FIRST MEETING OF CONFERENCE
AT SPA TODAY

Germans Ready to Fight Against Big Indemnity

Not Willing to Agree to Half
Lowest Sum Which Reports Say Will Be Demanded
by the Allies.

(Associated Press.)
Spa, July 5.—Allied German delegates to the conference to be held this week met today for the first session, which lasted only twenty minutes. Adjournment was taken until two o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Premier Millerand of France was first to arrive. Count Sforza, Italian foreign minister, was next, and was followed by Viscount Chinda, Premier Lloyd George was the last of the Allies to reach the villa. When Herr Constantin Fehrenbach, the German chancellor, arrived, the Allied delegates were all assembled, three from each delegation and an army of photographers awaited. He had consented to be photographed and then entered the villa. He was followed by two of his colleagues, after which the session was declared opened.

The probability of reaching an agreement on the total sum repaid to Germany is to pay appears slight. The allied premiers will communicate their collective decisions to the German chancellor. He and his associates affirm they are prepared to refuse demands which they consider beyond Germany's strength to meet.

Herr Fehrenbach said on Friday that he had nothing to add to his considered declarations to the German parliament until after he had met the allied ministers. Germany's resources and capacity to pay, he declared, were set forth in the memorandum given to each of the principal allied governments.

The conviction of the German delegation as received from other German sources is that, taking the minimum of reports of the equivalent of $20,000,000,000, with interest, or the maximum of $30,000,000,000, Germany will not agree to pay even half the lower sum.

Brussels, July 5.—It is said here that an agreement was virtually reached by the Allied premiers in conference here with regard to the division of German reparations on the basis of 22 per cent to Britain, 10 per cent to the United States, 10 per cent to Italy, 8 per cent to Belgium and 4 per cent to Serbia. The remaining 38 per cent will be divided among the other Allies, including Rumania, Portugal and Japan. Italy also will receive certain economic and military advantages. This tentative settlement was declared to have been arrived at in a conference of the French, British, Italian and Belgian delegates.

ANOTHER AIRSHIP

Fredericton, July 5.—A non-stop hydroplane flight from Halifax to Fredericton is to be attempted on July 15 by visitors engaged in taking two machines to the province of Quebec for forest protective work. The route is to be as a bird would fly from Halifax to St. John thence up the river to Fredericton. The time allotted for the trip from St. John here is forty-five minutes.

WHISKEY STOLEN;
FIVE ARRESTS

Break Into Licensed Vendor
Premises of G. K. Bell—
Twelve Names on Police Court List.

Although twelve men were arrested over the week-end on charges of invading too freely the magistrate's study, it was not until today that the police got down to the case of the stolen whiskey. The case was not do away with the commandment "Thou shalt not steal" for during the year 1929 said he had seen more people to Dorchester penitentiary for stealing than in the thirty-one years he had been police magistrate in this city.

The police court session this morning was a busy one for in addition to the twelve arrests on drunkenness charges, Louis and William Doyle, William Alexander, George Haynes and Edward McGarrigle were arrested this morning on suspicion of breaking and entering the premises of five cases of Andrew Usher Scotch whiskey, valued at about $200, the property of George K. Bell, 297 Charlotte street. Mr. Bell, proprietor of a drug store in Charlotte street, said he left his store on Saturday night securely fastened, the front door with an ordinary lock and the back door with an iron safe.

In the cellar he said two boards had been left removed from a partition separating the two cellars. The cellar was as he had been burning some rubbish in the furnace on Saturday and had not replaced the boards. The cellar door was loose but was not up and from appearances no one had entered the cellar. He said he had no desire to know the names of the men who had taken the whiskey. The cases of whiskey produced in court were said to be similar to those missing from the store. Mr. Bell said his theory was that the entrance was made through the adjoining cellar.

Detective Saunders told of going to the store early this morning in consequence of a telephone message and of arriving there received information which caused him to go to the Consumers' Coal Company's wharf. After searching the sheds he saw four men, who later proved to be the two Doyle brothers, Alexander and William, and a man in a box car. In company with Policemen Killen and another man the detective watched these four men until they came under a light when he recognized them and started to follow them. They walked along to St. James street and to Charlotte street at Mr. Bell's store and later one of them came out and waived a hand to the other two who then entered the alley. The detective followed them into the alley and as he entered could hear them getting over the fence.

On being followed the accused ran up St. James street where three of them dodged into an alley. Louis Doyle went to German street where he was arrested by Policemen Killen. From information received they went to the alley and found McGarrigle lying drunk and took him to the police station. They then went back to the store and found the cellar window loose and raised a short distance and in the partition separating the adjoining cellar two boards had been removed. The detective said he found the liquor in a row boat at the wharf. The other three accused were later arrested at their homes.

The case was postponed until tomorrow morning when other witnesses will be heard. J. A. Barry appeared for Louis and William Doyle, while J. B. Dever appeared for Alexander and McGarrigle.

