Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; also cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

A very pretty wedding took place yesterday afternoon at the home of Andrew Proffit, 61 St. David's street, when his son, Geo. Arthur Proffit, was married to Miss Edna Alberta Pidgeon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. Camp in the presence of a few of the immediate relatives. The bride was beautifully dressed in white lace with hat to match. The wedding march was charmingly rendered by Mrs. J. C. Proffit, graduate of the Pictou Academy of Music, and her sister-in-law of the groom, James C. Proffit of Pictou and Miss Edna Cunningham of the city. A number of choice presents were received. They will reside at 80 Kennedy street.

A quiet wedding took place yesterday afternoon, when Miss Myrtle Nesbitt was united in marriage to Duncan Morrison at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nesbitt, 80 Kennedy street. Rev. G. Byrn was the officiating clergyman. The bride was prettily attired in a traveling suit, and carried a bouquet of white and red roses. Mr. and Mrs. Morrison will reside at 80 Kennedy street.

QUICK WORK.

A young man graduate of the Curtis Business University who has been employed in Nova Scotia, reported at the Curtis Public Service Office yesterday stating that he was open for a position. He was at once put in communication with a concern by long distance telephone, was accepted and left by last night's train to fill the position at a salary of sixty-five dollars a month.

TURBINE SCOUT CRUISER SUCCESSFUL IN TRIALS

ROCKLAND, Me., Aug. 11--A general improvement in the action of the scout cruiser Salem's machinery over any previous tests was shown in the re-trials for standardization of her propellers, today. Over the Rockland mile course, off Owl's Head, the Salem was put through runs of speed varying from ten knots to top speed.

At the conclusion of the tests a statement was given out as follows: "The Salem was standardized successfully. Her performance exceeds that of the Chester by one knot. She developed 2,600 more horse-power than on her builders' trials. All machinery worked with unparalleled perfection. Best mile was 35.82, average mile was 35.70. This puts the Curtis Turbine (assigned in the Salem) ahead of the Huron (as used) in the Chester. Officers and men of the Salem are anxious for the Chester to get into condition for the 24 hour competitive tests and await that race with anxious confidence."

The trials of today were necessary to standardize the Salem anew following the recent repairs. These repairs were begun shortly after the competitive tests of the three scouts, Salem, Chester and Birmingham, in which an accident to one of the Salem's turbines was developed. In that test the Chester easily led both her sisters. It is now understood that the Chester lately has had trouble with her turbines and will have to lay up for repairs soon.

THE FEMALE JAIL A "SCHOOL OF VICE," SAYS JUDGE CHOQUET

Prisoners Corrupted Instead of Corrected - Two Girls Sent to Penitentiary to Escape It.

MONTREAL, Aug. 12--That the Montreal jail was nothing better than a "school of vice," where prisoners were corrupted instead of corrected, was one of a series of severe statements made against the Montreal Women's Jail today, by Judge Choquet when dealing with the case of two young girls known to be of questionable virtue, whom he finally sentenced to two years in the penitentiary as the only means of ensuring their future good conduct. He characterized the jail as a recruiting ground for infamously purposes, where the women banded together and formed plans for a life of vice when they were finally released.

The two girls, Blanche Brocard and Emma Vincent, aged 17 and 20 respectively, had been convicted of stealing $1,500 from Adelard Perault, and before sentencing them Judge Choquet remarked that he was sending them away for the purpose of correcting their ways. They would not be corrected at the Montreal Women's Jail. There they were kept together in a large dormitory, which was not good for women of the criminal classes. Separate confinement was the only cure for them. In the penitentiary the women were kept in cells by themselves, unable to approach each other, and therefore being unable to be daily reminded of the life they had left. Women taken from the streets and sent down for three or six months, thought nothing of incarceration in the Montreal Women's Jail, whereas they were often able to renew old acquaintances with anything but good results.

In an interview after the court had adjourned the judge remarked that he had looked closely into the matter before making the above declarations. He had received complaints from many quarters, especially from nuns, that a term in Montreal jail only served to increase the women's purpose to continue in vice.

Two girls were sent to the Penitentiary to escape it.

YACHT FLEET'S LIVELY TIME IN BIG STORM

All Accounted for Last Night Except Two Vessels--Spread All Along the Coast.

BOSTON, Aug. 11--Except for the schooner Sea Fox, owned by Della B. Pratt, of New York, and the single slooper Wisconsin, owned by Henry F. Lippitt, of Providence, R. I., all the yachts were accounted for at a late hour tonight. At least seven harbors, from Vineyard Haven to Portland, were sought for refuge. At the former place was the sloop yacht Westmore, minus her topmast and with her main boom and gaff split. At Provincetown seven yachts anchored, but the schooner Dervish got under sail late this afternoon. The others there are the sloop, Savarona, Alcibiades, Windward, Ariel and Adventure. It is between Chatham and Provincetown probably that the missing yachts are anchored. The lee shore near Chatham would undoubtedly prove available as a shelter. In Boston harbor three power yachts stopped, and the disabled schooner Corcoran was in the tug Oriskany. The other yachts here were the sloop, Privateer and Visitor III. The yachting center in the tug Oriskany was augmented in all tonight by three of the New York Yacht Club fleet. The sloop, Polignac, Jetauna, and the power yachts Hauloff, Idalia, and Waconah, Mahary, Eneida and Venedor.

Glocester was the next northerly stopping place. There a total squadron of 222 gathered. These included power and sailing yachts as follows: Wild Duck, Polignac, Jetauna, Ariadne, Elsa II, Cynthla, Revere, Charles, Mominig, Irolita and Thoronia. In Portsmouth and adjacent harbors were the power yachts Hauloff, Idalia, Concor, Waconah, Mahary, Eneida and Venedor.

FAVORITES WIN THE EVENTS AT WOOSOCKET

WOOSOCKET, Aug. 11--Over 1500 persons attended the third day's racing of the Woosocket regatta. The half mile track. It was a great day for favorites, all three of the events on the program were won by favorites.

