BRITISH PREMIER INSISTS THAT GERMANY FULFIL OBLIGATIONS

Ten Medical Students Offer to Give Blood to Save Life of Man

Life-Giving Fluid of Three Volunteers Is Found Suitable and Transfusion Will Be Made Today—Meds Turn Down Fee of Twenty-Five Dollars.

Two students at Western University Medical School responded to an appeal launched Thursday by a local physician for a quantity of blood to be transfused into one of his patients, suffering with pernicious anemia. The volunteers presented themselves at the Institute of Public Health for tests Friday, and of the number the blood of two was found suitable for the patient.

This fact does not reflect upon the physical condition of those selected, human blood being divided into four groups of types. Any person with blood of a certain group is a suitable donor for a patient of similar type, but if mixed with a different group the coagulability of the recipient will be dissolved by the serum of the donor, and this would prove immediately fatal. For this reason preliminary mixing of the two bloods in tubes was performed and this test determined the suitability of the volunteers.

A peculiar feature demonstrated in the tests was the fact that although the

LLOYD GEORGE SAYS BILL TO GERMANY BASED ON PROSPERITY

British Premier Outlines Attitude in Speech At Birmingham.

ADVISES CONSIDERATION

Would Not Force Germans to Pay in Cheap Goods.

Birmingham, England, Feb. 5.—Mr. Lloyd George, in a speech here today dealing with the recent meeting in Paris of the Allied supreme council, said that before the election he laid it down that Germany was morally bound to pay for the damage she had inflicted, but that one could only get from a debtor what he was capable of paying.

Mr. Lloyd George points out, with regard to the problem of exchange, that Germany being financially bankrupt represented a baffling difficulty to the experts when it came to the question of her paying out her share of the bill. With all these difficulties in mind, he said, the Allies had reached certain conclusions last week and had presented a bill which was framed on the basis of Germany's prosperity.

Mr. Lloyd George said his advice to Germany would be to accept the bill and not allow herself to be misled by passion and repeat the mistakes of 1914. Germany, he said, had not yet taxed herself to the level of Great Britain and France, and he considered it intolerable that the guilty country which had escaped damage during the war, should also have a lighter burden of taxation than her victims.

Not Unreasonable Burden.

The burden imposed upon Germany by the Allied council, he said, was not extravagant. For the first few years, the premier declared, it was not equal to the pension bills of England or France. It was not a question of imposing economic slavery on the German workers, he insisted. Somebody had to pay for the devastation of France, and should it, he asked, be the workers of France, who had resisted the foe?

Dr. Simons had the right to present alternative proposals, Mr. Lloyd George continued on Page Three.

Fredericton, N.B., Feb. 4.—C. Gordon Sharpe, secretary of the United Farmers of New Brunswick, has consented to retain office for another year, although he resigned at the opening of the convention here this week. His salary was increased to $2,000 and expenses, but he said he would only take only $800 of his $1,000 salary.

DUEL TO DEATH WITH KNIVES

Is Witnessed by Men Who Believed It Only Fist Fight

Bridgeport, Conn., Feb. 5.—A duel with knives, believed by the police to have been carefully planned, resulted in the death last night of Giuseppe Diresa, 29, a shoemaker of this city, who was one of the duellists. The police arrived on the scene to find a clump of woods in the northern section of the city, a few minutes after the fight ended. They found Diresa dying. His opponent had fled.

Later at least a dozen men who had witnessed the combat from a distance described it to the police. Two of the witnesses, thinking it a fist fight, continued on their way, but Peter Maric, a man of 30, and investigated. He found the man dying of many wounds. Two knives lay aside him on the ground.

HEADS T. AND N. O. RAILWAY

GEORGE LEE, who has been appointed chairman of the T. and N. O. Railway, has been removed from Toronto to North Bay.

A fee of $25 was offered to the student giving his blood, but many volunteers stated their intention of refusing this reward, stating that they were loath to be paid for doing the probable means of prolonging the life of a fellow man.

Because of the above peculiar characteristics of blood it is impossible to transfuse the blood of animals to man or vice versa. In fact, the blood of different species of life cannot be intermingled without disastrous results.

A donor will be selected from the three suitable volunteers, and the transfusion which will be the second supply of blood to the patient will be performed at once in Victoria Hospital.

GREEK CABINET RESIGNS; PREMIER AND HIS WAR MINISTER CANNOT AGREE

Rhailis and Gournaris Widely Separated in Their Views as to Who Should Head Greek Delegation to London Conference—King Constantine Is Expected to Summon Either Gournaris or Kalogeropoulos to Form New Ministry—Rhailis Recommends Successor.

Athens, Feb. 5.—The Greek Cabinet formed November 18 last, by Premier Rhailis resigned last night. This action was a result of the controversy between the premier and Minister of War Gournaris as to who should head the Greek delegation which will attend the Near East conference to be held in London late this month.

CAUSE OF RESIGNATION.

Athens, Feb. 5.—Conferees with political leaders were held today by King Constantine in an effort to solve the ministerial crisis which developed during present week and culminated last night in the resignation of the Rhailis Cabinet. It was believed Rhailis had been elected to head the delegation to the Near East conference, but Gournaris, minister of finance, would be added to head the new ministry.

Premier Rhailis had insisted that he should head the Greek delegation to the Near East conference. Mr. Gournaris, however, insisted that the honor of being the Greek spokesman, citing his influence in parliament and the adherence of the Greek press as to his qualifications. The friction between

Bow-Legged Girl Has Her Limbs Made Straight

Chicago, Feb. 5.—When the plastic casts were removed from the esthetic bow legs of Ruth Gordon, an actress, who had each leg broken in two places, she could be straightened. Dr. E. S. Ryerson pronounced them "perfectly straight."

It will be a few weeks more before she can leave her wheel chair, Dr. Ryerson said today, but Miss Gordon could happily leave the doctor's office. Six weeks ago she won Dr. Ryerson's consent to perform the operation, not because of vanity, she said, but because her legs compelled her to wear long dresses on the stage.

GERMANY UNABLE TO DELIVER COAL AS SHE AGREED

Charles Bergmann Points Out Difficulties That Prevent Shipments.

Berlin, Feb. 5.—The Berliner Tageblatt publishes a memorandum which Charles Bergmann, head of the German delegation in Paris, has delivered to the Allies, pointing out that it is impossible for Germany to continue coal deliveries on the scale provided for in the Spa agreement after February 1. It says Germany's industries are suffering from a coal shortage, while the French are able to export coal.

Germany, said the memorandum, has not received the quota of coal from Silesia she expected after the completion of Spa of Mr. Lloyd George and M. Delors.

The memorandum proposes that Germany, after February 1, deliver 1,500,000 tons more coal than she is now delivering, and that the Allies should make up the difference between the actual and the promised deliveries.

PROTESTS CONTINUE.

Paris, Feb. 5.—Violent protests against the decisions of the supreme council regarding reparations are still being published by Berlin newspapers, says the Petit Parisien's correspondent in that city. The correspondent asserts that Hugo Haase, the capitalist, and Dr. Karl Helfferich, a former vice-chancellor, are trying to form a reactionary party from the People's and Nationalist parties, which have a reputation in the Reichstag of 133 anti-constitutional deputies. The newspaper Excelsior in commenting on this subject, says everywhere in Germany a violent campaign of agitation against the reparations is being carried on for the purpose of restoring the monarchy.

SOLDIERS ARE RUSHED TO CHILIAN NITRATE PLANT DURING RIOTS

Valparaiso, Chile, Feb. 5.—Chilian government troops are being rushed on nitrate plant have been engaged in fighting. Latest advice received state that only six persons had been killed during the fighting, though earlier dispatches declared that 25 had met death.

TORONTO UNIVERSITY HAS HALF-MILLION DEFICIT

Toronto, Feb. 4.—The annual report of the board of governors of the University of Toronto for the year ending last June shows a deficit between total income and expenditure of $453,498, a deficit which is being met by the sale of land and buildings.