Richard Caples of Brussels street, was charged with supplying liquor to John J. Fitzgerald. Fitzgerald who was arrested on drunkenness charge was put on the stand but said he did not remember where he got the liquor, so the case was postponed until tomorrow.

William Guthrie was fined $8 or two months for being drunk and $200 or six months for having liquor in his possession other than his private use. The bomb was sufficient to blow city blocks to pieces. It weighs about six pounds and has an eleven foot fuse attached.

WAS NOT CASE OF KIDNAPPING
IN HALIFAX

Halifax, July 5.—When it was reported to the police this morning that Horace A. Watson, night watchman of the Halifax Shipyard, had disappeared it was suggested that he had been kidnaped by the strikers in an endeavor to prevent his appearance in the police court tomorrow in a case brought against former employees of the plant and in which he is the plaintiff. The police, however, subsequent investigation showed that Watson had not disappeared but that he had merely taken the night off from the yard and that he would be on hand tomorrow to give evidence.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, sowed some beet seed in the garden. All of it came up. I never saw such a row of beets in my life. I was amazed at their rapid growth, and remarked that when beets I have seen grow, were enough of them to transplant an acre. But there was something peculiar about them. The leaves were large, but they lacked the veins and stalks of the ordinary beet. They were white in color. I assumed that they were a new variety, and visited a friend at the fall show lent a new interest to life. The other day I decided to transplant some of them, and had actually begun operations when a farmer came along and hung his chin over the fence. He casually observed that my family must be fond of Swiss chard. To my polite enquiry he indicated the long row of beets, and said he had seldom seen finer promise of a good crop of Swiss chard. When I proudly said they were beets he used a profane remark, and intimated that if I thought he was a Rube there was another thing coming to me. Hiram said the man was right. I had some chard with my dinner yesterday. And I was short on the subject. I have a new respect for my friend the farmer. I perceive that he must know much more than Geel and Haw!

"I'm glad you found that out," said Hiram. "I've noticed that whenever a city fellow has nothing to do he hands out some advice to the farmer. If we look 'all of it' this country 'ud be a howlin' wilderness in about five years. I guess you must 'ave felt like the hen higher rate on turkey eggs 'ud hatched out a lot of long-legged things most as big as herself. Well we live 'n learn—mistake!"

BAPTIST Y. P.

Rev. W. R. Parsons of New Brunswick Vice-President.

Toronto, July 5.—In an Independence Day address at the International Convention, Baptist Young People's Union of America here on Saturday, Rev. Howard Hanson of Des Moines, Iowa, declared a battle for third place yesterday to St. Louis when four pitchers were unable to defeat the Cardinals. Although the Reds are battling lightly, the pitchers held their opponents to a total of three hits and a no hit game last night. The Cubs, however, lost a battle for third place yesterday to St. Louis when four pitchers were unable to defeat the Cardinals.

The Boston Nationals continued their winning play of the previous week by trouncing Philadelphia, Philadelphia lacks scoring power. The Pittsburgh twirlers are handicapped by light hitting. New York's slugging is offset by unsteady pitching.

In the American League, Chicago outpitched Boston. The Sox were unable to attain the same winning pace. Close losses marked the Boston and Washington contests. Johnson, of the Senators, is in especially good form, pitching a three hit and a no hit game last night. St. Louis is displaying a new form. Detroit and Philadelphia are considered one of the most dangerous hitters in the league. The Athletics ended their losing streak at eighteen and then began another.

Benton Harbor, Mich., July 5.—Benny Leonard, New York lightweight champion, will defend his title for the first time in six months here today when he will face Charley White of Chicago, considered one of the most dangerous hitters in the lightweight ranks, in a ten-round championship contest.

Tom, of Seattle, on Saturday defeated the Vancouver boat Turanga for the Sir Thomas Lipton Cup by four minutes and fifty seconds over an equal course of twelve miles. The cup remains in Seattle where it has been since 1914.

New York, July 5.—(Canadian Press) By winning a two mile United States title race from Frank L. Kramer yesterday, Arthur Spencer, a Toronto cyclist, increased his lead in the national championship competition. Ray Eaton was third and W. Spencer of Toronto fourth. CLEVELAND AT

Heavy Batting Makes Leaders' Pace Fast—Big League Review.

New York, July 5.—Cleveland regained the American League leadership from New York yesterday by administering Detroit's seventh straight defeat, while the Yankees dropped their first game in ten to Washington. The heavy slugging of the two league leaders is carrying them along at a fast pace, but the Indian club lacks the smooth pitching that Detroit's seventh straight defeat, while the Yankees dropped their first game in ten to Washington.

The Cincinnati world's champions made a slight gain over Brooklyn for the National League leadership. Although the Reds are battling lightly, the pitchers held their opponents to a total of three hits and a no hit game last night. The Cubs, however, lost a battle for third place yesterday to St. Louis when four pitchers were unable to defeat the Cardinals.

