Opening Announcement

TO SAINT JOHN HOUSEWIVES:—

Following out our recognized programme, to give the utmost in service, it is with pleasure we announce that we have instituted a

HOME SERVICE DEPARTMENT

At Gas Range Headquarters, corner of Dock and Union streets, under the expert direction of Miss Grace Jo Mason, who, following an intensified university course, has had several years of practical experience in Home Service Work.

This Department, which will be a permanent one, will be opened on Tuesday afternoon, next, at Gas Range Headquarters, when Miss Mason will hold her first class. All Saint John Housewives are cordially invited to be present—at 3 o'clock sharp.

COURSES FOR BETTER COOKING

This department is to assist the Housewife in correcting any little difficulty she may have with her Gas Range and to help her to secure the best results. Incidentally, the efficiency resulting, means smaller gas bills.

Ladies who are not as yet using gas for cooking, are equally as welcome to take this course. Better cooking and cheaper cooking is of prime importance to every Housewife these days.

Everyone will be served. Recipes given. Questions answered. Please be on time—3 o'clock next Tuesday afternoon.

EVERY HOUSEWIFE IS INTERESTED IN THIS

Miss Mason will give: Lessons in practical cooking and dinner giving. How to cook with Gas and why. How to reduce the size of your Gas bill. Lessons in making the kitchen efficient. How to make left-overs palatable. Cooking advice for the young bride. How and what to buy and serve.	Salads, sandwiches and chafing dish dainties. Candies. Meatless cooking. What to serve the family, and why meat substitutes. The things mother used to make. Practical cooking and serving. Beverages.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., MAY 15, 1925.

RIDER HAGGARD. Sir R. H. Rider Haggard, who died yesterday in London, will be remembered in Saint John as having given this city a sharply increased sense of the gravity of the war a few days after it began. The famous writer made a speech here at that time, somewhat reluctantly expressing his estimate of the conflict which had scarcely started. Many here and elsewhere throughout the world, after the first shock of the news, were inclined to favor the easy and hopeful view that a long struggle was impossible, owing to various causes. They had heard much said to the effect that a real world war could not be financed, and that the deadly character of modern weapons would in itself limit the duration of the struggle. The declaration of war had been followed by many too many optimistic forecasts to the effect that Germany would soon be crushed between the Russians in the East and the other Allies in the West.

Sir Rider Haggard's words, spoken slowly and with an almost tragic conviction of the extreme gravity of the outlook, were depressing but charged with real vision. He sensed the war tragically fully, and, weighing his words, he brought out the full menace of the struggle to the British Empire, saying at the end, "If Britain falls, Canada falls." There followed a little later the great victory of the Marne, which gave rise again to a too great optimism. Then began the trench warfare, and the long, slow struggle, while Britain was mobilizing its new armies and the overseas Dominions were pouring men into France in answer to the call of the flag and the cause. Many of us still recall Sir Rider Haggard's grim estimate of the struggle and realize how fully events had justified his words.

While he was deeply interested and highly informed concerning agriculture and played a considerable part in promoting that industry at home and in the overseas Dominions, and in furthering agricultural immigration, Sir Rider will be remembered chiefly for his fiction. He gave the English-speaking world a series of novels, in the early eighties and up to 1894, which were read with intense interest. These included "Dana," "She," "King Solomon's Mines," and many another which introduced a new note and which were marked by imagination, picturesque and vivid force.

TARIFF VOTES. The Progressive amendment calling for an immediate downward revision of the tariff was defeated in the Commons yesterday by a majority of twenty-seven, which included fourteen Progressives and eleven of the Conservatives. The membership of the House is 235, and only 141 votes were in a great many of the Conservatives being absent. A few days ago in the main budget motion was the House eighteen of the progressives voted in support of the illustration. This led to a Progress caucus, at which Mr. Forke and as attempted to set up a more party discipline, but yesterday's indicates that the Government is upon which Mr. Forke can depend on occasions is smaller than was said.

Yesterday's vote was the first division at this session on the issue of a reduction in the tariff. Conservative amendment some ago was designed to secure a reduction in the tariff, but progressive vote against it. Most progressive vote against it, giving the Government a majority of 116, but when the main was put all of the Progressives voted against the Government. Its majority was thirty. Yesterday the Progressives set up the straight issue of reduction of the tariff by proposing that the policy of protection be maintained in the present has increased the cost of living production, and has failed to adequate revenues or to prevent depression in trade and industry. The Progressives demanded on of the tariff based on the of revenue instead of on the of protection, to reduce the living and to place our industry on a permanent sound basis. Yesterday this did not command any five support, and, as has been urged of the Progressives Government in voting it. As far as the present House of is concerned, the various show that a very large of the members are opposed a movement toward free toward higher protection.

Canada wants immigrants, but by no means indiscriminate immigration.

It needs workers, from British and Scandinavian countries chiefly, and a great number of them, but it does not need and does not invite alien of the sort whose presence constitutes a fraternal problem. The immense reduction in the stream of immigration to the United States is bound to make it much easier for Canada to secure settlers and still exercise prudence in excluding those of undesirable type and races.

The Commissioner of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police has been telling the International Police Conference, at its New York meeting, that the heroic, sleek, long-haired Mounties seen in the moving pictures are not true to life. What he means is that the generally admirable men of the famous force are well disciplined and effective policemen and not moving picture heroes. That was suggested by some people before the Commissioner made his announcement.

The new trade treaty between Canada and the Netherlands and Dutch possessions was given its first reading in the House of Commons yesterday. Hon. Mr. Robb was asked by Hon. Mr. Meighen and Dr. MacLaren whether going to Canada under the new treaty would have to come through Canadian ports in order to receive the concessions provided for in the pact. The Minister said he believed that such would be the case, but promised to make sure of it if the present wording of the treaty leaves any doubt.

Appeal Fails Before The Privy Council
LONDON, May 14.—The judicial committee of the privy council today dismissed the appeal in the case of Wing Lee vs. Lew with costs.
The parties to the action were Chinese residents of Vancouver, B. C., and malicious prosecution and false arrest. The interesting point in connection with the appeal was that the appellant today with Premier MacKenzie King and Hon. J. A. Robb, acting minister of finance, E. W. Tobin, M. P., introduced the delegation. While no official announcement was made afterwards, it was stated that the government was urged to put the proposed Australian treaty into effect at an early date.

SMALL CUTS ARE DANGEROUS

AT this season of the year many children shed their shoes. Playing in the streets, alleys or yards there is constant danger of cuts from glass, tin, old pieces of metal, or of having their feet pierced by rusty nails. Many mothers do not realize the danger that lies in small cuts. Blood poisoning may result from a very slight wound. Hundreds of deaths occur every year because of carelessness in the care of a slight cut.

If the wound has been made by a nail or a splinter, be sure the piercing object is removed. Do not touch the wound with unclean hands. And do not permit unclean cloths to touch it. Open the wound with a knife, and permit it to bleed freely, and then saturate it with a solution of carbolic acid, one teaspoonful to a pint of water. Peroxide of hydrogen or iodine is good.

