40TH YEAR—ISSUE NO. 14,474 TWO CENTS

STRONG POSITION IN PARLIAMENT TO NAVAL ESTIMATES McAadoo Looks Like Strong Contender for Democratic Nomination

MASKED MEN SEIZE OFFICERS IN NAME OF IRISH REPUBLIC

Brig-General and Two Colonels Kidnapped, But Two Latter Freed. ONE BADLY WOUNDED. Belfast, June 27.—Brig-Gen. Lucas and Colonels Danford and Tysell, from the Clonmel barracks, living in a fishing hut three miles from Fernow, County Cork, were taken prisoner Saturday at midnight and removed from the hut in a motor car belonging to the general. They had just retired for the night after a day's fishing when a band of armed and masked men appeared and seized them in the name of the Irish Republic. Col. Danford was seriously wounded after he jumped from a car in an endeavor to escape. The other colonel was liberated in order that he might attend to the wounded man. The general was taken to an unknown destination. Vice-Admiral French, lieutenant of Ireland who is here for the unveiling of war and Titanic memorials, speaking at a luncheon yesterday, said: "It cannot be too clearly shown that the government is not under any circumstances listen to any suggestion either for the establishment of an Irish republic or the coercion of Ulster. We desire above all things to give the country the utmost measure of political freedom, and hope sometimes against hope that a peaceable reconciliation will eventually be effected, but having said so much, I would be wanting in my duty if I did not repeat what I have said before, that we are determined the Irish people shall enjoy the same protection as the people of other parts of the kingdom and the government will not hesitate to employ all the forces at its disposal to attain this."

FORCED JAIL DOOR

Silgo, Ireland, June 27.—A raid carried out yesterday on the Silgo jail had as its object the liberation of Frank Carthy, member of the newly-elected Sinn Fein town council, who had been held, according to the Sinn Feiners, on the charge of having given false evidence regarding a raid for arms. The party numbered about 100. The gate of the jail was forced, and a well known member of the Sinn Fein party, who had been in the jail, was compelled to hand over his keys. The raiders went straight to Carthy's cell and took him away with them in motor cars.

ANOTHER RAILWAY AFFECTED

Dublin, June 27.—The Great Northern Railway, hitherto not affected, is now involved in the general boycott. Several of the employees of the road have been suspended for refusing to handle artillery. The Mullaghmore coast guard station, near Sligo, was burned to the ground Saturday night.

TO HOLD HEARINGS IN NEW YORK CITY

All Parties Interested in St. Lawrence Development Can Air Views. New York, June 27.—The International Joint Commission appointed by the governments of the United States and Canada to investigate and report on the advisability of deepening the St. Lawrence River in order to open up a deep sea route to a large part of the middle west, will hold public hearings beginning October 15, in New York city. It was announced tonight by Irving T. Bush, chairman of the executive committee of the chamber of commerce of New York state, in a letter to the chamber. William H. Smith, secretary of the International Joint Commission, said: "Engineers appointed by the two governments are now engaged in making surveys and the preparation of plans for information of the commission. "All interested parties, whether for or against the proposed development, will be given an opportunity of expressing their views as to the desirability or otherwise of the suggested deep waterway, its probable effect on the development of commerce on the great lakes, and between lake ports and ocean ports; what influence it would have on industrial development on either side of these boundary waters, particularly on the upper St. Lawrence; what its effect would be on the existing or other proposed water routes between the great lakes and the Atlantic, the advantages or disadvantages of combining water development with the idea of improving navigation on the upper St. Lawrence, and such other information as may aid the commission in the preparation of its report."

BRITISH FORCE TO ISMID

London, June 27.—According to a Constantinople dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company, British cruisers according to transports have passed thru the Dardanelles for Ismid.

ADDED MONEY FOR NAVY IS VIGOROUSLY OPPOSED BY OPPOSITION MEMBERS

Wm. Duff Leads Opponents of Bigger Appropriation by Parliament—King and Crear Agree on Amendment—No Vote Is Reached. Ottawa, June 27.—(By Canadian Press).—The introduction by the minister of marine of supplementary estimates of $1,700,000 for naval expenditures during the coming year, precipitated a spirited debate which lasted four hours in the house of commons last night without a vote being reached. Wm. Duff (Lunenburg), was the principal opponent. He suggested that England's gift of war craft be declined on the ground that Canada could not afford an ambitious naval policy. He proposed that naval dockyards and establishments at Halifax and Esquimaux be turned over to Great Britain. Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, J. J. Denis and Ernest Lapointe, opposed the appropriation, their objections coinciding with those of the leader of the opposition, who moved that the entire new vote be rejected. The house only adopted the original naval estimates of $300,000, which was being asked for along with this one. Hon. T. A. Crear spoke in support of Mr. MacKenzie King's amendment. Defence by Ballantyne. Hon. C. C. Ballantyne said he hoped that Canada would adopt a naval policy more consistent with her dignity after the imperial conference of 1921. Meanwhile Canada was committed by the Laurier naval bill of 1910 to the defence of her own shores, and the interim policy of the government, based on the acceptance of a gift of war craft from Great Britain, required the appropriation of the arm now submitted to the house. J. E. Armstrong (Lambton) supported the government. The debate continued vigorously until midnight, when Fernand Bissonnet moved to speak in support of the opposition amendment, when Hon. W. (Continued on Page 9, Column 1).

CHECK BY POLES TO THE BOLSHEVIKI

Heavy Fighting Ended With Dislodging of Reds From Their Positions. Warsaw, June 27.—Pierce fighting is proceeding along the entire Polish front and increasing in intensity, according to the Polish official communication issued today. The communication asserts that the Bolsheviks, profiting by the numerical superiority and great masses of cavalry, are seeking decisive results at all costs. The heavy fighting for several days in the region of Lake Messoubo ended with the defeat of the Bolsheviks, who were dislodged from their positions. According to the communication the enemy's resistance has been broken all along the line between the Pripiet and the Rzyerav-Kalenkiewicz railroad, where the Bolsheviks lost 2,000 men killed. The Poles captured quantities of important war material. The Bolshevik General Bubenny's army has been prevented from developing its success in occupying Jemiljuz. Ukrainian forces have broken the enemy's front near Bielany. The communication reports a number of other minor successes.

KING GEORGE RECEIVES VICTORIA CROSS MEN

London, June 27.—King George yesterday entertained at a garden party 450 men who have won the Victoria Cross in campaigns. The men marched to Buckingham Palace from Wellington Palace, and were joined a few minutes later by relatives and friends. The men were arranged in groups according to seniority without regard to rank, and each was then presented to the King. The lists of guests include many names that will live long in British history, from Captain Carpenter, of the Vindictive, which attacked Zeppelins and Ostend, down to two drivers who saved guns at Le Cateau. Private Lynn, who won the V.C. the D.C.M., and the Cross of St. George, and then was killed, was represented by his fiancée.

QUEBECKERS FOR HYDRO WORK STOPPED BY STRIKE COMMITTEE

Latest Report From Chippawa—Workers Call Big Public Meeting For Present Week. Niagara Falls, Ont., June 27.—As the result of suggestions made by C. F. Swazey, M.L.A., at a mass meeting of Hydro employees, held here tonight, a public meeting will be called this week. The local chamber of commerce, Retail Merchants' Association and representatives of all Hydro municipalities in Ontario, will be invited here. A telegram from Premier Drury was read, pointing out that the government could not interfere in the dispute. A letter was read from W. Pape, secretary of the commission, saying that further negotiations would be waste of time. Men have been coming in from Quebec, where it is reported in the French press that the strike is off. Hydro is reported to be advertising for 500 men for canal job. Men coming in intended starting tomorrow, but were intercepted and returned by the strike committee.

HOUSE PROLOGATION OCCURS WEDNESDAY; CAUCUS ALSO LIKELY

Government Members To Consider Leadership Question—Speculation Rife. TWO-DAY CONFERENCE. Ottawa, June 27.—(Special).—Prologation has been fixed for Wednesday, and it is quite probable that the government issues will be called for that day. It is equally probable that government members will also spend Dominion Day in conference on the party situation. At least, many of the members expect to do so. At these conferences there will be discussed leadership policy and organization. On the leadership question there is still no light. Sir Robert is the real leader in ability and in the confidence of his party. He is settling the issue at once by a declaration he intends remaining, or by asking the endorsement of his party. The majority of members believe he will retire, but their belief is founded on the supposition that he would have reserved his anxiety over the situation if he had not intended to resign. In event of his retirement the members will choose as his successor, Sir Thomas White, Hon. Arthur Meighen or Sir George Foster. The cabinet wants Sir Thomas White, and the commoners Hon. Arthur Meighen. Sir Thomas stands by his declaration to retire from public life then the cabinet, with three exceptions, will support Sir George Foster. But the situation is purely speculative until Sir Robert Borden makes known his intentions. The fiscal policy will be announced. Certain public questions were dealt with in the prime minister's memorandum to a caucus last November. It has since been revised and will, it is believed, be given to the public at the caucus by Sir Robert Borden or his successor. There will be no discussion until the tariff revision next session. FARMERS CHOOSE JAMES CAMERON FOR WEST YORK

U.F.O.-Labor Convention Select Ex-Reeve for Federal Candidate. GARDHOUSE BEATEN. The U.F.O.-Labor convention held in Weston town hall on Saturday night selected James Cameron, of Weston, a former warden of York county and for many years reeve of Vaughan township, as their next candidate for the Dominion parliament for West York. Five nominations in all were made: John A. Macdonald and J. H. Buckley, representing the Labor party; Ward Seven; and W. J. Gardhouse, reeve of Etobicoke; J. O. Whitmore, reeve of Vaughan; and James Cameron, of past township and county honors, and now a member of Weston board of education. After giving addresses all withdrew except Cameron and Gardhouse, the choice going to the former upon balloting, which was made unanimous upon the suggestion of Mr. Gardhouse himself. The meeting, which began half an hour late even by standard time, was quiet and without interruption, although a fair amount of applause was given each speaker. "I wish to congratulate the Farmers and Labor for the magnificent fight they put up at the last election for James Simpson," said Mr. Macdonald, who was also chairman of the meeting; for both the U.F.O. and the Labor party were misrepresented. The farmer and labor forces in Ontario have reason to be proud of themselves," he continued, "for our (Continued on Page 4, Column 5).