TURKS PREVENT THE LANDING OF
BRITISH TROOPS

Repulsed by Rapid Fire Guns
Along Coast

Speedy Advance of Greeks
Discourages Turkish Nationalists—Italian and Greek Troops in Clash
Southeast of Smyrna.

(Associated Press.)
Constantinople, July 5.—British warships attempted to land marines on Friday at Mudania, on the Sea of Marmara, but they were repulsed by rapid fire guns widely scattered along the coast. Evidently the guns were placed since the British landing on June 28.

The Greeks say that the Turks lost 2,500 men, including 1,500 prisoners, in the fighting preceding the capture of Balikesir, about 100 miles northeast of Smyrna, where the Greeks say the Turkish population welcomed them.

Apparently the Turkish Nationalists are much discouraged by the speedy advance of the Greeks. There are many indications that the Turks are withdrawing in the best possible order toward the line from Bursa to the hills and mountains where bandit gangs can harass the enemy's advance toward the Bagdadi railway. It is believed the Nationalists lack artillery and will rely on guerrilla warfare.

Paris, July 5.—The Turkish Nationalists have evacuated Ismidia, about sixty miles to the southeast of Constantinople, according to a despatch from the Turkish capital yesterday.

London, July 5.—General Parnassopoulos, commander-in-chief of the Greek army, announced that the Greek troops moving southwards from Fandera and northward from Smyrna effected a junction with the advance guard on Friday twenty-five kilometers northeast of Balikesir. The Turks fleeing in disorder toward Bursa.

London, July 5.—Fighting between Italian and Greek troops near Ajassolik, on the Aidin railroad southeast of Smyrna on Saturday, is reported to have resulted in a despatch to the London Times from Smyrna. The Greek commander sent a force to occupy a position within the Italian lines. The Italians ordered the Greeks to withdraw and they refused. Thereupon the British troops intervened and the Greeks repulsed. There were several casualties on both sides.

The dispatch says the Greeks retain the position but that the incident is worrying the Greek authorities, who maintain that it is imperative to safeguard the Aidin railroad. They fear that if the friction continues the Turks will be confirmed in their belief that the Italians sympathize with them.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION IN CANADA'S CAPITAL

Ottawa, July 5.—(Canadian Press)—The flood of letters and telegrams announcing the feeling of members and senators as to who should be chosen to succeed Sir Robert Borden as premier and leader of the National Liberal and Conservative Party has almost ended. It was expected that Saturday night would see the name of the prime minister.

No information was available over the weekend as to whom the choice would fall upon. A few members of parliament still waited in the city, some of them wishing to hear definitely as to leadership before returning to their homes. Among these there was no certainty as to who was the likely successor.

The choice, according to some of the members, seems to be almost narrowed down to two persons, Arthur Meighen and Sir Thomas White, and there is still a question whether or not the latter would accept.

Most of the ministers were also out of town over the week-end, so there has been little hot gossip from the political mill since the premier's statement of Thursday night.

An Ottawa despatch to the Standard says that R. W. Wignome, M. P. P., St. John, is almost certain to be New Brunswick's representative in the cabinet.

THIRTY THOUSAND DELIBERATE MURDERS

In the United States Last Year Although the Penalty Was Death—Prohibitory Law Infraction Costs Only $200—Leading Anglican Clergymen Endorsed Prohibition Yesterday, and Are Against Light Wines and Beers.

In view of the above murder record in the United States, and the comparative punishment between that offence and breaking the prohibitory law, the criticism of certain parties that the New Brunswick Prohibitory Act has not accomplished its maximum good in three years in the face of many difficulties does not seem to represent that sound sense judgment that the soldier vote voters to accept liberally.

Such representatives of the Anglican church as Rev. R. Armstrong, Rev. G. A. Kurling and Rev. R. T. McKim are doubtless well capable of advising their parishioners, and their opinions, as expressed in this morning's papers, are being enthusiastically in favor of prohibition and against light wines and beers.

The ranks of the anti-prohibitionists will doubtless divide very rapidly this week, as the electorate vote the careful consideration it deserves.

WATCH YOUR GUMS— BLEEDING A SIGN OF TROUBLE

Medical science knows how serious is the sign of bleeding gums. For it knows that tender and bleeding gums are the forerunners of Piorrhoea, that dread disease which afflicts four out of five people over forty. If the disease is unchecked, the gum-line recedes, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the Piorrhoea poison generated at their base—poison which seeps into the system and wreck the health. They cause rheumatism, nervous disorders, anaemia, and many other ills.

To avoid Piorrhoea, visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection, and use Forhan's For the Gums. Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Piorrhoea or check its progress. If used in time and used consistently, ordinary dentists cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums firm and healthy—the teeth white and clean. Start using it today. If gum-bleeding has already set in, use Forhan's according to directions and consult your dentist immediately for special treatment.

