E. A. Lancaster Serves Notice That He Will Quit

Member's Action Likely to Renew the Agitation Begun and Dropped Last Year for $4,000 Sessional Indemnity—Borden Blocked Followers' Previous Move.

Ottawa, July 16.—The Evening Free Press says: "It is probable that during the next session of parliament action will be taken by the members to urge upon the dominant government the advisability of increasing the sessional indemnity, which is now $2,500. The agitation will receive some support from the action of Mr. E. A. Lancaster yesterday, in declining to continue as the member for Lincoln, which he has represented in the commons for fourteen years, on the ground that he cannot afford it."

FEW MURDER CASES. Trials in St. John Within Memory of Present Generation Do Not Exceed Half a Dozen—Italian Tragedy North Street Four Years Ago.

Few murder trials have blotted the memory of St. John within the memory of the present generation. Older residents recall the tragic murder of the MacKenzie family by a man named Slavio on the Lockport road and later the murder of a young girl by John A. Munroe and his subsequent execution.

The killing of Willie Doherty, a member of the tan yard gang, by one of his companions, Frank Higgins, in Rockwood Park, occurred in the summer of 1902 and the latter is now serving a life sentence in Dorchester for the crime. Associated with Higgins was Fred Goodspeed, who was given a short term in the Boys' Industrial Home.

Shortly before Isaac Oulton, an old man living the life of a hermit in Douglas avenue and reputed to be wealthy was done to death, and although some suspicion was felt that the tanyard gang may have had something to do with this, no charge was ever made. An elderly lady was snatched and taken to the said Cove road one night about fifteen years ago but no arrest was ever made.

Comparatively recent date was the North street tragedy of 1910 when in June of that year Diego Sivusca, an Italian keeping a little store there, was slain by Giovanni Rossi, a fellow counsellor, in a quarrel over a girl. Sivusca succumbed to his wounds after the police were summoned and Rossi was retained in case and on the third trial the charge was changed to manslaughter and a very light sentence imposed.

The ingenious defence made by J. B. M. Baxter, the prisoner's counsel, who Rossi had been taunted into firing the fatal shot, through slighting remarks made by the victim had its effect in the failure to establish a case of murder.

MADAWASKA WANTS LARGER ROAD GRANT. Edmundston, N. B., July 9.—The Municipal Council of Madawaska county, in semi-annual session this morning with all the councillors in attendance. Warden D. L. Daigle was in the chair. The greater part of the session was taken up by the presentation of the report and accounts of the secretary-treasurer.

An unusual feature of the afternoon's session was the presentation of the report moved by Dr. F. H. Laporte and seconded by Coun. Nadeau, of St. Francis. Whereas, the greatest need for the well-being and advancement of Madawaska county is the improvement in its present roads and a number of new roads and lands being opened up, and whereas, notwithstanding the lack of means for transportation and poor condition of the roads, the county of Madawaska, according to the official census increased in population in the brief period than any county in the province, and the increase for Madawaska county alone was nearly twenty-five per cent of the total increase of the province of New Brunswick, between 1901 and 1913, and whereas, several new settlements have been opened up in the recent past, and whereas, in proportion to the population and the requirements of the county, less money has been received by provincial grant than any other county in the province, the total amount granted in the year 1913, being $3,700.00, a considerable reduction over the previous year, although the needs were greater, and whereas, many settlers have been obliged to abandon lands taken and improved by them, by reason of the want of passable roads, and be it resolved by the county council of the County of Madawaska, that this council do memorialize the Lieutenant Governor in Council to give a greatly increased grant, for the improvement of the present roads and opening up of new roads in the county of Madawaska, and further that such grant, in order to be in proportion to the grant to other counties in the province, should be at least two or three times the amount received by the county in the year past, and that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Minister of Public Works for the province of New Brunswick.

Dr. Laporte, who is President of the Good Roads Association for the county of Madawaska, made a brief address in support of the resolution, and pointed to the discrepancy between the $3,700 road grant allotted to the county of Madawaska, and larger grants to smaller counties. This resolution was unanimously passed.

Another resolution of Dr. Laporte, asking for a $50 grant to the Good Roads Association, was defeated on the ground that the councillors had no authority to grant public money without the ratification of the public authority.

