ASTONISHING REVELATIONS IN AUDITOR MILLER'S REPORT ON CROWN LANDS DEPARTMENT ACCOUNTS

Government Asks Lieutenant-Governor Tweedie to Pay $8,110 Interest Into Provincial Treasury--The Governor Disclaims Responsibility and Intimates That Others Were to Blame--He Paid $13,686.76 Two Years Ago to Close Suspense Account.

AUDITOR MILLER'S REPORT

Montreal, July 17, 1908. Hon. W. C. H. Grimmer, Surveyor General, St. Stephen, N. B.

REPORT ON CROWN LANDS DEPARTMENT ACCOUNTS

Dear Sir--In the course of my investigation into the books of the Crown Lands Department, I came across certain items which I felt it was my duty to draw the attention of your government to.

CROWN LAND INVESTIGATION

Dear Sir--In pursuing my investigation into the books of the late W. P. Flewelling I came upon an account which I think it right to draw your attention to.

STAMP DUE ON 1895

This balance was carried forward each year in the receiver general's books until the 23d of October, 1906, on which date the Hon. L. J. Tweedie paid cash to Mr. N. Babbitt, D. B. G., amounting to $13,686.76.

TRANSACTION A--J. ROBINSON

This transaction appears to have originated in the Crown Lands Department which note apparently was renewed from time to time as will be shown by the entries given in schedule 1.

TRANSACTION B--W. P. FLEWELLING

This transaction appears to arise out of a cheque dated the 19th of February, 1896, in favor of G. N. Babbitt for the sum of $3,270.02.

TRANSACTION C--W. P. FLEWELLING

With regard to this transaction it will be seen from the 1st page of Schedule 1 that Mr. Wm. M. Salter gave a draft on the 23d December, 1893, for $1,953 which

TRANSACTION D--W. RICHARDS

This is another case of stampage not being met by the approver and taken up as shown in Schedule 5 with the cheque mentioned in transaction C.

TRANSACTION E--J. B. SNOWBALL

This stampage note, and Schedule 1 shows this note renewed from time to time until on Friday along with your reports to the Crown Land Investigation.

TRANSACTION F--E. SINCLAIR

From examination into the accounts of the government which you presented to me, I find that the fact that it was allowed to stand for so many years before being paid and that no interest appears to have been paid.

TRANSACTION G--THOS. HETHERINGTON

This transaction is clearly set forth in Schedule 2 and speaks for itself without any explanation from me.

TRANSACTION H--ST. LAWRENCE LUMBER CO.

Schedule 3 shows this account in detail and I cannot see from my examination into the books why this note should have been paid out of the public funds.

TRANSACTION I--W. P. RICHARDS

It will be seen from Schedule 4 that this was a cheque given by W. F. Richards and dishonored at the bank and taken up on the 18th of October, 1893, by a cheque No. 410 by the receiver general's department.

TRANSACTION J--W. P. FLEWELLING

THE WEATHER. Fresh west to north-west winds, a few scattered showers or thunder storms, but mostly fine and turning cooler. Saturday, fine and comparatively cool.

When and after this note was given to the receiver general I had nothing to do with the matter until, in October, 1906, I paid the amount of the note as it was charged in this suspense account.

The salter item of $1800 was not a personal matter. It grew out of transactions in the Crown Land office. As is very often the case several parties desired an extension of time. I accommodated them, and to keep the accounts square I took a note from my clerk, Mr. Salter, who attended for me to all the Crown Land business on the Miramichi.

All the other items referred to by Mr. Miller represent stampage transactions, but for the settlement of these I was not and am not liable. I repeatedly urged the desirability of settling these items upon whose duty it was to see that they were settled. Mr. Babbitt, the deputy receiver general, is aware of my efforts in this behalf. Not being able to secure the payment I at last in the month of October, 1906, feeling that the public might regard me as in some measure responsible, since the transactions had been in my department, paid all the notes to the amount of $13,686.76 out of my own pocket. At the same time I paid $127 due by a printer of Restigouche, who had entered into a contract with the former premier and had been advanced $300, but who had only done $173 worth of work. I knew nothing whatever about this transaction except that the province had not the money, and therefore I paid it.

