WELCOME HOME!

On behalf of the entire community and the thriving and prosperous old town, this Planet extends a hearty welcome to the home-coming old boys and girls.

The city is yours, dear old comrades. Take possession and enjoy yourselves to the limit.

There is nothing too good for you. If you don't see all you want just ask for it—and it shall be yours.

Chatham wants your home-coming to be memorable, to be happy, to be treasured in after years. She is prepared to do her part well.

Take hold, old boys and girls. Make merry. Enjoy yourselves just as you wish in this old town of yours. And once again, "Welcome Home!"

ENGLISHMEN ATTEND CHURCH

Marshaled by Regimental Band They Visit City
Sanctuary.

Excellent Discourse and Delightful Music Characterize the Service.

The Sons of England had a very large march out last night to the First Presbyterian Church. The 24th Regimental Band accompanied them and rendered some exceptionally fine music. The march was up King St. to Sixth, and along Sixth to the corner of Wellington and around into Fifth street. Upon arriving in front of the church the band lined up and played "Onward Christian Soldiers," while the Sons of England marched into the church.

Rev. A. H. MacGillivray preached a very impressive sermon, taking this text from the second chapter and tenth verse of Paul's Epistle to the Thessalonians: "Not purloining, but showing all good fidelity, that they may adorn the doctrine of God in all things." The importance of making perfect the profession we adorn, and serving God not only by word but by deed, was pointed out by Mr. MacGillivray. "Let it be said by the world as it sees our work that no man can do the work that that man does unless God be with him," said Mr. MacGillivray. "There is no age where the character and doings of men was scrutinized so carefully as to-day. The importance of broadness and more consistent ideas in regard to missionary and temperance work was then pointed out. In closing Mr. MacGillivray said it was a grand thing to be patriotic and defend your country and be loyal to the King, but a grander loyalty was a loyalty to God. Those who were loyal to their God would make the best soldiers to fight for their King. Some very fine music was rendered by the choir and C. H. Gunn sang a solo, which was much appreciated. The closing hymn was "God Save Our King."

The pulpit was appropriately adorned with a large Union Jack. On returning to the lodge room a hearty vote of thanks was tendered the pastor, choir, organist and officers of the church who contributed to the beautiful service, which was much appreciated by all present. Thos. E. Fielder made an excellent marshal.

FOR GOOD LUCK

Two Prisoners Charged With Burglary Carried Garter as a Talisman.

Alfred Faubert and Montiles Joseph were convicted this morning at the police court on the charge of attempting to burglarize the store of James Jenkins.

The pair were remanded for sentence. Henry Durr testified, describing the glass break and seeing the prisoners run away. He also found on Joseph, when searched a bunch of keys and a file. Both prisoners also carried a woman's garter. This was probably for good luck. A key was found broken off in the lock of Mr. Jenkins's store and the corresponding piece was found in the pocket of one of the men. Joseph said that he was wearing the trousers of his brother-in-law, John Faubert. The prisoners claimed that Joseph had fallen through the window and that was how it was broken. The Crown Attorney wanted the prisoners to explain how this happened, when the window was only 18 inches from the ground.

John Faubert, where Joseph boarded, testified that he owned the trousers that Joseph wore. After a sharp passage between the prosecuting attorney and the witness, the former remarked:

"You're very clever."

"I am, yes," retorted the witness, "I've got to be."

"I understand," remarked the Crown Attorney, "you've got to be in your business."

Witness also stated that he had not told the P. C. Dodson that Joseph did not have witness's trousers on. As a result of this statement a charge of perjury was laid against him and he was arrested.

Arthur Richards, of Cleveland, is visiting his mother, King St. West. Mr. Richards left Chatham eight years ago and is taking advantage of the Reunion to visit his old Chatham friends.

Ed. Hodges, of Cleveland, is attending the Old Boys' Reunion. Mr. Hodges is one of Chatham's old boys who has made a name for himself in the outside world. He was at one time clerk in Wall's dry goods store, which was situated on the corner where A. I. McCall's drug store is now.

W. Martin, of St. Thomas, brother of Warren Martin, one of Chatham's old boys, is visiting in the city. Mr. Martin left Chatham about 30 years ago. He formerly conducted a grocery business where Albert Sheldrick's up-to-date tailoring establishment now stands. He was in partnership with H. Reed.

THE PLANET SOUVENIR

It is expected that the handsome Planet Souvenir containing 52 pages of exquisite artistic matter and over 250 beautiful illustrations to commemorate the Old Boys' Reunion, will be placed on sale to-morrow. The delay has been occasioned by the last moment enlargement of the issue by 16 pages, and even then we have been unable to include all the pictures secured. This is much regretted by The Planet but they will appear from time to time in the daily. The beautiful Art Souvenir will sell at 25 cents the copy—and it is a triumph at that price. Purchases should be made early as already an immense order list has been handled and the supply is limited.

WILL WED

Rev. Mr. MacGillivray, the popular young pastor of the First Presbyterian church, leaves to-day for Port Elgin, and rumor has it that he will not return alone. It is understood that he will be married on Wednesday and will return to the city with his bride about the 9th of June. Mr. MacGillivray has been here a comparatively short time but he has been here long enough to be a general favorite among the clerical profession. He is one of the ablest and most forcible speakers in the city and he is successfully launched out on a good work in his church here. In private life he is one of the best of our Chatham citizens, esteemed and admired by people of all denominations.

The First church is proud of her able young pastor and joins with all of his Maple City friends in extending to him congratulations and good wishes.

GRAND LODGE MEETS

The Grand Lodge of the Ladies Orange Benevolent Society meets in the Orange lodge room to-morrow and Wednesday. Miss Collam, Grand Mistress, of Toronto, and Mrs. Yates, of Sarnia, the Grand Treasurer, arrived in the city to-day. The lodge here consists of 38 members.

The County Orange Lodge for South Kent, meets in Thamesville on June 8. The District Orange Lodge meets in the same place at the same time. F. Stevens, of this city, is the District Master of this prominent Order.

Truth is stranger than any kind of fiction except war reports.

GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP

The Liberal-Conservative party of Canada stands committed, to-day, to the policy of Government ownership of the Grand Trunk Pacific transcontinental railway. Mr. Borden, the leader of the party, formally made the announcement in the House yesterday, and never did leader better please his following. The Conservative party has all along seen the great advantage to the country which would accrue from the ownership of the proposed railway by the Government, and have been satisfied that it was the proper thing for the Government—which had gone so far in aiding the construction of the road—to go the short distance necessary to complete ownership. It was with much pleasure that the Conservatives learned of the attitude of their leader, an attitude which will be approved of not only by the Conservatives, but by the independents, and by not a few Liberals.

