SIXTY-EIGHT YEARS OF BRITISH METHODISM

We are nearing the close of another year in the making of history, which marks the sixty-eighth anniversary of our existence as an organization dedicated to the uplift of humanity for the cause of our Lord Jesus Christ. As we view with our minds eye, our condition of sixty-eight years ago, and then note what changes have taken place since, we are forced to exclaim in the words of the prophet and say "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us." For we are truly conscious that only Divine help has brought us safe thus far. When we recall that our Church has successfully weathered the gale of two serious divisions which in many respects hindered the progress, yet today there is an optimistic note ringing throughout the communion and the zeal of the entire forces are in no wise abated, nor is the courage at all daunted. That we are gaining ground in every department is an evidence very conclusive and convincing. Improvement in every way as regards our progress can be noticed as we look over the fields of labor, and then with a reminiscent mood recall the by gone days of long ago, we are truly convinced of the place our church has taken in the life of our fair Dominion.

The influence of sixty-eight years has been made known farther than our own native shores, and we are justly proud of the place those of our ranks have filled in the world of mankind. The past fifteen years of our history has indeed been notable, under the able leadership of our present executive, Rev. Samuel R. Drake. Untiring, vigilant and ceaseless, have been his interests in the work of the Church, and whatever heights she has attained can be largely attributed to his zealous endeavors and the help of God. With such leadership as Rt. Rev. Nazarey, Rt. Rev. Hawkins, Rt. Rev. Washington, and our own Rev. S. R. Drake.

We have during the many years of our existence been truly blest and may say, we have a "Godly heritage." Let us pray that the manifold blessings of our God may be upon us in the sixty-eighth anniversary of our Church, as we come together at Windsor.

F. O. STEWART.

TO CHARLIE.
(a school boy on his birthday)

(By S. E. G. Allen)

Dear Charlie, you're in your 13th year today.
You soon will begin to feel much like a man;
There are millions of boys of your age, and I pray
That in this vast multitude you're in the van.

Be trusty, reliable, bravest of brave;
Scorn all that is base; be honest and true.
Look up and not down; look to Him who can save,
For this is what heaven is wishing for you.

Yes, God knows and loves you, my dear Charlie boy;
And eye hath not seen, nor hath ear ever heard,
What God has prepared and what an infinite joy
May be yours if you follow, we know by His word.

Justice in the South

(By The Associated Negro Press)

The State, Columbia, S.C., carries the following news story: Barnwell, May 30—That the maxim, "a man who acts as his own lawyer has a fool for a client" is not true in every instance was proved here on Monday, when John Sanders, a Negro defended himself in two cases charging violation of the prohibition law, winning an acquittal in the first and getting a mistrial in the second. The cases also go to show that the brother in black can and does get justice in spite of anything that radical negrophiles of the North may say to the contrary. John conducted his cases in a lawyer like manner, examining witnesses and making arguments to the jury and evidently won the sympathy of the spectators in the court room.

QUESTION COOLIDGE ON KLAN.

(By The Associated Negro Press)

New York City, June—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People through its secretary, James Weldon Johnson, has directed a letter to President Coolidge, asking him, as head of the Republican party, for an unequivocal statement of his position and that of his party, on the Ku Klux Klan.

REV. E. M. WOOD, Pastor of Hill St. Baptist Church.

Theatre Improving Race Relations

(By The Associated Negro Press)

Hot Springs, Ark., June—Hi Tom Long a correspondent of the Billboard who reviewed the Ted Pop Dixie Serenaders Company, playing here, says, "These companies playing as they do here to mixed audiences, have of improving race relations; and it is being demonstrated daily that nothing serves to maintain friendship between the races like deportment. The comments of white patrons after the show were all highly complimentary to the company for their business like attitude."

The theatre involved is the Vendome, one of the few theatres operated primarily by and for colored people that caters without discrimination to both races with colored performers.

Negro Preacher Gives Radio Sermon

Boston, Mass., June.—Rev. E. E. Thompson, Pastor of the Massachusetts Avenue Baptist Church gave the Memorial Sunday radio sermon, under the auspices of the Boston Federation of Churches. It was considered appropriate for a member of the colored race to deliver the memorial day address.

THE WHITES CANNOT RULE BY TERRORISM

(By The Associated Negro Press)

Holly Springs, Miss., June—The crowning event of the commencement exercises of the Mississippi Industrial College one of the leading schools of the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church, and a power for good in this section of the South, was the address by Bishop Charles Henry Phillips, of Cleveland.

The audience of both black and white citizens heard an eloquent appeal "for simple elementary justice" for the colored races of the world and particularly the American Negroes. He points out the duty of both the black man and the white man, showing that vexing problems, social and economic, follow all great wars. In the adjustment of the American problems, he reminded the great mixed audience that "the Negro went into the war with bounding step, joyous heart, and patriotic motive, to fight for right, liberty, justice, humanity—the things which he held sacred and dear and which he supposed would make the world safe for democracy, and out of the triumphant issue guarantee to him the same liberty and justice for which the fathers fought."