Adventures of the Twins

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON.

THE FLAMINGO GETS A KNOT IN HIS NECK. "What's the matter with you, air?" flamingo. "Anybody who would do asked Doctor Bill as a large red bird came walking up to his front door and lifted the knocker with his bill. 'I have a cramp in my neck,' said the red bird—'or rather the pink bird, for he was really more of a deep pink than he was red. 'Just wait until I get it out,' it took my wife and my sister-in-law and my uncle half of 'estoday and all of last night trying to untie it. Finally at daylight this morning they got it out, but my neck was so stiff I could hardly move it, besides I was almost starved to death. It's very hard to swallow a wiggling fish when you have a hard knot tied in your neck. Did you ever try it?'"

FLAPPEE FINNAY SAYS

A KISS in the dark can silence two people; a kiss in broad daylight can start a whole city talking.

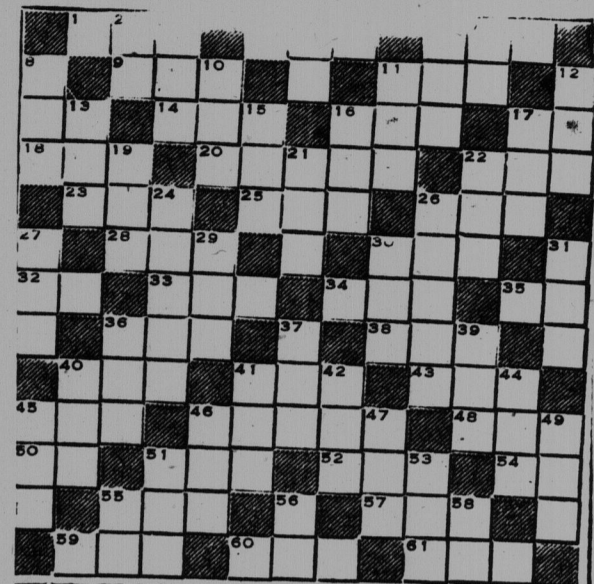

sort of shallow and muddy. We were playing a game called 'Small, small! Who's got the snail?' It's a fine game. Did you ever play it? "No," said Nick. "How does it go?" "Well," said the flamingo, "you say, 'One, two, three—dip!' Then everybody dips his bill down into the water and brings up a scoopful of mud. Sometimes there's a water snail in it and sometimes not. Sometimes you get two though, and I even got three one time. They are extra tender and juicy, and it's lots of fun sifting out the mud you get, to see if you have any snails. There's a prize. The one who gets the most in an afternoon gets a present of a fish for nothing. The rest have to catch it for him." "Oh, ho, I see!" cried Doctor Bill. "It's like the old saying: 'He who has gets.'" "That's just it," nodded the flamingo. Then he said 'ouch' again. "Well, we were playing 'Small, small! Who's got the snail?' when suddenly one of my friends yelled out suddenly, 'Oh, look! So we all stretched our necks to look. And what we saw was terrible. It was a big alligator lying right in the river near us. "But almost at the same time some-thing on the other side of me called 'Look out over there, too!' It was a big hippopotamus coming out suddenly through a loop in my neck and stuck there. I thought I would never get away from that terrible place." Doctor Bill brought out a bottle marked 'Flamingo Oil.' "This will cure you," he said kindly. "This will cure you." To Be Continued.

Who's Who On Main Street

IN MAIN STREET, Saint John, there exists a community spirit well worthy of emulation. The Main street merchants and residents are proud of the fact that they are North Enders, and it is interesting to note that a very large percentage of them have lived in the North End all their lives, as did their fathers before them. Many of the businesses have passed from father to son, and for a store to have carried the same name on its sign for 40 or 50 years is not an unusual instance.

When it was suggested that the North End merchants co-operate in the publishing of two pages devoted to their section of the city, not only a dissenting voice was raised, all voting the proposition live and typical of the community spirit prevailing.

Following will be found, in alphabetical order, the names of Main street's well-known merchants.

AMERICAN DYE WORKS.
This is one of the oldest established dye works in Eastern Canada. It was begun 50 years ago, in 1875, on the same site upon which the plant now stands, near the corner of Main and Elm streets. The present manager is George Burton. A receiving office is maintained at 140 Union street. The company specializes in all classes of dyeing, dry cleaning and pressing.

AMERICAN LADIES' TAILORING.
The American Ladies' Tailoring conducts a well and modernly equipped tailoring plant, employing more than a dozen tailors and tailoresses. As well as manufacturing ready-to-wear clothing, a custom tailoring department is conducted. Although established only four years ago, A. Rosovsky, the manager, states that this is one of the largest exclusive ladies' tailoring establishments in New Brunswick.

C. F. BROWN.
For more than 40 years, the name of C. F. Brown has been connected with the crockery business in Main street. The present proprietor, C. F. Brown, has been in the business since 1885. This fine large store consists of many departments, including crockery, silverware, hardware, razors, toys, etc.

G. F. COUPE.
George Coupe is well known throughout New Brunswick, owing to the prominent part he has taken in the New Brunswick Pharmaceutical Society. For eight years he was on the council. One year he acted as president and for one year he filled the office of president. Mr. Coupe's store in Main street is well known for its large stock of drugs and chemicals.

BLUE RIBBON BEVERAGE CO.
George P. Hamm and Freeman W. Hamm comprise The Blue Ribbon Beverage Company, established in 1917, succeeding George P. Hamm, who formerly carried on the industry as a branch business of Messrs. Hamm Bros. The business is carried on a small scale, supplying only the City of Saint John, but since its establishment it has developed to a remarkable degree, and today the Blue Ribbon Beverages are to be found throughout New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. The company employs several travelers, and has one of the most up-to-date bottling plants in this part of the country.

E. J. DENYER.
Succeeding Dalton's, eight years ago, Mr. Denyer took over the grocery and provision store at 887 Main street, near Elm street, and has successfully carried on a large business ever since. He has built up a large family connection and conducts a well-stocked store.

FREEMAN'S.
On September 15, 1924, M. Freeman opened his well-equipped store in Main street, which soon became noted for its styles and attractive displays of ladies' fashionable coats and dresses. Freeman makes frequent trips to New York and keeps well posted on the dictates of fashion. It is interesting to note that, long before crossword puzzles became the rage, the front of the Freeman store was decorated in crossword puzzle style.

P. P. GARRED.
Mr. Garred is a returned soldier who has made good in business. He owns and operates two stores, selling fruit and confections, at 399 Main street, opposite the Palace Theatre, and 523 Main street, opposite Simpson street. He commenced business four years ago, after returning from France, where he was a member of the 4th Siege Battery, having joined the forces in 1918. After being in business two years he opened his second store.

PHILIP GRANNAN, LTD.
The firm of Philip Grannan, Ltd., is another of Main street's landmarks. In 1880, 45 years ago, the business was established by the late Philip Grannan, M. P., who successfully conducted it up to the time of his death. The business is now carried on by his son, R. L. Grannan, and nephew, Charles P. Grannan. They conduct an extensive heating, plumbing, metal working and hardware business.

