DR. HORSEY FOR NORTH GREY.

OWEN SOUND, Feb. 9.—The Liberals of North Grey met in convention Saturday. t was one of the grandest political meetgs that has ever been held in this riding. e large town hall, capable of holding arly 1,000 people, was packed to the or with delegates from the municipalities and old stalwart Reformers from every part of the riding, mingled with the younger and equally enthusiastic supporters of Liberal principles. When the roll of delegates was called by Secretary A. G. McKay fully 200 delegates answered to the call. Mr. B. Allen, Dr. McCullough, John Macdonald, Dr. Horsey and Jas. Cochrane reeve of Derby, were nominated. On the seventh ballot Dr. Horsey led in the vote and on the motion of John Macdonald and James Cochrane the nomination was made unanimous, the assemblage rising as one man and cheering most vociferously. The whole convention went wild with enthusiasm, and would not allow the doctor to speak for some time with their loud and continued cheering. The convention broke up with cheers for the Queen, Hon. Wilfrid Laurier and the nominee. North Grey is safe for the Liberal cause and unrestricted reciprocity.

THE SITUATION IN QUEBEC.

QUEBEC, Feb. 9.—Quebec Liberals have no doubt that Mr. Laurier will come out of the fight with the largest majority ever obtained by a Liberal leader in this Province. All the old-time Liberals, who voted with the Tories at the last election, are flocking back to the standard at the cry of reciprocity. The change is remarkable in the townships, and especially in Megantic. Caron has given up all hope of election in Quebec county, Portneuf or Levis, and has decided to run for Chicoutimi. It is a forlorne hope.

NOVA SCOTIA.

HALIFAX, Feb. 9.—Things political are becoming very lively throughout Nova Scotia. Especially is this true of Halifax. The Liberals' standard-bearers will be almost certainly Hon. A. G. Jones and Dr. Edward Farrell, and most people say this a winning team. D. C. Fraser, Government leader in the Provincial Legislative Council, was nominated as the Liberal candidate in Guysboro. The prospects for a Liberal sweep in this Province, it can be safely asserted, have not looked brighter for the last twenty years.

THEY HAVE TAKEN NOTES.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—Sir John Macdonald need not be surprised if he ascertains, when the commission which he is to send to Washington arrives here, that the Administration has a very careful summary of the attitude of the Dominion Government towards the United States as an argument why the proposals for reciprocity made in the interest of the success of the Macdonald party ought not to be considered. It will be claimed that the Government of Sir John Macdonald is insincere, in that in many ways the Canadian tariff discriminates against the United States. There is a discriminatory duty of 10 cents a pound on tea and coffee imported by way of the United States. There is a discriminating duty on American silver coin. An export duty was placed on Canadian logs and was only removed by the compulsory effect of the McKinley Bill. American fishermen are not allowed to ship goods in bond through Canada, although such privileges have always been granted on this side to Canadian fishermen, and if it were not for the bonding privileges granted Canadians they would be shut out from the markets of the world during the winter season. The provisions of the treaty providing for the reciprocal privileges in the use of the canals connecting the great lakes and the St. Lawrence River have been evaded by the Canadian Government by a system of rebate duties. Canadian railroads are allowed extraordinary bonding privileges by our Government, and American customs officers are stationed on Canadian soil and American goods are allowed to be taken over there and stored in Canadian elevators and loaded and bonded on Canadian soil and brought back into the United States free of duty. When a request was made last summer of the Canadian Government for like privileges for American roads the request, it is claimed, was denied. Canadian wrecking vessels have been allowed to come on the American side to the relief of Canadian vessels wrecked on our shores, but the Canadian Government has refused to allow like privileges to American vessels wrecked on the Canadian side. The American captains must employ Canadian wreckers or allow their vessels to go to the bottom.

The text of the proposed treaty as made public by Premier Macdonald awakens only ridicule among those well informed on the subject in this city. Such a proposition would not receive a moment's consideration by the State Department that there must be unrestricted reciprocity or none.

WEST BRUCE.

LUCKNOW, Feb. 10.—On Saturday night last a large meeting of Reformers was held in the office of Mr. James Somerville, ex-M. P. for West Bruce, to select delegates to the convention to be held in Kincardine on Friday next to choose a candidate to represent West Bruce. The following gentlemen were chosen: Messrs. Angus McCuaig, James Bryan, G. W. Berry, J. G. Murdoch, Wm. Connell and D. McDonald. A strong working committee was appointed to look after the election generally, with Mr. Somerville as chairman, G. W. Berry, treasurer, and Walter Campbell, secretary. West Bruce is safe, but we want to make the majority as large as we can, and, besides, if Mr. O'Connor takes East Bruce against Mr. Cargill we will have a local contest right away, and then we are just on the boundary between West Bruce and West Huron, and have always rendered assistance to that old veteran, M. C. Cameron.

DR. MACDONALD FOR EAST HURON.

BRUSSELS, Feb. 10.—A very enthusiastic and largely-attended Liberal convention for the East Riding of Huron was held in the Town Hall here yesterday. The president, Mr. Hislop, occupied the chair and with him upon the platform were Dr. Macdonald, the worthy representative of the riding in the House of Commons just dissolved, Messrs. Thos. Gibson, M.P.P.; S. Gracey, first vice-president; T. W. Gibson, second vice-president; W. H. Kerr, secretary-treasurer; J. R. Smith, Thomas Strachan, M. Y. McLean, Robt. Elliott, W. M. Sinclair, Dr. Sloan, W. B. Dickson and others. The following gentlemen were proposed: Dr. Macdonald, moved by Thos. Gibson, M.P.P., seconded by Mr. John R. Smith, of Brussels; T. W. Gibson, Dr. Sloan, Thos. Strachan, M. Y. McLean, J. A. Morton, S. Gracey and A. Hislop. Each of the persons named, in inverse order, briefly addressed the convention in pithy speeches and withdrew in favor of Dr. Macdonald. The doctor, on rising to accept the nomination, could not be heard for some time owing to the cheers and applause of the audience, who have every confidence in his ability to successfully carry the Liberal banner to victory, as he did in the last contest when he wrested the constituency from the Conservatives. A splendid speech, occupying about an hour, was then delivered by Dr. Macdonald. Resolutions condemning the Government's abuse of its power, indorsing unrestricted reciprocity and expressing confidence in the Liberal leaders were unanimously adopted.

FOR RECIPROCITY.

DETROIT, Feb. 10.—The following telegram was sent by the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Exchange to James G. Blaine, Secretary of State at Washington: "On behalf of the members of this exchange, embracing the principal financial, commercial and manufacturing interests of this city, and in behalf of a very large number of merchants and manufacturers of this State, who approve not only of reciprocity with South and Central America but all America, we acknowledge our appreciation of the commercial advantages gained by you for our common country through the agreement completed with Brazil, and we urge a continuance of your efforts to open up avenues of reciprocal trade and commerce, and particularly with Canada."

SOUTH GREY.

HANOVER, Feb. 10.—The Reform convention of Bentinck was held at McDougall's school house on Saturday. It was the largest and most enthusiastic convention ever held in Bentinck. Neil McDougall, president presided; E. Doberer, secretary. Thomas Clark was elected president, E. Doberer secretary. All the other officers were chosen, and delegates appointed to the convention in Durham on the 12th. After the routine business was disposed of Dr. Landerkin was called upon and made a stirring speech. The meeting passed a resolution unanimously in favor of Dr. Landerkin, and called upon the delegates to support him as their candidate at the convention.

SOUTH BRANT READY.

BRANTFORD, Feb. 10.—If all the constituencies are as well prepared for the fray as South Brant the country will administer a stinging rebuke to the tricksters at Ottawa who have precipitated the elections as a last resort. The Liberal gathering of Saturday took the form of a formal convention. Soon after the hour for which it was called a thoroughly representative gathering filled the hall. The meeting was called to order by ex-Mayor Heyd, president of the Reform Association. James Somerville, M. P. for North Brant, Hon. A. S. Hardy, Thomas Bain, M.P. for North Wentworth, and Mr. Styers, Indian interpreter, and others occupied seats on the platform. When Mayor Read stepped forward to nominate Mr. Paterson as "one of the best men in Canada, and one of whom every Canadian should be proud," the applause was most hearty and long continued. The nomination was seconded by Mr. Styers. The meeting signified approval by three rousing cheers.

After speeches by Messrs. Bain and Jas. Somerville the chairman called Mr. Paterson to the platform and formally informed him of his nomination for the seventh time as the Liberal standard-bearer for this riding. In reply Mr. Paterson said he felt greatly moved and honored by the unanimous and hearty action of this convention, and, while Parliamentary duties involved considerable sacrifice to him as a business man and a lover of home and home life, he could not but accept the nomination in the spirit in which it was offered.

Hon. A. S. Hardy was greeted with prolonged applause. He spoke of the evident sympathy existing between the electors and Mr. Paterson, and said he was a credit to the riding he represented, and South Brant was inseparably connected in the minds of all Canadians with the name. He arraigned the Government on the score of its violated pledges and criminal extravagance. Continuing, he referred to the recent action of the Central Farmers' Institute in declaring almost unanimously in favor of unrestricted trade or reciprocity, and closed with a stirring appeal for thorough organization.

NORTH RENFREW LIBERALS.

PEMBROKE, Feb. 10.—One of the largest and most enthusiastic political conventions ever held in North Renfrew took place at the Town Hall here yesterday for the purpose of selecting a standard-bearer for the Liberal party. Many of the delegates from the townships had been supporters of Mr. Peter White, the Conservative member, for years past, but they have become disgusted with his actions and with the policy of the Conservative party, and enthusiastically entered the Liberal party determined to defeat Mr. White and add to the success of the Liberal party throughout the Dominion. Mr. Harry Barr, a leading Reformer from the banner Liberal township of Bromley, was then proposed and unanimously chosen as the Liberal standard-bearer, amidst the wildest applause and cheers. The farmers of the riding will vote in a body for Mr. Barr, the farmers' candidate. The great Liberal rally closed with enthusiastic cheers for the Queen, the Hon. Mr. Laurier, the Liberal party and Mr. Barr.

MR. BAIN IN NORTH WENTWORTH.

DUNDAS, Feb. 10.—One of the largest and most enthusiastic conventions ever held in North Wentworth assembled yesterday and nominated Mr. Thomas Bain as the candidate of the Liberal party for the Dominion elections. Mr. John Weir, of West Flamboro, president of the convention, was in the chair, and Mr. T. H. Begue discharged the duties of secretary. There were representatives from all parts of the riding, and the feeling was pronounced in favor of returning once again a supporter of the Liberal party.

SOUTH SIMCOE LIBERALS.

