The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

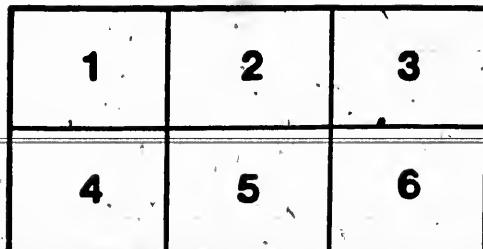

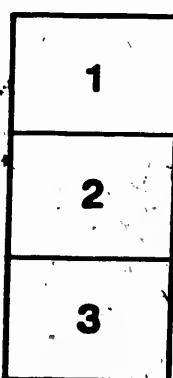

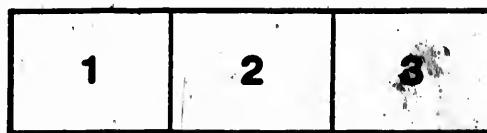

Société du Musée
du Séminaire de Québec

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ▽ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Société du Musée

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▽ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

ST. PAUL'S TRAVELS.

SACRED GEOGRAPHY.

1. In the first Map of this series will be found a representation of that part of the world which was first occupied by man. The situation of Eden is unknown ; but the place assigned to it here, is one which, more than any other, answers to the description given of it in Scripture. Babylon and Nineveh were the first great cities in the world, and the Babylonian empire, or Chaldea, including Assyria, was the first great empire. (Dan. ii. 38.) After the Babylonian arose that of the Persians and Medes, under Cyrus and Darius. Armenia was the place from which the world was peopled after the flood, the Ark having rested on Ararat. Syria was also a powerful kingdom. In it lay the Holy Land, which God gave to the descendants of Jacob.

2. The Journeyings of the Children of Israel is the subject of the second Map. Jacob, or Israel, who sojourned in Canaan, sent his sons to Egypt for corn. There Joseph relieved them and sent for all his family to live with him. On Joseph's death, the Israelites were subjected to a most cruel bondage, until God plagued the Egyptians, and brought out the people under Moses. Journeying from Rameses they passed through the Red Sea, and travelled southward to Mount Sinai, and thence to Kadesh, where they sent spies into Canaan as far as Rehob. They returned bringing a false report of the land ; and God was so much displeased with the murmuring of the people, that he sent them back to wander in the wilderness of Edom, until all their old men died. After that, God led them into Canaan under Joshua. They crossed the Jordan, and Jericho was the first city which they destroyed.

3. Palestine (No. 3.) was divided by Joshua among the tribes of Israel, after the idolatrous inhabitants had been destroyed or subdued. Jerusalem was chosen by David as the capital; but on the revolt of the ten tribes after Solomon's death, Samaria became the capital of the revolters, until they were carried away into captivity. Jerusalem itself was destroyed by the Babylonians, and the Jews carried into captivity ; but they were restored after seventy years, and continued in possession of their country till the destruction of Jerusalem under the Romans.

4. Jerusalem, the capital of Judea and the Holy Land, was built on four hills, Mount Zion and Mount Moriah being the most celebrated. Mount Zion was strongly fortified, and the Temple was built on Mount Moriah, where Abraham had formerly offered a ram instead of Isaac. The Mount of Olives lay on the east of Jerusalem, and the brook Kedron flowed between. Jerusalem was first wholly subdued by David. It suffered many sieges afterwards ; but during its siege by Titus the inhabitants suffered the most awful calamities, and the city itself was utterly destroyed.

5. Palestine (No. 5.) was divided into five provinces—Judea, Samaria, Galilee, Batanea, and Perea. Zacharias and Elizabeth, the parents of John the Baptist, lived in the hill-country of Judea. Mary, the mother of Jesus, in Nazareth of Galilee. They, however, belonged to Bethlehem, and it was there that Jesus was born. Judea, Samaria, and especially Galilee, were favoured with the preaching and miracles of Jesus. The sea of Galilee also was frequently the scene of his labours. At Jerusalem he was crucified, but after his resurrection he went before his disciples into Galilee.

6. The sixth Map represents the countries lying between Jerusalem and Rome, the scene of the labours of the Apostle Paul. There were seven journeys altogether, three of which (4, 5 and 6) are traced on the Map. The First was from Jerusalem to Damascus, Arabia, and back again.—The Second was from Jerusalem to Tarsus, and back.—The Third was from Jerusalem, through Antioch, Cyprus, and Derbe, and back.—The Fourth was from Jerusalem, through Antioch, Asia Minor, Macedonia, and Greece, to Athens and Corinth ; then back by Ephesus to Cesarea and Jerusalem.—The Fifth was from Jerusalem, through Antioch, Asia Minor, Macedonia, Illyricum, and Greece, to Corinth, and back through Macedonia to Troas and Miletus, and from thence to Cesarea and Jerusalem.—The Sixth was from Jerusalem, through Sidon to Myra, Lasea in Crete, Melita, Syracuse, Rhegium, Puteoli, and Rome.—The Seventh was from Rome to Jerusalem, by the Mediterranean, and back through Syria, Asia Minor, Macedonia, and Greece, to Rome.