CALL FOR HIGHER SCALE OF WAGES

But Canadian General Electric Company May Not Accept Award. Peterboro, Ont., June 27.—The finding of the board of conciliation which was appointed at the request of the Peterboro city council to investigate the labor dispute between the Canadian General Electric Company and its machinists and electrical workers, was made public here on Saturday. The board recommends that first-class machinists, 50 cents an hour; second-class machinists, 45 cents an hour; and electrical workers, 40 cents an hour. The union's original demand was 80 cents an hour for machinists, 65 cents for electrical workers, and 55 cents for helpers. This was subsequently reduced 5 cents in each class. For the electrical workers the board decided that the increased rates offered by the company to electrical workers (other than armature winders), with 45 cents per hour minimum, being in all an increase from a range of 32-1-2 cents to 49-1-2 cents per hour in 1918, to a range of 45 cents to 65 cents per hour in 1920, was fair and reasonable. The men, to the number of about 400, have been on strike for six weeks. It is not known yet whether the company will accept the award or not. The Canadian General Electric Company had taken a position in opposition to a wage scale on a minimum basis. The board of conciliation was composed of Judge R. D. Gunn, Ottawa, chairman; Judge McGillivray, of Whitchurch, representing the company, and John Munro, president of the Toronto Trades and Labor Council, representing the men.

HIGHER INDEMNITIES SUBJECT TO RULES

Members of Commons Must Attend Minimum of Fifty, Instead of Thirty Days. Ottawa, June 27.—(By Canadian Press).—Members of the house of commons, now that they are to get an increase from $2500 to $4000 in their indemnity, are to be subject to new attendance regulations. Hitherto a member must put in 30 days to draw the indemnity, and for every day in excess of 15 days holiday he has had to forfeit $20. The new proposal is that a man must put in 50 days to get the $4000. If he puts in less he will not be deducted $20 per day, but he will be paid $20 for each day of actual attendance. This, it is pointed out, will overcome the complaint of many regular attenders, who contend that others very seldom are seen within the precincts of the house, and should be paid on a basis of $20 per day for each day's attendance, rather than deducted $20 per day for each day's absence.

MAY NOT ACCEPT

J. J. Ashworth, assistant general manager of the Canadian General Electric Company, when spoken to by The World, said that he had not seen the award of the conciliation board. "We'll be interested in the report of the board, but that is about all," he said. "If the award goes above that offered by the company to the men before they went out on strike then we won't accept it."

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION IS IN FOR STORMY TIME BRYAN MAY MAKE TROUBLE

Forces Working For McAadoo Will Wait For Psychological Moment—Convention May Have Big Three, Same as Republicans—Prohibition Big Issue. San Francisco, June 27.—Issues, rather than men, furnish the battleground for the Democratic national convention, opening here tomorrow. Candidates cannot be considered until prohibition, the league of nations, and the Irish question have been fought out on the floor. Contesters of these planks in the party platform seem inevitable, and the convention is all set for a stormy time. The big fight is over William Jennings Bryan's determination to have "a platform no wet can run on." On this the administration forces appear so far to be pursuing a hands-off policy. As yet nobody knows what to expect from the White House. On the league of nations issue, the administration forces are lined up for a plank framed after the Virginia platform, which declares for a covenant "without destructive reservations." Mr. Bryan and his associates want a declaration for the league, with reservations "to safeguard every interest." The lines of the fight over the Irish question are not so clearly defined. While the question of issue is boiling, little change is apparent in the line-up of strength of the various candidates. Cox and Palmer are expected to go in for a test of strength on the first ballot, as did Wood and Lowden at Chicago. The strong forces working for McAadoo will wait until the background for the psychological moment. The Cox people (Continued on Page 2, Column 6).

They said that until the details of the deal had been fully worked out, they would not be in a position to go into particulars.

Pistol Battle in Georgia Results in Death and Wounds

Dublin, Ga., June 27.—H. L. Jenkins, wealthy farmer and former Mayor of Cadwell, a town 20 miles from here, was killed and four other men were wounded in a pistol battle between members of several political factions Saturday night, according to reports received here today. The wounded include Hiram Mullins, mayor of Cadwell, and C. C. Cadwell, a farmer, neither of whom is expected to live, and John Quilling and John Bedingfield. Residents of the town said the controversy started some years ago over the location of the railroad station. Bedingfield and Mullins heading one faction and Cadwell and Quilling the other. More recent issues between the two parties served to widen the breach. It was said and resulted finally in the clash last night in which every participant is said to have suffered injuries.

STRIKING EMPLOYEES ACCEPT THE TERMS OF RAILWAY BOARD

By 842 To 336 Street Railwaymen Decide on Immediate Return to Duty. FAIR INCREASE. By a vote of 842 to 88 the mass meeting on Saturday night accepted the offer of the Ontario Railway Board of a five-cent increase, bringing the wages of the men up to 60 cents an hour, or a graduated scale of from 55 to 60 cents. This will mean to eighty per cent of the men a weekly wage of from $26.40 to $28.80, and to those men who train others into their new jobs it will mean a weekly wage of $31.80. Added to this, at the discretion of the men will be overtime work at the rate of 82 cents and 90 cents an hour, only twenty per cent of the men will be able to avail themselves of any overtime work offered. The increase means an increase of at least $120 a year, and at the rate of six hours overtime a week, $15 more.

GENERAL ATTACK BY ANGRY MOSLEMS ON GREEKS FEARED

Expected That a State of Siege Will Be Declared at Constantinople. TURKS ARE DEPRESSED. Constantinople, June 27.—Constantinople is beginning to feel the effects of the Greek advance. The Greek steamer Yacintus has arrived here, having on board sixty Nationalist officers captured on June 23, and Greek refugees are arriving from Kilia and other Black Sea ports and the interior villages of the peninsula between Ismid and Constantinople. They report that the Turks, incensed by the Ismid and Smyrna fighting, are burning Greek villages and shooting down the Greeks. According to the refugees, this is but a forerunner of a general Moslem attack upon the Greeks, which is expected when the news generally is circulated throughout Anatolia of the Greek advance and the Turkish casualties. The Nationalists of Trebizond province have begun the deportation of Greeks into the interior, and probably will be general all along the Black Sea coast of Anatolia. The Greeks have landed forces at points along the Gulf of Saros, and will land additional troops at Rodosto, and will soon begin their movement from Occidental into Oriental Thrace. The Turks are being evacuated from the shores of the Bosphorus, to make shipping safe from snipers, and it is expected that a state of siege will be declared at Constantinople, in order to give the entente closer control of the civil population in this city.

OFFICERS CONTROL MUTINOUS TROOPS

Uproar in Italian Chamber When Affair at Ancona Was Discussed. Rome, June 27.—The chamber of deputies was twice suspended Saturday, during the discussion of the Ancona situation and the government's policy with regard to Albania. Signor Bonomi, minister of war, assured the house that the mutiny of the Bersaglieri at Ancona had terminated, and that the officers had resumed command of the troops. He added, however, that certain anarchist elements had taken advantage of the situation to perform acts of violence. When the socialist insisted that Signor Bonomi tell the chamber where the troops were being sent from Ancona, there was a great tumult in the chamber, and the president suspended the sitting. When the sitting was resumed, Premier Giolitti was challenged on the subject of Avlona. To the challenge he replied that the Italian troops in the Albanian town were attacked by the enemy, and had to defend themselves. This provoked another uproar, and again the sitting was suspended.

GERMAN CIVILIANS IN CLASH WITH CZECHS

Prague, Czecho-Slovakia, June 27.—A serious clash has occurred between German civilians and Czecho-Slovak troops in which at least six were killed and many wounded. The fighting occurred at Jihlava, Moravia, last Wednesday, and was the outgrowth of intense political feeling between the Germans and native citizens.

DISCUSSION OF CHARGES IS PROMISED MURDOCK

Premier Borden Tables Correspondence on Board of Commerce Affairs—Judge Robson Explains Attitude in Letter to Sir George Foster.