In an excellent article on this subject the Toronto Mail says:

What the government is trying to do is now made plain. It proposes that Canada shall enter into partnership with the Grand Trunk railway in the building of a transcontinental road. The country is to provide from $150,000,000 to $175,000,000 as its share of the expense, while the private partner, or corporation, is to contribute nothing beyond on a guarantee of $15,000,000 of bonds. We find nine-tenths of the money; the other part owner owns the property. In the event of success the corporation reaps the profit. In the event of failure we bear the losses. The debate of the last eight or ten weeks has made it clear that this is the distinct purport of the bargain, and the amendments which parliament is now asked to ratify are devised especially to render this situation certain beyond question. They place all the liabilities upon the country, and turn all the prospective advantages over to the company. This condition of affairs was not, it must be said, of the Grand Trunk's seeking. The thing came about by a process of drift resulting from the weakness of the ministers and their inability to repel the elements which—as Mr. Longbrake expresses it—"camped on the trail of the Grand Trunk Pacific," early in its history with contracts and take-offs in view. Now that the folly and the injustice embedded in the scheme have been made apparent, Mr. Borden has taken his next step which is bound to commend itself to all reasonable people.

His argument is this: If we are to put $150,000,000 into a railway and not own it, why not go the other $15,000,000 and be the sole proprietor? If we are to build this road, why not own it? If there are profits in the enterprise, why turn them over to a company instead of applying them to the reduction of the taxes or the railway charges payable by the people? If we want a truly Canadian road connecting the east and the west, developing our own territory and serving our own ports, why pay $150,000,000 for such a road and then present it to a company whose Atlantic outlet is at Portland, Maine? These problems can be answered in but one way. Nobody can fail to see that the party who provides the capital ought to possess that which the capital purchases, and to enjoy the profits that are to accrue. To enter into a partnership in which one party furnishes the money and is responsible for the losses, while the other has all the proprietary rights and the profits, would be an absurdity in the case of an individual; it is little less than a crime when forced upon the state.

LET THE CHIEF RUN IT.

Toronto Globe.

Hamilton's Fire and Water committee is represented as ready to do anything that the chief of the fire brigade asks of it. It is a very commendable spirit. The city that economizes on the means of fire prevention invites ruin.

MR. BORDEN'S STATESMANSHIP.

Toronto Mail.

By his conduct of the railway debate and by his speech of yesterday, in which he presented to the country a bold yet common-sense alternative to the government proposition, Mr. Borden has proven himself to be a leader of consummate skill, a statesman of national caliber. For many weeks he has labored to bring relief to the actual meaning of the scheme to which the Laurier administration is seeking to commit the country; and, although ministers have been unable to give explanations, his task has been successfully accomplished.

ANNIVERSARY SALE.

Six years ago to-morrow we opened the doors of the Busy Cash Store to the buying public of Chatham city and Kent county. At that time there existed in many minds a doubt—but never in our own as to the success of a strictly Cash and One-Price Store in Chatham. We came here strangers. To-day our business friends number into the thousands. When we started we had one of the smallest stores in town. To-day we have one of the finest—if not the finest and best equipped Dry Goods Store in Western Ontario. But this store has not arrived at its present stage of usefulness by chance. There's no luck or speculation about the business; it is isn't the result of fortunate circumstances, but downright honest, hard work—work wherein your interests as consumers have been carefully studied at every corner and turn. If you don't believe all this visit the store during the next six days. We are going to celebrate this 6th Anniversary in a way that will long be remembered by the cash buyers of this city and Kent County. It will be a carnival of bargains that few cash buyers would care to miss. Every day will have its special features, and it will pay you well to keep close tab on what we are doing.

COLLECTIVE NAMES.

Old English Terms For Groups of Persons and Animals.

In a book on British sports, written in the eighteenth century, Joseph Strutt gives the old English terms for groups of various beasts as follows: "When beasts went together in companies there was said to be a pride or lions, a lepe of leopards, a herd of harts, of bucks and of all sorts of deer; a bevy of roes, a sloth of boars, a sownder of wild swine, a drift of tame swine, a route of wolves, a harras of horses, a rag of colts, a stud of mares, a pace of asses, a baren of mules, a team of oxen, a drove of kine, a flock of sheep, a tribe of goats, a skulk of foxes, a cete of badgers, a richness of martins, a feyness of ferrets, a huske or a down of hares, a nest of rabbits, a clowder of cats and a kyndall of young cats, a shrewdness of apes and a labor of moles."

Similar terms were applied to gatherings of human beings. Strutt gives them as follows: "A state of princes, a skulk of thieves, an observance of hermits, a lying of pardoners, a substitute of sergeants, an untruth of sompners, a multiplying of husbands, a safeguard of porters, a stalk of foresters, a blast of hunters, a draft of butlers, a temperance of cooks, a melody of harpers, a poverty of pipers, a drunkenness of cobbler, a disguising of taylor, a wandering of tinkers, a malpertness of pedlars, a fighting of beggars, a rayful—that is, a netful—of knaves, a blush of boys, a bevy of ladies, a nonpatience of wives, a gagle of women, a gagle of geese."

"In the old days the word 'leash' was applied to three greyhounds, while two were 'a brace.' On the other hand, two spaniels or harriers were called 'a couple.' A number of hounds went under the term of 'a mute of hounds,' while it was correct to speak of 'a kennel of raches, a litter of whelps and a cowardice of curs."

WHY THEY ARE POOR.

Their ideas are larger than their purses.

They are easy dupes of schemers and promoters.

They reverse the maxim, "Duty before pleasure."

They have too many and too expensive amusements.

They do not think it worth while to save nickels and dimes.

They have risked a competence in trying to get rich quickly.

They allow friends to impose upon their good nature and generosity.

They try to do what others expect of them, not what they can afford.

They prefer to incur debt rather than to do work which they consider beneath them.

They think it will be time enough to begin to save for a rainy day when the rainy day comes.

They risk all their eggs in one basket when they are not in a position to watch or control it.

Helping Him Out.