ALLISTON, Feb. 10.—The Alliston Reform Association met on Saturday, and the following officers were elected: President, J. M. Duncan; vice-president, Robert Scott; secretary, Hugh Wright; treasurer, Thos. McMylor; executive committee, J. M. Duncan, Robt. Scott, Hugh Wright, Thos. McMylor, Geo. Applegate, John Rose, James Egan, John Reid, Malcolm McGregor. It was resolved that the South Simcoe convention be held at Cookstown on Feb. 17, at 1 o'clock, in Temperance Hall. A resolution was carried declaring confidence in the Liberal trade policy. The president, after being re-elected, gave an interesting address on the trade questions, which was warmly received.

SOUTH ONTARIO.

At Oshawa Monday a great meeting of electors of South Ontario was addressed by Sir Richard Cartwright and Mr. F. Boas, a manufacturer of St. Hyacinthe, Que., employing 700 hands and eager for free trade with the United States. They met a grand reception in this manufacturing town, and all the indications point to the certain redemption of South Ontario.

A feature of the Reform meeting at Oshawa was the speech of Mr. Boas, not only because of his position but because of the force and directness with which he put his arguments. He told how he had come from Germany twenty odd years ago, and after a short residence in the United States had come on to Canada and had settled here because he saw enough to give him faith in the country and in the people. He declared that he had never been an active politician and was not known either as a Liberal or as a Conservative. Having some practical knowledge of business he had some things to say upon the question now before the people which he believed they would consider important. He said he had regretted the establishment of the protective system, knowing that it could not but result in injury to local interests. He told how he had visited Oshawa in 1873 in the way of business, and found it a thriving manufacturing town, and spoke to an audience who evidently realized the truth of what he said; how one after another of the great industries had gone down, so that Oshawa was not now as prosperous as it had been nearly twenty years ago. He gave some figures about clothing. Ready-made clothing in Canada is to a large extent made of English cloth. In England the cloth is sold for one shilling or one and six pence per yard of 60 to 62 inches wide. It takes about 3¼ to 3½ yards to make a suit, and this suit can be made up and sold at what equals from $1 75 to $4 of Canadian money. This cloth has to pay 20 per cent. ad valorem and 10 cents per pound, and these duties, with freights and expenses, brought the price to the Canadian dealer up to about 40 cents a yard, and, when profits were added and the goods in the form of a suit of clothes reached the Canadian consumer, the suit which cost $1 75 to $4 in England cost in Canada $8 to $10. A great deal was said against direct taxation, but at least under direct taxation the people knew what they were paying for the support of Government and would not submit to being taxed as they were under the indirect system. This statement was received with tremendous applause. Mr. Boas produced a sample of wall paper. This paper, he said, was manufactured in New York at 5 cents a roll, and was sold to the consumer at 6 cents. The duty on it, imposed for the benefit of one wall paper manufacturer, was 6 cents a roll, and it was sold to the consumer in Canada at from 12½ to 15 cents a roll. The firm for whose benefit the protection was given failed the other day and paid 50 cents on the dollar. Then he spoke of the Magog print works, which were established with a great flourish of trumpets some time ago. He had been asked to subscribe to the stock of the company, but, knowing how difficult it was to carry on such an industry in a restricted market, he declined. There are always enough fools to go into this kind of thing, he went on, and the $400,000 capital was raised and invested. The men who put their money into the project now have their experience, and their plant has been sold to a company manufacturing ordinary cottons at one-fifth of its value. He spoke with especial enthusiasm and brought out in strong contrast three points concerning the country. The first was its marvelous productiveness; second, its sparse population, and third, the fact that for building one railway through it half a dozen men had been made millionaires. He told of the enormous profits, $50,000 a year, made by one woolen manufacturer during 1879 and 1880, and contrasted this with a letter which he had received from this same manufacturer lately, "after the National Policy had worked out its natural result of over-competition," urging a combine and temporary closing down of the mills. Speaking as a manufacturer, he declared himself ready to compete in the open market with all comers, and showed how in opportunities to buy good machinery, in efficient labor, in water power, the Canadian manufacturer stood at least on a par with the American, his only want being a market. He spoke in glowing terms of Canada as a land wherein he had found a home and the land of which he was proud to be a citizen; the land with a situation and resources to make a future yet undreamed of by the most sanguine of persons, and urged that the shackles of restriction should be struck off and that the country should have a chance to grow and develop. He predicted rapid and steady development if the present restrictive policy were abolished, and urged the people in their own interest and in the interest of the country to support the Liberal party in the coming elections.

WEST MIDDLESEX LIBERALS.

The annual meeting and convention of the Liberal Association of West Middlesex was held in Glencoe yesterday afternoon and was one of the most splendid gatherings ever held in the riding. The purpose was to nominate a candidate in the Liberal interests for the Dominion elections. About 1 o'clock the meeting was called to order by the president, B. Watterworth, of Mosa, with F. F. Evans as secretary. The first business taken up was the election of officers, which resulted in the re-election of B. Watterworth, president; W. Murdock, vice-president; G. M. Harrison, treasurer; F. F. Evans, secretary. Chairmen of township associations: Adelaide, J. M. Henderson; Strathroy, J. P. Whitehead, V.S.; Metcalfe, W. S. Calvert; Glencoe, J. M. Tait; Mosa, Duncan Campbell; Euphemia, John Webster; Newbury, Amos Fennel, sen.; Wardsville, W. W. Shepard. On the calling for credentials over 100 delegates from the above townships, towns and villages answered to their names, who, with several hundred interested Liberals filled the building to its utmost capacity.

Before proceeding to the selection of a candidate brief but rousing speeches were made by the president and Messrs. John Waterworth, W. S. Calvert, R. S. Hills, D. M. Cameron, J. Ivor, W. Murdock, H. Reycraft, R. H. Hughes, D. Leitch, R. H. Shields, D. Campbell, W. H. Sutherland, A. P. McDougald, Alex. Stewart, E. R. Cameron and George C. Gibbons, Q.C., of London, Hon. G. W. Ross and others. The most intense enthusiasm pervaded the whole meeting, and the one demand was unrestricted trade with their southern neighbors, and down with the giant combine, "protection." On nominations being called for, the following gentlemen were nominated: D. M. Cameron, Strathroy; Hector McFarlane, Ekfrid; W. H. Sutherland, Napier; Geo. C. Elliott, Ekfrid; J. Watterworth, Mosa; W. Murdock, Strathroy; W. S. Calvert, Napier; Alex. Stewart, Glencoe; D. Campbell, Mosa; S. Gibb, Wardsville; William Brock, Adelaide, and George C. Gibbons and E. R. Cameron, London. All the candidates declined except Messrs. H. McFarlane, W. Murdock and W. Brock. On the first ballot Mr. McFarlane received a majority of votes, and on motion of Mr. Wm. Murdock, who made an excellent speech, it was made unanimous, amid wild cheering. The Patrons of Industry have adopted unrestricted trade as their watchword, and Mr. McFarlane is a well-to-do farmer, a Patron of Industry, and one of the best types of the Canadian farmer to be had. Intelligent, thoroughly honest and thoroughly trusted, he will carry the banner of freedom of trade to a successful issue in West Middlesex. If Sir John could hear the speeches of delegate after delegate dealing with the trade question, with thorough knowledge of the subject, he would know "the hand writing was on the wall." The people have been aroused, and Mr. McFarlane will have the support of hundreds of intelligent Patrons of Industry who have in their lodges been contending for what is simply the policy of the Liberal party. They know the policy of Sir John means still further aid to the combines. As one of the speakers put it—"We will stick to the 'old flag,' but we will let the 'Old Man' and the 'old policy' 'go.'"

NOTES.

Hon. G. W. Ross addressed meetings at Tara and Wiarton in North Bruce last week, and did splendid work for the Liberal candidate for the Legislature.

Sir John Macdonald publishes in the Conservative organs an address to the people of Canada. It endeavors to establish that neither he nor his Government are begging for favors from the United States. He gives his side of the story of the offer to negotiate, and winds up with a strong personal appeal to his old supporters.

About 1,000 people attended the Conservative gathering in Ontario Hall, Kingston, Saturday night. Resolutions indorsing the policy of the Government, nominating Sir John A. Macdonald and pledging support to him passed. Sir Charles Tupper was the chief speaker, and he talked for over an hour and almost wholly on the reciprocity question.

Mr. J. S. Dewar, of South London, is returning officer for South Middlesex.

In South Oxford Mr. M. Walsh, of Ingersoll, is reported to have taken the nomination of a Conservative convention.

A monster meeting of Quebec Liberals is called for Wednesday night at Jacques Cartier Hall, when Hon. W. Laurier will address his constituents.

EXPANSIVE MISS EWING.

She is Eight Foot Tall and Shy—She Is Going to Europe.

A fly stood lazily upside down on the ceiling of a room in the St. Nicholas Hotel yesterday and gazed with furtive interest at a family that had arrived the night before. They were Benjamin F. Ewing and his wife and daughter, from Scotland county, Missouri. Mr. Ewing is a middle-aged farmer, six feet in height, of spare frame. He wore a mouse-colored coat that fitted him with the grace and precision of a salt sack, and his pantaloons came from Kansas City and had brown stripes in them. Mrs. Ewing is a benevolent-featured woman of medium size and weight. She looked at her daughter, Miss Ella Ewing, through gold-rimmed spectacles.

Miss Ella is quite large for her age. She is eight feet tall and weighs 240 pounds. She told a reporter that she was a good horseback rider and was never sick in her life. She quit going to a village school last July, and has spent most of her time since then in perusing bushels of letters from museum and circus managers. She began to grow overfast when 8 years old, and grew one inch in height last month. She expects to keep on growing until she is 21 years of age.

Miss Ewing's face is very large, and so are her hands and feet. Her hand is a foot long and it takes 40 yards of silk to make her a dress. She is very diffident as yet, but her Chicago manager is going to take her and her parents to Europe next week, and he thinks her shyness will wear off after her tour among the crowned heads.

This is the first time the family has been out of Northeastern Missouri, and the old gentleman can talk of nothing but Yoorope. He walked up Broadway last night and tried in vain to buy a two-for-five cigar.—[New York Times.

The Wilson Inquest.

PARIS, Ont., Feb. 10.—The inquest touching the death of Robert C. Wilson, the South Dumfries farmer who was found drowned in a cistern some time ago, was resumed yesterday. County Attorney Vannorman appeared for the Crown, and C. R. Fitch for the family. Mrs. Bradlaugh, Odgen Wilson, Mary McEwan and Mr. Carr were examined, but nothing of importance transpired. On account of the stomach and viscera not having been returned from Toronto, where they had been sent for analysis, the inquest was adjourned for two weeks.

A Summons from Salisbury.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—Lord Salisbury has summoned a general meeting of the leaders of the Conservative party throughout Great Britain to take place early in March. It is understood the question of the dissolution of Parliament may then be decided upon.

