WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1892. "MENDED OR ENDED."

This is what the Presbyterian Witness says should be done with the devotional exercises in the General Assembly, and the Canada Presbyterian asks that the application be extended to the observance of the Lord's Supper in assembly meetings.

In our own Association and Convention sessions there is sometimes so great a desire to rush business through that the time for devotional exercises is grudged or abridged. The feeling, we believe, is wrong, and its practical working proves often its unwisdom.

One of the reasons suggested by our contemporary for ending it is that the devotional seasons are not edifying and impressive—that hereditary and ancestral prayers are offered. Such prayers will kill the devotional spirit anywhere.

Those who have to transact public business for the church ought not to find it very hard to preserve the spirit of prayer. All business should be performed as service for God, much more than that which pertains to the special interests of His kingdom.

As to the Lord's Supper it seems decidedly out of place to have it anywhere but in the church, for there the frame of mind suitable to its due celebration can best be secured.

The practice of the Roman Catholic church is to take the Supper around from house to house or to the sick, but this has no endorsement among Protestants. It is difficult, however, to determine where to stop short of Rome's practice, unless we limit the observance of the Supper to the church in its local organized capacity.

At the F. C. Baptist conference just held at Corn Hill, N. B., one of its members read a paper on "Open Communion." The matter of Baptist unions was brought up at this meeting, and this paper seemed to give it a left-hand introduction.

ists, for various reasons, have delayed dealing with the matter. Many have thought that this subject of Baptist union should now be "mended or ended."

If our F. C. Baptist brethren, generally, should endorse the rather mixed and illogical views of the essayist the hope of union grows very dim. We do not question the right of the brother to state his case as he has, but it seems to us to be a mistake to take a position on the Lord's Supper that the rest of the Christian world, as well as a fair interpretation of the New Testament, does not endorse.

It is good everywhere and nowhere better than in religion. We have heard it said that the Episcopalian runs his religion by form, the Presbyterian by creed, the Methodist by groans, and the Baptist by water.

Rev. Hugh Price Hughes recently started the Wesleyan conference by saying that what was needed in the church "in order to succeed on a much larger scale was not religion but more sanctified common sense."

"Nothing is easier than to avoid the necessity of practical repentance and genuine self-sacrifice by uttering pious platitudes. It is not necessary to bring hundreds of Christian ministers to Bradford or anywhere else in order to inform them that what they and their flocks need is 'more religion.'"

These words apply equally well to the people, as they knew not how many churches voted, but probably not more than one-third. The total number of votes cast was 1,809, or one-eighth of the membership.

We must discern the signs of the times and adjust our efforts to meet present day wants. Two needs, we believe, force themselves upon us if we are speedily going to evangelize the world.

THE ENGLISH OPIUM TRADE. The reports of the Commissioners of Chinese Maritime Customs upon the opium trade in their several districts are such as to lead to the hope that the day is near which shall witness the wiping out of that abominable traffic.

The history of the matter, in brief, is that opium was inflicted upon India by the Mohammedans, and the Arabs introduced it into China in the thirteenth century. It remained in Moslem control till 1757, when the East India Company secured the monopoly.

F. C. B. CONFERENCE. The annual session of this body has just been held at Corn Hill, Kings Co., N. B. Rev. Wm. Dewar was elected moderator, and Major Vince, as usual, secretary, because he is a No. 1 man for the place.

On Sunday, October 2, special missionary services were held at Wolfville, in harmony with suggestions of Convention. At the morning service Dr. Higgins, the pastor, preached a missionary sermon, in which he set forth very clearly the great motives to missionary work.

and imperative. Nearly one thousand millions of our race are still without the Gospel. The way to this is open; the Christian world has the men and the means; why should not the story of the cross be made known to all the world?

At the close of the conference an ordination service was held and four young men were ordained, among whom was W. R. Reid, a seminary graduate. We congratulate him with misgivings, for he had taken a college course a career of much larger usefulness would have opened before him.

BUSINESS.

The Rev. H. N. Parry will shortly visit P. E. Island and the eastern parts of N. S. and N. B. in the interest of the MESSENGER AND VISITOR. Will our pastors and churches kindly assist him in his work?

