NICARAGUAN REBELS WIN TWO BIG BATTLES

Gen. Rivas Killed in Sunday's Fighting—Madriz Government is Just About All In.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Aug. 21.—The provisional government of Nicaragua is tottering to its fall, the Madriz army is demoralized and Dr. Madriz, its general in chief, Toledo, and Dr. Irias, are preparing to flee the country.

This, in effect, is the advice received by the state department today from United States Consul Olivarez at Managua, and the news is confirmed by despatches from Mr. Johnson, United States Consul at Corinto.

A panic in Managua is threatening the lives and property of Americans. Crowds are reported traversing the streets crying "Death to the Yankees." The cruisers Vicksburg and Yorktown are at Corinto.

The situation grew out of the victory won by Estrada's troops on Thursday, when the revolutionists defeated a strong column of government troops and effected the crossing of the Tipapa River. The rout of the government army seems to have been complete.

Granada appears to be at the mercy of an undisciplined mob of soldiers who are reported to be pillaging the houses there. It is added that the Estrada force is already at the gates of the city, and is preparing to take the place by assault.

BLUEFIELDS, Nicaragua, Aug. 21.—General Fernando Rivas was killed today while fighting at the head of one thousand government troops who were endeavoring to retake ground they had lost to the revolutionary forces in the vicinity of Granada. After three hours of desperate fighting the Madriz forces were decisively defeated.

FREIGHTS CRASH TRAINMEN KILLED

Bad Collision on the Central Vermont, Near Northfield—Several of the Dead Were Cremated in the Burning Wreckage.

NORTHFIELD, Vt., Aug. 21.—Seven bodies, most of them burned beyond recognition, have been recovered from the wreckage of two freight trains that were so badly hurled by the fire, which started after the two engines piled up, that they could not be identified. The other bodies, it is believed, were incinerated.

The list of injured includes V. D. S. Albert, St. Albans, brakeman on the southbound train, injured about head and breast, probably fatally; Joseph Smith, Haverhill, brakeman on southbound train, skull fractured and hip broken. Taken to Heaton Hospital in Montpelier; B. Wynn, engineer on northbound train, and hip dislocated; Leon Labague, St. Albans, fireman on northbound train, skull fractured and ribs broken. Three others are known to have been injured, but their names could not be learned.

The accident occurred on the main line of the Central Vermont Railroad, shortly after 8 o'clock this morning. One of the trains, consisting of an engine, tender and caboose, was bound south from St. Albans, and it is claimed, had the right-of-way on the single track. The other train, a heavy freight of 25 or 40 cars, was proceeding from White River Junction to Montpelier and St. Albans.

Engineers Wynn of the northbound train ran by a signal short distance past the Northfield Station, it is alleged, and a few moments later the collision took place. The engine and eight cars of the freight train were piled up on top of the single track. Immediately the wreckage caught fire, and fire was added to the flames by the explosion of several tank cars containing oil.

There were several cars of livestock on the northbound train, but these were all left standing on the rails, although several of the trotting horses were killed by the shock.

ANOTHER UNKNOWN'S BODY

Found Floating in the Bay on Sunday Morning.

The body of a man, which has not yet been identified, was taken to the morgue Saturday night. It was found in the bay at the foot of Bathurst street by P.C. Young and two other men who were returning from the island in the little boat Elsie, when it came into contact with the body.

The dead man was clean shaven, about five feet five inches tall, weighed 180 pounds, was about 35 years of age, and wore dark clothes. No hat was found.

LABRADOR FISHERIES FAIL

Bad News for Twenty Thousand of Newfoundland's Population.

ST. JOHN'S, N.F., Aug. 21.—Despatches from Dr. Grenfell, the Labrador medical missionary, contain the report of a probable total failure of the Labrador fisheries this season.

This news portends serious consequences for the twenty thousand fisher folk of Newfoundland, who depend upon the Labrador fishing for their living.

A FLAG INCIDENT

Yacht With Stars and Stripes Invaded and Dishonored.