The Conservatives have nominated Mr. Germain to contest the seat in the House of Commons left vacant by the death of Bradlaugh. The Gladstone Liberals have nominated Mr. Manfield. The Socialists nominated Mr. Aveling, the labor agitator and Socialist leader, but Aveling's nomination was refused by the returning officer, pending the depositing of the usual sum of £100 for election expenses. The nomination was then canceled. The polling takes place Thursday.

TERRESTRIAL HEALING.

At 294 Dundas street may be seen the most wonderful healing instrument ever discovered. It is called a Magnetic Meridian Vitapoise. In form it represents the earth, on a miniature scale, suspended in the earth's magnetic meridian. By bringing the little earth to a proper temperature, and then either rotating or oscillating it for a few moments while in its suspended position, thus cutting the magnetic lines of force which surround the earth, an insensible current of healing virtue can then be imparted, which is truly wonderful.

There is no further need for changing our domicile to some prescribed locality on the earth, to improve health, for varying the temperature of this "Vitapoise" will produce similar results.

It does not select any special disease for its action, but simply wages war against any disease or unbalanced condition of the system it comes in contact with, until either healthy equilibrium is established or the disease is proven to be beyond curability.

It is truly nature's "Balm of Gilead," and a "Natural Physician." The Canadian patents are controlled by a Detroit company. Prof. J. M. Reid, is in charge of the London office; he was among the first to use the Vitapoise in his practice, and therefore the company has secured his service for introducing the instruments in Canada. Prof. Reid says that the Vitapoise is a physician's friend in all cases of sickness, and an indispensable household remedy. nm

"I have used HARVARD BRONCHIAL SYRUP. It is the most satisfactory Cough Remedy I have ever tried, and I know that through its use I have recovered from a very bad cold."—Ross Mackenzie, C. P. R. offices, Montreal.

There is nothing in the world equal to this remedy for Sore Throat, Coughs and Colds. Pleasant to the taste—Gives intant relief—Absolutely harmless. Large bottles 25c. By all dealers. A. J. Lawrence, Montreal. Sole Proprietor for Canada. 56n wty

BUILDINGS BURNED.

James McLaren's Sawmills at Ottaw[a] Burned—Loss, $150,000.

OTTAWA, Feb. 9.—The sawmills own[ed] by Mr. Jas. McLaren at New Edinbur[gh] Rideau ward, were burned yesterd[ay]. Over 500,000 feet of lumber also went [up in] smoke. Lumber piles surround the mi[lls] making it a difficult task for the f[ire]men to fight the flames. From the woo[d] buildings the fire extended to high lumber piles on the Ott[awa] River dock, 50 feet beneath. [The] firemen, with the use of dynamite and other explosives, succeeded in blowing up several piles of lumber. The gap thus created enabled them to stay the onward sweep of the flames. The total loss is variously estimated at between $125,000 and $150,000. Mr. James McLaren, the millionaire lumber king, of Buckingham, is the principal loser. He was practically uninsured. The lumber was owned by the Sheppard & Morse Lumber Company, of Oswego, N. Y., and by Mr. McLaren. The former owners are covered by insurance in the Eastern and National Insurance Companies, but the lumber owned by Mr. McLaren is said to be uninsured. The lumber was valued at $15,000.

A Dog that Has Had [illegible]

ST. JOHN, N.B., Feb. 9.—[illegible] named Albany Jack, owned by Al[illegible] postoffice clerks, arrived here yesterd[ay o]n a second trip around the world. He came in charge of a postal clerk, and will leave for Halifax.

Lost His Horses.

WALLACEBURG, Feb. 9.—Charles Beck, a farmer from con. 10 of Somb[ra] township, lost a $200 team here Friday evening. Beck was in town with a wagon. On leaving for home he drove on to the ice and got into a hole. The horses and wagon went to the bottom of the Sydenham before assistance could reach them. The driver had a narrow escape from drowning.

Lymph vs. Lupus.

KINGSTON, Ont., Feb. 9.—There are four persons undergoing treatment with Koch's lymph at the General Hospital. Three are cases of lupus and one of hip-joint disease. The lupus patients are getting relief. An old lady with a sore on her nose is wonderfully improved. The healing is remarkable. She is an Irish woman from Odessa. The first patient treated still undergoes injections. The hip-joint disease patient is not getting much relief.

Fatally Hurt in the Prize Ring.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 9.—Friday night John Shaffer, a local boxer, engaged in a seven-round contest with Wm. Doyle at a variety theater. In the seventh round Doyle knocked out Shaffer by a right-hander on the jaw. Shaffer never regained consciousness and died Saturday morning. Doyle has thus far eluded cap[ture]. The proprietor of the theater has be[en ar]rested.

Parnell's Conduct Condemned.

DUBLIN, Feb. 9.—A pastoral letter from the Catholic Primate was read in the Catholic Churches throughout Ireland yesterday condemning Mr. Parnell's conduct and warning those engaged in the Boulogne negotiations to take care that the compromise reached be definite, as the country will have the last word to say on the issue.

Demonstrations by the two rival factions were held in Stradbally yesterday. Both demonstrations were orderly. Mr. Redmond addressed the Parnellites.

Steamer Sunk.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—Another steamer is reported sunk almost on the spot where the Viscaya went down a few months ago. The vessel is supposed to be the Norwegian fruit steamer Simon Dumois, which left this port Wednesday last for Matanzas, Cuba. Nothing has been heard of any of the crew. The Dumois is one of a fleet of five fruit steamers plying between New York and Cuban ports, all owned by Norwegians. Capt. John Kanitz was in charge of the Dumois, with a crew of sixteen men. The wreck lies nearly in the track of vessels sailing between Liverpool and Philadelphia.

A Thorough Liberal.

BERLIN, Feb. 9.—The Rome correspondent of the Berliner Tageblatt has had an interview with the Marquis Di Rudini, the new Italian Prime Minister. In the course of the conversation the Marquis Di Rudini declared himself a thorough Liberal, and expressed confidence that he would receive the support of the whole chamber. While he was no friend of clericalism, he considered systematic persecution of the church to be both useless and objectionable. He predicted the abolution of the system of voting known as the Scrutin de Liste. A dissolution of Parliament, he said, was not contemplated by the new Ministry. Touching upon foreign affairs, the Premier described himself as a warm friend of the Dreibund. In regard to the domestic policy of the Ministry he said that retrenchments were projected in every department of the Government.

The American Pig Proscribed.

PARIS, Feb. 9.—In an interview with M. Marie Albert Viger, one of the deputies from Orleans, and reporter of the Tariff Committee of the Chamber, M. Viger said that he was satisfied that the Chamber would adopt the tax of 12 francs per 100 kilos on American pork which the committee recommends instead of a 10-franc tax, as urged by the United States Minister, the Hon. Whitelaw Reid. This question will come before the Chamber at the end of March. Mr. Viger informed the Associated Press correspondent that the French butchers proposed to the committee a duty of 10 francs, saying that they were unable to handle American pork at a profit beyond that limit of duty. M. Herrison, the Minister of Commerce in 1883, when the decree was momentarily removed, when informed of the statement made by Viger of the 12 francs duty, said: "It means exclusion. I have always felt that the obnoxious decree would be removed in this fashion. The deputies were protection mad."

Corn Sowing

Is a process conducted by the agency of tight boots all the year round. Corn reaping is best conducted through the agency of Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, the only safe and sure-pop corn cure. Putnam's Extractor is now widely imitated. Beware of all poisonous and sore-producing substitutes; they are dangerous to use, and are sold simply because they afford the dealer larger profit.

Little Boy—Mamma, may I give what's in my savings bank to that beggar man? Mamma—You dear, sweet little cherub! Do you want to give away all of that money your uncle gave you? There was over a dollar. "I spent some of it mamma." "Did you? How much is there left?" "There's a twenty-five-cent piece left, but the candy man said it was bad."

Nothing impure or injurious contaminates the popular antidote to pain, throat and lung remedy and general corrective, Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. It may be used without the slightest apprehension of any other than salutary consequences. Coughs, rheumatism, earache, bruises, cuts and sores succumb to its action.

Y. M. C. A.

Closing Proceedings of the Convention at Kingston.

KINGSTON, Feb. 9.—At Saturday morning's session of the Y. M. C. A. convention "What can be done to secure better district work?" was the subject of a capitally condensed paper by Mr. W. F. Chapman, of Brantford.

Mr. Thomas S. Cole presented the annual report of the provincial committee of the Ontario and Quebec Y. M. C. A. The difficulties of the year at London, Woodstock, Owen Sound and Pembroke were recounted, and a successful conclusion at all points other than Pembroke reported. Special thanks for assistance to the committee were given to Messrs. Pratt of Hamilton, McCulloch, of Toronto, Chapman of Brantford, Williams of Kingston, and Colville of Peterboro. New secretaries have been had at Brockville, London, Sherbrooke, Woodstock and Owen Sound. During the year Ridgetown and Pembroke in Ontario and Danville in Quebec were removed from the roll of associations, but there have been added Toronto Northwestern Branch, Longford Mills, Carleton Place, Merrickville, Petrolea, Windsor, Barrie, Parkdale Collegiate Institute and Burlington, making a net gain of six during the year. New buildings are expected at Petrolea and St. Thomas. Great spiritual progress had been made during the year. The appointment of an assistant general secretary was recommended. Great pleasure was expressed that the Quebec Y. M. C. A. had at last obtained an act of Parliament virtually covering the agreement entered into with the committee, and now all difficulties are at an end.

Mr. J. J. Gartshore presented the treasurer's report, showing the receipts to be $1,962 and the disbursements $2,253, leaving a deficit of about $290. Toronto leads the subscription list with $549, Montreal comes next with $260 and Brantford third with $227. University College and McMill are both credited with $40.

Mr. H. B. Fraser, secretary of Toronto University Y. M. C. A., read an encouraging report of the college department.

Mr. A. Arthur read Mr. W. J. Orr's paper on "Railway Work." The railway directors have contributed largely to this work among their employes, the Union Pacific Railway, for instance, recently voting $22,000 buildings and $17,000 for extension and maintenance. In Canada good work is being carried on at St. Thomas and Little York, a secretary being in charge at both places. Work has been commenced at Point St. Charles, Montreal, which will probably result in the foundation of a branch there. Work is also done at Moncton, Stratford, London, Union Station (Toronto), Winnipeg and other points.

Mr. D. A. Budge presented the report of the executive on the Provincial Committee's report. It dealt with the different departments and closed with an earnest appeal for better financial work. The resolutions of the Brantford convention were renewed. They urged the encouragement of weak associations, the securing of special form of work for young men in unoccupied fields, the establishment of the correspondence department, the fostering of intervisitation by delegation and the watchful care over young men going to strange places. Evangelistic meetings for men only were urged and the employment of an evangelist fitted for such definite work, if possible. It was suggested that the larger associations allow their secretaries to conduct special meetings in neighboring towns. Especial stress was laid on the extension work both at home and abroad. Each association was urged to form an extension committee; the concentration of the gifts for the foreign mission field in India advised. While the need of an assistant Provincial secretary was realized, they could not recommend his appointment unless $3,700 be raised. More attention was asked for both the boys and the railway departments.