When the auditor applied to me for information I explained these matters to him privately, and told him that nearly all the parties concerned were dead, and rather than bring their names up and give publicity to the transactions I would pay the interest on a full investigation of the facts, Mr. Hazen should be to the conclusion that I was in any way responsible.

I was very much surprised when the auditor informed me that he was instructed to call upon me for the interest. I then explained to him that I had paid a large amount of money for which I was under no responsibility, and I did not see why I should be called upon to pay interest on principal that I was not responsible for.

I showed the auditor the Hetherington note, payable to the receiver general and endorsed by him, which he took a copy, and I asked him if he thought it right to pay interest on that. He said, "Yes, having paid the principal, you ought to pay the interest too."

Fortunately I can corroborate my statements by evidence which should satisfy any reasonable man even if there is any force in the interest Mr. Miller draws that I should pay the interest because I paid the principal.

The following is a letter I received from Mr. James Robinson:

"Millerton, July 27, 1908.

"Dear Sir--In regard to my note for $1800.25 which is referred to in the report of Auditor Miller, I have to say that this amount should have been paid by Mr. Blair and not by you. I understand that you have a full amount, and in doing so you have done more than should have been required of you as you were not personally liable."

"Yours etc., (Sgd.) JAMES ROBINSON.

One would infer that I have paid all the interest that was paid in connection with these items. This is not correct. I do not care to go into matters in detail in this letter. I have this day given to Mr. H. A. Powell, K.C., all the information and documents I possess for his opinion with respect to my liability for the interest claimed by the auditor. If he is of the opinion that I am liable either legally or morally I will act accordingly. Yours truly, (Sgd.) L. J. TWEEDIE.

P. S. I have just received from Mr. Powell the following note:

To the Honorable L. J. Tweedie:

"Dear Sir--Relative to your request that I give you my opinion as to your liability for interest in connection with the items mentioned in Auditor Miller's report I have to say that I am fully engaged for a few days but will give the matter my careful attention at as early a date as possible. Yours truly, (Sgd.) H. A. POWELL.

FAIRBANKS MAY GO TO THE COURT OF ST. JAMES

Vice President May Succed Whitlaw Reid as U.S. Ambassador to London.

Washington, July 30.--Vice-President Fairbanks may step out as president of the Senate next March to appear as ambassador to some important country abroad. The rumor that this would be the next step taken by Mr. Fairbanks was insisted upon some days ago, and it has been revived by reason of the Vice-President's admirable handling of this government's part in the Tercentenary at Quebec. It is admitted that Mr. Fairbanks could have the choice of diplomatic positions under the Taft administration, and in the Chicago convention there was considerable talk of his going to the court of St. James. The situation in Indiana is worrying the Republican leaders, and they believe that if Mr. Fairbanks were honored by appointment to a high place in the diplomatic service his friends would see to it that the state remained in line.

With regard to these items I may say:

The item, M. F. Richards, $401 was an assumption by me of an amount due from him in connection with the purchase of Crown Lands. There were business transactions between us which were settled, and this assumption was made by me at his request. The interest on this ought to be paid by me, and it was through inadvertence that the amount was not done.

The Thomas Hetherington item, $1820, originated in a note taken by me as receiver general from Mr. Hetherington for stampage. This note originally was for $1840 and was dated the 30th day of October, 1891. It was retired by a note of Mr. Hetherington in favor of the receiver general for $1820 dated December 23rd, 1892, and was endorsed by him pay-me to call upon you for the interest on this Crown Land suspense account, and I accordingly sent herewith interest schedule 1 and 2, showing a sum of eight thousand one hundred and ten dollars and seven cents ($8,110.07) due.

As your Premier has decided that it is necessary for me to report upon the Crown Land suspense account and matters pertaining thereto, would you respectfully ask your Honor to give me whatever reply you consider necessary to the questions contained in my letter to you, dated 18th June.

