FAIR OF NATIONS
MADE A GREAT HIT.

1,200 Delighted People Attended it Yesterday.

Attractive Opening and Highly Successful Evening—Band Music and Speeches Contribute to General Pleasure

The great Fair of Nations opened yesterday afternoon and on the floors of St. Andrew's rink there intermingled the peoples of all lands and climes. The fair is without doubt the best of its kind ever seen in the city and is a great credit to the ladies and assistants who have thus succeeded, after much labor, in making the undertaking a success.
The visitors began to arrive soon after the opening and by six o'clock a large crowd was already at hand the room for an hour or so proving quite inadequate to seat those wishing supper so that there was a regular jam at the entrance. As there was only one mode of entry and exit, those leaving the room had considerable difficulty in passing through the waiting crowd. While the crowd was at its greatest Mayor White bravely backed his way out at the head of a force of Jap Gelsa girls, whom his Worship and Mrs. White had entertained at supper. The supper menu was excellent and the young ladies assistants proved efficient waitresses.

GUARDING ROOSEVELT
FROM MOSQUITOES.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Should President Roosevelt be bitten by a mosquito while in New Orleans, or anywhere else in the south, he will be subjected to the surgeon's knife. It was said here that this would be the only thing that could be done in an emergency, and while every precaution is taken to keep the mosquitoes away from the President, there are chances that he may be stung. If this happens drastic measures will be taken and the surgeons will simply cut out the flesh around the place where the mosquito inserts his stinger.

Rear Adl. Rixey, surgeon-general of the navy, will accompany the President on the southern trip and will be with him throughout the journey. Dr. Rixey will cooperate with the federal and local health authorities throughout the journey to afford every protection for the President. When in New Orleans the President will be exposed for a time while he is riding through the streets. He will be in an open carriage during the parade or drive, but this will occur in the daytime and the danger of being bitten by a mosquito is very small. In his hotel the rooms of the President will be carefully screened and fumigated by the health authorities. Dr. Rixey and the health authorities in New Orleans will carefully inspect the rooms before the President enters them. The windows will be closed and every precaution will be taken to prevent the insects from entering the room while the train is in the yellow fever zone.

WIDOW SUE FOR LATE
HUSBAND'S BREACH OF PROMISE.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Monday, Miss Agnes Wagner, of New York city, in press in the United States court in Scranton this week a suit for $50,000 damages against the widow of a man who she alleges, promised to marry her. The widow is Mrs. Elizabeth Funk, of Lebanon, Pa., whose husband, J. Marshall Funk, died in July, 1903, making her executrix.
Miss Wagner, a graduate of the New York School of Art, avers that for several years previous to his death Funk had been under promise to marry her, despite the fact that he had been married for ten years, which fact, she alleges, she did not discover until 1899. She had nearly a hundred letters written to her by Funk, which are to be presented in evidence.

MIKADO REPORTS TO GODS;
ARMY RE-ORGANIZATION.

TOKIO, Oct. 17.—The official Gazette, in an extra issue today, announces that the Emperor will proceed to the Temple of Ise to report the conclusion of peace with Russia. The date of his journey has not yet been fixed. A personal visit of the Emperor to this temple is a rare event.

Thirty-three foreign military attaches who were with the Manchurian army were received in formal audience by the Emperor today and were afterwards guests at luncheon. Among them were General Burnett, of the British army, and General MacArthur, of the American army. It is believed that the fourteenth and sixteenth divisions of guards will be sent to the Liao Tung peninsula and the 19th and 15th divisions to Korea. A re-organization of the army in corps basis instead of divisions is being strongly advocated.

QUOT CHALLENGE ACCEPTED.
The Algerines Quot Club accepted the challenge of the Unknown which appeared in the Star last evening. The game to take place on the morning of Thanksgiving day.

BANK FAILURE REVEALS
GRAFT IN HIGH CIRCLES.

Prominent U. S. Politicians Involved in Disclosure of Plot to Use State Funds—Guilty Bank Official Suicides.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 19.—The investigation of the affairs of the Enterprise National Bank of Allegheny City, yesterday afternoon by the committee of the currency, following the sensational disclosure of the bank's failure, which he was responsible. The supposition is that he was unable to accomplish this and fearing the consequences, took his life.
The cashier was told by the directors that he would have to meet the paper obligations of the institution negotiated through him and he promised to insure the bank against all losses for which he was responsible. The supposition is that he was unable to accomplish this and fearing the consequences, took his life.
Although the bank directors acknowledge having only $500,000 of the state funds, the assertion was made by one of the bank officials that the Enterprise had more than $1,000,000 of state money on deposit before the extensive loans were made.
According to this official, all this money is insured by bonds of the Mercantile Trust Company, of Pittsburgh and the United States Fidelity and Trust, of Baltimore.
Clark was associated, as treasurer, with former state senator W. H. Andrews and Francis J. Torrance, who were borrowers of the bank in the Santa Fe Central Railway Company, incorporated in New Mexico in 1897. The stock of the corporation has never been marketed. This road was built by Andrews. Clark was also an investor in New Mexico silver mining stocks, according to Mr. Gwynner. Andrews is a brother of Wesley R. Andrews, senator for Penrose's private secretary and chairman of the Republican state committee.

BURGLAR CAPTURED
BY PLUCKY WOMAN.

Fake "Gas Man" Who Has Been Prying Upon New York Householders Went Into Wrong House This Time

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—By the coolness and courage of Mrs. Ray Oppenheimer and Mrs. J. Solomon, both of No. 60 West 128th street, Charles Mitchell, whom the police believe to be the "gas man" burglar who has been prying upon Harlem householders for months, is a prisoner.
Mrs. Oppenheimer lives on the third floor of the apartment house, and Mrs. Solomon lives across the hall. Mrs. Oppenheimer went shopping yesterday and returned at three o'clock. She was surprised and found the door open. She hurried into the apartment and found a strange man in her dining room. To her demand as to what he was doing there he returned coolly: "Don't be alarmed, I'm only the gas man."

"If you are how did you get in here?" demanded the woman.
Instead of answering Mitchell tried to brush past her. She grasped his coat tails and screamed. The man struck at her with his fist and dragged her into the hall, where he broke away to run into the arms of Mrs. Solomon. Mrs. Solomon made a grasp for his throat and caught his collar, holding him with all her strength, also screaming. She was thrown around and finally jammed against the wall, where she founding this the man gave up and was made a prisoner by Policemen. In the station twelve pawn tickets, many articles of jewelry, two gold watches and a cigar cutter were found in his pockets. Mrs. Oppenheimer identified the "gas man" and several other articles. The man said he lived in the Delaware Hotel, Hoboken.

LOOKING FOR FORGER IN N. B.

Sgt. Cox of St. John's, N.B., a member of the island detective force, is in the province endeavoring to locate a forger who skipped from St. John's a short time ago.
Rose was in the employ of one of the leading export firms of Newfoundland and was a trusted employee. Some time ago a series of forgeries were committed in St. John's, by which a large sum of money was obtained. The orders were on firms in the city and western ports, and were so cleverly executed that detection did not follow for some time.
Rose is sought for parts unknown and the police are trying to locate him. It is thought he came through this city.
The steamer Almora, of the Donaldson line, sailed for Baltimore and Glasgow at two o'clock this afternoon.

PERJURY ARRESTS
ARE EXPECTED.

As Result of Evidence at Insurance Enquiry.