Mrs. Hoyt, wife of Charles Hoyt, the playwright, added much to the enjoyment of a Lambeth club banquet in Chichester by her sharp and witty tongue, always ready for a home thrust. Mr. Hoyt was second on the list of speakers and was badly frightened. He concluded that he would plunge quickly into his speech when called upon, and, with this idea, he arose briskly when announced and started in: "Ladies and gentlemen, I feel honored, I'm sure, by this request of the toastmaster, but it is so unexpected I really had no time to prepare—a—I really had no time to prepare—a— And he stopped. Every one felt sorry for him, but Mrs. Hoyt seemed in no way disturbed. When she noticed his predicament she turned toward him suddenly and called out, "Why, Charlie, you did it perfectly this morning!"

Reading and Thinking.

The things one merely reads about never stick. Those on which one thinks become permanent acquisitions; hence the man who is not afraid of thinking and who does not dread "that cursed hour in the dark" is at a distinct advantage on every ground. He passes the time without being bored, and he strengthens his mind. To say this may no doubt sound slightly glib, but it is none the less true. The man who can enjoy and make use of his own thoughts has a heritage which can never be alienated. Even blindness for him loses some of its terrors.—London Spectator.

An Eye For an Eye.

"My cook, an old dorky, informed me one morning: 'Miss Annie, I's goin' to be married tonight. Is you got a present for me?'"

"But, Maria, I said, 'you've got a husband alive and haven't been divorced. It would be bigamy!'"

"Well, Miss Annie, I don't care; he's done bigotted fast!"

Getting Out of Debt.

"What was it your husband wanted to see me about?" inquired Mrs. New-lwed's papa.

"I think he wanted to borrow a couple of hundred dollars from you," she said. "He's so anxious to get out of debt."

Not Needed Below.

"This is a funny ship."

"How so?"

"They have no clock in the cabin."

"Oh, no! But they always keep a watch on the deck."

Cutting Him.

"It's cruel of you to snub him. He's a good sort, if he is a rough diamond."

"That's the reason he needs cutting,"—Judge.

Could scarcely get up or down without help.

Had a severe pain in the small of the back.

Was treated in the Hotel Dieu, Kingston, but not cured.

Kidney trouble was the trouble.

Doan's Kidney Pills

Cured Mr. George Graves, Pitts Ferry, Ont., of a very bad case of kidney trouble.

He tells about the cure in the following words: "I cannot recommend Doan's Kidney Pills too highly. I never took anything that did me so much good. I had a severe pain in the small of my back and could scarcely get up or down without help. I could hardly urinate, but when I did the pain was terrible. I was in the Hotel Dieu, Kingston, last winter and when I came out I was some better but not cured. It was then I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised. Since taking them I have been completely cured and have not had any trouble with my kidneys since."

The Railway Man's Mile-Book.

The railway man's mileage has been recently completed by The London Advertiser. According to that mathematical journal there are conductors and brakemen running between London and Windsor and Windsor and Niagara Falls, who, in a year's run—not counting Sunday—cover respectively 68,460 miles and 48,000 miles. On the Sarnia branch are men whose year's run total up to 44,800 miles. On the through trains from the tunnel to Suspension Bridge, train-hands make on an average 52,000 miles in a year. The G. P.R. mileage per capita is also a case of big mathematics. Between Toronto and Windsor the crews on through trains roll up 66,000 miles to their credit in a year. Even in the C.P.R. freight service the average year's run is 38,400 miles. According to these figures the average express train conductor on the through lines of both the Grand Trunk and the C.P.R. travels more than three times round the earth at the equator in a year. A conductor forty years on the road—if such an average rate could be maintained for the length of time—would travel 2,812,600 miles.

HOPELESS CASES.

When the doctor leaves and says the case is hopeless, what remains to be done? Nothing, if the doctor's word is final. Much, if you will listen to the statements of men and women who were once "hopeless cases" given up by doctors, and who were perfectly and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

Nothing is more sure than that thousands of men and women with diseased lungs, obstinate coughs, hemorrhages, emphysema, and night sweats, have been restored to perfect health by the use of the "Discovery." Will it cure you?

It has cured in ninety-eight cases out of every hundred where it was given a fair and faithful trial. By that record you have only two chances in a hundred of failure and ninety-eight chances of being restored to perfect health. It is worth trying.

Abram Freer, Esq., of Rockbridge, Greene Co., Ill., writes: "My wife had a severe attack of pleurisy and lung trouble; the doctors gave her up to die. She commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and she began to improve from the first dose. By the time she had taken eight or ten bottles she was cured and it was the cause of a large amount being sold here. I think the 'Golden Medical Discovery' is the best medicine in the world for lung trouble."

FREE. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser containing over a thousand large pages is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 50 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

CARE OF THE EYES.

Some Simple Rules Which Will Tend to Preserve the Sight.

An eminent physician lays down these simple laws on the general care of the eyes for persons who wish to retain the strength of their eyesight to green old age:

When reading, writing, drawing, sewing or engaged in similar work always take care that the room is comfortably cool, that the feet are warm, that there is nothing tight about the neck and that there is plenty of light. Be sure that the sun does not shine directly on the object in front of you and that the light comes from over the left shoulder. The head should not be bent much in reading. The page should be nearly perpendicular to the line of sight. It should not be less than ten inches from the eyes.

Do not habitually lie down when reading.

Never study or write before breakfast by artificial light.

Avoid reading or sewing by twilight or when debilitated by recent illness, especially fever.

When the eyes have any defect avoid fine needlework, drawing of fine maps and all such employment except for very short tasks, not exceeding half an hour each.

Never play "tricks" with the eyes, such as squinting, rolling them, and so on.

In all forms of labor requiring the exercise of vision on minute subjects the worker should rise from his task now and then, take a few deep inspirations, with the mouth closed, stretch the frame, throw the arms backward and forward and, if possible, step to a window or into the open air, if only for a moment.

Reading in a moving car certainly involves an undesirable strain and should be avoided as far as practicable. If you will read, obtain books or papers with large type.

The eyes are often affected when the stomach is out of order. Consult an oculist without delay for serious or persistent weakness or pain of the eyes.

Fast-Footed Dogs.