Free paid by students increased $148,657 over the previous year, thanks to a corresponding increase in attendance. The total number of students increased to 5,327. Of these 1,511 were women, there now being 300 in every faculty except forestry.

The total teaching staff in the faculty of arts alone reached 575.

Represents Soviet in Britain

M. KRASSIN, who is now in Moscow reporting on his trade mission to England. He has been appointed the representative of the Soviet Government in Britain, and will return to London soon.

M. Krassin stated he would explain the reason which prompted him to come when the new government had been constituted. He told the Associated Press that he made a recommendation to the king that M. Gournaris be selected as his successor.

The greater part of M. Krassin's experience has been in the realm of finance. He has been a member of the Entente. His presence in the delegation which will go to London to attend the Near East conference on February 21 has been deemed probable.

WOMAN BASES OPINION ON THE RESEMBLANCE OF UNKNOWN TO SMALL'S PICTURE.

MAKES DISAPPEARANCE

Refused to Discuss the Small Case or State Where He Came From.

DEPARTS SUDDENLY.

Kempville, Feb. 5.—Canadian Press.—The town of Kempville was all a-gog last night following the telegraphic dispatch sent to Toronto by Mrs. W. E. James, who had been missing for the past few days, about three miles from this place, that she believed a stranger, whom she had been harboring for the past few days, was in the vicinity. Whether Mrs. James's belief is correct or not could not be learned last night, owing to the sudden disappearance of the mysterious stranger, who evidently had learned of inquiries being made as to his personality.

It seems that a man about 55 years of age, whose identity is unknown, arrived at Patterson's Creek about three miles from Kempville, and called on John Bailey and Calvin Bailey, and several others of the Bailey family. He claimed the name of George Bailey, saying he was a son of their father's. They had not known of their father having a brother, their parents having been dead for many years.

The visitor would not talk about the Small case, but would freely discuss the disappearance of John T. Hamill of Ottawa. He would not say from where he came, but when the story about his having relatives in Fitzroy was exploded, and telephone messages began pouring in from outside points, he disappeared last night, and has not been located.

WILL INVESTIGATE.

Toronto, Feb. 5.—Police headquarters here are in receipt of information to the effect that a mysterious man resembling Ambrose J. Small, the missing theatrical millionaire, was seen in Kempville. It is probable that a detective will be sent to Kempville to investigate the supposed discovery.

EARTHQUAKE CAUSES VOLCANIC ACTIVITY

Mount Popocatepetl Is Roused As Result of Earth Tremor.

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 5.—Mount Popocatepetl seemed yesterday to have been roused into more vigorous volcanic activity by the earthquake which on Thursday night shook the lethargy of Tehuacan, destroying much property and probably causing the deaths of many persons. Indians living at the foot of the mountain were much disturbed by the appearance of smoke wreaths around the summit, fearing a disastrous eruption. Thursday night's earthquake was felt distinctly in the city of Puebla, and was noticeable here.

RUSSIAN COMMUNISTS ARRESTED IN PARIS

Paris, Feb. 5.—Six alleged Russian Communists were arrested here last night, and it is expected that others will be taken into custody today. The arrests were made on the basis of information received by the French police, and have been reported successful operations by the French authorities.

The authorities at Frankfurt have arrested 14 persons, among whom are several Communists and leaders of armed organizations, says a Mayence dispatch to the Mail.

RUSSIAN REDS LAUNCH CAMPAIGN TO CRUSH ALL OPPOSED TO THEM

Lenine Orders Eradication of All Centres of Counter-Revolution in Russia—Recommends That Hostages Be Taken Among Relatives in Russia of All Members of White Guard Organizations—Encourages Espionage in Order to Find Out Opponents.

London, Feb. 5.—Drastic measures to stamp out the anti-soviet activities in Russia and in surrounding territories have been taken by the Bolshevik Government in Moscow, says the London Times. The newspaper publishes a translation of the decree issued by Nikolai Lenine, Bolshevik premier, on December 1, appointing M. Djerjinsky head of the all-Russian extraordinary commission, and delegating to him tasks of "radicating" foreign centres of counter-revolutions and preventing military enterprises against soviet Russia.

M. Djerjinsky accordingly issued secret instructions on December 5, the Times declares, by which his agents were ordered to "crush all conspiracies and revolts engineered by foreign agents." He recommended that hostages be taken among relatives in Russia of all members of white guard organizations, and also decreed that traitors to the soviet cause should be ruthlessly destroyed. Terroristic acts against members of entente military missions were also planned, the newspaper asserts.

Lenine's decree stated that foreign espionage organizations near the frontiers of Russia should be influenced with a view to utilizing them for the furtherance of soviet interests, and the creation of fictitious white guard organizations was suggested in order that they might disclose the activities of foreign agencies in Russia.

Says Death Is Unreal Proves That the Dead Still Live

Remarkable evidence that there is no death, there are no dead, is offered by Lloyd Kenyon Jones, Room 1522, 533 Clark street, Chicago, in his book entitled, "God's World," in which he shows how, through God's own law, the spirits of those who have passed through the portals of death can be communicated with those on earth. One should be cheered by the thought that loved ones have not been translated into cold, unresponsive individualities by death, for God's door is always open between earth and eternal life, where we all will be united forever. In his illustrated booklet, "Communication," he presents his view of life here and beyond the grave, which will enable you to understand "God's World" and a fuller understanding of life here and in the hereafter. Simply send your name to the author at the above address, and the book will be sent to you free of all charges.

FRENCH CITY OF NICE IS GREATEST WINTER RESORT ON EUROPEAN CONTINENT

Tens of Thousands of Persons From Great Britain and Northern Parts of Europe Visit Place Annually—Magnificent Drives and Hotels, Attractions Galore—City of 220,000, But Not a Factory Chimney in Place.

(Special Correspondence of The Advertiser.)
NICE, France, Feb. 4.—Although Nice is a city of 220,000 inhabitants, its unique feature is that there is not a factory chimney in the place—and, so far as has been observed, there isn't. This is the reason why the city of the Riviera is the most popular winter resort in the world. The climate is the most perfect of the Mediterranean, and the sea is the most beautiful. The city is the most beautiful of the Riviera, and the sea is the most beautiful. The city is the most beautiful of the Riviera, and the sea is the most beautiful.

The most striking feature of Nice is the magnificent Promenade des Anglais, which skirts the curving sea-shore for several miles along the city front. On the inner side of the wide asphalt driveway stretches a long line of splendid hotels of the first order and princely villas, which enjoy an unobstructed view of the sea. On the other side of the way, a cement walk or quai some fifty to sixty feet wide, extends in both directions to the city limits, its outer margin being supported by a high sea-wall of masonry and surmounted by an iron railing. Beyond this, the sloping sea-beach and the rippling waves. Notwithstanding the great extent of this promenade, it is generally crowded with promenaders throughout most of its length during the forenoon and afternoon. For here one finds what is probably the largest, best-dressed, and most cosmopolitan crowd of people to be seen on the continent. To this fact they flock every day to sunbathe and to enjoy the glorious sunshine—to critics, to marry, to admire the stunning costumes of many of the women and the distinguished bearing of some of the men. This is a spectacle of which one does not soon tire—so varied, so ever-changing, and so astonishing is it. A great number of these idlers prefer sitting to walking; and one can rent a chair for fifteen centimes (three cents) and take it to any part of the quai, there to install one's self comfortably and watch the crowd drift by. And what a notable crowd it is—humanity in all its moods and tenses. Here one sees countesses in elaborate gowns, and French army officers and common soldiers, their breakfasts glittering with medals and crosses and decorations; dainty children with their nurses' faces; and every color of the rainbow, from white to ebony black; and elbowing all these, a splendid filling in of people of the common sort.