GRAY'S SHOE STORE.
Gray's Shoe Store was established in 1918, succeeding the late J. H. Russell, who occupied the stand for many years. The business was formerly controlled by J. S. and W. G. Gray, but in 1924 J. S. Gray retired from the business, leaving the proprietorship in the hands of W. G. Gray, the present owner. Gray's Shoe Store is the first shoe store in Main street between Indian town and Elm street.

JORDANS.
In the North End district, the name of Jordan has been associated with the dry goods and notions business for more than 22 years. The business was established in Paradise row, near the corner of Main street, and four years ago was moved to its present location. About the 20th of this month new

Main street, near the Royal Bank of Canada.

A. McARTHUR.
Forty-two years ago, A. McArthur established his stationery business in Main street, and during that time has built up a wide connection. He has gained an enviable reputation in the wall paper business, and also does an extensive business in window shades and picture framing.

NEW YORK SHOE STORE.
The New York Shoe Store was opened in 1912 by T. Ellman, and is a fine, well-appointed store, handling ladies', gentlemen's and children's footwear. The store front was remodelled six years ago, latest show windows being installed. A well-equipped shoe repairing department has been added, where general repair work is carried on.

ROBERTSON'S.
The name of Robertson is well known throughout the city of Saint John in connection with the grocery business. E. R. and H. C. Robertson conduct three stores, two in Main street and one in Waterloo street. The Main street stores are under the management of E. R. Robertson, while H. C. Robertson manages the Waterloo store. This year Messrs. Robertson added a butcher's department to their business.

A. M. ROWAN.
A. M. Rowan established his business 38 years ago in the store now occupied, and has built up one of the large hardware businesses of Saint John. Mr. Rowan is well known throughout the city, and has filled many important offices. He is a member of several organizations, and gives most of his time to public service. He is a member of the Civic Hydro Commission and other bodies of a public nature.

PERCY J. STEEL.
Percy J. Steel, B. C. L., carries on a hat and shoe business, established more than 45 years ago, and is looked upon as one of the leading Main street merchants. Mr. Steel is a son of the late Rev. Dr. G. Steel, and is another of Saint John's merchants who has seen service overseas. F. W. Merritt, well known in the North End, has been in the employ of Mr. Steel for more than 14 years, in fact, when Mr. Steel started to enter the business world, his career started in the Steel store.

F. S. THOMAS.
Here is a Main street store with a province-wide reputation. During the 25 years F. S. Thomas has been in the fur and gentlemen's furnishing business, his permanent advertising has created a business name familiar to everyone. His store is one of Main street's establishments, and is a glowing tribute to the North End and its many business organizations. Fur dealers state that Mr. Thomas is the largest buyer of furs in New Brunswick, and one of the largest in Eastern Canada. T. A. Armour, manager of the fur store, is well known in sporting and community affairs, taking a leading part in the North End Improvement League.

W. H. TURNER.
W. H. Turner established his tailoring and gentlemen's furnishing store in Main street in 1899, 26 years ago, and has many friends throughout the city. His business formerly was devoted to the tailoring end, but in 1910 furnishings were added. Mr. Turner was born in the North End, and has lived in the same ward all his life. He is active in community and association affairs. He has been a member of the Salvage Corps for more than 15 years, takes an active part in rowing, and represents New Brunswick as vice-president of the Maritime Amateur Rowing Association.

SLIPP & FLEWELLING.
The business of Messrs. Slipp & Flewelling, Ltd., was founded by the late E. W. Slipp and F. H. Flewelling, who died in the year 1886, and in 1923 the company was incorporated. K. F. Gault is president and general manager. This firm of pork packers, ham and bacon curers, ships to all points of the Maritime Provinces. The stocks used in many New Brunswick or Prince Edward Island fed, but at times when local supplies are scarce the company brings down western stock.

T. W. THOMPSON.
Succeeding S. W. MacMackin seven years ago, T. W. Thompson commenced business under his own name at 935 Main street, in the same store where he had spent 18 years with Mr. MacMackin. Mr. Thompson has spent all his life in the dry goods and furnishings business. His store is one of the largest in Main street, is modernly equipped and well appointed, reflecting credit to the proprietor's ability as a merchant.

DUPLESSIS PIANO CO.
C. A. Duplessis, of the Duplessis Piano Company, is manager of the Manufacturers' Sales Association, and conducts competitions on a large scale, where pianos and musical instruments are given away for advertising purposes. One of his latest endeavors is the promotion of the competition now being staged by a local company, the C. H. Townsend Piano Co., Ltd. The Duplessis store is located at 481 Main street.

ANKLE CRUSHED.
Frank Keating, an employe at the Nashuaak Pulp and Paper Co. Ltd. mill, while attempting to jump on a wagon while at his work yesterday, slipped and fell, and his ankle was crushed. He was conveyed to the General Public Hospital, where he will be for some days.

CONDITION CRITICAL.
The condition of J. Willard Smith, who is seriously ill at his home in Orange street, was said to be very critical this afternoon.

CANADA'S POLICE AND THE PUBLIC COME INTO BETTER RELATIONS AS MODERN IDEAS ADVANCE

New Era of Mutual Respect has Dawned. Chiefs of Police to Hold Big Convention in June. Important Problems for Debate. Finger Print System.

Even in this enlightened age there are parents who frighten their children with threats of what the police will do to them if they do not behave. That is because their own mental development has been arrested, and in danger of an indeterminate sentence in the Prison of Apathy. Up-to-date parents know that the policeman on their beat is the friend of all the children who come within his ken, and of every law-abiding citizen. One of the commonest of sights in the cities of this continent is that of a policeman escorting school children over dangerous street crossings. It is significant of the growing co-operation between those entrusted with enforcement of the law, and those whose employes they are.

In many municipalities there is still too little of the necessary sympathetic understanding between the police force and the people. That, perhaps, the fault of tradition, which persists in regarding the policeman as an automatic autocrat, seeking whom he may entangle within the meshes of the law. It is passing with the realization that he is very human and would sooner have his arm around the neck of a child than around the neck of a criminal. In many municipalities there is still too little of the necessary sympathetic understanding between the police force and the people. That, perhaps, the fault of tradition, which persists in regarding the policeman as an automatic autocrat, seeking whom he may entangle within the meshes of the law. It is passing with the realization that he is very human and would sooner have his arm around the neck of a child than around the neck of a criminal.

Though decreased in numbers the H.C.M.P. are busier than ever.

tion in Winnipeg early in June, it will have the largest attendance in its history. Every province from the Atlantic to the Pacific will be well represented. Problems affecting them all, as well as the country at large will be discussed by the members, with the fundamental reason of the existence of their Association in mind as outlined in these words from a summary of its aims "to increase police efficiency so as to make Canada the safest place on earth for those who respect our laws."

