

KING REFUSED TO ALLOW HOME BANK DECEPTION

One Inch of Rain Falls In London In Thirty-Six Hours

PREMIER DECLINED TO DEPOSIT FUNDS ON EVE OF FAILURE

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Testifying at Home Bank Probe Today, Tells of J. F. M. Stewart's Request for Government Deposit To Save Tottering Institution.

PLEA MADE THREE DAYS BEFORE FAILURE

Canadian Press Despatch.
Ottawa, May 9.—Premier Mackenzie King appeared before the royal commission investigating the Home Bank this morning and told of a visit which was made to him by J. F. M. Stewart, a director of the Home Bank, three days before its failure. Mr. Stewart had informed him that the bank was on the point of failure, and asked for a large government deposit to enable it to continue in business.

Mr. King had replied that, if the bank was in the condition which Mr. Stewart described, it was manifestly impossible for the government even to consider making such a deposit.

Mr. King was examined by Eugene Lafleur, K.C. He said that on the night of August 14, 1923, three days before the bank failed, about 10 o'clock, he received a telephone call from one of his colleagues saying that Mr. Stewart was in Ottawa in connection with matters of "grave concern."

DESCRIBES BANK'S CONDITION.

"He asked me if I could see Mr. Stewart," said Mr. King. "I replied that I would be pleased to see Mr. Stewart."

Mr. Stewart had come up to Mr. King's house at 11 o'clock at night and described the condition of the bank to the prime minister. Hon. J. A. Robb, Hon. George P. Graham and Hon. T. A. Low, who were present. He had stated that the Home Bank was in great difficulty and, in the course of a day or two, might have to close its doors.

Suggested Deposit.

"He said," continued Premier King, "that he had been in conversation with Sir Thomas White, who advised that the directors of the bank should lay its condition before the government and the Canadian Bankers' Association."

"When he outlined the situation, I asked him what he wished to place before the government."

"He wished to know if it would not be possible for the government to place a deposit with the bank in order to enable it to carry on."

Premier King told Government Counsel Eugene Lafleur, K.C., that he "was anxious at the moment of Mr. Stewart. I replied to him that the circumstances he mentioned made it impossible for the government to even consider placing a deposit with the bank."

On the request of Mr. Stewart that the government use its good offices for the bank with the Bankers' Association, it was arranged that Mr. Robb go to Montreal to be in that city when negotiations took place. The government was anxious to show the Bankers' Association that it wished that organization to avert a failure if possible.

The prime minister emphasized that he had no knowledge of the condition of the bank prior to his interview with Mr. Stewart. He stated that the Home Bank directors had not appeared before the cabinet the following day. He also said that he had conversed with Mr. Fielding and all that the Home Bank minister took "very strong exception to Sir Henry Drayton's evidence before the commission."

Adjourns to Wednesday.

Mr. Fielding had said "that Sir Henry Drayton had not drawn his attention to the Home Bank in the manner described," nor had he been referred to any file on the subject by Sir Henry. After hearing the prime minister, the commission adjourned until next Wednesday for argument. It is possible that Hon. T. A. Cregar may be recalled to answer a few questions which counsel for the shareholders wishes to ask.

Western University Proud Of Its First Woman Doctor

Kathleen Braithwaite Will Shortly Graduate From the School of Medicine.

MANY STARTED

Achievement Is Viewed With Pleasure by Members of Faculty.

Several aspiring girl medical students have entered the course of medicine at the University of Western Ontario within the past few years, but few lasted long. For members of the gentle gender to go through the experiences of a medical student requires a degree of courage and stick-to-itiveness not commonly ascribed to womenfolk.

That is why her classmates, the faculty and the university generally feel immensely proud of Kathleen Braithwaite, who is shortly to graduate as a full-fledged doctor. She is the first woman product of London's Medical School. While others abandoned the grind in their first, second or third years, some because of marriage and others because medicine proved a much more severe vocation than they expected, Kathleen Braithwaite stuck to it for seven whole years.

The study of medicine requires fortitude and perseverance, and few men graduates possessed these qualities to a greater extent. Miss Braithwaite's heart has always been with her classmates, and her kindly disposition has endeared her to professors and students alike, both at the Medical School and at the College of Arts, where she obtained the degree of bachelor of arts.

She is the first actual "doctor" of the university can boast of. On the word of a fellow student, however, she doesn't seem to be a bit proud of her achievement.

"She doesn't look like one of those formidable female doctors," he said. "But like a nice, sweet lady, who wisely and modestly keeps what she knows under her coppery curls."

A. HEWITT TO BE TRIED FOR THEFT NEXT JUNE

Case Postponed Twice Last Year, Due to Illness of Defendant.

ONLY ONE CASE

Understood Outside Crown Counsel Will Be Brought In.

But one case is set down for trial before County Judge Talbot Macbeth at the criminal sessions which open at the court house on June 8, and it has been postponed from time to time since June 1923.

Allan Hewitt, who is charged with the theft of groceries, hardware, etc., valued at over $800, from a C. N. R. boxcar in Stratford in April, 1923, is being defended by J. M. McEvoy, K. C. Hewitt is also charged with receiving stolen goods.

Owing to the fact that Crown Attorney Albert M. Judd acted for Hewitt at the preliminary hearing and subsequent postponements, it is understood that outside crown counsel will be brought in by the attorney-general's department to prosecute the case.

Hewitt was ill in hospital when the case came up last June, and he was still ill last December. It is understood, however, that he is now sufficiently recovered to stand trial.

A second case is likely to be heard, although it has not yet been set down for trial. Hector Zwisk, who was charged with the theft of a car, appeared in police court a week ago, charged with procuring a girl for immoral purposes, has not yet decided whether he will be tried by judge alone or by judge and jury. His case is being looked after by W. B. Henderson.

This holds the purchase price question over for a few days and gives a little more breathing space for the mayor and his viza-aviz in the conference. The mayor is now asked to accept the invitation of the London Old Boys' Club of Detroit, and attend their annual banquet tonight in the G. A. R. Building. Mrs. Wenige will accompany him on the trip.

District Farmers Afraid Heavy Rainfall Will Mean Great Loss to Their Crops

Continued Downpour Since Wednesday Night Causes Floods in City.

TOTALS ONE INCH

Delay in Seeding Expected To Ruin Chance of Early Harvest.

While citizens of London have been bemoaning the weeping efforts of Jupiter Pluvius yesterday and today, their complaints are but idle chatter to the feelings of district farmers whose work on the land has been seriously hampered.

Owing to the backward season farmers of Middlesex and adjoining counties have been unable to complete their seeding, in fact a number of them were not nicely started when the rain came along. Others had large fields worked up and ready for the seeder, and now all the work will have to be done over again.

One farmer who motored to the market today stated the seed he had put in was rotting in the ground, and this was true of neighboring farms.

R. A. Finn, of the department of agriculture, stated that while some farmers had completed seeding there were others who were far behind in their work. The heavy rains would mean that these men would not be able to work their land until late next week, and at this time every day counted in the farmer's calendar.

Do Work Over Again.

Vegetable men who have planted large acreage of early potatoes and sweet corn are viewing the rain with alarm. One man told The Advertiser that he planted corn three weeks ago, but adverse weather, plus the rain of today, meant that he would have to work up the land all over again and plant new seed.

"It just means the loss of a month in getting corn on the London market, as far as I am concerned," he said. "It is poor satisfaction to know that my neighbors are in the same boat. Some of these fellows on the sand and in outside counties will come in here with the early stuff and grab off the early season, which is the best. This rain is going to cost us hundreds of dollars, both in corn and potatoes. I certainly feel sorry for the fellows on wet land, who have yet to plant oats. Unless the season from now on is more than favorable their crops will be mighty poor."

One Inch of Rain.

Since Wednesday night the rainfall in London and district has exceeded anything of the nature seen here at this time of the season for many years. More than an inch was recorded at the local weather bureau and prospects are that it will continue in spasmodic fashion through the day.

Flooded cellars were reported by several residents. The river has risen substantially, but no overflow is expected. According to The Advertiser's weather-man, the weather of the past few days is very unseasonable.

From 55 yesterday the temperature dropped to 40 this morning, and then rose to 48. The barometer does not promise any relief today or Saturday.

One of the most objectionable features of the sudden change has been the necessity for householders to relight their furnaces after having left them out during the warm weather earlier in the week. Coal men were engaged today delivering small quantities of fuel to citizens who had exhausted their supplies. Much soft coal is in demand, many believing that grate fires will suffice to take the chill from the air until more balmy weather sets in.

ONLY FAIR, BUT WARMER.

Weather conditions were blamed by Police Court Clerk John Moule for the non-appearance of a resident in the county to answer a police court charge of a breach of the highway traffic act. He was the clerk's only chance today of registering a motor vehicle fine.

PARLIAMENT URGED NOT TO COERCE ANTI SIDE

T. B. McQueen of Hamilton Asks For Clear Mandate For Unionism.

COMPARES GIVINGS

Statement of Contributions Brings Caustic Question From Western Member.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Ottawa, May 9.—"If you will not coerce us," said T. B. McQueen of Hamilton, in resuming his plea against the church union bill this morning before the Commons private bills committee, "if you are reasonably satisfied that there is a majority or a very powerful minority who do not want to go into union."

Mr. McQueen followed this up by a survey of recent votes and other statistics to prove that there had been "a complete turnover" in opinion in the Presbyterian Church since the 1915 vote on union. He gave the result of card votes in a large number of congregations, showing a total vote in Ontario against union of 43,739; Quebec 6,921; New Brunswick 3,221; Nova Scotia 5,258; Prince Edward Island 316; Prairie Provinces, and British Columbia, 5,086, making a total of 72,577. This total of 72,577, he said, came from 299 congregations and compared with a total vote against union of 73,755 in 1915.

FINDING IN LIQUOR PROBE A SECRET

House of Refuge Report Held Till County Council's June Session.

The special report on the House of Refuge, Strathroy, in connection with the consumption of liquor there during 1923 which was held in the press until it has been presented to the county council at the June session, it is announced.

The committee met last month under the chairmanship of Reeve Walter Laidlaw of Westminster Township, and a small committee was appointed to bring in a report to the county council as a result of their findings.

Members of the committee have nothing to say in the matter, but it is believed that recommendations will be made that only a small quantity of liquor be kept at the House of Refuge at any time and that due care be exercised in doling it out to inmates.

Over 300 School Children in Need of Treatments, Dr. E. W. Fuller States.

Dr. E. W. Fuller, dental supervisor of the public schools, told the school trustees yesterday that owing to lack of equipment and staff, over three hundred school children at present were in need of five or six separate treatments before mid-summer would be unable to get this work done. He recommended the appointment of another part-time dentist at $100 a month, and the installation of extra equipment at a cost of $1,000.

Dr. Grant, speaking today on behalf of dental treatment for children attending schools, said it was an essential part of hygiene education and urged the board to keep its dental equipment and staff up to date and capable of handling all the work.

WINNIPEG WOMAN, 41, BRUTALLY MURDERED

Two Men Held For Revolting Crime in Foreign Residential District.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Winnipeg, May 9.—After being bound, gagged and assaulted, Mrs. Kate Synchishyn, aged 41, was murdered at her home in the north end of the city yesterday. The body was found by her young son when he returned from school. Two men, who were seen in the vicinity of the house during the afternoon, have been arrested, the police announced last night.

The house, which is situated in the foreign residential part of the city, was in great disorder; it had been ransacked from top to bottom in search for money, of which a small sum was obtained, said to be only $30.

The police last night declared it was one of the most brutal murders in the city's history. The woman, the wife of a railway laborer, had put up a terrific struggle and was considerably bruised and battered about the head and shoulders. She had been smothered to death.

The police refused to divulge the names of the suspects held, but they are said to be residents of the districts where the crime was committed. An inquest is being held today.

EYESTRAIN

This is the inevitable result of neglected defects of sight. In the involuntary effort to obtain distinct vision a severe strain is caused to muscles of the eye. Headache of a peculiarly painful kind results, which can only be relieved by resting the eyes. But many other nervous derangements are traceable to the eyes. The only real cure for such troubles is often found to be correct Glasses. F. Steele, London's Leading Optician, has had 19 years' experience, and adapts Glasses which accurately compensate for all defects and which thus remove all strain. Bear in mind that sight often seems good when Eyestrain exists. Have your eyes carefully tested.

Noted American Singer Conquers His Audience In Great Musical Treat

Reinald Werrenrath Renders Brilliant Recital At Grand Theatre.

VARIETY OF SONGS Possesses Powerful Appearance and Sings With Unlimited Range.

Reinald Werrenrath sings like a big man should. At least that is what London thinks after hearing him at the Grand on Thursday night. He did not storm the citadel all at once. He came on gradually and there were no false steps. In folk songs, ballads and traditions he commenced his conquest. In songs of Danish tongue he moved on farther. He sang of pirates at sea, of old sea captains and their dreams. He made the eye grow misty as he gave new vision to the little streams of Duna, and if there is such a thing as a musical anti-climax, Werrenrath reached it when he sang Walter Damrosch's setting of Kipling's "They're Hanging Danny Dever in the Morning." It was more than a song. The sergeant on parade appeared, his dialect tragic and true to his hand, bit off words and told the story of a traitor.

Powerful Appearance. Reinald Werrenrath is all equipped to sing. He has all things in his favor. He is big, powerful in appearance. He has a mannerism that is all his own, one that gives the impression that he is master of the situation. When he concludes a telling passage he stands as though to defy interruption or to challenge anyone to move.

A wonderful baritone, unlimited range, powerful or plaintive, the voice does just what he wants it to do. If he wants more power, it is there; if he wants to sing a lullaby he can use just enough of it. Enunciation is taken for granted. Werrenrath sings words, and the people can understand them. He leaves nothing to be taken for granted.

When he turns to "Roy's Wife of Aldvalloch" he is tragic and indignant as he sings of a faithless wife, when he sings "Trade Winds" he surprises his hearers by showing that a musical picture of an old Spanish sailor can be sung with the pathos of a lullaby.

Songs Not Repeated.

Nor does Werrenrath repeat his songs. His logic on this point is convincing and unique. "I never repeat a song," he told his audience after a storm of applause marked the close of "Duna." "The reason is this. I would either sing it better or worse the second time, in which case one or the other would suffer." So he compromises and sings something else.

He is considerate of his audience. When he uses Danish songs he tells the people what it's all about. So when he explained that he would sing of a trumpeter who awakened the bride of royalty, who had been his sweetheart of old, it was easy to follow, for the Danish school of composers is, above all else, interpretative to a degree.

Great Variety. What a variety. Werrenrath chooses well and he never loses his hearers. He pictures "The Lone Dog," bad, wicked, fierce; he sings "Slow Horses, Slow," and the horses go slow. He turns to that rollicking old song, "On the Road to Mandalay," and with a smile he swings into the refrain, and the performance is over. The program says so, but the people have moved. They are thundering applause, and he sings again and again. Werrenrath has conquered.

Accompanist Is Good. Herbert Carriek is an accompanist in every sense of the word. Sympathetic, responding to every mood of the singer, he has left nothing to be desired. Mr. Carriek performed a real service for musical London when he brought Reinald Werrenrath to this city.