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE. NEWS FROM THE CHURCHES. TABERNACLE, HALIFAX, N. S.—Their new church edifice was dedicated last Sunday by Rev. G. O. Gask and Rev. J. A. Gordon were the preachers.

LOCKER ROAD, P. E. I.—The night of August 17 is one long to be remembered by the dwellers here. A hot and sultry day was succeeded by a night of awful storm. Forked lightnings rent the clouds and played among the hills.

NEW GERMANY.—Our jubilee was a success notwithstanding the absence of some pastors whom we fully expected to be present. The day was perfect, the church beautifully decorated (thanks to our sisters), and the crowd of people larger than we expected—about 500 being present in the afternoon.

address—subject, "Witnessing for Christ," which was enjoyed by "aged men" when we had the pleasure of H. Morton, the first Baptist settler in the following persons: W. Mader, Edward Kaulback and Hans; Bro. Edward Drew, 130 three days after the organization of the church, fifty years ago. This followed by two of our sisters, David Lantz and "Grandma," the latter of whom is well throughout the province as well as to attend the association of the N. S. Baptist Convention, the evening of Langille, of Springfield, held at strong address upon the subject of existence of a Baptist church in My "Main Country." Pastor Bro. the closing address and offering minister the divine ordinance to two converts—an aged couple. Four others have been received by letter within the last two months. The interest manifested by the members in general gives promise of great blessing and strength to the little Baptist church in this town.

address—subject, "Witnessing for God"—which was enjoyed by all. Then followed addresses by "aged members," when we had the pleasure of listening to the following persons: Whitman, Morton, the first Baptist settler in New Brunswick, and the only living charter member of the church—he has been for some years a member of the Aylesford church; Deas, David Lantz, John Mader, Edward Kaulback and George Harns; Bro. Edward Dreyer, baptised three days after the organisation of the church, fifty years ago. These were followed by two of our sisters—Mrs. David Lantz and "Grandma" Mader, the latter of whom is well-known throughout the province as one of the seven women who walked to Wolfville to attend the association of 1828. Evening Session.—In the evening Pastor Langille, of Springfield, delivered a strong address upon the subject, "Right of existence of a Baptist church." Pastor McNeill gave a good address and sang "Main Country." Pastor Brown gave the closing address and offered the closing prayer on behalf of the future prosperity of the church. Thus ended the greatest day in the history of the church, and for the jubilee and for the blessings of the past fifty years we are thankful to our heavenly Father. A full account of the jubilee and the contents of the papers will soon be published in pamphlet form and sold for about ten cents.

TEMPLE, YARMOUTH, N. S.—Sunday, October 2, was a real missionary day with us. The pastor preached in the morning from Mr. Carey's text, Isa. 54: 2-3, taking Carey's divisions—"Expect great things from God; attempt great things for God." The two words, "expect" and "attempt," were emphasized in the sermon. The preacher said Carey's order-book contained nothing but marching orders; he could point to no such glorious triumphs in heathen lands as was our privilege to-day; there were no such battles fought, no such victories won as now, by which Carey could arouse a slumbering church. But we have not only Carey's marching orders on which to base our "expectations," but also the added triumphs of one hundred years of missionary success, unparalleled in all history, and which has broken down all opposition in Christendom, and opened all the gates of heathendom. A silver collection was taken for the centennial fund. Our Sunday-school had a good day for missions as well. We carried out that splendid programme prepared by the Foreign Missionary Board. It contained a rich fund of information. The children will not soon forget the facts and figures; they will bear fruit in days to come. The Sunday-school that passed that concert exercise by made a grave mistake. A silver collection amounting to $17 was taken for the centennial fund. In the evening the pastor gave an address on the formation of the missionary society at Kettering, England. He said this should be a memorable day for Baptists, as well as all lovers of the cause of missions. Just one hundred years ago to-night twelve men met in the back parlor of the home of Mrs. Beeby Wallis to organize the first modern missionary society in the world. How glad should some comparisons between these humble servants of the Lord in their great enterprise for God and humanity and those humble Galilean fishermen going out to convert the world. Then followed a brief history of the outcome of this organization in arousing other denominations to the work of foreign missions. After a well read piece on the "Missionary ideal," by one of our sisters, and another silver collection for the centennial fund, the services of the day closed with the celebration of the Lord's Supper. These funds will be sent to the treasurer.—Bro. Gates—indue time.