Further Disclosures Will Come Today—President McCurdy Again on the Stand This Morning.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The possibility of an arrest for perjury on the evidence given before the legislative insurance investigation committee increased the interest in the district session of that committee.
Expectation of an arrest grew out of the action of the committee yesterday when it summoned District Attorney Hand at the conclusion of the testimony of George F. Plunkitt, who had declared that he did not sign a voucher for $91 for legal expenses to which his name was attached. The voucher had been paid by the Mutual Life Insurance Company. This evidence was followed by testimony showing that other vouchers for legal expenses had been used to collect funds from the Mutual Life Insurance Company for the maintenance of a house at Albany, where the Mutual Life Insurance Company's agent was quartered and where members of the legislative insurance committee were entertained. Further disclosures in this line were anticipated today.
When the hearing was resumed today Richard A. McCurdy, President of the Mutual Life Insurance Co., was recalled to resume his testimony as to the connection of the Mutual Life Insurance Company with the Trust Companies which was being investigated when the company adjourned yesterday.

BRITISH OFFICERS WILL BE HELD
TILL BANDIT'S BROTHER IS FREE

MADRID, Oct. 18.—The Governor has decided that the receipt of the Spanish minister at Tangier to procure the release of Valiente, the brigand chief of the province will be necessary before the release of the two British officers held by the bandits of the Andalus tribe under a brother of Valiente. The release of Valiente was the condition demanded by the bandits, but the consent of the Spanish Government was necessary before further steps could be taken by the Moroccan Government.

GIRLS ASSAULTED
IN ROCKWOOD PARK.

Recent Dastardly Attempts of Unknown Man.

Young Lady Attacked Yesterday, But by Screams and Struggles Forced Assailant to Desist.

In spite of the extra precautions taken to keep Rockwood Park orderly and decent it appears that young women of respectable families and who are respectable themselves are not always safe in walking about this resort without an escort.
Within the last few days young women of unquestionable character have been assaulted in the park. It appears that there is only one miscreant who is responsible for the assaults.
The last assault was made yesterday afternoon when a young lady while walking through the park was taken hold of by a strange man who grasping her about the throat tried to throw her to the ground and assault her. Her screams caused her assailant to disappear in the bushes before he managed to accomplish his purpose.
The young woman hastened home and reported the affair and it is stated to the Star that a complaint will be made to the police who will be given a description of the park's latest villain, who if seen will be arrested and severely dealt with.

CORONER'S VERDICT IN INFANTICIDE CASE.

The Body Found Was Mrs. Briggs' Child and Came to Its Death From Neglect.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Oct. 19.—The coroner's inquest on the infanticide case closed at 9:45 p. m. and after two and a half hours deliberation returned the following verdict at 12:15 o'clock.
—So far as may be judged from such evidence and particulars given by the witnesses examined, in our opinion Mrs. Susan Briggs is the mother of the female infant found in the dump behind city hall.

—The infant came to its death by not having proper attention and care during and after birth.
—It came to its death in the upper part of the tenement house occupied by her (Mrs. Briggs), on York street, Fredericton.
During the inquest, which opened on the 10th inst., fourteen witnesses were examined and four sessions were held. Tomorrow morning Mrs. Briggs is to appear before Col. Marsh in the police court.

AUSTRALIA ENDORSES
IRISH HOME RULE.

MELBOURNE, Victoria, Oct. 19.—The federal council of representatives today adopted by 33 to 21 votes a motion to petition King Edward to grant home rule to Ireland. This success of the home rulers is attributed in a large measure to Wm. Redmond's recent campaign in Australia. The motion was strongly debated, and the labor party and liberals supported the home rulers.
The senate by a vote of 16 to 11, adopted a motion to the effect that home rule should be granted to Ireland.

NAVAL OFFICER WEDS HALIFAX GIRL

(Special to the Star.)
HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 18.—The marriage of George Edward Colledge, R. N., H. M. S. Plauris, and Jessie E. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reynolds, took place at St. Luke's Cathedral this morning. The groom's ship is now stationed in South Africa. The bride and groom left after the ceremony for Montreal en route for England.

AFTER MURDERED FATHER'S PROPERTY

MIDDLETON, N. Y., Oct. 19.—George E. Olney, a son of Willis Olney, one of the victims of the mysterious tragedy at the Olney farm, arrived here yesterday to claim a share of his father's estate. He left here years ago, and had been given up by the family as dead. He said he had been working in the coal mines of Pennsylvania.

LITTLE GIRL SHOT BY HER BROTHER.

Terrible Accident at Black's Harbor—Child Crisped for Life and Perhaps Fatally Injured

What may yet prove a fatal shooting accident occurred at Black's Harbor, near St. George, on Saturday last. The particulars to hand are somewhat meagre, but it is known that the eight-year-old daughter of Edmund Wallace has been disfigured for life by the accidental discharge of an old shot gun in the hands of her little brother. The gun was a .30-06 rifle, and had been turned into a shot gun. There was a shell in it loaded with large shot. The little girl, who was wounded, was playing with another sister in the house when the gun in the hands of her brother was accidentally discharged. Two shots penetrated the child's breast and her right wrist was so mutilated that Dr. Alexander found it necessary to amputate the hand. It is hoped that further amputation will not be required, though she may have to lose her entire arm.

HARKINS COMPANY OPENS TONIGHT.

The W. S. Harkins Company arrived in the city on the American boat yesterday afternoon, after a splendid trip from Boston, and tonight will appear at the Opera House. While most of the members of the company are new to St. John theatre-goers, there are two who have played here before—Miss Sue Van Duser and Miss Ethel Davis. Both these ladies are sure to get a warm reception this evening. Miss Van Duser was with Mr. Harkins last season, and from her first appearance succeeded in winning the hearts of her audience. Adapted to almost any part, she never fails to please, and although her visit was somewhat limited she became exceedingly popular. Miss Davis, it will be remembered, appeared in Sweet Clover, that beautiful little pastoral play that makes one feel better for weeks after he has seen it. She very soon won for herself the praise of even the most sanguine critics, not only in this city, but in artistic Halifax and many other places where the piece was presented.

CHARLES APPLEBY JUDGE OF PROBATES

FREDERICTON, N. B., Oct. 18.—Today's Royal Gazette contains the following: Charles Appleby, to be judge of probates in the county of Carleton Place, deceased, for the county of Carleton.

COUNCILLORS' ELECTION.

RICHMOND, N. B., Oct. 18.—The election of councillors in this parish yesterday resulted in the return of Pascal Hebert and Peter L. Richard. The vote stood: Pascal Hebert, 296; Peter L. Richard, 184; Philip Woods, 158; John Fraser, 103. Roy Donnelly has been transferred from the Royal Bank of Canada at Fredericton to the head office at Halifax. A barkentine went over the bar on Tuesday to fetch her load outside.

NELSON'S CENTENARY IN LONDON

How the Navy League Will Celebrate the 100th Anniversary of Trafalgar and Nelson's Death.

(London Daily Telegraph.) Everything is now complete in the programme arranged by the Navy League for the celebration of the Nelson centenary in London on the 21st inst. At eight o'clock that morning the principal work in connection with the decoration of the Nelson column in Trafalgar square will be finished. The national flag will be hoisted at the four corners. The column will be entwined with foliage, and more than usual prominence will be given to wreaths in memory of the Frenchmen and Spaniards who fell in the battle of Trafalgar, and of the friendly relations now existing between England and France and Spain. Tributes in honor of Nelson and members of the Navy League will have an opportunity of passing in the procession in front of the Nelson column. At two o'clock in the afternoon a space in front of the north side of the column will be cleared and maintained for those in possession of special tickets. There will be sung the prelude to the "Death of Nelson."

Over Nelson's tomb with silent grief oppressed, Britannia mourns a hero now at rest. But whose bright laurels rest on shall fade with years. Whose leaves, whose leaves are watered by a nation's tears.

