city and company — 15 per cent, cach. The committee considered this a fair proposition, and agreed to recommend it—particularly as the lesses purposed doing so much more than they were required in other things.

The lesses made a very important consession in the matter of freight rates. They expressed their willingness to carry goods from London outward at the same low rates that the lesses binds them to carry them to the city. This should prove a spreaf factor in inducing manufacturers to locate here in view of the extraordinary cheap rates to the lake side.

To consummate this important deal, so closely identified with the future welfare of the city, will be a fitting climax to the labors of the council of 1892, which has striven so faithfully to serve the public interests.

THE DAILY ADVERTISER.

Morning Edition, fe per annum; Evening Edi-tion, 10c. per week, delivered.

THE WESTERN ADVERTISER. GUR WEEKLY EDITION

JOHN CAMERON, President and Manager.

"The Advertiser" is an organ of news and of thoroughly independent opinion. The ADVERTISER alone is responsible for opinions expressed in these future as that of an Independent Canadian Nationality, in equally friendly alliance with the United States and with Great Britain, believing that such a status would be best for Canada, best for Great Britain, and promotive of the hest attainable rela-tions with the United States. As to Imperial Federation, sometimes spoken of, the Advertiser as yet has seen nothing proposed that bears any stamp of practicability, and in any case infinitely prefers ander and more really hopeful scheme of a federation of the English-speaking peoples of the world. Towards this con summation a large stride would be taken by a Confederation of the English-speaking people of the North American Continent.

"The Advertiser" advocates Contifree trade with Great Britain, free trade

"The Advertiser" advocates prohibition and sale of intoxicating liquor; and all expedient general legislation and persuasion

"The Advertiser" is an advocate of rights for women, whether as regards the franchise, or equal wages for equal work.

"The Advertiser" is a believer in Christian Union, and considers the time has come when the various Christian denominations should come closer together. Those bodies which are now nearest should unite first. Under the present system there is an unjustifiable waste of men, means and effort. The ADVERTISER will endeavor to promote the movement for Christian union not alone by direct appeal and argument, but by seeking to present the best rather than the worst side of each

"The Advertiser" advocates Obligatory Voting as both neceseary and practicable. Nothing would so much purify electoral contests. Nothing o much enforce the idea that the franchise is a duty, not a chattel.

God's in His heaven, All's right with the world.

London, Friday, Jan. 6.

COURAGE AFTER BATTLE. Our local contemporary-now that it has come out from under the barn, and now that the battle is over for the momentmakes no secret of its glee over the tem-porary failure to reduce the hours of liquor selling. We cannot say, but probably even those engaged in the liquor traffic have more respect for a courageous op ponent than for a cowardly ally.

Mr. Tarte, the well-known newspaper editor, has been elected M. P. for L'Islet. He takes the place recently vacated by a Conservative. This, therefore, is a Liberal gain. Mr. Tarte is an old Parliamentary hand. He is probably the most detested man, so far as the Conservative leaders are concerned, on the Liberal side. A few years ago he was a Conservative but he saw that the Langevins and the Carons were dragging his party into the mire of corruption, and he appealed to his leader to cempel a change of tactics. The warning was not heeded. The boodlers were permitted to run the party councils, and Mr. Tarte despaired of compelling a reform by any other than drastic means. He was elected to the House of Com-mons, and to his knowledge of wrongdoing by his old party leaders and determined efforts to have it exposed and the guilty for plundering the public purse, still un-punished, despite Sir John Thompson's known to go into a place where drink is promises. It was Mr. Terte who brought sold while he is on duty must be promptly been probed to the bottom, simply because begiven to those who do not use intoxicadecreed that his rascality, like the London seat steal, must, under no circumstances, be investigated. Mr. Tarte asked the electors of L'Islet to send him to Perliament to complete the task of exposing Caron to drink. Even men who are not themwhich he has addressed his energies. He asked that they should give him an opportunity to lay bare and demand investigation of certain serious charges against judges in the Province of way manager, charged as he is with the Quebec. Because of his attitude and desafety of many thousands of lives every day and with the preservation of valuable used every agent to secure his defeat known rolling stock, should only wish to secure for to the political artificer. The Ministers themselves even went to the rescue of the local managers, but it was all in vain. Mr.