A dispute arose after the finish of the 2 1/2 mile race, when the favorite, Nannie Wintstead claiming that Velozora, driven by Dore, cut across in front of Nannie's boat. Driver Watson of Nannie Wintstead claimed that Velozora, driven by Dore, cut across in front of Nannie's boat. After a half hour of arguing the judges decided in favor of Velozora, giving her the race.

GOLFERS IN CONTEST FOR PRESIDENT'S CUP

MANCHESTER, Vt., Aug. 11--With only two scores below 90, although the greens were in good condition and the weather ideal for golf, the qualifying round for the first president's cup on the links of the Manchester Country Club was completed today. Frederick Herriehoff, of Ekwanok, captured the medal with a score of 76. 75 to him was Henry H. Wilder, intercollegiate champion, representing the Essex Country Club. He was in a char of 77, while Walter Z. West was third with a score of 80.

NOTES OF SPORT.

PAPKE TO BOX WINNER.

Bill Papke has notified the Fairmont Club that he will box the winner of the ten round bout between Willie Lewis and Sallor Burke next Friday night. Burke and Lewis will meet at 103 grounds, and will settle an old grudge. Each is confident of winning in spite of the fact that both in times past have been accused of owning a yellow streak. Burke told his friends at training quarters up Jerome avenue yesterday that he would put Lewis away in five rounds and that he would then take on Papke or challenge the winner of the Ketchel-Langford mill. Talk is always cheap!

THE WESTERN TEAMS.

The Western team of the American League are having all kinds of trouble in the East this trip. The Athletics, Highlanders and Boston are making things hum for them and are convincing the Western fans that they have a corner on the best playing talent after all.

Stalling's men have won nine out of the last thirteen games--one out of two with Boston, three out of four with Detroit, two out of four with St. Louis, and three out of three with Cleveland. If the Highlanders can win a majority of the four games with the White Sox, which begin here tomorrow, they may be in fourth place by Saturday night.

AMHERST, N. S., Aug. 11--Word was received here this evening of the suicide by poisoning at Macan (N. S.) on Monday evening of Claude Noller, unmarried, aged 35, son of the late Ames Noller.

LANGSTROTH WINS ASSOCIATION CUP

St. John Man Has a Score of 94

AFTERNOON RESULTS

Three Tie for First Place in the McLean Cup Match

SUSSEX, Aug. 11--At the P. R. A. meet here this afternoon the association cup was won by L. H. Langstroth, St. John, with a score of 94.

Following are the scores and the amounts won:

Points: L. H. Langstroth, St. John, 94.00; Capt. Forbes, 72d Regt., 83.00; Col. Sgt. Farnsworth, K. C. R., 81.00; Capt. J. C. Sullivan, St. John, 81.00.

TYROS.

J. D. O. McRobbie, St. John, 89.00; J. S. Knox, Sussex, 82.00; F. N. McAdam, St. Stephen, 78.00; R. A. C. Brown, St. John, 77.00; In the McLean cup match this afternoon N. J. Morrison, Major Riley and Private Dutton tied, making 49 each out of a possible 50.

This is an excellent showing, considering that there was a heavy wind during the match. A large crowd attended this afternoon, including a number of special series matches for a challenge presented by J. & A. Coleman Co. of London will take place. This is a team prize and goes to the captain of the winning team. The ladies' cup will be competed for in the afternoon.

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 11--Articles of agreement for a fight between Jack Johnson and James J. Jeffries for the heavyweight championship of the world were signed here today. The fight is to take place within eight months before the club offering the best inducements. All bids for the fight are to be made inside of 60 days. Sam Barrow, manager for James J. Jeffries, George Little, Johnson's manager, and Jack Johnson were present at the meeting when the articles were signed.

Little, however, had nothing to do with the arrangement of terms for the fight, having turned the whole affair over to Johnson.

The articles prepared by Jeffries were given Johnson by Berger. After carefully perusing the paper, Johnson handed them back to Berger, remarking as he did so, that they were not at all satisfactory to him. He declared he was ready to sign agreements, but he wanted to sign an agreement to "fight." He then outlined what he conceived would be a satisfactory agreement.

A warm discussion followed. Berger objected to any mention of purse in the articles, but he finally yielded this point. Johnson was equally as insistent that the reference to Jeffries as the heavyweight champion of the world be stricken from the agreement, declaring that his position on this point was irrevocable. He finally won out and his reference to this subject was omitted.

The agreement as signed calls for a fight of from 92 to 100 pounds for the heavyweight championship of the world. The division of the purse was left to the decision of Jeffries. It also great ball for Pitcher Tenney. Tenney soon replaced the veteran Tom Tucker on first base and has been playing that position ever since. It is said that Tenney recently subjected McCraw's management to severe criticism which was published in a Pittsburgh newspaper.

The veteran first baseman was seen as saying that it was a serious error to trade Breunhan and it refused the salary demands of Doling; also that the treatment of Seymour was unjustified. McCraw evidently believes that Merkle will more than repay the salary of Doling. Tenney's shoes, and intends to let the young first baseman have plenty of experience during the rest of the season.

It is rumored among the major league circuits that this will be Fred Tenney's last year with the Giants. Just how this report started nobody seems to know, but players have been sending it from one to another for some time. Tenney broke into fast company in 1893-94, when Frank G. Selig, then manager of the Boston Nationals, picked him up at Brown University, where he was catching season.

VALLE FRUIT SUFFERS FROM GALE

ANNAPOLIS ROYAL, N. B., Aug. 11.—One of the fiercest gales that has visited this county at this time of year raged here for several hours early this morning and the damage reported is heavy. Grain and corn crops have in many localities been totally ruined, while other crops have suffered to a lesser extent. Hay that had been cut and cocked was blown broadcast over the surrounding country. Many of orchards are reported to have been completely raked by the gale, and large quantities of apples blown off. Reports received from the Bay Shore describe the damage done to fishing tackle as heavy.

PIERCE AT MONCTON.

