[Items on educational subjects will fession and public will be answered in this column by competent authority.]

On Christmas eve the pupils of S. S.
No. 23, Yarmouth, visited their teacher, Mr. W. L. Mackenzie, and presented him with an address accompanied by a beautiful parlor lamp and silver butter dish, as a token of their esteem.
A very pleasant surprise was given to Miss M. Simpson, teacher of the Frome school, at the Christmas entertainment held in the Congregational Church on the evening of the 22nd inst., consisting of a valuable and handsome present of a glove case and handkerchief box, from her pupils, who appear to hold her in high esteem. Miss Simpson has been re-engaged at a salary of $375.
A public examination took place in the schoolhouse, S. S. No. 18, South Dorchester, on Thursday afternoon, the 23rd inst. Several of the parents were present, and expressed themselves as being well pleased with the efficient manner and progress the school had made during the past year, which reflects great credit upon their teacher,
Mr. J. A. Evans. After the programme of studies, prize books were distributed among the scholars. At the spring examination the trustees promised a special prize for the greatest advance made in the school at Xmas. Master Colin N. Stewart won it, after a hot contest. After the prize books had been distributed, Mr. D. J. Moore, trustee, took charge of the school, while Master John D. Moore and Miss Caroline O'Neill came forward and presented their teacher, Mr. Evans, with an eloquent address and a gold pocket and chain, on behalf of the scholars, to which Mr. Evans made a feeling reply, although completely taken by surprise.
This is the second lot of prize books distributed in the school this year, and they cannot be beaten by any other school in the county, when an excellent handling and sound information are considered. They were purchased from A. McLaughlin. The present to the teacher is something he may be proud of, and it shows that the scholars take an interest in their work. It was purchased from Hepinatal, the jeweler, both of St. Thomas. We congratulate the trustees on their success in having secured the services of Mr. Evans for their teacher for next season.

A SENSATIONAL RUNAWAY.
A Clerical Abductor and His Victim
Arrested in London.
A runaway couple were caught and arrested in London yesterday, at the G. T. B. station, by Detective Blair, who was on the lookout for them. The couple were the result of a marriage
the circumstances that led to it are:
A short time ago there disappeared
roughly a young woman, a person,
Rev. C. B. Seals, alias Rev. Charles Brody, alias Rev. J. F. Weaver. He is a man fifty years old, and ran away with a young lady very recently belonging to East Lynne, who was with him at the time of his arrest. She is twenty years old, five feet two inches high, and has very small finely formed hands and feet. She has large, spirituelle, timid brown eyes. Her hair is very heavy, and brown. Her name is Miss Annie Matthews. Her figure is slight and handsome, and at the time of the great she wore a lavender colored travelling (wool) dress and Gaiters, and carried a travelling bag, and a travelling case, decorated with a large gold brooch. She is forty-four years old,

THE JOURNAL ESTABLISHED 1857. ST. THOMAS, - ONTARIO. THE JOURNAL COMPANY, JAS. S. BRIDGES, Manager.

"We see them on their lonely way Up Salt Creek, so cold and gray."

A COLD DAY

For the Tories of Ontario.

But Seasonable Weather for Little Oliver.

A Grand Victory for Good Government.

All The Ministers Re-elected by Large Majorities.

And a Majority of About 1800 for the Reform Administration.

The provincial elections are over and the Mowat administration has been handomely sustained. The latest returns show that out of the ninety seats the Liberals have carried sixty, the Tories twenty-eight, leaving two not heard from—Bruce, North, and Grey, Centre—which will probably return one of each party.

Both parties claim North Grey. Creighton, the Man of Duluth, says he has seven majorities, but Mr. Cleland says there is a Reform surplus.

One of the most surprising turnovers is that in Stormont. The Tory majority in the two constituencies merged to make this one was 253. Mr. Mack has converted this into a Reform majority of 296.

