

FOUR THOUSAND VISITORS AT PARADE AT SUSSEX

Orange Celebration Yesterday One of Greatest in History of Order in Province.

STIRRING ADDRESSES BY PROMINENT MEMBERS Director of Ceremonies Thrown from Horse, But Injuries Not Serious—Thousands of Visitors in Town for Day.

Special to The Standard. Sussex, July 13.—A monster celebration in honor of the anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne was held here today when nearly ten thousand people from different parts of the province assisted the Kings County Orangemen in observing with fitting ceremony the great day.

The headquarters of the celebration was on the military grounds, and here every accommodation and amusement was provided for the vast throng. The crowd entered into the spirit of the celebration and all the attractions were worked to capacity.

Two baseball games were played on the grounds. Moncton met Sussex in two games and was defeated at each. The score of the first being 7 to 1 and that of the second being 14 to 4.

Mayor McKay Welcomes the Visitors. Rev. A. W. Currie, County Master of Kings East, called the assembly to order, and Mayor McKay in well chosen words welcomed the Orangemen to Sussex. He extended to them

MINISTER TO INSPECT NEW WELLS AND CANALS

Hon. Mr. Cochrane Will Go Over Work—Wolves Ravage Farmers' Flocks in Ontario.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, July 13.—Hon. Frank Cochrane, Minister of Railways and Canals, left for Toronto tonight and tomorrow he will go over to make a personal inspection of the work on the new Welland Canal.

The government has received information of great damage done by wolves in Renfrew County, Ontario. During the month of May they killed 75 sheep and lambs. Wolves also destroyed large numbers of deer during the winter.

The weather conditions were particularly favorable to the demonstration, although during the early afternoon several showers of rain were in evidence. But those in no way dampened the enthusiasm and the celebration was carried through in every detail.

The speeches of the day were delivered by Mayor McKay, of Sussex; Rev. A. W. Currie, county master of Kings East; Dr. W. B. Wallace, pastor; Rev. A. D. Thomas, past grand master; Fred M. Sproule, past grand master; Rev. P. P. Dennison and Harry Sellen.

All speakers touched on the origin and principles of the Orange Association. Several of the speakers urged all Protestants, who were not members of the association, to join.

A Striking Scene. The number of women present at the demonstration was very large. The bright colors of the ladies' dresses and the gay accoutrements of the members of the L. O. L. presented a scene that will not soon be forgotten by those present in Sussex yesterday.

The first contingent arrived on the regular train and about ten o'clock a train of fourteen cars with the St. John contingent arrived. This was soon followed by sixteen cars from Moncton and a few minutes later the York county delegation poured into the grounds.

Different amusements were provided for the crowd and a baseball game was also played. After dinner the members of the different branches of the organization began to prepare for the grand parade. This formed up and started away from in front of the Hussars' pavilion about two o'clock.

As soon as the parade broke up the Orangemen and their friends assembled in front of the Hussars' pavilion and the speakers mounted to the veranda.

BRAMAN RESPONSIBLE FOR O'LEARY'S DEATH, JURY SAYS

Inquest Into Shooting of Officer Held in Court House Last Night With Coroner Roberts Presiding—Eight Witnesses Placed on the Stand.

MANNER OF THE ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE IS CONDEMNED. Youthful Prisoner Now Face to Face With Murder Charge—Loss of Blood and Peritonitis Caused by Bullet from Braman's Revolver Cause of Death, is the Finding.

The coroner's jury to enquire into the death of Policeman Frank O'Leary, placed the responsibility on the shoulders of John H. Braman, who is at present behind the bars at the county jail, awaiting his preliminary enquiry into the charge of attempting to kill the deceased officer.

A condemnation of the methods in vogue in connection with the administration of justice in this city formed a part of the finding of the jury, which was arrived at after twenty-five minute deliberation.

Coroner Roberts conducted the enquiry at the Court House in a most expeditious manner. Evidence was given by eight witnesses.

"We your jury at this inquest upon this inquest, to enquire into the death of Frank O'Leary, find that the said Frank O'Leary died as a result of loss of blood and peritonitis caused originally by a bullet wound penetrating his body which was discharged by a revolver in the hands of one John Braman, on Monday, July 6th, 1914, at or about 10:30 p.m., he having survived until eight o'clock on Monday, 13th July, 1914, at which time he died, being at the General Public Hospital, Saint John, N. B.

"We your jury at this request feel very strongly that the outcome of this inquiry and the crimes that have been committed of late are due to a large extent to the laxity of the sentences given in our courts."

(Signed) A. M. Rowan (foreman), S. W. MacMackin, J. E. Quinn, Wilson Hatfield, John Bond, Barry Stillwell and George W. Currie.

The inquest was opened about 8:15 o'clock in the old council chamber at the court house.

Dr. Roberts, continuing, said that those pages of history of the city of Saint John showing a most satisfactory absence from serious crime, had been abruptly blotted by the perpetration of the offence resulting in the death of Officer O'Leary.

CAPT. ANDERSEN BURGLARS MISSED A BIG HAUL

Says He Tried to Find in Favor of C. P. R.—Case is Not Over Yet, He Claims.

Quebec, July 13.—A very indignant man was Captain Andersen of the Stord, when he left the court room after hearing his vessel blamed for sinking the Empress of Ireland.

"I did not think Lord Mersey would be such a fool," he angrily exclaimed, "and that is where we shall get at everything out in the open. There will be no Lord Mersey to run things there. An angry Norwegian strode away to lunch."

The store was surrounded by police detectives last night and shortly after 12:30 Green appeared at a rear window of the Slater store. He raised the window and was partly through when, it is thought, his companion gave him a warning signal.

Following the alternative of giving Ulster a clean-cut out of home rule, or of coming to fight the Ulstermen. These, he said, were the only possible alternatives. Ulster, he concluded, was claiming only justice and if it did not get it from the government would take it for itself.

The recognition of the danger inherent in the existence of two armed volunteer bodies seems to have imbued Irishmen with a sense of added responsibility, and the Battle of the Boyne was commemorated today in Ireland with tremendous enthusiasm.

Following the custom, a great procession marched from Belfast to Drumcree, where Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster Unionist leader, made his now familiar speech defying the government, either to totally exclude Ulster from home rule or come out and fight.

Lord Londonderry, at Enniskillen, and Walter Hume Long, Unionist member of parliament for Strand, at Carragh, made speeches of a similar vein to other demonstrations of Ulstermen, but no disorder was reported at any point up to a late hour last night.

Rival Nationalist and Orange processions at Glendormer reached the stage of jeering at each other, and for a few moments it looked like trouble, but the police succeeded in keeping them apart until the danger was over.

One feature of the situation seems to be that while Sir Edward Carson and the other leaders are using unrestrained language, both Ulstermen and Nationalists are showing admirable self-control.

HUNT FOR REVOLVER WITH WHICH MRS. BAILEY WAS SHOT TO DEATH

Detectives Afoot and in Autos Follow Trail Made by Dr. Carman Twelve Days Ago.

Freeport, N. Y., July 13.—Over the highways of Long Island, a route of twenty miles detoured afoot and in automobiles, followed today the cold trail of Dr. Edwin Carman, made twelve days ago, in the faint hope that somewhere along the country roads they might find the revolver with which Mrs. Louise Bailey was shot to death in his office on June 30.

The detectives took the path that Dr. Carman says he followed the day after Mrs. Bailey's death.

They questioned him closely as to the exact route he had chosen in making his calls that day, and armed with voluminous notes laboriously followed the way all forenoon.

