"German Syrup"

Asthma.
"I have been a great sufferer from Asthma and severe Colds every Winter, and last Fall my friends as well as myself thought because of my feeble condition, and great distress from constant coughing, and inability to raise any of the accumulated mucus from my lungs, that my time was close at hand. When nearly worn out for want of sleep and rest, a friend recommended me to try this valuable medicine, Boschee's German Syrup. I am con- sidered it saved my life. Almost the first relief I had was a gentle refreshing sleep, such as I had not had for weeks. My cough began immediately to loosen and pass away, and I found myself rapidly gaining in weight. I am pleased to inform those unfortunates who are in excellent health and do not certainly attribute it to Boschee's German Syrup. C. B. STICKNEY, Picton, Ontario.

GENERAL NEWS.

The famine in Russia will soon be over. The crops this year promise to be great.
In olden times every part of the body had its price, the beard was valued at 20s.—a large sum for the time—while the loss of a leg was only estimated at 12s.
A curious feat has been noted in Ireland from the recent census. While the number of Christians, including all denominations, has decreased during the past ten years, the number of Jews has increased 281 per cent.
Nearly 500,000 panicles will bloom in the parks and squares of New York within the next few days. It takes 105 employees of the Park department some time to set them out and then 5,000 more English daisies will be planted.
The enormous steel trusses to sustain the roof of the manufacturers' building, Chicago are the largest ever made for architectural purposes. They span 368 feet and rise to a height of 211 feet.
The cottage in which George Fox, the founder of the Society of Friends or Quakers, was born in Leicestershire, England, is being taken down to be re-erected in Chicago. The World's Fair Committee endeavored to buy the cottage in which Shakespeare was born and ship it across the Atlantic, but the town of Stratford bought it up to prevent its removal.
As an instance showing the "ruling passion strong in jail," it is mentioned that a man who was committed on a charge of burglary and larceny was released from the Paris jail on bail, the other day, and after he had gone the jailer found that he had wound a blanket around his body under his clothing and worn it away.

A traveler a few days ago while dining at a hotel in a Piscataquis town, was surprised at the rattle of a telegraph instrument in one corner of the room. Instantly the waiter girl dropped her dishes and seating herself at the instrument began to receive a message by sound with equal readiness. It appeared that this was the village telegraph office, and she its manager.

"Employment whisks." A syncretist has purchased the renowned Texas steamer "Evader" and he is now being handled to the sulky, and shows very fast clip. While on range there was not a horse could turn him, while the steer trotted as natural a gait as any trained horse. The proprietors are arranging dates for exhibitions and are going east this autumn to attend the Industrial and Provincial fairs. They are open to match "Evader" against any horse that has not won public money.

AN ENTERPRISING HOTEL MAN.—It is stated that a hotel man in Toronto has posted up a notice stating that all diners at his place who use Burdock Blood Bitters to tone up their appetite and strength will be charged 50 per cent. extra. We do not know how true this is, but B. B. undoubtedly does the work and does it quickly and well.

Figures on Babies.

Interesting Statistics on the Lord and Mistress of Creation.
A baby is born at every beat of the human heart. That is more than one for every tick of the clock. These "living jewels" (as the poet calls babies) "dropped unstained from heaven" take wings and fly back from whence they came one for every minute of the day. From January 1 to December 31 be- tween 38,000,000 and 40,000,000 living jewels are dropped into this cold world. There are more baby girls than boy babies. The proportion of female births to male births is as 100 to 90. So that between 2,000,000 and 3,000,000 more girls are born in the world each year than boys. There is always a surplus of women, and the extra number of girl babies keeps up the supply.

The rate of infant mortality is enormous. In round numbers—5,000,000 babies never live long enough to talk, 5,000,000 more never have a chance to walk or run, and 5,000,000 more never get old enough to go to school. If you are good at figures get out your paper and pencil and try this sum. Here is a simple problem in arithmetic: A baby is born to-day (1892). Now suppose its ancestors had married at the age of 21 from the time of our Lord—fifty-six generations—how many grand- fathers had that baby had? The answer in round numbers, will be three figures followed by fifteen ciphers. Professor Proctor one time figured that if from a single pair each husband and wife had married at the age of 21 for 5,000 years the population of the earth, if there had been no deaths, would now be 2,199, 915 followed by 144 ciphers.

Suppose that each baby born this year weighed eight pounds; look at the combined weight! It would take half a dozen cradles of the size, capacity and strength of our new steel wire cradles to hold the infants. When twins arrived in Artemus Ward's family somebody called it an episode. "Yes," said Ar- temus, "two episodes waiting about eighteen pounds jointly." In the fore- going baby figures we have allowed for episodes.

