

CANADA

C o
m m u n
i q
u é

No. 39

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
MAY 29, 1972

DIPLOMATIC APPOINTMENTS

DEPARTMENT OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS
MINISTÈRE DES AFFAIRES EXTÉRIEURES

The Secretary of State for External Affairs, the Honourable Mitchell Sharp, has announced the following appointments, which will take effect during the course of the next few months.

Mr. Ross Campbell, 53, at present Ambassador and Permanent Representative to the North Atlantic Council in Brussels, as Ambassador to Japan. He succeeds Mr. Herbert O. Moran who will be retiring shortly.

Mr. Thomas Carter, 56, now Director-General, Bureau of African and Middle Eastern Affairs, Department of External Affairs, as Ambassador to the Netherlands, succeeding Mr. Alfred John Pick, whose appointment as Ambassador and Permanent Observer to the Organization of American States, Washington, has already been announced.

Mr. Roger Duhamel, 56, currently special adviser to the Secretary of State, to be Ambassador to Portugal. He succeeds Mr. Paul A. Beaulieu, who will return to Ottawa to head a historical research project concerning the development of Canada's relations with francophone countries for the past ten years.

Mr. James George, 53, at present High Commissioner to India and Ambassador to Nepal, as Ambassador to Iran, concurrently accredited to Kuwait, succeeding Mr. C. C. Eberts, who retired earlier this year.

Mr. Raoul Jean Grenier, 55, at present Assistant Deputy Minister, (Manpower), Department of Manpower and Immigration, to be Ambassador to Senegal, also accredited to Mauritania. He succeeds Mr. Gordon G. Riddell, whose next assignment will be announced later.

Mr. John Gaylord Hadwen, 49, at present on academic leave at the Institut Universitaire des Hautes Etudes Internationales in Geneva, as Ambassador to Pakistan, also accredited to Afghanistan, succeeding Mr. Charles John Scall.

Mr. Morton H. Maddick, 53, now General Director, Trade Commissioner Service, Department of Industry, Trade and Commerce, as Ambassador to Ireland. He replaces Mr. James J. McCardle, whose appointment as High Commissioner to Australia and Fiji has already been announced.

Mr. William M. Olivier, 57, now Director of Inspection Services, Department of External Affairs, as High Commissioner to Kenya, to succeed Mr. J. M. Cook, who is returning to Ottawa.

Mr. Robert Louis Rogers, 52, currently Deputy High Commissioner in London, to be Ambassador to Yugoslavia, succeeding Mr. Bruce Williams.

Mr. Maurice Schwarzmann, 51, at present Assistant Deputy Minister (Trade Policy), Department of Industry, Trade and Commerce, as Ambassador to Mexico. He replaces Mr. Saul Rae, whose appointment as Ambassador and Permanent Representative to the United Nations in New York has already been announced.

Mr. Charles John Small, 52, at present Ambassador to Pakistan, to be Ambassador to China. He succeeds Mr. Ralph Edgar Collins who, as recently announced, is to return to Canada to be an Assistant Under-Secretary for External Affairs.

Mr. Bruce MacGillivray Williams, 54, now Ambassador to Yugoslavia, as High Commissioner to India, succeeding Mr. James George.

PAUL BEAULIEU

Mr. Beaulieu was born in Outremont, P.Q., in 1913 and attended the Collège Sainte-Marie in Montreal and the Université de Montréal from which he received a B.A. and LL. L. From 1938 to 1940 he practiced law in Montreal. In 1947 he was created King's Counsel and in 1957 was elected Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada.

Mr. Beaulieu joined External Affairs in 1940 and has seen service abroad in Washington, Paris, Boston and London. In 1958 he was appointed Ambassador to Lebanon and Iraq and in 1961 was named Canadian Ambassador to Brasil. From 1967 to 1968 Mr. Beaulieu was Associate Permanent Representative and Ambassador of Canada to the United Nations in New York. From 1968 to 1970 he was Ambassador to France and then from 1970 to 1972 Ambassador to Portugal.

Mr. Beaulieu is the author "Jacques Rivière" (1955) and of "Le Pèlerinage de Catherine Mansfield" and has contributed to several literary journals in London and France. In 1953 he was awarded first prize in the "Concours littéraire de la Province de Québec".

Mr. Beaulieu is married to Simone Aubry and they have two children.

ROSS CAMPBELL

Mr. Campbell was born in Toronto on November 4, 1918. He studied at the University of Toronto and received a B. A. in 1940. During the war he served with the Royal Canadian Navy and the Royal Navy, and was awarded the D. S. C.

Mr. Campbell joined the Department of External Affairs in 1945. He served in Oslo, Copenhagen, and Ankara and then spent several years in Ottawa in various positions, most recently as Assistant Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs from 1962 to 1964. In 1964 he was named Ambassador to Yugoslavia and in 1967 he was appointed to his present position as Ambassador and Permanent Representative to the North Atlantic Council.

