Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. Lamp do; THE AMERICAN BARON-a novel By James DeMill, author of "Dodge Club." FAIR TO SEE-a novel. By L. M. N. Lock liable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual semedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Group, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to seemed health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitie is generally cuied by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

For a Cough and Cold, no better remedy can be had. Take small doses three times a day and put the feet in warm water at night, until the disease is broken up.

For Influence, when it affects the throat or lungs, take the same course.

For Whooping Cough, give small doses three or four times a day.

For Croup, give large and frequent doses until the disease is overcome.

No family should be without the Cherry Pectoral on hand to protect them, in case of attack, from the above complaints. Its timely use often spares the patient a great amount of suffering and risk, which he would incur by waiting until he could get other aid. Parents, keep it in your houses for the exigencies that arise. Lives dear to you may be saved by it.

So generally are its virtues known, that we need not publish certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that the best qualities it ever possessed are strictly maintained.

Bennett is going to bring forward for a second time an indictment for libel against Mr. Burton, the proprietor of the Tetegraph You may perhaps remember that Mr. Bennett complained of some expressions in that paper which he said were tantamount to an accusation of perjury; and that the Premier of Newfoundland should be ac cused of perjury was something more than he could tolerate. No doubt the words in question did broadly accuse Mr. Bennett of this crime. Mr. Bennett sought redro and preferred an indictment against Mr. Burton which the Grand Jury threw out ast term. Mr. Bennett has so much regard for his reputation that he is going to throw temptation in the way of a second Grand Jury, who will probably ignore the Bill as did their predecessors. You may imagine what were the merits of such a case.

The hills no longer hear his yelp,
Nor household hearth his snore. He had a master, kind and good, And pious, too, I ween; Whene'er he went to church, the dog

His gravity did edify,
Both during psalm and prayer;
He listen'd as a Christian good

Into the sacred sanctuary
Came many other whelps,
Who did disturb the services
With roars and barks and yelps. Wherefore a stalwart dog pelter

With club they did array,
Order to keep among the dogs
While they did preach and pray. But how shall I keep order

Among the dogs that play?"
"Whatever dog doth enter here
Him shall ye kill and slay." On the next holy morning The pelter took his place. Shaking his bludgeon fiercely-

Some sportive dogs an entry made 'Mid voice of morning pealm; Down came the pelter's cudgel

The bowl amid the harmony Was horrid to the ear;
The song was stopped, and 'mid the fray
Arose the cry and cheer. The unholy pack soon scampered off,

It was the pious, gentle dog, Whose pulse shall beat no more. ' Alas! alas!" said the Minister.

Save one, -that lay in gore;

And then the holy man turned round, To drop a tear that crept
Ad wn his cheek. It might not be;

The state of the late of th count for the late carthquakes in this country, which, beginning in California, made the earth tremble from the Pacific to made the earth tremble from the Pacific to the Atlantic ocean. These internal disturbances were evidently the preliminary indications of the great political earthquake which is already beginning to shake the foundations of Grant's Administration, and which by November next will result in a general upheaval of political strate, the burial out of sight of numerous fessil politicians and general purific ous fossil politiciens, and a general purifi-cation of the political atmosphere. Henry Ward Beecher with the Eight-Hour Strikers.

The other evening, in Plymouth Church. Brooklyn, addressing a large congregation, the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher said: "In this unanimous rising of the laboring classes in New York I recognize one of the most promising signs of the times. Capital has ruled too long and too iniquitously. When we abolished slavery we thought we had east out the devid from among us and had cast out the devil from among us, and so we had for the time, but the unclean spirit entered into a herd of swine in the shape of capitalists. I am no partisan of revolution, but I thank God for any power to overthrow the power of union of capital, to overthrow the power of union of capital, which has produced nothing but corruption and intolerance. My heart is with the poor man, who has forever been trodden under foot and despised, because he was compelled to earn his bread by manual la bor. I consider the demands that have been made perfectly just and reasonable. The movement has my entire sympathy, and I heartily wish it 'God speed.'"