The following Executive Committee was appointed:

Robert Kilgour, C. S. Gzowski, jun., W. Blackley, W. McCulloch, John J. Gartshore, T. Gibson, H. B. Gordon, J. O. Anderson, T. J. Wilkie, Toronto; James Wood, Galt; W. Craig, jun., Port Hope; E. Reynolds, Brockville; T. O. Kemp, Seaforth; Eli Jarvis, Smith's Falls; W. A. Copeland, Collingwood; A. Kingman, G. Hague, R. H. Holland, Warden King, F. W. Kelley, D. W. Ross, C. T. Williams, R. L. Charlton, Montreal; T. W. Gray, Houston; Robert Stanley, John Theo Ross, Quebec; G. M. McDonnell, Kingston; E. H. Hardie, Lindsay; Rev. Robert John-ston, Lindsay; M. Keough, Sherbrooke; D. A. Budge, R. Henderson, Herbert Ames, Montreal; W. J. Waugh, F. M. Pratt, J. B. Griffith, J. A. Mackenzie, Fred. Watkins, Hamilton; J. F. Jeffers, W. R. Hobbs, J. I. Anderson, London; F. Cockshutt, Geo. Foster, Lloyd Harris, S. M. Thomson, A. McBean, Brantford; B. W. Roberton, Hiram Calvin, Kingston; C. Falconer, Jas. Gibson, Ottawa; H. Wiggs, Quebec; G. M. Boger, Peterbor'.

The report was adopted, with the sole amendment secured by Mr. Pratt, of Hamilton, who persuaded the convention to divide the Hamilton district into two, making London the center of the western half.

The retiring committee recommended that the incoming committee seek incorporation at once. The secretaries pledged themselves and then their associations for funds for the coming year, and individual delegates subscribed generously. A deficit of $290 for last year was totally wiped out and $1,616 raised for next year.

The convention, after holding an evangelistic meeting in the City Hall Sunday evening, adjourned to meet in Quebec in February, 1892.

VOICES OF THE PEOPLE.

Sir Charles Tupper's Mission.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:

Sir,—The Dominion of Canada pays Sir Charles Tupper a handsome salary and provides him with other casual advantages for lying abroad for the benefit of his country; but do the Canadian people pay the High Commissioner to come over at election times to lie for his party? The Premier of the Dominion has no right to send for a civil servant to do electioneering dirty work. It is a little too bare-faced. He comes as a commissioner to Washington, does he? If so let him maintain his own and his country's dignity by refraining from interfering in the present campaign. Sir Charles Tupper's appearance on the stump is a matter of indifference on every ground, except the shameless audacity of Sir John in so employing a paid public servant, and the High Commissioner's servility in accepting a role so humiliating.

DOWN IN A COAL MINE.

Sensational Story of a Siberian Prisoner —Three Years of Torture.

BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 9.—The Herald this morning publishes the story of Capt. John Morris, relating his experience as a prisoner for three years in a Siberian coal mine. Capt. Morris says he was captain of the schooner Helena, which sailed from Yokohoma April 11, 1883, on a cruise for walrus. They captured walrus in Russian territory, and the schooner was captured by a Russian gunboat. The schooner and crew were taken to Vladivostock, where they were convicted of violating the seal and fishing laws. There was no American consul at the port and they had no counsel. They were condemned to imprisonment in a coal mine for three years. They were sent into different parts of the mine and were obliged to send up ten tons of coal per day for the first year and six tons per day for the other two years. If the stated amounts of coal did not come no rations would be given them. Captain Morris was fastened to a Pole, the chain between them being eight feet long. After being fastened the captain saw no one but the Pole until he was liberated, not being allowed to leave the mine during the entire three years, sleeping on the floor of the mine and subsisting on rice soup.

At the end of three months his companion died, but no one came to release him from the body. At the end of fifteen days the captain cut the Pole's body in two with his shovel got it up on a load of coal. A hammer and chisel were then sent down to him to cut off the chain. When Morris came out he found F. C. Crocker, of Searshort, Maine, one of his crew, had just been released. Together they walked 150 miles to Vladivostock, the Russians refusing them transportation. They were coal-begrimed, ragged and sore from the bites of vermin. An American vessel took them to Nagaski, where the United States consul provided them with clothes, and they took their first hot bath in three years. The consul furnished them with a transportation to Yokohoma, whence they went to San Francisco, Morris finally reaching Boston, his native place, last November, where he has since been employed by a street railway company. Last Friday he left the house of friends in West Newton to come to this city, and since that time he has been missing. Of his crew 3 were Americans and 22 Japanese. Of the Americans, besides Crocker, Capt. Of the Americans, besides Crocker, Capt. Morris has heard of but one living out his term of imprisonment. The schooner was captured on Sept. 6, 1883.

PICTURE THIEVES.

Daring Vandalism Discovered at a Detroit Museum.

DETROIT, Feb. 9.—An outrageous piece of vandalism at the Detroit Art Museum, whereby that institution has been despoiled of a valuable painting, has just come to light. Friday afternoon while the janitor of the building was passing through the main room of the picture gallery, he noticed, for the first time, an empty frame. Hastening downstairs, he notified the secretary, Theodore Saunders, who immediately brought the matter to the attention of the acting director. An examination was at once made, and it was found that a painting 8x10 inches, the title of which is "Interior of a Gothic Church," representing a priest celebrating mass, had been removed from the panel on which it was tacked and taken away. The painting, the work of Peter Neefs, a celebrated Flemish artist, was one time in the collection of Sir Charles Rushouts, was painted between the years 1640 and 1645 and cost in the neighborhood of $1,500.

Stealing valuable pictures from art galleries is by no means a new thing, though fortunately such occurrences are rare. About six years ago a Gainsborough portrait of the Duchess of Devonshire was cut out of its frame during exhibition hours in the Royal Academy, London, and carried away. This picture was worth $8,000 or $10,000.

Years ago, while one of Murillo's water pieces was on exhibition in Seville, a figure of one of the saints was cut out of the canvas. Subsequently it was offered for sale to Schous, the art dealer, on Fifth avenue, New York, and the thief was arrested.

Life Versus Death.

"Life is sweet" is an old saying, and just as true as it is old. No one in his or her right senses courts death; all wish to prolong life to the utmost limit, and yet, in spite of this universal desire to live the allotted three score years and ten—and even longer—thousands upon thousands of people, through carelessness and neglect, are hastening the time when they must stand face to face with the grim reaper, and make the plunge alone into "the dark valley of the shadow of death." No disease on this continent claims so many victims as consumption, and reliable statistics prove that fully two-thirds of the deaths occurring from consumption had their origin in catarrh. Nothing but negligence caused this last disease to develop into consumption, and the person who neglects to promptly and persistently treat catarrh until all traces are eradicated is simply hastening the coming of death. Even should catarrh not develop into consumption, it nevertheless shortens life, as every breath the patient inhales passes over poisonous secretions and thus affects the whole system. For the cure of catarrh no remedy ever discovered equals Nasal Balm, which is recognized from the Atlantic to the Pacific as the only certain cure for this disease. It removes the secretions from the nostrils, stops the poisonous droppings into the throat and lungs, and makes the user feel that a new lease of life has been given him. This great catarrh remedy is on sale with all dealers, or will be sent on receipt of price—50 cents for small and $1 for large size bottles—by addressing Fulford & Co., Brockville, Ont.

Col. Higginson says in a recent letter: "A man's mother and wife are two-thirds of his destiny."

No one need fear cholera or any summer complaint if they have a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial ready for use. It corrects all looseness of the bowels, promptly and cause a healthy and natural action. This is a medicine adapted for the young and old, rich and poor, and is rapidly becoming the most popular medicine for cholera, dysentery, etc. in the market.

The Largest Electric Belt Factory in the World

TORONTO, ONT.

INCORPORATED

ELECTRICITY AS APPLIED BY THE OWEN ELECTRIC BELT

Is now recognized as the greatest boon offered to suffering humanity. It has, does and will effect cures in seemingly hopeless cases where every other known means has failed. Rheumatism cannot exist where it is properly applied. By its steady, soothing current that is easily felt it will cure

Rheumatism
Neuralgia
Lumbago
Lame Back
Sciatica
Constipation
Dyspepsia
Liver and Kidney Complaints
General Debility
Varicocele

All Nervous Diseases
Female Troubles
Impotency
Sexual Decline
Spermatorrhea
General Debility
Urinary Diseases
Spinal Disease

The above illustrates the mode of applying the Owen Electric Belt and its appliances for the cure of various diseases. It can be placed anywhere, and worn during the day or night.

Rheumatism.

It is not pleasant to be compelled to refer to the indisputable fact that medical science has utterly failed to afford relief in rheumatic cases. We venture the assertion that although electricity has only been in use as a remedial agent for a few years, it has cured more cases of Rheumatism than all other means combined. Some of our leading physicians recognizing this fact are availing themselves of this most potent of nature's forces in supplying defects and correcting irregularities.

To Restore Manhood and Womanhood.

As man has not yet discovered all of nature's laws for right living, it follows that every one has committed more or less errors which have left visible blemishes. To erase these evidences of past errors, there is nothing to equal Electricity as applied by the Owen Electric Body Battery. Rest assured, any doctor who would try to accomplish this by any kind of drugs is practicing a most dangerous form of charlatanism. Use the Electric Cure and shun the drug stores.

We Challenge the World to show an Electric Belt where the current is under the control of the patent as completely as this. We can use the same belt on an infant that we would on a giant by simply reducing the number of cells. Ordinary belts are not so. Other belts have been in the market for five or ten years longer, but to-day THERE ARE MORE OWEN BELTS MANUFACTURED AND SOLD THAN ALL OTHER MAKES COMBINED.

A Bad Attack of Rheumatism.

MEAFORD, Dec. 31, 1890.—Am wearing belt as directed and getting along all right. It is doing me a great deal of good. Will soon be myself again. THOS. HEPPENSTALL.

Cured of Sciatic Rheumatism in Eight Days.

GRAND VALLEY, Sept. 20, 1890.

DEAR SIRS,—I received one of your Owen Electric Belts through Dr. Gaviller, of Grand Valley, in the couty of Dufferin. I received it on the 18th of last August. As I had suffered very much for a long time with sciatic rheumatism, and after trying every supposed remedy that I could hear of without any relief, I was advised by several people to try the Owen Electric Belt, as it was very highly spoken of: and, strictly following the instruct one given for eight days, I realized the fact that I had fallen in with the remedy I had long wished for. The stinging pains of rheumatism had begun to retreat before the power of electricity, and I felt that I was a new man, as far as health and vigor were concerned, and continue to improve.

