DEWART ELECTED IN SOUTHWEST TORONTO Allies Make Advances in Heavy Fighting Near Saloniki

DEWART IS ELECTED BY 643 LED A NEARLY EVERY POLL

Southwest Toronto Elects a Liberal for First Time After Bitter Fight—Conner and Waldron Nowhere.

The heart of Tory Toronto has turned. Dewart has converted a Conservative majority of 4,000 into a Liberal one of well over 500. He has snatched a seat which the Conservatives have held for twenty years.

The sweltering heat of the day depressed the vote. Where nearly 9000 turned out in 1914, under 5000 voted at this election. This was largely due to the early breakdown of the Conservative organization which soon became so depressed that it declined to call out many of its old stand-bys...

From early in the morning a feeling of optimism pervaded the Liberal camp. "I can't figure it any other way than that Dewart should get in by a handsome majority," said Ald. McGuire as he drove his car along Queen street, busy then as it had been all day in getting out the Liberal vote.

As soon as the earliest of the returns arrived at the returning officer's station at Broadway Hall, it became evident that Dewart was leading. It was a lead that was never in any doubt. After the returns were in, it was simply a matter of majority. Only in one way was there any chance for a Norris majority. That was in the upper Ward, where Dewart had approximately 328 for the new member and 840 for the Conservative nominee.

HAS JOINED ENTENTE?

Major Morath Makes Threats of What Teutons Will Do.

AMSTERDAM, via London, Aug. 22, 1:36 a.m.—The Roumanian situation is again taking the leading place in the news. Despatches from Berlin indicate that the relations of the Roumanian allies with Roumania are strained.

The Krieger Zeitung states that the negotiations which took place at Bucharest at the week-end between the Russian military attaché and the Roumanian secretary of war must be considered as proof that Roumania has joined the entente.

IN SOUTHWEST TORONTO

Never was there such a smearing of idols as in Toronto yesterday. Frank Cochrane and Wallace Nesbitt, the two principal champions of International Nickel, were smothered. So the Hearst government and Hearst, as the Cochrane nickel-plated premier of Ontario, Hearst knew what Cochrane wanted and he sat in with it. Nesbitt knew what he wanted and made Cochrane stand for it.

rather than as a solidarity. In the meantime the law must be respected and whatever it is must be enforced in its integrity. Mr. Hearst must resign or live up to it. So Mr. Lucas, so Mr. Ferguson, so Mr. McGarry, it is their measure. They cannot leave it on the doorstep and run as Mr. Lucas proposed. They must first resign.

The Hearst government, with its nickel policy and its five lawyers, four of village calibre: Hearst, Lucas, Ferguson, McGarry, Hanna, all walked into the shambles led by the sly fox Nesbitt.

To The World the main fight in Toronto, as it was in Peel and North York, turned on the war and the record of our public representatives. In the case of nickel, which had been going freely into the States and had been sent from there to Germany for the use of our German enemies. In parliament, in the press and on the platform, a number of men had directed attention to the nickel situation in this country and they gave arguments for the faith that was in them and for the changes in the law that they demanded.

Then there were the local members like Brothers Owens, McPherson, Godfrey. The doctor ordered W. F. Maclean to put on acetate and assist and up and humble himself before the Nickel Idol with the feet of clay. He didn't have to go.

But that did not go with the people. It was urged that if we had to send our nickel ore into the States for a time to be refined the metal so refined, should be sent back to Canada and distributed from here. The only answer ever made to this was, in that case how could munition makers in the States under contract to supply Britain and the allies deliver the goods? Simply by getting the nickel from Canada and distributing it from here.

As for the Borden government at Ottawa, they may continue to poke their head in the sand and neither hear nor see the portent. Everyone personally knows that Hon. Mr. Cochrane is now ill; but no one for that reason has to stand for his unpatriotic policy on nickel.

Those who advocated a nickel policy pointed to Australia in the case of zinc and suggested that we did the same; but this did not suit the government at Ottawa, the government at Toronto, or International Nickel or the papers in Canada that sided with them.

As for the Liberal party, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his lieutenants, they had better find out where they are on nickel, too, and how they can justify, if they ever can justify, the indifference of the liberals when they were in office in Toronto and at Ottawa to the patriotic duty of providing that the metal products of Canada should be used and only used for the development of Canada and in defence of the empire.