I will be pleased to receive a reply to this communication at your Honor's earliest convenience.

I have the honor to be, Sir, Your obedient servant, ROBERT MILLER, C.A., C.A. (Scott), F.C.A. (Can.), Auditor Hon. L. J. Tweedie, Lieut. Governor, Chatham, N. B.

In reply to the above letter I received the following telegram:

Chatham, N. B., July 4, 1908. Robert Miller, Sovereign Bank Bldg, St. James St. Montreal, Que.

Letter received, will be in Montreal Monday or Tuesday and will meet you Monday, July 6, at 3 P. M. TWEEDIE.

The KING OF DIAMONDS

By LOUIS TRACY

(Continued.) "It's a queer affair, sir. Did he really say he had lots more of 'em?" "Yes, yes! Do you think I am romancing? Perhaps they are in his possession now." "Have you any more of these stones, boy?" "Philip, with lips tensely set, was desperately cool again. He moved his arm, and the constable's grasp, tightened. "You are hurting me," said the boy. "I merely wish to put my hand in my pocket. Are you afraid of me, that you do not let me do so?" "Nonsense, like the rest, did not fail to notice Philip's diction. The scornful superiority of his words, the challenge of the final question, took him aback. He relaxed his grip and grinned confusedly. Philip instantly produced his paper and diamonds and opened it widely so that all the stones could be seen. He handed the parcel to the policeman. "Take good care of them, constable," he said. "Judging from results, they would not be safe in that man's hands. But Isaacstein did not hear the insult. When he saw the collection he nearly lost his senses. What had he done? Was he or the boy mad? Vain ideas oozed on that he clutched the desk for support. A score of a boy wandering about London with thousands of pounds' worth of diamonds in his pocket, wrapped up in a piece of newspaper like so many sweets. There were not any network of diamonds of such value in all the museums and private collections in the world. He began to perspire. Even the policeman, who had founded, quite as much as being called "constable" by Philip as by the mean appearance of articles presumably of great value. "This is a rum go. What do you make of it, Mr. Isaacstein?" he said. The query restored the Jew's wits. After all, here was the law speaking. It would have been the wildest folly for a man of his position to dabble in this mysterious transaction. With a great effort he forced himself to speak. "Lock him up instantly. This matter must be fully inquired into. And do be careful of that parcel, constable. What do you take him to? To the Bridewell station? I will follow you in a cab in five minutes." So Philip, handcuffed, was marched down the stairs past the gratified officer and out into the street. As for Isaacstein, he required brandy, and not a little before he felt able to follow.

CHAPTER V. Perplexing a Magistrate. In after years Philip never forgot the shame of that marching through the streets. The earliest siders of London's busiest thoroughfares gathered around the policeman and his prisoner with grinning callousness. "What's he bin a-doin' of?" "Nicked a boy's purse, eh?" "Naw! Bin ticklin' the till, more like." "Bilme don't 'e look sick!" They ran and buzzed around like wasps, stinging most bitterly with coarse words and coarser laughter. An omnibus slowed its pace to let them across the road, and Philip knew that the people on top scanned their necks to have a good look at him. When nearing the vicar's steps, the policeman growled something at the pursuing crowd. Another constable strode rapidly to the entrance and cut off the loiterers, sternly advising them to find some other destination. But the respite was a brief one. They reached Farrington street, and had barely attracted attention before they passed the restaurant where Philip had lunched. The hour was yet early for mid-day customers, and the bald-headed proprietor saw them coming. He rushed out. The green-coat, too, turned from his wares and joined in the exclamations of his friend at his speedy denouement of the trivial incident of 20 minutes earlier. The restaurant keeper was jubilant by this dramatic vindication of the accuracy of his judgment.

Fashion Hint for Times Readers

MILADI'S MATINEE IS MARVELOUSLY BEAUTIFUL. So costly are the materials which contribute to the makeup of Miladi's matinee costume that it is quite as beautiful as many of the costumes worn for ceremonious occasions. The pompadour silks, which are to be more than ever fashionable during the coming winter, are employed for jackets as well as petticoats, designed solely for lounging. Sometimes the skirt is of pompadour satin of the same color, or of matching the ground of the printed fabric. Much fine lace insertion is employed as well as soutache embroidered net and insets of muslin figures appliqued upon flit.

