MISCELLANEOUS.

Knight (Charles.) Pictorial History of England. A History of the People, as well as a History of the Kingdom, by C. Knight, Prof. Craik, C. Macfarlane. and others, with upwards of 2,000 wood engravings (original impressions.) 8 thick vols, imperial 8vo, half roan, fine copy, 12.75. Lon. 1840, etc.
306

———— Chamber's improved edition. Vol. 7 consists of the History of the Peace, 1816-1846, by Harriet Martineau. 7 thick vols, imperial 8vo, cloth, illustrated with hundreds of wood cuts, 8.75. Lon. 1855-8. 307

The Pictorial History of England seems to be the very thing required by the popular taste of the present day; adding to the advantage of a clear, historical narrative, all the varied illustrations of which the subject is capable. These consist of appropriate wood-cuts, generally of able execution—Dresses, arms, industrial employments, sports copied from illuminated manuscripts of the period to which they belong—Views of scenes rendered famous by historical events taken from drawings or prints as near the period as could be obtained—Ample illustrations of architecture and sculpture; portraits and facsimiles, and here and there cuts from historical paintings.—

biographies of Currie and Lockhart, and a general introduction, edited by William Wallace. Numerous illustrations. 2 vols, royal 8vo, handsomely bound in half morocco gilt, gilt edges, 5 00, (pub. 32s.) Cassells, n.d. 648 "Incorporating what is at once freshest and most trustworthy in recent discoveries, this claims to be to all intents and purposes a complete edition of Burns' works.
The biographies of Burns by Currie and Lockhart are universally acknowledged to be the standard estimates of his life from the two standpoints of candour and generosity. These are printed in this work entire, and it is sought by a 'General Introduction' and a 'Biographical supplement' to present and properly appraise the results of investigation and criticism since they appeared; also the Common Place Book and Chief Centenary Celebration, and other matters worthy of record.

Crown 8vo, cloth, 60c. Lon. 1886. 914

The Lord Bishop of Liverpool says: "It will be found to contain an exhaustive exposition of all the words which were spoken from time to time by the angels whom God was pleased to employ in the days of Christ and the Apostles. It will be found to be no dry, critical commentary, suited only to the learned. It is an exposition rich in excellent doctrinal and practical matter, from which all classes of Christians may derive benefit.