Mrs. Carman, locked up on an accusation of murder, spent the day in preparation of an appeal before the grand jury tomorrow or Wednesday, when she will be permitted to testify as to her movements on the night of the crime.

Dr. Chapman of Amherst delivered the unweaving oration, dealing eloquently with the history and work of the Avard family. Short addresses were also delivered by Dr. D. A. Marven of Chatham, Joseph A. Marven of Moncton, C. C. Avard of Sackville, and Rev. Mr. Blackhall of Mt. Whitley.

The occasion will be long remembered here.

London, July 13.—The House of Lords today concluded the report stage of the bill amending the home rule bill. An amendment was adopted providing for proportional representation in the elections for the Dublin parliament and several amendments were added to the bill.

Special to The Standard. Fredericton, July 13.—The inquiry being conducted by Commissioner Pringle, K. C. of Ottawa, into the Southampton Railway Co. to determine why the double Dominion subsidy of $6,400 a mile was paid, was brought to a close here late this afternoon.

An enormous amount of evidence was heard at the sitting today and J. K. Pinder, who built the line, was the most interesting witness. Mr. Pinder was on the stand from eleven o'clock

ULSTERMEN PLEDGE THEMSELVES NOT TO SURRENDER

BURGLARS MISSED A BIG HAUL

Police Foiled Them in Attempt to Steal $60,000 Worth of Diamonds—One of Pair Hid Under Bed in Hotel to Escape

Ottawa, July 13.—With a high powered automobile awaiting their coming two burglars made a daring attempt early this morning to loot the safe in A. McMillan's jewelry store, Sparks street, and were only foiled in their attempt by the alertness of the police.

Between closing time Saturday night and noon Sunday, the burglars had drilled two large holes in the diamond safe in preparation for completing the "job" last night. Mr. McMillan, however, happened to visit the store Sunday afternoon and discovered that his premises had been entered from the adjoining building of the Slater shoe store by a hole cut in the wall. He immediately notified the police. There were $60,000 worth of diamonds in the safe.

The store was surrounded by police detectives last night and shortly after 12:30 Green appeared at a rear window of the Slater store. He raised the window and was partly through when, it is thought, his companion gave him a warning signal.

MONUMENT TO LATE JOS. AVARD AND FAMILY UNVEILED AT SACKVILLE

Sackville, July 13.—The unveiling of the monument to the late Joseph Avard and his children took place at De Route this afternoon. The monument which is a handsome one was unveiled by Mrs. Mary Avard, widow of Charles Avard, who spoke of the late Mr. Avard and his family in an enthusiastic vein.

HOUSE OF LORDS ADD MORE AMENDMENTS

London, July 13.—The House of Lords today concluded the report stage of the bill amending the home rule bill. An amendment was adopted providing for proportional representation in the elections for the Dublin parliament and several amendments were added to the bill.

Special to The Standard. Fredericton, July 13.—The inquiry being conducted by Commissioner Pringle, K. C. of Ottawa, into the Southampton Railway Co. to determine why the double Dominion subsidy of $6,400 a mile was paid, was brought to a close here late this afternoon.

Sir Edw. Carson Serves Notice on Govt. to Leave Ulster Alone or Expect Separation.

NO DISORDER MARKED YESTERDAY'S MEETINGS

Ulster Claims Only Justice, Leader Says, and Will Get it From Government or Take it Itself.

Drumcree, Ireland, July 13.—The Orangemen's demonstration here today culminated in a scene of immense enthusiasm around a platform where Sir Edward Carson, Bible in hand, pledged the covenanters never to surrender to coercion, to remain loyal to the throne, and never to waver in their support to their leader in the fight against home rule.

Sir Edward Carson, in a speech which evoked enthusiasm, served notice on the British government that unless it was prepared to leave Ulster alone it would very shortly find the Ulstermen recognizing no government except the provisional government of Ulster. He said he had been given authority to act, and if necessary, that was to exercise his powers without regard to consequences to himself.

The Ulstermen, he added, were not going to give way and were bound to win, because God would defend the right.

Sir Edward Carson offered the government the alternative of giving Ulster a clean-cut out of home rule, or of coming to fight the Ulstermen. These, he said, were the only possible alternatives. Ulster, he concluded, was claiming only justice and if it did not get it from the government would take it for itself.

The recognition of the danger inherent in the existence of two armed volunteer bodies seems to have imbued Irishmen with a sense of added responsibility, and the Battle of the Boyne was commemorated today in Ireland with tremendous enthusiasm.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND DOLLAR FIRE IN FREDERICTON LAST NIGHT

Fredericton, July 13.—Fire broke out here this evening in a building in the rear of the Gleaser office, and before it was extinguished damage to the extent of $15,000 was done. The fire apparently started somewhere in the rear of the Gleaser job room, but it is impossible to say just where, as the fire assumed to blaze up with great rapidity, and a number of buildings were on fire before the fire brigade arrived on the scene.

A portion of the premises occupied by B. H. Thomas & Co. were destroyed, as well as a coal shed owned by S. L. Monson. Several barns in the rear of the Gleaser premises were destroyed.

Interstate Commission Calls Railways Management One of Most Glaring Instances of Maladministration in History of American Railroad.

Washington, July 13.—"One of the most glaring instances of maladministration, revealed in all the history of American railroad," is the Interstate Commerce Commission's characterization of its findings in the investigation of New Haven Railroad financial affairs, reported today to the Senate.

INCREASE GRANTED TO TEACHERS IN HAMPTON CONSOLIDATED SCHOOL

Special to The Standard.

Hampton, Kings County, July 13.—At the annual school meeting of the Hampton Consolidated School District held in the Exhibition Hall, of the school building, opening at ten o'clock this morning Mr. T. M. Sprout was elected chairman and Mr. Brewster acted as secretary. The reports of the trustees and auditor were read and approved.

The teaching staff is to be the same for 1914-15 as for the year just closed, except that Miss Jean Peacock has been granted two months leave of absence, and Miss Burgess taking her duties as teacher of domestic science for that period. All the salaries have been slightly advanced. The financial year closed with a substantial balance on hand. The total number of pupils in attendance was 215, with an average attendance of 172. Two pupils graduated from the high school, Thomas E. Smith was re-elected trustee.

Allan W. Hicks was elected auditor for next year, and $10 voted for his services.

The trustees were asked to furnish fuller particulars in future reports as to the percentage of children of schoolable age resident in the district who are in actual attendance; also to show the numbers advanced in their grades in each year, and further information as to the progress made in methods and results. The chairman promised this should be done. He also promised to have bars put across a window on the platform, which a ratepayer regarded as dangerous when the platform was crowded with children.

The sum of $4,000 was offered to be assessed on the district for school purposes, the same as last year. The estimates for next year were presented, showing anticipated receipts from government grants of $1,500.00; county fund $197.35; driving van $125; back taxes collected $180; taxes for 1914 $4,000, and cash on hand $763.57, making a total of $6,246.14.

This will be offset by expenditures for teachers' salaries, $3,215; janitor, $420; sinking fund $600; interest on debt $1,125; driving van $270; fuel $20; supplies $200; repairs and painting $750, and unforeseen expenses $195.14.

It was decided by vote not to make the compulsory act operative this year.

The minutes were read and approved, and the meeting adjourned.

A SON OF THE DESERT

Charles Ackhurst, of Halifax, representative of the popular "Ben Bey" cigar, is in New Glasgow en route to the desert, dressed in native garb, mounted on his Arabian charger, and has embarked across him the mystic words "Ben Bey." If one is not a smoker, or has not been introduced to the most pleasing smoke on the market, an enquiry elicits the story that "Ben Bey" is the name of the cigar that most pleases the connoisseur.—Eastern Chronicle.

