$150,000 'PHONE STOCKS AUTHORIZED

N.B. UTILITIES BOARD GIVES OUT JUDGMENT

Company's Application Was for Issuing of $500,000
MATTER OF RATES
President Announces Stock Likely Not Completed Before Three Months

IN A DECISION announced today the New Brunswick Board of Public Utilities, in connection with the application of the New Brunswick Telephone Co., Ltd., for permission to issue $500,000 capital stock, authorizes the company to issue $150,000 stock at the same time declining to fix the market price.

Senator Black, president of the company, makes comment on one part of the board's statement and says that this stock issue, intended for January, would not be made for three months.

THE DECISION
The Utilities decision follows:—
In the matter of the application of the New Brunswick Telephone Company for leave to issue $500,000 additional stock:

This is the application of the New Brunswick Telephone Company, Limited, which conducts most of the telephone business in this province, for authority to issue capital stock not to exceed $500,000, in shares of $10 each, to be used for the further purpose of providing funds for extensions and betterments already planned.

Appearances: A. N. Carter for the Telephone Company; C. E. Inches, K. C. for shareholders of the company; W. H. Harrison, K. C. for J. M. Robinson and Sons, Eastern Securities Company and Thomas, Armstrong & Bell; J. King Kelley, K. C. for the Union of New Brunswick Municipalities; Hon. P. B. Black, O. J. Fraser, E. S. Carter and H. P. Robinson were also heard.

It would appear that the company has already issued $2,968,410 of capital stock and that the company was authorized by the board of directors to increase its capital stock to $4,000,000. The application to this board is made pursuant to Chapter 13 of the Provincial Statutes of 1921, an amendment to an act giving the board power to regulate the issue of shares and securities by public utilities.

BOARD EXPERT REPORTS.
In the month intervening between the application of the company and the hearing of the matter, the board obtained from its expert, S. H. Millard, a report on the company and its proposed new issue, a report elaborated on page 15, column 5.

Saskatchewan Attorney-General Denies Winking at Dry Law Infractions

REGINA, Sask., Dec. 17.—The "cross back" circulated by Conservative propagandists in the closing stages of the provincial elections in Regina, was mentioned in the legislature yesterday by Hon. J. A. Cross, Attorney-General. A pamphlet was circulated headed: "This shows the boot-leggers were not afraid of the Attorney-General." Indirectly this suggested that the Attorney-General had been derelict in his duty, Mr. Cross said. "That is absolutely unfounded and without any justification whatever," he added.

Little Toronto Girl, Tiring of Dolls, Steals Baby; Foster Parents Face Court Trial

CANADIAN PRESS.
TORONTO, Dec. 17.—Evidence in the case of Ebenezer Macmillan and his wife, Anna, who are charged with receiving or harboring four months old Bobby Muldoon, was completed last evening.
Addresses of counsel will be delivered this morning, after which the case will go to the jury.
The disappearance of the Muldoon baby created a sensation in Toronto last month, until the child was found to have been taken from in front of a department store by Annie, 14-year-old adopted daughter of the Macmillans. Stating that she wanted a live baby, having grown tired of her dolls, Annie gave her evidence yesterday, and said she had not told her parents she had stolen the baby until questioned by detectives. The testimony of Mrs. Helen Muldoon, mother of the child, and of Mr. and Mrs. Macmillan was also taken.
Mr. Macmillan maintained under cross-examination that the conflicting statements he had given the police at the time of the investigation had been with the sole desire to save his adopted daughter from incrimination. Both the Macmillans stated that they believed their daughter's statement that she had found the baby on the doormat of their home.
Mrs. Macmillan denied that it had been her intention to keep the baby permanently. Her only desire had been to take care of it, she said.

ROME, Dec. 17.—At a public consistory today the Red Hat was conferred on cardinals created in the consistory of March 30 last and in the secret consistory of last Monday.
Today's function was one of the most largely attended since the time of Leo XIII., on account of the number of members of the royal houses, for the Italian aristocracy, the diplomatic corps and the family of the Pope. The hunt for tickets was without precedent.

LONDON HOPEFUL
Reassuring Communications Exchanged Between Britain and Constantinople

CANADIAN PRESS.
GENEVA, Dec. 17.—Our relations with England will continue to be friendly.
This was almost the last remark made by Tewfik, Rasid Bey, Turkish foreign minister, before boarding his train last night to return to Angora.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 17.—Upon receipt of the League of Nations decision in the Turkish-British dispute over Mosul, the Turkish cabinet at Angora was immediately called into session by President Mustafa Kemal Pasha.
LONDON, Dec. 17.—A most hopeful view taken here regarding the situation growing out of the endorsement by the League of Nations, of Great Britain's position respecting the Mosul boundary in the kingdom of Iraq, is that opportunity is now to be given negotiators to attempt to arrange a friendly understanding between Turkey and Great Britain.

Coldest Spell For 30 Years Hits France

PARIS, Dec. 17.—France is suffering from the most intense cold spell in 30 years. The thermometer in Paris last night dropped to five above zero. Even the Riviera is feeling the bite of winter. In many parts of France the cold weather is accompanied by fog of varying density. This has been responsible for a half dozen minor railroad accidents.

CANADIAN PRESS DESPATCH.
NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—Revolutionary "white collar" regiments from a dozen major cities of Canada and the United States will attempt to form a continental army at a joint meeting here December 21.
Municipal engineers of Toronto, Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Detroit and San Francisco, to list only those certain to participate, will pool the local campaigns they have been waging for "commensurate recognition and compensation."
In addition to increased pay and better working conditions, generally, the engineers in each case are seeking acknowledgment by the city fathers of their professional standing in the municipal machine.

BRITISH DRINK LESS SPIRITS, MORE WINE

Empire Vintages Increase in Popularity, Experts Say—Year's Figures
LONDON, Dec. 17.—Britons are reverting more and more to the habits of their forefathers in the matter of drinking spirits on the increase. It is stated in the report of the customs and excise for the year, which ended last March, that 16,683,703 gallons of wine were consumed during the period. This was an increase of 2,000,000 gallons over the previous 12 months.
The consumption of spirits is decreasing, there having been a drop of 800,000 proof gallons in home-made spirits, and 180,000 proof gallons of foreign spirits.
Experts say Empire wines are increasing in popularity. A liqueur from South Africa is produced from an old Boer recipe, is having an increased sale.