There was a flag incident at the bay front yesterday, when the yacht "Whirlwind" from Buffalo, N.Y., came into harbor, flying the Stars and Stripes. When it hoisted to near the Argonaut Rowing Club some boys asked where the Union Jack was and were told it had been lost at Port Dalhousie.

When the yachtman left for lunch, the boys swam to the yacht and lowered and tore up the flag.

MURDERER MOIR CAUGHT ON FARM

AFTER WANDERING ON FOOT THRU PENINSULA TWO ASYLUM GUARDS ARRESTED

Attendants Alleged to Have Furnished Him With Duplicate Keys, Tho He Declares Jail Friends Provided Tools to Make Escape.

HAD SECURED A JOB BUT AUTOIST SAW HIM

HAMILTON, Ont., Aug. 21.—(Special)—Moir, the inmate murderer, who escaped from Hamilton Asylum last Monday morning, is again in his "hole" in the east, having been caught by two attendants, Fred McCullough and Montell Trapnell, who were placed under arrest and will be charged tomorrow morning with aiding and abetting in his escape.

Moir was brought from Niagara Falls, where he was caught yesterday. Even when securely manacled, with his hands behind his back, he still had the power to give his keepers a shock. This morning he was found with his hands in front of him, and gave an excuse for his contortions.

Moir told the detectives on the way up from the Falls that he received assistance from friends he met in the London jail. He denied that an auto had waited for him.

The King returned to incriminate anybody who helped him, the asylum authorities have conclusive evidence that an auto, left the grounds of the institution on Monday morning last, about the time the two maniacs made their escape. Moir said that he had $5 when he recovered his liberty, half of which he gave to Taggart. He explained that he had been waiting for Taggart to get away, and that he had received letters from him when the asylum authorities forbade people writing to himself.

The arrest of McCullough and Trapnell was a surprise to the police. Trapnell was suspected of complicity with the breakaway since Monday last by Provincial Detective Miller, and was being watched by the police authorities. Last week, the city police received word that McCullough was saying that it was two other masterkeys that Moir obtained his liberty, and that he had been waiting for them to get away.

Don't Want Statue of King

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Patriotic societies were started yesterday when they learned that it had been proposed to replace at Bowling Green the statue of King George III, the lead of which was converted into bullets by the continental troops during the revolution.

It was rumored that members of the sister organization were behind the scheme. It will be stoutly opposed.

Religious Fanatics Starve Themselves

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 21.—The Rev. John O'Neill Irving, who said he had been pastor of a Baptist church in Dallas, Tex., died today in a cottage on Bonner-street, just beyond the city limits, as the result of a fast which he, together with J. E. Butler, Mrs. Nellie Boyle and Alice Griffin, Mrs. Boyle's 16-year-old niece, had observed for more than six weeks. He died refusing nourishment which the police attempted to give him.

All are members of a sect of which Irving was leader, and which he styled "The Disciples of the Holy Ghost With the Gift of Tongues." When detectives entered the cottage they found the fasters lying on pallets too weak to move. Irving invited the curses of heaven upon the intruders. The four, he said, had not touched food for six weeks, and the last ten days had not stirred from their couches on the floor of a room that had not been aired since the fast began.

Alice Griffin said she had been forced to fast. When food was given her she ate ravenously. It is feared that she will die from over-eating after her long abstinence.

Anything Good Enough for Ontario

The people of Ontario are at last getting wise to the true railway situation in this province. The World has turned on the light.

The great transcontinental railway, the greatest railway in the world, judged by Ontario's experience, is a very one-horse concern. It has only one piece of railway in Ontario that has standard class, the new line from Toronto to Sudbury. Also the Toronto-Buffalo service.

All the rest of the lines in Ontario are third or fourth class, and can only stand the strain of their class. A freight jam, and they fall down. In fact, we have shown that the whole freight system in and about Toronto has been demoralized by the press of traffic consequent on the Grand Trunk strike.

We have shown that the only traffic handled was the dead-end traffic from Chicago—that the company had to set it thru or lose it. That in consequence it got it thru, and Canadian traffic was congested, blocked, undelivered, has been lost in the blockade jungle.