Another Daring Break.

On Sunday night a thief took from the store of J. J. Bradley, in Dock street, some bottles of liquor. This he succeeded in doing by using a diamond glass cutter with which he cut the plate glass window behind which the bottles were arranged. On Monday of last week a similar theft was committed at the premises of R. Sullivan & Co., opposite the Bradley store.

YARMOUTH COUNTY YOUTH MEETS WITH FATAL ACCIDENT

Collided with team while riding home on bicycle On dark road Friday night.

Special to The Standard.

Yarmouth, N. S., July 13.—Arthur Jefferson Saulnier, of Wellington, in this county, aged eighteen years and six months, is dead as a result of an accident which took place near the town on Friday evening.

Saulnier in company with another young fellow, was coming to town on a bicycle. His companion, who had a light, was in the lead. About half a mile from town on the Pond road he swung out with the intention of crossing to the other side. Not noticing a team coming in the opposite direction he struck the team and was thrown off with great force. He fell on his handle bars in such a way that he suffered severe internal injury resulting in his death.

YESTERDAY'S ACTIVITIES IN THE POLICE COURT

In the police court, yesterday, Charles Myers, an aged man, who was arrested some time ago on suspicion of breaking a window in William Pierce's store in Simonds street, and afterwards tried to commit suicide by cutting his throat, appeared on both charges. The case was postponed owing to there being no witnesses present, but the prisoner was given the option of going to the home of his nephew. He said, however, that he preferred to remain in jail for a time. Charged with assaulting his wife,

Thomas Perry was allowed to go until this morning.

Five prisoners were dealt with for drunkenness. Samuel Brookins, arrested on the charge of drunkenness and fighting with Officer Hamm, was fined $5 and remanded on the resisting charge and interdicted.

In the case of Frank McCann, who, it is alleged, kept a disorderly house in Chesley street, Officer Jones testified. Frank Nagle, charged with being an inmate said that he was in the house for a couple of hours before midnight to get drinks, on the invitation of McCann, and was arrested on the street the next morning. He was allowed to go until today. Carrie Rider, charged with being an inmate, was sent to the Home of the Good Shepherd for nine months.

ORANGEMEN ON NORTH SHORE CELEBRATE

Newcastle, July 13.—Many of the local Orangemen left this morning to spend the day in Daoktown where the Orangemen of the county are celebrating the 12th.

The Newcastle Band were in Bathurst yesterday attending an Orange church parade there. The Orangemen of Newcastle, Chatham and St. John met in Douglas street yesterday afternoon and listened to a sermon in St. Mark's Presbyterian church by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Firth. The steamer Dorothy W. conveyed the brethren to the place of meeting. Rev. Mr. Firth preached from 1 Samuel, iv: 13, "Eil sat upon a seat by the wayside watching, for his heart trembled for the ark of God."

STORSTAD'S FIRST OFFICER IS BEYOND CANADIAN LAWS

Holds Norwegian Certificate, Canadian authorities cannot cancel papers—Will not likely be prosecuted.

Ottawa, July 13.—Owing to the fact that First Officer Tuftness holds a Norwegian certificate, the Canadian Marine Department is unable to inflict any punishment such as cancellation of papers upon the man held responsible for the Empress disaster.

The report, however, is being sent to the Norwegian authorities so that in future officers of foreign vessels engaged in the Canadian coasting trade must have Canadian certificates. It is improbable that Tuftness will be prosecuted, as his mistake is considered more of an error of judgment than a case of criminal negligence. The recommendations for better protection of life at sea will be quickly put into effect by the Canadian government in co-operation with the British Board of Trade. Lord Mersey is in Ottawa today, a guest of the Government House.

In Daily Fear of Death—Until "Fruit-a-tives" Brought Relief.

Chatham, Ont., April 3rd, 1913.

"Some two years ago, I was a great sufferer from indigestion. One day my eye caught a billboard of 'Fruit-a-tives' and I said to myself 'If Fruit-a-tives will build me up like that, it is good enough for me.' I bought some. After taking these wonderful tablets for only three weeks, I found myself wonderfully improved. In a short time longer, I cured myself entirely. My case was no light one, either. Gas would often form in my stomach and I was in daily fear that it would get around my heart and kill me. 'Fruit-a-tives' is the only remedy for indigestion."

MAKING REPAIRS TO THE STORSTAD.

Quebec, July 13.—Work of repairing the damaged collier Storstad, which rammed the Empress of Ireland, was started Saturday night last, about an hour after the vessel entered the Levis dock. George T. Davie, proprietor of the dock, is supervising the work and he had day and night shifts to rush the work along.

The whole of the ship's stem is already removed. It was ripped and torn as far down as the keel, so that the repairs are expected to cost about $50,000. It is not expected the Storstad will be able to take to sea before a month, or six weeks.

TWO OPINIONS REGARDING ONTARIO.

It is amusing to see how Liberal newspapers in the Maritime Provinces have managed to derive all sorts of encouragement from the election results in Ontario and Manitoba. In Manitoba the fact that the Liberal opposition has made gains is taken to mean that, at last, the "tide of Liberal victory" has been heard from. The papers entirely ignore the fact that the canvass which proved most effective in the contest had nothing at all to do with the record of the Roblin administration, or with the Conservative party. It was a revival of the old Manitoba school question and the men who voted against the government were not Liberals, so much as dissatisfied Conservatives, and their dissatisfaction was confined to only one question. With the school question removed from the campaign it would have been found that Mr. Roblin would have had a much larger majority in the next legislature. However, the election was fought almost entirely on that issue and the Liberals are entitled to all the comfort they can gather from it.

But how about Mr. Rowell and his handful of supporters in Ontario? Liberal newspapers in the Maritime Provinces declare that Mr. Rowell has galvanized the forces of Liberalism in Ontario into an effective fighting machine and that he has become a factor to be reckoned with in future contests. Those newspapers, to put it plainly, do not know what they are talking about. While they are eulogizing Mr. Rowell as a great force, what opinion of him is expressed by Liberal newspapers in the Province of Ontario, which have better opportunities for judging his real strength? In the Simcoe Reformer, edited by Hal B. Donley, former member of the Ontario legislature and at least as consistent a Liberal as some of the Maritime Province Liberal newspaper editors, whose politics are determined by their paymaster, we do not find such complete satisfaction with Mr. Rowell or with his achievement. The Reformer says: "And now the question is, what is Mr. Rowell, what is Ontario berating going to do about it? Mr. Rowell, on Monday evening, issued a statement in which he expressed himself as gratified with the result. Let that go as the perfunctory tribute paid by a man who wishes to be known as a good loser. Mr. Rowell is not a fool, and Mr. Rowell cannot be gratified at the result. Let us have a determined effort to reorganize the Liberal party of Ontario, let us have a thoroughly representative provincial convention, composed of men selected by the Liberal voters of the ridings to decide on the party's future; the sooner the better, Mr. Rowell."

That does not sound much like the product of wild enthusiasm over a great victory. It may be quite true, as the Maritime Province Liberal newspapers claim, that the recent Ontario elections have fanned the fires of Liberalism but at least the fire does not appear to have struck in around Simcoe.

