Fearful Revenge In Belfast Home Stirs Whole City

Owen McMahon and Four Sons Killed; Two Others Dying.

Seventh Escapes by Hiding Under Sofa—Uniformed Raiders Smash in Door in the Night, Take Males of the House from Bed, Line Them Up in Dining Room and Pour in a Fusillade of Shots.

(Canadian Press Cable)

Belfast, March 24.—A band of men forced their way into the home of Owen McMahon, a salaried lawyer, early this morning and shot seven members of the family. News of the raid has profoundly stirred the city. McMahon and three of his sons were killed outright, another son died of his wounds and two others are near death. The crime is thought to be in reprisal for the shooting of special constables in May street yesterday. At about 1.30 a.m. the raiders, who are reported to have worn uniforms, smashed the door of the McMahon home in the north end of the city and rushed upstairs where the occupants of the house were sleeping. The male members of the family were taken down to the living room, lined up against the wall and riddled with bullets.

The shootings were heard by occupants of a nearby house who notified the Glen-ravel street barracks. Mrs. McMahon and her daughter rushed down to the living room when the attackers departed and found the seven bodies on the floor, pools of blood, three of the bodies in a heap.

When the police arrived they found the women in a state of collapse. Ambulance crews took the victims to the hospital, where it was found that four already were dead. The matron of the hospital reports that the two wounded sons are very weak.

Another son who was ordered into the room escaped by throwing himself under a lounge and was unharmed, although his shoes were fired at him.

An ambulance attendant, although harried with scenes of bloodshed, collapsed after helping carry the bodies into the hospital.

Belfast, March 24.—A bomb was thrown in front of a residence in Sydney street last night. Hubert Johnston and his sister Susan, were wounded and had to be taken to a hospital.

SIX HOUR FIGHT IN COUNTY TYRONE

Belfast, March 24.—A six hour running fight occurred between Ulster special constables and the special forces in the vicinity of Carrickmore, County Tyrone, yesterday. The fighting started when fifty of the police, in two motor lorries, were ambushed outside the town. The ambushing party was concealed behind a gorse bank on the roadside and opened fire at a distance of 1,000 yards.

The police immediately jumped out of their cars and engaged the attacking band, which retreated across the hills, leaving a small party to hold the pursuit, which continued for several hours nevertheless, with frequent exchanges of shots.

At least five Sinn Feiners are believed to have been hit. One with a bullet in the leg was found under a bed in a house which was raided during the chase. Bullets pierced the caps of several of the specials, but none of them were wounded. A quantity of equipment dropped by the ambushing party was captured.

Belfast, March 24.—Joseph Campbell, a Belfast city official, was shot and killed by a sniper in New Lodge road this afternoon.

The only other horses to complete the course were Sergeant Murphy, the American entry and Double Escape. The three favorites in the betting, Shaun Spadah, Southampton and Clashing Arms, fell early in the race.

ESTIMATES IN COMMONS TODAY

Motion for Address Carried Without a Division—Dr. Murray MacLaren on I. C. R. Question.

Ottawa, March 24.—(Canadian Press)

—In the House of Commons the estimates will be brought down and bills on the order paper will be taken up. The senate will sit at 8 p.m. Yesterday in the House of Commons the motion for an address in reply to the speech from the throne was carried without division at 9.25 p.m. It will be presented to His Excellency the Governor General by members of the commons who are also members of the privy council. J. L. Stansell, (Conservative, East Elgin) was the last speaker of the debate. Other speakers during the afternoon and evening were L. J. Ladner, (Conservative Vancouver South), Alfred Stork, (Liberal), Skeena, J. L. Brown, (Progressive), A. E. MacLaren, (Liberal, Prince), G. H. Dickie, (Conservative, Nanaimo), J. A. Denis, (Liberal, St. Denis), Montreal, D. W. Warren, (Progressive, Strathcona), Dr. Murray MacLaren, (Conservative, St. John-Albert), M. N. Campbell, (Progressive, MacKenzie).

Dr. MacLaren urged the re-establishment of I. C. R. control at Moncton. Toronto was too far away, he said, and the management was not in touch with conditions and people using the railway. He referred to the return of the natural resources to the western provinces, saying that the other provinces should be given a chance to state their case before a decision was made. He said the inherent weakness of the government's railway policy was that they were not united on it. The government must decide whether it wanted to build up trade between the Maritimes and the rest of Canada, or to encourage business on the railway lines from the maritimes into Portland, Me.

Rodolphe Outin, recently elected by acclamation in Vancouver, was introduced and took his seat in the house. Selected and standing committees were announced.

The Senate. In the senate, Senator MacDonald gave notice of a resolution calling for the appointment of a committee on the employment situation, similar to that which dealt with the same question last year.

Senator Dandurand said that Canada had received $6,314,000 in payment of the cost of the Canadian army of occupation in Germany. The amount to be received from the German reparations committee had not yet been fixed.

WATER TROUBLES ON WEST SIDE

West St. John is having water troubles of its own today. Yesterday a break occurred in the German reparations pipe at the corner, which serves the lower part of Carleton. The pipe at this point is fifteen feet below the surface and is in sand and gravel soil, so that digging is slow and treacherous. It is expected that the crew at work on repairs will reach the pipe tonight, but on account of the depth of the trench and the soil formation night work is too dangerous.

Complaints were registered today from people living in Dufferin avenue and the vicinity that the water supply to the top floors had stopped. The West Side water department said that this was not due to the leak which was in the Spruce Lake line, but they attributed the dropping of the pressure to a heavy draught by steamers at Sand Point. Pressure is regularly forty-five pounds but this morning only thirty-nine was registered.

HOLD BACK THE NAMES FROM THE AFFIDAVIT

Dartmouth, N. S., March 24.—Because they have no knowledge that the executive of the maritime province branch of the A. A. U. of C. approved the affidavit which President A. W. Covey, of the maritime branch, had said must be signed by athletes who would retain their amateur status, the Dartmouth Amateur Athletic Club decided at a meeting last night that its members would not sign the document, pending further developments.

GERMANS KILL A BELGIAN OFFICER AS REPRISAL

Brussels, March 24.—A Belgian lieutenant in uniform was shot several times and killed yesterday by four young civilians while riding in a tramway car between Ruburort and Walsuina, in the occupied area near Dusseldorf.