Comparatively few people realize of what remarkable speed dogs are capable, says Our Animal Friends. Some remarkable statistics in regard to this have been gathered by M. Dusolier, a French scientist. After pointing out the marvellous endurance shown by little fox terriers, who follow their masters patiently for hours while the latter are riding on bicycles or in carriages, he says that even greater endurance is shown by certain wild animals that are akin to dogs. Thus the wolf can run between fifty and sixty miles in one night, and an Arctic fox can do quite as well, if not better. Nansen met one of these foxes on the ice at a point more than seventy miles northwest of the Sanikow territory, which is 480 miles from the Asiatic coast. Eskimo and Siberian dogs can travel forty-five miles on the ice in five hours, and there is one case on record in which a team of Eskimo dogs traveled six and a half miles in twenty-eight minutes. According to M. Dusolier, the speed of the shepherd dogs and those used in hunting ranges is from ten to fifteen yards a second. English setters and pointers hunt at the rate of eighteen to nineteen miles an hour, and they can maintain this speed for at least two hours. Fox-hounds are extraordinarily swift, as is proved by the fact that a dog of this breed once beat a thoroughbred horse, covering four miles in six and a half minutes, which was at the rate of nearly eighteen yards a second. Greyhounds are the swiftest of all four-footed creatures, and this speed may be regarded as equal to that of carrier-pigeons. English greyhounds, which are carefully selected, and which are used for coursing, are able to cover at full gallop a space between eighteen and twenty-three yards every second.

Eloping Curate's Stratagem.

The London Chronicle tells the following: The eloping curate who sought to evade his pursuers by leading them a dance through Whiteley's employed the same stratagem which succeeded in a famous run-away match. It is just forty years since Mr. Chaplin, M. P., was betrothed to Lady Florence, daughter of the Marquis of Anglesey. One morning shortly before the appointed marriage he accompanied her on a shopping expedition to Swan and Edgar's. She entered from Regent street, and while Mr. Chaplin awaited her return she had left the shop at the Piccadilly door, there met the Marquis of Hastings, as secretly arranged, and driven off with him to be married. Two years later fate accorded Mr. Chaplin his revenge. His horse, Hermit, won the Derby at the odds of 66 to 1 against, and Lord Hastings was a ruined man.

The Queen's Butter Story.

The following story goes the rounds every few years, but loses nothing by repetition:

When the Queen of England, daughter of the King of Denmark, was the Princess of Wales, she attended, one afternoon, a food show.

At this food show there was a display of butter that pleased the Princess of Wales greatly. She praised the butter, and to its exhibitor she said:

"Denmark sends us the best butter, don't it?"

The dealer smiled, and shook his head.

"No, Your Royal Highness," he answered, gallantly, "Denmark sends us the best Princess, but Devonshire sends us the best butter."

Star Photography.

Star photography is one of the most tedious operations known. In some cases the plate must be exposed for several hours. During all this time both the plate and the telescope must be moved so that the image of the star will be stationary on the plate. Only the image of one star at a time can be secured unless these adjustments happen to be of the same size.

Big Hardware

To get that appetizing, brown appearance and outside crispness on roasts of lamb, beef, etc.—to keep their goodness in them they must be basted. In the old style stove this necessitated reaching into the hot oven and moving the hot, heavy pan and holding it in the front of the oven while it was basted. A tedious performance with unsatisfactory results. The draw-out oven rack of the makes basting a simple and successful operation. Draw the handle in front of the oven forward and the rack brings the pan and its contents out of the oven where it may be thoroughly basted with the greatest ease. THREE STORES—Chatham, Dresden and Wingham

Thomas F. Jackson, of St. Catharines, who left Chatham in 1882, is again visiting his friends in town.

J. B. Baxter, of Dresden, is registered as one of the Chatham Old Boys who is a visitor at the Re-union.

Albert Perry, of Sarnia, formerly employed in Kenny's book-store, is visiting his parents, Lansdowne Ave.

Rufus Somers, a Chatham old boy who has been living in Michigan, is one of the many visitors at the Re-union.

Percy Bedford, of Detroit, a Chatham Old Boy, and a former student at the C. C. I., is visiting his many friends in town.

Fred Palmer, of Stover, Ont., is visiting in town for the week. He has been absent from the city for the past year.

A. Burtch, of Ottaville, is one of the many Chatham Old Boys who are pleased to be back in the old town again.

Miss F. E. Maggs and Messrs. Philip H. Maggs and W. C. Oehlson, Chicago, are registered at the Old Boys' Re-union headquarters.

Thornton Denhard, of Boston, a former student in the C. C. I., is visiting his many Chatham friends during the Re-union.

James and Alex. McLachlan, of Quebec, are visiting the old town again and are the guests of D. McLachlan.

R. W. Moore, of Hamilton, brother of William Moore, is attending the Re-union. It is 20 years since Mr. Moore left Chatham and he is glad to be back in the old town again.

Sticks Spafford, second trainer for the Carstairs Stables, is visiting his parents, Park Ave. The Carstairs Stable is a very noted one, Ben. Stanley being first trainer. The stable contains Line of Gold, 2,071-2, and Irish Jack, 2,111-2. Thich caused such a sensation at Lexington last year.

WELCOME TO THE OLD BOYS

The Maple City Extends the Glad Hand to Her Wandering Sons and Daughters.

Many Have Arrived and More are Coming—The Carnival and Street Fair will be in Full Swing 'To-morrow.

At last the eventful week has arrived and Chatham is ready to receive her old boys—and girls. Although this, the first day of the six, is rather wet and stormy, the man behind the probas. has promised us fine bright weather for to-morrow and, in fact, for several days to come.

For many weeks past the Old Boys' Re-union committee have worked with might and main to make the re-union a great success and to judge from present appearances, they will have no cause for regrets. Ever since Saturday evening the Old Boys have come pouring in—young men, middle aged men, old men, many with their sweethearts, wives, or daughters.

There is handshaking everywhere—at the depots, on the streets, and in the hotel corridors. Many and various are the forms of greeting. Some shake hands; some slap their friends on the back; and some, of a very excitable nature, dance an Indian war dance around their Maple City friends.

The Street Carnival Company commenced erecting their tents at midnight and by this afternoon everything is in readiness. King street is decked out in gay holiday attire.

Flags and banners are flying, bunting is in evidence in great profusion, and a general air of carnival pervades everything.

To-day is what might be called a day of preparation. To-morrow, the first of the great parades begin; all the street shows will be in full blast and the carnival will be on in earnest.

The trades and labor parade will, weather permitting, be the best ever witnessed in Chatham. All taking part are requested to be at the gas house at 120, as the parade is at 2 o'clock sharp. The parade, headed by the 24th Regiment and bands, will take up its route starting from King street west to Queen street, thence back to King via Duluth street and William street, then westward down King, if possible. Geo. E. Embrey will marshal the parade.

All those having more than one float are asked to keep them together.

LAID TO REST

The remains of the late Henry Linley were reverently laid to rest in the Overy cemetery yesterday afternoon before a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends.

