WHO IS THE TRAITOR NOW?

France Has Another Sensational Dreyfus Case.

Plans and Particulars of French Fortresses Sold to German and Other Governments.

PARIS, May 16.—The Matin's London correspondent having obtained nearly a hundred authentic plans of the fortifications of Toulon, besides numerous other compromising documents, that paper this morning begins the publication of the history of a treason affair which seems likely to exceed in importance the offences with which Dreyfus was charged.

On April 21, the correspondent received a letter written in a queer semi-French, semi-Italian jargon and signed "Frigola Pieter," telling him that the writer, who was employed in an hotel, had been acting as a guide to two persons who came to London to sell a large parcel of documents of the highest importance concerning French naval defenses. The letter stated that the men had gone to Brussels leaving the writer penniless. He therefore wanted to negotiate for the transfer of certain documents. An appointment was made and Frigola, who was desperately hungry, told the following story:

He was formerly, he said, employed at the war ministry at Rome, but became compromised in a case of espionage and was sentenced to six months' imprisonment. Subsequently he came to London, living from hand to mouth, and he had acted as guide and secretary to two men of Italian origin, with one of whom, a naturalized French citizen, he had formerly been acquainted with at the war ministry in Rome. Both of these men, Frigola said, worked for foreign governments and had several times sold important secrets to Germany at high prices. The Italian's name was Cesare Gollo and that of the naturalized Frenchman, Jerome Mesqui.

The latter had long been a contractor on public works at Toulon. They had gone to Brussels five days ago, leaving him entirely without means of living. He further stated that Gollo had left documents behind him, and these he wanted to sell. Frigola thereupon produced eighty-five plans of the Toulon forts, some of them the French originals and other accurate copies made at the Italian war ministry. He also had in his possession a set of plans of Cherbourg, Brest and Toulon, with typewritten instructions, claimed by Frigola to have emanated from the German staff concerning the marking of batteries of artillery.

There was also a letter appointing a rendezvous at the "Thurberg," Berlin, for Nov. 18, signed "X." To this was attached a card inscribed "Felix Friedrich Scholl." The Matin's correspondent gave Frigola a few shillings and persuaded him to leave the documents in his hands in order that an examination of them might be made. The next morning he took them to the French embassy, where the naval attaché declared them to be absolutely genuine.

The Matin will continue its revelations tomorrow.

IS HOP BEER INTOXICATING?

Moncton Police are Going to Find Out for Certain—Moncton Pastor's Resignation

(Special to the Star.)
MONCTON, N. B., May 16.—Of late a large number of small beer shops have been opened here and nearly every restaurant and candy shop sells what is called hop beer, but which is believed to be intoxicating. To test the matter, Chief of Police Tingler has collected seven or eight samples and sent them to M. V. Paddock, chemist of St. John, for analysis. If proved to contain intoxicants in violation of the act, the prosecution will be made on the samples collected.

Rev. Gideon Swin, who recently resigned the pastorate of the Free Baptist church here, has declined a call to Bellville and Rudolph who jumped on the board of the ship, Frank Rudolph, then a lad, jumped into the water and brought young Supple ashore.

A HALIFAX LIFE SAVER.
The Splendid Record of Capt. F. G. Rudolph.

Application will be made to the Royal Maritime Society of London, England, for a medal for Capt. Frank G. Rudolph of Halifax, who has saved many lives. The application will be made through the Lieutenant Governor, Capt. Rudolph is certainly entitled to the medal. He was a life saver dates back to 1880, when he rescued from drowning Samuel Supple, who had been playing with other children and fell into the dock. Frank Rudolph, then a lad, jumped into the water and brought young Supple ashore.

Capt. Rudolph some time after was on a vessel at the West Indies. A man named Rudolph and Rudolph who jumped on the board of the ship, Frank Rudolph, then a lad, jumped into the water and brought young Supple ashore.

At the ferry annex disaster at Dartmouth Capt. Rudolph was most active in saving life. A big crowd had collected on the pier on the evening of the arrival at Dartmouth of the ferry steamer from New York. The wharf collapsed, precipitating many into the water. The fatality list would have been a long one had it not been for the bravery displayed by Capt. Rudolph and others. He jumped into the water and rescued a man who was struggling with the waves. He succeeded in saving several lives, and also recovering the body of a man who had fallen from the wharf.

