ASQUITH MUST GO TO COUNTRY OR PERMIT ULSTER'S EXCLUSION TO AVERT CIVIL WAR OUTBREAK

Conciliatory Tone of Premier Asquith at Opening of Parliament Fails to Relieve Tension—Unionists Opposed to Compromise on Basis of Plunkett's Suggestions.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—On the authority of well-known Liberal members of parliament, it is stated that Ulster will be granted almost absolute exemption from the operation of the bill. Eitherto Asquith and his colleagues have taken the line that it is the duty of the opposition to make suggestions for settlement and have denounced Unionist leaders as irreconcilables because they have declined to do so.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—King George, with the customary state ceremonial today opened the momentous and historic session of parliament, which, according to all reasonable probability will see the victorious conclusion of the thirty years' struggle of the Liberal party to give self-government to Ireland. The home rule bill, which is now to be presented in the house of commons for the third time, will, if carried, receive the royal assent with or without the consent of the house of lords.

Whether the bill will pass as it stands or whether it will be amended to meet the susceptibilities of Ulster will depend on the nature of the concessions which the prime minister announced he would make in behalf of the government at the proper time.

King's Grave Words.

The king's speech, in a grave passage, expressed the earnest desire of his majesty to attain a settlement by consent and this desire was fervently echoed by Premier Asquith in the house of commons, and Viscount Morley in the house of lords, in their opening speeches.

The king said: "I regret that the efforts which have been made to arrive at a solution by agreement of the problems connected with the government of Ireland have so far not succeeded."

"In the matter in which the hopes and fears of so many of my subjects are keenly concerned, and which, unless handled now with foresight and judgment, and in a spirit of mutual concession, threatens grave future difficulties, it is my most earnest wish

DEALINGS WITH NO REPLY GIVEN GRAHAM NOT DISCLOSED

McGibbon Unwilling to Discuss Circumstances of Interview at Which Evidence of Bribery Was Discussed—Paid Fifty Thousand Dollars to Secure Proof.

(Special to The Toronto World)
QUEBEC, Feb. 10.—The committee of the legislative assembly late tonight concluded its inquiry into the allegations of graft made by The Montreal Daily Mail against J. Octave Mousseau. The committee will now report to the assembly.

In his closing argument L. T. Marchand, counsel for The Daily Mail, submitted that the charges of bribery had been proved up to the hilt.

N. K. Ladame, counsel for Mr. Mousseau, who has been unable to appear before the committee on account of illness, claimed that neither the committee nor the assembly could punish the guilty inasmuch as immunity had been voted by the assembly to the corruptors, therefore, he urged that the same immunity must equally be accorded to the corrupted.

Gave Bank Authority.

D. Lorne McGibbon, former proprietor of The Montreal Herald, stated that he gave Mr. Beck, then editor of The Montreal Herald, full authority to conduct the investigation into the rumors of graft at Quebec. "The work was to be done in the public interest," he stated.

Mr. McGibbon said there was no connection whatever between this investigation and any politicians at Ottawa. Hon. Mr. Rogers was a friend of McGibbon, but the latter never spoke one word to Rogers on this subject. "I was present," continued Mr. McGibbon, "when Mr. Beck's report of the enquiry was offered to Sir Hugh Graham."

Mr. Laverne: Will you tell this committee why Sir Hugh Graham refused to publish the articles?
Hon. Peter Mackenzie, provincial treasurer in the Gault cabinet, at once objected to an answer being given to the question, and in this he was supported by the chairman, Hon. Mr. Taschereau.

Continuing, Mr. McGibbon said the investigation had cost him about $50,000, not one cent of which had been contributed by any other person than himself, and he had no expectation of receiving a contribution.

Mr. T. Chase Casgrain, the lawyer who drafted the decoy bill of the Montreal Fair Association, the extraordinary powers of which have been the subject of severe criticism, wrote to the committee stating that every clause in this bill had been taken from other measures that had passed the legislature and appeared in the revised statutes of Quebec.

DRUNK, FROZEN, IS UNCONSCIOUS

Picked up drunk on York street by a police officer last evening, an unknown man of about 40 years was found to be badly frozen, and unconscious from the effects of the cold. He was taken to St. Michael's Hospital, where at midnight he had not yet regained consciousness.

OTTAWA, Feb. 10.—The prime minister today introduced his bill for the readjustment of the various provinces in accordance with the census of 1911. The bill leaves the schedules in blank, and it is still a moot question whether Prince Edward Island will have its representation reduced from four to three. If no such reduction is made the next house will consist of 235 members.

Stockholders of Farmers' Bank to Escape Double Liability Under Plan Being Considered.

OTTAWA, Feb. 10.—The fact that William Laidlaw, K.C., of Toronto, was in the city today led to some speculation as to the affairs of the defunct Farmers' Bank. It is generally understood that the depositors are to be reimbursed, and that they are in turn to protect the stockholders against the enforcement of the double liability.

Some details of the arrangement are yet to be completed, and Mr. Laidlaw was not in a position today to give any statement to the press. There is little doubt, however, that a bill will be brought down at this session providing for the relief of the depositors.

WINDOW GLASS CRACKED.

ORILLIA, Feb. 10.—(Special)—Orillia had an earthquake today about half past one o'clock. There were two distinct tremors, which were felt in the upper story of buildings all over town. In the four-story Cavendish and Winton block a book was thrown off a bookcase in the United States consular office, and a pane of glass cracked in the third flat. Many people were quite alarmed. It is believed that the tremor was an earthquake here.

Land Tremor Was So Perceptible in Toronto That Alarm Was Caused When Pictures, Bric-a-brac and Lunch Plates Moved and Houses Were Felt Shaking.

All Toronto shivered yesterday in a two-fold sense. While the cold made the teeth of the people chatter, a miniature earthquake shock disturbed the local topography and shook the buildings. The unusual complication in the shape of a land tremor or "slide," as the geologists call it, occurred at exactly 1.28, and was so marked that it gave rise to alarm in some quarters of the city. Dwelling houses with insecure foundations experienced a rocking and shaking sensation. Table-knives and crockery on luncheon tables were disturbed, and in some cases plates of soup were nearly overturned. Dozens of people telephoned to the newspaper offices and the city hall, but no casualties were reported. The seismograph at the meteorological office noted the local disturbance, which is stated to have been more pronounced in the region of Hamilton and St. Catharines. The instrument also disclosed a previous disturbance 600 miles east, which was recorded at 11.39 a.m., and particulars of which came in later by wire. According to the meteorological authorities, the tremor was the most serious that has ever threatened Toronto, but they say that there is never any danger of earthquakes here because of the great distance from the sea.

Telegraphic reports state that shocks were felt throughout a greater part of New York State, and even as far south as Washington, D.C.

Some curious happenings are reported as the result of the tremor. A woman in a house on Delaware avenue north of College, was thrown off a couch, while the walls trembled and shook with a rumbling sound. A telephone was shaken off the wall in the home of Mrs. Le. Gaudy, 995 College street. Pictures fell from the walls of 410 Dovercourt road. A large stationary clock in the Parkdale telephone exchange shifted perceptibly. A woman in a Dovercourt apartment house said that she had time to walk about and speak to neighbors while the vibrations continued. Pictures and bric-a-brac rattled and shook. Patients in their beds at the High Park Sanitarium felt the shock for ten or fifteen seconds. At Players' Hall, in the east end, a man standing on the steps noticed the building sway quite noticeably. The caretaker of the new technical school was at his midday meal when the table and everything on it began to shake. A plate of soup was partly spilled. At the parliament buildings a new floor in the education department, which is undergoing repairs, was cracked, while in the lunch room, plates with soup in them rocked back and forth like they would in a storm on shipboard.

Six sections of a bookcase, containing three hundred books, toppled upon W. Gilliam yesterday afternoon at 1.40 as he sat in an upstairs room at 14 Amelia street, and at the same time a sideboard in the room rocked, and his dishes fell to the floor. Mr. Gilliam is quite sure an earthquake caused the damage and says the tremor lasted about ten seconds.

"When the woman in the room below heard the noise she came running into my room. 'Why, Mr. Gilliam, have you been drinking?' she exclaimed, amazed at the disorder of my room," said Gilliam last night. "I told her I didn't think so. Certainly the 'quake made a sorry jumble of my room with the books and broken dishes scattered broadcast. I was alarmed at the extent of the mysterious tremor. It rattled pictures on the wall even, it was so strong."

FELT IN HAMILTON.

HAMILTON, Feb. 10.—The earthquake which was felt in so many Canadian and American cities this afternoon between 1.30 and 1.40, was also felt in Hamilton. Several people reported that their homes had been shaken, but it was at first thought that this was the result of the blasting that is done daily on the mountain top.

RUSHED INTO THE STREETS.

BROCKVILLE, Feb. 10.—(Special)—About 1.30 this afternoon a pronounced earthquake shock was felt over Brockville, the disturbance lasting about fifteen seconds. In that short period buildings were shaken to the foundations, people rushing into the streets thru fear. Dishes and plates were rattled on the shelves in private dwellings, and in places of business articles of considerable weight were actually shifted from their positions. A house was reported to have been slightly wrecked at North Augusta, a small village some miles east from Brockville.

There promises to be plenty of excitement around the Princess Theatre tomorrow morning when seats go on sale for the Ziegfeld Follies engagement, which begins here Monday next. The Follies come, heralded as the "greatest show on earth."

CARNEGIE GIVES TWO MILLIONS

Will Promote Peace by Organizing Moral Power of Churches on International Questions.

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—Andrew Carnegie today gave $2,000,000 to be used thru the churches for the promotion of international peace. The income of the fund, about $100,000 a year, will be expended by a board of 26 trustees, representing all the leading religious denominations in the United States.

This gift is in addition to the $10,000,000 foundation established by Mr. Carnegie Dec. 14, 1910, "to hasten the abolition of international war." The announcement was made at the close of a luncheon at Mr. Carnegie's home, attended by the trustees of the new foundation. The trustees organized "The Church Peace Union," which will be incorporated under the laws of New York State.

The income of the fund will be used to organize the moral power of the churches on critical international questions, to circulate peace literature among the clergy, and to bring about the annual observance of a "peace Sunday." Conferences of America and Europe will be called to discuss the promotion of peace. When the leading nations abolish war and the fund has fulfilled its purpose the trustees may devote the income to other philanthropic uses.

STUDENT DIED

J. B. Smith of McMaster Waited Too Long to Go to Hospital and Poisoning Developed.

Admitted to the General Hospital at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, J. B. Smith, aged 40, a theological student at McMaster University, died within two hours. As he was apparently suffering only from an attack of quinsy the attending physicians did not consider his condition serious on arrival. It is understood that Dr. Wishart and Dr. O'Connor will conduct a post-mortem examination to determine the cause of death.

It is stated that Smith became ill a week ago, but that he did not summon a doctor until Monday. He was advised to go to the hospital, but was unwilling to do so until yesterday. It is believed that septic poisoning may have developed in the meantime. Smith, who was a resident of the college, formerly lived in Smith's Falls, where he has a sister. Another sister lives in Toronto, but her address is not known by the college authorities.

"Fair and Decidedly Cold" Spells Furs.

Such weather conditions make the need of furs imperative, and it is a rare opportunity that is offered by the Toronto 140 Yonge street, who announce 20 to 50 per cent. off their entire stocks of quality furs. No such tempting chance has been presented to the women of Toronto and district in years, and it would be unfortunate to miss the most choice pieces through delay. Inspection of the Dinesen sales will promptly convince those interested.