Ensigns on the column will be lowered to half-mast at half-past two, and the Right Rev. Bishop Welton will offer prayer. Then Alexander Watson will recite Kipling's "Recessional," and as the bugles of the Queen's Westminster Volunteers play the reveille the ensigns will be hoisted. Robert Ellison, who was entrusted with singing the anthem in Westminster Abbey on the occasion of the Queen's Jubilee, in 1897, will lead off with two verses of the National Anthem, accompanied by a military band, and it is hoped the people will join in the singing of the hymn.

BANK INSOLVENT; CASHIER SUICIDES.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 18.—After an investigation of the books of the Enterprise National Bank of Allegheny, which disclosed that the bank was insolvent, T. Lee Clark, cashier of the bank, was found to have committed suicide by shooting himself through the head. He lingered until 2.30 this afternoon, when death came.

MINISTERIAL CHANGES.

MONCTON, N. B., Oct. 18.—Rev. J. McConnell, having accepted a call to the Fredericton church, the official board of the Central Methodist church here, has tendered a call to Rev. Jas. Strothard of Chatham, who signified his acceptance, subject to the action of the conference.

WINNIPEG MEMBER MAY RESIGN.

OTTAWA, Oct. 18.—The report from Winnipeg, Man., that David W. Holt, M. P., is to resign, is generally believed here, and it is thought to be a part of an arrangement which has been in the tapis for some time. The term of office of Sir David McMillan as lieutenant governor of Manitoba closed last Sunday, and it is quite on the cards that Sifton will succeed. It is customary to provide for a retiring lieutenant governor in some way, and Holt's resignation would enable the liberal party to offer to McMillan the nomination for Winnipeg.

EMMERSON GOING WEST.

OTTAWA, Oct. 18.—Hon. H. R. Emmerson and Mr. Butler, his deputy, left for Salt Lake City, Utah, to inspect the canal. From Salt Lake City, Mr. Emmerson may go on to Manitoba, but is not quite decided whether he will proceed to the coast at present. The contract has been awarded to Messrs. Sullivan and Langdon of Kingston, for the proposed addition to the Toronto armory, to cost $225,000.

COUNT WITTE TO BECOME PREMIER.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 18.—According to the government's programme adopted at the recent meeting at Petrograd, Count Witte will become premier with the portfolio of minister of the interior. A manifesto will be issued granting freedom of speech, of the press and the rights of assembly. The Duma will be left to elaborate a constitution and decide the nationality question. If this programme proves unsatisfactory, the country will be put in a state of siege. Meanwhile the revolutionists have decided to await developments. The Zemstovists do not intend to restore order. The Tsar is showing characteristic hesitancy, while the country is fairly aflame. Fresh disorders are reported at Kiev and Ljuba. The police are inactive, apparently with the intention of throwing discredit on the revolutionists. General Linovitch's army may remain on the Manchurian border to colonize the country. It is planned to give allotments of land and subsidies to the men to stay at settling. The Turk and Cuban Cosacs are to be mobilized and sent to reinforce the trans-Caucasian regions on the Asian frontier, where grave events are expected.

FUNERAL OF SIR HENRY IRVING.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—The casket containing the ashes of Sir Henry Irving is now at the residence of Baroness Burdett-Coutts in Stratton street, Piccadilly, where the public tomorrow will be given an opportunity to pay their respects. Later in the day the casket will be conveyed to Westminster Abbey, where it will be received by the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Chamberlain, Earl of Aberdeen, Lord Tennyson, Lord Bunsford, Sir Alexander Muir-MacKenzie, Lord Bunsford, Sir Lawrence Alma-Tadema, Sir James Dewar, Arthur Wing Pinero, Mr. Burdett-Coutts, Mr. P. F. Sir Charles Wyndham, John Hare, George Alexander and Forbes Robertson.

FALL RIVER WORKMEN GET RAISE OF PAY.

New Schedule Will Go Into Effect Next Week—Amounts to Increase of Twelve Per Cent.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Oct. 18.—The cotton mill operatives in Fall River as a whole have not reached a final decision as to which plan they prefer—that of the Manufacturers' Association or the one followed by M. C. D. Borden, owner of the Fall River Iron Works, who today announced that wages would be restored on Monday next to a level of those which prevailed on January 23, when a cut down of 15 per cent. was made to meet a similar reduction in other mills in 1904. The Association yesterday announced a direct advance of 5 per cent. with a profit-sharing plan based on the margin of profit, which at this time would bring the rate to 12 per cent. The officers of the Textile unions are in New York attending the annual convention of the United Textile Workers of America and there is no one authorized to speak for the unions. Dispatches from the Association indicate that President John Golden and the other officers of the Textile workers are not enthusiastic over the announcement of the profit sharing plan. President Golden does not think the operatives will be wholly satisfied with the plan, but so far as can be learned it will go into effect next week, although a request will probably be made by the Textile Council for a conference with the manufacturers. The council has no authority to accept the offer of the Association and it is possible the entire matter will be laid before the various unions for an expression of opinion. It is thought that no meeting of the council can be arranged before Saturday, unless it is held in New York. The operatives individually are considering the profit sharing proposition and many are of the opinion that its value cannot be determined until it is tried. Most of them appear to favor a full restoration and have a profit sharing arrangement agreed upon at conferences between their representatives and the manufacturers. The six months strike of 1904-5, the mill hands are in no position to stop work and they expect a general strike is not anticipated. When the new scale goes into effect here it is expected several strikes in this state and three in New Hampshire will make an advance in the pay of their operatives.

ANNUAL MEETING OF DOMINION STEEL CO.

MONTEAL, Oct. 18.—The annual meeting of the Dominion Iron and Steel Co., held today, was marked by some interesting announcements. The most important among the latter were those dealing with the resignation of Frederick Nichols as vice-president of the company and the earnings of the company for the fourth month since the end of the company's fiscal year, May 24. Mr. Plummer stated that for the four months up to October 1st the earnings of the company had totalled $73,000 a month while the interest charges had been $56,000 a month. This left between $17,000 and $17,000 a month to be applied to the sinking fund or such other purposes as the directors might decide. The later profits, he added, had been better than the earlier. The indications were that the company would make a better showing still in the next few months.

Graham Fraser, who is retiring as the director of works, made a few remarks regarding the steel rail and rod mills, after a vote of thanks had been extended to him. Regarding the rail mill, he stated it would soon be turning out 900 to 1,000 tons per day. The output of the open hearth plant had shown an increase of 27 per cent for the past five months, as compared with the first four months of the year. The rail mill was showing an average output of 250 tons a day. He considered the various plants were now running well, and with coal well on the claims which he has allowed. The board of directors was re-elected with the exception that Col. Pellet of Toronto replaces Mr. Nichols, Senator Forget of Montreal becoming vice president.

BANK OF YARMOUTH DIVIDEND BE 75 PER CENT.

YARMOUTH, Oct. 12.—W. E. Staver, the liquidator of the Bank of Yarmouth, has announced that he will pay at once a dividend of 75 per cent on the claims which he has allowed. The court has already approved of his report as to the claims that ought to be paid. This certainly speaks well for the solvency of the residents of this town and its vicinity, for nearly all the stock was held here. It also speaks volumes for the manner in which the liquidator has applied himself to his duties, and the Canadian Bankers' Association, who had Mr. Staver appointed curator, will doubtless use the record he is making to claim larger powers from the government in the administration of the bank act.

MAINE HUNTER SHOT A GUIDE

BOSTON, Oct. 18.—Herman Poppe of this city, arrested near Skowhegan, Me., today, on a charge of manslaughter, for shooting a guide, left here last Friday with a party to go deer hunting in the Maine woods. Poppe is about 40 years of age and resided with his widowed mother in the Jamaica Plain district. For a number of years he has been hunting moose in the Canadian woods, about thirty miles from Moncton.