Capt. Rudolph again distinguished himself at New Glasgow on July 18, 1891, when he rescued from drowning Miss Edith L. Smith. This lady belonged to Truro and was visiting at New Glasgow. While leaving the steamer she slipped and fell from the gangway into the water. Capt. Rudolph was near at the time and he plunged in the dark water and soon after appeared with Miss Smith and landed her safely.

Some time ago Capt. Rudolph added another brave act to his life-saving record. On that occasion a boy named Rudolph, who was then commander of the steam tug Henry Hoover, jumped into the water. The captain's latest act was when he distinguished himself in the attempt to save the life of a sailor who fell into the water from the launch. The unfortunate man in falling struck his head. Capt. Rudolph noticed the man in the dock with head submerged and jumped into the water. He swam towards him and held his head up until both were taken ashore.

He was formerly, he said, employed at the war ministry at Rome, but became compromised in a case of espionage and was sentenced to six months' imprisonment. Subsequently he came to London, living from hand to mouth, and he had acted as guide and secretary to two men of Italian origin, with one of whom, a naturalized French citizen, he had formerly been acquainted with at the war ministry in Rome. Both of these men, Frigola said, worked for foreign governments and had several times sold important secrets to Germany at high prices. The Italian's name was Cesare Gollo and that of the naturalized Frenchman, Jerome Mesqui.

The latter had long been a contractor on public works at Toulon. They had gone to Brussels five days ago, leaving him entirely without means of living. He further stated that Gollo had left documents behind him, and these he wanted to sell. Frigola thereupon produced eighty-five plans of the Toulon forts, some of them the French originals and other accurate copies made at the Italian war ministry. He also had in his possession a set of plans of Cherbourg, Brest and Toulon, with typewritten instructions, claimed by Frigola to have emanated from the German staff concerning the marking of batteries of artillery.

There was also a letter appointing a rendezvous at the "Thurberg," Berlin, for Nov. 18, signed "X." To this was attached a card inscribed "Felix Friedrich Scholl." The Matin's correspondent gave Frigola a few shillings and persuaded him to leave the documents in his hands in order that an examination of them might be made. The next morning he took them to the French embassy, where the naval attaché declared them to be absolutely genuine.

The Matin will continue its revelations tomorrow.

WHO IS THE TRAITOR NOW?

France Has Another Sensational Dreyfus Case.

Plans and Particulars of French Fortresses Sold to German and Other Governments.

PARIS, May 16.—The Matin's London correspondent having obtained nearly a hundred authentic plans of the fortifications of Toulon, besides numerous other compromising documents, that paper this morning begins the publication of the history of a treason affair which seems likely to exceed in importance the offences with which Dreyfus was charged.

On April 21, the correspondent received a letter written in a queer semi-French, semi-Italian jargon and signed "Frigola Pieter," telling him that the writer, who was employed in an hotel, had been acting as a guide to two persons who came to London to sell a large parcel of documents of the highest importance concerning French naval defenses. The letter stated that the men had gone to Brussels leaving the writer penniless. He therefore wanted to negotiate for the transfer of certain documents. An appointment was made and Frigola, who was desperately hungry, told the following story:

He was formerly, he said, employed at the war ministry at Rome, but became compromised in a case of espionage and was sentenced to six months' imprisonment. Subsequently he came to London, living from hand to mouth, and he had acted as guide and secretary to two men of Italian origin, with one of whom, a naturalized French citizen, he had formerly been acquainted with at the war ministry in Rome. DIAMOND IN HIS STOMACH.

Thief Swallowed Precious Stone and Owner Had Him Cut Open to Get It Out.

NEW YORK, May 16.—Paul Clarkson, who poses as a prize fighter, has been operated on and a diamond, valued at $250, taken from him, says a despatch from Austin, Tex. Clarkson was arrested three days ago on a charge of having stolen the diamond from a prominent citizen of Galveston. When searched at the station he did not have the precious diamond and said he swallowed it in the excitement attending his arrest. An X-ray machine was used in an attempt to locate the diamond and the shadowgraph showed the diamond imbedded in a cavity of the stomach. Clarkson was suffering considerable pain and the jewel paid for the operation, which took place in the jail.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Furness liner St. John will, it is thought, return to St. John from Hall-fax Tuesday night, or Wednesday morning to take in a full cargo for London.

The Norwegian steamer, Nordboen, which landed the Antwerp goods here, sailed from Hopewell Cape Saturday with a cargo of deals for Manchester.

St. John Typographical Union, No. 85, at its regular meeting on Saturday evening, passed a resolution endorsing the action of the journeymen tailors' union and pledging all assistance in its power.

