PLUNGES THROUGH A SKYLIGHT; WILL DIE

Albert Marshall Fatally Hurt in Marysville Cotton Mill—Falls on Concrete Floor and Skull is Fractured—Many at Funeral of Geo. A. Beattie—Snow and Rain at Capital

Fredericton, N. B., Nov. 17.—(Special)—With his skull crushed as the result of a fall of twenty feet through a skylight, Albert Marshall, mangle operator at the Marysville cotton mill is lying at the point of death in Marysville with no hope of recovery. The accident happened at 11 o'clock last night in the cotton mill which has been closed down for a few weeks for the installation of new boilers and machinery. It seems that the steam whistle got out of order and Marshall climbed to the roof of the boiler house to ascertain the cause. He allowed the skylight, through which he had succeeded to remain open and while working with the whistle in the darkness he took a couple of steps backwards and shot down the skylight falling on his head on the concrete floor. One of the firemen who witnessed the accident, summoned assistance and had the injured man removed to the hotel just across the street, where he was soon under the care of a physician. He was rendered unconscious by the fall and it was found that his skull had been badly crushed. Dr. Atherton was called in consultation upon the case this morning but was unable to hold out any hope for his recovery. The patient has not recovered consciousness, although he has spoken several times in an incoherent manner. He is about thirty-five and has a wife and family of small children. He is very popular among his acquaintances and the unfortunate mishap has cast a gloom over the community. Under the auspices of Walker Lodge, L. O. L., which had long been a member of the funeral of George A. Beattie took place this afternoon and there was a large attendance. A short service was conducted at the house by Rev. Canon Cowie assisted by Captain Hargrove of the Salvation Army, after which the body was taken to the parish church where Canon Cowie conducted the funeral service. The Fredericton Brass Band led the procession to the rural cemetery where interment was made. The Orangethorpe service at the grave was conducted by Rev. A. A. Rideout, grand chaplain of the Orangethorpe. The pall bearers were Andrew Lindsay, R. A. Lindsay, James McGilligan, Charles A. Burchill, Charles Segge and Stephen Brown. About six inches of snow fell here last night but a heavy rain storm this morning cleared it to disappear.

FEAR NOW THAT THERE WILL BE EXPLOSION IN MINE

Cherry, Ill., Nov. 17.—State troops were on the ground today when the sun rose on the scene of Saturday's disaster, in the St. Paul coal mine, where 300 men are still entombed. Before dawn the daily pilgrimages of the women to the mine began. The faithful vigil of the women has relaxed only a few hours each day, though there is little hope that a living man or boy will be found when the mine is opened. The delay in recovering the bodies has driven scores of women almost to desperation. Hints of a possible demonstration against the state officers or mine officials, reached the ears of the attorney-elect yesterday, and troops were sent for. All night they did sentinel duty about the mine and railroad cars containing mine inspectors and nurses, and the private coach of President Earling of the St. Paul road. During the night tons of water were forced down in the burning mine through the hoist shaft. Fire Chief Horan and Captain Kenny, with engine No. 1 and the squad of Chicago firemen, are in charge of the work.

G. T. P. BETWEEN WINNIPEG AND SUPERIOR JCT. REGULAR PASSAGE AND FREIGHT SERVICE THIS WEEK—IN TIME TO PREVENT BLOCK

Montreal, Nov. 16.—A regular passenger and freight service, it is officially announced, will be established this week on the National Transcontinental Railway between Winnipeg and Superior Junction, which will give the Grand Trunk Pacific a complete system from Pembina, sixty miles west of Edmonton, to Fort William. The inauguration of the freight service from Winnipeg to Fort William is a little too late for the company to do a great deal in the haulage of grain before the close of navigation, but it will be able to afford substantial relief to the freight couachees at the head of Lake Superior, the result of the unprecedentedly large purchases that have been made by the western business houses, and their eagerness to get the fullest advantage of the low lake and rail rates while navigating, which is practicable on the upper lakes. This congestion at Fort William, while it does not amount to a blockade, is a matter of some seriousness. Both the Canadian Pacific and Canadian Northern are working at their full capacity, but the reinforced service is needed to get the goods through to the western emporia before Christmas.

HAYTI DELUGED RAINFALL OF 29 INCHES IN TWO WEEKS—MUCH STOCK LOST

Cape Haytien, Hayti, Nov. 17.—The rainfall here during the two weeks ended November 14 is officially recorded as twenty-nine inches. The total precipitation at interior points is given as thirty-eight inches. Communication with the interior is still difficult, the only means of travel being by foot. Considerable stock was lost during the storm.

I. C. R. REST HOUSE IN MONCTON PREY OF FLAMES

Five Hours Fight for Firemen—Six Typewriting Machines Destroyed—Thirty Clerks Forced into Temporary Quarters

Moncton, N. B., Nov. 17.—(Special)—Turning with such rapidity that it had been in the centre of the town, great destruction would have been caused, if early this morning completely destroyed the building known as the I. C. R. rest house. The fire started a little after 3 o'clock, and for five hours the firemen labored before the conflagration was put out. As a result of the fire two offices have been put out of commission and thirty clerks have taken up temporary quarters in the old mechanical offices.

LATEST PICTURE OF THE IRONMASTER; HIS WEALTH NOW TO BATTLE DISEASE

CARNEGIE FIGHTING PELLAGRA

Gift of Million Expected to Aid in Campaign of Education Against the Mysterious Disease

Mr. Carnegie is known to have long been interested in the problems of the south. He has an estate on the Florida coast, where he usually spends part of the winter, and through these visits is thoroughly in touch with the section afflicted by the mysterious disease, which is believed to be caused by eating damaged corn. While there has been a falling off in alarming reports, the situation is regarded by the United States Marine Hospital and Hospital Service at Washington as alarming, and the need of immediate steps of prevention and eradication is said to be great. Many of the prominent men of the South believe that the danger of pellagra from the bookworm. The health authorities are ready for an active campaign of prevention as soon as funds are available. All authorities agree that the disease is curable if taken in its early stages. "You would not blame them, however, for wanting to get the C. P. R. into Halifax, would you, and it would bring more business to you here, would it not?" "Such a thing as this will require much consideration, but I absolutely could not say how we might look upon it." Speaking of the conditions at this port, Mr. McNicholl said that signs pointed to a very heavy business at this port this winter. Mr. McNicholl will leave this evening en route to Montreal.

JURY GIVES AWARD UNDER TWO LAWS

Verdict of $2,000 or $5,000 Leaving Choice to the Judge

Ottawa, Nov. 16.—In the High Court Assizes before Sir Wm. Mulock the jury brought in a verdict in the case of Brennan against the G. T. P. in the amount of $2,000 under the Workmen's Compensation Act, or $5,000 under common law, whichever the plaintiff should elect. The plaintiff is liable to the answers of the questions he put to the jury. Paul Brennan, chief foreman in the local yards, and while riding on the shunting engine fell off, either because he was seized with dizziness or attempted to jump off, and was killed. The plaintiff claimed under the Workmen's Compensation Act that the engine was running too fast, and under the common law that the step on which Brennan stood was too narrow. The jury found both that the engine was running too fast, and also that the step was too narrow. The judge reserved judgment.

BONILLA TO AID OF GENERAL ESTRADA

New Orleans, Nov. 17.—General Bonilla, former President of Honduras, was deposed in 1906, after sitting out an expedition to Nicaragua to assist General Estrada, leader of the revolutionary forces, according to reports in the Latin American Colony here. The deposed Honduras official, according to his friends, intended to assist in the overthrow of Zelaya, and if successful, to take charge of a revolution to restore himself to power in Honduras.

WAS ONE OF THE MEN OF SLIGO BAY

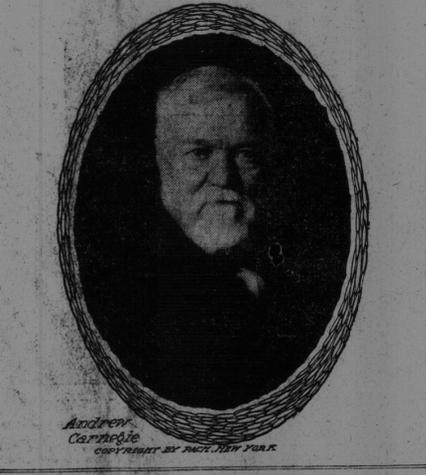

New York, Nov. 17.—Augustine E. Costello, sixty years old, native of Ireland and advocate of all that pertained to the advancement of the Irish race, is dead at his home, No. 6 East One Hundred and Nineteenth street. Mr. Costello was one of the forty Irishmen who took part in the ill-fated expedition of 1867, when the brigantine Jackmel sailed from America with arms and landed in Sligo Bay, Ireland. Costello and Warren, of the party, were tried for treason by the English authorities. Costello was a citizen of the United States and was liberated.