Winter Garden Orchestra Attains Distinction
There is an old saying about an artist never exchanging recognition in his own home town, but this does not seem to hold true with regard to Dan Macaulay and his "Winter Garden Orchestra" of this city, as they are regarded by all as the finest exponents of modern dance music in Western Ontario. However, we notice now a new honor has been bestowed upon them, as a well-known New York music publisher is featuring a picture of their orchestra on the title page of a new waltz publication. This is an honor seldom attained by a Canadian orchestra and we wish Dan and his orchestra every success. Adv. b

CITY HUCKSTERS MEET FINANCE COMMITTEE

Members Will Make Recommendations To City Council.

At a conference last night in the city hall between the members of the finance committee and the sellers of produce on the market square, the hucksters laid their respective sides of the question on the rights of each on the selling of produce on the city market, and exchanged views on the position of certain classes of vendors on the square.

It was agreed that the man with a truck who brought his wares for sale on the market should not be allowed to take up his stand before 11 o'clock in the morning, and that he should pay a certain space rental.

No action was taken by the committee, who will make recommendations along the lines agreed upon to the council at the next meeting.

LOEW'S PRESENT UNUSUAL SHOW FOR THIS WEEK

"Sherlock Jr." Is One of Buster Keaton's Best Comedies.

GOOD VAUDEVILLE

The quality of vaudeville at Loew's for the remainder of the week is well above the average. The depression caused by the weather vanished with the first number from the rainy-day audiences yesterday, and the strength displayed in the first act continued until the conclusion of the bill. Dorothy Nelson, a clever violinist, made an immediate hit with her audience. Her "Roses of Picardy" was well-played and well-staged, and the cello numbers with violin accompaniment were exceedingly good. Freeman and Morton have the best straight comedy offering seen here in weeks. Their opening Russian number was a scream, and their act improved rather than depreciated toward the conclusion. They were called back repeatedly on encores with the catchy little song which formed their final.

The Dinna sisters and Thibault featured very effective, and rhythmic dancing with their act, which was given the position of headliner. The entire vaudeville bill is bright and entertaining, with no wearisome spots.

Buster Keaton has staged some extremely exciting episodes in his new picture, "Sherlock Jr.," the feature film. He finds inspiration for a great deal of unusual conduct in the history of a small town moving picture operator, turned star director over night, and all sorts of things from torture chambers to ferocious lions are brought in before the concluding scene. To know very much about a comedy of this sort before seeing it is to spoil a great deal of the pleasure, and the only thing which really must be said is that the frozen-faced comedian is at his best in "Sherlock Jr.," and that in addition to this, the new picture is one of the best of his five real attempts.

The usual Pathe film, and an episode of "Fightin' Blood," in which the spotlight moves from Gale to our interesting manner, completes a bill of unusual merit.

A Wonderful Discovery

The kidneys should filter the blood, and when they are out of fix, the blood stream is just filled with poisonous uric acid. Carried to all parts of the body, this poison causes backaches, headaches, rheumatic pains, heaviness, drowsiness, dizziness, irritability or depression and distressing bladder troubles.

But that isn't the worst of it. In chronic neglected cases, the excess uric acid is apt to form into gravel or kidney stones, and to cause gout, sciatica, dropsy and even Bright's disease.

PENSIONS PETITION OF VETERANS WILL BE GRANTED

BELAND ASSURES VETERANS PLEA WILL BE GRANTED

Minister in King Cabinet Addresses Delegates of Amputations Association.

OFFICERS ELECTED

Canadian Press Despatch, Ottawa, May 9.—During the course of his address at the concluding banquet of the Amputations Association convention which was tendered the delegates to the convention here last night, Hon. Dr. H. S. Beland, minister of pensions and soldiers' civil re-establishment, definitely gave the disabled veterans the assurance to take back with them to their homes that their petition for the permanency of the present pension and bonus would be granted by the government.

The gathering was also addressed by both Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, leader of the opposition, and Hon. Robert Forke, leader of the Progressives, who both assured the ex-servicemen that any request for such a reasonable demand as they were making with regard to the permanency of the bonus and pension on the $900 a year basis would receive the whole-hearted support of all parties in the House. Dr. Beland said that in view of those statements he could without hesitation promise that the request would be granted unanimously when presented to parliament.

Hon. E. M. MacDonald, M.P., said that in the absence of Premier King, who had hoped to be present, but through the pressure of parliamentary duties could not, he had come to bring the greetings of the government to the Amputations Association. Capt. S. E. Lambert of Toronto was elected president at the closing session.

Other officers elected for the ensuing year were: Vice-president, H. S. Parry, Vancouver; second vice-president, A. Palmer, Winnipeg; secretary-treasurer, A. Sutcliffe, Toronto. Executive: W. E. Davies, Edmonton, representing Alberta; N. O. Handegard, Regina, representing Saskatchewan; R. Myers, W. S. Dobbs, J. S. Lyne, Toronto, representing Ontario.

There will be additions to this sum when reports from various church organizations come in later.

Seven stewards were appointed as follows: R. T. Harding, W. F. Marshall, W. J. Wray, E. O. Hall, John Harvey, John Francis and Walter Shales. MANUFACTURERS CUT PRICE FOR BISCUITS

Reduction in Sales Tax Brings About Step by the Producers.

The recent announcement of the Dominion government regarding a reduction in the sales tax on biscuits from 6 per cent to 4 per cent has caused the leading manufacturers of biscuits to send revised price lists to the retail trade. As practically every grocer will, it is hoped, pass this advantage along to his customers, the biscuit-buying public will soon be getting reduced prices on their favorite table dainties.

Manufacturers have reduced prices on at least 79 different lines of biscuits, the reductions ranging from 1 to 8 cents per pound.

RUMANIAN MONARCHS PAY VISIT TO LEAGUE OF NATIONS

King Ferdinand and Queen Marie Received With Military Honors.

SOVIET THREATENS

Geneva Papers Report Attack Imminent, Due to Bessarabia Dispute.

Associated Press Despatch, Geneva, May 9.—Coming especially to pay an official visit to the League of Nations, King Ferdinand and Queen Marie of Rumania arrived here this morning and were received with military honors at the railway station. President Chard and other officials of the League welcomed the visitors on behalf of the nation, and Sir Eric Drummond, secretary-general, and Albert Thomas, head of the labor bureau of the League of Nations, on behalf of the League. Their majesties were acclaimed by the populace as they drove to the city hall. After the municipal reception they proceeded to the palace of the League and then to the international labor bureau.

Simultaneous with the arrival of the royal party, the Geneva newspapers were printing despatches received by way of Germany, reporting that Soviet troops were preparing an attack against Rumania on account of the dispute over Bessarabia, that War Minister Trotsky had appointed Kamenev, Podolsk to inspect the Soviet army, and that skirmishes had occurred in the region of the Dniester, between Russian and Rumanian sentinels.

Hon. E. M. MacDonald, M.P., said that in the absence of Premier King, who had hoped to be present, but through the pressure of parliamentary duties could not, he had come to bring the greetings of the government to the Amputations Association. Capt. S. E. Lambert of Toronto was elected president at the closing session.

DRAMA LEAGUE TO SEE PERCIVAL WILDE PLAY

J. Stanley Meredith Will Direct Production at Annual Meeting on May 27.

"The Finger of God," a clever one-act play by Percival Wilde, will be presented under the direction of J. Stanley Meredith at the annual meeting of the Drama League being held Tuesday, May 27, in the collegiate auditorium.

There are only three characters in the cast of this play, which deals with character comedy and in the story contained good triumphs over evil. Strickland (Mr. Sydney Sims), a wealthy financier, fights a terrible battle between good and evil, but does the right thing eventually. Miss Babbie Moore is taking the role of "A Girl," and Mr. Kenneth March is taking the part of Strickland's son.

The play will be presented following the election of officers and the annual reports.

OLD-TIMER TOO DRUNK TO APPEAR IN COURT

Liquid Nourishment Becoming Stronger Day by Day.

Liquid nourishment, such as imbibed by hundreds of the old-timers, is becoming more potent day by day and in every way. An old-timer who used to appear in court regularly when "Whiskey Row" used to supply much of the grist for the police mill, was arrested last night by the local police, but such was the strength of the "licker" he had tossed off that he was still too drunk to make an appearance before the Magistrate Graydon this morning, and was remanded to jail till Monday.

In commenting on the case, Chief Birrell stated that a lot of the spirits being imbibed these days was nothing but rank poison, and seemed to be getting worse. Many of the substitutes being used by chronic drinkers were positively dangerous and taken in large quantities would eventually mean death.

BOYS DO DAMAGE IN PINAFORE PARK

Duck Eggs Destroyed—Stones Thrown At Setting Swan.

GROUNDS DAMAGED

Special to The Advertiser.

St. Thomas, May 8.—Superintendent J. Clark of Pinafore Park, has given orders to his men to apprehend the juvenile vandals that have caused much destruction at the grounds recently.

Boys stole a setting of eggs from the mallard's nest, and judging from the number of rocks and stones around the royal swans' coops, have been amusing themselves throwing at the birds, which are setting. Besides bothering the animals the boys have caused much damage to the grounds and on the baseball diamonds.

The Municipal Order of the Daughters of the Empire are planning to hold a tag day to assist with the educating of the children of fallen war heroes. This day is observed by the L. O. D. E. in most of the cities in Canada.

At Tuesday's meeting of the city council Mayor Sloggett was authorized to see that traffic regulations are observed during fires. Police Chief Armstrong states that two men are designated at each fire to assist the firemen in keeping a right of way.

Charges are pending against three local boys for loitering in the lavatories at the L. and P. S. Talbot street depot. Chief William Hamersley reports that an example will be made of the miscreants, as the due L. O. D. E. in most of the cities in Canada.

Officials of the Wabash Railroad will make an inspection of the local shops on Monday. The party will be headed by J. E. Toussig, president. Other included are S. E. Cotter, general manager, and T. J. Jones, general superintendent. A general inspection of all the departments will be made.

SPRINGBANK RESIDENT AROUSED AT "PARTIES"

Declares the Number of Cars Parked Along Roads Is Becoming Nuisance.

That Springbank Park and the roads leading to it have been the oasis for "petting parties" that last far into the early hours of the morning for some time, now is the opinion of one resident in that vicinity.

"The numbers of autos that park nightly in the shadows of Springbank Park is surprising," he said. "And while walking through the park on my way home one evening last week I counted no less than 17 cars in which were seated fair maidens and handsome young men whispering sweet nothings.

"Of late the affair has developed into a nuisance and unless the spooning couples find some other location, it may be necessary to notify the county constables of what is taking place."

YOUNG FOLK OF WARWICK HOLD INTERESTING DEBATE

Special to The Advertiser.

Forest, May 8.—The debate between Sylvan and Uxotex in the Bethel Church, Warwick Township, drew a large audience, many being present from Sylvan, Uxotex, Warwick, Arkofa and Forest.

The subject was, "Resolved, that the Press had done more good for the community than the platform." Misses Colwell and Nicholson of Sylvan took the affirmative, while Misses Olive Bullick and Margaret Taylor took the negative for Uxotex. The judges, Rev. Williams and Rev. McInnes of Thorford, and Rev. Garrett of Forest, were over an hour before reaching a decision. The vote was in favor of the affirmative.

BETHESDA NURSES WILL RECEIVE THEIR DIPLOMAS

Graduation Exercises To Be Held May 27—Plans Now Complete.

RECEPTION, Y.W.C.A.

Arrangements to appropriately mark the graduation of Bethesda Hospital nurses were made recently by the advisory committee of the hospital, comprising Dr. Angus Graham, Dr. H. W. Hill and Dr. Robert Ferguson. The graduation services will be held May 27, and will be featured by the presentation of a medal to the graduate having the highest aggregate in marks.

After an invocation by Rev. J. T. C. Morris, Dr. Ferguson will give advice to the nurses in connection with their future work. The Salvation Army Band, the Songster Band and Major Easton will supply music, and the diplomas and pins are to be presented to the successful candidates by Mrs. George Taylor.

Holland will administer the Florence Nightingale pledge. Addresses will be given by Colonel Powley, the chairman, Edgemoor, Des Brisay and Lieut. D. Chalmers. A reception is to be held afterwards in the Y. W. C. A. building on King street. The yearly report of the hospital, presented by Dr. Graham, and will show that the Bethesda Hospital private maternity wards handled 442 patients during the year, including 286 infants in the hospital.

The committee authorized arrangements for Hospital Day, Monday, May 12, to include a demonstration on bed-making for confinements, another on formulae for infant feeding, a tea and a survey of the hospital. The members of the "Lucky Seven" and "Lat-a-lot" girls clubs will serve the lunch. Many firms and private individuals have proffered their automobiles for the day, and guests to and from the hospital. Owing to the comparative isolation of the hospital, away from noisy street car lines, these offers are doubly appreciated.

Amongst other new features, visitors will be shown the newly equipped and equipped private nursery, done in blue and white, with sanitary arrangements of the latest models, metal baskets on strap metal stands and metal bowls, all airy clean, with capacity for eighteen infants at one time.

CHEAP, FRESH FOOD IS DOUGLASS' SLOGAN

Alderman Opposes Banning the Huckster Altogether From Local Market.

Cheap, fresh food for the London housewife is the slogan of Alderman Douglass, and has been a means of bringing back a number of the veterans who had fallen away from the association.

This is only one of the many instances where good work has been accomplished in cases that have been given up as hopeless by the men themselves, and has been a means of bringing back a number of the veterans who had fallen away from the association.

"I don't care whether it is the huckster or the grower who brings the food from the country, as long as the city housewife can get fresh food and not pay too much for it," he said. "I think the council should allow the huckster to sell on the market square, because the larger number of sellers the cheaper the food will be. But the man on the city square who buys from the farmer and re-sells to the housewife should not be allowed to buy before 11 o'clock in the morning, which would allow the women a chance to get downtown and do their own buying from the grower and the man who brings in a truck of stuff from the country. I am not so concerned with the details of the scheme that will settle the market square problem as in providing cheap, fresh food for the London housewife."

TAX ON MOTOR BUSES SUBJECT OF CRITICISM

Patrons of Forest Lines Join Owners in Protest of Measure.

Special to The Advertiser.

Forest, May 8.—The new tax imposed on taxis and motorbuses by the provincial government has caused consternation among the local owners of these vehicles and their patrons.

The two bus lines have already helped the town's transportation needs since the C. N. R. service has become so curtailed on the Sarnia-Stratford line.

The new tax, in regard to busses, calls for the charge of an eighth of a cent a mile per seating capacity, whether the seats are occupied or not. This will mean a tax of nearly 2c per mile for each mile travelled in the case of R. T. McIntosh's Forest-Sarnia bus, which runs over 100 miles a day, with a seating capacity of 14 passengers.

A considerable storm of protest is growing along these popular bus routes, and it is felt that although the new law may be needed in some overdeveloped sections, it is a most unnecessary and unpopular charge in this district.

The new taxi rate will be a flat rate of $100 per day, and the extra charge will probably be paid by the passenger, as usual.

