The above is an extract of an interview The Advertiser had with Mr. Charles de Geer, a Belgian gentleman, who is conducting classes in French at the London Conservatory of Music. Mr. de Geer is probably the most vitally interested man in the European crisis in this city. His ancestral home is within a stone's throw of the fortresses of Liege, which put up so wonderful a fight. His family at this moment are in Brussels, either confronted with, or expecting, the German invasion. That the great German advance is being pushed with vigor and determina tion can be safely said, judging from intelligence permitted to the outside world. On both banks of the Meuse the Prussians are crowding southward toward the entrenched French army waiting to stem their progress toward Sedan and Paris.

THE INVADERS' PROGRESS.

The invaders already have reached a line between Dinant and Neufchateau, the latter point being less than 25 miles from Sedan as the crow flies. To the northward their advance troops have reached the River Dyle, near Maiines, ost midway between Brussels and Antwerp. Before this northward rush the Belgian forces are retiring on Antwerp. In Brussels they call this a strategic retreat.

Whether the movement is strategic or forced, the Germans have gained and in the direction of Brussels. Should they, however, take advantage of this tempting opening for a raid on the Belgian capital they may find the now retreating Belgian army sweeping down on them from both sides. "All is going well for our arms," continues to be the tenor of official French dispatches concerning the situation in Alsace-Lorraine

FIRST WESTERN ONTARIO TROOPS PASS THROUGH

Twenty-Sixth and Twenty-Seventh Regiments Have Five-Minute Stop Here.

London this morning saw the first troop trains from Western Ontario conveying the volunteers of Western Ontario from their concentration points to the mobilization camp at Val Cartier. More than 170 officers and men of the Twenty-sixth (Middlesex) Light Infantry and the Twenty-seventh Regiment passed through the city on special cars attached to the rear of Grand Trunk express No. 80, for Toronto. A fine, drizzling rain was falling when the second section from Chatham, conveying the troops, pulled into the Grand Trunk station. Five minutes were spent here, while the four special cars were switched to the rear of the first section. In the interval the soldiers made a concerted rush for the lunch counters, tobacco stands and novelty stores near the station.

Seek Morning Papers. Morning papers were eagerly bought by men and officers alike in an endeavor to learn the latest developments of the war. News of the general engagement along the German frontier tickled the hearts of the soldier boys, and was received with general rejoicing, for these soldiers of Western Ontario want to be in the very thick of it, and are anxious to smell powder. The troops were a fine-looking lot of men, and the enthusiasm they have displayed in the past two weeks has already rounded them into a good state of training and efficiency. The majority of the contingent were members of the Twenty-seventh, that entrained at Watford, the concentration point for that regiment. ### FOUR BRUSSELS HOSPITALS ARE FILLED WITH WOUNDED

[Canadian Press.]

Brussels, Aug. 18, Tuesday, via London, Aug. 20.-6:30 a. m.—The war evidently is rapidly drawing nearer this city. Already four hospitals are filled with wounded soldiers. German aeroplanes have been seen scouting above the city after sun-

German cavalry is reported frequently in the region on the farther side of the forest of Soignes, which flanks the city. This forest is the point from which the attack is most likely to come in the opinion of many here, and a network of trenches has been thrown up along the woods. The trenches are occupied by burghers and a few civil guards.

SEVERE FIGHTING REPORTED. The forest of Soignes, which is to the southeast of Brussels, extends in the direction of Wavere, where severe fighting Trustworthy reports have just been received of an engagement near Charleroi. It is claimed by the Belgians that 6,000 Germans were killed in this battle. The censorship here is now so strict that no news of the

W ITH the attention of the world riveted on the war, the fact that for some time past the health of

Pope Plus has been rapidly failing has cone unnoted, with the result that the news of his death yesterday startled Christendom.

For years, his holiness had been a sufterer from an acute bronchial complaint, one that is especially deadly with the aged, and only last winter he was close to death, enduring a long siege He was greatly disturbed by the assassination of the Archduke Ferdinand and the general war that has followed, and it is likely that this hastened the final collapse. Within the last ten days he tendered the good offices of the Vatican in an attempt to prevent a general war, offering to personally act as arbitrator. Perhaps this act shows better than any other the type of man he was. He hated war and strife, and was always working to bring the warring elements of society into better relationships. Pope Pius had offered, it was war with France that especially France and Russia. none of the brilliance and astuteness of was contemplated, and for which pre-Leo the Tenth, Rampolla or Merry del paration was made. ### THE WAR PARLIAMENT.