THE WAGES OF SIN

Nelson, Nov. 17.—Geo. Saltmarsh, sentenced to two years less a day in the provincial jail here for uttering counterfeit coin seven weeks ago, has become insane and will be sent to New Westminister. He has been identified by American police as L. E. Reed, alias Harry Reed, who served terms over the border for counterfeiting operations.

WHEAT FROM FAR NORTH

Ottawa, Nov. 16.—Wheat grown at Fort Liard, on River Liard, lies 290 miles north of the 60th parallel of latitude and 20 miles east of the Yukon Territory. The grain was graded as No. 2 Northern, worth about 80 cents a bushel.

C. P. R. WILL GO WHEREVER BUSINESS IS

Mr. McNicholl on Halifax Desire to Get the Road—No Reason Now for Disagreement Over St. John Property

That there should be no difficulty in an agreement being reached between the city and the C. P. R. with reference to the west side transfer, was the opinion expressed by Vice-President McNicholl at a Times man this morning. Mr. McNicholl said that now that the harbor board and he had exchanged views and mutual explanations had been made, matters could be adjusted. "I think that the agreement as drawn up and presented at the meeting was more to draw forth criticism in order to arrive at something more definite," he said. He further with reference to the C. P. R. intentions as regards Halifax, in view of despatches from that city giving a hopeful tone to the project, Mr. McNicholl remarked, "Mr. Johnson, of course is expressing his own personal views. You would not blame them, however, for wanting to get the C. P. R. into Halifax, would you, and it would bring more business to you here, would it not?" "Such a thing as this will require much consideration, but I absolutely could not say how we might look upon it." Speaking of the conditions at this port, Mr. McNicholl said that signs pointed to a very heavy business at this port this winter. Mr. McNicholl will leave this evening en route to Montreal.

NEGLIGENT EMPLOYEES RESPONSIBLE FOR 80 PER CENT. OF ACCIDENTS

Railway Superintendent At Surgeons' Convention Says Irresponsible, Shiftless Employees Should Go

New York, N. Y., Nov. 17.—Negligence of employees is responsible for eighty per cent. of all railroad accidents, according to W. L. Park, of Omaha, general superintendent of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, who spoke before the annual meeting of the New York & New England Association of Railroad Surgeons here yesterday. "If we would prevent accidents on our railroads," continued Mr. Park, "we must weed out the irresponsible, shiftless and uncapacitated employees. The unworthy workman must go and the labor organizations must be impressed with the idea that their mission is not to manage the railroads but to man them. They must not inflict a risk on the public by insisting that any unworthy brother shall be continued in the employment of the company."

CELEBRATED 100TH BIRTHDAY THEN DIED

Richmond, Ind., Nov. 17.—At the close of a big celebration in honor of the one hundredth anniversary of his birth, John Fletcher Medaris, of Green's Fork, Ind., died yesterday. Medaris, who spoke before the annual meeting of the New York & New England Association of Railroad Surgeons here yesterday. "If we would prevent accidents on our railroads," continued Mr. Park, "we must weed out the irresponsible, shiftless and uncapacitated employees. The unworthy workman must go and the labor organizations must be impressed with the idea that their mission is not to manage the railroads but to man them. They must not inflict a risk on the public by insisting that any unworthy brother shall be continued in the employment of the company."

McBRIDE THREATENS CREDIT OF PROVINCE

Minister of Finance Who Resigned From British Columbia Government, Yields to Public Clamor and Tells Why—Condemns Railway Deal in Unmeasured Terms

Toronto, Nov. 17.—(Special)—A Globe special from Victoria, B. C., says: R. G. Tatlow, ex-minister of finance, who resigned from the McBride cabinet, has yielded to public clamor and made a statement as to why he left position, and a statement. He says Mr. McBride gave no time to consider the railway agreement that threatens to destroy the credit of the province. "I told the premier," says Mr. Tatlow, "I could not support such a policy, and reminded him I had built up the credit of the country by a system of careful finance." The minister condemns in unmeasured terms the whole transaction with Macdonald.

ACT AND MOVE ON

There are two matters concerning the settlement of which the city council should delay no longer.

One of these is the agreement with the C. P. R. concerning the west side lots. The railway company offers assurance that it will develop facilities as they are needed; that it will not use the property for any but railway purposes, and will not hold it for speculation; and that it will have no objection to running rights for other railroads. This appears to cover the ground. The company has spent large sums at St. John, and is continuing its expenditure. This is its Atlantic port, and in its own interest will enlarge the terminal facilities from year to year. It refuses to agree to certain demands which should not have been made, and asks to be dealt with in a business-like manner. The citizens cannot forget that they are connected to the C. P. R. connection the growth of winter port business to its present proportions, and that the trade continues and must continue to grow. Therefore this matter of the transfer of the west side lots should be settled without further delay. The interests of the C. P. R. in this matter of trade development are also the interests of the port of St. John.

The other matter that should be settled at once is that of the sugar refinery. The extraordinary objection is made to the proposed site that the industry established there would tie up a part of the harbor property. Surely such an objection is not seriously made. St. John would be very fortunate if much more of its water front could be "tied-up" by great industries giving employment to hundreds of people. Mr. Durant has satisfied shrewd and cautious business men that he is in a position to carry out his undertaking. The board of trade endorses his proposition. This should satisfy the people on that point at least, and it therefore becomes merely a question whether St. John wants the refinery or would prefer a vacant lot. The city is on the eve of a forward industrial movement. The erection of a great refinery would be a good beginning and a splendid advertisement. The promoter of the enterprise offers sufficient guarantees to safeguard the city's interests in the future, and any alderman who obstructs the agreement without sound reason will be doing the city an ill service.

THE VALLEY RAILWAY

Mr. Crockett, M. P., signalled his first participation in the discussion in parliament this session by making trouble for Mr. Hazen. Mr. Crockett wanted to know about the St. John Valley Railway. He appeared to have the impression that the federal government had failed to do something which it ought to have done in regard to that enterprise. But Hon. Dr. Pugsley promptly stated the facts, which show that the government is still waiting to hear from Mr. Hazen, who has done nothing beyond making certain statements to a railway company. Dr. Pugsley stated that the federal government was prepared at any time to consider a definite proposition, which Mr. Hazen has thus far failed to make.

In Montreal the other day the provincial premier remembered that he had heard somebody say something to the effect that the Intercolonial Railway was not all it should be, but he has not yet found time to give serious consideration to the Valley Railway project.

The issue is clear. The next move is up to Mr. Hazen. The federal government awaits a definite proposition. This is a provincial matter in which the provincial government should take the initiative. Mr. Hazen cannot continue to shirk his duty and seek to throw responsibility upon other shoulders. The people whose interests would be served by the Valley Railway will hold him to account.

The western Liberal who wants American farm machinery admitted to Canada at a lower rate of duty should wait to learn how the American tariff may affect this country. Will our neighbors be neighborly?

TO THE PEOPLE

The House of Lords has chosen to associate with itself reform what Mr. Winston Churchill describes as an invasion of the rights of the House of Commons. The budget is to be rejected. The course pursued by the Lords will intensify the struggle in the coming elections, and place a formidable weapon in the hands of the Liberals. Their position is strengthened by the fact that Premier Asquith's challenge to the Conservatives still remains unanswered. He has asked what they have to propose as an alternative policy to provide the needed revenue. Mr. Balfour has not given a definite answer. The contest will be extremely bitter, and the extreme radicals will wage a fierce war upon the Lords. The issue is momentous. So far as can be gathered at this distance the budget is popular with the mass of the electors, and it will be a great surprise if the result of the elections should show a different feeling. The Lords have the courage of their convictions, however, and boldly demand the appeal to the people. No contest for a generation has promised so much public excitement, or had greater issues involved.