RED HAT CONFERRED

Pius XI was carried in on the sedia gestatoria, flanked by the Flabell, gorgeous feather fans. Followed by the multi-colored cortege, he mounted the throne and was saluted by the Sistine Choir. On both sides of him sat the members of the sacred college in their purple robes.
Pius XI solemnly repeated for each new cardinal the formula "Accipe galericium rubrum," while a master of ceremonies held the red hat in turn over the head of each new member of the sacred college, who was then embraced by all his colleagues.
The ceremony ended with the apostolic benediction imparted by the Pope, who afterwards returned to his apartments. The new cardinals gathered in the Sistine Chapel to hear a Te Deum of Translating and afterwards went to see the Pope to offer their homage and express their gratitude.
Cardinal Boorne, Archbishop of Westminster, came to Rome expressly to see the elevation of Cardinal O'Donnell, Archbishop of Armagh.

Referring to his association with the drama, he said that a young boy who was getting 22 a week in a play of his had once laughingly suggested that they should pool and divide their incomes for the rest of their lives. WAR UNLIKELY

Hostilities between Turkey and Great Britain over the latter having secured the mandate for the rich oil and agriculture region, are not considered probable, either in London or in League of Nations circles in Geneva. In some quarters in London, the government's attitude toward Turkey is said to embrace a desire to see Turkey live and not be stifled or paralyzed.
It is reported that reassuring communications regarding Mosul already have passed between London and Ankara, and it is expected that Premier Baldwin will make a statement to parliament on the situation at an early government purposes to take, is likely to remain pure guess work.

COLLECTED IN STOCKINGS.
The contribution from the West Saint John Canadian Pacific Railway and Customs staff, $37.50, was the result of a collection taken up in four stockings that were hung up in the offices at West Saint John, and the men put in their bit as they felt they could to help the little ones. The stockings, as well as their financial contents were presented to the committee and will go to two of the kiddies.
In a letter from Murray & Gregory, Ltd., enclosing the gift of the office staff and employees it is stated, "Our check is only a drop in the bucket, but we sincerely hope that it will help to make some kiddies happy."
From the Royal Bank came the staff's gift and a letter of commendation of this "worthy fund," and stating that "Every little bit helps, and we want you to feel that it is given with real Christmas spirit."
Mrs. Henry Mitchell, Campbellton, sent four pairs of mittens, with an expression of hope that they would help to keep some little kiddies warm.

The Evening Times-Star

The Evening Times-Star is published at 25-27 Canterbury street every evening (Sunday excepted) by New Brunswick Publishing Co., Ltd., J. D. McKenna, President.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., DECEMBER 17, 1925.

"DISTURBING" AND "IMPOSSIBLE"

"It is a disturbing, an impossible position," says the Ottawa Journal, in an editorial discussing the continued and growing loss of Canadian traffic to American ports.

Just Fun

IN the spring a young woman is fancy also.

THE ARK wasn't the only institution that contained a little of everything. There's the drug store.

"THEY used to carry him in—Now they're carrying him out," wept the disconsolate widow sadly.

"THERE'S one person that agrees with me," said the cannibal.

SAMBO—Rastus, why is it yo' calls yo' baby "Static"?

THE RADIO has worked one great advantage to apartment dwellers. It has furnished more clothes lines on the roof.

OLD GENTLEMAN: What would you like to be when you grow up?

BOY: I'd like to be a bricklayer.

"Why would you like to be a bricklayer?"

"Cause there's so many days when bricklayers can't work."

IT might be worse. Suppose every law required a special set of enforcement officers.

GONE, BUT NOT FORGOTTEN

Dear heart, do you ever remember When we our twain love did plight?

In a love that was deep as the ocean, But brief as a midsummer night's dream.

It's all a matter of taste, of course.

Odds and Ends

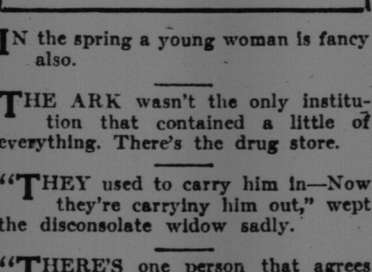

When the Wild Pigeons Darkened the Skies

(Bystander in Toronto Globe)

The story of the passenger pigeon is now a tale that is told, writes J. W. Wilson, in Rod and Gun in Canada.

These figures are startling. Canada has invested something like $2,000,000,000 in railways, running East and West.

The Best of Advice

BY CLARK KINNAIRD

A LITTLE GLEAM OF TIME BETWEEN TWO ETERNITIES

THE professional optimist, the good gentleman whose tongue is ever laden with sweetness and light, is, after all, only another species of liar.

For all of us know that work, worry, labor and trouble, tempered by comparatively little love and happiness, form the lot of most men their whole life long.

Yet the professional optimist is popular. Man does not want to be told his life is but an empty dream.

SCHOPENHAUER observes in one of his essays that in early youth, as we contemplate our coming life, we are like children in a theatre before the curtain is raised.

It is a blessing that we do not know what is going to happen," he says, playing the pessimist's role.

WHAT is life? Let us be content with Carly's answer. He defined it as "a little gleam of Time between two eternities."

Wise was he who said, "Live each day as if it were your whole life."

Poems That Live

MIDNIGHT.

O God! this is a holy hour, Thy breath is o'er the land; I feel in each little flower, Around me where I stand—

In all the moonlight scattered fair, Above, below me everywhere, In every dew-dew gleaming sphere, In every leaf and blade of green, And in this silence grand and deep, Wherein Thy blessed creatures sleep.

Men say, that in this midnight hour, The disembodied have power To wander as it liketh them, By wizard oak and fairy stream, Through still and solemn places, And by old halls and tombs to dream With pale, cold, mournful faces.