A MARTYR TO DUTY

Police Officer Frank E. O'Leary passed away yesterday morning, a martyr to his duty. While arresting a young man, charged with burglary, he received the bullet wound which proved fatal. By reason of his splendid physique and cleanly habits, Officer O'Leary made a gallant fight against death, and it was hoped and believed, with some show of success, but a chance for the worse came on Sunday and yesterday morning death came. His decease opens a new phase of the case. What does the city propose to do for the mother left behind, whose chief support was taken from her? If O'Leary had lived there is no doubt his bravery would have found suitable recognition by grateful citizens. Nothing can be done for him now, and the only means by which the city can pay its debt is by transferring to the mother the tangible reward due to the son.

In a Chicago newspaper office a reporter was once sent to report a fire. A falling wall killed him, and he left behind a widow and small family. Not too well provided with this world's goods, and robbed of the bread-winner, the little family might have fared badly had it not been for the generous justice of the newspaper in whose service he died. On the day next following the accident, the reporter's widow was summoned to the newspaper office and into the presence of the managing editor. That gentleman handed her an envelope containing her husband's salary and said: "Madame, your husband was sent from this office to cover a fire. He has not returned and, so far as we know officially, is still on the assignment. Until he does return his salary will be waiting here for you each week."

In the case of Officer O'Leary the city of St. John, possibly, cannot afford to be as generous, but that officer died a martyr to duty and it is presumed the civic authorities will not forget it. Ample provision for those dependent upon him should be made either by civic grant or public subscription.

When the Times published its statement this newspaper obtained, from Mr. Flemming, a denial that he had issued such instructions, and the Times repeated that it had "very excellent authority" for what it said. We then invited the Times to produce the authority and to date that newspaper has not dared to accept the invitation. The Standard has charged the Times with deliberately lying, and the Times has not disproved it, but has continued to deal in evasions and cheap sarcasm. The reason is obvious. The Times has been caught red-handed at its same of falsehood and misrepresentation. It has no defence but is forced to remain branded as the liar it has shown itself to be. The people can draw their own conclusions.

A WORLD-WIDE PROBLEM.

If we can judge from recent events in England, the problem of non-attendance at church is not confined to any particular quarter of the globe. Not long ago the churches in several of the larger cities of the United States held a "go-to-church" campaign in which an effort was made to bring into closer touch with the church the many people who should be regular attendants, but who, possibly through carelessness, had neglected this duty. More recently billboards in and about St. John were decorated with strikingly pretty posters, designed with the object of bringing the matter of church attendance home to the people. It has remained for the Free Churches of England, however, to launch the go-to-church movement on a much more comprehensive scale than anything attempted on this side of the water. Their object is to secure the attendance at church on two Sundays in January of next year of every man, woman and child in England and Wales, and in order to accomplish this end, it is the intention that representatives of the churches shall visit every home in England and Wales and extend a special invitation for church attendance on either of two days. For this work the efforts of thousands of visitors will be requisitioned and the campaign will be organized on much the same lines as a census taking.

The National Free Church Council of Britain has already taken the preliminary steps in the campaign and has appointed a special committee to carry out the idea. The various denominations have been communicated with and the scheme has met with a most sympathetic reception. Various councils in association with the National Council have also been communicated with, and it is hoped through them to get into direct touch with each individual church. To secure that invitations to attend church shall be left at every house a national scheme is to be inaugurated. The whole country is to be divided into separate Free Church parishes, and each church will be allotted a parish for visitation. The members of the various churches will be enlisted in the work of distributing the invitations, and if the idea is taken up enthusiastically, it should not be difficult to ensure that every man, woman and child shall receive an invitation. It is expected that the simultaneous visitation will be arranged for an early date in January, and the Sundays that everybody will be asked to attend church are January 24 and 31. The campaign is not to be restricted to the Free Churches and is not in any sense a proselytizing agency. The National Council states that "it is not being promoted in any denominational or sectarian sense, but with the wide scope and urgency of the Gospel appeal."

Diary of Events

HISTORIC DAYS IN CANADA

In 1672 the governorship of New France was given to Louis de Buade, Comte de Frontenac, and under his able rule Canada flourished as never before. One of the first cares of the new governor was to extend French influence far beyond the existing French settlements and to gain full control of the St. Lawrence. On this date in 1673 the valiant Count, at the head of a little army of Frenchmen, decided upon the Indian village of Cataract, on Lake Ontario, at the head of the St. Lawrence, as the site of the log fortress which his men immediately began to build. Much ceremony marked the inception of the first home left white men on the site of the present city of Kingston, and hundreds of curious redskins gathered to witness the display of French pomp. The first Fort Frontenac was captured and destroyed by colonial forces a few years later, but when Frontenac returned from France to begin his second term as governor he rebuilt the fort. That was in 1684, and four years later the valiant Count died in Quebec. In 1758 Fort Frontenac resurged to an English name under Col. John Bradstreet, and two years later all Canada was in the possession of the English. In choosing the site of Kingston for a frontier outpost, Count Frontenac displayed that sagacity and knowledge of strategy which ever marked his career in Canada, and with proper support from France he might have changed the whole current of North American history. Such support he did not receive, however, and Canadians and frontiersmen of today may well be thankful that King Louis did not respond to the demands of Frontenac's ambition.

THE HUMAN PROBLEM

EGYPTIAN KHEDIVÉ, 40 TODAY. Sadness reigns in the palace of Abbas Hilmi, Khedive of Egypt, for he is a keen observer of the trend of events, and he realizes, with bitterness of spirit, that the independence of his ancient land will soon be a thing of the past. Moreover his favorite spouse, a Hungarian woman, has left him for another man, and he is left with a fortuitous birthday, his only consolation is in the knowledge that she is yet to come. On at least one occasion within the last year the Khedive sympathized with—if he did not encourage—a revolution of his subjects, but on the day set for the uprising Kitchener, of the all-seeing eye and the all-hearing ear, marched his troops and sailors through the streets of old Cairo, and ruler and people lapsed again into sullen acquiescence.

Egypt, the cradle of civilization, is now about to fall in its dotage before the child of its own rearing—a child now become a stalwart man, while Egypt has fallen into its second childhood. Egypt of to-day is a glorious land of the Pharaohs, the seat of the Ptolemies, the home of Cleopatra, turns a Roman and a Turkish province, has fallen under the yoke of conquering way of Great Britain, and its last shred of independence is soon to be numbered among the things that were. It is free, at least in name only, and the Khedive is but a figurehead. And soon, if the prophets of Egyptian politics are justified, he will be less than a figurehead.

The Turkish flag and the Khedivial banner will soon flaunt their folds no more, and the Union Jack will fly alone along the whole course of the Nile. Turkish rule is now but the gray shadow of former sovereignty, and in the conduct of Egyptian affairs Islam has no more voice than Montenegro or Switzerland, save in such influence as the Sultan can bring to bear through appeal to religious preferences. As for the Khedive, he possesses even less influence than the Sultan. He may encourage the Nationalists in their patriotism or their sedition—the world depending upon the viewpoint—but all the men he could muster to his cause would be but as an infant in the hands of a giant.