THE extra session of the Canadian parliament that has been called and has opened its proceedings is something unprecedented in the history of the Dominion. For the first time, it has been summoned for one purpose alone-and that purpose, the prosecution of one of the Empire's wars. The cause is unusual, and the session will be unusual. No fuss and feathers marked the opening, no social functions threw a glamor of gaiety over the scene. It meets for business, and its work is already forecasted. We know what it is going to do, and nobody objects to it. For the first time in our history there is no opposition on Parliament, and no division of parties. There not if the leaders can prevent it. Judging from the tone of some of the Conservative papers, there is a danger that some second-rate politician in the House may start a little party discussion. If so, it should be frowned down and receive the silence of contempt The issues at stake in the empire are too serious for petty jealousies or political rivalries. The calmness of the English people should be ours, and we should imitate the harmony that prevails in the Imperial Parliaments. In sober earnest our representatives in Ottawa should proceed with their work, and finish it in a few days. Let the whole world see that Canada is one with the empire, and that even criticism is silent. The wah will be over some day, and then discussion can open, if necessary, and censure can be applied,

if censure is needed. AN APPEAL FOR SYMPATHY

THAT some Germans in the United States should appeal to the people of that country for sympathy is perfectly natural, especially in view of the adverse sentiment now existing. That the German Chancellor, should support that appeal by a special declaration of what he considers the causes of the war, for the benefit of the people of the United States, is something unusual. But 1' is significant. It shows a regard for the opinion of the people of neutral nations, a sense of the value of the in Germany" put on. moral sentiment of the world, that would have been more timely, had it been better felt and expressed before the war began. But he knew what such a war would mean. He knew it would almost certainly involve other countries; but he knew, also, that it would give him his opportunity for an attack on France. Public sentiment throughout the civilized world recognizes his responsibility, and for that reason public sentiment in the United States and elsewhere is against him. He knows it now. You make dollars by saving them. . . Come to our Dollar Day Sale Friday and Saturday.

N these days the purchasing power of a dollar bill, our unit of value, is increased to much more than its usual power. The value of a dollar bill is exactly one hundred cents, but the goods we exchange for it on these occasions are actually worth in fair market value considerably more, in some cases double the price paid. The two previous Dollar Day Sales, held earlier in the summer, were so well received that we feel this, the third event, does not require the emphasis we gave the former ones, for the simple reason that our customers will come to a DOLLAR DAY Sale now as a matter of course, knowing full well that we will give better dollar value than can be obtained at any other time. Friday and Saturday will both be Dollar Days this week.

CHAPTER IV.

Just a few matches! Well, I'll light one of them," said the soldier. As he struck the flint stone with one of the matches what do you think appeared right in that very room?

Why there came the dog with the saucer eyes out of the cavern under "What command have you to make upon me?" asked the dog, bowing low "Fetch me some money at once," ordered the soldier. The dog bowed again, disappeared and almost instantly reappeared with

What a fine thing this tinder box is," said the soldier, chuckling to himself. Now the soldier understood why the witch was so anxious to have the ples, tinder box. If he struck the flint once, the first dog came. If he struck it twice, the second dog came and if he struck it three times the third dog came After he had all the money he wanted, once more, the soldier began to dream of the beautiful princess. He wished he could see her.

"Why shouldn't I?" he asked himself. "Where is my tinder box?" He struck the flint. The saucer-eye dog appeared. would like to see the princess," he said. Before the soldier could say "Jack Robinson" the dog had disappeared and re-appeared, carrying the princess on his back.

She was beautiful. The soldier stooped and kissed her hand. He was Then the dog went back to the copper palace with the princess, and the soldier was alone again. The next morning, as she sat with the king and the queen, the princess told them she had had a wonderful dream. Then she related how she had ridden on a great dog and how a soldier had knelt and kissed her hand.

Now the king and queen were very, very frightened. They remembered the warning they had had about their daughter. The queen was very wily, so she set one of the court ladies to watch the princess. The beautiful girl went to sleep the next night as usual in her bed chambe in the copper palace. The court lady watched by her bedside, and-(To Be Continued.)

