SIR DICK OR SIR BOB?

Either McBride or Borden Are Likely to Succeed Strathcona.

[Special To The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, Ont., July 14.—The recent Manitoba election has considerably affected the prestige of Hon. Robert Rogers in the Conservative party. It is believed here now that he will have considerable difficulty in obtaining the appointment of the Canadian High Commissionership, which he has open-ly stated that he wanted and was determined to have.

McBride or Borden.

There is a growing belief that no appointment will be made for some time. Hon. Geo. E. Peley is now acting as high commissioner and he will continue as at present until just before the next general election. Then, if there is a likelihood of Government defeat, the post will be filled by the appointment of some prominent Conservative. Sir Richard McBride and Sir Robert Borden are both spoken of as likely to succeed Lord Strathcona in the London post. If the place is kept open until after the next election, Sir Robert is almost certain to be appointed if he carries his party to victory for the second time.

Poor Showing Made. Hon. Mr. Rogers that he expects political promotion he will have to make a better showing in the West than he has been able to do for some years. It is pointed out that Hon. Mr. Rogers has directed the Conservative forces in provincial elections in Saskatchewan, Alberta and Manitoba, and has made an exceedingly poor showing in each of the three fights.

ences, a Shake-Up Is

CROTHERS AFTER GIBSON

Minister of Labor To Be the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario.

[Special To The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, July 14.—The appointment of Hon. Mr. Crotthers to the Lieutenant-Governorship of Ontario is said to be practically decided upon. Hon. Mr. Crotthers wants to leave the Government. He does not like the element with which he is brought into contact by the administration of his department. It is felt by the Government and the Conservative members of Parliament that the management of the Labor Department by Hon. Mr. Crotthers has not added to the popularity of the Government, and that it might be for the best should he give way to some other.

Too Old for Judgeship. Mr. Crotthers wants to go on the bench, but it is stated that he is so near to the age limit for the requirement of judges that Premier Borden is not anxious to make this appointment. However, the Ontario Lieutenant-Governorship is open, the term of Sir John Gibson having expired almost a year ago.

On good authority it is understood here that Hon. Mr. Crotthers will be appointed lieutenant governor and Hon. W. J. Hanna will be brought into the Borden Government and give the Labor portfolio.

It is pointed out that this arrangement would settle several difficulties which have been bothering the Conservative at Ottawa and Toronto for some time.

English Journalist Jailed by Japs

[Canadian Press.]
Tokio, July 14.—Andrew M. Poole, an English journalist, was today sentenced to two years' imprisonment and a fine of $100 on a charge of receiving stolen documents in connection with the recent Japanese naval scandal. Poole received the documents from Carl Richter, an employee of a German armament firm, who had stolen them, and was alleged to have used them for blackmailing purposes. Two other prisoners also were convicted today in the same case; V. Herrman, the Tokio representative of the German armament firm, being sentenced to one year in jail, and George Blundell, also connected with an English journal, to ten months' imprisonment. The sentences of these two men were, however, suspended for three years.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, July 14.—A London cable to the New York Times, says: "Ulster has taken her final decision," says the Daily Mail. "It was announced by Sir Edward Carson at Drumcree yesterday in a speech of exceptional gravity. He said he had authority to act, and, if necessary, will do so with the most grim determination. 'With him rests power to choose the moment for setting up the oppositional government. He told the British Cabinet that they must either leave Ulster alone or put her down by force. His watchword was 'No Surrender.'"

"His speech was delivered to a vast, impressive demonstration of loyalists, held to commemorate the Battle of the Boyne. A hundred thousand men gathered in procession before him, while drums boomed and cheers filled the air. 'Throughout the province yesterday there were similar demonstrations on a smaller scale, marked by the same resolute attitude. While Ulster has made up her mind, the British Cabinet muddles and dithers.'"

CONDITION OF MR. FOY IS BECOMING CRITICAL

Physicians Reticent, But Indications Point to Serious Illness.