TANCOCK, N. S.—On Tuesday evening, Sept. 20, our Mission Band gave a concert in the interest of home missions. The programme was interesting and instructive. Proceeds amounted to $15.25. It is now sixteen months since I began to work for the Lord on this "isle of the sea." During this time the people have been kindness itself. In fact they are (according to the writer's humble opinion) the best heeded people in the world. Our church has not prospered as we hoped it might. All the souls we asked the Lord for have not been brought into the fold. Still we expect to meet them in heaven, because God is true to His promise. Now go to Acadia to pursue my studies. Here is a compact field; much good wheat waiting to be garnered into the storehouse. May the Lord of the Harvest come with the right man and gather these precious souls into the kingdom. R. E. GULLISON.

ST. GEORGE.—The first of a series of missionary concerts was given under the auspices of the W. B. M. S., and was a grand success. The pastor—Rev. Mr. Maiden—gave an interesting address on "Mission work in India." Fine readings were given by Mrs. Hibbard, Mrs. O'Brien, Mrs. Gilmore, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. McAdam, Miss Goss and Miss McAdam. A number of good pieces of music were given by the choir, and beautifully rendered solos by Miss McAdam, J. S. Murray and Miss Boden, and a beautiful duet by Miss Marsh and Miss Boden. This having been so successful we are looking forward to a good time at the second concert to be given in October.

SALISBURY.—In May last I began labors on this field. The cause has been low here for some time, yet, through the faithful efforts of Bro. Armstrong, the late pastor, it has been much improved. There are four preaching stations on the field, and much labor is required. Since coming to the field we have had some encouragement and the interest is deepening. Ten have been added to the church—six by baptism and four on experience. Pray that the Master may bless us. MILTON ADDISS.

CANTERBURY, N. B.—I assisted Bro. H. S. Shaw in a few extra meetings, following the quarterly meeting at Canterbury, with good results. It was my privilege to baptize three converts on the 25th ult., and yet there are more to follow. WATERVILLE, N. S.—At Sherwood, October 2, two were received into the fellowship of the church at Waterville, Hants Co., N. S., by baptism. A. WHITMAN.

PARSONAGE, E. R.—I baptised three into the Diligent River Baptist church, September 11. G. E. PIZZO.

Deaths.

MORRISON.—At Diligent River, Thos. H., son of Howard Morrison.
MCKENZIE.—At CARBO, N. S., Oct. 3, of dropsy, Seth McKenzie, aged 69 years.
STRONACH.—At Margarettville, N. S., Sept. 30, of typhoid fever, Mrs. Jessie Stronach, aged 43 years. She leaves a family of six children and a large circle of friends to mourn their loss. Mrs. Stronach was a consistent member of the Upper Wilnot Baptist church.
SMITH.—At Brookfield, Queens Co., N. B., October 1, Abigail F. Smith, aged 73 years, wife of Stephen Smith. Sister Smith was a true and beautiful Christian; her faith in Christ was simple, but strong and unwavering. No one could stand by her bedside and hear her express her confidence in the Saviour, without realizing that Christ has indeed abolished death, and brought life and immortality to light through the Gospel.

HARLOW.—At Brookfield, Queens Co., N. S., Sept. 27, after a long and severe illness, Frank H. Harlow, aged seven years and six months. The deceased was the youngest son of Frank Harlow and his wife, together with his wife and children, are plunged into deep sorrow on account of their great bereavement.

PARKER.—On the 16th of July last, Bro. Alton Parker, of Torbrook, was called by his Saviour to the better land, at the early age of twenty-five years. Ten years ago he confessed his Lord and was baptised by Rev. J. W. S. Young. He was a faithful member of the church, active in church meetings and Sunday-school, and leading a consistent life among his companions. He was patient and resigned during his illness, and assured his pastor during their last interview that death had lost its terrors for him. He sweetly and intelligently rested on the unmerited grace of God.