THE "MUDDLED CREW"

The Toronto World takes certain other Conservative journals severely to task for their attitude on the naval question. It is a good illustration of the worried state of the party at the present time. The World says: "We note that The Ottawa Journal and The Toronto News have practically read Mr. Monk, member of parliament, and Conservative leader for the Province of Quebec, out of the Conservative party, for his pronouncement against a Canadian navy. This attitude, these newspapers maintain, is an act of disloyalty to the Conservative leader, Mr. Borden, who has declared for a Canadian navy, and if possible a money contribution as well to the imperial navy. "From a point of view this may be good tactics and certainly the party has a right to dictate the conditions of membership; but outside of party, there is a great public sentiment and opinion which has to be formed and can only be intelligently exercised by the fullest and freest discussion. For the present The World wishes every man's view to be heard, because only out of full discussion, and heated discussion if you like, will there come forth sufficient facts on which to found a broad and safe policy that will be endorsed by the Canadian nation at large. "The Toronto Telegram, which professes to be as good a Conservative paper as either The News or Journal, and is certainly an independent, has read Mr. Borden out of the Conservative party, for the position he has taken on the naval question. The three able editors of these newspapers are three men in one boat, each with a rudder in his hand, and presenting a rather muddled crew to an interested public on the shore. Let every man be heard if he wants to speak."

THE SEAMEN'S UNION

An international Seamen's convention is to be held in New York. Addressing the American Federation of Labor in Toronto yesterday, J. Havelock Wilson, M. P., president of the British Seamen's Union, said that he had organized 5,000 firemen and sailors in New York in three months. He bitterly denounced the British Shipping Federation, and declared that it was a fight to a finish. On this convention the New York Journal of Commerce says: "A call was issued Saturday for an international convention of the Seamen's Union in this city on November 28. The convention has been arranged principally through the efforts of Havelock Wilson, a labor member of the British parliament, who has been in this country for some time and has been addressing meetings of seamen along the New York, New Jersey and Hoboken waterfront. The convention, which will last for ten days, will start with a ball of the marine cooks' and stewards' branch of the American union, at Beethoven Hall. The serious business of the convention will be started next day. The object of the international union is to bring about a uniformity of wages on steamships in America and Europe."

An enquiry at the homes of miners who lost their lives at the Cherry mine in Illinois showed that the only males left in 86 of them were little children. Upon 88 mothers falls a dreadful burden as a result of this one catastrophe.

The St. John Star had a fling at the Imperial Dry Dock Co. last evening, as a company holding up St. John's interests for the benefit of "a group of promoters." The Telegraph points out that the "group of promoters" includes Thomas McAvity, Col. McLean, James Manchester, W. H. Thorne, James F. Robertson, Joseph Allison, James Kennedy and the estate of the late John Thomson. Are these people likely to "add up" the city?

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP PAYS IN BROCKVILLE

IN MEMORY OF MRS. MARGARET MCGOWAN (Died Nov. 8, 1909, aged 76 years) Loving, kind and faithful Mother: Low they've laid thee in the ground, Till the day of resurrection. When the last great trump shall sound, But we're thankful that thy spirit is within, thy dearest friend. Who gave comfort in affliction, He whose love is without end. Thou hast gone to join thy loved ones, Who have passed on just before. And we know a happy gathering Greet thee on the golden shore. Parents, Sisters, Husband, wait thee: Obed to welcome to that land. For they know that, glory dwelleth in Immanuel's land. May thy children who now mourn thee, Find sweet comfort in God's word: Where will thy Guide all thy lifetime Trusting always in thy Lord. Parents, aunts, we shall miss thee, But 'twill not be very long. Thy joyful rest and glory, Sing with thee the conqueror's song. ANNIE J. MASTEN. St. John, N. B.

THE PILGRIMAGE I made a pilgrimage to find the God: I asked for his voice at holy Combs, Searched for the print of his holy feet, In dust of broken stones, his footback With empty heart. But on the homeward road A great light came upon me and I heard His voice singing in a morning lark. Peril his sweet wonder in the swaying rose: Received his blessing from his right side well: Laid his hands on a lover's face; Saw his bright hand send signal from the sky. —Edwin Markham.

IN LIGHTER VEIN WE'LL PULL THROUGH. Though up go the prices, Soaring just as high, As the ambitious airships Are treated for the sky. The record of the world is We'll live until we die. —Atlanta Constitution.

A REASON. "Why do they want to preserve the great American forest, pa?" "So that they can have forest fires, my son." —Puck.

SAYS MCGOWAN. "Racily, now, how much backin' does yer heart get from yer pocket?" —Cleveland News.

ONE BEST SELLER. The book publishing business is like a tall building; only one set for several stories. —Kansas City Times.

THE PHILOSOPHER OF FOLLY. "When a man says, 'I know what I'm talking about,'" says the Philosopher of folly "the only way I can get even is by asking him to prove it." —Cleveland Leader.

TRYING SITUATION. That northern pole must surely be the only way to the Pole, if it's rough on the anatomy. Likewise the disposition. —Washington Star.

QUET. "What a singularly quiet man Brown is." "Yes, he'd make a great minister to China wouldn't he?" —Puck.

FIRST SIGN OF HEALTH. "No," said the doctor, "it wouldn't be safe to let your husband ride in cabs for 25 years. I don't believe he's well enough." "In that matter, doctor? He seems to be convalescing." "That's what puzzles me. I think he's convalescing, too, and yet he hasn't once complained about the hospital meals served him." —Puck.

USELESS KNOWLEDGE. The young man had just faced the parson with the only girl, and was in search of information. "Can you tell me how to govern a wife?" he asked of the parson who had been up against the game for thirty years. "I can," replied the other sadly. "But what's the use—she won't be." —Puck.

APPRECIATION OF CHARACTER. The Lady Paree—"You cannot cheat me, man. I haven't ridden in cabs for 25 years for nothing." "Haven't you, num?" "Well, you've done your best." —New Zealand Free Lance.

THE BEST OF LIFE IS LOVIN' The best of life is lovin' when yew come of all the low scenes on the stage more We like the love scenes on the stage more We'd rather read love stories than the tales of strife and war, and I tell yew why. Ask any woman on the earth; she'll tell yew why. The best of life is lovin' it is sweeter than success, it sweeter than a famous name, it sweeter than a fortune an' a' famous name. There's nothin' else jes' like it in this old world. I opine, 'ave it an' the poor man counts it fine. Yep, the best of life is lovin' and I write it on this page. It's lovin' that the cradle and it's lovin' comforts age; There may other glories, other joys that 're more than fall; But when yew sum 'em up, yew find that lovin' beats 'em all.

BRITON AND BOER FRIENDS Mr. Roosevelt Found Them in Peace as Neighbors. It was pleasant to see the good terms on which Boer and Briton met. Many of the English settlers whose quest I was, or with whom I had shared the hardships of the South African war; and so had all the Boers I met. The latter had been for the most part members of various particularly hard-fighting commands; and when I closed they felt very bitterly, and wished to avoid living under the British flag. Some moved west and some east; those I met were among the many hundreds of hard enough and who traveled northward—a few overlaid most of them by water—to German East Africa. But in the part in which they happened to settle they were decimated by fever, and their stock perished of cattle sickness; and most of them had again found themselves under the British flag. They were being treated precisely on an equal with the British settlers; and every well-wisher to his kind and above all every well-wisher to Africa, must hope that the men who in South Africa fought so valiantly against one another, each for the right as he saw it, will speedily grow into a companionship of mutual respect, regard and consideration such as that which we are at this moment engaged in. There could be no better and happier people than those, both English and Dutch who are at this moment engaged in the great and difficult task of adding East Africa to the domain of civilization; their work is bound to be hard enough anyhow; and it would be a lamentable calamity to render it more difficult by keeping alive a bitterness which has lost all foundation in fact, he was all eyes and ears to find the culprit, and ultimately he succeeded. Diner had just given his order and the waiter yelled down the host: "Caution!" Then a voice from the depths beneath uttered into the manager's ears. "Great Scott!" he said "What's second and third?" ENDS DYSPEPSIA IN FEW MINUTES Gas, Heartburn, and All Misery From Stomach Vanish Before you Realize it. There would not be a case of indigestion here if readers who are subject to Stomach trouble knew the tremendous anti-ferment and digestive virtue contained in Diapepsin. This harmless preparation will digest a heavy meal without the slightest fuss or discomfort, and relieve the sour, acid stomach in five minutes, besides overcoming all foul, nauseous odors from the breath. Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on each 50-cent case of Paper's Diapepsin, when you will readily understand why this promptly cures Indigestion and removes such symptoms as Heartburn, a feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, belching of Gas, and Eructations of indigested food, water, brush, Nausea, Headache, Blisters, and many other bad symptoms. And, besides, you will not need laxatives to keep your stomach, liver and intestines clean and fresh. Surely, a harmless, inexpensive preparation like Diapepsin, which will always, either at daytime or during night, relieve your stomach misery and digest your meals, is about as handy and valuable a thing as you could have in the house.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES Mrs. Augusta E. Stetson, of New York, accused of "mental malpractice," completed her conference last night with the directors of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Boston. She has spent twenty hours before the board. Nothing was given out. At Chatham yesterday James Chaisson was run over by a heavy wagon load of potatoes, and had his head horribly injured. He is in a serious condition. The appointment of the provincial horticulturalist by the local government is talked of, and the name of Mr. Blair of McDonald College, St. Anne de Bellevue, is heard.