Even Mr. Rowell was mum when The World showed that the International Nickel Co. had evaded its just taxes, and when it was caught red-handed it was forgiven and a secret settlement was made. Known only to Mr. Hearst and Mr. Rowell for many a day. When the truth did come out, the new minister of mines, Mr. Ferguson said he was going to collect what they had evaded paying and was going to make them pay more in future. But the people did not accept this assurance and this is where it is today.

In fact there were more idols than ideals smashed in this country yesterday than have been smashed in many a day; and the indications are that new men, new leaders, a new platform have only to be put forward in order to command the support of the voters of Canada whenever an appeal is made to them.

But the fight in nickel is only beginning; it is an Ontario matter in many ways, it is a federal matter and an imperial matter in many ways; because if we can't conserve the use of our metals as against an enemy where we are to end? The war may only be beginning today; and there may be many days of struggle of one kind and another hereafter. And knowing as we know how Germany has corrupted and got control of most of the metal products of the world, now that we know it is not time we insisted on its ending once and for all.

Did prohibition figure in yesterday's election? Yes, a lot. But a man must be a strict believer in it to succeed in it. The more we have watched the fight the more we are convinced that Hearst and Rowell, the both may have been earnest believers in it, both thought to use it as a cloak for their unpatriotic agreement to let the nickel trust have a free hand in taking our metal out of Canada for the advantage of our German enemies.

The fashion in furs for the season, 1916 and 1917, dictates that a garment shall drape to the figure. Hudson Seal entirely meets all demands. It is a light fur, but warm and dresy. The styles for the coming season will run rather more to the trimmed designs than last winter, but both trimmed and plain Hudson Seal coats will be the vogue. STRONG PROTEST TO QUEEN'S PARK

NICKEL THE BIG ISSUE

W. F. Maclean Says Victory Will Be Heralded All Over Canada.

From the steps of The World building last night Hartley Dewart, K.C., the new member of the Ontario Legislature, delivered his message of thanks to the people of Southwest Toronto for returning him at the head of the poll.

HAD A MAJORITY IN EVERY WARD

Dewart Was Not Elected by the Foreign Vote Alone.

CONSERVATIVE VOTERS Favored Liberal Because of Policy of the Hearst Government.

Said a prominent Conservative last night who had taken quite a hand in the election of Mr. Dewart: "It is all very well to explain the victory away by saying it was the foreign vote that gave Mr. Dewart his majority, but if you examine the figures you will find that this is not the case. In North Parkdale, for instance, where there is a strictly British and Canadian vote, you will read that Mr. Dewart has a substantial majority; as in the divisions around Spencer and Cowan avenues." And the other important thing he pointed out was that Mr. Dewart had a majority in practically every ward and in most of the divisions, whether of many tongues or of plain English.

HUDSON SEAL STILL FASHIONABLE

The fashion in furs for the season, 1916 and 1917, dictates that a garment shall drape to the figure. Hudson Seal entirely meets all demands. It is a light fur, but warm and dresy. The styles for the coming season will run rather more to the trimmed designs than last winter, but both trimmed and plain Hudson Seal coats will be the vogue. Complete varieties are now on display in our show-rooms, W. & D. Dineen Company, 140 Yonge Street, Toronto, and 20 and 22 King Street West, Hamilton.

WAR SUMMARY THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

THE general allied offensive in the Balkans has been finally declared, and in attacking the enemy on the whole 150-mile front the British, French and Serbians have advanced on both their right and left wings. It appears that the previous fighting was preliminary to the launching of the assaults. The French War Office issued a communication last night to announce the opening of this offensive. That document says that the attacks were begun by the allies on the entire front on Sunday, August 20. The right wing, consisting of French and British troops, has forced the crossing of the Struma River and is attacking the enemy on the Kavakli-Kalenta-Topalava front, northwest of Seres. Contact has been established with a position at Barakli, strongly held by the enemy and situated five miles southwest of Demirhisar. The allied centre is engaged in violent artillery actions on the southern slope of Beles Mountain, and on both banks of the Vardar. On the section between Lake Doiran and the Vardar the British are consolidating the positions captured the preceding day. The allied left wing, consisting of Serbians troops, operating in the mountainous region between the Cerna and the Moglicana Rivers, has taken the Bulgarians' first line trenches on the Kikurg heights and has captured the forts of Kaimakalar. On the extreme left the Serbians were forced to retire back.