Season at Height
We are at the height of the season, and it is not easy to find a place to stay, except in the highest-priced caravansaries. The scores of moderate-priced hotels have been booked to the roof for the past two months. Hotel rates are now three times those of before the war; but as exchange quotations are such that one gets more than three times as many francs for a dollar as in normal times, the visiting Canadian or American can find the cost of hotel accommodation prohibitive.

Main Attractions
The clear blue sky, the dazzling sunshine, the mild temperature, and the comparative freedom from wind, rain, and dust, are the main advantages of the Côte d'Azur at this time of year. But the local authorities and people of this city make great efforts to entertain their thousands of out-of-town guests. The larger hotels and many cafes have fine orchestras, which perform at all hours for the benefit of tea-drinkers and diners, and to inspire the dancing in which many late parties are given. "Theatres, cinema, and opera houses are numerous; and there are cafes innumerable, each at all hours and overflowing the sidewalks so much so that it is impossible to find a place to sit. The Casino Municipal, a huge edifice some 100 feet in length, and 100 feet broad, with a lofty arched roof of corrugated glass, is the place where literally thousands of persons daily, where they sit jammed together around tables, playing cards, or drinking, or as possible, sipping their tea or other drinks (the prohibition laws have not reached here yet), munching cakes, and listening to the performance of an excellent orchestra, or to the strains of artists from the opera houses, or to the thunder tones of the great organ, or to the strains of the orchestra, or to the strains of the orchestra, or to the strains of the orchestra.

The Duke of Connaught was recently here for some weeks, and was often seen strolling among the promenaders on the quai or sitting quite demurely in public places among the four o'clock tea drinkers. But he left town a few days ago, where he goes, no doubt, on a large passenger traffic, day and night, between here and Monte Carlo, an enormous run and women who are not infrequently seen in the streets with the gambling bags going there daily to stake their money and help fill the already bulging coffers of the Prince of Monaco, sole owner of the entire gambling outfit, and multimillionaire.

THIS PLANT WILL BE USED FOR THE BUILDING OF THE FIRST FEW CARS, BY WHICH TIME THE FACTORY ON WALE STREET WILL BE FAR ENOUGH ADVANCED TO TAKE CARE OF THE INCREASED PRODUCTION. IT THEN TURNED OVER TO THE SALES AND SERVICE DEPARTMENT.

London's newest big industry, London Motors, Limited, is rapidly assuming definite proportions. Necessary alterations on the Geo. White plant and adjoining property, which have been purchased by this company, are well under way, and are being rushed to completion.

This plant will be used in the assembling of the first few cars, for which purpose, owing to its large floor space, it is admirably suited. It is confidently expected that from six to ten cars a day will be turned out from the first. In the meantime construction of their factory at the junction of Halse street and the main line of the Grand Trunk will be started, and by late spring or early summer the manufacturing will be turned over to the plant, and the downtown site made into a sales room and service station. The output will be doubled within the year, and will increase quickly thereafter.

The London Motors, Limited, booth at the Motor Show is a centre of very active interest. Visitors are showing their interest in this big undertaking, and the appreciation of this Canadian car, manufactured in London by Canadian labor, and backed by Canadian capital, according to Mr. Stansell.

President and general manager, the interest that is being displayed by dealers is surpassing all expectations, and the total year's output could be placed immediately if the cars were ready for delivery.

An interesting feature of the progress of this undertaking is that although Mr. Stansell has been situated in London for several months, very little publicity has been given the enterprise.

SENATE PASSES 4 AMENDMENTS

United States Lawmakers Get Down to Business On the Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 4.—The Senate got down to business with the Fordney emergency tariff bill today, and before the session, which convened at 11 o'clock, the amendments had been adopted. Votes on the amendments showed supporters of the bill to have a majority ranging from 10 to 13. Senator Penrose (Republican, Pennsylvania), in charge of the bill, declared that it had good prospects of passage next week.

STEEL CELLS BEING BUILT FOR DESPERADOES

Jail Authorities Taking No More Chances On Crooks Escaping.

WOODSTOCK, Feb. 4.—Within the last year four or five prisoners have made their escape from the Oxford County jail with comparative ease. In February the jailers expect to see the new steel cells, which are being built for the accommodation of dangerous criminals.

NEW REGULATIONS ARE BEING RUSHED

Government Officials Hurrying Announcement On Petroleum Operations.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ottawa, Feb. 4.—It is expected here that the new petroleum regulations affecting the Northwest Territories will be promulgated early next week. In view of the strong pressure being brought to bear upon the authorities, the government is rushing the new regulations with all possible speed, so that operations may not be seriously retarded, and spring preparations may be proceeded with.

Mrs. Sarah Tabor, 82 Years Old, Says Anaesthetic, Self-Administered, Was Cause.

Lawton, Mich., Feb. 4.—Maud Tabor, whose death here five years ago resulted in a manslaughter charge against her 22-year-old mother, died from an anaesthetic, self-administered, to relieve pain incident to child birth, Mrs. Sarah Tabor, the mother, said in a statement from her sickbed here today.

COMMISSION REPORTS OVER HALF MILLION GRAVES REGISTERED

Vast Extent of Work in France and Belgium Indicated.

LONDON, Feb. 4.—(Canadian Associated Press).—The annual report of the imperial war graves commission for 1920 states that the total number of graves registered up to September 30, 1920, was 582,426, and the number of burials registered was 187,705.

ERNEST STEEN IS DROWNED AT GUELPH

Patient At Sanatorium Found in River by Boy Getting Drink.

GUELPH, Feb. 4.—The body of Ernest Steen of Meadowdale, a patient at the Homewood Sanatorium, was discovered this afternoon in the Speed River. He had been missing since Wednesday night, and it is believed he met his death by drowning that evening. It was apparent from the condition of the body that it had been in the water for some time. The discovery was made by a young lad, Fred Hardy, who noticed the figure lying in the water when he stooped over a hole in the ice to get a drink. Steen had fallen into the river at a place where local ice companies have been cutting ice. The officials at the sanatorium are of the opinion that he attempted to cross the river in the dark, and not noticing the hole in the ice, plunged into the water. He was 45 years of age.

HAD BAD COUGH FOR THREE YEARS

The constant hacking, racking, persistent cough that sticks to your throat, and everything you have done to get rid of it, is the kind that is dangerous.

The longer the cough sticks, the more serious menace it becomes to your health.

INTRODUCES GAS COMPANY BILL

[Special to The Advertiser.] TORONTO, Feb. 4.—The bill embodying the application of the Gas Company of London for an increase in its rates to $1.40 per 1,000 cubic feet, and for an increase in capitalization, was formally introduced into the Legislature yesterday by Charles McCree, Conservative member for Sudbury.

EXPECT TARDY MEIGHEN BUDGET

Government Likely to Delay Announcement As Long As Possible.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ottawa, Feb. 4.—An early budget is not anticipated. Last session the budget was not brought down till May, over a month after the close of the fiscal year. Parliament was therefore called upon to vote one-tenth of the estimates, which was done under strong protest from Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, who served notice that he would not support the passing of estimates until the ways and means for the raising of the money devised by the government had been made known.

GERMANS ADVOCATING NATIONAL COALITION

General Public Sullen As Result of Reparations Demands.

LONDON, Feb. 4.—Steps are being taken to draw out the German public into a cabinet coalition held yesterday at the Reichstag. The German public is sullen, according to a dispatch to the London Times from Berlin. Dr. Karl Bergmann, head of the German reparations commission, is expected to remain in Berlin until the work is completed.

MOTHER AND INFANT SMOTHERED IN FIRE

Vernon, B.C., Feb. 4.—Mrs. Hugh Heggie and her 3-month-old baby were suffocated in their home early this morning when the bedclothes and mattress in the room in which they were sleeping caught fire, which, it is believed, started from a lighted cigarette. Mrs. Heggie was the wife of the city magistrate.