A German police officer was killed in the same vicinity Wednesday by a Belgian gendarme and the Belgian authorities believe the murder of the lieutenant was an act of reprisal.

Duffy Lops Off First Base—Managers and Three Pitchers.

Some Swift Baseball—No Grace for Ruth or Meusel—Abbies and Windsor Tonight—Dempsey is Sued for $100,000.

(Canadian Press.)

Boston, March 24.—The axe was swung today at the Red Sox training camp in Arkansas. Rockeford, first baseman, and Derocher, Cassel and Fine, all pitchers, were lopped off the list of recruits by Manager Duffy. With Catcher Ruel a hold-out, the Red Sox now number thirty-four. The regulars staged a comeback yesterday and defeated the Yankees 8 to 3.

Tony Boeckel and Frank Miller were the big factors in the Braves' 8 to 2 victory over the Senators at St. Petersburg, Fla. A terrific two base drive scoring the winning run in the eighth inning and what was described as a wonderful running one-hand stop, were Boeckel's contributions. Miller pitched well on his second start after a two year layoff.

New York, March 24.—Members of the New York Giants ran themselves almost to death at San Antonio yesterday in their game against the Indianapolis American Association team, the score being 10 to 7. Every man on the team, with the exception of Jontard, made at least one hit. Young leading with four.

The New York Yankees again demonstrated their ability to defeat the Brooklyn team, which they adopted a more aggressive attack, which resulted in a 10 to 3 win in their game with the Pelicans was tempered by the information given by Judge Landis that the Brooklyn policy was that they were not to be benched until May 20.

The Brooklyn Nationals got an article beating at the hands of the New York Yankees yesterday. The Yankees got the range on Shocker's curves, and Bayne, who succeeded the St. Louis stars, was equally effective. The Brooklyn boys got four hits and two runs, while the Browns did just twice as well at the bat and on the bags.

Hockey. Charlottetown, P. E. I., March 24.—The maritime hockey championship for 1922 will be decided here tonight when the Abbeigets, one hundred per cent winners of the N. B. and P. E. I. Hockey League, will meet Windsor, the Nova Scotia champions. The ice is in fair condition. Moore, the Abbeigets' captain, and star defence man, is out of the game with an injured shoulder. McCaskey, who has been the star of the league through four hits and two runs, while the Browns did just twice as well at the bat and on the bags.

Los Angeles, March 24.—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, is being sued for $100,000 by Alexander Pantagos, proprietor of a chain of vaudeville theatres, who alleges breach of contract for stage appearances.

He alleges that Dempsey, after filling an engagement in Los Angeles, refused to continue his tour, which was to have been for twenty weeks more, but left for the east and in Boston appeared at a rival theatre. He says he would have received had Dempsey fulfilled his alleged contract, and $40,000 as publicity which he declares the champion's appearance at his theatres would have produced.

THE BANK CASE GETS TO COURT

Sir M. Allan and D. C. MacArow Summoned.

Charges Have to Do With October Financial Statement of Merchants' Bank to Department of Finance.

(Canadian Press.)

Montreal, March 24.—Judge Cusson announced today that he had "allowed" summonses to be issued for Sir Montagu Allan and D. C. Macarow. The former was president of the defunct Merchants' Bank, and the latter general manager.

Mr. Macarow appeared before Judge Cusson this morning, and the case was adjourned till March 31. Sir Montagu Allan will appear before Judge Cusson this afternoon.

The charge against Sir Montagu Allan is for having "falsely and negligently" concurred in the preparation of the October financial statement made by the Merchants' Bank to the department of finance, and which did not show that the exception of Jontard, made at least one hit. Young leading with four.

The charge against Mr. Macarow is for having "falsely and wilfully made a deceptive return to the federal government on the bank's earnings."

The Merchants' Bank was compelled to accept an offer from the Bank of Montreal to sell out when it was found that, owing to erroneous bad debts incurred in loans made to the brokerage houses of Thomson Davidson & Co. and Fairbanks, Goodwin & Co., and several commercial concerns, its rest of eight million dollars has been seriously impaired.

As Hiram Sees It

"I see," said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to the Times reporter, "when they there coal miners in Nova Scotia are going to loaf on the job the miners in the States is going to loaf off the job. I guess Mayor Schofield has to get out of the city as fast as he can. Don't it beat you how what a feller does in Pennsylvania or Kansas or somewhere else is allowed to hit us a crack here in New Brunswick?"

"Yes," said the reporter, "it's like a farmer who produces diseased milk and makes a whole street in the city sick."

Hiram eyed the reporter dubiously. "I've to loaf on the job the miners in the States is going to loaf off the job. I guess Mayor Schofield has to get out of the city as fast as he can. Don't it beat you how what a feller does in Pennsylvania or Kansas or somewhere else is allowed to hit us a crack here in New Brunswick?"

SAVES GERMAN ATTACKED BY BOWERY THUGS

New York, March 24.—Racial hatred and bitterness between Briton and Texon, bred of four years of warfare were forgotten by two men of those races here today when a British soldier—an Irishman—saved the life of a German, dangerously wounded by two Bowery thugs.

E. Sandberg, a German, was murdered last night by two men, one of whom stabbed him. As he fell, groaning to the sidewalk, John Joseph O'Brien, 66th Street Artillery, 2nd Division, British army, here awaiting discharge papers, stepped on the scene and went into action. The man nearest him he knocked, stunned and helpless, into the middle of the street, then he turned on the man who had stabbed Sandberg. That worthy he tried to leave, but O'Brien applied his boot to the fleeing thug for half a block before he was finally overpowered and captured. When O'Brien returned to the scene of the fight, the first thug had vanished. O'Brien administered first aid to Sandberg, called a taxi and ordered a fast trip to Bellevue Hospital.

Greatest Strike In History, Says Head Of Miners' Union

PROPOSED DEAL IN MANITOBA

Would Agree to Norris as Premier if Three Ministers Were Drooped.

Winnipeg, March 24.—A report is published here that sixteen opposition members of the Manitoba legislature including ten from independent farmer groups have agreed to the premiership of Hon. T. C. Norris, if the premier will drop from his cabinet Hon. T. H. Johnston, Hon. Edward Brown and Hon. J. W. Armstrong, replacing two of them by members of the new group. The suggestion is made that under this arrangement the legislature might complete its fall elected term and an election this year be deemed unnecessary.

