Say British Are In City Of The Caliphs

London Chronicle Has Report of Entry Into Bagdad

FURTHER GAINS ON THE WEST FRONT

Germans Make Desperate Effort to Recover Ground Lost on Thursday But Only Lose More in the Attempt

London, March 10.—The Daily Chronicle says today that it is virtually certain that the British troops are now in Bagdad and that official confirmation of this may be expected at any moment.

The Chronicle's military correspondent, upon whose information the assertion apparently was based, writes "I am entitled to assume that the city was occupied without any serious fighting, and we shall probably learn that our cavalry dashed through it and along the Tigris toward Samarra."

French Gain More

Paris, March 10.—Violent fighting occurred in the Champagne last night, in consequence of a German attempt to recapture the ground won by the French between Butte du Mesnil and Maisons de Champagne. Today's official statement says that after several desperate charges had been made, with alternate advances and retreats, the French succeeded in holding all the ground they had gained, and in making fresh progress.

On the Verdun front the Germans attacked the trenches occupied by the French north of Carrières Wood. They penetrated these positions at some points, but were ejected by a counter-attack. The French continued their raids, penetrating the German positions east of Armancourt as far as the third trenches and taking prisoners near Crouy, north-east of Soissons.

German Report

Berlin, Mar. 10.—(By wireless to St. John, N. B.)—The German official statement today, with lively fighting at many places, says that the British are still in the hands of the British. Numerous aerial combats occurred.

"There were no events of particular importance on the eastern front."

SENTIMENT IS HELD NOT REASON ENOUGH

Lyman Hale Haggerty's Petition to Become "Lyman Hale" is Refused

Boston, Mass., March 10.—Lyman Hale Haggerty, of Jamaica Plain, who petitioned the probate court for permission to drop the "Haggerty" and to go by his mother's family name, thus becoming Lyman Hale, has learned that sentimental reasons are not sufficient for such a change.

Judge Grant told Haggerty that he would consider the petition if sufficient reasons were advanced. The younger man, who says his petition was not induced by racial dislike, as he is proud of the Irish blood in his veins, told a reporter that Lyman Hale, his learned that sentimental reasons are not sufficient for such a change.

His application for a change of name was submitted on the ground that, having no memory of his father, he preferred his mother's family name. "I always got along well enough with the name of Haggerty," the petitioner said, "but recently my wife has had a notion that we ought to change it, and she has been after me to apply for a change for our daughter's sake. We have a little girl named Phyllis, who is two and one-half years old, and my wife thinks she would like to have her daughter carry the name of Hale rather than that of Haggerty."

"Then I have always had some trouble with the spelling of the name, so far as relatives on the Haggerty side, so far as I know, and I wanted to preserve the old family name of Hale. My father was a farmer in Ipswich. My mother came from an old family that dated back to colonial times, and since I have no memory of my father, who died when I was two years old, and do not even know whether he has any relatives living or not, it is natural I should want to preserve a good old American name," Haggerty is an electrician.

Secret Gasoline Caches

Panama, March 10.—A secret gasoline depot, found on the coast of the Gulf of Darien, in close touch, it is reported, with Puerto Pina on the Pacific coast of Panama, where an ex-officer of the Austrian army, named Augustus Diak, who describes himself as correspondent of the Berlin Lokal Anzeiger, has been in the city since about February 1.

Ban on Newspaper Posters

London, Mar. 10.—Beginning today street news vendors will no longer display posters to indicate the contents of the newspapers which they are selling. With the object of conserving the paper supply the government has issued an order prohibiting the use of the "news tents bill," as they are called, which have been so familiar in the streets of London.

BIG PROGRAMME OF SHIPBUILDING

Canada May Be Coming Back to Her Own

NEWS HEARD IN LONDON

Imperial Munitions Board in Ottawa Said to Have Matter in Hand

—May Mean a Big Permanent Industry

Montreal, March 10.—A special cable to the Montreal Star today says: An extensive programme of shipbuilding for the British government in Canada is in contemplation, according to information which became available today.

If the plans which are now being carried out successfully, the existing shipyards in Canada will be engaged in the construction of steel steamers of large carrying capacity, with few inclusions, long in hull, and will be established on a large scale.

It is learned that the British government in Canada is acting through the Imperial Munitions Board and there is reason to believe that the available resources of raw material, there may be developed in the Dominion.

Whereas the latter, however, will terminate with the war there are prospects for the permanent of shipbuilding with big yards on the St. Lawrence, the Atlantic coast, Toronto, Port Arthur and the Pacific.

The undertaking now in view is one means of overcoming the great shortage of ocean tonnage, due to the admiralty's requirements of transports and incidentally to replace the ships lost from the emergency programme of submarine activity.

The working out of the details of the scheme, which, it is learned, are well advanced and practically certain to be proceeded with, is in the hands of the Imperial Munitions Board at Ottawa.

If Canada proves equal to the situation, it is believed that the munitions line, an industry of immense proportions may be built up.

SAV HE WORKED FELLOW GERMANS BY A NEW SCHEME TO OBTAIN MONEY

New York, March 10.—Max Wex, native of Hamburg, is under arrest here charged with swindling German agents by means of a machine said to be capable of reproducing paper currency.

The police say they have completed from Wex a large quantity of counterfeit bills of the same denomination.

Frank Sternberg, of this city, who had been sent by the German government on a mission to the Petrograd district is to be placed in the hands of the municipal authorities. This decision was reached after the Petrograd correspondent telegraphs, at an extraordinary conference held yesterday to deal with the food problem in the capital, which is said to be urgent.

The Duma will be asked to vote the necessary extension of power to enable the municipality to deal with the matter during the war.

During the discussion it was said that there were reserves of rice and wheat flour in Petrograd and that sufficient fresh supplies were arriving.

Saskatchewan Legislature Regina, Sask., March 10.—The Saskatchewan legislature will be prorogued today, last night a bill giving three seats to the soldiers was given a third reading. The opposition moved five amendments but all were declared out of order and the bill then carried on the division.

Berlin GRIPPED BY HEAVY STORM

Berlin, Mar. 9, via London, Mar. 10.—A heavy snowfall which has covered Central Europe for the last seventy-two hours, hit Berlin yesterday. The "bus lines" discontinued their trips and the subway made a new record by hauling 400,000 passengers.

While volunteer snow shovelers are largely school youths, it is a common sight to see a dozen or more well-dressed women clearing streets and curbs of snow drifts. The street cleaning service is wholly voluntary and responses came from all classes for the work.

VISIT OF BORDEN, PIGERS HAZED THE FOOT

Spent Yesterday With Canadians And Saw the German Lines—Dominion Lads in Fine Fettle—Troops Have Excellent New Shelter Huts

London, March 9.—(By Stewart Lyon, Canadian Press representative in France) The events of the week in the Canadian army headquarters in the field was the visit of Sir Robert Borden, Hon. Robert Borden and Gen. L. D. Hazen, in honor of Sir Robert Borden, whose last visit to the front took place in 1916, a review of the troops in this (Friday) morning at headquarters.

The famous First Brigade of the original division marched past the premier and ministers. Relatively few of the men in the line were present at Ypres, but the reinforcements bear the glorious tradition which they will maintain when the Somme battle the Canadians have been treated with the greatest respect by the enemy and their losses have been relatively slight.

The men reviewed were splendidly equipped and in a similar condition and looked forward confidently to the end of the period of inactivity.

See German Lines. Later Sir Robert and his party, including Prince Arthur of Connaught, visited part of the front from which they gained a view of the German lines and obtained a general idea of the configuration on the ground held by the Canadian. While the party was near the front watchful aviators hovered overhead, any unusual movement of troops or from leaving where to plant an ad-hocitory shelter.

A touch of home interest was added to the serious affair during the march past when an Ontario legion bugle band played "Jingle Bells." The weather was cold enough to make Jingle Bells inappropriate.

One of the most recent inventions adding to the comfort of the British and Canadian field forces is the "Nissen hut" in which the inventor made so big a hit that it is likely to become the standard means of housing the men. The hut is semi-circular in form and looks like a gigantic tin stovepipe, half buried in the earth with doors and windows in the ends. Twenty-five men are housed in each hut. A thousand of these are under order and "Nissens" are springing up all over. Already the hut is the subject of an army song, of which the burden is "Put me in my little Nissen hut." The conveniences of transport and which can be erected, enables many men hitherto forced to sleep in the open during an advance, to obtain shelter.

MATTER OF JURISDICTION OVER LABRADOR REVIVED

Dispute as to Canada or Newfoundland? Timber There Wanted for Pulp

St. John's, Nfld., March 10.—Applications made recently for pulp permits in Labrador, with a view to timber, have revived the jurisdiction dispute between Canada and Newfoundland as to the ownership of the Labrador coast.

The Labrador coast is a base for the Newfoundland summer fisheries. Its sparse settlements are chiefly inhabited by settlers from this colony who depend on the fishery for their subsistence. Recent investigations have shown that the Newfoundland timber resources in the interior of Labrador and the present agitation for an attempt at settlement of the present pulp and paper shortage in Canada and the United States that development of Labrador resources would open a large new field for pulp manufacture.

RUSSIA TAKES HOLD OF THE FOOD PROBLEM

London, Mar. 10.—The management of all food supplies in the Petrograd district is to be placed in the hands of the municipal authorities. This decision was reached after the Petrograd correspondent telegraphs, at an extraordinary conference held yesterday to deal with the food problem in the capital, which is said to be urgent.

The Duma will be asked to vote the necessary extension of power to enable the municipality to deal with the matter during the war.

During the discussion it was said that there were reserves of rice and wheat flour in Petrograd and that sufficient fresh supplies were arriving.

RESERVED SHIP FOR HIMSELF AND BRIDE

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Byrd, Jr. Sail on the Limon—Wealthy Costa Rica Planter

Boston, Mar. 10.—The entire passenger accommodation of the United Fruit Company's steamship Limon, Capt. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Byrd, Jr., a young bride couple, who engaged the vessel when they found there was no room for them on the steamer leaving here last week.

Mr. Byrd is a wealthy planter with a big stock farm and fruit plantation near Cartago, Costa Rica, before he went to the tropics he became engaged to Miss Vivian Sharples of Hattboro, Penn.

Several weeks ago the young man returned to claim his bride. They were married at the Pennsylvania home of the bride's parents on Feb. 22, and after visiting Philadelphia and New York they came to Boston, intending to sail on the steamship Equator on March 1. When they arrived here they found the steamer was booked full.

Mr. Byrd took a berth on the Limon, and he found there were no passengers booked on the steamer. They will have the services of a score of stewards on the trip and will have the use of a dozen rooms.

Mr. Byrd took several prize dogs, also some fancy fowl and a dozen Pennsylvania pigs, which will be used for breeding purposes.

Win Back In Half An Hour Positions Germans Took By Supreme Effort

French Victory of Last Thursday Greater Than Was First Thought--Programme Carried Out Like Clockwork

From a staff correspondent of the Associated Press, with the French Army in Champagne, France, March 9.—The success of the French troops on Thursday between Butte du Mesnil and Maisons de Champagne was even more important than was thought at first. The troops advanced along a 1,600 metre front to a depth ranging from 600 to 800 metres, occupying it at all points, the casualties of the Germans were very heavy and up to the present 180 prisoners, including three officers, have been counted.