SHAKE-UP IN BRITISH CABINET UNDERSTOOD TO BE IMPENDING

John Burns, Labor Leader, to Succeed Sydney Buxton Who is Slated for Governorship of South Africa — Samuel Will Quit Postoffice and Take Local Government Board.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—Several changes in cabinet are foreshadowed today, by both The Chronicle and The Daily News.

John Burns is to be transferred to the board of trade in succession to Sydney Buxton, who has been chosen, tho' not officially, for the governorship of South Africa.

Herbert Samuel will retire from the postoffice to succeed John Burns at the local government board department, which is increasing in importance year by year. Samuel will be succeeded by Hobhouse, chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster. It is uncertain whether Masterman will be appointed to the duchy.

By leaving the board of trade, Sydney Buxton will exchange a salary of £5000 for one of £10,000. Burns, by succeeding Buxton, receives no financial benefit, but Mr. Samuel, by stepping into the vacancy at the local government board, will get £5000, instead of £2500.

STEFANSSON AT VIRTUE SCORES; COLLINSON POINT VILLAIN FOILED

Word Received in Ottawa Indicates That Explorer Now Safe in Winter Quarters.

(Special to The Toronto World)
OTTAWA, Feb. 10.—Stefansson, the Arctic explorer, is very probably now in winter quarters, with Dr. Anderson's portion of the Canadian expedition at Collinson Point. A letter received from him by the naval service department states that he was about to start from Point Barrow and expected to reach there in a few days. The journey is comparatively easy.

The letter came out by the same courier who despatched Stefansson's telegram on Oct. 26, telling of the loss of the Karuk. The explorer had no fear for the safety of the ship, and Charged with the theft of a $5 bill from a stately Bates, 14, 19 Wiley avenue, Gust Nodoros, a restaurant keeper at 83 East Queen street, was arrested last evening.

The lad, while walking along East Queen street, saw the bill fall from the pocket of a man in front of him, and, plucking it up, ran to return it. The Greek, however, saw the transaction for with one of his countrymen he ran out of his restaurant, and while one held the lad's throat, the other took the money from him.

Bates called an officer, who went to the restaurant and arrested the Greek, finding the money. Walking back to his boat again with the boy, the officer met the man who had lost the bill. All is well.

Smart Little Dresses in the Flowered Crepes That Are Fashion's Cry for Spring

SMARTNESS ITSELF are these soft, dainty little frocks for afternoon wear. They are developed in a fine wool crepe in such new Spring shades as beet-root red, an artistic ivy green, the popular maize color and its darker tanger tones, and also in tan and in white, the plain fabric combined, according to latest vogue, with a weave quaintly patterned with figures or flowers in clear bright tints.

Some models show boleros and panniers of the patterned crepe; in others it is employed for lapels and flounces, and in others for the vestee and high open collar effects that mark the new season's mode. Many of the dresses have chemisettes with flaring collars of fine book muslin, while all are daintily finished about the throat with some soft inset of lace or net.

They are modish, wearable dresses, moderately priced at $27.50 each. Smart Cotton Crepe Dresses at $17.50 In these charming little gowns are found the much-talked-of sweet pea shades—an attractive purple blue, a bluish mauve, and a pinkish yellow. They are smartly fashioned with two-tier skirts, the bodies having soft little tuckers of white net, collars and cuffs of white crepe and wide girdles of black satin. Price, $17.50 each.

Another attractive group of frocks consists of several very good designs in cotton ratine, in navy blue, grey and tango, the necks frilled with net, the waists girdled with black satin, and the skirts showing the general tendency to fullness at the back. Price, $15.00 each.

Chamoisette Gloves in Oyster Shade Are Very Fashionable in New York
Some New Arrivals, Suk-linez, at $1.00 a Pair

WELL-DRESSED NEW YORK has set her seal of approval upon them, and one glimpse convinces you that they are just about the smartest washable gloves that have yet offered themselves for general street wear. Moreover, they are lined with silk, a detail that adds much to the warmth and comfort of them. Well and finely tailored, they have two dome pearl clasps, spear point backs and Bolton thumbs, and while oyster is the prime favorite in the way of shade, they are available also in tan, yellow, grey and black. Sizes are from 5 1/2 to 7 1/2, and the price $1.00 per pair.

You were Inquiring?

R. H.—The "Swirl" back is the new feature in the separate coat—top coat or "houppelande" as they call it in New York. When the skirt beneath flares out into tiers and flounces—to say nothing of bustles, which are coming to use as surely as the flowers that bloom in the Spring—it is only natural that the coat should spread out its tail. The materials of which the smartest models are made are gossamer, a sort of glorified corayour, with a gauze back, plaids, checks, and bright colored ratines. Of course, black, white, and the standard blues and browns are also available. The sleeves for the most part are in Raglan and kimono effects, and a general air of droopiness is characteristic. This, I think, pretty well covers the story.

An Exhibition of Gowns

mats from Ladies' Home Journal Patterns and displayed on living models is now being held in the Dress Goods Department, Second Floor, daily from 10 to 12 a.m. and from 2.30 to 4.30 p.m.

You Are Reminded that Miss Newport of New York is here—busy fitting the new models of the far-famous No. 10. To the celebrated, red-reducing device for a few figures have been added certain style features, making this year's demo a perfect triumph in comfort and modishness.

Magnificent Period Suites in the February Sale of Furniture

SHUT YOUR EYES and you can almost see one of those ladies of long ago seated before the mirror, applying, perhaps a touch more powder to her high-piled hair, perhaps trying to decide on the exact spot for the little diamond shaped patch, or—panniers gracefully outspread—practising a curtsy before the wide mirror of the low boy—so exactly does the period furniture now to be seen in the Furniture Building reproduce that of the great designers of the 17th and 18th centuries. But in its capacity and its convenience it is altogether modern, and the February Sale prices are so advantageous as to make this an opportunity in a thousand for the acquisition of beautiful furniture at little cost. Take, for instance, the charming Sheraton bedroom suite which appears in the sketch. Carried out in the particularly warm, rather light shades of mahogany that Sheraton affected, it is inlaid with satin wood in single and double lines and ornamented with the typical vase and wreath on mirror frames and bed, with the urn, torch and floral fountain on posts and pilasters. The suite consists of bed, wardrobe-commode, toilet table, dresser and somnoe, and can be acquired for the very moderate sum of $381.00.

An admirable example of the classic elegance of Louis XVI. furniture is seen in a three-piece mahogany bedroom suite, consisting of chiffonier, dresser and toilet table, characterized by oval mirrors with cane paneling beneath and having ribbon and floral carved frames. The chiffonier, made with an "over-hung" top supported on fluted classic pilasters, ornamented with medallions, has the distinctive drop-ring laurel wreath brass handles, the price being $92.00. The dresser to match is $100.00, and the toilet table with its graceful fluted legs and curved braces, $59.00.

The Adam Brothers at their best are represented by a beautiful mahogany dining-room suite with exquisitely graceful, classic lines. The swell-fronted sideboard has a low fluted back with the characteristic vase and festoon carved in the middle. This is matched by the drawer running its whole length, while the cupboard has a somewhat unusual ornamentation in the form of a large star. The round extension table has a fluted band and legs, the chairs with carved backs have Spanish leather seats, the china cabinet is also ornamented with fluting and carving, and the dinner wagon is almost a replica of the sideboard. The Sale price of this very handsome suite is $506.50.

H. M. S.—In the above mentioned "Criterion" you will find on page 27 a model that appears to have been concocted for the express purpose of rejuvenating your old gown. The foundation is of black silk, with stouped overalls of figured net, the bodice constructed with removable gulleps, to serve in the double capacity of afternoon and evening wear. I think you would like the design, it suits so well your purse and your purpose.

Genevieve—About the best treatise available is the "Encyclopedia of Etiquette," by Emily Holt, an American writer. The subtitle declares it to be "a book of manners for everyday use, what to write, what to wear, what to do, what to say." The price is $1.25.

M. E. B.—If you had been in New York with me last week, you would not be wondering whether black silk moire were suitable for deep mourning wear. In all the little smart specialty places it was the material used more than any other for that purpose. But it is not the old-time moire, with great waves running through it, but a more delicately patterned wave, known as "Schwamm." The design closely resembling baby lamb. As for price, it is procurable at $3.00, $2.50 and $2.00 a yard—48 and 42 inches wide.

Villager—Never mind, long tapering, patrician fingers are usually the feeble, unless kind—a distinct drawback in a world where there's so much to do. Moreover, so many other people besides yourself have short, broad hands, that gloves designed especially for them are a standard commodity. "The Majesty" glove is intended for short, full fingers, and is available in black, white, tan, green, grey, mode and oxblood. The price is $1.50 a pair.

Regarding coronets, I should recommend the Nemo, number 333, at $3.50, or the American Lady, number 246, at $2.25. Both are excellent models for short, light figures.

For your frock, I should think you would find crepe de Chine or silk poplin the nicest and most practical thing for general summer use. Either silk wears splendidly, and is happily lacking in that objectionable dressed-up appearance.

for the committee of the lower house. "Unless Mr. Carpenter denies the accuracy of the stenographic notes of conversations it will not be necessary for us to recall Maloney and Biddinger, Mr. Keyes and Mr. Beck are still here, but they will hear their evidence before hearing that of Mr. Carpenter." In the legislative assembly this afternoon the new charges made by Mr. Edward Beck aroused the house to a high pitch of excitement. Bribery Common. These charges, as stated by Mr. Beck before the assembly committee, were as follows: "I recall giving to Mr. Maloney a copy of Judge Cannon's report made in 1909 and explained to him its relation to the city government, and also that some men who had been found guilty of malversation in office had crept back into the city council, and that I thought they were a detriment to the City of Montreal. I gave him in addition a large report book, compiled from various newspaper clippings concerning legislation attempted and carried through in Quebec and the City of Montreal, as well as a list of the members of the Tramways Company. I said I hoped in making this investigation he would study the scrapbook. I told him that it was a very common report in Montreal that legislation could be purchased in Quebec, that lawyers whom I named had told me they had them- selves in their sales receipted bills from members of this legislature for efforts that the members had put forth to put through private bills, and that while these bills were rendered for professional services these lawyers guaranteed payment of the necessary amounts in order to bring them again before the committee."

NEW FEATURE FOR OPEN AIR PARADE

Ten Awards Will Be Given in Each Class Instead of Three.

The twelfth annual meeting of shareholders of the Toronto Open Air Horse Parade Association, Limited, was held last evening in the King Edward Hotel. Noel Marshall was re-elected president at a large and enthusiastic meeting. The parade held last July on the morning of Dominion Day in Queen's Park was the largest in the history of the association, which has the largest of its kind in America. There were in all 541 entries, and a parade consisting of upwards of 800 horses, representing delivery turn-outs of many prominent merchants and business of the City of Toronto. The association has no government, and therefore the officers and members give their services gratuitously in securing financial support, which, with the grants from the City of Toronto and Ontario Government, support the association. The officers are endeavoring to introduce a new feature for the show to be held this year by making awards to perhaps as many as ten exhibitors in each class, instead of first, second and third as in previous years. The idea seems to be most necessary owing to the increased number of exhibitors in each class.

NEW COLLEGIATE ON BLOOR STREET

Deputation From Board of Education Ask Ontario Cabinet for Prices.

BOUGHT FOR SIR JOHN

But Plans for Government House Changed After Purchase From City.

With a view to securing the old government house property on Bloor street for a new collegial institute, several members of the Toronto Board of Education yesterday upon the Ontario Cabinet. The visitors wanted some idea of the price at which the government hold this land, which was recently open to tender. Hon. Mr. Beaulieu stated that he could not give a price on the land, although knowing that the tenders had fallen below the required amount. The inference was that the sum which the city would pay, if they decided to take it over for educational purposes, would be well up, because of property values having risen so rapidly in that locality. It was originally purchased from the city for $80,000, but the plans of the government shifted the residence to Chortley Park. Supt. Bishop, with Trustees Brown, Backson and Wilkinson composed the deputation. Hon. Messrs. Fyvie, Duff, Lucas and Hearn promised that the city's wishes would be kept in mind.