WOLVES IN CHARLOTTE

COUNTY WOODS.

John Maguire, of Elmville, verily believes that there are wolves in Charlotte's woods, and that he has seen one with his own eyes.

A day or two after the opening of the shooting season he was out with his gun, when he saw a strange animal with large body like a dog and a long, bushy tail. He could have shot the animal, but he was so intent upon looking at the unusual creature that he forgot for an instant he had a gun in his hands, and in that instant it fled into the woods. A day or two afterwards he had a tussle in the pasture with Albert Maguire's bull dog. He escaped from the bull-dog and got back into the deep woods.

Mr. Maguire described the animal to men who had seen wolves, and they told him that it was unmistakably a wolf. He has heard its howls in the woods at night as well. He says that before he saw the animal he could smell it and that it had a very heavy, offensive smell. The dog that fought with it had the same smell for a day or two after the deed.

Mr. Maguire attributes the present scarcity of deer to the fact that the wolves are chasing them and he thinks the game authorities should take note of the fact.—St. Andrews Beacon.

DEATH AT ANDOVER.

ANDOVER, Oct. 16.—On Saturday morning this community was grieved to hear of the death of G. Wilmet Porter, which occurred at his father's residence. The deceased was the eldest son of Joseph B. Porter and nephew of Senator Baird. For several months past he has been in poor health, and the best medical treatment failed to help him. He was a young man of much promise.

DREADFUL.

He—Why so tentative? Are you thinking how dreadful it was of me to kiss you so soon after our first meeting? She—No, not exactly. I was thinking how dreadful it would have been had we never met at all.

Why Not Now?

I have your shoes ready for you. Why not buy them now? I am anxious for you to examine the quality and prices of other dealers' footwear. Then you will be in a position to appreciate my stock the better.

SUNDAY GARDEN LOTS 60

The Carlton Sunday garden lot was resumed in the police court yesterday afternoon before Judge Ritchie and the six prisoners, Jacob W. Campbell, of being the keeper of a gaming house, and George and Martin Wilcox, Duncan Pollock, James McConnell and Leonard Lord, with gaming there, were dismissed.

Two witnesses were examined. Mrs. Maxwell gave evidence that turned out that all she knew of the case was hearsay.

William Maxwell, a son of the preceding witness, was then called. He said he had been on the premises a good many times, but not on the Sunday the raid was made. He had never, he said, seen cards in Campbell's house. Later Maxwell admitted that he had played cards with Campbell on the Sunday previous to the raid. That game, he said, was set back, and was played just for fun.

As this was all the evidence, Mr. Baxter moved for dismissal. He cited at length the law on what constituted a common gaming house, and the kind of evidence that was required to make a case. He also contended that Sgt. Ross ought to have had a warrant to enter the house.

Judge Ritchie after a severe admonition dismissed the prisoners.

ST. JOHN, N. B., OCTOBER 19, 1905.

A TREND AND A REMEDY.

Hall Caine, who has been taking a little time from the writing of ephemeral stories for the study of social conditions on this side of the water, has come to the conclusion that the inevitable result of the present financial trend in the United States will be the realization of one of the most cherished dreams of socialism, government control of all the great wealth revenues.
In a recent interview he declares that the wealthiest and foremost financiers of the country have, in conversation with him, agreed with his ideas. "They have explained much to me," he said,
"and they agree that the present state
of your country's finances is leading it in the direction I have just outlined.
But the final result is sure to come.
Unless your vast wealth is placed under government control there may even come to you a crisis as terrible
as that of the French Revolution."

"The remedy, then, is—?" suggested the interviewer.
"A complete control by the government of all those great industrial plants,
of all those great manufacturing plants,
everything that produces that enormous wealth for which the rich men of your country have become famous the world over. You see how the value of land is increased. It is the direct result of the combined efforts of the people. Land, therefore, should belong to the people, not to the individual. It is the same with oil. It is the same with steel. It is the same with other things that produce great wealth. They all belong to the people, and they should be controlled by the people. They are not like an invention that a man creates himself."

While Mr. Caine's expression of this familiar policy may not win its general approval, it must be admitted by all who have devoted any consideration to the trend of financial affairs in the United States and to a more limited extent in this country also, that this trend, if it continues, must end in disaster. The rich are undeniably growing richer and the poor are increasing.
Every day sees more and more of the centralization of wealth and power in the hands of a few. Every day sees the small producer's chance of successful competition growing smaller and the power of the great capitalistic combines growing greater. If the process continues the inevitable conclusion is that a few men will be in absolute control, not only of the money market of America, but of the production of all the necessities of modern life. They will hold in their hands the comfort and even the lives of the bulk of the people. Their power will be such as no government in a democratic country ever held.

And as these inevitable consequences of the present trend are unbearable and impossible, it follows that something must and will be done to change the direction of the current, to arrest this appalling centralization of power. But what?
Clearly, unless some wholesale evangelization of the capitalist class takes place, the remedy must come from the government. Where conditions are already so far advanced as to require the drastic action commended by Mr.
Caine, but in doing so, but unless some stringent restrictive legislation is soon made and enforced the doubt will be lessened and the arguments for government control of the wealth producing plants—which should rather be public servings—will become irresistible.

NELSON IN CANADA.

The warmth of Canadian feeling for Nelson, whose death and great victory will be commemorated all over the empire this week, should be increased by the memory of his visit to Canada and especially by his cordial appreciation of the climate and the beauties of this country. The Quebec Chronicle, in referring to the great sailor's sojourn here in 1782, when his ship, the Albemarle, was ordered to Quebec, recalls
the fact that Nelson, before he came,
had the average Englishman's conception of this country as a sub-Arctic region. "I want much to get off from this—voyage," he wrote. "Mr. Adair (an eminent London surgeon, who a year before had treated him for paralysis of his limbs) has told me that if I was sent to a cold, damp climate it would make me worse than ever."

The Albatross reached Quebec on July 1, 1782, but sailed three days later for Boston Bay, returning Sept. 17. One of Nelson's biographers writes:
"The fears for his health that he had expressed before sailing from England had happily proved groundless, and a month's stay in port, which now followed, at the most delightful and invigorating of the American seasons, wrought wonders for him. His letters to Locker state that the voyage agreed with him better than he expected;
while from the St. Lawrence he wrote to his father: 'Health, that greatest of blessings, is what I never truly enjoyed until I saw Fair Canada. The change it has wrought, I am convinced,
is truly wonderful.'"

The Fair of Nations is meeting with the success which its attractiveness and the energy of its directors, the fair of St. John, well deserve. It is hard to find a way to spend a dollar or so more easily, more pleasantly and for a better purpose than on a visit to St. Andrew's rink during the rest of this week.

The announcement that the post office department during the last year of Sir William Mulock's rule showed a surplus of $400,844, is gratifying, except to those underpaid clerks and country postmasters and small carriers, who have good reason to feel that every dollar of this surplus is squeezed unjustly from their pockets. Sir William's pose in parliament as the friend of the workmen and the founder of the Labor Bureau has been strikingly incompatible with his tyrannical and mean treatment of the employees of his department.

The population of the city of Montreal is larger by some 25,000 than it was last week. St. Henri, which has been annexed, had a population of 21,182 four years ago and has been growing rapidly since. The population of the city of Montreal in 1901 was 267,720, and without St. Henri it is now probably close to 290,000. Greater Montreal, which will soon be included in one corporation, had in 1901 a total population of 319,425, and is now supposed to have 350,000. The Montreal Herald claims for the group, including some minor municipalities, a total population of not less than 450,000—Sun.