Exquisite Blouses of Crepe de Chene

Prices from $7.50 to $12.00

SEE OUR DISPLAY TOMORROW

We believe that our showing of lovely Crepe-de-Chene Blouses in distinctive models was never as fine as it is right now. These beautiful models are made of the finest quality of Crepe-de-Chene.

At $7.50, a number of styles are offered, including a summery-looking Blouse with square neck and short sleeves, featuring the vest effect, finished with small ruffles of the same material, hemstitched in color. This model may be had in flesh and white, but a fine choice of colors is offered in other models.

At $9.00, there is a distinctively new model, which comes in white and flesh, in V neck and short sleeves. The new pleated frilling is used for trimming and the surplice effect in front forms a loose girle which ties at the back, giving the blouse a very pretty finish.

Another attractive blouse to be had in white, flesh and apricot, has a round neck and short sleeves with front hand-embroidered in silk in contrasting colors. This blouse is fastened at the side-front with very pretty buttons.

At $12.00, a number of other attractive models are shown. Simplicity of design distinguishes the models at this price which come in white, flesh and coral. One new style has small ruffles, and hemstitching used most effectively for trimming, together with small tabs of black velvet ribbon falling loosely from each side of the collar.

IRISH TROOPS LAY DOWN THEIR ARMS

Three quarters of a Battalion of Connaught Rangers stationed at Jullundur, India, laid down their arms and refused to serve longer when they received news of the late events in Ireland. They remained perfectly respectful to their officers, but said that their sympathy with their friends in Ireland made it impossible for them to continue in the service. They were placed in the middle of the camp, disarmed and guarded by a regiment of British.

ENGLAND GOOD FOR HER WAR BILLS

New York Bankers' Trust Company Gives Her High Rating Among Nations — War Added $86,000,000,000

New York, July 5—England came out of the world war about thirty-six billion dollars deeper in debt than when she entered it. Only about one-sixth of this debt is owed to other countries. Her own people hold six-sevenths of it.

On her past reputation, which has been traced for more than two centuries in a study of "English Public Finances" just published by the Bankers' Trust Company of New York, England's present credit rating may list her as "good pay." The Bankers' Trust Company's book shows that since 1858, when the British national debt first began to grow large, England has scrupulously kept her financial obligations. Prior to the present time Great Britain's debt was heaviest in 1917 at the end of the Napoleonic wars. It then amounted to about four billion dollars and the interest charge alone represented an annual payment of about $9 a head based on the population of the country. By 1896 it had been reduced by about a billion dollars, notwithstanding that the Crimean war, costing some $50,000,000, exclusive of pensions, had intervened. The per capita carrying charge was brought down to less than $3.50 a year.

Heavy taxation, the book shows, has enabled her to pay her debts. Her people paid in taxes almost four billion dollars to defray part of the costs of the Napoleonic wars, and about half a billion dollars to help pay for the South African war.

They paid about eighteen billion dollars in taxes to meet their expenses during the world war, or more than one-third of what the war cost Great Britain.

ions, but never once a suggestion of trying to get rid of the obligations in any other way than the good old-fashioned one of paying.

MAJOR PLAYED CARDS WITH GUNNERS; COURT MARTIAL THE RESULT!

But He is Acquitted of Scandalous Behavior at Woolwich.

A charge of scandalous conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman brought against Major H. Brent Clark, of the Royal Garrison Artillery, well known in the army as the "human midget," collapsed at a Woolwich court martial last week, says a London cable. There was a further charge of conduct prejudicial to good order and military discipline.

Major Clark was found not guilty of the first charge, the court's decision on the second will be promulgated in due course. It was said that Major Clark, who held strong views on what he called "the human army," had invited gunners to his quarters, had played cards with them, invited them to drink, and had allowed them to sit with their tunics off and their shirt collars undone.

Evidence as to Major Clark's irreproachable character was given. Mr. Reeves, addressing the court for defence, said: "The psychology of the man is important. If the court did not know the views held by Major Clark the evidence brought before them might leave suspicious in the minds of the people who heard it, but when the psychology of the man is appreciated it explains away any suggestion that the things mentioned in the charges can be

RELATIVES HAD GIVEN UP HOPE

Connors Has Now Gained 30 lbs., and Says He Never Felt Better - Praises Tanlac.

"It's a fact, a short time ago I didn't think I could live much longer and even my relatives had given up hope for me but today I am an absolutely well man and never felt better in my life," said James J. Connors, who lives on Pierce avenue, Monday's Post. Mr. Connors, while telling of his remarkable recovery by taking Tanlac, said he had lost ninety pounds and was unable to hit a lick of work but Tanlac has built up to where he tips the scales one hundred twenty and he believes "I am stronger than I ever was in my life."