The advanced Press correspondent saw the first infantry men clamber out of the front trench and proceed at a slow pace across No Man's Land preceded by a complete curtain of fire from the artillery, which raised and dropped periodically as the footmen advanced. The German artillery meanwhile opened a heavy curtain of fire which, however, did not restrict the French advance.

Many Surrender Gradually the French troops reached the first line German trench where the German occupying force carried out its programme with clockwork exactness, attaining every objective point at the pre-arranged minute.

The French troops captured within thirty-two minutes from the beginning of their infantry attack every essential point of ground between Butte du Mesnil and Maisons de Champagne, the conquest of which by the Germans in their supreme assault on February 14 brought a telegram of praise from Emperor William to Crown Prince Frederick William. Despite every possible disadvantage, such as thick snow, the French occupying force carried out its programme with clockwork exactness, attaining every objective point at the pre-arranged minute.

THE 165TH

THE 165th battalion were on Monday started on their final training period prior to leaving Canada. The members of the battalion are now being trained not in companies as are newly authorized units but in periods which is a syllabus outlined by the militia department at Ottawa. The members of the battalion are put into the period in which they can do the work assigned when qualified they are graded into the next higher class so on until they have all reached the fourteenth week.

Quartermaster-Sergeant Normandin of the R.C.R. Halifax, who has been attached to the 165th battalion as an instructor, has left for Halifax, and Sergeant-Instructor Irwin of the R.C.R. who has been attached to the 165th battalion as an instructor, has also left for Halifax. He has been replaced by Sergeant Instructor McMillan.

A school in bayonet fighting and physical training is to commence in Halifax on Monday. Two officers and three men from the 9th Siege Battery and one officer and ten men from the 165th battalion will leave this evening for Halifax, where they will take the course.

GARLETON SOLDIER WRITES OF THE LIFE OF PRISONER IN GERMANY

The daily routine of a Canadian prisoner in Germany is described by Holly Turner, of West St. John, in a recent letter. He says: "My work is not hard. We go to work at 7 a. m., have fifteen minutes for coffee from 9 to 9.15 a. m., have two hours for dinner, from 12 to 2; fifteen minutes for coffee from 4 to 4.15 p. m. and finish work at 6.45 p. m. A civilian brings us back and forth from work and they do their best to make us comfortable both at the works and at the hotel where we are at present quartered.

"We have one large room or hall, fitted with bunks. This hall is electric lighted and has two good stoves, one for cooking purposes. The latter comes in very handy for cooking extra for the parcels we receive from home. Our regular meals are looked after by the hotel staff.

"We had three days holidays at Christmas and two in New Year."

COST SIR JOHN $1,000,000

Toronto Merchant Knight Pays Soldier Wages Personally

Ottawa, March 10.—It is officially announced that Sir John Eaton has spent one million dollars of his own private funds to date supporting the families of men in his employ who are at the front.

Of his various staffs 2,488 men are still drawing pay from him. These men, or rather their families, are being paid from Sir John's private resources. Their weekly pay roll has averaged over $10,000 and for the last two weeks for which figures are available Sir John has been called upon to expend $11,042 for this purpose. On February 18 last a total of $892,885.50 had been drawn from Sir John's personal accounts to fulfill the pledge he had given.

The Toronto factories and store have sent 1,501 men to the front. Of these 346 have appeared on the casualty lists and 74 have lost their lives.

BROKERS MUST NOT SPLIT COMMISSION ON THE WAR LOAN

Toronto, March 10.—The attention of Sir Thomas White, minister of finance, has been called to the fact that, in connection with previous war loans, some brokers split their commissions with their clients.

He passed the rigid medical examination required, and so expected to enjoy many years of good health.

A few days later he was drowned, and in less than a month from the day his insurance was issued his father had been paid the proceeds.

Perhaps you expect to live for many years—and you may. But suppose you die next week. Will your heirs then have to face a life of struggle?

TRIAL BY ORDEAL IS SUGGESTED BY LAWYER IN WHEELDON CASE

London, Mar. 10.—In the course of an eloquent and vigorous speech today in summing up the case of the four prisoners on trial charged with conspiring to murder Lloyd-George and Lord Henderson, S. H. Riaz, a Mohammedan lawyer, who is acting as attorney for the defendants, started the court room by suggesting a trial by ordeal.

He referred to the ancient form of judicial trial in which a piece of evidence, supernatural aid is invoked, as in a test of fire, water, poison or other agencies.

THE COUNTRY SCHOOL AS A COMMUNITY CENTRE

Nations are built in the public schools. The ideals set up by the school teacher remain very largely the ideals of the pupil throughout life, and his conception of patriotism will be what he has been taught during his school years.

It is not too much to say that the present world war is due to a difference of ideals fostered by different systems of education.

Great is the importance of the public school in the present world war. It is a worthy note that in western Canada, which has been made a case in point of countries, this importance is even greater in the new lands which are being called upon to assimilate populations from the more congested countries.

CONTRACTS INSIST ON WOMEN SHELL WORKERS

London, March 10.—The call for women to undertake work on munitions is becoming increasingly urgent, and on the response which is made to this call must depend in large measure the ability of the ministry of munitions to satisfy the demands of the army in view of the coming advance.

Nothing but the employment by women on processes hitherto undertaken by men can meet the situation. This is emphasized in the conditions of the new contracts now being issued. It is provided, for example, that by March 31 next 50 per cent of the operative men employed in the execution of new and continuation contracts for shells of all sizes from 2 1/2 in. to 4 1/2 in. must be women.

In the case of shell above 5 1/2 in. the percentage of women operatives is specifically defined, but all contracts contain the following clause: "It is a condition of this contract that any directions of the ministry of munitions as to the percentage of women operatives to be employed, or as to the number of skilled or semi-skilled male operatives to be employed shall be complied with."

All women fit to undertake shell making or munitions work of any kind should apply at once to the munitions exchange nearest to their home.

NASAL AND THROAT CATARRH

Cured by VENO'S LIGHTNING COUGH CURE. As a remedy for Catarrh in all its various forms, Veno's Lightning Cough Cure is incomparable.

Twelve Oiler Covers from the 60 cent size of Veno's Lightning Cough Cure, or 24 from the 80 cent size, mailed to Harold F. Ritchie & Co., Ltd., 10 McCaul Street, Toronto, entitle you to a beautiful colored reproduction of this famous Royal Academy painting.

THE PRICE OF POTATOES. Hartland Observer.—There have been some great surprises, and some bitter disappointments, over the uncertain condition of the potato market.

Private Aubrey C. Curtis, of the 286th, and Miss Gertrude Lipsett, daughter of Mrs. John Lipsett, were married here last evening by Rev. J. S. Sutherland.

It is said that had the government been sustained by T. J. Carter, of Andover, was to have been appointed to an important departmental position here.

At St. John's church, Springhill, on Wednesday evening, Rev. W. J. Wilkinson united in marriage Miss Mabel Anderson, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson of Fredericton, and John J. Allen of the 236th Kiltie Battalion.

The members of the Girls' Club in Princess street held their annual sleigh drive last evening driving out as far as Brookville and back.

Miss Pearl Stevens of 75 Durham street, was knocked down by a team in crossing Main street near Rockland road yesterday and was slightly injured.

The well known local tugboat William H. Murray has been purchased by Henry's Limited, of Halifax, and will leave for the sister port in a day or so. It is expected that the Murray will be engaged in much the same class of work that she has been doing here.

Friends of Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Neve gathered at their home in West St. John yesterday evening to celebrate their seventh wedding anniversary. The evening was spent very pleasantly and Dr. and Mrs. Neve were showered with congratulations and good wishes.

It is altogether likely that the New Brunswick Investment Company, Ltd., will supply the light for the new C.P.R. elevator building, but it is thought the Corliss engine in the old power house still in condition and good shape, will be removed to run the belts, etc.

Another break has been made at the hut on the rifle range. It was discovered yesterday that an entry had been forced by means of the rear window. A telephone and some other articles were taken. Much damage was wrought to the interior.

The application for a permit to build the grain elevator at Reid's Point has been filed by the Fegies Bellows Engineering Company, which is to have charge of the superstructure. The Dominion government, which is building the elevator, is not obliged to secure a permit from the city, but has done so through courtesy.

The Rover Bible class group held a social and supper in the Y.M.C.A. building last evening. W. C. Cress, Lewis Buckley, George Estabrook, A. M. Gregg, and the leader, C. E. Ephraim, all made brief remarks. Mr. Buckley is the Maritime Boys' secretary and reached the city yesterday from Halifax. He is in conference with A. M. Gregg, the local boys' secretary.

That there is a prospect in the near future of the business of Primcrest Farm Ltd., being learned yesterday by the Telegram, after a meeting of the creditors of the firm had been held in the office of G. H. Y. Belyea. It was said, after the meeting, that nothing was determined, but that the situation was discussed and adjournment made for a month. The stock on the farm is being fed and the milk is being sold to a local party. No details are as yet available as to the probable person or persons who would continue the business and how long that day. It is largely dependent upon the arrangements that could be made with the holders of the mortgages and the creditors.

In the police court yesterday afternoon the dispute over a cream can owned by Harold Northrup of 27 Murray street and found in the possession of H. Cother was aired. Mr. Cother said that he did take the can as he needed one that day. He was told he left him self open to a term in jail. However, he was allowed to go as he paid Mr. Northrup for the cream, returned the can and made good all the costs.

SAVE YOUR HAIR AND BEAUTIFY IT WITH "DANDARINE"

Speed 25 Cents! Dandruff Disappears And Hair Stops Coming Out

Try This! Hair Gets Beautiful, Wavy And Thick In Few Moments

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Dandarine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen, and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too long, get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Dandarine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed, and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp, and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Dandarine. If eventually—why not now?

WILL ARM THEM

Washington, March 9.—President Wilson, from a sick bed, today ordered the arming of American merchant ships against Germany's ruthless submarine warfare, and at the same time issued a proclamation calling an extra session of congress to meet April 16. The president's decision came suddenly late this afternoon, following the action of the senate yesterday in revising its rules to permit prompt action on important questions, and the submission of formal opinions by Secretary of State Lansing and Attorney-General Gregory that he has the power to arm merchantmen without action by congress.

MOTHERLAND TO CARE FOR CANADIAN GRAVES

Ottawa, March 9.—The motherland is providing for the burial in single graves of all her overseas sons who die in Great Britain. The land required is being acquired and it will be held in perpetuity in the care of these silent witnesses to the loyalty, heroism and devotion of the empire's sons who die from wounds or sickness in the motherland, will be borne by the people of Great Britain.

In a despatch from London received by the Canadian government announcing the above, it is stated that the British government is confident that it will be the unanimous wish of everyone in the United Kingdom that the British people should be privileged to undertake this charge and insure in this way that the last resting places of the dominion soldiers be not unworthy of their services and of the cause for which they have given their lives.

How the President Plans To Meet German Menace

Germany's supreme affront to the United States is contained in the amazing document of the German Foreign Minister, Dr. Zimmerman, addressed, through Count von Bernstorff to German Minister von Eckhardt, in Mexico City. In this communication Germany proposes that Mexico shall join with Japan in warring upon the United States and "reconquer" Mexico's lost territory in New Mexico, Texas and Arizona.