Deceased was one of the best known men in the county and a life long Conservative and a great worker in the party. He was a native of Lincolnshire, England. Born in 1842, he came to this country about 30 years ago, first settled in Ottawa, afterwards in Hamilton, before finally settling down in Kent County 23 years ago, first in Howard Township, and 15 years ago in Raleigh, where he resided up till the time of his death. Deceased, besides a wife, leaves three sons, George, Walter and Fred, and one daughter, Mary, to mourn his loss.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 2.30 from deceased's late residence, Cedar Springs, to Overy Christ Church. The services were conducted by Rev. Geo. McQuillan. E. S. Clements and Dr. W. R. Hall were among those who were present from Chatham.

RUPTURE CURED

If you are a sufferer from any form of RUPTURE, whether recent or of long standing, DO NOT NEGLECT IT. Do not get a truss that is only a makeshift, it endangers your life and seldom ever cures. You can be cured without operation or cutting. You need not neglect your business WHILE TREATING. It will be necessary for you to come to the office for treatment. Others may treat rupture but we CURE IT. If you cannot call at once, write, describing your case, and we will advise you what to do. RESPONSIBLE PARTIES may settle when cured or in weekly or monthly payments. Our prices are within the reach of all. All Humors

Are impure matters which the skin, liver, kidneys and other organs can not take care of without help, there is such an accumulation of them.

They litter the whole system. Pimples, boils, eczema and other eruptions, loss of appetite, that tired feeling, bilious turns, fits of indigestion, dull headaches and many other troubles are due to them.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Remove all humors, overcome all their effects, strengthen, tone and invigorate the whole system.

"My health was poor and I suffered much from liver and kidney trouble. After taking two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla I was cured. I regard this medicine as superior to all others." Mrs. JOSEPH HOLLISHEAD, Harrison, Ontario.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

A Detroit specialist who has 14 certificates and diplomas from medical colleges and state boards of medical examiners, has perfected a startling method of curing the diseases of men in their own homes, so that there may be no doubt in the mind of any man that he has both the method and the ability to do as he says. Dr.

Goldberg, the discoverer, will send the method entirely free to all men who send him their name and address. He wants to hear from men who have prostatic trouble, sexual weakness, varicocele, lost nerve, impotency, etc. His wonderful method not only cures the condition itself, but likewise all the complications, such as rheumatism, bladder, etc.
The doctor realizes that it is one thing to make a man feel better, and another thing to back him up, so he cures you, and when you are cured he feels sure that you will willingly pay him a small fee. He would deem, therefore, that it is in the best interests of every man who suffers in this way to write him, and if he accepts your case for treatment, it is equivalent to a cure, as he does not under any consideration accept incurable cases for treatment.
Remember, if he does accept your case you may pay when you are cured. He sends the method, as well as his booklet on the subject, free.
Send him the 14 diplomas and certificates, entirely

MORAN

LADY LETTY...

By...
Frank
Norris...

Wilbur went over the side and, standing as best he could upon the slippery carcass, dug out the lump and bound it up in the hammock.

"Hoh!" exclaimed Moran, with sudden exultation. "There's a lot of it.
That's the biggest lump yet, I'll be bound. Is that all there is, mate? Look carefully." Her voice had dropped to a whisper.

"Yes, yes; that's all. Careful now when you haul up. Hoang has got his eye on you, and so have the rest of them. What do you call it anyhow? Why are you so particular about it? Is it worth anything?"

"I don't know—perhaps. We'll have a look at it anyway." Moran hauled the stuff aboard, and Wilbur followed.

"Whew!" he exclaimed with half closed eyes. "It's like the story of Samson and the dead lion—the sweat coming forth from the strong."

The schooner seemed to swim in a bath of perfumed air. The membrane of the nostrils fairly pringed with the sensation. Moran unleashed the hammock and, going down upon one knee, examined the lump attentively.

"It didn't seem possible," Wilbur heard her saying to herself, "but there can't be any mistake. It's the stuff, right enough. I've heard of such things, but this—but this!" She rose to her feet, tossing back her hair.

"Well," said Wilbur, "what do you call it?"

"The thing to do now," returned Moran, "is to get clear of here as quietly and as quickly as we can and take this stuff with us. I can't stop to explain now, but it's big—it's big. Mate, it's big as the Bank of England."

"Those beachcombers are right on to the game, I'm afraid," said Wilbur.
"Look, they're watching us. This stuff would smell across the ocean."

"Not the beachcombers! There's a bit of wind, thank heaven, and we can do four knots to their one, just let us get clear once."

Moran dragged the hammock back into the cabin and, returning to the deck, helped Wilbur to cut away the last tinsel tangle. The schooner righted slowly to an even keel. Meanwhile the junk had set its one lug sail and its crew had run out the sweeps. Hoang took the steering sweep and worked the junk to a position right across the Bertha's bows some fifty feet ahead.

"They're watching us, right enough," said Wilbur.

"Up your mains!" ordered Moran.
The pair set the fore and main sails with great difficulty. Moran took the wheel, and Wilbur went forward to cast off the line by which the schooner had been tied up to one of the whale's fukes.

"Cut it!" cried the girl. "Don't stop to cast off."

There was a hall from the beach-combers, the port sweeps dipped and the junk bore up nearer.

"Murry!" shouted Moran. "Don't mind them! Are we clear forward—what's the trouble? Something's holding her." The schooner listed slowly to starboard and settled by the head.

"All clear!" cried Wilbur.

"There's something wrong!" exclaimed Moran. "She's settling forward." Hoang hauled the schooner a second time.

"We're still settling," called Wilbur from the bows. "What's the matter?"

Boils were so painful

APPEARED ON NECK, LEGS AND ARMS.

Burdock
Blood Bitters
CURED THEM.

It is well-known to all that bad blood is the direct cause of all skin diseases and it is necessary for the blood to be cleansed before the eruptions will disappear. For this purpose there is nothing so equal Burdock Blood Bitters as the thousands of testimonials we have on hand will testify.

Mr. William Thompson, McNeill's Mills, P.E.I., writes us as follows: "I wish to state to you what Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. Some time ago my blood got out of order and many boils appeared on my neck, legs and arms. They were so painful that I could not sleep at night.
After having tried many different remedies without any success, I finally decided, on the advice of a friend, to use Burdock Blood Bitters. Before I had quite used two bottles the boils had completely disappeared, and I wish to emphasize the fact that I think Burdock Blood Bitters the best blood purifier on the market to-day."

"FORCE" keeps the
brain "waked-up" all day.
No matter whether you write or figure or saw
wood or pound stone:
You'll do it the better for eating "FORCE."

