THE

Quebec Ladies' Benevolent Society,

Instituted October 29th, 1838.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE, FOR 1868-69.

In submitting to the numerous friends and patrons of the Ladies' Benevolent Society, the Thirtieth Report of its transactions, the Committee would acknowledge with devout gratitude, the marked success which, through the Divine blessing, has hitherto followed their labours.

Animated by that catholic spirit which has uniformly characterized the Society in the distribution of its benevolences, the Committee have endeavoured to meet the wants of the needy of whatever origin or creed, as they have been brought under their notice.

With reference to the number of cases relieved during the past year, the Committee would observe that, while these have not been so numerous as in former years, yet several special applications, requiring more than the ordinary amount of relief, have been attended to, and have, to a great extent, equalized the amount of their expenditure.

The receipts and disbursements of the Society will be found in the Treasurer's Financial Statement, appended to this Report.

The Committee would, in conclusion, again commend the interests of this Association to the sympathies of the benevolent, now that the season of the year is at hand when the destitute poor are placed in the most necessitous circumstances; and, encouraged by the prospering blessing of God which has followed their past efforts, as well as by the liberal spirit which has hitherto influenced the supporters of the institution, the expectation is humbly cherished, that its future operations will continue to receive an equal, if not increased share of support from an appreciative Christian public.