It is to be noticed that in every constituency in which Mr. J. L. Hughes went the Liberal majority has been increased. It is to be presumed that the objection of the Liberal school trustees to the payment of Hughes salary for the month will now be dropped.

Table with columns for Constituency, Name, and Votes. Includes entries for Renfrew, Simcoe West, Toronto, Victoria, and various other regions.

Freeholders can vote as many times as they own property in different wards for the Board by law.

The Heard By-Law. The proposed by-law for the granting of a bonus of $6,000 and free water for ten years to Messrs. John Heard & Co., carriage woodwork manufacturers, of Amherstburg, in consideration of their removing their business to this city, erecting a suitable building for their factory, and employing forty hands, will be voted on by the ratepayers on Friday next.

Music Teachers. Mr. J. H. Jones, of this city, at the evening session of the Ontario Music Teachers' Association, now meeting in Toronto, gave an organ recital, which was much admired.

MAYORALTY 1887.

To the Electors of the City of St. Thomas: Having been asked to allow myself to be nominated for the Mayoralty for the year 1887 by a deputation representing a large portion of the workmen of this city, as well as by a great many other electors, I have declined to accept the nomination, and if elected will do all in my power for the prosperity of St. Thomas, and hope to leave the balance on the proper side of the ledger at the end of the year.

LOCAL NOTINGS

Go and see "Nip and Tuck," Opera House to-night.

A meeting of the electors of No. 6 Ward is called for Thursday night at the Dominion Hotel.

Mr. Hector Cameron, of Belmont, fastened several ribs by falling from a hay loft a few days ago.

The returned agent of lands for taxes taken at County Treasurer McCann's office, noon to-morrow.

Tragedy year-old son of Mr. Jerry L. Smith was run over by a blank striking it on Sunday. Dr. C. Ellis set the fracture.

Mr. John McLean, foreman of the Woodstock Review, was the recipient of a watch chain and chain from the employees under him.

Frank Arnold was arrested on Talbot street this afternoon by Sergeant Ross on the charge of being drunk, and incapable. He was lodged in the freezer.

Mr. W. O. Pollock, candidate for the reevehip of Yarmouth, will hold a meeting for the discussion of municipal matters on Thursday night in the town hall, Union.

Sheriff Brown, returning officer for the west riding, will make an official announcement of the state of the poll at the city hall at 2 p. m. on Wednesday, Jan. 9th, 1887.

A young man named Wm. White, who lives on Clarence street, London, was arrested yesterday on a charge of rape, Miss Maggie Brighton, of Clarence street, being the complainant.

The ratepayers of Port Stanley will on Monday vote on the by-law granting a loan of $5,000 to John McCleary & Co. of London, to establish a branch foundry in that village.

A gang of thirty men commenced cutting ice for the M.C.R. at Waterford yesterday. About 400 tons will be cut, which will be stored at Waterford, Victoria and St. Thomas.

Wm. Henderson, of Bayham, was taken to the county jail yesterday, by Bailiff White, of Aylmer, on a commitment for forty days for contempt of court in not settling a judgment for $35 claimed against him.

Mr. F. W. Mitchell offered a pair of gold cuff studs to the person guessing the nearest the result of the election. John Brown guessed 26 majority for Ingram, no one guessing 19, the exact majority.

The Detroit aldermen last night passed the following resolution:—Resolved, The Board of Councilmen concurring, that on and after 12 o'clock midnight, January 1st, 1887, meridian time shall be established in the city of Detroit and standard time abandoned.

Mr. W. Reid, teamster for Messrs. Hay & Co., of Woodstock, was mysteriously shot in the thigh on Saturday night last, while carrying in wood, at his kitchen door. It is the most mysterious case of shooting ever heard of in the town.

Mr. A. McLaughlin, returning officer for the East Riding, will make the official announcement of the result of the voting in that riding at the court house, on Friday, Mr. McLaughlin left this morning on a tour of the riding, collecting the ballot boxes.