In the San Antonio Light, published in Texas, one of the States to be "reconquered" by Mexico, we read that "the people of Texas view with complacency the cold-blooded proposition by Germany that the State should become Mexican territory provided Mexico joins Germany and Japan in a war against the United States. They have no fear that such a thing will happen to them. They know that even though left entirely to their own resources, they will be able to avoid compulsory Mexican citizenship. It is conceivable that enormous Japanese and German armies advancing through Mexico might, for a time, occupy Texas, but Mexico would gain no population thereby. It can be asserted with quiet modesty and simple truth that when Texas had been overrun such Texans as were still living would be beyond or on the border fighting their way home."

In THE LITERARY DIGEST for March 10th, the leading article covers with a wealth of detail all the facts concerning the torpedoing of the Laconia, the paralysis of our overseas commerce by Germany's U-boat threats, and the revelation of her amazing plot to embroil us with Mexico and Japan.

Other articles that should be read with uncommon interest are:

"The Digest" Appeals to All Sorts and Conditions of Men

"There are as many view-points" says the Roman poet "as there are men," and our modern civilization has not tended to alter the essential truth of this old-world epigram. In this country particularly has liberty of thought been fostered, so that every man and woman has an individual opinion upon the burning questions of the day in politics, art, religion, science, social matters, and so forth. Is there, then, in the multiplicity of periodicals published continually all over the land one upon which they can all combine as representative and unbiased? Yes—THE LITERARY DIGEST. This foremost of all news-magazines gives all sides of all the great issues in every department of life, quoting from newspapers and magazines of every shade of belief with absolute impartiality. It expresses no opinions of its own, leaving you to form your own conclusions. Try reading a copy to-day and test this for yourself.

RECENT DEATHS

J. Ernest McLeod. Friends will hear with sincere regret of the death of J. Ernest McLeod, of the west side, which occurred last evening at the St. John Infirmary. Mr. McLeod had been seriously ill for some months but the end comes as a great shock. He was a man of vigorous constitution and he bore up uncomplainingly against the inroads of disease until the last, although cheerfully temperate he was a great favorite in a wide circle and will be greatly missed. He had been a resident of the west side for some time and of late years had been employed by the C. P. R. as foreman, being regarded as a valued and conscientious employee. He had been working in Montreal during the summer and at West St. John in the winter and it was at Montreal that he was first stricken with the disease which proved fatal. His wife and one daughter, Eileen, survive. Besides, there are a mother, Mrs. Caroline McLeod, of Boston; three sisters—Mrs. Mabel McLeod, of Boston; Mrs. Geo. A. Dickson, St. John; and Mrs. Wm. McK. Blewett, of Montreal; and two brothers, Sergt. George McLeod, of the 140th Battalion, now overseas, and Sergt. William McLeod, formerly of the 55th Battalion, now in France.

Mrs. J. P. McBay. General regret will be caused by the death of Mrs. J. P. McBay, which occurred last night about 8 o'clock at her home, 81 Adelaide street, following a short illness from pleuro-pneumonia. She was fifty years of age and was a daughter of the late George Breen, of Moss Glen, Kings county. Besides her husband she leaves two daughters, Muriel and Maud at home; one sister, Mrs. Fred W. Holder, of Riverside, Kings Co., now in France.

TORONTO'S EATING PLACES ARE THOROUGHLY INSPECTED

Health Department Officials Visit Them Regularly and Mark Their Findings Down on a Score Card — If To a Score is Too Low, The License is Cancelled

(By Jean Ferrar.) Are Toronto's restaurants inspected? What regulations govern them, and is there any justification for occasional quackery that we may be infected by dirty dishes? In answering these questions Toronto's Board of Health, which every day inspects the city of Toronto's eating places, says: "The rooms must be kept in a strictly sanitary condition at all times. The walls and ceilings of such apartments or rooms shall be painted white with enamel finish, and whitewashed. If stained, they shall have three coats of paint, which must be renewed at least every two years. If whitewashed, the whitewashing must be renewed every three months. No sleeping rooms, lavatories, or wash-rooms shall be within the room or apartments used for the preparation or cooking of food or for the storing of food, nor shall they communicate directly with such rooms, but either with the open air or through a properly ventilated and lighted passageway. No wearing apparel, boots, shoes, or other wearing effects not being worn shall be kept in any kitchen or any place where food is handled, and a suitable place, separated from the kitchen, shall be provided for the storage of such articles. No person shall work or be employed in or about any restaurant or kitchen during the time in which there is any communicable disease in his home, nor thereafter until the quarantine has been removed by the department of health. All workmen and employees while engaged in the handling or preparing of food shall be provided with slippers or shoes and a suit of washable material, which shall be used for that purpose only. These garments must at all times be kept clean. All restaurants shall be equipped with covered metallic cans for retaining and keeping their garbage and waste in a sanitary condition, which shall be kept in such place and manner as will prevent nuisance and contamination of the kitchen and such rooms from odors. All such refuse must be removed from the premises at least once in every twenty-four hours. All restaurants shall be provided with a storeroom or suitable place for the sanitary keeping of food and foodstuffs, and all refrigerators shall be thoroughly cleaned in all parts and drained in a sanitary manner, but no refrigerator shall drain by direct communication with any sewer unless in compliance with the plumbing by-laws of the city of Toronto. No dry sweeping shall be permitted in any place where food is prepared or served for human consumption. Milk and butter shall be kept in an ice box or refrigerator separate from that in which meat, vegetables, and other articles of food are kept. All kitchen mops, mops, and room floors shall be carefully mopped and cleaned or oiled at least once every twenty-four hours. All knives, forks, spoons, dishes, and other tableware shall be thoroughly sterilized by boiling water each time after they are used. No table linen, napkins, etc., shall be permitted to be used for a second person.

Enforcing the Regulations. "Do you have any trouble enforcing our regulations?" "No, not much," replied Dr. Hastings. "I just require continual watching. The Chinese are usually very submissive and the Hebrews are very exacting. I suppose the difficulty is to find anything wrong in the large, expensive cafes, do you?" "Oh, don't we?" returned the M. O. H. "You'd be surprised at what we have occasionally found in the restaurants. The inspectors go for cleanliness and ten for handling of the food and an important point is that the more they get the 'general quality of the food.' Some of the Rules. If you want to know what your favorite restaurant should be here are some of the regulations of particular interest to the layman: "All rooms used for the cooking and preparing of foodstuffs shall have floors and walls so constructed as to exclude germs, dirt, and other impurities, and be in a state of good repair. Floors must be either of hardwood with tight joints or covered with linoleum, or other material of the department. "No dogs, cats or other animals shall be allowed in any restaurant or place where food is kept or prepared.

When You Can't Sleep YOU SHOULD USE MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS. Sleeplessness is caused by the nervous system becoming deranged. Perhaps too much worry has gotten on your nerves, perhaps you have overworked yourself, or have been excessive in your use of tobacco, but whatever the cause, the nervous system must be built up again before restful sleep can be assured. Those whose rest is broken into by frightful dreams, nightmares, sinking and smothering sensations, who wake up in the morning as tired as they went to bed can have their sleep peaceful, undisturbed, refreshing sleep back again by using Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

When You Can't Sleep YOU SHOULD USE MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS. Sleeplessness is caused by the nervous system becoming deranged. Three New Brunswick Men Killed in Action — Local Officers in Hospitals

Seven recruits were secured in the city yesterday: Harry Craig, Belleisle Station, A. S. C., William Marr, St. John, 16th Field Ambulance; Joseph Blanchard, Bathurst; Valentine Casey, Carleton Place; John, No. 9 Siege Battery; Charles E. Garnet, St. John; and George Alexander Scotland, 280th Battalion.

Killed in Action. The midnight casualty list contains the names of three New Brunswick men killed in action, Joseph LeGer, Rogersville; William Malin, Seville; and Corporal K. G. Francis, Dalhousie.

Camp Command Here. Major J. Hamilton, the new commandant of Camp Sussex, arrived in the city last evening and is a guest at the Royal Hotel. Major Hamilton is here to confer with General McLean in regard to matters pertaining to Camp Sussex, where the 16th Field Ambulance, and the 16th field ambulance train, C. E. F. This is a well deserved promotion for an highly experienced New Brunswick physician.

Major W. A. Weeks, formerly of Charlottetown (P. E. I.), and now resident in this city, received word yesterday from England that his son, Sergt. E. G. Weeks, of the brigade signaller in France, has been given the Victoria Cross. Sergt. Weeks is one of the most brilliant and courageous soldiers that the island of Newfoundland has ever produced. He was with Major Tom Powers, D. S. O., of this city. About six months ago he was decorated with the military medal for gallantry on the field of battle.

SISTER OF VISCOUNT FRENCH KILLED AT THE FRONT. Mrs. Harley, sister of Field Marshal Viscount French, commander-in-chief of the home forces, is dead of wounds received at the front.

Final Inspection. The final inspection of local units before they proceed overseas is now in operation. Yesterday, Major Geggie, senior medical officer of this command, assisted by Captain Johnson, inspected the men of the 16th field ambulance train. He was well satisfied with the result of his inspection and found that the large majority of the men are quite fit for overseas duty. A few were turned down, as is the case with the best of units, but in the main the men stood up well under the final and most drastic inspection they have been called upon to undergo since the unit was formed.

Submarine Off New York? Captain W. C. Nickerson of the steamer Indian, which arrived in Boston yesterday from Philadelphia, reported that while passing twenty-five miles southwest of Fire Island, N. Y., he sighted an unidentified submarine heading towards the American coast.

and about six weeks ago was awarded a bar to his medal. Lieut. Weeks is not yet twenty-one years of age and when war broke out had just graduated from the Prince of Wales College in Charlottetown (P. E. I.). He comes of fighting stock and his performance on the western front is but a repetition of the splendid work rendered by his grandfathers on many a hard fought field.

For the past few days, while the city has experienced an unusually wet period, the men of the 16th have been living under most uncomfortable conditions. His worship the mayor together with members of the exhibition committee visited the headquarters staff of the New Brunswick brigade command yesterday, regarding the immediate repair to the building. The department has been given the building free of rental and it is understood that a movement is on foot to effect the necessary repairs within the next few days. There was also a suggestion that the city make the repairs and the question of reimbursement be settled later, in order that the work might be carried on with greater dispatch. At any rate repairs to the building will be made within the next day or so.

Something Like a Barrage I have just heard an artillery yarn told to illustrate the marvellous accuracy of the French gunners (says a writer in the London Evening Standard). Here is the comment: A French aeroplane reconnaissance disclosed to the eagle eye of the observer a couple of batteries of infantry lying in two lines, two miles behind the German lines. The observer duly communicated his discovery, and the artillery promptly put on a certain fire in rear and on both banks of the enemy, then gradually shortened the range so that the surprised Hunns were forced to advance. This escorted, the entire body covered the two miles with their hands up, and were duly made prisoners!

COUNTRY LIFE IN QUEBEC

(Toronto Star Weekly) To those who are inclined to regard Quebec as a backward province, a little book entitled "Agricultural Quebec" by Henry W. King, will be enlightening. Mr. King claims that Quebec in 1910 made 64.57 per cent of the Canadian product of butter and was second to Ontario in cheese-making, while in the two products together she had a slight lead over Ontario. The figures are not up to date, but they show at least that our neighbors make an excellent showing in dairying.

The friendly rivalry in good work will be good for both. Mr. King claims also that while the agricultural population of Ontario has decreased in the last decade, that of Quebec has increased. Quebec, he says, has solved the problem of keeping the boys and girls on the farm. The reason he assigns is interesting, and has a practical value for us. He says that the long, narrow farms facilitate the placing of farm houses closer together, and not far from churches and public buildings.