Counting Ancestors a Fancy.
For forty years Caleb Binkley and Maria Sutton had lived neighbors in a double house on a pleasant street of a little old New England village. They had grown up together there, and they had seen all the members of their families carried to the graveyard on the hill, leaving them alone in their houses. For ten years they had lived thus, and their days went by peacefully and happily.

One morning in May, Caleb was in the garden back of his house, prodding away with his hoe, and Maria was in her fix, sowing a flower bed.
"It's a fine morning, Maria," called Caleb, across the fence.
"Beautiful," said Maria.
"Seems as if the sun was shining" just for our benefit, don't it?" remarked Caleb, dragging a tangled weed from his hoe handle.
"Yes, Caleb. I guess it shines down on my side about like it does on yours." Caleb looked up, and blue sky for a moment, and then walked over to the fence.

"I say, Maria," he said, "I've been thinking 'bout taking down this fence. Your pa and mine put it up here thirty years ago, but 'twan't never much use. What do you say to takin' it down?"
"Might as well ez not, I guess," Caleb assented Maria, without changing his position.
A minute or so later, Caleb, with an ax in his hand was back again.
"Maria," he said, "I guess if a thing hez got to be done, it might ez well be done right off, hadn't it?"
"I guess it might, Caleb."

Maria went on with her digging while Caleb hewed and chopped at the wooden fence, and at last the work was done. "It'll make good firewood, Maria," he said as he surveyed the wreck, "and if you'll let me where you want your half put it up for you handy."
"It looks summat strange not to see a devidin' line between us, don't it Caleb?" she remarked as she stood up and looked across both gardens.
"I was noticin' that" myself, Maria," he said quietly.
"Twan't no use, was it?" she enquired doubtfully gazing at the fence prone on the earth.
"Never was," he answered, then he came nearer. "Ain't much more use in two people livin' in two houses either, is there, Maria?" he said.

"None that I can see, Caleb," she re- plied, with a faint glow of color in her cheeks and neck.
Caleb seemed to be trying to swallow something that would not go down. He attempted to speak and failed, and then he tried to go to her and that was an ignominious failure also. At last he made a successful effort at speech.
"Maria," he said pulling himself up straight, "where do you want your half of the old fence piled?"
"Caleb," she almost whispered, as she came and laid her hand on his arm, "pile it up with yours."

And that was their courtship.

WOMEN'S COLUMN.

Conducted by the Ladies of the Sackville W. C. T. U.

Key-notes to Better Lives.

BY H. R. K.
The seventeenth annual meeting, on March 17, of the Chicago Central W. C. T. U., made a wonderful demonstration of its mighty works through the reports of its superintendents of departments. This union carries on the Hope and Anchorage Missions and gospel meet- ings.

Mrs. J. B. Hobbs' report of police matron work stated that for 1891, at the twenty-three stations in Chicago in which police matrons are employed day and night, there were 12,046 women and 623 children arrested; 8,247 women were searched; 1,413 lost children were cared for; 808 women and children re- stored to their homes; 306 destitute children provided for in stations; 124 children sent to Orphan Asylums, Home and Industrial Schools; 389 women sent to reclaiming institutions; 78 to the poorhouse, and 131 to the hospital.

The present chief of police has ap- pointed an advisory board, consisting of women members from the various phi- anthropic organizations of the city, whose duty it is to recommend and ex- amine candidates, to recommend changes for the comfort and convenience of prisoners at the stations, and to have a general oversight of the matrons' work. This board has appointed a women agent who visits the stations, courts, confers with matrons and officers concerning special cases, sees that the needy and unfortunate are provided for and espe- cially takes charge of the young girls who fall into the stations.

The Anchorage mission, as reported by Miss Alice Bond, superintendent, has admitted during the past year four hundred different girls, including a number of really friendless and virtuous, many in the first stages of a downward course who are saved before going lower. Three thousand free lodgings with food were given. Three hundred women and girls have found employment as do- mestic, seamstresses, in laundries and other places.

Young mothers with their babies have been taken in. There is no other place in all this great Sodom where these girl-mothers can go when they leave the hospitals with their weakness, their new care and their shame. Many letters come from girls who have gone out from this shelter to battle with temptations. Miss Bond says: "They contain such expressions as these: 'Thank you all so much for what you have done for me.' 'Please write to me: your letters do me so much good.' 'What would I have done without that home?—and better still, I have found Jesus at the mission.' 'Nearly every girl in going out from the home asks to be remembered in our morning and evening prayers.'"

The girls come into the Anchorage from the streets, police-stations, hospi- tals, infirmaries and houses of ill-fame, many having been entrapped into it by advertisements offering large wages for domestic service. One who was taken in on the verge of suicide is now running a small fruit farm, has a brother with her and is saving money to send for another brother. She has taken a home- less young mother and baby out to her farm—for she says: "My heart goes out in great longing to help other sorrowful lives. Another is managing a laundry, and has a bank account, and is saving money to buy a little home. The fol- lowing was written, as she signs herself, 'by one who has enjoyed its shelter and felt its influence.'"