MONCTON, N. B., Aug. 11.—The storm which raged with such violence here last night was extremely severe along the Westmorland coast. In the vicinity of Shediac fishermen lost heavily. A. M. McInnes and Co. lost seven boats, and others also lost heavily in boats and fishing gear. Much apprehension was felt for the new break-water works at Cape Baud, but a telephone message states that there is but little damage save to some small boats and schooners in Shediac Harbor here were blown ashore, but little damaged. Fruit trees and ornamental trees were not sheltered suffered severely.

MAR. MCFARLANE TO SUCCEED DR. CREED

FREDERICTON, N. B., Aug. 11.—Governor Tweedie presided at a meeting of the Board of Education this morning. The resignation of Dr. Creed as instructor of English at the Normal School was accepted, and A. Sterling MacFarlane of Fredericton High School staff was appointed. Chief Superintendent Carter was authorized to convey to Dr. Creed an expression of the board's appreciation of his long and faithful services.

Chief Supt. Carter and Principal Bridges were appointed a committee to take the matter up with the military and physical training being introduced in the Normal School at next term.

The committee appointed some time ago to look into the matter recommended that military and physical training be introduced in the Normal School at next term.

LURED TO WOOD, THEN ATTACKED

TRURO, N. S., Aug. 11.—Two men and a woman (the latter white) have been on trial for several days charged with assaulting and robbing a Guy-boro locksmith whom they enticed to a lonely part of the town limits. The man was accused after a drink and a squabble by the men. He was getting the best of them when the woman grabbed him around the shoulders and rendered him helpless for a moment. Then he was struck and knocked insensible. On recovering consciousness several hours later his pockets were empty, one containing several dollars having been stolen.

The men and woman were arrested later and have been sent up for trial. One is named Tracy; the other Lewis, a colored man. The white woman has been living here with him as his wife.

FIRE SWEEPS THROUGH TOWN

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Aug. 11.—A loss estimated at $1,000,000 was caused by the fire that swept thirty-six buildings from the main street of the summer resort town of Monticello, N. Y., last night. The fire was under control this morning after dynamite was used.

Three hotels filled with summer guests, mainly from New York City, were destroyed. They were the Rokek-Well House, the largest hotel in Sullivan county; the Palmetto Hotel, and the Bolsum House. All the guests escaped with most of their personal effects.

The Union National Bank, both newspaper offices, and every store but one in the town, were destroyed.

Early this morning when it was seen that the business section was doomed the firemen began to use dynamite to blow up the buildings by which the fire districts. By this means the residences destroyed. By this means the residences destroyed.

AMUSEMENTS

TODAY'S NEW MUSIC AT NICKEL.

No musical feature the Nickel has yet treated its patrons to has been received with more genuine delight than the Bush Family String Quintette, which is packing the big theatre afternoons and evenings. Today the new programme for these people is as follows: (a) "The Voice of Love," Schumann; (b) "Cello Solo," "Evening Star," Warner; (c) Hungarian Lullaby, Keler-Bela. There will be encore numbers as well. Already the music-loving people of the city have heard the children and have promised themselves a hearing of all their programmes. Mr. Robert Buchanan will today please again with Tosti's dramatic love-song, "Good-Bye," and on Friday will render "The Sweetest Flower That Grows," Saturday he farewells with a trio of selections on sulfa. The Nickel's picture bill elicited many laudatory remarks yesterday. It includes, "The Country Doctor (Biograph)," "A Friend of the Family" (Biograph), "Tender Heart" (Biograph), and "Before The Mast" (Gaiety). Big professional orchestra.

A GOOD SHOW AT H. H. H.

If you want to see one of the best pictures ever shown in this city, see The Slave at the H. H. H. today. Patrons said it's the best seen here in months. Words fail to describe it. It's a Biograph picture and one of these best. If you want a hearty laugh see The Contagious Ith, the crowd roared last night at both it and The New Footman, two great comedies. These pictures are shown for the last time today. Today Blampham and Peter have a new song programme. Matrimonial Squabbles is a comedy duet. Once Again is a catchy solo by Mr. Blampham and There's Something Nice About You is a very catchy conversational duet. Prof. Blampham's miniature circus is making a big hit with both children and adults. Hundreds of people were skeptical that a goose could be educated, but Prof. Blampham has shown that he can do it. The Monkey Leaping the Loop is a hit with everybody, so is Willie, the champion amorous dog, and Frank the clown dog. Send the children to the matinees at 2:15; only five cents for them at the matinee. Be early tonight; lots had to stand last night.

SUBPOENAS MAN AS HE SITS ON HIS STOMACH

Deputy Sheriff Uses Football Tackle to Throw His Quarry.

SUNBURY, Pa., Aug. 12.—By bringing into play a low tackle he learned on the football field, Stephen Gribbens, a Northumberland county deputy, foiled John E. Myers in the business section of Lock Haven today.

Then, while police kept back a big crowd, he continued to serve him in Myers, demanding his presence in court on an equity suit restraining him from taking $10,000, alleged fraudulently acquired from the Watsontown Brick and Clay Company.

When Gribbens commenced explaining his business Myers bolted away, but the agile deputy caught him within the square and had read half the subpoena when Myers grabbed the paper, tore it into halves and again dashed away.

Gribbens footed it several hundred yards and then diving low tackled Myers below the knees and held both feet with a claw. While the irate Myers writhed, crawled and kicked, Gribbens calmly sat and read half the subpoena and read the remaining part of the paper clutched in his hands.

The Poetic Philosopher
At night you seek your downy bed, and ere you sink to sleep and dream, that strange machine you call your head is full of weird and wondrous schemes; they seem too grand and great to fail; they'll fill you; treasury with dough; but morning shows them flat and stale—I often wonder why 'tis so. At eve you are a blithesome soul, your future is the one good bet; you gaily quaff the flowing bowl, or dance the stately minuet; your joy's obtrusive and intense; but morning finds you full of woe; you'd sell yourself for twenty cents—I often wonder why 'tis so. At night you walk beneath the stars, and high ambitions fill your soul; you'll better down opposing bars, and fight your way, and win the goal; but morning passes you the ice, your visions fade, your spirit's low; you spend the long day shaking dice—I often wonder why 'tis so. At night you think of things sublime, and inspiration fills your heart; you think you'll write a deathless rhyme, or cut a swath in realms of art; but morning finds you looking sick; you feel you haven't any show; you dig some bait and seek the creek—I often wonder why 'tis so.