Premier Norris is said to have told a deputation from the group that he would not abandon his cabinet ministers and that in any event the action came too late to prevent a dissolution.

General Policy Committee is Completing Arrangements in Cleveland.

Important Question is Whether District Unions will be Allowed to Make Separate Agreements with the Mine Owners—Strike Dues to Swell the $2,000,000 War Chest.

(Canadian Press.)

Cleveland, March 24.—The general policy committee of the United Mine Workers of America met here today to complete arrangements for putting into effect what international President Lewis declared will be "the greatest strike in history." The meeting was held behind closed doors but it was understood steps would be taken to finance and conduct the strike from the time it starts on April 1.

Full power to conduct the affairs of the union during the suspension of work was vested in the policy committee by the miners in convention in Indianapolis last month. The committee also has the authority to negotiate for a new wage agreement between the miners and operators.

One of the most important questions expected to be decided by the committee is whether district unions shall be allowed to enter into separate agreements with their mine owners. At their Indianapolis meeting the miners voted against regional conferences. The subject was referred to the long standing factious fight between President Lewis and Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois miners. Farrington was said to be prepared to demand that regional conferences be permitted. He is said to have many supporters.

Mine owners who live here express hopes that Lewis and Farrington will reach an agreement. They say that the future of the coal trade of the Great Lakes is affected by the agreement.

For years Ohio and Pennsylvania operators have shipped to the northwest annually on an average $20,000,000 worth of coal. The agreement would mean a loss of one hundred million dollars. They say that should the Illinois miners and operators reach a separate agreement, the Illinois mine owners would have the advantage over those of this section in furnishing fuel to the northwest. The Illinois operators have expressed their willingness to negotiate an agreement.

The policy committee was expected to arrange affairs in such shape that the strike, once it started, would run automatically. Steps also were to be taken, it was understood, which will make it unnecessary for the international officers to send out orders from Indianapolis for the committee to remain in session. Another proposal calls for the assessment of $100,000 for the purchase of two million dollars "war chest" which it is estimated is already available.

ARMY CONVENTION PROJECT MAKES A BAD SITUATION

Comment on "Open Threat of Revolution" in Ireland—Dail Ministers Look for Victory in Elections.

Dublin, March 24.—The "open threat of revolution" signified by the decision of the anti-Free Staters to hold the forbidden Irish Republican army convention on Sunday has "created a precarious position," so the London Times correspondent here declares in a despatch to his paper.

A statement by Commandant Rodrick O'Connor on Wednesday that eighty per cent of the army's members are against the treaty, however, the correspondent believes to be exaggerated. He remarks that the call for the army convention was signed by only seven of the nineteen commanders, and that the army is mainly separate divisions in Cork, Kerry and South Tipperary, where disaffection was already known to exist.

He believes that the members of the army in Dublin, the Midlands and a large part of the west are loyal to the Dail Eireann and can be trusted in any emergency, and, further, that the country is not likely to regard any vote taken at Sunday's meeting as a criterion of the general temper of the army.

No attempt to prevent holding of the meeting is looked for on the part of the army general headquarters, which is extremely anxious to avert a conflict at this critical moment, while the provisional government is confident it has the support of the country as a whole and the greater part of the army.

The Dail ministers believe the coming elections will result in a sweeping victory for the treaty and that hereafter they will be able to deal firmly with any anti-Free State convention conspiracy. The meeting place of the army convention has not been divulged.

Dublin, March 24.—A statement made yesterday by Hugh McDowell Pollock, Ulster finance minister, that the cost of special police would be borne by the British government up to a certain amount, challenged by the provisional government yesterday, to ascertain if the Ulster finance minister had a guarantee or undertaking from the imperial government on the subject.

Does Your Furniture Say: Here Is A Man of Sound Judgment?

To every friend entering your home for the first time—your furniture speaks a message about you—either good or bad. For what can a new acquaintance judge you, unless by exterior. And your furniture is surely an index to your good taste and judgment, for you yourself select it, and it reflects your individuality.

BETTER THAN HARD COAL
Soft coal so free from soot that it does not make whiskers on stove covers or pipe and does not mat or clog when burning, is 15¢ better than Hard Coal for general household use. Quicker to light, takes less to make a fire, cheaper in price and can also be used for open fires and small heating stoves. Such a coal is Broad Cove soft coal. The main thing is to insist on getting the genuine article. No other soft coal burns just like Broad Cove. You will know it by the above characteristics.

ARGUES AGAINST REDUCTION OF MARITIME RATE

Ottawa, March 24.—Saying that Montreal manufacturers work under heavy taxes totalling ten times as much as the St. John concerns, Huntley Drummond, president of the Canada Sugar Company, argued before the railways commission held yesterday in a hearing on the eastern and western freight rates appeal, against a pending application of the maritime referees for removal of the arbitrariness which prevent them from competing in the prairie west. He said that the maritime rate had received a reduction some time ago, but that not a cent of this went to the consumer, the manufacturers getting it all.

FELLOWSHIPS IN MEDICINE

Washington, March 24.—Establishment of fellowships in medicine to increase the supply of qualified teachers in medicine, in clinical and laboratory subjects and in curative and preventive aspects was announced yesterday by the National Research Council. The fellowships, supported by appropriations of the Rockefeller Foundation and the general education board, will be open to Americans or Canadians of either sex holding or qualified to hold degrees of doctor of medicine or doctor of philosophy from approved universities. The appropriations total $100,000 a year for five years. Successful candidates, to be known as fellows in medicine or of the National Research Council, will be at liberty to choose the institutions or universities in which they will work.

EAST AND WEST TRADE

Mr. J. H. Harris, member for North York, Ontario, told parliament on Wednesday that "trade in Canada must flow east and west if this country was to remain a nation within the Empire."

"From November until the end of April, the United States have almost exclusive monopoly of the transportation of Canadian grain. Navigation on the Great Lakes closes at the same time as on the St. Lawrence."

La Presse asks questions which are continually asked in St. John and Halifax, but thus far without attracting any marked attention in Ontario and the West.