The young people are therefore able to meet frequently and enjoy most, if not all the social privileges that at-

Ready Trousers Men's Tailored

You remember the clever housekeeper who said that pie crust was a combination of flour, shortening, water and "knack." Well, knack is as necessary an ingredient of good trousers as it is of good pie crust.

We want you to know this trousers department of ours. Your needs can be supplied for either business or dress wear. They're ready to be finished to your measure and altered, if necessary, to improve the looks. Finished and altered, too, by tailors who have the "knack," $2.75 to $6.75.

The Thinker Is The Man

Who buys his PIANO at Bell's Piano Store.

Because we sell direct to the home at a price that only a firm eliminating such expenses as Agents, Banks, Discounting and High Rents can afford to sell.

The Thinker knows that these in-between expenses add no value to the PIANO.

Can you imagine a man paying 25 to 30 per cent more for an article because the merchant must charge the extra amount to do business?

centre field; Kelly, right field; Wagner, second base; Young, third base; Kruger, catcher; Causey and Lohman, pitchers.

"But you can cook?" asked the pitcher young man.

"Let us take these questions up in their proper order," returned the wise girl. "The matter of cooking is the first thing to be considered."

"Then, what is the first?" he demanded.

"Can you provide the things to be cooked?"

THE BUDDING SEASON

In Dr. Stuck's absorbing book, "The Ascent of Denali" (Mount McKinley), he mentions the budding willow trees amid the ice and snow of the late Alaskan spring.

It takes more than the rigors of March in St. John or April in Alaska, to discourage the awakening of the spring season.

There it may be willow buds; here it is new fashions; and they are budding and blossoming on every hand.

New Spring Footwear leads the style showing, distinctive shoes—shoes that are different, shoes with style.

This store lives, better than ever, up to its belief in, and adherence to, Style at a Price and of showing the good things first for the benefit of the many people who want the good things while they are new, but do not want to pay prohibitive prices for them.

They do not need to pay high prices here. Thanks to this store's policy of large cash buying and selling and narrow profits and its advantageous location, easily accessible, yet out of the high rent district.

McGraw's Squad Is Now Complete

Herzog Den's Togs and Full Complement of Veterans Gets Into the Practice Games

Marlin, Texas, March 6.—The first practice of McGraw's complete outfit and infield and a practice game between mixed line-ups were the feature of a busy day at Emerson Park. The Giants took advantage of the more moderate weather and played in long hours of work on the diamond, the stidelines and the hand-ball courts.

Charlie Herzog donned a uniform for the first time this morning and participated in infield exercises. Herzog is a bit under weight, but getting into condition, and it will be a matter of only a few days. McGraw led off the veteran line-up again this afternoon, but dismissed it after fifteen minutes of practice.

Germany Schaefer and Honus Lobert sent their picked teams into action this afternoon in the coaches' box and depended on others to do his pitching. Causey and Lohman held the winning team to five hits in four innings, while the Schaefer nine collected seven safeties from the pitching of Schaefer and Smith in five rounds at bat. The Schaefer scored in the first inning on Kilduff's single and Knuff's double, but no runs in the second period. The Loberts took the lead, when Barris hit to deep left field for home run and scored. Thorge ahead of him.

The Schaefer tied in the fourth on a single by Rodriguez and Kelly's double, and the game was decided in the last half of that inning when Holke tripled home two runs on a sacrifice fly. The fielding was snappy and errorless and the pitchers are now releasing so many balls into consumption that it is not so brisk.

The teams lined up today as follows: Lobert—Lohert, short stop; Burns, left field; Schepner, third base; Holke, first base; Witter, centre field; Thorpe, right field; Barris, second base; Sandberg, catcher; Schacht and Smith, pitcher.

Schaefer's—Murray, left field; Kilduff, short stop; Rodriguez, first base; Knuff,

Had Violent Coughing Fits

Looked Like Consumptive

Mrs. Marty Wheten, North Forks, N. S., writes: "Having taken five bottles of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, during the past few weeks, to relieve a chronic cough and general throat trouble, allow me to express my unbounded satisfaction and thanks as to its sterling qualities. A short time ago I became subject to violent coughing fits at night and directly after rising in the morning. I began losing weight, and all my friends cheerfully informed me that I was going into consumption.

After taking the '

PTE. W. W. HAMILTON OF EASMOUNT WOUNDED Alexander Hamilton, of Eastmount, received word from Ottawa this morning that his son, Pte. William Wallace Hamilton, had sustained a gun shot wound in the ear and also concussion while in action recently in France, and had been sent to No. 16 Clearing Station. Private Hamilton had been in the trenches since October 5. Prior to donning khaki he was engaged with Murray & Gregory as a carpenter.

MUST GO TO SCHOOL That all those below the age of fourteen will have to attend school was exemplified in the juvenile court this morning when three boys were before Magistrate Ritchie for truancy. They were told they must go to school or else go to jail or pay a fine. They will have to return to court on next Saturday with certificates to show that they have been attending school. Four other boys were before the court for wilfully breaking of windows in a building of Ira B. Kierstead in the Marsh Road. Mr. Kierstead said that twenty-four panes had been broken. The boys left the court in the company of the complainant with the understanding that the defendants make good all the damages.

PORTLAND METHODIST CHURCH ACTIVITIES The Senior Epworth League of Portland Methodist church held a missionary meeting in their rooms in Portland street last evening. Rev. George Steel, D.D., superintendent of Methodist foreign missions, delivered an interesting lecture along missionary lines, and Miss Lillian Brownfield delighted the audience with a pleasing vocal solo. A missionary contest being conducted by members of the league was concluded last evening. Two sides had been chosen, one captained by Miss Grace Brown and the other by Stanley Irvine. The losing side was to furnish refreshments for the winners at the next regular meeting. The side led by Mr. Irvine won, having collected $16 against $9.15 collected by Miss Brown's team.

NO MORE PAYMASTERS NEEDED IN ENGLAND That no more paymasters are needed for overseas service is an announcement contained in orders issued recently from Ottawa. Owing to surplus of paymasters in England, and in the field, due to reorganization of formations, it is requested that no new paymasters be despatched overseas unless with complete units. Under these circumstances, no paymaster will, in future, be sent overseas except any who may be included in the conducting party of an overseas battalion, which is going over complete, and even in this case the paymaster will be returned to Canada if his services are not required in England.

SOLDIER IS GRATEFUL Miss Clara Robinson of 84 Sydney street, of the Allies' Aid Society, has received the following appreciative letter from Pte. F. L. Folkins, a New Brunswick soldier, who is in receipt of a parcel sent by the society: France, Feb. 2, 1917. Dear Miss Robinson: Received the parcel today, many thanks to you and other members of the Allies' Aid.

ILL BUT FEW DAYS In the General Public Hospital this morning Thomas J. Ramsay passed away, aged fifty-four years. He had been ill last week, and his death after so short an illness is a great shock to his family and friends. Mr. Ramsay was a son of the late David Ramsay and a native of St. John. He had worked in the potato business in Woodstock, Mass., and is survived by two sons, Alton, with C. A. Munroe, and Warren with Brock & Peterson, Ltd., and one daughter, Hazel, with E. G. Nelson & Co. There are two brothers, David A. of St. John, and John M., of Winthrop, Mass.; and one sister, Mrs. William Lamers, of East Boston. Very many friends sympathetic with the bereaved family. The funeral will take place from 6 Crown street on Monday at half-past two o'clock.

SOLDIER'S ESTATE Moncton, N. B., March 10.—In the probate court before Judge R. W. Hewson, on petition of Albert B. Stokes, executor of administration were granted in the estate of his son, Leslie Stokes. The young man enlisted in September, 1914, and was killed on June 2, 1916. Some five months elapsed before an authentic report of his death reached his father. The estate consists principally of insurance. E. Albert Kelly, K.C., proctor.

The Man In The Street

Some of the weather this week has been perfectly satisfactory—to those who are seeking an excuse to go south. Vegetable gardens might succeed in St. John, if the vegetables were equipped with diamond drills instead of the usual kind of roots. "Strong odor of escaping gas in Prince William street yesterday led to the discovery that main was broken," explains a morning paper, thus eliminating the suspicion of the government newspapers in that street were responsible. After one more political defeat the morning government organ is liable to fracture its vocabulary. One might almost suspect that the boys who were responsible for wrecking the East St. John school house do not approve of schools. The Turkish forces around Bagdad seem to be having an Arabian Nights' nightmare. As some have pointed out one of the troubles of the volunteers is that it is the patriotic citizens who get shot first. The man who used to blow about the automobile he was going to buy, now talks with equal readiness of the purchase of a barrel of potatoes. Owing to the provisions of the commission charter we will have no civic elections this spring, which is a blessing or a drawback, according to the way you happen to look at it. Victims of the high cost of living in Canada can almost sympathize with the victims of the food shortage in Germany; the general result is the same but similar. King Constantine must miss the publicity he used to get before Greece disappeared from the front page dispatches. Home News From Abroad. One of those bits of humor which are the funnier because they are unconscious appears in a Toronto exchange. Reference to the results of the New Brunswick elections it quotes the St. John Globe as "the most impartial Liberal journal in the province." The announcement regarding the local paper's political leanings will be of interest to its readers. The Spy Catcher At Work. With the regularity of a signal's lamp flickering its message in "sidly-umples," a light has been observed night after night on a hill in the Fort Howe district overlooking the city. Citizens have noticed it and more than one impelled by a patriotic desire to learn whether German spies were at the nefarious work, have climbed the hill to investigate. Their climb has been rewarded by the discovery of the New Brunswick flashes—a defective street lamp. Even that discovery has failed to cool the ardor of some of the investigators. Besides figuring on how an enemy in our midst could secure control of the street light and make this innocent instrument for their nefarious work.

PRIVATE PETER RUSSEL DEAD

Moncton, N. B., Mar. 10.—Pte. Peter Russell, son of Mrs. Mary Russell, of Moncton, is dead as the result of a gun shot wound in the head. He enlisted in an eastern battalion and went overseas in the spring of 1916. He had been a resident of Winnipeg for six years before enlisting. His death occurred on February 18. He was twenty-nine years of age. Pte. Russell was born in Londonderry, N. S. He married Miss Maude McDonald of East Amherst, N. S., who died about four years ago. He is survived by his mother, four brothers—Raymond and John of Moncton, Percy of Calgary, and Alton, who is in the army; and one sister, Mrs. Joseph Brown, of Truro. Five cousins of Private Russell enlisted since they have been in the army. Mrs. N. L. Rand, of Moncton, has received a letter from Rev. W. A. Ferguson stating that Peter Russell was reported wounded, in No. 7 General Hospital, France. His eyes were injured in an explosion on February 14. Chaplain Ferguson writes that a complete recovery is expected. Gunner Rand is a well known Moncton young man, a son of the late Nelson Rand, an I. C. R. of local fame. SERBIANS ARE ARRIVING AT CAMP SUSSEX Major J. Hamilton, who is to be the commanding officer of the Serbian camp at Sussex, was in the city today and conferred with General McLean as to the scheme on which the camp will be run. The mobilizing of the Serbians in Canada has started and soon a lot of men will arrive in Sussex from Upper Canada. Major Hamilton will have on his staff one officer, but as yet no one has been decided upon, although it was announced that the officer will be returned man. It is the opinion of military men that before many weeks there will be quartered in Sussex about 1,000 Serbians. These men will be sent overseas in drafts as soon as trained. They have their own officers and will be trained by them under the supervision of Major Hamilton and his staff captain. Major Hamilton left for Sussex at noon today.