MORNING LOCALS The sugar market was strengthened yesterday by the advance of ten cents in United Empire and Austrian granulated. At a meeting of the Evangelical Alliance yesterday afternoon, Rev. J. J. McCaskill recommended that the Alliance appoint a large committee of representatives of all the churches to make preparations of the coming evangelistic campaign. Wm. O'Keefe, the Union street liquor dealer, was bitten yesterday by a horse while standing by the curbstone in Union street, when he was passing. His shoulder was lacerated. Miss Collier gave an interesting lecture last night at the residence of Mrs. T. H. Bullock, speaking on her trip through Western Canada. Mrs. Crockett and Miss Flanders gave musical selections which were greatly enjoyed. H. A. Powell, K. C., gave an excellent address before the Y. M. C. A. of Centenary church last night on popular government. This lecture is a preliminary step towards a mock parliament to be held by the young men in the near future. Last night in Zion church Rev. RAILROAD CLOCKS. "Wait a minute and then I'll give you that ticket," said a Pennsylvania railway station agent, as he pulled out his watch and listened intently to the little telegraph instrument that had just started to call all the operators, station agents, and, in fact, every office that has a clock as a part of its equipment. It was just half a minute before 2 o'clock and the chief operator at the Broad street station was getting ready to send the correct time over the entire system. A few more sounds of the telegraph and every man had the exact time between New York and Chicago. At noon each day the time is flashed from the Allegheny observatory at Pittsburgh over the wire to the company's general offices, and at 2 o'clock it is relayed from Philadelphia to the thousands of towers and stations along the line.—Harrisburg Patriot.

THE WINNER The manager of a Steakman Restaurant recently received numerous compliments concerning the negligence of the waiters who were alleged, talked incessantly about horse. Anxious to find if the accusation had any foundation in fact, he was all eyes and ears to find the culprit, and ultimately he succeeded. Diner had just given his order and the waiter yelled down the host: "Caution!" Then a voice from the depths beneath uttered into the manager's ears. "Great Scott!" he said "What's second and third?" Have a drink, if you need it, but be sure you won't slip. Something to eat. All dealers. Rubbersoap, CATSPAW RUBBER HEELS will do you as well, at one-third the cost of a pair of rubbers. DEATHS OF KENT COUNTY PEOPLE Rexton, N. B., Nov. 15.—Robert Harding passed away, at his home about a mile above this town, on Friday evening, at the advanced age of ninety-three years. Previous to his last illness, which began about a month ago, he enjoyed good health, and had been married three times. His last wife, who was Miss McAlmon, survives him, and he also leaves two sons and two daughters in the States and one son Robert at home, and a brother, Joseph Harding, of French River, P. E. I., who was with him when he died. Mr. Harding was a native of Prince Edward Island, but resided here about thirty-five years. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon and attended by many. The services were conducted by Rev. A. D. Archibald, and interment was in the Presbyterian cemetery. The death of John Leger, of St. Paul, Kent county, took place in the Moncton hospital on Thursday morning. Typhoid fever was the cause. Mr. Leger, who was thirty years of age, had been employed at the Builders' Woodworking factory, at Sunny Brae. The body was brought to St. Paul for interment. The funeral of Philip J. Wood, of Richibucto, took place here on Saturday morning and was attended by many. Requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. J. J. McLaughlin, and interment was made in the Catholic cemetery. The pallbearers were August Leger, B. E. Johnson, H. H. James, B. J. Johnson, Roderick McLaughlin and Allan Haines.

OBITUARY John C. McDonald The death of John Colin McDonald, aged 78 years, occurred in Antigonish yesterday. He was a well known farmer and contractor in Nova Scotia. He was found dead in bed. Dimock Archibald The death of Dimock Archibald, of Amherst, occurred there yesterday afternoon. For some years he conducted the "Archibald House." He was born in Stewiacke, N. S., sixty-seven years ago, and was twice married. One son by the first marriage was standing by the curbstone in Union street, when he was passing. His shoulder was lacerated. Miss Collier gave an interesting lecture last night at the residence of Mrs. T. H. Bullock, speaking on her trip through Western Canada. Mrs. Crockett and Miss Flanders gave musical selections which were greatly enjoyed. H. A. Powell, K. C., gave an excellent address before the Y. M. C. M s Sarah V. Cronin Sara V. Cronin died yesterday morning in St. Michael's Convent, Chatham. She was a daughter of John F. Cronin, of Milltown, N. B., and a niece of Mrs. Joe Ward, of this city. Miss Cronin was 60 years of age.

THE EARTH'S CENTRE Why all this fuss and controversy as to whether it was Cook or Peary, or either of them, or both, that discovered the North Pole? asks the Kansas City Star. Surely the centre of the earth is as important as either extremity, and the Zoni Indians have the centre astutely correlated and appropriately marked upon their reservation. They feel quite sure of it, and that ought to be sufficient. In the Zoni cosmogony, the earth is conceived of as flat, and shaped like a pancake. Being a chosen people, the gods, they were commanded early in their tribal career to go to the exact centre of the world and their build their homes; and one of the most interesting legends of the people relates the story of their wanderings in search of the middle place, and tells how they know it when they reached it. It is about 200 yards south of their village in western New Mexico, thirty-five miles south of Gallup, on the Santa Fe route. It is marked by a crude shrine, built like a bake oven, out of flat stones. Two large removable flag-stones close the entrance, which faces the rising sun. On the top are a number of concretionary formations, known to the Indians as Thunder stones. In the interior are large numbers of feather-tufted prayer sticks, and several earthenware vessels filled with incense. Numerous ceremonial dances, performed around this holy place.

BILLION DOLLAR MERGER, BELL TELEPHONE GETS WESTERN UNION

Means Control of Lines in United States and Canada By the Company—The Goulds' Sell Out Western Union Stock

Boston, Mass., Nov. 16.—A long stride toward the complete control by one corporation of all wire communication in the United States was made today in the acquisition by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company of control of the Western Union Telegraph Company and the possible extension of the telephone service to the far corners of the land without duplication or extra construction.

In order to make the absorption complete, the incorporation of a new billion-dollar company, it is said, will be necessary to include the $292,474,400 of the bonds and stock of the American Telephone Company, known as the Bell Company, and the outstanding $165,000,000 of the bonds and stock of the Western Union.

The acquisition of the necessary stock and voting rights of the Western Union by the Bell Company has been in progress for about six months. The work has been conducted quietly, and only a sufficient amount said to be 51 per cent, was taken over to insure control.

The leading officers of the Bell Company regarded the step as one of economy, and they point out that ever since the telephone has been a factor in human life, it has had to compete with the telegraph. Lines have been paralleled, and there has been an immense amount of duplication.

The history of the Western Union dates back to before the civil war, but the Bell Company is of comparatively recent origin. Both companies pursued the usual methods of absorbing smaller companies until the snowball rolled into a corporation whose assets and liabilities totalled hundreds of millions of dollars.

Other officers of the Western Union have declined to make any extended comment on the merger. President Clorcy said he did not care to talk on the subject. "Boston evidently is the source of information," he said. "As near as I understand it, the American Telephone & Telegraph Company owns a substantial minority interest in the Western Union."