Thousands Testify to the Lasting Benefit Secured From CATARRHOZONE

RELIEVES WITHOUT DRUGS

One of the finest discoveries in medicine was given to the public when "Catarrhozone" was placed on the market about fifteen years ago. Since then thousands have been relieved of asthma that used to cause suffering. I was told of Catarrhozone by a clerk in Filday's drug store and purchased a dollar package. It was worth hundreds to me in a week, and I place a priceless value on the benefit I have since derived. I strongly urge every sufferer to use Catarrhozone for Asthma, Bronchitis and Catarrh.

FOUND CHECK UNDER DOORSTEP

Peculiar Development in Connection With Recent Glen-colin Hold-Up.

ST. THOMAS, Feb. 4.—The Glencolin mystery hold-up, in which Mrs. James Stacey, a farmer's wife, at her home a few weeks ago was forced to hand over a check for $23.87 and $16 in cash at the end of a gun by a rural bandit, has again come to life by the finding of the check under the doorstep of her home in a pocketbook.

WILL APPEAL TO SUPREME COURT

Detroit, Feb. 4.—An order directing the city to discontinue use of the municipal street railway crossing it placed across the rails of the Detroit United Railway Company three weeks ago was issued in circuit court here today. The company had petitioned for an order to compel removal of the crossing, but the court held such action unnecessary.

An appeal to the state supreme court is being planned by the city. Meanwhile, the company had petitioned for an order to compel removal of the crossing, but the court held such action unnecessary.

The court held the city violated the law in ordering a temporary injunction with which the company attempted to stop the work. E. J. Burdick, assistant general manager of the company, who attempted to serve the injunction, was arrested and detained overnight at Belle Isle.

CANADA'S CLAIM.

Dispatches from London intimate that a portion of Canada's claim against Germany is about to be handed over. The Allied reparations board is expected to place this country's claim in the neighborhood of $500,000,000. The first payment on this sum is to be made from the sale of German ships. A large amount has been collected by the British Government by the deal and Canada is to secure a substantial slice of it. Another payment which is expected to be made shortly is to cover the expense of Canadian troops holding watch on the Rhine. This amount will be taken from a first charge on the indemnity payments after British and French advances on coal shipments have been met and Belgium paid.
The intention is to have Canada in-firmed according as her claim compares with those of Australia, South Africa and New Zealand. The reparations board will not consider Canada's military expenditures in fixing the total amount. This will be computed from shipping losses, separation allowances, pensions and possibly physical and material losses due to internment in Germany. The claim of this Dominion is expected to exceed greatly those of other sections of the empire, but this is only just, as Canada has not been given enemy territory, as is the case with the other dominions.

A PARASITE AND A PATRIOT.

In "The Vicar of Bullhampton," one of Anthony Trollope's classic stories of English life, he depicts with a few bold strokes peculiar to his pen a type of individual who perhaps did not become extinct with the nineteenth century. "To Me, to steal," writes the novelist of this particular character, "not out of cups or pockets, because he knew the danger; to cheat, not at the card-table, because he had never come in the way of learning the lesson; to indulge every passion, though the cost to others might be ruin for life; to know no gods but his own bodily senses, and no duty but that which he owed to those gods; to eat and produce nothing; to love no one but himself; to have learned nothing but how to sit at table like a gentleman; to care not at all for his country or even for his profession; to have no creed, no party, no friend, no conscience; to be troubled with nothing that touched his heart —such had been, was, and was to be the life of Col. Marrable." Biologists have described parasites, whether among vegetables or animals, as the paupers of nature which find their subsistence by borrowing or stealing from others, whose lives they impair or destroy. However detestable and feared these pests become in the lower orders of life, in mankind they are truly malignant, and Marrable was a type of the breed at its worst.

To turn from the repellent portrait drawn by Trollope to an actual character in English life will be a wholesome relief, and an answer to the old query: "Is life worth living?"
Since the social application of Christianity is now in evidence as never before, no more appropriate study could be presented than that of William Wilberforce, whose career illustrates the power of ideas, the far-reaching influence of moral fidelity, and that character can rise superior to environment. Born of wealthy parents at Hull in 1759, at 8 years old his father died. He lived in stirring times, having such great contemporaries as William Pitt, Wellington, Walter Scott and Napoleon, and when a corrupt society was under the effects of the evangelical revival, he inherited a great fortune, and family influences designed him to shun in small and high official circles. Of social and ignoble physique, he was little like a man destined to shake the world and overthrow a giant evil, rooted for ages in wealth, custom and power, and even flourishing under hoary dispensations of well-grounded privilege. He was rich in intellectual endowment, and his appearance was dispelled by the fervor and power of his eloquence.

A divinity appeared to shape his ends and preserve him from the grossness of the times, and from a licentious set at the university. The influence of an aunt of exemplary character, with whom he lived as a boy, a season's travel with Rev.
Isaac Milner, and the reading of Dr.
Dodderidge's "Rise and Fall," with a study of the Scriptures, led to his conversion to evangelical Christianity, and the adoption of more serious views of life. He had entered parliament on attaining his majority, and association with Pitt made political advancement easy; but he took an independent course in order the better to promote social improvements, and attack the vile slave traffic, the atrocities of which had begun to stir the conscience of England. The mercenary interests of shipowners, West Indian planters and other beneficiaries were aroused, and as has been the case with nearly every other reform, the House of Lords often blocked the way. The cry was raised that a dangerous ill-licit traffic would spring up, and half-way, "tapering-off" measures were prepared. But in 1807, after twenty years' conflict, the cause triumphed. Piratical slave-runners, to escape the law, often thought nothing of dumping a cargo of "Blacks" in the sea. It was soon realized that for an evil so inherently bad only one remedy would suffice, and so Wilberforce, succeeded by Sir T. F.
Buxton and others, led a campaign for the total abolition of slavery, which was accomplished in 1833, a month after Wilberforce's death.
Other nations followed the example of Great Britain. Broad and modern in his sympathies, he also shared in such movements as parliamentary reform, better education of children, Sabbath observance, against duelling, adding the work of the Bible Society, Catholic emancipation, payment of better salaries to curates, missionary work, and was the author of "Practical Religion," a book which ran through twenty-five editions, circulating even in the United States and India. One copy fell into the hands of Thomas Chalmers when in ministerial perplexity and apathy. It so awakened him that he became one of the greatest and most influential preachers of his age. The presence and personality of Wilberforce in the House of Commons is said to have raised the whole spirit and moral tone of that body. Gracious in his own personal manner, he was a man devoted to prayer, recognizing the need of reliance upon Divine aid. He declined the tinsel of royal honors and was buried in Westminster Abbey as plain William Wilberforce. A hundred years will soon have passed since his death, but his work continues, and his name ranks high among the immortal benefactors of humanity. Having tapped the real source of spiritual power and influence he became the directing exponent of a constructive patriotism which in some form makes an insistent demand for leadership in every age.

committee which is considering the readjustment of ministers' remuneration have now practically concluded their report, of which some particulars have already been given.

The recommendations include, besides that for the increase of annual salary for a prime minister of £10,000, without pension, the grading of ministers.

The first grade, with salaries of £5-000, to include all members of the cabinet, the secretary for Scotland, minister of education, and chief secretary for Ireland being added to this grade.

The second grade, receiving £3,000, to include the ministry for agriculture, labor, transport and postmaster-general, the latter thus receiving an addition of £500.

The third grade, receiving £2,000, to include the minister of pensions and first commissioner of works.

The fourth grade, the parliamentary secretaries and under-secretaries, at £1,000 to £1,500.

The fifth grade, junior lords of the treasury, receiving £1,000, lord president of the council and chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster to form salaries of £2,000 and £5,000 to £5-000 and £4,000, with reduced fees. The readjustments and abolitions of office so to be arranged as practically present the same total charges on the revenue.

POLITICAL EVOLUTION IN CANADA.