Besides her daughter, Mrs. Donovan is survived by one brother, John Cullinan of Fairville. The funeral will take place on Monday at 9 a.m. from her late home to the Church of the Assumption.

FOUR SONS IN KHAKI. W. A. Ross, of the firm of Kelly & Ross, barristers, has left for Woodstock, N. B., to take a commission with the 68th Battery, field artillery depot. Lieutenant Ross is the fourth son of Rev. Jas. Ross of East St. John, superintendent of Presbyterian Home Missions, to don the khaki. His brother, Alexander, went over with a McGill hospital unit in 1914, and another brother, Donald, left St. John a short time ago with a siege battery draft. George Ross joined the Ninth Siege Battery this week.

ST. JOHN HILLS CAUSE OF DAILY MARCH OUT OF CANADIAN BUFFS A few nights ago the members of the 19th battalion, quartered in the agricultural hall in the exhibition grounds, were nearly flooded out by the heavy down fall of rain. The roof of the building leaked. The work of repairing the roof was started this morning. Since the arrival of the 19th, they have been doing a lot of parading. Every day the orders call for a route march of several miles. It was learned this morning that the cause of so much marching is because of the change from level Toronto to hilly St. John.

MINISTER GIVES HIS LIFE TO SAVE WOMEN WHO WERE ATTACKED

Tragic Ending of Remarkable Career of Rev. G. R. Buford, "The Gentleman Unafraid"—His Work Among the Lowly

When Rev. G. R. Buford, a Presbyterian clergyman of Atlanta, Georgia, was shot through the heart, several days ago, by a drink-crazed man who was attacking some women, he suddenly leaped into a fame and power that never might have been his had he lived to pursue his ordinary ministry, remarkable as the latter. Both the secular and religious press, as well as many pulpits, are now recounting his story, which is itself a sermon of exceptional timeliness and power. Like Samson, Buford has wrought more mightily in death than in life.

The tragic tale is a simple one, yet it is of the sort that fires the blood and stiffens the purposes, and is recounted by firesides through long years. The effect upon theological students alone is more powerful than any class-room lessons. Rev. G. R. Buford, who was pastor of the Moore Presbyterian church, Atlanta, a congregation of working people, was on his way, with his wife, to dinner with one of the officials of the church. Screams of women were heard issuing from a house nearby. "Somebody is in trouble," said Mr. Buford, expressing in that sentence to Mrs. Buford the keynote of his unique ministry.

On the instant the minister rushed into the house whence came the cries of distress, a man who had slain one of the women of his family, and was attacking others, turned, and with a single shot the clergyman dead on the instant. A few minutes later the murderer was himself slain by another woman.

A Poor Preacher's Place.
Atlanta was thrilled by the tragedy. The murdered minister, although himself poor, and pastor of one of the least pretentious congregations, had within a few short years won for himself an extraordinary place in the community. He was the man who helped the helpless. While not a city missionary, in the accepted sense of that term, he was forever finding out the needy and the troubled. He went regularly to the criminal courts. The police knew him as the friend of the down-and-outs.

Atlanta's famous vice crusade closed the segregated district, it was his home to receive the women who had been driven out from the red light houses. Public officials, from judges on the bench to patrolmen on the beat, sent cases that were beyond the ordinary routine of procedure, to Mr. Buford. And he, like the good bishop in "Les Miserables," gave of the house and himself to these needy ones. The entire Buford family constantly underwent deprivations because of the minister's ministrations. The people of Atlanta, and the Presbyterians in particular, were permitted to insure Mr. Buford's widow and children against want.

The funeral of the slain man was a civic occasion. Atlanta was never before so moved by the death of any man. Rev. Dr. J. S. Lyons, one of the city's leading clergymen, all classes paid tribute to the martyred minister; and hundreds of men marched through the streets in procession after his bier. Yet Mr. Buford had never aspired to civic leadership, or to a great platonic appearance, he was by no means a hero, and his own attire usually showed the straightened circumstances in which he kept himself.

"A Gentleman Unafraid."
The death of this minister was in consonance with his life. He frequently risked his own safety. One day a policeman told him that a certain young girl in whom the minister and his church were interested, had been lured into an evil resort. The law could do nothing. So the policeman waited outside while the clergyman without hesitation, went into the house. Upstairs the proprietress met him with a loaded revolver, and saying bitterly, "You'd make a good floor-walker in hell," she aimed at the intruder. Buford leaped before the woman could fire; wrested the weapon from her—and left the house accompanied by the girl.

Wife-beaters were the peculiar aversion of this gentle and self-sacrificing minister. Through his court associations many came into his hands and he used the full extent of his vocabulary of contempt and indignation upon them. I have heard of several instances where these gentry threatened to shoot Buford on sight; and he would hunt them up and leave them in tears and penitence. One man called Buford on the phone and threatened his life. The minister invited him to his home at once, and what the blunderer threatened to make a shooting match became a prayer meeting of two, with the rufian penitent and weeping. With his life so often menaced, it was the fate of this militant soldier of righteousness and mercy to die at the hands of one who did not know him.

PROHIBITION IN BRITAIN: A BISHOP'S URGENT PLEA

The London Daily Chronicle of January 29 had the following article by the Right Rev. the Bishop of Winchester, under the heading, "The Case for Prohibition. The only real solution of the drink question."

"Prohibition is quite out of the question, you know, the people never would stand for it," is constantly said by the press. It is constantly repeated in the press. If it is true, then we do not deserve to win the war. Twenty years hence, when the history of the war is read, it will be a matter of wonder and shame to our children that for two and a half years we in England were so fond of the drink that we were not willing to give it up. But it is not too late. Even now, I believe, that if the government would allow a referendum on the question of the people would be touched, and the very man who says "prohibition is out of the question" would hesitate to fill up his ballot in favor of the drink, and like a man shouting up a precipice: "Do the victory would be won."

At the beginning of the war I ventured to write to the press urging that the opportunity should be given to the people to decide the question by a referendum, and with Lloyd George's vigorous attack upon the "Lords of the Drink" it seemed possible, but the government were afraid of the power of the drink trade, and shelved their responsibility by the appointment of the Control Board, to whom the most drastic powers were given. The board failed miserably, and were content with shortening the hours and prohibiting "treating." Certain results are obvious in the reduction of convictions for drunkenness in the streets, but nearly the same amount of drink was consumed and is being consumed in the country. As a matter of fact, the noisy drunkard of the town only takes a very little drink. He is known to the police, and is convicted by the magistrates again and again. I know many a man who has been summoned 800 times, and a couple of glasses of whisky invariably made him drunk. That is not the point. It is the question of the abstainers now, who are neither total nor moderate drinkers, not in the proper sense of the word moderate drinkers—who drink as much as they choose with meals and between meals, in their homes, at their clubs and at the public houses.

M. P.'s and the Drink Question.
Take, for instance, the members of the House of Commons. Here we have 470 picked men, chosen to represent us in parliament. It is indeed hard to realize that this body of men should be able to evade the laws of the Central Board, which regulate the hours of parliament, and in the Royal Palace of Westminster claim, and maintain their claim, to have drink at all hours, and to treat the shame of it, when the King has abolished the sale of drink in all his other palaces! Here, surely, it is not too late to make prohibition the rule, and it would be a good lead to the nation if a resolution or a government measure were at once passed so that the House of Parliament may be cleared from a stigma which has already too long rested upon them.

"State purchase" has started across the track. I am writing about prohibition, so must I enter into the arguments brought forward in behalf of this new idea. At the present moment it seems to me as if walking after twenty-four hours on fire to talk about buying up the shares of a water company instead of turning on the hose and putting out the fire. It must be a long controversial business, taking such a step without consulting the people. Imagine a general election during the war and the period of demobilization, that is practical politics, and that is the situation that is facing us in Canada. "Oh, yes, people say, 'but Canada is so different from England.' My answer to that is: Have you been there? I do not mean as a trip for a month or six weeks, but have you lived in Canada? I have lived for eighteen years from 1888 to 1911, as Bishop of British Columbia in the far west, and I venture to say that I know the conditions—and that prohibition was no easier there than at home—and yet today, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, it has been accepted by every province in the Dominion (with the exception of Quebec, which is nearly "dry") because the people have seen that the war demanded it.

The Example of Canada.
Take British Columbia, for instance—when I went out in 1898 the saloons were open all the year round. The doors were never shut. Drink had full sway, and is moreover apt to carry disease to other parts of the body. A poor bluejacket with $25 in his pocket without a cent. A woodsman returning on one of the steamers to the logging camp. He had been in Victoria for a week and had spent his hard-earned $100, and in addition run up an account of $80 to the publican. I remember, in his half-drunken state, his saying, "Good fellow, that publican. Which of you men never he. But it has come to pass, and every British Columbia soldier in the trenches or in training here at home was empowered to record his vote as well as the people in the provinces, and prohibition has been carried. (The decision in British Columbia has not yet been officially announced.)

When history comes to be written, shall it be said that when Canada, with its splendid response of 400,000 soldiers—all volunteers—agreed to prohibit the sale of the drink, England, with its equally splendid response of men, with all the sacrifices of life and money, was still so fond of the drink, so afraid of the trade, that all went on quite as usual, and wasted its strength and spent its money just as it had done before the war? With all my heart I say God forbid! And even now if the press of this country would but use its influence, if the Christian churches would but follow the example of our Canadian brethren, prohibition may still come as the only question.

Another Patrol Story
A Scottish patrol story is told by the London correspondent of the Manchester Guardian. That enormous fleet the Aquitania on her first visit to — after the new patrol regulations, was met at a certain point by a tiny patrol boat, commanded by a Fifie man. The skipper, with his head almost horizontal, shouted up to the captain on the bridge like a man shouting up a precipice: "Do you ken your way in, captain?" The captain of the Aquitania "beast" the voice, but could not understand the dialect, so after another attempt from the patrol boat the captain called the pilot who was in charge. The Fifie man, much relieved to talk to a countryman, shouted out: "Aye, is that you, pilot? Just bring in your bit bottle in me wate."

All Women need Sanagen

to help them cope with the many demands upon their strength.

How many women drag through life in a condition of semi-health, never ill but never really well.

Not ill enough to go to bed, yet hardly well enough to perform their daily tasks. The worries and anxieties of motherhood or the many household cares impose a heavy strain on the nervous system, sapping the vitality, energy and strength until you are on the verge of real illness.

Under normal conditions of life we would extract sufficient nourishment from our daily food to restore the waste energy, but these days we are using up more strength than we are regaining. So you see what we need is extra food—or rather, an extra supply of those elements for which your system is starving. We need the force and energy-producing power of proteins and phosphorus, the essential element of brain and nerve tissue.

This is the reason why many women are now taking SANAGEN regularly with their meals.

SANAGEN

—consists of the life-giving proteins of pure fresh milk combined with organic phosphorus, the two very elements for which your tired body and exhausted nerves are starving. And because Sanagen supplies these elements in the very best form in which they can be taken, it is the reason why doctors and druggists recommend it.