Tatte here given his action of valuable rolling stock, should only wish to secure for his service men with clear heads and keen eyes. Deinking men cannot have these. Thus the total abstainer has a distinct activities of the secure for his service men with clear heads and keen eyes. Deinking men cannot have these. local managers, but it was all in vain. Mr. Tarte has been given his mandate from the electorate, and at the ensuing session of the ing employment. most picturesque participants in the business of the House.

Will the Free Press kindly give straight answer to the following queries?

Or, if either the Managing Editor or the Managing Director of that paper prefers to write to the ADVERTISER over his own name, we shall cheerfully give him space; "top of column"; we shall give him a courteous hearing, and a reply strictly confined to the merits of the matter.

1. Does our contemporary, or either of its two controlling spirits, regard it as fo accordance with the Golden Role-do unto others as you would that others should do anto you-to either administer or take an iron-clad oath to ostracize persons of any denomination differing from your own from all municipal and other elective positions, simply because of that difference of belief?

2. Suppose a poor, hard-working man, with only his day's work with which to provide for his family-suppose him thrown out of or denied employment solely because his denominational affiliation is different "The Advertiser" looks forward with from your own; and suppose (because that result would follow) his wife and children reduced to destitution in consequence. Would a procedure, followed by such results, be in accordance with the Golden Rule to do unto others as you would that others should do unto you? Yes; that is a fair test. What would be your opinion if YOU were the one to be ostracized both from elective position and from employment solely because of your denominational affiliations?

> -to particularize a little-in what way the ostracism of one section of the workingmen of the continent, or of any section of the continent, from both elective position and from employment, because of denominational affiliation, would affect the Labor Unions and the labor question generally ? Would not the unions be all broken to pieces? gain by the trap of division into which some would be glad to have them fall?

4. Would not the administering or the taking of such an iron-clad oath be both un-Protestant and un-Christian? And wherein is persecution, because of other persons' denominational affiliation, in London, Canada, any better or any more commendable than the persecution of the Stundists (or Protestants) by the Greek Church, because of which all the world is ringing with Russia's shame?

5. How can you logically or with good onscience-for it is not cant to say that that must ever be the great thing in this life-how can you logically or with good nscience resent attacks on your own right to freedom of religious belief, if you do not respect that right in others?

Are not one's own liberties and one's own rights bound up in standing up for the rights of others?

6. Will our contemporary kindly point out in what way the deliberate and systematic ostracizing of one section of the com munity both from elective position and from employment could conduce in any way whatever to more friendly citizenship or to additional security to life and property?

The foregoing are plain questions, to which we respectfully invite plain answers. As we have said, if either the Managing Editor or the Managing Director of our contemporary prefers to answer in our his letters prom ently, in large type, "at top of column;" and in our reply we undertake to discuss the issue without any re lation whatever to personalities, but solely on the merits of the issue raised.

This, then, is our open challenge to our contemporary, or, if it prefers, to its Managing Editor or Managing Director; and this is the first time of asking.

THE LONDON AND PORT STANLEY

Welcome, indeed, to citizens of London must have been the information contained in our local columns this morning with regard to the lease of the London and Port Stanley Railway. The lease has now been arranged to the satisfaction of No. 1 Com mittee of the City Council, as well as the capitalists who desire to use the line to facilitate international trade, and we are informed that when the City Council comes to ratify it to-morrow night the bargain will be found to be such as to call for no We said during the municipal campaign, at a time when the mean cry was raised against Ald. Gartshore, chairman of No. 1 committee, that the offer was a bogus one, brought forward to hoodwink the people and worthy only of ridicule, that the negotiations had been conducted in real earnest, and that if they could be brought to fruition it would be a big thing for London. The facts turn out as we have stated all along. The capitalists always meant business. They had recognized, as the ADVERTISER always has done, the importance of our railway a connecting link between London and the great lakes, between this western commercial capital and the coal, iron and oil regions of Ohio and the neighboring States. With a wealthy coal company bent on making London the distributing point for its business in this Province. with ample shipping facilities provided for both freight and passengers between Cleve-land and other United States points and this city, who can tell how great may be the developments under the new arrangements?