George V. McInerney, K. C., left Saturday evening for Kingston, Ontario, where he will attend a meeting of the grand council of the C. M. B. A.
After leaving Kingston, Mr. McInerney will go to Ottawa, where with A.
B. Aylesworth, K. C., he will argue the case of Connolly v. the City of St.
John, before the supreme court of Canada.

BACK TO THE COOP.

DORCHESTER, May 15.—The escaped convicts, Elliot and Gordon, have created quite a sensation at Wood Point, where they were located at 5 o'clock this evening. They had broken into the house of B. Lowerison in that locality and stole a good supply of eat-ables and afterward broke into his stables and stole therefrom a horse and rig. They were heading for Amherst when they were challenged by Trade Inspector Sherrard, who with Chief Keefe Hutchinson was in that locality. Elliott left the rig and bolted for the woods, but was quickly captured and shackled. He was at once taken back to Dorchester. Gordon is still at large, but the posse of guards has been greatly strengthened in that locality. The horse and rig has been recovered. As the case now stands the unfortunate fellows will have to face the triple charge of escaping from prison, breaking and entering, and stealing from a house, also the charge of horse stealing.

THEY WERE USED.

John D. Crimmins, a short time after his return from Europe, was talking about the sights he had seen abroad.
The same time, he said, he had seen
"I visited a famous English castle.
Here the guide took me through this four chamber and six state chamber, and finally, the family being in London, he led me to the room of the owner."

"In the owner's dressing room there was a shaving set of solid gold gold shaving brush, gold cup, and gold-mounted strip and six gold razors."
"As the guide and I moved here and there a valet, attracted by noise, came to see who we were, and after he had satisfied himself about the matter, the valet lingered, joining in the conversation now and then."
"I fingered the gold shaving set curiously."

"And does the duke," I said, "shave with these things regularly?"
"The guide shook his head. He did not know, but the valet knew."
"No," said the valet, "he doesn't."
But I do."

LOYALIST DAY HONORED.

The annual service in honor of Loyalist Day was held at Trinity church last evening. The congregation was very large, and included many of those loyalists who have been in St. John and vicinity. Rev. Dr. W. O. Raymond occupied the pulpit and took for his text, Luke 22:34.

"By faith Abraham, when he was called to go forth into a place which he should later receive as an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went."
In concluding his remarks, Mr. Raymond said it was a pity that the names and memories of the loyalists have not been perpetuated in some memorial building in this city. The example has not been followed.

The National Anthem was sung at the close of the service.

STILL UNDER WATER.

A scow owned by the Jewett company, which sank in the slip alongside of the upper government pier the other day after having taken 75 tons of old iron from the Furness liner St. John City, is still at the bottom. What caused the sinking of the scow is not as yet known, nor will it be discovered until the scow is raised. Men have been engaged to lift the scow, but as yet nothing has actually been accomplished.

PAINTERS WILL CELEBRATE.

The painters' union will continue to take part in the bi-centenary celebration in spite of the fact that the trades and labor council has decided against having anything to do with it. Some years ago the painters' union was in the council, but trouble arose and its representation in that body was withdrawn.

When the bi-centenary committee first met, Mr. McLean, who appeared in behalf of the painters, explained that his union would take part in the big celebration without any grant from the general fund.

Mr. McLean said last night that this promise was given under the impression that labor unions were to help in the celebration without cost. This condition, however, is not regarded by the painters as of great importance.
Since the sum of five hundred dollars was allotted to the labor council the painters feel that they should have been given a share. They still think so, even since the council has decided not to take any part. The painters will go ahead with their arrangements and will be put to some expense. Much of this will be borne by the members themselves, but there will be general expenses amounting to perhaps thirty-five or forty dollars. The union will have the finance committee on the celebration, and request that if satisfactory it be paid out of the general fund.
This is all the painters will ask.

A meeting of the union will be held this evening, at which the matter will be discussed.

WAR HUMOR.

"War has its humorous side," said General Nelson A. Miles, "though the humor is always grim."

"In one of my most perilous Indian campaigns I overheard a group of agriculturers saying good night to one another on the eve of an engagement. These youths were in different regiments, they knew the coming fight would be a hot one. They knew it was probable enough that they would never see one another again.

"And so, as they separated, one of them said:
"Well, good bye, boys. As the coons expire when the dogs mate after them

A BROAD HINT.
P. A. B. Whitener, the traction magnate of Philadelphia, told, the other day, a story of the boyhood of his son, Joseph.