[Canadian Press.]

Toronto, July 14.—Although his physicians have not given out a statement, it is believed that Hon. J. J. Foy, attorney-general for the province of Ontario, is still in a very serious condition, and that very little improvement, if any, has been noticed.

At the Parliament Buildings it seems to be the general opinion that the attorney-general was in a much more dangerous state than was at first supposed.

London is to have an amusement park in the near future. In fact, already, the organization is complete, the charter secured, and all that remains to be done is the closing of the deal for property just outside the limits of Springbank, where the miniature Coney Island is to be created.

The property in question is quite close to Springbank Park, so that it can be supplied with street car service without any material rearrangement of existing routes. For some time the amusement company has been negotiating with the owners of the land and it is confidently expected that the deal will be consummated some time today.

CITY BEAUTIFUL IMPROVEMENT ON WELLINGTON

Boulevarding Scheme is Being
Advocated for Hospital
Thoroughfare.

ENGINEER FAVORS PLAN

Winnipeg's Example Is Cited
To Prove Benefits That Boulevards Would Be.

OPPOSITION IS EXPECTED

Controllers Will Have Deputations Both For and Against
When Question Comes Up.

There is every indication now that at the meeting of the board of control on Friday prominent citizens will appear to urge the pavement of Waterloo street with asphalt. The trustees of Victoria Hospital and leading physicians who claim the comfort of ambulance patients and the impressions which visitors to the hospital take away with them, demand a good permanent pavement to that institution, have gone strongly on record in favor of the Waterloo street. Others are equally enthusiastic about paving Wellington street for which an elaborate city boulevard scheme has been repeatedly suggested. On the latter thoroughfare they have to date secured no support, however, much under ground work will have to be completed before the street can be paved.

The city council has deferred action on these pavements until the demand for the work is made more apparent, and for this reason it is expected that delegations both for and against the pavements will appear at the Friday meeting of the board.

Cites Winnipeg's Example. Lieutenant-Colonel Garthorne, chairman of the hospital trust, called attention yesterday to the beautiful effect in boulevarding which the city of Winnipeg has created on Broadway in that city. This street, being practical the same width as Wellington street, has a double boulevard with double street car tracks running down the centre of the street. Two views of Broadway in Winnipeg are shown in the accompanying cut.

"You can see what Winnipeg has done with a wide and pretty street that runs from the Union Depot down past the Parliament Buildings," said Col. Garthorne. "It is one of the show places of Winnipeg and I don't think any amount of money would cause ratepayers to revert back to any kind of street that did not have this boulevard effect."

PAVING THIS YEAR IS HALF THAT PUT DOWN IN DECADE

Over Five Miles of Streets Will Have Permanent Pavements
Laid During Present Year—Total Paved Area
Will Be Fifteen Miles.

The city engineering department is preparing a list of permanent pavements for this year, which shows that 2½ miles of asphalt have already been completed, and before the construction period closes at least five miles of asphalt will have been put down the year. By comparison with other years, this statement shows that the increase in permanent work this year alone is over half what it has been in the last ten years. Only one mile of permanent pavement was put down last year. Previous to that there had only been nine miles of permanent roadway in the city, and by the end of this year there will be fifteen miles of permanent pavements completed.

Two Score Masters Leave For Niagara Falls—Local Men in Race For Office.

Some thirty or forty masters and past masters of local Masonic lodges left the city yesterday and today to attend the grand lodge, which opens in Niagara Falls at 10 a.m. tomorrow. In some respects the meeting will be one of the most important in the history of Masonry, since grand masters from all over the continent and from England and other parts of Great Britain will be present for the special demonstrations to be held on Thursday to celebrate the completion of 100 years of peace between the United States and Britain.