"This is The New Mode," Says Dame Fashion

This is interesting

To look modish in New York these days—they have had some incredibly cool weather there—your gown must be of navy serge and your hat of purple velvet. This blue tailored dress, in fact, is the medium fashion has chosen for the launching of the new mode of the straight line. Worth is exploiting this new silhouette in the loosely belted Russian blouse. Callot Soeurs and other designers of like fame achieve it in the long-waisted, semi-fitting bodice of the Moyen Age. Skirts are still full, but they are no longer urged to flare; nay, rather are they oftentimes laid in the flattest of pleats.

Latest Suits Favor Redingote Lines

With a Fondness for Deep Sailor-like Collars and a Positive Obsession for Fur Trimmings

SOFT SUPPLE MATERIALS, dark, warm colors, and the long, graceful line of the Redingote—so runs the story of the new tailored suits.

Wool velours is the fabric of chief interest, with gabardine and serge claiming a generous share of favor, and broadcloth presenting itself for costumes of the more formal type. Deep Java brown, midnight blue, plum purple and soft, dark tones of green are the modish shades.

And of such materials is the advance showing of Autumn models now on view in the Suit Department—beautifully tailored costumes comfortably interlined, and, for the most part, charmingly finished with fur.

The waistline of the coats is defined by stitching, braiding, pockets, or flat belt, the lengths ranging from 36 to 42 inches. As for the collars, they stretch out wide across the shoulders at the back or hang down low in square or rounded sailor effect. Some of them are in flat shawl style in front. Others may be fastened up close to the throat.

Moleskin, Hudson Seal (Seal Rat) and other short furs, together with skunk, are the favorite peltries for the trimming of these suits, and lavishly are they employed for collars, cuffs, and oftentimes the bordering of the coats.

Skirts are a trifle longer, the majority of them showing yokes of some smart sort.

TWO BRANTFORD HEROES RETURN

Capt. Creighton and Pte. Lorne Watson Welcomed by Friends.

TO PRESENT COLORS

Second Brant County Unit Will Receive Gift on Saturday.

Special to The Toronto World. BRANTFORD, Aug. 21.—Two more Brantford heroes have returned from the front. Capt. Walter Creighton of the 60th Battalion, Montreal, and Pte. Lorne Watson of the P.F.C.L.E., Capt. Creighton is a son of Mrs. M. A. Creighton of this city and received several wounds, all the result of an explosion of one shell. Chief of these were severe injuries to the left leg back of the knee, Pte. Watson was stricken with acute bronchitis and pleurisy. He left here in March of this year with the 5th University Corps, and has spent practically all his time in hospitals and convalescent homes.

week-end and five men who were secured for the 215th Battalion left today for Camp Niagara. One of these was Dolly Rudolph, a member of the Con. T. Kennedy shows, which spent the past week here, while another is John McWhirter, who came all the way from Scotland to join the unit and be with his brother, who is prominently connected with the band. The others are of English, Italian and American nationality. The 215th is the city battalion, recruiting here at present, the Sarniam office closing this morning. The two energetic recruiters of small men, Ptes. Maurice and Halsey, have left to take charge of recruiting depots in London and Windsor respectively.

Answered Three False Alarms. Three times within two hours the firemen of the central station answered calls from the Holmeville district, all of which turned out to be false alarms. The police are working on the case. A man was seen to pull one of the boxes and run away, and a police court case will likely result.

Canned Goods Advance. The cost of living continues to soar higher. This morning the announcement was made that all lines of canned goods had advanced and that in future goods which formerly retailed for three cents for 25 cents would sell for two for 25 cents. Potatoes are also at an abnormal figure. One lady reports having paid 60 cents for a peck, and upon counting these there was found to be only 58 in the peck, which makes the price a little over a cent each.

The 215th Battalion will next Saturday be presented with their colors at Niagara Camp by the Bishop of Huron, according to a statement made

YOUNG MAN DROWNED BY HIS FATHER'S SIDE

George Caron, Detroit, Met Death While Bathing at Goderich.

Special to The Toronto World. GODERICH, Aug. 21.—The second drowning fatality of the season to occur here took place at 4 o'clock this afternoon, when George Fee Caron, son of Dr. Caron, M.D., of Detroit, Mich., went to a watery grave in Lake Huron, opposite the Hotel Sunset Beach.