000 individuals. It has been rightly termed "the national clearing house for the police and prison departments of Canada." Not only does it receive and exchange information with the growing number of finger print departments of the various local forces and penal institutions in the Dominion, but it has a monthly system of exchange with an increasing number of States, prisons and reformatories of the United States and with bureaus in other countries.

various crimes. Through the medium of finger prints which conclusively established his identity, though his prints were sent to the Bureau from points as far apart as Parry Sound and Boston, Mass. Not only are the police forces in the cities and larger towns of Canada paying increased attention to their fingerprint departments and co-operation with the Ottawa Bureau, but the police of smaller municipalities are finding that the system has great advantages to them. Notorious criminals had wanted argued against it from any source. Canadian Police Chiefs are not enamoured of the idea; the expense of such a scheme, and the large clerical staff or staffs that would be necessary to keep it in useful shape, are their main objections. What they are more concerned about just now is a system of quick and secret communication between all police centres in this country, and the United States. Wireless, with a proper code, has been suggested as the probable best method. That may not be as fast ation in any gathering of law officers. The International Association of Chiefs of Police has given it a foremost place on their agenda for several years, and the Canadian Association always devotes many hours of consideration to it. To Dominion and provincial governments alike, resolutions on the subject have been repeatedly presented backed up by delegations from men who have been selected to emphasize the written views.

far, Vancouver and Victoria, know better than anyone else the terrific difficulties in this battle. Most Canadians, up to a few years ago, regarded this evil as an importation from the Orient, and therefore of more direct interest to the Pacific Coast areas than any other. There has been an awakening of late years, and Canadians who have the welfare of their country at heart know that no community is free of the menace. In the fight against it the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, and the various provincial and municipal police departments have found that they are confronted by clever, unscrupulous and powerful organizations with amazing ramifications, and plenty of money. The checking of this traffic is a task which entails unceasing vigilance and energy. One officer who has had much to do with directing the combat at various points said: "The narcotic drug evil has become so thoroughly commercialized and imbedded in the large centres of population in Canada, that it is a very difficult matter to get at the root of the evil. Fighting commercialized vice, and more especially traffic, constitutes a far greater problem than most people have any conception of. Inasmuch as there are thousands of individuals and organizations whose sole occupation is catering to humanity's vices, the geographical proximity of Canada and the United States, adds to the problems and difficulties of the police forces on both sides of the boundary line. In this time of the swift motor car, the airplane, and the fast drawing to a close of the easy going, good natured, half-fellow-well-met type of village constable, are fast drawing to a close. The guardian of the law, no matter how small his area, must be alert, ancient and rigorous. Otherwise it is in his district that daring bank robberies, and mail thefts will take place.

The modern policeman is the friend of all the children on his beat.

BELDING IS HEARD IN FINE ADDRESS

Tells of Maritime Difficulties and of Knowledge Gleaned on Trip.

CHATHAM, N. B., May 14.—A. M. Belding, of Saint John, representative of the Telegraph-News of the Times-Star, who toured western Canada and Ontario in the interests of the Maritimes, tonight in the Town Hall addressed a large gathering of representative business men.

TEST OF LEADERSHIP. It is, he said, no easy task to frame a policy which all the four divisions would heartily approve, but their ability to do it is the test of the leaders of industry, agriculture and labor in this country. They must compromise and in this spirit the problem must be approached. This policy must be national, get to the bottom of the problem, and be a policy of give and take, not to Canada but to the United States, where several millions of Canadians and descendants of Canadians are wondering what the outcome will be.

LEAVE IT TO ANDREWS

You can't spare the time to be always looking after your health — nor the money, for that matter! The pleasantest and safest way is to leave it to Andrews. Andrews makes a refreshing 'long drink.' It is an effervescent, sparkling saline, and is as cooling as it is healthful.

More Money Wanted For The Defence of Canada

OTTAWA, May 14.—"We would like to spend more money if we could get it," said Hon. E. M. Macdonald, Minister of National Defence, when his attention was drawn to a despatch from London comparing Canada's contribution to naval defence with contributions from other parts of the British Empire.

ONTARIO WOMAN'S INTERESTING CASE

Mount Forest, Ontario.—"I am proud today to think I have a fine big baby boy, as healthy as a trout, and I never felt better myself. Before I took your medicine I felt weak and miserable, and had pains all through me. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I began to get stronger, and those pains all left me. I am glad I found out about this medicine. I think there is none other equal to it for women who have troubles like this kind. I cannot praise the Vegetable Compound too highly for the good it has done me. Whenever I know of a woman suffering I am glad to tell her of it."—Mrs. Wm. Riddell, R. B. Young Married Women Need Mother's Advice

A GREAT many women after childbirth get up too soon and too weak to care for the child and perform their household duties, often bring on serious derangements.

Following We Publish an Interesting Letter from Mrs. Steele of Warrensburg, Mo.—"When my second child was born I got up too soon as my mother would have me do for me. I could not stand on my feet without being dizzy and my back would ache so badly that I would have to lie down at times through the day. My mother had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and had a bottle of it at the time so she begged me to take it, which I did, and I cannot tell you how much better I felt after taking it. Then a year later my husband got back from overseas and we went to keeping house by ourselves and I got all run down again. I could not work long at a time but would have to sit down and rest. My husband kept begging me to take the Vegetable Compound again, so I have done so. It recomended it when I call as I know it is good for women's troubles and I thought you might like to know what it has done for me."—Mrs. Pearl M. Steele, 200 Main Street, Warrensburg, Mo.

FACTS ABOUT TEA SERIES—No. 7

The Advent of Tea to England

Tea was not used to any extent in England till about the middle of the seventeenth century, although knowledge of the wonderful qualities of the beverage had reached Europe as early as 1517. During the seventeenth century, all tea was imported from China and cost from $25.00 to $50.00 per pound. Not until 1836 did any tea reach England from India. In that year the first shipment was made from the now famous tea growing district of Assam. India today supplies fully half the world's tea requirements and provides some of the finest teas grown. The rich body of "SALADA" is due to the select India teas used in the blend.

"SALADA"

Mrs. Charles Palmer. Mrs. James McLean reported for the two C. G. I. T. groups. Others reading reports were Miss Hilda Brittain, Miss Jean McLaughlin, Mrs. Colpitts, Mrs. George Bowler and Mrs. Charles Palmer.

SERVE SUPPER.

A delicious supper was served previous to the meeting by Miss Yerra's class, convened by Mrs. Mae Thompson and Mrs. Louise Williams, president of the class. Edgar Williams, Miss Agnes Robertson and Miss Vivien Fowler have signified their intention to go to Sackville to the summer course in teachers' training in Sunday school work this year. They will officially represent Centenary church.

Fire Chief Making Rounds of Stations

Walter S. Vaughan, recently appointed chief of the fire department, started out on his first official visit to the call men of the fire department yesterday, visiting those connected with Nos. 1, 2 and 8 hose companies as well as the members of No. 1 Hook and Ladder Company. Tonight the chief will pay a visit to the members of Nos. 4 and 5 hose companies and No. 3 Hook and Ladder Company in the North End. He expects tomorrow night to visit the members of No. 6 and 7 Hose Companies and No. 2 Ladder Company in the West End.

