PARIS DOCTOR SAYS

Dandruff, Falling Hair is Caused by Microbe - Dr. Sangerbond Proves It.

Dr. Sangerbond is the leading dermatologist of France. To prove his theory that germs cause dandruff, he infected a pig with these microbes and in a short time the hair from the animal's body disappeared.

Parisian Sage, which can now be obtained all over Canada, has an immense sale and is highly recommended by physicians in all parts of the world.

It is just because it is the only preparation of hair tonic that is absolutely sure to kill the dandruff germ.

It is guaranteed to cure dandruff, stop falling hair, or bring scalp in two weeks or money back.

In warm weather it keeps the scalp clean and cool and free from obnoxious odors. Parisian Sage is a pleasant and dainty hair dressing that will put a bewitching charm and lustre into faded and lifeless hair in one week. It is distressing for any woman to have dull, unattractive hair and women so unfortunate should use Parisian Sage.

Parisian Sage comes in large 50-cent bottles at all druggists, and is sold by leading druggists everywhere. "The Girl with the Auburn Hair" is an every-body educated at Liverpool academy, afterward pursuing special courses at the Brooklyn night school, later entered Drake university at Des Moines, where he prepared for the ministry.

"He began preaching at the age of 20, when a student in the west. His first regular pastorate was in Iowa and he has preached successively in Illinois, Indiana, New York, and Minnesota, coming to Maine on account of ill health in 1886. His first pastorate in this State was in Biddeford, afterward going to Bangor and then to Auburn. He was field secretary for the Maine State Mission society for five years. He went west again, but in a few years his health became impaired and he returned to Maine in 1905 and has since been located in this city."

MARRIED IN HALIFAX Miss Mabel Williams and John H. Fullerton were married in Halifax on August 1 by Rev. Mr. Donaldson. The bride is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Williams of Sunny Brae, N. B. and the groom is a marine engineer in Halifax. Mr. and Mrs. Fullerton will reside in Halifax.

EXPERIENCE OF MOTHERHOOD Advice to Expectant Mothers The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother's results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (consultant) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

MATTERS AFFECTING HEALTH IN THE CITY

Important Subjects Taken up At Board of Health Meeting

At the quarterly meeting of the Board of Health yesterday afternoon, Dr. George G. Melvin submitted his report, in which he recommended that all plumbers doing business in the city should be licensed and be made to pass an examination.

In discussing the typhoid fever situation, it was pointed out that there were twenty-five cases in the city at present. Sixteen milk dealers have been reported for doing business without license and legal proceedings will be taken against them. The board also decided to analyze the city water.

An application was made to the board for permission to keep cows in the city, but this was refused until further inquiries could be made.

Miss Sutherland, the nurse in charge of the tuberculosis dispensary, submitted a very satisfactory report.

Dr. Melvin's Report. The quarterly report of Dr. George G. Melvin, medical health officer, was followed by a lengthy discussion. In his report Dr. Melvin gave statistics for the quarter from April to June 30.

Report of contagious diseases for the quarter follows:

Table with columns: Disease, Cases, Deaths, Total. Rows: Diphtheria, Scarlet Fever, Typhoid, Measles, Tuberculosis.

The deaths for the quarter were: Male Female Total. April 1914: 44 30 74. May: 41 37 78. June: 28 28 56.

Corresponding quarter, 1913: 5 14 6 1 28 55. The deaths for the quarter were: Male Female Total. April: 44 30 74. May: 41 37 78. June: 28 28 56.

Still-born, 17; corresponding quarter, 1913, 17. Deaths from intestinal diseases under five years of age, 0; corresponding quarter, 2.

The deaths due to contagious diseases were as follows:

Table with columns: Disease, No. of Cases, No. of Deaths, P.C. Rows: Diphtheria, Scarlet fever, Typhoid, Measles, Tuberculosis.

Dr. Melvin suggested that Chief Inspector Howard had seized 100 pounds of contaminated meat in the market. He also referred to the work of the building inspector who had made 123 calls during the quarter.

The meeting adjourned at a late hour. The chairman, W. Manning Deberry, was not present, owing to illness.

WOMAN FINED $50 Miss Bessie Carter was arrested in Savannah for appearing in Short Skirt and Low-Cut Waist.

Savannah, Ga., Aug. 10 - Recorder John E. Schwarz, fined Miss Bessie Carter $50 for appearing in Savannah's main shopping thoroughfare in a short skirt and low-cut waist. Henry Smoak, her escort, paid $25.

Wife (pleadingly)-I'm afraid, Jack, you do not love me any more-anything, not as well as you used to.

Husband-Why? Wife-Because you always let me get up to light the fire now.

Husband-Nonsense, my love. You getting up to light the fire makes me love you all the more.

EASTPORT BARS BUNNY HUG

After This the Army Will Not Be Available for "Ragging" Manager Announces.

Eastport, Aug. 13.-At last the much discussed turkey trot, tango glide, and bunny hug have receded Eastport and the younger society element are enthusiastic devotees of this form of tripping the light fantastic. At a recent soiree party in the armory, the manager announced that in the future the armory would not be available for social gatherings where this form of dancing was indulged in.

Some of the exhibitions recently given by the dancers in their endeavors to imitate "ragging" of the larger cities, were ludicrous to the extreme and furnished more or less amusement for the more setate members of society who are still content to find pleasure in the more edifying, though now old fashioned waltz, two step and schottische.

INVENTS TIPPING SYSTEM St. Louis Banker Opens Bank Account For a Waitress, and Adds to it When the Service is Good.

St. Louis, Aug. 13.-Lee Moser, a banker, has convinced himself that he takes care of the ideal tipping system. Mr. Moser, who is young and good looking, thought he was so well taken care of by a young woman who waited on him in his favorite luncheonette that he obtained her name and went to the savings department of a trust company and opened a dollar account in her name. He kept patronizing the cafe, and none but the girl with the savings account could wait on him.