[L. S. Soli.]
"A noteworthy political evolution has just taken place in Ontario. Mr.
Drury, head of the Farmers' Government, has publicly declared that the agrarian party cannot continue any longer the policy of exclusion under which it saw the light of day. On his side, Mr. Morrison, secretary of the Farmers' Association, publicly censured the leader, pretending that the farmers of Ontario must jealously preserve their original program for the exclusion of other classes, because they are in the majority. But the prime minister of Ontario is better able to judge the different angles of the situation than Mr. Morrison; and a period of eighteen months' power has convinced him of the injustice of class government, and shown him its dangers. Unquestionably the Ontario farmers, if they form a majority in the province, have a right to claim a preponderance in the administration of provincial affairs, but that preponderance is sufficient to guarantee all their demands without it being necessary to deprive the other classes of the proportion of representation they have a right to. This is not merely elementary justice, but is, moreover, constitutional doctrine. Mr. Drury has realized that fact since his accession to power, and therein lies his superiority over Mr. Morrison, who sees only one side of the question."

READY TO SUPPORT STATE CONTROL.

[L. Action Catholique.]
"In the light of what is taking place in the province, before the spectacle of the fight which is being carried on everywhere against alcohol, the Government has realized that it must do something. Hence the project of law outlined by the Hon. Mr. Mitchell. The Government will try the experience of state control of the liquor traffic.
It must bear the whole responsibility of the enterprise. But we have no objection to state that we are ready to second every sincere effort which is made to diminish the existing evil. If the Government will pass a few clear, precise and containing provisions for vigorous action against infractions;
and if it will undertake to honestly and vigorously apply the law, we promise our entire and loyal co-operation in order to obtain the greatest good possible."

OTHERS' VIEWS.

WHAT GERMANY CAN PAY.
[New York Tribune.]
Germany will gain nothing by "rejecting" the demands of the supreme council that she must pay 226 billion gold marks in reparations. She is not in the position to reject the sentence passed upon her, it is not for her to say how much she is going to pay. The world knows that had she been the victor she would not have accorded that privilege, to the vanquished. It will be better for her to accept the amount fixed as a basis of discussion and try to secure some changes in the terms of payment.
Her reported offer to pay one billion gold marks annually for thirty years, or in all $7,500,000,000, is merely another indication that she is still behaving in a strictly German manner. That was Mr. Keynes' idea, and Mr. Keynes has never yet been generally accepted as an authority on German reparations. Under a reasonable adjustment of the annual rate Germany can doubtless pay $20-000,000,000 with interest. It is the general belief that she ought to pay at least that. The unfavorable reception of the decision reached by the supreme council is due, first, to the unconsciousness of the payments are distributed; second, to the additional payments of 12 per cent of the amount of German exports. It might be argued that postponed payment makes the annual charge easier to bear, but common sense rejects the theory that forty-two years from now Germany will still be engaged in paying off her war debt to the Allies; and the interest charge will increase by the postponement of the final payment.
It is not believed that the decision of the council will stand as rendered; there will be modifications. But there are many reasons why Germany should not expect to secure a reduction of the foundation sum below $20,000,000,000. The easing of the burden will come in the interest adjustment and possibly in the abandonment of the export tax. It would be culpable leniency to let Germany off with payments that would impose upon her people burdens heavier than those that the people of France and of Great Britain must bear because of her unpardonable crimes.

THREE TARRY MEN.
[Edmund Leamy, in the New York Sun.]
They came from only God knows where,
Three tarry, blue-eyed men
They blundered through the swaying train
To empty seats—and then Forgotten talk of long ago
I listened to again.

They spoke of rising storms and tides,
Of heaving decks and seas,
Of Port Sudan and Port au Prince,
Of lonely hours in doldrum calm,
And unsolved mysteries.

Their talk was thick with briny oaths,
And some of it was lies;
They yarned of captains, crews and ships,
Far seas, and ports, and skies—
But splendid peace and happiness Shone deep in their blue eyes.
And each one knew what he was talking,
Though cursed as friend and foe—
The sea was dearer to them all,
And at her word would go
Each mother's son, for none would fail
When she lured sighing low.

So from the train they lumbered off
With worn and battered grips,
With curses they were leaving port
But smiles upon their lips.
Down, the twisting ways to where There lay the waiting ships.

AN AWFUL POSSIBILITY.
[Toronto Telegram.]
The publishers of "Avalon" have been in court on the charge that that popular success is a steal from an aria from "La Tosca." This unsees the popular theory that the writers of present-day song have invariably borrow their ideas from each other.

Although $25,000 has been paid into court by the defendants, it is probable that Fuchin's objection is to the cheapening of his own more lofty composition.

Think of the blow to art if some war profiteer, dragged to the Metropolitan Opera House by a social-climbing wife, should wake up while Caruso was singing "The Stars Are Shining," and imagine that it was Al Jolson warbling at the Winter Garden.

IN CITIES WHILE IT SNOWS.
[Edna Mead.]
The snow that lays a shroud on country spaces
Is a magician in the city places.
I watch it dropping through the windy dunk
To weight the ugly roofs with witchery,
And cap fat chimney-pots with rakish domes
That turn them into squatty, grinning gnomes.
And mark the ivy vines on smoky walls
By lovely patterns of Spanish lace, Or swirl, white bubbles in a pool of gold.

Where are lights draw great circles on a drift,
And give grim statues strange, undreamed of graces.
I feel, within, the people of the crowds
Who hurry dully on their dismal ways,
A momentary joy of living blaze, Dull eyes that meet my own have something bright.

Caught from the mystic beauty of the night.
The heaped-up windows flash like sudden stars.
Then suffer brief eclipses behind the storm.
Harsh sounds are muffled music, voices grow
Less shrill, and hold a note that hints of bells.
Men laugh, and shake white showers from their coats;
Their erstwhile sallow cheeks are painted rose—
And cities are not cities while it snows!

IN THE COOL OF THE EVENING.
[Alfred Hayes.]
In the cool of the evening when the low sweet whispers waken,
When the laborers turn them homeward, and the weary have their will,
When the censers of the roses o'er the forest aisles are shaken, Is it but the wind that cometh o'er the far green hill?

For they say 'tis but the sunset winds that wander through the heather, Rustle like the meadow grass and bend the dewy fern;
They say 'tis the winds that bow the reeds in prayer together,
And fill the shaken pods with fire along the shadowy burn.

In the beauty of the twilight, in the garden that He loveth,
They have veiled His lovely venture with the darkness of a name.
Through His garden, through His garden, it is but the wind that mov-eth,
No more! But O, the miracle, the miracle is the same.

In the cool of the evening, when the sky is an old story,
Slowly dying, but remembered, eyes and loved with passions still Hush! . . . the fringes of His garment in the fading golden glory Softly rustling as He cometh o'er the far green hill.

THE SECOND SON.
[Angela Carey.]
A little ghost sits in his place,
And looks out of his baby eyes.
Those thin white cheeks are not his face.
He runs about with glib surprise
At all the flowering summer's joy;
The little ghost looks placidly
With eyes that mock the other boy.

The other boy a stranger is . . .
Strange to the arms that rock him close,
The eyes that watch each need of his,

His small face, like a warm flushed rose,
Has thrust between it and her sight
The face of that still little ghost
With sunken cheeks so wan and white.

His quick earth tones she does not hear.
Another voice her music makes . . .
A Spirit's whisper, faint and clear.
Each night and when each new day breaks
There creeps beside her sad and worn,
The spectre of her eldest son,
Who died the day that he was born.

WINTER BOUGHS.
[Will H. Ogilvie.]
Aht, why should we pine
For the leaf's decline,
When the bare boughs fringed with frost
Are a splendor of silver, line on line, Latticed and laced and crossed?

Summer at will
May be dreamed of still
With her wonder of blossom and wing, Whenever the sun goes over the hill
With his crimson cloak a-swing.

For, see, in the west
Where the rose is great
And the gold blooms linger yet,
A flame-red bird with a purple crest Lies bound in the beech tree's net!

New Hair Growth After BALDNESS

On legal affidavit, John Hart Brittain, business man, certified that: "My head at the top and back was absolutely bald. The hair was almost gone. An expert said that he thought the hair would never grow again. But after using this hair growth treatment, my hair is growing again. It is now as thick as it ever was."

