The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Metropolitan Toronto Library
Canadian History Department

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Metropolitan Toronto Library
Canadian History Department

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

THE BIBLE,

REASON AND SCIENCE.

FORMING A

DEFENSIVE MANUAL OF THE BIBLE,

TOGETHER WITH A HISTORY OF THE

RELIGIOUS DENOMINATIONS OF THE WORLD,

THEIR CREEDS, DOCTRINES, CEREMONIES, ETC.,

BY D. M. EVANS, A. B.

THE object of this work is to present, within a reasonable compass, a complete armor of defence against the assaults of modern skepticism and criticism in all their phases, and to give a clear and concise view of all the religious denominations of the world. From the time of the pagan Celsus to the present, objections, frivolous and absurd, plausible and insinuating, modified through every degree of cunning, adapted to every shade of capacity, and promulgated from every motive of the human heart, have been put forth to undermine the foundations of Christianity. Replies to many of them are scattered through hundreds of volumes, doing immense good; but there is a demand for a single work which will embrace within itself concise and satisfactory answers to every objection which has been urged.

The work which we now offer to the public is confidently believed to supply this long-felt want. It answers fully the arguments advanced by atheists, infidels and skeptics of all shades. It gives a reasonable solution to every difficult passage, reconciles all apparent discrepancies, and harmonizes all seeming contradictions in the Bible. A silly cavil does often more harm than a plausible objection. The former is generally ignored and allowed to work its mischief. In this work all sorts of sneers, cavils, and innuendos will find an antidote. It furnishes the arguments necessary to establish all the primary truths of religion and the fundamental principles of Christianity. It gives a concise and lucid view of every religious denomination, their doctrines, worship, and peculiarities, so that one may compare the various creeds and judge of their merits. In a word, it furnishes the landmarks of truth, and the arguments by which they are established and defended.

This valuable work is the result of years of careful study and inquiry, and embodies the gist of all Christian literature bearing upon these subjects. The arguments which have overthrown Volney, Rousseau, Voltaire, Diderot, Chubb, Gibbon, Hume, Strauss, Renan, Tom Paine, and others, have not been omitted, while the scientific theories of Huxley, Darwin, Tyndale, Lyell, Emmons, and the host of lesser minds have been dissected with a vigorous hand, laying bare their absurdities, defects, and sophistries. In discussing the discrepancies and difficulties of the Bible, the highest evangelical views are held, while any denominational bias has been carefully avoided. The work in every article appeals to the reason and intellect, and presents such logical conclusions that no thinking person can fail to be greatly benefited by a study of the book. Every one at some time is called upon to give the reason of his belief. It is a duty to be prepared to state the grounds on which beliefs are based. Believers are constantly called upon to answer various objections urged. If not prepared by special study, they are frequently worsted on a very plain point. Hence the necessity of the volume now offered. A reply to any of the popular objections can be found instantly.

LANDMARKS OF TRUTH.

The book examines and decides the very points which are omitted in Bible dictionaries and commentaries, and is just such a work as has long been sought for by all classes. The Sabbath-school teacher will find it an invaluable aid in his or her duties, as the volume not only refutes every popular objection brought up, but directs to authorities where special branches are treated more at length.

TO AGENTS.

It is scarcely necessary to say that this is beyond doubt the best selling book that has been in the field for years. The need of just such a work has been felt for a long time. Persons were constantly asking the minister for some book like this; but there was none published. It was necessary to get a whole library to get the information now offered in one volume. Every young person wants it to see how all the objections are met. Parents need it to assist in answering the puzzling questions of their children. Sabbath-school teachers will all want a work, which will assist in replying to the various objections raised in their classes. Ministers cheerfully do all they can to help the agent to sell the work. There is no book published like it. Hence there is no competition; and it will be needed as a standard work in every house. It is not a book to be laid aside when once read, but one to be consulted often when a question comes up.

THE WORK IS COMMENDED BY THE BEST SCHOLARSHIP

Of the country, and secures at once the strongest testimonials from the best classes in every place wherever introduced.

CONDITIONS.

This work will be printed on beautiful paper, from new stereotype plates. It will be appropriately illustrated with steel and other engravings, and will contain about five hundred octavo pages. It will be bound in a neat and substantial manner, and furnished to subscribers only at the following

TESTIMONIALS.

From the many Recommendations which we are continually receiving from leading men of all denominations and the public Press we present the following:

From S. A. MUTOHMORE, D. D.,

Pastor of the Alexander Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, Pa.

This is one of those valuable and useful books which appear at rare intervals to fill a niche in literature that has been inconveniently vacant. It supplies, in an admirable manner, a serious deficiency, and will be in great demand. It shows great research, thorough scholarship, and peculiar ability in dealing with all the modern skeptical questions of the times, and places within the reach of all, in an original form and interesting style, a complete equipment to meet all the apparent difficulties against the Bible and Christianity, which are presented by the many so-called scientific theories, philosophical speculations, and fanciful interpretations of the day. I earnestly recommend it to all searchers after truth, and to all who desire to be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason for the hope that is in you.

From THE EPISCOPALIAN.

We have read the advance proof-sheets of a large part of this work, and have examined carefully some of its leading articles. We think the volume will prove a valuable addition to that class of religious literature to which it belongs. The style is terse, plain, and interesting, and the views of the author, while not propounded to defend any particular school of teaching, are sound, Scriptural, and consistent. The chief value of the work seems to lie in its furnishing a complete armory of defence against the objections, the cavils, and the specious arguments of those who are seriously and painfully in doubt, or who are champions of unbelief. The information given is arranged under convenient heads, and the topics are indicated by the common and leading words in modern discussion. We take pleasure in commending the work to Christian families, institutions, and readers.