DOUGLASS SAYS HE HAS PROSPECT FOR OLD OFFICE

Three-Story Building May Be Erected on City's Registry Site.

INVESTMENT MOVE?

Alderman Douglass, who is in favor of selling all property owned by the city whenever a profitable opportunity offers, says he has a prospect in view for the old registry office on the corner of Talbot and Carling streets, which will build a three-story building, from which the city can get taxes. He believes that this would be a more economical way of dealing with the question of disposing of the building than letting it go to any of the tenderers who have made previous bids.

When tenders were first asked, the public utilities commission made an offer of $10,000, and would have used the building for a new substation. When the second tenders were asked, the commissioners did not submit any further offer, but they are watching the action of the council closely and if the aldermen accept a lower tender than that made by the commission it is quite probable that "fur will fly."

"They have there is a move on foot to allow a certain citizen to get hold of the building, which he will use as an office himself instead of erecting a three-story building, and that he is simply wanting to hold the building and lot as an investment. They contend that it is more in the interests of the city that they should be allowed to use the ground for a utility, than the mere aggrandizement of any individual. In the meantime they are merely on-lookers."

VETERANS ARE SEEKING ACTION ON PENSIONS

Take Up Question of Delay in Securing Aid For Comrades.

The executive of the G.W.V.A. have been busily engaged for the past few days inquiring into the delays that a number of their comrades have been subject to following the association's successful efforts to secure pension disability.

One instance where the veterans case was finally won before the federal appeal board, after a long fight, and in which the man is in dire necessity, he has yet to receive any remuneration.

This is only one of the many instances where good work has been accomplished in cases that have been given up as hopeless by the men themselves, and has been a means of bringing back a number of the veterans who had fallen away from the association.

G.W.V.A. EXPOSITION WILL BE BIG EVENT

Plans Nearing Completion For Carnival To Be Held Next Week.

The stage is set for the holding of the G. W. V. A. exposition in London during the week of May 12, on the grounds of the old Sarnia Sarnia bus, which runs over 100 miles a day, with a seating capacity of 14 passengers.

The association funds are rather low, and at the last executive meeting the means was devised to secure the necessary finances to furnish the "Dugout."

The Cardinal class of Knox Church arranged for a picnic to be held during June at their regular meeting held recently at the home of Mrs. W. E. Kelly, Ridout street. It was decided that meetings should be discontinued for the summer but sewing for the sale will be carried on as usual. Mrs. Kelly spoke in an interesting manner on the mission work of the Presbyterian Church.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN W. A.

The Women's Association of the First Presbyterian Church made arrangements for a garden party and high tea on the lawn of Mrs. Gillespie's home, Albert street, during June, at their regular meeting recently. Mrs. Howie, Mrs. William Beattie, and Mrs. Harry Wright were appointed general conveners for the event. A great deal of gratification was expressed also over the fact that $192 had been realized from the rummage sale held recently.

WELLINGTON ST. W. M. S.

May meeting of the W. M. S. of Wellington Street Methodist Church was held yesterday afternoon, with the president, Mrs. J. Holliday in charge. The opening devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. Colling and Mrs. Booth who led in prayer, and Mrs. W. T. Jones who read the Bible lesson. Two features of special interest were the paper on "Systematic Giving," by Miss M. Tagg, and the lesson on Asiatic emigration from the study book by Mrs. M. Brady. A solo by Mrs. Loney was a pleasing feature. Mrs. Colby was the general fund-raiser, and Mrs. Booth was the society's delegate to the St. Thomas branch convention. At the conclusion of the meeting refreshments were served by the following committee: Mrs. Fairless, Mrs. Whitmore, Mrs. Taylor, and Miss Adams, with Mrs. Johnston and Mrs. Iga Wallace pouring tea.

HYATT AVE. LADIES' AID.

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid of Hyatt Avenue Church was held on Wednesday afternoon, with the president, Mrs. Ashton in charge. An interesting report from the retiring treasurer, Mrs. Hendra, stated that in the past year, the society had contributed $367 to the general funds of the church. Arrangements were made to serve luncheon to the delegates to the district meeting which is to be held in the church on May 21. The following special committee were appointed: Visiting committee, (for three months), Mrs. Hendra and Mrs. Dunn; bazaar committee, Mrs. Sylvan, Mrs. Jones, and Mrs. Topham; welcome committee, Mrs. Burns, Mrs. Topham, Mrs. Myrick, Mrs. Hahn, Mrs. Parsons, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Gale, and Mrs. Ashton.

ST. W. M. S.

The W. M. S. of St. Andrew's Church are throwing open their June meeting to the women of other Presbyterian churches, in order that as many as possible may have the opportunity of hearing Mrs. (Dr.) Wm. Gauld, missionary from Porosma, who is to speak on that occasion. It was decided at the regular meeting yesterday afternoon that the women of the church should give only one address in the city and that with the W. M. S. of St. Andrew's Church, that the meeting should be made open. A study of Porosma was taken at the meeting by Miss Cannell from the mission book, "The Island Beautiful," and many interesting photographs were shown of Dr. Gushue-Taylor's hospital and staff there. A second interesting feature was the report from Mrs. Gushue-Taylor, the society's delegate at the recent provincial convention in Hamilton, and gratification was expressed over her report that in giving the London Presbyterian stand third, with Toronto first and Hamilton second. The London women are hoping that their invitation to the next provincial convention will be accepted. Mrs. C. E. Wheeler sang delightfully during the opening exercises, at which the Scripture lesson was read by Mrs. Mary Purdon. Mrs. F. W. Harris, president of the society, was in charge of the meeting.

The attorney-general said he was opposed to bringing out children to Ontario en masse, and recommended a system of placing the children before they are brought out.

SENATOR STATES GOVERNMENT SHIP IS A RUM-RUNNER

B. C. Senator Makes Serious Charges Against Canadian Merchant Marine.

INVOLVES C. N. R.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Ottawa, May 8. — Senator J. D. Taylor of New Westminster, B.C., charged in the Senate today that there was organized rascality in the several departments of the Canadian government merchant marine and Canadian National Railways in British Columbia.

He spoke on an order for the production of correspondence with the marine department respecting an inquiry into an alleged casualty to the Canadian government merchant steamer "Canadian Farmer," and said he had been for 15 months endeavoring to secure the attention of higher officials, including the president of the railway company, to secure an inquiry into the conditions in the railway and steamship service in British Columbia, and the results of the inquiry had been negated by the direct order of the president.

Senator W. H. Bennett gave notice that he would move for an inquiry into the Canadian National Railway expenditure by a special commission of the Senate.

Names Charges.

Senator Taylor's charges had reference to the alleged use of the Canadian government merchant marine for rum-running, defrauding the insurance companies by false statements of repairs on steamers and to illegal commissions in the purchasing department of the railway company in Vancouver, and coupled with these were charges of retention of guilty officials and dismissal of those who sought to purge the service of wrongdoing.

He gave in detail correspondence which he had had with Sir Henry Thornton and other officials of the road, beginning in February, 1923, up to the present time. A Captain Boyd, who had been dismissed from the "Canadian Farmer," had made charges of rum-running and of defrauding insurance companies. Boyd had been dismissed, it was claimed, because he would not become a party to the fraud, and was blacklisted.

Sir Henry Thornton, it was found in correspondence, had promised an inquiry, but in a subsequent letter stated that in an investigation by reliable officials he had received reports of Boyd's character and ability that did not justify him wasting any time on the charges.

Takes No Steps.

Senator Taylor had replied that the inquiry was not on Boyd's charges, but on charges made by himself, and took objection to Sir Henry Thornton's expressions on the character of Boyd. He said: "Sir Henry Thornton, great man as he is, has taken no steps to make good his charges against Boyd's character and ability."

Senator Taylor stated that he and W. G. McQuarrie, M. P., Westminster, had affidavits from an officer and several men on the Canadian Farmer to the effect that the ship's log had been forged to secure grounds for Boyd's dismissal.

An inquiry instituted by the minister of marine was without any effect, as Sir Henry Thornton had sent counsel who, Senator Taylor said, devoted their time to preventing the grave conditions existing being made public, and the witnesses who were heard were said to be guilty of the most flagrant perjury.

Senator Taylor said the Canadian Farmer had met with a slight accident and was drydocked two months afterwards at Prince Rupert for the usual overhauling. It was afterwards discovered that a fraudulent claim had been made by the steamship company and paid. The mate, who had been charged with bootlegging, subordination and absence without leave, was promoted to command of the ship. He has since run the ship on the rocks.

DISABLED DESIRE SECURE FUTURE

Ask Present Plus Cost of Living Bonus Be Maintained.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Ottawa, May 8.—Requesting that the present pension of $600 plus the cost of living bonus of $300 for permanent disability be maintained as the minimum award for such cases, a deputation from the Amputation Association waited on the House of Commons committee on pensions and re-establishment this afternoon. R. Myers, chairman of the Dominion executive of the Amputation Association told the committee that the disabled men would be satisfied if they could feel their future was secured, and added that he hoped the country would see fit to put the men in a position where they would not have to worry about the future of their pensions.

J. J. Dennis, chairman of the committee, thanked the deputation and assured them that their demand would be received with the utmost sympathy.

DETROIT CAR EMPLOYEES MAY TAKE STRIKE VOTE

Mass Meeting Held Last Night As Result of Mayor's Action.

Special to The Advertiser.

Detroit, Mich., May 8. — Detroit street car men at a mass meeting to be held at midnight tonight are expected to take a strike vote as a result of the flouting of their union officers by Acting Mayor Martin yesterday. The mayor not only refused to treat with the representatives of the men, but informed the deputation that the street railway commission is running the street cars and that its orders must be obeyed.

That the company executives are apprehensive of a strike is indicated in a statement from Assistant General Manager Schram this evening that if the men go out the cars will be operated without any attempt at collection fares.

FRIDAY, MAY 9, 1924.

A Miserable, Cowardly Statement.

Col. James Arthur, Conservative member of Parry Sound, in discussing the budget, made use of a statement that is amazing for its bitterness of conception and the crass stupidity of its utterance.

He referred to Hon. W. S. Fielding having given his approval of the budget, a matter that had on many occasions been openly challenged by Conservatives. The prime minister gave his assurance that following his first statement showing Mr. Fielding's approval he had had another conversation with him, and Mr. Fielding desired the premier to repeat his approval of the document to the members of parliament.

Unwilling to accept such a definite statement, Col. Arthur said:

"There is a rumor that the mental condition of the minister of finance is not of the best."

Public life in Canada is not the easiest. Men in Mr. Fielding's position are at all times open to attack and criticism, but when, added to that, comes the insinuation that the venerable minister of finance has become mentally deranged because he approves of a tariff to which Col. Arthur objects, the limits of decency have been passed, and the man using such tactics has used his wiggling tongue to talk himself out of court.

If Col. Arthur has any respect for public life in Canada he will be quick to place an unqualified withdrawal of the words and an apology for the same before the Canadian Parliament.

If he refuses to do so he will be branded as a coward who is willing to take advantage of the broken health of an honorable and faithful public servant to say things he would not dare repeat in his presence.

The Chip on Wenige's Shoulder.

Mayor Wenige is talking about resigning and having a by-election because a citizen has criticized him. Most of the time of the finance committee meeting the other night was taken up by the mayor's expostulations on the subject. The finance committee, by the way, showed no alacrity in urging the mayor to step down. They were almost unpleasantly non-committal about it all.

This is a piece of childishness which should not be allowed to waste time intended for the administration of the city's affairs. It demonstrates a characteristic belonging to Mayor Wenige which hinders him in handling his duties.

Mayor Wenige has qualities of energy and courage. With these, however, he has a mistaken idea that truculence and pugnacity are a necessary complement to authority. They are not. They are more often evidence of irritated vanity. The man who goes around with a chip on his shoulder looking for affronts to his personal dignity cannot possibly pay proper attention to the interests of the city. Mayor Wenige indulges too much in that sort of thing. One would advise him to forget himself and his dignity and pay more attention to his job.

City council sessions and committee meetings during the past two years have not been very elevating exhibitions of efficient administration. There has been too much of attack and counter-attack; recriminations, denials, threats, personal politics. All this costs the people of London time and money.

The mayor must take responsibility for these performances, partly because he is so often the loudest shouter of them all, and partly because it is his job to see that the council works efficiently.

Mayor Wenige should endeavor to keep the civic machine running smoothly. He should prevent rather than promote personal animosities. His failure in this respect is preventing him from proper use of the recognized ability which he possesses.

A man who is to be successful in public life must be big enough to forget himself.

United States' Ugly Murder Record.

Figures on the crime record of United States have been compiled by Dr. Hoffman of the Prudential Insurance Company. They are startling because of their size, and alarming by reason of their rapid increase.

His estimate is that there have been 16,000 murders in United States during 1923; that is doubling the number of 1922 and more.

For 10,000 murders in United States in 1923 there were 200 in England and Wales. For each 100,000 of population United States had three times as many murders as Italy.

The first question is why? Why so few in England and 25 times as many, in accordance to population, in United States?

Take the position of the two countries. There is England, right at the door of Europe, on the path of the world. How easy for the scum of the world to gather there if they wished. The English policeman is not armed as a general thing. He has only his baton.

Yet there are the figures. London has a crime record that is unbelievably low. The police have a reputation for catching criminals, and the law has an equal reputation for dealing with them. There is no flabby sentiment, but plain, even-handed justice, and the people know it. There are no high, no low in British justice. A Harry Thaw case could not be staged in such an atmosphere.

There must be something even more than the police force to account for the low crime record in England. Go back to the time when the Jutes and the Angles lived on the shores of the Baltic, before the invasion of Britain. There were the village moots, bodies to govern the people and administer justice. The idea seems to have been born in and into the race. It has never departed. It is a national trait that has become a national asset. It makes possible the full meaning of the phrase, "British fair play."

Turn to United States. It has grown very rapidly, but today with its quota law it has a means to pick its new population. It boasts at times of its freedom, even a freedom from restraint. It has many foreigners, but it is not by any means the foreigners who commit all the murders, although they do commit more of them proportionately in United States than the citizens do in the countries from which they come.

United States has all manner of police protection. The police headquarters in the larger centers are equipped like arsenals; they have special motor cars for hurry-up calls; some of them have machine guns. In many cases the whole force in an effort to head off a crime wave, is instructed to shoot to kill.

In spite of all that effort to meet gunmen with more and better guns, the murder record grows. Human life, if it stands in the way of a bandit, must step aside.

One reason for the way in which the crime figures grow may be found in the notoriously large number of criminals who escape.

Allowing for all these factors, there is still much to be explained. The divorce record of United States, appalling and disfiguring, has apparently failed to shock or arouse the national conscience. A nation that tolerates a continuous hacking and chopping at the cornerstone of the most sacred institution in its national fabric is surely weakening its whole protective bulwarks. If the sanctity of marriage and the home is lightly regarded the way is open for the next step, and human life cannot be held in as high regard as formerly.

