ONE CENT

MARRIED AT SIXTEEN YEARS

Mrs. Grace Beemer Charged With Murder at Drumbo—Her Career.

[Canadian Press Despatch] WOODSTOCK, Ont., June 18.—Awaiting the arrival of the provincial analyst from Toronto and several witnesses from Drumbo, the case of Mrs. Grace Beemer, charged with the murder of her husband, Fred Beemer, through administering strychnine, did not begin this morning until 11 o'clock, an hour later than previously arranged. Owing to Mrs. Beemer's present delicate condition she was not taken to the police court room, but the hearing took place in the county judge's chambers at the Court House with Police Magistrate A. S. Ball in charge. R. N. Ball, K. C., county crown attorney, and Lieut.-Col. McMullen, K. C., conducting the defence. Mrs. Beemer, who is a rather attractive looking woman of about thirty, has eight children, who since her arrest have been in the custody of the Children's Aid Society in this city. The oldest is at work on a farm, while the other even are in the Shelter here. The woman married Fred Beemer, who was her father's brother when she was sixteen years old, he being many years her senior, and in their fourteen years of married life on their farm in Blenheim near Drumbo, they apparently did not meet with a very large degree of happiness.

Dressed in Black Mrs. Beemer was escorted into the court room at 11 o'clock by County Constable Hobson and took a chair in front of the magistrate, not being put in the prisoner's dock. Apart from the witnesses there were few spectators. Dr. Woolner, of Ayr, was the first witness. He was called in, he said, to see Fred Beemer on the morning of Saturday, March 22. "Beemer was suffering from cramps in his legs, sweating and had a considerable thirst," he said. "He was lying on a couch in the hall. Mrs. Beemer, the children and some of the neighbors being present. Mrs. Beemer told me she thought her husband had a stroke. I examined him and found he had not had a stroke."

The doctor did not satisfy himself as to the cause of Beemer's condition. Mrs. Beemer told him Beemer had had some sausage when away from home, which he did not agree with him. She said her husband took sick that morning, but had not been feeling well for some days. "My first idea was that he might have got some pomegranate poisoning and I treated him for that," said the witness. "I told Mrs. Beemer to give him salts later."

"Was there anything in the tablets you gave him to create spasms?" asked the crown attorney. "Absolutely nothing, they were to relieve them," was the reply. "What did Beemer complain of principally?" "Principally of spasmodic pains in his legs."

He saw Beemer again the same night, his condition being little changed and the pains being severe enough to cry out a number of times. Mrs. Beemer said she had given salts as directed and he ordered more. She told him she had given Beemer ipecac that morning to relieve his stomach. Sunday noon when the doctor paid his third visit he found Beemer much better. He had pains but not so severe. Monday night the doctor found Beemer's condition practically normal and he had been up during the day. "The man was practically well and I told him I would not need to return," said Dr. Woolner. "I was called again Tuesday and when I arrived about ten o'clock the man was dead."

"From his condition on Monday had you expected death to follow on Tuesday?" asked the Crown Attorney. "Most certainly not." "Had you made up your mind then of the cause of death?" (Continued on Page 4)

DOG PROVED FAITHFUL

NEW YORK, June 18.—A faithful dog, breed unrecorded, tried to seize Mrs. Annie Casey when she leaped from the fourth floor of a Brooklyn tenement to-day, and both woman and animal were crushed to death on the sidewalk below. Mrs. Casey's mind had given way of late, and she was to have been placed in a hospital to-day. The dog belonged to neighbors of the Caseys.

CLIMAX ON OVER SCANDAL

British Members of Parliament Are Fighting it Out To-Day.

LONDON, June 18.—The climax was reached to-day of the scandal connected with the ministerial transactions in Marconi shares at the time the British Government was negotiating contracts with the company. Cabinet ministers, who had been impugned, were to-day given their first opportunity of making a public explanation of the transactions which had caused the acute party strife known in British politics for many years.

Every seat in the House of Commons and all the public galleries were filled in anticipation of the debate and the intense interest with which the George and Attorney-General Sir Rufus Isaacs were awaited was shown in the obvious excitement which pervaded the assembly. George Cave, a Unionist member who on behalf of the opposition moved a vote of censure on the cabinet, regretting the transaction, made by certain ministers in the shares of the American Marconi company and the lack of frankness displayed by them toward the House of Commons, cleared the air somewhat by disclaiming at the outset any intention of charging personal corruption against any one of the ministers concerned.

The Money Owed to the City is to be Paid by the Street Railway—Good Work by Mr. Henderson.

Mayor Hartman is in receipt of a letter from City Solicitor Henderson, in which he points out that owing to the sudden death of Mr. Smoke, who had charge of the Grand Valley end of the case in the suit of the City of Brantford, defendants had asked for postponement of the trial until the autumn sittings in Toronto.

Before Chief Justice Falconbridge he had pointed out, on behalf of the city of Brantford, that the receiver in possession of the railway system, is receiving the revenue and paying nothing to the city; that the service is a public disgrace, and, further, that the matter is urgent. The learned judge held that the defendants must prepare for trial this month unless they should agree to reasonable terms. This they have now done, the terms being that $5000 shall be paid to the city on account of arrears of taxes before July 1st, and an additional sum of $2500 before Sept. 1st, and the trial is to take place in Brantford, instead of Toronto, on Sept. 16th. These conditions being agreed to by the companies interested, an order will be made accordingly. In view of the fact that the city's action is for forfeiture of the franchise, and that, if successful, its effect will be to prevent the Company running cars, and in view of the further fact that an action is pending by the first mortgagee to foreclose its mortgage on the property.

ENDING OF HUERTA-DIAZ COMPACT CHANGES MEXICAN SITUATION

GENERAL FELIX DIAZ

These are the principal figures in the Huerta-Diaz compact termination act of the shifting drama in Mexico. General Diaz ended his compact with President Huerta, who now assumes entire responsibility for the government and General Blanquet becomes the new Minister of War. President Huerta has assumed untrammelled direction of the government and is facing a situation far worse than anything that confronted the late Francisco I. Madero or General Porfirio Diaz.

MAY BE THE MAN KILLED AT PARIS

Lover of Lady Dawson's Maid, From Whom She Fleed.

[Canadian Press Despatch] MONTREAL, June 18.—After rejecting repeated advances of her lover, Thomas Baillie, and fleeing to the summer home of her employer at Metis, to avoid meeting him on his threatened arrival in Montreal, Miss Agnes Henderson, housemaid to Lady Dawson, is yet unaware of the sudden death of the man thought to be her unwelcome suitor. A despatch from Paris, Ont., tells of a man being killed by a G.T.R. train there. He had a memorandum book in which was Miss Henderson's address, and the description given tallies with that given by acquaintances in Montreal.

Miss Bella Anderson, of 388 Sherbrooke street west, stated that she knew Miss Henderson had gone with Baillie some three months ago, but that on a proposal of marriage from him she had given a refusal, and had declined to see him again. About ten weeks ago Baillie left for the West, visiting Edmonton and Calgary, and writing to Miss Henderson from both places. Last week the young woman received a letter from him from Toronto, stating that he was making his way to Montreal, where he would claim her for a bride. Miss Henderson did not reply to any of the letters, but obtained permission to remove from the city house to the country establishment at Metis. Miss Henderson did not mention her reason for wishing to change, but is said to have told her girl friends that Baillie was pursuing her, and that she wished to avoid him.

SUFFRAGETTES REFUSE TO EAT

Once Inside Prison They Start the Usual Hunger Strike.

LONDON, June 18.—The six leaders of the militant suffragette organization, who were sentenced to long terms of imprisonment on a charge of conspiracy at the Central Criminal Court yesterday, began a "hunger strike" immediately after reaching the jail. The prisoners, Miss Harriet Kerr, Miss Agnes Lake, Miss Rachel Barrett, Mrs. Beatrice Saunders, Miss Annie Kenney and Miss Laura Lennox, declared when sentence was pronounced that they would refuse to eat and would compel the authorities to release them.

No Serious Accidents Fortunately no serious accidents were reported yesterday, which is a wonder considering the immense crowd of people who were out and around and constantly exposed to danger.