HOT WEATHER AILMENTS. A medicine that will keep children well is a great boon to every mother. This is just what Baby's Own Tablets do. An occasional dose keeps the little stomach and bowels right and prevents sickness. During the hot summer months stomach troubles speedily return to fatal diarrhoea or cholera infantum and if Baby's Own Tablets are kept at hand a child may die within a few hours. Wise mothers always keep the Tablets in the house and give to their children an occasional dose to keep their little stomach and bowels in good order. Don't wait till baby is ill—the Tablets may cost a precious life. Get the Tablets now and you will feel reasonably safe. Every mother who uses the Tablets praises them and she is the best evidence that there is no other medicine for children so good. Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or sent by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Co., Brockville, Ont.

The Des Moines and Paducah of the American fleet, are lying just off the mouth of the river. Captain Panahaw, of the Bristol, does not know whether the honor of conveying the Huerta family out of Mexico is his, but it is generally assumed that it will be. His instructions are to afford asylum in case of trouble, and notwithstanding the fact that no trouble has occurred, Senora Huerta, Senora Blouquet and the other women decided to accept the offer of his hospitality. Captain Erich Koeler, of the Dresden, also has orders to place his boat at the disposal of the Huerta and Blouquet. The arrival at Puerto Mexico of the ex-president and the ex-minister is looked for between 8 and 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. It is expected they will take the Dresden and Bristol to carry the refugees to some neutral port, where they can transfer to a regular steamer for Europe.

Huerta and Party Flees. Mexico City, July 16.—When General Victoriano Huerta and a large party of his friends, composed of former ministers of state and prominent officials of his administration, attempted the special train during the night of their flight to Puerto Mexico, a strong escort of the 98th Mexican federal infantry accompanied them. This is the regiment which has always been renowned for its loyalty to the departing former dictator, and which had always formed his special guard at the national palace. Only a few persons were at the station to witness the departure, which evidently had been carefully prepared. A-Except that he told me that he did not. Q-You were the eighty-three shares of Maine & N. B. stock sold? A-That is a question I would prefer not to answer. The gentleman is responsible, he is not connected with any of the parties to this case, and I do not want to reveal his private affairs. M. G. Teed also objected. Com. Fisher—if Mr. Teed can assure me that the purchaser was not connected either directly or indirectly with any person connected with this case I think we might let it go. Witness—All I can say is that the purchaser came to me and said he understood I had some securities which were paying pretty well and he was willing to buy them. I wanted to sell, so we made the transfer. I also sold twelve shares to the Eastern Securities Company and I don't know for whom they were selling. Q-At what price did you purchase the Brantford stock? A-I cannot tell, but I can tell you what it stands. Q-Does it show a profit or loss? A-At a loss, I think. My recollection is that they were purchased in different lots. The total price was $3,621. Q-At what price did you purchase the stock now? A-About 72. Q-Was there a profit on Detroit? A-A small loss. Q-How do you still the fifty shares of Southern Pacific? A-Yes, that is changed up at $4.648, about 90. It is quoted this morning at $4. (Continued on page 9.)

THE SOUTHAMPTON RAILWAY. Why should all the blame for the condition of affairs revealed in the Southampton-Railway inquiry be laid at the door of Mr. James K. Pinder? It had been shown that the double subsidy should never have been paid for this railway, but it is Mr. Pinder the only individual who was aware of the fact before the application for the subsidy was made?

E. R. TEED SWEARS IT WAS FLEMMING WHO PUT HIM IN CHARGE OF THE BONUS CRAFT FUND

HE LOANED $15,000 OF FUND TO FLEMMING'S LUMBER COMPANY

Flemming Negotiated That Unsecured Loan—Thousands More Went to Pay Gould Stocks From Flemming and When Teed Was Dangerously Ill He Gave Flemming Duplicate Key to Safety Deposit Box That Held the Boodle—A Dramatic Day at the Inquiry—J. A. Rundle Paid the Money Because Berry Said Surveyor-General Ordered It—A Flyer in Stocks By Teed—More to Follow—Louison Lumber Co. Paid $2,000.

Wednesday, July 15.
E. R. Teed, of Woodstock, told yesterday before the Dugal commission how he "held the bag" for Premier Fleming. His memory was noticeably bad at times—but he remembered enough.

He swore that it was Fleming who asked him to take over the timber graft fund levied by Berry, and Teed told how he did so, how he collected it, how he deposited it, how he loaned $15,000 of it to Fleming's lumber company, the loan being negotiated by Fleming, how some thousands of the fund were used to buy Gould stocks from Fleming, and so on.

E. R. Teed is the man whom the premier said was "all right," and the man to whom Mr. Brankley's payments have been traced. He was the star witness of the day. Apart from serious lapses of memory at times, Teed made an excellent witness, and his story was one of the most interesting ever related in the old court house.