We have shown that while the Canadian Pacific has millions in its treasury, and that while for years improved tracks and equipment were urgently needed in Ontario, it had been and is the policy of the Montreal executive of the line to neglect this province and its needs and to devote its energy to steamship lines, the great west, hotels, and the cultivation of political influence.

It took years to get the Toronto-Sudbury line built—now that it is built, it carries the greatest transcontinental train of Canada. It should have been opened up ten years ago.

But to get rid of the grades east of Toronto, to double-track, to rebridge, all these things have been put back.

Worse than all, the chief object of the Montreal executive has been to cut expenses in the Ontario division. To cut out telegraphers, to cut out night agents, to cut out section men, to make the runs in shorter hours with secondary equipment, to keep every man on the ragged edge as to doing things fine. Petty attempts at straightening tracks, at putting in sidings that would be part of a double track, have been made, but of a most trifling character. Their best engineer was put on the job, but his report is pigeon-holed.

Mr. Hays, when he came to the Grand Trunk, made a record by putting Mr. McGuigan at the task of improving the line from Montreal to Toronto, rather than from Toronto to Montreal, and the result was one of the best pieces of work in the way of railway improvement ever accomplished in America. The Canadian Pacific must be McGuiganized in the Montreal executive continues to show its contempt for the one province that has been the backbone of its success in the west, and the main source of its revenue in the east!

Sir Thomas Shaughnessy and his immediate associates in Montreal, and his directors, treat Ontario as a fourth-class province. They've never spent a dollar in this province for car or locomotive shops, for supplies, that they could possibly help. And they won't put men in charge here with the necessary power to do so. They put everything off. They give the right of way over Ontario lines to Chicago dead-end trains. They put all their good engineers, train hands, right of way, etc., into the Chicago dead-end and let Ontario have such equipment as is left.

Catch them even building an hotel in Ontario! Catch them straightening out and improving the service between Toronto and Ottawa. To do this would jeopardize the supremacy and domination of Montreal at the Federal capital! That doesn't suit them. And every public man, nearly every newspaper, in Ontario stands for this neglect.

MAN LIVES LOST

HUNDREDS FLEE FOREST FIRES

Town of Wallace, Idaho, Half Destroyed, and Many Other Places Are Surrounded—Fate of 180 Firefighters in Doubt.

MISSOULA, Mont., Aug. 21.—Thirteen lives were lost when forest fires spread to the Town of Wallace, Idaho, last night. The property loss is placed at $1,000,000.

The east half of the town has been destroyed, but the flames are believed to be under control.

Elsewhere in the fire zone the situation has gone from bad to worse today.

The most serious incident is reported late this afternoon from the St. Coe country, where 180 men engaged in the forestry service, are missing, and it is feared they have been burned to death.

When the fire approached the camp, where there were 200 men, two of the fighters took a horse, and riding the animal to death, reached another camp and organized a rescue party, which penetrated the fire at Brid Creek.

Eighteen of the men were found in the water where they had gone for safety. They were unhurt, and the remaining 180 no word has been received.

Hundreds of fugitives. Mercilessly and relentlessly the forest fire in western Montana and Idaho are sweeping over a vast area, driving hundreds of fugitives before them, destroying small settlements and wiping out of existence millions of dollars' worth of property.

Communication with Wallace to the west has been possible at intervals today, but eastward it is entirely cut off. It is known that the entire east half of the town above Seventh-street has been burned. West of that a hard fight is being made, and with an improvement in the water supply there is more chance that the flames may be driven back.

Early last evening the mayor of Wallace ordered the chief of police to impress into service every able-bodied man in this city to fight forest fires. Some refused, and were either jailed or run out of town.

The forestry service has organized a relief train well equipped with pack animals, carrying provisions and hospital supplies, and will endeavor to get through the fire.

About a thousand refugees have been brought into Missoula today. There is much distress among them. Their wants are being supplied by Missoula people, and they have been given temporary homes.

Bringing in the Homeless. The first of the trains came in over the Northern Pacific's Coeur d'Alene branch and brought the patients who had been in the Sisters' Hospital at Wallace and as many refugees as could find place on the small train.

The way, too, into the city had been made, but of a most trifling character. Their best engineer was put on the job, but his report is pigeon-holed.