THIS WOMAN PLEADED CASE

HAMILTON, June 18.—At the High Court yesterday, in the case of McPherson v. Ferguson, an action to recover possession of certain lands Mary Street, Mrs. Sarah Ferguson, the defendant, wearing Union Jacks and red, white and blue ribbons, pleaded her own case, her address lasting over an hour. She said she had cried 29 years, but all refused to take her case. She claimed that she had offered to pay the money in question before the first action, and had been thrown out of the sheriff's office at the time. This the sheriff denied on oath. Judgment was reserved.

CIRCUS LOST A BIG RHINOCEROS

Valuable Animal Died in Brantford Yesterday—A Natural Death.

It is not often that a rhinoceros has the chance of dying in Canada. Too often they are compelled by crush of circumstances over which they have no control to pass away, "unwept, unheralded and unsung," in dense jungles of the African wilds. This high honor—of dying in Canada—has come to one fine specimen in the menagerie collection of the Barnum and Bailey circus. The rhinoceros died Tuesday afternoon when the circus was in Brantford. He was an unusually fine specimen of the horned type.

Mr. Rhinoceros had not died in vain, however, in a certain sense he will be immortal, for yesterday a representative of the Barnum and Bailey management called up President Falconer and presented the remains of the rhinoceros to Toronto University. President Falconer was quite pleased with the present and after getting into communication with Prof. A. Pride of the biological department arrangement was made for the mounting of the skeleton in the university museum. The animal when alive was worth $6,000. The bones were shipped to Toronto last night. Tuberculosis was the cause of the demise. Dr. Cutcliffe said to-day that the cause of the death of the big animal was due to tuberculosis. Its meat was stripped from the bones and fed to other animals of the show. The bones only being shipped to Toronto University.

Race Goes Through BELFAST, Ireland, June 18.—The full conditions of the approaching races for America's cup have reached the Royal Ulster Yacht Club from New York, but they are not to be made public until Sir Thomas Lipton the challenger, has had an opportunity to discuss them with his advisers. It is, however, understood that the conditions with some slight alterations, are similar to those of the last races in 1903 and that they are agreeable to the committee of the Royal Ulster Yacht Club, which does not anticipate any hitch in the arrangements.

GO SLOWLY SAYS BISHOP

In Regard to Church Union—His Lordship's Address to the Synod.

[Canadian Press Despatch] LONDON, Ont., June 18.—That the wisest course was to hasten slowly, that there were no short cuts to church unity, and that unity would be purchased too dearly if the price was to sacrifice truths, were some of the outstanding features of the remarks of His Lordship Bishop Williams upon the question of church union in his charge before the Synod of Huron this afternoon. Deprecated Dividing Church. His Lordship said the objection of the Bishops to the recent circular was that they deplored the issuing of specific proposals that would tend to divide the Church. A union that meant cutting away from the communion in the rest of the world would be a Canadian hybrid, diverse from all and owned by none. The Church in Canada was in communion with the Church throughout the world. Two fundamentals were the historic episcopate and confirmation and to sacrifice either would be a breach of faith. Any scheme worthy of the name of unity would have to take in the Latin and Greek Church, and as the Presbyterian and Methodist Churches refused to negotiate with them they left out three-fourths of the Christian world.

No Short Cut to Union

Moreover, there would never be church unity until the people were of a more charitable mind and teachable spirit. Divisions caused by years could not be healed in a day, and there was no short cut to church union. He maintained that the Anglican Church was the distinctive witness to mediate between two extremes, the over-reformed and the unreformed Churches. They were prepared to sacrifice much, but not everything, and he wanted to know what their Protestant brethren were prepared to sacrifice. Knowledge of this would be the next step that would have to be taken. Till then he urged the Church to hold fast to their own Church, and concentrate on work without internal dissension. His remarks on church unity were greeted with the most frequent and hearty applause.

Danger in Forestalling Opinion

Referring to moral and social reform, the Bishop thought there was danger in seeking legislation in advance of public opinion. It was not men's environment that needed changing so much as men themselves. He pleaded for individual effort and personal service. Should Pay 20th Century Stipends His Lordship made an appeal for larger stipends for the clergy. At present the clergy had to worry about worldly matters because the people's conscience had not been developed. It was a standing puzzle to him how business men were satisfied to give the same stipends to their ministers as they were paying ten or twenty years ago. They should come out of the nineteenth century into the twentieth (Continued on Page 3)

MILITANTS GO TO JAIL

LONDON, June 18.—Two militant suffragettes, Mrs. Marianne Clarendon Hyde and Mrs. Dunning, of the Women's Freedom League, were to-day sentenced to fourteen days' imprisonment on their refusal to pay fines of $5 each inflicted on them by the police magistrate for obstructing the police, who suppressed their meeting yesterday in Downing street, near the official residence of Premier Asquith.

WALKED INTO HIS OWN WAKE

A New Jersey Irishman Gives Relatives a Startling Surprise.

[Canadian Press Despatch] KEARNY, N. J., June 17.—James Kiely is still suffering to-day from the shock of witnessing what his relatives and friends believed to be his own "wake." When he returned to his home last night, after a few days absence on a painting job, he found his sister, Mrs. Catherine O'Brien, his two brothers and a score of neighbors sitting in the front parlor weeping over a coffin. The mourners spied him, as he stood on the threshold amazed at the scene, and his sister fainted at the shock of seeing him. The other mourners, when assured that he was not a ghost, explained affairs. During his absence the newspapers had told of the death of James Kelly from sunstroke in Newark. When Mrs. O'Brien read the item she feared that the victim was her brother and that the paper had misspelled his name. She went to view the body and the features were so nearly the double of those of her brother that she believed it to be his body and ordered it removed to her home.

LOCAL OPTIONISTS HOLD MEETING

Attendance Rather Slim Last Evening—Another Committee Appointed.

The attendance at the meeting of the local option executive last night in the Y. M. C. A. was not quite as good as was expected. The attendance was made up partly of ladies. The only matter of importance dealt with was the election of a nominating committee, consisting of J. F. Schultz, chairman, W. H. Hammond and Fred Mann. A meeting will be held at the "Y" next Tuesday night when the committee will bring in a report and the officers will be elected. Mr. Schultz was chairman of last night's meeting.

Cancer Curable

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 18.—That cancer of the stomach is a curable disease was the declaration of Dr. William D. Mayo of Rochester, Minn. "A favorable diagnosis can be established by simple methods," he asserted. "A history of gastric disturbance precedes cancer in a large number of cases. Operations for cancer of the stomach should begin as an exploration. Moderate involvement of the pancreas does not necessarily preclude operation. Palliative operations have a field of usefulness." Dr. Mayo gave a review of statistics of signs and symptoms observed in 1,000 patients operated on for cancer of the stomach.

Contractors Responsible

VANCOUVER, June 18.—That responsibility for the collapse of the building that killed Harry Anderson rested with the contractors, Wineman and Company, was the verdict of the coroner's jury yesterday evening. The jury also considers there was want of proper supervision in construction.

Infernal Machine Was Sent Through Mail

One Woman at Sherbrooke, Que. Killed, Another Mortally Wounded—Explosion Ruined House.

SHERBROOKE, Que., June 18.—An infernal machine, sent through the mails when opened this morning killed Mrs. Bilodeau and mortally wounded Miss Bilodeau, her sister-in-law. The infernal machine came through the post and was delivered in the ordinary way at noon. Mrs. Bilodeau was proceeding to open it when the parcel exploded and Mrs. Bilodeau fell to the floor terribly injured, death coming to her instantaneously. Miss Bilodeau, who was with her sister-in-law at the time the parcel arrived, was hurled across the room by the explosion, and in addition to bad injuries about the body, had one arm blown completely off. Miss Bilodeau was hurried to the hospital, where it was said that she will not recover. No Motive Unearthed. No motive has so far been unearthed by the police to explain the sending of the bomb, which was itself completely destroyed. The explosion also blew down a portion of the house. Miss Bilodeau, in the course of an interview at the hospital said the infernal machine was about six inches (Continued on Page 5)

AFTER CIRCUS POLICE COURT

One Man Said He Got Touch—ed For $500 Cheque—Man Arrested.