Considerable local interest centres in the election of officers, which will take place on Wednesday, since three London Masons are in line for the office of district deputy grand master. They are Hugh McPherson, of King Solomon Lodge; Dr. Ziegler, of Tuscan Lodge, and L. A. Buchner, of Union Lodge.

Today the board of general purposes met to arrange a program for the convention, but the business sessions will not commence until tomorrow.

ORDERS CLEAN-UP OF MANY DAIRIES

Veterinary Inspector, On His Annual Inspection, Finds
Insanitary Conditions.

MILK IMPROPERLY COOLED

Many Dairymen Cool It in Stables—The Slaughterhouses Under Ban, Too.

"There will have to be a general housecleaning of dairies and slaughterhouses," said Dr. C. S. Tamin, board of health inspector, yesterday, after having completed the inspection of all the dairies in the London district.

According to Dr. Tamin, there is a general lack of cleanliness in numerous dairies, and slaughterhouses. In many cases, hogs and cattle are stabled in close proximity to dairy halls, sometimes the cattle barns connect directly with the dairy rooms. Makes Report Soon.

"Dairies are in a better condition than the slaughterhouses, however," Dr. Tamin said. A report to the board of health will be made shortly. From time to time, dairies have been closed up and notices sent to the customers, asking them not to buy dairy produce from the dairy under the ban of the board of health. Several were closed in the early spring, and more have been closed temporarily since.

"Sterilizing cans in insanitary ways, is the outstanding fault among the dairies," Dr. Tamin reports. "Many persist in cooling the milk in the stables. Plenty of hot water or steam should be used. Only the large concerns are using this sanitary method of sterilizing the cans used in the dairies," said Dr. Tamin.

Dr. Tamin strongly recommends the method of selling milk as it is done in many American cities. The milk is graded according to the bacteria it contains, and the amount of bacteria it is shown to contain by analysis.

"In this way, the public can easily see and understand why kind of milk they are buying. Dealers must come in line with the modern and sanitary methods in order to stay in the business," said Dr. Tamin.

EDGAR FOWLER CATCHES A FISH

Well-Known Police Constable
Stirs Port Stanley by Fishing Ability.

CROWD SEES HIS CATCH

Breathless Anxiety Displayed
While Officer Hauls in His Line.

With a soft hand pulled down over his eyes to shade his face from the burning sun, a man sat on the pier at Port Stanley with his feet dangling over the water, while his hands clutched with grim tenacity a long thin string that inclined at 45 degrees, out of the lake. Now and then he nervously ranked the string, and then let go. Overhead the sun grew hotter and hotter, and seemed to smile at the man's patience. People came and went, but the man moved not, neither did the string. The day lengthened and the cool of evening swept over the pier. Other persons on the dock hauled in their lines and their necks, as it were, and wended their way homeward with long strings of fish. The lone man, however, sat tight, and the departing amateur fishermen paused at his side of the dock, stretched their necks over the rail on the upper deck, gazing intently on the crowd which surrounded the lone fisherman. On the rear of a Port Marquette train, which was pulling out from the beach, a crowd of London boys were singing, "My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean." Finally, after a short interval that seemed two years, the lone fisherman yanked the end of his line out of the lake, and the crowd stood aghast, to see squirming on the end of it one of those shore fish that measures an inch and a half from end to end, and commonly called a "shiner."

It was with almost a pitiful expression that the lone fisherman tipped back his hat and faced the assembled "multitude," disclosing the well-known features of the popular Dundas street police constable, EDGAR FOWLER.

No more fitting epitaph could have been arranged or devised through all the ingenuity of strong minds devoted in application to the case. The words are brief. The story they tell is a history of years and a lesson to the future. Rev. Mr. Manville lived in Hot Springs as a minister of the gospel of Christ through one of the stormiest periods of this city's unusual career. His influence was for right. But he never harbored prejudices against those who differed with him. His greeting was a smile. His influence was good cheer.