Ottawa, June 26.—Sir Robert Borden in the house this afternoon tabled his correspondence with James Murdock, leading to the latter's resignation as the last remaining member of the board of commerce and also the text of the Robson correspondence. Sir Borden's letter, in reply to the how famous one in which Mr. Murdock tendered his resignation, reads as follows:

"Ottawa, June 25.
"My dear sir: I beg to acknowledge your letter of the 24th inst., which reached me this morning after it had made its appearance in the press.
"The necessary recommendation will be made to his excellency the governor-general to give effect to your resignation.
"Any further reply to the statements set forth in your letter will be made in the public discussion, which will shortly take place in the house of commons.
"Yours faithfully,
(Sgd.) R. L. Borden."

The correspondence between Sir Robert and Mr. Murdock opens on June 17, 1920. In a letter to Sir Robert on that date, Mr. Murdock asks whether it is the intention of the government to fill the vacancies on the board. He adds that "I would be unwilling to draw salary from the treasury of the Dominion unless it were made possible for the board of commerce to carry on effectively and as by law intended."
"Urges Completion of Board.
"On the next day, Mr. Murdock wrote to Sir Robert again, in which he refers to a conference with the prime minister on the previous evening at which, according to Mr. Murdock's letter, Sir Robert suggested that "it would be inadvisable to complete the board of commerce by appointment until such time as the privy council had determined the status of the board." Mr. Murdock adds that he could only continue "as a commissioner of the board of commerce of Canada on the understanding that the personnel of the board of commerce be completed by appointment once in order that board may proceed with the many important duties to the Canadian people awaiting its action, and that the board be freed by statute from the control of the civil service commission in the appointment of its required expert assistants or advisers necessary and properly incident to the carrying on of the functions of the board. This would also, of course, include the submission of the necessary estimates to parliament, such estimates having been placed in the hands of the government for some time.
"Under any other arrangement than above I would feel that I was not giving to the people of Canada service for compensation received, and, therefore, could not continue to accept salary."
"Sir Robert's Reply.
"On the same day (June 18) Sir Robert wrote to Mr. Murdock the following letter:
"Dear Mr. Murdock—I have your letter of the 17th inst., and since then I have made a statement in parliament and further, I have had the advantage of an interview with you at which the whole question was frankly and fully but not finally discussed. It is my hope that during the coming week I may be enabled to take up the matter further with you.
"Your observations as to the seriousness of the public duty which you have undertaken command both my concurrence and my deep appreciation. I am grateful to you for the service that you have rendered. The task has been burdensome and difficult, but I know that you have given thereto the full measure of your undoubted ability and great earnestness.
"Yours faithfully,
(Signed) "R. L. Borden."

Three days later Mr. Murdock wrote to Sir Robert, forwarding a memorandum, in which are outlined the activities of the board of commerce act, which was made effective Nov. 10, 1919. In his letter Mr. Murdock calls attention to changes proposed in the annual report of the board of commerce.
"Then comes Mr. Murdock's letter of June 24, in which he resigns his appointment, and Sir Robert's reply cited above.
"Judge Robson's Letter.
"Correspondence over the resignation of Judge Robson as chairman of the board of commerce opens with a letter from Judge Robson to Sir George Foster on Feb. 23, 1920, and closes with a letter from J. B. Hugg to Sir George on March 7, 1920. The first letter has already been published. In it Judge Robson tenders his resignation and expresses the view that he is "out of sympathy with the act (the combines and fair prices act), and it is my duty to resign therefrom."
"We restrain and discourage the citizen who supplies food and clothing," Judge Robson adds, "but leave free to profiteer as he pleases the man who deals in non-essentials or luxuries." A letter from Sir George Foster follows in which Judge Robson is informed that his resignation has been accepted and promising that suggestions made will have government consideration.

"As to Creamery Co.
"Then comes a long letter from Judge Robson to Sir George Foster, in which Judge Robson replies to the accusation made against him in respect to the Creamery Co. The letter was written from Winnipeg on March 1, 1920, and is as follows:
"My dear Sir George:
"I thank you for your letters of 25th and 26th ult.
"During the conversations with the other commissioners immediately preceding my retirement, mention was made of several matters. These are an indication to me of the statements made, or likely to be made to you in my absence. There are certain circumstances relating to the Creamery Co. case here which are pressed into service against me. I did not sit in that case, because, as then stated, my family live here and I was substantially interested in the case. This is a matter I felt to be of serious nature, and I was in the public utilities commission. I was amended pressed, declaring that I should not be deemed to have any interest in the case. I was a consumer. This merely shows that the point really raised was not the fact of my interest here in the past, but the fact of my interest in the present. I had administered the law fairly and regardless of friend or foe.
"Much was made of the fact that there was found by Commissioner Murdock on the desk in my private office a letter sent to me by the solicitor of the Creamery Co. The letter was a copy of his draft factum in the stated case pending before the supreme court. The sending of the letter was a thoughtless impertinence. The receipt was as much a surprise to me as to anyone else. I had never suggested such a thing, and in fact had previously expressedly forbidden that the factum be shown to me. I deny emphatically the imputation that I advised in the case.
"At this point let me say that my impertinence has been that until tribunals of this nature have been supported in their jurisdiction by judgments of our supreme courts, they are not so apt to receive respect from the classes of radical enactment such as that administered by the board of commerce. As a lawyer who had to study these jurisdictional questions I have doubts as to the validity of certain material provisions, and I felt that until these were cleared away, our board was at a disadvantage. I was not the first to raise the question. It had been mooted, I find, long before it occurred to me. I was proceeding judicially, and I acknowledge that I hesitated at making orders (practically to a certain extent, profits (practically) until it was certain to do so. It was this consideration and this alone that led to the suggestion of getting the legal question disposed of."
"To proceed to another matter, I wish to add unqualifiedly that in no instance was there at any time any imposition of my will upon the other members of the board.
"No Political Purpose.
"The proposed tariff inquiry was suggested by me and met with approval. In fact there was no suggestion of any question, except perhaps the fact that the government had indicated its purpose of appointing a tariff commission. My view was that that fact did not absolve us from the duty of going into the matter under our own procedure. I had no political purpose to serve. My view was that an effective way of reducing the cost of clothing of all kinds would likely be found to be by means of tariff reduction. That may be deferred till exchange is rectified, but subject to that, I believe my theory correct. It was in this connection that the textile inquiries were issued and that the difficulty in obtaining expert help herein referred to became acute.

"Another point: there was never hesitation on the part of anyone at proceeding to hold public inquiries. The board was newly started. The public were looking for public hearings and cost-effective. Had we sat still and proceeded by the silent questionnaire method when the acts were in question, it would be a great satisfaction to the consumer. When the acts were in question, it was stated to be one of the objects.
"Suggestion Unfounded.
"The publicity that was allowed by our investigations was undoubtedly beneficial and from what I heard on all hands gave great satisfaction to the consumer. Any suggestion that I was responsible for inquiring into costs and profits of milk men, bakers and small retailers contrary to the wishes of the majority of the board, is absolutely unfounded.
"I had the view that the appointment of a local officer in every municipality of any size (at the expense of the municipality) after the pattern of the English system, would be advantageous. The test against this was made in the board and the proposal was modified and in fact never went into effect. I acquiesced in the proposal of an inquiry system by means of an expert staff at the office of the board. That work has been instituted more fully, but for difficulty in getting a staff thru the civil service commission. That is a matter which I regretted. I wrote you on the subject. You will, however, remember your warning to us to keep expense of administration down to the lowest possible point.
"I resent as base and false insinuations the statements that I opposed the operation of the law and hampered the board deliberately to kill the act, as like-wise, and even more emphatically the charge that I was guilty of duplicity for the purpose of assisting the government in the defeat of its own measure.
"Disclaims Responsibility.
"I disclaim responsibility for the fact that the board was not equipped with a staff to enable it to enter into the details of every person and concern in Canada engaged in the production, manufacture or distribution of necessities of life. It was impossible for us to undertake that work without men of our own choosing. That was a matter acquired when I left. The correspondence speaks for itself. There was no other circumstance that was a matter of concern to me. My absence from time to time did not affect it, as there was an acting chairman who was quite capable of the management of the board as I was. I explained to you in a letter some time ago that the way to see that the act was avoided, if possible, I never went further than that. I have expressed the view that profit restriction applied to agriculture and live stock and dairy industries is liable to retard production at a time

BOARD REPORT NOW TO HAND

Board of Commerce Statement Contains Mr. Murdock's Opinions.