INDIAN'S SECRET OF HAIR GROWTH

"As a bald man, I have become discouraged at trying various hair lotions, tonics, specialists' treatments, etc., I came across, in my travels, a Cherokee Indian named Tom who had the elixir that he asseverated would grow my hair. Although I had little faith in him, I bought a bottle. To my amazement a light first show appeared. It developed, day by day, into a growth of hair, and ere long my hair was as prolific as in my youth.

"That I was astonished and happy to expressing my state of mind mildly. Outraged, the fellow told me he had done it, but was dumb as a fish, awaiting the fertilizing potency of the mysterious pomade. I realized that I was the cause of the preservation of this elixir, comparing this mysterious elixir, now called Kotalako, and later had the recipe put into practical form by a chemist.

We in London eat up about 60,000,000 pounds of food a year, 20,000 tons. Yet we are far from strikingly well nourished. Should we use 80,000,000 pounds to catch up our 20 per cent deficit? or can we get along with what we have, using it more skillfully? If science cannot answer a practical question like that's what good is science?

Well, we can answer it—not more food, but much more skill in feeding is required; and that "much more" does not mean any very wonderful intricate change either. Previous articles have already outlined the results of recent investigations and experiments showing that as a rule we eat enough and the right things, but with the wrong accent on the combinations. We eat milk products, meat, tubers (like potatoes), roots (like turnips), seeds (like beans), cereals (like wheat flour), fruits (like apples and bananas) and leaves (like lettuce and spinach), but we eat too much and too monotonously of the staples, roasts, chops, steaks, bread, cereals, vegetables; not enough of milk and milk products, liver, kidney, leaves, fruits. Probably we eat too much at the conventional three meals a day—less at a time, and the deficit made up at an extra meal would probably help, especially in children.

SPEND IT DIFFERENTLY.
How should the emphasis be? One of the best ways to get at it is to figure what you now spend for all these things and then spend that same amount in a slightly different way, buying more of the less of that, so coming out even or possibly a little better in the total amount spent, but very, very much better in the actual returns to you—returns in good nourishment, vigor, well-being, loss of "that tired feeling" and gain of general happiness and enjoyment of life.

Here is the magic formula. It means keeping accurate accounts of your cash—we'll you ought to keep those anyway! It means thinking of real values, and what you are getting for your money—another thing you ought to do anyway.

HOW TO DO IT?
Find out what you spend in a week for food—and then take that amount, whether it be $10 or $100, and next week spend it this way:

	Per Cent.
1. Milk	25 to 30
2. Vegetables and fruits	15 to 20
3. Bread, cereals, cakes, etc.	12 to 15
4. Poultry, fish, steaks, chops, roasts, liver, kidney, etc.	10 to 15
5. Butter, lard, suet, etc.	10 to 12
6. Eggs	5 to 7
7. Sugar, syrup, molasses, etc.	2 to 3
8. Cheese	5 to 7

According to this, you would spend about one-eighth on meat; another one-eighth on butter; another one-eighth on cheese; and eggs (rather more than an eighth on vegetables and fruits), and the rest on milk.

Of course, one must not be too hide-bound about it. One must depend on the kind of family you have and also on how prices range. The youngsters need more particularly the eggs, milk, meat, fish, poultry, etc., etc. The adults more particularly the bread, butter, sugar, molasses, etc., etc. Both need some of everything, of course, especially the vegetables and fruits.

REVERSING THE ORDINARY IDEAS.
"Why this is all wrong! Feed the children meat and fish and the grown-up bread and butter!" But that's the way I was brought up! But it seems to be the right way all the same. Children have to add substance to their bodies—they have to grow—and to grow in meat, not fat.

WATCH THEIR WEIGHT.
First of all, get all the children in a school weighed and their heights measured. Those who are 7 per cent or more underweight are the ones that need attention. These underweight children should be carefully gone over by a physician to see if they have any obstruction of their breathing passages, particularly any disease such as tuberculosis that tends to lose weight. Any such children found should have the proper medical or surgical treatment.

NUTRITIONAL CLASSES.
The diet of the "underweight" children, however, don't need anything but proper nutrition. Generally the feeding is at fault. Sometimes the feeding is all right, but the child is overfed, is too fat, is too heavy, is too much in the way of his own growth. It might be to have, or in other ways using up more energy than even proper feeding will supply. Generally about three months of the nutritional class will put them up to weight, or beyond. Once a week the parent and child go to the nutritional class and the child is taken to see what progress is being made; the child's food is considered and corrected by the dietitian; the hours of sleep, exercise and so on are reported.

Both parent and child become immensely interested and they learn a great deal about taking proper care of themselves as well as about improving their nutrition. Who, the child or the parent? Both, for very often the parent's feeding is just as poor as the child's and needs fixing just as much.

A class of teachers here in London have been studying these things all winter, and we may hope for some very definite results soon. The Y. M. C. A. is interested also, and the London Board of Health is interested for the discovery of underweights in March and April is very busy and we that Canada is put on a good individual nutritional basis at home here as well.

RATION FOR COWS
It is possible to use the information for educational purposes by passing it on to the instructor.

In the province of New Brunswick during the past two years practically all the cheese manufactured has been graded for the local market by an official of the provincial department of agriculture. The dealers agreed to purchase only graded cheese and to scale the price as between first, second and third grades. The quality of New Brunswick cheese has shown marked improvement under this stimulus and relatively a much better price has been obtained for it. During the years 1917 and 1918, when the cheese was handled by the cheese commission and the dairy produce commission, every box exported was to all intents and purposes classified in to No. 1, No. 2, or "off grades," according to the now generally adopted Canadian standards and definitions. The cheese were classified by the dealers who offered them to the commission, but the commission inspected every lot to see that the classification was according to quality, and a definite spread of 10 per pound was made in the price as between first and second grades.

ADVANTAGES OF GRADING.
A system of classifying dairy produce, if adopted, would have in this country a three-fold object. First, it would be educational; second, it would facilitate trading and promote confidence in our produce; third, it would give the maker of the high-grade article full recognition and reward.

Education because the grader's reports or certificates on low grade produce would show the maker where his produce was defective. Without such information he must rely on his own opinion as to the quality of the butter, and with all due respect to these gentlemen, I do not hesitate to say that very frequently opinions expressed by them are misleading, because in some cases they have not the necessary practical knowledge, and it is not always in the interest of the buyer to find fault with the quality of his purchase. I repeat that, generally speaking, there are few complaints as to quality and no reduction in price when the market rises, and thus the maker is misled and repeats his error. When complaints are made on a falling market, the maker does not believe in the fairness of the claim and attributes it wholly to a question of market conditions. A grading system would eliminate these misunderstandings and disputes over quality. The maker of high-grade butter or cheese does not, under the present system, receive his just reward. There is a tendency to fix the price on the average quality, as the buyer does not care to incur the cost of criticizing or rejecting. He would rather pay one price, and then clear himself by taking on part of it, if necessary, and making a larger profit on the goods of higher quality. No fault can be found with anyone on this score because it is the natural outcome of our present method of doing business.

BANDIT TRIED TO TIE VICTIM TO THE VICTIM
James Walker of Harwich Attacked in Front of Home.
BLENHEIM, Feb. 4.—A daring hold-up was perpetrated last evening about 7 o'clock, when James Walker, who lives alone on his farm about two miles west on the gravel road, Harwich Township, was waylaid. He fought his assailant, getting free, but not until he had been bruised considerably about the head.

Mr. Walker, who is a man 73 years of age, had been over to a neighbor's and was driven home by a nephew in an auto, and was let out at his front gate. His house is some 15 or 20 rods from the road and along the lane is a high evergreen hedge.

His assailant, according to Mr. Walker's story, was hidden in the hedge after stretching across the path, and when he came to the twine, was suddenly sprung upon by the man who had a rope which he threw over Mr. Walker's head and began to pull him and try to entwine him and tie him up.