GOODWIN.—At Argyle Sound, Sept. 30, Deacon Nathan Goodwin, aged 66 years. Deacon Goodwin has been a member of the Argyle Baptist church for about 35 years, and most of that time he has been superintendent of the Sunday-school at Argyle Sound. In every respect he has proved a faithful laborer in the vineyard of the Lord. Our people at Argyle Sound feel that a standard bearer has fallen, and that it will not be an easy matter to find one capable of taking his place. For several months our brother has suffered from very painful illness, but through all his sickness his faith in Jesus seemed to grow stronger and stronger, even to the end. He leaves a wife and four children, all members of the Baptist church, to mourn the loss of a loving husband and father.

RAYMOND.—At Weymouth, Sept. 24, after a few weeks' illness, which he bore with Christian patience, Joseph R. Raymond, in the sixty-ninth year of his age. Our brother, when a little boy, received his first awakening of his lost condition as a sinner, which led to his conversion to God, under the labors of Revs. Jackson and Dimock. He united with the Baptist church at Beaver River, and continued a member till death. For a time he was very successful in business and accumulated considerable property, but in a few years was impoverished and sustained heavy losses financially, which had a very depressing tendency on his spirituality. It was his privilege to attend our last Convention, where, under the influence of the Spirit of God, he was very much revived in his spirit. From the Convention he returned home girded with strength for the last and final conflict, and died in peace, saying: "Jesus paid it all, all to Him I owe."

ACKER.—Bro. John Acker, of Nicotax Falls, without a moment's warning, was called into eternity on the 23rd July, at the age of 45 years. During the progress of a thunder storm he was stricken down. A scythe which he carried attracted the electric fluid, passing through his body, left it lifeless. Our brother was a native of Mahone Bay. He commanded the respect of his neighbors in his adopted community. He was prepared for such a terrible emergency. Several years ago he was stricken down and united with the Methodist body, but he was never satisfied until he was baptised after the Divine pattern. During the revival last spring he confessed his Saviour and united with the Baptist church. He was an earnest, devout and consistent Christian in his home, among the people of God and by the wayside. A widow sadly mourns her loss, and two orphan boys will miss a father's care. But there is the blessed consolation that it is well with our spirits.

HARDY.—At Smith's Cove, Digby Co., Dea. Benjamin Hardy, aged 79, leaving a widow and seven children to mourn the termination of an honored and useful life. The deceased held his Christian experience from the year 1832, but did not make a public profession until 1837, when he was baptised by the late Rev. H. Saunders, and united with the Second Clements or Hillsburg church, of which some four years later he became a deacon. He was one of the constituent members of the Second Hillsburg church, organized in 1842, and remained a member and a deacon thereof until his death. For many years he was the recognized leader of the church, and was ever devoted to the cause and the honor of the Redeemer. Although his health and strength had long been failing under the burden of years, his final sickness was brief, and just as the sun was setting on Wednesday, Sept. 14, he passed away without a struggle to his rest, leaving an unblemished reputation for integrity and consistent Christian character.

WHITMAN.—At Aylesford, July 18, Zechariah Whitman, in the 75th year of his age. When a boy ten years old he gave his heart to Christ. At that time standing on a pew in the old meeting house at Nicotax, so that he could be seen and heard, his profession of love for the Saviour was clear, fervent and touching. When a young man he spent some years in Liverpool, Queens county, where he made many friends. About 49 years ago he settled in Aylesford and remained there till death. Mr. Whitman was sociable and hospitable. He was a considerate and kind neighbor, a wise and faithful friend and a useful and honorable citizen. His pastor over had in him a true helper. He neither gave utterance or countenance to any adverse criticism of his minister. For a number of years he was superintendent of the Sabbath-school. His ability, faithfulness and patience in this office won for him the love of parents, teachers and scholars. The school prospered greatly under his care. For several years he served his brethren as deacon. In this capacity he was discreet and faithful. His illness, though lingering, was borne with resignation to the divine will. From the time of his second birth to the hour of his departure—a period of sixty-five years—he walked with God. He is no longer seen in the home and place of worship here, but we know that he has entered the home across the river, there to worship forever. This assurance, is the comfort of the sorrowing widow and children and friends.

