The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Metropolitan Toronto Reference Library
Languages & Literature Department

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper, left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Metropolitan Toronto Reference Library
Languages & Literature Department

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

[The words and music of this song might be got at
New York and Paris.]

On the banks of the Humber near the Junction,
It was there I bid my love a last good-bye,
Many years have passed since last I saw the Junction,
Many more will pass that — it makes me sigh.

CHORUS

Oh the moonlight's far to light along the street,
Towards the town there comes the sound of bells,
Through the subway there the 'lectric lights are gleaming.

On the street cars in all Junctions far away.

I'd love to see that old familiar waiting-room,
Where I waited many years to see a car —
But they say the Humber side is now near the street,
It is shining there just like the evening sun.

Oh the moonlight shines so bright on the water,
On the moon's happy face that is so bright,
Since all the cars have left the town in the night,
And the Humber side waiting near the water.

This and many more of our songs are available at hardware stores in Paris and Valley.

Many had a little care
That grew from love and care
And everywhere that they were
The town was sure to care

Mr. Frank— "Do you realize my dear that you have never done anything to save your fellowman and suffering?" Frank— "Didn't I marry you?"

Business Pressure— Watt— "Are you very busy at the bicycle works?" His Son— "Busy." Watt— "Why if I were to die to-morrow they'd expect me to go to work to-morrow and work until the hour set for the funeral."

Had Good Luck— "Do you know what happened to boys who let their hair grow?" News-boy— "Yes, when they get to be men they become politicians."

We don't believe there is any land in the Junction so poor that you couldn't raise a disturbance on it.

A dandy says: "All men are made of clay, and like Mohammedan idols, are more valuable when highly colored."

Boarder— "The cat seems very weak." Landlady— "It's the same with you. I feel weak myself, in fact everybody's weak."

CHICAGO ILLINOIS JUNCTION.

Would Be Safe.—A party of travellers, in a passenger coach were talking over their travelling experiences and the danger of accidents, and finally the question arose as to the safest part of the car. To settle the question among themselves they called the conductor and one of them said to him: "Doesn't for we have been discussing the matter of the safest part of the car and want to know your opinion?" "Want to know the safest part, eh?" replied the conductor. "Yes, that's it." "Well," continued the conductor after borrowing a chew of tobacco, "I've been on the road for fifteen years, and have been turned over backwards, dished up in tunnels, dinned, broken, belabored in collisions, blown about by cyclones, run into open switches, and the pleasant incidental diversions of accidents, and I should say, gentlemen, that the safest part of the car was the wheel, because it was the only part that didn't get repairs at the time of the accident. Toronto, Weston! Change cars for North and East!"

A Chastisement.—"I never was so salted in all my life!" she exclaimed. "What do you mean?" asked her dearest friend. "We were all in a row and he threatened to kiss me." "Well, if you were all alone and he didn't do it." "Oh, that's a brute!"

Dar's a town out west dat has got nineteen ob gals.

It was Freddy's first drink of soda water, and he was drinking it with perhaps undue eagerness, so that it caused a tingling sensation in his head. "Does it do you like it?" inquired his mother. "I don't know, but I shall try to get used to it," answered Freddy, a moment after, holding his nose as he did when he was a child. "It tastes like your first water."

May they add virtue to beauty; subtract from friendship; multiply available accomplishments
by earnestness of temper; divide time by economy,
and reduce scandal to its lowest denomination.

Here's a health to all those that I love,
And here's to all those that love me.
Here's a health to all those that love those that I love,
And here's to all those that love those that love me.

Here's a health to you and your's, who do so much for us and our's; and when we can do it in our power to do for you and your's, we your's love, do for us and our's, and we will do for you and your's what you and your's done for us and our's.

FRY ONE STRAIGHT.—Here's to the Toron-tion. May its fame, like its smoke, beauty, be as the sunny summer clouds.

"Toronto Junction, May 28th, 1900

"MY DEAR DICK,—

"Some time ago you advised me to have the famous Toronto Junction cigar for that great feeling of weariness that I get at once. I ran faster than I ever did in my life, but was overtaken by a man, I think, who I think must have taken two hours. Do you think if I had taken more I could have taken him? I will be of great value to me in the future.

"Yours very truly,

"HIT.

HONESTY.

"Honest? Well I should say he was. He actually refused to steal from the Government."

Before taking a Hutch, try the Toronto Junction Cigar, 5c. straight.

Fawcett—"What makes you so late?" Boy—"The teacher kept me in because I couldn't find Moscow on the map of Europe." Fawcett—"No wonder you couldn't find Moscow. It was burned down in 1812; the teacher's crazy."

AFRAID OF DISEASE

Doctor—"Why; are you going to leave simply because you have to talk through the telephone?"

Bridge—"Of course I am. Of don't want to be inhalin' the breath of them Toronto people all the time, do you?"

A reward is offered for the person caught using $10 bills for buying the Toronto Junction cigar.