The telephone system annually transmits 5,966,800,000 messages, while the Western Union in the same period transmits 28,000,000 telegrams.

The smaller companies acquired by the Western Union in the course of competition years ago have been lost in the confusion of the history of the old concern. Some of the associated corporations engaged in the telephone business, the majority of whose stock rests in the treasury of the present concern are:

New York Telephone Company, $30,000,000; New England Telephone & Telegraph Company, $31,700,000; Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania, $31,150,000; New York & New Jersey Telephone Company, $29,400,000; Southern Bell Telephone Company, $21,400,000; Cumberland Telephone & Telegraph Company, $19,700,000; Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company, $18,000,000; Chicago Telephone Company, $17,500,000; Western Telephone & Telegraph Company, $16,000,000; Bell Telephone Company of Canada, $12,500,000.

New York, Nov. 16.—Announced in Boston, confirmed in New York and other cities with interest everywhere, another billion-dollar merger became a reality today with the practical absorption of the Western Union Telegraph Company by the American Telephone & Telegraph Company. The Western Union has been in the Gould family for a generation and it was by the sale of Gould stock today that the merger was accomplished.

George J. Gould, chairman of the board of the Western Union, said tonight: "It is a fact that we have sold a large part of our holding in the Western Union Telegraph Company to the telephone company. I believe this will insure to the benefit of both the public and the Western Union stockholders as the business of both companies can be handled so that they form a complement to one another."

Other officers of the Western Union have declined to make any extended comment on the merger. President Clorcy said he did not care to talk on the subject. "Boston evidently is the source of information," he said. "As near as I understand it, the American Telephone & Telegraph Company owns a substantial minority interest in the Western Union."

The telephone system annually transmits 5,966,800,000 messages, while the Western Union in the same period transmits 28,000,000 telegrams.

CANADIAN NEWS NOTES

Toronto, Nov. 16.—The action brought by W. D. Beardmore to block the contract between the city and Hydro-Electric Power Commission, reached the trial stage before Chancellor Boyd today.

Mr. Beardmore pleads that the citizens voted for the agreement for 15,000 horse power at a price to be fixed by arbitrators, that the city's plan to sell power is illegal, as it is not part of the functions of a corporation; the legislature's action is unconstitutional, and the city has no power to collect taxes for such a purpose.

Kingston, Ont., Nov. 16.—Early last night a masked man entered the toll house on the Bath Road, about three miles from Kingston, frightened away the occupants by firing a few shots at their feet and carried off several dollars. Chas. Brown, head of the family, was away. His wife and children have given a good description of the burglar.

EXPECT LORDS TO VOTE 300 TO 40 AGAINST BUDGET

London, Nov. 16.—The terms of Lord Lansdowne's motion to reject the budget, of which he gave formal notice in the House of Lords today, were communicated to Premier Asquith at an early hour and discussed by the cabinet council during the course of the day.

The Unionists anticipate that 300 peers will support Lord Lansdowne, who is the dominant power in the House of Lords number only forty. On the rejection of the budget bill it is expected that the premier will move in the House of Commons a resolution strongly condemning the peers' action, affirming the sole right of the House of Commons to deal with matters of taxation, and declaring the peers' attempt to force a dissolution to be unconstitutional.

Mr. Balfour, the leader of the opposition in the house of commons, is under engagement to deliver a speech at Manchester tomorrow night, which probably will contain the Unionist party's election manifesto.

Meantime Winston Spencer Churchill is first in the field with a manifesto from the Liberal standpoint. In a letter on the situation, he claims that the power to force dissolution is the prerogative of the crown and that finance is the executive privilege of the House of Commons.

The same day Miss Smith, the church organist, disappeared from a neighborhood where she had been visiting. Investigation develops the fact that they met and we have traced them to Chicago. Her place, where she had been visiting, investigation develops the fact that they met and we have traced them to Chicago.

REV. ED. O. TILBURN IS OUSTED FROM CHURCH

Christian Church Summarily Dismisses Former Pastor For Conduct Unbecoming a Christian (Linton, Indiana, Daily Call).

The Christian church Sunday expelled its former pastor, Rev. Edward O. Tilburn from fellowship. A standing vote of the church members during the last three months it will be greatly appreciated. I am now the pastor here.

Your Bro. in Christ, MELNOTTE MILLER. In addition to this, copies of The Call will be mailed to every newspaper in the United States. It is hoped that through some of these publications traces of his whereabouts may be ascertained.

IMPORTANT ADDRESS BY SIR WILFRID. Sir Wilfrid Laurier's recent speech on "The Constitution of Great Britain and the United States—A Comparison," given before the Woman's Canadian Club of Montreal, was an important one, and one which teachers and leaders of debating societies will find exceedingly valuable for readings and discussion.

That it was an instructive address goes without saying, for matters of constitutional history form one of the favorite studies of the Premier. He showed how all other countries in the search for liberty had had to adopt the principles of that constitution in whole or in part, and remarked that the most illustrious example of all was that of the American Colonies, which when they had wrrenched themselves from the Mother-land, had paid her the compliment of adopting her constitution as far as the new conditions permitted. He showed why, in his opinion, the British Constitution was more elastic and more responsive to the public needs than the American Constitution.

Through the courtesy of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the full text of this address has been published in "World Wide," of November 6, copies of which may be obtained at special rates from the publishers, John Douglal & Son, Montreal, Que.

Between his religion and pleasure it is always the latter that interferes with a man's business.

Dear Bro:— Last February at my recommendation, Bro. E. O. Tilburn of Butte, Montana, was called to the pastorate of the church at this place. His work was splendidly successful. At his solicitation I came Sept. 19 to begin a meeting with him. On Monday, Sept. 13, he went away, leaving word he would return by Thursday. Letters, however, were sent, stating he would not

DOCTORS FAVOR THE DOMINION REGISTRATION

Meeting in Montreal—Will Seek to Have Roddick Act Amended

Montreal, Nov. 16.—A tentative agreement was arrived at today by a conference of representative physicians from all over Canada, by which it is hoped that the Dr. Roddick bill for Dominion medical registration may be so amended as to be acceptable to all the provinces.

This bill was adopted at Ottawa in 1902, and provided for a Dominion Medical Council to so regulate matters that doctors, satisfying it as to their qualifications, could be given dominion-wide powers to practice, in order to abolish the present anomalous condition, by which duly qualified physicians in one province cannot practice in other provinces.

Four western provinces agreed to the act, which specified that all the provinces must accept it before it could become law. As the other provinces did not take such action it has remained a dead letter.

At the annual meeting of the Canadian Medical Association, last August in Winnipeg, the matter was again brought up, and delegates were appointed to meet Dr. T. G. Roddick, the father of the act, here and see if it could not be so amended as to be acceptable to all the provincial medical councils.

A long discussion was held at the Windsor Hotel today by the delegates behind closed doors. At the conclusion it was announced that a tentative agreement had been arrived at, and that as a result steps would be taken to have the Roddick act so amended as to be acceptable to all the provinces. This will be adopted by all the provinces, when Dominion Medical registration will at last become accomplished. Dr. T. S. Roddick, ex-M. P., presided and the delegates at the meeting were:

Doctors F. J. Tunstall, Vancouver; R. J. Blanchard, Winnipeg; W. Spankie, Wolf Island (Ont.); S. N. Starr, Toronto; R. W. Powell, Ottawa; Murray MacLaren, St. John (N. B.); J. W. Daniel, Halifax; Geo. M. Campbell, Halifax; T. L. Sinclair, Halifax; S. B. Jenkins, Charlotte-town (P. E. I.); E. P. Lachapelle, Montreal; H. S. Birckett, Montreal, and L. P. Normand, Three Rivers.

SCHOONER ASHORE ON CAPE BRETON

North Sydney, N. S., Nov. 16.—Just as she came within sight of her destination today, the three-masted schooner Myrtle V. Hopkins, Captain Zink, from Halifax, in ballast, drove ashore this afternoon on the treacherous rocks a mile west of Flat Point light, and tonight is fast being reduced to kindling wood.

In a very few minutes after striking her keel was torn out and a hole pounded in her bottom. The force of the wind and water sending her higher up as each succeeding breaker struck her.