"Mankind was his friend, his brother. His sister. When the carver in stone writes for the history of Rev. Mr. Manville, 'Manville Loves People,' we can add to that inscription, in honesty and sincerity, 'People Love Manville.'"

George T. Haines and other Londoners stated yesterday that they clearly remembered Rev. Mr. Manville's residence in London, and his activity here in civic life and affairs. A few years ago he returned to this city on a short visit. He was twice married, his first wife being Miss Saunier, and his second Miss Strong, both of this city. One son recently resided in this country.

FORMER LONDONER DIES IN ARKANSAS

Rev. H. B. Manville, a Hot Springs Minister, Was Once
London Auctioneer.

WAS WIDELY POPULAR

At One Time Chairman of Local Bd. of Education—
Held Leading Positions.

Rev. W. B. Manville, a leading Methodist minister of the Little Rock (Arkansas) Conference, and a former member and chairman of the London Board of Education, died at South Hot Springs last Tuesday.

Rev. Mr. Manville was at one time a well-known auctioneer of this city. He left here 25 years ago, shortly afterwards entering the Methodist ministry, and going to his first pastorate at Alton, Ark. Greatly interested in horticulture, he was the originator of the "Manville tomato." In the beginning of the Arkansas State Fair he was one of its most enthusiastic advocates. He was superintendent of the agricultural department of the first fair, which was held in 1887. Afterwards he was secretary of the state immigration bureau, and later deputy agricultural commissioner for the state. A wide range of note on agriculture subjects, he was for some years agricultural editor of the Arkansas Gazette.

He was for some years pastor of the Malvern Avenue Methodist Church in Hot Springs, subsequently going to Sheridan, in the same state. When he was superintended by the Little Rock Conference, his friends in Hot Springs subscribed liberally to a fund, which they tendered him for the erection of a home in that city. Leading Methodist ministers of the state and the Masonic fraternity, of which he was a member, attended his funeral on Thursday last.

Just before his death he asked that there be inscribed on his tomb, "Manville Loves People." Commenting editorially on his death, the Hot Springs Sentinel-Record, which, in its news columns refers to him as "one of the most popular ministers that ever served a congregation in Hot Springs," says in part:

"At the flickering finish of a life that had been devoted to the welfare of mankind, as well as the advocacy of the cause of Christianity, we can only say that the last few moments when time for messages on earth was at an end, Rev. W. B. Manville, one of the most beloved characters on earth, told those at his bedside what he wanted on his modest tombstone that is to mark his resting-place, 'Manville Loves People.'"

Thousands of Head Perish in Saskatchewan and Alberta.

[Canadian Press.]
REGINA, Sask., July 13.—Thousands of cattle have died in Saskatchewan and Alberta during the present year, the result of the dread disease, black leg. This was the statement issued today by the Health of Animals branch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture in this city.

Quantities of vaccine to prevent the disease have been sent to different parts of the province, and it is hoped in this manner to secure a foothold in fighting the ravages of this most dreadful disease. The number of cattle lost through this disease cannot be ascertained.

PRODUCE.

Winnipeg, July 13.—Torrential rains visiting goodly areas in Manitoba, and light rains in parts of Saskatchewan during the week-end, and consequently crops in these sections have been vastly improved. Most optimistic feeling therefore prevailed today on the board of trade, and prices opened easier, influenced also by Liverpool cables and weaker American markets, quotations being ½ to ¾ lower. Private reports from Yorkton district state that during Saturday and Sunday a good rain fell over the entire district, which will benefit materially. Light rains also occurred in the Kildersley district.

Trading during the early hours was fairly active, but later turned quiet. Closing prices for wheat were ½ to ¾ down.

The cash demand was quiet for all grades, only slight inquiry for No. 2 northern wheat being apparent. Cash wheat closed ½ to ¾ lower; cash oats closed unchanged, ¼ to ½ down; cash flax closed ½ higher for all grades; cash barley closed unchanged to ½ lower.