I fear them not; for they must be Spirits of kindest sympathy, Who choose such haunts, and joy to feel The beauties of this calm night steal Like music o'er them, while they woo'd The luxury of solitude.

—W. Motherwell.

A Lucky Little Vehicle.

(London Referee)

One of Lord Charles Berezoff's tenants who conducted a small undertaking establishment in Waterford was one day asked how the business was getting along.

"Grand, me lord!" he exclaimed. "I have now the luckiest little car you ever saw. Glory be to goodness! It was never a day idle since I got it."

Another Ghost Story

The following strange story, from a Glasgow correspondent, was published in a London paper:

Weird happenings which are said to have occurred at night in a Falkirk church have given much concern to the church officer and organist. Both say they have seen the ghost of a church officer, long since dead.

The present officer declared that when alone in the church at night he has frequently heard the shuffling of feet and the sound of a yawn, both of which were peculiar to his predecessor.

On another evening, the organist says, his attention was directed to the gallery, where he distinctly observed an old man shuffling with weary gait. Despite a minute search, however, no trace of anyone could be found.

Writes Own Obituary to Help His Fellow Scribes.

Tadeusz Gubrynowicz, a Polish journalist of Boston, literally "died in harness" recently.

Among his belongings in the hospital was found his obituary written by himself shortly before his death.

It recounted the devotion of a real journalist to his work, and on behalf of those for whom he wrote. A paragraph read:

Who's Who

IN THE DAY'S NEWS.

LOUIS LOUCHEUR.

THE presence of Louis Loucheur in the Briand cabinet as Minister of Finance has been favorably received by the French people and it is thought that his influence will tend to insure the cabinet a fairly lengthy existence.

He is one of the foremost captains of industry in France, and also is credited with having the largest fortune in his native country.

He was born at Lez-les-Bains in 1872 and was graduated from the Ecole Polytechnique with high honors.

At the outset of the war he joined the artillery with a lieutenant's rank, but was recalled from the front to supervise the manufacture of munitions, since a scarcity of shells was imminent.

When Clemenceau became Premier he picked Loucheur as the only man in France capable of handling the coal situation.

In 1921, when relations between France and Germany were strained to the breaking point, Loucheur, then a member of the Briand cabinet, met Dr. Walter Rathenau, the German Minister of Reconstruction, in an informal conference and arranged reparations terms that established more friendly relations between the two countries.

FRANCO-SPANISH ENTENTE (Madrid Nation)

Other Governments, though including among their Ministers great diplomats and eminent statesmen, all thoroughly versed in the art of government, never succeeded in obtaining from France this much-desired entente, and Auld-Krim benefitted thereby.

Who's Who

IN THE DAY'S NEWS.

LOUIS LOUCHEUR.

THE presence of Louis Loucheur in the Briand cabinet as Minister of Finance has been favorably received by the French people and it is thought that his influence will tend to insure the cabinet a fairly lengthy existence.

He is one of the foremost captains of industry in France, and also is credited with having the largest fortune in his native country.

He was born at Lez-les-Bains in 1872 and was graduated from the Ecole Polytechnique with high honors.

At the outset of the war he joined the artillery with a lieutenant's rank, but was recalled from the front to supervise the manufacture of munitions, since a scarcity of shells was imminent.

When Clemenceau became Premier he picked Loucheur as the only man in France capable of handling the coal situation.

In 1921, when relations between France and Germany were strained to the breaking point, Loucheur, then a member of the Briand cabinet, met Dr. Walter Rathenau, the German Minister of Reconstruction, in an informal conference and arranged reparations terms that established more friendly relations between the two countries.

BRITAIN SEEKS
PEACE IN MOSUL,
AMERY STATES

Says Neither Allies Nor League Expect Outbreak
in Near East

TURKEY PROTESTS
DECISION AND WARNS

Absolutely Refuses to Abandon its Sovereign Rights
Over Territory

GENEVA, Dec. 16—Neither the League of Nations nor Great Britain wants war in the Near East because of the decision of the League Council in the Mosul conflict, said Dr. L. C.
M. Amery, the British Dominion Secretary, commenting on the council's findings which gives Mosul practically in its entirety to Great Britain in the form of a mandate.

This decision was announced today in the Assembly Hall packed with people as the last act of the 27th session of the Council. It was marked by three notable declarations. The first, solemnly read by Vittorio Schiavelli, former Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs, in the name of every member of the Council, was deemed significant because it admitted that a state of tension had been created between Great Britain and Turkey over the position of Mosul. Signor Schiavelli recommended that these two nations reach an amicable arrangement of the difficultly so as to put an end to the regrettable situation and thus solidify that peace which is the aim of the League of Nations.

BRITAIN DESIRES PEACE

The second was voiced by Austen Chamberlain, British Secretary for Foreign Affairs, who declared that the British government did not wish to adopt a rigid and uncompromising attitude. Great Britain desired to live on terms of peace with Turkey and would gladly lend itself to conversations to determine whether it would be possible to improve the relations between the two countries.

The third declaration came in a documentary form from the Turks who refused an invitation to attend the meeting. It was a vigorous protest against the Council's action, as well as a warning that Turkey absolutely refused to abandon its sovereignty over Mosul until "You give your assent that our rights in totality in Mosul remain intact."

The Council's decision is contingent on Great Britain's acceptance of a 25-year mandate over Iraq, which includes Mosul, within six months. This Great Britain has promised to do.

pretty gown of blue crepe de chene.
The groomsmen were Gilbert W. Kel-

U. S. Branch Factories Route
Traffic Via American Ports

HAMILTON—By Mail—In Ontario centres one hears a great deal more about New York than any other port as a competitor with Canadian ports. There are some American branch factories whose output is of trade in done from United States headquarters, and in some cases a good deal of it is sent through American ports. Then there are Canadian concerns which have to use New York to get satisfactory steamship service to certain ports. These are perhaps a very few who use New York throughout of habit, or from a belief that service through our ports would not be satisfactory. Moreover, the agents of American railways are active and constantly after business. Thus, considerable Canadian business goes and comes, but principally goes, through New York.