For the benefit of suffering humanity I can fully, from past as well as present experience, recommend the Owen Electric Belt, as a relief against the ills which humanity is heir to—especially in sciatic rheumatism.

You can publish this or any portion of it, as you see fit for the benefit of my fellow-sufferers in the flesh. Yours truly,

WM. DIXON, Sen.,
Grand Valley, Ont.

The Best Ever Worn.

PORT DALHOUSIE, Oct. 27, 1890.—I must say that the remedial effect of the Belt is in every way satisfactory. Having some knowledge of electricity and its powers, and having used other Belts prior to my use of yours, I can say that it is the best I have ever worn.

JAS. BLAIR.

Found It a Great Benefit.

VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 28, 1890.—I have found your Belt a great benefit to me. The only thing I complain of is, the current is too strong; but I make it weak, as directed in your sheet. Kindly send me another sheet of directions as I have given mine away. A. A. COBBIN.

Inflammatory Rheumatism.

GALT, Dec. 3, 1890.—Am much pleased with the effects of the Belt, as it has done a great deal of good in more than my case, but you will hear from me before long again, as a number of others are going to order your Belt.

MRS. S. M.——.

A Commercial Traveler's Testimony.

BARRIE, Nov. 12, 1890.—In reply to your favor of the 4th ult., I have to say that the Owen Belt serves well the purpose for which it was intended. I am subject to severe attacks of lumbago, the results of exposure to all kinds of weather and traveling at all hours and seasons. This year, by the use of your Belt, I have been able to ward it off so far, and I think I will succeed in escaping it altogether. To anyone similarly situated I have much pleasure in recommending its use, as I have already done.

A. FINDLEY.

A Severe Case of Rheumatism.

LITTLE BRITAIN, Oct. 16, 1890.—The Belt came as directed. I put it on the man in my house that I referred to before. He was going about with a stick yesterday when I placed the Belt on him. In the evening, before taking it off, he had thrown the stick away, and slept well all night, which his wife said he had not done for some time, and to-day was out cutting wood and during the afternoon walked seven miles.

P. ALLIN.

Indigestion and Catarrh.

MACVILLE, Dec. 4, 1890.—For over four years I have been a sufferer from indigestion, catarrh and general prostration, and spent hundreds of dollars on doctors and medicine, without getany relief. About two months ago I purchased one of your No. 3 Belts and have been wearing it since with the most beneficial results, for I am perfectly free from every trouble. I have much pleasure in recommending your Belt to the afflicted.

A. MCDOUGALL.

Cured of Rheumatism After Eight Years.

NIAGARA FALLS, Oct. 27, 1890.—The effects of the Belt I got from you on the 7th of this month I cannot fully explain. It is wonderful, and I fear too good to last. A week later MR. M—— wrote: Please send me Belt for lady referred to before. Now as to myself. Only think of it. For eight years I have suffered with rheumatism, and am now out of pain and growing better daily, though in my 75th year. Can confidently recommend the Owen Belt when everything else fails.

A. MENZIES.

Beware of Imitations and Cheap Belts.

Our attention having been attracted to the many base imitations of THE OWEN ELECTRIC BELT, we desire to warn the public not to be deceived by the false statements of men calling themselves electricians, who have copied as near as they dare in appearance, but only in appearance, the GENUINE OWEN ELECTRIC BELT, that has stood the test of years. These so-called electric belts are only experiments and are being peddled through the country. Look out for them.

In justice to ourselves and a generous public we are determined to expose such unprincipled trickery, and prevent, if possible, the unsuspecting from being gulled by such men and means.

The OWEN ELECTRIC BELT Co. is not afraid of fair and open competition, as their goods have no equal in this or any other country, and will bear inspection by those competent to judge—and so great are they in demand that there are more of them made and in use than all other makes combined—their Chicago factory alone being the largest of its kind in the world.

Our Trade Mark is the portrait of Dr. A. Owen embossed in gold upon every Belt and appliance manufactured by The Owen Electric Belt and Appliance Co.

Cheap Belts.—We are warned by some of the CHEAP so-called electric belt concerns that any belt requiring vinegar or acid will burn the skin. So it will if allowed to do so. So will an electric wire—which is proof positive that there is a strong current there or it would not do so; but the same current can be controlled in the Owen Electric Belt by the wearer, so that a child can wear the same belt as a strong man. Rest assured, any belt that will not make itself felt by the wearer is no electric belt at all and is perfectly worthless. Thus the acid or vinegar cry is made use of by makers of cheap belts to blind and mislead an unsuspecting public. A genuine electric belt cannot be sold at the prices these cheap belts are offered at.

THE LIBERAL CANDIDATE.

There can be no mistaking the spontaneity of the enthusiasm with which the nomination of the Liberal candidate for the representation of the city in the House of Commons has been received.

The Grand Opera House demonstration was but a faint indication of the force of popular opinion in favor of a change, and the belief that it can be effected by honest hard work between now and election day.

Mr. Hyman was the unanimous choice of the mass meeting, which embraced not only Liberal freeman of every age and rank of life, but many good citizens who have hitherto supported the policy of high taxation, but have come to see their mistake, and now honestly confess it.

The nominee represents the principles of progressive good government, of fair play for every Canadian, of the development of our vast resources, whether in manufacturing, agricultural, mining or lumbering. He was nominated by one of the largest manufacturers in the Dominion, who wishes, by the Liberal policy, to extend his business and increase the prosperity of his native city. The nomination was seconded by an honest artisan, who can be said to fairly voice the opinions of his fellow-workingmen at the present time. The candidature was heartily indorsed by other manufacturers, by professional men and by prominent wholesale dealers—all representative citizens of London, any one of whom would make a good member of Parliament.

Mr. Hyman may well be proud of such a send-off to his candidature. He can fairly take it, for granted that he is the people's choice, and there seems to be no misgivings as to his election. When he goes to Parliament he will sit as a representative manufacturer, as an employer of labor, and as supported by men who employ thousands of workingmen. Neither he nor they have any misgivings that the country in general, and this city in particular, will not prosper under complete reciprocity. On the contrary, they believe the change would bring that prosperity which we all so much long for, and for which our working classes have toiled in vain.

The Old Man has issued to his Kingston constituents a long address, doubtless intended to be also his manifesto to the people of Canada.

The first third of the address is taken up with bragging what great things the N. P. has done for Canada, and how astonishingly prosperous, fat and contented the farmers, mechanics, merchants and manufacturers are at this moment. Everybody knows that none of the classes named are either prosperous or contented. It is easy for a man who has lived luxuriously at the expense of the people of Canada nearly all his life to imagine that everybody is as prosperous as himself under the high tax policy.

Next is introduced the bogey of direct taxation. That subject, however, is not under discussion. It is simply introduced as a red herring across the scent.

The chief feature of Sir John Macdonald's address is the loyalty howl. There are two ways in which basswood loyalists can be met. One is by gently chaffing them on their basswood loyalty, and the other by exposing what their rancorous hostility to the United States really means and to what it may lead. The last thing to be done is to run away from your basswood loyalist. There are those who seem to think they are serving the interests of humanity, of Great Britain, of Canada, by their constant and bitter attacks, under the guise of a basswood loyalty, on those who seek friendly reciprocal trade relations and cordial goodwill with the United States. One prominent Tory Jingo of Montreal not long ago declared that Canada would never have a true national sentiment until this country had been baptized with blood in a war with the United States. Do people who so talk really think that if they could exasperate the relations between the two countries until they culminated in war, that they would thereby serve either the interest of Canada, of Great Britain, or of humanity? And yet everybody knows that commercial warfare, inflamed by feather-brained jingoism, has more than once in the history of this old earth of ours led to Sedans and Gravelottes. Let us say frankly what we think of the devilish attempts of vaporers to irritate the great English-speaking country to the south of the lakes, in which over 1,000,000 of Canada's sons are well-treated and furnished with a livelihood. We regard all such as false to the true interests of Canada. False to the true interests of Great Britain, which wants peace, not war. False to the wider interests of humanity, bound up with the hope of a wider amity than has yet characterized the wide spread English-speaking family, of which the United States is an important member. False to God!

MR. CARLING AGAIN.

Hundreds of Conservatives here, during the last year or two, expressed their desire that Mr. Carling would retire and give some other man in the city a chance.

Mr. Carling hangs on to office, however, and the convention of Conservatives on Saturday—so much less representative than the meeting of Liberals—again put him forward as a candidate.

If it suits them to take Mr. Carling, with his tortuous policy, trade restriction and continued hard times, well and good. We are sure the Liberals will not cavil.

All that we now ask is that Mr. Carling keep to the issues, and not drag in non-partisan school children's fetes as evidence of the popularity of high taxation, and of the disloyalty of one-half of the people of this city. A man who is so hard beset as to turn to the school children's demonstration of last Dominion day into an argument for a political party should be easily beaten.

RYAN VS. TUPPER.

A correspondent of the Globe wants to know why Mr. Peter Ryan, the forcible and eloquent, should not stump the country, in a Dominion election, even though he is registrar of Toronto under the Provincial Government, seeing that Sir Charles Tupper, also a civil servant, and receiving his salary from taxpayers of both parties, does not consider it improper to plunge into the fray.

The Tuppers have been very expensive to the country, and Sir Charles—with his surroundings of oriental luxury in England, his wine cellars, his wine-glasses and other apparatus of groggery, at your expense and mine—has been the most expensive Tupper of the lot. It would be worth a day's travel to see Peter Ryan and Sir Charles Tupper on the same platform, and Peter Ryan would not come off second best, either.

AT IT ALREADY.

It is less than ten days since Sir Charles Tupper returned to Canada. Yet at Kingston Saturday night he asserted that everybody was prospering under the high tax policy. Sir Charles Tupper always was a great stretcher, but the Canadian people do not pay him $20,000 a year to go around and misrepresent the condition of affairs because the combines are interested in preventing a change.

"BILLY PATERSON."

Mr. Wm. Paterson, the well-known Brantford cigar manufacturer, is one of the largest employers of labor in Ontario. He has been re-nominated as Liberal candidate for South Brant, and will no doubt be elected. Nearly all the manufacturers of Brant support him; he is popular with the farmers; the Indians give him a good vote; and he makes friends wherever he goes. Mr. Paterson, who is a self-made man, enjoys unique prestige. The more his enemies have tried to oust him the larger has become the popular majority in his favor. In 1882, the infamous gerrymander was so fixed as to cut off his majority. He was re-elected by 276. Then came the Franchise Act, with its disgraceful irregularities, and the machine Tories, who adopt the policy of "anything to win," rubbed their hands with glee. Mr. Paterson's majority of 1882 was increased to 584. It will be big this time, for the Bonarges of Brant becomes more popular as he ages.