Catch them even building an hotel in Ontario! Catch them straightening out and improving the service between Toronto and Ottawa. To do this would jeopardize the supremacy and domination of Montreal at the Federal capital! That doesn't suit them. And every public man, nearly every newspaper, in Ontario stands for this neglect.

Skeeters Win in Tenth

MONTREAL, Aug. 21.—The Skeeters took the last game of the series from the Royals to-day by a score of 6 to 1. Stilton, twirling for the Peas, held the Royals to three scattered hits until the eighth inning, when Dubec laced one over the left field fence, scoring Kritchell ahead of him. The Barrowites came back again in the ninth and by bunching their hits scored two runs and tied the score, which the Skeeters had run up to 4 in the early innings. Dubec weakened in the tenth inning and allowed four hits, totaling two runs, which the Royals could not overcome. Scores:

Saturday's Double Victory

The Toronto came into their own on Saturday at the stadium before nearly 900 spectators. Mueller pitched the first and lasted till the ninth, when Rudolph had to come in to try and save the game. At that the Leafs had to bat in the winning run in their hit Slatery making the hit that scored the victory, with two out. In the second Newton showed that he is still holding the Orioles' goat and won away off the visitors getting two in the ninth, making it look no bad for them. Scores:

MONDAY MORNING, AUG. 2, 1910.

AFTER THE BATTLE.

It will be the general feeling that the Toronto Street Railway has got off cheap. It was known from the first that every effort would be made on both sides to avert a strike.

The men have exercised great forbearance throughout, and this will not be forgotten by the public. As a body the street railway men are a worthy, intelligent and obliging class.

The Street Railway Company is a corporation, and as such has no sentiments. It follows unwritten laws of selfishness and tyranny. It is frequently a mystery how the most amiable men become, as agents of a soulless corporation, apparently destitute of human feeling.

When a man falls off a roof he is passive in the control of the law of gravity. He may be a most humanly minded man, kind and affectionate and tender-hearted, but if he falls on a passer-by, he will probably kill him.

It is a matter of profound sociological interest to note that the measures of success attending the settlement of the recent wage disputes was commensurate with the degree of consideration given to the public convenience.

Consideration of others having been established as a law of civilization, it remains to put it into general use. With respect to wages it appears evident that the men employed by any corporation have a just claim to a definite proportion of the returns of their labor.

been presented. It is particularly exasperating after clearly describing what is required and rejecting other things for fifteen or twenty minutes, to have the desired article finally produced. It is not always the fault of the clerk. He may be instructed by his employer to act in that way, with the hope of selling something with a larger margin of profit than is obtainable on the article asked for.

Not only the customer but the manufacturer has a grievance on this account. Very great expense is borne by various manufacturers in advertising their special makes, and they warrant that expense by turning out goods which are unexceptionable in quality and always up to standard in every respect. The customer asks for what he wants, knowing that he will get good value, and he can be served in a minute by a clerk who will follow his customer's instructions. The storekeeper may have instructed the clerk differently, and the customer loses his time and patience, and usually the storekeeper loses a customer, for no customer will return to a store where his time is wasted in an attempt to make him buy what he does not want.

A number of manufacturers are taking up this question, notably The Slater Shoe Co., which is making a practice of instituting infringement proceedings against those who resort to the fraud of substitution. The Canadian Manufacturers' Association is watching this campaign of the big shoe firm and of other large concerns, and action of a more organized character may be adopted. One country has already taken steps in this respect. Ireland has registered an Irish trade mark for all kinds of things manufactured in Ireland.

The quality denoted by the Irish mark is carefully conserved by the association and care is taken that only goods likely to do credit to the nation are permitted to carry it. Canada has several well-known brands and marks and it should be a matter of patriotism as well as of self-interest to protect the reputation of Canadian products. The consumer has his part to play in this as well as the producer and dealer. He can insist upon getting what he asks for, knowing by experience that he will thus get the best value. And he may avoid going to stores which endeavor to palm off upon him the "just-as-goods" which are just as dishonest as any other frauds.