BACKEVILLE, N. B., Aug. 11—A meeting of the executive of the board of regents of Mt. Allison University was held this afternoon to consider the erection of Sweet Memorial Hall. It was decided to build the hall on the site formerly occupied by the residence of the late Charles F. Allison, founder of Mt. Allison institutions. Some discussion arose as to the advisability of utilizing Lingley hall, but it was decided not to do so. Lingley hall will probably be moved to a site near Science hall and be fitted up for class rooms for the university. Several tenders for erection of the hall were received, but the contract was not awarded today, the whole matter being left in the hands of a committee with power to act.

'WHY POISONED DR. WILSON' TOLD BY HIS MURDERER

Strange Confession Sent to New York Newspaper by Man Who Tells Details of Plot in Famous Ale Poisoning Case.

On the night of June 28, 1908, Dr. William H. Wilson, a Philadelphia physician, was mysteriously murdered. Somebody had sent Dr. Wilson a bottle of poisoned ale. He drank it and died. For months the police of Philadelphia and other cities have been endeavoring to trace the bottle and lay the blame upon the person who sent it. More than a year has passed, and there is, apparently, no clue to the murderer. A few days ago the Philadelphia "American" came into possession of a letter which purports to be the confession of the man who murdered Dr. Wilson. To one of the staff was sent a letter by a man who asserts that he is the "executioner" of Dr. Wilson. Following the letter came an express package containing the confession and certain bits of evidence which the "executioner" forwarded to prove his genuineness. This evidence included the type from which the blank in the decoy envelope was printed; the die with which the top of the bottle was sealed; the initial with which the letter was stamped; and a duplicate of the decoy letter sent to the physician. All of these compare perfectly with the partial evidence now in the hands of the Philadelphia police. This remarkable confession is reprinted in part below.

THE PRISONER'S CONFESSION.
"Dr. William H. Wilson, professional murderer of the innocent, was executed by me June 28th, 1908. This is the first and full statement of the history of "Dr. Wilson's" execution, and an explanation and vindication of my act. I destroyed Wilson, and I have no regrets. Read, and you will understand.
The facts that led me to sweep with merciless certainty to the worthy execution of Wilson were principally, as has been correctly assumed, from the deathbed confession of my poor, despairing wife.
Owing principally to some unpleasant but serious financial reverses I had sustained, she was unwilling to again become a mother. A woman neighbor in whom she had confided introduced Wilson to her. He persuaded her, as I understand it, to become his patient.
My sorrow did not drive me to a frenzy, but to something deeper and more sinister. I was like a grief-stricken man. I realized that my grief should not be impotent but bear fruit. That it had done so I am fully convinced. My conscience is absolute, I clear.
However, it was not for revenge that Wilson was removed, but for the public good.
Although the time between my wife's confession and the final lapse into unconsciousness was but a few days, it was long enough to secure details that might help me to avenge her death and perhaps prevent another such tragedy in other homes. There were a number of details related but only three of these of real importance to me. One was the dress and the fact that he drank ale and ale only.
I read up Dr. Lemman's little handbook on poisons and concluded that cyanide of potassium would be about the best agent for my purpose. It does not have the strong peach kernel flavor of prussic acid, is much easier to get and getting it does not arouse suspicion, nor does one have to give a receipt—a mighty important point. I went to a photograph and camera house and represented myself as coming from a prominent professional photographer and had no trouble about getting what I wanted. It might be interesting to know that Wilson's fare to the next world cost me exactly one dollar in money.
Anticipating that the ale would taste wrong and that probably only one swallow would be taken, I ascertained by practice that the smallest swallow of a person would be likely to take is one drachm. Then fixing up the cyanide so that every drachm of the liquid would contain four grains of cyanide, which I believe Dr. Lemman considers the minimum fatal dose, I proceeded to experiment on this point. Knowing that the sample bottle might not be used at once, I thought it would be a good thing to see what action the chemical had on the appearance of the beverage, either at once or in a week's time. To my considerable disappointment I found that it darkened the color very much and made a thick, cloudy precipitate. I proceeded to experiment on this point. One point in my plan that never seems to have been caught by the students of the case was my direction in the letter to Wilson that the bottle be kept in a vertical position. This was because I was afraid that more precipitation might form and it this were poured into the glass it would be a good cause for suspicion. Another point was the direction to keep the ale cold. Many ale drinkers do not keep their beverage very cool but I figured that in a cold drink any peculiarity of flavor would not be as readily noticed.
The reason I wrote that the ale would not be on the market until July was because he might chance to speak of the sample to some dealer, who would naturally tell him that there is no such thing as Schumm's "Standard Ale." The explanation that the ale was not yet actually on the market would put at rest any doubt that might be caused in this way. Next came the question of bottling.
In order to give the appearance of an original package to the bottle, I purchased at a stationery store near with the murder. The affairs were fast being pigeon-holed under unsolved mystery of crime, when another letter was received by the Associated Press at Philadelphia. It had been written on the same typewriter as had been those sent to the coroner, and contained a full confession of the murder of the physician, and provided a code for communication.