Hienie Steiger and Bobby Heck, Portsiders, Pitched Two Shutout Games, Heck All owing Only One Hit-Two Runs in Second Game Made on Squeeze Play.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

TORONTO, August 19.—Wednesday was certainly a lucky day for Doc. Reisling's Cockneys. While they defeated the Beavers in two games at the Island stadium, the Ottawa Senators, who are close on their heels for the leadership of the Canadian League, were splitting a double header with Brantford. The scores of the games at the Island with the Beavers were 1 to 0 and 2 to 0.

The leaders were very lucky to get away with the first game with the Beavers, but as they needed it more than the locals no one begrudged them the victory. Palmero, the Cuban, was on the firing line for the Beavers, and the dark skinned youth twirled good enough dark skinned youth twirled good enough ball to win any game. He allowed London but four singles, struck out ten of the visiting batsmen and only gave Lamy Scores the Only Run. London's run came in the second in-ning, after two were out. Two singles and an error allowed Lamy to score. The Beavers had more chances to tally than the visitors, but every time they threatened, Steiger tightened up. His team mates gave him excellent assistance, several likely-looking runs being cut off at the plate by perfect throws.

Only One Hit Off Bobby.

Bobby Heck, with the exception of the first inning, had the Beavers up a tree in the second game, which went only seven innings. In that time he that a single by only seven innings. In that time he allowed but one hit, that a single by Ort over second base in the third. He was wild at times, however, and it was only good work by his team mater that pulled him out of the tight corners Kirley opposed him and was found for safeties, one a double by Linne born in the seventh.

Heck Walks Three in First.

Trouble threatened Heck in the very first inning. He walked Hunt, but Ort popped up weakly to Neale. Trout was given a free pass to first, but was forced at second by Sullivan. The latter stole second. Heck issued his third walk in this inning, Killilea being the recipient. With three on and two out, Isaacs, the Toronto third baseman, hit a weak roller to Whiteraft and was plays—McGreerty to Cunningham to a weak roller to Whitcraft and was plays-McGroarty to easily thrown out at first. Heck was serious trouble after that.

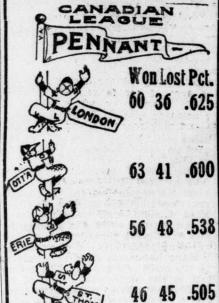

That Old Squeeze Play.
London's two runs came in the fourth by the successful working of the hit and the run play. Neale started the and the run play. Neale started the inning by fanning, but Bierbauer singled to left field. Lamy followed with a hit to Ort which the latter failed to handle. Reidy was given a free passage. With two strikes and three balls on him and the bases filled, Whitcraft laid down a perfect bunt. With the pitch all the runners started to run and Bierbauer groved before the ball was even fielded. red before the ball was even fielded Kirley made the play on the ball and just nipped Whitcraft at first. Lamy, who was on second when the ball was witnessed the Canadian leaguers in action here this season, saw the London series. The leaders have played excellent baseball in their four games, and with the strong pitching staff which they possess, should retain their position at the top of the ladder. The remainder of the schedule is in their favor, as they have more fixtures at home than they have on the road, while the they have on the road, while the Senators are in just the reverse posi-

Outfielder Traut Will Be Shifted to In. ternational League Team While Billy Wright Replaces Him.

Toronto ,Aug. 20.—Several changges will be made in the Toronto Canadian League team in the course of a few days that will effect the Toronto International League team also. It is the intention of the Toronto management to shift Outfielder Trout to the International League team and give him a chance to see what he can do in the faster company. Trout tried out twice as a catcher with the International Leaguers, but failed to make good. As an outfielder though he has been playing great ball for the Canadian League team, and his hitting and speed on the bases warrant giving him a trial. Billy Wright, the former Guelph player, who was with the Buffalo club, then bought by Jersey City, has been secured by the Toronto club, and he will bet ransferred to the Canadian League team in Trout's place. Had there been a game this afternoon "Cuz" Hammond would have been Manager Reisling's choice, while Louis Schettler would in all probability have worked for the Petes. Tomorrow, it s likely Reisling will pitch himself. "Doc's" spitter does not work good on a wet day and should the weather happen to be a trifle damp tomorrow Hammond may do the twirling.

Hard Games On Road.