The young man and his father were bathing together. They swam a short distance out into the lake and were returning when the accident occurred. Young Caron is thought to have choked on a mouthful of water and sunk before his father could reach his side. His body was recovered some time after by willing hands, who hurried to the scene with the grappling apparatus.

The beach opposite the hotel is an ideal spot for bathing and has always been considered one of the safest spots along the shore and it was not due to any treachery of the water that the accident occurred. He was 22 years of age. The remains will go to Detroit tomorrow.

WANT PRESIDENT'S ACCOUNT ITEMIZED

Sunshine Executive Replies to Mrs. Roade's Statement.

WERE NOT CONSULTED

Five Members of Committee Also Tender Resignations.

In view of the statements and comments which have appeared in the press in regard to the Sunshine Circle, the five undersigned members of the executive feel that such statements should not go unchallenged, and to that end wish to make the following statement, which is signed individually by the members of the executive committee, who have tendered their resignations. The resignations of three of these were presented to the last meeting of the circle, and those of Mrs. Jackson, treasurer, and Mrs. Hugh Martin, recording secretary, have since been sent to the president. This statement would have been issued earlier but for the absence from the city of one of the members.

In the first place, Mrs. Roade states that a full report and itemized statement was read at the meeting referred to. We, as members of the executive committee, consider that the statement should have been more fully itemized, at least in regard to an item of $25 used by the president to cover her personal expenses.

The president did ask if anyone wished to ask any questions regarding the statement, and no questions were asked. This was due to the fact that those present were aware that the accounts covering expenses had been paid by the authority and instruction of the president, and that nothing would be gained by any discussion as to the policy of incurring such expenses.

Mrs. Roade stated that "the women who worked the hardest for it took it like soldiers." This is quite true of the workers, as their incentive was to make the affair a financial success for the object in view.

In her statement, Mrs. Roade makes reference to the success of the "Bazaar of the Allies" at the Fairview, at which $4000 was made. The success of this bazaar was due to the fact that the president worked in harmony with the executive and brought it to a successful conclusion, while in connection with the fête, the only matter on which the president consulted the executive was the location of the booths and tents.

The order for the illumination of the grounds, the hire of a motor car for the president, and various other items of expense were contracted by her on her own responsibility; and in regard to the heavy bill for illumination of the grounds, she acknowledged she did not even get tenders. When asked by one of the members of the executive what the lighting was going to cost, she promptly answered that it was nobody's business but her own, that it was her fête and she was going to run it.

Next, in her statement Mrs. Roade speaks about her plan of raising money for an automobile, and states there was not a dissenting voice at the meeting Mrs. Roade announced that she and a member of the McLaughlin Motor Company, accompanied by two lady newspaper reporters, drove to Ottawa, and made arrangements for the purchase of two automobiles; one to be raffled, and the proceeds would pay for the second car to be personally used by Mrs. Roade to take out convalescent soldiers. There was a dissenting voice, as one member suggested taking part of the surplus from the fête to buy a car and presenting it to one of the convalescent homes.

This, however, the president did not agree to, as she stated she had several thousand raffle tickets printed and at the meeting ready for distribution. All this was done without the knowledge or sanction of the members of the Sunshine Circle.

The offers of assistance were very few, as the meeting was not a representative one. The president made an announcement regarding the raffle, stating that if the members of the Sunshine Circle wished to cooperate with her it was their privilege, and if not she would go ahead and run it herself, and we as members of the executive can state positively that she got no authority whatsoever from the Sunshine Circle to conduct the raffle under its auspices.

After the business of the meeting was concluded, the resignations of three members of the executive were read. These were not accepted unanimously, as stated by the president, and these officers are still vacant. Further, the president asked several members to act as corresponding secretary pro tem, but no one would consent to act. Since then she has appointed as secretary a stenographer of a down-town office, who is not even a member of the circle.

again without any authority from the circle. In her closing remarks she stated that the three members had their resignations in before the financial statement was read. This is incorrect, as they were not read until the meeting was about to be adjourned. These three resignations were not sent in on account of the motor raffle, but as a protest against the high-handed actions of the president, who assumed obligations in connection with the Oakland fête which should not have been undertaken without the approval of the executive.

The above statement is signed by the executive committee. Mrs. James Casey, vice-president; Mrs. J. P. Patterson, cor.-secretary; Mrs. Hugh W. Martin, rec.-secretary; Mrs. W. R. Jackson, treasurer; Mrs. R. A. Walker, member of executive.