I HAVE FOUND firms in this and other cities doing some business through New York or Portland who are very outspoken in their belief that Canada must mend matters and control more of her own trade. They say it is poor economy in the long run to neglect our own ports and send traffic away from our own railways, but to rely on a present in sight. As one man put the case, it is important to keep industries going and people employed making goods for export, even if competition at present compels some use of United States ports. Exactly the same is a serious one, a serious one, a serious one, a serious one, a serious one, export business they have been competitors in other countries, and both rates and delivery become important. It is important to keep industries going and people employed making goods for export, even if competition at present compels some use of United States ports. Exactly the same is a serious one, a serious one, a serious one, a serious one, a serious one,

One case where lower rates via New York take the business there is that of The Howe Bros. E. E. Love, speaking for the company, showed me records of shipments of their goods to London at twenty cents per cubic foot. The C. P. R. and C. N. R. rates through Canadian ports are forty cents. The difference is on the average about four hundred dollars per car.
The company ship about five cars per month. The goods are taken from New York by a steamship line which is not in the conference, but which has regular sailings. Mr. Love says there are two other lines by which he could use at the same rate. "If the Canadian lines will meet the New York rate we will not hesitate," said Mr. Love, "to give them the business, but four hundred dollars per car is too much to lose. Apparently the Atlantic Conference will not meet the rate, and New York in this case, and perhaps others, is the winner.

T. Regan, of the P. B. Yates Machine Co. Ltd., furnished another illustration of the need of more extended steamship services. The company has to use American ports at times to get prompt delivery, but only when that is necessary do they patronize other than Canadian ports. Exactly the same statement was made by D. E. Malcom for the Canadian Shovel and Tool Co. Ltd., who have to use New York for South American business.

A. L. PAGE, of the Frost Steel and Wire Co. Ltd., said they used Canadian ports chiefly, but did some business through Portland, Me., for certain ports. E. H. Hodson, of the Laidlaw Bale-Tie Co. Ltd., said their last shipment went through New York but their next one is going through West Saint John. Quick delivery was a first essential with them, as they had both British and Continental competitors, and so were compelled to use New York more or less. R. Dana, for R. A.
Lister & Co. Ltd., said all their imports of dairy supplies came through Canadian ports.

F. J. Bowman, of the C. P. R. freight staff in Hamilton, accompanied me on my rounds, and proved a genial companion as well as an excellent guide. He is a relative of the Bowman's of Saint John, has visited the city, and hopes to see it and St. Andrews and Fredericton on a holiday next summer. To him and his chief, Mr. Grant, I am much indebted.

A hearty welcome awaited me at the office of the Cosmo Imperial Mills Ltd., who own the mill of Yarmouth, N. S. I had met J. T. Williams in Hamilton last winter, and he recalled a conversation at that occasion when he declared himself a champion of Canadian ports. The company exports to a wide range of ports, of which some cannot be reached by Canadian steamship service. Mr. Williams is a first essential reached through New York. Mr. Williams visits Yarmouth twice a year, and very carefully studied the Maritime situation, and is in full sympathy with the plea for the development of our ports. He is a first essential more attention to the varied economic problems that have stood in the way of Canadian unity, for he has crossed Canada and studied them, and regards the recent Winnipeg conference as a most hopeful beginning of things.
The solution of our problem must be found, he says, by business men of all parts of Canada, willing to get each other's point of view and then to give and take. It was an inspiring half hour I spent with Mr. Williams.

ANOTHER most interesting gentleman is W. H. Marsh, representing the Standard Underground Cable Co. of Canada. All their business is done through Canadian ports. Mr. Marsh is an American by birth but a thorough-going Canadian by adoption. He is of the opinion that Canada ought well to adopt some of Uncle Sam's self-confidence and aggressiveness in business. Naturally he stands for the most friendly relations between the two countries, but contends that such cordial relations be at all jeopardized by a Canadian policy of trade development.

Percy Ford Smith, of the Ford Smith Machine Co. Ltd., is not only strong for Canadian ports, which the company uses exclusively, but a pronounced advocate of buying goods made in Canada. He severely criticises the mental attitude of those who decry our own products, when by purchasing them they would be enabling more of our own people to find employment in their own country. For the same reason he would provide more work for our own railway men and longshoremen.

Anglican Bishop, Once Here, Tells of Rescue of Party
Shipwrecked In Far North

THE life of a bishop of an Anglican missionary diocese in Canada is not uneventful as a rule, but the Rt. Rev. A. D. Dewdney, D. D., Bishop of Kewatin diocese, who was formerly rector of St. James' church, Saint John, had a more than usually adventurous trip this fall when he made his biennial visit to the north district of his diocese and assisted in rescuing the shipwrecked crew of a sister ship to that in which was travelling.

It was at the extreme northern point of Labrador that the shipwreck occured. The Bishop's ship was close by and able to respond to the S.O.S. of the shipwrecked crew.

ON BOARD THE SHIP.

In the Nascopee the Bishop with three other Anglican clergymen and the wife of one and three Catholic missionaries, one of whom was Bishop Tourguet, and other passengers sailed from Moncton on July 11, a few days after the sister ship, The Bay Eskimo, which had among her passengers three Anglican missionaries.

When Cape Chidley had been reached there, not far from the shore, The Bay Eskimo was seen in the thick of pack ice. The Nascopee sailed in and round her and then passed out a steel cable to give her the help of a towline. The west to south and went full speed ahead. About 7 a. m. on Friday spirals of smoke were seen in the distance and an hour and a half later the passengers and crew of The Bay Eskimo were found in boats and on the ice but the ship had disappeared.

SHIP GOES OVER.

It seems that about 2 o'clock of Thursday a bad leak had sprung and in spite of every effort it kept gaining and it was found necessary to abandon the vessel. The boats were launched.
There were 13 of them, including the two power boats. A plentiful supply of gasoline, deerskins, meat and other foods was secured, all the baggage not in the hold was saved and passengers and crew were taken off safely. Nearby there was a large ice floe and on this the marooned party spent the night. They watched the ship as it sank lower and lower into the water and then upending slid down with its valuable cargo to the bottom of Ungava Bay. The ship sank out of sight at 10 p. m.