Summary fine

"Matter that she's taking water," answered Moran wrathfully. "She's started something below, what with all that lifting and dancing and trieling up."

Wilbur ran back to the quarter deck.
"This is a bad fix," he said to Moran.
"These chaps are coming aboard again.
They're on to something, and, of course, at just this moment she begins to leak."

"They are after that ambergris," said Moran between her teeth. "Smelt it, of course—the swine!"

"Ambergris?"
"That's what we found in the whale."
"Well?"

"Well!" shouted Moran, exasperated.
"Do you know that we have found a lump that will weigh close to 250 pounds, and do you know that ambergris is selling in San Francisco at $40 an ounce? Do you know that we have picked up nearly $150,000 right out here in the ocean and are in a fair way to lose it all?"

"Can we run for it?"
"Run for it in a boat that's taking water like a sack! Our dory's gone.
Suppose we got clear of the junk and the Bertha sank? Then what? If we only had our crew aboard; if we only were ten to their dozen—if we were only six-by Jupiter, I'd fight them for it!"

The two enormous red eyes of the junk loomed alongside and stared over into the Bertha's waist. Hoang and seven of the coolies swarmed aboard.

"What now?" shouted Moran, coming forward to meet them, her scowl knitting her flashing eyes together.

"Is this ship yours or mine? We've done your dirty work for you. I want you clear of my deck." Wilbur stood at her side, uncertain what to do, but ready for anything she should attempt.

"I think you catchum something, smellum pretty big," said Hoang, his ferret glance twinkling about the schooner.

"I catchum nothing—nothing but plenty bad stink," said Moran. "No, you don't!" she exclaimed, putting her self in Hoang's way as he made for the cabin.

The other beachcombers came crowding up. Wilbur even thought he saw one of them loosening his hatchet in his belt.

"This ship's mine!" cried Moran, backing to the cabin door. Wilbur followed her, and the Chinamen closed down upon the pair.

"It's not much use, Moran," he muttered. "They'll rush us in a minute."
"But the ambergris is mine—is mine," she answered, never taking her eyes from the confronting coolies.

"We findum wale," said Hoang.
"You no find wale. Him b'long to we —everyting in um wale b'long to we,
savvy?"

"No; you promised us a third of everything you found."
Even in the confusion of the moment it occurred to Wilbur that it was quite

Moran at grapples with Hoang.

possible that at least two-thirds of the ambergris did belong to the beachcom-bers by right of discovery. After all, it was the beachcombers who had found the whale. He could never remember afterward whether or no he said as much to Moran at the time. If he did, she had been deaf to it. A fury of wrath and desperation suddenly blazed in her blue eyes. Standing at her side, Wilbur could hear her teeth grinding upon each other. She was blind to all danger, animated only by a sense of injustice and impatience.

Hoang uttered a sentence in Canadian.

A happy married man carries the fact in his countenance.

Minard's Liniment Cures Burns, etc.

toness. One of the coolies jumped forward, and Moran's fist met him in the face and brought him to his knees.
Then came the rush Wilbur had foreseen. He had just time to catch a sight of Moran at grapples with Hoang when a little hatchet glided over his head. He struck out savagely into the thick of the group—and then opened his eyes to find Moran washing the blood from his hair as he lay on the deck with his head in the hollow of her arm. Everything was quiet. The beachcombers were gone.

"Hello! What—what—what is it?" he asked, springing to his feet, his head swimming and smarting. "We had a row, didn't we? Did they hurt you?
Oh, I remember. I got a cut over the head—one of the hatchet men. Did they hurt you?"

"They got the loot," she growled.
"Filthy vermin! And, just to make everything pleasant, the schooner's sinking."

CHAPTER VIII.

"SINKING!" exclaimed Wilbur.
Moran was already on her feet. "We'll have to beach her," she cried, "and we're six miles out! Up y'r jib, mate!" The two set the jib, flying jib and stay-sails.

The fore and main sails were already drawing, and under all the spread of her canvas the Bertha raced back toward the shore.

But by the time she was within the head of the bay her stern had settled to such an extent that the forefoot was clear of the water, the bowsprit pointing high into the heavens. Moran was at the wheel, her scowl thicker than ever, her eyes measuring the strength of water that lay between the schooner and the shore.

"She'll never make it in the world," she muttered as she listened to the wash of the water in the cabin under her feet. In the hold empty barrels were afloat, knocking hollowly against each other. "We're in a bad way, mate."

"If it comes to that," returned Wilbur, surprised to see her thus easily downcast who was usually so indomitable—"If it comes to that, we can swim for it—a couple of planks!"

"Swim?" she echoed. "I'm not thinking of that. Of course we could swim."

"What then?"
"The sharks!"

Gravel and Bladder Disease
Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto Bricklayer Relieved of Those Terrible Troubles—Medical Science Makes Another Move Forward.

Toronto, Ont., May 30.—(Special).— Medical science has at length awakened to the fact that Gravel and other bladder troubles are caused by disordered kidneys and that the modern method of curing them is to cure the kidneys with Dodd's Kidney Pills.
This does away with those terrible operations that in past years have been all too common.

The case of William Thomas, bricklayer, 158 Mill street, this city, is one of the recent proofs of the efficiency of the treatment. Mr. Thomas

"I had been troubled with Gravel and Bladder Disease for seven years.
I had to go to the hospital and have water taken from me, tried medicines of different kinds but they failed to remove the trouble."

"Hearing of cures by them promptly I tried Dodd's Kidney Pills, and after taking them for a time I passed a stone the size of a large bean. Four boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills made a complete cure in my case."

"UNTO YOU, YOUNG MEN."

Thoughts on the Business of Life by Sir Gilbert Parker.

It is very easy to give advice, and for my own part I have taken very little advice in the world, chiefly, I suppose, because I have asked so little; also because, unless the matter on which advice is sought is one to which a general principle can be applied, it is as likely to do harm as good. I am speaking now more particularly of advice upon the matters connected with the business of life.
I think we can all help each other a great deal by advice in personal and moral affairs, writes Sir Gilbert Parker in "Our Young Men."

In the work of life, however, in the making of a career, I believe the root of the thing is in the man himself, and no advice is of much value unless the man feels in his bones it was the true counsel to receive.

I have been asked sometimes by people very near and dear to me questions as to what course to pursue where the business or professional interests of life were concerned, and my reply invariably has been,
"What do you feel that you must do? I know what I should do if the circumstances were mine, but I do not think or feel or work quite in the same way that you do, and to suggest a course which would be my course might be to advise a path unsuitable to you."