There was quite a grist of cases at the police court this morning. Teresa Voznjak charged Foda Rudik with the appropriation of $70. Rudik pleaded guilty and declared he was willing to give the money back. The magistrate warned him to do so and dismissed the case. Mr. Maldover is a very unlucky person. Yesterday he decided to take a day off and go to the Grand Valley circus. While about to board a street car he was jostled by the crowd, and when the conductor came to collect the fare Mr. Maldover found himself minus a wallet, containing a cheque for $500 and $38 in bills and silver. Two Armenians who were in the crowd were arrested, but the magistrate decided they knew nothing of the affair, and the case was dismissed. Mr. Wilkes appeared for the plaintiff and Mr. Hollinrake for the defendants. John Johnston was charged with being drunk. The Chief stated that Johnston was billed in Paris, but not in Brantford; Johnston was not present, but the magistrate adjourned the case.

James Wilson charged Frank Robbins with indecent and insulting language. It appears that Robbins was Wilson in front of the Grand Valley hotel. Some words were spoken in regard to a union card which belonged to Wilson. Robbins asked Wilson if he was going to take it out, and when Wilson said "No," it is said Robbins used the language that started the trouble. Both sides called several witnesses, who flatly contradicted one another. The magistrate, however, thought Robbins had used the words, and he was fined $2 and costs. Mr. Hollinrake appeared for Robbins.

J. W. Wood, an Indian, was charged with being drunk on Colborne street. He declared the booze had been given to him by a Frenchman who came from Montreal. When asked his name, Joe could not tell, and the magistrate thought it a fishy story. Wood was fined $5 and costs for his jubbly. J. Chanancy and Wm. Simpson, two vagrants, who were charged last week with not working, reported to the police that they had secured jobs, and the charges were dismissed.

Angus Sheppard, a vagrant, was arrested yesterday. Inspector Immigration David W. Reynolds obtained a statement from the prisoner. Sheppard was born in Stratford in 1875. In 1899 he was arrested in Port Huron for theft and received a sentence of four years in the Iowa Reformatory. He ran a saloon in Detroit for four months after his release, and also worked in a hotel in Niagara Falls for four months. In 1900 he was arrested and sentenced to three years and two months for the theft of diamonds. He has since worked as cook with railroad and construction camps, for $35 per month. The case was remanded till Friday.

Dropped Dead

NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C.—June 18.—While motoring just outside the city yesterday ex-Mayor John A. Lee dropped dead in his car from heart disease. At the close of a third successive term as mayor he was elected president of the New Westminster Board of Trade. He was a director of many of the city's institutions and a prominent Conservative. He leaves a widow and two children.

Men DO Read Advertisements

There has been some lively discussion on this subject lately, and at a dinner of advertising men in one of the larger cities, recently a prominent advertiser rose and asserted that "after all, very few men read advertisements." "You are absolutely wrong," retorted another advertising man, the manager of advertising in a department store. "We had a sale of shirts one day last week that was the most successful in the history of our business. 99 per cent of those who came in and bought were men. They came in direct response to our newspaper advertisement."

Everywhere in every station of life men find interest in advertising. It may not be clothing, shoes or hats; but it may be something that relates to real estate, banking, the stock market, to automobiles—to any of the thousand and one things that constantly form the subject of wide-awake advertising.

Put off until to-morrow the worry you ought to do today. Don't lag the busy little bee when he is going straight ahead.

RULERS VISIT THE KAISER

Sovereigns of Federated German States Present Felicitations.

Second Day of Emperor Wilhelm's "Silver" Jubilee as a Monarch is Given Up to the Visit of Princes of Various Principalities - Kaiser Lauded as Patron of Every Moral, Noble and Beautiful Impulse.

BERLIN, June 18.-"The day of the people" Monday, in the celebration of the completion of 25 years' reign by Emperor William, was succeeded yesterday by that of the allied sovereigns of the federated states of the empire, who, including the mayors of the three city republics-Hamburg, Bremen and Lubeck-presented their congratulations to their colleagues and leader at the castle.

Most of the rulers arrived in Berlin Monday night or yesterday morning, and gave the sons of the Emperor a busy session in receiving them at the various stations. They gathered at noon in the Pillar Hall of the castle and last night were present at a state banquet presided over by the Emperor.

The Pillar Hall is not in that part of the castle ordinarily used for state functions. It is situated in the portion devoted to the private apartments of the imperial family, and was chosen to enable the Empress Augusta Victoria, who is indisposed, to participate with the Emperor in the reception of the German rulers.

The Prince Regent of Bavaria, acting as spokesman, said the Emperor, as director of the foreign policy of the German Empire, had shown himself to be an upholder of peace and at the same time an upholder of the empire's might, which was the safest guarantee of honorable peace.

The prince regent then spoke of the economic progress made during the 25 years' reign of the Emperor over Germany, and praised his majesty as the patron of every moral, noble and beautiful impulse in the empire.

The Emperor was then presented by the prince regent with a table centrepiece in the shape of a ship. The Emperor thanked his colleagues for their steady support during his reign. He emphasized among the other elements of progress the attention devoted to sport and the cultivation of the ideal of "a sound mind in a sound body."

Pathetic Plight of Those Who Drew Cragnour in Sweepstakes.

In the delirious excitement of the disqualification of the favorite for the Derby after it had raced home first, the position of those who held Cragnour in the sweepstakes was truly pathetic.

Dr. Price Davies, a house surgeon at the Wolverhampton General Hospital, drew Cragnour in the great Calcutta Sweep, which will pay about £50,000 to the winner.

Dr. Davies received a telegram from a friend in India on Monday stating that he had drawn Cragnour. His friend added that he would sell half for a substantial sum. He received a cable on Thursday to the effect that the sale of a portion of the ticket had not been carried through.

Cragnour was drawn in the Bouveret Turf Club's £23,000 sweep by Mr. Veitch of Southend-on-Sea. Mr. Veitch, who spends his spare time playing bowls, takes his calamity philosophically.

He refused several magnificent offers for his chance in the sweepstakes. He made no hasty arrangements on Wednesday for allocating his prospective wealth, and is content with the £100 which he will receive for having drawn a starter.

The actual winner in the Bouveret sweep (Switzerland), is Mr. W. T. Grover of the Bridge Hotel, Shawford, Hants., who takes £5,500. The second prize of £2,750 goes to Mr. R. Mack, Newton Don Stables, Kelsor, Scotland; and the third, of £1,375, to Mr. Arthur Purnell, 25 Archer-road, Penarth, Cardiff.

To Remove Mildew.

Mildew is very difficult to remove. One method is to rub the spots with lemon-juice and then with salt. Another is to wet them with warm water, rub on a little soap, and sprinkle with powdered French chalk and salt. Dry in the sun and repeat the treatment if necessary.

If these methods fail, bleaching water can be resorted to. A simple bleaching water is made by boiling a tablespoonful of borax in a quart of water.

CITY NEWS ITEMS

THE PROBS

Trades and Labor.
The Trades and Labor Council meets to-night in Union Hall.

Faithful Fans.
Quite a number of the faithful baseball fans went down to Hamilton on the radial this afternoon to witness the game between the Red Sox and Knotty Lee's Tigers.

Miss Cahill Improving.
The condition of Miss Marie Cahill, who had her right arm cut off on Sunday afternoon, is very favorable, and she is getting along nicely and is now considered out of danger.

No Communications.
"No communications," said City Clerk Leonard this morning, and for once in his life the Major was not called upon to open any letters, a very unusual case in this busy, bustling city of 30,000.

Had Splendid Day.
The Brantford Street Railway gave a fairly good service yesterday considering the crowd they were called upon to handle, and consequently the treasury, which in the law courts is said to be depleted, looked real good.

Elephants Noticed.
The elephants in the parade yesterday had a great time licking up the water out of the holes in the pavement along the route of the procession and throwing the same over themselves and those who happened to be standing in the near vicinity.

Made Money.
Some auto owners yesterday made some money in the transportation business, carrying people to and from the circus, but the fact that they neglected to take out a license may mean some trouble. An investigation is being held by the police.

County Council.
The June Session of the County Council opened this morning at 10.30 with every member present and Reeve Kendrick in the chair. The morning was spent in dealing with communication and at twelve an adjournment was made until this afternoon.

