DECEMBER 11
ALWAYS PROTECTED.—When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.—Isaiah 43:2.

DECEMBER 12
RULES FOR RIGHT LIVING.—Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice; and be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.—Ephesians 4:31, 32.

DECEMBER 13
HOW TO OVERCOME EVIL.—Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another; recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men. Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.—Romans 12:10, 17, 21.

DECEMBER 14
GIVING AND GETTING.—Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye meet with it shall be measured to you again.—Luke 6:38.

FRUITAGE OF SECRET PRAY-

DECEMBER 16
GUARD YOUR THOUGHTS.—Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.—Philippians 4:8.

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING PAYS

A merchant made the statement recently that in a town of less than one thousand population he had sold groceries to the value of $234,642 during one year. To accomplish this he had used only one method—newspaper publicity. But he did this regularly and energetically and made his advertisements interesting. The result was the big turn-over which he had enjoyed. This merchant freely acknowledged that it was newspaper advertising and service which counted in successful mer-

APPROPRIATE GIFTS—CHOOSING THE YULETIDE REMEMBRANCE

Nowhere is forethought more vitally essential than in the selection of Christmas gifts, and it saves a lot of unnecessary work for one self and greater satisfaction for one's friends.

The writer knows a busy farm woman who prized above all her other gifts last year a big and well-made gingham apron, "because," she said, "that was just what I needed and I hadn't time to make it." A city friend who teaches all the year probably wouldn't wear such an apron once in six months, but neither would a farm friend have much use for some of the things in which the city girl delights. But one must study the individual friend too, and it is on this account that suggestions of Christmas gifts are not often of much value to one. It isn't safe to assume that all farm women like one class of things and all city women another.

While it would soon become monotonous to give the same kind of a gift to the same friend every year, it pays well to keep in mind the special preference of each. For several years one housewife has given canned fruit to a few relatives who haven't much fruit of their own—among them an elderly lady whose girlhood was spent on the farm of the giver and who particularly treasures things from the old place. If one is fortunate enough to have a friend who does fancy work for sale nothing makes a more acceptable gift than the real hand-made handkerchiefs, collar and cuff sets, scarf and lingerie with their exquisite needle work.

Any one with a sweet tooth will enjoy a box of chocolates or assorted bonbons and if these are home made so much the better. A good cook, and there's one or two of these in every farm house, has at her command endless Christmas cheer in the form of boxes of assorted cakes or cookies and many a family would appreciate just a good cake or a nice pie.

City folks usually appreciate something that savors of country life, especially woody things. A fruit grower may make up attractive boxes or cartons of winter apples that will delight any friend who has no fruit. A pretty idea is to pack contrasting kinds in alternate spaces like a checkerboard. Of course the size should be similar. Light and dark reds make a beautiful combination.

It isn't so much the gift in itself as its adaptability to the recipient that constitutes right or wrong giving, and the intrinsic value of a thing matters far less than the love or lack of it, that the gift carries with it.

PEOPLE SPEND HALF MILLION ON EGG IMPORTS

Secretary of Agriculture Places Value of Poultry Products in Province at $1,380,000.

LAWRENCETOWN, Annapolis County, Dec. 1.—Speaking at the opening of the Annapolis County poultry show here today, Dr. M. Cumming, secretary of the Nova Scotia Department of Agriculture, declared that Nova Scotia produced only two-thirds of the eggs consumed and sold in the province. He estimated the annual value of the poultry products in Nova Scotia at $1,380,000.

Dr. Cumming declared that 1,500,000 dozen eggs worth over half a million dollars, was imported into Nova Scotia every year and in the course of his remarks strongly advocated further development in the way of cold storage plants to stimulate production.

"No accurate figures are obtainable respecting the total importation of eggs into Nova Scotia," said Dr. Cumming. "There are six large firms engaged in this business. The largest of these firms, I am advised, imported last year 40 cars containing on the average 300 crates of 30 dozen eggs, or in all 360,000 dozen. Assuming that the other firms did an equally big business, the total importation into Nova Scotia would be 2,160,000 dozen. However, I think I am within the mark when I would place the importation at about 1,500,000 dozen. If this calculation is right, it would appear that Nova Scotia produces about 4,000,000 dozen eggs and imports about 1,500,000 dozen. This means that Nova Scotia produces only about two-thirds of the eggs that are consumed or sold in the Province.