RHEUMATISM OF THE JOINTS AND INHERITED HUMOR OF THE BLOOD. Banished by Skoda's, AFTER PHYSICIANS HAD PRONOUNCED THEM INCURABLE!

MARCUS LITTLEFIELD. I AM A FARMER BY OCCUPATION, AND ENJOY THE BENEFIT OF ALL WHO KNOW HIM. IN CONVERSATION WITH A REPRESENTATIVE OF THE SKODA DISCOVERY CO., NOT LONG SINCE HE RELATED THE FOLLOWING STORY: "Ever since I was born, I have been troubled at times, more or less, with a RHEUM on my hands, face and neck. For fifteen years it has been on the increase, I have been gradually falling in health, and for three years past it has increased and become so badly, that all the way I could get any rest at night, was to bathe in strong carbolic acid, and this only relieved me for a few hours. In addition to this, eight months ago, Rheumatism in my neck and shoulders set in, drawing my shoulders so out of place, that I could not get my hands over my head. I did not have my clothes off. Physicians said I could never get well. I was unable to do any work, and was a great sufferer. I doctored with all the best medical men in Boston, and took nearly all the advertised sarsaparilla and blood purifiers, but received no benefit whatever. I had given up all hopes, and my friends thought I could live but a few months. I began the use of SKODA'S DISCOVERY AND THE PILLS, according to directions, and also used SKODA'S OINTMENT, and in a few days I was able to walk, and in a few days more I was able to do my usual work. There was a visible change in appearance. My skin was literally covered with pimples and blotches began to clear up. My appetite became good, less pain to my shoulders, and I gained rapidly. I have now less than two courses of these REMEDIES, and my Rheumatism has entirely disappeared. SHOULDERS AND NECK FEEL AS THEY USED TO BE. WHICH THE DOCTORS SAID COULD NEVER BE GOT BACK AGAIN ARE AS GOOD AS NEW. I AM IN PERFECT FORM. MY SKIN IS FREE FROM BLOTCHES AND PIMPLES. I FEEL AS WELL AS I EVER DID. I WOULD BE GLAD TO ADVISE ANY ONE WHO IS SUFFERING FROM RHEUMATISM, OR BLOOD POISON, TO TRY SKODA'S DISCOVERY AND THE PILLS. THEY WILL RESTORE YOUR STRENGTH AND BRING YOU TO YOUR USUAL HEALTH."

NEWS SUMMARY.

Donations.
—Mr. George A. Cox, of Peterborough, has donated five thousand dollars to the building fund of the Winnipeg Wesleyan College.
—The Toronto assessment shows a decrease in the population of the city from 170,651 to 169,000 during the past year, as well as a falling off in the income and personality assessment.
—The Canadian Pacific Railway Land Department during the last month disposed of nearly 15,000 acres to actual settlers, although last month is regarded as one of the dullest months of the year for land sales.
—At the late meeting of the Wesleyan Board of Missions, Toronto, a vote of thanks was passed to Rev. Dr. Brecken, of Backville, N. B., for his gift of a thousand dollars towards the establishment of a hospital in connection with the work in China.
—Bishop Medley's will, which has been probated, shows the personal property to be $35,000 and the real $3,500. The major part of the estate goes to Mrs. Medley. There are a few small legacies to relatives and servants and bequests to charities. The executors are Mrs. Medley and Mr. George A. Schofield.
—The result of the University of New Brunswick matriculation examination will be pleasing to the ladies. Five candidates passed in the first division, all being girls. One young woman and four young men are in the second division, one female and six males in the third division. Two of the county scholarships fall to the ladies.
—The Home Rule Committee of the Irish National League met in Toronto, and the following subscriptions to the Home Rule fund were received: J. B. Hayes, $2,000; Hon. Frank Smith, $1,000; Hugh Ryan, $1,000; George Kieley, $1,000. Hon. Frank Smith and E. H. Blake were appointed joint treasurers. The appeal to subscribe will be made to all the Irish Nationalists in the Dominion.
—During the month of September there were imported into Chicago from Halifax and Montreal 1,500 barrels of refined sugar, upon which the duty was one-half cent per pound. Chicago was compelled to buy in Canada because of the port of New York enforcing its quarantine regulations, shutting out raw beet sugar. Several carloads of sugar from Halifax passed through St. John during the month.