VARIETY OF CONVEYANCE.

The Diocese of Kewatin has an area of over 700,000 square miles. It has for its southern boundary the United States and runs north 2,600 miles to Hudson Bay. It is estimated that there are some 8,000 Indians and some 3,000 Eskimo in Kewatin District.

CHURCH RESTORED.

GREAT YARMOUTH, Dec. 17—
After work extending over 80 years, the church here, the largest parish church in England, has been completely restored. The church was founded in 1108 by Bishop de Losinga.
It was almost totally destroyed during the reformation and the Puritan domination.

TAKEN TO BURWELL.

The men proceeded to make themselves comfortable for the night. A tent was erected for the two women of the party and with layers of deer-skins between them and the ice they were well protected. The men shared the other deerskins. About 4 a. m. heavy rain fell.

The Apron-String Husband Who Wants a Night Off How to Improve the Home Manners of a Sixteen-Year-Old Girl—The Foolish Father Who Won't Understand His Boy's Hobby.

DEAR MISS DIX—I have been married a little more than two years. In that time I have very seldom gone out by myself. If I suggest such a thing as going out alone, or with some man friend, my wife weeps, claiming that I do not care for her any more, and that I prefer other people's company to hers.

I work all day, and she claims that being separated all day is enough, and I am expected to spend all of my evenings at home. I tell her to go out with some of her friends, but she will not go unless I go with her. Now I love my wife, but I don't want to be tied to her apron strings all the time. I want to get out with men, and have a man's company once in a while, and I am beginning to think that I married a jealous, selfish cat. What do you think? ROBERT A.

ANSWER: I think, Robert, that you have married a very narrow, selfish woman, and one who has little knowledge of the psychology of men. She would have sense enough to know that the surest way in the world to make her husband jump over the bars is to pen him in too tightly, and that she could take no surer method of driving you from her than to keep a death grip on you. The wise wife never argues with her husband about a latch-key. She gives him two of them, and feeling that he is free to go where he likes he pleases to stay at home.

Many men are better housed, better fed, better warmed and cared for in jail than they are anywhere else, but the thing that makes them risk their lives to break out of jail is just the knowledge that they are locked in, and can't get out. There is a world of thought for wives in that fact. There are many wives who are monopolists. They want to absorb their husbands, body and soul. They are not willing for their husbands to have a thought, an idea, a friend, an interest apart from them. The first thing that the average woman does after she gets married is to try to separate her husband from his family, and all of his old friends, and to force him to give up any outside hobby or interest and she raises objections if he goes down town 'n' nights.

She wants to be "all in all" to her husband, and she forgets that no one human being can completely satisfy our needs for companionship. Especially can no woman supply every mental need of a man any more than a man can of a woman. The things that men are interested in and that they like to talk about are outside of a woman's real range of interest, just as the things that are vitally interesting to a woman are of no concern to a man, and so each sex has need of companionship with its own kind.

Of course, there should be reason in all things. A wife has a right to complain if her husband spends every evening with his friends in the places where men foregather, but a man certainly has a right to at least one evening a week to do as he likes without being tagged by a petticoat. And foolish is the woman who refuses this. It is her undoing, for when a man gets fed-up on too much of his wife's society, it is simply a question of time until he cuts her apron string and escapes.

My advice to you, Robert, is to be a man and not a mouse. Make a fight for life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness—and win at least the liberty of a servant girl. DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR MISS DIX—Please tell me how to correct my 16-year-old daughter, who has lovely manners with every one but me. When I scold her, or demand respect from her she goes off pouting and will not speak to me for a week at a time. She is headstrong, and thinks that she is always correct about everything. What can I do to stop this pouting habit? ANXIOUS MOTHER.

ANSWER: The Mexicans have a proverb which says, "Stranger's bread makes polite children" and the best thing you can do if you can afford it is to send your daughter off to some good, strict boarding school, where she will be forced to behave herself.

I am a great advocate of sending a girl away from home to school when she is about 15 years old, because it bridges over the hobbledehoy stage when she is neither a child nor a woman, and when there is a continual conflict between her and her mother, because mother persists in treating her as if she were a baby, while she considers herself the embodiment of all human wisdom and experience.

The result is that they are in a perpetual quarrel in which only too often the girl is entirely alienated from her mother, and is driven by opposition into doing foolish things. But if she can be away from home during this trying transition period, the daily clash over clothes and beaux and what sixteen may do and may not do, is avoided, and by the time the girl is through school, mother has adjusted herself to the thought of Susie being grown, and having a right to her own point of view.

We spoil our girls. We make them of too much importance in the family, and the inevitable result is that they are cocky, and think that they have a right to rule the household, and that they know it all. Nothing knocks this conceit out of them so quickly as to be put where they are just one of a number, and their opinions are not considered.

If you cannot send your girl off to school, the best way to cure her of her pouting is just to tell her that you won't stand for it, and that every time she has a pouting spell she will have to pay for it by being denied something that she wants. DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR MISS DIX—I have a son 15 years old who spends all his money on pigeons. He never saves a cent. He raises pigeons and sells and buys them, and I can't do a thing with him about them. In other ways he is a good boy. T. A. B.

ANSWER: Good gracious, T. A. B., were you never a boy yourself?

Didn't you ever have the pigeon mania? It is a complaint as incident to boyhood as the measles. You have to go through with it to be a regular boy. If that is all the complaint you have against your son, you are a lucky father.

You should be thankful that he has such an innocent and wholesome diversion, instead of spending his time running the streets with a gang of hoodlums. Let me tell you that a pigeon is a mighty innocent companion, and one that he will get far less harm from than he would getting some little chickens with bobbed hair and rolled stockings and too much knowledge of the world.

It is pitiful to think how many fathers alienate their boys by always knocking their little fads, instead of chumming up with them and taking an interest in the things their boys are interested in.