When asked last night regarding his retiring from the grocery business and devoting his entire time to the duties of chief of the fire department, Chief Vaughan stated that this would be accomplished within a very short time.

3 HURT WHEN CAR OVERTURNS

Thomas McKee of Cape Spencer Receives Most Severe Injuries

Accident on Silver Falls Hill—N. S. Automobile Ditched at Brookville.

While coming down the dangerously steep Silver Falls hill last night the Ford car of Charles McKee, of Cape Spencer Light, which was being driven by his son, Thomas McKee, got out of control and turned upside down. The driver was the only one of the three occupants that received any great injury. He was badly cut about the face and was sent to Dr. Baxter's office where some stitches were taken in his lip and he was brought in to a boarding house in Sydney street for the night. The other occupants of the car were Hazen McKee, his brother, and Everett Hunter, of Miscou. They were badly shaken up and bruised, but escaped serious injury. The car was the worst sufferer and was in a pretty sorry state. It was towed into Foley's garage. Detective J. H. Saunders and Inspector Fred Killen were notified of the accident and were quickly on the scene. The car, which had a license number 7185, was coming towards the city when the accident occurred at about 10.30.

Into Ditch. An automobile accident which brought a soaking to a girl about 14 years of age and landed the automobile in the ditch at Brookville near Hazen Brown's store yesterday aroused much excitement in that locality but, fortunately, did not result in any serious damage.

Trucks being used for the roadwork nearby were requisitioned and soon extricated the automobile from its watery surroundings and placed it on the highway and it continued on its way. The girl was not hurt by her ducking in the brook and hurried home for dry clothing. How the accident occurred is not known but it is believed the car swerved to dodge the child and pushed her into the water. It was a Nova Scotia car and quite new, but it did not look as nice when it came out of the water as it had when it went in. The driver was not injured.

THE WORLD'S GREATEST MONUMENT.

It is indeed a soulless people who evince no desire to perpetuate, by some means, the memory of those who have performed signal service to their race. It is the duty which as an example to the generations of the present and the future. London, Paris, Athens, Rome, Washington, Ottawa, all capitals and great cities of the civilized world have many monuments of stone and bronze in honor of men and women who have contributed to the greatness of their nation and to the betterment of their species. It has remained, however, for Canada to choose a monument which will outlive the Pantheon, the Nelson Column in Trafalgar Square, and beside which the towering shaft of Washington is dwarfed into insignificance.

Mount Edith Cavell, a glorious monument to a glorious woman. As long as the hills stand, it will remain, its snow-capped crest rising high above the Athabaska Valley in Jasper National Park, Alberta, to meet the skies in an eternal tryst. Eleven thousand feet and more it towers above its sister peaks, truly emblematic of the solitary majesty of that heroic figure, who, alone, one morning walked to her place of execution, a martyr to unwavering loyalty to her native land and devotion to her calling. On the side of Mount Edith Cavell rests a glacier. As Jasper Park Lodge it is mirrored in the opalescent waters of Lac Beauvert, like a great angel with outspread wings, hovering in benediction over the magnificent monument to a woman whose heroism will always be a golden page in the history of a nation of many valorous deeds. Jasper National Park is situated on the Canadian National Railways between Edmonton and Vancouver, and there is accommodation at the Lodge for 350 guests; horseback riding, motoring, swimming, and golf are the popular diversions. Many travellers to the Pacific Coast find this a delightful break in their journey. Low tourist fares are put into effect each year on May 15th by the Canadian National Railways, which provides for stop-overs at Jasper and other points. Illustrated literature and information as to fares, etc., can be obtained from the General Passenger Department of the Canadian National Railways at Montreal, N. B. 614-15

Curator Says Art School Here Is Not Well Supported

Lectures by Ven. Archdeacon Crowfoot and W. S. Fisher Enjoyed at Meeting.

The Saint John Art Club, at its annual convention last night in the Church of England Institute, enjoyed an excellent programme and a pleasant social hour and heard in the report of the curator some sharp truths regarding the lack of support of the club and the Art School, coupled with a gratifying account of the Art Schools success.

VIEW OF PICTURES

Ven. Archdeacon A. H. Crowfoot, president, showed a series of slides of great paintings which had been inspired by the East. His pictures showed what use the artists have made of the local color. Mr. Fisher had spoken of and the pictures were chiefly the work of Holman Hunt and the French artist, Tissot.

CURATORS REPORT

The report of C. H. Flewelling, as curator, was in part as follows: "As this evening in the closing of our season there are a few things to mention in regard to our club. Organized from the then existing Women's Art Club in 1908, for seventeen years we have gone along with a lecture course each winter and an art school, not very much encouraged or assisted, struggling for existence but possibly building better than we realize."

LOCATION OF PROPERTY

"Losing our much-loved old studio in Peel street, our collection of paintings have been scattered. A number are still with the Natural History Society as well as the famous Chinese vases, nearly twelve are here and a few in the Art School in the Market building. It is a serious question for the executive to consider when we meet in October again as to the location and concentration of our properties."

ONLY 170 PAID UP

"In regard to the financial position, we were greatly assisted by the ladies who carried through the bridge, but a serious falling off of members will leave your executive with a deficit. There have been 260 members on our roll whom we considered would stand by, but our collector reports only 170 paid up. To ascertain in advance of next season what we have to rely on cards have been sent out asking the members to reply stating whether they wish to continue next season. The cards are coming in and we hope will show sufficient interest to enable the committee to plan an attractive course next winter."

DIFFICULTIES

"As to the Art School, the improvement begun two years ago in the number of pupils continues and about 40 were on the roll this winter. Miss Holt's methods of teaching have developed a surprising amount of native talent. Some of the pupils will go much further. The school has been hampered all along in many ways. There is no fund to provide studies of fruit and flowers or to provide life models, only some volunteer work has helped in this. I do not think there is in Canada an Art School which has turned out as much good art work with so small an expense to those responsible for it as that turned out of the Saint John Art School."

TAKEN OVER BY N. S.

"Our friend, Miss Nutt, of Halifax, is quite encouraged by the Nova Scotia Government passing a bill to take over the Victoria School of Art and make it the Nova Scotia College of Art. Supported up to the present by a city grant and community help it will now be placed on a proper footing."

MONUMENTS OF INDIANS.

Anthropology is a formidable name, but an interesting science. Briefly, it may be accepted as meaning the study of man in general. To that study no race has provided a more interesting problem than the North American Indian, whose origin is more or less shrouded in mystery. Consider, for instance, the totem poles of the Indians of British Columbia. What relationship exists between these curious monuments to valorous red men and the gaudy banners of the Chinese, or crude, carved obelisks of the Egyptians? Perhaps none, but it is a fact that these totem poles constitute a distinct type of art which has much symmetry of color and design, though first appearances may appear to be to the contrary.