Sanagen has helped others and will help you. Get a package and start gaining strength today.

Dizziness

and Specks before the Eyes

Liver derangement is the cause behind these distressing conditions, and only restoration of perfect natural action can effect lasting cure. That is why Dr. Cassell's Instant Relief is so immeasurably superior to the old-fashioned cathartic liver-pills and aperients alike. Such things can only give passing relief by forcing the liver to unnatural action, and have to be continued. Dr. Cassell's Instant Relief strengthens the liver, and so brings about natural action in a natural manner.

Take Dr. Cassell's Instant Relief for constipation, biliousness, torpid liver, sick headache, dizziness, specks before the eyes, fatigue and windy spasms, acidity, heartburn, impure blood, and that dull, heavy feeling which is a sure indication of liver trouble.

Ask for Dr. Cassell's Instant Relief and take no substitute.

GREAT ENGLISH RECIPE FOR CATARRH, CLOGGED NOSTRILS, CATARRHAL DEAFNESS, HEAD NOISES

Few people realize what a serious disease Catarrh really is. If neglected the damage it does is often irreparable. Deafness, Long troubles and Head Noises that drive the sufferer nearly frantic are invariably due to this insidious disease. Don't neglect Catarrh! Don't let it creep into a worn-out, run-down organism. What is Catarrh to-day may soon be something far more serious. Remember it is more than a trifling ailment—more than a disgusting disease. It frequently destroys smell, taste and hearing and slowly but surely undermines the general health.

If you have Catarrh in any form go to your druggist and get an ounce of Parmit (double strength), about 75c. worth. Take this home and add to it 3/4 pint of hot water and 4 ounces ordinary granulated sugar. Take a tablespoonful four times a day. Parmit is the great English recipe for Catarrh that is now being so extensively sold here in America.

U. S. Has Other German Diplomatic Documents

Comment of London Times

Effect on the American People of Exposure of Teuton Perfidy

London, Mar. 10.—In the course of an editorial on "America and German Intrigue" the Times says: "The Germans are again unfortunate in the custody of their diplomatic documents. The Zimernan despatch which has fallen into the hands of the Washington government promises to be even more damaging to their clumsy schemes than the Bernhard and von Papen papers. Its publication inevitably suggests that other and yet more damaging communications may have come into the same custody to be used as circumstances determine. The time may be at hand for telling the world a little more about German intrigue, and German conspiracy across the Atlantic, but even if the present despatch is not immediately supplemented it is sufficient in itself to afford the American masses a liberal education in German diplomacy."

This is an outrage which appeals to the whole nation. It appears to be a power which they are exceptionally sensitive. They feel their hospitality has been grossly abused by an ambassador of a power which pretended to be friendly, and who himself posed as their friend, and was betrayed by them as a friend. They smart under the sense that they have been imposed upon and deceived, and their anger is deepened because even the simplest among them see in this despatch a direct threat against the Monroe Doctrine by a European military monarchy. The suddenness and completeness with which the true character of the living friendship of Germany has been revealed makes the effect more overwhelming. The real value of this particular example of Teuton perfidy is not that it is blacker or grosser than others, but that it gives the masses of the American people a standard by which they can gauge the general conduct of German diplomacy. Hilberth they had no such standard. The allies have laid before them more or less ineffectively the chief charges against Germany, and have tendered conclusive evidence in support of these accusations, but the great majority of the people of the United States, like a great majority here and in most other countries, have not the inclination nor leisure to go into the evidence, which is not of the briefest. Count Bernstorff had requested with every show of injured feelings the suggestion that he and the members of his staff could be "detached" to the country whose protection and friendship we enjoy and know how to cherish. Yet, while he was still expressing warm admiration for the president's idealism and Bernstorff was still enjoying his hospitality, he was employed to send the despatch which was intended to lead Mexico to make war upon the United States if they ventured to defend their rights as neutrals against the new German piracy."

Required for Health and Beauty. It is surprising that it is necessary to repeat again and again that the health and beauty of the skin require that the blood shall be pure. If the arteries of the skin receive impure blood, pimples and blotches appear, and the individual suffers from humors. Powders and other external applications are sometimes used for these affections, but will never have the desired effect while the cause of impure blood remains.

The indications are very clear that Hoot's Sarsaparilla is the most successful medicine for purifying the blood, removing pimples and blotches, and giving health and beauty to the skin. It acts on the whole system, insist on buying Hoot's Sarsaparilla when you ask for it. Don't take anything else.

The Ideal Bride. New York, hitherto the source of countless jokes at the expense of the telephone girls, seems to have raised them to the highest pinnacle of desirable brides. One paper gives reasons for this, namely, robustness of health, mental and physical alertness, amiability, common sense, and thrift with regard to dress and amenable to reason. The superintendent of girls for the New York Telephone Company has a curious theory that medium tinted girls are to be preferred. She thinks that anyone extreme in coloring is apt to be extreme in temperament.

April 18th, 1915. C. E. Brooks, Dear Sir: I received your letter by first post this morning. I beg to thank you for your Appliance which was instrumental in the way it cured me of my rupture. I have now been in Kitchener's army seven months, and I have gone through all the training, and I have never felt anything and not had the slightest trouble. I remember when I passed the doctor he remarked, "There is nothing wrong with you, young man, you are in the best condition" and he sounded me all over, and I again thank you for the same, and I give my consent to use my letter as a testimonial to anyone, as I have been cured. Hoping you and your firm much success. Yours truly, C. E. Brooks.

Wouldn't Take $100 For Appliance. Dear Mr. Brooks—I am pleased to write you and let you know what your Appliance has done for me. I think I am all right now, as I have not seen the first sign of it since last fall. I can now run, jump and lift all I like and I wouldn't take $100 for it if I could get another. I do not wear it except when at hard work. Your Appliance is just as good as ever. You can use this letter as you like for the benefit of others. Yours sincerely, GEO. KENNEDY.

REMEMBER. I send my Appliance on trial to prove what I say is true. You are to be the Judge. Fill out free coupon below and mail today.

A Genuine Rupture Cure Sent On Trial To Prove It

Don't Wear a Truss Any Longer

Even Soldiers From the Trenches of Europe Write to Tell How the Wonderful Brooks Appliance Cured Their Ruptures, Sound and Well—Sent on Trial to Prove It.

From the battle front in Europe comes a letter written by Private Joseph Carver, whose home address is No. 2 Shaw View, Flinton, telling of his complete cure of rupture from wearing the Brooks Appliance.

April 18th, 1915. C. E. Brooks, Dear Sir: I received your letter by first post this morning. I beg to thank you for your Appliance which was instrumental in the way it cured me of my rupture. I have now been in Kitchener's army seven months, and I have gone through all the training, and I have never felt anything and not had the slightest trouble. I remember when I passed the doctor he remarked, "There is nothing wrong with you, young man, you are in the best condition" and he sounded me all over, and I again thank you for the same, and I give my consent to use my letter as a testimonial to anyone, as I have been cured. Hoping you and your firm much success. Yours truly, C. E. Brooks.

Dear Mr. Brooks—I am pleased to write you and let you know what your Appliance has done for me. I think I am all right now, as I have not seen the first sign of it since last fall. I can now run, jump and lift all I like and I wouldn't take $100 for it if I could get another. I do not wear it except when at hard work. Your Appliance is just as good as ever. You can use this letter as you like for the benefit of others. Yours sincerely, GEO. KENNEDY.

REMEMBER. I send my Appliance on trial to prove what I say is true. You are to be the Judge. Fill out free coupon below and mail today.

If you have tried most everything else, come to me. Where others fail is where I have my greatest success. Send attached coupon today and I will send you free my Illustrated book on Rupture and its cure, showing my Appliance and giving you prices and names of many people who have tried it and were cured. It is instant relief when all others fail. Remember, I use no salves, no harness, no ties.

I send on trial to prove what I say is true. You are the judge and once having seen my illustrated book and read it you will be as enthusiastic as my hundreds of patients whose letters you can also read. Fill out free coupon below and mail today. It's well worth your time whether you try my Appliance or not. Make up your mind right now that you will never pay out another dollar for trusses. They are expensive, uncomfortable and actually harmful. And when you once try a Brooks Appliance you can never be persuaded to ever again wear a truss.

And here is a letter from a motorist who is thankful because a Brooks Appliance cured her boy so he could go out and serve his country.

2, Orchard Road, Richmond, Surrey. April 11th, 1915. Mr. C. E. Brooks, Dear Sir: A line to thank you for what your Appliance has done for my son. After wearing it from December to the following September I can say he is quite cured and is now serving his country in France at his own trade, a shooting smith. You can make what use you like of these, my thanks. I am, yours, Mrs. H. Tuttle.

Brantford, Ont., Feb. 15, 1914.

Child Cured in 3 Months. 11 Richardson St. Mr. C. E. Brooks, Marshall, Mich. Dear Mr. Brooks—Just a line to let you know your Appliance has completely cured our little boy and we are very pleased with it. We had it on him for about three months, and since he has had it off the rupture has not showed at all. Yours truly, MRS. G. SUDDABY.

Rupture Thoroughly Healed. Ingersoll, Ont., Feb. 6, 1914. Mr. C. E. Brooks: Perhaps you will be interested in hearing what your Appliance has done for me. I know without doubt that my rupture has thoroughly healed after a term of sixteen years' suffering and I attribute my restored and healed condition to the wearing of your Appliance, which held the bowel firmly and painlessly during the healing process. I have not worn it for months—neither do I feel in need of it. Yours truly, F. C. NOXON.

Ruptured 22 Years; Now Cured. East Sherbrooke, Que., Jan. 27, 1914. Mr. C. E. Brooks: Dear Sir—I am very glad to hear from you, and happy to be able to tell you that my rupture was cured some time ago by your Appliance. I now need no truss after twenty-two years of torture. Yours truly, G. E. LEMAY.

Cured Me Completely. Perth Centre, N. B., April 26, 1914. Mr. C. E. Brooks: Dear Sir—I received your letter regarding the Appliance you sent me. It was a complete success and now I don't know that I ever had a rupture. It has cured me completely and I thank you very much for it. Very truly yours, REV. H. A. SISSON.

GERMANS LOST HEAVILY IN RETREAT

British Headquarters in France, March 9, via London—Blizzard conditions have prevailed on the western front for two days, hindering the military operations within a very small compass.

London, March 10—It is announced that the minister of munitions, by arrangement with the minister of agriculture and the food controller, is assuming control of all fats, oils and oil seed and their products, including oil cakes, soap and margarine.

Mortality among elderly people is increasing at a terrible rate, while epidemics are spreading everywhere owing to the decreased powers of resistance.

ARABS HELP IN CONQUEST ON TIGRIS

New York, March 9—The Associated Press tonight sends out the following: "The British advance in Mesopotamia, which has covered more ground in a short period than almost any other movement of the war, has been assisted materially by extensive defections of the native tribes from Turkish rule, according to private mail advices received in New York from Asiatic Turkey."

The new offensive on the Tigris has developed with such speed that since the recapture of Kut, on February 26, the British have advanced nearly 100 miles, and are now within a few miles of Bagdad.

The importance of the union of the two powerful Anah and Sham tribes is in the fact that they number not fewer than 4,000,000 souls. This covenant of peace means the union of two tribes which have been bitter enemies for hundreds of years.