Deliveries through the clearing house: Wheat, 124,000 bushels; oats, 44,000 bushels; flax, 40,000 bushels; barley, 265,000 bushels.

OPTOMETRY
Methods of selling eyeglasses and spectacles are vastly different. Bargain counter methods belong to the days of antiquity. People generally have come to realize that if defective vision is to be remedied, a thorough examination by a competent optometrist is necessary. We make these examinations by the most approved scientific methods. Then we fit you with lenses that will positively correct your defects of vision, if any are found.

TO LAY WELLINGTON
CORNERSTONE WEDNESDAY

Ceremony Will Be Performed in Presence of Scholars and Congregation.

The initial step in the construction of the new Wellington Street Methodist Church Sunday School will be taken on Wednesday, at 3 o'clock, when the corner stone will be laid. In view of the occasion, arrangements have been made to have Sunday school scholars present at the ceremony. The school orchestra will also be present, and special singing and music will be an added attraction.

Clergymen, representing several denominations, will speak. Under the auspices of the ladies of the church, tea will be served sharp at 6 o'clock. The program for the evening will include a sale of refreshments, and a general good time.

The laying of the corner stone is an event that has been looked forward to by the congregation for some time. The increasing membership of the school warrants the costly new building. The present number of scholars is so great that it is almost impossible to look after them. With the finishing of the new school this difficulty will be alleviated.

MAYOR'S CAR RUNS DOWN SOUTH LONDONER

G. C. F. Winslow Has Narrow Escape From Auto Carrying City Officials.

Travelling down York street shortly after 8 o'clock last night, an auto, driven by Mayor C. M. R. Graham, narrowly escaped running down G. C. F. Winslow, 64 Stanley street, South London, at York and Thames streets. In the car with London's Chief Magistrate was Walter C. Dodd, nephew of his worship, and garbage superintendent. Mayor Graham called a warning to the man, but he had no time to heed it. Seeing that an accident was inevitable, his worship spun the wheel completely around. The car skidded on the slippery pavement and the man gave Winslow a push that sent him reeling to the sidewalk. He was uninjured and was able to proceed to his home.

FAVOR ASPHALT FOR WATERLOO STREET

Hospital Trustees Appoint Dr. Siddall to Succeed Dr. Hudson, Resigned.

Dr. A. R. Siddall was appointed by the hospital trustees yesterday afternoon to fill the unexpired term of Dr. J. L. Hudson, who recently resigned. Dr. Hudson was house surgeon at Victoria Hospital.

The trustees also went on record as favoring a paved street to the hospital, and asked Mayor Graham if the Waterloo street pavement would go through this summer. The mayor said it depended largely on what the council did with the recommendation of the board of control.

Superintendent T. H. Heard's report for the month of June showed there were 248 patients admitted, of which 11 were males, 111 females and 63 children. The number of patients discharged was 268, of which 75 were males, 132 females and 61 children. The number of deaths for the month were 10, births 24, operations 28, treated at the free dispensary 138. Receipts for the month were $4,295.68.

DIARRHOEA AND VOMITING ATTACKED HER LITTLE BOY

He Was Cured by Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.

Mrs. Wesley Pringle, Roblin, Ont., writes: "It is with great pleasure I can recommend Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. When our little boy was three years old he had the worst attack of diarrhoea and vomiting I ever saw. We called in our doctor, and he came eleven times from Tuesday morning until Saturday night, but still no change. We expected each moment to be the last of his suffering, as the doctor said he could do nothing more. Mr. Pringle was going up town Saturday night and was advised to try your great and wonderful medicine. He got a bottle, and about 9 o'clock the first dose was given, and was kept up as directed, and when the doctor came on Saturday he said, 'what wonderful change. Why, your little boy is going to get better!' Then we told him what we had given him. He said, 'keep right on, he is doing well.' I often think, as I look at my boy, growing to be a man, what great thanks I owe to Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry."