Totem poles are not the vague creations of idle men. They are carefully thought out and executed records of deeds well done, and they provide an open book for those who have the knowledge to read. Nowhere are finer examples of these totem poles to be found than in some of the Indian villages on the route of the Canadian National Railway between Jasper and Prince Rupert. At Jasper there is a fine specimen, brought from the Queen Charlotte Islands and erected intact beside the Jasper station. But the greatest collection is located at Kitwanga, on the Skeena River. This is one of the show places of northern British Columbia and trains stop to allow passengers to view the poles and it is safe to say that, next to Niagara Falls, this little village is almost the most photographed spot in Canada. That in itself tells of the appeal these poles make to the imagination of the tourist. Another proof is the fact that it is almost always impossible to get the train out of the village on time, because there are always some passengers who desire to linger longer with those striking monuments of an ancient race.

Worked 36-hour Stretch, Then Came To Night School Class; Pupils Make Much Progress

The night school classes in Saint John, which this year for the first time were conducted under the auspices of the Vocational Committee, closed their highly successful year at the end of April. A large percentage of the pupils made full attendance in spite of the fact that many were unable to attend because they had night employment at various times.

So keenly interested was one student attending the class in West Saint John that he arrived in time for his lessons although he had been employed throughout the previous 36 hours.

MADE GOOD PROGRESS.

Rex Cormier taught the class held in King Edward School, which had the large enrollment of 44. Many of the pupils in that class had been unable to either read or write when they enrolled. They made very satisfactory progress in reading, writing and arithmetic.

A. G. Gunter taught the class in mechanical drawing which was held in Central School and had an enrollment of 23, practically all of whom were employed in the city and were devoting their spare time to training for a better position.

Both the quality and the quantity of their work won special commendation.

BUDGET SPEECH OF CHURCHILL MUCH TALKED OF

Tributes Paid Cleverness But Some Proposals Are Criticized

LONDON VIEWS ON GERMANS' CHOICE

Visit of Italian War Vessels—Dickens' Anniversary June 9.

Correspondence of The Times-Star.
LONDON, April 30.—Mr. Churchill's budget speech was a brilliant effort in conception and delivery. On all sides one heard tributes to his cleverness, not that the proposals escape criticism even among the Government's supporters. Some of them think that the chancellor would have been justified in making a general reduction of one shilling in income tax instead of sixpence reduction in the standard rate, and varying concessions on earned incomes under £1,000 which in the lower grades work out at well over one shilling. Others, while welcoming the widows' pensions scheme, dislike the idea of balancing reductions in war pensions against the growing cost of widows' pensions—in other words, as one Conservative remarked, of stabilizing national expenditure round £800,000,000. Liberals are incensed at the re-imposition of the McKenna duties and the general protectionist trend of the budget. In some cases, too, the reduction in super-tax is vigorously criticized. The really disgruntled section of the House, however, is the Labor Party, of whose complaint is the contributory element in the widows' pensions scheme. Actually, the Labor Party's main grievance is the fact that it has been forestalled.

THE SPEECH

Mr. Churchill's speech will be remembered for matter rather than its manner. It was a competent rather than a brilliant performance, with passages of eloquence and some of humor, but as a whole it was kept to a pedestrian level by the mass of facts and figures which he had to crowd into two and a half hours. The chancellor went through his task with easy confidence, a striking contrast to the only comparable occasion 16 years ago, when Lloyd George occupied over four hours and had to have a rest in the middle. Once or twice he had to pause in order to fortify the revenues, as he called it, but slipping a straw-colored fluid, and generally he reverted to the flavoring of jocularity which has fallen out of fashion for some years in budget speeches.

THE GOLD STANDARD

An important announcement was that an immediate return is to be made to the gold standard, but not to gold coinage, which the country could not afford. Certain precautions have been taken to prevent any disturbance of international finance, and especially to discourage speculators; but Mr. Churchill is confident that these will not be necessary. A similar step has been, or is being, taken by the Dominions, and the chancellor is confident that the effect will be stimulating to trade. That and the increase of security for the workman's home he regarded as the prime necessity of the hour. He took obvious pride in the fact that he was able to effect both simultaneously, though he gave the house a general warning that unless expenditure is reduced—and he is confident that ten millions can be saved each year by closer scrutiny of the departments, for which purpose a standing committee of the cabinet has been set up—fresh demands on the treasury cannot be met except by increased taxation.

Klan Dragon to Court

FRANCE AND GERMANY.

There is a touch of tragic-comedy in Germany's Hindenburg gesture precisely at the instant of France's Caillaux move. Nothing could more perfectly typify the ineptitude of the "Quotient" mentality in the realm of politics and diplomacy. Just when the apostles of real European peace began to make their voices heard in Paris, Berlin invites the Poincare batteries with another Hindenburg Line. And sky-high are blown the slow hopes of five long-tired years. Today all France echoes the Paris boulevard philosophy that the Boche is always the Hun, that Teuton and Gaul are pledged foes to the crack of doom, and vac victis the only sane plan. An attempt is made to draw a historical parallel between Germany now and France half a century ago. Just as Germany's new republic has rejected Marx for Field Marshal Hindenburg, so the new French republic in May of 1873, rejected Thiers for Marshal MacMahon. It is a weak and fallacious parallel, however, when the convincing difference is considered between the French Commune and the German republic. One was a vital popular upheaval; the other a national warriors of the khaki legions, suitably uniformed and smartly paraded, is busy cleaning the West End doorsteps and polishing up the West End door-knockers at 8s. a week, inclusive. Start has been made with Mayfair and Belgravia, because these sumptuous regions are generally patriotic, likely to respond to the ex-service appeal, and, moreover, are curiously sloppy in the matter of clean doorsteps and bright knockers. This may be explained by a caste prejudice, in the kitchens of the wealthy, which makes menial work, in conspicuous populi, infra dig. Later, the Ex-Service Association will extend its step-and-knocker fatigue to the more prosperous suburbs.

DICKENSIAN MUSEUM.

June 9 will be the 55th anniversary of the death of Charles Dickens, and on that day will begin the annual congress of the Dickens Fellowship, a nobly growing companionship of kindred spirits. The occasion will be made popular by the formal opening of a Dickens Museum in the house on Drummond Street where "Boz" spent the earlier years of his married life. About £4,000 has been subscribed for this purpose, and a most interesting collection of Dickensian relics obtained either as gifts or loans that may become bequests. Among these personal things are the desk at which the great humanist made his public readings, and a pewter tankard and a copper warming-pan. The latter will be placed in one of the rooms, which will be decorated as the Dingley Dell kitchen. During the congress a series of pilgrimages to Dickensian spots in and about London will enliven the proceedings.

HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Friends of Miss Winnie Woodley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Woodley, were very pleasantly entertained at her home on Wednesday night when she celebrated her birthday and received many nice gifts. Games and dancing were indulged in and passed the time delightfully. Dainty refreshments were served. The guests included Miss Christie McAfee, Miss Isabel Kimmins, Miss Ida Long, Miss Marjorie Addison, Douglas Carmichael, Frank Wetmore, Bob White, Douglas Gibbon and Bert Williams.

