Buds and Blossoms.

The Pastor will be absent this week attending the Anniversary Exercises of Acadia University. He will be in his place (D.V.) next Sunday.

Our County Missionary, Rev. P. S. McGregor, has been on the field since May 1st. The work is a most important one. Bro. McGregor will need our constant prayers and sympathy. The B. Y. P. U. will receive the hearty co-operation of the church in raising our apportionment by June 1.

The Jubilee Committee has given Bro. A. C. Layton, Assist. Clerk, entire control of the sale of the "Jubilee Souvenir."

It was a great pleasure to have Bro. Dimock Archibald and wife with us on last Sunday and Wednesday evenings. Like so many who formerly held membership, they speak of their continued love for the dear old North Church. Bro. Archibald has returned from the U. S. to Anherst.

The Wednesday Evening Prayer Service is increasing in life and power. None can afford to be absent from this meeting. Here is where the spiritual and social life are developed and nourished. Here we learn to sing from the heart "Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in christain love." Those who persistently make other engagements for this hour, are poorer financially and spiritually. It does not pay to rob God. The prayer meeting is the pulse of the church. What are you doing to make it beat healthy. An active pure Church will be an increasing Church as in Apostolic times. Have you the Apostolic spirit, or is your religion a matter of convenience?

An Excellent Story is given concerning the late Dr. Dale, of Birmingham, the famous English Preacher. While addressing an audience in Australia, on the relations which ought to exist between pastor and people, who really appreciate their minister, he said sometimes he would like to say to his own congregation, "If you love me, tell me so." The Australian papers caught up the saying and carried it to the old country. When Dr. Dale entered his own church some months later, the first thing to attract his attention was a large scroll above the pulpit, in letters of gold, "We all love you, and we tell you so."