"Back when the flu epidemic was first raging I had a bad spell of it and it came mighty near finishing me. My weight was left in an awful condition and I had to live entirely on crackers and bread. I had a doctor who told me until I felt like I would choke to death and I had pains in my stomach that were so bad that I could not eat. My head ached something awful and at times felt like it would split open. My nerves were a total wreck and night after night I walked the floor afraid to go to bed for the gas pressed up into my chest and around my heart so bad I thought I would smother. I wasn't eating enough to keep up my weight and strength and I became too weak to work and had to give up my job as foreman with the Newfoundland Woolen Mills. I kept going down until I lost thirty pounds in weight and had to take to my bed. For one whole year I lay there, flat on my back, hardly able to turn over. My friends gave up hope for me and I almost lost heart myself."

"There was some Tanlac in the house. I don't know who brought it there, but anyway, I saw it and started taking it. Well, shortly thereafter I was up and on my feet. I kept it up and improved and gained in weight until today I'm as good as new. My friends are all completely surprised, I am eating anything and everything I please and simply never felt better in my life. I am working every day with the Colonial Cordage Company and I feel even stronger than I did before I had the flu. In my case Tanlac has been worth its weight in gold and money couldn't buy the good it has done me."

"Tanlac is sold in St. John by the Ross Drug Company and F. W. Munro, by G. W. McKinnon, Beaver Harbor, Willard J. Colwell, Evans, C. V. Parsons, Higham, John F. McGehee, Debec, O. D. Hanson, Levesque, E. Cole, W. D. Arville, N. H. Johnson, Clarendon Station, for the male passengers and special variety cases for the ladies were some of the features of the new plane.

Facts About Clothes

In these days when the high cost of living is such an important factor, we hear many proclamations upon Economy—some of them sensible and practical; many of them unjust, impossible and even ridiculous. It is little wonder that clothing should have been the target for the not always unerring arrow of the preacher of economy. The clothes you wear are as vital and essential to your physical and mental condition as the food you eat or the air you breathe and you should be as discriminating in their choice as you are of your means of sustenance. True economy and thrift means the purchase of good clothes. You will find our made-to-order and ready-tailored clothing, 20th Century and others, meet every demand of quality and style.

WEEKS FAIL TO BRING SOLUTION OF ELWELL CRIME

New York's Mystery the Deepest of Years

Review of Case of Sportsman of Wealth and Leisure and Follower of the High Life of Broadway.

New York, July 5—Every element of the classic detective tale has appeared in its most dramatic setting in the Elwell case which since June 11 has defied solution by the foremost sleuths of this city. Wealth, divorce, the glitter of Broadway, the frenzied whirl of the gown and the jewel for the ball, the race track, the gaming table and, far removed from the frenzied whirl of the "bright lights," the dotting parents in their vine-shaded home in the country—all these are woven and interwoven into what has been pronounced by detectives the deepest mystery of years.

In its most sinister guise, murder at the hands of an unknown and unsuspected assassin, death came to Joseph Brown Elwell in middle age when his most engrossing care amounted to anxiety over a favorite race horse, some intricacy of his legal position, and the details of an after-theatre engagement with the woman in black, or "the lady in gray."

Elwell was discovered at 8.30 in the morning of June 11 cleft in his pajamas and slumped down in a chair against the wall of the reception room on the first floor of his three story house in West 70th street. He died several hours later without speaking a word which might betray the identity of his slayer.

He was found by Mrs. Marie Larsen, Elwell's housekeeper, arriving for her daily work of tidying up the house. On a table at his side were several letters, one of which, from a racing associate, traveling between Albany and Buffalo, had been removed from the envelope. The letters had been delivered by the postman at 7.28.

There were no weapons, no footprint, no evidence of a struggle, no possible clue except a 45 calibre shell, such as is ejected from an automatic pistol of the army type and the stub of a cigarette different from those Elwell habitually smoked. Doors and windows were securely locked.

Experts declared that a suicide theory was untenable because Elwell could not have held the fatal pistol far enough from his head to avoid powder burns, even were it possible to account for the disappearance of the weapon. There were powder marks on the dying man's forehead but no ideas.

So soon as the idea of self-destruction fell rejected three stories started. Its ramifications extended all over the country, into every circle of society and for years back into the dead man's past. Every relative, every friend, every casual acquaintance or servant, every one who had ever seen the dead man was found examined. Every possible motive for his killing was explored. Love affairs long buried were examined and the principals grilled to discover a motive for the crime. Every real or suspected enemy was probed. All led to the same end—a wealth of information about the dead man's leisurely life, his reputation for suave good nature and his conquests of women's hearts, but not a ray of light on the crime itself.

The known facts of how Elwell spent the night before his death are few.

TAKES A NAP ABOVE THE CLOUDS

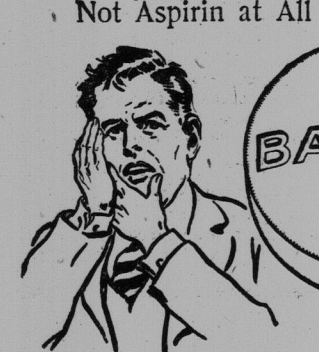

Novel Incident of Airplane Journey from New York to Chicago.

