RUSSIANS REMOVE LAST BARRIER TO ADVANCE ON LEMBERG; GERMANS ON OFFENSIVE NEAR COMBLES

KAISER SENDS HURRIED CALL TO VON HINDENBURG FOR COUNCIL OF WAR

New York, July 18.—A Journal despatch from Amsterdam today says:

"The renewed successes of the Russians in Volhynia have resulted in a hurried summons to Field Marshal Von Hindenburg by the Kaiser to attend a conference on the western front according to reports reaching here from Berlin today.

"It is for the purpose of discussing the critical situation on the east front, and will probably result in Field Marshal Von Hindenburg being given the supreme command of the German and Austro-Hungarian troops from Riga in the north, to Bukovina, in the southeast."

FORD'S "DOVES" RETURN HOME FROM EUROPE

New York, July 18.—The Rev. Dr. Charles F. Aked and Miss Emily Balch, American delegates to the neutral conference for continuous mediation, which is the outgrowth of Henry Ford's peace expedition, and has been sitting in Stockholm, reached New York today aboard the Danish liner Frederik VIII, on their way to consult with Mr. Ford regarding further work for peace.

"Peace in Europe is not possible before spring," said Dr. Aked, on his arrival. "The war must simply burn itself out. France cannot make peace. England is too proud to; Germany offers only unacceptable terms. Talk of German exhaustion is absurd, for, though there is economy of bread, butter and meat, there is no starvation, merely inconvenience."

"An Anglo-German-American alliance is now being hoped for by the intellectuals in Germany. For days last winter we feared a separate peace with Russia on the basis of a Russo-German attack on England through Afghanistan. Austria's collapse alone averted it, and saved the world from a fatal blow to liberal thought."

Dr. Aked asserted that he was bitterly opposed to the congress recently announced programme of peace, which he said the British minister at Stockholm called even more favorable to the Allies than the programme they themselves would have drawn up.

He said he would not return to Europe unless Mr. Ford agreed with him in a much greater concentration of authority and a complete change of policy.

NFLD. BATTALION LOST 400 MEN IN GALLANT CHARGE

Faced Torrent of Bullets from German Machine Guns While Attacking Enemy's Third Line.

London, July 18, (Montreal Gazette cable)—Speaking of the Newfoundlanders' coolness under fire, Sir Edward Morris, premier of Newfoundland, explains that the island battalion, when called upon to take the third line German trenches, were suddenly faced by machine guns. These caused heavy losses, but the Newfoundlanders made a gallant attempt, the best proof of their tenacity being that the battalion suffered 400 casualties. The place where they were stationed was named St. John's Wood, out of compliment to the capital of the ancient colony.

ENEMY IN FULL RETREAT IN SOUTHERN VOLHYNIA

Petrograd, July 18, via London.—A Russian victory over Teutonic forces in Southern Volhynia has resulted in their being driven across the River Lipa and beyond that stream, says a war office statement, issued today. Indications are, the statement adds, that the retreat was effected in the greatest disorder.

In the Riga region efforts by the Germans to retake positions they had lost were unsuccessful.

The official statement says:

"In the Riga region there was an artillery duel. The Germans, at many places, attempted unsuccessfully to recapture lost trenches."

"As the result of the latest skilful operations of Gen. Sakaroff's troops in Volhynia we gained a victory on July 16 which brought us 15,000 prisoners and thirty guns, as announced yesterday, and enabled us to sweep the enemy completely from the left bank of the Lower Lipa, driving him to Krassoff and beyond the river. Judging by the abundance of war material the enemy abandoned he retreated in great disorder. Some of the seventeen heavy guns captured were yesterday already bombarding enemy positions on the south bank of the Lipa.

"Caucasian front: The offensive on our right was continued yesterday. On the 17th our brave Mountain Corps achieved great success, courageously dislodging the enemy from powerful organized positions. In some places not only did the Cossacks attain the snow line, but even crossed it."

"In the region of the town of Medzidag they captured two machine guns, a quantity of arms, and prisoners."

"In the region of Tauris we captured a complete Turkish company."

"In the course of the attack of the 15th before Dalburt we captured a Turkish flag."

"Vienna, via London, July 18.—Austrian advanced positions in the region of Zable and Tatarow, south of Kolomea, in the Carpathian region, have been pressed back by a Russian attack, says the war office statement issued today. The main Austrian positions, however, have been firmly held."

The statement says:

"Near Zable and Tatarow the Russians pressed back our advanced posts. Attacks on our main positions failed, with great enemy losses."

"North of Radziwili, southwest of Lutsk (northeast of Brody, near the Galician border), enemy assaults were also repulsed."

FRANCE CALLS PART OF CLASS OF 1888 TO THE COLORS.

K—France  $\text{reprendra}$   $\text{la}$   $\text{vie}$   $\text{normale}$   $\text{de}$   $\text{la}$   $\text{France}$ , July 18.—The government has called to the colors a part of the class of 1888, that is, men from forty-seven to forty-eight years of age, except those in munition factories and, for the present, farmers and farm laborers who are now busy with the harvest.

Expert workers of various sorts of the class of 1888 had already been called, some months ago.

He will not return to Ottawa, but will sail for England from New York. He is accompanied by his staff officer, Major John Bassett, and has two private secretaries, Miss M. Adam and Miss Creegan.

It is understood that Gen. Hughes is going to the front, but in what capacity is not known. It is presumed that he will be attached to Sir Douglas Haig's staff, and that he will return to Canada some time in the fall.

DESCRIBES SETTLEMENT SCHEMES ADOPTED IN OTHER PARTS OF EMPIRE

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, July 18.—At the conference today between Sir Rider Haggard and the sub-committee of the Privy Council, the former described the various land settlement schemes adopted throughout the Empire.

Before leaving he will hold another conference. Any land settlement scheme by the federal government will necessitate amendment to the home stead laws and legislation to this effect will be introduced next session to make the home stead regulations conform to the policy adopted.