It will be rather a remarkable thing if, in addition to providing cheaper coal for the manufacturers and householders of London, the new syndicate is able to do a good stroke for the Grand Trunk Railway, the former lessees of the road, as well. Yet if, as has been reported, the Grand Trunk Railway has already entered into a contract to take a large quantity of coal annually at this city from the company controlling the London and Port Stanley Railway, it must have early reached the conclusion that the not the unions be all broken to pieces? deal was an advantage to it. As we are Have the workingmen most to gain by standing together? or have they most to Trunk, it is satisfactory to know that the L. and P. S. syndicate will be able to co-operat with the great through line in developing business at this point. And if the syndi-cate can profitably sell Ohio coal, imported direct to this city by the Cleveland and London route, why should it not be able to make a similar arrangement with the

The possibilities for making the line pay the great coal company that has secured it, and for aiding in London's future prosperity, are undoubted under the arrange-ments arrived at. When we have reciprocity in trade, and the vexatious duty now collected on coal is removed, the full benefits of this direct connection will be

ANONYMOUS LETTERS.

Why is it that so many men are anxious to have a hit at their neighbors and are anxious to use a newspaper as the vehicle for conveying their blow while they keep in

The anonymous letter writer, the person who pens anonymous attacks upon others, can never do much good, and he can do a great deal of harm unless he is repressed.

The ADVERTISER has reached the conclusion that the public welfare can best be served by demanding that a man who wishes to attack another by a letter to a newspaper shall be manly enough to father the attack.

No anonymous letters dealing in person alities can be inserted in this journal. It may be that even the signing of a letter by the writer will not fit it for publication. In all cases that must be left for the editor to decide,

What the Salvation Army Has Accom plished in That Time.

Tenth Anniversary Celebrated in This City-Marriage of Two Captains-A Banquet and Address by Commandant Booth.

Salvation Army officers from different parts of Ontario have been conspicuous on the streets of London during the last few days. They are here to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the birth of the army in Canada. The council of war was held in the Mathedist Mission Charch in London West; and religious meetings were also anniversary of the birth of the army in Canada. The council of war was held in the Methodist Mission Church in London West, and religious meetings were also held at the jail, on the market and in the barracks on Dundas street. About eighty visiting officers assisted, and the the brass bands from Woodstock and Ingersell have also aided. The sessions have been of urent interest to those taking part.

Yesterday afternoon an army wedding attracted a large crowd to King Street Methodist Church. Commandant Booth united Capt. E. Andrews, of Toronto, and Capt. Caraher, of Campbellford. The ceremony of a Salvation Army wedding is lengthy but interesting. Although a solemn occurrence, the addience was several times provoked to laughter. Capt. Stark, of Chatham, was groomsman, and Capt. Tovell, of Chesley, assisted the bride. When the knot had been securely tied an adjournment was made to the barracke, where a banquet was in waiting. Many sumptuously spread tables were soon surrounded. The repast was thoroughly enjoyed by all the army officers and many of the local corps. Salated at tables on the platform were Mayor Spencer, Commandant and Mrs. Booth, Rev. Wester Rigsby, Rev. S. McVitty, Mr. Samuel Grigg, Mr. C. R. Sayer and Mr. Marchall, During the course of the banquet these gentlemen made ahort but interesting addresses. This session concluded about 7:30 p.m., and afterwards a grand procession was engaged in until 8 o'clock, when the anniversary meeting opened.

CHAPTER XIV.

THE PLOT BEGINS TO WORK.

The acquaintaine between the Farnums and Virgie progressed rapidly after the meeting between Sadie and the young wife. Mrs. Farnum was duly introduced, and did not prove to be nearly so formidable a personage as Virgie and plangined her to buylor although she was not drawn towar? as she had been to her daughter, yet a gracious and exerted herself to be able that Virgie could not but ackn herself that she was a very please tertaining person.