Mr. Walker fought desperately and finally succeeded in getting away with the rope around his neck. He ran across to his nearest neighbor, W. E. Hewett's, and gave the alarm. The stranger, when Walker succeeded in getting the rope out of his hands, made off in the darkness.

APPENDICITIS
Warm Water Properly Applied Prevents Operations, and Has Cured Many Advanced Cases.
Hundreds of operations for Appendicitis have been avoided by the "J. B. L. Cascade," and thousands of others who have had Stomach Trouble and Constipation for years have regained their health completely. Most troubles arise from poison accumulated in the Colon, which is absorbed into the system. Internal Bathing keeps the system clean, cures Constipation and the hundreds of ills which are directly traceable to it. These letters from among thousands in our possession should convince you that Internal Bathing brings positive results. Mr. James McLaughlin, 91 Evanson street, Winnipeg, writes: "I bought a 'J. B. L. Cascade' for the cure of a bad case of Appendicitis. My doctors told me I had to have an operation at once. I had spent more than fifty dollars in doctor bills, but the Cascade completely removed in a few days every trace of soreness and pain. I eat and sleep well now, have regained my former weight, and am now in perfect health."

A Mother from R. R. No. 1, Leamington, Ont., writes: "About two weeks ago my eldest son took sick with Cramps in the Bowels, so bad he could not move. Our doctor gave him hypodermic injections and ordered him to the hospital to be operated on at once. Before doing so, however, I induced him to use the 'J. B. L. Cascade' and in less than a week he was up and around, and has been well ever since. It also cured me of severe Headaches and Constipation. I cannot praise the Cascade enough. It certainly is a wonderful medicine. If you have Constipation, Headaches, Appendicitis, or feel languid and not just right, don't drug yourself, but use internally. The 'J. B. L. Cascade' is being shown and explained at Standard Drug Company, London, Ont. Ask for booklet, or write Tyrrell's Hygienic Institute, 163 College Street, Toronto.

New York, Feb. 4.—Samuel G. Post, who pitched last year for a Virginia League club, has signed a contract with the Brooklyn Nationals. It was announced today by manager George Savelle, from the Florida State League, who signed a contract.

POSSESS GOOD HEALTH BY LOOKING AFTER THE BOWELS

A free motion of the bowels, once or twice a day, should be the rule of everyone, as half the ills of life are caused by allowing the bowels to get into a constipated condition.

When the bowels are allowed to become constipated, the stomach gets out of order, and the liver does not do its work properly on account of holding back the bile, so that it does not pass through the bowels, but is allowed to get into the blood, thus causing a poisoning of the whole system.

If you would escape constipation, sick and bilious headaches, heartburn, floating specks before the eyes, coated tongue, foul breath; the nasty irritating, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, you should keep your liver stirred up by the use of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills.

These pills, being purely vegetable, keep your liver working actively, helping it to resume its proper functions, and thereby removing the bile that is circulating in the blood and poisoning the whole system.

Mrs. H. Barrows, Enfield, N. S., writes: "I was troubled with such headaches and constipation. One day a friend told me of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. I got two vials, and found they did me a world of good. I therefore have great faith in them."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial, all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Pains that Point to Deranged Kidneys

PAIN in the back or sides, constant headaches, swollen joints, urinary troubles, brick dust deposits, painful urination—are all symptoms of kidney trouble. Too often they are looked upon with indifference, an error which results in much suffering. Each one of these symptoms is a danger signal, and should be given careful attention and treatment.

There is nothing more painful than chronic kidney and bladder troubles, and the many resultant diseases. Yet while there are various causes of the kidneys becoming deranged, there is always one outstanding means of relief.

AT THE GRAND

WINNIPEG KIDDIES AT THE GRAND TWICE TODAY.

The original Winnipeg Kiddies will delight Grand patrons twice today, at 2:15 and 8:15 p.m., with their clever two and a half hour vaudeville revue. The Kiddies are staging a special matinee today for the children of London, and following the matinee the kiddies will be invited upon the stage, where the juvenile entertainers will meet them all personally, and souvenir pictures will be given to each kiddie attending the matinee and reception. When the Kiddies played Saskatoon recently the critic of the Saskatoon Star had this to say about them: "It's a long time since the Empire Theatre has been swept by the efforts of the Winnipeg Kiddies at their opening performance Monday night. And the best of it all, the kids deserved every ounce of encouragement the audience gave them. It is wonderful on account of its decision."

Mary Pickford, who graces the screen at Loew's Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next in her latest success, "The Love Light."

DOUBLE COMEDY BILL AT THE GRAND ALL NEXT WEEK WITH DAILY MATINEES.

The Grand announces one of the biggest and funniest comedy bills ever offered all next week. Twelve big reels of comedy should provide patrons with one of the biggest laugh programs they have ever had the pleasure of enjoying.

Patty Arbuckle will be seen in his latest comedy success, "The Life of the Party." Patty Arbuckle, the most famous fat man in the universe, whose face has become famous to hundreds of thousands of screen fans, is hereafter to devote his attention and talents to full length feature pictures.

The first of these pictures is "The Life of the Party," an amusing tale of a fat, good-natured young lawyer, who for the sake of a pretty girl, even refused the bribe that would have made him immensely wealthy, and undertook to run a band of milk producers to their lair. A pretty vamp and some shady politicians sought to lure him from the straight and narrow path, but in the end he was outwitted, and all provided one of the funniest Arbuckle pictures you've ever seen.

It's a 100 per cent pure, unadulterated joy.
It doesn't advance any theories, attempt to lower the high cost of living, or deal Bolshevism a death blow. It's just a silly comedy love story that moves like a runaway aeroplane.

From "Daniel" Mr. Arbuckle's leading woman, and the "heavy" role is played by the excellent comedian, the comedian, "William," Frank Caprau.
Vivacious Julia Payne and Winifred Greenwood are also included in the supporting cast. Joseph Henabery, who represented Alvin Karpis in "The W. Griffith's "Birth of a Nation," and is now a veteran director, supervised the production.

"ALF'S BUTTON," ENGLISH COM-EDY, ON SAME BILL WITH FATTY ARBUCKLE, ALL NEXT WEEK AT THE GRAND.
Cecil M. Hepworth, whose film version of W. A. Darlington's clever novel, "Alf's Button," which is playing to capacity crowds in Hamilton and at Toronto, will be featured on the big double comedy bill with Fatty Arbuckle at the Grand all next week with daily matinees. This incidentally marks the innovation of British production in Canada and London. "Alf's Button" is the first of the British Mastercraft structures to be shown in Canada, and it has turned hundreds away in most every city in Canada since it has been presented.

"Alf's Button" is a typical ex-cer-tomy of the British army. He had the same abhorrence for cleaning his buttons that many others. "Alf's Button"
The British Government had been forced to commandeer some of the army order to get the metal for their army uniforms. Alf's button is a typical excerpt from the life of a soldier. The newtune issued to Alf has a lamp on it melted from this world-famous lamp. His trials thereafter are many, for every time he rubs that old button the slave appears and in satisfying Alf's many wishes he causes considerable havoc with convention.

The photograph of one of the big features of the comedy, and the many settings at times verge upon the elaborate. It is almost needless to comment on the work of the sterling cast which includes some of England's greatest cinema stars. Leslie Henson, who is reputed to be England's funniest comedian, enacts the role of "Alf," and Alma Taylor is his "button." James Carew takes the honors for the difficult but enjoyable part of Genie, of the wonder button.

In Montreal Alf's Button was featured as the big attraction on the bill. In Toronto the same, and in Hamilton this week is playing to capacity audiences at every show. To see two big comedies such as "Alf's Button" and "The Life of the Party" is indeed the rarest of treats, and those who love to laugh will find plenty in which to feast on. In these two rollicking comedies, Owing to lengthy program patrons are urged to be in their seats at 7:30 evenings to enjoy the full program.