A Rude Remark.
A well-known "joker" in the city dropped into the city clerk's office yesterday morning, and noticed Major Leonard paying some men money for the use of their horses which were taken to the Niagara camp, and remarked: "Is this the new 25th Brant Dragons armories?"

Horse Died.
While driving home last night a horse owned and driven by an Indian by the name of Martin, became sick in front of Peachey's grocery store and died in a few minutes. The animal was unhitched and was being led toward the lane which leads to Mr. Newham's barn when he dropped.

Dr. Mackenzie to Act.
At last evening's session of the Synod of Huron, in London, a large volume of routine business was transacted. The change of Bishop Williams was considered briefly, and it was decided to have those portions of it referring to church union and temperance and moral reform printed for distribution. A special committee, composed of Revs. Canon Tucker, Archdeacon Mackenzie, E. V. Henderson, J. K. H. Pope, J. P. Bucke and Judge Holt, was named to bring in recommendations dealing with it.

Circus Man Deported.
Yesterday a Barnum & Bailey circus employee, who had joined the show in the United States, was detained here by the local police owing to his having been dismissed by the circus people. The circus people are under bond with the Canadian Government not to dismiss any employee in Canada who comes across the United States border with them without informing the Immigration Department at Ottawa or one of its officers. Travelling Inspector Reynolds was notified and came here last night. The employee was sent back to the U.S. via Buffalo. Inspector Reynolds left at 11.15 this morning for Berlin to investigate the cases of the circus employees held by the Berlin police in connection with the trouble when the circus showed here.

Interesting Sight.
An interesting sight at the recent Horse Show in Galt, was a team of oxen hitched to an old wagon by the old time method of chains and large wooden neck yokes. It was in charge of Mr. A. Rossell of Little Scotland. The animals have been christened "Mac" and "Casey" in honor of the well known Galt furnishing store, one of the proprietors of which has developed a peculiar affection for the brutes. At noon they paraded the streets with "Mammy" MacFarland riding contentedly in the wagon as she joyously sucked an old clay pipe. On their arrival at the park, "Mammy" was presented with a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums by Dr. Vardon, Chairman of the Reception committee. Some delay was experienced on account of an altercation with a member of the police force, who stated that it was his duty to arrest the whole outfit for exceeding the speed limit. However, a careful calculation and reference to the concealed speedometer convinced the officer

Temperature.
Temperature for the past twenty four hours, highest 78, lowest 49; same date last year, highest 74, lowest 46.

Bass Fishing.
Bass fishing opened on Monday of the week and numerous good catches are reported in the Grand.

Sold the Bear.
Mr Slattery of West Mill street, sold his cub bear to the Barnum and Bailey circus management for $150.

Erecting Poles.
Workmen are erecting poles on William street for the Hydro Electric system.

County Council.
A three day session of the County Council opens to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock. During the session a deputation from the Motor League will wait upon the Council with regard to road improvement. The June session is the heaviest of the year.

Is This the Case?
Says the Guelph Mercury of Friday: The crops between Guelph and Brantford do not look any too promising. In some instances the clover will be very light, although there are a few good fields that will give an average yield. Rye will be little better than half a crop, and oats and barley do not look any too good, and are badly in need of rain.

More Skulls Found.
Contractor Patrick Fitzpatrick, in charge of part of the grading on the Lake Erie and Northern Railway, discovered two more Indian skulls near Brantford. One still had the hair on it which would indicate that it had been buried for only a comparatively short time. A number of Indian beads and a pair of moccasins were also found.—Galt Reporter.

Ran Nail in Foot.
One of the elephants while being unloaded yesterday morning, stepped on a board and ran a long wire nail into its foot. The elephant took his trunk and belongings and backed into the car and there stayed all day. It turned out that it was the regular pitcher on the elephant ball team, and consequently the team were short their star man.

Scouting Party.
His Worship the Mayor and a few of the aldermen went on a scouting expedition on Friday night and swooped down on the 25th Dragoon Band, and found that there were only 24 musicians playing at the concert that was given at Jubilee Terrace. The contracts calls for 30 men and conductor. His Worship read the "riot act" this morning and the cavalry band will have to muster 31 musicians, or their contract will be cancelled.

Baptist Meeting.
A meeting of the congregation of the Onondaga Baptist church was held in the edifice last night, Rev C. W. Rose presiding. A discussion took place whether to keep the church open or to close it. Recently most of the congregation have moved away from that section of the county, and the congregation has dwindled down to about 6. Rev. Dr. W. E. Norton, superintendent of home missions, was also in attendance. It was finally decided to keep the church open for an indefinite period.

Hon. Young's Will.
A despatch from Toronto contains the following information of interest to Brantfordites: By the will of the late Hon. James Young of Galt, formerly Provincial Treasurer of Ontario, who left an estate valued at $7,482, the sum of $25,000 is bequeathed as a mortuary chapel in Galt cemetery and $2,000 for the beautification of the middle entrance into the cemetery and the grounds surrounding the chapel. To the widow he left his home in Galt and an annuity of $2,500 and small bequests are made to near and distant relatives. Galt public library gets a collection of parliamentary papers.

His Own Horse.
Mr. J. Newham, the well-known Eagle Place butcher, was very much surprised last night while standing in front of Mr. Mart's ice cream parlor to see a rider coming on a horse which appeared to belong to him. When horse and rider came along he recognized the horse and went out and stopped the rider and ordered him to get off the horse, which he did. Mr. Newham works the Hird farm, and the animal had been taken from the stable. Mr. Newham states that the man was not a circus employee, and also that he could locate him if he wished, but he does not wish to make any trouble.

Obituary

The Late Mrs. Thomas.

There passed away this morning at her late residence 96 Wellington street, Elizabeth Webster, beloved wife of Mr. T. H. Webster, formerly of the Waterworks Engine Works. The late Mrs. Thomas was in her 73rd year and came to this city in 1854 from Berwickshire, Scotland and has resided in this city ever since. Deceased was a member of Zion Presbyterian church and was an active worker until some seven years ago, when owing to health she was compelled to give up much of her church work. She had been a sufferer from paralysis for many years. For the past five years she had been an invalid. During her long illness the late Mrs. Thomas had been a patient sufferer—was always cheerful and glad to have her many friends visit her. She leaves to mourn her loss, besides a sorrowing husband, one daughter, Miss Isabel, at home, and one son, David C. of New York City, and two brothers, Mr. David Webster of the Waterworks department in this city, and Mr. Alexander Webster of London, and a host of friends, who will share with the family in their great loss. The late R. H. Thomas, New York city was also a son.

GALT GOING ALL TO PIECES

At Last Sanctimonious Agreement Stopping Sunday Cars is Broken.

Says the Galt Reporter: At last the Sunday traveller on the Grand Valley does not have to walk down below the lime kiln but can board the car at Concession street.

The Grand Valley Railway Company had an agreement with the town not to run past the municipal boundaries, but this expired in 1911, and as the company has a Dominion charter, it may run its cars into Galt on Sunday. On Sunday last the cars were run to Concession street, and it is needless to say those who were travelling appreciated the extra ride.

The company intends to regularly send its Sunday cars into town, so the Reporter is informed, and the only question now is why the company does not run them up to the down town ticket office.

The other Sunday a clergyman, bound for Galt, wondered what went wrong when the car stopped at the little bridge below the town, and the passengers got out. On being informed that he was as far as the car ran, he was rather surprised, and no wonder.

Infernal Machine

Mrs. Biloiseau was the wife of Theo. Biloiseau, a contractor. An inquest will be held this evening by Coroner Bachand, and in the meantime the police are attempting to trace the sender of the infernal machine through the postoffice.

A search of the room revealed pieces of a letter which had evidently been inside the parcel containing the bomb. The writing upon these pieces is in French, and the police think that though they will not be able to join the fragments together to form the whole letter, the writing will give them a clue.

Coroner Bachand swore in a jury and took the testimony of a few witnesses. Omer Gaumont, a postman, said the parcel bore Canadian stamps.

After hearing the witnesses the inquest was adjourned until Thursday when it is hoped Miss Biloiseau will have sufficiently recovered to give her evidence.