TO CARRY THE HEARD BY-LAW

IT TAKES TWO FIFTHS OF ALL THE FREEHOLDERS TO VOTE FOR IT.

A meeting of a number of young people connected with Grace church was held at the residence of Mr. J. E. Pollock, Talbot street, last night.

The New Year's market this morning was a fair one, a large number of farmers being in attendance, and the amount of flour, butter and other farm produce offered for sale being more than sufficient to supply the demand.

Large numbers of fowls were sold, there being a shortage in prices worthy of note. Mr. John Farley states an unusual occurrence for this time of the year.

This morning a robin was seen by him and other members of his family flying about his residence. Robs in Red Riding have come at this unusual season of the year to announce the overwhelming victory secured by the Little Hero.

E. Moylan bagged a snake and braken in the Petrols N. O. Springs of the M. C. R. He fell into a path-guard while hunting cars at Oil Springs Monday night. He was picked up in an unconscious condition and was found to be very seriously injured about the head and body, but it is thought the unfortunate man will pull through all right.

The St. Thomas Amateur Minstrels will give their first entertainment at the Opera House on Friday evening, Dec. 31st. The organization is composed of the best musical talent in the city, and a rich treat may be looked forward to. A splendid programme is in rehearsal and when the boys make their debut, they should be greeted with a bumper house.

Mr. B. Housinger offered a box of cigars to the person guessing nearest the result of the election. Ingram's majority is now given at 19, and a Constable Metcalfe guessed that number, he will likely secure the cigars. Albert Miller guessed 18, and R. J. Fitzsimmons 21, either of whom who the night before last Mr. Albert Marlatt, who resides on Regent street, was driving into town with Mrs. Marlatt. At the first collapse on the Aylmer gravel road he met three men driving in an opposite direction in their cutter, one of whom took his whip and struck the coil Mr. Marlatt drove, an accidental blow. Mr. Marlatt lost control of the animal, which darted along Talbot street, up Elgin, and turned into Mr. Marlatt's gate to the stable. In turning in the cutter was almost upset, and Mrs. Marlatt was thrown out and badly shaken up.

The Robt. H. Baird Comedy Company was greeted with another small audience at the Opera House last night, when the Ticket of Leave Man was produced. This presentation was in every way a highly successful one, the different characters in the cast being ably enacted by the various members of the combination.

Robt. H. Baird as Milton Ross, Florence Sutherland as May Edwars, Lewis Baker as Hawkshaw and Allan Haldor as Bob Brerley, are deserving of special mention. To-night the laughable comedy, Nip and Tuck, will be presented, and now that the election is over, the company will probably secure that patronage which their merits deserve.

FREEHOLDERS CAN VOTE AS MANY TIMES AS THEY OWN PROPERTY IN DIFFERENT WARDS FOR THE HEARD BY-LAW.

A CLOSE VOTE.

Ingram Wins a Hard Fought Battle.

Coyne's Majority in the County 428; Ingram in the City 447.

Nainn Exceedingly Redeems a East Elgin.

The elections of the city yesterday created a great deal of excitement, both parties putting in an enormous amount of work in bringing voters to the polls.

The Reformers, especially the younger men, worked with a will, and that the result was so disastrous cannot be laid at their door.

Shortly after 5 o'clock the returns from the various polling sub-divisions began to arrive at the JOURNAL office, where a large crowd was in waiting to receive them.

From the very first it was seen that the result was not to be so favorable as had been expected. Of course none looked for anything, but a large majority for Mr. Ingram in the city, but the majority he did receive was even beyond the calculations of his most sanguine supporters.

Nos. 1 and 2 wards, always largely Conservative, were expected by the Reform canvassers to give a very much reduced majority for Mr. Ingram, but the first returns, which were from those two wards, showed plainly that the men who had been working in Mr. Coyne's interests in those wards had been grossly deceived.