"When Joe," he said, "was a little fellow, a visitor called at my house one day, found him in the drawing room, busy with the drawing room chairs, which he had arranged in a row. The visitor sat down on one of the chairs and Joe remonstrated.

"Here," he said, "this is a train of cars."

"Very well," said the visitor, "I'll be a passenger."

"But Joe didn't want this grown up man for a passenger, and so he said: 'Where do you want to get off?'"

"Chicago," was the reply.

"All right," said Joe. "This is Chicago."

DOUBTFUL COMPLIMENT.
Fountain Bigelow, who has accepted the chair of foreign relations in Boston university, had completed an address before the Twentieth Century Club, of Chicago. A young man congratulated Mr. Bigelow rather awkwardly on his address, and the learned traveler replied:

"That is a doubtful compliment. It reminds me of a remark that a friend of the groom's made at a New Hampshire wedding.

"This friend, an observant chap, watched the groom closely during the ceremony, and at the end bore down on the happy man, shook him warmly by the hand, and said:

"Bill, ye done good. I had an idee ye would be skittish while ye was bein' tied up, but, begosh, ye looked as solid as a sheep!"

A SUNDAY FOR THE PEOPLE.

Rev. A. M. Walker Favors Opening of the Park Restaurant and Sunday Tobacco Selling.

From the pulpit of the Unitarian church last evening, Rev. A. M. Walker, the new pastor, delivered an able sermon on the agitated question of Sunday observance. The Sunday opening of the park restaurant came in for a reference and the utterances of the preacher were by no means in accord with the opinion of the body of the clergymen of the city.

Referring unmistakably to the park restaurant, he said it was a clear case of "much ado about nothing." The Sabbath idea in its beginning was the need of rest, not worship. The several declarations in the Bible regarding the Sabbath impart the idea of cessation from work. The man or the housewife, the servants and the animals are to be given a time for rest.

The Sabbath was instituted from day of rest to a day of worship by the Jewish rabbi, who began to speculate as to the nature of the work to be performed on the Sabbath. This perversion of the Sabbath by philosophy ran mad and was the result of Jesus' dare with his disciples to walk through the fields of corn and in the presence of fault-finding, narrow-minded Pharisees and scribes pluck the corn to appease their cravings of hunger.

When questioned as to his act, Jesus gave that reply which is the watch word of all reasonable religious men: "The Sabbath was made for man and not man for the Sabbath."

The preacher dwelt on the "tyranny of the clergy, who seek to deny to others what they cherish for themselves." On Sunday the minister wanted to keep his people down to hard lines of what he considers the right observance of the Sabbath. On Monday, and the five following days, comes the ministers' true time of rest, and how does he observe it? Presumably by taking a spin on his bicycle to the country or playing golf, or indulging in some outdoor, harmless recreation, the very things he would deny his people on the only day in the week they could enjoy them.

Mr. Walker said that Sunday itself is no better than any other day. The man who rests on Wednesday and works the other six days is keeping the Sabbath of God.

In conclusion, he said: And now for the park question. From what I have said you can easily infer what I am going to say. We have no right to demand that Mr. Knox keep open a restaurant or hire boats for that would be compelling him to violate any ideas of Sabbath observance which he might entertain. But if he desires from those in authority permission to hire boats and sell soft drinks, I can see no reason for denying him that permission.

As to the proposed modifications let me speak a word. It is right that no violation of the liquor act be allowed. For the sale of anything like it has no legitimate place in society. But I can see no reason for prohibiting the sale of cigars or tobacco. The act of selling is not condemned. But selling of tobacco is. The aim it seems to be, therefore, to prevent selling. What else could it be? If this is the aim then there is need for a clause prohibiting smoking within the park and this is the absurdity of thought of all. If the city allows smoking at all, it is no worse on Sunday than on Monday, provided the smoker uses good cigars on both days.

NORTH END MONUMENT.
The bronze monument for the north end of Montreal Park, which will be unveiled during the centenary week instead of on Victoria day. The idea was suggested by Mayor White, and will be dedicated at a meeting to be held this evening. It was found upon taking measurements that a second base would be required in order to mount the figure properly.

For some time the park committee have been trying to get the north end way company to place a light at the entrance to the park. The company having refused to do so, an appeal was made to the common council, and as a result a light will be placed there during the early part of this week.

Arrangements have been made to have plates engraved for the memorial trees, which are expected to arrive some time this week.

Mrs. Batley suggested some time ago that a pavilion be placed in the Memorial Park, so that the visitors in the common council, and as a result a pavilion will be placed there during the early part of this week.