Abbas Hilmi, in all probability the last of Egyptian rulers, was born forty years ago today, July 14, 1874. When he came to the throne in 1892, fresh from college at Vienna and from wanderings over Europe, he found his ancient land occupying a peculiar position among the nations of the world. Nominally it was a province of the Turkish Empire. Actually it was autonomous under the Khedive. At the same time, it depended for its existence upon the European powers, chief among them being Great Britain. With the passing of the years Turkish sovereignty has become more and more shadowy; the powers of the Khedive have become more and more restricted; the influence of other powers has gradually decreased, and that of Great Britain has become paramount; and now the time is rapidly approaching—in all but name it is already here—when Egypt is to become a full-fledged English dependency, a part of the great British Empire. That the restoration of Egypt to the empire would be of great material benefit to the ancient land there can be no doubt. For all his European education, his western clothes, Abbas is

FIRST THINGS

THE MATTERHORN
The first ascent of the Matterhorn, a peak of the Alps which rises to a height of 14,705 feet, was accomplished forty-nine years ago today by Edward Whymper, the great English explorer. Whymper was accompanied by Lord Francis Douglas, a brother of the late Marquis of Queensberry; the Rev. Charles Hudson, and another Englishman named Hadow. The Matterhorn was the last of the Alpine summits to defy man, but Whymper, after seven failures triumphed at last, but at a terrible cost. For an hour the men and their three guides remained on the summit, gloating over their victory, and then commenced their descent. On the way down Mr. Hadow slipped and fell against Croz, a guide, and both went hurtling downward. The members of the party were tied together, and in an instant the Rev. Hudson and Lord Douglas were

The Gold Dust Twins' Philosophy

WHEN young Mr. Housewife first aspired, to build the home her mate desired, she dreamed of castles in the air, with never a brick nor woe nor care. She half imagined, in a way, that keeping house was only "play."

Too soon the sordid side of life—the dust and grime and soot and strife—each one, in turn, reminded her, that little problems must occur. A part of thrift is in the knack of fighting dirt around you, back; of keeping constantly at work where dust and germs of illness lurk.

This housewife had her little cry, gave up—and scarcely knowing why. Then, from the sombre clouds of doubt, two rays of golden hope crept out. The Gold Dust Twins threw wide the door and entered, eager for a chore. They polished all the silverware, they scrubbed the bathroom and the stairs. Each mirror soon was shining bright, the kettles shone with gleaming light, and all around, from pit to dome, they garnished up that little home.

Ah! Ye who feel that, once begun, a housewife's work is NEVER done, have cheer! The Gold Dust Twins make play of any task that comes their way. A mop—a cloth—a busy brush, and honestly it makes us bluish, to think we ever played the drone by working in the house alone.

START ACTION AGAINST OWNERS OF STORSTAD

C.P.R. will prosecute former owners for $2,000,000 for loss of Empress of Ireland.

Montreal, July 13.—"We shall proceed immediately with our action against the former owners of the Storstad for $2,000,000 for loss of the Empress of Ireland," declared A. R. Holden, K. C., solicitor for the C. P. R., this afternoon.

"The action will be heard," Mr. Holden said, in the Admiralty court in this city in September. Money paid the Franchise Trust Company on behalf of the Norwegian purchasers of the Storstad amounting to $175,000 has been paid into court, and we will, of course, lay claim to it on behalf of our clients."

Mr. Holden claims that the unanimous finding of the commissioners shows the C. P. R. is not liable for damages to the relatives of drowned persons or injured passengers.

MUSQUASH ORANGEMEN CELEBRATE "TWELFTH" BY ENJOYABLE PICNIC

Guardian L. O. L. proved themselves peerless as hosts and visitors had a delightful day.

With fine weather and a large attendance yesterday the annual celebration of the order was a great success. A picnic was held under the auspices of Guardian L. O. L. No. 5, Musquash. The visitors formed up at the Orange Hall in the morning when details of the picnic were arranged. It was held on the grounds of the Lislewood Fish and Game Corporation. Proceeded by the St. John Pipe Band members, the following lodges lined up in procession: Guardian L. O. L. No. 5, Musquash; Mount Purple L. O. L. No. 23, Lorneville; King's Own L. O. L. No. 140, Mace's Bay; Willis L. O. L. No. 7, Fairville; True Blue L. O. L. No. 11, St. John West.

Upon arriving at the picnic grounds interesting and appropriate speeches were made by David Hargrove, county master of St. John county, west; Rev. Mr. Ellis, Anglican rector of Musquash; Past County Master Moody, St. John county, west; Past County Master Turnbull, St. John county West; R. M. McIntyre, No. 5, in all present voted the picnic to be in every way successful. An enjoyable dinner was served under superintendence of Guardian L. O. L. No. 5, in the Orange Hall at Musquash.

The following committee had charge of the arrangements: the St. John Refreshments, William Shepherd, James Davidson, David Taylor; dinner and supper, Past County Master Moody, Charles Spinnay, Edward Boyd; games and amusements, John Reid, Albert Shepherd, John McLean. During the afternoon dancing games in order and were much enjoyed. J. B. M. Baxter, M. L. A.; T. B. Carson, M. L. A. and G. Earl Logan, county master of St. John county East, visited the scene of the festivities and were accorded a hearty welcome. The St. John Orangemen returned to the city on the Shore line train well pleased with the pleasant outing.

WATER SUPPLY FROM CITY MAINS FOR SCHOOL AT BEACONSFIELD

Committee appointed for meeting of Rate-payers of School District No. 1, held last night to interview Common Council.

The annual meeting of the rate-payers of Beaconsfeld school district No. 1 in the parish of Lunenburg, took place last evening in the Tower school, G. Earl Logan presided and George M. Bailly acted as secretary. W. O. Dunham, who has been secretary of school trustees, was re-elected to office. George M. Bailly, and James G. Carleton were selected as auditors. The annual report has been prepared and will be submitted at a special meeting of the rate-payers to be held later. It has also been proposed to secure the water supply for the school from the city mains and with this idea in view a special committee consisting of S. M. Wetmore, Samuel Clarke, H. Colby Smith and G. Earl Logan was selected to wait on the city commissioners in order to see what arrangements can be made. At the present time the school is supplied with water from a well but this has been found inadequate and the new system is expected to improve conditions. It was also the intention to have the meeting discuss the matter of increased assessment for school purposes but this was postponed until the next meeting.

Inquest Into Shooting of Policeman O'Leary

Thomas Gillespie Called as Witness. Thomas Gillespie was called and sworn. He testified that he resided in St. Patrick street, St. John, and was by occupation, a blacksmith. He knew the deceased, Frank O'Leary by sight. His (Gillespie's) home was in the same building as that occupied by the family of the accused. The Braman family lived on the right hand side of the house, while witness resided on the left.

Witness had not been working on July 8th last on account of sickness, and while lying in the bed in his house, he heard a noise in the toilet of the house. He did not hear any words spoken but later heard a report, but he did not know whether it was from a revolver or not. There was a second report a moment or two later and he felt the second report was from a revolver. Just following the second report he heard a man crying out. On opening the door of the toilet he saw Officer Frank O'Leary, and the prisoner in a scuffle. O'Leary said, "Come up and help me take this man."

O'Leary Held On to Braman After He Was Shot. O'Leary was holding Braman by the neck, the latter's head being down towards the officer. O'Leary said, "Yes, he has shot me." Both the deceased and the witness were holding the prisoner, and finally the deceased wrested the revolver from Braman.

Witness did not at this time see any wounds or blood on the deceased. Witness and the deceased handcuffed the accused and the deceased then proceeded to search the prisoner. In the course of the search the accused told the officer that there was some money in the left pocket of his vest and said, "You had better take that." Witness said, "I'll get away from you I'll shoot." Witness thought he would shoot the prisoner. The ambulance arrived and witness helped to place O'Leary in the ambulance. After returning to his house witness saw the prisoner in the ambulance. Witness saw Deputy Chief Jenkins return to the house with the prisoner. "Where do you get these goods?" "Where do you get these goods?" "Where do you get these goods?"

Second Shot Missed Him. Sergeant Aaron Hastings of the City police force gave evidence at the direction of the chief of police he had taken the accused to the hospital, where the deposition of O'Leary was taken. There the deceased told that the first shot had struck him in the side, but that the second shot did not strike him. The deceased further said that it was Braman who fired the shots and that the accused at the time of the shooting had given his name as Graham.