Miss Maria Fisher Sued Uxbridge Farmer for Heavy Damages for False Marriage.

SHE ANSWERED A WANT AD

After the Wedding She Learned That Henry Jones' Wife Was Still Living.

Miss Maria Fisher was awarded $500 damages by a jury in the assize court before Mr. Justice Latchford against Henry Jones, an Uxbridge farmer, aged 50, whom she married as the result of a want ad which she answered, applying for a position as housekeeper.

Miss Fisher told the jury from the witness stand that Jones followed up the interview resulting from the advertisement with an ardent courtship. At that time, she said, it was a matter of current gossip that his first wife was still living. She made him get references, on the strength of which they were married three weeks after they met. This was in March, 1912, and in December of the same year they separated and Jones was brought into court at Uxbridge, but was acquitted on a charge of bigamy. In reply to her claim of marriage under misrepresentation Jones made a counter-claim of malicious arrest and prosecution. He said he had not heard of his wife for twelve years prior to meeting Miss Fisher and that he thought she was dead by reason of an anonymous telegram he had received. The jury reached its verdict in fifteen minutes. Miss Fisher sued for $10,000.

WOMAN DID NOT KNOW GOODS WERE STOLEN

Man Who Sold Them to Her is in Jail and Case Was Adjudged.

The table in the women's court was strewn with miscellaneous articles as Annie Cazon stood before Magistrate Denison charged with receiving stolen goods valued at $500. The woman pleaded not guilty on the ground that she thought the goods were honestly purchased by William Brooks, the man she was buying them from. The case was remanded till Wednesday as Brooks was not available, being already in jail for a previous offence. The woman earns $14 a week and has already paid $75 on the goods. Maria Saganst was brought up on a charge of vagrancy. She has been living in Toronto with a married man, both having come from the States. The girl was let out on bail for two days and ordered to return to the States within the time stated.

EFFICIENT HOUSEKEEPING BY HENRIETTA D. GRAUEL DOMESTIC SCIENCE LECTURER

Plenty of Napkins

It is not delicate china and gleaming silver alone that mark the table of refinement. Some of the most attractive tables depend almost entirely on the pretty little napkins in use.

As a napkin over the bread, one over the cake; the plate of cold meat or hot rolls, protected above and below by a snowy square. A yard of linen eighteen inches wide will make two sixteen inches square after hemming. Or each one may be fringed to the depth of half an inch and over-stitched evenly to keep it from raveling further.

A close outline stitch around the hem, or a row of hemstitching with a simple drawn work border above it does not require much time to accomplish nor speak too eloquently of over-taxed eyes to be appropriate on these simple napkins.

A good Cluny lace edging makes a plain napkin into a handsome dolly or tray cloth, and this lace washes as well as the linen itself.

Linen must always be shrunken before it is made up; if more convenient it may be cut before it is wet, but is usually shrunken, like cotton, in the piece.

To shrink linen: Put it in a bowl or tub of warm water at night; it need not be unfolded, but should be unrolled, so every part can absorb water. In the morning put out to dry, dripping wet, on the clothes line. Use enough clothes pins to keep the selvage edge straight.

When everyday linens begin to wear it pays in soap and laundry and time to starch them a little; the actual ironing of them requires a little longer. Instead of always folding napkins and table cloths in the same corners, sometimes fold in three strips and then back and forth instead of over and over. This prolongs their usefulness.

Table cloths always wear in that part that comes against the edge of the table. As soon as thin spots commence to show simply cut off a two-inch strip from one side and from one end. Hem the raw edges and you will see, the next time you use the cloth, that the middle crease is now in an entirely different place.

Linen that is not in constant use should be laid between blue tissue paper, as this prevents it turning yellow, and whether you have a linen closet for it or keep it in drawers always have a weight or press to put on each pile. Cedar boards about an inch thick and the size of the folded cloths and napkins are liked by most housekeepers, but some use a slab of marble and others put a brick on the press board. It is the only way to keep the folds and creases in ironed linens.

Lavender flowers give a pleasant perfume to linen receptacles, and I think nothing will ever supplant this popular scent. Flowers of lavender sell in drug stores at about fifty cents a pound and they may be sprinkled on the shelves loosely. Little bags or flat pads are better too, as the dried flowers are dusty and blow about.

The Average Baby. Your baby is very much like every other healthy baby. He grows and develops just like all well babies have grown and developed for generations. And it is well that this is so, for it makes it possible for us to devise a standard whereby we can judge whether a baby conforms up to the requirements of the normal baby. There are children who are cry and grabby, there are others who are thin and frail, and others still with various signs of ill-health, which the mother may not have observed, or, if she has, may have put it down to just babyhood and consoled herself that he would grow out of it.

Every child of any age should have the proper amount of restful sleep, should cry very little, should have a good appetite, should show constant gain in weight, solid flesh and well-shaped bones, should have a clear skin and good color, should have regular bowel movements, should not vomit or gas, should show a progressive development of the normal acts of life.

Baby does not notice much of anything the first three months of his life. Loud noises disturb him, so we know that he hears. A strong light makes him blink or close his eyes, so we know he has some sight. He is three or four months old before he discovers his hands, and begins to play with them. About this time, he begins to smile. He holds his head up at four months and sits alone, with a pillow at his back, at eight months. At this age he is supposed to show recognition of his mother, and a dislike for strangers. This is according to the normal standard, but it is my private opinion that he knows his mother a good long time before this. Perhaps the difference is that before six months it is just child's play with him. Now, he holds things in his hands and puts them to his mouth; and, wonderful event, his first tooth appears. At eight or nine months he sits upon the floor alone and learns to creep around.

I hear a proud mother say, "My baby crept long before that," and another, "Our baby laughed and played with her hands at six weeks." Sure they do and will, and others may wait until after the standard time, but if they are well and happy, they will perform these natural activities pretty close to the schedule.

W. C. T. U. MEMORIAL IN FRANCES WILLARD HALL

Meeting Called for Tuesday Next - Western Women Meet to Do Business.

An important business meeting of the western W.C.T.U. was held yesterday afternoon in the West End Y. M.C.A. The president, Mrs. Savage, occupied the chair. In spite of severe weather the meeting was well attended and three new members were greeted by the president. The reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and adopted.

A large memorial service was announced to take place in the Frances Willard Hall next Tuesday from 2.30 to 5.30 o'clock. Delegates are called from the twenty branches comprising the W.C.T.U.

Those delegates, Mrs. John Bulman, Mrs. Meredith, and Mrs. Norris, were elected to attend the temperance convention, Feb. 25, 26 and 27. Mrs. J. French suggested that a deputation be sent to the meeting of the board of education on Thursday, the 26th, to make a plea for the teachers.

In addition to the handy table and other general information, this almanac gives the causes of disease, the symptoms (or signs) by which disease is recognized, and the proper treatment to relieve and cure the trouble.

Those living at a distance from a physician will find this book invaluable in treating the ordinary ailments that come to every family. It will well repay a careful reading and frequent consultation.

AN IRISH MUSICAL GENIUS. Some of His Songs.

Michael William Balfe was born in Dublin, Ireland, 1805. His father taught him the rudiments of music and to play the violin when only 8 years old, receiving great applause for his performance at a Royal Exchange concert.

Five years later the death of his father so agitated the boy that he went to Charles Horn, the great musician, and in desperation besought him to take him with him to London. The great-hearted musician consented, and Balfe was soon able to improvise and compose music with facility.

Later Count Mazzara, who at sight of young Balfe grew pale and nearly fainted, explained that only a few months before he had buried his only son, whom Balfe so closely resembled that no one could have told them apart. He greatly did the count feel attracted to young Balfe that he offered to take him to Rome, receive him as a member of his household, and give him every opportunity for the highest culture. Horn advised him to go, and with his affectionate patron he went to Italy.

Balfe, in his own words, "was a dingy palce, whose halls suggested the days of luxury. The servants threw open a stately portal, revealing a magnificent room, flooded with soft radiance and royally furnished, which a queenly matron and beautiful girl awaited their strange guest in welcome. As if the dead had returned alive, the mother, with the abandon of her race, caught Balfe to her breast, covering his face with tears as she fondly uttered the most touching endearments, suggesting "I Dreamt I Dwelt in Marble Halls."

Balfe was a true genius, and does not stand in the ranks of those who favor heaped upon him. At the end of a year Mazzara arranged for Balfe to study at Milan during his absence in England, and Balfe was able to impress Giossoff of the great La Scala Theatre with his ability as a composer.

He became a singer in Italian opera at Paris, where he died Oct. 19, 1870, in his 65th year. Of 27 operas and seven cantatas, the "Eochaiman Girl" alone has never lost its hold on world-wide popular favor.

Several of Balfe's famous songs are to be found in "Heart Songs," the book now being presented to the readers of this paper. The coupon printed elsewhere in today's issue explains the terms.

Thin Folks Who Would Be Fat

Increase in Weight Ten Pounds or More. A Physician's Advice. "I'd certainly give most anything to be able to eat up a few pounds and stay that way," declares every excessively thin man or woman. Such result is not impossible, despite past failures. Thin people are victims of mal-nutrition, a condition which prevents the fatty elements of food from being taken up by the blood, as they are when the powers of nutrition are normal. Instead of getting into the blood, all the fat and flesh-producing elements stay in the intestine, until they pass from the body as waste, and the capillary action and to produce a healthy, normal amount of fat, the nutritive processes must be artificially stimulated.

Dr. Sargol's Sargol is perfectly accomplished by eating a Sargol tablet every meal. Sargol is a scientific combination of six of the best strength-giving, fat-producing elements known to the medical profession. Taken with meals, it mixes with the food and turns the sugars and starches into rich, ripe nourishment for the tissues and blood, and every package contains a guarantee of weight increase or money back.

Caution.—While Sargol has produced remarkable results in the treatment of nervous indigestion and general stomach disorders, it should not, owing to its use, be given to those who are unwilling to increase their weight ten pounds or more.

Fichu Adds Charm to Plain Gown

By Madge Marvel

THE fichu is at once so useful and becoming that it is destined to remain in favor during the spring and summer.

Women are keenly appreciative of its possibilities. It has the power to transform a plain frock into a costume quite suitable for the home dinner, the afternoon or even the evening theatre-going.

It is offered in countless styles with frills that soften and fluff the person who needs such embellishment, or severely plain and flat and neat to suit the wearer who clings consistently to the tailor-made effect in all her clothes.

The woman who has time at her disposal can make the most delightful neckwear from the bits of lace and embroidery to be had at present prices during the midwinter clearance sales, and thereby save a pretty penny for the more substantial articles of her wardrobe.

Not exacting prices are asked in the exclusive shops for this alluring neck piece, and those who have the generous dress allowance to afford to buy without cut much thinking never count the cost of the articles which mean so much in the ensemble of their appearance.

There is the necessity for nicety of fit in the gimpes and fichus, or the allurement is greatly discounted. One particularly attractive fichu was of white net in surplus style with the edges showing a flat box pleating. There was a wired collar of black tulle with one thickness of white next the neck.

For wear with the severe morning blouse of heavy silk or crepe there is a white fichu with a wide ribbon, in black, or any of the modish colors, which ends in front in a four-in-hand knot and supports a thick upstanding ruche. This does not quite meet in front, and is higher in the back.