YOUTHFUL DETERMINATION SHOWN BY CRIPPLED LAD

Brantford, March 24.—One of the most remarkable evidences of youthful determination has been shown by the passing of the tenderfoot scout tests by Mervyn Jackson, thirteen, who is crippled from the waist down, and has been from infancy.

Hon. P. C. Larkin, the new Canadian High Commissioner, called via New York for England. It is the Hon. Larkin's awareness that there are Canadian ports from which he might sail in comfort on such a mission.

Nova Scotia and New Brunswick will together change the rule of the road. It is suggested they may not do so till next December, but better late than never.

Whoever has called at Government House, Halifax, during the past five years and enjoyed the hospitality of Lieut. Gov. and Mrs. MacCallum Grant will join in congratulations to them and to the province of Nova Scotia that his honor's term has been extended.

MAYING

(Rev. George Scott.) As I stepped down by yon burn side, Ah me, the morn was rarely mellow, And May was at its fullest tide, Sweet May that never yet had fellow.

So fair the time the little breeze, The heavy alder catkins shaking Sighed dreamily among the trees, As one who murmurs while awaking.

I lingered by the stepping stones, And heard the brooklets vain protesting, Now faint, now high indignant tones, Far overhead the birds were nesting.

And so I lattered by the way, Ah me, such happy thoughts were flooding, Around my heart I dared not say, Such happiness might have an ending.

The Maytime scattered garlands sweet, Artistic colors interlacing, So lavishly around my feet, The shady woodland daisies grazing.

And delicate perfumes were there, To mingle with the happy singing, Of birds upon the sunny air, Sweet carillons to heaven ringing.

And so I walked by yon burn side, One morning when the woods were Maying, When loveliness flowed like a tide, Wherever breezes went a-straying.

The Maytime glory filled the vale, Its joyous life was overflowing, Upon the wilderness and swale, And on the upland pastures glowing.

The tiny brooklets fill the stream, The stream becomes a rushing river, The pleasing sweetness of a dream, Shall last forever and forever.

M.R.A.'s NOTEWORTHY WINDOW DISPLAY

The eye of the observing person passing along King St. today would immediately be caught by the unusually lovely display of furniture and house-furnishings revealed by the M. R. A. Ltd. windows. Such a display would do credit to a much larger city than St. John.

The five King St. windows are tastefully arranged to represent the library, hallway, dining room and bedroom of the modern home. Backgrounds are worked out in fabrics most in demand this season for all sorts of interior decorating; rugs are well chosen and in perfect harmony with their surroundings. The furniture used offers a surprise in the way of artistic beauty.

For instance: The fourth window coming down King St. shows a dainty bedroom. The background is wrought in blue and pink hints of bird and floral pattern. A blue washable rug is very effective as a floor covering and a suite of old ivory furniture completes the effect of a bedroom furnished in unquestionable taste.

The dining room has for its background dark cretonne in a rich blending of yellow and wood shades. A handsome rug in regular dining room pattern serves well to bring out the retiring beauty of an attractive dining suite of fumed oak.

An engaging hallway is arranged with staircase in the rear. Furniture is of old English antique oak, while rugs and stair covering blend with the entire scheme.

The window dressed to represent the living room reflects a restful atmosphere much to be desired. A big upholstered Chesterfield, some very comfortable looking wicker chairs; a walnut gate-leg table and rare oriental rugs in wondrous color tones unite in making beauty of the surroundings.

The library is in an unusual combination of grey and violet relieved by bits of color here and there. Bookcase, library table and chair are in fumed oak and floor rug is in an admirable blending of grey and black.

Three Germain St. windows are given over wholly for the display of what is newest and in popular demand for curtains, hangings, etc., as well as pieces of rare china and distinctive ornaments of various kinds. A fourth one is used for an interesting exhibit of linoleums and cloths.

Furniture store windows on Market Square offer another revelation in furniture best suited to the needs and comforts of the living room.

Altogether this comprehensive display goes to give some idea of the resourcefulness of the M. R. A. Ltd. stores and their ability to look after the needs of the home-loving public.

D. E. Lynch was instrumental in bringing about the artistic effect presented by this fine window display and was ably assisted in the work by R. MacKenzie of the store's staff.

LAWYER TAKES BLAME FOR THIS MAN'S CONVICTION

Pleas Inexperience at Trial 18 Years Ago—Irvin Cobb Joins Him in Asking for a Pardon.

Harrisburg, March 24.—Judge Hall S. Corbett of New York made a novel plea before the Pennsylvania State Board of Pardons, and his words, coupled with a letter received from Irvin S. Cobb, the writer, may bring freedom to James W. Eszell, formerly of Paducah, Ky., who was convicted of murdering William G. Porter at Newell, Fayette county, this state, on Dec. 19, 1904, and next year he was sentenced to be hanged. But the Board of Pardons then commuted his sentence to life imprisonment, and since then he has been in the Western Penitentiary.

"Had Eszell been represented by a competent lawyer at his trial," said Judge Corbett, "he never would have been convicted. He has been in prison eighteen years because he was not properly represented. I know whereof I speak, for I was his lawyer at that trial. I have never forgotten."

Judge Corbett spoke for nearly an hour. He told how Eszell, recently came into Pennsylvania from Kentucky as a telegraph operator, got into a fight with Porter, who was a railroad yardmaster, on Sept. 10, 1904, and during the scuffle cut the throat of Porter. Corbett, himself, had then just come from Kentucky, and he told the board he was young and inexperienced and that he fought for the man's acquittal in a crowded courtroom that was hostile to both him and his client.

Corbett had letters from governors, judges and congressmen attesting to Eszell's good character, and he also read a letter from Cobb, written from his sick bed at St. Bartholomew's Hospital. He wrote he had known Eszell during his boyhood days back in Paducah, that Eszell was a splendid type of American and that he knew the death of Porter was an accident. If granted his pardon, Cobb said, Eszell would resume a place of respect in the community.

Edward F. Buffey, former United States District Attorney of Pittsburgh, opposed the pardon in the name of Mrs. Porter, who was present at the hearing. The board held the matter under advisement, which will probably mean that no action will be taken before the April meeting.