COLORADO BEETLE HIBERNATES IN WINTER

The Colorado beetle is a most persistent insect. It starts to hibernate in August, September or early October, and turns up ready for business in the spring. In Ottawa, as told by the Entomological Branch in Bulletin 52 of the Dominion Department of Agriculture on "The Colorado Potato Beetle in Canada," tests have been made as to length of life of the creature and under what circumstances it will retain vitality. In wintering cage tests with beetles in New Brunswick several lots were forced into hibernation at an early date by confining them in wire cages on the soil with only enough food for one day. All had burrowed within three days after the food had gone. From three lots put in the cages August 30 and September 5, 205 beetles out of 400 emerged the following spring. Out of 200 put in September 10, 42 emerged, and out of 3,320 put in the cages on September 13 and later only 360 emerged in the spring. This would seem to indicate as the bulletin says, that the earlier the pests hibernate in the autumn the better they survive. The beetles commonly go into the soil immediately below the place where they last fed. In a damp, cold clay loam they have been found within 2 inches of the surface and none at all below 6 inches, while in a loose, sandy soil only a few hundred feet away—none were found at less than 14 inches and some at 17 inches. In a dense gravel-loam soil only an occasional beetle was turned out when the plough was cutting 5 inches deep, but a number could be found by digging 3 inches more in the bottom of the furrow.

Two Boxes of British Columbia Beauties Auctioned for $580 a Box

TOTONTO, Nov. 21.—The highest price ever paid for a box of apples in Toronto, and probably in Canada, was paid last night at the Royal Winter Fair, when two boxes of Delicious, from Vernon, B.C., were sold by auction in the big ring for $580 each. The purchasers were Charles M. Henderson, and E. R. Wood, of Toronto. Three boxes sold at $250 each to Colonel F. B. Robinson, Alfred Rogers and Frank O'Connor, of Toronto. Three were sold at $200 each; three for $150 each, and thirteen for $100 each. The total was $4,000, which goes to the Sir Adam Beck memorial fund at the Sanatorium in London, Ont. The fruit was contributed by the Associated Fruit Growers of British Columbia and every box was a first prize winner at the show.

Personal Mention

Contributions to this column will be gladly received. If you have any visitors staying at your home, or know of any friends who are leaving for a holiday, kindly phone or write THE ACADIAN.

Dr. F. W. Patterson spent Sunday at Halifax. Mrs. G. S. Stairs, of Windsor, was the guest this week of Mrs. Ralph Creighton. Rev. Dr. J. H. MacDonald was the preacher at the Presbyterian church at Halifax on Sunday. Mr. Dean Rogers, of Grand Mere, Quebec, spent a day last week with his brother, Dr. Norman Rogers. Mr. Blair Fraser, of Sydney, a student at Acadia, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Taylor, Port Williams. Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Fullerton are spending two weeks in the U. S. A., visiting relatives in Boston and New York.

Mrs. W. T. Osborne left last week to spend Christmas at her home at Port Jefferson, N. Y. Mr. Osborne will join her later.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Baker and son, of Dartmouth, were week-end guests of Mrs. Baker's brother, Rev. Gordon Bars, at the Missionary Home.

Mrs. Laura H. Moore, of Parrsboro, is visiting in town, the guest of her friend, Mrs. E. S. Crawley. Her host of Wolfville friends are glad to welcome her back to the home town.

Mr. Frank Bresnan, of this town, left some days ago to spend the winter in Florida. Mr. Bresnan is an industrious and capable mechanic and his many friends wish him a profitable winter.

Mr. G. Macdonald, the popular ledger-keeper in the Bank of Montreal, was transferred to the Main Office at Fredericton, New Brunswick, on Monday. His many friends are very sorry to have him go.

Miss Annie M. Stuart, of Grand Pre, who spent last winter in Florida, is one of those from this vicinity who will again sojourn during the present winter in that summer-land, having left here at the end of November.

Mrs. Avarad Cohoon and family will leave Wolfville shortly to take up their residence in Montreal, Mrs. Cohoon's former home. The University has rented Mrs. Cohoon's residence on Prospect street as a dormitory for College girls.

Mrs. Alice M. D. Grant, of the teaching staff of Acadia Seminary, has been granted a year's leave of absence and left on Wednesday for Toronto, where she will spend the winter. Her sister, Miss Annie Fitch, left by the same train for Concord, Mass., and will also be absent from Wolfville during the winter.