The team arrived back in the city last night after one of the hardest trips it has had to face all season Every game was a battle and the Lon lon team faced good pitching in almost every contest. At Toronto yesterday the locals had to fight their hardest to vin. Only good pitching on the part of Steiger and Heck and some tine pase running put the games on the right side of the sheet.

Double Squeeze Bewildered Beavers. The double squeeze was worked so successfully in the second game that for a time the Toronto players did not know what was happening. With three on and while Kirley was throwing him out at first, Bierbauer and Lamy raced Snell the Beavers' first-sacker, was taken by surprise, and he stood and held the ball, watching Reidy going from sec-smaller than usual as a result. The Government is also using the ball park at Ottawa as a gathering place for the soldiers and war equipment being shipped into the capital, and the ball diamond is the only unoccupied space. At that, it is necessary to make ground rules for hits into the tents of the soldiers. About a thousand horses are being quartered there also, sot hat the ball club is having quite a time staging a game there.

Red Cross Day Tomorrow. Tomorrow is Ladies' Day at Teumseh Park and also Red Cross Day. The grandstand receipts will be turned over to the Red Cross fund, together of score cards and flags, which will be sold by the ladies. Ladies will be admitted free to the park, but will have to pay for seats in the grandstand.

That Many Veterans Join Princess Patricia's Regiment.

Infantry Regiment here, now has twenty men signed up, awaiting orders to entrain for Ottawa, where concentration of the regiment is being made, All of the men who have enlisted here are seasoned veterans, as required, and have seen stiff military service. According to information obtained at divisional headquarters here, the "Pat's Pets" will be able to take the field much stronger in numbers than it was at first intended, should the regimental officers so decide. It is said that 1,500 men have already signed up.

Will Canada Carry Her Burden?

GREAT BRITAIN and Europe, where productive industry has been paralyzed, have mouths to feed, bodies to clothe, constructive operations to carry through, and a thousandand-one wants and needs to be satisfied---and Great Britain and Europe look to Canada in confidence for much of the needed supplies.

It were folly for Canadian manufacturers and merchants to be downhearted during these terrible times in Europe. A great burden-a great duty-a great responsibility-has been imposed on Canadian manufacturers, merchants, bankers and workers. Shall Canada and Canadians shirk this burden, this duty, this responsibility?

No Increase in the Price of— Cowan's Perfection Cocoa

To reassure our customers and the Trade generally in the face of so many advances and rumored advances in the cost of food products, Tea, Coffee, etc., we have decided to announce definitely that there will be no advance in price of COWAN'S PERFECTION COCOA, 5-lb., 1-lb., ½-lb., and 10c tins, between now and Christmas. Further than this we cannot look ahead.

We believe it to be the duty of all Canadian Manufacturers to do their utmost during the present crisis to show their belief in the underlying soundness of Canada's commercial conditions. This announcement is made in face of the fact that the Cowan Company have had to pay an advanced price for some of their raw materials; but it is believed that increased demand from Atlantic to Pacific, because of falling foreign imports and embargos on teas and coffees, will offset other conditions and enable our largely increased factory to run full time with full or increased staff at full wages.

The Cowan Company, as manufacturers of an article of unusual food value, are sincerely anxious to do their share in allaying anxiety as to employment, wages and food supplies.

Do You Realize the Food Value of COCOA and CHOCOLATE?

Cocoa and Chocolate are foods as staple as flour. Cocoa is not a luxury, but a staple necessity of life, and, considered from the standpoint of its value as nourishment in concentrated form pure Cocoa at 50c a pound is a most economical food.

The food value of Cocoa and Chocolate has been recognized for many years in Great Britain and Europe. The highest medical authorities have made the statement that Cocoa and Chocolate are the most sustaining of all foods in concentrated form. European soldiers almost universally carry Chocolate in their kits as an emergency ration in case of food shortage, or fatigue in forced marches, and viewed from this standpoint the late Queen Victoria's gift to her soldiers in South Africa takes on a new significance.

We all appreciate Tea and Coffee, but, after all is said, these beverages are merely pleasant, slightly stimulating drinks, with little or no food value. Cowan's Perfection Cocoa, on the contrary, is a splendid food as well as drink, and a delightful drink as well as food.

Cowan's Perfection Cocoa is Sold by All Grocers in 5-lb., 1-lb., 1/2-lb., 1/4-lb., and 10c Tins.