The Associated Press put the matter before the Philadelphia police, who, counselling secrecy, laid plans to capture the writer. He was communicated with regularly through the medium of an afternoon paper—he had suggested. Negotiations progressed and then the police thought it time to spring their trap. This was baited by a decoy letter, they thinking innocently that the murderer would walk into the post office at Philadelphia, call for it, and be captured by the detectives. The posting of the letter was duly announced through the medium selected, and while a squad of detectives waited, a hopeful Delaware postman, who had seen the advertisement and had thought it referred to some rejected manuscript got the letter. Rage was rampant at headquarters, and another was prepared. While again the detectives waited, a woman called at the woman's general delivery window, and as the clerk had not been let into the plot of the police, and as they never thought of watching more than one window, had it transferred from the woman's window and walked away with it. This was too much. The murderer sent another quite insulting letter, complaining of police stupidity and unfair treatment, and the police decided to call the whole thing the work of a crank, as has been the custom of police ever since the first force was organized.
It happened that during the height of the interest in the case that Miss Ada Patterson, a member of the staff of the Philadelphia American newspaper, wrote an article upon malpractices in general which evidently attracted the "executioner's" attention. Not long ago he received a letter from Philadelphia that read in part:
"I am the person who killed Dr. William H. Wilson just one year ago today. For purposes which you will later understand, I have prepared an article upon the subject for which I wish an audience.
"I shall take the liberty of expressing you a small box containing the entire matter and everything pertaining to it that I have been able to procure through thoughtful consideration."
In due course the box came along. The box being opened proved to contain the confession, a number of copies of correspondence with the widow of Dr. Wilson and others, another letter to Miss Patterson, a steno dictation with the initial "S," a type initial "S" of thirty-six point Stuyvesant, a small piece of wood marked by a blow from some square-headed instrument and two bits of type, set up and bound together with a bit of string in true printer style.
The second letter said that these things were a part of the machinery with which the crime had been engineered, and were in part as follows:
"Wishing to do as much good as possible, I have prepared an article relating to my act, the purpose of which is principally to arouse public sentiment against malpractices.
"I send you an impression of the same hammer with which I nailed the box containing the confession. The wood is of the same used in the box, this merely to prove authenticity. I also send a duplicate of the envelope sent to me by you, which was marked by Wilson. This is the only duplicate in existence. To the initial "S" I send you I attach the greatest importance. After printing one side of the letter I nicked the type twice with a pen-knife so as to give it an identity and should the police ever capture the wrong person I could have this to send them proofs from; to show that the confession was still true. The nicks will absolutely correspond with the letterhead which the Philadelphia authorities have. These could never be discovered in the rough reproductions made in the newspapers. I have reason to believe that the Philadelphia police would like to get hold of every bit of evidence and another bit.
"Now this event changes for me a year of extraordinary events. My grief has been more than words can describe in matter—a grief that makes breath poor and speech unable.
"My actions do not cause me one moment's regret, but I shall feel regret should the police ever capture the evidence which, in the case of my sudden death, might bring sorrow to those I love."

AN INNOCENT ACCIDENT.
At Thirteenth and Filbert streets I was looking out my window, and walking rapidly up to him, asked him to take the package to the express office. I had just two minutes to spare. Seeing him come out of the express office empty-handed, I was satisfied and went home to finish my final details preparatory to an indefinite trip for the benefit of my health.
I had not gone far when I met a man who had sold me the type several weeks previously. As this good fellow was also good enough to forgive me, there is absolutely no trace of the slightest description of my appearance to be had by the police. The man's most serious fear I entertained was due to the fact that my wife might have written to him that the police might have a letter. This was the one point upon which I forgot to question her.

AFTER THE CRIME.
Wilson took his medicine on Friday. On Saturday morning I read out to him in one of the papers, but he was totally impossible to describe my feelings as I devoured those lines. I had faith that the plan would work, but was tremendously surprised to find that it had actually done so. I asked myself whether I was sorry to have taken a life that I could not now give back, for the death even of a wholesale murderer is a serious—yes, a solemn matter. I could find no cause for reproach, have found none since, and don't expect to find any, for reasons already explained.
Crossing over to Bristol, a first letter to the coroner was mailed at the Bristol post office Saturday afternoon. I did not buy a long distance ticket at Bristol, as that might attract some attention. I went to Trenton, then got a ticket for New York, and from there went to Boston by rail, arriving early in the morning.
As soon as I got located I wrote a second letter to the coroner, and mailed it from a station which I believe was on Copley Square. From this point my movements were uneventful, spending most of my time in Boston with a view to a trip to Portland and other points on the coast of Maine, but going nowhere that I could not keep in touch with the Philadelphia and New York papers.
HOW THE CONFESSION CAME.
For weeks after the murder the police of the entire country were occupied in searching for the slayer. A printer, Frederick Gies, was arrested, but soon proved he had nothing to do with the crime.

THAW WILL LEAD THE SIMPLE LIFE
No More White Lights or Bubbling Wine For Him
WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Aug. 10.—Harry K. Thaw issued a statement reviewing the evidence given in his recent hearing on his application for release from the Mattewan asylum. In the course of his argument to sustain his contention that he is sane, Thaw said that, according to the alienist, District Attorney Jerome had proved him to be sane "forty-five times over in his long questioning."
THAW TO BE GOOD.
PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 10.—Roger O'Mara has returned to Pittsburgh and tonight was willing to unequivocally declare Harry Thaw to be not only sane, but able to pass a lawyer's examination with credit right at the present moment.
Mr. O'Mara says Harry Thaw will soon be liberated and will go to Europe, "where in some secluded spot he will quietly rest, never to touch a drop again." He added: "Mrs. Thaw and Harry deserve all credit. If the boy is freed, Evelyn will not be troubled by Harry's company. No more white lights or bubbling wine for him. He will live in the future for his mother. Harry Thaw is a 'safe sane' man."

THE STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., THURSDAY, AUGUST 12 1903

WILL CONSTRUCT PLANT AT GRAND FALLS TO SUPPORT A CITY OF 30,000 PERSONS

Sir William Van Horne Reveals Plans of His Company to Sun-Other Scheme Visionary-Cuban Trade-St. John Harbor.

Sir Wm. Van Horne, who has probably done more than any other man in the systematic development of Canadian resources, besides taking a hand in a few other outside enterprises of almost equal importance, was in the city yesterday and talked interestingly to a Sun representative last evening.