Wolfville friends will be glad to learn that Beverly Stiles, who some weeks ago was held up and shot by a bandit at Lynn, Mass., now bids fair to recover from his serious injuries. Mr. Stiles was at one time a student here and his wife was Miss Ray Godfrey, of this town. At the time of the shooting it was thought that the injured man could not possibly recover, but recent advice as to his condition is most hopeful.

Mr. Chas. F. Crandall, of Montreal, who was accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Stephen, and her little son, of Bedford, was a week-end visitor at the home of his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Noble Crandall. Mr. Crandall, who is president and manager of the British United Press, was one of the delegation of the Imperial Press which made an extended trip to Australia during last summer. He is a Wolfville boy and a graduate of Acadia who has won high place in the field of journalism.

Rev. J. U. Bell, formerly for some years minister of the Presbyterian church at Upper Canada, but who for the past five years has been doing splendid missionary work in Trinidad, arrived recently in St. John, having completed his labors in that distant land. Rev. Mr. Bell is an able and eloquent preacher and efficient pastor and intends, we understand, to resume the work of the ministry with the United Church in these provinces. The very many friends whom Rev. and Mrs. Bell made during their sojourn in this county would be very glad to welcome them back to this section.

While the cold wave at the first of last week made sufficient ice to make good skating at "Tannery Pond" and other local resorts, the weather since has been remarkably mild for the time of year. For the past week there has scarcely been a suggestion of frost while at times the temperature has been almost summer-like.

The annual Roll Call was held in the United Baptist church on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 29th, about 70 answering to their names. A number who are old members and reside in another district replied by letter. Service was held in the evening by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Hiseier, when a number of candidates were baptized and received into the church.

The Trinity United church Sabbath school held their annual Rally Day service on Sunday morning, Nov. 29th. The pastor, Dr. T. W. Hodgson, took for his subject "Why was Jesus a Boy?" every pupil and teacher being interested. A program was prepared with special music by the children, a large congregation being present.

A pie sale was held at the Pereaux parsonage on Wednesday evening, Dec. 2nd. A fancy table for Acadia College was a feature and the sum of about $80.00 was realized.

Mr. and Mrs. Frail, of Pereaux, and daughter left on Friday to spend the winter in Boston.

William Parker, of Habitant, and Edw. Clark, of Hillaton, left on Wednesday of last week to spend the winter in Boston.

Mrs. (Dr.) Stanten Rockwell, who has been a guest at Mr. and Mrs. Fenwick Rand's home, has returned to Upper Canard.

The Girl Guides held a successful pantry sale in Cox and Blenus store last week. The amount raised is going to the Moncton Girls' Home, the Guides having pledged themselves for a certain amount towards the home.

The Boy Scouts are to meet in the Armory every Friday evening. Rev. Dr. Hodgson is to be congratulated upon a new adventure of organizing the Wolf Cubs. About 20 boys already have joined the Cubs, ranging from 8 to 12 years of age. A committee has been formed to look for a site for a summer camp and the placing of the summer bungalow, the generous gift of Mr. George Chase, of Port Williams, to the Guides and Scouts. The outlook for Scouting is very promising.

Mrs. Jack Mullett, Boston, and Mrs. John Brown spent last Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leander Eaton, Canard.

Alfred, the small son of Mr. and Mrs. Leander Eaton, who has been ill for some time, is improving slowly and is now able to walk a little.

Word was received on Thursday last by Mrs. Russell Hatfield that Miss Jessie Hatfield, of Port Greville, sister of Mr. Russell Hatfield, had suddenly passed away. The cause of her death was a heart attack. Medical aid was summoned but Miss Hatfield did not regain consciousness. Mr. Russell Hatfield is at present in U. S. A.

Miss Bessie Lockwood, who has been ill, is now improving and is able to be around again.

Mrs. Albert Harris is improving slowly, her friends will be pleased to hear. Mrs. Harris is one of the old Acadia Seminary graduates.

Mrs. Arthur Dickie, of Canning, and Miss Ada Reynolds, of Canning, who have spent a month at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Noble, Toronto,

C. C. N. Eaton, Canard, has added another farm to his property, having purchased the John Furguson farm at Long Beach, North Mountain. It is understood that Mr. Brewster is to take charge of the property. Mr. Eaton has purchased a number of farms on the mountain and is making a great success of them. Forty years ago these mountain farms were looked upon as being a very poor investment. Mr. Eaton can show the people what can be done and made of these places. Now that the cars are in use labor and distance is not counted, so easily that distance is not counted.