The record of 10,000 murders in the year 1923 is a damnable document. It is a straight challenge to the conscience and moral strength of every man and woman in United States. It means 28 murders a day, more than one every hour, night and day. It is an ugly black mark that sprawls itself over the face of a great nation. If United States does not diminish that record, the record will diminish United States.

Western University Year Book.

The Year Book issued by the University of Western Ontario is keeping pace with the development of that institution and shows a style and completeness that compares favorably with similar publications from even larger schools of learning.

The publication this year is highly informative. It tells of the facilities of the present school, and of course anticipates the greater scope of the new. This is particularly true of the library, which, when brought together instead of being scattered in several places, will show 100,000 books, with over a thousand volumes of reference, giving the students an advantage for research work that can hardly be excelled in any school.

It is fitting and right that the faculty and students should look ahead to the day when the university shall move across the river to its new home, which is daily nearing completion.

The sketches of the '24 graduating classes have been well written, showing a personal touch and an appreciation of the qualities of each.

Those responsible for the appearance of the 1924 Year Book have performed their work well.

No Room For an Argument.

Hon. Dr. Beland, minister of pensions, gave assurance to the Amputations Association at Ottawa that he was in favor of leaving their pensions and bonuses where they stand, rather than have them decreased.

There is hardly ground for an argument on this matter, even on the plea of economy.

These men lost limbs in the war. For the most part their earning powers are very small; many of them were seriously injured, and are today complete wrecks compared to the men they were when they offered themselves in the hour of the country's need.

There were all sorts of promises made to them when they enlisted; there was to be no limit to our generosity to them when they returned. In too many cases we have not lived up to these pledges; in many instances it appears they were spoken only too lightly.

These men have come back, and their cases have been considered. A basis of settlement was arrived at, an allowance plus a certain bonus. The amount is not large—indeed it is small compared to the gift of these men. No, we cannot go back on them now, and parliament should say so gladly, and quickly.

Note and Comment

As a spring month May has been a regular fizzle, whatever that may mean.

Tommy Church, at Ottawa, gave a ten-minute speech on the budget, but it took him three hours to do it.

Eight Montreal detectives are slated to be let out. It's sad when a detective becomes defective.

An extra figure makes a heap of difference. This is a Michigan paper being sued for announcing the birth of an 111-pound baby boy in the home of a leading citizen.

New York jury claims a dog has as much right on a sidewalk as a man. Now, then, will this august body hand out a ruling as to a dog's right to bury bones in a tulip bed?

There should be a by-election in East Toronto. E. B. Ryckman, the Conservative member there, offered to resign if Hon. W. S. Fielding approved of the budget. Mr. Fielding does approve, so the next move is one on Mr. Ryckman's part.

Premier Ferguson was decidedly critical in his comments about Agnes McPhail's views of the Ontario public school system. His minister of agriculture, Hon. J. Martin, has given expression to views quite similar to those of Miss McPhail, but there was no rebuke from the premier.

He charges dollar rates;

So Bob accommodates.

He just cuts off their locks.

To his upstairs shop they throng,
Get their bob, and then,
When their tresses grow too long,
They bob right back again.

K. H. Houston, returned from Asia, says Persian women never know their age. Which, after all, only signifies that Persian women are women.

In Bagdad the value of a wife is placed at $100. The high cost of living has apparently struck there, too.

Mr. Houston says further that the tree in the Garden of Eden was not an "apple" tree. The fact that it proved irresistible to a woman, however, probably indicates that it grew either Easter bonnets or lipsticks.

Persia must be a wonderful, democratic country, however. The women do all the work.

Old Time Baseball

To prevent attacks on the umpire, bottles of pop can no longer be sold on the grounds. —From sporting news.

Ah, what a tame and listless thing the old ball game has now become, when fans can't swat the umpire's dome and for his skin cause him to run.

It used to be one joyous thing, like picking pleasure in great lumps, to seize upon a goodly club and hurl it forthwith at his umps. To sit and watch a baseball game where everything is nice and quiet, it's tame as tea compared to when there was a mob call and a riot.

Away with those pink tea affairs, where humble players, one and all, will walk or limp or take their seat at every umpire's feeble call, when rosters beam on every side, and never even groan or hoot, or get a load of brick and stone to try their luck upon the brute.

Small wonder that there ain't more cash, that leagues spring up and then go flat, that magicians live on skin and bones, instead of whipping cream and fat.

Folks like to see a game of ball, with all the fine old-fashioned frills, with umps crawling neath the barn, in ways that send out thrills and chills.

With players swathed on the jaw with lots of bottles, sticks and stones, with bleachers yelpin' to the gang to pulverize his musty bones.

Yes, sell your ginger ale and pop, your soda water and your fiz, and leave the empties scattered round to use in this bombardin' biz.

And swat the umpire good and strong, yes, smite the beggar on the jaw, you'll be surprised, by heck you will, to see the crowd that you will draw.—ARK.

The Rules of the Game

THERE is no game that can possibly be played without keeping the rules. You cannot even play solitaire, and get any fun out of it, if you cheat yourself.

But most games are played with others and, if you do not keep the rules, the game suddenly comes to an end.

Every sort of human activity depends, for its pleasure and usefulness, upon laws of one sort or another.

You cannot get any good out of arithmetic if you insist that two and two equals five. Two and two must always equal four, even if the result is disaster.

Boys and girls can get no advantage from schooling unless they keep the rules of the schoolroom. If everyone does as he pleases the schoolroom is soon degenerated into an animal cage.

Everyone knows that no army can be successful unless there is strict adherence to the rules. Soldiers do not keep step merely to please the commander; they keep step because, if they didn't, they would be falling over each other.

You cannot have a successful business without obedience to rules.

You cannot enjoy a game of golf, or even of checkers, or of marbles, unless you keep the rules.

You could not ride along the street in your automobile if every motorist did as he pleased he would be in the ditch or up against a lamp post before he had gone two blocks. You cannot even go to an anarchist meeting and pass a resolution denouncing the government if everybody talks at once and nobody pays attention to his neighbor.

And morality itself is practically nothing more than keeping the rules of the game. The most deeply immoral person is the one who does as he pleases. He is not only immoral, but he is extremely likely to be taken to the hospital.

Keeping the rules of the game is the only way in which the weak can be protected. Where there is no law nor respect for law there is the absolute tyranny of the strongest.

The purpose of rules in a game is to enable the players to have fun. Fools imagine that the purpose of rules is to keep people from having fun.

Enjoyment is the legitimate son of order.

You cannot even get enjoyment out of making love unless you keep the rules of the game. For the great problem in love is not to fall in love; you can do that as easily as you can fall over a cliff; the problem is to stay in love, to have love minister to life. And the only people who stay in love are those who keep the rules of the game.

Baby Mills Speaks on Behalf of the Rest of His Generation About Work of Clinics.

Editor of The Advertiser:

Sir,—We, the babies of London who are attending the babies' clinics and who are receiving treatment at home therefrom, have been anxious for a long time to give some intelligible expression of our gratitude for the extraordinarily kind and affectionate conduct of all concerned towards us, and in this matter, we feel that we are also voicing the feelings of our dear parents.

Fortune has smiled on us at the threshold of our career, in arranging our entrance on to this planet, at and in a city where the supreme importance of the preservation of child life is fully recognized, and where this principle is being practically and skilfully applied, by a band of competent and self-sacrificing women and men.

This particular time seems very appropriate to ask for the good wishes and kind thoughts of every member of the community, for what is one of the most splendid and genuine organizations in existence.

On behalf of the babies of London. Yours gratefully, BILLY MILLS, Aged 18 months, 29 Grafton St., London.

The Rates On Flour.

Canadian Mills Are At A Disadvantage In Making Canadian Wheat Into Flour In This Country.

Editor of The Advertiser:

Dear Sir,—Under the heading, "Grind our own wheat in our own mills," on May 6, the Mail and Empire pointed out a number of reasons why this was desirable, but left out the most important one from the producers' standpoint, which is that if the 14,000,000 bushels of wheat referred to had been ground in Canada, instead of in the United States, there would have been the bran and shorts off this wheat available for the Canadian farmers to reduce the price of their feeding instead of being available for the farmers in the United States, as it now is.

The United States government realized the importance of this and last month cut the duty of mill feeds in half, although they raised the duty on wheat 40 per cent and flour 30 per cent.

On the other hand, they omitted the principal reason why such huge quantities of Manitoba wheat is ground in Buffalo for export instead of being ground in Canadian mills, and that is the discriminatory freight rates charged by the Canadian railroads on flour ground at Port Colborne, Goderich and Midland and other points in eastern Canada, as compared with the rates charged from United States points for the same service.

The following table will show this at a glance, giving the rates on flour ground from Manitoba wheat shipped to New York in each instance, per 100 lbs.

Port Colborne, 20c	Buffalo, 16c
Goderich, 22½c	Toledo, 18½c
Sarnia, 22½c	Chicago, 23½c

The rate from Midland to New York is 24c, although Midland is only 647 miles from New York, while the rate from Detroit is only 13½c to New York, and it is 602 miles from New York.

Although Port Colborne is only 20 miles from Buffalo, the mills at Port Colborne have to pay 4c per 100 lbs., or 8c per barrel, more to ship flour to New York than mills at Buffalo, both grinding Manitoba wheat.

In a similar way the mills at Midland have to pay 5½c per 100 lbs., or 11c per barrel, more than the mills at Detroit, although the haulage is only 45 miles further.

But even a more striking instance of the discrimination, if it were necessary, is shown in the case of a mill at Chicago, which could grind Manitoba wheat there and ship the flour to New York for 22½c per 100 lbs., or ½c less than the mill at Midland, although it is 275 miles longer haul from Chicago.

And more astounding than all, these are the rates over the Canadian National Railway.

You may wonder what interest an official assignee has in this matter, but, unfortunately, I have been trying to sell for over a year the fine mill in St. Marys, with a capacity of 700 barrels, which unfortunately went into liquidation, and, although we have had no less than three different parties from the United States, who were prepared to buy the mill, when they looked into the freight rates in every instance they withdrew.

One of them wrote in part as follows:

"Evidently our railroads in Canada prefer to have the wheat brought down the lakes and milled at Buffalo or Montreal, for they are determined not to let any of the Canadian mills be put on a competitive basis."

Is it any wonder that during this period a mill of 8,000 barrels capacity has been erected in Buffalo to grind Manitoba wheat in bond for export, and another mill is being projected there, while Canadian mills are forced into liquidation?

Not only do our Canadian railroads make discriminatory rates against Canadian mills, but it appears impossible to get the board of railway commissioners to grant relief, as it is now over six months' since application was made to the board of railway commissioners to make the same rates from Goderich as from Detroit and Toledo on Manitoba wheat, as we had assurances from United States buyers that if this was done, they were prepared to buy the mill at St. Marys, but month after month goes by and nothing is done, although we have written the applicants a number of times, urging that they try and get a decision from the board.

How long is this disastrous condition of affairs to be allowed to continue? Apparently, the only hope of remedy is for the press to call public attention to this disgraceful condition of affairs, that parliament may apply a remedy, if there is no other means available.

UNIVERSITY YEAR BOOK SHOWS WESTERN'S PROGRESS

CHANCELLOR SEES SPLENDID FUTURE FOR UNIVERSITY

Hon. J. J. Roche Congratulates Students on Attainments During School Years.

GRWS GREATER

Hon. J. J. Roche, chancellor of the University of Western Ontario and chairman of the civil service commission writes the following message to the graduating class in the Year Book:

"It is with great pleasure that I respond to the request to pen a few lines in the way of a brief valedictory address which may be taken as a message from the chancellor to the graduating classes, as well as to the undergraduates, as a preface to this issue of the Year Book. This message will prove all the more appropriate on the eve of removal to the beautiful and stately new university buildings which are destined to be the future home of the students, and also a time when there is the largest graduating class in the history of the university.

"The University of Western Ontario has long since passed the experimental stage; its development and expansion has justified the optimism and confidence of its founders; and now a spirit of confident hopefulness of its future is shared by all those who are closely associated with it and are lending a helping hand to insure its success. For the little band of a score or so who attended the lectures in the different faculties in its infancy, there are this year 530 students registered in the arts course, 100 in medicine, and 2 in the department of public health, or a total of 632 in all, which is a striking testimony to the excellence of its teaching and the deservedly high reputation which it has gained.

Responsibilities Greater.
Increased patronage and increased success brings with it, however, increased responsibilities, and therefore those in authority have used their utmost endeavors to obtain the necessary facilities to supply the necessary accommodation which is so essential to the carrying out of the present and future requirements, with what success the handsome and commodious structures in the picturesque situation in the north end of the city will stand as a splendid monument.

"A university should have something of which its students can be proud—a record of achievement—and particularly when its graduates have distinguished themselves in various walks of life. This requires hearty co-operation between students and faculty, and it is a source of gratification to know that not a few of the graduates of the University of Western Ontario have established themselves and are establishing reputations which will prove perennial sources of inspiration to the young people who will form the student body of the future. The acquisition of knowledge is not the end of education, and not the least important part of it. It includes, as well, the development of habits of discipline and self-command, of powers of earnest and efficient work, of ideals of duty which will lead a person to sacrifice present pleasure for future honor, and personal advantage for public service.

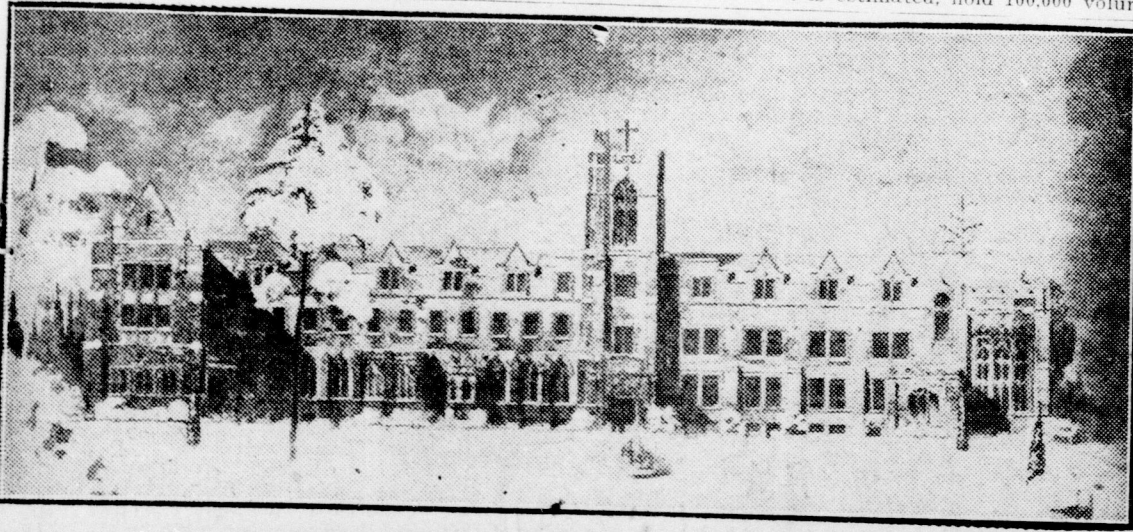

Extends Congratulations.
To the graduating class I extend not only my hearty congratulations for the success which its members have attained during their student career, but also my best wishes for the future, and a success that is not to be measured by the accumulation of wealth alone, but by the amount of good that may be accomplished, and the happiness that may be conferred on their fellow-men.