LET US TAKE LEAVE OF HASTE.

Let us take leave of haste awhile,
And loiter well content
With little pleasures to beguile,
And small habilliment—

Just a wide sweep of rain-washed sky,
A flower, a bird-note sweet;
Some easy trappings worn with glee,
Loose lachets for our feet;

A wheaten loaf within our scrip;
For drink the hillside spring,
And for true heart-companionship
The love of loitering.

We want so much and yet we need
So very slight a store,
But in the grasp of greed
We hurry more and more.

The woodland weaves its gold-green
net;
The warm wind laves by;
Can we drive the sun we fondly
Come, comrades, let us try!

ST. GEORGE STILL DREAMS OF L'ETANG'S PROSPECTS

Queer Stories Told of Mysterious Strangers
and Possible Belongs on High C. P. R. Officials.

(St. George Correspondence Calais Advocate.)

In the early spring, soon after navigation opened in some of the would-be winter ports of the Atlantic, the Shore Line—with the help of the warm sun—had opened up communication with the outside world, and a yacht anchored in L'Etang harbor. The strange-ers hired a team and left for Black Bay
a few miles out of town. The boy belonged to the driver, and the boy threw the driver to take him to L'Etang and then forgot it. The driver, and waiting no one to know of the extra dollar handed him, said nothing, but being curious he watched the
stranger before he left.

A short time after a boat drifted ashore, was secured by a man living in the town. The boat was a small one, and the man who drove the boat to St. George with tales of mysterious boatsmen, peculiar carryings on, soundings being taken, a drowning and an abandoned boat which he had secured
—worth one or two thousand dollars a party in St. George, for a consideration, was to share in the salvage and back to L'Etang went the pair to find the boat gone and the woman folks told him, soon after the man's departure, a crew of men in a row boat
boarded the yacht and drove the boat
before they could be questioned.
The summer after the man's departure, a crew of men in a row boat
boarded the yacht and drove the boat
before they could be questioned.

AT THE YORK.

At the above theatre, commencing Monday next, the Pauline Hammond
Co. will be seen in repertoire.
This company comes direct from the United States, where it is considered to be one of the best organizations of its kind. Miss Hammond, the star, has been praised by both press and public,
and in the past five years has so worked herself in the graces of her audiences that her name has become a household word. Mr. Clifton Whitman, her manager, has spared no expense in surrounding her with a company of actors and actresses such as are rarely seen in repertoire. The company has been pronounced on all sides as the most evenly balanced one of its class travelling the east today. The specialties are the "best"—all star vaudeville features, and are only one of the good points of this company. See the "Man From Prisco" Monday night and be convinced. Popular prices. Matinee Thanksgiving day and Saturday.

There are now over 25,000 licensed automobiles in New York state, and over 8,000 professional chauffeurs.

DIAMOND ADVICE.

PUT YOUR MONEY INTO DI-AMONDS. Diamonds in your possession represent money—more money than you pay for them after you have worn them a while, for the advance in price is very marked and there is positively no danger of diamonds depreciating in value in our time. Of course it is always necessary to choose wisely and pay the right price when you make your selection; therefore it is essential that you should choose the gems at a responsible house and I have a record and a reputation I think enviable, and my very large stock of set and unset gems allows for the best selection in this city or province.
Respectfully yours

LOCAL NEWS

If your eyes are giving the least trouble it is a duty that you owe yourself not to neglect them. See D. Boyanar, Optician, 431 Main street.

At 5:30 last evening Willard Carter Crawford of the Street Railway Co. was united in marriage to Miss Mary Elizabeth Cate, daughter of Mrs. James P. Cate. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. A. Graham at the residence of the bride's mother on Princess street. The bride was given away by her brother, W. S. Cate.

John M. Floyd wishes to return thanks to all those who so kindly rendered assistance and gave expression to their sympathy upon the occasion of the sad death of his two sons at the railway crossing at Bloomfield.

Patrick A. Cruikshank died last night at his residence, Leinster street, after an illness of eight months. Mr. Cruikshank was for years in the restaurant business on Germain street, but lately has been with J. D. Turner.

A farewell meeting will be held Sunday evening in No. 5 Barracks, Mill street, for the purpose of bidding good-bye and good luck to Sergeant Miller, who has done very good work assisting Eugene Greene.

Much interest is being manifested in the forthcoming visit of His Serene Highness Prince Louis of Battenburg. The interest is doubly increased by reason of the fact that the Prince and his staff have been invited to the sacred concert to be held on Thanksgiving evening in St. John's Presbyterian church. The best local talent will take part, and those who attend will be richly rewarded.

The death occurred at 694 Main street on Tuesday evening of Estella May, the beloved wife of Wm. J. Perry, aged 34 years. The deceased having only been sick a short time, her sudden death at such an early age was a severe shock to her relatives and friends. She leaves to mourn a sorrowing husband, two small children, her mother, Mrs. Worden, two sisters, a brother and a large circle of friends. Her father was the late John Couston. Sincere sympathy is expressed for the sorrowing relatives.

A very enjoyable entertainment was given last evening in No. 5 Barracks, Mill street. The hall was packed to the doors long before the rise of the curtain. All the numbers were very good, but especially so was a one act play entitled "Bride's Investment," in which Capt. Brice and White, L. A. Lee, Galway and Andrews took part. L. A. Lee as Bridget created a small sensation. Capt. Brice's recitation, "The Martyr Mother," was particularly well rendered. The quartette were encored several times. The sailor brigade rendered kind assistance. Capt. White and L. A. Andrews sang very acceptable solos, while Miss Davidson ably presided at the piano. The affair was a financial success.

Theodore Nilsson, for thirty-five years a worthy citizen of St. John, died last evening at his home, 223 Waterloo street, in the 81st year of his age. Mr. Nilsson was a clever cabinet maker, but for twelve years had been building dark wood cases for the city. He was a native of Guttenburg, Sweden. One son, and two daughters survive.

A meeting of the Canadian Order of Foresters was held in the Orange Hall, Simonds street last evening, at which all the local courts were represented. George Faulkner, high secretary of the order was present and addressed the meeting making some very encouraging statements as to the assets and membership. Other addresses were also made after which an oyster supper was enjoyed at White's restaurant.

FAIR OF NATIONS MADE A GREAT HIT.

Although the doors opened at four o'clock, the formal opening did not take place till eight o'clock, by which time the rink was thronged.

The mayor declared the fair open in a brief but happy speech. The ladies of the city deserved great credit, he said, for drawing here tonight people from the far corners of the earth, from Iceland, lying under the pole star to New Zealand, beneath the glittering southern cross.

The Neptune boys and others had rendered the ladies valuable assistance. The mayor spoke about the good work which the Y. M. C. A. has done in the city and their commendable ambition to provide a new building. The mayor was followed by L. P. D. Tilley, president of the Y. M. C. A., who made a brief address.

The different booths looked their prettiest and with the exception of Santa Claus, all were in full swing. The Japanese booth to the left of the entrance was thronged with visitors. The Jap maidens were one of the pleasing sights of the fair, the long flowing robes of the Oriental maids being most becoming. All visitors to the tea house were greeted with politeness positively overwhelming.

At the Irish booth a number of representatives of Exmoor street church sold large quantities of fancy work. The English booth was well patronized by those desiring a few minutes of quietness. If such a thing is possible, when young Indians, with loud voices are hawking peanuts in every direction. The Domestic Science booth proved most interesting. Some splendid pieces of old china were on exhibit and designs in burnt wood and needlework offered for sale.