The report of the board of commerce dated to the end of May is at hand. In this report Commissioner James Murdock, one of the best-known American labor chiefs and vice-president of a large international union, expresses his opinion of the defence of profiteers strongly. It will be recalled that he resigned from the board in protest against the alleged inactivity of the government relative to profiteering in Canada. In substance he says:
"I fully concur with my associate (William O'Connor) in the preceding report as far as it goes, except that my earnest conviction and claim is that the correspondence and documents sent to the Right Honourable Sir George Foster, then acting prime minister, under date of March 23, dealing with the resignation of the former chairman of the board, should have been included as Annex 6, Schedule C.
"In Public Interest.
"My belief is that it would have been very much in the public interest for the people of Canada to know more of the reasons which prevented the board from performing its functions in controlling profiteering in Canada."
"Commissioner Murdock has left for Cleveland. He stated yesterday morning that he was not the least worried about Sir Robert Borden's opinion as to his stand relative to the filling of the vacancies caused by resignations from the board.
"I most respectfully, but most firmly protest against the publication to you or by you of my private letters addressed to Judge Robson personally, which letters were illegally copied. These letters and all copies thereof are my personal property and I have the right to restrain and forbid publication thereof. These letters were not invited and were not expected by Judge Robson and publication will place him in a false light and be misleading to all who read them."
"When Sir Robert Borden tabled the correspondence relating to the resignation of Judge Robson "in accordance with an order placed before the house by the member for Maisonneuve (Hon. R. Lemieux) and for Pontiac (Frank Cahill), Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King (honorary) sent from Edmonton, on March 6, and one from Mr. Hugg to Sir George Foster, sent from Winnipeg, the day following.
"Judge Robson protests against the divulgence in any manner of personal letters sent to him and of any confidential conversations with cabinet ministers or others. Mr. Hugg's communication reads:
"I most respectfully, but most firmly protest against the publication to you or by you of my private letters addressed to Judge Robson personally, which letters were illegally copied. These letters and all copies thereof are my personal property and I have the right to restrain and forbid publication thereof. These letters were not invited and were not expected by Judge Robson and publication will place him in a false light and be misleading to all who read them."

WORKMAN KILLED IN EXCAVATION

Another Seriously Injured When New Adams' Bldg. Basement Collapses.

One man was killed and another seriously injured at noon Saturday, when some excavation caved in, burying both men in the rear of the new Adams Furniture Company building, on Yonge, near Shuter street. A laborer, whose name is believed to be H. Dolligan, was buried beneath several feet of dirt and was dead when the police and workmen dragged the body out. W. Robinson, 110 Bleeker street, had both legs broken and is believed to be suffering from other injuries. At St. Michael's Hospital it was stated Robinson was conscious and that he would recover.
"Dolligan was working about 15 feet below the cement laneway, when the earth crumpled from beneath the present and rolled down on top of Dolligan.
"Workmen were engaged digging out a large area for a coal bunker, and were down considerable distance. The sides of the excavation were not boarded and the earth was made up of cinders and other material that crumbled away until the concrete surface of the lane was undermined.

Gen. Baron Wrangle Crowding Soviet Troops

Constantinople, June 28.—The offensive which is being carried out by General Baron Wrangle, successor to General Denikin, against the Bolsheviks in the Crimea, is developing rapidly. Wrangle's troops have occupied the line of Makalawiska, Bolshoihtchuk and Wakiawa. They have taken 10,000 prisoners and captured 48 guns, 250 machine guns, three armored trains, million pounds of wheat, and much rolling stock.
"SIX MONTHS FOR THEFT.
"In Saturday's police court Harold Churchill was sentenced to six months' imprisonment on a charge of theft.

FLINT GLASS MEN WANT INCREASES

Flint glass workers, who held a fairly well attended meeting yesterday afternoon, are about to present a new wage schedule, looking for a 25 per cent. increase. They are now receiving $1.00 and $1.07 an hour, and if the increase is granted will receive about $1.32 an hour. This class of work is very skilled, and in Canada there are about 250 trades unionists, and perhaps three hundred men engaged in the trade. There are four locals in Canada: Toronto, 105 members; Montreal, 15 members; Wallaceburg, 31 members. Redcliffe (Alberta), 30 members.

OPPOSITE NEW CHURCH.

Mr. Justice Orde has reserved judgment in the action brought by George Nicholson to have the Second Church of Christ, Scientist, restrained from erecting a new church at the corner of High Park Gardens and Indian road. Plaintiff alleges that the erection of such a building would be a contravention of the restricted covenants attached to the land.

IMMIGRANT INFLUX
BECOMING NORMAL

Employment Bureau Figures Show Tremendous Increase During May.

That things are beginning to get somewhat back to normal in the line of immigration seems evident from a statement of J. A. Miller, of the government employment bureau, in speaking to the World yesterday. "In March and April 1,1920 came from Britain to Canada. The report for May is not out yet, but from the appearance of things I should think there were twice the number last month," said Mr. Miller.

"The classes needed are farm laborers and domestics, and these are the only ones who are being encouraged to come just now by the government. A few tradesmen ecom ing too, but they come of themselves and pay their own way. But mechanics are being encouraged to come unless they have secured something in advance," was the opinion expressed.

"As an example of what I mean," continued the superintendent of the bureau, "a man came in here the other day who was a tobacco blender.
There's nothing for him in this line here. There might be in Montreal, but not here."

Just now farmers are coming into the bureau at the rate of from twenty to thirty a day in search of help. The bureau has also an industrial and clerical department, but it is the farm that makes the greatest call for help.
A number of imperial soldiers are included in the new comers, the lure in their case being the land.

Cooks Scarce.
In the department in charge of Miss Duff there are applications for domestic help and responses from newcomers and Canadians with many problems to solve, at both ends of the line. The domestic that seems at a premium because she is so necessary, and, at the same time, almost ungettable, is the cook. There are few of the culinary profession obtainable, and yet, as Miss Duff pointed out, if there is a family, and perhaps two or three on the domestic staff, a cook is the one above all others that is of value.

Good news for the housekeeper was heralded by Miss Tonkins, who has charge of the farm department. "There will be a great crop of berries next week," was her cheery comment. "We'll want a great many girls and young women. The canners are not buying berries at all just now. I suppose they are waiting until the fruit is plentiful and cheap. Farmers prefer the college girls as pickers. They want a little money and they work hard, and the farmers like them. The farmer, however, is not going to make much on his fruit this year because the canners have not been buying."

"We have a number of girls and women coming in now from England," continued Miss Tonkins, who knows a good deal about farming, both from personal experience and from the traditions of parents and grandparents who pioneered on Canadian farms.
"Some of these girls are very fine—excellent. Others again are very difficult. I think the reason is that what they have in their mind is not what they get. The consequence is that they never stay in a place more than two or three weeks, and they keep coming back until by and by they settle down."

NO HEALER CURES
AS YET CONFIRMED

Rev. G.F.B. Doherty Denies Making Prior Statements
To Press.

Afternoon papers on Saturday published contradictory reports of interviews with Rev. G. F. B. Doherty, who is a member of the J. M. Hick-son mission committee, in connection with alleged cures effected by the healer. One paper stated that Mr.
Doherty had said that he had heard of no cures, while the other paper affirmed that the minister knew of several cases which had shown definite improvement.

With a view to discovering which of the two reports is correct, The World discussed the matter with Rev. Mr.
Doherty on Saturday evening, and was informed that the minister had no recollection of having made either statement. "Altho I am convinced that there are numerous instances where cures have been effected," said Mr. Doherty, "I have not yet come into contact with any individual case where a disease or sickness has been indisputably removed by Mr. Hickson's ministrations. I have heard many rumors, but cannot consistently make them public until they have been thoroughly investigated and reported on."

Must be Confirmed.
"All reports of this nature which reach my ears will be carefully looked into, the person's medical history will be viewed and his physician or surgeon consulted. Until it has been firmly established that health has been restored and by no other means than Mr. Hickson's ministrations, I can make no definite statement one way or the other."

"As soon as ourselves are convinced that a cure has been accomplished or an improvement induced by the healer's touch, we shall be only too glad to let the public know," continued Mr. Doherty. "I think it is obvious that the step was not taken hastily or without careful consideration. The matter has been under discussion for months. Mr. Hickson came to us with a splendid record of work in England and in the States,
and when we invited him here we knew what we were doing. We considered it the greatest opportunity we could have to remind the public of the importance of his religion. And we believe," concluded Mr. Doherty, "that both the physical and spiritual results
will justify our action."

Idea Quite Old.
Speaking of the principle of faith healing in general, Mr. Doherty went on to say that "the idea is quite old.
It is being practiced, humbly and quietly, by many clergy in many churches, practically every week, throughout the Dominion. Mr. Hickson attracted so much public notice because his methods are somewhat spectacular, but he is only doing what I myself and many others have done, in our own churches."

Finally Mr. Doherty said that "Many Church of England laymen, and I am sorry to say some clergymen, are openly hostile to the mission and particularly to the services being conducted in St. James' Cathedral. We have met with no little opposition, but Mr. Hickson visited the city at the invitation of the bishops. I think it is obvious that the step was not taken
hastily or without careful consideration. The matter has been under discussion for months. Mr. Hickson
came to us with a splendid record of
work in England and in the States,
and when we invited him here we
knew what we were doing. We considered it the greatest opportunity we
could have to remind the public of the importance of his religion. And we believe," concluded Mr. Doherty, "that
will justify our action."

Head Office and Factories: TORONTO Branches in the Leading Cities

The Toronto World

FOUNDED 1880. A morning newspaper published every day in this year by The World Newspaper Company of Toronto, Limited.

The Street Railway Strike Over.

The net result of the street car strike is that the men get an increase in pay—not what they asked for—and the company get assurance that this new scale is to run for the balance of the franchise, from now until September 1, 1921.