A food deal of excitement and suspense has been caused by the discovery of a woman's clothes in the bay, and by an unattended motor boat found running about loose last week. Many have been disturbed by the fear of a dreadful tragedy. The theory which appears to prevail in police circles is one that may relieve the minds of the sensitive in one respect, but it may shock them in another. It is a common occurrence, having its basis in peculiar psychological causes, for women under the influence of alcohol to tear under their clothes off, and appear, as Trilby put it, in the altogether. There have been a number of instances of the kind in the city. The incident of the stray launch and the woman's clothes is probably due to one of these occasional improprieties. Grappling failed to bring any body to light and if none is retrieved, this theory will be established.

It is a great pity there was nobody to quote texts to Charles M. Hays.

The Evening Telegram confesses to making some attempt to understand the questions it attempts to discuss. At least it speaks of itself as one of "the journals which make some attempt to understand the questions they attempt to discuss." This is quite meritorious of it. We recommend it not to be discouraged, but to keep on attempting.

mer months. Because of the facts given above, residents near Burlington Beach are paying, through Hamilton middlemen, up to 15 cents a pound for fish that they should be able to buy direct from fishermen for 8 to 10 cents.

The fishermen have to pay a license fee of $10 a year for sail boat and $25 a year for motor boat, a fee that is a great increase over that demanded some years ago. Their power boats are limited to 3 horse-power engines, and not to the size of the boat, something for which there seems to be no adequate explanation.

And there is another thing that the fisheries department might improve. It is the manner of placing fry in the lake. This is done at the wrong period of the year, and the power boats put only about 150 feet from shore instead of a mile and a half. As a result the big percentage of the fry are lost. The method employed by the U.S. fisheries could be studied with a lot of profit.

But, in the meantime, let Hon. Dr. Roumieu see that the Wentworth County fishermen are given relief from a discrimination for which there is no defence. Isaac Walton Jr., Hamilton, Aug. 20, 1910.

LONDON PRELATE VISITING IN TORONTO

Rev. Mrs. S. Coffey acted as organist and T. J. O'Neil as musical director. Seeing the Sights.

After luncheon at the palace, his grace and the other members of his party were taken for a motor drive around the city in two automobiles. They visited many of the Catholic institutions, and also drove along the lake shore and thru Rosedale. The evening was spent quietly at St. Michael's Palace.

To-day a trip to Niagara Falls is proposed, going at 9 a.m. and returning at 8.30 p.m., so as to give the archbishop an opportunity to see Toronto Harbor by moonlight. His grace and his party expect to leave this evening for Winnipeg, whence they will go on, about the first of the month, to Edmonton, Banff and Vancouver, returning to Montreal in time for the opening of the congress.

Mr. Boardman, the first Archbishop of Westminster who has visited Canada during his tenure of office, the his predecessor, the late Cardinal Vaughan, an eminent specialist in the archdiocese entered office in 1903 on the death of Cardinal Bourne. Previous to that, Mr. Boardman had been Bishop of Southwark in England, and was a young man, having been born in March, 1861. He possesses a striking personality, and a sonorous voice, and is of an erect and dignified build.

Interviewed at the palace last evening, his grace was unwilling to discuss the school question in England. "I leave them absolutely apart," he said. "The school question in England is perfectly quiet at present; in other words, the whole political situation is very quiet."

He considered that if religious instruction were not definite and dogmatic it was worth very little. It had been very important that the Irish land question should be satisfactorily settled, and it had been satisfactorily settled so far as his grace could judge. He expressed a reasonable distinction between the English and the Irish, which had been built, freed of debt, and consecrated within 15 years, although, of course, the interior decoration would still take many years to complete.

His grace is much delighted with Toronto, which he says is a very, very beautiful city and set in appropriate surroundings.

BOARD'S REPORT TAKEN BY STREET RAILWAY MEN

Not Altogether Satisfied, But Willing to Accept It, and a Strike is Finally Averted.

That the employees of the Toronto Railway Company, in a meeting assembled, while not for a moment satisfied with the report of the board in its entirety, yet, having regard for the public interest, do hereby accept the same with the expression of our determination to continue to agitate for the better conditions and better wages for which we have contended in this instance."