The pilots and others on shore who had seen the vessel's predicament, were on hand to render assistance, and after a line had been shot to the shore a dory manned by several pilots put out to the schooner, finally succeeding with great difficulty in getting Captain Zink, his wife, and crew of six men ashore.

PANAMA CANAL WORK

Shown at the NICKEL. Nickel patrons today and tomorrow will be transferred from the families of St. John to the scenes of that stupendous engineering operation, the digging of the Panama canal. It required no school teacher to tell how important a work the Americans are doing in this regard and when the living photograph of the momentous plant at work is thrown upon the canvas, watchers will be astounded with it. The quaint city of Panama and scenes of development and industry, the canal route, such as the blasting of solid rock from great depths, huge steam shovels in operation, the unloading of forty to fifty carloads of earth at once, and numerous other unusual happenings are depicted. At regular intervals throughout the picture the stay-at-home traveler is whirled along in front of a locomotive and thus given a clear conception of the great work.

The Nickel's next best picture is a Chicago drama of the stock market, entitled "The Game. Here we see a battle of wits and wagers, and during the night the picture returns to the stay-at-home traveler in a deplorable struggle from almost certain defeat. The Chicago pictures and stock market drama are fervidly portrayed throughout this film. There will be some first class comedy material in the program as well. J. W. Myers will today conclude his rendering of the child song, "Let's Go Back to Baby Days, and tomorrow night we will see the success of the presentation of the ballad, "His Wife Came Marching Home. Master Fairhair is singing today and "I'm Glad I'm Married" and tomorrow night will be heard in "I'm Glad I'm a Boy."

DOUBLE BILL AT THE OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT

The Manxman drew another large audience to the Opera House last night and Mr. English and Miss Downin received several curtain calls. Owing to the success The Manxman has made Mr. Harkins has decided to present it at the matinee Saturday afternoon. Tonight the company will appear in a grand double bill, The Queen of the Circus and the celebrated Divorcee (Divorce).

Miss Grace George's great success, on its recent production in Halifax. The Morning Chronicle speaks of it as follows: "The play is not a drama, as many suppose, but a bright breezy comedy, a travesty on the French divorce laws. It is full of amusing situations, bright lines, and keeps an audience thoroughly amused throughout. Miss Lora Downin made a decided success in the principal role, the woman who thought she wanted a divorce and then discovered that she loved her husband most. She presented a charming appearance, was handsomely dressed and made a most artistic portrayal of the heroine. Harry English is just as clever in comedy as in heroic roles, and his performance of the leading male role was one of his best."

GOOD WORDS FOR L.C.R. FROM MEN WHO KNOW

Moncton, Nov. 16 - The recent criticism of the Intercolonial by Lord Northcliffe has evidently aroused many of the regular patrons of the road, and is causing them to rally to its defence.

Letters are being received daily by the management from prominent business men and commercial travelers expressing their appreciation of the excellent train service given by the "People's Railway" and of the superior equipment of the through Maritime express between Montreal, St. John and Halifax.

As these are the qualified opinions of men who have traveled widely they are likely to be most widely accepted than the declaration of Lord Northcliffe.

MRS. ARCHIBALD'S LECTURE

JIT FEW SUFFRAGETTES

Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst

Lady Frances Cook

Miss Helen Gould

Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont

Mrs. Russell Sage

Suffragette has long since passed that stage where it can be designated a fad. It is now a reality, and a term one at that. With the advent of women high in the social scale within its ranks an impetus has been given to the cause of suffrage which is sending it forward with such a steadily increasing power that legislators in all parts of the world have begun to realize that woman's fight for her rights is no longer the hysterical shriek of that class shrilly referred to as "The New Woman," but a well-organized and carefully mapped-out campaign of women thoroughly capable of fighting their own battles.

The arrival of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, England's most militant suffragette, on these shores, coupled with that of Lady Frances Cook, another English woman, whose fight for suffrage has taken her to every corner of the world where civilization has penetrated, has brought about an ominous activity among their American sisters. The Civic Federation and affiliated bodies outdid themselves in arranging receptions and mass-meetings for the distinguished visitors, and wherever their voices were uplifted in the great common cause there was an outpouring of women that taxed the police to their utmost to hold the crowds in check and prevent harm from befalling them in their mad crush to see, hear and BE SEEN.

In applying the term militant to Mrs. Pankhurst, I do so advisedly. For it must be remembered Mrs. Pankhurst had the temerity to head the British lion in his very den, inasmuch as she invaded the sacred confines of the House of Parliament leading her host of suffragettes and from the hallowed Parliament Terrace she hurled and hurled until she had signed herself into jail. This was not all. Running counter to the orders of London stoics—the police, or "Bobbies," as all well-regulated Britons call them—she held mass-meetings in all parts of London and again and again landed in jail. The last time she served her prison term and when she emerged from her incarceration, she was proclaimed and heralded as THE Suffragette of suffragettes. And why shouldn't she be? Didn't she twist the lion's tail?

Of her experiences in London, and especially while in prison, Mrs. Pankhurst recounted to her American sisters with rare feeling and eloquence. She is proclaimed the one woman who suffered for her cause, and today this suffering suffragette has about anything within the gift of her American sisters she cares to ask for.

Mrs. Pankhurst's appearance at Carnegie Hall, in New York, a few weeks ago, clearly demonstrated the wonderful growth and interest in the question of suffrage in America's foremost city. Carnegie Hall was designed to seat an audience of three thousand. According to Police Captain Post, who was in charge of the police arrangements, nearer five thousand panted, perspiring and struggling women forced their way into the hall on this occasion. It was an orderly crowd, too, for Captain Post said so, adding, "The ladies are behaving as well as possible, and those gentlemen on the inside are conducting themselves like perfect ladies."

many of the millions left by her late father, Jay Gould, and who since his death has spent money lavishly upon her pet charities in an effort, it is said, to make some reparation for the uncharitableness of her grasping and money-accumulating step; Mrs. Russell Sage, whose late husband's millions came to her long after she had passed her sixtieth milestone in life's journey, and, like Miss Gould, is devoting the remainder of her years and her multi-millions to the alleviation of suffering; Mrs. G. Phelps Stokes, who as a humble Rose Parsons, devoted the years prior to her marriage to her millionaire husband to the betterment of conditions on the East Side, and Mrs. Clarence Mackay, wife of the president of the Postal Telegraph and Cable Company, and the foremost suffragist in America. There were hundreds of other equally prominent and among them might be mentioned Mrs. Eorden Harriman, Mrs. John M. Holland, Mrs. Henry Phipps, Mrs. Elbert H. Gray and Mrs. William M. Irwin, whose husband once had aspirations to be New York's mayor. These are names to conjure with for each and every one of them have played a part in the suffrage cause, who have at their command countless thousands to back them in the battle for the ballot.

Of course, the winning over of Mrs. Belmont to the suffrage movement is looked upon by those who have fought so long and against such crushing odds, as the most signal victory of their career. Mrs. Harriet Stanton Black had more to do than any other in the suffrage cause, perhaps, than anyone else, and she was the one who first announced the conversion of the mistress of Newport's Marble Palace. Mrs. Belmont, however, declares that the conversion of Mrs. Irwin was even more remarkable than her own, for to Mrs. Belmont Mrs. Irwin recently said, "I had rather kick a policeman's hat off than listen to an English suffragette."

When Mrs. Pankhurst was introduced Croset, president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, several hundred women occupied seats on the stage. A partial roll of these women showed that 79 were teachers, 57 doctors, 6 dentists, 49 social workers, 38 trained nurses, 120 trades-unionists, 19 musicians, explorer and mountain climber (Miss Anna Peck), 4 civil engineers, 22 architects, 146 business women, 16 authoresses, 2 sculptors, 14 journalists, 69 Civil Service women and 22 lawyers. It can readily be seen that the wave of suffrage had invaded every field of endeavor adopted by woman. Among the most interested spectators were hundreds of bookmakers, bookbinders, cigar-makers, doctors, gold-leaf workers, hat trimmers, illuminators, librarians, potters, printers, stenographers, clerks, textile workers, telegraphers and waitresses. Here they met in a common cause, the most exalted and petted women of society rubbing elbows with the "horror-handled daughters of toil." For enthusiasm this gathering of women made an ordinary political mass-meeting look like a Quaker meeting.