"If the white man is to permanently maintain his leadership of civilization," declared the bishop, "he must rule by his moral greatness and intelligence and not by terrorism, massacre, domination, cruelty or force. The race problem, is therefore, for all intents and purposes, a moral one. The Negro, knowing this, has never sought a redress of his grievances by acts of violence, for his salvation can only be found in work and self discipline, in the demonstration of superior qualities, in self restraint and moderation, and in the workings and evolution of those ethical and moral forces that make for justice and the fitness of things. His demand for justice is the antithesis of the demand of the white man for the preservation of the purity of his race. These two demands are the two sides of one and the same shield. The blood of the race must be kept pure; but, so must its ideals. The former without the latter is like the body without the soul."

THE SPIRIT SLEEPETH

Only recently we were informed by the gentleman who is in charge of the government employment bureau that one of the most pathetic features of his office is that he is unable to secure positions for strong, manly colored men, not even on farms. "No one seems to want them, not even the farmers."

Not so long ago a few white lads were asked to come and bring along their chums to distribute free samples of Shredded Wheat biscuits. One of the white lads brought his colored chum with him. The employer said to the white lad: "What did you bring the nigger for? We don't want him." The colored boy was therefore sent home again.

A very prominent and observing white citizen recently made the following remarks to us: "The British people were the first to begin to strike the blows which finally liberated your people throughout the universe. Since freedom has come to you, however, they have forgotten and forsaken you. They have left you either to sink or swim as best becomes the mood of fate."

It is a common occurrence for our people to apply for advertised positions in which only manual labor is required and to be refused on the pretext that the positions have been filled or to be even told that "colored people are not wanted."

We are not giving our children sufficient education because our income is not sufficiently large to allow us to do so. No so however, because we receive less pay for the same class of work, but so, because there are so few remunerative positions open to our people.

We shall never forget—we can not forget those stalwart Englishmen who devoted their best to the cause of our oppressed people, to the cause of freedom and justice and right. We shall ever revere the names of Wilberforce, Clarkson, Livingston, Stanley and a host of others; and our profound respect and admiration of these men causes us to hold steadfastly to the belief that the spirit of British Justice and fair play is not dead—but sleepeth.

Remember however, it is not charity that we ask, not the crumbs from the table of the rich. We do not even ask to be given positions which we are unable to fill. But what we do ask for and what we do feel entitled to is a man's chance in this country, a chance which all British subjects should have.

In the light of our achievement, of what we have added to the country's welfare in our small and humble way we justly feel proud of ourselves.

We have refrained as much as possible from registering complaints of any nature through the columns of this paper and even now we are attempting merely to awaken the "spirit that sleepeth", that we may come and reason together.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor,

The Dawn of Tomorrow:
Dear Sir:

As this is my initial contribution to your most excellent paper I want to extend greetings; and wishing God's richest blessings upon your paper that is devoting such a keen interest in race development. Now much is being said about race co-operation. We do not have to be great students to see that unless this is brought about, so far as we in Canada are concerned, the future looks very gloomy. I am no pessimist. Speaking optimistically I believe that with clear vision and deep thinking on the part of our leaders in Canada, the great underlying principle, co-operation can be brought about along commercial and industrial lines.

The future of our children lies in race co-operation. The future of the child is the future of the race. What the future of the child shall be depends altogether upon the men and women of the present. What thus becomes our vast responsibility is plain to see. It rests, not upon parents alone, but upon the whole community. There is no greater problem before thinking and inspiring humanity, and certainly no finer one than that of making the growing generation what it should be and there is as assuredly, none which appeals to us with such overwhelming force, both with regards to our own welfare and the welfare of those who fill our hearts and in whom our hopes are centered. It is one involved alike in the parental instinct and that of patriotism.

Our children must be so reared as to develop into good sons and daughters and good citizens as well.

The keynote of all progress and advancement in the good of the world is centered here. Each generation should excel the one preceding it, and can be made to do so if the parents of today and the communities of today are not neglectful in co-operation. Always today must determine the nature of tomorrow.

Philadelphia, Pa., June—"This man broke up the service of the Lord, your honor. He stole the church saxophone and we was compelled to cease." Benjamin J. Bunn, 2008 South Street, Magistrate Holland's court told his troubles.

Bunn was doing his best to bring the administration of the law upon John F. Gilchrist, Manton Street near nineteenth. And he did, for Gilchrist was held in $500 bail for Court, charged with the theft of the all-important saxophone.

In the course of other remarks Bunn told Magistrate Holland that he was the star performer in the orchestra of his church near Twentieth and South Streets. When he found his saxophone was among those missing he and the pastor knew the services were all off, for what is a service without his saxophone.