This was the formal resolution passed by the Street Railway Employees' Union at 4.30 Saturday morning, following a period of suspension and anxiety, not alone for themselves and the company, but the city generally.

Now that the strain is over, it becomes apparent that the board of conciliation managed a difficult task in the best possible way, the only because both parties to the negotiations were ready to make concessions to avert a strike. It is noticeable that President Mackenzie of the company is given considerable praise from the union organization for the manner in which he met the men during the last week of the conference. The work of J. G. O'Donoghue, representing the men, and Jos. Gibbons, their business agent, also deserving of high commendation.

While the men were disappointed at the wage increase secured—President Mackenzie says now, it is what he offered the committee before the negotiations ended—yet, as was pointed out to them at their meeting, it was the best they could get at this time. Mr. O'Donoghue and others so advised, and Vice-President Fitzgerald of the international union, who is present, counselled accepting it, adding that he had been thru one strike where three men were killed, and impressing the seriousness of precipitating a strike.

"I am satisfied," Mr. Fleming is said President Mackenzie, who had gone to Balsam Lake on Friday, when apprised of the report and the men's attitude, returned to Toronto, and loved it up by stating his satisfaction if the president was satisfied. The number of men who are interested in the award is 1410. They are divided as follows:

Motor men and conductors: First year 200 21c an hour Second year 250 22c an hour Third year 350 23c an hour Shed men: Foreman 5 28c an hour Assistant 5 22c an hour Workmen 20 21c an hour

In the motor truck repair department there are about 80 men who will receive from 21 to 25 cents an hour. It is estimated that the company's wages will be increased by about $85,000 a year, to total about $1,200,000 a year.

As to the matter of Saturday's World, issued shortly after the men's meeting terminated—and "The World was the only morning paper which offered an account of the men's trip—Mr. O'Donoghue is going over the board's report, clause by clause, spoke in a rather jocular way, until he began to discuss wages and then he was silent for some time.

Speaking of the 8-hour day, Mr. O'Donoghue said it was left somewhat indefinite and in the discretion of the company. He was asked if it was a fair man, then God help the extra man. At one time, said Mr. O'Donoghue, the proposition had been to have a committee of three men and three of the company to adjust all grievances. He was asked, that is, viz., that the company should receive a committee of the men, and with the large number of union men on committee, the proposition was practically a union committee. The non-union men, if they had enough sense to form a committee, would have enough sense to join a union.

In discussing the matter of wages, the committee had submitted that $600 a year was the average pay. The company cited some 40 men to show that it was upwards of $700. At the conference at Mr. Mackenzie's house, he had offered to sell himself for $150,000. His proposition was 2 1/2c, 2 3/4c and 3 1/4c an hour. Mr. Mackenzie would not consider this and for an hour there was nothing doing.

Mr. Mackenzie said the men had no grievance, and he knew they would not strike, and Mr. O'Donoghue had retorted, "that's one of Fleming's bum arguments."

"I asked him if he thought 1000 men would meet and appoint a committee which worked for months if they had no grievance," said Mr. O'Donoghue, "and when we said good night, Mr. Mackenzie shook hands with me and said, 'Now, O'Donoghue, be decent, and I said, 'All right.'" ison said the agreement was the best they could get and advised acceptance. Not Satisfied, But—

Mr. Gibbons, the business agent, said frankly he wasn't satisfied with the result, but it was the best they could get.

"When I tell you that it took nine days to typewrite the statistics of your committee, you will have some idea of the material presented," he said.

He pointed out the purpose of the Lennox Act: not to help the men nor the company, but to protect the public, who must be the innocent sufferers. This award was made to carry out public opinion, which either side could be taking a grave step in disregarding.

He pointed out the poor condition of Toronto street railwaysmen, compared with Buffalo and Detroit men in 1906, and showed that the Toronto men were rapidly overhauling them. While the Buffalo men got 36c an hour maximum, a man must work nine years to get it.

"If there is one man who has my sympathy, it is the extra man," he said. Judge Barron rode about with them, and at a meeting he told us that a number of them had said conditions were not bad and they would be satisfied with a small raise of pay."