It has been on the market for 67 years, so you do not experiment when you buy it.

OTHER UNIONS MAY JOIN CARPENTERS IN PARADE

Live Session of the T. and L. Council Is Expected on Wednesday Night.

London's striking carpenters are endeavoring to arrange a sympathetic party of the Seventh regimental labor unions of the city. A 340 men will come up at the meeting of the Trades and Labor Council tomorrow night. President J. G. Hudson was expected that he had not heard of the proposed parade, but that it was not unlikely that such a proposal would come up. A member of the Seventh regimental labor unions of the city, who stated that that band would march in the procession, and that probably the First Hussars' band would also take part. In any case, the Musicians' Union would be well represented.

The slim labor vote at the last election will probably be discussed at the trades and labor meeting, and the electrical workers' grievances against the local hydro-electric department, and one or two other industrial matters are expected to receive findings. A live meeting is looked for.

MOTOR LEAGUE TO PUT UP OVER 600 SIGNS

Arthur Glenn Starts on a "Tacking" Trip of 340 Miles.

The Western Ontario Motor League is making hay while the sun shines, or rather, putting up signs. Yesterday Arthur Glenn started on a 340 mile trip, putting up signs on the road to Detroit, then to Sarnia via Bismarck and back to London. Over 600 signs will be put up on Western Ontario highways this year already, and 172 more will go up before Mr. Glenn arrives back in London.

The motor league will co-operate with the Ontario Automobile Association in a motor parade planned for the evening of August 4, and many of the members have signified their intention of placing floats in the parade.

LONDON BOY TELLS HOW TO SAVE POISONED DOGS

Dr. John F. Wood, of Nova Scotia, Touched by Stories of Animals' Deaths.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:
With your permission would you be good enough to publish the following for the benefit of "Dog Fanciers" in home town. Having noticed in your issue of July 6 the loss of the valuable setter Princess Patricia, by strychnine poisoning, owned by John S. Brown, I wish to say that all dog fanciers should have in their possession a hypodermic syringe, and a tube containing amorphine. When the symptoms of strychnine poisoning are seen in their canine beauties, such as spasmodic convulsions, stiffening, cracking of joints, etc., use one tablet of amorphine, one-tenth grain dissolved in water, sufficient to fill hypodermic, probably 20 m.m. up to 5 c.c. makes no difference.

Take the canine by the back of the neck (don't be afraid, for a sick animal will never harm you) and inject the contents under the skin. Place the animal in a dark room and leave entirely alone.

Hoping these few lines will help someone out of difficulty, and thanking you, Mr. Editor, very truly,
JOHN F. WOOD, V.S.,
Kentville, N.S.

TAXED CATERING CAPACITY.

The catering capacity of St. Thomas was taxed to its utmost to provide for the feeding of this great army. In many of the churches and in all the hotels and restaurants special arrangements had been made, and even so it was impossible to keep pace with the demand.

Until about 1:30, the various lodges paraded separately up and down the main street. At that hour, however, they formed up outside the municipal building and commenced the parade.

The Twenty-Seventh Regiment of Elgin, The "Havoc" and West Lorne Regiments followed, and then came the International band, of Detroit, and Windsor, the regiments and the Stars and Stripes being carried in the van of the contingent.

The Windsor lodge, with Earl of Erin L.O.L. leading the way, came next, and these were followed by the McMillan contingent and the McMillan contingent, of Detroit, who afterwards were awarded honors as the finest life and drum band in the procession.

Combined with a band composed of two drums and one life, which produced plenty of noise, by the way, were members of the Cottam Lodge, of Detroit, looking particularly conspicuous in mauve shirts, laced with orange ribbon.

Ladies in White.
Next came a float, bearing ladies wearing white dresses and carrying daisies, behind which marched the drum band, headed by a life and drum band, looking particularly conspicuous in white coats and capovers.