Believe me, in not becoming a pigeon fancier yourself you are losing a great opportunity to get close to your boy. DOROTHY DIX.

News Notes From Movie Land

By DAISY DEAN.

WHEN Vera Steadman returned recently from a European trip with her small daughter, Marie, rumors of her engagement were current. Those who know say she will soon wed Lucien DeMotte, a wealthy Frenchman. When little Marie was born two years ago, Miss Steadman, who was then playing in Christie comedies, was known as the "youngest movie mother in Hollywood."

At last the perfect King of Spain has been found, and he's an Italian. Director Monta Bell searched for days to locate someone in Hollywood who resembled the features of the Spanish ruler. Mario Castillo, bearing of the quest, donned makeup and the illusion proved complete under the eye of the camera. Alfonso appears in some of the scenes of "The Corsairs."

Betty Compton has finished her role in "The Palace of Pleasure" and gone to Europe with her husband, James Cruise, on their second honeymoon.

Doug and Mary have set the record of February as a tentative date for their European trip. They are planning to go to Genoa, St. Moritz, Spain, Paris, London, Germany, Russia, Siberia, Japan and possibly return by way of India. It is possible that they may make a picture or two while abroad.

Tim Holt, the five-year-old son of Jack, played the part of a hard-riding, fast-shooting buckaroo in "The Enchanted Hill." He shared his dad's dressing room during the making of the picture. Other members of the cast are George Bancroft, Florence Eldor, Norma Terry, Mary Brian and Richard Arlen.

Donald Keith's long term contract with Ben Schulberg has been taken over by Paramount. Keith, who was christened Francis Feenay, has a part in "Dancing Mothers" as the juvenile lead opposite Clara Bow.

Sally O'Neil has been assigned another featured role in "The Auction Block," a Hobart Henley production. She plays the part of a small town flirt who has all but one man at her feet and isn't content until she has him.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

THE TWINS AND THE RUSSIAN PEASANTS.

Although the boy in the picture begged Nancy and Nick to stay longer and see all his treasures, they knew that Mister Blue Cap would be waiting for them.

"Good-bye!" said the Twins. "We really must be going. You have been very kind."

"Good-bye," said Mister Blue Cap, suddenly popping up from behind the white-wash bucket where he had been hiding.

The eyes of the two boys nearly popped out of their heads with surprise, when they saw such a funny little fellow, all cap and buttons and not any bigger than a rabbit.

They were still staring when their visitors left.

Mister Blue Cap and the Twins walked right out of the picture, then, and down the steps into the picture gallery. When the little fairy man turned to lock the glass door, there was the boy at his work again, painting the fence. His brother had gone away. And wonder of wonders! The fence was no further along, as far as the white-washing went, than it had been when they arrived.

As for the boy, he appeared not to notice them at all. And neither he did, I suppose! For how can anyone see when his back is turned!

"Come on, children," said Mister Blue Cap briskly. "All aboard for the next place!"

Right next to the picture of the boy, hung a painting called, "The Fair."

"Oh, he!" cried Nick when he spied

"Never A Cent In Repairs"

Mr. Mitchell, the foreman of the contractors who built the Admiral Beatty, has had a Moffat Electric Range home for six years. As an Engineer he urged Mr. C. F. Sanford, K. C., to get a Moffat by all means, pointing out its various superiorities and adding that in six years it has never needed a copper of expenditure.

$6 Below Gas

Mr. Sanford, it is remembered, saved over $6 a month by changing from a Gas Stove to a Moffat Electric. The Moffat is the only make with a liquid thermometer that warns you in time how high the heat is—the only make with equalized oven heat, ensuring even cooking top, bottom, middle, and all over the meat, cake or pie. The tightest and strongest oven of all, easiest on current. Roasts 3 hours on retained heat. The only Electric also with choice of every type of pot burner—take your pick if you like, here they all are—but you are advised to prefer the open element as quicker, needs less current and therefore lasts longer, costing less also in meter readings.

For Christmas

Moffats cost no more nor no less than others—all Electrics are low priced—all Electrics make cooking pure play—all Electrics save time and cleaning up—all Electrics cook for a tiny part of the cost of coal or gas. But the Moffat stands alone in completeness of virtues.

For a few dollars a month you own a real Range—one that saves hundreds in a few short years. It's installed absolutely free, has a room warming auxiliary, looks always like a picture and is a brilliant idea for Christmas. See all models tonight at

CANADA CATTLE CARGOES MAKE BIG INCREASES

169 Boat Loads Shipped Through Ports Up to December 10

24,000 HEAD PASS THROUGH SAINT JOHN

Further Expansion of Trade Through This Important Outlet Looked For

OTTAWA, Dec. 16—A remarkable increase in the sales of Canadian cattle to the United Kingdom during the present year and "a further expansion of trade through this important outlet," mark an encouraging statement on the 1925 business issued today by the Federal Department of Agriculture. Up to December 10 a total of 108,800 head of cattle, or over 10 per cent. of Canada's public sale of commercial cattle, were shipped to the United Kingdom, as compared with 78,600 and 55,400 head for the same periods in 1924 and 1923 respectively.

169 BOAT LOADS

Records of the Dominion Livestock branch show that up to December 10 a total of 169 boat loads of Canadian cattle were shipped from the various Canadian Atlantic ports and 17 boat loads by Boston and Portland Eastern Canadian ports have all received their share. Montreal handled 50,000 head; Saint John 24,000; Quebec 6,700, and Halifax 6,400. In addition 4,500 head went through Boston, and 6,900 through Portland.