The chief object of his visit to the city, he said, was to give his evidence regarding the dispute which has arisen over the expropriation proceedings at Grand Falls. Asked regarding the probable outcome of the dispute, Sir William said: "I have no idea what the result will be. It is hard to guess what a court will do, or a government either, for that matter."

Speaking of the plans of the Grand Falls Power and Boom Company, in which he is interested, Sir William said: "What we intend to do, if they do not take the opportunity away from us, is to erect a pulp and paper mill that will use practically all the power that can be generated by the falls. Such a plant would cost millions and would support a community of 30,000 persons. The plans of the other concern would make this impossible."

A VISIONARY SCHEME. They have a visionary scheme of developing electrical power to be used no one knows where. As far as the suggestion that power might be brought as far as St. John from Grand Falls, I would say that that is totally impracticable. What we would do is shown by what we have done at River St. Maurice, where our mill supports a community of from fifteen to twenty thousand people. An industry of this kind is a valuable asset to the community, giving steady employment to a large number of people permanently. It is not like lumbering, for instance, which sweeps a country bare and then leaves it."

In reply to a question touching on the policy of the C. P. R., Sir William said: "I am no longer the spokesman for that road. Sir Thomas Shaughnessy does the talking for the C. P. R. and it would not do to have more than one spokesman on it, with a smile, 'the less might not be consistent.' He, however, professed himself perfectly satisfied with the condition of the company and the progress it is making."

CUBAN RAILWAYS. Sir William's heavy investment in Cuban railways makes him interested in the prosperity of that island, and he spoke in a most hopeful manner of the new republic. "The climate," he said, "is ideal, and the temperature seldom goes above eighty. We had a couple of days in Montreal recently that would make the average Cuban seasick. Contrary to the impression that prevails in the north, the natives are most industrious and in the cross-section work from sunrise to dark. Laborers get about a dollar and a quarter a day now, which is good pay for the tropics. When I went there first they only received about forty cents a day, but the development of the island's resources has brought a share of prosperity to the workmen. The island is going ahead rapidly. Sugar is the most important product of the island at present, and there are sections where you can travel for days and never be out of sight of a big sugar mill, representing an investment of from a hundred thousand to a million dollars. There is lots of room yet, however, as only twenty per cent of the land is under cultivation. The population is only two millions, while Java, an island of about the same size, supports twenty-eight million people. At the rate they are developing now, however, they will have to charter some more islands in a few years on which to store the money they are making."

GREAT POSSIBILITIES.

"There are great possibilities there for trade with Canada. Lumber and potatoes are the products which could sell best, but there is an opportunity to build up a trade in many of the things that Canada produces. Some one should be sent down to study the conditions and the demands of the people in order that an intelligent effort may be made to fill them profitably. A good steamship service would help, but it is hard to get the service unless the merchants are willing to work to build up the trade."

HARBOR IN COMMISSION. Asked for his opinion of the wisdom of the city's course in seeking to turn the harbor over to a government commission, Sir William said: "I have always favored the control of harbors by the people where they are located. We have had great success, though, in Montreal, where the harbor is controlled by a commission. The commission consists of a citizen and the support of all the citizens and under such circumstances do excellent work. If St. John cannot keep its own harbor and provide the facilities for the growth of business that is bound to come without increasing the charges on the traffic I would say that the best thing to do is to turn the harbor over to the government. The business always seeks for where the charges are the lightest and you cannot afford to scare it away by increasing the cost of handling the traffic."

DISTRESSING SCENE AT McADAM JCT. LAST NIGHT

A distressing scene was witnessed on the station platform at McAdam Junction last night. When the express arrived from the north a young man was taken off suffering from some acute form of heart trouble. He was unconscious, but his body was racked with convulsions. For over an hour he lay on the station platform in this state, while his fellow-passengers and the station officials tried every method in their power to relieve his sufferings. There was no doctor in McAdam Junction, the local physician being several miles up the lake. An effort to get medical assistance from Vancouver was unsuccessful, but finally a doctor was secured at Harvey and brought up on the Boston train. By the time he arrived the patient's condition was somewhat improved, and he soon regained consciousness under proper treatment.

TO POLE BY AIRSHIP IS KAISER'S SCHEME

Believes that a Zeppelin Machine Will Solve the Problem of the Frozen North. BERLIN, Aug. 11.—The Kaiser and Count Zeppelin have joined hands in plans for a voyage to the North Pole by an airship of improved "Zeppelin" type, under the direct leadership of the veteran inventor and Professor Hergeshell, his meteorological adviser. A series of preliminary expeditions preparatory to the "final dash" to the pole itself is to be carried out in 1910. Although glib critics feel constrained to point to the still unborn Zeppelin I at Biberach as evidence of the visionary character of the project, the public imagination is fired by the scheme. The expedition was decided upon as the result of Professor Hergeshell's audience with the Kaiser in the Hohenzollern at Kiel yesterday. Herr Hergeshell explained to his majesty in great detail the plan he and Count Zeppelin had worked out. The count will construct a vessel exceeding in power, endurance and speed any he has hitherto built. Cross bay, on the west coast of Spitzbergen, has been selected as the base for various flights into the Polar area. The airship will make the trip from Germany to Spitzbergen across Norway, with one or more intermediate landings. Separate expeditions from Cross Bay will explore the unknown regions of the north of Greenland and Emperor Francis Joseph's bay. The Kaiser was fascinated by Herr Hergeshell's vivid description of Count Zeppelin's arrangements, and declared unhesitatingly that he would assume the patronage of the enterprise.