It is the blouse that seems to have lost all its usefulness, look it over, mend any rips, cleanse it and wear it over a couple of net with a pretty colored lace or silk and you will find it giving good service under the tailored suit or the happy coat.

Net gimpes makes a gimpes which is easy to fashion and attractive, a bit of the edge being used for the modified sailor collar. The guinea style, which is crossed in surplus style. The back of the gimpes may be of net in a heavier mesh. Some seamstresses find that binding ribbon makes a better finish at the arm slices than the bias band of net.

Are You a Weather Vane?

IT LOOKS easy to be a weather vane. Nothing to do but follow the whims of the wind. And the wind, whispering softly or belching its commands, whisks the vane this way and that.

Sometimes the wind has the breath of violets in it. Sometimes the mellow fragrance of ripe fields. Sometimes the tang of sulky cold.

The poor weather vane has no rest, no real CHOICE at all.

Who would be a weather vane? Who wouldn't like really to DECIDE? Actually, you know, no one can decide anything for you. Come down to earth and pick your OWN direction.

Women and Newspapers

XXV.

WOMEN are surely prodigies of contradiction and pathetic inconsistency. After repudiating newspapers in no uncertain terms, when I suggested that they were an excellent medium for keeping up with the times, Mary, in a spasm of remorse, has developed an insatiable passion for reading the news.

"Peter," she said firmly one night at dinner, "I suppose you read about that dreadful man who murdered his wife?" "No," said I, "I merely read the headlines."

"And there's been a dreadful accident, you know that didn't you? Twenty men buried alive in a mine!" "I saw the headline of that, too," I admitted. "Then there was a girl found in a river, and a little boy tumbled from the fourth story and broke himself somewhere—and—and—"

Why the Tango Is Moral

By WINIFRED BLACK

Copyright, 1914, by Newspaper Feature Service.

AND now the bishops and the clergy in general have come out in favor of the tango. There's nothing wrong about it at all, say the bishops of London.

It all depends upon who dances it, say the clergy of America. And there we are right back to first principles again.

It all depends, of course, it does, of course, it always has and it always will "depend."

The whole thing is a matter of mental attitude. I went bathing once with a woman who was so modest that she made me blush every time I looked at her.

All the rest of us were regulation bathing suits. Some of them were cut square in the neck and some were cut rounding; some were a little shorter than others and some had sailor collars and some had no collars at all.

It was Byron who wrote the horrified poem about the immorality of the tango. His immorality was, at the time he wrote it, the gossip immoral; he was immoral himself.

If I knew a young man who thought the tango-wicked, I would take particular pains to see that my daughter or my little sister never went to church or choir practice alone with that particular young man.

The tango is no more immoral than the waltz, or the two-step, or any other dance. And a dance is only just as immoral as the people who dance it.

Three cheers for the tango. Hurrah for the Hesitation waltz. I'm for them every day in the week and every night in the year, round, as long as the band plays and the floor is smooth and hearts are light and eyes are shining.

When I get too old to love the lift of a laughing tune, when I get too wicked to enjoy the sight of a room full of gay people dancing gayly—I hope some one will be kind enough to take me out and chloroform me.

Advice to Girls

By Annie Laurie

SOMEbody you thought was your friend said something mean about you the other day—and now you don't know what to do about it?

She said you let your mother do all the hard work while you skipped around to teas and tangoes. She said your mother hadn't a decent dress for her back, and you always have the very latest fads in the way of clothes—and she pretended to think so much of you, too.

Well, now, how do you know she said it? Who told you—and why did she tell you? And then—is it true? Do you let your mother do all the hard work while you run around to teas and tangoes? And do you look like a picture out of a fashion plate while she looks like a poor but honest scrubwoman?

If you do, your friend had a perfect right to say so. Who are you that no one should dare to tell the truth about you?

Your mother wants you to have a good time. She's never lappy unless you're happy. How about you? Are you happy when she is not?

If you are, you have a very foolish mother, and your mother is bringing up a selfish, cold-hearted, silly girl. Perhaps your friend didn't mean to do you a good turn when she said that about you—but it seems to me she did—anyhow.

as a peach and as sweet as a pink rose, and she did the tango just exactly as a rose aways in the morning breeze.

The girl who was dancing down the room right behind her was a quiet little creature with secretive eyes and an elusive, shadowy smile that meant—nothing—or everything.

She did the same steps exactly as the other girl, but she ought not to have been allowed in the ballroom with decent people at all.

It isn't the tango. It's the girl who dances it. I know another woman—and she is a beautiful woman, too, and one much admired by men—who could travel all over Europe with a man and never give him a chance to have one thought about her that he should not have.

It was Byron who wrote the horrified poem about the immorality of the tango. His immorality was, at the time he wrote it, the gossip immoral; he was immoral himself.

If I knew a young man who thought the tango-wicked, I would take particular pains to see that my daughter or my little sister never went to church or choir practice alone with that particular young man.

Secrets of Health and Happiness

You Are Only as Old as You Are Adaptable

By Dr. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG

A. B., M. A., M. D. (Johns Hopkins)

Copyright, 1914, by L. K. Hirschberg.

THE grave question which all the sons and daughters of Adam ask themselves sooner or later is: "How can we preserve our salad days of green judgment? How can the mirth of December and the warmth of July, as it fleeth by, be bottled up for emergencies?"

Youth is filled with buoyant hopes which turn everything like marigolds toward the sunny side. Youth is bright with beginnings, with aspirations, with faith, with trust, with gleaming defiance of danger, despair and darksome deeds.

The heart and living structures of youth are like a bee among a wild of honeysuckles. The play-place of life's endeavor knows no such word as work or worry.

While growth and upbuilding changes occur in the living fabric—in the structural texture of the body—it is physiologically impossible for the gray matter and the bodily senses in health to look seriously upon anything.

There is, said Hazlitt, a feeling of eternity in youth which makes amends for everything. To be young is to be as one of the immortals. No youth believes he will ever die. Healthful growth of the organism is incompatible with any realization of sickness, age or death.

The greatest boon. The gift of youth is the greatest boon of the gods. Sadly, it is the most precarious, the most easily lost and outgrown gift of life.

The philosopher said a man that is young in years may be old in hours if he has lost no time. But that happens rarely. Generally youth is like the first coatitions, not so wise as the second. There is youth in health and in thoughts as well as in ages. Yet the invention of young men is more lively than that of old, and images stream into their senses and brain better, and, as it were, more divinely.

Youth is the flow of growth, of expansion, of physiological adaptation. It is a fever of reason. Youth is the resilient, plastic, elastic life putty which meets all change, despite the defects of inheritance.

Therefore, it so happens that many young persons supposed to be sparkling with youth are actually old; while many octogenarians and so-called aged ones are bubbling over with the fountain of youth.

Individuals under twenty who fall to feel, see, hear, move, touch and otherwise take in and store up for future use all that goes on around them are precariously old. They are not taking advantage of their growth and expansive powers. Youth is not in them.

Youth Always Adaptable. There are many such. Just as there are more sheep who blindly follow a leader without heaving pathways for themselves, so there are more "old" young people who coherently and society, one organization, one unit, one mass, one agreeable, pleasant body.

Similarly there are often middle-aged and so-called old men who are actually more youthful than most persons under thirty-five. These learn new things easily; apply progressive inventions quickly; grow every hour and are forever adaptable.

These facts also give the solar plexus blow to such absurd phrases as "a man is as old as his arteries."

There is no truth whatever in that slogan. Experimentally it is discredited, and physiologically it has been completely disproved. Neither the feeling years nor the absence of sensory and muscular growth, neither lack of originality nor deficient adaptability make hardened arteries.

Indeed soft, incompressible and stemingly pliable blood channels often are associated with senility, decay and incapacity for mental, physical or moral growth at ninety and at ninety.

Hardened arteries are as independent of health to look seriously upon anything. There is, said Hazlitt, a feeling of eternity in youth which makes amends for everything. To be young is to be as one of the immortals. No youth believes he will ever die. Healthful growth of the organism is incompatible with any realization of sickness, age or death.

Answers to Health Questions

MRS. R. N.—Will you kindly tell me what is a good brush to use on the hair? I am anxious to try the brushing method to increase the length of my hair.

Select a brush that has bristles stiff enough to stimulate the scalp, but do not have them so stiff that they irritate. The proper stiffness of a brush depends upon the sensitiveness of the scalp.

In order to have healthy and beautiful hair the brush should be frequently washed.

M. C.—When I dance my arms grow tired holding them out. What shall I do?

When you are not dancing take an erect position, body rigid, head braced; with hands tightly clinched, extend the arms above the head as far as possible. Now bend the arms at elbows, and, with the hands turned downward at the wrist, drop the hands till the thumbs touch the shoulders. Extend the arms again to first position. The arm and shoulder muscles will be developed and the circulation of the upper part of the body stimulated.

Daddy's Good Night Story

By GEORGE HENRY SMITH

IT SEEMS to me we ought to have a larger house," said Mr. Squirrel to Mrs. Squirrel one frosty morning.

"How are we going to get it?" asked his good wife.

"Well," began Mr. Squirrel, "I know of one way, and that is to pour some water in this crack in the oak tree and when the water freezes it will split the tree."

"What!" exclaimed Mrs. Squirrel. "Do you mean to say that frozen water will split a big oak tree?"

"Indeed it will," answered her husband.

"All right," replied Mrs. Squirrel. "We will do as you say. Where do we get the water?"

"From the same place we always get it," answered Mr. Squirrel. "At the spring. You know a spring never freezes in the winter time."

Soon Mr. Squirrel and his wife were carrying water in little nuts which they had hollowed out. After a while they filled the hole in the oak tree with water and it started to freeze. By and by the tree began to crack.

Mr. and Mrs. Squirrel were busy getting out the ice with their teeth and claws. Suddenly they looked down and saw Brer Rabbit watching them from the foot of the tree.

"What are you doing?" he asked.

"We poured some water in a hole in the oak tree and when it froze it cracked a hole and made a nice new room for us," said Mr. Squirrel.

"I see I see!" exclaimed Brer Rabbit, as he started for the hole he had made in the ground. "Now," he said to himself, "I will fill this little hole with water and when it freezes it will make the hole larger, so I can get in myself and save me digging so much."

Back and forth to the spring he went with the cup he had made from an oak leaf.

By and by the hole was filled with water and Brer Rabbit went away. When he came back the top of the hole was covered with ice.

"Now what do you think of that!" he said to himself. "I have gone and closed that hole up. My teeth are not like those of Mr. and Mrs. Squirrel. They will not bite the ice out. I guess I won't try to imitate other folks after this."

Practice. Mertie—But what did Fred say when you caught him kissing the maid? Marie—Oh, he explained that he was merely "warming up."

It Looks Easy. "I think I would like that job," said Toyle Knott. "What job?" asked Tyre Doot. "Switchman on an airship transportation line."

Letters Transposed. "I see that Fijit and his wife are united." "That was a typographical error. It should have been 'united'."

Both Were Successful. "Was he successful in his suit for the hand of the belle?" "Yes, but not so much so as the chorus girl was in her suit for breach of promise. She got a judgment for $20,000."

CITY AFFAIRS.

One thing at least became apparent at the meeting of the city council on Monday evening, and that was the determination of Controller Church and his "disciples" at the sacrifice of consistency and reason, and the more material interests of the city, to oppose whatever Mayor Hocken desired.

ture is prone to offer crude schemes of reconstruction, which strive to anticipate the course of events. The time, however, calls more for the prospector than the prophet, particularly if the prophet is determined also to be the guide.

EUROPE AND THE NEAR EAST.