Mr. Campbell is married and has two sons.

THOMAS CARTER

Mr. Carter was born in Toronto on June 10, 1915. He studied at Bishop's University and the University of London where he received a M.Sc.(Econ.) in 1939. During the war (in the course of which he was awarded the MC) he served in the Canadian Army and was discharged in 1945 at the rank of Captain.

Mr. Carter joined the Department of External Affairs in 1945. He served in several posts in Europe early in his career. Other appointments abroad have been as High Commissioner to Nigeria and Ambassador to the United Arab Republic. He served in various divisions at departmental headquarters before becoming Director-General, Bureau of African and Middle Eastern Affairs in 1971.

Mr. Carter is married and has one daughter.

ROGER DUHAMEL

Mr. Duhamel was born in Hamilton on April 16, 1916. He studied at the University of Montreal where he received his LL.L. in 1938. For several years he was a journalist and editor with Le Devoir, Montreal-Matin, and La Patrie, before entering the public service in 1958 as vice-president of the Board of Broadcasting Governors.

Mr. Duhamel was named Queen's Printer in 1960, a position he held until entering the Department of External Affairs in 1969. Since 1971, he has acted as special advisor to the Secretary of State.

Mr. Duhamel is married and has four children.

CHRISTOPHER CAMPBELL EBERTS

Mr. Eberts was born in Montreal on May 5, 1913, and was educated at Bishop's University and at Oxford, where he was a Rhodes Scholar in 1938. He joined the Department of External Affairs in 1940 and served with the Canadian Legation to the Allied Governments, London, at the Canadian Embassy, Mexico City, and as the Department's Member and Canadian Secretary on the Permanent Joint Board on Defence.

Mr. Eberts later served as Consul General in San Francisco, before his appointment in 1960 as High Commissioner to Pakistan. In Ottawa he was Co-ordinator of Arrangements for the Royal Visit in 1964 and then Head, Protocol Division, and Chairman of the Government Hospitality Committee until his appointment as Ambassador to Iran in 1967, where he served until his retirement last February.

Mr. Eberts is married and has three children.

JAMES GEORGE

Mr. George was born in Toronto on September 14, 1918. He studied at the Universities of Grenoble and Toronto and was a Rhodes scholar. He saw naval service during the war and was discharged as a Lieutenant-Commander in 1945.

Mr. George joined the Department of External Affairs the same year and has served in several posts abroad. He was High Commissioner to Ceylon and Minister, Canadian Embassy, Paris, before his appointment as High Commissioner to India and Ambassador to Nepal in 1967. In Ottawa he was head of European Division from 1964 to 1966.

Mr. George is married and has three children.

RAOUL JEAN GRENIER

Mr. Grenier was born in Ottawa in 1916. He received his education at the Universities of Montreal and Ottawa as well as Columbia University in New York.

Early in his career he worked as a teacher in the Ottawa Separate schools. In 1940 he joined the Department of Indian Affairs. He later served in the Canadian Army, and, following the war, entered the Indian Affairs Branch of the Department of Mines and Resources. He has served in several other federal government departments including Treasury Board, Public Works and, most recently, Manpower and Immigration where he has been Assistant Deputy Minister (Manpower) since 1969.

Mr. Grenier has had experience abroad as an adviser in administration to the government of Cambodia and was sent, through the Ford Foundation, to work as a programme specialist in the Lebanese public service.

Mr. Grenier is married and has one child.

JOHN GAYLORD HADWEN

Mr. Hadwen was born in Ottawa on April 18, 1923. He received a B.A. and M.A. from the University of Toronto and continued his studies at the London School of Economics and last year at the Institut Universitaire des Hautes Etudes Internationales at Geneva. During the war he served in the Canadian Army in Europe.

Mr. Hadwen joined the Department of External Affairs in 1950. His first assignment abroad was as Third Secretary at the High Commission in Pakistan. Since then he has served with the Canadian Permanent Mission to the United Nations, New York, in Oslo, and as High Commissioner to Malaysia and Singapore and concurrently Ambassador to Burma. His most recent assignment in Ottawa was as Special Assistant to the Secretary of State for External Affairs.

Mr. Hadwen is married and has four sons.

MORTON H. MADDICK

Mr. Maddick was born in St. John's, Newfoundland, on May 28, 1919. After studying at Memorial University, he served in the Royal Air Force from 1940 to 1946.

Mr. Maddick began work as a Trade Commissioner in 1947 and served abroad for many years in New York, Washington, Lisbon, Madrid, Rio de Janeiro, and Santiago. Since 1960 he has served in various executive positions in the Trade Commissioner Service in Ottawa, with postings abroad as Commercial Counsellor, London, and Consul and Trade Commissioner, Cleveland. He was named General Director, Trade Commissioner Service, in 1969. Latterly, he has also served as Chairman of the Personnel Management Committee of the Inter-departmental Committee on External Relations and in that capacity has contributed to the development of coordinated and common policies in the foreign service personnel field.