The building stands on high ground overlooking the river Thames and marks one of the most beautiful sites of any Canadian university.

Splendid New Facilities Provided For Students In University's Library

REV. PETER JAMIESON IN PT. STANLEY CHURCH

Special to The Advertiser.

Port Stanley, May 8.—Rev. Peter Jamieson, formerly of Brockville, was inducted into the pastorate of the Port Stanley Presbyterian Church on Tuesday evening. The moderator of the district was in charge of the ceremonies.

Students Will Find Striking Change in Facilities Offered.

PLENTY OF SPACE

Books Now Distributed Over Wide Area To Be Collected.

Prof. Fred Landon has written the following sketch of the university's new library for the university Year Book:

"Students who return to Western next year or who, as graduates, come back as visitors will find one striking change in the facilities for work in years past the handicap of having the library scattered about in half a dozen places has been serious. What was regarded as the working collection was housed in the annex, but twice as many books were in the Barnett library at 313 Cheapside while other collections were housed in the classics, biology and botany class rooms and laboratories and still another lot in the attic of Huron College. In the new buildings, now nearing completion, all will be assembled in one place, and it will be a matter of pride to know and to library resources of Western.

"The library has been given practically the whole of the west wing at the front of the new main building on two floors. This is made up of the main reading-room, extensive stack room, faculty reading-room, offices and work rooms. The book stacks, which are of cast iron, will, it is estimated, hold 100,000 volumes.

Readers' Tables.

"For the use of graduate students and those who may be doing some special work, a limited number of readers' tables will be found in the stack room, where work may be carried on close to the books and where the work under way may be left without fear of its being disturbed. "In the reading-room there will be placed a selection of a thousand or more of the standard works of reference and books that are much in use. These will be on open shelves and available at all times for use in the reading-room, but not to be removed therefrom. Access to the general stacks will necessarily have to be restricted, but special provision will be made for advanced students.

"With the bringing of all the books of the university library into one place it will be possible to make use of much material that has hitherto been almost inaccessible. The number of books now fully catalogued totals about 25,000, and the number in the possession of the university not yet catalogued is even larger. It is thus quite plain that there is a large amount of work ahead in getting all these into use to the best advantage."

HON. W. J. ROCHE, M.D., L.L.D., chancellor of the University of Western Ontario, who gives the graduating class a farewell message in the University Year Book.

so that there is scope for growth for some years.

Main Reading-Room.

"The main reading-room, on the main floor and looking out over the front lawns and approaches to the buildings, is a well-lighted room, fitted up with long reading tables and with carefully worked out lighting arrangements. There will be seating accommodation at once for about one hundred, and additional facilities for readers are provided elsewhere. In this room will also be the desk from which deliveries of books will be made. The book stacks which fill the entire floor beneath will also extend up through one portion of the main reading-room, three floors of stack occupying the space of two floors of the building.

"The catalogues of the library will be placed near the main entrance to the reading-room, and there will be a member of the library staff available at all times in the reading-room to assist students in securing the best material for their work. Periodicals and journals will also be on display for general use.

Readers' Tables.

"For the use of graduate students and those who may be doing some special work, a limited number of readers' tables will be found in the stack room, where work may be carried on close to the books and where the work under way may be left without fear of its being disturbed. "In the reading-room there will be placed a selection of a thousand or more of the standard works of reference and books that are much in use. These will be on open shelves and available at all times for use in the reading-room, but not to be removed therefrom. FREEMAN FINDS SPLENDID SPIRIT ON HIS ARRIVAL

University Professor Awaits With Pleasure Removal to New Site.

WORN BY TIME

The following is a first impression of the university written by Prof. R. E. Freeman, of the department of economics. Prof. Freeman came to the university last fall, and has won universal goodwill during the year.

"Though some sage has written that 'No good book, or good thing of any sort, shows its best face at first,' my introduction to the University of Western Ontario was neither painful nor disappointing. It was a glimpse of Huron College set amidst autumn trees. I think that old buildings, softened by the touch of time and bearing the marks of use upon them, possess a certain charm, an individuality, which is absent from new ones. No matter how beautiful they may be, the attitude of the older inhabitants who cannot contemplate a removal without some perturbation. In the mind of a newcomer, however, with no tender memories or associations, a visit to those magnificent new buildings on the other side of the river excite no feelings of estrangement. He thinks of the facilities they offer for the development of a full university life, and the glowing prospect they hold out of greater power and service.

"I shall have to be careful what I say about the faculty, and the students whom I find here, for I have so far identified myself with the university that nothing could induce me to disparage her. Of the staff I will say this, that I do not find that grubby absorption in books and that pedantic pursuit of dead facts to be observed in the faculty of some institutions. The amiable qualities of friendliness and hospitality are combined with a spirit of co-operation, and a keen desire for the development of themselves and the university. And what shall I say of the students?—not that they know more or work harder than the average of their kind, but that there are signs amongst them of an intellectual curiosity and a spirit of inquiry which are perhaps more precious than learning and more valuable than hard labor. (I hope that remark will not be used against me.) Moreover, in spite of the lack of athletic facilities and other means of promoting a strong university spirit, I have observed an 'esprit de corps' which, under the circumstances, I did not expect to find."

Dean Fox In His Farewell Tells Student Graduates They Are Still Members

Milestone in One's Fight To Attain Position of Independence.

DEFINITE ATTITUDE

Confident Graduates Will Survive Tests and Meet Success.

The following is a farewell message to the graduating class from Dean W. Sherwood Fox. The message appears in the university year book:

"Ideally, there is no difference between an undergraduate and a graduate; the one is a student undergoing training under personal direction, the other is a student who is allowed to go out into the world and develop himself under his own independent guidance. A graduate, therefore, is still a member of his college or university. The ceremony of conferring the degree that marks his withdrawal from the classroom is not a symbol of the severance of relations, nor is it an expression of farewell, as many would emotionally try to make it appear; it is merely a milestone marking the progress of a human being from a state of dependence to one of independence. "During the four years that Class '24 has been with us, the faculty has had as its one aim the endeavor to give to the members of the class a certain definite attitude toward life in all its phases. It has not been our primary intention to turn out specialists in any field except in the sciences.

HURON COLLEGE SEEKS RESIDENCE FOR ITS STUDENTS

Years of Support Have Brought Unmeasured Aid to University.

CONTINUES POLICY

At the founding of Huron College in 1863 without university facilities, the records show that it was the intention to provide a liberal education in the "humanities" as well as in theology. At the inauguration of the college, in addition to the appointment of the Venerable Archdeacon Hellmuth as principal and divinity professor, the Rev. J. Shulte, D.D., was appointed professor of modern languages, and the Rev. H. Evans, F.A., classical tutor, and the Rev. H. Halpin, classical and mathematical professor. But it was not until 1873 that Bishop Hellmuth took steps to establish the university. The medical men of the city formed themselves into a faculty and provided their own accommodation in the old medical school.

Work Suspended.

After two years teaching in arts, the work begun in 1881 was suspended for lack of means to carry on. It was only through the resources of Huron College, which provided most of the staff and endowment, that the university had been able to operate at all. The medical school, however, was continued.

In 1895, through the efforts of Bishop Baldwin and the Synod of Huron, and a vigorous canvass by the Venerable Archdeacon Young, the arts department was reopened in Huron College under the guidance of the Rev. E. Watkins, M.A., Cantab., as professor of the university and principal and divinity professor of Huron College, and the resources of Huron College were again placed at the free disposal of the university. But once again, in 1901, owing to lack of financial support and annual deficits, the council of Huron College felt obliged to withdraw from financial responsibility for the university. After somewhat tedious negotiations, a working arrangement was made by which the university was enabled to carry on under the guidance of Professor James, as president of the Rev. C. C. Waller as principal and divinity professor of Huron College, the financial affairs of both institutions being completely independent. Huron College provided the use of the buildings rent free and the services of her principal as professor of classics at a nominal remuneration of $100 a year paid to Huron College, though part of the classical work was distributed amongst other members of the staff.

Annual Contribution.

During all those years the Colonial and Continental Church Society of London, England, made a handsome annual contribution towards maintenance, and its secretary, the late Rev. Canon Hearst, raised large subscriptions in England. Meanwhile, the present Bishop of Huron took vigorous steps to broaden the constitutions of both the university and Huron College.

In 1908 the act of incorporation of the Western University was amended so as to allow persons other than members of the Church of England in the senate. In 1908 the control was placed under representatives of the City of London, and the nominees of the lieutenant-governor-in-council, and all religious tests or qualifications of specific church membership were abolished. The condition of surrender of the Church of England of her rights was a perpetual grant from the city of London to the university, and certain rights in regard to divinity degree and theological options were reserved for affiliated theological institutions. Huron College still continued to provide a nominal remuneration of $100 a year to a nominal professor in Hebrew at a nominal remuneration.

Clear For University.

Such in brief are the actual facts; they cannot really be measured in terms of dollars and cents. The record of the college during all those years was one of making any public appeal for funds in London so as to leave the field clear for the university, and further she always put the university interest before her own. What this has meant to the university it is almost impossible to state. What it has meant to Huron College is perhaps more obvious. During the sixty years of her history she has been understaffed and under-equipped, and the pressure on her teaching staff has at times been a burden almost too great to bear. Other and younger institutions in other places, carrying on precisely similar work, have been supported with revenues more than double those of Huron College. When the university was secularized the college provided for the renovation and adaptation of the buildings at an expenditure of some $2,000, the greater part of which she carried as a debt for some fifteen years, paying interest thereon until it was finally wiped out in 1923.

Now that the university is about to move, Huron College is taking steps to provide a residence for Anglican students of the university in her parent buildings, and it is probable that she may incur considerable expense in doing so, thus continuing the policy previously noted. It is not too much to say in conclusion that the resources of Huron College and her moral support throughout Western Ontario have been until quite recently the backbone and mainstay of the effort to bring the advantages of university education within the reach of the citizens of the district.

MISS G. K. KAYE TELLS HOW TO MAKE A HAT

Will Lecture on Millinery Tomorrow Afternoon at Smallman & Ingram's.

How many women would like to know just how to make a hat—not merely something to put on their heads, but an artistic creation, possessing that subtle touch which only the experienced milliner knows how to produce? There must be many, and an opportunity to learn has been presented itself with the visit to the city of Miss Georgina Kerr Kaye, principal of the New York School of Millinery, Montreal, who begins a class in millinery in the Smallman & Ingram store on Monday, May 12. In order to give the women of London an idea of the course, Miss Kaye has been giving free explanatory lectures on the fifth floor of the Smallman & Ingram store yesterday and today, and will repeat the lecture tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock for the benefit of those who were unable to attend the earlier lectures on account of the bad weather.

Miss Kaye is head teacher of millinery in the Montreal Technical School and Council of Arts and Manufacturers. She is well known in Canada and the United States, having taken a thorough millinery course at Columbia University, New York, after which she spent several years in gaining practical experience in some of the leading millinery houses of New York City.

Western's Children Ready To Quit Hall of Memories For New Field In North

Sentiment of Time Clings to Buildings at Present in Use.

MUSTY, BUT GOOD.

Prophecy of Pre-War Time Brings Reality of Present Day.

The following article, "From Tabernacle to Temple," has been written by Prof. W. F. Tamplin for the University Year Book. It deals with the passing from old buildings to new.

"The children of Western have many years sojourned faithfully in the wilderness. The last two graduating classes have enjoyed a Pisgah prospect of the new Hesperian home, and now to the old beloved but inadequate tabernacle the year of '24 bids a last adieu. Hall and farewell. Several years ago, as the great war was beginning, in the fall when Western won the dominion junior rugby championship, the occasion was celebrated by a great gathering, generously given by our kind friend and patron, Dr. C. R. Somerville. In one of the most memorable speeches of that evening, Arthur W. Waite, governor of the university, promised the faculty, students and friends assembled, that as soon as the growing numbers of the student body 'burst the walls of the present accommodations,' the board of governors would provide new buildings. Between then and now our building progress has hastened slowly, but makeshifts saved the day once, twice, and again, in the shape of abandoned schools, or founding homes, or just plain barn and stable. In the more accessible and lighter parts of the 'main building' attic some of the Barnet library has been spread around; the deeper and more romantic coils of that superterranean labyrinth may, for all that is known,

Radium Rays Restore Youth

Associated Press Despatch.

Naples, May 8.—Dr. Pais, a noted Röntgen ray specialist, of Rome, addressing the Gynecological Association, here today declared:

"Röntgen rays of radium not only excite living cells, but even produce the phenomenon of resurrection, giving back to the cells their lost vitality."

He cited numerous facts to support this theory. Using the endocrinal glands of animals in his experiments, and subjecting them to prolonged irradiation, Dr. Pais claims to have obtained the true phenomenon of returned youth.

have served before now for sombre rites of initiation horrors happily unrevealed. But the doors are closing on this hobbledyhoi era of amorphous growth, and the year now going out looks to the temples on the new acropolis, sad but satisfied. The promise of the governors is about to be implemented.

Passing of Time.

"Coming along the gentle driveway of the old place at moonlight midnight, the late-out may stop a moment and realize what life has gone on in under those peaceful roofs this many a year. Funny old ways this building had in its time. First there were Victorian conversation and charades and promenades, and the con-songs of the 90's. Once upon a time Dr. Merchant exhibited the first Röntgen wireless when it was still a Marconi wonder. Professor Dearness showed the circulation of a frog's blood. Another worked X-rays, Dr. Hugh Stevenson did histological stunts, and someone else gave ex-citric acid to the Arabian Nights' entertainment at the conversation of

WESTERN'S GRADUATING CLASS IN ARTS.

Above are the members of this year's graduating class in arts at the University of Western Ontario. The class of Arts '24 marks a milestone in the history of the university, because next year the new buildings will be in use. The group above are the last graduates from the old buildings in which the university has steadily grown to its present development.

GOOD CHAMPIONS SINGLE TAX PLAN IN BUDGET SPEECH

Member For Brant Declares Whole System of Taxation Needs Revision.

HOCKEN ATTACKS

Canadian Press Despatch.

Ottawa, March 8.—Debate on the budget continued in the House today, afternoon and evening. Again, however, it gave way in chief interest to the battle over church union waged in the private bills committee.

W. C. Good of Brant pressed the single tax, urging revision of the whole scheme of taxation. Previously W. J. Lovie of Macdonald, also a Progressive, emphasized the farmers' need for cheaper money.

From government ranks P. F. Casgrain of Charlevoix-Montmorency declared that the only people against the budget were the big interests. On the other hand, H. C. Hocken, Conservative of West Toronto, thought the country would not be much impressed by the way the acting minister of finance had figured out his surplus.

W. C. Good (Progressive, Brant) in the evening announced that he would support the amendment to the budget rather than throw it out on technical grounds. He regarded it as supplementary to and not in opposition to the budget.

Quotes Authorities.

