broadcast last spring by the Ottawa Dramatic League. She was the guest yesterday of Hon. L. P. D. Tilley and Mrs. Tilley at Rothney.

Evidence in Case Is Contradictory

Contradictory evidence was given in the Police Court this morning as to whether Fred O'Dell was under the influence of liquor when arrested on Saturday night in Prince Edward street. O'Dell asserted he was not intoxicated, but Police Constable Leard, who made the arrest, testified that the man was drunk. O'Dell pleaded guilty, however, to resisting the police.

His father, Charles O'Dell, arrested on charge of interfering with the police when his son was being arrested, said that he was trying to get into his own house but was prevented from doing so as his son had hold of his arm and would not let go.

The magistrate said that apparently the arrest of the two men had caused considerable excitement in Prince Edward street Saturday night as he had heard several reports of the affair. He remanded both men until further evidence could be secured.