No doubt there is force in the arguments presented to show that the settlement of frontiers resulting from the Balkan wars has no element of permanence. The delimitation is arbitrary and has followed rather success in arms and the imposed will of the greater powers immediately interested than any true line of demarcation.

Nevertheless there is, at least, present peace with the participants in the war too exhausted to contemplate any immediate resumption of hostilities. Nor is it likely that the powers will depart from the policy which presented the Balkan trouble from involving Europe in a wider war.

MR. BRYAN'S PEACE POLICY.

President Wilson's pronouncement against the exemption of United States coastwise traffic from Panama Canal tolls has probably to some extent been prompted by his desire to assist the peace policy of his secretary of state, to whom he recently paid remarkable tribute.

The city council should have nothing to do with extending the franchises of the radials, or with conferring new rights upon the radials, or with conferring any rights upon the radials which they do not possess under the general law.

The resolution passed by the council is somewhat ambiguous, but it is at least clear that it does not provide for conferring further rights on the radials than they would possess under the general law.

We shall expect a continuation of the campaign of misrepresentation. The unholly zeal with which certain advocates devote themselves to the task of making white appear black and black white, is familiar to those who have studied Toronto civic affairs for the last quarter of a century.

PROSPECTOR, NOT PROPHET.

But for the talk of war and the fear of possible international conflict, the present season of easy money would certainly be followed by a remarkable revival of trade. During the recent period of stringency, money has been steadily accumulating in all financial centres.

What troubles men of affairs with broader vision is not so much the distinct inclination towards a readjustment of international relationship as the fact that all the nations affected have not arrived at the same plane of advance.

That is a trite remark which determines the present as a period of transition. But it is not so trite to live actually in that period. At a time when the old methods are dissolving before being replaced into a form better suited

When You Smell the Good Food Cooking

And It Makes You Sick It is a Sure Sign That You Need Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

It is time to pay attention to your stomach when the sight or the smell of food makes you sick for were this not the fact the stomach would not cause such disgust upon the part of the sense of smell and taste when meal time comes around.

All the world has to eat. You men who walk to your meals like you do to drug store for medicine, should at once realize that there is a relief for you. This relief is Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

The Dyspeptic: "How Can a Man Live in a Small Like That?"

Taste, sight and smell all have an influence upon digestion. If one eats something that does not taste good one starves the work of digestion because the juices necessary to digest the thing eaten will not flow in correct proportion.

On the other hand, good food will always excite the taste thru actual contact with the food in the mouth or thru the sight or sense of smell, unless the stomach knows that it cannot digest it.

We thus readily learn that the simple act of giving nature the digestive fluids she needs, will bring back all the joys of good eating, and tasting, smelling and seeing dainty dishes will excite a rousing appetite.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are composed of natural ingredients that a worn out digestion simply welcomes with a wild delight. They enrich the stomach juices quite so that if you want to eat an out-of-the-ordinary after-the-theatre sort of a dinner, just carry a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet in your pocket, take it after the meal and you will digest that meal.

I am by no means satisfied with defendant's conduct or his evidence. I do so without costs. Thirty days' stay.

"WILL NEVER AGAIN PLAY FOR THE CUBS"

Says Evers to Baseball Magnates—Looks Like Ill-Timed Act on Murphy's Part.

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—"I will never play for Murphy again under any circumstances," declared John J. Evers, deposed manager of the Chicago National League team, when the news that he had been dropped as manager, to be succeeded by Henry O'Day, became known at the uptown hotel where the National League's schedule meeting was in progress.

"I have been approached by the Federal League, and have held conference with some of them, but I would rather be with the 'old boy,'" he added.

This was accepted by everyone as a reference to Frank Chance, and immediately there were rumors of Evers coming over to the New York Americans, who are badly in need of a second-baseman. Tolle Zelder, groomed by Chance for that position, having deserted to the Fenestrals.

Came as a Bomb.

The Chicago Club's announcement of its change of management came as a starting pistol to a day devoted chiefly to speculation as to what the National League club-owners would do in reference to the invasion of organized baseball by the Federals, and threw all the other developments of the meeting into the shadow. Before any announcement regarding the change reached the league's temporary headquarters from Chicago, the big crowd of expectant followers of the game, who thronged the corridors of the hotel, were driven wild when Evers himself announced that he was thru as manager of the Chicago National.

While none of the club-owners as they emerged from the meeting room would talk as to what they thought of Evers' act, it was clear that Evers' departure was a blow to the city series last fall, which had been won by the Chicago Americans had been won by the team which Evers had managed with him for being in the company of Jimmy Callahan.

Evers' Comeback.

"Why do you go around with the opposition?" asked Murphy, Evers declared, "You have cost $50,000 for me losing the series."

"I replied by asking him how much he did think I made for him in 1913 when I forgot to touch second? When he said 'Probably $20,000' I said 'Well, that's more than even up.'"

Just what are the terms of Evers' contract with the Chicago club as manager and player could not be ascertained, but Evers had a brief talk with O'Day, Evers, and the new president of the National League said to him:

"Do not act hastily. I have not seen your contract, but assure you that you can depend upon justice being done you when I take up the matter."

There was full attendance of club owners at the National League meeting, when the playing schedule for the season of 1914 was adopted and a four-year contract between the league and O'Day was signed, his salary to start from $10,000 a year, and drawn up and signed by all the club presidents and the president.

President Barrow of the International League said today that several matters of importance should be considered, and the meeting of the International League would probably continue on Thursday or Friday.

Buffalo, John Dunn, Baltimore, and President Barrow were appointed as a committee to confer with the National Commission or representatives of the two major leagues and the American Association, and the meeting of the two AA clubs are concerned.

Baseball Arouses Italians' Fears

ROME, Feb. 10.—The unfamiliarity of the Italian with the game of baseball, stimulated by the refusal of the authorities to permit an exhibition game between the New York team of the National League and the Chicago of the American League without first being convinced that it is not a brutal game, has led to the points of the game were explained the authorities still insisted that a net be erected within the stadium to protect the spectators. Even when promises were given that this precaution would be taken, permission was not granted until ready at noon when a few innings will be played for the benefit of the authorities, who desire to judge for themselves what manner of game the American national pastime is.

MURPHY PASSES UP FAMOUS .EVERS

Second Baseman is No Longer Manager—Hank O'Day Succeeds Him—Gossip.

CHICAGO, Feb. 10.—Johnny Evers will not be manager of the Chicago National League Club this year, according to a statement given out in President Murphy's office here today. It was said that Evers will be succeeded by Henry O'Day, umpire, and former manager of the Cincinnati Club.

Differences between Murphy and Evers have existed ever since the middle of last season, and at one time the story was printed that both Evers and Joe Tinker, this manager of Cincinnati, were destined to lose their jobs. Tinker was removed from the Cincinnati position early this winter, and today's news bears out the remainder of the story.

Murphy's Fertile Brain Again.

The loss of the city series to the White Sox last fall was blamed on Evers by Murphy, who thought that good baseball judgment on the part of the club manager would have given them a win, that Mr. Murphy made up his mind some time ago to make change in leadership in this winter, and today's news bears out the remainder of the story.

Murphy was out as manager, he was not released from the club. His friends are divided as to whether he will play with the Cubs this season. Some think that he will join the Federal League, Evers' absence from the club line-up will make a serious hole at second base, it was argued, particularly since Evers is well, shortstop, has jumped to the Federals. Murphy has, however, a number of good young infielders.

O'Day on the Job.

O'Day actually began work as manager of the Cubs last month, when he signed Jimmy Johnston, the outfielder who was holding out over a difference in salary.

O'Day began his baseball career as a pitcher, and later became one of the foremost umpires, an authority on rules and a strict disciplinarian. In 1912 he succeeded Clark Griffith as manager of Cincinnati, but after a brilliant start his team fell back, and he quit at the end of the year, resuming his old position as umpire.

Evers has been with the Cubs about twelve years. He was an aggressive player, a second-baseman rated as good as any in the National League. He was a main cog in the old Cub machine, in which the double-play, "Tinker-to-Evers-to-Charles," became famous, and was known as an advanced student of "inside ball." It was his quick thinking that guaranteed the success of the double-play between the Cubs and Giants, and the winning of the pennant by the former. He was made manager last winter, soon after the release of Frank Chance was announced.

CAN FINANCE TWO LEAGUES—GILMORE

Feds Have Paid Fair—Will Not Place Club in Greater New York.

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—Altho President Gilmore and five other representatives of the National League were in this city today it was late tonight when newspaper men found them, after a persistent search.

With Gilmore in the party which reached this city from Chicago today, were Charles Weeghman, Wm. Waker, and E. E. Gates of Indianapolis. Those were joined after their arrival by Edward Egan and Henry Gilmore of Baltimore. All remained in seclusion during the day and none of them would say why they had made such a hurried trip to this city.

"The Federal League and its club members, President Gilmore said, "I won't say why we are here, but I can assure you it is not for never was our intention to place a club in Greater New York."

The Federal League has never tampered with organized players. We have played fair with organized baseball, but we have organized baseball has not played fair with us, and has left itself open to damages of $100,000 for taking players away from us. They had signed contracts with us.

"We have signed 142 players, ninety-five of whom were long leaguers. We will give Killiter and Kirkpatrick ten days in which to make up their minds to live up to their contracts with the Federal League, and if they don't we will begin legal proceedings."

"I have been offered a number of money behind it, but has never offered one cent as a bonus. We have advanced money to players, but not cheques were issued. In Baltimore alone we have paid out $22,000 on account of salaries to players and expended $50,000 more in purchasing playing grounds and the erection of stands."

"It has been said that the Federal League could not finance the proposed eight club circuit. Well, it can, and it has money enough to cover three circuits. We will hold our schedule meeting at Baltimore in the near future. It will be an eight club schedule of 154 games, and the season will open on April 15."

"As to organized baseball having offered to place a club in Chicago for Mr. Weeghman, such is not the case. There is no truth in such a report, and no advances have been made to Mr. Weeghman in this direction."

"The Federal League means business and has come to stay. There is plenty of room for it. Mr. Goldman assisted President Egan Johnson in organizing the American League, and is still friendly with the American League executive, who said many years ago that there was room enough then for the American League in professional baseball, and we claim the same exists today for the Federal League."

All the other representatives of the Federal League concurred with everything President Gilmore said, but none would speak of their plans or intentions, they would transmit during their stay in this city.

BLUE SHIRTS HAVE HARD TASK TONIGHT

Play Fast Coming Quebec Team—George Reports—Riversides Play Wiarnton.

The Quebec team have been practicing daily at the local Arena in preparation for their game with Toronto tonight. The champions are in grand shape, and a win tonight will put them right in the running for the honors. The Ontonarios are resting up, as Jack Marshall claims they are overtrained.

The fast Wiarnton intermediate O.H.A. team which defeated Stratford last night by 10 to 0 will play Riverdale at Bayview rink on Thursday night; return game in Wiarnton on Monday night.

Niagara Falls will go to Dunnville tonight to play off a tie game. If they win this, the Falls team will be tied with Dunnville for group honors, and a play-off will be necessary. If Dunnville win they will play at Hamilton on Friday night; return game at Dunnville on Monday. If Niagara Falls win there will be a sudden death game at Port Colborne on Friday.

A meeting of the O.H.A. subcommittee will be held at 1:30 p.m. today at The Telegram office.

Greg George of Kingston, the ex-Queen's University star centre, has been playing for New Edinburgh of Ottawa, of the Interprovincial League, has accepted terms with the Toronto club, and will likely figure on the blue streaks' forward line tonight against the champion Quebec at the Arena. The Ottawas were hot on George's trail early in the season, but the Kingston boy refused to turn, and did not make more until the Ottawa division of the Interprovincial broke up last week. In George Jack Marshall has secured a rattling good man, who will replace some of the Ontonarios who have broken training lately.