At the conclusion of the conference with Sir Rider Haggard the sub-committee of the Privy Council will consult with the governments of the provinces controlling their lands, and if possible arrive at some land settlement policy adaptable to the whole Dominion.

This interesting experiment will be watched with interest, and the boys

TERRIFIC FIGHT MARKED TAKING OF OVILLERS

Of Two Prussian Regiments Which Defended Town 125 Men Survived.

CUT OFF FROM REST OF ARMY FOR WEEK

British Present Arms as Prisoners Pass in Recognition of Bravery of their Defence.

Paris, July 18.—The capture of Ovillers by the British necessitated one of the most sanguinary encounters of the advance, wires a correspondent of the Liberator. Nevertheless the British were well rewarded for their effort, for they gained possession of the broad highway leading from Albert to Bapaume.

The village was defended for ten days by two regiments of the Prussian Guard. The correspondent says that of these regiments only 125 men survived, all of them having been captured. It was at Ovillers that the British offensive which began July 1, was held up while the remainder of the line was pushing forward. From July 7 on the village was cut off almost completely from the German rear, but it was not until July 14 that the desperate resistance of the Prussian Guard ended. The Germans suffered greatly from hunger and thirst as the British cut off their supplies. Some of the Germans were reported to have been poisoned by drinking polluted water from a pond, and others to have been driven mad by the bombardment. When the survivors left the village as prisoners the British presented arms in recognition of the bravery of their defence.

CRAZED NEGRO SHOOTS SEVEN IN CHICAGO

Police Finally Dynamited House in Which He and Wife Barricaded Themselves, Killing Both.

Chicago, July 18.—A negro religious fanatic, H. J. McIntyre, becoming violently insane today shot four persons to death, wounded three, and was himself killed with his wife after 150 police had dynamited the house in which he was barricaded.

McIntyre and his wife, who were armed with powerful rifles, were shot to death. The police were held at bay for more than an hour.

The police found an explanation of McIntyre's deed in a note which he left scrawled in lead pencil on a sheet of wrapping paper.

"The Almighty God has made me a prophet unto all nations, and also my wife, Hattie McIntyre," ran the note.

"You shall know that the Lord has sent me to gather unto the Lord the remnant of the Adonitic seed."

The dead are: Stuart Dean, 40 years old, policeman; Mrs. Josephine Overmeyer, 28 years old, neighbor; Edward Knox, 34 years old, negro neighbor; Alfred Matthews, 30 years old, negro neighbor; H. J. McIntyre, negro, the crazed man, 30 years old; Mrs. Hattie McIntyre, negro, wife of the slayer, 30 years old.

At the institution are delighted with the prospect of some of their number being given the opportunity to blow the bugle or beat the drum. Their instruction will be in the hands of Sergeant Instructor Ryder.

FIERCE BATTLE RAGING IN LONGUEVAL SALIENT

Germans Take Offensive After Preliminary Bombardment with New Make of Poisonous Gas Shell—Gen. Haig's Strategy Shown—Enemy's Defences Likely to Prove Less Difficult as Allies Advance.

With the exception of the region of Longueval and south of the Somme, at Blaches, relative calm prevails on the fighting front in France. The British and Germans are engaged in a sanguinary conflict in the region of the Longueval salient, to the northwest of Combles. With the clearing of the weather the Germans have taken the aggressive here, after a preliminary bombardment in which a new asphyxiating gas shell was used. At last accounts no decision had been reached in the battle.

SAME METHODS AS AFTER FIRST GREAT DRIVE

British Fortifying Positions Won, Feeling Way with Big Guns and Picking Spot for Next Thrust.

British Front in France, July 18, via London.—On that map of "part-colored patches" at headquarters which shows at a glance each day's progress of the offensive, there is one for today's work, to the hour of writing so far as known, north of Ovillers and west of Posteres, and another west of Posteres.

The British apparently are following the same methods after the second big attack as after the first, fortifying the positions gained, staking German machine gun detachments, taking successful tactical points and feeling their way systematically, while their concentrations of gunfire give no information where next the infantry is going to act.

"Shells" said a gunner who remembered the days of munitions starvation. "It is no longer a case of asking for more, but of somebody in the rear asking over the telephone if we have enough."

It cleared after yesterday's rain, which did not interrupt the shelling or the taking yesterday of 1,500 yards of a second line trench west of Posteres, which has been the centre of interest for the last 24 hours. This village sits on a high and commanding position, and the British have now established themselves on either side of its ruins, into which they continued today pouring a big volume of shell fire.

The Germans were seen using for the first time in this section a poisonous shell which does not explode but emits an asphyxiating gas. At first sight it may be mistaken for what is known as a "Dud," an army term for a shell which has failed to detonate.

GERMANS LET HIM ATTEND FUNERAL OF MAJ. S. J. JONES

London, July 18, (Montreal Gazette cable)—Pte. Eugene P. Buonaparte, of the Fifth University Company, Princess Patricia's, has written from Moorslede, Belgium, where he is wounded and a prisoner, stating that he was allowed to be present at the funeral with military honors of Major Stanley Livingston Jones, of the Patricia's. Major Jones was a native of Wolfville, N. S., practiced law with the Calgary firm of Lent, Jones and McKay, was secretary of the Alberta Liberal Association, fought through the South African war, and went through the Balkan war as a correspondent. He was wounded on June 2, lay for 36 hours without attention, and died in a Belgian hospital. Mrs. Jones, who is a daughter of Gen. W. M. Ross, of the United States army, has been doing French Red Cross work. She is now residing in England.

KING ASKS GEN. HAIG TO CONGRATULATE TROOPS ON THEIR GREAT SUCCESS

London, July 18.—King George today sent the following message to Gen. Sir Douglas Haig, commander of the British troops on the Franco-Belgian front:

"The continued successful advance of my troops fills me with admiration, and I send my best wishes to all ranks. The Emperor of Russia has asked me to convey his warm congratulations to the troops upon their great success they have achieved."

(Signed) GEORGE R. I."