FIRST RECITAL WAS A VERY PLEASING EVENT JUNIORS DID WELL

The first of the three closing recitals of the Academy of Music was held in Victoria Hall last evening. The Academy teachers have always held a very high reputation for most thorough and exact training in every grade of work, and this was fully sustained by the excellence of the pupils' work last night. It is impossible among so many pupils who did so well, to single out any for particular mention. The primary grade was represented by the first three numbers on the program, and their work was excellent. The fifth, sixth and eighth numbers were junior. The program was a difficult one of its grade, and many flattering remarks were heard. The closing will be continued to-night and to-morrow night.

GEORGE—HURLEY
St. Mary's Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding this morning, when Miss Catharine Anne Hurley, of Strathroy, Ont., formerly of Brantford, became the bride of Marshall George of Strathroy, Rev. P. J. Padden officiating.

The bride was beautifully gowned in a dress of ecru silk with picture hat, and was assisted by her niece, Miss May Hickey, who was becomingly gowned in blue silk with hat to match, and the groom was supported by Mr. D. L. Hurley of Toronto.

Mr. Robert Pitts aided entered Mendelssohn's wedding March as the bridal party entered the church and during the signing of the register, Mr. Gilbert E. Pitts of Hamilton sang, "Oh, Perfect Love." After a dainty wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents, Main street, the young couple left for a honeymoon trip to Buffalo and Crystal Beach, the bride wearing a becoming suit of navy blue with ruscan hat.

MacKay—Hazen.

ST. JOHN, N.B., June 18.—Miss Katherine E. Hazen, daughter of Hon. J. D. Hazen, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, was married this afternoon in St. Paul's Episcopal church, to Hugh MacKay, son of W. Malcolm MacKay, a prominent lumberman, and with whom he is associated in business.

It was a brilliant social event, as the bride is one of the leaders in local society. The Rev. E. D. Hooper performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. A. W. Daniel.

There were 250 invited guests besides many other friends present. The out-of-town guests included, His Lordship, Bishop of Fredericton, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Tibbits, of Ottawa, Attorney-General Grimmer and Miss Hazen Grimmer of St. Stephen, Judge Wells of Ottawa, Lieutenant-Governor Wood and Mrs. Wood.

A lawn reception followed the wedding.

A honeymoon will be spent on the St. John River. Included in the presents received by the bride were a necklace watch and chain of grey enamel set with diamonds, from the members of the executive council, of New Brunswick; a Persian rug from the staff of the Marine and Fisheries Department at St. John, a sterling silver tray from the headquarters staff of the department at Ottawa, a crown derby dinner set from the Collingwood Shipbuilding Co., of Collingwood, Ont. a silver candelabra from the harbor commissioners of Montreal, and a blue and gold wedding-wood dinner set from the staff cabinet ministers at Ottawa.

Sporting Comment

In spite of the fact that the Brantford ball team won a game yesterday we commend to President Nelson a couple of those ball playing elephants with Barnum and Bailey's yesterday.

Chubby Coose can apparently show some of the pitchers how to pitch yet. We congratulate Coose. If he had the million dollar arm some other fellows had he would be the big show.

Pardon us for referring to the league standing, but we are only eight and a half games behind St. Thomas.

Catcher English has been farmed out by Brantford to Keene, New Hampshire. He was glad of the opportunity of having regular work and before leaving said that everyone in Brantford had used him fine. This boy may be a great catcher some day and it is hoped to bring him back. The club could not afford just at present to retain him.

The Brantford Club for the remainder of the season will inaugurate a drastic change of policy. The club proposes to cut down to 12 men, including the manager, these 12 men of course being players above the average and being paid accordingly.

If Kane is successful in his jaunt east this finding the pill when Garlow was leaving and this coupled with an error in the first innings gave them one run.

The Hams got their only two in the eighth on three hits and an error and in the ninth on three hits had two men on and one out. Needham went to the plate and leaned on one that was travelling over second at a fast clip, but Wagner jumped into the air and pulled it down, ending the game.

If the ball had got away the score would have been tied.

Hett a new man played right field, Brundage being on the bench.

HAMILTON, A. B. R. H. O. A. C. Murphy, 1... 5 0 0 3 0 Needham, 3... 5 0 0 1 4 Killilea, 2... 4 1 1 6 1 Fisher, C... 2 0 1 3 1 Corns, M... 4 0 2 3 0 Tyson, R... 4 0 1 1 1 J. Murphy, S... 3 0 0 2 1 Harris, I... 4 0 1 7 1 Garlow, P... 3 0 0 0 2 Barton, R... 1 0 0 0 0

One new infielder for the Red Sox is due here to-day.

If Harry Donovan regains lost courage to-day with his good right arm he should beat Hamilton.

It is to be hoped that the players Kane secures will be able to hit that old pill.

NO STRAW HATS ALLOWED ON ASCOT'S ROYAL DAYS.

LONDON, June 18.—The Ascot season opened yesterday amid scenes of great brilliancy, King George with Queen Mary and the entire Court driving in state from Windsor Castle.

In open carriages drawn by six horses with postillions in the historic Ascot livery and scarlet-coated grooms their Majesties and their entourage made the six mile journey through Windsor's Great Park.

The royal enclosure was packed by elaborately gowned women and sprucely-attired cavaliers. In view of last year's scandal involving the sale of tickets to aspiring social climbers, and the possibility of suffragette raids on the racing, the entire course was under rigid police surveillance, and entrance to the enclosure was rigorously censored.

Nothing so negligible as a straw hat may be worn at Ascot, silk hat and morning coats being necessary. Every person admitted to the enclosure had to pass the scrutiny of two or three of the Lord Chamberlain's officials, as well as numerous Scotland Yard Detectives.

To-day's off day, when ordinary bettors may open on the track in long suits and straw hats, Thursday will be another "State Day," with a royal procession from Windsor. On Friday there will be no royal features, but the King and Queen will attend each day.

Canadian League. Guelph Turns Tables on "Shag" Senators. Guelph, June 18.—Guelph turned the tables on Ottawa yesterday, when they beat them in a well-played game by a score of 5 to 2. The game was won by the Leafs bunching hits off Ostermeyer in the first and sixth innings, while the Senators could only get to Ruben Schuyler in the first session, when they scored their only two runs in the game.—Both pitchers were good, but Schuyler was the better of the argument, being exceptionally good in the pinches. Ostermeyer repeatedly passed the Leafs' heavy hitters when runners were on the sacks. Pitchers Lecaire and Mc-report to Manager Cook yesterday. Saints Win Second of the Berlin Series. ST. THOMAS, June 18.—The Saints knocked Bradshaw out of the box in the first inning of yesterday's game with Berlin. Auld replaced him and he, too, was hit hard for two innings, but settled down and held the Ort men until the ninth. Berlin got to Reilly in the seventh and tied the score. Clements went in the box for the home team in the eighth and stopped further scoring. The locals won out in the ninth, when Kopp, the first hitter, was out. Wright hit a screaming single to left, Ort advanced him to third on a sizzler to right, and Burney drove him home with a hit down the first base line. The Saints showed some remarkable bases—running having nine stolen bases. Kopp swiping four and Wright two. Burns made a shoestring catch of Gurney's liner to right in the seventh that featured. Bowling. Six rinks of the Dufferin Bowling Club will go to Paris this afternoon for a game. The Dufferins will make the trip in autos. Dundee Won Out Big Fight. He Showed Dazzling Speed Against Jack White of Chicago. LOS ANGELES, June 18.—Jack White of Chicago, who lost the decision to ohmy Dundee of New York in their 20 round bout last night, more than held his own in his first half of the fight and at ten rounds it would have been a good draw, after that, however, he weakened although in flashes he punished Dundee with body punches. Dundee's dazzling speed, however, was too much for the Chicago featherweight. Jumping about his antagonist, darting in and out he dazed White with straight lefts to the face, alternating with an occasional right slam to the jaw. The end of the fight found Dundee just as strong and fast as ever, while White was writing fast. There was not a knockdown during the encounter. White appeared to have much the harder punch, but Dundee gave him few opportunities to set himself and in most of the slugging exchanges Dundee had the advantage. Several of the early rounds were fairly even, but after the tenth, White did not have a chance. There was considerable clinching, but very little resting and Dundee had a big lead in the close range exchanges. In the twentieth Dundee tore into White like a tornado and the Chicagoan was helpless against a volley of rights and lefts. In the last minute White sent in a right and left to the jaw, and a right to the stomach that worried the New Yorker, but it was only for a moment as the Italian was fighting at top speed when the final gong sounded. Anyway, a watched pot seldom boils over.