Public opinion for a time was rather against the men because their representative on the board of conciliation had signed a unanimous finding that the demand for increased pay be not granted.

The Railway and Municipal Board seem to have beaten Mayor Church to it.

The public were fairly well served by jitneys from all over at moderate fares, thanks to the prompt action of the police commissioners.

The company effectively put their case before the public by liberal use of the advertising columns of the city newspapers.

The Blessed Jitney.

The 1920 car strike will be remembered by the excellence of the jitney service it produced. Some monuments commemorate public services much inferior to those which have given to Toronto a transportation system that to many has made the strike almost a pleasure.

The jitney men did not enter the game for their patrons' health, but the fact that they were out for their own gain does not weaken the truth that they rendered service that was most acceptable, and, in the main, gratefully appreciated by the unskilled public.

The rhymester frequently expresses a prevailing sentiment in the public mind, and The World gives a specimen of what has drifted into the office during these unusually transporting days:

O, blessed jitney, by whose speed We've met the car strike's daily need; To all a saviour thou has been, Praise God for thee—and gasoline.

The strike has demonstrated how near in street locomotion the age of petrol was to catching up to the age of electricity. Drivers say there is little in a jitney service for them with twenty cents for a maximum fare, especially when it is from the eastern city limits to Yonge street. But they have not suffered financially, and nobody wants this sort of strike to happen very often, the gasoline price has been good enough to make the population regard the prospect of other street railway accidents more complacently than was possible some years ago.

The public protection was secured by two very simple provisions—the license which assured identification in case of abuse of opportunities for gain, and the maximum fare which guaranteed a fair ride for reasonable pay. But the cars needed no direction as to what routes they should follow, or how often they should ply upon them. They had a fair field and no favors. Business distributed itself easily, naturally, and with remarkable balance over the whole city.

In a few hours a great machinery came into existence, found its functions, fulfilled its need, and reaped its just reward. The old-fashioned economists of the individualistic school have always said that that is what has happened in the development of permanent channels of commerce. Let the law of supply and demand work itself out and all will be well. Prices, wages, profits will adjust themselves, if only doctrinaires and a fidgety public will give them a chance.

That is not all the story of modern economic development. But there is something to be said for it, and what has happened with Toronto and the blessed jitney certainly furnishes an argument for the devotee of laissez-faire.

The Manitoba Election.

The provincial election in Manitoba occurs tomorrow, and while there is a general belief that the Norris government will be continued in power, there is also the possibility of queer combinations and strange surprises. The Farmers' party, which might easily carry the province, is taking no part in the fight, although farmers, whose sympathies would naturally be with the third party, have been placed in nomination in a number of ridings by the Liberals and Conservatives alike. The Conservatives have also succeeded in getting up a three-cornered fight in some districts, which may inure to their advantage. In Winnipeg, with ten members to be elected, no less than forty-one candidates are in the field, and something like a dozen political parties, or, rather, groups, are taking an active part in the campaign.

The Norris government is fairly strong because it practically elected the whole province on the one issue.

usage basis. It has also given the province a fairly clean administration. The Roblin government was wrecked by the crude and costly graft which accompanied the construction of the new parliament building. The Norris government is severely criticised for having expended on the ill-fated building several million dollars more than the contract price for which the contractor offered to finish the work. However, as the contractor was sent to the penitentiary as a result of his activities in the early days of construction, the government may be excused for refusing to have any further dealings with him.

In Winnipeg the soldiers' vote, the labor vote and the socialist vote, which might be a commanding force if combined, will be scattered among a number of candidates. On the other hand the Laurier Liberals are putting up some opposition to Premier Norris. It would not be surprising to find several Independents returned from Winnipeg who would be ready to enter into a coalition should the government lack a decisive majority.

It is also to be remembered that Manitoba is naturally Conservative. The Conservatives elected a majority of the members returned to the Dominion parliament in 1896, although the Liberals were supposed to be protecting the province from federal aggression in the shape of the remedial bill. In 1911 the Liberals counted on sweeping Manitoba outside of Winnipeg upon the reciprocity issue, but carried only two seats out of ten. Yet Premier Norris may receive considerable Conservative support, and the general impression seems to be that he will carry the election.

Interest will be taken in the showing the Conservative party is able to make, because Manitoba is the home province of Hon. Robert Rogers and Mr. Rogers has been active in a propaganda to rejuvenate and reorganize the old Conservative party by the elimination of the Union government. It is up to him in a way to show what he can do in his own province, albeit the party must still be suffering from the downfall of the Roblin government and the appalling disclosures which made that downfall a tragedy.

SET A NEW BOARD OF COMMERCE TO WORK.

(From Toronto Sunday World.) The government should lose no time in appointing three energetic and capable men to the board of commerce, and they should be selected with some view to their working together in harmony. The old board was composed of fair men, but from the start it was evident that Judge Robson and W. F. O'Connor could not work together. They differed in temperament, in their conception of the powers of the board, and in their general outlook on the business world, that one or the other should have retired almost immediately. Commissioner James Murdock was an able and fearless official, but he lost confidence in the chairman of the board after he saw the Hugg letter, practically asking the chairman to help a Winnipeg creamery company out of the powers of the board by an appeal to the supreme court.

Commissioner Murdock's resignation was accompanied by grave charges of misconduct against members of the government. These charges are to the effect that some of the ministers want no interference with the profiteer, and are quite willing to lose the board of commerce on a side track or leave it up in the air. The government should meet to meet them is to select a strong, fearless, incorruptible board of commerce. The friends of Judge Robson say that he made a timid chairman because he knew the board of commerce act and accompanying legislation was full of holes, and three of the six judges of the supreme court discovered some of them. Let the new board be not thus handicapped by any fear. Parliament should not prorogue without passing a simple, plain and drastic statute which all who run may read. Above all, should parliaments give the board authority to enforce its decrees and place the resources of the Dominion government behind them. When the board of commerce uncovers a profiteer they should have power to punish him. They should not be compelled to run from one provincial capital to another trying to get some provincial attorney-general to enforce a federal law.

CAN'T REWARD MEN WITH POORHOUSE

Premier Drury Gives Reasons For Government Pensions to Civil Servants.

With Premier Drury as the chief speaker, supported by Manning Doherty and Herbert Taylor, local nominees for federal honours, the U. F. O. gathering held at Erindale on Friday night attracted approximately 2,500 local residents and visitors.

The event, a garden party given under the auspices of the Erindale Club, is the first of its kind held by that organization, and proved a great success.

To an address to the premier from the Erindale Club, presented by the chairman, regret was expressed at the deep gulf arising between the agricultural and the labor classes.

The premier was being looked to to bridge this gulf, and the support of the local U. F. O., irrespective of party, pledged in his support. The address went on to point out the need for more men and boys from the farm and cities to take up agricultural work and measures whereby the shortage of labor on the farm might be overcome.

Hon. Manning Doherty first addressed the gathering, touching on the general aspect of the provincial situation in connection with the Farmers' party and their work.

Herbert Taylor, selected U.F.O. nominee for the federal house, gave a short address, congratulating the Erindale Club on the success of its first social gathering, and thanking his supporters for selecting him as nominee to represent them in the federal house.

Premier Drury gave the speech of the evening, with three measures of legislation at present claiming public attention. Speaking of the fund and provision for widows and orphans, the premier outlined measures to be taken in placing widows with families in the rural districts, establishing them in their old employments and fields of country environment, also outlining measures of maintenance.

Minimum Wage. The second piece of legislation dealt with was the minimum wage bill relating to girls and children. Mr. Drury stated too much advantage had already been taken in some quarters in working girls and children at low rates of wages. He felt confident that in the near future those girls and children would be safeguarded by the passing of the minimum wage bill.

Superannuation Bill. Touching in detail on the bill for superannuation the premier explained that ten per cent. of the civil servants are over 70 years of age and owing to an average salary of $1,500 some as low as $1,000, they are without provision for retirement being unable to make any provision out of such salaries.

No Party Politics. Speaking of the U.F.O. in general Mr. Drury was emphatic with a slogan of "No Party Politics." He opened out the imperative need for a combination of labor, and the farmer class, and strongly disclaimed that the work carried out on any other than clean, honest and open lines.

The auspices under which the garden party was held the Erindale Club has become a factor in the county that must be dealt with. Since its organization in February the club has put thru some $7,000 in business including general supplies and coal.

The social and musical features of the gathering were as successful as the more sober side of it, and a grand concert program was enjoyed by all. The Strathville orchestra, and the Oakville band were in attendance, the usual refreshment and other stalls, and booths lent animation to the scene.

BELLEVILLE MASONS PARADE

Belleville, June 30.—(Special).—The Masons of this city this morning held their annual church parade to the Tabernacle Church, and the turnout was a large one. Rev. Bro. H. B. Kenny of Campbell delivered the sermon, the subject being "The Great Light of Masonry."

WHOLESALE TAX APPEAL

Belleville, Ont. June 27.—(Special).—Owing to hundreds of appeals being put in by citizens against the assessment of the city this year, and there being considerable feeling against the increase made, the assessor has lodged a general appeal in the cases of citizens who had neglected to appeal.