AN ENGLISH ESTIMATE.

The only things tending to show a vigorous tendency in Canada, under the present Ottawa Administration, have been the national debt and the taxes.

This is not a Canadian opinion, but the opinion of the chief weekly journal in London, Eng. Unfortunately, the statement is founded on fact. We need a change that shall bring about a reduction of both debt and taxes and give this grand country, with so many splendid natural advantages, a chance to develop.

A CONFLAGRATION.

An Ottawa correspondent writes that enormous piles of almanacs, leaflets and pamphlets, intended for circulation by the panic-stricken Dominion Government, have been burned in that city.

When, in December last, the crisis began, and the resolution to make a leap in the dark seized hold of the Conservative leaders at the capital, the literature for the campaign was compiled.

For general use a political almanac was drawn up with a clumsiness and unscrupulous disregard for the truth that is apparent on every page. Hundreds of thousands of other documents were also printed. Every one of these, almanacs included, upheld commercial isolation, and denounced as traitors those who have been seeking complete reciprocity with the United States.

The farmers were told that they had been enormously benefited by "protection;" they were assured that the abolition of the tax on products of the soil would be of immense injury to them, and the present high tariff was pointed to as evidence that their interest had not been neglected, and that they had enjoyed enormous prosperity.

By and bye, the report that an election was contemplated got out. Letters poured into the Government buildings from Conservatives in all parts of the country. Their general tenor was unfavorable to an appeal at present, and above all to an appeal based on hostility to trade with our neighbors.

The opposition was tremendous. The Minister dared not face Parliament. The McGreevy scandal, in which one of them is seriously implicated, if nothing else, dictated going to the country before full inquiry could be demanded by the Liberal leaders and the patriotic Quebec Conservatives who refuse to condone the rascalities laid bare in the recently-published correspondence. A somersault was ordered. From an endeavor to prove that reciprocity in natural products was an injury to the agricultural classes to an argument in favor of reciprocity for the farmer and "protection" for the combines was a tremendously sharp curve, but—they took it. Hence the necessity for the destruction of the Conservative literature drawn up in the first stage.

A Western demagogic office-seeker, at the close of a harangue to the border electorate, once said, "Gentlemen, them's my sentiments; but if any elector in this 'er crowd is not satisfied with them, I will alter them to suit him at the close of the meetin'." The present Ottawa Government is inclined to be equally accommodating, though not so honest in owning up. Actions, however, speak louder than words. Men, whose every movement belies their professions, who know that at best their proposed journey to Washington to sue for reciprocity in all products outside the domain of the Canadian combines, is a fool's errand, cannot be trusted.

TRIMMERS TANGLED.

Three of the high tax leaders spoke in Toronto, but the two most significant speeches were made by the Minister of Customs and the Minister of Justice. The former strongly condemned the Liberal policy of seeking unfettered trade with our neighbors. He assumed that it was not profitable to trade freely with the States. But the figures he adduced in support of his contentions, really belied them. We all know of the bad effects of the commercial isolation that has for years been fastened on both sides of the border. In spite of the taxes collected by the double rows of custom houses along the 3,000 mile line, and notwithstanding that Great Britain's policy is to impose no duties on imports, the exports from Canada to the United States have increased at a much greater ratio during the last ten dears than during the five years of comparatively low taxation in which the Mackenzie Government held office. Here is the evidence, as submitted by Mr. Bowell:

AVERAGE YEARLY EXPORTS TO GREAT BRITAIN.
Between 1875 and 1879.....$40,000,000
Between 1880 and 1890..... 43,000,000
Increase.....$ 3,000,000

AVERAGE YEARLY EXPORTS TO THE UNITED STATES.
Between 1875 and 1879.....$28,000,000
Between 1880 and 1890..... 39,000,000
Increase.....$11,000,000

Does this record betoken any indisposition on the part of our neighbors to buy ever-increasing quantities of our produce? The fact is that contiguous portions of the two countries will continue to trade with each other, even when harassed by the most vexatious of impositions. How much greater, then, would be the commerce if the shackels were thrown off?

Sir John Thompson proved the humorist of the party. He had apparently never heard the speeches of Mr. Jos. Marshall, Dr. Roome, Mr. Hesson and other Western Ontario M.P.s, who have in thunder tones told our farmers that reciprocity in farm products, such as is now embraced in the alleged Tory proposal to the Washington authorities, would be ruination to them. Was it not to be a part of the Tory campaign this year to so claim and to denounce the wicked Grits as enemies of the farmers for wishing to upset the beneficent arrangement by their policy of complete freedom of trade between the two nations?

Mr. Bowell, too, claimed credit for curtailing the trade between the two countries! He rejoiced because the imports from the States into Canada had been, in value, according to his statement, $1,000,000 a year less than during the time when the Mackenzie Government held power. What a blessing it was to be obliged to take a cool million a year less in exchange for our products than in the days of the old 17½ per cent tariff!

Mr. Bowell had no sooner ceased talking than Sir John Thompson was on his feet vigorously protesting against its being assumed that the high tax party had ever been opposed to trade freely with the States. Where was the Nova Scotia knight when douce old Mr. Bowell was protesting that he and his friends were greater patriots than the Liberals because the policy of the Ministers had curtailed the imports from the States?

The troubles in the Cabinet, the demoralization of the sudden flop, has dumbfounded the servants of the combines. They should have kept the elections back till they had learned their lesson better. It is a humiliating spectacle to see two men of the standing of Mr. Bowell and Sir John Thompson pretending to unity of sentiment and purpose while making such extraordinary contradictory statements.

Every man is not a Tupper. Every man cannot take either side of a great question at a moment's notice, as Sir Charles was ready to do when the Liberals brought in their budget prior to the launching of the "N. P." swindle.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

—The President of the Montreal Chambre de Commerce will be one of the Liberal candidates in that district. He is interested in many industrial enterprises, and will make a splendid run.

—"London will be Liberal," says the Toronto Globe, referring to the enthusiasm with which the nomination of Mr. Hyman has been received. London is Liberal; she only awaits the opportunity to show it. The Brewery domination is at an end.

‡‡‡

—Not a single United States paper looks with favor upon the proposals of reciprocity alleged to be made by the present Ottawa authorities. The large majority look upon it, as thinking men in Canada do, as a huge fraud upon the electors of this country.

‡‡‡

—"Combine advice should be treated like combine domination," wrote the editor in a recent article. The intelligent printer rendered it, "Combine advice should be treated like combine damnation." The amendment is a little strong, but printers read and think a great deal and ought to know.

OTHER NEWSPAPERS.
LONDON WILL BE LIBERAL.

Toronto Globe.

On Saturday the Tories nominated the Hon. John Carling as their candidate for the House of Commons, and the Liberals nominated Mr. Charles S. Hyman. Mr. Hyman ran against Mr. Carling in 1887, and brought his majority down to 39. Since that time the Liberals have made a gain of 200 on the revision of the voters' lists. Mr. Carling's popularity has continued to wane, and he enters the field virtually a beaten man. Mr. Hyman is an exceedingly strong candidate, has been mayor of the city, and has extensive business interests in it. He has also the advantage of the backing of the London Young Men's Liberal Club, one of the best working organizations in the country. London will be redeemed.

Dyspepsia

Makes many lives miserable, and often leads to self destruction. Distress after eating, sick headache, heartburn, sour stomach, mental depression, etc., are caused by this very common and increasing disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla tones the stomach, creates an appetite, promotes healthy digestion, relieves sick headache, clears the mind, and cures the most obstinate cases of dyspepsia. Read the following:

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced. It relieved me of that faint, tired, all-gone feeling. I have felt so much better since I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I am happy to recommend it." G. A. PAGE, Watertown, Mass.

CURLING.

Six rinks of the Toronto Curling Club went to Peterboro on Friday and were defeated by the Peterboro players 120 to 98.

A curling match played at Waterloo Saturday between Berlin and Waterloo resulted in favor of the latter by 35 shots. Berlin 16, Waterloo 51.

A friendly curling match was played at Fergus Friday between Elora and Fergus curlers, resulting in favor of Elora by 4 shots. Elora 30, Fergus 26.

In the first draw for the Smith cup for the county of Ontario Uxbridge played against Port Perry at the latter place. Score: Uxbridge 40, Port Perry 30.

Flavelle, of Lindsay, won three games at the Winnipeg bonspiel on Saturday. In the morning he defeated Cobb, of Virden, in the afternoon Flavelle won the Royal Caledonian tankard from the St. Paul club, and will carry the trophy to Lindsay on Wednesday. At night Flavelle played off with Grant, of Calgary, for third prize in the grand challenge cup competition and won 20 to 7. For first place Fortune, of Winnipeg, defeated Harstone 17 to 11. Monday the bonspiel will close.

THE RING.

Gus Lambert, the Canadian pugilist, who bested Peter Jackson a year ago, was knocked out in the first round by Peter Maher, the champion of Ireland, in a set to before the Pelican Club on Saturday night.

The name George C. Peters will sound familiar to many Londoners, who can recall their comrades of fifteen and twenty years age. George and his family removed to this city Monday with a view of permanently locating here on Maitland street, and following his avocation as an exponent of the "manly art." George has defeated the following local "celebrities": Professor Kenrick, of Detroit, weighing 175 pounds; John Smith, of Canada, weighing 168 pounds; Bill Vick, of Detroit, 170 pounds; Mr. Henry Johnson, of New York city, 185 pounds; and Irvine Thompson, better known as the Cleveland "Thunderbolt." At this time they were talking of matching Thompson against Sullivan. Thompson weighed 222 pounds. John Curtliff, of Cleveland, weighing 180 pounds, was defeated by Peters in the twelfth round, fighting the last nine rounds with his left hand, having broken the right in the third round. He also vanquished the "Cincinnati Cyclone," who weighed 160 pounds, in the thirteenth round. In the eighth round he knocked out a 189 pound pugilist—a John Robinson, of Dayton, Ohio. In all the Londoner (for he is a native of this city) has been the hero of 32 battles, never having lost one. He is willing to face any man on on earth not weighing more than 155 pounds. He is only 30 years of age, and weighs about 150 pounds. George has backers who will stake $1,000 to $2,500 on him against Peter Jackson or any white man in the pugilistic arena. He first found local favor on Jan. 16, 1888, when he at Detroit, hedefeated Mervin Thompson in five rounds.

The fast pacer Mike Wilkes, fell dead after the first heat of a race on the ice at Stillwater, Minn., last week. He had a pacing record of 2:15¾ and had trotted a mile in 2:26¾.