SIGNING OF LOCARNO PACT PICTURED

Here is a photograph of a scene that will go down in history. It portrays the culmination of one of the greatest moves for peace in the history of modern Europe. It shows the signing of the Locarno agreement in the gold room of the foreign office at London. This picture records the actual signing by Premier Bataillon on behalf of Great Britain. Grouped around him are plenipotentiaries of Germany, Belgium, France, Italy, Poland and Czechoslovakia, about to sign the piece of paper that pledges their nations to mutual trust and peace.

of good quality stock the edge in practically every market. "Not since 1919 has the industry enjoyed as even and remunerative markets as ruled during the year, and not in many years has the crop and feed situation been so effective in maintaining equilibrium as between supply and demand on the autumn markets as during the past 12 months. "Sentiment in Great Britain leans toward a continuation of good prices in the new year, and, under normal conditions, a further expansion of trade through this important outlet should occur from observations made in the British Isles in the past market season by officers of the Department Canadian Exporters have established excellent connections in both departments of trade—fat and stores—thus providing reasonable assurance of a steady movement and the disposal of the stock to the best advantage. "A vital requisite to the further expansion beyond the 1925 volume is the maintenance of high quality in both classes of stock. As exports increased during the past year there was a noticeable, if slight, decline in the quality of the stock moved. Such a situation can only be offset by the raising of better calves and a larger output of grain-fed stock." "A FINE OLD CUSTOM. In olden days there was a fine Christmas custom of giving dear old

FINDS NO CRIME IN VANISHING OF PILOT

Coroner Reports—Presumption Now is Lachance Was Drowned

QUEBEC, Dec. 16—The death of Pilot Jules LaChance, who presumably lost his life while in charge of the British freighter Alfredale, when the ship went aground at Isle Aux Chables on her way to Saint John, was not due to any crime, according to a report forwarded to the Attorney-General by Coroner Jolicoeur, who was delegated by Charles Lanctot, K. C., Assistant Attorney-General, to investigate the disappearance of LaChance. This report was based on the investigation made by the coroner. With the crime possibly disposed of, it is now presumed that LaChance was drowned. Captain Butcher, master of the Alfredale, in his evidence yesterday, said that at the time of the stranding, he was with Pilot LaChance, who was in charge. When the grounding was realized, both rushed down stairs to ascertain further what had occurred, and they were both astonished to find out where the ship was. Some time after that the disappearance of Pilot LaChance was noticed.

Judge Would Drop Assuming Innocence

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Dec. 12—Abandonment of the assumption that the criminal is innocent until he has been proven guilty was urged by Judge Willis M. Ross of Syracuse in a speech today before the Joint Legislative Committee on co-ordination of civil and criminal practices. A presumption of guilt should be allowed when the defendant refused to testify, he declared, and district attorneys should be permitted to call the jury's attention to it.

MEIGHEN, PREMIER WILL SIT NEARER CENTER OF HOUSE

Change Agreed to so M.P.'s Can Better Hear Them Speaking

BIG CONSERVATIVES PUT IN FRONT ROW

Progressive Seats Likely to Be on Government Side in Chamber

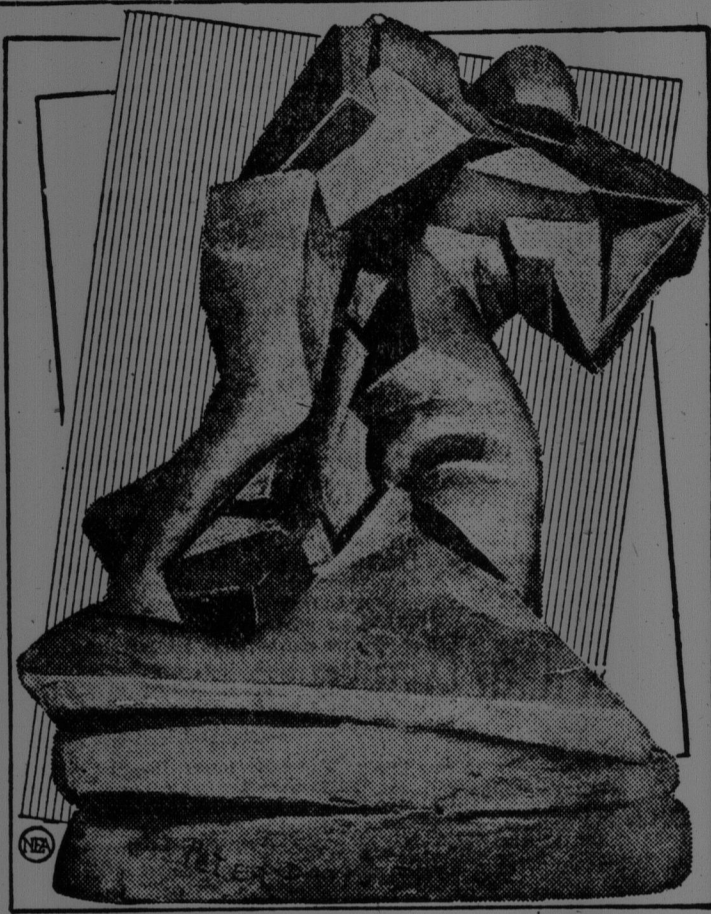

OTTAWA, Dec. 16.—The 15th parliament which will convene next month will witness a change in the location of the seats in the House of the Prime Minister and Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, Conservative leader. The seat for the Prime Minister will be located two seats nearer the centre of the chamber, with opposing seats on the opposition side.

This arrangement was agreed to at a conference this afternoon between W. A. Boyd, Chief Conservative Whip, F. P. Casgrain, Acting Chief Liberal Whip, and Lt.-Col. H. W. Bowie, Sergeant-at-Arms. The change in the seating accommodations for the government and opposition leaders will permit all the members in the chamber to hear them in future to better advantage.

PROGRESSIVE SEATS

The Progressives, in all probability, will sit on the government side of the House, further removed from the Speaker's chair.

"THE ETERNAL TRIANGLE"

This statue, so we are assured, represents "The Eternal Triangle." It is the work of Peter David Edstrom, Los Angeles sculptor.

To date, no intimation in respect to the location desired by the "Ginger Group" has been received, but there appears some likelihood that they may sit near their former seats on the Opposition side.

The return to parliament of a number of former Conservative cabinet ministers is being recognized by the Conservative party by placing them in the front benches on that side of the chamber. Conservative parliamentarians who will occupy front seats on the Opposition side with their leader will include Hon. R. J. Manion, Hon.