I believe that the secret of success in life is what I may call a well-defined policy, a goal, an object in view—to make the most of yourself; to test yourself; not to be impelled by a wish for worldly honor or profits, but first to secure that competence which makes every man a better citizen of the State, because self-supporting, and then to use, as in his duty, every energy and every ability he possesses to its utmost.
Nothing is sadder than wasted energy, misdirected force.

On the other hand, nothing is so useful as conservation of energy. I believe that a great number of young men are continually working useles-ly in order to be able to do something. They are hammering on the anvil; they are going to the furnace to be tempered; they are going to the forge to be made into tools. It is well to strike when the iron is hot, but it is also well not to strike until the iron is hot. To act is good; but to choose wisely the time for action is what makes it good. To do things in season and out of season is an axiom which is followed much too often, I believe.

Action, without the watchful eye,
the careful and observant mind, which sees the moment to strike and then promptly delivers the blow, as often as not mars chance and fortune. The danger of our age is that we do too much and think too little. There is nothing more splendid than energy and force applied to an object with enthusiasm, with an ardent purpose. There is also nothing so good as seasons of passive thought, of apparent idleness, of meditation free from the imp of restless action constantly nudging the elbow.

While being direct of purpose one should avoid being narrow. The main idea should be at the back of the head all the time, but the greatest elasticity of action in detail should be cultivated so long as it is not out of harmony with the general purpose of life. With all these things nothing is so valuable as self-reliance. I have seen this joined to extraordinary shyness and modesty. Shyness is not a bad fault.
It is more to be desired than a personal aggressiveness. The chief thing is to know what you want, and then to move steadily towards it, remembering always to play the game fairly, and realizing that you never get safe foothold on the ladder of life by pulling another man down.

A Great Composer.

"It was a mistake to ask that man if he thought America would ever produce a great composer. I am afraid you hurt his feelings."

"I don't see why," responded the musical young woman.

"He is the inventor of a soothing drug."

JUST WHAT YOU NEED.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are just what you need when constipated; when you have no appetite, feel dull after eating and wake up with a bad taste in your mouth.
They will improve your appetite, cleanse and invigorate your stomach,
and give you a relish for your food.

What He Wanted.

"A tall bride is the best looking,
don't you think?"

"Well," replied the titled Englishman who had caught on to a little American slang, "so far as I am personally concerned I certainly am not looking for one who is 'short.'"

A FARMER CURED OF RHEUMA-TISM.

"A man living on a farm near here came in a short time ago completely doubled up with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and told him to use it freely and if not satisfied after using it he need not pay a cent for it," says
C. P. Rayder, of Pottsville, N. Y.

"A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar, saying, 'give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I want it in the house all the time for it cured me.' For sale by All Druggists."

Putting Words in Her Mouth.

"I declare," said Bella sweetly, "your thoughts run exactly in unison with mine, Augustus. I had those very words in my mouth."

"Yes, and I saw him put 'em there, too," said little Tommy, who had seen the kissing going on.

IF YOU HAVE A BAD COLD

If you are sneezing and suffering from a "stuffed-up" head and running eyes the best plan is to get fragrant healing Catarrhazone, the quickest and surest cure for cold in the head, coughs and catarrh ever discovered. This great healing agent is carried by the air you breathe all through the passages of the nose, throat and lungs. It soothes the irritated membranes, kills catarrhal germs, instantly stops the cough and sneezing. It's the antiseptic vapor of Catarrhazone that does the curing. A trial proves that a cold can be killed in a few minutes by Catarrhazone.
Money back if it fails. Complete outfit $1.00; small size 25c.

OLD AGE.

Old age as it comes in the orderly process of Nature is a beautiful and majestic thing. The very shadow of it, which threatens it, makes it the more prized. It stands for experience, knowledge, wisdom and counsel. That is old age as it should be. But old age as it often is means nothing but a second childhood of mind and body. What makes the difference? Very largely the care of the stomach. In youth and the full strength of manhood it doesn't seem to matter how we treat the stomach.
We abuse it, overwork it, injure it.
We don't suffer from it much. But when age comes the stomach is worn out. It can't prepare and distribute the needed nourishment to the body, and the body, un nourished, falls into senile decay. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a wonderful medicine for old people whose stomachs are "weak" and whose digestions are "poor." Its invigorating effects are felt by mind as well as body. It takes the sting from old age, and makes old people strong.

STRICTURES Cured To Stay Cured

Strictures, no matter where located, are apt to involve the surrounding structures. If neglected or improperly treated, urinary stricture will produce distressing symptoms. Cutting, stretching and tearing are the old barbarous methods of treating this disease. The strictly modern and original methods employed by us are free from the horrors of surgery and are absolutely safe and harmless. The abnormal stricture tissue is dissolved and leaves the channel free and clear. All unnatural discharges cease, any irritation or burning sensation disappears, the kidneys, bladder, prostate gland and other surrounding organs are strengthened and the bliss of manhood returns. Our ABSORPTIVE TREATMENT will positively cure you. YOU CAN PAY WHEN CURED.

NO REASON YOU SHOULD GIVE UP

Because Your Indigestion Has Become Chronic—Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets
Will Cure It Just the Same.

If your Indigestion has turned to Dyspepsia and become chronic that is no reason you should despair.
There is just as bad as you have been cured by Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.
Take the case of Mrs. James Bradley of Smith's Cove, Digby Co., N. S.
Here's what she says about it herself:

"I had Dyspepsia for over nine years. I tried the best doctors in the place and never found relief. I got to starve myself from eating.
No tongue can tell what I suffered.
I bought six boxes of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets and six of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and before I had finished taking them I could eat most anything and sleep comfortably."

There is no need to comment on a statement like this. It's true. What was done for Mrs. Bradley has been done for thousands of others. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets will do it for you.

When our vices quit us we flatter ourselves with the belief that it is we who quit them.

The horizon of life is broadened chiefly by the enlargement of the heart.

COLD SETTLES IN THE BACK.

It hits people in a tender spot and makes it mighty hard to brace up.
Nervine will take that sink out of your spinal column in short order.
It soothes, that's why relief comes so soon. Nervine penetrates, that's why it cures. Five times stronger than ordinary remedies, Nervine cannot fail to cure lame back, lumbago, sciatica and neuralgia. Nervine is king over all muscular pain, has no equal and costs 25c. per bottle.

Men generally are possessed of the idea that no limit should be placed on their desires.

A GOOD COMPLEXION.