—The government intend to place at St. John and Halifax quarantine stations three steel cylinders, 24 feet long by 8 feet in diameter, in which effects will be placed for sterilization by steam. Besides these cylinders there will be a vacuum pump, engine and steam boiler. These will be ready against the opening of navigation next spring.
—Martin Chapman, of Fort Lawrence, possesses a very remarkable copper coin which was ploughed up on his marsh beside his residence. The coin is remarkably well preserved. It is a coin struck in honor of John of Digby, Duke of Lancaster, England, about the year 1345. It was turned up by the plough last fall and probably brought to the country with the early French settlers during the period dating from 1671 to 1784.
—It is not often that a bill for so large an amount as $1,800 is paid after it has become over twenty years old, but George Stirling, of Digby, N. S., rejoices in the receipt of that sum from just such an account, the debtor in the case being John Quirk, of Halifax, who years ago, while residing in Digby, contracted a large board bill with Mr. Stirling, and who after his recent good fortune in a provincial gold mine is arranging his old liabilities.
—A young lad named Frederick Gambelin, an employe in King's mill at Chipman, Queens Co., on Sunday last went into the mill and drove three large files deep into a log of wood. The result was the destruction of three different rotary saws, one a new saw costing $140. Fortunately no other damage was done. The lad, when charged with causing the trouble, stoutly denied it, bit on being promised that he would not be prosecuted, he broke down and told Mr. King that the devil tempted him to the deed.
—The plans for a Crofter colony on Vancouver island, in British Columbia, are now all complete, the agreements between the imperial and provincial governments and the syndicate having been all signed. The syndicate is now about to bring out a company, with a capital of one million pounds sterling, though the present issue will be for half a million only. The company will be called the Commercial Company of British Columbia. Men of the highest standing are taking a keen interest in the undertaking.

—A riot took place at Three Rivers, Que., on Monday, when the residence of American Consul Smith was stoned and the windows broken. The official had sent a report to his government to the effect that Three Rivers was nothing more than a pest hole and the people exceedingly unclean. The city council has asked for the consul's recall.
—On the evening of the 5th inst., at Marysville, York Co., Fred Titus was shot and killed. He and an associate had been drinking and had made one or two attacks upon Odour and Charles McMichael, who were in their shop. The latter discharged a gun at the attackers, with the above result. The coroner's inquest brought in a charge of manslaughter against Charles McMichael.
British and Foreign.
—The Canon of Westminster Abbey has formally invited Hallam Tennyson to bury his father at Westminster Abbey.
—The Rev. James Spurgeon is critically ill. Prayers were offered in the Metropolitan Tabernacle Sunday for his recovery.
—The labor output in the large manufacturing and shipbuilding centres of Great Britain is very gloomy. A crisis in the matter of wages is imminent in the cotton trade that promises to have widespread and serious results. It is stated that 15,000 men are idle at the Clyde shipyards. Those fortunate enough to secure work will have to stand a reduction of ten per cent. in wages, to take effect October 10.
—The directors of the British East Africa Company have decided to accept the government's offer of £12,000 to enable the company to remain in Uganda at least three months longer. The government gives the company this assistance in order to prevent the immediate withdrawal of the company from the territory, which, it is believed, would jeopardize the lives of British subjects. It is the intention of the company to evacuate Uganda in a few months.
United States.
—The presidential contest is being carried on with much more dignity than usual, owing, no doubt, to the excellent character of both candidates.
—There was quite a flurry of snow at Buffalo the other morning. Light falls are reported from different parts of the state. The peaks of the Catskills are covered with snow.
—Ex-President Cleveland was a passenger the other evening on board the steamer Pilgrim. He was offered wine by a lady but declined it, saying he had determined to take no intoxicants during the campaign.
—A serious accident is reported on the Northern Pacific, between Winnipeg and Minneapolis. The express collided with a freight train. It is said two firemen, the engineer of the freight train and two, if not more, passengers on the express were killed, and that the engineer of the express is not expected to live. It is also said that twelve men have been taken out of the wreck more or less injured.