CITY MUST TAKE UP THIS MATTER

Retaining Wall Situation Serious Is Statement at Meeting

Douglas Ave. Question Again—Power Co. Asks Water Rate Reduction.

A communication was received by the City Council yesterday from Thomas Zed, 54 Prince Edward street, asking that the city repair the retaining wall in front of his property. It was referred to Commissioner Frink for a report.

The commissioner said the retaining wall matter had to be faced by the council as there was a great deal of this kind of work which needed to be done and the appropriation had been about all used up already. The city was facing a serious situation and running a risk in letting this matter drift. He said he would look into the complaint of Mr. Zed and submit a report soon.

ASKS ABOUT BRIDGE.

Commissioner Bullock was given authority to ask for competitive bids for a new tar and gravel roof on the Melend warehouse and for timber and lumber for the harbor department work this summer.

T. L. Simmons, chief engineer of the Board of Railway Commissioners of Canada, wrote asking what steps had been taken in the matter of an overhead bridge across the railway tracks at the western end of Douglas avenue, the time for completion of which had been extended by the commission to April 1.

Commissioner Frink said he would present a report at the next meeting of the council on the cost of paving the street with broken stone, with tar bit-de and the council could then decide whether the street should be paved or by the company and at that time the overhead crossing gone ahead with. The letter was filed.

ASK LOWER RATE.

The New Brunswick Power Company wrote asking that the manufacturers' rate of, one-half cent per 100 gallons for water be allowed them as they used much more than the maximum of 100,000 gallons a quarter. The letter was referred to Commissioner Wigmore and the city solicitor for a report.

Commissioner Wigmore said this matter had been taken up once before by the company and at that time the city solicitor had ruled the company were not manufacturers and were not entitled to the lower rate.

The secretary of Salvage Corps No. 2 wrote that Fred W. Campbell had resigned and E. H. Belyea, R. C. L. Parkinson, T. E. Pettie, Dr. J. R. Hutchinson and G. G. Wetmore had been elected to membership. The warrant of Mr. Campbell was ordered cancelled and warrants were ordered issued to the new members. The consolidated business license by-law was read a first and second time and ordered passed and ordained.

Mayor Potts announced that the next meeting of the committee would be on Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 and the council meeting at 3 o'clock of the same afternoon.

His Worship said he was leaving Friday afternoon for Montreal and asked Commissioner Frink to take over the duties of acting Mayor in his absence.

Says Story of Having Preston Shadowed in London is Fantastic

Telegram Repudiates Statement Read Before the Ship Board Probe.

OTTAWA, May 14.—Cross-examination of W. T. R. Preston, the author of the report asserting that a great ocean combine existed on the North Atlantic, the effect of which was to almost isolate Canadian imports and exports from other parts of the world reached by ocean routes, was again the feature of this afternoon's sitting of the ocean rates committee.

A declaration of Mr. Preston made at a previous sitting, was contradicted at the outset of today's hearing. Mr. Montgomery, K.C., counsel for the steamship companies, read a cablegram from Sir George McLaren Brown, the European General Manager of the C. P. R. declaring that he had never detailed a detective to follow Mr. Preston while the latter was in London.

STORY CALLED INCORRECT
 "Preston's statement absolutely incorrect and fantastic. I did not have him followed by a detective. Why should I?" read the cablegram.

"Produce the telegram which he sent to have me watched in Vienna," retorted Mr. Preston. "What's the use of talk of that sort?" he added.

Mr. Montgomery took Mr. Preston through a number of the statements contained in the report and asked him various questions designed to bring out the sources of the information and its application to ocean rates as at present constituted.

BRITISH COLUMBIA BEAVERS INCREASE

Series of Closed Seasons Gives Protection to Valuable Fur-bearing Animals.

VICTORIA, B. C., May 14.—Although the intensive and ruthless trapping operations of a few years ago threatened to wipe out altogether British Columbia's beaver colonies, a series of closed seasons and careful Government supervision have resulted in a rapid increase in the number of these valuable fur-bearing animals.

From all districts beaver are now reported to be multiplying and there is a strong prospect that this branch of the fur industry will be completely rehabilitated within a year or so.

The fox farm has come to stay in this province and there are now more than 200 licenses for such farms, according to game board figures. The fur trade of British Columbia represented approximately $3,000,000 last year.

Electricity Plants Planned in England

LONDON, May 14.—There were no present signs of any great industrial development such as followed the Napoleonic wars, unless in respect to generation of electricity, said Sir Arthur Steel-Maitland, Minister of Labor, in the House of Commons today, and in this matter the British Government had prepared extensive plans, which he hoped to submit to Parliament before autumn.

HAMBONE.
 CAMP DIX, N. J.—A drumbeater bearing as he faced his accusers, of whether his judges were favorably impressed by a stiff, brittle tail with an absurd upward twist that never drooped once, not even when the judge advocated dilated in scolding terms upon the shameful circumstances of his desertion.

Hambone really shouldn't have been in Camp Dix at all. When the Sixteenth Infantry of Governor's Island for its spring hike to the training camp at Camp Dix, Hambone had been smuggled along by a doughboy in defiance of regulations.

Once on the road, Hambone showed himself to be a recruiting sergeant of marvelous persuasiveness. It was wonderful the dogs he lured away from comfortable homes. "In a first night of the hike there were in camp dogs of every known color, breed, shape and temperament. Before taps had sounded Hambone had been promoted from buck private to sergeant as a recognition of his recruiting propensities.

But the next day brought about Hambone's downfall. During a halt, he sought to elude a dignified old alredead. The stranger promptly charged him, and Hambone, to the unutterable disgust of the whole regiment, turned tail and fled. He remained, A. W. O. L. all night and in the morning was posted as a deserter. Fifty dollars down and $25 more.

N. Y. POLICE SCHOOL TO TRAIN RECRUITS

Inspector Noonan is First Commandant—Had Been on an Extensive Tour of Europe.

NEW YORK, May 14.—A piece of detective work appropriately underlies the newly established Police Academy which Commissioner Enright has dedicated as the future West Point of the American bluecoats.

Last year police headquarters was agog over the mysterious and prolonged absence abroad of Inspector John J. Noonan, now the academy's first commandant. He had slipped away with no one knowing it, and the question was: Who was he after?

The question was never answered, for it developed that the inspector's secret mission was merely to do some quiet and correspondingly free sleuthing of the police world over, in order to make the present Police Academy the sum of the latest international ideas in police training.

Inspector Noonan, it has been explained, was sent overseas by Commissioner Enright with credentials to Scotland Yard and the police chiefs of Paris, Vienna, Berlin, Rome and other capitals. He was ordered to keep lips sealed and eyes and ears open, and saturate himself with the best in training facilities and methods to the end that the "West Point" dream might be realized.