Ringing, under the rules of the trotting associations, is punished by expulsion. In the State of Maine it is proposed to array the civil law against the ringer. A bill has been introduced in the Legislature creating a lien upon a disguised horse for entrance fees and debts contracted on the ringing tour. This bill also provides "that any person who shall enter a horse that shall have been painted or disguised, or that represents any other or different horse from the one which is purported to be entered, or who shall enter it in a class to which it does not properly belong, shall be deemed guilty of cheating by false pretenses and shall be punished therefore as provided, and such horse shall be forfeited and ordered by the court to be sold, and one-half the net proceeds shall go to the informer and the other half to the county where the trial is held."

HOCKEY.

A delegation of Chatham bankers arrived in the city Saturday accompanied by a goodly host of friends, with the determination of wresting victory from their London brethren in a game of hockey. The match was played at the Simcoe street rink in the presence of a large and enthusiastic gathering, and the Chathamites succeeded in winning by a score of 3 to 0, after a hot contest. The team play of the townmen was admirable, but the locals were rather handicapped in this respect by want of practice. They threaten to make amends, however, when the return match is played. At the conclusion of the game the visitors were splendidly impressed with the hospitality of the London bankers, in the shape of an excellent dinner at the London House. Following were the players:

THE WORKING WORLD.

Strong Protest Against "Scab Labor"—The World's Fair Directorate Warned.

The organized labor of Chicago hotly asserted itself Sunday regarding the World's Fair. It was at a regular meeting of the Trade and Labor Assembly, a body said to represent 47,000 workingmen, and one of whose members was given a seat in the World's Fair directory in recognition of the $300,000 subscribed by the workingmen to the guarantee fund of the fair.

The following from the preamble and resolutions which passed without opposition, explains the situation:

Whereas, the present directors of said (World's Fair) exposition indicate an intention of refusing to recognize union labor, but threaten to employ indiscriminately non-union men, thereby flooding the labor market of Chicago, with the ultimate design of destroying the trade unions, therefore, be it

Resolved, that we, as union men, protest against this treacherous action of the directors of the World's Columbian Exposition, and unless immediate action is taken by that body to redeem their implied pledges given in regard to union labor, that we shall deem it our duty to oppose in every way any further legislation, either municipal, state or national, in favor of said World's Columbian Exposition, and we hereby recommend all workingmen who have subscribed for said stock to decline to pay any further assessments until proper assurances are given by the directors that said implied plans will be kept; and be it further

Resolved, that unless satisfactory assurances are given by the directors that their indicated action will be changed, we shall deem it our duty to ask the co-operation of every body of organized labor throughout the country to assist us in making our protest emphatic.

"Patronize the dye-shops."

Is the Race of Deteriorating.

This is a question that from time to time is discussed in scientific journals, and when one sees the vast number of broken down, listless and prematurely old men found in every community, one is almost forced to admit that the race is deteriorating. The causes leading to this decline in manhood are various, and among them may be mentioned overwork, mental strain, loss of sleep, over indulgence of appetite, and excesses of various kinds, all leading to shattered nerves, loss of vital forces and premature decay, and often to insanity. To all thus suffering Dr. William's Pink Pills come as a boon. They build up shattered nerves, enrich the blood, stimulate the brain, and reinforce the exhausted system. All who are suffering from any of the causes that break down and enfeeble the system should use these pills, and will find them a sure and speedy restorative. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all dealers, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price—50 cents a box—by addressing the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

Paris was treated to a queer sight the other day—the arrest of a man who had stolen 5 cents' worth of cakes, and yet who wore fourteen medals, crosses, and other decorations, all given him for gallantry on the field of battle. Such honors are plenty, but the wearers may go ragged and hungry.

Mr. Job Scales, of Toronto, writes: "A short time ago I was suffering from Kidney Complaint and Dyspepsia, sour stomach and lame back; in fact, I was completely prostrated and suffering intense pain. While in this state a friend recommended me to try a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. I used one bottle, and the permanent manner in which it has cured and made a new man of me is such that I cannot withhold from the proprietors this expression of my gratitude."

Finance Notes

The New York bank statement was unfavorable to-day, the reserve showing a decrease of $3,700,450 for the week. The surplus, however, is still large, being $20,242,675, as compared with $9,859,900 a year ago, and $14,149,975 at the corresponding date of 1889.

A London telegram says: Discount was in moderate demand during the week. The rates quoted were 1⅛ for three months and 1¼ for short. The Bank of England will pay back to the Bank of France at the end of the present month £3,000,000 bullion borrowed during the Barings crisis. It will be returned as received, as it has never been unpacked since it was shipped to London. The Stock Exchange was inactive throughout the week, yet the tendency of the market was good. Silver securities were especially weak, owing to growing fears that nothing would be done with the Silver Bill in Congress this session. There was a relapse in Argentines, which ranged from 1¼ on national loans to 10 on Entre Rios. American railway securities were firm, and there was an all-round rise. On the Paris Bourse during the past week business was quiet and prices were firm. At Berlin business on the Boerse during the week was fairly active, with a tendency to improvement. At Frankfort business was limited but prices were firm.

No Strikes Among the Wives and Mothers.

The dear wife and mother! Her devoted and loving nature knows no bounds. We do not hear of her organizing "strikes" for fewer hours of labor, and extra remuneration! She does not show a sullen disposition and parade the streets in order to right imaginary wrongs! God help the dear children and the community if this ever occurs. How many men ever take seriously into consideration the amount of labor that the wife and mother must daily perform? It is truly amazing and wonderful when the whole is summed up and looked at with care. Is it any wonder that we see so many used up, broken down, pale and hollow-cheeked women? Many of these dear devoted mothers are nervous, just getting irritable, they are sleepless, and many of them suffering from dyspepsia and impaired digestion. The lives of these mothers are very precious to the dear children who cling daily to them in shadow and sunshine. Let these dear and devoted mothers know that Paine's Celery Compound will impart to their nervous system a strength, a vitality and a vigor that they sorely stand in need of. It will banish their dyspepsia, headaches, their mental and physical depression and their sleeplessness, and give them vivacity of spirits, refreshing sleep and good appetite, and fit them for the work and duties of life. b

Italy has adopted the word "boycott," and "boicottaire" is said to be the infinitive.

The great lung healer is found in excellent medicine sold as Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It soothes and diminishes the sensibility of the membrane of the throat and air passages and is a sovereign remedy for all coughs, colds, hoarseness, pain or soreness in the chest, bronchitis, etc. It has cured many when supposed to be far advanced in consumption.

Among the pains and aches cured with marvelous rapidity with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, is ear-ache. The young are especially subject to it, and the desirability of this Oil as a family remedy is enhanced by the fact that it is admirably adapted not only to the above ailment, but also to the hurts, disorders of the bowels, and affections of the throat, to which the young are specially subject.

ARMY PORTIA.

By Charles King, U. S. Army.

Author of "THE COLONEL'S DAUGHTER," "A DESERTER," "FROM THE RANKS," "DUNRAVEN RANCH," "TWO SOLDIERS," ETC.

CHAPTER I.

It must have been nearly midnight. The lights in the barracks and at the old hospital beyond had long since been extinguished, and only here and there along the row of officers' quarters and at the guard-house, suggestively planted half-way down the slope towards the post trader's store, was there sign of wakeful life. One or two upper windows gave forth a feeble gleam, and there was quite a jovial glow pouring from the open door-way of the colonel's big house across the dark rectangle. It fell upon the tall white flag-staff and displayed gradually the diminishing power, illumined the graveled pathway that bisected the parade and led from the broad flight of steps in front of the commanding officer's to the major's quarters on the southern side. Overhead the stars were glittering in an absolutely cloudless sky. Not a breath of air was stirring the forest down in the black depths of the valley to the south. Softened by distance, the rush of the river over its rocky bed fell upon the ear like a soothing lullaby. Ten minutes earlier the sound of silvery laughter and cheery voices had come floating across the garrison, and half a dozen little groups had strolled away from the colonel's gate, some turning to the right and left, others crossing in the broad stream of light from his open portals. One by one the doors of the various quarters had opened to admit their occupants, a few lingering good nights had been exchanged between gallant young bachelors and some dainty form enwrapped in fleecy burnous, and then even those night-owls "the youngsters" had betaken themselves to their domiciles; one after another doors were closed, lights popped up in the second-floor windows, curtains were drawn, the lights enshrouded, and finally a silence as of solitude spread its mantle over the parade, and the corporal of the guard, leaning against the gate-post at the south-western entrance, bethought him how expressive was the sign the Indians made for night.

He was of medium height, but an athletic well-built young fellow, as any one might have seen as the corporal stood under the big lamp at the guard-house but a few minutes before. He had a handsome clear-cut face, with a good deal of soldier bronze about the cheeks and jaws; he wore his natty undress uniform with an easy grace, carried the long Springfield as though it were a toy. The crossed rifles on his forage-cap, the buckle of his cartridge-belt, even the copper cartridges themselves, gleamed in the lamplight. The chevrons on his sleeves, the narrow stripe along the seam of his trousers, the Berlin gloves he wore, were all spotlessly white; and Corporal Brent was what the men were wont to call "a dandy Jack," though there was not a man in the troop-barracks at the western end of the parade who cared more than once to put on the gloves with the "dandy." Brent had speedily demonstrated the fact that he could outspar any man in the cavalry portion of the garrison, and that only Sergeant Connors, of C company, was able to beat him in a bout. In the little battalion of infantry Brent was a popular man; so, too, had he been in the cavalry command that recently occupied the post; but these fellows of the Eleventh, who had but lately marched in, seemed rather slow to discover his many good traits. Very possibly they did not like the apparent ease with which he had defeated the champions they had so confidently sent against him. Still, it was a good-natured, not a vindicative, sort of jealousy—that soldierly rivalry between the two corps that seems irrepressible and that really does no great harm—and Brent had begun to win friends among the troopers, who liked the frank, laughing way he had, when an order was suddenly issued by the new post commander the enforcement of which stirred up a row.

As the last visitor left the colonel's gate and he closed the door, thereby shutting out the broad gleam that, almost like that of the headlight of a locomotive, had shot athwart the parade, Corporal Brent was pondering over this very matter.

