Mr. Ben. Hager, of Edmonton, Alta., has recently had occasion to test the remarkable healing powers of ZAM-BUK. He says:—

"When opening a can of Pineapple Sauce the other day, the Can Opener lost its grip and my hand was ripped open by the rough edge of the half opened can. It made a gash in my hand about 2 inches long. The pain was fearful and the blood simply gushed away from me. I had a box of ZAM-BUK handy and I immediately applied some. To my surprise the pain suddenly ceased and the blood stopped. ZAM-BUK'S quickness in healing up Sores, Cuts, Bruises, etc., is a great puzzle to me."

"ZAM-BUK heats all other remedies and I therefore recommend ZAM. "ZAM-BUK beats all other remedies and I therefore recommend ZAM-

BALLOONS DROP INTO THE WATER

Paris Racers Have Bad Weather —De Lobel Rescued From the North Sea.

Paris, Oct. 3.-The balloonists who took part in the long-distance race for the grand prize of the Aero Club experienced nothing but rain and fog throughout the time they were aloft. All landed wet and cold, if one or LEWIS THOMAS. CIVIL ENGINEER. rather two who came down in the North Sea may be said to have land.

H. C. McBRIDE, ARCHITECT - SIXTH Nord, accompanied by Messrs. Lepers, had determined at all hazards to make the English coast. His balloon represented the Aero Club du Nord. His temerity nearly cost him and his companions their lives. A south wind carried them over the North Sea between Belgium and England, but although apparently certain loss was ahead he never stopped until the balloon fell into the sea near Ostend. The party abandoned the balloon, which drifted seaward. It was recovered off > the Suffolk coast. De Lobel and the Lepers were rescued by a German steamer which happened to see their plight.

De Lobel estimates the distance h traveled at 265 kilometres. A Dover dispatch says: "De Lobel and the Lepers were landed at Dover by the German steamer Patani, which rescued them. They say they passed the night in clouds of awful darkness. There was nothing to indicate the position of the balloon. They opened the valve, and, as they descended, found they were nearing the sea. They hoped to cross the Channel, but a change in the wind carried them over the North Sea, which they struck twenty-five miles from Osend. They were thrown into the water. but grasped the cordage, and regained the balloon. De Lobel tied himself to DR MCLELLAN, EYE AND EAR SUR the car and the Lepers to the rigstreet, opposite Albert street, by Oct. 1. ging. They passed several hours thus, ooking out for a ship. When the DR. W. J. STEVENSON, 391 DUNDAS-Patani sighted them she lowered a boat and rescued them, after, which the balloon again soared. It was sub-

MR. BORDEN STULTIFIED.

Mr. Borden's present treatment of the Japanese difficulty shows that either he has a short memory or credits the public with the same failing. The Ottawa Free Press finds conclusive evidence of this in Hansard. The question of the Anglo-Japanese treaty was raised in the House of Commons on June 21, 1905, by Mr. Foster, who asked for information as to the trade negotiations carried on by Mr. Fisher in Japan. The Minister of Agriculture replied that the Dominion could safely enter into treaty relations with Japan, in view of the latter's policy of restricting emigration. Messrs. Borden. Hughes, Foster, Kemp and Osler-all Conservatives-participated in the debate which followed, and not one of them lifted his voice against the proposal that Canada should take advanof the Anglo-Japanese conven-Mr. Foster condemned the Government for not having acted sooner, "because two years ago they were informed of the good disposition of Japan towards Canada." On May 10, 1906, nearly a year later, Mr. Borden complained of the delay in the negotiations with Japan, saying:

"We have not taken sufficient pains to promote and develop commercial relations between Canada and Japan."

Canada could secure commercial favors in Japan only by assenting to the Anglo-Japanese treaty. Mr. Borden knew this he supported the treaty; he denounced the Government for not taking advantage of it at an earlier That was little more than a year Today he censures the Governfor having subscribed to the treaty, and talks loftily of trade with with the evidence of the corruption it adthe Orient as a matter entirely secondary to other considerations. Mr. Borden's course is not courageous, and not honest. His political opponents who have been disposed to credit him with high-mindedness are beginning to tevise their estimate of him.