SENTIMENT IN INDUSTRY.
"In the treatment and control of labor, it has seemed to me, large corporations have been governed almost entirely by cold logic to the exclusion of sentiment. Industrial life cannot run smoothly without sentiment any more than can political, or home life. Men are creatures of sentiment—or why are there sweethearts, wives, homes? And if this be correct, then the sooner we exert our efforts towards humanizing industry the better for all of us."

"The trouble dates back to the days when large organizations sprang up over night. There wasn't time to work out all details. The one measuring rod of ability and efficiency was the net corporate income. Since the labor element could not be segregated and allocated in dollars and cents in the monthly income account and balance sheet, its importance to ultimate success was at first not fully appreciated and consequently it was overlooked in the scheme of organization. It is impossible to even hazard a guess as to what the lack of adequate provision for the proper consideration of labor has cost us in industrial efficiency. That many of the dangers of the various 'isms' in industry and politics may, in part at least, be attributed to this neglect of the human equation, none will deny."—John Ritchie, President Fifth Avenue Coach Co., New York, in Forbes Magazine, N. Y.

RUMOR OF A LARGE CONTRACT WITH RIORDANS

Montreal, March 24.—There was a rumor yesterday that Sir Frederick Becker, representing the Ludgate Syndicate, is negotiating a large contract with the Riordan Company Limited. Last week Sir Frederick closed a large contract with the Saguenay Pulp and Paper Company, Officials of the Riordan Co. here refuse to discuss the matter.

INSECT SHOWER IN THE ALPS.

Caterpillars and Ants Fall on Mountain Slopes in a Snowstorm.

Geneva, March 24.—During a heavy snowstorm in the Alps recently thousands of exotic insects, spiders, caterpillars and huge ants, part of the strange shower, fell on the slopes and quickly died.

Local naturalists are unable to explain the phenomenon, but one theory is that the insects were blown in on the wind from a warmer climate.

ADDRESSED CIVIC EMPLOYEES.

The functioning of organization was the subject of an address given by F. S. A. McMillin, president of the St. John Trades and Labor Council, at a meeting of Local No. 16576, City Public Service Employees, held under the auspices of the Trades and Labor Council, last night in the Trades and Labor Council hall. J. E. Tighe, president of the New Brunswick Federation of Labor, spoke on labor legislation and E. A. Campbell, former president of the Trades and Labor Council, spoke on several matters of present day interest to labor. William Matheson, president of I. L. Those in charge were Robert Scott, Oscar Dick, F. L. Greardon, A. Nixon, Ira C. Thomas and J. F. Kelly.

Your Boy Should Have A "Jack O'Leather" or "Klothklad" Suit For Spring

Why? The reasons are, because they're better looking, better wearing, more pleasing to boys and parents alike.

Right where the wear comes—at the seat, knees and elbows—Klothklad and Jack o' Leather Suits for boys are reinforced with leather or with double cloth.

When cloth is used it is the same material inside as out. Put there to double the wear—and it does so every time.

Made of durable, well tailored, fine appearing, long wearing materials in youthful styles. Hard rough wear holds no terrors for parents who put their boys in "Jack o' Leather" or "Klothklad" Suits.

Insist on them next time. All sizes from 8 to 18 years

GIRL LEAPS FROM THE 23RD STORY

New York Office Girl Writes Will, Then Jumps to Her Death.

New York, March 24.—Despondent because of ill health, Esther Davidson, twenty-eight years old, law office employe, yesterday pencilled a will on a piece of paper and jumped from a twenty-third street twenty story window of the Times building. She fell upon a wire mesh over an 18th floor skylight, and soon afterwards died in a hospital of a broken back and other injuries.

A shower of glass tinkling down an elevator shaft when her body struck the skylight, attracted the building superintendent who found her in a sitting posture.

"How did you get here," he asked. "Jumped—but don't know how I timed enough courage," she answered, then lapsed into unconsciousness.

The street car service on the King and Britain line was held up for more than an hour and a half last night when car No. 34 ran off the track at the head of Pitt street hill and sank deeply into the road, which was very soft at that point. The other cars on the line were sent over a different route for the time.

For the sixth time Col. J. McAra of Regina was re-elected president of the Saskatchewan Command G. W. V. A., by acclamation at the provincial convention.

ALL ENJOY "PEG" IN AUDITORIUM

St. Peter's Y. M. A. Wins Honors in Presentation of Play for Orphans.

Teeming with wit and humor, with an abundance of amusing situations and a touch of pathos, "Peg O' My Heart," a bright comedy drama, proved a popular attraction in St. Vincent's auditorium, last evening. It was presented under the auspices of St. Peter's Y. M. A. for the benefit of the Catholic orphans. That it made a decided hit was evident from the continuous applause and the hearty laughter.

The cast, under the able directorship of John U. Hagerly, acquitted themselves in a most commendable manner. As "Peg," Anna G. McGarrigle scored a distinct triumph. She was a splendid choice for the part and the manner in which she spoke her lines, the ease and confidence displayed in her every action gave a realistic touch to her presentation and won for her hearty plaudits from all. The part was a difficult one, and her acting would have done credit to many of greater experience.

Miss Isabelle A. Gormley as Mrs. Chichester, was a typical unapproachable member of the aristocracy, whose efforts to curb the spirit of "Peg" proved unavailing. The part called for clever acting and was in capable hands. Miss Gormley added a touch of humor to those already won in amateur circles.

Miss Mary L. Sharkey, as Ethel, Mrs. Chichester's daughter, played in a capable manner. She was especially good in emotional scenes, which called for her best efforts.

Miss M. Frances Grannan, as Bennet, a maid, took advantage of a small but important part. She has a pretty stage appearance and bids fair to become a fixture in amateur theatricals.

The success achieved was in no small part due to the untiring efforts of J. U. Hagerly, who directed the production. It was his second venture in this capacity and the results speak for themselves. In addition he played the leading role and his wise experience and versatility stood him in good stead. Despite his responsibilities, he gave his usual clever interpretation and added to his long list of successes.

William D. O'Connor gave a clever portrayal of Alaric, a young aristocrat. There was a hint of comedy in his lines, and he brought it out so efficiently that he had the audience waiting for his next move or saying, and won a good share of the plaudits.

Frank T. Doherty, as Christian Brand, had an unsympathetic role, but won hearty commendation from all. He showed a big improvement over previous efforts and received due credit for his clever acting.