SHOT BECAUSE HE SHOVELS MORE COAL

Andette Taunted Ste. Marie and Now Ste. Marie is Pursued by Police for Emptying Revolver at Andette. TORONTO, Aug. 12.—Because his erstwhile chum, Generoso Andette, claimed superiority as a coal shoveller, "Jimmy" Ste. Marie, an Italian, eighteen years of age, lay in wait for Andette near the pumping station at Windmill Point, and attempted to murder him, shooting five times at him with a revolver. Fortunately his marksmanship was bad, and none of the bullets found their mark. Cursing with disappointment and rage, Ste. Marie flung away the useless weapon, and dashed down Mill street, and so far the detectives who are on his trail, have failed to locate him. The two men were employed as laborers at the Dominion Coal Company's plant at Windmill Point, and rivalry existed as to which was the better coal shoveller. Yesterday afternoon the dispute came to a head, and Andette taunted and made fun of Ste. Marie's work, before the other workmen. Unable to stand the others' gibe, Ste. Marie, boiling with rage, threw down his shovel, and refused to work any longer. He went home to his boarding house at 24 Conway, and borrowed a revolver, changed his clothes and made arrangements for getting out of the city. Then loading the revolver he sauntered down to the pumping station at Windmill Point, and waited for Andette to come along from his work. The five shots were fired from almost point blank range, and Andette staggered with terror, while Ste. Marie emptied the revolver at him. Every shot missed and complaint was made to the police by Andette, and the matter would probably never have come to light, had not Mrs. Mingen, who lives at 14 Forfar street, heard the shots, and immediately telephoned to the Grand Trunk station, and two policemen were detached to hunt up the culprit. Later a good description of Ste. Marie was sent to the detective office and Detective McCall and Higgins were put to work on the case. It is believed that Ste. Marie deliberately planned to murder Andette, and succeeded in getting out of town to some lumber or railway camp.

PRINCESS IS PARDONED BY ROYAL PARENTS

Emperor of Austria Pleads for Her and Love Romance Has Happy End. BERLIN, Aug. 11.—The announcement that Countess Elizabeth Seefried has left her home in Austria to visit her parents, Prince and Princess Leopold of Bavaria, at Munich, reveals the happy conclusion to a royal romance. Princess Elizabeth of Bavaria was 13 years old when she fell in love with Baron Otto von Seefried, a young lieutenant in a Bavarian regiment. Princess Elizabeth, like all members of the Bavarian royal family, was a Roman Catholic, and Baron von Seefried, apart from being far inferior to her in birth, was a Protestant. When Princess Elizabeth told her parents she desired to further her betrothal to the young man, they were shocked on December 2, 1893. Princess Elizabeth had been betrothed to Prince Francis Joseph, her mother having been the Emperor's eldest daughter. Baron Seefried was not only a fugitive from justice in Bavaria, but also penniless, so that the young couple were entirely without means of subsistence. Early one morning they drove up to the imperial palace in Vienna. Baron Seefried remained in the cab while Princess Elizabeth entered the palace, and threw herself on her knees before her grandfather. The kind-hearted Emperor gave Baron Seefried a position as officer in an Austrian regiment, and granted the young couple an allowance. Baron Seefried's regiment was stationed at Szeged, where his wife became extremely popular. Finding that the young couple lived happily together, the Emperor Francis Joseph raised Baron Seefried to the rank of count, and gave the young couple an estate in Moravia. His Majesty repeatedly interceded at Munich to bring about the reconciliation of his granddaughter and her parents, who had refused to have anything to do with her. He has at last been successful, so that the Countess Seefried is now able to visit the Court of Munich.

TEMPLARS' DAY CLOSES WITH A FINE BANQUET

Many Toasts Responded to Important Business Transacted at Two Sessions. The feature of yesterday's session of the Supreme Council of the Templars of Honor and Temperance was the banquet tendered the visiting delegates in Alexandra Hall, North End, last evening. About eighty were in attendance. A lengthy toast list was a feature of the occasion. During the afternoon and in the evening before the banquet the Supreme Council sat in regular session. The banquet was held in the main hall on the ground floor of the building. The room was suitably decorated with bunting and British and American flags. Caterer Scammell and an efficient staff had charge of the arrangements. The guests took their seats at about 8.45. The banquet was finished and the speaking begun at eleven. The toast list was as follows: The King. The Supreme Council, proposed by W. C. Whittaker, M. W. T.; responded to by W. L. Condit, M. W. T. Treasurer. The Most Worthy Recorder and Our Paper, proposed by W. P. Condit; responded to by Rev. Dr. Woodruff, M. W. R. The Grand Jurisdiction, proposed by C. H. Gates; responded to by Rev. Dr. Woodruff, G. T. G. Blewett, and Hon. David J. Robinson. The Council Department, proposed by Brother Sloan, responded to by Brother Peake. The Supreme Templars, proposed by W. C. Whittaker, M. W. T.; responded to by Brethren W. J. Hawlings, F. A. Estey and H. D. Williams. The Junior Department, proposed by Brother Frank Dyer, responded to by Brethren S. P. Logan, Carey Black, G. T. G. Blewett and R. D. Martin. The Learned Professions, proposed by Brother Jas. Hides; responded to by Rev. Mr. Full, E. T. C. Knowles and Dr. Gray. Women as Temperance Workers, proposed by Dr. W. P. Roberts; responded to by Sisters Woodruff, Sloan and Gray. The Veterans of the order, proposed by Brother Frank McParlin; responded to by Brethren H. D. Williams and John Keady. At the evening session it was decided to send to Congressman C. Q. Tirrell, who has been prevented from attending the meeting of the Supreme Council by the protracted session of the Congress of the United States, a letter expressing regret on account of his absence. The report of the committee on Objections was also received. It made especial mention of the loss sustained by the Supreme Council through the death of J. Higgins of Massachusetts, J. A. Decker of Connecticut, Chas. H. Smith of Wisconsin, and Charles A. Everett of St. John. The last named had been a member of the order and a prominent official from the time of its inception until his death. A special resolution was presented to Rev. C. S. Woodruff, D. D., most worthy recorder, congratulating him on the completion of twenty-one years in office. This record is unparalleled in the history of the order. The council also decided after some discussion to do away with certain minor offices of the order. The following five members of the council were appointed a committee to attend the next general gathering of temperance workers: W. C. Whittaker, St. John; Hon. D. J. Robinson, Massachusetts; W. L. Condit, New Jersey; C. Q. Tirrell, Massachusetts. One of the most important matters attended to by the council dealt with finance. It was decided to raise a propagation fund. This will be obtained by having each member of the order contribute one dollar. Congratulations were extended to the grand temples of Sweden and England, which during the past year have done excellent work. At the close of the evening session a reception was held.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

There was considerable surprise in bond circles when it was learned that the Manitoba Government's per cent. securities had been sold at par. Not only was the successful bid high, but of the eight received no less than five were figured at 99 or above. Although the Manitoba Government had not given out a list of bids, the Monetary Times prints below the complete details.