The Turkish booth is probably the finest in the hall. The ladies in charge showed no regard for expense in making the arrangement of the booth, to minute details typical of an eastern bazaar and coffee house, the hangings in the interior being genuine and rare Oriental articles. The ladies' costumes in this booth are worthy of special mention, and the jewels which they wore were of a strictly Asiatic character and were obtained with some difficulty.

The Holland booth of St. David's church represents a house with the ladies garbed in Dutch costumes. An immense quantity of dolls were offered for sale.

The most ingeniously arranged stall was that of Iceland, depicting realistically the night sky, the northern lights, the icebergs and snow of that land. A number of young ladies in becoming costumes representing ermine, served tea to a large number of visitors.

The Canadian booth sold large quantities of candy and peanuts. Many postcards were purchased at the pretty New Zealand booth.

In the French booth was the sign, "English spoken here." Both languages were put in service, French being the language most spoken and English the best understood. Japs, Icelanders and Irish gathered open-mouthed to hear the Parisians attempt their native tongue.

The Old Colonial booth with the memories of 1820 proved a great success. Even the closest friends of Mrs. Walter Holly and Mrs. P. Carrette would hardly have recognized them in the gowns standing in front of the Indian bazaar. Master Jim and Jack Holly also made splendid aborigines.

The Scotch booth last night was in charge of Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. J. H. Davidson and Miss Jessie Campbell, assisted by Misses Maggie Fleming, Christine Crawford, Mitchell and Quarrie. Outside of the booth boys of Scotch Brigade stood on guard. They were Coltr Leavitt, Stanley McDonald, Roy A. Davidson, Douglas Leavitt, Arthur Rankine and K. Spears. Fancy goods were for sale and cocoa, tea, meal, shortbread and scones were served. Strikingly handsome menu cards with covers depicting St. John scenes with thistle decorations were painted by Mrs. Jas. Armstrong. Mr. Hastie did good work selling leather and Miss Leavitt in superintending the booth.

The New Brunswick booth prettily decorated with green dotted with rovan berries was well filled with specimens of fancy work, which seemed to catch the attention of the visitors. In the centre of the ring, fine displays were shown at both the fancy work booth and the paper booth. The charming Irish Rebecca at the well attracted a very large number of thirsty Isaacas, who were served time and again with lemonade and ginger ale.

The whole evening was greatly enjoyed, the best of feeling prevailing. A defect in the lighting, which kept the building dark for twenty minutes seemed to cause little inconvenience. A good programme of music was furnished by the kind band. Over 12,000 were present during the run of the day. There were about 350 admissions to the tea room and at least 600 patronized the Iceland booth.

CHARLES DANA GIBSON WILL STUDY ART.

Has Decided to Abandon Style of Work that Made Him Famous and Start on Other Lines.

Abandoning the particular line of work that has brought him fame and fortune, Charles Dana Gibson is going abroad for the purpose, as he himself phrases it, of studying art. He will sail in December, with no definite plans except that, according to a contract, he shall be for a weekly periodical which has commanded his pencil for the last three years.

As a friend of the artist put it yesterday, Mr. Gibson for twenty years has been working to get in the position in which he finds himself today.

During that time he may have appeared to many of his friends to have been working with money as too immediate a master, "but he has now bought his freedom. He has put aside enough to take care of his family and educate his children, and has determined to burn all his bridges and set out with his school books under his arm to study art in Europe."

He is filled with the freshness and enthusiasm of a boy about it, and plans to spend a year in Spain, a year in France and a year in Italy, as he describes it, to let every influence play upon him. He does not know what his medium will be or how long he will be in the primary class learning the alphabet, but he believes enough in himself, in his capacity for hard work and study to be willing to make a big bet, as he expresses it, that he will win out.

His whole attitude is a realization that he has reached his limit in black and white, and that while he might continue to make money he would do so at a sacrifice to his artistic self-respect.

Mr. Gibson announces that his recently published book, "Our Neighbors," the tenth of the kind from his pen, is his last in the genre with which he has so long been identified.

DOMINION POST OFFICE SHOWS BIG SURPLUS.

OTTAWA, Oct. 18.—The report of the post office department for the year ending June 30 shows a surplus of $490,844, the Yukon service being included. The past year's transactions show an increase of 419 in the number of post offices; an increase of 341 in the number of postal note offices; 130 in the number of money order offices, and 28 in the number of savings banks.

There were 318 additional miles of railway utilized for mail purposes, and the total increase in mileage of mail carriage during the year was 1,726,917. The estimated number of letters post-paid was 285,541,000, as against 258,150,000 in 1904, and 118,038,000 in 1896. The estimated increase in the number of letters and post cards for the year was 28,351,000, the largest in any year except that of 1899-90, when the two-cent letter rate was adopted. The amount of money remitted by money orders and postal notes was $24,229,000, an increase of more than 176 per cent, compared with 1896, when the sum remitted was $13,051,800. Last year $22,601,892 was sent through the mails in this way.

IMPORTANT SESSION OF S. S. WORKERS.

MONCTON, Oct. 18.—At the afternoon session of the Provincial Synod of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Rev. W. L. McParlane of Fredericton delivered an address on "What the Superintendent expects from the Pastor." The discussion that followed was taken part in by Rev. H. E. Thomas, Rev. D. Hutchinson, Rev. A. Lucas, Rev. Dr. Gates and several superintendents.

T. S. Simms of St. John addressed the conference on the subject "What the Teachers Expect from the Pastor and Superintendent." A profitable discussion followed, in which many teachers and pastors took part.

An open conference on Sunday school management by C. G. Trumbull was the next to engage the attention of the convention. Mr. Trumbull first gave his attention to teachers' work and some time was devoted to the great problems with which the teacher and Sunday school workers had to contend. How to get pupils to study the lesson at home was discussed, and Mr. Trumbull advised interesting the scholars in lesson by giving questions to answer from the lesson.

Rev. A. A. Riddell of Fredericton addressed the convention on "What the Pastor Expects from the Superintendent." The discussion on this topic closed the afternoon's session.

At the evening session, Rev. W. A. Rose in the absence of E. R. Machum training department. The report showed that 27 had passed the elementary course, 10 had passed the intermediate course, and 10 had passed the advanced course. The report was read by Rev. J. H. Herriott and Mr. Peacock, six of eight students having made 90 or over, and that of Rev. Mr. Rose of Moncton, four out of five having made over 85. In the advanced course special mention should be made of the small class of three at Kirkland, the first of whom made perfect marks and the other two 89 each. This being the same class of which special mention was made last year.

The committee on resolutions were instructed to send a resolution of sympathy with Mr. Machum in his hour of trial.

An address by Rev. G. M. Campbell of St. John on "The Bible, Its Need and Power" concluded the evening programme.

At the close of Mr. Campbell's address a resolution was passed expressing appreciation of the presence of the member of the Canadian Bible Society and the hope that teachers and workers will do all possible to promote the interests of that society.

Tomorrow night there will be a new departure, when the delegates will be entertained at a banquet at Miss Macgee's restaurant under the auspices of the adults' Bible movement.

"When he had handed her the paper she said, 'The Censor is growing faster and faster on your expense.'"

"I am getting on in the state with a view to the fact that I am starting to write about me. Listen to this"—she had pointed out to him the obnoxious paragraph: "If Brewster drew a diamond flush do you suppose he'd catch the queen? And if he caught the queen how long would it take him to catch the king? Or if she drew Brewster would she be willing to learn such a game as Monte?"

The next morning a writer who signed himself The Censor got a thrashing from Montgomery Brewster. He had his name in the papers, surrounded by fulsome words of praise.

"There was no venom in Peggy's heart. "She is attractive. In fact, she's one of the best," Peggy said, paying the way.

"It's too bad she seems to care for that little dink."

"Well, don't take it to heart. You don't have to marry him." And Peggy laughed.