WORLD'S DAILY BRAIN TEST

An excellent anagram is that which rearranges the letters REVOLUTION into TO LOVE RUIN.

Now let us see who can transform each of the following into two appropriate words:

Maidenly Astronomer Punishment ANSWER TO NO. 230.

In the race between the hare and the tortoise the length of the track makes no difference. The tortoise had one eighth start and has run 4.25 times as fast as the hare up to the time they meet, as the hare has five-sixths as far to run 54.25 equal to 2.25 as fast as he went before, but the question said how much faster, and 20.25 faster to win. It being clear that 20.25 would only tie the race, he must go a little over to win.

EIGHTEEN NURSES STRIKE AT GUELPH

Refuse Diet Kitchen Work at Military Hospital—Are Paid Off by Authorities.

Guelph, Ont., June 27.—(Special).—Because reinstatement was refused to Nurse Mary Pollock of Palmerston, who was discharged when she refused to perform certain duties which were assigned to her in the diet kitchen, eighteen of twenty nursing sisters at the Military Hospital informed the officials that they would refuse to report for duty on Saturday morning.

The result of their refusal was that they were told to go to the office and receive their cheques and were paid off. This left the hospital with two nurses, Matron Weld and another, and their brother is a patient there with but little hope of recovery. No time was lost in sending out more nurses, and twelve arrived late last night, coming from London, Toronto and Kingston, and more are expected before tomorrow. The patients at the hospital were inconvenienced to some extent during the day, but the orderlies, many of whom are trained men, had had received in the bed patients were not neglected in any way. The whole affair has been reported to Ottawa, and it is expected that an order will be issued which will relieve the nurses from the objectionable work in the diet kitchen.

POLITICAL SITUATION AT OTTAWA.

(From Toronto Sunday World.) Ottawa, June 28.—(Special).—Sir Robert Borden, who has been expected to keep his own counsel, has many resignations of the cabinet next week, but the members of his cabinet do not know whether he is to resign or is going to stick.

Still, the best opinion here is that Sir Robert will not resign, and that his successor will be selected this coming week. The house will probably prorogue on Wednesday and the cabinet members will be invited to remain over for a caucus on Thursday (Dominion Day), which may occupy the balance of the week. The successor has been picked according to common report, and will be Sir Thomas White. Hon. Arthur Meighen, it is said, has declared his willingness to serve under Sir Thomas. But this must be taken for what it is worth. The increase in the salary of the prime minister, together with the seasonal indemnity, raises the remuneration from $12,000 to $15,000 a year. This might remove any objection Sir Thomas White had to remaining in public life. He, like other ministers, may have found the salary of seven thousand dollars as finance minister, plus the seasonal indemnity of $2,000, insufficient.

However, no one pretends to have any authority from Sir Thomas White for saying that he will accept the premiership. But it has been taken for granted that he might be called to reconsider his decision. Sir Robert has shown considerable courage in dealing with the salaries of superior court judges, with the seasonal indemnities. This, in his opinion, may be his legacy to the Unionist government and parliament and it certainly clears the way of some embarrassing difficulties in the situation.

MEETS HER DEATH IN ELEVATOR SHAFT

Mrs. Elizabeth Chadwick, Prominent Guelph Woman, Victim of Accident.

Guelph, Ont., June 27.—(Special).—Mrs. Elizabeth Chadwick, widow of the late J. Craven Chadwick, and step-mother of His Honor Judge Chadwick of this city, was killed instantly at 11:30 o'clock on Saturday when she fell a distance of over thirty feet down the elevator shaft in The Herald building, on Douglas street, Mrs. Chadwick, who was 80 years of age, was about to enter the elevator, the door being open at the time, but the floor of the elevator was not on an exact level with the floor of the building, and it is thought that when Miss Isabel Bain, the operator, was trying to bring it up to the level, Mrs. Chadwick stumbled, and this distracted the attention of the operator to such an extent that she neglected to shut off the power and stop the elevator, the result being that the woman's body was caught between the floor of the elevator and the metal framework. When the operator saw what had happened, she reversed the power and lowered the car, but Mrs. Chadwick fell out of the open door, turning completely over, and went head foremost to the bottom of the shaft. Death was instantaneous.

An Inquest is Ordered. Coroner Dr. Mackinnon was summoned, and he at once ordered an inquest to be held. A jury was summoned, and after viewing the remains and the scene of the accident, an adjournment was made until Tuesday evening next. Mrs. Chadwick was formerly a Miss Beatty of Toronto, but had resided in Guelph a great many years, where she took an active interest in charitable and other work in the interests of the citizens. She has a brother in Toronto, and her sister, Mrs. Campbell, resided in Guelph, but is at present in New York.

JUDITH OF BLUE LAKE RANCH

By JACKSON GREGORY.

She paused a moment, frowning thoughtfully at the floor. Then suddenly she lifted her eyes to Carson's, saying crisply: "Trevors took time at the end of the month, thinking. That something was that he was going to make me sell. He was excited a bit, I'll admit, or he wouldn't have spoken quite so plainly. And he counted upon the fact of my sex, of course, to feel confident that he could throw a scare into me. He even threatened, if I didn't come to my senses before the ranch was dry in the summer, to burn me out!" Carson blinked at her. "How's that?" he asked.

"She told him again, coolly and indifferently, it seemed to Carson. "The damned polecat!" whispered the cattle foreman. "Now, then," cried Judith, "you've got your first job out of me for me! Bayne Trevors or one of his gang set foot on Blue Lake land, and I'll tell you what I think of you, Carson! Or is the job going to be too big for you?" Carson smiled deprecatingly. "I'd like to see 'em try it," he said in that soft, whispering voice which upon occasions was characteristic of him. "I sure would, Miss Judy!"

"That's all this morning, Carson," she said quietly. "On your way don't forget to look in on your friend Benny." Carson went hastily down the knoll, his eyes bright. Judith laughed softly. "I've got his number, Bud Lee! All that's needed to keep that old mount-tain-lion on the job is to show him a real fight ahead! And by golly, Mr. Man, there's going to be some enough from the very jump to make Carson forget whether he's working for a woman or John W. Satan, Esquire!"

THE BIGNESS OF THE VENTURE.

"And now," said Judith Sanford to the stillness about her—she was alone in the big ranch-house—"not being construed of iron, I'm going to take a snooze."

She yawned, stretched her supple young body luxuriously, and passed slowly thru the empty rooms which, at her command, Jose had opened to the great morning air. Thru the great living-room, library, and music-room, where the grand piano stood defectively in its mantle of dust, she came to her own chambers at the southwest corner of the building. Her bed was made, the sheets clean and fresh and inviting, dressing-gown and slippers were upon the window-seat, and from her table a vase of glorious roses sent out a welcoming perfume.

"Good old Jose," she smiled. "Vivid blossom that she was upon the tough, hardy stalk of her pioneer ancestry, creature of ardent flame and passion which her blood and her life in the open had made her, she was not devoid of the understanding of the limit of physical endurance. Last night, thru the late moonlight and later starlight, thru the thick darkness which lay across the mountain trails before the coming of day, on into the dawn, she had ridden the forty miles from the railroad at Rocky Bend. Certain of treachery on the part of Bayne Trevors, she had arrived only to find him plotting another blow at her interests. She had ridden a mad brute of a horse whose rebellious struggle against her authority had taxed her to the last ounce of her strength. She had shot a man in the right shoulder and the left forearm.... And now, with no one to see her, she was pale and shaking a little, suddenly faint from the heavy beating of her own heart. She had had virtually no sleep last night. She was glad of it. For now she would sleep, sleep! "I am not to be called, no matter what happens," she said to Jose, who came rattling to the tinkle of her bell. "Thank you for the roses, Jose!" Slipping out of her clothes—she drew the sheet up to her throat—she looked for a wretched hour before sleep came to her. A restless sleep, filled with broken bits of unpleasant dreams.

At two o'clock, swiftly dressing after a leisurely bath, she went out into the courtyard, where she found Jose making a pretense of waiting, whereas in truth for a matter of hours he had done little but watch for her coming.

"Jose," she said, as she swept off his wide hat and made her the bow reserved for a senorita and a senor, "you will have to be my maid and errand boy for me until I get things running right. I am going to telephone into town this minute for a woman to do my cooking and housekeeping and be a nuisance around generally. While I do that, will you score up something for me to eat and then saddle a horse for me! And don't make a fire, either; just something cold out of a can, you know?" She went to the office, which she over the wire with Mrs. Simpson, Rocky Bend to come out on the following day, and then spent fifteen minutes studying the payroll taken from the safe, which, fortunately, Trevors had left open. As Jose came in with a big tray she was running thru a file of reports made during the month-end, two weeks ago, by certain of the ranch foremen.

"Put it down on the table, Jose. Thank you," and she found time for a smile at her devoted servant. "Now, have a horse ready, will you? Am without waiting for Jose's answer, she picked up the telephone, she asked for the office at the Lower End, as the rich valley land of the western portion of the ranch was commonly known.

Briefly making herself known to the owner of the boyish voice which answered, she asked for "Doc" Tripp, and was informed that the ranch veterinarian was no longer with the outfit. Judith frowned.