THE ANCHORAGE.
"Anchorage," beautiful name to me,
No place on earth more dear can be,
We enter it, burdened, tempest tossed,
With even hopes of heaven lost.
We are told of an anchor sure, strong,
Which to every one may by faith be long,
An anchor by which, on the drifting
tide,
We may safely reach the other side.
The soul's true anchor is, 'Jesus died,
By which storm justice is satisfied.
Both 'sure and steadfast,' so just the thing,
To which erring humanity may cling.
Oh blessed anchor! The heart's true rest,
Where so many souls have been led to see,
There is hope for them in their misery.
And when the storms of life shall cease,
And in dying, Jesus shall whisper
'peace',
All pleasant days at the 'Anchorage'
past,
May each frail bark reach the port at last.

FERTILIZERS ARE NECESSARY.

SUSSEX, KINGS CO., Nov. 13 1891.

DEAR SIR:—On my farm at Studholm I have used your different fertilizers. Imperial Superphosphate I used on grain and vegetables. My Buckwheat Oats and Turnips were especially heavy crops, and all roots were good. Next year I intend using Potato Phosphate on small fruits for which it seems adapted. Bone Meal I used for seeding down to grass with the result that I have the best crop of after grass mixed with clover I have raised in this country, and it is also the first year I have used Bone Meal here but I hope it will not be the last.

DISTURBANCE.—Information has been laid before Stipendiary Councillor against two young men for disturbing the Salvation Army on Saturday night. The case comes up for trial this morning at 10 o'clock.

The Rev. A. H. Lavers administered the ordinance of Baptism to three candidates last Sunday on the Baie Verte Road, and the reception of members took place at the evening service. Large congregations attended both services.

BUSINESS MEETING.—A general business meeting of the Sackville Baptist Church will be held at 8 o'clock on Tuesday evening, the 17th inst., at the hour of 7.30. A full attendance of the officers and other members of the church is urgently requested.

DOMESTIC TROUBLES.—A complaint has been laid before Stipendiary Councillor by a married woman living at Fairview against her husband of the same place, for refusing and neglecting to provide the necessities of life for her. The case will be heard on Tuesday next.

A BAD FIX UP.—Friday night last, while David Patterson, of Midgie, was driving home his horse led the road and horse, carriage and driver were thrown into the Ogden-Palmer canal, near where the railroad crosses. The horse landed on his back, and was in a fair way to drown. Mr. Patterson succeeded in making some parties who were driving ahead hear him, and after some hard work the horse was got clear and the rig pulled out. The ditch is about 10 feet deep at this point and the horse's head had to be held up to keep him from drowning.

PROPERTY TRANSFER.—Rev. F. W. HARRISON has purchased from Squire St. in which Mr. Fulton now resides. Mr. Harrison intends becoming a permanent resident of Sackville. Mr. Fulton has purchased the property on York St. between the residences of Dr. Brecken and Chas. Ford.

Mr. Geo. E. Ford has purchased the block of land at Crane's Corner, comprising 6 acres with building thereon. Post office included, from John E. Bower, price $5,000. Mr. Bower has purchased Anne Patterson's farm at Coles Island containing 52 acres and will move there in the near future.

SCOTT ACT.—Henry L. Robinson of Shemogue, was on Friday last convicted of violation of C. T. Act on two separate offences for selling and keeping for sale intoxicating liquors and fined $100 and costs.

Three cases from the parish of Botsford came up to-morrow morning. —Mr. Wm. Casey of Baie Verte writes that he has no intention of abandoning his appeal from the decision of Stipendiary Councillor and that if the court refuses to grant an appeal he will apply to the government for an investigation into the case. He says he has enough certificates like those upon which he was convicted to fine him $10,000 or imprison him for 35 years.

STOCK NOTES.—Geo. Wood's "Old Indian" will stand at Springfield this season.

—Will Teed's trotter, "Black Dot" is in town again after a sojourn in Nova Scotia. She makes it lively for the local fliers.

—Among the horses to stand at the Intercolonial Hotel this season are: General Gladstone, Percheron, owned by Jas. G. McDonald Coverdale; Walcome Harry, standard, owned by F. W. Thompson, Ft. Lawrence; General Froite, French coach, owned by a Montreal company.

—General Gordon, by Brown Stout, English Shire, owned by Francis Lawless of P. E. Island, was in town yesterday. He will be here fortnightly.