The Cleveland rink team will play St. Michaels here on Monday night on Thursday, they will meet St. Michaels in the senior finals soon.

Foresters beat Pharmacy in the Jennings Cup series last night by 3 to 2, thus winning group C at Varsity, and will meet the winners of groups A and D.

Kew Beach had to go overtime to win the senior game last night at Aura Lee by 2 to 1.

At a meeting of the subcommittee of the O.H.A. held yesterday, the unfinished Toronto Rowing Club-T.R.C. & A.A. game was ordered to be replayed on Saturday afternoon at the Arena. In future when a game is not played to a finish both clubs will be credited with a loss.

Close Bowling Scores At the Central Y

The fivepin tournament put on last week by the Central Y. for its members was a huge success from every point of view, no fewer than 55 taking part. These were divided into groups, which bowled Wednesday afternoon, Thursday night, Saturday night and last night, and when the last ball was bowled E. H. Williams was leading the field, with the fine total of 484 for three consecutive games, just three pins ahead of his nearest rival, Chas. Bodley, who knocked down 481 for his three, and Henry Teigh was third, with 448. These three were the only ones to bowl over 400 for three games. E. Cook took the booby prize, with a total of 217 for three straight. Mr. Williams bowled very well, his three being 155, 144 and 157; Bodley's, 158, 137 and 145; and Teigh's, 144, 152, 152. The only one that only three pins separated the winners. The prizes are to be seen at the Central Y. all this week after 7 p.m. They will be turned over to the winner.

The first game was all Jarvis owing to the good shooting of Clarke and White, who scored 12 and 11 baskets respectively. Nesbitt and Verney Bros. were the best for College. Serva could have scored considerably more, but was content. The next was Dovercourt A and B, and a great surprise was handed out when B won by 1 point. There was not a weak spot on the B team. Every man started, but more particularly Red and Bob Mackie. These two are among the best in the league, and it will take some tail huddling for any other team to beat them. Hanna and Parkes were A's best, but were checked very closely. Then Indian Road handed out what will probably be the greatest surprise of the whole season when they took the first Beva into camp 47 to 35. The checking of Kennedy and Lee was largely responsible for keeping Beverley's score down. McCutcheon and Chadwick scored on very clever combination work. Then every few moments Grand would journey up and help his forwards out by scoring. He played a grand game for his first year in big company. Tresider, Marshall and Ruddy played their usual strong game, but were checked so closely that they could not shoot with ease at all. Mr. Malooh referred to the entire action of all and kept the games exceedingly clean.

Art Allan, who has shown up within the past year or so to be one of Ontario's foremost fancy divers, will give an exhibition in the Broadview tank on Feb. 27 as one of the features of a large program.

Proposed Changes in Trotting Rules

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—The rules committee of the National Trotting Association made little progress today towards an agreement on certain of the more important changes suggested at the joint meeting of the National and American Trotting Associations, held in Chicago two months ago, and his report on these changes must be ready for action by the biennial congress of the association, which will go into session here tomorrow.

W. H. Gocher, secretary of the association, today intimated that discussion of them by the rules committee had not led to their definite acceptance. It is understood that the rules likely to be modified number nearly on these changes, proposed modifications including some novel features.

Among the changes to be considered is one which would give a horse the benefit of one second in case it had not reduced its record in any start during the previous year. Another would make an allowance of time of as much as four seconds in case a starter failed three times to win part of the purse. It is understood that a rule against penalizing heat winners, which are non-winners of a race, is much in favor, the record of the failure to win will be allowed in the breeders' books.

Performances against time, in what is commonly known as "th cup" records will not be considered a bar to races, it is said.

City of Brantford Will Put in a Bid for the Street Railway

WILL TENDER FOR STREET RAILWAY

Brantford City Council Decides to Make Offer—Matter Comes Up Friday.

BRANTFORD, Feb. 10.—A new turn was given to the street railway tangle when the city council last evening decided to make an offer for the railway, a committee being appointed to decide on the terms and submit the offer at the meeting of the boardholders at Toronto on Friday next.

The council resolved not to take any further part in the scheme of a municipal joint prison farm, thus following the lead set by Brant County. Wire companies here will be forced if possible to remove all poles and wires off the main streets.

DEMAND BETTER TRAIN SERVICE

Residents of Towns Near London Want More Facilities to Reach City.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—The demand of the residents of Watford and other towns on the Sarnia branch of the Grand Trunk between this city and the tunnel for better train service, particularly in the morning, will be taken up by the commissioner of industries, Mr. Gordon Phillips, at once. He has also a similar request from the residents of Glencoe.

TO REVIVE PLANS FOR RADIAL LINES

Goderich Councillor Outlines Proposal to Bring Defunct Railway to London.

DONDON, Feb. 10.—General Manager W. N. Warburton of the London and Lake Erie Railway and Transportation Company, has received a letter from Councillor William Proudfoot jr. of Goderich, outlining a proposal to revive and bring to London the defunct Ontario and West Shore Railway. Mr. Warburton told Mr. Proudfoot to take it up with the civic authorities in London.

It is understood that the town of Goderich and several other corporations which made grants of various kinds to the bankrupt line, are ready to undertake the management of the road, a good stretch of which has been built. That the line could be brought by way of the Proof Line road, passing thru Lucan and other centres of population to London, is the view of Mr. Proudfoot.

He stated to Mr. Warburton that if possible those who are seeking to revive the road would like to join their line with the London and Lake Erie, running from Port Stanley to London. In this way a continuous radial line between Lake Huron and Lake Erie would be effected.

A MILITARY SCHOOL

SARNIA, Feb. 10.—A school of instruction for the members of the local company of the 27th Regiment will be held in Sarnia soon. An instructor will pass two days in Sarnia, two in Petrolia and two in Watford of each week.

EXPECT EARLY NAVIGATION

FORT WILLIAM, Feb. 10.—The ice in Thunder Bay is only ten inches thick this year, whereas in other years at this time it has measured from twenty inches to three feet in thickness. Marine men predict 1914 navigation will open at the head of the lakes not later than the first week in April.

TENANT QUALIFIES AS OWNER

CORNWALL, Feb. 10.—(Special.)—At the regular meeting of the town council held tonight, a letter was read from J. B. Atkinson, assessor for 1913, stating that owing to an error in the assessment Councillor William Lalonde had been elected to the council as owner, whereas he was only tenant of the property on which he qualified. The letter was read and will be taken up later.

NEW LIGHTS WILL SHINE THIS WEEK

Most of Brantford's Street System Will Be in Operation by Saturday.

BRANTFORD, Feb. 10.—Good progress is being made by the Hydro-Electric Commission on the extension of the new street lighting system, as well as the domestic lighting service. Part of the work is being held up owing to the street railway tangle. The department cannot get the use of poles on Brant avenue and other streets on which there are car lines, until some agreement is made for the joint use of poles.

The whole of the eastern section of the city, including Eagle Place, will have the new street lighting by Wednesday evening. This includes all of the city east of Market street, both north and south of the canal. It is probable that ward three, including all the section between West street and Market street, to the Grand Trunk station, will be connected up by Saturday.

STORES FLOODED BY PIPE BURSTING

Tillsonburg Merchants Suffer Damage From Flow of Water—Hundreds of Dollars' Loss.

TILLSONBURG, Feb. 10.—Damage amounting to several hundred dollars was caused by the severe frost, which burst the pipes in Dr. T. Taylor's dentistry office, all night long. The water poured thru the floors into S. G. Vance's shoe store and J. E. Trestrain's grocery. When the proprietors opened up for business they found the shelves saturated, water pouring thru the ceiling, and in the shoe store boxes, rubbers and shoes floating about.

He has already moved the old Presbyterian Church and part of the house on the Blind Line, and will later remove the old town hall, which he has purchased. The demand for houses in Sarnia is so great that he expects to find ready market for them or desirable tenants if he prefers to retain them.

SEEK FREE GRAVEL FROM GOVERNMENT

Warwick and Watford Reeves Petition Minister of Public Works for Gift.

WATFORD, Feb. 10.—Reeve Stapleton of Watford and Reeve Harkness of Warwick are taking up the matter of free gravel for the municipalities with the minister of public works. The different Reeves of the county have this matter in hand also. Gravel of good quality is hard to secure in this section. The government at the present time is selling the gravel dredged from the mouth of the St. Charles river. The heads of the different municipalities will urge the minister of public works to cancel the government's present contract, and give the gravel free on board the cars to the different requirements of the county.

DR. BRUCE SMITH APPROVES

LONDON, Ont. Feb. 10.—Dr. Bruce Smith expressed great satisfaction when told of a proposal to establish a prison farm for Middlesex County. ## HALF THE SCHOOLS ARE BELOW HEALTH STANDARD

Startling Statement Made by Dr. Bently, Medical Inspector for London District.

STRATHROY, Ont. Feb. 9.—Some startling statements concerning public health matters were made here tonight by Dr. Bently of Sarnia, medical health inspector for the London district, in connection with the provincial government health exhibit. Dr. Bently said that 50 per cent. of the schools were not fit for any self-respecting child. This applied to country schools also. Ventilation more often than not was bad and insufficient air space was allowed. Twenty-eight per cent. of the male students and 42 per cent. of the female students contracted tuberculosis, and these proportions obtained among the teachers also, the reason being that the health regulations were not observed.

Many slaughter houses, Dr. Bently declared, were not in the condition they should be. Often, in fact they were slaughtered in them every day and sold for consumption by the public.

Woodstock Has to Buy Either New Ones or a Motor Hose Truck.

WOODSTOCK, Feb. 10.—Woodstock is faced with the problem of spending a thousand dollars or so for new horses at the firehall, or of purchasing a motor hose truck at an expenditure of $6000. Fire Chief Arnott told the fire and light committee that the horses now in use at the fire hall could not be depended upon to get out promptly. Of the five horses in the stable, only one could be depended upon. The other four, according to the chief's testimony, cannot be trained to their proper duties. One of them is laid up.

TRAMPS INFEST G. T. R.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—The Grand Trunk Railway has experienced considerable difficulty lately with tramps, who frequent the "sidewalk Pullman" of the road, and thus beat their passage as well as the company at one and the same time. Almost every freight train into London, and particularly the way freights, has several of this class aboard. Frequently they are detected alanking beside a train in the darkness, in which case they are "nabbed" by the watchful crew.

Some of the citizens are complaining greatly about the contamination of the river from the incinerator. All kinds of refuse is being thrown into it, causing very noxious smells.

WINGHAM'S MAYOR OUT OVER MIX-UP

Sensation Sprung Thru Discovery of Illegal Proceedings by Town Council.

WINGHAM, Feb. 10.—As a result of one of the most peculiar municipal mix-ups that have ever occurred in this district, Mayor J. Irwin resigned to run again as soon as a new election can be arranged.

An election will also be held for six members of the public school board and the present investigation, which was supposed to be an amalgamation of the high school and public school boards, will be abolished. This has followed an investigation by Councillor Morton, a local lawyer, and has caused the greatest political sensation Wingham has yet known.

He discovered while looking thru his law books a few days ago that last year's council by taking the matter into its own hands and doing away with the public school board, had violated what has been known as the board of education, acted in an entirely illegal manner in that no vote of the ratepayers was taken.

At the time strong protest was made against the council's action, which many citizens did not hesitate to call high-handed. The matter, however, was put thru until the public school board, of which Dr. Irwin was a member, was abolished.

METHODISTS WILL BUILD NEW CHURCH

To Cure Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises

Persons suffering from catarrhal deafness and head noises will be glad to know that this distressing affliction can be successfully treated at home by an internal sugar that in many instances has effected a complete cure after all else has failed. Sufferers who could scarcely hear a watch tick have had their hearing restored to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven or eight inches away from their ear.