Mr. Good read into Hansard a number of authorities in taxation in support of the single tax scheme. The whole system of taxation, he thought, should be revised. It had been said in the House that no intelligent man would support anything else except direct taxation. It was the only equitable way of raising revenue.

Mr. Good said that a comparatively small tax on land values would supply a very large part of public revenue. Such a tax also had the advantage of taxing unearned incomes rather than earned incomes.

A system of taxation of land values was already in practice in certain communities in Canada. If it was adopted throughout the country it would provide a system of collecting local provincial and federal taxes by the same machinery. Mr. Good approved of the government's plan to create a special committee to study taxation.

J. W. Carruthers (Liberal, Algoma East) said that protection was unsound and illogical, while Canada was a young country with great natural resources. There were too many hothed and jazz industries in Canada today.

The Hudson Bay Railway was described by Mr. Carruthers as a "mid-winter night's dream." He said that the country should not be bound by the pledges of the old parties in this regard.

Recalls Other Protests.

A. Boucher (Liberal, Yamaska) drew a parallel between the tariff reductions made by the Liberals in 1897 and those today. In 1897 the reductions were the signs for protests from the Conservatives, just as at present.

H. C. Hocken (Conservative, Toronto West) opened with an appeal for the immediate construction of the Toronto viaduct. Toronto had the most dangerous series of level tracks in Canada. On holidays, and frequently on Saturdays, 100,000 people were compelled to cross 12 level tracks in order to reach a park which was under control of the city.

Turning to the budget, Mr. Hocken remarked that he did not think the country would be much impressed with the way the acting minister of finance had figured out his surplus. A surplus produced in this way simply indicated insincerity on the part of those producing it.

P. F. Casgrain (Liberal, Charlevoix-Montmorency) praised the budget, which, he said, would benefit farmers and workers in Canada. The financial surplus, the reduction in debt and in taxation and in tariff were the big interests which, he said, controlled the newspapers and therefore managed to get published propaganda against the government's new tariff policy.

Mother Earth Has Permanent Wave

Moves Around Planet Once Every 8,800 Years.

Associated Press Despatch.

Glasgow, May 8.—Old mother earth has a permanent wave. She has had it all along, but it was noticed only recently by a mere mortal, Ludovic Macellan Mann.

Mr. Mann is a member of the Royal Anthropological Institute, the Prehistoric Society of East Anglia, and other scientific societies. There is a large wave, slow motion within the body of the earth, says Mr. Mann. It moves around the planet once every 8,800 years, causing a slight movement in the axis and the poles, and gives rise to changes in climate. The discovery was made by him in connection with astronomical observations.

The wave causes the terrestrial crust to pulsate, which accounts for raised and sunken land surfaces. Velocity, direction and amplitude of the wave have been ascertained. Thus the axes in all ancient land surfaces and in prehistoric surface can be determined.

OWEN SOUND FARMER TAKES HIS OWN LIFE

Lifeless Body of John Hope Found Hanging in Barn.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Owen Sound, May 8.—John Hope, 35, employed on the farm of Thomas Edmonstone, near Owen Sound, took his own life by hanging in the barn some time today. He had been in his usual health and spirits, and worked all morning. When he failed to appear for dinner, a search was made. His lifeless body was found at 1:45 o'clock. He was unmarried.

BRITAIN PLEASED WITH U. S. ATTITUDE

Armament Talk Comes Up During Consideration of Navy Estimates.

Associated Press Despatch.

London, May 8.—There was a great deal of talk about armaments and the limitation of armaments in the House of Commons this evening, when the navy estimates were being considered. The Singapore base project bobbed up again in the discussion, and there were expressions of pleasure that the United States Congress has given consideration to further conferences on armament limitation.

The attitude of the United States House and Senate, said Mr. Ammon, has been noted with very great friendliness and pleasure by the British government, and he added that the government would do all in its power, so far as this country was concerned, to show a reciprocal desire to enter into any negotiations or discussions, no matter by whom started.

French Aviator Breaks Record

Reaches Altitude of 15,000 Feet With Heavy Load.

Associated Press Despatch.

Paris, May 8.—In a flight today, the French aviator, Lieut. Bossoutrot, claims to have reached an altitude of 4,500 metres (15,088 feet) with a load of 2,000 kilograms (4,409 pounds), thus breaking the world record established October 25, 1923, by Lieut. Harold G. Harris, the American flyer, of 2,049 metres (6,720 feet).

Lieut. Bossoutrot used a 600-horsepower French Monomotor plane.

HON. J. CRAWFORD MAY GET REGISTRARSHIP OF DEEDS

Canadian Press Despatch.

Toronto, May 8.—The registrarship of deeds, made vacant by the death of J. Walter Curry, is not to be long unoccupied. It is understood that if the position has not already been offered to Hon. Thomas Crawford, it will be within a day or two, as the city members are a unit in favor of the appointment going to the former speaker of the legislature, who has been one of the party's war horses for 50 years.

CROWDS WITNESS FINAL EXHIBITION IN CITY DOG SHOW

One of Most Successful Events Held in London Concludes Yesterday.

MANY ENTRIES

Teeming rain and a stiff easterly wind failed to dampen the ardor of dog fanciers of this city last night who flocked to the Dickinson-Nicholson building, Richmond street, for the final exhibition of the seventh annual dog show of the London Canine Association.

Judging of all the entries was completed last night, and in the majority of cases the decisions rendered met with the approval of the large crowd. The exhibitors were warm in their praise for the loyalty shown by the citizens, and the crowd last night was well appreciated.

Numerous sales at fancy figures were made to Londoners and from now on valuable dogs will make their homes in London. Judging commenced at 7:30 and was completed by 9 o'clock. English bulldogs were the main center of attraction last night.

It was reported that a prominent Londoner was negotiating for the purchase of a high-priced German police dog.

The spring exhibition was governed by the Canadian Club kennel rules. The entries for the show numbered over 200, and were divided into 27 classes. They included dogs from many points in the United States and Canada.

Officers of the London Canine Association were confident at the conclusion of the show that it was the most successful ever held, and were pleased to note that the number of women exhibitors was in excess of other years.

Ontario's Premier Extends Congratulations To Class Graduating At Western

Ferguson Urges Students To Always Uphold Name of Their Alma Mater.

GIVES FOUNDATION

The following message from Premier Ferguson appears in the Year Book of the University of Western Ontario:

"The graduating class, as well as all the other undergraduates of the University of Western Ontario, have my warmest wishes for their success. While I am a graduate of the State University, and am proud of its position in the world, my appreciation of what is being done for higher education by other institutions is not restricted to the original historic endowment set apart by the state. The Legislature has recognized in generous manner the share which the University of Western Ontario has taken in this branch of education, both academic and professional, and its ability to serve a portion of the province which, in area, resources and population, is entitled to separate treatment. It now remains for the teachers and students of the Western Ontario to prove the wisdom and justice of this policy. In your hands, more than in any others, rest the fame, progress and ultimate attainments of your alma mater. Be loyal and grateful to her now and in after years. This is one distinguishing mark of a well-trained university man. What you make of your opportunities will be determined by the spirit in which you seek them. The university degree in itself is not an open sesame to a useful and distinguished career, but is the foundation on which you can build. With its additional endowment, its fine new equipment, and the general educational enthusiasm which pervades your section of the province, I anticipate great things for the future of the Western Ontario, and am profoundly impressed with a belief that you will be worthy of that future."

PAYS $1,000,000 OF LOAN TO BANKS

E. Weldon Reports a Total Return of $275,000 of Double Liability.

Canadian Press Despatch. Toronto, May 8.—The liquidators of the Home Bank have paid over $1,000,000 back to the various banks which loaned $1,000,000 to pay the depositors of the wrecked institution $25 per cent on their deposits last October. E. Weldon, one of the liquidators, stated today that the loan is being paid back as quickly as it is possible. When this is all paid the question of a further payment to depositors may be discussed. Mr. Weldon couldn't throw any light upon the possibility of another payment to depositors. Mr. Weldon states that up to date the shareholders have paid in $275,000 under the double liability. He says that it is coming in all the time and during the last day or so good returns have been made. One of the payments under the double liability amounts to $10,000. A good deal of the money paid in by shareholders is paid under protest, which means that the decision of the court is against the trustees then the money will be returned to the shareholders.

Despite the manifold temptations that will come from time to time to the graduates of '24 to stress their special vocation and activities, yet knowing them as we do, the faculty are confident that they will survive these tests and show themselves interested chiefly in human life, in civilization in its broadest aspects, and, therefore, as engaged in the higher, unselfish activities to which they belong. Friendship Between U. S. and Canada Pledged Anew

British Ambassador Presents Painting To Commemorate International Sentiment.

TRIBUTE TO HARDING

Event Marks Meeting of National Press Club At Washington.

Associated Press Despatch.

Washington, May 8.—The traditional friendship of Canada and the United States was pledged anew by President Coolidge and Sir Esme Howard, the British Ambassador, in addresses delivered tonight on the occasion of the presentation by the Vancouver, B. C. Sun to the newspapermen of the United States of a painting entitled "President Harding in Canada."

The painting, which is to be hung

Prize Egg Laid By Minorca Hen

Special To The Advertiser. Mildmay, May 8.—Many of the country papers are boasting of the large eggs being displayed, but the one displayed by George Scheffer, has them all beaten. The egg, which measured 8x7 inches, was presented to him by a black Minorca hen.

In one of the press galleries of Congress, was presented by Ambassador Howard on behalf of the Vancouver Sun and the Canadian Government and accepted by President Coolidge on behalf of the Washington newspapermen and the people of the United States. The ceremonies of presentation and acceptance were held at the National Press Club. Ambassador Howard, in addition to bespeaking his own earnest hope for continuation of the more than century long friendship between Canada and the United States, read a message from Premier W. L. Mackenzie King, who said he was glad to express his earnest desire "that the ceremony which marks this occasion may tend to promote and develop those feelings of mutual confidence and goodwill between the two peoples which it is ever my fervent wish to foster and maintain."

President Coolidge recalled the setting depicted on the canvass—the scene in Stanley Park, Vancouver, late last July, when President Harding, the first president of the United States to set foot on Canadian soil, being visibly moved by the enthusiastic welcome he received from the 40,000 Canadians present on that occasion, stretched his arms as though to embrace the whole Canadian people and made a plea for ever increasing friendly relations between the Canadian people and the people of the United States. Mr. Coolidge devoted much of his address to a tribute to the late president, noting that the painting showed Mr. Harding "standing there in Vancouver before that splendid body of Canadian citizens as we have seen him so many times standing before his own Americans."

BRITISH INTERESTED

IN CANADIAN MINES

Hon. Charles McCrea Outlines

Resources in Address to Ottawa Club.

Associated Press Despatch.

London, May 9.—Hon. Charles Mc-
Crea, minister of mines for Ontario, who gave an address at the Canada club's dinner here last night on Ontario's remarkable record of mineral production, said that the Ontario mining fields were attracting wide attention from the mining interests in Great Britain.

In inviting the financial interests of the United Kingdom, which knew the hazards of mining undertakings, to embark on enterprises in connection with the Ontario mines, Mr. Mc-Crea said he was able to assure them that capital invested in Ontario would be used fairly.

Mr. McCrea, who is in this country along with Dr. W. G. Miller, Ontario provincial geologist, in the interests of Ontario mining, expressed confidence in the success of his mission.

He made it clear that the public were being invited to invest in Ontario mines with caution.

Sir Alfred Mond, former minister of health, one of the leading British financiers interested in the nickel interests, attended the dinner given last night in Mr. McCrea's honor.

KENTUCKY SLAYERS ARE ELECTROCUTED

Murderers Walk With Steady
Steps From Cells to Death
Chair.

Associated Press Despatch.

Eddyville, Ky., May 9.—Three murderers were executed in the western state penitentiary here shortly after midnight in the first triple legal electrocution in the state's history. They were Frank Thomas and George Weick and Charlie Miller, negroes.

They died in the order named. The doomed trio walked in turn from their cells in the death house to the chair with steady steps. Only Thomas made a statement during the final moments. "Good night, I'm going home. I'm not a bit afraid," he said, as the black cap was adjusted.

The executions were completed in forty-six minutes.

Thomas, past seventy, and the oldest man ever executed in the state, was sentenced for the murder of Lee
Arbogast, a friend and benefactor in Jefferson County. Weick died for the murder of Wm. Oelke, near Louisville and Miller was convicted of the murder of two railroad guards in Breckinridge County. Thomas and Miller confessed, but Weick protested his innocence.

London, May 9.—The Times, commenting editorially on the American anti-Japanese immigration legislation, says undoubtedly much of the friendly atmosphere created by the Washington treaty has been dispelled thereby.

Dwelling upon the "fundamental causes of the antagonism" between the Americans and Japanese, the paper continues: "It is idle to ignore the possibility of ultimate conflict in the Pacific, remote though it might be. Nobody will likely put forward alarmist theories about the ultimate clash between east and west."

Upon the people of these islands friendship for Japan and their in-dissoluble ties with the United States, rests perhaps the supreme responsibility for averting so incalculable a disaster, but the seeds of conflict are on either side of the Pacific Ocean and it behooves this country to watch with incessant vigilance every turn in the most treacherous problem confronting the world. The action of the U. S. marks a very significant stage in its development."

Remember That Sunday Is Mother's Day!

Of course it is a beautiful custom to let a box of fragrant flowers carry your message to mother on Her Day. But many of you will prefer to choose remembrances, just as beautiful and appropriate, which will be more lasting reminders of your thoughtfulness. Happy memories of the child you used to be will come thronging back to her when she receives your gift. It must be a worthy expression of your love, for—

"A mother is the sweetest gift that life has ever given, She's everything in all the world, besides a bit of heaven."

END OF CHURCH DEBATE EXPECTED LATE TODAY

Only One Opposing Speaker
Remains To Be Heard
by Committee.

WOMEN MAKE PLEA

Dr. Scott Says Unionists Want
Parliament To Be Gunmen.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Ottawa, May 8.—The sixth day of the hearings on the church union bill before the Commons' private bills committee and the third day since the opponents took the stand, ended this afternoon with the end in sight, as far as formal arguments are concerned. There is still one other opposing speaker to be heard and after that, counsel will sum up for both sides. The council are expected to conclude tomorrow.

Today's hearings still held the attention, even after six days of speeches, of an audience that crowded the committee room. Four speakers were heard during the day. Rev. W. G. Brown of Red Deer, spoke for the west. Mrs. George E. Ross of Montreal, represented "a host of women." Dr. Ephraim Scott of Montreal, put his case before the committee as one long familiar with the workings of the Presbyterian Church; T. E. McQueen of Hamilton, a layman, told of recent votes in that city against church union.

"If the bill is carried," said Mrs. Ross, "we will go forward in one way or another, very sorely crippled, perhaps, certainly much humiliated; but we will go forward carrying the banner of the Presbyterian Church."

Bill Means "Tyranny."

Dr. Scott described the church union bill as "tyranny." The unionists he said had "asked parliament to be gunmen and to do the robbing for them." In taking away the rights of the opponents of the bill.