ST. JOHN MAN KILLED ON DALHOUSIE BUILDING. William Wharton, White Engaged on Mason Work Fell to His Death. The family of Samuel Wharton, 454 Main street, received word Saturday by telegram that he had been instantly killed by falling while working on mason work in a building at Dalhousie yesterday. Mr. Wharton left town seven weeks ago under contract to work for Alfred Burns, master mason, on saw mills and other buildings in Dalhousie and vicinity. He was getting along well there and in a letter which reached home on Tuesday last he made no mention of returning. The first intimation that anything had happened was the appearance of a telegraph messenger boy at the house about 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He carried the sad intelligence of death due to accident, without giving particulars. It is believed, however, that a staging gave way and Mr. Wharton fell with it. The body will be brought home this morning on the Maritime express. Mr. Wharton was a native of Chester (Eng.), and lived in St. John for twenty years. He leaves his wife and five children—Frank, Samuel, George, Teresa, and Helen—all at home. Two sisters—Mrs. William Burton and Mrs. James Toner of this city—and a brother, George Wharton, of England, also survive. Mr. Wharton was about forty-five years of age.

WHERE BIG TROUT FLOURISH. Writing from Saccanous, B. C., John B. Reid, formerly with the C. P. R. at St. John, writes: "I have had some good sport fishing this summer, when I could get an hour or two in the evening. This is considered one of the best spots for lake fishing in B. C., and the trout are beautiful, some of them weighing as much as twelve or fourteen pounds, but I did not succeed in getting more than a seven pounder. There are different varieties, silver, rainbow, gray and Dolly Varden. Of course, there are lots of our old "chubs," but they are called Squawfish here, and I guess they are not eaten by anyone except Indians, Jews and Chinks. The water is so warm now that the fishing is off, unless one uses about 500 feet of line and a pound of lead." POPULAR PICNIC. The picnic of the Carleton Methodist Church will be held to-morrow at Westfield Beach. The Westfield Outing Association races will add to the enjoyment of the outing. No pains have been spared to make this the most pleasant outing of the season. Trains leave east and west sides at the usual hours, returning at 7:30 p. m.

BABY HAD DIARRHOEA FOR SEVEN WEEKS. Thousands of infants die annually who could be saved by the timely use of Dr. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY. There can be no doubt about it. Sixty-three years experience has proved this sterling remedy to be the best for Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Colic, Cramps, Cholera Infantum, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, and all bowel troubles in both children and adults. Many of the imitations sold are positively dangerous, as they often check the diarrhoea too suddenly and cause inflammation. Always insist on the genuine Dr. FOWLER'S. Sold at all medicine dealers at 25 cents a bottle. Mrs. A. B. De Marchand, Bath, N.B., writes: "My baby was troubled with Diarrhoea for nearly seven weeks. I tried three different doctors, but none of them could do her any good. I was advised to try Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry and less than half a bottle cured her." Manufactured by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. See that their name is on the wrapper and thus insure getting the genuine.

The bride received many costly and beautiful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Byron T. Clarke will reside in Hibernia.

Hay-Sullivan. A quiet wedding was solemnized in the Methodist parsonage, 43 Duce street, at 8 p. m. Wednesday when George Hay was married to Miss Jennie Sullivan. Both live in St. John. Mr. and Mrs. Hay will reside at 205 Carleton street.

Theall-Irvine. A pretty matrimonial event was solemnized on Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Irvine, when Miss Mary A. Theall of Catham, was married to Mr. Alfred E. McPhail-McDonald. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McDonald, Shannon Vale, was the scene of a very interesting event on July 27, when their eldest daughter, Elizabeth, became the bride of George McPhail, Kincairdine, Victoria Co. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Howe Kirke in the presence of about forty guests. After the ceremony a dainty repast was served. The bride was married in white organdie and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bride's traveling dress was of gray cloth. The happy couple left on the Ocean Limited, July 24, for their future home in Kincairdine.