OTTAWA NEWS.

OTTAWA, May 15.—The Vancouver Colonist announces the engagement of Joseph N. Ellis, son of Senator Ellis of St. John, and Miss Mabel Ellis, sister of William Ellis, formerly manager of the Colonist.

The same paper reports the probable loss of the sealine schooner, Triumph and Umbria. The Triumph's captain was C. O. Burns of Digby, N. S., married, and a resident of Victoria, B. C., and her mate was Harry Scott of Cape Breton.

J. A. MacDermid, fourth son of McClellan, clerk of the privy council, who was thrown from his horse last Monday, died in the hospital Saturday evening from his injuries. He was a member of the geological survey. He was a popular athlete and was 25 years of age. An action against the city may follow, as it is said his horse was frightened by a bunch of dirt scraped up on the side of the street.

Another stalwart grit member is to get his reward ere long. J. A. Green, agent for the marine department for years, will be superannuated ere long and is to be succeeded by Talbot, M. P. for Bellechasse Co.

H. A. Powell, K. C., ex-M. P., arrived today to attend the opening of the supreme court's hearing of maritime provinces cases tomorrow.

Vancouver harbor is to be fortified upon the recommendation of Lord Dundonald, general officer commanding the Canadian military, who inspected the port a few months ago, and was struck with its lack of protection in case of war. The necessary guns have been ordered in England and will be located on Point Grey and the point at the mouth of the harbor.

Lord Dundonald says in the event of war in India, Vancouver will be an important base of supplies in transit to the Orient.

A parliamentary man in confidence of the government, said today that the session would close early in July. He took a spin on his bicycle to the country or playing golf, or indulging in some outdoor, harmless recreation, the very things he would deny his people on the only day in the week they could enjoy them.

Mr. Walker said that Sunday itself is no better than any other day. The man who rests on Wednesday and works the other six days is keeping the Sabbath of God.

In conclusion, he said: And now for the park question. From what I have said you can easily infer what I am going to say. We have no right to demand that Mr. Knox keep open a restaurant or hire boats for that would be compelling him to violate any ideas of Sabbath observance which he might entertain. But if he desires from those in authority permission to hire boats and sell soft drinks, I can see no reason for denying him that permission.

As to the proposed modifications let me speak a word. It is right that no violation of the liquor act be allowed. For the sale of anything like it has no legitimate place in society. But I can see no reason for prohibiting the sale of cigars or tobacco. The act of selling is not condemned. But selling of tobacco is. The aim it seems to be, therefore, to prevent selling. What else could it be? If this is the aim then there is need for a clause prohibiting smoking within the park and this is the absurdity of thought of all. If the city allows smoking at all, it is no worse on Sunday than on Monday, provided the smoker uses good cigars on both days.

NORTH END MONUMENT.
The bronze monument for the north end of Montreal Park, which will be unveiled during the centenary week instead of on Victoria day. The idea was suggested by Mayor White, and will be dedicated at a meeting to be held this evening. It was found upon taking measurements that a second base would be required in order to mount the figure properly.

For some time the park committee have been trying to get the north end way company to place a light at the entrance to the park. The company having refused to do so, an appeal was made to the common council, and as a result a light will be placed there during the early part of this week.

Arrangements have been made to have plates engraved for the memorial trees, which are expected to arrive some time this week.

SALVATION SOLDIER'S DEATH.

Mrs. Wm. B. Turner Drops Dead Bearing Witness to the Goodness of God.

With praises of her Maker on her lips, thin lips, and happily affirming her reliance in the all-sufficiency of God, Mrs. Turner, wife of Mr. Wm. B. Turner, laborer, of Acadia street, North End, fell to the floor on the platform of the Mill street Salvation Army barracks last night about 9:30 o'clock and died a few moments later in an ante-chamber. Drs. J. P. McInerney and E. J. Broderick pronounced the cause of death heart failure.

Captain Forsyth of the Mill street Salvation Army corps sat directly in front of Mrs. Turner and among other Salvationists on the platform was Benjamin Turner, a uniformed local S. A. officer, second son of the dead woman. He like many others, thought his mother had fainted, and hastened to assist the Captain and William Marshall in removing her to the cooler air of the lobby.

Captain Forsyth in a few words that dismissed the meeting, commented upon the awful swiftness of death, the unpreparedness of some and the cherished readiness of others who are hastened before the Judgment Seat. His words, needless to say, fell heavily upon those who heard them.