Deputy Chief Frederick W. Jenkins said that at 11 o'clock on the 6th inst. he received a call at the police station informing him that O'Leary had been shot on St. Patrick street near Clarence. Witness summoned the ambulance and hastened to the scene of the shooting. Witness took charge of the prisoner who turned out to be Braman. The latter said that there was a shirt in his house that had been stolen from Carleton's dry goods store that he wanted to give the witness. They went in the house and the accused pointed to the toilet, saying "It is in there." Witness said: "If it is in there it will stay for a while. You come with me." Witness then met Officer O'Neil who had arrived on the scene and directed him to search for any articles that might be in the house, and then witness took the prisoner to the central station.

Braman Confessed to Shooting O'Leary. Deputy Jenkins then related to the jury the conversation he had with the prisoner relative to the shooting. Braman said: "My, I am sorry I shot him, but he was going to put the handcuffs on me and I shot him. If he did not shoot him and that is all there is about it. I feel twice but the last time it didn't take effect. I don't think." Again Braman said, "I'm sorry I shot him. I would have gotten off easier if I hadn't shot him, wouldn't I?" To members of the jury the deputy chief described the district which Officer O'Neil patrolled.

Deputy Chief Jenkins also described the conversation he had with the prisoner at the police station when the accused told him that O'Leary was about five feet away when he fired. The deputy presented a drawing of the Braman house, showing the spot where the shooting took place. This was of great benefit to the jury in explaining the different portions of the evidence. Dr. Frederick T. Dunlop, physician of Saint John, gave evidence in regard to the post mortem examination which was conducted on the body of the deceased. His evidence substantiated that of the previous medical testimony. The doctor produced the bullet which was taken from the body of the deceased. Henry E. Mason, a driver of coal for the Gibbons Company, and Frank H. Mason, his son, gave evidence in regard to assisting in holding the accused until the arrival of the deputy chief. Mr. Mason, Jr., said that the accused then made the statement that "If he shot me I would have been around there would be more than O'Leary shot."

CAPT. KENDALL MAY GIVE UP SEA POST

Given extensive leave of absence and will probably get shore position when he returns to duty.

Montreal, July 13.—Captain Kendall, who commanded the sunken Empress of Ireland, is not likely to go to sea again, though he was exonerated by the Dominion wreck commission in its finding on the disaster last Saturday. It is understood here that the C. P. R. authorities have given him several months leave of absence and that at the conclusion of it he will accept a shore position either in Canada or in England in the service of the company.

"THE LAST SUPPER", A FILM THAT OFFERS FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Lyric has Picture Programme of unusual merit and Vaudeville feature that delights large audiences.

The patrons of the Lyric were last night shown a film, produced by the America Company, entitled "The Last Supper." The subject is unusual, and it is claimed that it asks the question "Is the Word of God heeded by the world?" But it is not a biblical subject, as most would assume from its title. There is, however, a religious atmosphere about the production which affords the opportunity for earnest thought by those who are interested in such a question as has been suggested. It is evident that in the treatment of such a subject great care was necessary, and the part of those who are responsible for its production, and it seems safe to say that in "The Last Supper" there is presented a picture-story that may be advantageously heeded by men and women today.

"The Man With the Razor," a comic film, caused much merriment, whilst the singing and dancing of Hayes and Wynne, the Australian champion dancers, was particularly good. The impersonations of Vesta Tilley by the former were well done and brought forth much applause, whilst Mr. Wynne is certainly a star amongst the fast dancers.

OBITUARY. Annie Brand, Annie Brand, the eldest daughter of Joseph and the late Ellen Brand, died at the General Public Hospital at an early hour yesterday morning. Miss Brand had been ill since Thursday, and died after an operation on her throat. She came from Norton, Kings county, and was in the 21st year of her age. She was employed as a stenographer in the firm of Baird & Peters. Miss Brand is survived by her father, one sister, three brothers and an aunt, Miss Emma Uard, who was with her at the time of her death. The body was taken to Norton yesterday afternoon.

at 11.45 o'clock scarcely a dozen spectators were in the court room, although at intervals during the evening there were numbers of spectators and a great deal of interest seemed to be evinced in the enquiry. Coroner Roberts thanked Foreman Rowan and the members of the jury for their assistance and adjourned his court at 11.45 o'clock.

HARTLAND NEWS

Annual meeting of Water and Fire Commission held.

Hartland, N. B., July 11.—The annual meeting of the Hartland Village Fire and Water Commission was held in the town building on Monday evening and upwards of one hundred ratepayers were present. Commissioner Plummer was in the chair and Secretary Simons and Auditor Keith presented their reports for the year. The total receipts for tap taxes, rates, etc., was $1,696.52 and the expenditure for the year amounted to $1,164.18. This, with the balance of $40.31 carried over from last year left a balance on hand of $562.18. There was a delinquent list of $155.19, which is the smallest since incorporation. A committee composed of Allan Bradley, A. F. Campbell, Bert Smith and J. S. Faulkner was appointed to look after the improvement of mains. On account of the extension of the main and the repairs to the reservoir an increase of $600 was made to the assessment, which brings the total for the ensuing year up to $1500. The board of commissioners for the year is composed of Dr. I. B. Curtis, J. E. McCollum and A. Plummer. T. G. Simons is secretary. The village has the purest water ever analyzed and there is an abundant supply in case of fire. Work on the Valley Railway in the

Centreville district has ceased for the present. With the exception of a small cut the road is graded and ready for the rails up to the Howard White property on the road to Woodstock. Work has not yet been started on the station. The Oddfellows picnic, originally planned by the Centreville lodge for July 8, has been postponed until Aug. 20, when an excursion will be run from Woodstock on the Valley road. A big time is then expected and the proceeds will go to the building fund of the new hall. Dr. Lee Burt of Los Angeles is visiting his old home at Centreville. Mrs. Allan Ward and children of Hartland have been visiting at Upper Brighton and will later go to St. John for a few weeks. At Newburg on Tuesday Rev. Father Bradley of St. Joseph's church, united in marriage Miss Caroline A. Maguire of Bangor and Mr. Daniel J. McNeil of Brewer, Me. The young couple will live in Bangor. The relay of the C.P.R. track on this division with 80 pound rails, is progressing rapidly. A large gang of Italians, under competent bosses, are fairly eating up distance with the new heavy rails. New and improved frogs and switches have been put down in the Hartland yards and the crew is now working its way north. Miss Edna Hagerman represents the Baptist Sunday school at the Summer School of Science at Beulah. Miss Kyle of Moncton has been visiting Miss Cambridge for a few days. Mrs. H. D. Keswick and little daughter have gone for a visit with her sister Mrs. C. R. Thistle, at Portage, Me. Messrs. H. R. Nixon and A. L. Baird, have been enjoying a week's fishing on the Miramichi this week. At her home in Houlton, after a long illness, Mrs. Finley Macdonald died on Wednesday. Deceased was born in Lower Brighton in 1841 and married in 1863. Mrs. Wm. Dow, a sister, and Adam Robinson, a brother, live at Lower Brighton. The concert recital given in Lyric Hall on Friday evening by Miss Maude V. Henderson was a success musically and financially. The lady's playing was much admired and the other features of the programme were highly appreciated. First of the Season. The first bushel of new potatoes to arrive in the city from the up-river districts was received yesterday by H. H. MacFarlane of the city market from S. P. Hazen of the Parish of Kings Co.