ROAD INSPECTORS RIDE IN FRONT VESTIBULE

Patrons of Street Railway Register Another Complaint.

Objections are being made by patrons of the Toronto Street Railway to road inspectors riding on the front platform of street cars. It is alleged that these men get on the car by the front door and stand in the front vestibule, blocking the exit and also shutting off the only cool breeze that comes thru the car from the front windows.

It has been stated in extremely frank terms that Manager Fleming would do well to consider this matter and that if the officers of the company are tired they should, at least during the hot weather, ride on the rear platform.

WAR LOAN REPORTS ARE AUTHORIZED

Sir Thomas White Makes Statement Regarding Details.

Sir Thomas White, minister of finance, who was in Toronto yesterday, said that all press and other reports purporting to state the length of term, price and place of payment of the coming war loan, were premature and unauthorized. These details will not be settled until just before the prospectus is issued which will probably be about the middle of September, after the heat of summer is over and the holidaying public have returned to their homes and business.

SPENDING BIG SUM ON SCHOOL REPAIRS

Hundred and Thirty Thousand Being Used by Board of Education.

READY FOR REOPENING

Regular Staff Now Engaged in Brightening Up Different Rooms.

One hundred and thirty thousand dollars is some repair bill. Yet this is the amount the board of education are expending this year on keeping the schools of Toronto in repair and condition.

Until five or six years ago the great bulk of this repairing and renovation was done during the midsummer vacation. Now however a regular staff is employed the year round and a great deal of the work is done as opportunity offers thruout the year. The painters and decorators, for instance, visit the schools in rotation and rooms needing kalsomining are regularly done after school hours during the term.

Ready for Reopening. However, the summer vacation still offers a splendid opportunity to attend to the larger repairs, outside painting, and so forth. Early in September the reopening of the schools will show them spick and span, with all the little things that were not quite right last July and August.

Bariscount School property has been beautified by the erection of an ornamental iron fence along the front of the grounds. This was started on some time ago, but prevailing conditions caused numerous delays, but it is now completed and gives the school a finished appearance that was previously lacking.

New planking and additional improved lavatories have been installed in the Grace Street School. New steps are at the entrance to the building and the fence around the grounds has been replaced where necessary, and repaired in other places. Inside, the rooms and halls have been brightened and freshened up with kalsomine. Domestic Science Outfit. Lee School has been equipped with a novel domestic science outfit. In addition to kitchen, dining-room and sewing apparatus, a special laundry equipment has been put in, in which the women of tomorrow, taking domestic science at this school, may learn all the arts and secrets of washing and ironing.

The school yards at Alexandra, Reginald Road and Essex Schools have received special attention and will afford the youngsters greater opportunity for recreation. The retaining wall on the Rhodes avenue side of Roden School has been completed and an ornamental iron fence will be erected along the top of this wall. The wall completes the street front and improves the grounds of this large school in the east end of the city.

Oil-burning apparatus has been installed in the Earl Grey School on Jones avenue, and next winter the school will be heated by the burning of crude oil instead of coal. This is the first school in Toronto to use oil as fuel, and may lead to its adoption in future school buildings.

Other schools are receiving whatever attention is necessary to have them in the best possible shape for the opening of the coming school year. Many men are engaged in this work, including masons, painters, carpenters, ornamental iron and metal workers, cabinet workers and electricians.

TUESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 22.

Democratic Conservatives or Conservative Autocrats?

What is the political and party significance of the election in Southwest Toronto? This is a question which must be considered apart from the cardinal issues of nickel and the hydro-electric policy upon which the debate was decided. Truly the Conservatives elected Mr. Dewar, the Liberal candidate, but they did it by many of them deciding to stay at home. Mr. Dewar only polled 87 more votes than the Liberal candidate at the last election, while the Conservative vote fell 3680 below its former record. There is a reason. There are several reasons. In fact, as investigation proceeds, there turn out to be abundance of reasons. There is one definite fact standing out in a party sense which can no longer be ignored. The leaders at Queen's Park have not the gift of leadership.

They were warned about Peel and they did not mind the warning. They acted as in the days of the degeneracy of the Ross government fourteen years ago. Premier Ross was warned and heeded not. Premier Hearst has been warned; Hon. Mr. Ferguson has been warned; Hon. Mr. Cochrane has been warned. They heed no either.