Gen. Haig replied as follows:

"The British armies in France offer most respectful and grateful thanks for this further mark of Your Majesty's gracious appreciation of what they have accomplished. They also respectfully beg that their grateful acknowledgments be conveyed to the Emperor of Russia for His Majesty's congratulations."

NEARLY HALF BILLION IN SHELL ORDERS

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, July 18.—The British orders in Canada for shells and high explosives now total nearly half a billion dollars. So far Canada has delivered over two hundred millions of dollars worth. At present the value of daily deliveries is nearly one million dollars and by the end of the year this will be increased to thirty-five million dollars worth per month.

The new fuse manufacturing plant in Montreal is now being operated with great success and this country can produce for Great Britain over 20,000 completed shells per day. The chief difficulty now is the scarcity of skilled workmen. The Imperial Munitions Board is urging upon manufacturers the employment of more female labor. An illustrated booklet on training and employment of women in munition production published by the British Minister of Munitions has been distributed among Canadian manufacturers.

U.S. SENATE PASSES NEW NAVAL PROGRAMME

KING'S COUNTY MOURNS LOSS OF AGED RESIDENT

George Ellison who Died on Friday, aged 81 years, had Lived in Apohaqui for Half Century.

(From a Special Correspondent.) Apohaqui, July 17.—In the death of George Ellison, Apohaqui has lost one of the oldest, most interesting and most respected citizens. He had passed the three score years and ten by fully eleven years, and had seen the growth of this village from almost a wilderness to its present comfortable and prosperous condition, wherein dwells, in pleasant homes, a happy and contented people. One could listen to Mr. Ellison, by the hour, as the writer did many a time, and hear him tell in his pleasant interesting way stories of his boyhood days, and of the olden folk, and of times, when Apohaqui was a stretch of alder swamp, woods and virgin forest, out of which here, as elsewhere, our fathers brought forth, by hard work and serious toil, the farms and home lands of today. The deceased would often say "the boys and young men of today know little of work, and have little to do, in comparison with the labor and hardships, dangers and risks, too, endured and conquered by the old folk and pioneers of the country." As already announced in The Standard, he departed this life on last Friday afternoon, dying in the comfortable cottage home in which he had resided for nearly half a century, that home one of the first in the locality. He learned his trade as a general blacksmith and iron worker, when a young man, and had carried it on very successfully all his manhood days, until the last few years, when he retired for a well earned rest, watched over and attended to in his falling health by a devoted wife and daughter. During his life he took a deep interest in the welfare of the country, an active part in government work, and was employed more or less in his line of business, during the building of the I. C. R., which as he said "he had lived to see, one of the best lines in Canada, a boon and convenience of untold value, and owned by the people themselves, something we could not do without today, although he had heard lots of croakers, when it was being built, condemn it, get off their lies about boiler and craft and say as a fisher, it would never pay for the axle grease."

The old gentleman would sometimes add "those croakers are nearly all dead and buried long ago, but the I. C. R. still lives, and I am living too, thank God, to see the line a success. Now there is another brood of croakers and liars at their dirty work, trying to persuade people that this is a good government is a bad one and there are lots of idiots in the country led away by them; look at Westminster the other day." Mrs. Ellison came of good English family, was loyal British subject, of Imperial stamp, loyal to Canada, as part of the Empire, loyal to England and England's king. In politics he was a staunch Conservative, a faithful friend and adviser. On Sunday, just about forty-eight hours after his spirit had returned to the God who gave it, thus going to reap his reward, the mortal remains were taken to his former home to the Church of England, where the beautiful solemn and inspiring funeral service of the church which he loved, was given over the casket, in which rested all that was left on earth of the departed. During the service in the sacred edifice, by Rev. Mansel Shewan, rector of the parish, three favorite hymns of the deceased were sung, namely, No. 260, "A Few More Years Shall Roll"; "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," and 18, "O God of Truth, O Lord of Might." The funeral service was given beside the open grave. Immediately after the local Foresters, in their regalia, performed the burial rites of their order over the grave of their departed brother. They had accompanied the body from his former home to the church and the graveyard, their service was solemn and touching and during this service, too, the beautiful hymn, "Nearer My God, to Thee," was sung by the brethren and many others surrounding the grave. Thus was laid to rest a man, a neighbor and a Christian, who had won the esteem of a host of friends. His memory will long remain not only with those near of kin, but with many who had learned to regard him for his many good and kindly qualities.

BRITISH SAILORS RELIEF MEETING POORLY ATTENDED

At the meeting held yesterday afternoon on behalf of the British Sailors' Relief Fund, in the Board of Trade rooms, the chair was taken by J. A. Likely, who first called upon the honorary secretary of the fund, M. P. Pennell, Jr. of Montreal, to address those present. Arrangements were made to secure the active interest of those in the province who appreciate the work done by both the British navy and the mercantile marine in the direction of obtaining contributions for the objects in view. R. E. Armstrong said he thought the local executive should receive authority to distribute circulars through him as honorary secretary, asking for subscriptions in selected districts. A. M. Bolding suggested that appeals in the Moncton district and North Shore towns should be left with the committee of the fund in Moncton. M. E. Agar said he thought it would be inadvisable that St. John should undertake more than its proper share of the efforts and should confine itself to work in Charlottetown, Kings, Queens and St. John counties, leaving Fredericton to look after the river towns. H. C. Schofield said he thought circulars should be sent out and be followed by personal canvass. Colonel E. T. Sturdee agreed generally with Mr. Schofield's proposals. Capt. Mulcahy thought some very definite form of appointment between the navy and merchant marine should be made. C. W. Hallamore suggested that the banks be authorized to receive subscriptions. A. W. Adams agreed generally with the suggestions made by the various speakers. It was ultimately agreed to issue circulars calling for subscriptions, these circulars to be accompanied by an explanatory letter and to organize a system of personal canvass afterwards. The meeting was adjourned until next Monday at 3 o'clock.

Misses Eleanor and Kathleen Moss Victims of Tragedy in Lake L'Achigan, P. Q.