There are few women nowadays allied with clubs such as the Civic Federation who are not pronouncedly suffrage sympathizers. There are thousands of suffragists also, but the latter is a militant in every particular and goes to greater lengths toward carrying her point than her more modest and retiring sister, the suffragist. But women are born fighters, and realizing that nearly every step forward that the cause of suffrage has made has been accomplished by dint of grit and indomitable courage, they are more prone to overlook what they once called "the vulgar forwardness" of the suffragette. The militant suffragette is to the ascendancy. In her onward march she has thousands of women in her train who less than a year ago openly avowed that they had no sympathy with the cause.

To return to Mrs. Pankhurst, it might be well to tell what she accomplished in England. As the mother of the militant movement in that country, this intrepid leader succeeded in having a woman nominated and elected mayor of one of its cities. This woman, she declares, has given history and she predicts that within the next decade there will be a hundred mayoresses in America. Mrs. Pankhurst is referred to that fashionable colony in the suburbs of Richmond, Va., where women have been given a voice in its government. She asserts that the enfranchisement of women must of a necessity follow, and this one, it will be but an easy step to procure office for the candidate of the suffragettes. While deeply gratified at the great headway the suffrage movement is making here, Mrs. Pankhurst declared that the belated state of America as regards woman's questions is glaringly apparent. America, she says, is behind the times, and has been slow to grasp the true meaning of a great movement even when it was explained to her. American women are behind us," said the militant martyr, while summing up the situation here. "I am surprised that there should be so little feeling among women generally on the subject of suffrage. I will admit that you have made wonderful headway in the last year or so and are now on the eve of getting for yourselves that which has taken us nearly a century to accomplish. Of course, you will never get the vote until you really want it, but bear in mind that the fight against the men is simple when you have united women aligned against them. We find our men comparatively open-minded; they are awakened to a new interest in women through the movement and I am always amused when people worry about a dying chivalry. Old things are bound to go, of course, but we have based our struggle on chivalry, and I have seen a very interesting new chivalry spring up. Your men are reputed to be the most chivalrous in the world; therefore your fight should be easier."

Lady Frances Cook is of a different type. She is a woman of rare delicacy and refinement, and whereas she takes just as prominent a part in the fight for ballots for women, she has never been imprisoned for the cause. Logical and forceful arguments, coupled with peculiarly winning and persuasive powers, are her weapons, and she never fails to charm her audience.

The women of Great Britain and America will get the ballot within the year. This is Lady Cook's prophecy. Whether it comes here or in England first is an even chance, she says. Here it may have an sudden emergency. On the other side of the water, she says, it may be founded upon the politicians to stem the tide of a threatening revolution. Some of Lady Cook's utterances are paradoxical.

CASE OF FAILURE OF SOCIALISTIC THEORIES

Miners Were Ready to Share in Profits, but Objected to Participation in Losses

(London Globe.) One of the most striking examples of the failure of Socialistic theories, when tested by practical experiment, is given by Colonel Edward Viner, in his report to the foreign office and the Board of Trade on the trade of the coal-mining district of Lyons for the past year. The autumn of the period under review, he states, marked the close of an interesting, but ill-starred experiment in practical Socialism—that of the Miners' Mutual Society—in the Loire coal basin, which was commenced in 1891, and heralded as marking the inauguration of a new golden age of industrial co-operation. A concession consisting of four pits, covering an area of some 185 acres, had been obtained at a low price from a Paris banker, and subscriptions flowed in from all sides, including one of £20,000 from the Petit Journal, which favored the enterprise, and the same amount from the government, and £400 from the town of Saint Etienne. Having thus secured an adequate sum as working capital, the Miners' Union set to work to frame the statutes of the new society—the essential point of which was that all profits were to be divided among the workers in the mine.

Disensions and difficulties were not long in making their appearance and practically never ceased until the final closing down of the pits. The chief of these disputes arose from the fact that soon after the opening of the mine the regular members of the society began to get in outside men to help. These auxiliaries gradually grew to consider themselves just as much shareholders as the original members, and, therefore, equally entitled to share in the profits. Moreover, it not infrequently happened that when funds were low an all-round pro rata reduction had to be made in wages—an arrangement which caused great dissatisfaction among

THE VALUE OF ENTHUSIASM

Why the Salvation Army Succeeds—Some Examples in Explanation

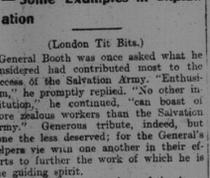

(London Tit Bits.) General Booth was once asked what he considered had contributed most to the success of the Salvation Army. "Enthusiasm," he promptly replied. "No other institution," he continued, "can boast of more zealous workers than the Salvation Army." Generous tribute, indeed, but none the less deserved; for the General's helpers vie with one another in their efforts to further the work of which he is the guiding spirit. And the humblest members of the Army often make the greatest sacrifices, particularly during the annual week of self-denial, when a large proportion of the money needed for the extension of the work in this and other countries is raised. "One old slumner," says Commissioner Raiton in his interesting book, "sent half a crown every now and then to the headquarters, though it was evident that she was not possessed of sufficient clothing to shield her successfully in the cold months. Her only reply when urged to receive some money for herself was, 'Oh, give it to somebody poorer than me.'"

Another old lady sent £5, which she had managed to save by doing all her own housework and washing, although she was 74 years of age; while in Berlin this year a woman who earned her bread by rag-picking was almost broken-hearted when an officer of the Army, knowing her extreme poverty, objected to take the 7s which she had saved up, and which she offered.

Some astonishing stories are also told concerning the hardships endured by members of the Salvation Army in foreign countries in order to attend meetings. "Ever since that first Sunday, when the General walked from Hammersmith to Whitechapel to conduct his first meeting there, we have been training our soldiers to march any distances as often as may be necessary," says Commissioner Raiton.

In South Africa it is nothing unusual for Salvationists to walk for months rather than spend any of the money they have earned in the mines, railway fares, and they have been known to cover all the distance between Victoria Falls and Johannesburg. To march from Kimberley to Johannesburg to a meeting is an ordinary undertaking, while in the

STEALING WHEAT IN TRANSIT

During the fall of 1908 grain shippers along the Illinois Central Railroad in northwestern Iowa found themselves face to face with a very annoying and surprising state of affairs. Cars of wheat, which had been freighted to their eastern destination with the actual surface of the grain a foot, and often two feet, above the loadline. Consignees who disclosed the uncomfortable fact that discrepancies amounting to several hundred bushels occasionally occurred, were met with the reply that the cars had been tampered with by the thief.

If grain was being misused, it must have been taken from the cars en route. But how? The thing promised to be a first-class detective proposition, and appealed to me strongly. Seizing a happy moment, I would learn things. Incredible as it may seem, it was during the next morning, that despite my vigilance the car had plainly been pilfered while I was a passenger inside it.

But it was game. I made another trial on a different car. To facilitate observation and to insure keeping awake, I tackled the trucks. I chose the rear truck of the car immediately ahead of the wheat car, an ensconced myself snugly. I had warm clothing and my pistols were in my pockets. I could observe without being observed, and the outlook was good for interesting developments.

Station after station went by as we rolled on through the night. And then suddenly we topped on a bridge. "Bzzzz!" went the brakes and reluctantly the cars groaned to a standstill. Almost immediately two dark figures arose at the side of the grain car behind me and attacked the car—apparently with an auger. A yellow light flashed down into the car, and I knew the brakeman was leaning over the edge of the car, holding his lantern as aid to the thieves. They had a unique system of operation. By means of boards, a chute had been constructed down one side of the bridge upright. Below the chute was a board floor about twelve feet square. By boring a six-inch auger-hole in the carside, they tubed the wheat down to the floor and later shoveled it into wagons and hauled it home.

Naptho SOAP

No more soaking clothes over night—no more use for back-breaking, health-wrecking wash boilers. Naptho Soap does work of boiling and rubbing in looses and dissolves dirt without aid of boiling. Boiling merely softens dirt, weakens fibre of clothes—Old-time rubbing wears them out. Naptho makes no frayed edges—no easy tearing. Just rub lightly and rinse in cold lukewarm water. Valuable Premium given for Naptho Wrappers.

AND THE LAWYERS LAUGHED.

(Louisville Times.) "No, Your Honor, I haf not," replied the German. "Then," said the judge, "I will fine you $80 and give you."