Chief of Staff Flies On Inspection Tour

QUEBEC, Que., May 14.—The arrival of the government hydroplane from Ottawa this morning bearing the chief of staff, Major General J. H. MacBrien, C. B., C. M. G., D. S. O., his pilot and mechanic, created a great deal of interest and a large crowd of people gathered at Louise Basin, where the plane was docked by a tug, after the landing had been made successfully in the St. Charles river.

The chief of staff was met by Brigadier General J. P. Landry, C. M. G., G. O. C., military district No. 5, and was driven to the chateau. Major General MacBrien stated that he experienced a very fair trip from Ottawa, traversing the distance in three hours and a half. He leaves for Ottawa early this evening.

ROBINSON ANTICIPATES PUBLIC DEMAND With an Immense - "CHANGE of POLICY" Sale!

Starting - Sat. May 16th at 9am

I HAVE been scouring the markets of Canada and the United States for statistics—I have been investigating in every way possible in order to find out what price the majority of the public wanted to pay for their suits and overcoats—and I have convinced myself that no matter how good—no matter how stylish—no matter what label there is in the garment, the public as a whole are through paying $45, $50 and $60 for clothes.

MY BUSINESS is and always has been to satisfy the public demand with the best article procurable for the price required. I am now going to adjust my entire organization to meet that demand. I am putting on this Big Drive and Sale with the one big idea behind it of producing a large enough volume that I will be able to bring the price of the finer grade of goods within the reach of the great bulk of the buying public.

 Stout Men's Suits at Same Prices! You can be fitted as Robinson's!

$24⁵⁰
 You may obtain two pairs of pants with most of these suits at a very small extra cost!

$29⁵⁰
 These are in all cases the highest grade woollens obtainable from the mills in England, Scotland and Ireland and having them tailored in my own factories, Are As Fine Suits As Any Man Needs Wear Anytime, Anywhere! I have personally seen many of these same identical suits displayed in windows in different towns in Canada at from $60 to $70. I am going to price these high grade suits within the reach of everybody and make the Robinson shop in every town a byword in the mouths of the people.

My New Policy Will Be Announced Later. Watch The Papers!

I am going to reprice my entire million dollar stock of clothing for this sale in all my stores from coast to coast to meet the public demand. Cost will be lost sight of. Former selling prices will be forgotten!

My overhead is the lowest of any clothing firm in Canada—but I'm not satisfied with it, I want to get it lower. I want to give better clothes for less money, and the only way this can be accomplished is to secure a greater volume of business and—THESE BIG VALUES SHOULD DO IT!

With a temporary loss to myself (as most of these goods will be sold at less than production cost) and a permanent gain to you—I Have Divided My Suits and Topcoats into 3 Major Divisions. Every one of these prices carries a saving that should induce you to buy at least two suits. The greater reductions and savings are naturally in the higher priced groups. For instance, the lines that I am advertising at $29.50 in this Sale, many of them are suits I have sold at $45.

This Big Sale will set the clothing industry by the ears as it is my first Big Sale since May 1920 when I made my big drive to bring prices down from the top and sold over half a million dollars of clothing in the first month. I expect to repeat that record now!

ROBINSON'S CLOTHES LIMITED
 90 KING STREET (Upstairs)

"Clothes last longer when washed properly—"

says Mrs. Experience, who tells how to wash them

"Some women actually rub holes in clothes trying to get them clean with harsh, ordinary laundry soaps, which are only half soap anyway. No wonder they say, 'Washing is so wearing on clothes'."

"The easiest way I've found to wash clothes—easiest on clothes and easiest on myself—is by using Sunlight Soap. No boiling or hard rubbing is needed—the pure Sunlight suds penetrate through and through each fabric, loosening dirt and dissolving grease spots. Then in rinsing, all dirt and soapy matter just runs away.

"And as every bit of Sunlight is pure, cleansing soap, it lathers generously, does not fade anything washable and is far more economical. Sunlight keeps your hands nice and soft. Levers, Toronto, make it."

SCOTS LOOKING TOWARD CANADA FOR NEW HOMES

Thousands of Youngsters Available as Potential New Citizens.

MONTREAL, May 14.—I have been talking Canada throughout Scotland all winter. Inevitably the rural areas, speaking at cross roads, in village clubs, halls and schools. To keep appointments was often difficult through misty rains alternating with sleet and snow. No matter how bad the weather the audiences were always good. More often than not the meeting place, such as it was, was overcrowded. Such is the interest the people have in Canada. From Wigtown-shire to the Western Isles it was all the same. These were the introductory remarks of Rev. George Adam, formerly of Emmanuel church, Drummond street, on the occasion of his talk over the radio from CNRM, the Canadian National Wireless centre in Montreal, delivered last night.

SCOTLAND FOUND EAGER.

Mr. Adam had been in Scotland for some time addressing many meetings which had been organized for the purpose of directing attention towards Canada, and of making known the opportunities available in the Dominion. It was for the purpose of explaining what had been done and of outlining the situation in Scotland that Mr. Adam spoke through the microphone. In continuing the speaker said that there are so many Scottish people in the Dominion that the people they left behind are eager to learn all they can of the country that has given hospitality and home to their own kith and kin.

OPPORTUNITY LACKING.

At a further stage Mr. Adam said to his radio audience, "the farms of Scotland are relatively so few that the possibility of a ploughman becoming a farmer is remote indeed, not for lack of ability, but of opportunity, every acre of available land held either as tenant or proprietor, is handed for the most part from father to son. Canada has room in her vast alluvial acreage for many thousands more than are here now, that is certain, and there is a wholesome desire to enter into possession on the part of a hardy, industrious and thrifty folk. How satisfactorily to relate the opportunity on the one side with the desire on the other, is the problem that faces governments and people alike.

ONLY FARMERS WANTED.

"Moreover Canada welcomes at present only the farmer and the farmhand, and rightly, while many such as I have said, are eager to come here. It must be understood there is a shortage of farm labor in Scotland itself, although there is a surplus of population in the country to judge by the large number of people who are unemployed. Among the latter class, tens of thousands strong, there can be no reasonable doubt but that there are thousands of youngsters who are good potential agriculturists. This is the class which at present, it seems to me, offers the most favorable recruiting ground for procuring Canadian settlers."

BY James Oliver Curwood WITH WOLF, THE WAR DOG
James Oliver Curwood never wrote a story in which an animal dwarfed the men and women who peopled it. Curwood is no nature faker. Baree was a real dog. Curwood knew him as he knew Kazan, Baree's father. No, it is not an animal story, but a story in which a wonderful wolf-dog looms large, for he twice saves the life of his mistress.

GOLF CLUBS PLAN FOR CUP CONTESTS
has begun on the river links, though yet under winter rules. It will probably be May 25 before summer conditions will obtain. Westfield players expect to have nine holes for their game this season and as three new locations will be utilized and one of the old greens abandoned. The yardage will amount to something over 2,500, making a much longer and more satisfactory game than heretofore.
Both the Riverside and Westfield Clubs have their schedules in course of preparation.
