Several Persons Killed and Wounded.

Boston, Nov. 9, midnight. A fire broke out from the fourth story of the large four story granite store on the corner of Summer and Kingston-streets, occupied on the first floor by Tobbetts, Baldwin & Davis, wholesale dry goods dealers. It had caught the engine-room, and the flames spread with lightning rapidity up the large elevator, and were first seen climbing underneath the wood-work of the roof. The engines were fairly at work before any other store had caught. The buildings in the vicinity were all of granite, four stories high, and each was surmounted by a Mansard roof, none of them being over five years old. Directly as the flames began to spread to the story underneath this roof, and before an engine or hose carriage was on the ground, great volumes of flames suddenly burst out from the rear corner stories of the building, and in less than twenty minutes the whole broad facade, extending fully 100 feet along Kingston-street, was one sheet of flame. The heat was so intense as to force the firemen away from that immediate vicinity. By this time, as a strong wind had sprung up, the flames began to sweep over Summer and Kingston-streets, and despite the exertions of the firemen in every branch of the department, the fire was communicated to the buildings on the opposite side of the corner of Kingston and Summer-streets, as well as to the great block on the corner of Summer and other streets, and in less than half an hour thereafter the flames were bursting out of the roofs and all up and down the broad sides. Its destruction had not progressed far before the flames and sparks which arose from it had lodged upon all the buildings round about. Thus the fire spread almost instantly in three directions. First, to the adjoining block on Summer-street, then across Summer-street to the opposite block, and then across Kingston-street. In the first named direction the adjoining building was occupied by Leland & Wheelocks, gentleman's furnishing goods, and Sawyer, Mansfield & Co., importers of dry goods. The next are Eager, Bartlett & Co., woollen goods, O. B. North & Son, lace, capers and trimmings, next Farley, Adams & Co., dry goods jobbers, and Rhoebest & Rippley, wholesale clothing; and the latter firm owned the building. The structure opposite the point of starting was of granite, four stories and a-half high, occupied largely by Maylitz, Millen & Elms, dealers in trimmings, who used the entire lower floor. Harding Bros. & Co., and Lisle, Carter & Co., occupied the upper floors. From this building across the square diagonally was a stone block occupied by Smith, Rich & Corton, and Geo. M. Glazer, dealers in corsets, skirts and knit goods. On the corner of this and Summer streets stood the Everett Block, an imposing granite structure, owned by the Everett estate. It included Nos. 52, 54, 56, 58, 60, 62, and 54 Summer-street, and was occupied by D. Lyman & Co., Messrs. Dyer & Dryden, Phillips & Sherman, C. G. King & Co., and Marr Brothers, dealers in clothing, furnishing goods, fancy goods, trimmings, &c. The upper floors were used mostly as offices, and occupied by various parties. Now the fire began to creep steadily up both sides of Summer-street, crawling along from roof to roof opposite the Everett Block. The buildings as they were engulfed in rapid succession were as follows:—Brick dwelling, front occupied by A. Folsom & Sons, floor-cloths and oil-cloths; Geo. H. Butler, hair goods; Edwin Wise & Fuller, linen and white goods; Bothwell, Lather, Pater, & Co., clothing; Mitchell, Green and Steens, clothing. At this time, about 10 o'clock, the flames burst from the top of a building on Arch-street, a dozen doors removed from Summer-street. Almost before the existence of the flames in this quarter was known they had spread down through the building and were bursting in a perfect torrent from all the windows in the front of the fancy-goods store of Hawley, Folsom & Martin. The fire spread to each side, enveloping the stores of Thos. Kelley & Co., D. M. Hodgdon, clothing merchant, Granite Block, Morse, Hammond & Co., hosiery and gloves; Siles, Beale & Homer, wholesale clothing; S. Kiores & Co., hats, caps and fur; Struiker Bros., hat and cap manufacturers; Wyman & Orklay, importers of goods and linens; Edwin Wise & Fuller, linen and white goods; Bothwell, Lather, Pater, & Co., clothing; Mitchell, Green and Steens, clothing. CHAPTER XXIII.
Before descending from the raised mound, the youth gazed up and down to note the position of the place, and having settled that relatively, in accordance with the dark intuition in his soul, he fixed his eye on a certain direct line by the position he had decided on—and walking straight towards it, he came at once on the prints he sought. There they were sure enough, the two footmarks which had at the last accompanied those of George, and pointing from the shaft in the direction of the mansion.

In utter silence he showed them to Matthew, and, with a low groan, walked forward. The further tracing of these footprints was not a difficult task. Harry seemed to know where to go in order to find them, and each time his eye lighted on them he indicated them to his companion by pointing his finger, but spoke no audible word.

In this manner they crossed the fields, and came to a gate leading into the park. Here the footprints could be tracked no longer for there was no snow, and the youth leant his arm on the top bar of the gate, and mused.

"Come hame wi' me and have something to eat," said Matthew, gently. "Ye have had naething since morning."
But Harry sadly shook his head.
"I cannot eat," he said. "I have a work to do which must not wait. Come with me across the park to the arbour. I have something to examine there, which I expect will dispel the last shadow of doubt in my mind."

Matthew patiently accompanied him to the place he had named, though quite at a loss to understand the reason of their going thither.

Arrived at the arbour, Harry took up his position for a moment at its door-way, till from thence he had made out the place where he saw the man's form glide under the trees. This exact spot he soon detected, and with Matthew still by his side he went directly towards it.

