Excellency,

I have the honour to present you with the second volume of the Canadian Anti-Apartheid Register.

The Register contains a list of Canadian individuals, companies and organizations who have spoken out or taken action to demonstrate their opposition to the abhorrent system of apartheid in South Africa.

Canada, as you know, continues to be in the forefront of concerted international efforts to promote the creation of a united, non-racial and democratic South Africa. The Government of Canada believes that international economic and political pressures must be maintained on South Africa until the complete dismantling of apartheid. At the same time, efforts should continue to favour national reconciliation in that troubled country. During the past year, both the Prime Minister of Canada, the Right Honourable Brian Mulroney, and I have travelled to Africa to further these objectives.

My government is convinced that the actions taken by individuals, companies and non-governmental organizations will play a vital role in bringing fundamental change to South Africa. The second volume of the Canadian Anti-Apartheid Register represents the efforts and continuing commitment of thousands more Canadians in this regard.

Accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Monsieur le Secrétaire général,

J'ai l'honneur de vous faire parvenir le deuxième volume du Registre canadien des mesures prises contre l'apartheid.

Ce document contient les noms de Canadiens - particuliers, sociétés et organisations - qui ont manifesté, d'une manière ou d'une autre, leur opposition à l'odieux régime d'apartheid en Afrique du Sud.

Le Canada, comme vous le savez, continue d'être à l'avant-garde des efforts concertés de la communauté internationale pour promouvoir la création d'une Afrique du Sud unie, non- raciale et démocratique. Le gouvernement du Canada est convaincu que les pressions économiques et politiques internationales doivent être maintenues jusqu'au démantèlement complet de l'apartheid. En même temps, les actions en faveur de la réconciliation nationale dans ce malheureux pays doivent être multipliées. C'est à ces fins que le Premier ministre du Canada, le très honorable Brian Mulroney, et moi-même avons effectué des tournées en Afrique au cours de cette année.

Mon gouvernement est certain que, par leur action pratique, les particuliers, les entreprises privées et les organisations non gouvernementales joueront un rôle capital dans l'élimination pacifique de l'apartheid. Ce deuxième volume du Registre canadien des mesures prises contre l'apartheid témoigne des efforts et de l'engagement de milliers d'autres Canadiens à cet égard.

Je vous prie d'agréer, Monsieur le Secrétaire général, l'assurance de ma très haute considération.

CANADIAN ANTI-APARTHEID REGISTER

APRIL 1986 - AUGUST 1987

Introduction

Despite the best efforts of Canada and the international community, apartheid in South Africa remains. As demonstrated once again most vividly by the holding of whites-only elections in that unhappy country, the black majority in South Africa is denied its fundamental rights on the basis of race. As such, South Africa singles itself out as the only country in the world where racism is the cornerstone of government and the economic system. Canadians find this abhorrent.

The Canadian Anti-Apartheid Register is a list of Canadian individuals, organizations and institutions that have publicly stated their opposition to apartheid. This, the second volume, covers the period April 1986 to August 1987. During this time, some 5,000 Canadians have written to the Secretary of State for External Affairs, the Right Honourable Joe Clark, informing him of actions they or their organizations have taken.

Much as last year, responses have been received from Canadians of all walks of life - workers, teachers, lawyers, students, businessmen. The actions they have taken are equally wide-ranging - from speaking out against apartheid, to contributing to health and education programmes for blacks in South Africa, to boycotting South African products in Canada. These actions have been designed to bring pressure to bear on white South Africans to encourage them to begin real dialogue with blacks, and to provide concrete assistance to the non-white community in South Africa.

REGISTRE CANADIEN DES MESURES PRISES
CONTRE L'APARTHEID

AVRIL 1986 - AOUT 1987

Introduction

Malgré les efforts les plus soutenus du Canada et de la communauté internationale, l'apartheid en Afrique du Sud persiste. La tenue dans ce malheureux pays d'élections pour les blancs seuls démontre, encore une fois, que la majorité noire est privée de ses droits fondamentaux en raison de sa race. L'Afrique du Sud est le seul pays au monde où la racisme, et la pierre angulaire du gouvernement et du système économique. Les Canadiens trouvent cela répugnant.