From P. S. HENSON, D. D.,

Pastor of the Memorial Baptist Church, Philadelphia, Pa.

The idea of the book is admirable, and the execution worthy of the idea. It supplies a desideratum in our theological literature.

It is an excellent cartridge-box, such as every Christian soldier needs in his encounters with infidelity. I hope it may be generally introduced in the army.

From WM. BACON STEVENS, D. D.,

Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

The cursory examination which I have been able to give to the Landmarks of Truth, lead me to believe that it will be a very useful book in clearing up difficulties and removing many popular objections against our Holy Bible.

From Professor A. C. KENDRICK,

University of Rochester, N. Y.

I have examined with some care the Landmarks of Truth, which you have had the kindness to send to me. Its purpose is excellent, and in this skeptical age eminently timely. It is very convenient and comprehensive in plan; and the execution is very judicious. It states clearly, under their proper heads, the chief objections to Scripture, and from the best sources gives in brief the accepted modes of answering them. I do not see how it can fail to be greatly useful, especially to that large class of readers who have not access to the fuller and more elaborate works. I cordially wish it the success it merits.

TESTIMONIALS.

From Professor W. L. BOSWELL,

Late Professor of Greek, Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa.

From a brief examination of a new work, entitled Landmarks of Truth, I am so well satisfied that it meets and supplies a want long-felt that I have no hesitation in commending it heartily to the reading public. It supplies in popular form, and in a way accessible to all, the results, unembarrassed by the processes of the scientific and religious investigations of scholars up to this time. It ought to be within the reach of every Christian and of every thinker.

From Rev. GEORGE M. STEELE, D. D.,

President of Lawrence University, Appleton, Wis.

I have examined briefly, but with much pleasure, the work entitled Landmarks of Truth, by D. M. Evans, A. B. It contains a large amount of matter of great value not merely to scholars, but to all persons of ordinary education, and comprises this very desirable intelligence in a more convenient and economical form than has heretofore been published. It ought to, and I have no doubt will, have a very large circulation.

From S. H. McKOWN, CHAS. HILL, J. TODD, and H. LEDERBURN,

The leading Clergymen of Wilmington, Del.

The author of this work deserves thanks of the Christian public. The work itself deserves to be found in every Christian community. It meets a want that many have felt. It removes difficulties and answers objections that have often arisen in the mind of the devout reader of the Bible, as well as disposes satisfactorily of objections of both long-standing and recent character as advanced by the avowed skeptic.

From THE METHODIST HOME JOURNAL.

Landmarks of Truth, forming a complete defensive manual, by D. M. Evans, A. B., issued by the Quaker City Publishing House, in this city. With its character and contents we are sufficiently familiar to say, that however imposing the title, it amply sustains all that is claimed for it, and is, consequently, a book for the times, a help for every Christian believer who would be rooted and well grounded in the impregnable fastnesses of scientific and religious truth. We have known something of the assiduity of research, the patient, painstaking study, and the persevering labor involved in the author's work. Personally, we can attest his industry in following up the purpose to place a landmark at every diverging point where lurking error or caviling sophistry

We want an agent in every town to sell this work. We will give exclusive right of sale; and in order to circulate the book as far as possible through our agents, both men and women, we give extra inducements to those who will make the selling of this book a special business. Send for terms to agents.

seeks to disparage divine revelation. It contains, in well-digested statement, the facts, arguments, and conclusions which one must needs traverse an extensive Biblical, theological, and ecclesiastical library to obtain. Of its general value we cannot speak too strongly. The great variety of its topics will prevent weariness on the part of the reader and prove highly beneficial in diffusing healthful instruction. Agents will find this one of the best books for the useful employment of their time in canvassing.

From Rev. S. P. LINN,

Pastor of the German Street Presbyterian Church.

I cheerfully subscribe for this work, as I regard it as both able and timely. It will be of great service to honest doubters, who desire solid ground upon which to stand.

From THE CHRONICLE,

Elizabethtown, Pa.

We have just received from the Quaker City Publishing Company, Philadelphia, a valuable work, entitled Landmarks of Truth. This instructive work is highly recommended by all denominations, and sells rapidly. It is handsomely gotten up, printed in clear type, on fine paper, and is in every respect a good work, and should find a place in every library. We cheerfully recommend it to our readers.

From THE GAZETTE AND DEMOCRAT.

Newcastle, Pa.

Of the many productions in this book-making age, there are but few that appear to fill a want. Others are but leaves thrown upon the sea of literature. But we have been shown a work that appears to be a most appropriate and interesting book at the present time in this section. It is entitled Landmarks of Truth. We cannot even enumerate all the subjects treated of, but some are Darwinism, geology, creation and fall of man, redemption, infidelity, spiritualism, atheism, contradictions, materialism, inspiration, witches, wonders, etc. All Bible-readers should have a copy.

From THE NEW CASTLE COURANT,

Landmarks of Truth. The title of the book fully explains itself. In these days, when so much inquiry is being instituted, so many old objections revived and new ones sprung, it is just the thing all should have who desire ability to defend the truth, and we advise all who desire to find in one volume what would take a whole library to furnish, to subscribe.