Anxious to Sell "Red" Rowe. BERLIN, June 18.—Manager Shaughnessy, of the Ottawa Club, is still seeking to get rid of "Red" Rowe, and Manager Keenan of the Berlin club, received a wire from him stating that he would trade Rowe for either Pitchers Bramble or Bradshaw. Keenan's answer to the Ottawa leader was a reply, as the Berlin club will not dispose of their two best pitchers unless some real good money offer is made. Keenan will pin his faith on the club as it now stands, with the addition of another infielder and an outfielder. He expects to get two Class "B" men before the end of this week. The Berlin club to date has lost many games by the hard luck route, and the gingery little leader of the Flying Dutchmen expects to get a break in the battles for the remainder of the season. BANDITS FIGHT FOR REAL CASH

A Daring Train Hold-Up is Reported Over the Wire To-Day.

[Canadian Press Despatch] SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 18.—Two masked bandits held up the Illinois Central Diamond special en route to Chicago from St. Louis, ten miles south of here this morning, fought a pitched battle with a posse of deputy sheriffs and city policemen from Springfield, who came upon them while dynamiting the safe in the express car, and escaped, after themselves running the engine to a point near the city limits of Springfield. The train was brought to Springfield early to-day, and an examination of the express car showed the bandits obtained nothing of value, the explosion of dynamite having failed to open the through safe, which contained $25,000. In addition to fighting a pitched battle with the officers, the bandits captured a policeman and a newspaper reporter and lined them up beside the express car with the messenger and curious passengers who came from the coaches of the train to ascertain the cause of the stop. No one was injured by the shots as far as known. The engine and express car were cut off from the rest of the train by the train crew at the point of revolvers. Conductor McWilliams on seeing the engine and express car pulling away from the train started to investigate. A little farther down the tracks he heard an explosion. He hastened to the home of a farmer and sent the warning to the city. Sheriff Mester and Chief of Police Underwood soon had officers scouring the country. A switch engine in charge of General Superintendent A. E. Cliff, of Clinton, left this city about 2 o'clock and on reaching Twentieth and Laurel streets came up to the engine and express car of the passenger train.

The switch engine returned to the city and the passenger engine was sent back to Glenora for the train. Engineer Shell reported that following the battle between the robbers and posse, the bandits took possession of his locomotive and ran it, making him sit quietly up on his box. One of the men performed the duties of fireman, while the other acted as engineer. The bandit handled the locomotive using the reverse lever, throttle and airbrakes in the same manner as any engineer would have handled it.

Fireman Peter S. Miller says he has no idea when or where the bandits boarded the train. The first he knew of their presence was when one of the masked robbers slid over the tender with a revolver in each hand, and covering both engineer and fireman, said: "Stop her." Engineer Shell obeyed the command. One bandit uncoupled the express car and gave the command to pull ahead. After going about a mile another order was given to stop. Miller is of the opinion that dynamite was applied to the safe half a dozen times before the sheriff's posse arrived on the scene and engaged the bandits in a pitched battle.

PRINCESS PAT WRITES A BOOK

And Queen Mary Strongly Disapproves of State Secrets Revealed.

LONDON, June 18.—The discovery that Princess Patricia, daughter of the Duke of Connaught, former Governor-General of Canada, has written a book dealing with her experiences while in Canada and her impressions when she visited the United States is causing a great deal of talk among the English Royal entourage, not only because nobody ever suspected the charming young woman of being an authoress, but especially because of the fact that Queen Mary has requested the Duchess of Connaught to have the manuscript burned. State secrets are said to be revealed. Several weeks ago the Princess Patricia loaned the manuscript to a friend and this friend in turn showed it to the Countess of Fortescue, Lady-in-Waiting to the Queen, and she promptly took the work to Queen Mary. From the furor it has created it is certain the manuscript will be most interesting. The Princess is also said to have the work back, but Queen Mary has thus far failed to return it.

ON THE HIRE SYSTEM

Stableman Brings Bed and Bedding to Show County Court Judge.

The Home Furnishing Mart, Old street, lost an action which they brought in the Shoreditch County Court on Thursday to recover from Alfred Henry John, stableman, £2, the balance due for a bed and bedding supplied. John said he saw one of the company's catalogues, and as he was about to be married, he ordered a full-size French design bedstead and bedding for £5 5s. on the hire purchase system. Only a few months afterwards the flock fell out of the bed, the wire of the spring "ripped to bits," and "it all went rusty." "Then, again, I bought a full sized bed," he added, "but on the day before I was married they sent along this thing, which is only a three quarter size, and is now worth nothing more than old iron." At this there was loud laughter, which was renewed when John said: "I should like your honor to see it. I have carried it all the way from home this morning." He then went backwards and forwards to the lobby until he had on view the whole of the bed and bedding. Judge Smyly said he considered that enough had been paid, and gave judgment for John, also awarding him his day's expenses.

DOLLS IN U. S. MUSEM

Fearful and Wonderful Playthings From Every Part of the Earth—In the National Museum at Washington there is a collection of something like 4,000 dolls, snugly tucked away in great wooden drawers, specially built for their lodgment. They are under the care of a superintendent, who devotes most of his time to their study. These dolls come from every country of the globe. Most of them, however, come from the savage tribes of American Indians and Eskimos of the West and North or the islands of the South Seas. They were collected in order that the government experts in ethnology might learn through the nature of a tribe's or nation's playthings and toys something of the character and process of the mental development of the individuals comprising it. So expert are some of these learned men that from mere inspection of the dolls of some new found trib-they can deduce the salient features and characteristics of the people, just as a zoologist can reconstruct an entire animal from a skull or thighbone.

Some of the dolls are fearfully and wonderfully made. This is especially true of those from some of the Eskimo and South Sea island tribes. Their faces are so hideous that nothing short of a malign genius could have fashioned them. Others are richly adorned and one—a doll from a branch of the Sioux Indians—has a dress covered with the milk-teeth of the elk, which is valued at several thousands of dollars.

Keeping a Veil Fresh The secret of keeping a veil in good condition is to take care of it when it is not in use. Put it on a flat surface and lay on top of it a piece of stiff paper as wide as the veil and about eighteen inches long. Roll the veil and paper together and fasten with one of the little wire clips used in offices for keeping papers together. Smooth the veil out as you roll it. You will be surprised to see how long a veil will last and look all right if such care is taken of it. There is nothing worth having that can be had without labor; labor, therefore, and improve the time. If we neglect our Springs, our Summers will be useless and contemptible, our harvest will be chaff, and the Winter of our old age unrespected and desolate. —Sir Walter Scott.

PROVED BEYOND DOUBT.

The disappointed victims of poor Catarrh remedies should read the statement of J. R. Smith, of Law Sirent, N. B. In Catarrhzone he found an absolute cure and says: "Last winter my little girl of eight caught cold which lodged in her ears, she became deaf and nothing helped. By taking Catarrhzone she got relief and gradually the discharge went away. She was cured perfectly of Catarrh. Personally I can recommend Catarrhzone for coughs and throat irritation; its use will be useless and contemptible, our harvest will be chaff, and the Winter of our old age unrespected and desolate. —Sir Walter Scott.

Over the hills to the poorhouse he goes in a heavy money-burning monster. But can you afford to spend ridiculous sums for automobile travel when a Ford will carry you in comfort, style, safety and record time at minimum cost?

More than 275,000 Fords now in service... "These are the marks of human teeth," observed Knapp, who was examining the leaf carefully.

"The Mystery of Agatha Webb"

By KATHARINE GREEN

"There is no light in the window," observed Abel. "What if we find them gone to bed?"

"We will wait them," said the constable. "I cannot go back without being myself assured that no more money like that given to Loton, remains in this house."

"Very well," remarked Knapp, and going up to the door before him he struck a resounding knock that was startling in that place of silence.