Daniel Shaw, formerly of Scotts Bay, has come from Norwalk, Conn., to visit friends, and is a guest at the Waverley Hotel. Mr. Shaw left a few years ago, and two years ago moved his family to Connecticut. Mr. Shaw has just finished a large contract and is taking a little vacation while excavating is being done for another large contract.

The Boy Scout Committee visited Pereaux and Medford this week, looking for a suitable place to locate a permanent camp for the Boy Scouts. If possible, they would like a good athletic ground, salt water bathing, and spruce woods near. When not in use by the Boy Scouts or Girl Guides, the camp will be let by the week or longer to private parties for an outing.

While playing on the lawn Saturday morning, Reg. Eaton fell over the terrace and broke his right arm near the shoulder. He was conveyed to his home and a doctor called, who attended to his injuries. Reg. is the small son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Eaton.

There is this to be said for the newspaperman walking to Florida; he'll be in better shape to make the return trip than a lot of 'em.—Marion Star.

THE WORLD'S GREATEST MONUMENT

It is indeed a soulless people who evince no desire to perpetuate, by some means, the memory of those who have performed signal service to their race. It is a duty which the living owe, not only to the memory of honored men and women, but as an example to the generations of the present and the future. London, Paris, Athens, Rome, Washington, Ottawa, all capitals and great cities of the civilized world have many monuments of stone and bronze in honor of men and women who have contributed to the greatness of their nation and to the betterment of their species. It has remained, however, for Canada to choose a monument which will outlive the Pantheon, the Nelson Column in Trafalgar Square, and beside which the towering shaft to Washington is dwarfed into insignificance.

Mount Edith Cavell is a glorious monument to a glorious woman. As long as the hills stand, it will remain, its snow-plumed crest rising high above the Athabaska Valley in Jasper National Park, Alberta, to meet the skies in an eternal tryst. Eleven thousand feet and more it towers above its sister peaks, truly emblematic of the solitary majesty of that heroic figure, who, alone one morning walked to her place of execution a martyr to unswerving loyalty to her native land and devotion to her calling.

On the side of Mount Edith Cavell rests a glacier. At Jasper Park Lodge it is mirrored in the opalescent waters of Lac Beauvert, like a great angel with outspread wings, hovering in benediction over the magnificent monument to a woman whose heroism will always be a golden page in the history of a nation of many valorous deeds.

QUADRUPLS LETS WHO WON THE KING'S BOUNTY

These are the only quadruplets on this continent and have won for their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mahaney, of 170 Queen St., St. John, New Brunswick, what is known as "The King's Bounty", from His Majesty King George. Born on Christmas Day, 1923, the three sisters and one brother are now merely two years old. For the first six months the boy was slightly bigger than his sisters, but now all four are so much alike relatives have extreme difficulty in telling them apart. From left to right they are Edith May, Edna Louise, Lydia Christine, and John Douglas. In England the birth of quadruplets occurs only once in 400,000 births; in Germany, once in 100,000; and in France, once in 2,000,000 births.

MRS. ISABELLA SMITH

The demise of Mrs. Isabella Smith took place at Lockhartville on Friday, Dec. 4th, at the age of 81 years. Mrs. Smith had been in failing health for some time and her death was not unexpected. The deceased, who was a consistent member of the Baptist church, will be missed by a wide circle of friends. She is survived by one son, William, at home, her husband and one son having pre-deceased her a number of years. The funeral services, which were largely attended, were held from the Baptist church on Sunday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. Z. L. Fash, pastor of the Baptist church, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Mellick. The choir sang the following: "Shall We Gather at the River", "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere", and "There is a Green Hill Far Away". Miss Mary Macumber rendered "Safe in the Arms of Jesus". Interment was in River Bank Cemetery.