A coach was procured and the body taken to the Acadia street home, but not before Coroner W. F. Roberts had viewed the remains. He considered further investigation unnecessary, as two physicians had pronounced death due to heart failure.

The deceased was a woman of about forty-five years. With her husband and family she came to this city from Boston over three and a half years ago. Robert is the eldest son, Benjamin, the Salvationist, next, and William, a mere boy. Little Mary is the only daughter. The family are not related to any others in this city.

For nearly four years Mrs. Turner had been a semi-invalid. Her heart was weak and there were other troubles. Last night she accompanied the Army corps to the march out and took up the collection. A few mornings ago she had a fainting spell.

MARRIED BRIGHAM YOUNG'S DAUGHTER.
The Sodart Co. brought their week's in St. John to a successful conclusion Saturday night, when they played to a full house. The performance was also the best of the present tour, and the company will disband today. Several members are going to their homes, and others to take up engagements with other American companies. It is the company will be seen again in the same play when the autumn tour commences.

Mr. Stoddart leaves this morning by rail for New York, and will spend the summer at his residence in one of the suburbs.

Mr. Easton, the tenor, is a native of Salt Lake City, and married one of Brigham Young's favorite daughters. Mr. Easton is returning to Salt Lake and will join the Mormon choir to visit St. John.

WOMEN HIM UP.
Senator Nelson, who once amazed the senate by saying "damn," holds that the government should build good wagon roads for the Alaskans.

"You ought to see some of our Alaskan roads," he said to a reporter, "it is hardly possible to walk in them. The horse shooters of Kentucky would never have recovered consciousness. Besides a wife he leaves four sons living in the city, Bernard, George, Fred and William. He has a daughter, lives at Medford, and a daughter, Minnie, in Dorchester, Mass.

JOHN MACAULAY.
The death took place yesterday at 5 p. m. of John Macaulay at the residence of his son, James, 112 Orange street.

Mr. Macaulay was well known in St. John as a successful carpenter, his father building a large number of the wharves. For the last 18 years he has lived in Boston. He came to St. John ten days ago and was seized with an illness which terminated fatally.

James and Albert Macaulay of St. John are his sons. He also leaves three other sons, John, George and William, in Boston, and a daughter, Miss Ada Macaulay, of St. John.

EDWARD MCCARRON.
HAMPTON, N. B., May 15.—The very sudden death occurred yesterday afternoon of Edward McCarron, the well known shoemaker. Mr. McCarron went home to dinner and ate a hearty meal after which he went to his work, feeling as well as usual. About two o'clock he took suddenly ill with heart trouble and was carried to the residence of Mr. Wheaton, next door, and medical help was summoned, but he expired in a few minutes.

Mrs. Eliza J. Lawson, widow of the late Solomon Lawson, died at Amherst on Friday evening, 3rd inst., at the age of 89 years and 9 months. She was a resident of Sussex, for a number of years, and for the past few years has been living with her son, S. L. Lawson, of the Amherst Heating Co., Amherst, N. S.

Mrs. Dorcas Titus, widow of the late Benjamin Titus, died at the residence of her son, Charles E. Titus, on Wednesday after a lingering illness. Mrs. Titus, who was eighty years of age, leaves three sons, viz., Merritt, Charles and Theodore, all of Jemseg.

PUMPING THE JOGGINS.
HALIFAX, May 15.—Work is being maintained on the west of the 2,600 feet level in the Joggins mine, where 25 men are employed besides shift men. Work on the east side has not yet been resumed owing to the prevalence of damp.

The time the pumps were stopped water raised to the height of 100 feet in the 3,100 foot level, and it has not lowered very much owing to the steam pipes being broken by a fall of coal near the surface. It is estimated that it will take three weeks to pump the mine out after the pumps start.

The Junior Y. P. S. C. E. of the Charleston Free Baptist church will hold a concert on Thursday evening of this week in the vestry of the church. A good programme has been prepared.

The Venerable Archdeacon S. West on Jones, was the preacher at Trinity church yesterday morning, his subject being King's College, Windsor. He made a strong plea for the support of that historic institution.

At the German Street Baptist church last evening, Mr. Easton, of the Bonri Brier Bush Co., sang a solo. Prof. Titus and S. J. McGowan sang a duet from the Crucifixion. The congregation was very large one.

The semi-annual session of the Grand Division, S. of T., of New Brunswick will be held in the Temperance Hall, St. Martin's, N. B., on Wednesday afternoon of this week. A number of delegates will go down from St. John.