They cannot see as other men see; or if they see they refuse to take heed. Hearing they hear not; seeing they see not. Candid friends are regarded as enemies. Public sentiment and opinion and welfare are ignored. The Conservative party of Ontario is composed of men, for the most part, of intelligence and a reasonable regard for the public welfare. The people of Ontario are long suffering. Premier Ross mistook long-suffering for loyalty, and the Hearst ministry has fallen, misled by Hon. Frank Cochrane, and in the same error. There was no possible excuse for the high-handed action taken after the death of Sir James Whitney in imposing Mr. Hearst on the party as premier without consultation or reference. The members were practically a unit for a caucus, and for having the succession to the leadership decided in democratic fashion, but Hon. Frank Cochrane was not to be denied. Mr. Hearst was saddled on the party. Of course the members were to blame for submitting. A revolt then would have meant a healthy party today. Submission then meant the disintegration which stares the party in the face now.

The imposition of Mr. Hearst upon the party was the beginning of the betrayal of the party principles. Thus it was betrayed at Sir James Whitney's death. It was betrayed again in thrusting Mr. W. K. McNaught out of North Toronto by rag methods and machine rule. It was betrayed in the anti-Beck hydro-electric policy. It was betrayed in the autocratic domination of the affairs of the party, and once again it has been betrayed in Southwest Toronto as in Peel and Perth. The Crawford, the Soady, the Norris, men of no weight or public purpose but of making the party a means to office do not inspire the people at large nor the decent and thoughtful Conservatives who found in Sir James Whitney standards of which they need not feel ashamed when they went outside their own province or crossed the seas. Where the present government are right they have stuck fast by the Whitney standards, where they have gone wrong they have varied from them. Sir James motto was "Trust the people."

When Sir James Whitney saw the tide in the affairs of Ontario that called for decision, he summoned a convention of the whole party. A platform was adopted in that democratic gathering, and the party went forward to victory. The plans in that platform have all been exhausted long ago, built up into the constitution of the province. It is high time for a new policy, a new platform, new leaders. The present man-

TORONTO BATTALIONS ARRIVED IN ENGLAND

Royal Grenadiers, "Pals," and Highlanders Crossed Atlantic in Safety.

OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED

Brantford and Soo Battalions Have Also Reached Port.

OTTAWA, Aug. 21.—It is officially announced, thru the chief press censor's office, that the following troops have arrived safely in England: The 123rd Toronto Battalion, the 119th South Sea Islands Battalion, the 124th Highlanders, Toronto; the 125th Brantford Battalion, No. 4 Tunneling Company, signaling draft, Ottawa; drafts and details.

The 123rd Battalion (Royal Grenadiers) left Niagara camp and passed thru Toronto on the 19th, was commanded by Lieut.-Col. W. B. Kingsmill. The battalion was given a rousing send-off. This battalion is composed almost entirely of Toronto men and officers.

The 124th (Pals) Battalion, of which Lieut.-Col. Vaux Chadwick is the commanding officer, followed the 123rd Battalion thru Toronto on Aug. 3. It was one of the first battalions to leave Camp Borden, and took with it a record of being recruited in three weeks. Like the 123rd Battalion the "Pals" were given a cheery send-off. The battalion passed thru Toronto in two sections. Like the 123rd, Lieut.-Col. Chadwick's battalion is made up almost entirely of Toronto men.

McMaster Scholarships

Matriculation scholarships offered by McMaster University were competed for on the recent departmental examinations, this being the second year in which these scholarships have been offered for competition. Ordinarily the scholarships are divided into two groups offered for pass junior matriculation and honor matriculation, but this year, owing to the large number of candidates writing pass matriculation, who exceeded the minimum requirement of 75 per cent, average, a number of the scholars were transferred from the honor group to the pass group. The scholarships are all of equal value, each one carrying free tuition through the university course and $100 in cash, a total value of $800.