"I do take it to heart, Peggy," said Monty seriously.

"I'm pretty hard on him, and I want your help. A sister's advice always the best in a matter of this sort."

She looked into his eyes duly for an instant, not realising the full import of his words.

"You, Monty?" she said incredulously.

"I've got it bad, Peggy," he replied, staring hard at her foot.

"You must understand the case. Gray tone suddenly enveloped the room. The strange sense of loneliness that came over her when she was alone. Everything that rose in her throat would not be disclosed, nor could she throw off the weight that seemed pressing her down.

"I've got it bad," she said, looking into her eyes and the drawn expression on her lips, but he attributed to them to wonder and amazement. It was no longer the same. She was transformed before her very eyes.

She was looking upon a new personality. He was no longer Monty, the old brother, but he could not explain how and when the change occurred over her.

"What did it all mean?" she asked very much surprised.

"I don't know," he said, happy in the fact," she said slowly, the happy in the girls giving way to red once more.

"Does she know?"

"I don't," said he in so many words, Peggy, but—I'm going to this evening," he announced loudly.

"I can't offend you,"

"I can't offend you," said he as he rose to go. "I'm glad you're pleased, Peggy. I need your good wishes. And I'll be so anxious to hear from you. Your faithfulness, "do you think there's a chance for a fellow? I've had the very deuce of a time over this."

It was not quite easy for her to say "Monty, you are the best in the world. Go in and win."

From a window she watched him swing off down the street, wondering if he would turn to wave his hand to her, his custom for years. And she promised. His long strides carried him swiftly out of sight, but she was many times looking back at him, and the eyes which were smarting, a lot from the point where he was lost to the crowd. The room looked ashen and she might have been in a dream, and somehow things had grown dire and recent.

When Monty reached home he wrote this telegram from Mr. Jones: Montgomery Brewster, New York City: Stick to your knitting, you fool. JONES.

CHAPTER IX.

S. Jones after reading this telegram. But he felt considerably relieved. He had been anxious to read to readings accounts of the prize fight which was to take place in San Francisco that evening. came, and for once the philosophical Miss Drew felt a little irritation. So certain was she of his object in coming that his tardiness was a little irritating. He apologized for being late and succeeded in banishing the pique that possessed her. It was naturally impossible for him to share all his secrets with her, and that is why he did not tell her that Grant & Ripley had called him up to report the receipt of a telegram from Swearengen Jones, in which the gentleman ironically said he could feed the whole state of sufficient number of royal consents for all purposes, these are borrowed from others who have the same right. The sailing stock send artificers with the train throughout the journey. Two inspectors, one of whom is the royal train, one riding in the front and the other in the rear brake-van, are sent to the train to see that the train so as to observe any signal from his colleague or from the royal train. The driver is not allowed to start the train without an order from the driver any instructions necessary. All other important items worthy of note are the following:—

 The telegraph instrument by means of which messages are sent to the railway telegraph office, and the special call being arranged to which precedence must be given over messages of other telegraph offices. The telegraph message accompanying the train.
 The elaborate precautions as to signalling the royal train are interesting. A telegraph operator must be at their line at the railway station, and the telegraph train is due to depart, and while the train is running they must on no account be allowed to place any signal must be continuously on duty during the time the royal train is on its journey. The telegraph instrument at the railway station must be open an hour before the train is due and signals lighted if it is necessary to stop the train. The telegraph signal has been received from the cable in advance. If the station master is not present, the telegraph instrument signals are kept on till the royal train has passed, and is signalled back from the station or the telegraph office to their stations during the passage of the royal train.
 By the use of these carefully worked out means, which it would be tedious to mention, is the safety of the passengers and the train, and the train is able by train—London Express.

Young Man Shoots Murderous Parent Who Boards Houseboat With Knife and Hatchet.

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 17.—William T. Beving, of Lamberton street, this city, was shot and almost instantly killed to-night by his own son, William T. Beving, Jr. The shooting was done on the family's houseboat, anchored in the Delaware River, to which place the older man had rowed with the intention of killing his son.

Yung Bevina, after shooting him, placed his father, who was unconscious, in the ambulance and drove him to shore, calling to persons on land. When he approached to summon an ambulance, he saw a man on horseback and whipped his horse to a gallop, but Bevina was dead when the ambulance arrived.

After helping a surgeon place his father in the ambulance Yung Bevina called to the police and went himself to the police. He went to his old home to wash and change his clothes. When he returned to the police station he admitted the shooting and explained that he had done it in anger. He said that he had been drinking. He expressed regret that his father was dead, but not that he had killed him.

Yung Bevina said his mother's life was spared because she was his father's favorite, and she, afraid to remain in the house, had fled to the river. He said that he had not intended to provide sleeping accommodations for her in his houseboat. They had been eating and drinking in the houseboat when he had bumped into their craft, and it had medically the husband and father had been severely abused. He had struck at the son first with a knife and then with a hatchet, but both blows had fallen short.

"I knew it was his life or mine, if I stayed," the son said. "But it was my mother's life I did not save, and I stayed. I intended only to wound my father, so that he could do no further harm, but he was right upon me. I had to jump over the fence and run backward to the deck and I loaded him into his bateau and hurried him ashore. You know the rest."

Beyvas was reputed to be a man of violent temper. He recently drove his son home.

ing Oct. 16th, $1,238,000. For the corresponding week last year they were $1,110,687.

St. Stephen's church which has been under repair for the last three or four weeks will probably be finished in time for next Sunday's services.

Another case of diphtheria has been reported to the Board of Health. This new case is Miss Annie Jones, daughter of Mrs. Charlotte Jones, 25 Autumn street.

The remains of the late Isaac Nod-
din, who died recently at Somerville, Mass., were brought down this morning on the Boston express on to Queens Co., where interment will be made.

Policeman Sol Hamm of the northern division is off duty on account of a sprained ankle. The injury was caused during the time he and Sgt. Hastings were arresting Noble Clark on Main street yesterday afternoon, for being drunk and profane.

The schooner Joseph Hay, captain
Wm. Hogan, was at Port Hawkesbury on the 17th. The captain writing to the agents of the schooner here says that severe storm damaged all the vessels in the port for some hours. He had two anchors out and weathered the storm safely.

Concerts will be given on Tuesday afternoon and evening next by the

been enabled to complete all arrangements for their retinue concert at the Queen's rink, Charlotte street. The sale of seats is advertised today, to begin on Monday morning.

There will be a meeting tonight of Alexander Temple of the A. M. House, a full attendance of the members of the above society is asked for at this evening's meeting as there will be a delegation from the W. C. T. U. for the purpose of discussing and formulating plans for the temperance work this winter.

The new ferry Laidlow is carrying passengers this afternoon. A heavy boat was out yesterday around the harbor, but no passengers were carried as her certificate had not been made out by Inspector Olive and the main object was to ascertain one of the engineers with the workings of the machinery.

There are a number of names being mentioned in connection with the successor to the late Rev. Dr. Roberts and the foremost included—Rev. Dr. W. C.
Raymond, St. John; Archdeacon Neale, Woodstock; Canon Newnham, St. Stephen; Rev. C. W. Foster, the presentative; Rev. G. R. E. Macdonald, St.
John, and Rev. Mr. Cowie, of Hampton, formerly of St. Mary's—Fredericton Gleason.

Yesterday's Moncton Transcript
mentions the fact that on a westbound train which passed through Moncton Tuesday was one of the oldest residents of Nova Scotia, Angus Macdonald.
Mr. Macdonald, who is a native of Scotland, is 99 years old, and remarkably active for his years. He was on his way to Stillwater, Minn., to make his home with his son, and was taking his first railway journey.