CAPT. HARGREAVES, OF NORFOLK, VA., VISITING HIS NATIVE CITY

The Secretary of the Board of Trade had a visit on Monday morning from Captain Charles J. Hargreaves, official surveyor of the Chamber of Commerce, Norfolk, Va. Captain Hargreaves is a believer in Norfolk and he doesn't hesitate to publish his belief. He says that it is a great little city, and that before long it will lead

Cardiff as the greatest coal depot in the world. The Norfolk Chamber of Commerce, to which he is attached, was reorganized by the Town Development Company, immediately after their work in St. John. They rounded up a membership of 1,500, and over 97 per cent. of the new members met their membership obligations promptly, the second year. The organization, so far as Norfolk is concerned, was a great success. The members are all actively working, he says, and the Chamber is doing a splendid work for Norfolk. It has now a membership of 1,700. He thinks that St. John has great opportunities, and can see no good reason why the city should not make rapid progress. Captain Hargreaves, who is a son-in-law of the late R. A. Courtenay, will be in St. John for a few days.

All the DIFFERENT VIEWS OF FRENCH LOAN

A great financial success, but in spite of special considerations not as many applications from small investors as looked for.

The London correspondent of the New York Post writing to that journal says: "The result of the French loan subscription of Tuesday is regarded with somewhat mixed feelings. It was undoubtedly a great financial success; total applications apparently being forty times the face of the loan. So far, indeed, did the large applicants oversubscribe that they will get only 2 per cent. of their tenders. "Yet in one respect, disappointment has been caused. Despite the special consideration granted to small investors, applications of that character do not appear to have been as large as had been anticipated, and the result is that, from the premium bid for the new loan on the market in advance of the settlement price has fallen to a discount.

"Nevertheless, the indirect good effect of the loan is already seen in easier money at Paris, and it is expected, therefore, that the price may improve later; also that accumulation of gold by the Bank of France will stop. Indeed, the belief now is that gold may be sent from Paris to certain outside quarters shortly. "But meantime, the influence of cheaper money will be offset to some extent by the bad results of other loans offered at Paris—notably those of Serbia and Turkey. Political anxiety regarding relations of Austria and Serbia will not be without effect.

"The extremely satisfactory manner in which your high crop estimates are maintained is recognized here as a powerful influence for improvement in the position of American affairs, especially with your railroads. It is unusually difficult to estimate at the moment just how large Europe's requirements from your great wheat crop will be. Crop weather on the continent has been peculiarly erratic and its effect on crops in many countries unfavorable. There is adverse talk regarding the Canadian crop. Russian advances are also unsatisfactory. Australia promises to give more than usual, but it is believed that Europe will have to buy more wheat of you than last year.

"Economic conditions and the level of your crop may favor lower wheat prices, which would partly neutralize the effect of larger exports from the States. But if conditions in Canada and Russia should become distinctly worse, then the demand for your wheat would be of an unusual character."

DEATH OF JAMES SPROUL AT HIGHFIELD, N. B.

The death occurred at Highfield, Quebec County, on July 9th, of James Sproul, in the 80th year of his age. He had been ill less than a week. His death was a great shock to his relatives and friends. For a number of years the late Mr. Sproul was proprietor of the Royal Hotel, Campbellville, where he was well known to the travelling public. He removed to Apohaqui and then to Highfield where he conducted a general store. He is survived by his wife and daughters, Annie, wife of Aub Pearson, St. John, and Edna, wife of Medley Pearson, Highfield; also a sister, Mrs. M. A. Day, Lynnfield, C. B., Mass., and one grandson. The funeral service was held in the church at Highfield Saturday morning. It was largely attended. Rev. C. A. Warnford conducted the service. Burial was at Riverbank cemetery, Apohaqui, the services at the grave being conducted by Rev. Canon Nes-

WIRELESS DEVICES PROVES A SUCCESS

Marconi-Bellini-Tosi system indicates relation of ship to wireless stations within radius of fifty miles.

Interest keener than usual attended the recent arrival at St. Lawrence ports of the Canadian Northern liner Royal George because of the demonstrations that have been given of the possibilities of a new wireless aid to navigation.

Through the genius of Marconi, during the last few years the narrative of a workaday world has been given daily to the passengers of most of the steamships ploughing the seven seas.

The device is not bulky. The "detector" box, which is the medium for locating the wireless stations, is but large enough to hold two small switches and a graduated dial.

The device is not bulky. The "detector" box, which is the medium for locating the wireless stations, is but large enough to hold two small switches and a graduated dial.

Both the Marconi engineer, Signor Emilio Ichina, and the captain of the Royal George, expressed their satisfaction with the experiments which had been made on the voyage.

Today about one hundred persons will leave the city at 11:20 a. m. for Moncton to join the pilgrimage to the Shrine of St. Anne de Beaupre.

(By MacLavy of Babylon) Three hoofs for Der Kaiser!

The Emperor of Germany has so many ideas about sport and exercise which the people of this side of the Atlantic would do well to consider.

The object of sport, says the Lord who has never had a war, "is to bring the physical development of masses rather than the effort to establish new records."

That is the true, correct, sane and democratic conception of ideals of sport and athletics.

It is the shame of democratic America that it sets up and encourages a standard of sport which has for its chief end and aim breaking of records, rather than building of sound and strong bodies for the multitude.

American schools and colleges teach this ideal, with the result that great masses of students are physically coddled, while the few, on whom vast amounts of money are expended are hailed as heroes.

The result is flabby muscles for many and swelled heads for the few. The Emperor of Germany has so many ideas about sport and exercise which the people of this side of the Atlantic would do well to consider.

Listen to the Kaiser again! He desires to direct attention to matters to which he believes attention is on the right track. This is endeavor to confer the chief benefit of sport upon the whole people, to bring the masses up to a high plane of physical development, and not sort out individual first-class performers from the dead level, which is generally lower.

The Emperor said a mouthful will be delivered that utterance. And course which he urges Germans avoid is exactly that which has been adopted and followed and brought to a high state of perfection in the United States, and to a somewhat lesser extent in Canada.

The Emperor has been thinking of the athletic situation in the United States, a horrible example when he made that statement, although it is too good a diplomat to say so.

In the next Olympic games, to be held in Berlin, the Americans will probably will show superiority over the German athletes, and this will be accepted by shallow thinkers as proof of the greater stamina, strength and endurance of Americans. It will be nothing of the kind.

Go to New York, or if you deny that the metropolis is a representative American city, to Chicago, or San Francisco, or Louisville, St. Paul, or at a street corner and pick out that first hundred men who pass. Do some thing in the way of physical education, and you will see who are the Americans—but I wouldn't say any more on this!

Three hoofs for Der Kaiser!
The Emperor of Germany has some sound ideas about sport and exercise which the people of this side of the Atlantic would do well to consider.

"The object of sport," says the War Lord who has never had a war, "should be the physical development of the masses rather than the effort to establish new records."

That is the true, correct, sensible and democratic conception of the ideals of sport and athletics. It is the shame of democratic America that it sets up and encourages and supports a standard of sport which has for its chief end and aim the breaking of records, rather than the building of sound and strong bodies for the multitude.

American schools and colleges foster this ideal, with the result that the great masses of students are physical mollycoddlers, while the few, on whom vast amounts of money are expended, are hailed as heroes.

The result is fatty muscles for the many and swelled heads and chests for the few "supermen" who are the product of this foolish system. Listen to the Kaiser again:

"I desire to direct attention to a matter as to which I believe our nation is on the right track. This is an endeavor to confer the chief benefits of sport upon the whole people, to bring the masses up to a high plane of physical development, and not to sort out individual first-class performers from the dead level, which remains generally lower."