But loud as the muffled knock was it brought no answer. Not only the moonlight door, but the little windows on each side of it remained shut, and there was no evidence that the knock had been heard.

"Zabel! John Zabel!" shouted the constable, stepping around the side of the house. "Get up, my good friends, and let an old covey in. James John! Late as it is we have business with you. Open the door. Don't swap to dress."

But this appeal received no more recognition than the first, and after rapping on the window against which he had flung the words he came back and looked up and down the front of the house.

It had a solitary aspect and was much less comfortable looking than he had expected. Indeed, there were signs of poverty or at least of neglect about the place that astonished him. Not only had the weeds been allowed to grow over the doorstep, but from the unpainted front itself bits of board had rotted away, leaving great gaps about the window ledges and the base of the sunken and well high toppling chimney.

The moon flooding the roof showed up all these imperfections with pitiless insistence, and the torn edges of the green paper shades that half concealed the rooms within were plainly to be seen as well as the dismantled knobby hinges by which one nail to the old cracked door.

The vision of Knapp, with his ear laid against the door, added to the forlorn and sinister aspect of the scene and gave to the constable, who remembered the brothers in their palmy days, when they were the life and pride of the town, as by no means agreeable sensations as he advanced toward the detective and asked him what they should do now.

"Break down the door," was the uncompromising reply. "Or wait! The windows of country houses are seldom fastened. Let me see if I cannot enter by some one of them."

"Better not," said the coroner, with considerable feeling. "Let us exhaust all other means first." And he took hold of the knob of the door to shake it, when to his surprise it turned, and the door opened. It had not been locked.

Rather taken aback by this, he hesitated. But Knapp showed no such scruples. Without waiting for any man's permission he glided in and stepped cautiously, but without any delay, into a room the door of which stood wide open before him.

Knapp came stumbling back with a face whiter than his own. "Devilish work," he muttered and drew the others in to see.

Never will any of them forget that night. They had not as yet recovered any more than the mass of their townsfolk from the shock of seeing Agatha Webb lying in her blood on the old horsehair sofa. But this—this was so unexpected and so deplorable that, hardy men though they were, they succumbed without being able to resist the overpowering impression made upon them.

On the floor near the entrance lay one brother in a streak of moonlight which showed every feature of his worn and lifeless face, and at a table drawn up in the center of the room sat the other, rigid in death, with a book clutched in his hand.

Both had been dead some time, and on the faces and in the aspect of either was visible a misery that, added to his own gloom, which filled every corner of the bare room, seem a mockery well nigh unendurable to those who contemplated it.

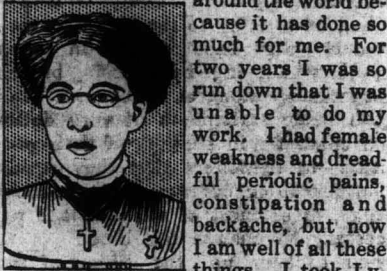

"A light! Let us have a light!" cried Mr. Fenton, speaking for the first time since his entrance. "These moonbeams are horrible. See how they cling to the bodies as if they delighted in lighting up these wasted and shrunken forms."

"I am glad they are dead," he muttered. "They have at least shared the fate of their victims. Take a look

Pure Bred Poultry From A Commercial Aspect

(Adopted from Lewis Wright)
It is a surprising fact that even at this time when breeds and strains of poultry have been brought to a very high stage of perfection, there are many poultry raisers who still cling devotedly to the idea that they secure the best results in their poultry keeping by crossing breeds or raising mongrel chickens. They will make statements of very decided character in support of their position—the effect that they secure harder stock or that they get more eggs, or oftenest of all, that it is necessary to change the blood every year to keep up the vigor of the flock, and to them changing the blood usually means changing the breed of the parent male. This fallacy is always most difficult to expel. To inculcate the idea of operating with a pure breed and of working along definite lines of development, is a slow process. Let us however briefly argue the advantages of the pure bred as opposed to the mongrel stock above mentioned.
To begin then, if we keep one breed well defined and pure, we insure uniformity of appearance and of product. If eggs be the product desired then we get eggs, uniform in size, and even in color, a desideratum surely. If dressed poultry is the product we require, we secure that uniformity of quality and appearance which makes for speedy sales. How often has the careful buyer hesitated about purchasing a pair of chickens because she feared that the size of the larger bird didn't quite make up for the weakness of the other.
Another strong argument for pure breeds, and against the mixed flock is this. In all breeding it must be remembered that the faults as well as the good points of a parent tend to be reproduced, and it is a well known fact that the good points of different breeds being themselves of different character usually neutralize each other, while the faults are as a general thing accentuated. Darwin has clearly proved that every crossing between alien breeds has a tendency to produce reversion to past types. So that to sum this argument tersely—to breed pure stock is to advance toward some definite goal, to cross-breed different types is to start a retrograde movement—while to mix breeds indiscriminately (as so often seen) is to tempt nature to produce freaks and follies of all sizes shapes, colors and characters.
The third and last argument is this. If it is desirable to develop a strain of fowls that will excel along one or more lines, this is possible only when a solid foundation of purity of breed. This is demonstrated by consideration of the fowl that have been developed to satisfy special demands. The flesh breeds in England, the Dorking and the Brahma in France, the Houdan, and the Favrolle. The egg producers, the egg laying contests of England and America have been won every time by fowls of pure breed; the highest egg records ever made are all held by pure bred hens. The highest type of general purpose fowl yet raised for either English or American markets are pure bred Wyandottes, Rocks, Orpingtons and Reds, etc.
To encourage the production of uniformity, poultry stock having well established characteristics and good qualities, is then, the office of every self-respecting poultry association.
To make it possible for beginners and others to secure foundation stock, having in purity the qualities demanded, is the duty of such associations, and best is the community which has the most honest, active organization of this kind.
In Brant County we have one of the most progressive of Poultry Associations, a list of the officers being published in a recent issue of this paper.
(Published under the auspices of the Brantford and Brant County Poultry Association.)

JEWEL BOX ROBBERY

Accused Thief Who Would Not Give His Pals Away for £500

Ingenuous Trick Which Led to a Haul of £3,500

By means of a cleverly planned trick an iron bound box containing jewels to the value of £3,500 was stolen from King's Cross Station on the Great Northern line on Tuesday. A reward of £500 pounds was offered for the recovery of the property, and by smart detective work nearly the whole of the valuables were recovered on Wednesday. Three men were charged on Thursday with the theft and remanded.
The box was left at the parcels office on Monday night by Messrs. Freeman, Jewellers, of Charterhouse Buildings, City Road. Some time later a boy, wearing the uniform of a District Messenger, called, gave him name of the firm who had consigned the box, and was allowed to have it removed from the office to the cloak room "to be called for."
Thieves had telephoned to one of the West End offices of the District Messenger Company, and when, in response to the call, a boy went to the hotel, he was handed a card bearing the name of Messrs. Freeman, and was given instructions to have the box removed from one department to the other. The box was transferred to the messenger boy being given a receipt which he handed to the person who had given him the card with Freeman's name on it.
The next move in the skillful game was the appearance at the cloak room of station at an early hour on Tuesday of a cabman, who presented the receipt for the box which had been given to the messenger boy. The cabman unsuspectingly removed the box.
Subsequently Mr. H. Freeman, who had intended traveling to Grantham with the box samples called at the parcels office and presented the original ticket, given to his firm's representative when the box was deposited, and to his dismay he learned what had occurred.
The goods included a number of spoons, teapots, snuff-boxes, cream jugs, sugar baskets, coffee pots, and entree dishes.
The names of the accused men are—Charles Schriever, a clerk in the office of Mr. Freeman and living at Canterbury-road, Leyton-road, Essex, aged twenty-two, a dealer, formerly in Mr. Freeman's service; and Frank Keekler, a chauffeur, of Sutherland-road, Bow.
Divisional Detective-Inspector Neil explained how, with Captain Callard chief of the Great Northern Railway police, he took up the inquiry with reference to the missing jewels. He went to the parcels office at Liverpool-street Station on Wednesday morning, where he saw a trunk and a bag containing a large quantity of silver goods, which had since been identified. He said to James, who was in custody, "I am a police inspector. I understand that you claim this trunk and bag." James replied in the affirmative.
Witness said they contained "the part proceeds of a robbery of jewelry and silver to the value of about £2,000, stolen from the King's Cross Great Northern Railway Company's office."
James replied, "Yes, I did the job. I was not alone. I will tell you about it later." He also said, "Send someone for my two bags. I have left them with the porter." These two cases were found to be full of jewelry.
About 10.30, continued the witness, he went to Charterhouse Buildings and saw Schriever. He told him that he had arrested James, and should also take him into custody for being concerned in the matter. Schriever said, "Yes, I was made to do this by James. I will tell you my story."
In the afternoon witness saw Keekler, who said, "Yes; I ought to have known better. I was drawn into it, and when I realized what they were doing it was too late. I had to go on. I assisted to break open the case, which I afterwards burned. I saw in last night's paper a reward of £500. I was a fool not to come forward, but I could not give a pal away."
The men were remanded, as stated.