Under the clump of trees the snow lay white, and there again, to the intense wonder of Matthew, they beheld the two footmarks.

"They were both here, then," muttered Harry. "I saw only one. They must have begun here to watch him and dog his footsteps. Little recked they that as they moved on their murderous way they left behind them marks by which they were to be discovered. You see them?" he added, turning to Matthew, and pointing with his shaking finger to the prints in the snow.

"Dead dae I. But hoo did ye ken tae come here tae find them?"
"I will tell you that another time. You can return home now, Matthew, and take rest after this day's fatigue."

"But will ye no gang wi' me, sir?"
"No I cannot. I must go there."
And he pointed to the mansion, whose chimneys could be seen through the naked branches of the trees.

"Oh, Maister Harry," said Matthew, in a tone and with a look of great anxiety, "this is a matter that need vary handling."
"I shall be cautious, but I must be bold and stern. I need not request you to keep silent on the matter to all but Allie. She must be told, but she can be trusted. Now go; I shall come to you ere long."

With a heavy sigh Matthew bent upon him a sad lingering look and turned his face towards his own cottage.

Harry turned in the opposite direction, towards the house, and as he did so "he set his face as flint" to confront his father and Nathan Garrett.

FROM PENNSYLVANIA.—Lancaster, Pa., July 31, 1871. Mr. James L. Fellow—Sir: I am pleased to inform you that my health is improving under the use of your Hypophosphites. Excessive tax of the brain had exhausted my body that I could neither work nor enjoy myself, and it was with difficulty that I could sleep at all. I tried rest, active exercise, various medicinal remedies, and the most popular physicians, and accidentally heard of your syrup in New York. I purchased three bottles at Caswell & Hazard's, and until I used that nothing relieved me. Now I can eat well, sleep well, work well and feel well, and have good reason to consider your syrup a most surprising and capital restorer of the mind and nervous system, and advise all who have much brain work to take it. You are at liberty to use this as you may. Yours very truly, JAMES SHERMAN, Insurance Agent.

Thousands have been changed by the use of Peruvian Syrup (a protoxide of Iron) from weak, sickly, suffering creatures to strong, healthy, and happy men and women, and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial. For Dyspepsia and Debility it is a specific.

The Verdict of the People
AGAIN DECLARES THAT

THE GARDNER SEWING MACHINE

Is superior to any now in the Market.

HAVING been examined and tried by the most skillful mechanics and best judges the country can produce, and by them awarded prizes at all the principal Exhibitions held throughout the Dominion during the present year; and although the leading machines were arrayed against it, the Gardner Patent has been declared

VICTORIOUS

Over all competitors, upon every test, and now stands foremost in the rank of Sewers, and has been awarded Twenty-two prizes for 1872.

This beautiful specimen of mechanical ability is a purely Canadian invention, surpassing in simplicity, durability and usefulness any other Sewing Machine now in the Market, whether of Canadian, American, or English manufacture.

It will Hem, Cord, Braid, Tuck, Gather, Quilt, Fell, and for Tailoring, Dressmaking and Family Use cannot be surpassed, using all kinds of Thread.

Send for Circulars and Samples to Mr. Hunter, Wyndham-st., Guelph; or to Wm. S. Lumgair, Agent, Wellington Hotel, Guelph.

Intending purchasers should not be misled by unscrupulous agents of other companies, who keep machines they do not sell in a damaged state, making capital for themselves. A fair trial is given previous to purchasing.

THE REASON WHY
 Dr. Wheeler's Compound Elixir of Phosphates and Calceya is called a Chemical Food and Nutritive Tonic, because Phosphates constitute more than half the material of the human body, and are absolutely essential to the growth of Bone, Muscle and Nerve, which cannot attain full development without them. They promote a good appetite, perfect digestion, create pure, healthy, vitalizing blood, and supply the waste constantly going on in the system as the result of mental and physical exertion.
 Being combined with Calceya, the Peruvian Bark, the only specific for Chills and Fever, and that condition of Nervous Prostration and General Debility arising from low vitality and exhaustive diseases, it forms an elegant and agreeable, invigorating Tonic, purely physiological in its action, that may be taken safely under all circumstances, and all diseased conditions of the body, as it builds up the constitution in the same manner as our daily food.
 Sold by all Druggists at $1.

CAUTION.
 The Cornwall Manufacturing Company have pleasure in intimating the complete restoration of their works at Cornwall which are now in full operation, producing large quantities of White and Grey Blankets, and Heavy Medium Class Tweeds.
 They regret, however, having again to call attention of the public to the continuance of the disreputable practice of importing English Blankets and selling them as Canadian. These Blankets are made largely of Shoddy and Cotton Waste, with a small percentage of pure Wool, and though slightly in appearance, closely imitating the Cornwall Blankets, and ticketed "Canadian Manufacture," have neither warmth nor wear, but can be sold at a lower price than the Cornwall Blankets (which are made of Pure Wool) can be produced for.

The public are cautioned against this attempted deception, and respectfully informed that the name of the CORNWALL MAN-UFACTURING COMPANY is printed on the ticket of every Blanket made by them.

Iron in the Blood

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protochloride of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damage, and waste, searching out morbid secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhea, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors,
 Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

See that each bottle has PERU-VIAN SYRUP blown in the glass.