Therefore, if you know someone who is troubled with head noises or catarrhal or catarrhal deafness, cut out this formula of small and mucus dropping in the back of the throat are other symptoms that show the presence of catarrhal deafness, and which are quickly overcome by this efficacious treatment. Nearly ninety per cent. of all ear troubles are directly caused by catarrh, therefore, there are but few people whose hearing cannot be restored by this simple home treatment. Every person who is troubled with head noises, catarrhal deafness, or catarrh in any form, should give this prescription a trial. There is nothing better.

The commissioners say they do not consider this a fair division of the government business.

ALDERMAN DOWN'S SEAT DECLARED TO BE SAFE

Third Case in Stratford Quo Warranto Proceedings Falls—Judge Barron's Ruling.

STRATFORD, Feb. 10.—Judge Barron has ruled that the relator, in the proceedings to unseat Ald. Charles Down from the council board, had failed, declaring that demand for respondent's taxes had not been proven, and that as nomination day is a legally election day the respondent could not be held in arrears for taxes, since nomination day was Dec. 29 and taxes were not due until Dec. 31. He therefore dismissed the case with costs.

Stratford will have an old boys' reunion this coming summer, the exact dates of which are yet to be set by the executive committee. Mayor Stevenson was elected president of the association, F. A. Copus first vice-president, J. D. McCrimmon second vice-president, W. Deacon secretary, and George Kay, treasurer.

CONTRACT WORDING PROVES AMBIGUOUS

Question Raised as to Meaning of 'Prevailing Rate of Wages.'

IS SENT TO SOLICITOR

Advisory Industrial Committee Hears Labor Men and School Contractor.

Organized labor made a vigorous fight at the advisory industrial education committee yesterday for the union rate of wages to be paid by the contractors at the central technical school building, to the 130 structural iron workers there.

The school contracts read, "The union or prevailing rate of wages." The union rate was read from the legal advisor of the contractors as follows:

"We are paying structural iron workers from 25 to 37 1/2 cents per hour. This does not include helpers, apprentices, and laborers, who get less, and foremen and sub-foremen, who get more, and I find that none of the large companies in Toronto are paying workmen the rates which my company is paying."

"I think I may safely say that these 110 men constitute at least 80 per cent. of all the structural iron workers employed here, and the wages they are receiving as above stated may, therefore, justly be held to be the prevailing rate."

Sweating it Out. Delegate Banks declared that contractors figured on having to pay the union rate, and then sweated the difference between the union rate and a lower rate out of the wage earners.

Trustee Miles Vokes said Mr. Bancroft was probably correct, but apparently the form of contract contained a joker in the phrasing. On his motion the clause was sent to the board's solicitor for his opinion on what constituted "the prevailing rate."

Should his reply be adverse to the enforcement of the union rate the Trades and Labor Council will organize a campaign for the union rate on all future school contracts.

No Bad Walls There. The sub-committee on charges of bad work on the Central Technical school walls reported that they had received emphatic denials from the architects and the clerk of the works.

Trustee Vokes said that his information was from a responsible citizen who would not allow his name to be used.

Trustee Fairbank stated that the only basis he could find for the allegation was the fact that several bricklayers had been discharged for filling in with rubbish instead of clear mortar, which would tend to leave open joints.

The committee will examine the walls accompanied by an expert.

Expert Must Appear. The qualifications of the expert having been called in question, he will be called upon to place the certificate of his standing before the chairman before the next meeting.

On the recommendation of Principal McKay, John Chester, A. R. C. A., was appointed assistant teacher of art and design at the technical school at a salary of $1600.

OFFERED TO RESIGN BUT DID NOT INSIST

McBride Took Offense at Mayor's Ruling That He Must Be More Quiet.

Ald. F. Spence forced a show down in the committee of the whole of the council yesterday as to whether Ald. McBride, the permanent chairman, is to be allowed to keep up a running debate while occupying the chair. He demanded a ruling upon his point of order.

Mayor Hocken ruled that the chairman should not take part in debate, but should send in his resignation. Ald. McBride declared, "If Ald. Spence is going to run this council."

"There's no business before the committee," Ald. F. Spence insisted. "If Ald. McBride has offered his resignation I have much pleasure in moving it be accepted," Controller Simpson said. The resignation was not pressed.

Then They Adjourned

Business done by the city council yesterday:

Instructed the city solicitor to oppose extension of time on the charters for the Forest Hill railway, the Toronto and Niagara Western railway.

Will apply for legislation for authority to purchase land and resell it to workmen for building homes. Will ask for authority to expend up to $20,000 on a convention.

Chief Librarian Locke was appointed on the Social Service Commission. Eighty acres at the head of Greenwood avenue were annexed.

New tenders to be called for an up-to-date viaduct over the Don at Gerrard street.

Council adjourned to 3 p.m. today.

TODMORDEN PARCEL WILL BE ANNEXED

Residents Are to Bear the Total Cost of Local Improvements.

TWO WERE OPPOSED

Alderman McBride Slammed The World, But Hocken Has Big Eyes.

Almost unanimously the city council approved yesterday the annexation of a small area in the northeast. There developed a marked sentiment in the council for serious consideration of the annexation of the Todmorden district.

When consideration of the annexation of eighty acres of the Danforth Glebe Estates, at the head of Greenwood avenue, came up for consideration, Ald. McBride let fly at The World, "If we take in this property,"

"I will be the first move to taking in Donlands (which is several miles beyond). This was preliminary to a howl over The World's charge that the opponents of annexation are the liquor interests."

"The charge could not be more absurd, more insane, more misleading," Ald. McBride asserted. "No member, myself included, of this council is allied with the liquor interests."

"The recommended annexation would be an extension of the Hellwell estate, which is well built up," Ald. Robbins said. "The property has no engineering difficulties. Danforth avenue is sewer and has a civic car line."

"The more people we put in there the more cars we will have to put on the line, and the bigger deficit we will have," Ald. McBride blurted out. Ald. Robbins challenged the statement.

"If Toronto had taken in the Todmorden district instead of North Toronto it would have been more sensible," Ald. Hiltz declared, and was applauded.

"Todmorden district is the best building section to be developed. People are going to build up that section, whether we take it in or not. We should take it in now and select our parks and sites for public buildings. If we do not take it in now it will be built up with buildings that will not conform to our fire protection bylaws when we annex it. I see no good reason why we should not annex the eighty acres."

Best of Conditions. "There was opposition when we annexed the Hellwell property," said Controller McCarthy, "and there could not possibly be anyone today who regrets that annexation. The annexation of this eighty-acre area is a ten times stronger case. Never has there been an annex offered on conditions so favorable. It is to bear the entire cost of all local improvements, and this will establish an invaluable precedent for annexation. These conditions absolutely protect the older portions of the city."

Related to Ole Doc. "While I'm not the old original 'Doc Big Eyes' yet I must be a relative of his, for I have throut my public life persistently advocated annexations," Mayor Hocken declared. "The evils of congestion in older Toronto can never be remedied unless we continue to provide more room for the natural growth of the population. This annexation is merely a question of adding eighty acres, which will not only take care of its improvements, but will add to the revenues of the city."

"We should not encourage conditions which will make for the construction of shacks," Mayor Hocken contended. "I'll admit there is a great deal of vacant land in ward one, but it is not so long ago when there was also much vacant land west of Bathurst street and there was considerable building beyond the limits. I would not only take in the eighty acres at the head of Greenwood avenue, but I would like in 300 acres there, for the area is most excellent for building."

Simpson's View. "I only wish too Toronto could get hold of two or three thousand additional acres of land," Controller Simpson said. "It would relieve congestion and make the city much more livable."

"This annexation is one of the best recommendations ever sent on by a board of control," Ald. Maguire declared.

"I would not only take in these eighty acres," said Ald. Meredith, "but I would take in all north of St. Clair avenue to Eglinton avenue, west of North Toronto."

Two Were Recalcitrant. "I will vote for taking in all the territory from Danforth avenue to St. Clair avenue if it will come in on the same terms as for the eighty acres," Ald. McBride said. "We cannot take in eighty acres on the terms proposed except by legislation, for we otherwise could not compel the owners of the property to carry out the terms."

"It is understood that the Ontario Railway Board is to pass upon the agreement," Ald. Watson said.

The vote was then taken, and only Ald. McBride and Ald. Graham voted against annexing the eighty acres.

NOW UP TO GEARY TO PLAY THE GAME

Agreement Must Conform to Wish of Controllers, Wanless Explains.

TAX REFORM SHELVED

Ald. F. Spence Says City Already Receives Revenue From Unearned Increment.

In the city council yesterday, Ald. F. Spence attacked the recommendation that legislation be asked for authority to tax the unearned increment on real estate, and it was struck out. He declared that unearned increment is already taxed, as assessment of land increases with higher values of the land. He moved in amendment that legislation be asked to authorize the collection of a fair proportion of increased value of real estate when sold or exchanged.

Controller Simpson challenged Ald. Spence's amendment, and the alderman promptly withdrew it to head off a lengthy debate.

Chairman McBride remarked that Ald. Spence indulged in trivialities. Ald. Spence resented it, and there was a tense moment when Ald. McBride practically gave the lie to Ald. Spence. The situation was saved, however, by Ald. Spence not pressing the matter.

Controller Simpson plunged into a speech upon unearned increment. Ald. Wickert tried to stop it, and was snubbed by Ald. McBride.

"If I were vulgar," Controller Simpson remarked, "I would say that it is sometimes unwise to cast pearls before swine."

When the council went into session in the morning, Ald. Maguire asked for an interpretation of the motion adopted the previous day for amended instructions to the corporation council for the drawing up of the agreement of purchase for the clean-up of the franchises. He declared that several members had no clear understanding of the motion.

Now Up to Geary. Ald. Wanless, who seconded Ald. Wickert's motion, explained that the amended instructions in any other agreement of purchase must conform to the viewpoint of the board of control. As the majority of the board of control favor exclusion of railroads and the bringing in of radial cars only with civic crews, it is now up to the corporation council to keep out of the agreement of purchase any other agreement of purchase in the city for the radials.

The recommendation to exempt by $700 the assessment of dwellings assessed under $2000 was struck out. New tenders are to be called for a viaduct over the Don at Gerrard street that will be of the best approved type. The estimated cost is $382,900.

Big Grant for Convention. There was a lengthy debate over getting authority to grant up to $20,000 to a convention. The intention is to grant $10,000 to the Ad Club convention this year and probably more to the chambers of commerce convention next year. Mayor Hocken gave much interesting information about the Ad Club. Permission to apply for legislation was given.

The recommendation that a laundry license be given the Fred Victor Mission on Jarvis street was referred back to permit the applicants and the nearby property owners to effect a compromise.

"The objection is really not to the laundry, but to the home for girls being there," Ald. Wickert explained. Ald. Singer pressed his motion that an amendment to the Municipal Act be asked which will provide that no member of a council can be appointed to office in civic departments during the year for which he is elected to the council. He claimed that lobbying by members for office should be checked. He moved to strike out the unfavorable recommendation of the board of control, but the motion did not carry.

A Final Check. The report of the treasury board was attacked. The recommendation that the board have a final check on large expenditures and that no expenditure be undertaken until that final check is lifted was referred back for more consideration. It was also urged that more publicity be given to sales of departments. This will be dealt with today.

The allocation by Mayor Hocken to the controllers of the branches of civic government each would specialise was approved without debate. Council adjourned to 3 p.m. today.

PETITION SENT TO CONTROLLERS

Keele-Constance Apartment House Controversy is Still in the Air.