Chicago, July 5—Taking a nap above the clouds in an electrically heated airplane at an altitude of 6,800 feet while traveling between Albany and Buffalo was one of the incidents recorded in the log of a party which recently arrived here from New York on their way to Omaha to attend a wedding. They made a journey in an all-steeled monoplane. Luncheon, with a full complement of silver and tableware, after dinner cigars for the male passengers and special variety cases for the ladies were some of the features of the new plane.

The machine covered more than 950 miles on the trip from New York to Chicago, going up into Canada to avoid a storm over southern Lake Erie. The actual running time for the trip was eight hours and fifty-four minutes.

EXCURSION ON THE KENNEBECASIS

Afternoon Voyage to Perry's Point and Wayside Wharves

Incidents and Recollections - Lovely Resorts Drowsing in the Summer Haze - A Welcome Rain.

At two o'clock on Saturday afternoon the steamers Dream and Champlain hailed out from Indian town, the one to go up the Kennebecasis and the other up the Long Reach. The Champlain was crowded with passengers, and the Dream had a fairly good list, including a score or more of people for Chapel Grove, and others for points as far beyond as Perry's Point. Emulating the old-time Mississippi steamers the Dream and the Champlain raced through the Narrows. The launching of the barkentine Grand Bay but her triumph was short-lived, for John Frodsham, who had been moving lazily along in his power boat Dixie had his sporting instincts aroused; and the way he forged ahead of the Champlain was as soothing balm to the folk on the Dream as they passed into the Kennebecasis.

hills ahead were seen through a blue haze, and the shores on either side were clad in varied shades of green. Passing Indian islands and the pretty village of Millidgeville, with its yacht-club house and the cottages among the trees, there came recollection of yachting days; for there is, across Grand Bay and up the Kennebecasis toward Rothesay as fine a stretch of yachting water as may be found anywhere in the world. On Saturday, however, only one sailing yacht, an occasional motor boat, the ferry to Bayswater, and the Dream itself could be seen on all that broad expanse, whose shores were drowsing in the summer haze. The Dream took the inside course, behind Long Island, making her first call at Chapel Grove, where about twenty passengers went ashore. The country-side is very beautiful, sloping down to the lovely water of Kennebecasis Bay, and it is quite thickly settled. Whitehead, the next wharf above Chapel Grove, recalls memories of H. L. Spencer, the poet, who for a number of years lived there, at the house then owned by John Edwards, and wrote verses and quaint philosophical and humorous sketches, with which readers of the Times became familiar. Mr. Spencer went there first when the great St. John fire stripped him of all his property, and he learned to love the peaceful shores and lovely views, to which he returned again and again. Joseph F. Merritt, on the wharf at Moss Glen, called to mind two former visits by the Times mandate that place. One was to the launching of the barkentine Antilla, by Mr. Merritt, quite a number of years ago, the last vessel to be built there until the recent war period, when Peter McIntyre constructed a large schooner. A party of guests were on the Antilla when she slid into the water, and were towed on her down to the Kennebecasis. The river and around to York Point slip. The second visit was to inspect a match factory that was erected at Moss Glen. In this also Mr. Merritt was interested. It was a modern plant, and the workers were chiefly French girls brought from a factory in Quebec. The plant was destroyed by fire after it had been in operation for some time and was not replaced. Today a small portable mill is cutting some logs at Moss Glen, and Mr. McIntyre has a schooner on the stocks, with a few men at work. The little houses are not all tenanted, there is only one garden showing signs of cultivation, and the place has a somewhat deserted aspect. Nothing, however, can rob it of its beauty. The writer remembers a winding road through a wooded gorge that for picturesque beauty is not easily excelled. Behind Moss Glen rise the rocky and wooded hills, and before it is the broad river, with beautiful Mathers Island shutting out the still wider view to Rothesay. On the end of Long Island, which is separated from Mathers Island by only a narrow channel, there is on the side facing Moss Glen a strip of beach that could hardly be excelled for the purposes of a boys' camp, or for any outing party. At Fivewell's wharf, on the Painsville side, the passengers on the Dream saw two young girls on horseback, riding astride, and evidently enjoying themselves. To the wharf came running alongshore a dozen boys, who had doubtless been bathing in the river. The sight of Clifton suggested strawberries, and the name of D. P. Wetmore, who from being an educationalist became the most famous cultivator of strawberries in New Brunswick; and who with others made the Clifton fruit a household word. Lying there on the sheltered and sunny hillside, with its orchards, cultivated fields and well-kept houses, Clifton is one of the fairest gems of the Kennebecasis. At Gondola Point, the termination of what is perhaps the most attractive motor ride out of St. John, three motor cars were seen at the sands, the occupants strolling about enjoying the beauty of the scene. The Willows, further up on the other side, recalled recollections of Hugh McCormick, the Kennebecasis skater who carried the name of New Brunswick across the border and across the Atlantic in the days when the gleaming blades had far more attraction for young men than they have in these days of enervating recreation and amusement. Perry's Point brings us to the fringe of grass that stretches across the head of the broad river, leaving a narrower and winding stream for the voyage on to Hampton. A channel has been dredged to the wharf, and there the tug Wasson was lying, awaiting a raft that was to come down, part of it from Hampton. Here the Dream turned for the return trip. Some of the passengers were making the round trip, as a pleasant afternoon excursion; others got off at points along the route, to enjoy a little picnic on shore and await the steamer's return. The voyage down was no less delightful. Passing out from Chapel Grove a breeze sprang up, and at Boar's Head it had kicked up a choppy sea. The wharf at Indian town was made by seven o'clock, and already people were gathered there to go up Long Reach on the regular Saturday evening trip of the Dream. Capt. James McBeth is at the wheel of the Dream, and Don Taylor, son of Capt. Taylor of the Ocean, is the purser. Samuel Apré of Public Landing is engineer, and the steward and general utility man is Gus Ganson. The Times man dined with them, and as it occurred after some four hours of fresh air and exercise there was a natural suggestion of hesitation in the steward's voice when he kindly said they would be glad to have the visitor come again. Clyde