PICNICS YESTERDAY. St. Mary's Sunday school picnic was held at Westfield yesterday and was a noted with it are particularly pleased to have such a good report for the rector, Ven. Archdeacon Raymond, who will be home from England today or tomorrow. The attendance was larger than at any picnic of the season. The picnic was probably 500 being present. The picnic games were keenly enjoyed and all had a good time. The Fairville Baptist church picnic held yesterday at Watter's Landing proved very successful. The steamer Victoria in the morning and the Magic in the afternoon, took up large crowds, and a day of enjoyment was spent. Sports and races were warmly contested and the usual prizes for the Sunday school scholars were well-earned. The return was made on the steamer Elaine, early in the evening. The sum realized will be in the vicinity of $150.

A GREAT DETECTIVE PICTURE AT NICKLE. The Nickel still another novelty for its patrons. "The Plainclothesman," something that will appeal to nearly everybody—a good detective story in pictures, depicting the risks a plain clothes man takes when grappling with criminals in a big city. The scenes are laid in Chicago and the tracking down of the polished villain and his ramsy accomplices make most engrossing "looking." This is one of the Essanay films, the people who made the "Lord For a Day," "How the Mortgage Was Lifted," and other great picture successes shown at the Nickel. In addition to this strong feature there will be a couple of good comedies—"The Near-Sighted Professor and Awfully Mixed Up," "Miss Foley will sing her latest hit, Take a Trip to Luna With Me, and Mr. Gurney's version of "See-Saw" look wonderfully well last night.

Announcement was made, at the Nickel last evening, of the engagement of the wonderful Humanoid to commence Monday next at noon. This is a New York company of actors and actresses who will put on motion picture plays of a special character, supplying the words and incidental effects from behind a transparent curtain. It is a great New York feature and St. John will be the first in Canada to get it.

OBITUARY. Mrs. C. W. Hamilton. Salsbury, N.B., July 30.—It was learned here this morning, with deep sorrow, that Mrs. Hamilton, wife of Rev. C. W. A short service at the parsonage, conducted by Rev. Samuel Howard, of St. John, will be held, after which the body will be conveyed by rail to the deceased lady's old home at Port Elgin, when interment will take place. Because, who was the Rev. Mr. Hamilton's second wife, was formerly Miss Jessie A. Jones, of Port Elgin. She was in her 48th year, being just 47 years and 10 months old to a day at the time of her death. She was a lady whose sterling qualities made her many friends wherever her lot was cast and the deepest sympathy of this entire community goes out to Rev. Mr. Hamilton in his sad loss.

He was brought to St. John yesterday afternoon, where at the Grand Union Hotel escaped from the surveillance of the officers, jumped into a cab that was standing nearby and has not been seen since. The local police have been working on the case, but as yet no one has been found that would indicate what direction Allan took after getting out of the coach on King Square. Everett as adjutant. Every stationer has been engaged, and the trip promises to be a very enjoyable one. The Artillery band, which is accompanying the knights, will discourse music on the boat, and at Boston will participate in the two big parades and give concerts at the encampment in Franklin Park. The uniform rank contingent will be under command of Col. Alfred Dodge, with Capt. Chas. S. Everett as adjutant. The Victoria company No. 1 will be in command of the uniform rank of the order, great preparations have been made. The Supreme Lodge, which numbers 155 members, is to have its headquarters at the Hotel Somerset. The encampment of the uniform rank will be at Franklin Field where from 7,000 to 8,000 will make up the army and the Supreme Temple of Pythian Sisters will have headquarters at the Hotel Brunswick. This is the women's auxiliary and about 250 delegates are expected for the business meetings. Other branches to be represented at the general convocation are the Insurance Department Superintendents' Association, about fifty members, who will put up at the Copley Square Hotel, as their headquarters. CITY WILL LIKELY ACCEPT STREET RAILWAY CO. OFFER

To Pay $1,000 Per Month for Repairing Streets--Board of Works Will Meet Tonight to Consider It.