BOOTLEGGER SAID TO BE SIKI SLAYER

Sought by New York Police on Story Told Them by Fighter's Widow

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—An obscure bootlegger, seeking blood payment for a small debt, is sought today as the man who shot "Battling Siki" yesterday, ending the garish career of the Senegalese "wild man" of the prize ring.

Police seek a bootlegger as his murderer because Mrs. Louis Phal, Siki's wife, told them her husband was threatened by a man trying to collect a $20 liquor debt a few days ago.

Those of the ring and underworld who had followed Siki's exploits were not surprised when his body was found face down in a gutter in Hell's Kitchen, for he had been in many brawls there.

He was known as a terror—outside the ring—long before he came to this country. He used to march the streets of Paris in a frock coat and silk hat, a monkey perched on his shoulder and trailing leashed lion cub behind.

That was after he rose from obscurity to win the light heavyweight crown from Georges Carpentier and lost it by beating all the superstitious and going to Dublin to fight Mike McTigue on St. Patrick's Day.

Then he came to this country, boasted he was the "only fighter who could train on wine, fought a few unsuccessful fights; met his young mulatto wife in Memphis and married her and came to New York and Hell's Kitchen to build up a reputation as a sort of a wild young street demon.

ALBERTIAN TELLS STAND

SASKATOON, Dec. 16.—"Alberta Progressive (Farmer) members of parliament look upon themselves as an economic unit and their support in the House will be given on a legislative basis. They will give no blanket support to any group or groups," said C. H. Spencer, M. P. in-elect for Battle River, Alta., in an interview here today.

TO SELL SUPPORT

"The Progressive party will sell its support in the best interests of the West. What legislation it can secure in the interests of the West is the fundamental question that will decide its actions. Both of the old parties look alike to the Progressives, and the two matters of paramount interest at the present time are the Hudson Bay Railway and a rural credit system," declared Milton M. Campbell, M. P. in-elect for MacKenzie, Sask., who was also here today.

Both, who were members of the "Ginger Group" in the last House, expressed the opinion that the "Ginger Group" which had functioned as a wing of the Progressive party, had accomplished what was then required of it, and would probably not be seen as a group in the next House.

RAMSAY MACDONALD. A good deal of political interest has been aroused by Ramsay MacDonald's remarkable conversion to Liberals at Northampton.

TOUGH AND GO. Though the secret has been unusually well kept, there was an acute crisis in the Labor party over last week's Locarno debate.

Middle-Aged Woman Willed Fortune by Unknown Admirer

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 17.—Marie Cheatham Kistner, Blinnock, Mo., may become heiress to the $100,000 fortune of a mysterious northern woodsman whose name she does not know.

DODGING THE TAX MAN. It sounds almost too good to be true, this in post-war Britain in this over-taxed epoch of the twentieth century.

INDIGNANT SPORTSMEN. Rather a serious turn has been given to the controversy aroused by the criticism of our last Australian cricket team by the Chairman of the Football Association.

OTTO FOR HUNGARY? Not only in Hungary, where a proclamation in favor of Otto, son of the late Emperor Carl, is said to be imminent.

SMOOTHING OUT THE BAY. Perhaps the most interesting feature of the shipping exhibition from the point of view of visitors who are not seafarers, but landlubbers, is the pyroscopic device for stabilizing sea-going vessels.

H. R. H. AND IRELAND. It is well enough understood that over in Belfast it was hoped that the Prince of Wales might lay the foundation-stone of the new Government of Ireland.

RUSSIAN BOOT VOGUE. Something tells me, as the ladies say, that the Russian boot vogue may not be such a permanency as some fashion designers have made them.

PROGRESS OF CANADA TOLD

Dominion Participation in Affairs of Pan-American Congress Pledged

Trade of Country Increased 400 Per Cent. in Last Twenty Years

NEW YORK, Dec. 16—Canadian participation in Pan-American affairs was promised the Pan-American Congress tonight by Frederick Hudd, Canadian Trade Commissioner, in New York and delegate to the congress in an address which he had been authorized by telegram to make in behalf of his government.

The present congress is the first ever attended by Canadian representatives.

Mr. Hudd said the Dominion has made phenomenal progress. "Although she has one-twelfth of the population of the United States, Canada does nearly one-fourth as much trade with the world and she occupies second place among the world's greatest per capita exporters. In twenty years the population of Canada has increased 65 per cent, her trade 400 per cent, her crop production 400 per cent, and the capital of her manufacturing industries 70 per cent. Canada's credit was never better than it is today, which is an evidence of the estimate which the outside world places upon the character of Canadians.

LATIN INVESTMENTS.

"Canadian capital invested in Central and South America is considerable and Canada's trade with the United States and the countries of Central and South America is steadily growing. "Canada will, therefore, continue to play an increasingly important part in the development and prosperity of the Western Hemisphere." Canada believes in co-operation with all the countries on this continent. She earnestly seeks good will and wishes to work with them in the interests of mutual prosperity.

C. A. S. Howard, of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, said: "What we are working for is the 'get together' idea, the man to man spirit that brings men together and keeps them together. The big question is 'can it be done among nations as among men?' It does work and it has been working successfully for some time. This is a pretty broad statement to make, but in looking back over the years it seems to me that the United States and Canada with their invisible borderline have made it a go."

OTTAWA SEES BID FOR MODUS VIVENDI

Thinks Despatch U.S. Effort to Regain Fishermen's Privileges

Officials of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, Ottawa, are somewhat mystified by a despatch which appeared recently in at least one Canadian newspaper and which was evidently authorized by high officials of the United States Government and came from Washington, says a special despatch to The Telegraph-Journal.

It was to the effect that the government there was awaiting a reply from the Dominion Government to a request for its attitude toward a change in the conditions imposed upon United States fishermen calling at Canadian ocean ports. It is interpreted in Ottawa as a move toward a restoration of the so called modus vivendi. Alexander Johnston, Deputy Minister of Marine and Fisheries, states that so far no communication has been received from Washington on this matter.