An outstanding incident of the day was Rev. W. G. Brown's quotation of Rev. Dr. Gandier as having said: "This is the beginning of a national Protestant church; no government would dare to resist it." This reported utterance featured in both the morning and afternoon sittings. No comment on it has yet come from the unionist camp.

The question of "identity" between Presbyterian doctrine and the basis of union in the United Church was once more raised at the resumption of the hearings this afternoon, when Rev. W. C. Brown of Red Deer was asked by J. L. Brown of Lisgar whether he would feel unduly circumscribed by the new basis or whether he would think it differed

Neck Is Broken Man Still Lives

Canadian Press Despatch.

Toronto, May 8.—The victim of an unusual accident, Hugh Hill, 62 years of age, was admitted to the Western Hospital, Toronto, with his neck broken. While he is still alive, his condition is critical. Hill, while employed by the C. P. R., fell off a "jigger" onto the devil strip of the track, injuring his vertebrae.

too much from the old standards. The witness replied that there was a difference in doctrinal basis and system of government and that was all that concerned the committee.

Mr. Brown of Lisgar asked whether Principal Fraser, of Montreal, represented at one time president of the Presbyterian Church Association and head of one of the first colleges in which the teaching of theology had been organized on inter-denominational lines.

System Is Working.

Mr. Brown of Red Deer agreed that this was so, and in reply to further questions, expressed the view that the system was working well. He did not think such a system would necessarily tend to break down denominational differences.

He advocated "unity in diversity" as against uniformity, which, he claimed, was the principle of this bill.

"This," he added, "is to be the beginning of a great national Protestant Church. And the more you centralize, the more autocratic you become. If that is what you want, go ahead."

Mr. Brown denied that the schemes of the co-operation between the churches had been entered into with a view to union. If this bill failed, there was no reason why co-operation should not continue.

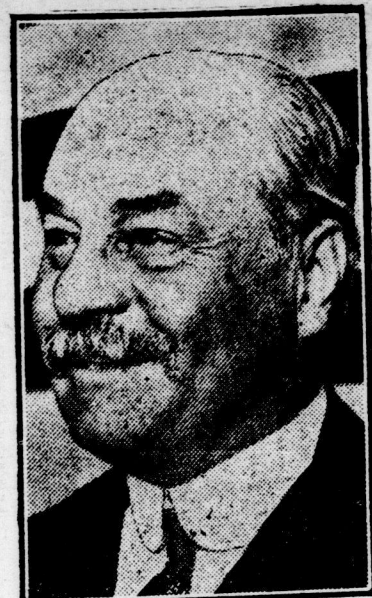

He challenged Hon. N. W. Rowell's reported statement that church union was "sweeping forward." In Australia, he quoted a Presbyterian minister in Australia as saying that "organic union in Australia is as dead as Sennacherib's army."

E. W. Bird asked what the witness meant by federation, which he had favored as a method of church unity.

OBJECTIVE PEACE CRAIG DECLARES

Tells County Down Orangemen
He Would Swap Catholics
With Protestants.

Associated Press Despatch.

Belfast, Ireland, May 9.—Premier Craig of Ulster yesterday told County Down Orangemen, of whom he is grand master, that as President Cosgrave of the Irish Free State did not want unwilling citizens in either of the Irish areas, he was quite willing to swap Catholic citizens who wished the Free States rule for Protestants in Monaghan, Cavan and Donegal who wanted to join with their old Ulster friends. He promised the latter his heartiest welcome.

Premier Craig emphasized that as head of a ministry governing all creeds and classes, no act of his would drive away anyone who wished to remain loyal, with Ulster. It might be a good message on his part, he added, even at the eleventh hour—there was no doubt that this grave question was approaching a finality—say to President Cosgrave and government that they must "either drop the boundary question or let us settle by agreement."

MANY REFORMS FOR CIVIL SERVICE ARE ADVOCATED

Memorandum of Complaints Is Sent to Deputy Ministers by
Hon. F. L. Buzue.

MAKE SUGGESTIONS

Canadian Press Despatch.

Ottawa, May 8.—Hon. F. L. Belue, chairman of the Senate special committee on the civil service, has forwarded to each of the deputy ministers a memorandum in which he points out the criticism that has been directed against the civil service, and also a memorandum from the civil service commission in which many reforms are advocated. The deputy ministers are asked to consider these memorandums and to forward the committee a memorandum of their own embodying their views and suggestions as to the best remedies to be applied.

In the memorandum from the civil service commission complaints are made:

(1) Of the wasteful distribution of government offices in 65 buildings in Ottawa.

(2) The government's engineering and survey work as at present carried on independently by four major departments.

(3) A similar criticism is leveled against the accounting, purchasing, translating, legal, library and other services.

(4) A separate organization is maintained for the collection of the income tax, which should be absorbed into the department of customs and excise.

(5) The government telegraph service should be absorbed into the Canadian National Railways organization.

(6) Printing and distribution of government publications should be considerably curtailed.

(7) If possible, the departments of state and external affairs should be amalgamated.

(8) The seven branches of the lands work of the department of the interior should be consolidated.

(9) The purchase and upkeep of motor vehicles should be curtailed and a considerable saving effected on travelling expenses.

(10) Mechanical devices and systems should be introduced into the statistical divisions of the government departments.

Seeks To Establish Friendly Negotiations.

Associated Press Despatch.

Cleveland, May 8.—The chamber of commerce of the United States, in the final session of its annual convention here today pledged the whole-hearted support of organized business to efforts to bring about through friendly negotiation "the most amicable understanding with Japan on the question of immigration."

Unanimous adoption without debate of a resolution respecting that stand occurred amid great applause. President Julius H. Barnes, Duluth, Minn., grain merchant, and war time director of the United States grain corporation, was selected for the third time by the directors to head the chamber.

$275,000 IN DOUBLE LIABILITIES NOW PAID

H. H. Higginbotham Arrives
Here To Reorganize the Depositors' Society.

H. H. Higginbotham, who is in London for the purpose of reorganizing the London Home Bank Depositors' Association, states that $275,000 has been received from Home Bank shareholders to date in payment of their double liability. The payments are now coming in at a rate of $50,000 and more a day. All of this, he points out, will go to the depositors' representatives.

The London committee of the Depositors' Association here, Mr. Higginbotham says, has promised every co-operation. With this end in view, white slips have been sent out to all depositors in the district for them to sign. These slips, when signed, make over to the depositors' representatives a certain percentage of deposits to carry on the work of pushing savings holders' claims.

This evening the Hilderton depositors will meet, and tomorrow Mr. Higginbotham is scheduled to speak before the depositors of Komoka and Thorndale.

"The government is doing everything it can to support our claims," Mr. Higginbotham said. "It may be possible to get 100 cents on the dollar ultimately."

WILL SPEAK TONIGHT.

The Round Table Club will meet this evening at the Blue Dragon tea rooms to hear Arthur Ford give an address on newspaper work. Mr. Ford's subject will be "The Romance of News Gathering."

UNION APPROVED IN NOVA SCOTIA

Document Comes Back From Conference With Two Amendments.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Halifax, May 8.—Nova Scotia's church union bill was finally adopted at this evening's session of the Legislative Assembly, when the document came back from the conference of the two Houses, which had been in deadlock since the previous evening, with two amendments.

These amendments provide that adherents may vote at the congregational meeting which decides whether or not a congregation will enter the union, and the other provides that no non-congregational congregation nor its property shall be deemed to have been in the union if within six months after the act goes into effect that congregation votes to stay out.

The Trades and Labor Council passed a resolution that Tom Moore be acquainted with the facts and take the matter up with Sir Henry Thornton at the next meeting of the board of directors.

Vancouver, May 8.—A special jury in supreme court this afternoon awarded J. P. Smith, member of the Royal Canadian Mounted police, $2,000 damages against Rev. Clem Davies, pastor of Centennial Methodist Church, Victoria, for slander. Mr. Davies on Dec. 9 last, in addressing his congregation, declared that Smith was not only a trafficker in drugs, but a drug fiend himself.

RAILWAY HEADS DENY EMPLOYEES ON 25-CENT PAY

Chief Clerk Points Out Board
For Men Is Also Provided.

NOT REGULAR SCALE

Officials of the C. N. R. here deny the statement made at Wednesday night's meeting of the Trades and Labor Council that the C. N. R. is hiring foreigners at 25c an hour and laying off the regular maintenance way employees on the London division.

"There is no truth in the statement whatever," declared Chief Clerk W. Hart, today, and if inquiries were made by these men they would find that a limited number of foreigners are being taken to lay rails between Komoka and Glenora, and when this work is finished they will likely be dismissed.

As regards the assertion that 25c an hour was an inhuman wage and that no man could live on this rate of pay, officials point out that the men are given their board and lodging and in the end they are far ahead as the man making 45c an hour.

"The regular scale of wage for the maintenance of way employees of the entire system is 38c, which the men are being paid, and it would not be fair to these men if the foreigners were taken on and given the same rate of pay as the men that work in good and bad weather."

The Trades and Labor Council passed a resolution that Tom Moore be acquainted with the facts and take the matter up with Sir Henry Thornton at the next meeting of the board of directors.

In Canada's Parliament

Canadian Press Despatch.

Ottawa, May 9.—Today: The budget debate will be resumed in the House of Commons by Hon. E. B. Stevens.

The Senate will sit.

Yesterday.

In the House of Commons: W. C. Good (Liberal) presented the case for single tax, and urged the revision of the existing scheme of taxation.

P. F. Casgrain (Liberal, Charlevoix-Montmorency), said that the only opposition to the budget came from the big interests.

W. J. Lovie (Progressive, Macdonald) urged cheaper rates on money for the farmers.

H. C. Hocken (Conservative, West Toronto) thought that the country would not be impressed by the way in which the acting minister of finance had figured out his surplus.

J. Caruthers (Liberal, Algoma) said that all the basic industries of Canada were carried on in his constituency, and he had never had a request for an increase in tariff.

In the Senate: Senator Taylor of New Westminster, B.C., stated that there was "organized" rascality in several departments of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine and the Canadian National Railways in British Columbia.

Senator W. H. Bennett gave notice that he would move for an investigation into Canadian National Railway expenditures by a special committee of the Senate.

PARKS RESIDENTS WILL PAY TAXES IN SEPTEMBER

Deputation Makes Satisfactory
Agreement With Members of Township Council.

CLEARs DIFFICULTY

Ratepayers of Highland and Manor Parks may now pay their annual taxes immediately upon receipt of the tax notice, which will be delivered in the month of September or before. This was the report presented to the members of the Progressive Ratepayers' Association at the regular meeting of that body last night, by a deputation which waited upon the Westwater Township council at its regular session last Tuesday. This arrangement is very favorable to the taxpayers, as in former years the taxes could only be paid in December, and this levy imposed a distinct hardship on many of the residents, with the result that many neglected to pay till some later day, then being assessed the usual interest charges. The report of the success of the deputation was well received, and the arrangement rectifies a hardship which has existed for many years.

The committee in charge of the arrangements for the 24th of May celebration has surpassed all expectations in the splendid list of events arranged for the 24th, and in the unbounded success which has attended their efforts to make the affair the biggest and most novel in the history of the parks.

Twenty-two events are to be run off in the afternoon of the 24th, and the day is to be wound up by an amateur contest open to all, and a first-class movie show in the school-house. All signs point to the most successful celebration ever staged in the district, due to the untiring efforts of the ladies' committee.

Much other routine business was disposed of, and the meeting adjourned at a late hour.

Plans Made To Stage Biggest Track Meet In W.O.S.S.A. History

WESTERN ONTARIO ATHLETES WILL COMPETE HERE MAY 17

Expect Largest Competition Since Inaugural of Association.

NEW RULE MADE

On Saturday, May 17, when the secondary schools of Western Ontario meet at Queen's Park here for the annual W. O. S. S. A. championships, many famous school athletes will compete for honors.

Five years ago a few collegiate track teams competed in the first W. O. S. S. A. field day, and it was such a small event that the public wondered if it should ever be held again, and, in fact, said that it was a failure, and would never survive. But year after year the association kept growing, until it is now one of the strongest athletic organizations in Canada, and by reports and entries received so far by Dr. G. Smith, the secretary, the fifth annual competition is going to be the largest since the inaugural.

It was not until three years ago that prizes were donated to the winners, and now not only does the individual attain valuable awards, in the form of gold medals for those who break records, silver for the winners in each event and bronze to the second men, but keen competition is experienced because of the individual shields which are presented annually by the association and its friends.

Will Wanless Repeat?

The Silverwood shield, which is donated by A. E. Silverwood, and which is emblematic of the senior individual championship, is at present held by Bill Wanless of the East London C. I. who in the competition last year turned in a most remarkable performance, winning the trophy by a wide margin. The question now in the minds of all who are interested in the meet is, "Will Wanless repeat?"

From official sources it is learned that Bill is going better than ever this year, and should give his opponents a rough battle for the honors again.

In the 1923 meet Wanless, besides winning the championship, broke the record for the 440-yard run, doing the distance in 53.1-5 seconds, thus bringing home with him many points for the London Central team, which captured both senior and junior team championships.

New Rule Made.

To the athlete who has been doing good work so far this year, and stands a chance of running off with some of the honors, it is advised that they look over the following records made by Wanless, and from them determine their right to dispute the right to hold the honors:

440-yard dash, first, time 53.1-5 seconds.

100-yard dash, first, time 10.3-5 seconds.

220-yard dash, second.

Running high jump, second.

A ruling that it is felt will prove useful in guarding the health of the participants was recently passed by the executive committee, in which no competitor may take part in more than five events (excluding the relay).

The reason advanced for such a move is that many young, ambitious athletes might overdo themselves, and harmful results, instead of those that are beneficial, will result. Another reason is that it will widen the field and bring in more competitors.

PLAYERS WHO AVERAGE 200 YDS. ON DRIVES SHOULD MAKE THE FOLLOWING AVERAGES:

BRASSIE AND DRIVER 200 YDS.

SPOON 150 YDS.

IRON 160

MASHIE 140

Assuming that a player can average 200 yards on drives, what yardage should he expect to make with the following clubs: brassie, spoon, mullion, mashie and niblick?

BOB MacDONALD
Winner of the Metropolitan Open championship, 1921 and 1923. One of the longest drivers in the game, though using only a 12 1/2 ounce driver.

With the brassie he should make the same as with the driver—they are really the same club; with the spoon about 90 per cent of the driving distance, or 180 yards; with the iron 80 per cent, or 160 yards; and 80 yards, or 40 per cent, with niblick.

SATURDAY'S SOCCER CARD INTERESTING

Two Games Billed For London and One For St. Thomas.

Saturday's three games in the London and District Football League are: Maple Leafs at C. N. R.'s, Caledonians at R. C. R.'s, Carling Heights, and St. Andrews at United Vets., St. Thomas. Undoubtedly the big attraction will be at the C. N. R. grounds, Sackville street, where the Maple Leafs are the visitors. There is not the least doubt that soccer fans will be in for a treat at this game, as both teams so far are unbeaten, and both are out to win this game. Further interest will be created by the fact that two of Maple Leafs' old players, Ince and Hazelwood, will be with the C. N. R.'s. It will be interesting to watch the duels between Dave Smith and Hazelwood, as both these players have established a reputation as high-class players.