Pugh also made the round trip and was charmed with the beauty of the Kennebecasis, but is said to find still greater attractions amid the bosky dells in the neighborhood of the Cedars. That is what the captain and crew alleged, and their veracity is not to be questioned. On the Dream on Saturday was a gentleman who owns an orchard in the Okanagan Valley in British Columbia. It developed that he knew a relative of the Times man at Sicamous Junction, the entrance to the far-famed fruit region of the Pacific. A chat about the weather and the near prospect of rain led the orchard owner to observe that it never rains in the Okanagan in summer, and it is necessary to resort to irrigation. One season, however, the water supply gave out and disaster was threatened. Just when the outlook seemed utterly hopeless, he said, a heavy fall of rain occurred, and saved the situation. It was worth a great deal of money to the fruit growers that season. And rain came here on Saturday evening. It began before the Dream left Indian town at eight o'clock, and before she was into Grand Bay all the passengers sought shelter from the outer deck. They had to sit close, for there were many of them. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Busted of New York, en route to a cottage near Carter's Point. They formerly owned a fine house at Public Landing, and their son and his bride spent their honeymoon there last summer. "And he called me up last week," said Mr. Busted, "to tell me I am now a grandfather." The lure of the St. John river brings these American visitors back year after year. Another passenger on the Dream was a gentleman who with his wife had motor-ed from Rumford Falls, Me., to St. John, by way of Bangor and who will return by the St. John valley, Woodstock and Hamilton. On her return from the Cedars this morning the Dream was crowded, so many people find her a convenience after a week-end along the river. For example twenty-five people got on board at Public Landing. They were in St. John by eight o'clock. The Dream will not go up river tonight, as some repairs are necessary, but she will probably go tomorrow night, and on Wednesday will begin two daily trips between the Cedars and St. John. Capt. Taylor, her owner, hopes in this way to give tourists an opportunity to spend a day on the river, as well as to accommodate local people. The rain on Saturday night and late yesterday afternoon and last night was of immense benefit to the crops. It will cause the grass to thicken up considerably before haying time, and give the grain and vegetables a better growth. The following is given as an unofficial final standing of parties in the new provincial legislature: Government 21, Labor 11, Farmers and Independents 11, Conservatives 10, deferred 2. Contending that the big poll for labor throughout the province was a clear protest against continued incarceration of the convicted Winnipeg strike leaders, a resolution unanimously passed last evening at a meeting of the election committee requested that the men be released at the earliest possible moment. A copy will be mailed to Ottawa. The question of running a Labor candidate at the Pas in opposition to Hon. Ed. Brown was left over for the provincial executive to deal with on Wednesday night. It is now said that the Cadet camp to be held at Sussex will start on July 18. About 300 boys are expected to be from St. John. The camp was to have been started today, but the delay has commanded the largest single group in the new legislature, but he cannot carry on which have to go through military headquarters.

The members of the Franklin baseball team were entertained on Friday evening by Manager Brandie at the home of Mrs. McBree, 188 Mecklenburg street. Supper was served, after which speeches were made by Messrs. Tynes, Gay, Diggs, Price and Brandie.

Licked Again.
Charlie Tilley's baseball stars chopped another great big chunk of the kudos of the Telegraph-Times aggregation on the East End diamond on Saturday afternoon, when they trimmed them to the tune of 12 runs to 1. It was a close shave from a whitewashing, as the scribe's lone tally was registered in the last session of the ninth inning.

Outside of a couple of sloppy innings, good snappy ball prevailed, the nine innings being played in one hour and fifteen minutes. The third, fifth and eighth were disastrous innings for the newspapermen, the collectors of duties found the ball and this, added to a few costly errors, netted eleven of their dozen scores. Tilley heaved the whole game for the custom house aggregation and although the sphere was hammered quite freely, he had a great crowd of fielders behind him. He struck out three and walked one.