UNFORTUNATE BOOK-MAKERS.

The bookmakers will have cause to remember Wednesday's Derby for some time to come. Many paid out over Craganour in the first instance, and then again when Aboyer was returned as the winner.
After Reiff, who passed the post first on Craganour, had weighed in, the "All Right" signal was certainly given by somebody in the enclosure. The authorities have not discovered who it was, but they say it was not an official.
The number went up, and as the stewards were slow in posting the objection, many bookmakers paid out on Craganour, unaware, that anything was amiss. One man disbursed £500. In the chief rings news of the objection quickly spread, and the bookmakers suspended business, but those outside paid on the tickets for the favorite.

MISS DAVIDSON'S RECORD

How She Stood a Water Hose Siege in a Manchester Goal.

Miss Emily Wilding Davidson was born at Blackheath about thirty-five years ago, but lived at Longhorsley, Northumberland, and was a B.A. (Honors) of London University. Since she joined the W. S. P. U. in 1908 she had earned the following sentences for militant achievements:
March 30, 1909—One month for obstruction.
July 30, 1909—Two months for obstruction at Limehouse.
Sept. 4, 1909—Two months for stone-throwing at White City, Manchester.
Nov. 19, 1910—One month for breaking window in House of Commons.
10, 1912—Six months for firing pillar boxes at Holloway.
Nov. 30, 1912—Ten days for assault at Aberdeen upon a Baptist minister whom she mistook for Mr. Lloyd George.
Miss Davidson has hunger-struck upon each occasion that she has been in the prison, as at Holloway, Manchester, she was placed in a cell containing two plank beds, and she promptly barricaded the door with the planks. The barricade was strengthened with a wedge—on which she sat—constructed out of a stool, shoes and hat brush, so effectively that the prison officials were powerless to open the door.
The cell window was broken, and through this a hose was turned upon her, but she clung to the bed boards and refused to move. Eventually the bell door was removed from the hinges. Soon afterwards she was released by order of the Home Secretary. In 1910 she won a case against the visiting magistrates of the prison.
During her imprisonment last year she threw herself down the stairs of the prison, sustaining injuries which caused her to be released a few days before the expiration of her sentence. On three occasions she has hidden in the House of Commons, the places of concealment including the hot-air shaft and the crypt.
£2,000 GEM ROBBERY.
Bricks Submitted for Diamonds on a Train Journey.
By an audacious trick, Mr. A. Brown, a Hatfield garden diamond merchant, has been robbed of diamonds and other jewels, valued at upwards of £2,000, whilst travelling from Manchester to London. He is of the opinion that he was shadowed by three men. The jewels were in a bag, which Mr. Brown placed on the railway carriage rack. During his temporary absence between Derby and Leicester another bag, containing bath bricks, was substituted for Mr. Brown's which it resembled.
Mrs. Brown, who went to meet her husband, told a curious story of seeing in a refreshment bar at St. Pancras three men in conversation, whose description tallies exactly with those given by Mr. Brown, of the three individuals whom he saw on his journey.
The following is the official list of the stolen jewelry: Four black leather cases, two containing diamond rings and two diamond and coloured stone rings, about twenty cases each containing six diamond and coloured stone rings, all stock-marked and initialed "A. B.," several single-sapphire brooches, several single-diamond pins, an opal pendant, several miniature brooches, a wallet containing a quantity of uncut diamonds, four or five parcels of cut diamonds, two parcels of sapphires, six dozen nine carat brooches, and an assortment of nine carat pearl pendants. Mr. Brown's property was only partly insured.

THREATENED WITH PARALYSIS
Peter E. Summers relates his experience: "I was troubled with Nervous Debility for many years. I lay in bed most of the day, and was very despondent and didn't care whether I worked or not. I imagined everybody who looked at me looked at me with pity. I had no energy, no strength, no memory, no power, etc. Numbness in the fingers and the doctor told me I had nervous paralysis. I took all kinds of medicines and tried many first-class physicians, wore an electric belt for three months, but received little benefit. I was obliged to consult Dr. Kennedy & Kennedy, though I had lost all faith in doctors. Like a drowning man I clung to the New Harmon Treatment and it saved my life. The improvement was like magic—I could feel the vigor going through the nerves. I was cured mentally and physically. I have sent them many patients and continue to do so."

Sensational Evidence Given at Beemer Case in Woodstock

But The Witness Does Not Believe That Woman Poisoned Husband

(Canadian Press Despatch)

WOODSTOCK, Ont., June 16.—With the case of the crown against Mrs. Beemer, charged with having given strychnine to her husband, F. Beemer, concluded, it appeared tonight that there were not a few points upon which a jury would require enlightenment before convicting.

For instance, there was no evidence that there was any strychnine in Beemer house or that they had received any from the neighbors. It was nothing to show that the man had any reason for killing his husband and the crown's own witnesses swore that they had heard of them living any way happily. There was, according to same witnesses nothing unusual in Mrs. Beemer's manner after her husband's death. She had nothing to financially by his death, as his acre farm was heavily mortgaged, will be lost now, it was stated; she is left with eight small children.

It was said by Dr. Woolmer, who attended Beemer that she apparently cared for her husband faithfully and there was no evidence that Beemer had the slightest suspicion that his wife was, as charged, the author of his illness.

The defence, which will be sent on Monday, June 30, will probably endeavor to prove that the probability is strong that Ope committed suicide. Beemer had a wife of trouble and his financial affairs were in a desperate condition. His firm and his chattels were hopelessly mortgaged and his brother, Sylvie had told him he might land in "coop" for having a second mortgage with the first one still good. Nine years ago he was arrested, two years ago his house. In two years he had been engaged in the two legal actions ranging from poor to high court, all arising out of father's estate, and some brought by his own relatives. All that work and his wife's misdeeds, that Fred was not of a despicable disposition.

DISEASE SEEMS TO BE SPREADING

Crazy Male Suffragette Committed Suicide at Ascot Races To-Day

ASCOT, Eng., June 19.—Fired the example of Miss Emily Wilding Davidson during the race for the Derby, a male suffragette to-day committed suicide by flinging himself from the front of August Belmont's four year old Tracey, during the race for valuable Ascot gold cup, and depriving the horse of any chance of capturing the coveted trophy.

The man who killed on the ground, were both brought to ground, were unscathed.
Waving a flag of the suffragettes colors in one hand, and brandishing a revolver in the other, the militant suffragette sprang over the rails as the field of eight horses with Tracey leading, were nearing stretch for home.

With a loud yell of "stop", Tracey collided with and felled before the jockey, A. Whalley, time to avert the catastrophe.
Tracey is son of the famous English stallion, Rock Sand, for which Mr. Belmont paid $125,000, while dam is Toplary, a mare exported from England. The colt finished in the derby at Epsom in 1912, the Sussex stakes at Goodwood July of the same year and the Ledger stakes at Doncaster in September, 1912.

A Good Majority.

A well-known English surgeon imparting some clinical instruction to a dozen students. Pausing at the bedside of a doubtful case, he said: "Now gentlemen, do you think this or is not a case for operation?" One by one each student made diagnosis, and all of them answered in the negative.
"Well, gentlemen, you are wrong," said the wielder of scalpel, "and I shall operate to-morrow."
"No you won't," said the patient as he rose in his bed; "six to one a good majority; gimme my clothes."