RESIDENTS ASK ACTION

Would Have Mayor and Board of Control See Buildings.

Following is a copy of a petition to be presented to the mayor and board of control this morning, signed by residents and property-owners in the vicinity of Keele and Constance streets in relation to the construction of high-rise apartment houses built by ex-Ald. Stewart at the corner of Constance and Keele streets, in direct contravention of the city by-law governing the erection of houses in the park, on the east side of Keele street. "To the Mayor and Board of Control of the City of Toronto.

"Gentlemen,—We, the undersigned, wish to have your board personally inspect the apartment houses built by ex-Ald. Stewart at the corner of Constance and Keele streets, in direct contravention of the city by-law governing the erection of houses in the park, and submit the following for your consideration. Under a permit for a two-family with attic dwelling, said ex-Ald. Stewart has erected a distinctly bona fide three-family house, known as No. 377 Keele street, with three distinct apartments, with separate exits from the top story to the ground, said exits being of wood, contrary to law. The said building also contains heating apparatus on the ground floor capable of heating adjoining apartments, if and when connected. Also, under a permit for a two-family with attic dwelling, said ex-Ald. Stewart has put a bona fide four-family house, known as 377 Keele street, with three distinct apartments, with separate exits, said exits being of wood, contrary to law, from the fourth story to the ground, with janitor's apartments on the ground floor. Also, he has raised the ground level with cement wall on the city's approach to the said building, to the detriment of adjoining properties, all done in face of an existing writ against him issued at the instance of Inspector Sykes, by your city solicitor. Now, your Mr. Price, city architect, would be compelled to seal them down. It is neglect on the part of City Architect Price and staff of inspectors that ask a bribe was permitted. We hereby petition you to have an outside architect and corporation council employed to serve our interests at the expense of the city, now pending in the courts, to have the said buildings, exits and encroachments, removed or remedied, so as not to be assessed converted into apartment houses at any future date, as they are at present, with separate brass directory and bells for each flat, at the lower entrance of each building."

This morning at 11 o'clock a deputation from the Civic Guild will appear before the board of control to urge the city to co-operate with the Dominion Government in securing a proper setting for the magnificent new post office building which the government intend to erect in Toronto.

The guild has the support of the Toronto Board of Trade, Toronto Branch Canadian Manufacturers' Association, and a large number of the Ratepayers' Associations in the city. Representatives from these bodies will appear with the guild deputation. It is claimed by the guild that there are advantages, both to the city and government which make it very desirable that the recommendations be seriously considered. The secretary stated yesterday that whereas the situation had seemed extremely complicated a few weeks ago there was a probability that if the city took up the matter promptly a very easy solution could be found.

The secretary was not prepared to state the guild's estimate of the probable cost of the improvement, but he was of the opinion that the cost should be assessed partly on the property immediately benefited, and the balance over the city as a whole. This would mean that it was not intended to ask the government to contribute any part of the cost, but merely to co-operate with the city by facing the new building on the open space in line with the east side of Toronto street and exchanging the land it is now expropriating for the land the city will require to expand.

Several arguments for and against the abolition of duties on food-stuffs passing between Canada and the United States were given at the luncheon of the Canada Forward Club in the Kardov Tea Rooms last evening. The discussion arose over a resolution recommending the abolition of duties on food-stuffs, which was introduced by Stanley Kerr, who strongly advocated it as a factor in reducing the high cost of living.

J. J. Gray opposed the resolution on the ground that it would not help to build up Canada, but would have a tendency to depopulate the farming district in favor of the cities. He drew attention to the fact that the farming population was rapidly decreasing and

CLAIMS ORANGE LOBBY HURT CAREY'S CHANCE

O'Neill's Bitter Remarks in Council Failed to Prevent Choice of Dr. Locke.

Ald. Risk moved in the city council yesterday that Chief Librarian Locke be appointed on the Social Service Commission instead of D. A. Carey. Controller Simpson supported Mr. Carey.

"Three or four men have been out in the corridor all day putting up a lobby that is all bigoted and the worst interference possible with public interests," Controller O'Neill declared. "Those who are lobbying are nothing more or less than wire-pullers, guzzlers and tall-twisters."

Mayor Hocken and Controller McCarthy, who favored Mr. Locke, resented Controller O'Neill's remarks, and Controller O'Neill assured them he did not mean they were among the lobbyists.

"I regret very much that sectarianism has come into this matter," Mayor Hocken said. (Mr. Carey is a member of the separate school board.) "No one lobbied me, but I know Mr. Locke is an ideal man and will vote for his appointment," Trustee Hiltz said.

"I have not been lobbied," Ald. Walton declared, "and Controller O'Neill has taken back his charge that this council has been lobbied."

"I won't withdraw anything," Controller O'Neill thundered. "A special lobby has been put up to take the appointment away from Dave Carey, and the sooner the council realizes it the better."

"The lobby has no weight with the council," Ald. D. Spence declared. "You speak for yourself," Controller O'Neill retorted. "That's all you have to do."

The appointment was given to Chief Librarian Locke, only four voting for Mr. Carey. Controllers Simpson, Church and O'Neill and Ald. Rowland were the four.

PROVINCIAL APPROVAL FOR NEW WATERWORKS

Port Arthur Deputation is in Toronto Consulting With Dr. McCullough.

Port Arthur is making sure of provincial approval of the new waterworks and sewerage plans now under the consideration of their local council, a large deputation comprising the mayor, city engineers and several aldermen, are in Toronto for two days in consultation with P. H. O. McCullough.

The bylaw which will be submitted calls for an expenditure of $800,000 upon an up-to-date and efficient system.

By the new Health Act regulations the approval of the provincial board must be obtained before the local vote is taken and the election process is now under way. Sanitary Engineer P. A. Batten is in charge of the scientific investigation.

PROPER SETTING FOR POSTOFFICE

Civic Guild and Other Bodies Will Interview Controllers Today.

TO STATE ADVANTAGES

Assessment of Cost Should Be Levied on City as a Whole.

This morning at 11 o'clock a deputation from the Civic Guild will appear before the board of control to urge the city to co-operate with the Dominion Government in securing a proper setting for the magnificent new post office building which the government intend to erect in Toronto.

The guild has the support of the Toronto Board of Trade, Toronto Branch Canadian Manufacturers' Association, and a large number of the Ratepayers' Associations in the city. Representatives from these bodies will appear with the guild deputation. It is claimed by the guild that there are advantages, both to the city and government which make it very desirable that the recommendations be seriously considered. The secretary stated yesterday that whereas the situation had seemed extremely complicated a few weeks ago there was a probability that if the city took up the matter promptly a very easy solution could be found.

The secretary was not prepared to state the guild's estimate of the probable cost of the improvement, but he was of the opinion that the cost should be assessed partly on the property immediately benefited, and the balance over the city as a whole. This would mean that it was not intended to ask the government to contribute any part of the cost, but merely to co-operate with the city by facing the new building on the open space in line with the east side of Toronto street and exchanging the land it is now expropriating for the land the city will require to expand.

Several arguments for and against the abolition of duties on food-stuffs passing between Canada and the United States were given at the luncheon of the Canada Forward Club in the Kardov Tea Rooms last evening. The discussion arose over a resolution recommending the abolition of duties on food-stuffs, which was introduced by Stanley Kerr, who strongly advocated it as a factor in reducing the high cost of living.

J. J. Gray opposed the resolution on the ground that it would not help to build up Canada, but would have a tendency to depopulate the farming district in favor of the cities. He drew attention to the fact that the farming population was rapidly decreasing and that if continued the country would suffer from an under-production of food-stuffs. He thought that as the farmers were the backbone of the country it was far more important to consider them as producers than to consider all other classes as consumers.

"If we allow the free entrance of wheat and food-stuffs into Canada," he said, "we are taking a dangerous course of remedying a low evil, as it will tend to further decrease our rural population. The government should not say that it will let conditions right themselves, but it should build elevators to hold the Canadian grain, take steps to regulate the freight-rates, and introduce measures to remedy evils which militate against the marketing of Canadian goods in Canada."

Stewart Lyon, in supporting the resolution, stated that in his opinion the taxation of food-stuffs was a positive hardship and should be done away with.

R. S. Means expected that the removal of the duty on food-stuffs would be followed by the removal of the duty on manufactured articles, and he favored the condition that would arise from such a procedure, as did W. K. Murphy, who also ably supported the resolution.

The debate will be continued at the next meeting of the association.

Several arguments for and against the abolition of duties on food-stuffs passing between Canada and the United States were given at the luncheon of the Canada Forward Club in the Kardov Tea Rooms last evening. Organized labor made a vigorous fight at the advisory industrial education committee yesterday for the union rate of wages to be paid by the contractors at the central technical school building, to the 130 structural iron workers there.

The school contracts read, "The union or prevailing rate of wages." The union rate was read from the legal advisor of the contractors as follows:

"We are paying structural iron workers from 25 to 37 1/2 cents per hour. This does not include helpers, apprentices, and laborers, who get less, and foremen and sub-foremen, who get more, and I find that none of the large companies in Toronto are paying workmen the rates which my company is paying."

"I think I may safely say that these 110 men constitute at least 80 per cent. of all the structural iron workers employed here, and the wages they are receiving as above stated may, therefore, justly be held to be the prevailing rate."

Sweating it Out. Delegate Banks declared that contractors figured on having to pay the union rate, and then sweated the difference between the union rate and a lower rate out of the wage earners.

Trustee Miles Vokes said Mr. Bancroft was probably correct, but apparently the form of contract contained a joker in the phrasing. On his motion the clause was sent to the board's solicitor for his opinion on what constituted "the prevailing rate."

Should his reply be adverse to the enforcement of the union rate the Trades and Labor Council will organize a campaign for the union rate on all future school contracts.

No Bad Walls There. The sub-committee on charges of bad work on the Central Technical school walls reported that they had received emphatic denials from the architects and the clerk of the works.

Trustee Vokes said that his information was from a responsible citizen who would not allow his name to be used.

Trustee Fairbank stated that the only basis he could find for the allegation was the fact that several bricklayers had been discharged for filling in with rubbish instead of clear mortar, which would tend to leave open joints.

The committee will examine the walls accompanied by an expert.

Expert Must Appear. The qualifications of the expert having been called in question, he will be called upon to place the certificate of his standing before the chairman before the next meeting.

On the recommendation of Principal McKay, John Chester, A. R. C. A., was appointed assistant teacher of art and design at the technical school at a salary of $1600.

OFFERED TO RESIGN BUT DID NOT INSIST

McBride Took Offense at Mayor's Ruling That He Must Be More Quiet.

Ald. F. Spence forced a show down in the committee of the whole of the council yesterday as to whether Ald. McBride, the permanent chairman, is to be allowed to keep up a running debate while occupying the chair. He demanded a ruling upon his point of order.

Mayor Hocken ruled that the chairman should not take part in debate, but should send in his resignation. Ald. McBride declared, "If Ald. Spence is going to run this council."

"There's no business before the committee," Ald. F. Spence insisted. "If Ald. McBride has offered his resignation I have much pleasure in moving it be accepted," Controller Simpson said. The resignation was not pressed.

STANDARD BANK FIRM

Bread and Mackay Common Among the Chief Issues in Demand.

Trading subsided on the Toronto Stock Exchange yesterday, and with it there was some subsidence in values.

There was less evidence of the existence of a buying power yesterday, but the absence of bids in some issues may have been due to the bias of speculative sentiment.

Standard Bank was in good demand, and Mackay common was bought freely at 84 and could only be had at the close one-half a point higher.

Among the investment securities, Standard Bank was in good demand as a result of last year's successful business.