Thomas Allan, an aged resident of this city, died on Saturday night at the hospital, aged 72 years. His funeral takes place tomorrow afternoon from 88 Forest street, the residence of his son, Capt. Allan, of the Salvation Army.

The police have received numerous complaints of late covering this kind of work and are sure they have the right party but are on the lookout for others who have committed similar offences.

Capt. W. A. Pitt is considering the advisability of taking action against the owners of the steamer Marguerite, who, he claims, owe him $180 for services as master of that steamer summer before last. A convention in the interests of temperance will be held in the Leinster street Baptist church in this city on the afternoon and evening of Wednesday, June 2nd. A circular has been issued inviting all the prohibitionists in the province to attend and stating that the principal matter to be considered at the conference will be the License Law of the province, which is particularly unsatisfactory to the prohibitionists.

UNLICENSED PEDDLARS.
John Adams and Kostas Karabatos, along with two others, were reported on May 2nd by Sergt. Campbell for peddling fruit about the city without a license.

Adams and Karabatos ignored the matter, the other couple took no notice. This morning an order was issued to the man who employs them that if their licenses were not taken out today they would be fined. The penalty is double the amount of the license.

There has been much complaint of late by shopkeepers and others that these men have been allowed to go about from door to door selling fruit while legitimate dealers are heavily taxed as well as having to pay rent, heat and light bills.

WANTED TO GO HOME.
People driving out the Loch Lomond road yesterday were surprised to see a team coming without a driver in the rig, and the horse without a bridle. It seems that a certain gentleman who had driven to the Roman Catholic church at Silver Falls to attend service, had removed the horse's bridle and was about to put on a halter when the animal bolted and made good his escape. Last seen he was heading home and evidently reached there all right as there has been no reports of any damage done.

POLICE COURT.

Saturday Night Drunks Numerously in Evidence—Maud Lester Goes to Jail Again.

In the police court this morning three drunks who were arrested Saturday, failed to respond when their names were called. They had left deposits of eight dollars each, which were forfeited. One simple drunk was fined five dollars.

William Schwartz, who was arrested by Officer Finlay early Sunday morning, and that he worked at the Fertilizer works. He spoke very poor English, but his story was to the effect that he had walked in about five o'clock in the afternoon and started, as he thought, for home about 8:30. He found himself several miles out of his direction and had to turn back. This was why it was so late when the officer arrested him. Finlay said the man ran away when he questioned him. He chased him to Crown street. His honor warned Schwartz that he was liable to a heavy penalty, but allowed him to go on condition that he at once went back to his work. He lost no time in going.

Maud Lester was in a fearful mood this morning when Officer Smith arrested her on Saturday at City Road near the corner of Stanley street. She was in anything but a pleasant frame of mind, and in addition was fairly drunk. The officer found it necessary to get assistance to get Maud to the North End station, a long drag from the corner of City Road and Stanley street, but there is no outside lock-up in the northern division, and the officers and residents are getting used to such disgraceful scenes. Maud who has only been out of jail a short time, was fined $5 or two months with hard labor.

Hebert Earle, 63 years of age, a native of Newfoundland, was arrested on May 4th for drunkenness and sent to jail. He got out Saturday morning and Saturday night about ten o'clock returned wandering about St. John street. He did not or could not give a satisfactory account of himself and was consequently locked up. In court this morning his explanation did not meet with approval, but he promised to be on his honor to get out of town if given a chance. He said he had a friend, mentioning the name of a prominent Franciscan priest, who would vouch for him. He was remanded to jail to give him time to communicate with his friend.

TERCENTENARY ADVERTISING.
Already Over Eight Thousand Booklets Have Been Sent Out.

Already eight thousand booklets descriptive of St. John and the province together with an invitation to attend the Old Home week and tercentenary celebration printed on a neatly arranged folder giving the schedule of rates over the various lines entering St. John have been sent out from the office of the Tourist Association. The secretary of the association is capital. It is so realistic as to give one the sensation that he is witnessing the real catastrophe. Another striking view is "How the Torpedoes Were Made," which is taken from an actual experiment by Japanese naval experts. The lecture will be given at the York Theatre only once, and a large attendance is expected.

SUCCESS ASSURED.
Every day brings to the office of the Exhibition Association additional proof that this year's show will be the most successful ever held in this city. The work is progressing rapidly, and the directors are facilitating and helping Manager Hubbard in every possible way.

A circular letter is being sent out to all those whose names appeared in the list published in the price book in 1902 as having rooms to rent or being in a position to take boarders. The letter asks them to communicate, prior to May 20 with the association stating just how many people they will be able to accommodate and quote their rates.