HALIFAX THIEF TAKEN BACK.

Policeman Frank Harragan, of the Halifax police force, left on the Atlantic express this noon for Halifax, having in custody George Jones, a young Englishman, who was arrested here on Tuesday by Detective Killen and wanted in Halifax on the charge of stealing $85. It appears Jones shipped on the schooner Carrol Ring, lying at the Liverpool dock, Halifax, and the day after going on board he broke open a chest, stole $85 from a shipmate named Petite and skipped the city. The prisoner has been held at the county jail until taken from there this morning by the Halifax policeman.

was at Fernhill.

FISH ARE SCARCE.

Fish are not any too plentiful so that the variety for tomorrow will be rather limited unless the Westport III. surprises the dealers by bringing in a large supply. Halibut is quoted at from 12c to 15c per pound. Fresh cod and haddock at 5c, and 6c, per pound;
smelt, ten cents per pound;
tongues and sounder 8c, per pound and salted and cured fish at the usual rates.

NORTH END BONFIRE CAUSES EXCITEMENT.

The boys of Indian town will certainly celebrate Halloween in real old-fashioned style if their capers of last night was any sample of their possibilities, for the region of Victoria and Albert streets was vocal with their shouting and jeering with the fire they started in honor of a popular young lady resident who was joined in wedlock.

About 7:30 fully a hundred of the rising generation marched to the corner of Victoria and Albert streets and proceeded to build a monster fire. They had barrels galore and lots of shavings, pitch oil and other such harmless inflammables. As they piled the fuel onto the yet unlighted joy-fire, property owners grew worried. The noise was loud, breeze blowing, and Indian town people will never forget that ugly gale of the 25th of May seven years ago, when it was seen the fire was going to be a record-breaker some of the house owners objected.

The boys were ready to be reasoned with, as most sensible boys are, but one resident without ceremony jumped into the crowd and tumbled the heap
of barrels, which had not yet been ignited. He was loudly jeered, and when Sgt. Hastings of the police force appeared the lads were too indignant to run away. They even looked to the beast buttons for redress.

A conference was held, and a compromise requested. The boys very kindly desired to do honor to their young lady friend, and were willing to hold the blaze in any place deemed safe by the officer of the law. Sgt.
Hastings could not give his permission to hold the fire, but he advised the lads
not to hold it on the corner, as there was a high wind blowing, and furthermore it was against the law.

The boys took this as a conciliatory
and tactful word from the policeman.
Giving a cheer they shouldered their jerry paraphernalia and started for a large open field back of Victoria street, where one of the best bonfires seen in North End blazed up the town for miles around. There was not a building of any sort within 500 feet.

Thus diplomacy and arbitration scored another win.

POLICE COURT.

At the police court this morning Noble Clark pleaded to the charge of drunkenness but forgot that he had been profane on Main street, when placed under arrest by Sgt. Hastings and Policeman Hamm. He was fined $8 on both charges.

David, an old offender for being drunk was fined $3 and was told by the magistrate that if any person came to court and paid the fine, and if afterward he should be brought into court again he would be treated as a vagrant and sent to jail for six months.

Mary Spelman pleaded guilty to the charge of drunkenness and was fined $8.
Wm. Corr who for some time was an employee of the A. M. House, but had been away from that institution for the past month, was picked up on the street yesterday very drunk and taken to the station on a wagon. He was remanded on the charges of being drunk and being a common vagrant. Two other men were fined $4 each for drunkenness.

MAY SUE TUG FOR DAMAGES

Roy Kincaid, of Metcalf street, informs the Star that it was he and not a boatman named Coxon who he ran down by the tug Waring in the falls day before yesterday. He also declares that the version of the accident given by the owners of the tug was unfair and one-sided.

He claims that the tug had lots of room to clear him and that it not only made no effort to avoid his boat, but neither reversed the engines nor slack-ened speed until after he had leaped on board the stern of the tug hit his boat.

He says after sighting the tug he kept on his course, thinking certainly the tug was passing out, as it could easily have done, and when he saw it evidently intended to keep on straight ahead he turned back and did his best to avoid it, but it was too late.

Mr. Kincaid says that he has demanded from the tug boat owners compensation for his ruined boat, and if they do not comply voluntarily he will most certainly enter a suit for damages.

POLICEMAN'S DAUGHTER WEDD- ED.

A quiet wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Seth H.
Thorne, 97 Victoria street, North End, last evening at 7:30 o'clock, when their eldest daughter, Helen, was united in marriage to James T. Patterson. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D.
Long, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom.
They were the recipients of a number of beautiful presents, among which were a silver cake stand from W. H.
Thorne & Co., of which firm Mr. Patterson is an employee, and a set of cutlery from Mr. Patterson's fellow employees, Mr. and Mrs. Patterson will reside on Victoria street.

BOY KILLED MOOSE.

Ernest Fairley, the 14 year old son of James Fairley, of Bolestown, a few days ago saw a big bull moose near the mill pond, about 300 yards from his home. He went to his brother's house and borrowed a rifle, with which he ended the career of Mr. Moose. The animal's antlers had a spread of about 48 inches. Young Fairley is not only one of the youngest but also one of the most successful hunters of the season.

MORE FOREST FIRES.

Reports from Fredericton state that forest fires of a serious nature are raging along the river near the city.
Considerable damage has been done to property by the fires, but so far as known no buildings have been destroyed. Especially in the vicinity of Gagetown are the fires the most serious.
Some miles back from the river, near Sheffield, were seen from the river boats yesterday and it was reported that the fires were not more than half a mile away from some farm buildings on the outskirts of Upper Gagetown.

PREMIER FAVORS MORE PROTECTION FOR GAME.

Premier Tweedie passed through the city today on his way from Ottawa to his home on the North Shore. The premier was listening to the argument given before the secretary of state in connection with the power companies at Grand Falls. He had nothing to say in this connection but expressed himself as well pleased with the revenue from game licenses received this fall.
Mr. Tweedie stated in this connection that he would favor a license and fee for the privilege of hunting wild water fowl as he considered that there were too many non-residents coming to the province for this kind of sport each year. Concerning the protection of game there was one thing he would say and that was that as long as he had anything to say about the affairs of the province he would see to it that the moose and big game were properly protected.

JUDGMENT RESERVED IN EVANS CASE

The case of Evans vs. Evans, which is the case resulting from a dispute between husband and wife in regard to the ownership of a farm in Queens Co.
was continued in equity court before His Honor Judge Barker this morning.
Both plaintiff and defendant were recalled. Arthur B. Farmer, of the North End, was a witness for the plaintiff
and entries on the book of Tapley Bros.
put in evidence.

Argument of counsel was then heard.
Dr. A. I. Trueman, K. C., for the plaintiff, argued that the farm was purchased by Mr. Evans, the plaintiff, with his own funds, and that the evidence showed that Mr. Evans had got from Tapley Bros. a sum similar to that which he had paid for the farm at about the time the purchase had been made. W.
B. Wallace for the defendant, argued that the evidence showed that the purchase had been made by Mrs. Evans.
Judgment was reserved.

COL. SHARP HOME FROM TORONTO

Col. Sharp, the chief provincial officer of the Salvation Army, returned today
from the recent Salvation Army conference in Toronto. He was accompanied by Major Phillips, the chief of the provinces. Commissioner Coombs will visit St. John on the 28th, when the annual congress of the provinces will be held. The attendance of officers from all over the provinces will be very large.

NEEDED REPAIRS.

The new pavement that is being laid on Mill street has not come any too soon, and the work cannot be rushed any too quickly, as the street has been in a fearful condition for months past.
The men are now working at the corner of Mill and Union streets. Squares have been used in place of the circular ones.