"Oh, dat is all right, Your Honor," interrupted the German, glad to get off with a fine. "I haf dis money right in my pocket."

HOW MUCH HAVE YOU LOST?

How much time does your bookkeeper spend entering incoming cash items in the Cash Book?

The answer to that question, together with the amount of salary your bookkeeper draws, will tell you just what it costs you to enter those items. And it will tell you the amount of money it will save you to install the "Burroughs Cash Received System," which will do away with the journalizing of cash forever.

This is the system which saves the American Cereal Company of Chicago fourteen hours a day—one hour and forty-five minutes for each of eight bookkeepers. It is saving hundreds of other concerns from two to twenty hours a day.

We will send you full particulars and demonstrate the system in your own office, on your own work, without cost or the slightest obligation, if you will fill out the coupon today.

Let Us Show You How to Save It

(Sign the Coupon)

Keeping records is necessary work, but unproductive work. Every new record made cuts the profits of the business by just so much. It has been ascertained that in many large concerns it costs nine cents to keep track of every item of debit or credit in connection with the business.

It is costing you too, a part of your profits, whether your business be large or small. It probably does not cost you nine cents an entry, but it is costing you more than it need cost unless you are using the Burroughs system. It is costing you for every entry your bookkeeper makes in journalizing cash, and it is costing him too, in time which he might spend more profitably.

You have been losing money—you are losing money every time your bookkeeper enters incoming cash items in the cash book. For that is unnecessary work, which we can show you how to avoid.

Granted that it doesn't cost you nine cents to follow each item through your books, it is probable that it does cost at least a penny—real money upon which you get no return whatever. Every reduction you can make in this cost is so much clear gain—money saved that would otherwise be lost so far as any return is concerned.

Let us explain the Burroughs Cash Received System as it is used by many of the leading business houses of the United States. It saves them money or they would not use it. They are satisfied with it, or they would not endorse it so freely. Read what they say about the system, then sign the coupon and return it to us—today.

What Users Say About the Cash Received System

Hardware Manufacturers
 "We have been using the Burroughs Cash Received System in connection with your No. 15 machine for over a year, and believe it to be the best system that we ever adopted in our office.
 "It not only affords a great saving of time, but it is a positive check on our work and proof against errors.
 "Next to the Burroughs itself, we consider the Cash Received System our greatest time saver, and we cannot thank you enough for bringing the matter to our attention at the time we installed the machine."
THE ROOT BROTHERS CO.
 J. A. ROOT, Treasurer.
 Plymouth, Ohio.

Shoe Manufacturers
 "It seems to be the opinion of our Accounting Department that you rendered us a genuine service so far as the plan for handling cash receipts, which you installed here, is concerned. We have used it now for four months without a hitch of any sort, and the time saving as well as the accuracy phases of the idea must be apparent to anyone."

THE PINGREE CO.
 Detroit, Mich.

Wholesale Jewelers
 "We take great pleasure in stating that after several months practical application of the Burroughs Cash Received System, we are prepared to give it our highest endorsement, being superior to the old way in more ways than one, namely—a saving of an average of two hours daily, and an absolute check on the ledger postings and deposit.
 "We are handling all cash disbursements in like manner with the same satisfactory results. It goes without saying that the use of the Burroughs in connection with the new method makes less liability to error."
 "We therefore cheerfully sanction the use of our name in connection with your advertising of the system."
THE E. & J. SWIGART CO.
 Cincinnati, Ohio. Per C. C. CANNON.

Vehicles and Furniture
 "We consider the use of the Burroughs Cash Received System a great improvement over the old way, in fact, we consider it worth the purchase of an adding machine for that item alone, if for no other."
THE GENDRON WHEEL CO.
 Toledo, Ohio.

Wholesale Grocers
 "For some considerable time past, our bookkeeper has been handling his incoming cash items under your Burroughs Cash Received System, and we are pleased to report that it is proving entirely satisfactory and, if anything, more accurate and errors more easily traced than the old regular bookkeeping system under which he was doing his work.
 "He reports that the labor under the Burroughs Cash Received System is not in his opinion, over one-half of what it was in transacting that part of the work as he had previously been doing."
THE BRYANT-SISSON CO.
 La Crosse, Wisconsin. J. W. BRYANT, President.

This is the Time to Buy That Overcoat

There are several reasons why it should be better for you to select your Winter Overcoat, this week, instead of waiting.

First, our lines are now complete, and we have your individual size in exactly the pattern and shade and fabric you like best.

Second, while we pride ourselves on the excellent service, we give each customer even on rush days, it is true that we can now give you more of our time, more personal attention, and so be of greater assistance in selecting just exactly the Overcoat you want and need.

Third, if you select your Overcoat now you will get more service from it—even an extra week or two is worth while—and you will have it ready to slip on when the "cold snap" comes along.

Our stock of Winter Overcoats is replete with good things. Prices run from $10.00 to $25.00, and all are really exceptional values.

TAYLOR IN COURT; BULLET IN HEAD

Lauchner Case Gone Into This Morning — A Warning Re Fire-Arms

The case of Gilbert Lauchner, arrested some time ago on a charge of carrying weapons contrary to the law and of shooting Elijah Taylor, was postponed this morning until this afternoon, when Dr. E. J. Ryan will be called to testify.

His honor, this morning, read the sections of the law regarding such cases, and strongly criticized the habit of carrying firearms. He said that the law stated that any person found pointing an empty gun or pistol or air gun at another, was liable to a term of imprisonment.

Taylor, when sworn, said that for two weeks or more he had been in the hospital and had just been discharged. In telling of the shooting, he said that he and Lauchner had been working in the St. John Iron Works. About 5:30 o'clock on Saturday afternoon they met near the foundry. The defendant produced a revolver and asked the witness to buy it, but he refused. Lauchner began to explain the good qualities and the mechanism of the shooting iron, when the trigger was pulled and a shot was fired, which struck the witness in the eye. He fell to the ground and was later conveyed to the hospital.

Deputy Chief Jenkins, who said that on the day of the shooting he and Detective Killen had gone to the office of the St. John Iron Works, where they found the two colored youths. The wounded boy said his name was McCarthy. He also said that he believed the shooting to have been accidental. Taylor was sent to the hospital and Lauchner was arrested.

The evidence of Detective Killen agreed with what the deputy had said. He added that he had learned that the bullet was still in Taylor's head, but would probably not do any injury.

Lauchner was remanded.

BRIGADIER ADBY HERE TOMORROW

New Salvation Army Divisional Commander Will Be Installed Thursday Night

Brigadier and Mrs. Adby, who have been appointed to the command of the New Brunswick Division of the Salvation Army, will be tendered a public reception in the Salvation Army Citadel, (Chapin street), tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. They will arrive at noon. Lieut. Colonel Turner will conduct this service and will install the new divisional commander.

The brigadier has seen many years of service in the army, and has held several important commands in the old land. Since coming to Canada, a little more than a year ago, he has been engaged in conducting special evangelistic services throughout the Dominion, and in this connection has had marked success. A sweet and effective singer, and a convincing speaker, he is a most acceptable platform worker, and a successful and profitable stay is predicted for him.

WEDDING TONIGHT

A. H. Washburn, of Partington Pulp and Paper Co. to Wed Miss Hart

The home of Edward Hart, Bridge street, will be the scene of a happy event this evening at 9:30 o'clock, when his eldest daughter, Miss Mary Hayes Hart, will be united in marriage to Arthur H. Washburn, cashier of the Partington Pulp & Paper Co. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. F. F. Furdin, curate of St. Luke's church, in the presence of the relatives of the contracting parties and a few friends.

After the wedding supper will be served and a little later the bride and groom will leave for Halifax on a honeymoon trip. On their return they will take up their residence in Waterloo street.

The young couple will be unattended at the wedding. The bride's dress is to be a gown of blue serge and she will wear a hat of a similar color. Each of the principals has received a great number of remembrances from their friends with whom they are very popular.

Neighbors who saw Marie fall, rushed to her aid. They were surprised when they found her sitting upright and crying lustily. Dr. Smyke, of the Long Island College Hospital, found only a slight cut on the lower lip where the child's teeth had broken through the skin from the jar and slight bruise. As a precaution she was taken to the hospital, and last night she was cooing and clapping her hands.