The winners of the pass scholarships are as follows: H. P. Fine, Jarvis St. Collegiate, Toronto; the D. E. Thomson Scholarship, H. Rosenberg, Jarvis St. Collegiate, Toronto; the James B. H. Scholarship, Miss J. Wright, Dundalk High School, Dundalk, Ont.; the S. J. Moore Scholarship, S. Appel, Jarvis St. Collegiate, Toronto; the W. C. Edwards Scholarship, D. J. Russell, Woodstock Collegiate, Woodstock, Ont.; the Albert Matthews Scholarship, L. C. Kitchen, Harbord Collegiate, Toronto; the G. C. Edwards Scholarship, L. Lavine, Jarvis St. Collegiate, Toronto; the F. Sanderson Scholarship, L. Weintraub, Jarvis St. Collegiate, Toronto; the Isabella Campbell McNeice Scholarship, The Wheeler Scholarship is awarded for general proficiency in honor matriculation, and is won by Harold Lang of Berlin, Ont. The standings taken by Mr. Lang in his various departments are as follows: English, II; French, I; mathematics, II; Latin, I; French, I; Greek, II; science, II.

Mr. Maguire's Success

One very notable event in the election is the appearance of a new Liberal leader in the person of Alderman Maguire. While Mr. Dewar was the elected candidate, in some very notable respects it is some Alderman Maguire's election. As a campaign speaker he was a notable success and never failed to arouse enthusiasm by his pointed and apt appeals. His organizing abilities have long been recognized and his party must recognize his quality.

ALLEGED FORTUNE TELLERS.

Three People Taken Into Custody by Police.

Yesterday afternoon the morality representatives round up three people who they alleged were telling fortunes. Officers Korr and Boyd arrested Professor Ed. Monsell, 618 Manning avenue, and Professor O'Brien, 233 Major street, while Policewoman Leavitt took Mary Chambers of Wood street into custody.

When the police arrived at Monsell's office they found a number of cards which they allege customers were made to sign before they could see their hands read. Following is a copy of the agreement on the card which frequenters were asked to sign: I do hereby give my word of honor, and would swear on oath if requested, that I am not in any way whatever connected with the police department, neither have I been sent by anyone connected with the police to have my fortune told for the purpose of possessing evidence against Mr. Monsell. I admit he never told my fortune in any way whatever; he just merely entertained me with read what is printed on the cards, and delineated the lines in my hands according to his method.

MILITIA TAKING PROMINENT PART

Model Camp and Other Features to Be Shown at Exhibition.

OVERSEAS TROOPS

New Drill and Physical Training Every Night Before Grand Stand.

Exhibition history shows that the military, which of late years has taken such a prominent part in the spectacles and other special features at the Canadian National, did not always stand in the same high esteem of the management as at present. For example, in the function of 1888 the records of the Exhibition go to show that the imperial troops, then stationed in Toronto, were admitted as visitors only "in squads or companies of not more than one hundred at a time." The grounds were then located on the south of the asylum grounds on King street, which the air continued to occupy until 1878, when part of the present site was occupied for the first time. In the days mentioned, the Exhibition was held at a temporary institution, coming to Toronto every four years, and was under the management of the Agricultural and Arts Society, provincial government body.

After Toronto revolted against the old arrangement and decided to have its independent exhibition, the military came into its own, and ever since 1879 the local militia and regular forces from the local garrison have been taking a large part in the annual entertainment. The veterans of 1855, on their return from the northwest, were the first large detachments to take part in the Exhibition under the new arrangement. They then the men wearing the King's colors and the patriotic lessons to the grand stand crowds.

More particularly has this been the case since the world war opened. Last year the King's colors were prominent and this year the same conditions will apply. As compared with the situation in 1879, the 1916 exhibition will find several hundred men stationed permanently in the Model Camp, while the grandstand spectacles, "The Federation of the Empire" will be almost entirely military. In addition every overseas man in khaki carrying a pass from Camp Borden or other mobilization centre will be given free admission to the grounds. It has already been placed in all the camp orders on instructions of F. B. McCurdy, the acting minister of militia and defence.

Yesterday afternoon the morality representatives round up three people who they alleged were telling fortunes. Officers Korr and Boyd arrested Professor Ed. Monsell, 618 Manning avenue, and Professor O'Brien, 233 Major street, while Policewoman Leavitt took Mary Chambers of Wood street into custody.

When the police arrived at Monsell's office they found a number of cards which they allege customers were made to sign before they could see their hands read. Following is a copy of the agreement on the card which frequenters were asked to sign: I do hereby give my word of honor, and would swear on oath if requested, that I am not in any way whatever connected with the police department, neither have I been sent by anyone connected with the police to have my fortune told for the purpose of possessing evidence against Mr. Monsell. I admit he never told my fortune in any way whatever; he just merely entertained me with read what is printed on the cards, and delineated the lines in my hands according to his method.