I had a pleasant drive to Windsor with father, after doing some shopping he returned home. I went to Mr. McHeffy's after calling at Mr. Murdock's. Spent a pleasant afternoon there and then came over to town in company with Mrs. McHeffy. We called at Mrs. Nelson's and then went to the Baptist church and heard Rev. Hurd preach. I returned home with Mrs. McHeffy, arose early in the morning and took a walk out beyond Mr. McLatchey's before breakfast. We took dinner at ten o'clock when Mr. Hurd called, then we all came over to town. I stopped at Mrs. Nelson's and Mary Nelson went with me to Miss Dennet's, where we stayed at school till four o'clock. She has quite a nice school; the girls appear smart at learning. I then went back to Mrs. Nelson's and found Rebecca Haley there; we stayed to tea and then I accompanied Rebecca home. We went to meeting in the evening. Went to Mr. McHeffy's and stopped all night; then had a lovely walk to town before breakfast. I called at the churchyard and got some honeysuckle, then took breakfast with Rebecca Haley. I went to Miss Dennet's school again and spent the forenoon, then went to Mrs. Ellis' to dinner; had a pleasant visit; saw the widow Michener—who is Mrs. Ellis' mother—and a fine old lady she is. I took a walk with her to where there is a lovely view of the surrounding country. Came to Mrs. Nelson's at three o'clock, then to Mr. Haley's where I found Rebecca. We went to Geldert's and stopped till the coach came, when I bade adieu to Windsor after having had a very pleasant visit and found the people very kind. A load of soldiers and their wives came in the coach. I was glad to see them stop off there, so there would be more room for the rest of us. Mr. Hurd, Jo Dorman and a girl from Halifax, and three the driver picked up on the road, were the only passengers besides myself. I arrived at mother's a little after six o'clock. Went to meeting in the evening; there was a large congregation and we got a good lecture on Temperance from Rev. Hurd. Mary Churchill and I stopped all night at mother's and came home early in the morning accompanied by Ann. We met at ten o'clock to consult about our Sabbath School. There were quite a number of girls there. We did not arrange the classes as a teacher's meeting was appointed for Thursday evening, and as Revs. Grant and Hurd were there it was proposed that one of them be our superintendent. I felt a thrill

DIARY OF MARGARET D. MICHENER

April 27th, 1851. I am feeling rather sad as my dear friend Rebecca has just informed me that she is to leave here in about a fortnight for St. John, where she intends to spend the summer. We have spent many happy hours together. I shall miss her so much in our Sabbath School, at prayer meeting and in my home. Sarah Vaughan and Rebecca Fielden came forward yesterday as candidates for baptism. I feel a strong confidence for both of them and have long looked to them thinking they were Christians. Rev. Hurd preached a good sermon this morning to a crowded house. Rebecca Fielden came home with me and stopped till the afternoon meeting when Jane Elder and Sarah Vaughan also came home with us and stopped till the evening service. They were received into church fellowship by Rev. Hurd at the evening meeting. Rev. Hall preached a very plain sermon; he always tells us our duty without any hesitation.

29th. We are having beautiful weather now. I stopped all night at Mrs. Elders Sunday night as Sarah was sick and Mrs. Elder was away. James was up all night making a coffin for Mr. S. Harris who died on Saturday. I had a delightful walk home. Rebecca came part way with me. Mercy spent yesterday forenoon with Emily Ann and this afternoon with me. I went up home with her, then to mother's. Emily came up and we had a lovely walk, but my heart got sad while we talked of Simeon. Ann has been helping me to quilt. Mary Churchill called about sunset and we went down to Olivia's. I hope it will be fine tomorrow as I plan to go to Windsor if nothing prevents.

Sunday morning, May 4th. Another Sabbath has rolled around and I am back at my old station. On Wednesday of delight as I saw the scholars place themselves in their usual seats. Mr. Hurd preached in the morning and Mr. Grant in the afternoon; they both, with sister Ann, took dinner with me. I called in to see Mercy and found Mr. Barnaby there; he had come to see about his school. I then went to father's and stopped all night.

THAT AFTER-DINNER FEELING

A touch of hunger lures the feet to rest beneath the tables; The viands enticingly prepared make one eat all they're able; And then the sense of drowsiness that's sure to come a-stealing; Are what gave birth to the phrase—"that after-dinner feeling".

When eyes grow bigger than the stomach has capacity, When each and every course creates a deep rapacity; When dainties beg to be consumed with pleadings so appealing; You're sure to know the meaning of that after-dinner feeling.

When soup is safely stowed away, with beef for company, And gray-browned mashed potatoes make one's lips smack with glee, Mixed in between with relishes—a kindly hostess dealing— Dessert to end the feast and then—that after-dinner feeling.

Words of kind appreciation, acknowledging their taste; A sort of tightened feeling somewhere round about the waist; A desire to loose the belt a notch, then coat and waistcoat peeling; A craving for a little nap—that after-dinner feeling.

O, many of us know it well! A gourmet every Sunday!

A dark brown taste well fills the mouth when we awake on Monday; An oath to so indulge no more—but what's the use of squealing? Each Sabbath brings around again that after-dinner feeling.

Mary had a little beau, Who always stayed so late, He seemed to think he owned the place, So Dad gave him the gate.