Ince will be called upon to look after Jimmy Holt and his partner. On the C.N.R. lineup will be found a very clever left wing in Beardsill and Albert, and if these two players produce last week's form then the fans will be in for some real thrills. Moir and Burgess compare favorably with the Leafs' pair of defenders, so that all through both teams will be very evenly matched.

Carr To Referee.

F. G. Carr will be in charge of the game, and the kick-off is at 2:30 sharp.

Maple Leafs' lineup is—Goal, Nudd; backs, Ashton and Croft; half-backs, A. Smith, D. Smith, Milne; forwards, Taylor, Forrester, Whitlow, Cunningham and Holt.

C. N. R.'s lineup is—Goal, Hogz; backs, Burgess and Moir; half-backs, Ince, Thorne and Asles; forwards, Haywood, Macfarlane, Hazelwood, Beardsill and Cuthbert. Spares—Evans and Hilton.

Caledonians at Carling Heights. This should be a great struggle as the soldiers have a fast team and are out to win their first home game. Caledonians have a well-balanced team, and will be sure to try and preserve their unbeaten record. Barney Devlin will referee and the kick-off is at 5:30.

One Game in St. Thomas.

R. C. R.'s lineup is—Goal, Johns, Q. M. S. Plamsberg, Corpi, Wright, Dr. Cornell, Pte. Ainsworth, L. Corpi, Tanner, Pte. Tosdevin, Pte. Bird, Bd. Gardner, Drum, Redmond, Pte. Cameron.

United Vets. of St. Thomas entertain St. Andrews at the Athletic Grounds. As this is the only game for St. Thomas a big crowd should be on hand. Both teams so far have failed to annex the full league points, and as both are out to take this engagement there will be lots of interest and fans will be assured to have a good game. The Saints have had difficulty with their team this season, but hope to be at full strength for this game. Lineup is: Wright, G. Baker, Bent, Donaldson, J. Baker, Kelly, C. Davey, Verrill, Hough, S. Davey, L. Davey, Spares—Allen and Snowden.

TERRIER NINE TO PLAY IN IMPROVED BALL PARK

Special to The Advertiser.
Gait, May 8.—In appreciation for what they have done in the past two years the parks board has decided to give the Terriers and their guests better accommodation at Dickson Park. Dressing-rooms have to be installed beneath the grandstand. It is expected shower baths will be installed and every other convenience. The band stand behind the diamond is to be moved back of the home plate to be covered with netting for a back stop. The Terriers claim one of the finest diamonds in Ontario and the improvements to be made will complete the plant.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE.

DISTRICT'S OLYMPIC TRAPSHOOTER.

SAM VANCE of Tillsonburg has again been chosen for the Canadian Olympic trapshooters' team. He leads in the averages over three years of the men chosen this year, as the following figures show: S. G. Vance, Tillsonburg, 95.89; H. W. Coosy, Toronto, 94.83; S. R. Newton, Sherbrooke, 94.65; T. W. Barnes, Hamilton, 94.25; George Beattie, Hamilton, 93.86; R. Montgomery, Hamilton, 93.59; J. H. Black, Winnipeg, 92.81.

Lewis To Meet Italian Champ.

Associated Press Despatch, Philadelphia, May 8.—Ed. (Strangler) Lewis, world's heavyweight wrestling champion, will again defend his title against Renato Gardini, Italian champion, in a decision match here on the night of May 21. Lewis and Gardini wrestled to a draw here several weeks ago, each winning one fall.

THIRD SOFTBALL CIRCUIT FORMED IN WOODSTOCK

Special to The Advertiser.
Woodstock, May 8.—A third softball league was organized tonight in the form of a city firemen's league, and entry was made by six teams, as follows:

Smoke-Eaters, John White Co. Ltd., Royals, All Stars, Yammigans and Railroaders. Officers for the year were appointed as follows: Honorary presidents, Dr. Sinclair, M. P. Mayor Rea and Frank Hyde; president, Fire Chief Murray; vice-presidents, Samuel Gunn and William Bryce; secretary-treasurer, Fire Captain McLenmet; representatives from each team with the officers will compose the executive. Much enthusiasm was displayed, and with two other leagues, the Businessmen's and the Industrial, the game is due for a record reception this season.

CANADIAN OLYMPIC TEAM SAILS JUNE 20

Special Training Camps Will Be Established in the Meantime.

Canadian Press Despatch, Toronto, May 8.—The Canadian Olympic committee announced officially today that the track and field men would sail from Montreal on June 20 on the Montclair, the oarsmen on June 23 on the Minnedosa, and the boxers and swimmers on June 25. The training camp for track and field men will be held in Montreal from June 7 to 20.

The committee having discussed with the provincial representatives and Captain Cornelius, of Hamilton, the Olympic code, the question of the best use of his time to help bring together the material necessary for the training camp at Montreal, the following schedule has been adopted: Maritime Provinces, May 15, 17, 18; Montreal, May 19, 20, 21; Toronto, inter-scholastic games, May 24; Winnipeg, western trials, May 31 to June 4; Toronto, Ontario trials, June 7; Montreal, camp, June 7-20; Montreal, final Olympic trials, June 17-18.

A change has been suggested in the location of the finals for the one-man design yacht trials. The preliminaries will be held at St. John, N. B.

WHEAT'S CLOUTING MARK REACHES .575

Old-Fashioned Walloping and Pitching Strong Points of Dodgers.

By JOHN B. FOSTER. Copyright, 1924.

New York, May 8.—The merrie month of May has been enlivened for Brooklyn so far by the batting of Zack Wheat. He has been crowning the ball this past week at the rate of about .575. That is some stunt, even this early in the season, when players are supposed to be at their best in batting.

Incidentally it reminds the writer of an incident of his tour of the spring training camps. Visiting the Cincinnati Reds, he sat in on a players' argument about batting in general, and Babe Ruth in particular. Suddenly three veterans broke the silence at once to announce that Wheat was the hardest hitter in the National League. They opined that if he lived in Philadelphia he could put as many flies over the right field fence as Cy Williams.

Players of other teams in the southland coincided in this opinion. There seemed pretty general agreement that Wheat's wallop was the hardest his opponents had to stop. But even at that, there were no predictions heard that Wheat would bat better than .500, even for a week. Either there has been an especially agreeable lot of pitchers facing the veteran, or else he is coming into his own as a better batter than even he knew he was.

The better Wheat and the rest of the Brooklynans, the more dangerous the club becomes to the other pennant chasers, for there are pitchers on the team who can carry it along well if they only get a little support with the willow. The team doesn't run so much to science and strategy as it does to old-fashioned walloping and pitching. Such teams have won championships in the past, and if Brooklyn keeps on welding the bat as it has been doing, it may worry New York, Cincinnati and Pittsburgh a whole lot.

Where Brooklyn is most likely to fall down is in short scoring games, because the fielders are not as fast as they might be, and they must overcome that weakness by piling up runs to offset their opponents' gains.

BILL COOGANS LIKELY CHOICE TO HURL FOR LONDON TODAY

Football Team Apaches' Victims

Associated Press Despatch, Paris, May 8.—Sneak thieves today entered the dressing-room of the United States Olympic football team at the Colombes Olympic stadium and robbed the players of all their valuables, about 5,000 francs, and several hundred dollars in United States currency. The team tonight were disconsolate, especially over the loss of their jewelry, which included a number of watches and medals won in athletic tournaments, to which they attach much value.

ROMERO, CHILEAN HEAVY MAKES DEBUT TONIGHT

Fight With Johnson Is First of String of Elimination Bouts.

Associated Press Despatch, New York, May 8.—The first important battle of the heavyweight elimination series that will culminate in a championship fight for the survivor with Jack Dempsey in September takes place tomorrow night at Madison Square Garden, when Quintin Romero, rugged Chilean, makes his American debut in a ten-round match with Floyd Johnson, heavy-puncher.

Following this, on Monday, Harry Wills, giant negro, who has been signed by Tex Rickard for a long-awaited match with Dempsey, will be tested against Bartley Madden, veteran Irish heavyweight, in a fifteen-round contest at the Queensboro Stadium.

The outcome of both bouts will be watched with keen interest, particularly the showing of Romero, an untried product, who aspires to supplant Luis Firpo as South American contender, and Wills, who is out to prove his claim of being Dempsey's logical contender.

Wills is favored to knock out Mad-

Double-Header Probable Saturday If Weather Permits Game.

RISKY FOR HURLERS

The Tees and Wolves, who were washed out of a chance to resume their feud yesterday, were last night hoping the weather would clear, so they could get at each other this afternoon. Manager Jack Beatty will probably start Bill Coogans—at least, he thought so last night. Bill had almost decided to retire from baseball, and had so intimidated up to two weeks ago, when he suddenly announced he was reporting, and was as good as his word. Bill announced on his arrival in Three Rivers the day before the team left training camp that he had trained faithfully at his home in New York City, and his form shown in work-outs since has convinced Manager Beatty that Bill was telling the whole truth. Coogans has had his ups and downs in the league, especially last season, when he was called upon to do his regular pitching turn and, any off-time he had, play the outfield.

Frenchie Lehaie will likely be Punch Knoll's choice, as the portly Wolf leader has apparently got his hurlers working in rotation. The wolves had better training luck than the Indians, and have perhaps a slight edge on condition, especially where pitchers are concerned. Delman broke in nicely the other day, and some of the other northern pitchers will get their chance from now on. This kind of weather is a gamble with precious pitching arms, and nobody is more cognizant of that fact than Beatty.

If today's game is postponed it is likely a double-header will be played Saturday, as inadvisable as double-headers are at this stage of the campaign.

den, despite the latter's reputation for durability, but Johnson has been installed a favorite over Romero because of his superior speed and boxing ability.

WALLACEBURG ASSURED OF JUNIOR TOWN LOOP

Special to The Advertiser.
Wallaceburg, May 8.—At an enthusiastic meeting on Wednesday, which was attended by a large gathering of young lads eager to take part in the proposed town juvenile lacrosse league, it was decided to organize four teams, and register them under the O. A. L. A. Each team is to be limited to fourteen players, and the age limit was set at sixteen. Junior O. A. L. A. players entering this series and playing in one O. A. L. A. game will be ineligible to take any further part in the town league after, and any vacancies thus arising will be filled at the discretion of the four captains, which will form the executive, together with the convener and secretary.

Hugh Greenwood was elected convener of this group, and Donald Murdoch, Tom Miller, Glenn Mickle and George Dean managers of the four teams. Each of these will have till Friday to sign up their team, when a further meeting will be held to arrange the schedule. The W. A. A. will donate a silver cup for competition amongst these teams.

A. hockey sub-committee, which includes Cap Graham, chairman; Clay Gibson, Gore Marr and Harry Abeil.

TORIES TO BEGIN ACTIVE BATTLE WITH LABORITES

Will Move Adoption of Vote of Censure Against Labor Government.

START NEXT WEEK

By HAL O'FLAHERTY.

Special Cable to The Advertiser and the Chicago Daily News. Copyright.

London, May 8.—Conservative party leaders next week will begin an active campaign against the Labor government in the House of Commons. The first attack will take the form of a proposal to adopt a vote of censure against the government for its proposed abolition of duties on foreign motor cars, glassware, fabrics and gloves.

During the first few months of the Labor government's life the Conservative opposition followed a moderate policy, refraining from attacking the inexperienced cabinet except on major issues. This policy aroused intense dissatisfaction among the younger Conservatives, who insisted upon a continual attack at every opportunity. Their advice is now accepted by the older Tories, who intend bringing former ministers into the debates frequently and subjecting the Labor administration to the most searching criticism.

Hereafter, former Premier Baldwin, Austin Chamberlain, Sir Robert Horne and others will be found actively opposing the Labor proposals, even minor administrative acts, which hitherto have passed unnoticed. The Labor ministers continually taunt the Conservatives with their lack of courage, and declare the opposition is afraid to challenge the government, because an appeal to the electorate would mean another Labor gain.

It is possible that the Conservative attacks may soon take the form of a vote of lack of confidence, bringing about defeat of Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald. The Conservative leaders are organizing a country-wide drive to maintain high duties on foreign motors. They expect to enlist the aid of trades unions composed of motor manufacturing employers and to bring scores of delegations to London as a protest. Chancellor of the Exchequer Snowden stands his ground on his budget proposals, and refuses to alter the program even as a means of satisfying his own supporters.

Take No Action On Temperance

Women Voters To Hold Impartial Attitude.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Toronto, May 8.—By a majority vote the Toronto League of Women Voters, at a general meeting today, decided to maintain an impartial attitude on the temperance question. This action was taken on a communication from the Ontario Women's Christian Temperance Union inviting the co-operation of the league in the movement to support and preserve the O. T. A. In moving that no action be taken, Mrs. Edgar Jarvis stated that the question was a contentious one, upon which the members of the league held divergent views.

O.A.L.A. Quits A.A.U. of Canada

Announcement Is Made by Secretary of Executive.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Toronto, May 8.—It was announced tonight by Secretary Harcourt of the Ontario Amateur Lacrosse Association that he had been instructed by the executive to inform the Ontario branch of the A. A. U. of C. that the O. A. L. A. had withdrawn from affiliation. The question was thoroughly discussed at the annual meeting on Good Friday, when a motion to break away from the amateur body was left to the executive.

The trouble arose from the Ontario branch granting amateur cards to players who played professional soccer in the Old Country and Canada. The O. A. L. A., after the annual meeting, requested the Ontario branch to extend this privilege to other branches of sport, but the letter was ignored. Similar action is being discussed by enthusiasts and officers in two or three other lines of sport.

PARKHILL GUMPS TAKE SOFTBALL LEAGUE OPENER

Special to The Advertiser.

Parkhill, May 8.—Monday the Parkhill married men's softball league got away to a very auspicious start, when the Gumps beat the Buttercups, 19 to 9, in the opening game of the schedule. In spite of the cold wind, when the old-timers got warmed up they produced a sample of almost everything that could happen in a ball game. Errors were numerous on both sides. Pedlar, captain of the Gumps, was the batting star, with four home runs. Batteries — Gumps, Brown and Daules; Buttercups, Barrett and McPherson.

ST. JAMES WITHDRAWN FROM KENTUCKY DERBY

With Sarazen's Retirement As Well, Wise Counsellor Now Rules Favorite.

Associated Press Despatch.

New York, May 8.—The ranks of 3-year-old thoroughbreds preparing for the annual spring classics sustained another hard blow today when St. James, George D. Widener's, renowned colt, pulled up lame after a workout, and was withdrawn from the Preakness and Kentucky Derby, two $50,000 races in which he was among the favorites. Sarazen, noted Vanderbilt gelding, who was highly regarded for the Derby, was withdrawn after being defeated by the Rancocas stable's Bracadele. The withdrawal of St. James and Sarazen leaves Wise Counsellor, Kentucky crack, as the outstanding favorite for the Derby, but there have also been reports that this colt was not in the best of condition, following failure to start him at Pimlico yesterday.