A Wonderful Cure.—Mr. David Smith, Coe Hill, Ont., writes: "For the benefit of others I wish to say a new words about Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. About a year ago I took a very severe cough, had a virulent sore on my lips, was bad with dyspepsia, constipation and general debility. I tried almost every conceivable remedy, outwardly and inwardly, to cure the sore but all to no purpose. I had often thought of trying Northrop & Lyman s Vegetable Discovery, so I got a bottle and when I had used about one half the sore showed evident signs of healing. By the time that bottle was done it had about disappeared and my general health was improving fast. I was always of a very bilicus habit and had used quinine and lemon fuice with very little affect. But since using three bottles of the Vegetable Discovery the biliousness is entirely gone and my general health is excellent. I am 60 years old. Parties using it should continue is for some time after they think they are cured. It is by far the best health restorer I knew." 3

BAITIMORE, Md., Jan. 5.—Isabel C. Hartove, widow of John W. Hartlove, has begun suit for $25,000 damages in the Superior Court against M. Fox & Son, livery stable keepers. It is alleged that the defendants sold a horse to William Ather than the defendants sold a horse to William Ather than the defendants of the horse had the glanders and was treated by John W. Hartlove, who contracted the disease and died. The widow claims that Fox knew the horse had the glanders and sold the animal, although the laws of the State expressly forbid such a sale.

Sr. Louis, Mo., Jan. 1.—By the arrest of William Whalen, while at the Laclede House, in this city, some 107 victims of the most stupeadous mining frauds of recent years got hold of the author of their undoing. In 1889 Whalen, who was the reported owner of the St. Peter mine in the Antelope district, came to this city, and, by the aid of a smooth torgue and apparently good references, succeeded in placing nearly 8,500 shores of stock. These have a face value of $750,000, but are worth nothing. He uetted $50,000 from his scheme. Among his victims were lawyers, clergymen and widows.

Among the pains and aches cured with marvelous rapidity with Dr. Thomas Eclectric Oil, is car ache. The young are especially subject to it, and the desirability of this Oil as a family remedy is enhanced by the fact that it is admirably adapted not only to the above ailment, but also to the hurts, disorders of the bowels, and affections of the throat, in which the young are pecially subject.

A CHAIN IN H'S STOMACH. The Cause of the Death of a Big

BARABOO, Wis., Jan. 6.—An autopsy remarkable in itself and with surprising results washeld yesterday on the body of the mammoth elephant Zip, that died a few wights and winter surprise here. Prof. remarkable in itself and with surprising results was held vesterday on the body of r, the mammoth elephant Zip, that died a few nights ago in winter quarters here. Prof. Joonaldson, of the Chicago University, and Prof. Akety, of Milwaukee, performed the autopsy, the purpose of which was to ascertain the cause of the big pachyderm's death. Although long of the most tractable disposition, Zip three days preceding his demise had been in a state of continuous frenzy, scaring the kangaroos and other animals at the quarters into spasms. Another peculiarity of the huge brute was a sudden loss of appetite. Elephants are proverbially long-lived, and the opportunity for a scientist to dissect one comes so seldom that Messrs. Donaldson and Akely eagerly accepted this chance. The autopsy was performed in one end of the quarters, specially curtained off to prevent the other selephants from seeing what was going on. A sharp knife was first drawn through the tough skin under the stomach, the entire leigh of the animal, and then the hide was deftly removed. An incision was then made in the stomach, and Prof. Donaldson, who was wielding the scalpel, uttered an exclamation of surprise. "There certainly an't be a bone in the elephant's stomach," he said, "and yet the knife strikes something apparently as hard as iron." The next moment the cause of the professor's astonishment was plain. As the ligaments parted the spectators crowding around could see links of a big chain. There was no longer any doubt as to what had caused the big elephant's death. Professors Donaldson and Akely both declared it was a marvel that the animal had lived so long with so large a foreign substance in the stomach. The action of the elephant in swallowing the chain was also considered remarkable. It was four feet long and weighed over 90 pounds. Zip tipped the scales at 80 tons and stood nearly twelve feet bigh.