Sackville, July 17.—Sackville was deeply shocked to hear of the sudden death by drowning of Misses Eleanor and Kathleen Moss. Both girls were well known in town, and during their residence here had made a large number of friends. The deepest sympathy is expressed for the bereaved mother, who is prostrated by grief. The accident occurred about four o'clock p. m. Thursday at Lake L'Achigan, about ten miles from Shawbridge, in Quebec. The girls had taken advantage of the fine day for a swim. They were in apparently shallow water not far from shore and a number of youngsters were playing nearby. The exact cause of the accident could not be ascertained, but it is supposed that while frolicking together they stepped into a deep hole, or that one of them got into difficulty and the other went to her assistance. The children heard the two girls scream almost simultaneously and were then struggling together in the water for a moment before they disappeared. Many persons were in the vicinity and in response to the calls of the children half a dozen boats and canoes were soon plying about the spot where the girls went down. The bodies were recovered about an hour after the accident. Dr. Whales, coroner of the district, was notified and is disposed of the case as accidental death, no jury being called. The two girls with their mother had taken up their summer residence on the shore of Lake L'Achigan less than a week ago. Mrs. Moss is prostrated with grief and is under the care of a physician at her cottage. Mrs. Moss is the widow of the late Charles E. Moss, a widely known artist at Ottawa, and a sister of Professor Hurton of Sackville. She had resided in Sackville for four years previous to last September, when she and her daughters left for Montreal, her family consisted of three children, the two daughters, Eleanor and Kathleen, and one son, Arthur H. ### CARLETON COUNTY NOT GRIT NOR TORY, BUT "ANTI-CARVELL"

Centreville Reader of The Standard Presents a Few More Truths which Mr. Carvell Would be Very Willing to Have His Constituents Forget.

To the Editor of "The Standard," Sir,—Your Harland correspondent has certainly given a correct report of the Carvell meeting recently held here. Never in the history of political meetings in this community did one fall as flat as did this one of Carvell's. His chairman recognized the atmosphere of the meeting and did not dare to put the motion endorsing Carvell. It was moved and seconded, neither yeas nor nays were called for; the chairman simply presented it and Carvell accepted it in that manner. Fred Tweedie, the chairman, knew what he was doing and realized the motion would not receive a very hearty response from the audience, and for newspaper purposes tricked it through and then the Telegraph declared it was unanimously carried.

Mr. Carvell had a lot to say about what he has saved the country, but there is another side of his history, that a few hide-bound followers of the Black Bill type may forget, but there are hundreds of others who have not forgotten and who will not, who cannot forget. The people of Centreville have not forgotten that Mr. Carvell, standing on the same platform from which he recently spoke, with his hand lifted to heaven, declared and promised that if the then Liberal Government would build the Transcontinental across the country, instead of down the valley, he would resign his seat in the House of Commons. The railway went across country. Mr. Carvell did not resign his seat; worse than that, he deserted Mr. Blair, in his brave fight to prevent this crime, and voted for the road to follow the present route. There it lies, rusting out—a monument of folly, a monument of the most shameful, wicked political deal that Canada ever saw.

WHY?
Frank B. Carvell, Member of Parliament for the County of Carleton, N. B., and George W. Kyte, Member of Parliament for the County of Richmond, N. S., have made serious allegations against a responsible minister of the Canadian Government and responsible Canadian officials.

These allegations and comments upon them by the men named and the Liberal press have had the effect of defaming Canada and of arousing throughout the world a contempt and prejudice against this country.

Free and full investigation of the allegations made by Carvell and Kyte has shown there was no corruption or dishonesty on the part of the Minister of the Canadian Government or the Canadian officials referred to.

Why should Frank B. Carvell, Member of Parliament for the County of Carleton, N. B., and George W. Kyte, Member of Parliament for the County of Richmond, N. S., be permitted to remain in Canadian public life?

NORTH PERTH AND PROHIBITION

Under the above heading the Toronto News calls attention to Ontario prohibitionists to the result of the North Perth bye-election and observes: "Practically there was only one issue in North Perth. It is one of the two or three strongest German constituencies in Ontario. It also includes the city of Stratford. In Stratford the liquor interest is formidable and there are few prohibitionists amongst the Germans. In this we do not reflect upon the Germans, upon Stratford or upon the liquor interest. We do not expect the trade to feel friendly towards the Hearst Government. Governments and not oppositions, are held responsible for legislation. If temperance people will not support the Government which has declared that prohibition shall prevail in Ontario, other constituencies as well as North Perth will be carried by the Liberal party."

It will be noticed that the News verifies the Standard's contention that North Perth contains a large German vote, and makes the Telegraph more than usually ridiculous because of its statement that there were no more pro-German votes there than in St. John. It is not the intention of the Standard at this time to deal with the pro-German matter, but to consider more particularly the effect of the Hearst Government's prohibition policy upon the bye-election result. The Ontario Government made prohibition a Government measure, and by that action lost the support of the liquor party and earned the favor and gratitude of the prohibitionists. The opportunity was thus plainly in the hands of the prohibitionists, but apparently they did not avail themselves of it. If Liberal prohibitionists prefer to hold to their party principles and vote to defeat the Government that gave them the boon they had long asked for "there is" as the News says, "hardly a doubt that the restoration of the license system will follow its defeat."

Prohibitionists in this province may well consider the lesson of North Perth. There, the liquor interests solidly opposed the Government because that Government, at the behest of the prohibitionists, had legislated them out of existence. Did the prohibitionists give them the solid support they should have extended? If so there is no ground for complaint, but if not it is quite within the bounds of fairness to say that the prohibitionists were not only ungrateful but also unwise. As the Toronto News says, "this is a human world and prohibitionists cannot defeat one party because it establishes prohibition and continue to have prohibition."