BALLOON RACES

St. Louis, Mo., July 13.—The "San Francisco, 1915," piloted by E. S. Cole, of St. Louis, and his aide, R. E. Emerson, of Springfield, Mo., early today was the only balloon not reported landed in the National elimination race, which was begun here Saturday afternoon. The balloon was last heard from passing over Dahlgren, Ill., at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. It had been in the air fifteen hours, but according to a note dropped at this point, five hours had been spent in a calm. The "San Francisco, 1915," then was headed for the east.

Of the seven which landed yesterday, six had not covered 200 miles. Their progress was hampered first by the lack of strong air currents—at any rate, five hours had been spent in a calm. The seventh, which landed at about 10 miles above the earth.

UNIQUE HAS BRIGHT PROGRAMME FOR OPENING OF WEEK

"The Strike," a production replete with stirring scenes—Good Comedy films to round out the bill.

A very interesting programme was presented at the Unique theatre yesterday, and this popular house was crowded during the afternoon and evening. Probably the principal feature of the programme was the dramatic film, "The Strike," a production full of stirring scenes and with a strong appeal to the imagination.

Hap Myers, the longest and slimmest first baseman in capacity is with the Brooklyn Federals. Last season he was with the Boston Nationals but was released to the Rochester Internationals at the close of the year. Just why he was allowed to slip out of the majors nobody seems to know, as he hit 273 and stole 57 bases, which mark is only exceeded in the National League by Carey of Pittsburgh.

Cobbs and Jackson continue to fight it out for the batting honors in the American League. Each year several other players are at the top of the averages till midsummer when they begin to vibrate and as autumn comes these two players have the top to themselves.

Jackson ranks well up with Cobb as a batter and fielder but in base running and general aggressiveness they stand alone.

POLICEMAN O'LEARY DIED UNTIL FEW MINUTES BEFORE DEATH

"I'm Going to Live" almost last words he spoke before end came—News of his death cast gloom over City—Braman nearly collapsed on hearing news.

After fighting death for a week, having been wounded by a revolver shot at the hands of John Braman, Frank O'Leary, a special plain clothes man in the employ of the Department of Public Safety, died at the General Public Hospital yesterday morning at two minutes after eight o'clock. John Braman, the seventeen year old youthful burglar, who shot O'Leary when being arrested charged with shooting with intent to kill, as the coroner's jury last night brought in a verdict that O'Leary came to his death by a shot fired by Braman the prisoner will be taken before the police magistrate today and will be most likely charged with murder. Urban J. Swaney, the counsel for Braman, informed the prisoner yesterday morning about ten o'clock that O'Leary had died and on hearing the news the prisoner nearly collapsed and beating his hands, cried out: "My God, My God, O'Leary knows that I did not kill him."

There has not been a case in the city that has stirred the citizens up to such an extent as the shooting of Frank O'Leary. On the first three days after the shooting the injured officer hovered between life and death in the hospital. On Thursday there was change for the better and the hopes of the officer and his friends were very bright as it was thought that would get better. On Friday he was still gaining strength, but on Saturday inflammation set in and he grew worse and gradually grew weaker and succumbed yesterday morning. Until five minutes before he died O'Leary was conscious and at one time early yesterday morning he appeared to be a little stronger. He still hoped that he would live and managed to remark to those about his bed side "I'll fool them yet, I'm going to live."

TRUANCY, A PROBLEM THAT MUST BE FACED

Ninety on Truant Officer's list—A School to deal with delinquents suggested at School Trustees' meeting.

Owing to the lack of a quorum there was no meeting of the school board last evening, but there was an informal discussion by trustees present on various matters of interest. T. H. Bullock asked Dr. Bridges what scheme he had to propose for dealing with truants and delinquents, and Dr. Bridges said his idea was the establishment of a school which would have authority to take full parental control of habitual truants.

BOARD OF HEALTH CASE HEARD IN THE POLICE COURT

Complaint made by Board about Germain street Merchant's premises—Theft charge part of afternoon's docket.

In the police court yesterday afternoon M. E. Grass was charged by the Board of Health with having a yard of Germain street in which manure was scattered about. Mr. Grass informed the court that he leased the property from William Quizon, and that he sublet the barn to Mr. Crawford. Dr. Melvin stated that he had visited the place, and that the condition of affairs was a nuisance and a direct menace to public health, one of the chief reasons being proximity to a grocery store.

NEW TELEPHONE DIRECTORY SHOWS NEARLY 700 MORE NAMES THAN LAST YEAR'S.

That St. John is growing in population or prosperity or both is shown by the edition of the Telephone Directory issued yesterday. There are nearly 700 more names in the city directory issued yesterday than there were in the edition issued this time last year.

CIRCUS STILL A POPULAR ATTRACTION

Thousands visited Haag's Show yesterday and saw the usual "Thrillers"—Many outsiders in town for the day.

Fine weather favored Haag's circus yesterday and a large number went to the Marathon grounds to see the many attractions provided. In the morning there was the usual circus parade, the occasion providing an excuse for the assemblage of thousands on the line of route. Leaving the grounds the numerous wagons, cages and animals with the large retinue of attendants, musicians, clowns, riders and other members of the circus proceeded by way of Main street to Mill street, through Dock street to King street, along Charlotte street to Union street, down Brussels street to Haymarket square, through City Road, Wall street, Paradise Row, back to Main street.

The aggregation arrived in the city on Sunday morning, no less than twenty-two cars being required for transportation. There were two performances yesterday, one at two o'clock and one at eight o'clock. The main tent where two rings had been provided was a huge affair capable of providing seating accommodation for about 4,000 people, nearly all the seats being occupied at both performances. Here was presented a good, clean show of ample proportions. Gymnasts, horse riders, acrobats and other performers gave the onlookers a distinct treat. The Hollis and Greer family gave fine exhibitions of horse riding, the Marshall sisters did well in acrobatic performances, Gonzales, the "Animal King," showed much skill in setting the elephants to work, but perhaps the acts that pleased the crowd most were the excellent trapeze work of the Munich family, the quartette exhibiting much cleverness in graceful combination, and the slack wire performances of A. J. Johnson, who, it is said, is the only man living who can execute a somersault from the wire. Much interest was shown in the graceful evolutions of the well-trained horses, and the whole entertainment pleased everybody. Horse racing, camel racing and pony racing followed, and this practically ended the program. Many, however, remained to hear and see a few singing and dancing numbers. Those who had not already paid a visit to the principal quarters then went thither. There were to be seen three elephants, fourteen camels, a large number of horses and ponies, lamars, leopards, a lion which is credited with having killed three men and wounded several others, and many other animals.

A visit to an adjoining tent brought one to some of the principal side shows. Here were to be seen a sword-swallower, a snake charmer, fortune teller, prestidigitator, and Gonzales. The latter invaded the lion's cage when the beast was in it. The act was termed "a fight with the lion," but there wasn't any fighting. That the Cuban is a courageous fellow, however, was easily demonstrated.

Altogether the management of the circus may justly lay claim to being able to provide a form of entertainment free from objectionable features. The staff showed their willingness to oblige in many ways and deserved the support accorded the undertaking.

Many take advantage of the facilities provided on the West Side.

SWIMMING POOL BOON TO YOUNG FOLKS

The swimming pool for small boys, opened on the West Side on Saturday in a scow loaned the city by J. F. Gregory, is evidently much appreciated by young folks. On Saturday 277 boys took advantage of the opportunity to have a dip. Yesterday the pool was well patronized.