WATER MAIN FROZEN IN MAY.
About noon Sunday a break was discovered in the water main at the corner of Elliott Row and Carman street. At this point the pipe is about six feet underground and all winter there has been an abundance of snow on the ground. Yet when the men uncovered the pipe they found it full of ice. A new section was put in.

TUG KITOMEN'S LONG TRIP.
A despatch from Halifax at noon today says that the tug Lord Kitchener, which left here Thursday night with the Standard Oil Company's barge, has not arrived there yet. She put into Shelburne Friday evening, and it is supposed she left there Saturday for Halifax. The weather has been very thick of the Nova Scotia coast and the Kitchener is probably in shelter somewhere waiting for it to clear.

The sensational story of the fall of Port Arthur sent to the Star by the Associated Press Saturday, was probably the work of some obliging correspondent who wanted to give the people something to talk about over Sunday.

The regular anniversary meeting of the N. B. Loyalist Society will be held on Wednesday evening in the Historical Society rooms, Market Building.

CUT AN ARTERY.
Thomas Lavigne, in a fit of anger yesterday afternoon, thrust his hand through a pane of glass of a window in Samuel Ritchie's house, Smyth street, and severed a large artery in his arm. He had previously been ejected from Ritchie's house for disorderly conduct. The severed artery bled freely and the man was hurried to N. B. Smith's drug store, Dock street, where Dr. Berryman attended him. Later he was taken to the hospital in the ambulance. He was reported today as resting easily.

PROBATE COURT.
In the probate court this morning, a new citation for passing of accounts in the estate of the late William Clark was issued. The citation was made returnable on the 20th of June next. Scott E. Morrell appeared for the estate. A. W. Macrae for John P. Morrison and Ida Dean, creditors; and J. P. Regan for Arthur Andrew Bulst and Henry Edgar Bulst, infant children of the late Andrew Bulst and wards of William Clark, deceased.

FATALLY SCALDED.
One Woman Dying and Another Seriously Ill as the Result of An Accident at Upper Clifton.

A distressing accident, with probably two fatal results, occurred at Upper Clifton yesterday. While the wife of Addino P. Pitt, son of Capt. Pitt, was working about the kitchen, preparing a meal, she was seized with an epileptic fit and fell forward upon the stove, scalding herself so severely that her doctor yesterday held out little hope for her recovery.

As a result of the same accident Capt. Pitt's wife was completely overcome with nervous shock and is also seriously ill.

STRIKING PICTURES.
The view of the sinking of the Petropavlovsk, which will be shown tomorrow evening at York Theatre during Dr. Rabinowitz's lecture on "Russia and Japan," has been taken by snapshot from the actual scene of action by the military photographic station of Port Arthur. It has afterwards been forwarded to St. Petersburg and reproduced in the periodicals of the Russian press.

Another striking view is "How the Torpedoes Were Made," which is taken from an actual experiment by Japanese naval experts. The lecture will be given at the York Theatre only once, and a large attendance is expected.

SUCCESS ASSURED.
Every day brings to the office of the Exhibition Association additional proof that this year's show will be the most successful ever held in this city. The work is progressing rapidly, and the directors are facilitating and helping Manager Hubbard in every possible way.

A circular letter is being sent out to all those whose names appeared in the list published in the price book in 1902 as having rooms to rent or being in a position to take boarders. The letter asks them to communicate, prior to May 20 with the association stating just how many people they will be able to accommodate and quote their rates.

WATER MAIN FROZEN IN MAY.
About noon Sunday a break was discovered in the water main at the corner of Elliott Row and Carman street. At this point the pipe is about six feet underground and all winter there has been an abundance of snow on the ground. Yet when the men uncovered the pipe they found it full of ice. A new section was put in.

TUG KITOMEN'S LONG TRIP.
A despatch from Halifax at noon today says that the tug Lord Kitchener, which left here Thursday night with the Standard Oil Company's barge, has not arrived there yet. She put into Shelburne Friday evening, and it is supposed she left there Saturday for Halifax. The weather has been very thick of the Nova Scotia coast and the Kitchener is probably in shelter somewhere waiting for it to clear.

The sensational story of the fall of Port Arthur sent to the Star by the Associated Press Saturday, was probably the work of some obliging correspondent who wanted to give the people something to talk about over Sunday.

The regular anniversary meeting of the N. B. Loyalist Society will be held on Wednesday evening in the Historical Society rooms, Market Building.