EARLY in September, the main Toronto Branch of this bank, which has been for many years located at 34 Yonge Street, will remove to more commodious offices at the Corner of Yonge and Colborne Streets. The development of the Yonge Street Branch has necessitated this move, and the Bank has secured a long lease of the premises formerly occupied by the Traders' Bank of Canada. The Building, which was designed by Messrs. Carrere & Hastings, the celebrated New York firm of Architects, will hereafter be known as the Bank of Hamilton Building. The offices which are finished in marble and bronze, will be suitably decorated and every convenience will be provided for depositors and general public. The accompanying illustrations will serve to show the general appearance of the new home of the Main Toronto Branch.

Help—In the Name of Humanity

Help the sufferers from the terrible forest fires in Northern Ontario.

Hundreds of families are suffering, and must be aided quickly.

They need, at once, food, clothing and shelter.

We are rushing supplies to them as fast as possible, but, to keep up the good work, we need money.

So we ask you, in the Name of Humanity, to give something to help these brave pioneer-spirited men, women and children to rehabilitate themselves and re-establish their homes.

An individual appeal will not be made for the present. The Dominion and Ontario Governments have already contributed $200,000.00, and we must rely upon the municipalities and the general public to do their share.

And give NOW—TO-DAY.

Subscriptions should be made payable to T. BRADSHAW, Commissioner of Finance, Toronto, Treasurer.

Northern Ontario Fire Relief Committee

F. D. TOLCHARD, Toronto Board of Trade, Secretary.

ARTHUR HEWITT, President Toronto Board of Trade Chairman.

At the opening of a band of the Grenadier Guards is seen approaching; the duty guard is being mounted and sentries placed at the war office by detachment of the guards. The yeoman call it a bit of old London, historical occasions, appearing and take up their positions on the parade grounds.

Enter the Bands.

The bands of the Gordon Highlanders, Irish Brigade and Life Guards arrive and take up their positions, followed by detachments of the British and Dominion overseas troops, being played from their different camps by the pipers, bugle and drum bands. The generals enter from their conferences at the war office to witness the trooping of the King's colors, an event in which the following regiments will take part: Grenadier Guards, Highlanders, Naval Brigades, Irish Rifles, Bengal Lancers, West India Regiment, Strathis Menzies, Hongkong police, Somaliland chiefs, South Wales Lancers, South Africa.

The Boy Scouts, carrying emblems of 72 overseas dominions or colonies of the British Empire, will form a background for the national dancers of England, Ireland and Scotland, symbolizing the imperial part women have taken in the service of the empire. The scouts and girls march off to the tune of "When Tommy Comes Marching Home Again."

There will be a display of gun drill and a sculling by the Naval Brigade, showing what a handy man Jack is ashore. The Canadians come on the scene and 72 sailor boys will unfurl the largest Union Jack ever shown in Canada, solemnly putting a great loyal seal on "Federation" just proclaimed.

As the scene darkens down the service of praise begins in Westminster Abbey. The chimes peal forth and the choir break into psalms of thanksgiving, and the procession of the choir boys in get a glimpse of the troops march past on the track, the climax being reached in a grand display of "Federation Year" fireworks.

TARTAREAN LANDED CANADIAN HANDICAP

Large Fields and Ideal Conditions at Windsor—Lady Mexican Pays Big Price.

WINDSOR, Aug. 21.—Tartarean won the Canadian Handicap, the feature of today's card, with spitter second and Lady Curzon third. Racing conditions were ideal and the fields were large. Robinson and Hayes won two races each. Lady Mexican in the sixth paid $85.50 for $2.

Tartarean, owned by Charles Miller of Toronto and coupled with Fair Montague in the betting, won the Canadian Handicap by a length from Spitzer. With Lady Curzon a third of a length behind, Tartarean was closed shortly entering the home stretch and was going away at the post. Spitzer was forwardly commencing all the way, but weakened after taking the lead in the final drive. Tartarean broke slow and met with interference at the first turn, but finished stoutly. Fair Montague was forwardly commencing at the start, moved up into the lead round the far turn and just lasted long enough to beat Samuel K. Meyer a nose. The latter broke very slow, but closed strong and would have won in another stride. Tartarean broke slow and was closed back at the start, moved up stoutly entering the stretch but weakened in the last sixteenth and dropped into third place, a length behind Samuel K. Meyer.