Colonel Morris was a man who hated irregularity of any kind, and as the grass began to sprout in the spring he noted that it failed to grow along what was evidently a short cut between the south-west gate, the way to town, and the infantry barracks at the eastern end. The former post commander, a cavalryman like himself, had not paid much attention to this sort of thing, and the infantry had grown to look upon the short cut as a sort of thoroughfare sacred to their uses; no officer ever had occasion to go that way. When, therefore, the beaten pathway was plowed up and re-sodded, and an order was issued that the men must confine themselves to the gravel path or road-way there were just a few old foot soldiers who saw fit to grumble, and some of them, returning late at night from a visit on pass to the neighboring town, made sarcastic allusions to the new order as they trudged homeward under the windows of the officers' quarters on the south side. Others still, trusting to darkness and a theory that all officers should be abed at that hour, proceeded to wear a parallel path, and these two transgressions being occasionally repeated, and the officer of the day having twice come upon the transgressors without having captured one of their number—for the "dough boys" were fleet of foot—a second order was issued requiring all enlisted men returning to the post between tattoo and reveille to enter their barracks and quarters from the rear and not to cross the quadrangle bounded by the fence. There was a road all around in rear of the barracks and quarters, but in the wet spring weather it was often deep with mud and generally dark as Erebus. What wonder, therefore, that many parties still managed to slip in, not exactly in defiance of the order, but because the enlisted men had a fine appreciation of that principle of international law which provides that a mere paper blockade is not entitled to respect? Then it was that the "old man," as the soldiers called the colonel, ordered out his blockaders. An extra sentinel's post was established, a sentry was ordered stationed at the south-west gate from tattoo until reveille, and, as all the cavalry were barracked on the west side, near the stables, and as the infantry were manifestly the offenders (so argued the colonel) the three additional sentries required were ordered taken from among their number. This order made guard-duty a trifle harder and the infantry men a trifle madder. Out of sheer mischief, some of them took to passing up the road toward the guard-house and the trader's, entering the northwest gate and stalking across the parade in stealthy column of files from that direction, facetiously decorating their trail with empty beer-bottles, whisky-flasks or sardine-boxes, over which the police sergeant spent some time and blasphemy after reveille next morning. Then the colonel ordered the northwest gate locked at tattoo, and the laughing rascals climbed the fence. He would not order out more sentries, but he gave the officer of the day orders to have a patrol in readeness at the flagstaff between 11 and 1 that night, and then some fine foot racing resulted, in which the patrol came out second best. The colonel ordered the five infantrymen who happened to be on pass arrested and brought to trial before a garrison court, and the court promptly acquitted every man; it was established that they had all obediently gone around the garrison; they had even taken the trouble to call the attention of the sentry on No. 4 to the fact; and then it dawned upon the commanding officer that some of those infantry scamps were "putting up a job" at his expense, and that half a dozen of the fleetest footed among them were, just for a lark, slipping out of quarters after 11 o'clock and around to the northwest gate, vaulting the fence with the agility of monkeys, and then playing the old game of "Tom, Tom, pull away" with his patrol. They had not had so much fun in a year.

An Age of Discovery.

The latter half of the nineteenth century will pass into history as one into which is crowded more inventions and discoveries for the benefit of mankind than in all the centuries that have preceded it. Among these discoveries none will take higher rank than those in medicine, calculated to relieve "the ills that flesh is heir to," restore vitality, and prolong life. Ladies everywhere will rejoice at the discovery of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, undoubtedly the greatest remedy for their peculiar ailments yet discovered. These pills are the result of an almost life study, and are a certain nerve tonic and blood builder, supplying the elements necessary to enrich the blood and transform pale, sallow or greenish complexions to the pink and glow of perfect health. These pills are an unfailing cure for nervous debility, palpitation of the heart, loss of appetite, headache and all the irregularities of the female system that entail so much misery and distress. Every suffering woman should give them a trial. For sale by all dealers, or will be sent, post paid, on receipt of price—50 cents a box—by addressing the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont. FUN, FACTS AND FICTION

It is as strange as it is usually true, that a man who goes on a toot doesn't blow much about it.

Hair Magic

Is a good name of Dr. Dorenwend's German preparation for the hair. It really works like magic. All who have used it pronounce it to be unequaled for remedying the lost vitality of the hair roots, restoring gray hair, removing dandruff, etc. Just try it. It is first-class. All druggists sell it.

The Princess of Wales has given orders that nothing need be submitted to her inspection, or that of her daughters, in which birds are used as trimming. This will insure many a feathered songster a longer lease of life.

Carter's Little River Pills must not be confounded with common Cathartic or Purgative Pills, as they are entirely unlike them in every respect. One trial will prove their superiority.

According to the New York Herald, this is finesse: A wily politician had a daughter with a beau, with whom it didn't please him to have the maiden go; so their love he gerrymandered, after mature reflection, by sending her off to school till she made a new election.

A man's wife should always be the same especially to her husband; but if she is weak and nervous and uses Carter's Iron Pills, she cannot be, for they will make her "feel like a different person," at least so they all say, and their husbands say so, too.

Garrulous Stranger, on a train—My wife's name was Wood. What was yours? Crusty Old Bachelor—I guess mine's name was "wouldn't" I didn't get her.

A Dinner Pill.—Many persons suffer excruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a ball of lead upon the stomach, and instead of being a healthy nutriment it becomes a poison to the sytem. Dr. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are wonderful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open the secretions and conver the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with Indigestion or Dyspepsia.

Anglomaniac—That's the way it goes. If we hunt foxes, folks say we're cruel; if we hunt anise-seed bags, folks laugh at us. What can we hunt without exciting indignation or ridicule? Small Boy—Rats!

Mr. J. R. Allen, upholsterer, Toronto sends us the following: "For six or seven years my wife suffered with Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Inward Piles and Kidney Complaint. We tried two physicians and any number of medicines without getting any relief, until we got a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. This was the first relief she got, and before one bottle was used the benefit she derived from it was beyond our expectation."

On the street car: First Man (reading)—Mayor King declines to be a candidate, and there is talk of running the ex-Mayor nolens volens. Second man—Who's ex-Mayor Volens? I never heard of him.

To Nervous Debilitated Men.

If you will send us your address we will send you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belt and Appliances, and their charming effects upon the nervous, debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are thus afflicted, we will send you a Belt and Appliances for a trial. VOLTAIC BELT COMPANY, Marshall, Mich. ywt

"Father what is a luxury?" asked little Johnny the other night. "A luxury? Why, its something we don't really need, you know—a thing we can do without." "Well then," replied the logical youth, "what a luxury a mosquito net must be in winter!"

Mothers

Castoria is recommended by physicians for children teething. It is a purely vegetable preparation; its ingredients are published around each bottle. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It relieves constipation, regulates the bowels, quiets pain, cures diarrhœa and wind colic, allays feverishness, destroys worms and prevents convulsions, soothes the child and gives it refreshing and natural sleep. Castoria is the children's panacea—the mother's friend. 25 doses, 35 cents.

In the Days of Adversity.

Rev. G. Trotter Carr preached an intensely patriotic sermon in the Union Congregational Church Sunday night from the text: "In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider." Ecclesiastes vii., 14. The speaker prefaced his sermon with a summary of the many causes of rejoicing on the part of the Canadian people. Their unrivaled educational facilities, natural waterways, mineral wealth, and rich timber lands were each touched upon. Notwithstanding all these great blessings, the speaker pointed out that Canada was far from being prosperous. "The flower of our population — the young men—are being driven into the United States," he said, "and while they are taking high places and honors in the country south of us, there is a sadness coupled with their prosperity because they have been forced to leave their native place. With such resources as Canada has there must be something rotten in the heart of the Dominion when it does not give employment to its sons." Continuing, the speaker referred contemptuously to the action of the politicians who had raised the cry of loyalty, and urged all to consider well their action in the approaching election and support the best men.

South Middlesex Reformers.

A preliminary meeting of South Middlesex Reformers was held at Delaware village on Saturday, the chair being occupied by Mr. J. Simmons and Mr. E. Parnell being secretary pro tem. The election of officers resulted in the appointment of the following: President, Mr. J. Simmons, Lobo; first vice-president, Mr. Duncan N. McGugan, Caradoc; second vice-president, Mr. J. McFarlane, Delaware; secretary, Mr. E. Parnell, London South; treasurer, Mr. J. K. Little, Westminster. It was decided to hold a convention for the selection of a candidate on Friday of this week, February 13. A resolution was carried requesting the conveners of each sub-division to appoint five delegates, according to constitution, to attend Friday's meeting, which will commence at 1 p.m. sharp in the village of Delaware. The secretary then made a short address, urging the importance of united effort and the necessity of thorough organization. Mr. James Armstrong, M.P.P., was given a very hearty reception, and delivered a brief and pointed speech on the trade question, showing clearly the great advantages, particularly to the farming community, which would of necessity follow the adoption of unrestricted reciprocity with the United States.

Little Troubles.

Little troubles are proverbially the ones that cause the most worry, annoyance and vexation. But what are sometimes considered little troubles, if left to themselves, soon magnify into grave evils, producing disastrous results. This is especially true of cold in the head. The sufferer looks upon it as a trifling annoyance that needs no treatment and will speedily pass away. This is a grave mistake. There is not a case of catarrh in existence that did not have its origin in neglected cold in the head, and the longer the trouble runs the more serious the results. Cold in the head, developing into catarrh, renders the breath foul, causes a loss of the senses of taste and smell, partial deafness, distressing headaches, constant hawking and spitting, and in many, many cases ends in consumption and death. No case may have all the symptons indicated, but the more the sufferer has the greater the danger. It is obvious, therefore, that no case of cold in the head should be neglected for an instant, and that to do so is courting further disease—perhaps death. Nasal Balm, in the most aggravated case of cold in the head, will give instant relief, and speedily effect a cure, thus preventing the developing of catarrh. No other remedy has ever met with the success that Nasal Balm has, and this is simply because it does all its manufacturers claim for it. As a precautionary remedy a bottle of Nasal Balm should be kept in every house. Sold by all dealers.

THE CITY CAMPAIGN.

Hon. John Carling will remain in the city till after the election.

All the Reform committees meet to-night at the rooms in Albert Block.

The merits of the two candidates was the sole topic of discussion at the City Hall and on the street corners yesterday.

"What a difference between 2,000 and 200 at a nomination!" said an elector, referring to the meetings of Saturday night.

Members of the Liberal Glee Club and others willing to assist, should be on hand this evening in the large hall above the committee rooms.

A great number of ladies are to be seen with small pieces of red ribbons on their jackets. The gentler sex in large numbers sympathize with the Liberal nominee.

The Reform Association has secured the Albert block for committee and other election work. A number of chairs, tables, etc., were soon introduced and the rooms speedily took on a homelike appearance.

The Tories are divided in their colors as well as in other matters. The personal friends of the candidate and more thoughtful of his following have decided in favor of black, while others have given their voices in favor of blue.

The Hyman men are distinguished by bright red ties. They are so numerous that nearly all the ties and scarfs in the city of that hue were sold out on Saturday evening. Several of the leading merchants have ordered a new supply.

"I'll let business alone till after the election," said a citizen to-day. "All right," said another, "from now till election day I shall spend every hour of my spare time to promote Hyman's election. The country must be saved from the domination of the combines, even if I lose a little. In the long run I will be a gainer."

This Syrup is pleasant to the taste, and unsurpassed for relieving, healing and curing all affections of the throat and lungs, coughs, colds, bronchitis, etc.