In New Brunswick the Clarke Government has given to the prohibition party more than that party has asked and, already, the opposition is quietly making political capital against it at that very ground. In all fairness that lesson of North Perth should not be forgotten, for no matter what pledges the opposition may make in their platforms, their successful candidate in the recent bye-election in Westmorland is already on record as saying that he was uncertain as to the wisdom of the Government's course in its prohibitory legislation. He favored the idea of an appeal to the people. The Government wisely decided that such an appeal need not be made as the great preponderance of sentiment was in favor of abolition.

where, out of two regiments of the famous Prussian Guard but 125 marched out as prisoners, the remainder having been killed or wounded. At the same time there is a cable to the New York Journal which says that the Kaiser has summoned General Von Hindenburg to a conference for the purpose of discussing the critical situation in the east. It has also been shown that the latest German attack on the defenders of Verdun was the least formidable of any delivered since the stage of that position commenced.

These things indicate very plainly that the man power of Germany is fast waning. The Allied offensive on the Somme has given the enemy something to think about, and the failure of the Verdun attacks can be due to no other cause than the lack of sufficient reserves to serve both fields of battle. The British have plentiful, well served arsenals and, opposed to that, the Germans can only maintain their lines by continued reinforcements. And these reinforcements are not available.

The fact that the Crown Prince cannot be served with reinforcements at Verdun gives color to the report that there are no men to send to Bukovina or the other areas of fighting in the East, hence the conference between the Kaiser and his harried war chiefs. It was stated some days ago that Von Hindenburg demanded 250,000 additional men before he would undertake a fresh offensive to the advance of the Russians, and as no success has attended the Taton attempts to stop the advance of the Muscovites, it is presumed he has not received the assistance needed.

The campaign of 1916 is yet young. In fact it has little more than commenced, and there is an abundance of "good fighting weather" ahead. It is now almost impossible that the Central Powers can achieve a speedy and decisive success, yet if they do not their hopes are gone. Each day brings additional evidence that the present major campaigns will be well completed before the commencement of winter. After that there may be a prolonged period of desultory fighting, but to all intents and purposes the backbone of the German resistance has already been broken.

For infantry attacks we have the machine gun. For fortifications, artillery proves an effective destroying agency. The dreadnought meets the dreadnought; the torpedo boat is checked by the destroyer. In the air the smaller aeroplanes have been able to effectively operate against the massive Zeppelins. Gas attacks are met by helmets devised since the war began. But for the undersea craft there is no answer but luck.

The British navies, threatened by German submarines, of a degree of efficiency never previously believed possible, have sought in vain for something in the nature of adequate protection. It is true that during the past year or more many of these hostile craft have come to grief at the hands of British seamen. Some have found their way into traps; others have been lured to destruction by decoy vessels, while still others, daring too much, have gone to the bottom for the last time with shells from warships in their interiors. But these methods of destruction are at the best only desultory and none has proved to be the real solution of the problem for which all maritime nations must seek. Possibly the time will come when the presence of submarines may be detected with certainty even while under water, just as readily as vessels on the surface may now be seen. But until that time comes there will be in all minds a constant fear of attack from this hidden evil.

It is stated that Britain's loss in commercial shipping through Germany's submarine warfare has been but a small percentage of her total tonnage. This is true, no doubt, but it is equally true that these losses form a fairly large percentage of the tonnage engaged in those waters where the campaign has been carried on, and that these losses have hampered to some extent the operations of Britain's transport. Realizing this, the abilities of British scientists are turned to the submarine as never before, and as the strain and stress of great affairs always bring out the best of the human mind it is altogether probable that before long there will come into existence some engine of war capable of dealing with the now unanswerable terror of the sea. Certainly the latest German development is no mystery to Britain in view of the fact that the British navy captured undamaged the first submarine of the type which recently crossed the Atlantic.

GERMANY WEAKENING.
That the Germans have suffered irreparable losses as the result of the Allied offensives in all areas of combat cannot be hidden from the world, no matter how skillfully the Kaiser's press agencies seek to evade the cost and magnify the gain. Yesterday morning the Standard published the copies of regimental despatches captured from the enemy which showed that in the case of one regiment of Bavarian infantry the wastage from British artillery fire was so great that the entire unit had been reduced to less than fifty men. This morning is given the story of a Press correspondent regarding the fighting at Oulvas.

CONCERNING THE SUBMARINE
One of the most striking developments, from the scientific standpoint, in the present great war, has been, and no doubt will continue to be, the perfecting of the submarine. Whether or not this type of vessel will prove of commercial value remains to be seen, and while there may at this time be marked difference of opinion on the subject of Germany's latest adaptation of the underwater craft, it is clearly apparent that in warfare, at least, the submarine is the one great unanswered argument.

For infantry attacks we have the machine gun. For fortifications, artillery proves an effective destroying agency. The dreadnought meets the dreadnought; the torpedo boat is checked by the destroyer. In the air the smaller aeroplanes have been able to effectively operate against the massive Zeppelins. Gas attacks are met by helmets devised since the war began. But for the undersea craft there is no answer but luck.

Marriage of Miss Alice L. Sigourney and F. L. Converse Performed on Camp Ground, on Eve of Groom's Departure with Regiment.

Sackville, July 17.—The following, which is taken from the Boston Evening Transcript, will be of interest to many in Sackville, as Miss Sigourney was spent a couple of summers here with Captain and Mrs. Hanson, and Mr. Converse has also been a visitor in Sackville.

"That war and rumors of war are among the greatest helpers Dean Cupid has ever enlisted, is evidenced by the number of marriages in Boston for the month of June, which total 1,169, more than 100 ahead of last year, and the largest number in the history of the city.

"War thus takes its place as a stimulant of romance with summer nights, moonlight at sea and the lure of a canoe as it thruts its nose through the calm water. Not all the increase in the number of marriages may properly be traced to the war scare, but a great many may be laid at its doors.

"Aside from the martial note that has attended the departure of the troops, the departed month has made a sorry showing for a month of its capabilities so far as encouraging romance is concerned.

"Every day since the news was noised about that the Massachusetts 'Gentlemen in khaki' had been 'ordered south' the papers have been filled with bride stories.