Here there were loud cries of "they're no good," "put them out," and "rotten."

"When it comes down to accepting this report, that is for you. I don't tell you, you've got to, and if you do, don't come to me and say that it was shoved down your throats. But I must say I think it is the best you'll get. It is all we could get for you and now it's up to you."

"You must remember that we were dealing with a man who has done whatever he liked with every member of the city council, but he has not done it with us."

Strikes Are Serious. W. E. Fitzgerald of Troy, N.Y., vice-president of the international union, was the next speaker.

"When I see the enthusiasm which greets the proposition to strike, I often think that little do those men realize what a strike really means," he said. "Your committee has done a great deal, and you will do well to accept the award."

Magnus Sinclair spoke strongly, advising the men to accept the award of the board.

"I was one of the men who rode on the old horse cars," said Mr. Sinclair. "I have been in touch with the conditions of the men all these years, and you know that I have never been guilty of leading you astray. All the improvements we have ever got in our conditions have been fought for inch by inch and if I should lead you astray then crucify me if you will."

What's in a Name. Russell Ryan was arrested Saturday night by P.C. McJury for giving the wrong name. At the time he was in a restaurant at 153 York-street, run by Arago Antonio, and where the police seized some liquor.

SHERMAN'S NAME CLEARED

Not Properly Connected With Oklahoma Land Scandal.

SULPHUR, Okla., Aug. 21.—The committee appointed by the house of representatives to investigate Indian land affairs and the so-called McMurray contracts, which also has been investigating the Gore bribery charges, last night issued this statement:

"The committee has carefully considered all of the testimony submitted and is unanimous in the opinion that there is and was no warrant for any person to use the names of Vice-President Sherman and Senator Charles S. Dutton in connection with any improper relation with any Indian contract whatever."

This is the opinion of the committee after hearing scores of witnesses, who appeared following the testimony of Senator Gore, who said that Jake L. Hamon, acting for J. F. McMurray, had offered him $25,000 or $50,000 as a bribe to promote in congress the contracts by which McMurray was to receive 10 per cent Sherman's fees on the sale of $20,000,000 worth of Indian lands.

The senator testified that Hamon had mentioned Senator Curtis and Vice-President Sherman as being interested in the sale. Mr. Sherman he named as the man "higher up" in Hamon, on the stand, denied he had ever said anything about the contracts to Gore.

A report was received in the city from Niagara-on-the-Lake to the effect that the body of Mervent Kent, the Argonaut man who was drowned in the lake nearly three weeks ago while his gasoline tank on the crew of the United States Life Saving Station near Youngstown. The relatives of the deceased, however, have not been able to identify the body, and it is thought that in more likelihood it is that of Edward Brock, who was drowned in that vicinity last Friday.

WENT 25 FEET IN AIR

But Escapes With Minor Injuries—A Lucky Man.

MONTREAL, Aug. 21.—(Special)—Blown into the air 25 feet, but lucky enough to come down on the quay at Lachine, was the experience which befell to-day a man named McCartney. It was while mending a leak in his gasoline tank on a launch that the accident occurred on a launch that the McCarty, the unconscious for a while, was not seriously hurt.

Toronto Women Luckier than New Yorkers this Season

At the present moment, the great majority of American women are in a sad plight. The fall styles have been announced. They know just about the kind of Suits, Skirts and Coats they want for autumn, but they cannot get them; 70,000 Cloak and Suit makers are on strike, riots are happening daily, and there seems little hope of a settlement. With thousands of orders untouched, the season is completely tied up, and New York manufacturers are thinking seriously of keeping their factories closed throughout the autumn.

Toronto Women not only know what the new styles should be, but they have the opportunity of coming to our 3rd floor and seeing exactly how the new Garments suit them.

Those of them who are in the habit of having their things made up, will find on our second floor a selection worthy of comparison with any New York store—at least, that's what American visitors have told us.

The Two Latest Styles in Women's Fall Suits

One of the new styles of Fall Suits is of fine serge, in black, navy and grey, tailored coat, semi-fitting, trimmed with buttons and braid. Skirt is side pleated on gore seams. $18.00.