Le Registre canadien des mesures prises contre l'apartheid dresse la liste de particuliers, organisations et institutions qui ont exprimé publiquement leur opposition à l'apartheid. Ce deuxième volume couvre la période entre avril 1986 et août 1987. Pendant ce temps, le Secrétaire d'Etat aux Affaires extérieures, le très honorable Joe Clark, a reçu des lettres et des cartes de quelques 5,000 Canadiens informant les actions qu'ils ou que leurs organisations ont entreprises.

Tout comme l'année dernière, des réponses ont été reçues de Canadiens appartenant à toute les couches de la société: ce sont des ouvriers, des enseignants, des avocats, des étudiants, des hommes d'affaires. Les mesures qu'ils ont prises couvrent une vaste gamme - qu'ils aient déclaré leur opposition à l'apartheid, contribué aux programmes de santé et d'éducation des Noires d'Afrique du Sud, ou boycotté les produits sud-africains importés au Canada. Ces initiatives ont été conçues de manière à faire pression sur les Blancs d'Afrique du Sud afin qu'ils entament

By uniting in one place the names of thousands of Canadians opposed to apartheid, the Register reflects the widespread effort and commitment of Canadians to contribute to fundamental change in South Africa. It is hoped that it will also prompt others to take action. Most importantly, however, the Register demonstrates to white South Africans that business with Canada and Canadians cannot continue as usual as long as apartheid remains.

Organization of the Register

The Register begins with a description of the types of action taken by Canadians to protest against apartheid.

This is followed by the body of the Register, that is, the list of names. The Register is organized by province and, within each province, entries are divided into the following three groups:

- individuals;
- companies, organisations and institutions;
- governments and elected officials.

The following is a synopsis of the principal types of anti-apartheid action taken by Canadians.

1. Boycott of South African products

- refusing to purchase specific products;

un véritable dialogue avec les Noirs, et à apporter une aide concrète aux populations de couleur sud-africaines.

En réunissant dans un même document le nom de milliers de Canadiens, opposés à l'apartheid, le Registre témoigne de leurs efforts et de leur engagement en faveur de réformes fondamentales en Afrique du Sud. Le gouvernement souhaite que cet exemple encouragera d'autres personnes à prendre des mesures. Le Registre démontre également aux Sud-Africains blancs, et ceci est le plus important, que les relations avec le Canada et les Canadiens ne peuvent plus continuer comme à l'habitude tant que l'apartheid demeure.

Présentation du registre

Le registre commence par une description des différents types de mesures prises par les Canadiens en signe de protestation contre l'apartheid.

Vient ensuite le corps du document, c'est-à-dire la liste de noms. Le registre est divisé par province. Les entrées figurant sous chaque province sont réparties en trois groupes:

- particuliers;
- sociétés, organisations et institutions;
- gouvernements et représentants élus.

On trouvera ci-dessous un résumé des principaux types de mesures prises par les Canadiens contre l'apartheid.

1. Boycottage des produits sud-africains

- on refuse d'acheter certains produits;

- producing and disseminating lists of South African products sold in Canada to enhance the effectiveness of boycott campaigns;
- requesting managers and directors of stores selling South African products to discontinue this practice as long as the system of apartheid exists in South Africa.

2. Tourist boycott

- refusing to travel to South Africa;
- travel agencies refusing to handle requests for travel to South Africa;
- travel agencies and tour operators refusing to promote tourism in South Africa.

3. Boycott of promotional materials

- libraries and other organizations asking to be removed from complimentary subscription lists of South African Government public relations publications;
- scientific and cultural groups cancelling subscriptions to official South African journals;
- schools and community colleges removing South African travel posters from their walls.

- pour une plus grande efficacité des campagnes de boycottage, on dresse et diffuse des listes de produits sud-africains vendus au Canada;

- des gérants et directeurs de magasins qui vendent des produits sud-africains se font demander d'arrêter la vente de ces produits tant que le régime d'apartheid n'aura pas été éliminé de l'Afrique du Sud.

2. Boycottage du tourisme

- on refuse de se rendre en Afrique du Sud;
- des agences de voyage refusent de traiter les demandes de voyages en Afrique du Sud;
- des agences et des organisateurs de voyages refusent de promouvoir le tourisme en Afrique du Sud.

3. Boycottage des articles publicitaires

- des bibliothèques et d'autres organisations se font rayer de la liste de distribution à titre gracieux des publications du gouvernement sud-africain;
- des groupes scientifiques et culturels annulent leurs abonnements aux revues officielles sud-africaines;
- des écoles et des collèges communautaires retirent de leurs murs les affiches publicitaires pour le tourisme en Afrique du Sud.