Thompson started on the mound for the writers and in five innings fanned six of the opponents and donated the first sack to two. He was relieved by McEachern at the beginning of the sixth. "Henry" was in good shape and six of the enemy failed to negotiate his benders and none of them got a free passage. His supporters, however, were not at their best.

The teams lined up:
Customs House—W. Lanyon, catcher; L. Yeomans, 2nd base; I. Gorman, 2nd base; H. Kerr, centre field; T. Morrissey, 1st base; I. Cameron, shortstop; A. C. Tilley, pitcher.
Telegraph-Times—McLeod, 3rd base; Watts, shortstop; Maxwell, left field; Sage, centre field; McEachern, catcher; Bartlett, right field; Thompson, pitcher; Smith, 1st base; Lowe, 2nd base.

Score by innings:
Telegraph-Times.....0 0 1 0 4 0-12

Batteries—Tilley and Lanyon; Thompson, McEachern and Smith. Umpires, Stewart and Machum.

After hearty congratulations, the melody for which the park has always been famous was enjoyed and participated in by all. Later refreshments were served and the jolly gathering dispersed.

Committee of Council Recommends a Bituminous Base for Paving

The Cement Shortage—Military Claim is Not Agreed to—Tenders Called for Painting Engine House.

The regular committee meeting of the common council was held this morning with the mayor presiding and all the commissioners in attendance. On account of the difficulty in procuring cement, the committee recommended that the pavement of Prince William street be proceeded with, using a bituminous base instead of concrete.

Commissioner Bullock asked for authority to purchase a section for the air pump on the Governor's Garden. It was decided to call for tenders. The estimated cost is $800 to $900.

Reporting on a claim made by J. B. Dever for $200 for damage done to an automobile belonging to the department of militia, Commissioner Bullock read a letter from the city solicitor which said that after investigating the claim he was of the opinion that the department had no claim against the city. On motion a reply to this effect was ordered sent to Mr. Dever.

Mr. Bullock read a letter from H. A. Porter offering $100 for city lots now leased to T. McAulay & Sonson which the Vulcan Foundry stands, and $50 for a lot adjoining. This was recommended to council.

Commissioner Frink submitted a report from the road engineer recommending the laying of a bituminous base for the Prince William street paving in place of concrete on account of the shortage of cement. This would reduce the requirements of cement from 1,200 to 800 barrels required for the track sections. While the foundation would not be rigid, it would be more easily repaired than concrete. He moved that the work be carried out. This was carried.

Commissioner Frink moved for an order-in-council authorizing him to purchase cement at $4.15 a barrel and asked for authority to purchase 500 barrels at a price not exceeding $3 a barrel. This was passed.

Commissioner Thornton was authorized to call for tenders for painting No. 1 fire station, City road. An application from the Atlantic Motor Sales Co. to install a gasoline tank on their premises, Portland street, was referred to Commissioner Thornton for report.

WEST SIDE WATER EXTENSION IS RECOMMENDED

Commissioner Jones' Resolution Passes Committee—Plans for 36-Inch Pipe to Spruce Lake—Revenue Will More Than Take Care of Cost.

The city this morning took its first step towards the improvement of the west side water system by the laying of a 36-inch concrete pipe from Spruce Lake, when Commissioner Jones' motion that the work be commenced was recommended to council. The work will entail the laying of about 22,000 feet of 36-inch reinforced lock-joint concrete pipe from Manchester's corner to the Lake at an estimated cost of about $387,000.

Mr. Jones said there was a necessity for the work and it should be gone ahead with at once. He read a letter from the Nashwaak Pulp and Paper Company, submitting the following offer: The city to cancel existing contract and make a new one on the following basis: For the first 1,000,000 gallons a day on a basis of $2,000 per annum; anything in excess of this quantity to be paid for at the rate of one-half cent a thousand gallons, the city to guarantee up to 4,000,000 gallons a day.

Mr. Jones said there was ample justification outside the pulp mill requirements for the extension. Commissioner Frink thought that the erection of a stand pipe might protect the areas not now adequately served and that the proposed extension might be carried out when financial conditions might be better.

Commissioner Jones said that the revenue in sight would not only pay for the work and provide a surplus of about $4,000 a year.

Commissioner Jones moved that the work be proceeded with provided a satisfactory arrangement be made with the Nashwaak Pulp and Paper Co., that plans be prepared by the city engineer and that tenders be called for. This was recommended to council.

HAMPTON MASONS IN CHURCH PARADE

Special music was sung by the choir. The first lesson was read by Worshipful Master S. H. Flewelling, after which Rev. Mr. Lawrence delivered an inspiring sermon. "Study to show yourself approved unto God, workmen that need not be ashamed." After the service the members of the lodge in their new regalia formed up outside the church and after marching around the block, proceeded to the hall. This is the first church parade since the outbreak of the war. A representative number of members attended the service.