"Rich girls and poor girls, society girls and the girls behind the counter, pretty girls—and possibly some plain girls—have hastened to the altar, oftentimes an improvised affair on the camp ground, and joined their fortunes with their soldier sweethearts, some of whom may be left behind when the homeward-bound orders are issued.

"Of all the marriages none is more

Interesting than that of Miss Alice L. Sigourney of No. 77 Beacon street, daughter of Mrs. Henry Sigourney, who was married to Frank Leo Converse, a member of one of the most prominent Boston families, at Camp Whitney.

"Miss Sigourney is one of the most prominent girls of Boston society. She is a member of the Vincent Club, of the Sewing Circle, and is a welcome guest at the most exclusive functions. When the doors swung open only to the favored few.

"Her husband is equally prominent. Member of a rich and distinguished Boston family, Harvard man of the class of '14, member of the great South street bank that bears his family name, he has been regarded as one of the most desirable Boston bachelors.

"Ordinarily the wedding of these young people would be surrounded with all the trappings that distinguish weddings of the rich and prominent.

"Instead, their altar was a little temporary affair at Camp Whitney, their church the vast open plain, and their audience hundreds of khaki-clad soldiers drawn from every station in life.

"Mr. Converse is a member of Battery A, one of the crack divisions of the First Heavy Artillery. Today he is drawing near the border, if he and his comrades have not already de-trained. His bride of a few days is with her family at their beautiful summer home on Nahant.

"Miss Sigourney was married by the Rev. J. O'Connor, chaplain of the 1st Regiment. The ceremony was performed only half an hour before the first unit of the Massachusetts troops started for the front."

This is the season when she who would have a lily-white complexion should turn her thoughts to mercolized wax, the firm friend of the summer girl. Nothing so effectively overcomes the soiling effects of sun, wind, dust and dirt. The wax literally absorbs the secreted discolored, freckled, withered or coarsened cuticle, bringing forth a brand new skin, clear, soft and girlishly beautiful. It also unclogs the pores, removing blackheads and increasing the skin's breathing capacity. An ounce of mercolized wax, obtainable at any druggist, applied steadily like cold cream, and washed off mornings, will gradually improve the worst complexion.

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL WILL BUILD HOSPITAL POWER HOUSE

Plans Will be Considered at Special Meeting—Vote of $1,500 for Soldiers' Comforts and $1,000 to European War Veterans—Parish Revisors Appointed.

At the meeting of the municipal council yesterday afternoon it was decided that a new power house should be built at the General Public Hospital provided the plans and specifications meet with the approval of the council, plans to be submitted at a special meeting to be held not later than one month from date. It was also decided to vote an additional sum of $1,500 to the Soldiers' Comfort Association, making a total of $4,000, and $1,000 to the European War Veterans' Association. The salary of Turnkey Boxes was advanced to the same figure as the other turnkeys received.

The council was called to order by the warden at 2:30, those present were: Councillors Hayes, Wigmore, Russell, Dean, Golding, O'Brien, Howard, Boland, Shanklin, Carson, Stephenson, Bryant, Fisher, Thompson and Shillington. The first business was the reading of the election returns from the parish of St. Martins which declared J. A. Howard elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Robert Connolly. The warden referred to the loss sustained by the death of Councillor Connolly and welcomed his successor, Councillor Howard. The warden referred to the fact that Councillor Thompson, Musquash, had been absent from two meetings without permission from the council and unless council gave him leave of absence he would have to declare his seat vacant. On motion Councillor Thompson was granted leave of absence from February 1st to date.

The finance committee made the following recommendations:

The payment of bills passed by the auditor amounting to $31.93.

(a) That a separate power house, containing laundry, electrical plant, etc., be provided for the General Public Hospital as requested by the board of commissioners, and that the details be subject to the approval of a consulting engineer.

(b) That bonds be issued to pay for the erection of the same amounting to $30,000, terms, interest, per cent., payable half-yearly with sinking fund. The balance of cost of construction, if any, to be carried and paid for by annual assessments.

(c) That the insurance money collected on the loss of the isolation hospital be placed to the credit of the new building account and the balance of the cost of the said building be financed until completion thereof, and that hereafter bonds be issued for the balance, and until such bonds are issued and sold that the county treasurer make the necessary financial arrangements for payment of the contractors' progress estimates.

That the bills of William J. Cotter, R. R. Burley and Charles A. Emery, for assistance to the board of valuers, be paid on the certificate of the warden and secretary.

That the application of the Provincial Lime Co. for permission to lay a water pipe across the highway road at Brookville be granted. The work to be done under the supervision of the councilors of the Parish of Simonds and subject to their approval and a deposit of fifty dollars made to be returned when the councilors were satisfied that the road was in as good condition as before it was dug up. Section one was adopted, section two came in for considerable discussion.

Councillor Wigmore explained that the building of the new power house would give increased accommodation and remove a fire hazard which now existed in the present building. It would also result in a saving in the cost of operation as they would be able to supply their own lights. The figures for maintenance now were $13,000, while in the new plant they would only amount to $12,165 including interest. In answer to Councillor O'Brien, Councillor Wigmore explained that if the new power house was not built new boilers would have to be installed in the hospital, as the inspector had condemned those which were there. Sub-section A was finally amended to read as follows: "The words subject to the approval of a consulting engineer were stricken out and these added after the word details; and plans to be submitted to a meeting of this council to be held not later than one month from date. Sub-section B was stricken from the report. Sections three, four and five were adopted.

The appeals committee reported that they had appeals from Rudolph Bedard, James S. Gregory, William Levi and William J. Dean and recommended that appeal of Rudolph Bedard be dismissed; the appeal of James S. Gregory be referred to the assessors of the Parish of Lancaster and the councillors of the parish with recommendation that a reduction be made on land fronting on Lancaster Avenue if it is established that the area will not measure out according to assessors' estimate; the appeal of William Levi be dismissed; that the appeal of William J. Dean be allowed and his assessed value reduced $700.