An adjourned meeting of the board of works will be held this evening to deal with the matter of renewing the agreement with the St. John Railway Company for keeping the streets in repair and removing the snow. Director Peters has been looking into the matter on instructions from the board to ascertain if $1,000 a month for a period of ten years, would be sufficient for carrying on the work. The director has mailed a statement to each of the aldermen showing the mileage of the road and how the money could be expended to best advantage. He reports that the total of streets laid with street railway tracks is 9.33 miles of which 4.85 miles is double track and 4.48 single track. The cost of repairs is estimated as follows:

8,816 sq. yds. block pavements.....	$6,171.26
King street and Douglas avenue.....	700.00
Remaining six miles.....	600.00
Leaving for snow clearing.....	$7,471.00
.....	$12,000.00

In the opinion of some of the aldermen who were seen, this money so expended, would keep the streets in first class repair. It has been the custom in years past to expend the money received from the railway company on general street work which accounts for the wretched condition of the streets on which the rails are laid. It is quite probable the board will decide to accept the street railway company's offer.

OBITUARY
Miss Charlotte A. Francis
 Miss Charlotte E. Francis died at her home in Greenwich on Wednesday, July 22nd. She had been a sufferer from asthma for over fifteen years, but the end came sooner than expected. Deceased who was in the 94th year of her age was a woman of exemplary Christian character and beloved by all who knew her. Besides an aged mother, two brothers and three sisters survive her. The brothers are: James A. Francis of Greenwich, with whom she resided, and William A. Francis of St. John. Mrs. Thomas H. Bacon and Mrs. McKiel of Greenwich and Mrs. Coolbroth of Portland, Me. are the sisters. The funeral which was largely attended took place at Brown's Flat on Friday, July 24th. Rev. M. C. Shewen conducted the services, the choir rendering "Rock of Ages" and "Jesus Lover of My Soul". There should be a keen interest taken in the announcement of J. N. Harvey on page 4 of this issue. A sale of men's summer shirts at such very low prices will enable those going on a vacation or with the K. of P.'s to Boston to secure a stylish coat outfit at a very small cost. British bark Alexander Black, Capt. Gritwich, arrived here Monday at Hamburg from Portland, Oregon.

PUTS ALL BASEBALL TEAMS UNDER BAN

D. B. Donald Comments on the Latest Move of the M.P.A.A.A. —Oarsmen Suspended.

The M. P. A. A. A. latest bulletin suspends all teams that have played with or against Tommy Howe.

In connection with this David B. Donald of the Marathons says that under this ruling all the teams in the St. John Baseball League, and the Amherst Ramblers were under the ban.

He also claims that because of the Small incident with St. Peter's in Halifax the St. Peter's are under the ban.

The latest M. P. A. A. A. announcement also states that the following oarsmen are suspended for competing in an annual regatta at St. John, N. B., on July 25, and also for competing against Hillon Belyes, who is under suspension by the association.

FIRST CHAMPIONSHIP GAME WILL BE PLAYED TOMORROW

The question as to who shall play in the St. John championship series is causing much comment.

BIG DOCKET IN POLICE COURT

A Number of Prisoners Faced Sitting Magistrate Henderson Today.

James Lannon, who said he belonged to Halifax was fined four dollars on ten days in jail for drunkenness.

Peter Knovodokson, a Swede, was fined four dollars for the same offence.

In Knovodokson's possession was a bank book certifying that he had a deposit totalling $224 in a bank.

John Punstron, Albert Beckman and Alfred Broe, three Swedes who accompanied Knovodokson to the city from Havre, where they were working, were arrested early this morning for being unable to give a satisfactory account of themselves.

They informed the court that they were taking a stroll about town but as there was nothing suspicious in their actions they were allowed to depart by acting magistrate Henderson. They said they intended going to Fredericton to work on the Grand Trunk Pacific construction.