It was at Premier Fleming's request, Teed swore, that he agreed to act as treasurer of the fund. The premier told him that the lumbermen of the province "were getting up a fund for party purposes," according to information conveyed to him by H. Berry. As Berry was a crown official, Mr. Fleming said he thought it would not be proper for him to handle the funds, and so he asked his intimate friend, Mr. Teed, to hold the bag.

To oblige the premier, Teed consented, and he told of jaunts around the province, to Chatham, to Newcastle and to St. John, to get the cash. The money was handed to him in large amounts at various times and placed by him in a safety deposit box.

At the afternoon session Mr. Teed continued the tale. Again the name of Premier Fleming kept bobbing up at regular intervals in connection with the fund. Although the witness said that he never told the premier the total amount of the fund, he did tell him many other things, about where it was kept, when it was withdrawn, how it was invested, and so on.

WHEN TEED WAS SERIOUSLY ILL IT WAS TO PREMIER FLEMMING THAT HE SENT THE KEYS TO THE SAFETY DEPOSIT BOX, SO THAT HE COULD GET THE FUNDS IF ANYTHING HAPPENED TO TEED.

Although voluminous explanations of the incidents were given, the fact remains that large amounts of money from this fund did actually reach the premier's hands, according to the evidence so far given. In one case it is said that the money was paid for eighty-three shares of stock in one of Mr. Gould's electric railways, at $10, amounting to more than $900. While Teed swore that he got the stock from the premier in return for the money, no transfer of the stock was made on the books of the Gould company. As Mr. Stevens suggested, Teed might have handed the certificates back to Fleming at any time.

Mr. Fleming got $15,000 more out of the fund as a loan. Teed swore that which the witness received the company's unsecured notes. This note was afterwards paid up in several instalments, most of them after the Dugal charges had been made.

The witness declares that the fund is still intact, and that he had a statement showing how it is invested. The earnings were kept in a separate fund from which, he readily admits, he paid several bills for party expenses, the details of which he says that he should not be compelled to relate. He admitted that Brankley's testimony concerning the famous visit to Premier Fleming's room in the Barker House at Fredericton was correct.

When the commission adjourned Teed was still on the stand, and another chapter of his abstruse story will be given this morning.

In view of Teed's evidence, it is not so surprising that another witness, James A. Rundle, of Newcastle, should be able to tell the story he gave to the commission earlier in the morning as to his payment of $332 to the fund.

"MR. BERRY SAID I HAD TO PAY IT. HE SAID HE HAD ORDERS FROM THE SURVEYOR-GENERAL TO COLLECT IT," WAS MR. RUNDLE'S EVIDENCE, AND "THE GOVERNMENT SENT ME OVER TO GET IT" IS ANOTHER STATEMENT HE ATTRIBUTES TO BERRY.

Charles L. Fenderson, of the Louison Lumber Company, also told of making a payment of $2,000 to Berry after the latter had informed him that his license would not cost $150, as at first intimated. He said "because they had trouble with the government in the past." He was told the government expected him to pay.

The evidence given of payments to Berry and the amount which Teed says he received make a total of $71,665. Of this amount payments of only $66,284 have been traced through the evidence of the men who furnished the cash.

Morning Session.
When the session opened Mr. Carvell announced to the court that he had asked the secretary for the evidence in the timber lands charges and had been informed that none was available, and asked why this was.

The official reporter replied that he had not had time to transcribe his notes. Mr. Carvell said he and his colleagues were ready to go ahead, and complete their evidence, but he did not think they should be asked to close the case until they had an opportunity to see the previous evidence.

John E. Moore, called and sworn, examined by Mr. Carvell:
Q—Mr. Moore, what is your occupation?
A—I am in the lumber business.
Q—Where do you live?
A—in St. John.

Q—Are you the owner of any crown timber lands?
A—I am.
Q—How much have you got?
A—Personally, I own 289½ square miles. The firm of John E. Moore, Limited, 18, and John E. Moore and W. White together, 96½.

Q—Did you renew those licenses under the terms of the Timber Lands Bill of 1913?
A—I did.
Q—What bonus did you pay?
A—Seventy-five dollars a mile.

Q—You were classed under Class B, then?
A—Class B.
Q—Did you pay anything in addition to $75 a mile?
A—Nothing.
Q—Were you asked by Mr. Berry to pay anything in addition?
A—I was not.

Q—Evidence was given here at the former investigation by Mr. Stevens, A—That bank draft—I am not positive whether it came from the mail or whether Mr. Berry brought it to be endorsed.