BAPTIST.—A large congregation assembled at the new Baptist church on Sunday afternoon last to witness the baptism of eleven persons who have of late been led to consecrate their lives to the service of Christ. Nearly all the candidates were from the ranks of the Young People's Society, thus giving evidence of the useful and genuine work being done in that organization. The pastor, Rev. W. H. Warren is much encouraged in his labors. There is manifest growth in the church. Large and regular congregations, interesting social meetings, especially among the young people, and increasing activity in the various departments of church work show plainly that the efforts put forth hitherto have not been made in vain. In other sections of this church there are signs of advancement, and many enquiries are coming forward for instruction and aid in spiritual matters.

Baie Verte.

—The weather continues cold and rough and the spring is much later than was anticipated a few weeks ago.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wood, have returned from Boston, where they spent the winter with their sons.

The many friends of Mr. Cyrus Goodwin, who has been suffering from a long and severe attack of inflammation, will be pleased to learn that his condition the last few days is slightly improved. Dr. Black of Baie Verte and Truroan of Sackville are the attending physicians.

—We learn that R. D. Wood Esq., an enterprising millman of Tidnish, has his interests at that place and purchased the residence and property of Mrs. Crane where he intends residing in the near future and erecting his shoe factory on a larger and improved scale. This site being so convenient to railway station and shipping port is a very desirable one for Mr. Wood's growing business.

—R. D. Goodwin, who has been for some years in the employ of W. J. Mahoney Esq., where his honest straightforward dealing gained for him many friends, has recently returned to a store in his own name in Northport, N.S. While regretting the loss of so popular a young man, we wish Mr. Goodwin every success.

—Our young men are about organizing a foot ball club, and much sport is anticipated for the summer evenings.

—Work on E. C. Gooden's new tug is progressing rapidly, and it is expected that she will be completed and ready for launching in about two weeks.

Athol.

—The property formerly belonging to the late Thomas Read Esq., and since his death occupied by his wife and son, has lately changed hands, having been purchased by W. H. Brown of Mapleton, the widow having held her title during her life.

W. W. Walker, who left Athol April 12th and arrived in Winnipeg on the 17th, has written several letters home, in all of which he speaks in the highest terms of the country. The soil has said, surpasses our marsh as far as our marshes do our upland. Arrived at Austin April 19th. The country from Winnipeg to Austin is one grand prairie stretching as far as the eye can reach, dotted over with vast herds of cattle, wild geese and prairie chickens in abundance. Wheat is being raised in great numbers and large stacks of the grain still unthreshed. I like the prairie better than any place I have ever seen. It is a grand sight to see 7000 acres of wheat. Arrived at Brandon April 23rd, visited the Experimental Farm a mile and a half from Brandon. Spent two hours in the lecture hall, and saw the very latest in wheat raising. He raised 18,000 bushels of wheat last year beside other grain. I saw eight span of horses ploughing and four span harrowing, three seeders with three horses on each, and several teams trucking. Of course the country has its drawbacks but it only needs men and money to make it the garden of the Dominion, and in fact, of the world.

Tidnish.

—Weather cold and fall like, and the result is backward grass; farmers are getting along exceedingly well planting their seed.

—A square rig made her appearance in our bay on Sunday, the first of the season.

—The stone is being hauled for the foundation of the new Episcopal church. It is rumored that the reopening of the ship R. R. will take place in the very near future and the work will go on at full blast. We understand Symes & Dawson will be here in a day or two to look after putting the dredge in order.

—Some sickness is reported in our village. R. Baxter is ill from the effect of a cold, his little boy is prostrated with congestion of lungs. W. A. Copp is ill, but all are convalescent.

—Mr. Harris (Episcopal) preached in the Union Church to quite a large gathering on the second and third inst.; Rev. Mr. McKay gave a discourse here on last Sabbath and also received two candidates into his church. Recent at the residence of Mrs. J. Brundage a donation was held for the benefit of Mr. McKay, with good results. A donation for Rev. L. S. Johnson will be held at the residence of S. Oxley Esq., on the evening of the 25th; all who are interested are invited to be present. Please bear it in mind.

—Our Sabbath School was reopened on Sunday first of May with a large attendance. Under the able management of W. A. Copp. We hope this summer to witness a fruitful Sabbath School and may the young and rising generation be abundantly profited thereby.

—The band of hope was organized here on Friday last for the children which we believe will be beneficial. The temperance division is reported to be on the up grade.

—With pleasure our teacher Miss Irving has taken the school again for another term.

"I Am So Tired"

Is a common exclamation at this season. There is a certain bracing effect in cold air which is lost when the weather grows warmer; and when Nature is renewing her youth, her admirers feel dull and languid. This condition is owing mainly to the impure condition of the blood, and its failure to supply healthy tissue to the various organs of the body. It is remarkable how susceptible the system is to the help to be derived from a good medicine at this season. Possessing just those purifying, building up qualities which the body craves, Hood's Sarsaparilla soon overcomes that tired feeling, restores the appetite, purifies the blood, and in short, imparts vigorous health. Use thousands of friends as with one voice declare "It Makes Me Strong."