Thomas Moore, a Vancouver man, who arrived from Quebec yesterday on the I. C. R., missed the outgoing C. P. R. and fell into bad company. After getting intoxicated his companions relieved him of several dollars and he was arrested. Mr. Henderson dealt leniently with him, allowing him his liberty so that he can resume his journey to his home this evening.

An endeavor to locate a missing value the property of Moore will be made by the local police.

Alexander Diggs denied assaulting Mary Jane Turner on Thursday but was convicted and will be missing from his old haunts for two months. The woman, who is white in color, swore that she struck and kicked her. She further alleged that he blacked both her eyes last week.

Thomas McNally arrested for breaking and entering the Lake of the Woods Building was remanded. There was no evidence that McNally had gained entrance by breaking so the charge will be dropped and drunkenness substituted.

William Doody was given in charge last night by his brother for being drunk and disorderly in the latter's house on Harding street and was fined twenty dollars or two months in jail. Needless to state he preferred the former in full.

Henry Doody, the brother, swore that the prisoner created a disturbance in the house between eleven and twelve o'clock last night and used profane language to him. He has been a source of continual annoyance to the family and recently his aged mother was by his disrespectful behavior compelled to remove from the house.

He has not assisted in paying for the rent or maintenance of the domicile for twenty-five years but has acted as if he controlled the destinies of the house and family.

Mrs. James Currie, of 46 Erin street, against whom charges were made by her landlady, Mrs. McDonald, and two neighbors, failed to obey the command of the court to remove from the locality.

Neither did she appear in court this morning and if she is not present at tomorrow's session a warrant will be issued for her arrest.

Frank Graves, a boy, who was very impudent to an officer of the salvage corps at the fire on Clarence street yesterday, was severely reprimanded by the sitting magistrate and in consideration of his youth a fine of twenty dollars was allowed to stand against him pending his future good conduct. Mr. Henderson emphasized the necessity of obedience to fire department officials when a fire is in progress.

George Filley an Assyrian From Portland, Me., Arrested For Wife Desertion.

George Filley a fifty-five year old Assyrian was arrested this morning at the Eastern Steamship pier at the instance of Mrs. Filley who charged him with deserting his wife and family in Portland, Me., five weeks ago and after kidnapping two of his small boys coming to this city where he is at present engaged in the fruit business on Main street. Mrs. Filley arrived here yesterday accompanied by her eldest son who is twenty-two years of age in response to a letter from one of her children whom she had brought to St. John. She had solicited the aid of the police all over America in the search for the missing trio and this morning she succeeded in securing possession of the two young lads and took them with her to the Eastern Steamship Company's wharf, where she intended to embark on the S. S. Camden for Portland. Her husband followed her to the pier and struck her several times and the passengers gave him into custody on the charge of desertion.

He was brought to court after other business had been concluded and when asked by Mr. Henderson if he would agree to support his wife and family either in St. John or Portland he replied emphatically "No no no" and no amount of persuasion could induce him to maintain his better half although he was willing to keep two youngsters that accompanied him.

Two communications from the president of Children's Protective Association of New England and Chief of Police Walter Dresser of Portland, respectively were shown to Mr. Henderson by the young man.

The former stated that the mother was the proper custodian of the children and indicated that the father was mentally unbalanced. President Whitehouse states that the family excluding the father are industrious and respectable particularly the eldest son.

The Portland chief in his missive requested the co-operation of the local department of justice on behalf of the woman intimating that the continued absence of her children might affect her mentally.

She had appeared for five weeks at the Portland police headquarters beseeching the officials to find her little ones.

She signified her willingness to Mr. Henderson to live with Filley wherever he pleased but the latter persistently refused to entertain the proposition declaring that jail was preferable to life with his wife.

The acting magistrate is undetermined as to the disposition of Filley, but for the present he will be sent into jail where he will be examined by a physician to determine his sanity. If he is of unsound mind he will be placed in the asylum or deported to Portland as an "undesirable citizen."

The couple have been wedded twenty-five years and have had ten children six of whom are living.

Filley's mania assumed the form of bitter jealousy and he has paid sums of money on many occasions to his children and others asking them to watch his wife.