Q—Wouldn't you think Mr. Berry brought it with him?
A—I am not positive, but my recollection is that he brought the draft, and that it was paid separately. He had charge of the manufacturing end. The company has about 183 miles of crown timber lands and sixteen with the Bathurst Lumber Company. The license was renewed in 1913, under class B at $75 a mile. The payments were made from the office of the company in Springfield, Mass., and he could not say where they were paid separately. He had given instructions for the payments.

Q—Did you have any talk with W. H. Berry about the matter?
A—No.
Q—You have known Mr. Berry for several years as chief scaler?
A—Yes.
Q—Did you ever have occasion to question his scale?
A—No.
Q—Were subjected to this as immaterial but the questions were allowed.

Q—Did you protest to the government?
A—No.
Q—With what result?
A—We had to pay according to the scale.
Q—Then the government always stood by Mr. Berry?
A—Yes.
Q—Did he tell you what he had done with the money?
A—No.
Q—The disposition of the three amounts?
A—I don't know what disposition was made of it, but there was a large amount which Mr. Berry said was paid to Mr. Teed.

Q—What payment was that?
A—$2,000 from Stetson, Cutler & Company.
Q—He said he paid that to Mr. Teed?
A—He said it was paid to Mr. Teed.
Q—When did Mr. Berry tell that to you?
A—Well, sir, I think it was in April, Q—Of this year?
A—Of this year.

Q—Did he tell you at that time that this money was paid at two different times?
A—No.
Q—Did he tell you from what source the $20,000 came?
A—I did not name the amount. He said Stetson, Cutler & Company paid the $2,000 by letter and the $3,500 Q—Did he mention the amount of $20,000?
A—No, he said the payment had been made by Mr. Stevens.

Q—Tell me the order in which the money came to you.
A—The $4,000 was brought in by Mr. Berry to the best of my recollection, the $3,500 by letter and the $3,500 were brought in by Mr. Berry and Mr. Jones together. I endorsed it and handed it to Mr. Jones.
Q—In the handling of these amounts you had no knowledge what was to be done with the money?
A—None whatever.

Q—I know that certain areas are classified differently; are there certain districts in which the lumber is not as high as others?
A—Yes, there are certain districts where the country has been badly burned, and in order for the licenses to operate, it means a lot of expense. The value of the acreage varies.
Q—These lumber licenses which you and Mr. Sayre have are in the poorer regions?
A—Yes.

Q—You know nothing about this fund which was being raised?
A—Nothing whatever.
Q—The witness then left the stand. James A. Rundle, of Newcastle, 56½ miles, said he held crown timber lands, 56½ miles in his own right and 10 miles with the pulp company. He renewed the license in 1913. The lands being classed in B at $75 an acre. The witness had no conversation with Mr. Berry about the classification of his lands.

Q—Did you pay anything else?
A—I paid at the rate of $15 a mile to Mr. Berry. Mr. Berry asked me for it. He said I had to pay it. He gave me a check for $1,000, cashed it generally to collect it, and I had to pay it to Mr. Berry.
Q—By the surveyor-general, you mean the present minister of land and mines, as he is now called?
A—Yes.

Q—You knew this was for an election?
A—I did not, or I would not have paid it. I am not built on those lines. It was represented to me that I had to secure the license as a condition for securing the license.
Q—How much did you pay?
A—I paid $322.50 at $15 a mile on 21½ miles. The pulp people may have paid on the other end and charged it to me, but I have not settled with them since that time.

Q—Did you write back to the bank at Bathurst to know what you were to do with this money?
A—No, sir.
Q—Did you receive any instructions from the bank as to what you were to do?
A—I didn't.
Q—Did you know at that time that a fund of $15 a mile was being collected from them?
A—I didn't.

Q—Up to this time I would say that from $30,000 to $40,000 had been paid. Did you say you had no knowledge of those contributions?
A—I had no knowledge of the $15 a mile. I knew there had been contributions from them.
Q—Did you know that from Mr. Berry?
A—No, not at that time. I knew it from Mr. McLean, of the Bathurst Lumber Company.
Q—Did you know it from Mr. McLean prior to that?
A—I knew they were contributing.

Q—Did you know that before July 9?
A—It was early in July.
Q—Prior to the third day of July you did not receive information from Mr. McLean?
A—I did not.
Q—Did you receive it from Mr. McLean on the day at the office?
A—Yes.

Q—You received it from Mr. McLean on the day at the office?
A—Yes.