Lunenburg County S. S. Convention.
THE LUNENBURG CO. BAPTIST S. S. CONVENTION held its fourth session at New Germany, September 20, being the day previous to the jubilee services. A large representation of delegates and friends from the schools were present. The election of officers for the ensuing year was as follows: Rev. E. N. Archibald, president; Bro. W. L. DeLona, vice-president; Bro. Urbane Spidle, of Lunenburg, secretary-treasurer. Rev. Mr. Hemson (Methodist) was cordially invited to a seat, as were all members of evangelical churches present. The pastor of the county were authorized to act as an executive committee for the ensuing year. The first paper called for was on "The Preparation of the Lesson," presented by Rev. E. N. Archibald, which drew forth very interesting addresses from Revs. Hemson, Brown, Langille, W. L. Parker and N. A. McNeill. The report of Miss Frank of her school at Woodstock awakened much interest. This lady has for fourteen years been gathering the old and young in her house every Sabbath, and has not been discouraged, although seldom has the settlement been visited by any good preacher. Bro. Taylor received the hand of welcome as superintendent of a new school at Farmington. A resolution was passed in favor of our schools joining heartily with the Union Convention in its work in its spring session. At the evening session we were favored with two excellent papers, one by Rev. G. P. Raymond, "Responsibility in Sunday-school Work," and the other by Rev. N. A. McNeill, of Chester, on "The Relation of the Family to the Sunday-school." These drew forth remarks from different brethren. Rev. W. L. Parker spoke effectively on "Benevolence in Sunday-school work." This address evoked the following important resolution: "Resolved that the convention strongly urge upon all our superintendents and teachers the importance of systematic teaching and training of the young in the benevolent work of the church." An invitation was then given through Bro. Burgoyne to meet next year with the church at Mahone Bay, which was gratefully accepted. The last and not least feature of the services was the opening of the question box. All these services were enlivened and assisted by the voluntary aid of the excellent choir of the New Germany church. Closed by prayer and the benediction by the president. We must acknowledge our thankfulness to Pastor Raymond and all the friends who so kindly entertained the convention during its session.
URBANE SPIDLE, Secy.-Treas.
ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—We wish to acknowledge the kind gift of a pulpit Bible and six bracket lamps sent to us by friends in Halifax, and forwarded by Bro. George McDonald of the Book Room. To these kind donors we extend our cordial thanks.

SILVER WEDDING.—We want you to know how very handsomely our friends here, among whom we have lived and labored so long, have treated us recently. October last was the 25th anniversary of our wedding day; so we were invited to a sociable in the vestry of our church. All that busy hands and willing hearts could do was done to make the evening enjoyable. There was music and congratulations, conversation and an ample repast for all who came. Then followed some brief addresses, in which many kind words were spoken and duly responded to. In the course of the evening Deacon A. S. McDonald, who was chairman for the occasion, presented us, on behalf of the church and congregation, a purse of $110, and Mr. Edward R. Bishop, on behalf of the congregation at Port Williams, a beautiful silver tea service. It consists of six pieces—three of them gold lined. On the largest piece is engraved: "To Rev. and Mrs. S. B. Kempton, from Port Williams congregation." It was accompanied with a finely worded address. So generous and spontaneous an act, in token of esteem and good will from friends, calls up the deepest gratitude of our hearts. We thank God and take courage." S. B. K.