F. Edward Martin made a favorable impression in the role of Montgomery Hawkes, a solicitor, as did David A. Howard as Jarvis, a footman. Both made much of small parts and shared in the success achieved.

During the intermissions music was furnished by St. Peter's Y. M. A. orchestra. The play will be repeated this evening and again on Saturday afternoon, and from present indications will attract capacity houses.

generally show an increase in business, attributable to the improved purchasing power and mental attitude of the farmer, due to the rise in agricultural prices.

Wholesale trade is generally reported to be better, although a considerable degree of caution wisely prevails. The rate of iron and steel production has increased, but the volume of forward orders still remains restricted. Immediate demand for boots and shoes is less active and quiet sections of the shoe and leather trade continue to lag. The cotton textile situation is handicapped by strikes in the New England cotton mills. Wool manufacture is operating at a fair rate, although the demand for woolen and worsted fabrics has been disappointing. There has been a marked increase of activity in the manufacture of automobiles, tires and accessories. Car loadings have increased materially during recent weeks. Exports are at low level, but this is normally the season of a light export movement. Business failures have declined in number since the beginning of the year. The past month has shown improvement in fundamental conditions, and consequently in business sentiment, as has been the case each month since mid-summer of 1921. The period of extreme discouragement in the United States has now passed and there is widespread and justified confidence in the long future.

BUDGET DEBATE DRAGS ALONG; MORE TO COME

Fredericton, March 23—The many benefits derived by the people of this province from health legislation enacted by the present administration, was fully reviewed in the house this afternoon by Dr. L. M. Curran, member for St. John county, who, in continuing the debate on the address, pointed out just what had been accomplished by the health act of 1918. It was a plain recital of plain facts and answered in no uncertain manner recent criticisms that had been made of this measure. Dr. Curran told of the 41,000 school children examined under the act, explained the work of the laboratory at St. John, which was self-sustaining and did not cost the government one cent, and also explained the great benefit of the free clinics throughout the province had been to poor people. Serum had been another necessary service had been established. He also forecast some amendments to the act that would place it more in favor with the people. Speaking of the prohibition act, Dr. Curran said that while the theory was an excellent one and the act had done good, he felt that a change should be made in controlling the liquor sales. The first speaker of the day was C. Richards, leader of the opposition, who, in a long involved speech of two hours' duration, delved into many facts and figures pertaining to the finances of the province, but did not throw much additional light on the situation. He incurred with Hon. Mr. Magge regarding educational conditions and the need for an educational survey. He also paid tribute to Hon. Mr. Byrne for the able and energetic manner in which he filled his office. When the house resumed in the evening...

LUX For Soft Blankets!

Famous blanket manufacturers recommend Lux because the thin, satin-like flakes, specially made by our own exclusive process, dissolve so instantly and thoroughly that no particle of solid soap remain to stick to the wool to yellow or rot it.

The best way to wash blankets:

Use Lux in the proportion of two table-spoonfuls of Lux to half a gallon of water. Whisk into a thick lather in very hot water. Add cold water until suds are luke warm. Work your blankets up and down in the suds repeatedly through the soiled spots. Do not rub. Rinse the blankets in three lukewarm waters. Pass through a loose wringer or squeeze the water out. Do not twist. Dry in the shade in a moderate temperature.

Lux is sold only in sealed packets—dust-proof!

The Price Label in the Coat Pocket

Inside the inside breast pocket of the Semi-ready garment is the trade name and the exact value of each garment.

Without the name "Semi-ready" no garment can be warranted genuine Semi-ready tailored by the Semi-ready Company.

For a quarter of a century this fair price policy has protected the Buyer from spurious imitations.

The price is based on the cost of the cloth in the garment. The higher the cost per yard the higher the cost of the garment. And expert judges of wool and fabric value know what the cloth is worth as well as what it costs.

LIGHTS ON HYDRO

Power Co. Friends Search the U. S. for Propaganda Against Municipal Ownership.

To the Editor of The Times:
Sir,—There has been circulated anonymously a little pamphlet, which on first glance looks like Manna from Heaven (manufactured, we suspect) for the Power Company.

The pamphlet contains a synopsis of a report prepared by two American engineers, Messrs. Murray and Flood, which aims to establish as a fact that privately-owned electric utilities are better and more economical than publicly-owned electric utilities. Synopses are generally speaking apt to be misleading and when the synopsis consists of a mass of carefully-selected portions of the whole and is dish up by an agency which is known to be absolutely biased and has a motive in creating a desired impression, then it must be looked upon with absolute mistrust.

At the outset it states that government ownership and management of electric utilities as exemplified by the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario is not a success in the matter of either service or cost. I wonder what the customers of the H. E. P. C. of O. think of this. In any case I think we can safely assume that Ontario has, by the early adoption of the principle of public ownership, taken time by the forelock and gained many years' start on any development that might have come through private exploitation of her water powers. The H. E. P. C. of O. has at least the full sympathy and support of the Ontario public and their achievement stands as their justification.

The industrial growth, stability and prosperity of Ontario vindicates the faith of the people who backed them. It then goes on to admit that while the H. E. P. C. of O. has displaced certain private utilities whose operation was far inferior to it, yet no such system is applicable in the U. S. because it is subservient to American policy and custom. The same argument can scarcely be assumed to hold for St. John.

The most important deduction made is that privately-owned utilities, with rates under the control of public service commissions (we presume similar to our municipal utilities board) furnish the only viable means of administering a public utility while at the same time protecting the shareholders of the utilities which are at present serving the public. We admire the frankness of this admission. However, in view of our past bitter experience, we are not particularly interested in protecting stockholders to our own detriment, nor have we much faith left in the protection afforded by our legislative bodies in the matter of rates. If the Power Company today were earning all the dividends allowed them by the decision of the supreme court we would be paying even higher rates than we are paying today. Lack of suitable opportunity is all that has protected us from their further extortion.

It claims that public ownership eliminates all incentive to gain and throttles initiative. Well, lack of initiative and an abnormally developed incentive to gain on the part of the Power Company are the prime causes of our trying to unshackle ourselves from the Power Company.