The Burford lodges were followed by the band of the Twenty-Seventh Regiment of Elgin. Following them came the Martin Luther and other lodges from headed by a band uniformed entirely in white.

The Woodstock men, led by the band of the Twenty-Second Regiment, were followed by the "Pipers Band," which won unstinted praise at the camp at London last week, stood out conspicuously. The drummer of one of the Chatham bands had banged with such a will as to pierce the parchment head of his instrument.

Behind Chatham appeared the banners of the Glencoe, Wallaceburg, Sydenham Valley and Petrolia lodges, the latter being accompanied by a band in khaki uniforms.

The Indians, from Oshewake, also marched behind a khaki-dressed band, and were followed by the Brant contingent with their brass band, Gush-boro, which followed, had two bands, a life and drum and a brass band.

Following these came the loss from Tillsonburg, the members all bearing in their handbags cards bearing the legend, "Come to Tillsonburg on July 12, 1915."

The Uster Lodge, Norwich, looked particularly smart in their white trousers and tunics with gold facings and with their leaders carrying drawn swords. They were followed by Brigid, who preceded London, the largest contingent present.

The latter were led by Bro. F. H. Wright, director of ceremonies for the County of Middlesex lodges, who, although nearly 70 years of age, bestrode his white charger with all the grace and ease of a young colt. Behind him marched Ahoghill L.O.L. No. 230; Boyne L.O.L. No. 298; Forest City L.O.L. No. 762 and King William III, L.O.L. Nassau L.O.L. No. 2170, and the largest London lodge in line brought up the rear, being headed by the Tecomah Indian Lodge, from

GRANT PARADE OF ORANGEMEN

Twelve Thousand Take Part in the Demonstration at St. Thomas.

FROM WESTERN ONTARIO
Sarnia, Woodstock, Windsor and Many Other Points Were Represented.

[By Staff Reporter.]
ST. THOMAS, July 13.—The largest parade in the history of St. Thomas and probably the largest parade of Orangemen ever held anywhere, occurred here today when upwards of 12,000 members L.O.L. from every part of Western Ontario, marched in procession from the municipal building to Pinfine Park in celebration of the anniversary of the crossing of the Boyne by William of Orange in 1690.

From 9 o'clock until noon, nearly every train from the north, south, east or west, and on every line brought consignments of Orangemen and their wives and friends, the visitors numbering altogether close to 20,000.

The catering capacity of St. Thomas was taxed to its utmost to provide for the feeding of this great army. In many of the churches and in all the hotels and restaurants special arrangements had been made, and even so it was impossible to keep pace with the demand.

DISMISSES $3,000 ACTION OVER GARAGE

Judge Macbeth Renders Decision in Case of Borland vs. Neidger.

The action was for $3,000 the land vs. W. J. Neidger, tried in the supreme court special sitting last Friday was handed down today by Judge Macbeth who dismissed the action with costs.

The action was for $3,000 the plaintiff had advertised his garage for sale and the defendant, after looking it over, gave the former a check for $3,000, providing certain conditions were fulfilled; that later the defendant wanted to call the deal off.

Borland went to Clinton to cash the check, but Neidger seeing him on the street stopped payment at the bank as he had not received a copy of the lease to the garage. Though the judge intimated that Borland had no chance in the action, yet the decision will be appealed by J. M. McEvoy, solicitor for the plaintiff.

MACHINERY INTERESTING
Storm Sewer Excavating Apparatus Attracts Attention in City.

The long, elevated machinery used for excavation on Egerton street by Contractor T. W. Nicholson, who has the contract for building a storm sewer from the river to Dundas street, is attracting considerable interest throughout the city. It is the first time such machinery has been used in London, and the rapidity with which the long Muncey, followed, and at the rear of the procession marched the St. Thomas lodges, led by a band, the members of which were dressed entirely in white, and whose drum-major was accompanied by an eight-year-old boy carrying a drawn sword across his shoulder. The local boys were given a great ovation.