A communication was read from Lieut. Col. Guthrie in regard to the organization of returned soldiers' associations and in this connection the warden asked the council to vote $1,000 to the funds of the European War Veterans' Association when the time came that they would require it. It was also decided to vote $1,500 to the Soldiers' Comfort Association, making a total of $4,000 for this work. $100 was voted to the Mayor of the city to provide for stranded foreigners.

Councillors Shillington and Stephenson were appointed revisors for the Parish of Simonds. Councillor Howard was appointed a revisor for the Parish of St. Martins. Councillors Dean and Thompson were appointed revisors for the Parish of Musquash. Councillor O'Brien moved that the salary of Turnkey Boxes be increased to the same amount which the other turnkeys received. Councillor Howard moved that a committee be appointed to investigate the alleged claim of the county against the city but failed to find a seconder for his motion. At this time, as the warden had to leave, Councillor Hayes took the chair. The county secretary brought up the matter of raising some specified time for the paying of bills. This was referred to the finance committee to report. Councillor Dean moved that the assessments of George J. Anderson, J. D. Anderson, Miss Nettie Anderson, Charles Anderson, Oscar Hanson, Charles Hanson, Ed-

SOLDIERS ARE GRATEFUL TO N.B.'S AGENT

F. W. Sumner of Moncton Receives Batch of Letters from Wounded Members of New Brunswick Regiment.

F. W. Sumner of Moncton, agent general for New Brunswick in London, has received from the London office a number of letters from New Brunswick soldiers now in hospitals. One letter which is not from a New Brunswicker is, however, from a man in the 26th N. B. Regiment. His name is Chas. McFale, and he is now undergoing treatment in No. 3 Southern General Hospital in Oxford. He says among other things, "I received the book and also a letter from you, but do not know if I am the man you mean. You have my regimental number all right, but I was drafted into the 26th in October last, having enlisted from Peterborough, Ont. On June 4th I was wounded and have lost my right eye, but I am getting along all right."

Sergeant F. Leadbetter writing from the Red Cross Hospital, Pembury, Kent, England, thanks Mr. Sumner for the book which he received. Sergeant Leadbetter was wounded by shrapnel, being punctured in the eyes and face and receiving a fractured collar bone. He is very pleased to be able to report that he is getting along well. His home address is 15 Middle street, St. John.

From Edinburgh War Hospital, Graeme M. Paterson reports that he is nearly recovered, and expects to be out again very shortly. He asks particularly for New Brunswick newspapers, but by this time is no doubt receiving them, for a sufficient number have been sent to the hospital in which he is stationed and also to the New Brunswick office.

Pte. J. T. Elliott, who is in the Hford Emergency Hospital in Essex, Kent, England, thanks Mr. Sumner for the book which he received through the hospital suffering from slight shrapnel wounds in the knee. He is getting along splendidly, and is having a very pleasant time, being well looked after by the doctors and nurses. Pte. Elliott's home address is 33 Murray street, St. John.

Robt. B. Howard of West Quaco, St. John county, writes that he has received parcels forwarded through the New Brunswick office, that he is feeling much better, and that he has been removed from the hospital in which he formerly was, to the Convalescent Camp at Epsom.

Far Hanson and P. K. Hanson be sent to the appeals committee. Councillor Russell claimed that the motion was out of order as these persons should have appeared personally before the appeals committee. Councillor O'Brien said that as a member of the appeals committee he did not propose to waste time as this was a personal matter between the assessor and Councillor Dean. The chairman declared the motion out of order. The chairman of the finance committee was authorized to sign cheques with the warden in the absence of the county secretary and treasurer. Council then adjourned.

Preserving costs less this year

All fruits promise to be plentiful, very fine in quality and much lower in price. Housewives should plan to take advantage of this and fill their shelves full of delicious preserves.

Lantic Sugar

The best sugar for all preserving is slightly higher in price but this increase—a little over a cent per pound—is more than offset by the greatly decreased cost of fruit. Crop reports promise the cheapest fruit in years. The prudent house-keeper will fill every jar she owns.

PRESERVING LABELS FREE—Send us a red ball trade mark cut from a bag or carton and we will send you a book of 54 ready gummed printed labels containing 6 for each of the following fruits: strawberries, raspberries, blackberries, currants, grapes, cherries, plums, peaches and pears.

MOOSEPATH THIS EVENING.
 Considerable interest is being displayed among the horsemen on the result of the match race between Car Ferry and Bingen Light on the Moosepath track this evening. The match is for one hundred dollars a side. A match for fifty a side was raced about a week ago in which the Bingen horse proved the winner, but the heats were so closely contested that the followers of Car Ferry think that this horse has a good chance of winning this evening. In addition to the match there will be a class race with some of the best horses in the city starting. The first heat will start at seven o'clock.

ST. PETER'S LEAGUE GAME.
 The game in St. Peter's league last night was between the Shamrocks and Roses and nine innings of fairly good ball was played. McMurtry wants to get wise and not run out first base without touching it on those long drives of his.
 The score by innings was:

HAD MIRACULOUS ESCAPE FROM DEATH UNDER A CAR

Gunner Wyatt of Ninth Siege Battery Victim of Accident on Prince William Street Last Evening - Taken to Hospital Badly Bruised and Cut.