AT ALLEN'S

AT THE ALLEN MONDAY-JAMES OLIVER CURWOOD'S CANADIAN MOUNTED POLICE, "ISOBEL, OR THE TRAIL'S END."

"Isobel, or The Trail's End," by James Oliver Curwood, his new and greatest yet contribution to photodrama, ranks as one of the most remarkable films and screen stories ever produced. Coming direct from its record-breaking run at the Allen, Toronto, to the Allen, London, for a special engagement Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at regular prices. "Isobel, or The Trail's End," is the romance of Billy McVeigh (House Peters), who, driving into the face of a blinding blizzard, comes face to face with Isobel—beautiful, pure and sweet, but the wife of another man. (Jane Novak), wife of the man he had sworn to capture dead or alive! Through the Northland you go with Billy McVeigh, following the thread of evidence, the whaling ships, on sea voyages, over the frozen ice fields, through the great wilderness of forests, battling, struggling, enduring against titanic hardships of fighting man and the elements, to "get his man."

Among the many extra, added attractions will be a Rollin Comedy, "Burglars Bold," Allen Canadian News, Chester Outing Pictures, special musical program and overture, "Monastery Bells."

"A VOICE IN THE DARK" RELEASED TO CANADIAN PUBLIC.
The mystery photodrama, "A Voice in the Dark," appeared at the Broadway theatre critics hailed it as the most thrilling mystery play that had been screened or staged in years, and now, it is released to be shown in Canada, and the Allen Theatre, London, is to have the premier showing of this exceptional screen offering next Friday and Saturday.

The story is of a venturesome girl who visits Chinatown sight-seeing with a man of short acquaintance, and of the strange adventures and the romance that grows out of her exciting sojourn in this bit of transplanted Orient. A feature which makes the play so adaptable to the screen are the many finely-placed thrills and stirring incidents which follow thick and fast, one after another.

AT LOEW'S

AT LOEW'S-MARY PICKFORD TO AROUSE NEW INTEREST IN FILMS.

The announcement that Mary Pickford will be seen at Loew's Theatre, beginning Monday in "The Love Light," a gripping emotional drama, is one that is bound to prove of great interest to her thousands of admirers.

"The Love Light" is the story of a little Italian girl in an Italian fishing village among the cliffs bordering on the Mediterranean in Northern Italy. How the little girl preaches over the family of her orphaned brothers, how a great tragedy comes into her life, the final realization with its accompanying sacrifice, makes not only an unusual story for the screen, but is a startling innovation for Mary Pickford herself.

Frances Marion is not only the author of the story, but the director as well, Charles Rosher is said in this picture

Alec B. Francis and Irene Rich in the mystery drama, "A Voice in the Dark," at the Allen next Friday and Saturday.

William A. Grew of the Majestic Players, who will next week present that famous dramatic success, "Madame X."

to have devised new lighting and photographic effects. Stephen Gooson is responsible for the settings.

The vaudeville embraces Pasquale and Powers in melodious musical studies; Jack Polk, that jovial youngster, and Dan Holt and Company in a clever skit, "The Moonshiners."

MAJESTIC

"MADAME X" AT THE MAJESTIC
ALL NEXT WEEK.

Manager Grew of the Majestic Players will present for the first time in London in stock all next week that famous dramatic success, "Madame X."
It is doubtful if a more dramatic play has ever been written than this soul-stirring drama. The piece has been presented in almost every civilized country in the world, both as a dramatic attraction and in pictures. Next week, however, Londoners will be given the opportunity of seeing the play presented for the first time in stock in London by the Majestic Players. Manager Grew promises patrons a most lavish production, and the entire cast of players, augmented by several new members, will be seen in the big cast. The court scene, in which the son discovers that the woman, Madame X, whom he is called upon to defend on a charge of murder, is none other than his own mother, provides, perhaps, one of the most stirring scenes in the entire piece.
Miss Edna Marshall, whose clever impersonations have been one of the big features of the season, will be cast in the role of Madame X. Each and every member of the company will have admirable roles in which to display their respective talents. There will be the customary popular matinees on Wednesday and Saturday, and the usual
"two for one" night will be in vogue Monday night.

WHAT'S DOING

Original Winnipeg Kiddies in their 1920 vaudeville revue.

ALL NEXT WEEK—Matinees daily, 2:15; evenings, 8:15. Double comedy bill, Fatty Arbuckle in "The Life of the Party," and Leslie Henson, England's ace of comedians, in
"Alf's Button."

ALLEN.
TODAY—Big double program, "Love, Honor and Behave"; Will Rogers in "Gulls of Women"; Allen news; Mutt and Jeff cartoons; overture,
"Dorothy's." MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY

Toronto, Feb. 4.—In a gun battle with two burglars in a lane at the rear of W. Neal's drug store early this morning, Constable Thomas Forbes was shot twice in the leg. The robbers escaped, leaving their victims in the lane.
Forbes was inspecting the back lane, and came on the two men as they stood at the back door of Neal's store.
Just as he entered the lane from the street, the two gunmen drew their revolvers and opened fire. Although Forbes started shooting at the robbers, he was hit five shots, emptying his revolver before they disappeared around a corner. It is not known whether he hit either of the men.

CHICAGO NEGROES ARE INJURED WHEN BOMB
THROWN FROM MOTOR

Chicago, Feb. 4.—A bomb thrown from an automobile into the doorway of a four-story apartment building on the south side, caused and occupied in part by Robert Jackson, a wealthy regional, shattered windows in half of the block late last night and several persons were injured by flying glass. A solicitor nearby saw the missile being hurled from the car, which he said contained three men. He fired three shots at them before they disappeared around a corner.

Jackson denied he had received any threats, although police say race feeding is responsible for the explosion. It is known that the block, only two are occupied by white families.

PETERBORO FACTORIES

from 12 noon until 2 p.m. on Monday to enable their employees to vote in the West Peterboro by-election, it was announced today.

WILL SEEK ABOLITION OF BUSINESS PROFITS TAX

Ottawa, Feb. 4.—Canadian Press—Announcement that the excess profits duty is to be withdrawn in Great Britain, will no doubt result in renewed agitation here for non-renewal of Canadian business profits tax. Since the end of the war there have been many proposals to repeal the tax, but it has been the business profits tax should be dropped. The main arguments used were similar to those employed against continuation of the E. P. D. In Great Brittain (also a tax on business profits, although levied on a different principle) that the tax hindered expansion of industries and had an adverse influence on the investment of money in business enterprises. Technically the business profits tax expired with the end of last year—it has latterly been renewed from year to year—and business interests represented here are confident that the tax will not be renewed in the coming budget, or if renewed, renewed in a modified form.

NEW ADVANCE IN CHICAGO MARKET

All Wheat Prices Firmer, With Net Gains at Closing Time.

CHICAGO, Feb. 4.—Insertion of higher wheat duties in the emergency tariff bill, together with an upturn in export trade, helped bring about an advance in the wheat pit today. The close was 1 1/2c higher, at $1.53 1/2c.

March, $1.52 1/2c to $1.53 1/2c; May, $1.44 1/2c to $1.45 1/2c. The finish in provisions was 10c to 15c down.

Strength in the wheat market developed almost entirely during the last part of the session. Previous to the chief factor appeared to be the selling of foreign account, and on the resulting decline in delivery contracts.

Lowest price yet for the present crop. Germany, which was the largest buyer of the British Royal Commission was reselling Argentine wheat, presumably to Germany, and that Germany has bought wheat from Australia. About mid-day, however, sentiment changed to a considerable degree, many shorts covering and northwestern houses buying.

Renewed interest was shown in the emergency tariff bill throughout the remainder of the session, and it was said export demand had improved, especially for low-grade flour.

Corn and oats advanced with wheat. A little export business in corn was noted. Dealers, rural offerings of corn were small.

Lower quotations on hogs had a depressing effect on provisions.