Scores of voters who had pledged themselves to Mr. Coyne or his friends in Nos. 1 and 2 wards must have deliberately come back upon their pledge, and voted against him. In No. 3 ward the result was not far different from what was expected, it giving Mr. Ingram a majority of eight.

The three east wards, always very difficult to canvass, gave extraordinarily large majorities for Mr. Ingram, but this did not excite so much surprise.

When the city returns were all in, and it was found that Mr. Ingram had received the large majority of 447, it was generally felt that the contest was decided, and that Mr. Ingram was elected, as few imagined that the riding could poll a Reform majority at all approaching those figures.

As the returns came in, however, between 6 and 9 o'clock, the excitement rose to fever heat as the Conservative majority in the city was gradually polled down.

First came three divisions in Southwold, giving Mr. Coyne forty-four of a majority, where formerly the vote was about even. Following this a tremendous shout went up from those in waiting, as the announcement was made that the grand old banner township of Dunwich rendered the splendid majority of 274 for Mr. Coyne.

This sent Coyne a stock away up, as Aldborough might go 100, and if it did this, and gave Mr. Casey, as much as it had given Mr. Casey, the former would be elected. Southwold was the next township to be heard from, and when the telegram told that it gave Mr. Ingram the splendid majority of 116, cheer after cheer went up.

This left Mr. Coyne with only 29 to make, and strong were the hopes that Aldborough would meet the emergency. It failed, but sent in the very creditable majority for Coyne of 38.

This left Mr. Coyne in a minority of 19 and it was by that small number of votes that he lost the election. The following is the result of the polling in the different parts of the riding:—

that they were safe out of the woods, and when the final result was announced that Ingram had been elected by about nineteen, the cheering in the city hall made the old bricks shake.

A torch-light procession was then formed at the Conservative club rooms, and headed by the L. O. F. band, marched up Talbot street to the city hall.

Mr. Ingram, being seated in a suite, which was hailed by his enthusiastic supporters. Arrived at the city hall the procession turned down Talbot street again, and proceeded to the Grand Central hotel, where Messrs. A. B. Ingram, T. W. Crothers, C. O. Ematinger, L. D. Gillet and J. C. McCall: the band played "God Save the Queen."

The crowd slowly dispersed, which was hailed by his enthusiastic supporters. Arrived at the city hall the procession turned down Talbot street again, and proceeded to the Grand Central hotel, where Messrs. A. B. Ingram, T. W. Crothers, C. O. Ematinger, L. D. Gillet and J. C. McCall: the band played "God Save the Queen."

Mr. Crother's reference to the fact that Mr. Coyne's native city had given a heavy majority against him, and his comments thereon, were of a nature that no man with a sense of what was proper and seemly in dealing with a defeated opponent, would have made use of. They were unkind, uncalled for, and ungentlemanly.

Several instances at the Election Yesterday.

Several glaring instances are told of attempts made to perorate, to vote twice and otherwise to secure Mr. Ingram an election by unfair means.

We are not aware that Mr. Ingram or any of his agents were parties to those attempts, but that they were made, admits of no doubt.

One case, of a most glaring character, occurred in the north part of No. 5 Ward, when a young lad, named William Glasser, said to be only sixteen years of age, swore that he was David Glasser, and was of age, and he accordingly voted.

His father was not entitled to vote, and it would appear that young Glasser and those with whom he was connected, had planned to have his election voided. Other cases, in which attempts at peroration were made, and instances of polls closing before 5 o'clock, are also given, and it may be that a scrutiny will be held to determine how far these irregularities affected the result.

Words fail to express my gratitude, says Mr. Sibly Carter, of Nashville, Tenn., for the benefits derived from Ayer's Sarsaparilla. My system was filled with scrofula; blotches, ulcers, and malarial sores, all over my body.

Mr. Carter was entirely cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, eight months ago, and has had no return of the scrofulous symptoms.