Mr. Maddick is married and has two daughters.

HERBERT OWEN MORAN

Mr. Herbert Owen Moran was born in Peterborough, Ontario, in 1908, and was educated at the University of Toronto, from which he obtained a B.A. in 1932. He was called to the Bar of Ontario in 1935 and practised law in Toronto until joining the Canadian Army in 1940 as a Lieutenant. After service in the United Kingdom, North Western Europe, and Italy, he was discharged in 1946 with the rank of Colonel. He was awarded the Order of Member of the British Empire, holds the French Croix de Guerre with palms, and was made an Officer of the Order of Léopold by the Belgian Government in recognition of his wartime services.

Mr. Moran joined External Affairs in 1946. In 1947 he was made a Director of the Canadian Commercial Corporation. He is a former Chairman of the Inter-Departmental Committee on External Trade Policy. In 1948 he was promoted to the rank of Assistant Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs and in 1952 Ambassador to Turkey. In 1957 he was named High Commissioner to Pakistan, a post he held until his assignment as Director General of the new External Aid Office in 1960. In June 1966 he was appointed Canadian Ambassador to Japan.

William N. Olivier

Mr. Olivier was born in Sherbrooke, Quebec, on April 6, 1915. He studied at St. Francis Xavier University and, after war-time service with the RCAF, took his B.L.L. at McGill University in 1948.

Mr. Olivier joined the Department of External Affairs in 1948. He has served in New York at the United Nations, Washington, Laos, and Madrid. He served as Ambassador to Costa Rica (1964) and Indonesia (1966) and as Canadian Representative to the United Nations Committee on Budgetary and Administrative Affairs in 1968. In Ottawa his assignments have included European, Defence Relations, and Personnel Operations Divisions; since 1971 he has been Director of Inspection Services.

Mr. Olivier is married and has two children.

ROBERT LOUIS ROGERS

Mr. Rogers was born in Toronto on November 23, 1919. He received a B.A. from the University of Toronto in 1942. During the war he served with the Canadian Army and was discharged in 1946 at the rank of Major.

Mr. Rogers joined the Department of External Affairs in 1946. In departmental headquarters in Ottawa he has served in Defence Liaison and United States Divisions, and from 1963 to 1965 as Director of Far Eastern Division. He served abroad in Washington, Tokyo, as Counsellor in London, and from 1960 to 1963 as Counsellor, Canadian Delegation to the North Atlantic Council. In 1965 he was named Ambassador to Israel and in 1969 appointed Deputy High Commissioner in London.

Mr. Rogers is married and has three sons and one daughter.

MAURICE SCHWARZMANN

Mr. Schwarzmann was born in Malaga, Spain, on December 21, 1920. He received his early education in England and took his B.A. and M.A. in political science at the University of Toronto. He served in the Canadian Army Intelligence Corps from 1943 to 1946.

Mr. Schwarzmann joined the Department of Trade and Commerce in 1949. In 1955 he became Assistant Director, later Director of the International Trade Relations Branch. From 1959 to 1964 he served as Minister-Counsellor (Economic) in Washington and since 1964 has been Assistant Deputy Minister, Trade Policy, Department of Industry, Trade and Commerce.

Mr. Schwarzmann is married and has four children.

CHARLES JOHN SMALL

Mr. Small was born in Chengtu, China, on December 19, 1919, and he lived in China for fifteen years. He later studied in Canada at the Ontario Agricultural College and, after wartime naval service, at the University of Toronto.

Mr. Small joined the Department of Trade and Commerce in 1949 and served as Assistant Commercial Secretary at the Hague. In 1955 he transferred to the Department of External Affairs where, along with his economic work, he has specialized in Asian affairs, including Chinese language studies. Among other assignments, he has served as Trade Commissioner in Hong Kong and Permanent Representative to the O.E.C.D. in Paris and in 1969 was appointed High Commissioner to Pakistan.

Mr. Small is married and has four daughters.

BRUCE MACGILLIVRAY WILLIAMS

Mr. Williams was born in Quebec City on January 31, 1918. He received a B. A. (hons) from the University of Toronto and subsequently served with the Canadian Army from 1942 to 1946.

Mr. Williams joined the Department of External Affairs in 1946 and has served abroad in different capacities at a variety of posts. In 1959 he was named High Commissioner to Ghana, in 1962 Ambassador to Turkey, and he was appointed to his present post as Ambassador to Yugoslavia in 1967. At departmental headquarters in Ottawa he has most recently served as Assistant Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs from 1964 to 1967.

Mr. Williams is married to the former Madeleine Pratt Cannon.