The report bluntly states that "privately-owned and operated companies in every case are delivering power to their customers at a considerably lower cost per K. W. H. than is the case with government electric utilities." I wonder what power users in Toronto, Hamilton and a host of other Ontario cities think of this. The city of Toronto had hydro power distributed by a private company and undertook its own distribution of the same power in competition with the company, with the result that they cut the rates about half. Hamilton, I believe, showed a still greater saving under public ownership.

It states that private ownership in Quebec delivers power at a cost thirty-two per cent. lower than in Ontario under public ownership, and that in Quebec eighty-four per cent. more power is used than in Ontario. I think the latter explains the former.

Why do they go out of the way to compare Ontario with Quebec? Why not give some figures illustrating the reduced rates established in cities like Toronto, Hamilton, etc., after private distribution of electrical energy had been abolished in favor of distribution by the municipalities of the same energy?

That is the proper basis of comparison if we are to arrive at a true appraisal of the merits of public ownership. St.

John at present is confronted with the necessity of deciding between public and private ownership of power distributed locally, and not with the merits of private ownership in Quebec or the U. S. A. as against public ownership in Ontario, in which cases the conditions of load, operation, etc., are widely different.

The whole report seems to base its arguments and conclusions on the urgent need of conserving and protecting the privately-owned utility interests. We base our arguments and conclusions on the fact that it is the public interest which is entitled to first consideration, and we take it that the public is not to be considered as consisting solely of holders of stock in utility corporations. That class will have to look elsewhere than to the people for sympathy and protection for what they are pleased to consider their rights.

The organized campaign against public ownership is not confined to St. John nor to Canada, but is practically worldwide. We look for backers of such a movement in the ranks of those whose interests lie with the corporations whose field of operation is or is apt to be infringed upon by the application of public ownership to public utilities.

MR. HAYES SPEECH
Fredericton Mall—Mr. R. T. Hayes, one of the members for St. John City, does not often speak in the House, when he does take part in a debate he says something. His speech of yesterday was one of the most interesting and comprehensive which has emanated from a private member during the present session. Mr. Hayes is a broad gauge representative, who seems to be anxious to promote the welfare not only of the constituency he so worthily represents, but of the province as a whole.

ANGLICANS AND UNION.
Bishop Clark, delivering his annual charge to the Anglican Synod of Niagara this week, said the past year had been one of progress. As to the church union, the bishop said it ought to be clear to thoughtful workers in this great cause that the end in view would require much time as well as patient waiting for its attainment.

Suicide and Murdered Man Buried With Impressive Ceremonies.

Galt, Ont., March 24.—The double funeral of the murderer and victim of Saturday night's tragedy at 22 Shade street took place on Tuesday afternoon, and was very impressive. During the day hundreds of men and women viewed the remains, each body reposing in a grey casket, both the same, but there was an absence of flowers. Hundreds of curious people lined the streets, to watch the cortege.

Verun and Klatsorny, the dead Russians, were given a recent burial, many fellow countrymen, friends of the former, attending his burial at Mount View cemetery. Rev. W. H. Snelgrove, Anglican clergyman, conducted a service at the undertaking establishment, and also at the graveside. Both bodies were interred in the same grave, side by side.

SOLDIERS WIN
ANOTHER GAME

Trim Times Team by Two-pin Margin—Win Two of Three-Game Series.

Sound the last post! Fire a volley and here your heads, ye valiant soldiers of the pen! For yesterday your trusty Knights of the Candle Pin for the second time suffered complete and ignominious defeat at the hands of the kind-hearted members of the R. C. A. S. C. and their hopes, badly mangled and shot absolutely full of holes, flickered for a moment, gasped, gave up the ghost and were laid to rest with full military honors.

It was a disastrous day for the might of the pen. With honors even in two previous contests, there was the possibility that the sage who said something about the pen being mightier than the sword would be justified. But his range of vision into the future was limited or he might have amended his wise saw to read, "Verily I say unto you, the pen is mightier than the sword, but the motor truck has it over the typewriter like a tent."

The encounter took place on the Victoria alleys and was fought out in three phases. In the first the khaki boys emerged with a thirty-three pin margin over the Times aggregation. The latter had four of its regular crew on the firing line reinforced by a recruit whose sole claim to being a news hound was the fact that he once wrote a bidch or howling notes that appeared in these columns. The soldiers were anchored by their genial and arm-waving Captain Winter.

The scribes annexed the second and third sections of the argument and when the grand total was amassed, it was found that they failed to gain the top dog by two solitary, mean, miserable, etc., etc., pins. So they were compelled to stand to attention and acknowledge superiority to the khaki from the armory. None of the scores were brilliant—strange alleys, different balls from ours, and all that sort of thing you know—but it was a good game and the spirit of rivalry at all times was just what it should be in the best regulated families. There are hopes of another game. We hate to publish the scores but here they are—

IMPOSTERS DUPE AMERICAN PUBLIC
Use Romance Surrounding R. C. M. P. to Better Financial Position.

Ottawa, March 24 — The romantic atmosphere surrounding the "riders of the plains," which has been lately played up in books and moving pictures of Canada, has led to the duping of the American public by a number of imposters. By representing themselves to be officers of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police these imposters have been able to gain entry to the best families of the United States to better themselves financially. Commissioner A. P. Perry stated that a number of such cases have been brought to his notice of late by inquiries received from different police forces across the border. In each case it was found that the person was an imposter and had never belonged to the force.

News was received last week of a man claiming to be a Captain Mackay, a member of the R. C. M. P. and an ex-Canadian army officer, who had been conducting a lecture tour throughout the New England states during the last few months. Travelling under false colors he has been the guest of honor at a number of banquets and banquets presided over by governors of states and mayors, and is even alleged to have been received by President Harding.

Warned to Leave State.
Boston, March 21 — Daniel A. Mackay, who, styling himself a former captain of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, related his supposed experiences to many New England gatherings, gained the confidence of Governor Coolidge and Mayor Peters, and headed municipal committees, has been advised to leave the state, it was said at the office of the commissioner of public safety today.

Twenty-five of the stones ranged in size from two to twelve karats, eight weighing more than eight karats. Most of the gems were unset, but fifteen were set in platinum rings of elaborate designs.

In connection with speaking at the meeting he said that he would decide that question in the meantime.