London, March 9—The British transport Mendi, carrying South African native laborers, was sunk after a collision on Feb. 21 and 526 persons lost their lives. Ten of the persons lost were Europeans, according to the announcement made today to the South African parliament by General Louis Botha, premier.

The Mendi was a British steamer of 4,200 tons gross, built in Glasgow in 1915, and owned by the British and American Steam Navigation Company, Limited, of Liverpool (The Elder, Dempster Company).

Prices to be Fixed. Ottawa, March 9 (Special)—The government, acting in co-operation with the imperial authorities, has under consideration some radical measures for conserving and marketing Canada's western wheat crop next autumn.

It was understood the risk would be distributed among several companies, and that the insurance was intended to protect Mr. Morgan's partners in their mutual business interests, as well as for the banker's personal protection.

FIRST CHANCE GIVEN RETURNED SOLDIERS

Ottawa, March 9—An order-in-council has been passed giving to returned soldiers one day's priority over all other applicants in cases where Dominion lands are thrown open for homesteading.

As a result of a careful survey of the conditions in each section of Western Asia it was found: That there are at the present time approximately 2,144,000 persons, mostly women and children, destitute, homeless, hopeless, who with occasional exceptions have no means of livelihood except as provided by the American committee for Armenian and Syrian relief.

These figures include the Christian Armenian, Syrian and Greek population, but do not include the countless thousands of innocent Moslem women and children, who in their extremity of need are now asking for help.

A careful study of present food conditions and prices (much higher than in America) indicate that a per capita allowance of 10c per day, or $3.00 per month would be required merely to sustain life.

To care properly for the 2,000,000 and more now dependent upon the committee will at this rate require a monthly income of at least $5,000,000.

These people for the most part exiled from their homes, must remain dependent upon the committee during the remainder of the war and probably for at least six months after peace is declared, or until they can return to their lands and produce their own food supply.

With the hearty co-operation of sympathetic Canadian and missionary of various neutral nations (nearly 200 of whom are still working in the Turkish empire) the committee is able to administer relief with practically no expense for overhead charges and with absolute assurance that the relief reaches the destitute people. It is believed that there is no reason for anticipating any material change in the present effective channels of distribution.

TO STUDY RAILWAY PROBLEM Ottawa, March 9—Hon. George P. Graham, M. P. for South Renfrew, and E. M. MacDonald, M. P. for Pictou, left tonight for a trip through the west as far as the Pacific coast.

They will take occasion to study the railway question which is pressing for solution and which will no doubt be a fruitful subject for debate during the coming session. They will also study other western problems.

The two members have been asked to address several Canadian clubs in the west but so far no definite dates have been fixed on their itinerary. The trip will last about a month.

THE CANADIANS ARE COMING! This is the cry that goes up from the terrified German troops when the boys from the land of the Maple leaf make one of their historic charges.

It's every man for himself. They run, they hide, they quit in terror. Here is an illustration of the Canadian boys in action. The Germans are hiding. Can you find them? Some will find five, some six, others will find more. Can you find at least eight of them? There are ten Germans all-told. How many can you find?

CONDITIONS—For the ten best answers we will give the ten prizes noted above absolutely free. This contest is open to every home that does not own a piano. Our object in giving these prizes is to introduce our famous Pianos and Player Pianos to the families in the province that do not have a Piano or Player Piano in the home. If you own a Piano or Player Piano do not enter this competition.

DIRECTIONS—Mark each German soldier found with a pencil or with pen and ink. Mark them distinctly. Write your name and address plainly and distinctly. Children should have parents write names. Stamp each answer when mailing with three cents in stamps, or bring the answer to our store. Only one answer accepted from any family. This contest closes within five days from this date. All answers must be in our hands before that time.

AWARDS—Prizes will be awarded to the neatest correct solutions, etc., according to their merit. You can work this contest out on a separate sheet of paper or other material. Neatness, workmanship, etc., will be taken into consideration in making awards. Each contestant will receive a suitable premium whether the answer is correct or not. In addition to this each contestant will be afforded an exceptional opportunity to buy a high grade dependable Piano or Player Piano. We take this method of advertising our Pianos as we can reach more people and we feel that the best advertising is to have a Piano in the home of some good family that are well satisfied with it.

Contest Closes March 12, 1917, at 6 p. m. All Answers Must be on Hand at That Time. Contestants Will Be Notified by Mail

Not Listening But Comparing.

In other words, a great artist singing on the concert stage in direct comparison with the recreation of her voice by The New Edison.

This is what the picture means. It shows Anna Case, of the Metropolitan Grand Opera, proving by actual comparison that Thomas A. Edison's new invention re-creates her superb art with absolute fidelity.

The musical critics of more than two hundred Canadian and American papers stated that they were unable to detect any difference. To express this perfection—to cause the New Edison to stand out from the ordinary talking machine, music lovers coined a new title for Mr. Edison's marvellous success—"Music's Re-creation".

Trout Fishing On The Nipigon

Owing to the size and fighting capacity of its red speckled trout, Nipigon has long attracted fishermen, not only from Canada and the United States, but from all over the world. The local guides declare that it can never be ed out that five-pounders are still common and that proof of its unfailing yield is demonstrated by the numbers who return year after year. The fishing season opens on May 1st and closes September 15th. "Having fished," says a Chicago angler, "by practical experience, some one or more of the head waters of every principal stream on both the Atlantic and Pacific slopes, from the most northerly settled limits along the Canadian Pacific line to the most southerly point in Mexico, where trout are found, together with a test of most of the principal streams in Scotland and Ireland, I am still of the opinion that the Nipigon, from the standpoint of the high-typed sportsman, is the finest trout stream in the world."

The Nipigon is 60 miles long, with numerous lake expansions and surging rapids; its width, 800 to 400 feet; water of the purest, clearest kind, and of the coldest temperature; there are nine portages on it, the two longest being two and one half miles, and one and one-half miles—the rest are short; it is near these portages the best fishing is to be had.

Nipigon Station is on the C. P. R. main line, 65 miles east of Port Arthur. The train from the west reaches here in the morning, giving ample time to reach the camping and fishing grounds, 12 miles, in good season, provided arrangements have been made for guides, etc. It is absolutely necessary to arrange for guides beforehand, in order to avoid disappointment and delay, and particularly during the months of July and August, when the season is in full blast.

The usual way of "doing" the Nipigon is in parties of two or four. Each canoe (18 feet long) is manned by two Indians, and accommodates two gentlemen and supplies for a ten-day trip. The following rates are quoted by the local outfitters, William McKirdy & Sons and the Hudson's Bay Company:

Two canoes, 50c per day, $10; one head guide, $2.50 per day, $25; three other guides, $2 per day, $60; rest of tent and fly for gentleman, 50c, $5; rent of one tent outfit (axes, pick-traps, cooking utensils), $7; total $110. Added to this will be the cost of supplies, and this will entirely depend on the varied tastes of the party. The supplies for Indians are flour, pork, tea and sugar, butter, dried fruit and tobacco. As the Nipigon is particularly a fly-fishing stream, parties wishing to enjoy themselves to the fullest extent take one canoe for each, and also a cook, who can be procured at $2.50 per day, mode adopted. One word as to the guides. These men are Indians and half-breeds who have followed this business for a living for years and are thoroughly acquainted with all the intricacies of the river, both as to the dangerous parts and to where the best fishing is to be had. They are intelligent, serious of giving every comfort to their employers, do-up tents, making comfortable beds, and doing all the packing over portages, putting things to rights and assisting with the cooking. Much, of course, depends on the head guide, who is chosen on account of his experience.

The Nipigon is protected by the provincial government, and a license fee of $15 for two weeks, $20 for three weeks and $35 for four weeks, per man, is charged to visitors whose homes are outside Canada. Canadians are charged $5 and $10 for four weeks. Permits are procurable from the Fishing Overseer at Nipigon Station.

Lake Nipigon, from which the river flows into Lake Superior, is also the home of the whitefish and lake trout, some of the latter having been caught with the rod weighing from 80 to 40 pounds. The lake is beautiful, being studded with numerous islands offering pleasant camping places, and many tourists who visit the Nipigon spend a time on the lake, which can be safely traversed in the large bark canoes used on the river. The climate here is particularly enjoyable; the delicious coolness of the air has wonderful recuperative powers, and refreshing sleep under warm blankets is the lot of all.

The Fire in the Front Line
"Quez," of the London Evening News, on duty as an artillery officer in France, says army signallers in the front line are as ingenious as the enemy. This is how they warm up their mid-day dinner: A bully beef tin is propped up on four discarded jam tins. Into it are poured candle-end parings and scraps of candle grease diligently scraped from the plank that had been a rough table for previous signallers. Someone also discovers from somewhere a few drops of paraffin. A few shreds from a worn out sandbag; a lighted match; and, hey presto! a canny fire, which only wants feeding with occasional candle parings to keep up a warmth that really is most cheering.

A CHILD DOESN'T LAUGH AND PLAY IF CONSTIPATED

If Peevish, Feverish and Sick, Give "California Syrup of Figs."

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; if a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember, a good liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given. Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle. Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

THE BLESSING OF A HEALTHY BODY

Has Not Had An Hour's Sickness Since Taking "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

MR. MARRIOTT

"I think it my duty to tell you what 'Fruit-a-tives' has done for me. Three years ago, I began to feel rundown and tired, and suffered very much from Liver and Kidney 'Trouble.' Having read of 'Fruit-a-tives,' I thought I would try them. The result was surprising. During the three and a half years past, I have taken them regularly and would not change for anything. I have not had an hour's sickness since I commenced using 'Fruit-a-tives,' and I know now what I haven't known for a good many years—that is, the blessing of a healthy body and clear thinking brain."

GARRIGAN CREDITED WITH BEST INSIDE PLAY

Bill Garrigan, the retiring leader of the world champion Red Sox, is credited with directing the best "inside play" of the 1916 baseball year.

The Sox and Yankees were battling in Boston in a four-game series that carried them along to Sept. 30th. The crimson-hooded warriors needed those games to clinch the pennant, the Yankees wanted them to ensure themselves a place in the first division. And bitter battling ensued.

The teams went along to a tie until the last half of the tenth. Then the Sox populated the bases with two men out. The batter was "dugged" on his way to the plate by Garrigan, who whirled words into his sound receiver, and then scooted back to the coaching lines.

With two out, the bases full and a hit needed for victory, what would 99 out of 100 batters do? Try to club the ball out of the lot. Right. And that's what the Yankees as well as the speculators figured would be tried. But they all reckoned without the crafty Garrigan, who had ordered nothing more or less than a bunt—a seemingly suicidal play at the time.

The batter followed orders, the bunt rolled slowly, tantalizingly along the base lines. The Yankee infielders tore in madly—but too late! The runner on third had crossed the plate, the batter "squeeze play" had worked—and the Sox had won the game that clinched for them the 1916 pennant of the American League.

The modern study of heredity forcibly suggests that the personality is a unique combination of many strands which go back into antiquity—Professor Arthur Thomson.

A Cure For Drunkenness Within The Reach of All

That Alcoholism is a disease is now recognized by Science. No man in his senses brings disgrace and ruin on himself and family through choice.