Is a joy to every woman's heart and man is vain enough not to despise it. Beautiful complexion means pure blood, or in other words a healthy body. Tens of thousands of women take Ferrozone because it's a splendid blood builder, keeps the system in perfect order and helps the complexion wonderfully. I consider Ferrozone the best remedy to give you a clear, ruddy complexion I know of," writes Miss Ada E. Branson, of Pembroke. "My skin used to be sallow, but after taking a few boxes of Ferrozone a rosy tint was noticeable on my cheeks. I can recommend Ferrozone as a tonic also." For good health and beauty use only Fer-rozone. Price 50c. at druggists.

The man who parades his virtues is not always so successful in concealing his vices.

SACHEL OF THE SATELLITE

You cannot burn your candle at both ends and have it, too.

How do you like the old town, the old faces and the old familiar places?

Here's to the absent ones—Those who couldn't come, but we haven't forgotten them.

A rose by any other name might be quite as fair, but Chatham couldn't be anything else but Chatham.

The stay-at-homes wanted to give the wanderers on their return a show.
They have given them about fifty.

Why are the Chatham Old Boys like friendly suggestions? Because the Reception Committee are deligated to entertain them.

James McMahon, the Crimean veteran—When I struck King street this morning I thought I was again in front of Sebastopol.

Dyspeptic Fryer, Galt's leading alderman, has something the matter with his eyesight. When he reaches Hade's he'll think he's in Paradise.

"It don't seem like the same old town," I hear the home-comers sing,
"but it's dear old Chatham just the same." The old town has just a new dress, that is all.

Talking about the secretaries who have carried the Old Boys' Re-union to a successful issue, I'll bet some of the home-comers are just Aitken to hear Scane's yarns.

If Councillor Fryer is a good sample of a member of the Galt Council, I would advise Galt to keep her alderman at home for the sake of any little reputation the village may have where it is not known.

When you were here, old boy, the residents used to delight in telling stories as to how it took a team of oxen ten weeks to pull an empty wagon down King street in the muddy season. Now they tell you how Dec. Cornell's automobile made a mile a minute on the splendid city pavements.

Chatham North claims to have one of the brightest boys in the city. The other day a lady living on Victoria avenue paid him a quarter on condition that he kill a cat that had grown too old. Joe, as the lad is named, took the cat away. Half an hour afterwards there was a ring of the door bell. Going to the door, the lady of the house was horrified to find the boy with the dead cat in a bag. "Here's your cat," said Joe.
"I killed it."

"I don't want it. Take the horrid thing away and bury it," commanded the lady.

"You didn't pay me for burying it, only for killing it," was the ready retort of the lad and he refused to budge until the lady had produced another quarter.

PASSED AWAY

Margaret, the beloved wife of Peter Wade, of Highgate, passed away yesterday at her home. Deceased was a former Chathamite, and was a daughter of Joseph Peers, of this city.
She was well and popularly known in musical circles when she lived here. She was 39 years of age. The funeral arrangements have not been fully completed but the remains will be brought here from Highgate tomorrow morning at nine o'clock. Interment will be made in the Maple Leaf Cemetery.

A GOOD WORK

The Golden Sunshine Circle held their annual meeting for the election of officers in the Garner House parlors on Friday afternoon.

Reports showed that the circle has held 20 meetings during the year with an average attendance of 11. A number of families have been given assistance during the winter and made comfortable with wood, clothing, and groceries. The circle visited the House of Refuge and Home for the Friendless and gave a short program at each place and giving the inmates tobacco, candy and cake. The circle has given to the Home for the Friendless the Hospital twice a week and take flowers and books to the sick.
Christmas Eve plants and flowers were distributed in both hospitals.
One cooking sale and three musicales were held during the year and a good sum realized at each. Some very generous donations were made for the work and thankfully received by the circle. The total sum received for the Sunshine Circle was $73.87. The circle wish to thank all who have contributed in anyway to their funds during the past year and hope for a continuance of their interest and support. A vote of thanks was tendered the retiring officers and the following officers elected for the coming year:

Pres.—Mrs. Geo. Heyward.
Vice.—Mrs. R. V. Bray.
Treas.—Miss Vera Sheldon.
Sec.—Miss Vera Heyward.
This society is doing a noble work and should have the sympathy and support of every right thinking person in the city.

One thing a girl doesn't care to accumulate is a collection of birthdays.

Individuals are virtuous when they sacrifice their personal interest in the interest of all.

THOUSANDS OF WOMEN.

Women drift into a condition of half invalidism without knowing what ailing them is. It is the lack of vitality, aching back, limp pains, indigestion, headache, ANTI-PILL will lift these troudens. Any woman can prove this by writing Wilson-Pyle Co., Niagara Falls, Ont., for free trial bottle.

This announcement is particularly addressed to women, because of the peculiar adaptation of ANTI-PILL to help sick and ailing women, who feel that they are gradually losing strength and vitality.

The use of ANTI-PILL never fails to arouse energy to search out and overcome the ailing cause. It's a revelation in medicine that brings relief to the distressed, and brightens the despondent. It doctors but don't drug—is purely vegetable and can be used with perfect safety by delicate women at any stage of life. Its gentle and effective.

MUSICAL.

TWILIGHT RECITAL.

A delightful twilight organ recital was rendered in the First Presbyterian Church on Saturday afternoon to a very appreciative audience, by E.
Arthur, musical director of the Chatham Philharmonic Society.

E. B. ARTHUR.

The twilight recital is an innovation in the Maple City and promises to be a very pleasant one. A charming program was contributed by Mr.
Arthur, who was assisted by Mrs.
John Cooper and Miss Lucy McKellar as soloists. Both ladies sang exqui-siteness and added much to the enjoyment of the occasion.

It is the intention to arrange a series of these twilight recitals, which will be much appreciated by all lovers of music in the Maple City.

THE HEART OF TEXAS CO.
Open a week's engagement at the Grand this afternoon, playing matinee and night every day. The prices have just been cut in half and will remain 10, 20 and 30 cents during their stay here.

The Grand is the only place and attraction in the city where you can take your friends and rest while enjoying a clean, wholesome performance.

The Heart of Texas Co. is a double star attraction with Allan Villair and Pearl Lewis, two world-renowned stars playing the leading roles.
These two clever people are surrounded by a cast seldom equalled.

The theatre-going people of Chatham cannot realize what a treat they have in store for this week until they visit the Grand Opera House.
Tickets on sale at Briscoes.

The people who complain that they don't get their rights are apt to get left.