"Where is he?" "Rocky Bend, I think." "When did he leave us?" "Three days ago."

"Why?" "Fired. Mr. Trevors let him go." "Him?" said Judith. "Who has taken his place?" "Bill Crowdy is sort of acting vet, right now."

"Thanks," she said. Clicking off, she put in a call for "Doc" Tripp in Rocky Bend. "Get him for me as quick as you can, will you please?" she asked of the operator in town.

For five minutes she munched at a sandwich and pored over the papers before her, dealing with this or that of the many interests of the big ranch. When at last her telephone-bell rang she found that it was Tripp.

"Hello, Doc," she said cordially. "I haven't seen you for some time, forgotten how you comb your hair!" Tripp laughed with her at that; across the miles she could picture him running his big hand thru the rebellious shock. "Yes, I'm back to stay, and from the looks of it I didn't come any too soon. Yes, Doc, we do miss him," and her voice softened wonderfully to Tripp's mention of the man who had been more than father to her, more than friend to him. "But we are going to buck up and show folks that we know. He would have made a go of the thing; we are going to do it. What was the trouble with you and Trevors?"

CONSOLIDATIONS OF THE C.N.R. AND G.T.R. IN AND ABOUT TORONTO

Distributing the Rosedale Lay out to Little York, Leaside and Union Station—Important Track Connection to Come Next.

After Saturday night the dismemberment begins of offices, yards, roundhouses and train equipment sidings of the Canadian Northern in the Don valley at Rosedale. In less than a fortnight the whole layout will have been distributed in three directions: To Leaside to East Toronto, to Union Station by the C.N.R. and G.T.R. and now going on of Grand Trunk and Canadian Northern. The despatchers, train crews and other employees will be correspondingly distributed. The C.N.R. and the G.T.R.'s belt line have in the neighborhood of a hundred acres (mostly C.N.R.), in the Don valley. Only the Rosedale station will be 'saved' hereafter; also the sidings into the Don Valley Brick Works. The rest goes elsewhere.

These Rosedale yards have direct rail service to the C.N.R. and G.T.R. The Little York yards of the latter system, down the Don to Eastern avenue, and then east and up the main line of the G.T.R. to its East Toronto yards and roundhouse; and to the C.N.R. yards and shops and roundhouse at Leaside to the C.N.R.'s Scarborough line up the Don valley to Duncan station, about five miles, and from here south and west for two miles over the new cut-off line to the Canadian Pacific's main line over which it runs into Leaside (one mile west) where it switches into the new Leaside yards and roundhouse and shops at Leaside. The Rosedale yards have direct rails to the Union Station passenger train storage yards and roundhouses of the Grand Trunk. All Saturday engines and train crews of the National Railways were distributing the plant and train equipment in the Rosedale yards to Little York and Leaside. The G.T.R. is in front and west of the Union Station; also to Leaside.

TWO PICNICS HELD AT SPIDER'S POINT

Two picnic parties numbering about 500 in all and representing the Masonic Engineers (Toronto Chapter) and the members and employees of the Bolsby Manufacturing Co. of Adelaide street, were entertained on Saturday by A. W. Miles at his residence, "Spider's Point," Mimico.

A lengthy program of sports was gone thru, the chief event of which being a baseball match between the Masons and the Bolsby firm, the latter winning and thereby the prize of a live duck presented by the host. Other events were a tug-of-war, the ladies of the Bolsby party winning against the members of the other party. L. V. Cubbird, city hall engineer, and H. Terry, presented the host with an honorary membership of the craft. The affair being embodied in a signed framed chart.

The refreshment problem for the large gathering was overcome by the ladies providing the eatables, Mr. Miles furnishing the beverages, ice cream, etc.

CANADIAN IRON ORE SOUGHT BY BRITAIN

W. D. Ross Says Overseas Demand For Canadian Coal Urgent Also.

Montreal, June 27.—W. D. Ross, vice-president of the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Company, was in town today en route to Toronto from New Glasgow, where he attended the special meeting of the Scotia shareholders last Friday. Mr. Ross stated that the gathering at New Glasgow was entirely harmonious. "I found the Scotia shareholders," said Mr. Ross, "alert to the immense advantages which the big consolidation means to the Dominion as a whole." Mr. Ross added that he had seen a cable from London, advisory committee of the Dominion Steel Corporation stating that the overseas organization was in perfect accord with recent developments on this side of the Atlantic and announcing that orders for many thousands of tons of iron ore had already been placed by the English associates at singularly attractive prices, while the demand for Canadian coal was particularly urgent at highly remunerative rates.

STEEL DIRECTORS MEET.

Montreal, June 27.—Directors of the Dominion Steel Corporation meet here tomorrow afternoon to receive the report of the special committee, which has been studying the terms upon which the smaller constituent companies are to enter the British Empire Steel consolidation. It is stated that the committee have reached a decision as to the recommendation to be made to the shareholders and as to the special meeting to be held probably at Sydney, N.S., within the next fortnight.

Another development in the meeting tomorrow will be the re-election of Hector McInnes, K.C., to the directorate of the Dominion Steel Corporation, the number of directors of the enterprise having been increased at the last meeting from fifteen to nineteen.

ADDED NAVAL VOTE STRONGLY OPPOSED

Approve Senate Bill. During the afternoon the house finally concurred in the senate amendment to the civil service bill abolishing a number of holidays hitherto observed in the service because they are holidays of the Roman Catholic Church. An amendment to the franchise act was concurred in granting the same salary and superannuation allowance as that of a supreme court judge to the chief electoral officer charged with the administration of the franchise act.

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King gave notice of an amendment to the act providing election advertisements in any form appearing in a newspaper shall disclose the name of the person or organization paying for it, and this amendment will be considered on third reading of the bill, which was reported from committee. Estimates for mail and steamship subventions, to the amount of $1,294,300.66, were adopted by the house in committee. An act to validate excess borrowings under the demobilization act was given third reading.

Naval Debates. Explaining why the supplementary estimate had been reduced from $2,200,000 to $1,700,000, the minister said they hoped to sell the Niobe and Rainbow. The two ships, moreover, would not be handed over for some time. Mr. Duff launched at once into a vigorous denunciation of the government's naval policy. There were three good reasons the estimate should not pass. First, Canada could not afford to spend money on a navy; secondly, what they proposed to do would be insufficient for defensive purposes, and, thirdly, public opinion was solidly against the idea. He spoke of the country's huge debt and obligations to returned men and their dependents, and declared that Canada today was a poor nation thru the heavy burden of taxation they would have to face for the next generation. He bitterly condemned the government for accepting a gift of submarines "after what these things did during the late war." This "gift" should have been rejected with scorn.

Support by Armstrong. J. E. Armstrong (Lambton) thought Canada was being humiliated. Tax-payers in Great Britain were being asked to pay $1 for every 100 lbs. of wool, while in Canada the people were only asked for 25c per head. And, he contended, the people of Canada always enjoyed the protection of the British fleet.

Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux was strongly in favor of a Canadian navy, but the time was not opportune. In 1910 the late Sir Wilfrid Laurier wanted a navy for Canada, and that was when the German menace threatened. The Tories, including Mr. Armstrong, turned it down, and now a Liberal (Hon. Mr. Ballantyne) was leading the Tories to see that Sir Wilfrid was right. Mr. Duff said that the government might as well sell the waterfront at Halifax and let it be used for practical purposes. Canada should decline England's gift of ships, explaining that we cannot afford to support them. Let Great Britain take over the dockyard at Halifax and Equatorial. Young Canadians would have a better chance as members of the British navy than they would in a Canadian unit.

Reply of Ballantyne. Hon. Mr. Ballantyne, replying, said that in his "remarkable speech," Mr. Duff had been setting up arguments with the other. Mr. Duff had implied that Canada was going to use her little navy for aggressive warfare at once, the ships England was sending were not modern, and suggested that the Niobe be put into commission again. It would cost $1,945,000 to equip and maintain the Niobe and the Rainbow would cost $296,900 to maintain her in commission. The minister said he hoped Canada would see her way after the conference of 1919, to doing something more consistent with her dignity in naval matters.

STRIKING EMPLOYEES ACCEPT PROPOSAL

(Continued From Page 1). more than a thousand men. The meeting opened at a quarter to nine. At twenty minutes past nine the vote had been taken and the result was fully known. At a quarter to ten the theatre, a member of the committee told him he had ample room. A member of the police force told him there was no room for any more bicycles in the lobby. He therefore placed it beside the "dump-box" immediately in front of the vestibule, considering whether or not he would take it to a safer position. At that moment the patrol sergeant came along. "Take that bicycle away from this place," ordered the sergeant, referring to the "dump-box." The other look it away. "Well, I guess I'll put mine there now," was the sergeant's next remark. He suited word to action. There were a large number of the younger men who were averse to accepting the offer of the Ontario Railway Board. At the same time there were many of the older men who realized that if the offer was refused, the strike would be precipitated. The wish of the older and more experienced to the younger and more turbulent heads was about three to one, but the influence of the older men, urged far beyond their own vote, and, as a result, the vote itself took its course to leeward.