At Pinfine Park the chief interest centered around the bandstand, where a number of speakers, of whom Mayor Hocken, of Toronto, was the longest-winded, if not the most convincing, held forth.

The speakers were introduced by Rev. R. W. Knowles, county chaplain, of St. Thomas, and the first of them was the mayor of St. Thomas, who tendered to the visitors an official welcome.

Toronto's Mayor Speaks.
Mayor Hocken, of Toronto, after reminding his hearers that "we assemble here today to generate the memory of a glorious price," turned to the home rule of Ireland question, and declared that Ulster was perfectly right in refusing to consent to being governed by a Dublin parliament.

"This is not a question as between individuals, or even political parties; it is a religious question," he said. "The liberty, because their forefathers fought for and gained those things, and they must not be expected to allow the people of the south to take away that liberty. The existence of that great organization in every corner of the great Anglo-Saxon world shows that English-speaking people everywhere value the inheritance bequeathed to them by William of Orange."

Birth of Democracy.
"Let us realize the true significance of this day: it is the anniversary of the birth of democracy in Britain. We celebrate it in a spirit of thankfulness to God and in the spirit of tolerance towards those of another faith, but we must be careful not to make the mistake of carrying tolerance to the point of surrendering our convictions."

Mr. Hocken declared that the result in the recent Ontario election was due to the determination of the people not to have bilingualism in the schools of the province. The Mayor of Toronto had lost votes also because it was realized that they favored separate schools.

Chief Tobias, a South Kent Indian, said he would like to say to the Orangemen of Ontario as the Irish drill sergeant said to the awkward squad, who could not get in line: "Come out here and take a look at yourselves."

Chief Tobias on the Bar.
They had cut a very poor figure, he thought, in the recent election. For himself, though he always had been a Conservative, he would have voted for Mr. Rowat, who he believed to be the last provincial election, because he believed that "abolish-the-bar" was a principle worth voting for.

"If I had said the opposite," he continued, "you all would have been tickled, and would have applauded me. A great many Christians and a great many Orangemen were found wanting when they were asked to take part in the last provincial election, because they did not give a good account of themselves when they had an opportunity to do away with the evil of the open bar in Ontario."

A woman in the crowd shouted, "Abolish the bar was only a side-issue," to which Chief Tobias was about to reply when Rev. Mr. Knowles, who was acting as chairman, evidently thinking that he had done enough damage, suggested his coat-tails, and intimated that he had spoken enough.

Among the other speakers were: E. T. Essery, K.C., London; Rev. H. McMillan, St. Thomas; J. R. McCullough, Mayor of the McKinley (Detroit) Lodge; Rev. W. H. Eberole, Kingsville; and F. G. McDermid, M.P.P., of St. Thomas.

A number of the visitors watched the baseball game between St. Thomas and Erie, while others divided their time between watching the judging of the various competitions and taking part in them. The band contest, in particular, evoked keen interest.

Six bands entered the competition for first and second prizes, the honors going to the Detroit aggregation, who certainly deserved the award. Brant was placed second, and Ingersoll third. Two London bands, those of L. O. L. 762 and 805, were entered, but they and Preston were not in the running.

Woodstock's Band First.
Woodstock was adjudged to have the best brass band, with Sarnia and Croton second and third, respectively. Of the pipe bands, the Chatham Cadets were declared to be the best, and the reception they got indicated that they were the most popular of all the bands present.

Smoothtown won the verdict in the competition for Indian bands, the Onedass and Oshewake coming second and third.

Of the London contingent present at the celebration the outstanding figures were: Marshall F. H. Wright; his assistant, Color-Sergeant H. H. Mercer, of the Seventh Regiment, director of ceremonies for District No. 1, London Township; Wm. Free, director for District No. 2; Joseph Mahon, director for District No. 3; Sam Johns, of Onedass, director of District No. 4; and Perry David, district master.