Alcurea stops the craving for drink, builds up the system, steadies the nerves. It is guaranteed to cure or benefit or money refunded after a fair trial. Alcurea No. 1 can be given secretly by any wife or mother wanting to restore a dear one to health and usefulness. Alcurea No. 2 is the voluntary treatment. AMERICAN LEAGUE RACE SHOULD BE A THRILLER, SAYS JOHNSON

"The American League race this year should be another thriller," says President Ban Johnson. "No, I will not pick a winner because that would be foolish. But I firmly believe that the race will be even closer than last season. The Yankees should be in the thick of the fight all the way. They might have finished third or better last year if their best men had not been injured. The Clevelanders have been strengthened in the pitching department, and I believe they will be dangerous factors.

"Griffith has obtained some good men with whom he expects to reorganise the Washingtons, while there is reason to feel that there will be a big improvement in the work of the St. Louis Browns. On past performances the Red Sox, White Sox and Tigers are in favor, but the other teams, with the possible exception of the Athletics, will make things hot for them. Connie Mack still is confident that the Athletics will finally show winning form, and I hope he is on the right track. Baseball should enjoy a boom this year under favorable conditions. The game has been rescued from evil influences and the future is particularly bright."

EVER FEEL "DOPEY" AFTER MEALS?

Willard Said To Weigh Nearly 300

Muscles Are Getting Soft and He Dislikes to Train - Will Take Some Time to Get Ready to Fight

New York, March 7.—Despite the stories that Willard has been training hard and could get ready to fight at short notice, it is known that he scales between 280 and 300 pounds. His muscles have softened and have completely disappeared under the thick layer of fat that covers his body. Always slothful and having a great dislike for the hard grind of training, he is less inclined than ever to begin hard work.

TOOKE COLLARS 15 CENTS EACH TOOKE BROS. LIMITED MONTREAL

parent that the big champion intends to retire in the very near future. Willard was not as yet signed a contract to travel with a circus this year, and it is not certain whether he will. At the close of last year's tour Willard was thoroughly disgusted with conditions and he told friends that he was through. Perhaps, after having a long rest he has changed his mind, but from the actions of the "syndicate" it would appear that he is about ready to cast the gloves aside for all time and retire to private life. The assertion that only a giant could possibly have a chance with either Jess Willard or Fred Fulton is a marked reflection on the ability of the reverend John L. Sullivan, Jim Corbett and Bob Fitzsimmons, all of whom are supposed to be far superior to the present-day set of heavies. It is a physical impossibility for any man of normal proportions to annoy the two giants now on top, then the old-timers must now be regarded as second raters, for none of the three was a particularly big man. If the proposition that Willard and Fulton are too big is upheld, the proposition in regard to the standing of Sullivan, Corbett and Fitz is well relinquished. As a matter of fact, the truth probably lies between the two ideas. Few of those who have seen Fitzsimmons in action would care to wager that Fulton could have stayed in the same ring with him for ten rounds. That Fitzsimmons, even though he weighed under the middleweight limit when at his best, would not have had a good chance to defeat Willard is disproved by the freckled warrior's two battles with Jim Jeffries. The latter was not as tall a man as Willard by several inches, but he was even more rugged and probably much stronger. By the time that Jeffries and Fitzsimmons fought their second battle the one-time lionheart had become as clever as Willard is today, and yet the only thing that saved him from being knocked out by the ancient middleweight was that the latter's brittle hands could not stand the strain. Willard and Fulton stand out today partly because of their great size, but more because there are no other first-class men to furnish any opposition. Billy Miske, while a good all-round man, is not a great fighter by any means. But give Miske something of Fitz's hitting ability and there would be no talk of Fulton being too big for him. She—What do they make in a chafing dish? He—Indigestion.

BOWLING.

The Eagles and Canaries each took two points in the Y. M. C. A. bowling league last evening. It was a stirring game. The scores were: Canaries: McGovern, 96 85 87 288 96; O'Leary, 81 84 289 792-3; Daley, 72 90 84 246 82; Kennedy, 96 80 81 257 852-3; Riley, 90 84 98 282 84. 485 448 484 1812

Eagles.

Ryan, 92 75 66 222 74; Costello, 82 75 92 258 841-3; Fitzgerald, 99 81 88 268 872-3; Murphy, 84 90 268 872-3; Coughlin, 88 91 103 284 842-3. 444 405 486 1985

Victory for Wanderers.

The Wanderers took three points from the Whips in last night's City League bowling match, the details of which follow: Wanderers: Total. Garvin, 91 89 97 277; Cronwell, 89 93 87 269; Wright, 116 88 86 290; McLeod, 85 85 118 288; Logan, 82 99 80 261. 463 459 463 1385

Whips.

Comans, 85 87 95 267; Dykeman, 82 75 82 239; Kerr, 87 95 97 279; Harrington, 85 88 89 262; McCaw, 90 110 109 309. 489 455 472 1396

High Scores on "Vic" Alleys.

During the luncheon hour on Friday, Percy Howard went into the Victoria bowling alleys and, bowing against Harry Flood, made 149 for a single string. Howard's string is just seven pins below the alley record, held jointly by H. Garnett and H. McKean. Howard started with a ten, then made two eighteen spares, ten, nine, ten, two strikes, followed by a fifteen spare and ten box, as follows: 10, 28, 46, 58, 65, 75, 104, 124, 130, 149. Howard is in Millet.

In a match game between picked teams from City Hall, Captain Price's team won by three pins, after a close and exciting match. The teams were as follows: Price (captain), Hatfield and Duffy; Earle (captain), Belding and Neelham. The score ended 748 to 740.

BASEBALL

Smith Signs With Dodgers.

Hot Springs, Ark., Mar. 9.—Pitcher Sherrod Smith has reached an agreement with President Ebbetts of the Brooklyn Nationals on the salary question. The amount agreed on was not given out. Veau Gregg Signs One more Red Sox holdout has been heard from. Secretary John Lane has received a telegram from Veau Gregg, which stated that he had signed his contract and that it was in the mail on its way to Boston. Gregg is in Millet, Alberta. Secretary Lane has sent to Gregg by wire his transportation to Hot Springs with the request that he report as soon as possible for spring training.

Int'l Leaguers Signing.

Montreal, Mar. 9.—That there is a tendency on the part of ball players to accept anything reasonable in the way of a contract this season is evident from the manner in which international League players are signing up. Contracts for 1917 were not mailed until March 4 and ordinarily they do not start to come in until well on in the month, but this year three were received, signed, inside a week. In view of the fact that the Royals have only eight players under reserve this is a pretty good showing. Paul Smith, Slattery and Damrau, are the trio already signed.

RING

Last Evening's Bouts

In Lawrence last evening Lew Cardell won a decision over Young Chakas of Manchester, N.H., in a ten round bout. In Beverly Joe Connolly of Charlestown was awarded a decision over Young Lajoie. It ended in the second round when Lajoie fouled Connolly. It was to have been a ten round bout. In Augusta, Me., Bill McKinnon shaded Leo Anderson in two six-round bouts. In Providence Tommy Robson of Malden stopped Al McCoy in the fifth round of what was scheduled to be a ten round bout. In New York Willie Jackson of Harlem outpointed Tommy Tuohy. The bout was one of the best seen in New York for some time. In Baltimore Kid Williams, former bantam champion, scored a technical knockout over Bennig Kauffman of Philadelphia. In the tenth round Kauffman's seconds stepped into the ring to save him unnecessary punishment.

HOCKEY.

Patrick Names Mar. 17.

Vancouver, Mar. 8.—Unless President Frank Patrick of the Pacific Coast Hockey Association hears a favorable reply from the east in connection with the dates for the world's championship series to be staged in Seattle by Friday, he will turn the matter over to William Foran of Ottawa, the official arbitrator between the Eastern and Coast organizations. Mr. Patrick made this announcement last night. He proposes the first game be played in Seattle on March 17, with the following matches staged on March 20, 23, 26, and 28.

Mr. Foran has already announced that he believes the challengers should have at least forty-eight hours to recuperate.

Steals Hockey Players' Money.

Seattle, Wash., Mar. 8.—A burglar opened a safe at the Arena, in which the hockey match between Vancouver and Seattle was played last night and removed the receipts, $1,200 in all, some time during the night and the hockey players who had struggled through an hour of fierce battling are minus their "get-away" money today. Detectives declare it an "inside" job. They say the money was taken by someone who knew the combination. Entrance to the office was gained by boring a series of holes in the office door. The lock was then thrown aside and the door opened.

CURLING

Campbellton Won.

Three Newcastle rinks, led by Skips C. J. Morrissey, D. S. Creighton and Charles Dalton, played in Campbellton Tuesday afternoon and evening for the Archer trophy, but failed to capture it from the Campbellton curlers, Campbellton, who won it last year, have defeated both Chatham and Newcastle in this year's games.

Chatham Curlers Trimmed.

Truro, N. S., March 8.—The Truro curlers today defeated Chatham (N. B.), by a score of 42 to 18, in the match for the McCallan Cup.

BASKETBALL

Locals Defeat Normal School

A basketball team from the Provincial Normal School played two games here yesterday, losing the first to a team from the High School by a score of 40 to 16, and the second to an intermediate team of the Y.M.C.A. by a score of 31 to 14. Both games were played in the Y.M.C.A. gymnasium and were keenly contested.

BILLIARDS.

Keeps Hoppe Going.

Willie Hoppe, the one wizard, walks 800 miles a year around billiard tables. A statistical fiend recently discovered that Hoppe covers three miles in every 600 point game, that he plays 5,000 points a year and thusly covers 800 miles afoot.

A veteran recently enlisted in the army. After a week in his new quarters he was brought up before the officer commanding for not cleaning his rifle.

"Then, you're an old soldier re-enlisted, I see. I suppose it has been many years since you were reprimanded? What was your last offense? Can you remember what it was?" "The old soldier, with irony on account of the repeated gibes at his age, replied: "For not cleanin' me bow and arrow, sir!"

Establishes New Skating Records

Arthur Staff Skates Mile in 2.26

1-5 and a Half Mile in 1.13—Canadian Does Well

Pittsburg, Mar. 8.—Arthur Staff of the Norwegian Turners Society of Chicago, winner of the 1917 international outdoor skating championship at Saranac Lake, broke two world's records last night at the opening meeting for the international indoor championship ice skating races here.

In the half-mile Staff set a new record of 1.18. The former record of 1.16 was made by John Nilsson in Montreal in 1897.

Staff skated the mile in 2.261-5, breaking the record of 2.28 set by himself in Chicago last year. In both races Staff was hard pushed by Harry Cody of Toronto.

Cody and Staff alternated at setting slips. The crew as set down was the pace until the final lap, when Larson put on speed, and the three men went in to the stretch on even terms. Staff was equal to the occasion and brought the crowd to its feet with his burst of speed. Cody stuck close to him and finished a scant foot in the rear.

Officially Classified.

In the Bureau of the Census at Washington acts against the law are recorded under a few general heads, such as murder, burglary, etc.

An officer of the bureau tells of a woman clerk who was puzzled by an entry she encountered in one of her slips. The entry as set down was "Killing a blind tiger." After due reflection the woman placed it under the head "Cruelty to Animals."

New Orleans, Mar. 9.—To arrive in New Orleans just after Mardi Gras is like getting into a theatre just as the people begin to feel under the seats for their hats or are standing up to sing "God Save the King." Perhaps there is no other city in the world to which a single day means so much as Mardi Gras means to New Orleans.

The feature of which New Orleans ought to be most proud, and justly so, is the waterfront. Flanked by magnificent docks, being a seaport town, most of the city's commerce is water-borne.