Wise Control by Committee. The negotiating committee was not unanimous in its opinions respecting the wisdom of accepting the offer, but it was unanimous in deciding to in no way influence the vote of the men. Congratulations were showered upon the committee on all sides for its decidedly diplomatic control of the situation, especially in view of the very strong feeling evinced by many members of the union. Controller Gibbons himself is by no means well, and is suffering from internal troubles, induced by anxiety from the situation of the past two weeks. Other members of the negotiating committee suffered proportionately—one of them on one occasion collapsing during a recent midnight session. It was generally stated on the street that the greatest credit was due the committee for the successful issue of a situation full of the most menacing possibilities. Notable Features of Strike. The strike was remarkable mostly for the peculiarly carnival-like appearance the jitneys gave the city at every large street corner, for the great number of thousands of passengers, 8400 in number (the jitneys) for the rather unusual determination of several large manufacturing and other establishments in the city to refuse to arrange conveyances for their employees, as was done last year, and, finally, but perhaps, most significant, the generally unsympathetic sentiment of the public against the demands of the men.

What Was Involved. The strike involved a loss to the Toronto Railway Company of practically $100,000; to the men, of $45,000 in wages, and, to the business institutions of many thousands of dollars of business, and, finally, it involved the general public in considerable inconvenience and discomfort. Perhaps it would not be too much to say that had the men primarily asked for the 11 cent increase finally demanded, the sympathies of the public might have been channeled more toward the men themselves. But the demand for an increase of 30c, or 70 per cent, upon the then prevailing wages practically leveled the revolver at the head of all classes of citizens, and was generally considered to savor too much of an ultra-radicalism, none too popular at the moment.

INJUNCTION GRANTED. On Saturday Mr. Justice Kelly granted an injunction restraining J. A. Austin, during the existing lease between him and G. Tamblin, Limited, from erecting a stairway on the outside wall of premises at 1496 Queen street west. Tamblin's have a five-year lease from Austin, who has sold the premises to make some alterations, in the course of performing which his workmen entered thru plaintiff's cellar their store.

CHARGED UNDER O. T. A. Rosie Applebaum, 98 Nassau street, was arrested last night by Plain-clothesman Neal, charged with selling whiskey. She is alleged to have been selling it for 50 cents a glass.

Incidents by the Wayside. A few amusing incidents punctuated the occasion. Bets were exchanged pretty freely, one man wagering $20 that the men would turn the offer

Small boys' suits—rompers—kitchen aprons—dish towels—
Try this wonderful new form of Soap on them.

Rinso

Fine granules of the purest Soap. Different from any soap or powder, cleanses without rubbing or boiling; hot or cold water, either will do.

A new Soap product! Absolutely different from anything you have ever used before. Not a cake soap. Not a "washing powder." But fine granules of the pure soap heart. Pure granules so rich in cleansing power that they dissolve all the dirt—the hardest dirt—after soaking a few hours, without rubbing or boiling. Never again should you wash in the old exhausting way. Let your clothes say good-bye to the rub, rub, rub ordeal of the washboard.

Rinso is not a "washing powder"

The fine granules of Rinso look much like a "washing powder," but—make this test. Use a heaping teaspoonful to a glass of boiling water.

WASHING POWDER —high in harsh chemicals —low in soap
RINSO —absolutely harmless —so rich in soap it "jells!"

AT NIGHT—
Soak the clothes with Rinso.
MORNING—
Rinse them out—that's all.

GET A PACKAGE TO-DAY
You cannot believe how wonderful Rinso is until you have tried it. No rubbing at all! Cleans as perfectly in cold water as in warm.

AN INTERESTING TEST
To show how different Rinso is to the ordinary washing powder, dissolve a heaping teaspoonful to a glass of boiling water. Let it cool. Turn it out. So rich in soap that it JELLS!

English trouble developed during the flight, and the pilot was compelled to make a forced landing on the field. The enraged crowd immediately surrounded the machine and wrecked the wings and tail. They were threatening the pilot and the camera man when mounted policemen galloped up and arrested the aviators, who were taken to court on a charge of flying without permission, and a fine of about 2000 francs was imposed by the magistrate.

KNOX PRESBYTERIAN HOLDS ANNIVERSARY

Old Vaughan Church Built in 1845 Celebrates 75th Birthday. HAS HAD FIVE PASTORS

Knox Presbyterian Church at Vaughan, which has served as a temple of worship since 1845, held its 75th anniversary yesterday. Rev. Peter Nicol, who is now eighty years of age, and was the pastor of the church from 1874 to 1920, conducted the morning service. The evening service was conducted by Rev. Thos. McLachlan, who had officiated there as pastor from 1893 to 1901.

Crowded to Doors. The church was crowded to the doors and many gathered in the basement to hear Rev. Thos. McLachlan. Verses of Scripture were read, the benediction and the old familiar psalm telling once more the simple story of the triumph of faith and trust in a loving and a tender God. Another prayer was offered, a talk with God that forgot time and remembered only the mercy of the Father, and that there were still souls outside of the kingdom.

"I really feel as though I had been a long time away from home, and had come back again," the minister began, where I ministered for 17 years. I shall not try to preach a sermon, but we will have a talk about eternity. They are the best things to live by and the best things to die by."

Four memorials were recalled: First, the men who went to the war and made it possible to worship as Knox Church was doing today. The second was the existence of the church itself; the third, the promise of God in the Passover, and the fourth, the great day of atonement. The explanation of God as a God of infinite mercy and of justice was in the cross.

"A man must eat in order to live, and a man must take the Bread of Life in order to live the highest life," the minister continued. "The way back to God is wide open."

The evening service, which was conducted by Rev. Thos. McLachlan (1893-1901) was likewise a lesson in faith. "The deepest thing in man is the image of God. We can go nowhere better than deep down into our own souls. It is there that we cannot know God from the outside. It has been the effort of God over fellowships with us, to give us a glimpse of the divine."

The 99th and 74th Psalms were read in the evening service. In the morning 120 psalms of communion. The five minutes of the congregation from 1845 are as follows: Rev. Peter Nicol (1874-1882); Rev. Thos. McLachlan (1893-1901); Rev. M. McInnes (1901-1916); Rev. J. H. Moir, 1917 to date; Rev. Mr. Glasford and Rev. Mr. McKinnon are deceased.

The organists were as follows: Misses Jennie Lowrie, Mary Lowrie, Mary J. Wood, Annie Lawrie, Kate M. Clure, Kate Cameron, Elin Gowland, Burton, Mary McClellan, Verla Burton.

Extracts from the minutes give the main events in the church life as follows: A special meeting of the congregation held this day, 4th of September, 1844, to take into our serious consideration the propriety of petitioning the Presbytery, which meets the second Tuesday of September, for a minister, Andrew Riddle, was appointed to present the petition.

The present church, 1845, it was moved and seconded that Jas. Somerville be treasurer and Wm. Agnew secretary for the year, and also that the following persons be collectors: John Lawrie, Archibald Somerville, Wm. Patterson and Wm. Taylor. Also agreed to at the seats at 5 shillings a sitting or 2 pounds for a whole year; to be paid half-yearly. The following were appointed trustees for the congregation: James Somerville, Harry Burton, Archibald Somerville and John Lawrie.

January 2, 1845, it was moved that the church yard be laid out in plots of eight feet and sixteen feet and sold at one dollar for eight feet.

Dec. 29, 1845—Moved by John Wright, seconded by Wm. Archer, that Jas. Somerville, John Riddle, Wm. McClellan, Lochlan Cameron, Robert Somerville Jr., G. Lawrie, Jas. McMurchy and John Nattress be appointed to go to the congregation to solicit subscriptions for the building of a church to be erected during the summer of 1846. Also moved that James Somerville and John Smith be cordially invited to continue to lead the singing in the church.

January 2, 1846—Moved by Robert Somerville, seconded by James Somerville, that Miss Mary Lawrie be asked to play the organ. Miss Jennie Lawrie had been organist for a time.

January 12, 1846—Moved by Robert Somerville, seconded by Robert Webster, that we get an organ for the church. Use New Hymn, seconded by Robert Somerville, seconded

IMPROVED OUTLOOK FOR MOVING GRAIN

Week-end Evening Cause Rally—Hot Wave May Damage Oats.

Chicago, June 26.—Prospective better transportation used the corn market today, but the steved was more than counterbalanced later by weak demand for oats. Corn closed firm, to 18 1/2c higher, with July $1.75 to $1.76 1/2c, and September $1.52 to $1.53 1/2c. Oats gained 1c to 1 1/2c. In provisions, the outcome ranged from 7c decline to 30c advance.

At first the bulls in corn were active, evidence of a rally owing to announcement by the railway labor bureau that a retroactive wage award would be given out on or before July 30. This announcement was generally taken to mean that the decline which resulted from operations opened the way for shorts to eliminate their contracts. However, over Sunday, the market was again active, and the bulls in the oats market were good deal of the late strength of corn, which is now at a critical juncture. Unfavorable crop reports and low and low made the oats market somewhat sensitive to possible injury that might be occasioned by excessive high temperature.

Calculations averaged higher with grain and hogs.