Bank of Commerce	100
Hanson Bros.	99.54
C. A. Simpson and Co.	99.27
Ontario Securities	99.01
H. O'Hara and Co.	99
C. Meredith and Co.	98.85
Domestic Securities Corporation	97.27
Aemilus Jarvis and Co.	97.27

One prominent bond house, which did not make an offer, told the Monetary Times last night that they were sent in a tender it would have been near the lowest two prices rather than the others. The bid of 97.27 they considered about right.

A cable from England and other private despatches prior to the award indicated that bidding from Britain would not be spirited. It was most unlikely that any English bid direct would have exceeded 98. The opinion in London is that issues such as the Manitoba have been very frequent. Manitoba was in the market but a few weeks ago.

ST. JOHN BALL TOSSERS OFF TO FREDERICTON

Play the Tartars This Afternoon—New Pitching Staff Probable for Saturday's Championship Games.

The local base ball players left for Fredericton this morning to clash with the Tartars of that city. The team was composed mostly of St. Joseph's players, and was captained by Joseph M. Donnelly.

A double header will be played today. The first game will start at 2:30 o'clock.

Among the local players who will appear at the capital are: McGowan, catcher; Donovan, pitcher; Donnelly, first base; Cregan, second base; Lynch, third base; Malloy, short stop; Riley, left field; J. Dever, centre field; Harrison or Callihan, right field.

That Saturday's championship match between the Marathons and St. Peter's will see the introduction of new players. In the game seems an assured fact. Both aggregations are admittedly weak in the pitching staff. It is now proposed that Callaghan will pitch for the Marathons. The teams are determined that the slugger match on Saturday last shall not be duplicated.

W. S. HOOPER Grand Master Elect

Following the election, the report of the finance committee was received and adopted. It was decided not to reduce the price of official certificates. This afternoon Grand Lodge will consider S. A. Chesley's resolution looking to the division of the Grand Lodge into two jurisdictions; reports will take up the Oddfellows Home proposition will hear committee reports and will put through a lot of minor business. In view of the amount of work to be performed, the time at the disposal of Grand Lodge before adjournment this evening, seems very short.

By this morning's train a small party of Halifax members of the order came to the city. Some of them hold the Patriarchs' Militant degree, united with members of Canton La Tour and Canton Worcester, and to the Valentine McLean, son of the Dufferin Hotel to the assembly rooms. The Halifax party will return this evening. It is probable, too, that a considerable number of the Nova Scotia delegates will leave for their homes by the late train tonight.

The Worcester party who came here yesterday spent this forenoon in sightseeing. This afternoon they will go to the falls and park in bookboards. Tomorrow afternoon will be spent on the river. The excursionists will board the steamer at Market Slip, going through the falls, and will sail as far as Carter's Point, where luncheon will be served. Later the tug will sail further up and will return in the evening.

PROBATE COURT.

Estate of Sarah Simpson, late of the Parish of Simonds, widow. Last will proved whereby the deceased gives to her niece, Isabel and Annie Mullin, and to Valentine McLean, son of Robert and Sarah McLean, $100 each; to Margaret, wife of Joseph John Henderson, also a conductor on the C. P. R., and to Maria, wife of George Noble, merchant, and to Ethel, daughter of the said George and Maria Noble, and to Annie, Elizabeth and Margaret Henderson, daughters of the said John and Elizabeth Henderson and to Sarah McLean, wife of Robert McLean, farmer, and to Isabel, a daughter, and to Robert McLean, Jr., and William McLean, one of the said Robert and Sarah McLean, $50 each, all the rest of the estate to her said two nieces, Isabel Mullin and Annie Mullin equally, and nominates Howard D. McLeod, then Dominion Savings Bank Manager, executor, who is sworn in as such. No real estate. Personal property under $1,200. Messrs. Earle, Belyea and Campbell, proctors. A somewhat notable incident in connection with the late Mrs. Simpson is the fact that she was born on the same day as her late Majesty, Queen Victoria.

MORRISON-NESBITT.

A quiet wedding took place at the Baptist parsonage, 116 Waterloo St., at two o'clock yesterday afternoon, when Mr. Duncan R. Morrison and Miss Myrtle G. Nesbitt, both of this city, were united in marriage by Rev. Baptist Church. The couple will make their home in this city.

All members of La Tour Section are requested to meet at their drill hall tomorrow at 11:30 a. m. to march over in a body to the new Temple Hall and the united sections, headed by St. Mary's Band, will march to the May Queen which leaves at 1:30 p. m.

AT MIRA'S LTD. OPENING OF A NEW ROOM

..... IN OUR ..... 1909 ANNEX BUILDING

We invite the public to the Opening of the Second Floor in our new building, King Street

On Friday Morning, Aug. 13th, The entire Second Floor of this New Annex is to be devoted to the sale of

and has been fitted in the most modern style for the display of Lingerie, including Whitewear, Underwear, Corsets, Baby Linen, and every variety of goods usually found in a department of the kind. The floor space now occupied by this department exceeds two thousand superficial feet, being fully three times the size of the old department just vacated.

In this connection we desire to return thanks to our patrons for their forbearance with the accommodations this department has offered for some time past, and to express our pleasure in now being in a position to wait upon our customers in a much more satisfactory manner. The entrance to the 1909 Annex will be by the old entrances on King Street or Germain St. Manchester Robertson Allison Limited