Gunner Wyatt of the Siege Battery on Partridge Island had a narrow escape from death when he was run over by a street car on Prince William street, a few minutes before eight o'clock last evening. Helene Crawford and Josephine King, who are employed in the Stadium cafe, witnessed the accident. The soldier was seen crossing the car track directly in front of the car which was proceeding south along Prince William street. He evidently did not notice the approaching car, and the motorman was not expecting the soldier to step on the track. On seeing the danger the motorman at once applied the brakes and brought the car to a stop, but not before the soldier was knocked down. He rolled under the fender and was pushed along the pavement by the car trucks. The accident happened almost in front of the Stadium cafe and caused much excitement. Wyatt was helplessly pinned under the car and his

Some weeks ago The Standard announced that for the rate of two dollars per year it would send papers to any hospitals in England in which New Brunswick soldiers might be stationed. There was a very ready response to this suggestion, and in the meantime The Standard went to a great deal of trouble in securing the names of hospitals in which New Brunswick men are located. Neither the New Brunswick office in London, nor the Militia Department in Ottawa were, apparently, able to furnish a complete list of these hospitals, but from other sources, generally from England, The Standard has obtained definite addresses of something like one hundred and twenty hospitals in which New Brunswickers are now being restored to health and strength. There are perhaps others which will be learned from time to time. That these papers are appreciated by the men is evidenced by the numbers of letters The Standard is receiving. The superintendent of the Granville Canadian Special Hospital at Ramsgate, Kent, England, writes that at least three copies per day he sent to his hospital because there are, as a rule, a large number of New Brunswick men there. He says: "I can assure you that these papers are much appreciated, and I wish to extend to our friends sincere thanks for their kindness and interest in this hospital."

CHAPLAIN KUHRING WRITES INTERESTINGLY OF HIS WORK

No. 3 Canadian Stationary Hospital. France, 1st July, 1916. Even though we are for the time being on foreign soil, it must needs be that we remember the land that gave us birth - our fair Dominion of Canada. If in the past we have had our hearts swell with pride, how much more today when the whole world acclaims the valor of our sons and daughters. Tried and tested in the fire and furnace of affliction we have by the grace of God not been found wanting, and Dominion Day, July 1st 1916, marks a distinctive era in our sense of responsibility for Dominion, and gratitude for the privilege of yielding our best for the cause of the progress of the race. Life is too serious to waste our efforts at present in mere pleasant entertainments, and so from the good angels our sisters came the suggestion that we subscribe to fund to purchase flowers to decorate the graves of our Dominion heroes who lie in the cemeteries near by. No. 3 Can. Gen. Hospital are allotted St. Martin's cemetery. No. 3 Stationary Hospital are allotted that at Wimeureux. It was my good fortune to assist at Wimeureux. At 5 a. m. the sisters are astir, ready to proceed at 6 a. m. to the market in Boulogne to secure the best of the flowers (none too good for our lads). It seems as if all nature is in accord with our labor of love and affection. Flowers, such as grow only in sunny France are there in profusion. These are soon exchanged for our francs, loaded on to the ambulance and we proceed to Wimeureux, but not before large and luscious strawberries are bought for the patients, so that they too may share our Dominion Day. Wimeureux is a great summer resort or watering place. There is a small English resident community, and also, at normal times, a very large number of summer visitors.

THE CEMETERY OF WIMEUREUX IS PARTLY FRENCH AND PARTLY ENGLISH. IT IS IN THIS CEMETERY THAT OVER 60 SIXTY OF OUR CANADIAN DEAD ARE BURIED, WHOSE GRAVES WE DECORATE TODAY.

The cemetery of Wimeureux is partly French and partly English. It is in this cemetery that over 60 sixty of our Canadian dead are buried, whose graves we decorate today. One is struck with the great respect here with which the French people have taken these graves under their perpetual care, whether at Wimeureux, St. Martin or elsewhere. Every completed row of graves is put in order and permanent rose plants are growing there today. Each grave is distinctly numbered, and here and there are metal or brass wreaths from the French admirers. One reads "From two young Frenchmen." Another, "From the 'Boulogne' staff with respect for our comrades the British dead." Let the mothers of Canada for their comfort know that France looks upon their dead as her own, and with that Celtic chivalry never forgets them. We placed our tributes of love and affection as we read aloud the names of our brothers or sisters gone from us, and at the conclusion gave God thanks for their devotion at same time commending the bereaved to the comfort of God the Holy Comforter. One stone especially claimed our attention, because it bore such witness to brave hearts. I omit names. Second Lieut. D. H. L. B. R. F. A., 130 Battery, elder and dearly beloved son of L. and E. B. Died Feb. 10th, 1915, aged 20. "Speak not! He is consecrated. Breathe no breath across his eyes, Laid up and separated. On Thy hand O God he lies." We turned our faces back to duty with hearts warmed with affection for the slain and bereaved leaving the fallen in a sure and certain hope of the resurrection. When the time shall D. V. come for our return from exile to the land we love, surely it will be with quickened steps and loyal hearts to live for the land of all lands - Canada our home and native land. GUSTAV A. KUHRING, Chap. and Chaplain, No. 3 Can. Staty. Hospital, France, 1st July, 1916.

SUDDEN DEATH OF FRANK L. THEALL

Well Known Former Employee of City Ferry Service Expired Suddenly Last Night in Cedar Hill Cemetery. Death came suddenly to Frank L. Theall, of 171 Main street, last evening. SERGEANT JACK NUTTALL WILL RETURN TO CANADA

Young St. John Soldier Already Mentioned in Despatches Will Come Back to Take Up Instruction Post. It is understood that Sergt. Jack Nuttall, who has done such good work since going overseas is shortly to be brought back to Canada for instructional purposes. It will be remembered that a short time ago he was recommended for the D.C.M., and he has been mentioned in despatches several times. It is believed that he will not be attached to any one unit but will be sent wherever he is needed most. It is felt that battalions can be much more quickly prepared for service at the front if they are trained by those who have been there and know the requirements and that is the reason why these men are being brought back and used as instructors. Sergt. Nuttall has made good on the other side as a fighter and there is no doubt but that he will make good in his new position.

War Souvenirs

George Swetka yesterday received a number of relics from his son, William J. Swetka, who has been at the front for about eleven months, and who has only now recovered from wounds received on June 2nd. The relics received were picked up by Signaller Swetka on the battlefield. In addition to a number of steel and copper bullets, there is crossed flags moulded from German shrapnel bullets, also the nose of a German shrapnel shell picked up in the trenches the day the sender was wounded. In addition to the above Signaller Swetka sent home a razor which he won as first prize for throwing the cricket ball at soldiers' sports recently held in England. This brave young soldier has been reported to have been discharged from hospital and is by this time back in the trenches.