Get Ready for the Choler.
By using Dr. Hall's hygiene remedy, Dr. Hall goes into all kinds of sick rooms, such as small-pox and fever of all kinds, also cholera, even Asiatic cholera, without ever taking the disease, because his system is perfectly cleaned by the continued use of his treatment. And that is one of the advantages of using it. It cleanses you of the mucus poison that often coats the bowels and throws poison into your blood and produces disease of some kind in you, such as dyspepsia, liver complaint, sick headache, piles, constipation, diarrhoea, lung trouble, sciatica, osteitis—in fact most every contagious disease is a living microbe, bred in sick rooms, and carried off in currents of air, with which you are liable to come in contact. And if your system is full of that mucus poison intensified by taking drugs and patent medicines, you are sure to catch the disease, of whatever kind it is. Now, don't be afraid to spend two dollars to get Dr. Hall's Health Pamphlet that will tell you what to do to cure you of any of these diseases, and keep you from taking any of them, or the cholera either. Vermin never breed in a sand-hill; but if you are a cess-pool of dead matter, or of drug poisons, you cannot avoid the disease you come in contact with. I am receiving the most enthusiastic endorsements of Dr. Hall's remedy from all parts of the continent. No one afflicted with any of these diseases should think of doing without it. You cannot get well by swallowing poisonous drugs or patent medicines. They only make you sicker and leave you worse every time you take them. I had a thorough trial of them many years ago. There is nothing that can purify your blood, while you are doing yourself with poisonous medicines. You must stop causes if you want to stop effects. Quit taking medicines of all kinds and let the secretive organization have time to carry off the diseased matter that is in you, and in the meantime use Dr. Hall's hygiene remedy, which will help nature to do this work of purifying your system, and you will soon have pure blood; and there is no other way to get it. And when your blood is pure you are all right. The Bible says five times that the life of the flesh is in the blood, but if it is full of poison you are full of disease and consequent death. Send for treatise, which I will send to any one free of charge. It will give you a good deal of information about this wonderful remedy, together with a number of testimonials which are not made to order, as many others you read in the papers. Dr. Hall will give you $5,000 if you will find one that is not true. J. H. HUGHES.

—It is reported that a member of the Ontario Legislature intends to vote himself to the Christian mission in connection with the Wesleyan church. The ripple of surprise the report has caused is significant, seems to be generally assumed the politician and the preacher gospel move in spheres morally apart that passing from one to other is out of the question. The supposition is not wholly warranted. There are, of course, in legislatures—both federal and provincial—not a few sincere and earnest Christian men. The Canada Free-trian says of the Ontario Legislature: "Most of that body are promoting some church already, and that they should devote the remainder of his life to the ministry is a fact which he sits." At the same time they too true, we fear, that the ones which too generally prevail in political arena are far from being able to elevate ethical standards or develop strong moral character. If true, as we often hear, that a Christian cannot enter parliament without doing, or at least taking advantage, things which in his relations with church or in the ordinary course of business he would utterly scorn, the most discouraging fact that is stated in reference to the well-beloved our country. This is a matter for consideration only, but of every free and honest elector who pretends to be a good man. So long as Christian will sell their hands with bribes, or giving or taking, what hope is of moral purity for the country? Is a subject on which sound and wise teaching should be heard from our pulpits and every Sunday-school in Christian land.

—By a communication appeared another column from Rev. W. E. Hyatt, the readers of the Messenger and Visitor are informed in reference to the steps which the brethren who are waiting for a separate convention in this province are taking, with a view to forwarding that movement. In reference to this matter it seems unnecessary we should have much to say at the present time. In our congregational system it is well known, there is no power to exercise authority over churches. Whether, therefore, the churches of this province, or part of them, will remain in connection with the present Maritime Convention or organize themselves in a separate body is a question which lies within their own power, and the church will have to consider and determine the matter for itself. We shall only —In a speech to a Welsh audience, Mr. Gladstone is reported to have said: "I am quite sure to have reached a point at which every man of strict religious equality good alike to the interests of all and denominations and for the benefit of the country." This would be a very different kind of estimate from that now existing, in the interests of the mass of the are subordinated to the suppression of a minority. But Mr. Gladstone is right in assuming that not in the interest of the Anglican church even to attempt to maintain influence by unjustly levelling dissenting and unwilling people.

—Chicago is not satisfied with its eclipsing the world in the higher undertakings, and the new University shares largely in the spirit. The latest announcement in connection with this already world institution is that, through the recent gift of Mr. Charles T. Comstock, it is said, to half a million dollars, the university is to be provided with an observatory and a telescope which will greatly surpass any existing. The famous Lick telescope an objective with a diameter of 36 inches. The new observatory is to be of 40 inches, capable, it is said, of giving 25 per cent. more light than the glass. The observatory is to be the finest in the world and the instrument in every respect unequalled. President Harper thus hopes to his ambition to make Chicago University the greatest centre of astronomical discovery and instruction in the