MRS. AMELIA AUSTIN.
The death of Mrs. Amelia Austin occurred this morning at her home, 108 Pitt street. She was the widow of Henry A. Austin, who died by one son, Ralph Waldo of Saskatchewan; one daughter, Miss Edna, at home, and one sister, Mrs. G. E. King of Ottawa. Mrs. Austin was an active member of Centenary church, and until lately was a member of the boards of the Protestant Orphan's Home, the Home for Inebriates, and the Old Ladies' Home, and always took a deep interest in the work and welfare of those institutions. A very successful concert and basket social was held last evening by the King's Daughters' Circle of St. Philip's church. The programme of songs and readings delighted the audience. A feature was an instrumental trio in which Miss Blanche Stewart, with her mother accompanied her father and Professor McCallum. Although young, Miss Stewart is an accomplished performer. The pastor acted as chairman. After the concert a large number gathered at the parsonage to spend a social time and the well filled baskets were disposed of. The large sum raised goes toward the church fund.

ASSESS ON HALF IN EACH PLACE.
Suggested Settlement of City and County Taxation Matter—A Question of Franchise Involved.

The mayor expressed the opinion this morning that the city commissioners and the county councillors would reach mutual ground in the settling of the matter of taxation brought out by a proposed bill presented to the legislature this week. It was understood today that the matter would be settled on the basis of the terms of the St. John commission government act, which enables the city to assess non residents working in the city on one-half of their income. The county may assess on the other half, making the total tax of the individual no more than at present. The mayor said there might be other points raised, but he thought an amicable settlement was in sight.

Asked how that would affect the franchise of the taxpayers involved, Commissioner Bullock said he saw no reason why, under the suggested scheme, a man should not have a vote in both city and county. He said that property owners in the county, paying a city income tax had a double vote and this should apply in the same manner.

IS SENT UP ON BIGAMY CHARGE

Grant Committed for Trial This Morning.

Evidence Given as to Marriage at St. Matthew's—Other Woman Says That He Married Her in 1912—Opium Case Continued.

Preliminary hearing in the case against Alexander Clark Grant, charged with bigamy, was finished in the police court this morning with the evidence of the minister who performed the second ceremony and the defendant's alleged first wife. Grant was committed for trial at the sitting of the supreme court next week.

Rev. W. H. Spencer of St. Matthew's Presbyterian church, Douglas avenue, identified the defendant as the man who had come to him on February 23 with a license and a request to be married. He gave his age as thirty-nine, and said the girl he wished to marry was Miss Whipple of West St. John and that her age was thirty-two years. His name, he said, was Alec Clark Grant, not Alexander. The defendant notified Miss Whipple, and she arrived with two others in about half an hour. He then performed the usual marriage ceremony, witness said, and gave two certificates of marriage to the woman.

Mrs. Nettie Beatrice Grant testified that she was now living with her three children at St. Andrews. The defendant was her husband, she said. They had been married on April 2, 1912, at St. Stephen's church in Winnipeg by Rev. Charles W. Gordon—popularly known as Ralph Cannon—and had lived near there for some time. She had been separated from her husband for about three years, she said, and as far as she knew there was no agreement of separation and there had been no divorce proceedings instituted by either party.

In the absence of Sergeant Detective Power the case for the prosecution was rested here. The defendant said nothing in answer to the charge and was committed for trial. McC. Ritchie and C. F. Inches appeared for the defence.

The case for the prosecution against Hum Sek, charged with having opium in his laundry on Prince Edward street, and Hum Woo charged with being an inmate of the laundry, was finished this morning when the Dominion policeman and Detective Biddiscombe gave evidence.

The Dominion policeman was recalled to the stand and read a report of analysis of the substance found in the defendant's room which he had received from the analyst in Halifax. It showed that the substance was opium prepared for smoking purposes.

Detective Biddiscombe testified that he had accompanied the first witness to the laundry on the day after the defendant had been arrested and had discovered there a can, produced in court, which was in a box high up on the wall. They also found some pipes, scales, lamps and other things used for the smoking of opium.

E. S. Ritchie, for the defence, said that he understood from Hum Sek that he had a certificate allowing him to use the drug on the grounds that he was an addict. Whether this was legal or not, he did not know. He asked for a postponement for investigation of this. E. Henneberry, for the prosecution agreed and the case was set over until Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Boy Andrews was committed for trial this morning on a charge of offences against young boys. Detective Biddiscombe testified that he took the man's fingerprints and forwarded them to Ottawa, receiving word from there that they were those of a man sentenced at Fredericton to three years in Dorchester penitentiary for obtaining money under false pretences and who was then known as H. E. Baker.

Two men pleaded guilty to charges of drunkenness and were remanded to jail.

ROADS CLOSED TO MOTOR TRAFFIC

Thaw Precautions Put Into Effect—Four Constables on Roads Leading from City.

The re-appearance of Provincial Constable Robert Crawford on the Marsh road this morning was taken as a sure sign that spring had indeed arrived. He was not there, however, to check the speed of those motorists who delighted in an occasional burst, but to stop them altogether. In accordance with the ruling of the provincial department of public works, all roads are now closed to motor traffic to allow the frost to come out without being damaged. Horse-drawn loads are also restricted to 4,000 pounds. A staff of men were put at work this morning to see that this regulation was carried out. Besides Constable Crawford there is a man on the Loch Lomond road, one on the Westfield road and another on the Spruce Lake road.

ICE BEGINS TO LEAVE RIVER

That the St. John river will be open for navigation within a week or ten days was the prediction of a former river steamer captain this morning. He said that he came down yesterday and noticed that there was still seven or eight miles of ice holding in the Reach, but a large stretch of open water near Falmouth wharf. The ice in the Reach, he said, shows signs of breaking away along the shores and if weather conditions were favorable should soon break up and float out. Large quantities of ice came down river this morning and at times almost blocked the Narrows. The ice in the Kennebecas river is also badly honeycombed and is unsafe for crossing. At some points men are still walking across, but at others it is considered too dangerous.

THE PRICE OF LUMBER.

The Fredericton Gleaner says that lumber prices there are fifty to sixty per cent below the peak of two years ago, one line that sold for $82 to $85 then being now $20, with similar though somewhat less reductions in other lines.