CHINA'S NEW ERA.

From time to time the western world has of late been informed that important reforms are impending in China. Only recently it was announced that an imperial edict had been issued authorizing the grand council and certain individual statesmen to frame regulations for the establishment of an advisory and delibertive chamber to serve as the foundation of representative government, no date being named for the final change. The creation of a self. ministry for the discussion of state affairs, it was said, had been decided on, and certain political, financial, and administrative reforms were ordered, including compulsory education.

Reports from Butte, Montana, state that Battling Nelson has discharged his wily manager, Billy Nolan, because Billy was working harder for Billy than he was for Battling. Nelson recently went to Butte to collect debt from Harry C. O'Neil, who, at present, is located at El Paso, Texas. Nelson, so the story goes, gave O'Neil $350 to bet on him when he fought Aurelia Herrera at Butte, and when "Bat" went to collect his winnings he learned that O'Neil had skipped out with the money. A few days before the Gans-Britt fight the "Battler," en route from Hegeswich to San Francisco, stopped off at El Paso, strolled into a saloon and saw O'Neil behind the bar. The recognition was mutual, but Nelson did not betray that he knew O'Neil. After the Gans-Britt "The Best at the Price, No Matter What the Price."

A prominent physician, famous for his success in the treatment of kidney and bladder diseases, attributes a great deal of his success to the following simple vegetable prescription :-One ounce Fluid Extract Dande-One ounce Compound Salatone;

Four ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla; Mix, shake well, and take in tea spoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime. Your druggist can supply the ingredients, and the mixture can be prepared at home at very little expense. This, the doctor says, acts directly on the kidneys, assisting them to filter the poisons from the blood and expel same in the urine, at the same time restoring the kidneys to healthy, normal action.

We feel that a great many readers will be pleased to learn of this simple prescription, and knowing the ability of the physician whose formula it is, we do not hesitate to recommend it to any sufferer.

Direct From Maker to Wearer What Does It Mean to You?

It means that you pay only one profit instead of three and sometimes four.

It means that you buy straight from the manufacturers and skip all middlemen's toll, such as you pay dealers who buy through wholesalers and jobbers-where a toll is exacted at every turnpike.

It means that you buy as near to the actual cost as it is humanly possible for you to do. From the loom to the finished product only one profit.

It means that you buy clothing straight from the makers themselves, who have built up the largest clothing business in Canada on the merits of the garments they make and sell, and who are themselves directly responsible to you for the service of the goods or the return of your money.

Buy your clothing direct from the makers and save all middlemen's profits.

Goodwood Overcoats

In the new models, built on the new lines that make them positively exclusive in style. Every garment is perfect in fit. The shoulders are broad, collars snugfitting, with form-fitting body.

Suggestion of the Board of Health.

No. 3 committee of the city council met last evening, and transacted merely routine business. The most important recommendation was that suggested by the board of health, and approved by the committee, that garbage in the city be removed in none but air-tight and water-tight receptacles. The disposition of the surplus that the committee will have this year was discussed informally, and it is probable that the money will be used for some needed work in the city, such as building of a first-class lavatory down town. No definite action was

No. 3 Committee Adopts the Ex-Private Callaway, Deserter, Twice, Is Now Himself Deserted.

> A dispatch from Rochester, N. Y. says that ex-Private Parry Callaway, of Wolseley Barracks, London, appealed to the Rochester police last night to assist him in finding his wife who eloped from Toronto with another private named Thompson, attached to

Stanley Barracks. Two years ago Callaway met his wife, then Mary McGregor, and married her. She was at the time employed in the family of the officer in command at Wolseley Barracks. Some time ago she went to Toronto to visit a Mrs. Robinson on King street and met Thompson there, and they ran away together. Callaway served his time and was discharged three weeks ago. He started to hunt his wife and Thompson, who had deserted from Stanley

Barracks, first to Buffalo and then to this city.

Inquiry at Wolseley Barracks elicited the information that Callaway had been a private at the barracks. He had deserted twice, the last time about 18 months ago, and since that time he has not been at the barracks

Nothing further is known of him. His wife was employed in the house of the commanding officer some time