He never affronts her with a tip, but when he feels that the service is especially good, a deposit goes to the credit of the waitress.

August Canada Monthly The most curious court in Canada is Colonel Denton's police court which takes care of Toronto's daily grisly of misdemeanors at the rate of nearly 40,000 a year.

The colonel is a very genial, very informal, rather sophisticated old gentleman who takes strong stock in what his eyes and ears tell him, and delivers judgment much as they advise. Some days he tries two cases a minute; sometimes he disposes of four felonies in forty seconds; and in his years as a magistrate he has sent to jail more than 200,000 drunks, disorderly, petty thieves, and the infinite variety of poor creatures who earn their living by their wits in trades for which the underworld - "dummy-chuckers," "slips," "tin-horns," "gay-cats," and so on.

Robson Black draws a vivid picture of the colonel and his court, which he says resembles a vigilance committee more than anything else, and salts the ugly business of police court-work with a pinch of Dickensian humor.

Gouverneur Morris has a story in this issue called "The Scam," which disfigures the left cheek of one of two beautiful sisters, and made queer developments when a lover came wooing in the dusk under Miss Mary's veranda.

Will Inger still continues his stories of old people with "The Doomed," and two discreet maiden ladies who took him in, George T. Parry contributes a detective story called "Crime of the Bangalows."

H. M. Egbert tells why the Sultan Ak did not see Yilda, Kiosk when Shaheer Pasha's victorious army came marching into Constantinople; Grace Hudson How writes a romance of the New Government; and John Arbutnotte recounts some adventures after noon with cancer and gun. B. Chastice, superintendent of Delinquent Children for Alberta, discusses "The Boy-A Social Problem." Robert Ames Bennett's venture serial, "Unwilling Eve," is continued and Roy Abrahams tells something of the work of Ontario in promoting banner-congruizing in southern Ontario. The cover is by Leo B. Blake, and represents dramatically the teaching of a pioneer to his new home.

"I say, mama," said little Tommy, "is it true that when you first met papa you had fallen into the water and he jumped in and saved you?"

"Quite true, my dear," replied mama, with a smile.

"Then I wonder if that's why papa won't allow me to learn how to swim."

Daily Hints For the Cook

FROZEN CUSTARD Moisten two tablespoons of cornstarch with a little cold milk, pour it into one quart of scalding milk, stir until it thickens, then cover and cook for ten minutes.

Beat four eggs until light, add one cup of sugar, add to the thickened milk and cook and stir one minute longer. Remove from the fire, flavor with one tablespoon of vanilla, chill and freeze in the usual manner.

NUT BISCUITS Two cups of flour, half teaspoon of salt, one heaping teaspoon of baking powder, one large tablespoon of butter, cup of chopped nut meats, four tablespoons of sugar, milk to make a soft dough. Sift the flour, salt and baking powder together. Rub in the shortening and nuts chopped very fine, add the sugar and enough sweet milk to make a soft dough. Shape with the hands into small balls, place well apart on greased pans, brush top with milk, sprinkle some of the chopped nuts on top and bake about twenty minutes in a hot oven.

The tops may be covered with water and sugar icing when baked, if desired, or they may be split and jelly put between the halves, but they are delicious just served hot with plenty of butter.

CHICAGO PRAYS FOR RAIN Prayers for rain in the parched region of the west were offered on Sunday in several Chicago churches. During the services the tattoo of showers on the roof testified to the bounty of nature in North Illinois.

Many of the ministers discussed experiences of droughts of other years to show the efficacy of prayer, some of them giving authenticated instances where prayers for rain were answered within a few hours.

SOMEONE SAYS SUGAR REFINERY INSTEAD OF THE CHAMCOOK SARDINE PLANT

Eastport, Aug. 13.-It is rumored that the abandoned sardine plant of the Canadian Sardine Co. at Chamcook is to be converted into a sugar refinery by the stockholders. F. B. McCol, the promoter of the Chamcook business, it is reported, has been looking over a site at Robinson, Me., with a view to establishing a canning industry in that town.

Aunt Sally's Advice to Beauty Seekers K. C. F. says: "My skin becomes so greasy every summer, and this so attracts dust and dirt that I have an awful time keeping my face clean looking. Can you suggest anything?" The method mentioned in reply to Eloise will overcome this condition.

D. N. A. writes: "How can I get rid of crow's feet and wrinkles about the mouth corners?" Use a wash lotion prepared by dissolving 1 oz. powdered scallion in 1-2 pt. witch hazel. The tightness the skin, tending to disappear wrinkles, and its tonic effect is more than temporary.

Eloise says: "My freckles are worse than ever this year, made doubly conspicuous by a pallid complexion. Is there any cure?" Ask your druggist for an ounce of mercuric iodine, apply nightly with warm water. As the wax gradually and harmlessly absorbs the affected cuticle, not only will the freckles vanish, but the new and younger skin which appears will have a healthy color. Probably you will need to continue treatment a week or more.-Wagon's Realm.

WILL GO TO UNION. Rev. W. H. Jackson of Bath, Formerly of Bangor, to Change Denominations. (Bangor Commercial)

Friends in Bangor of Rev. W. H. Jackson, formerly pastor of the Christian Advent church here, will be interested in the following from the Bath Times:-

"Rev. W. H. Jackson, pastor of the Advent Christian church, Middle street, will preach his farewell sermon next Sunday, and will commence his pastorate of the Congregational church in Union, Aug. 16. Mr. Jackson will depart from this city with the best wishes of his many friends.

"While Mr. Jackson changes his denomination, it seems a peculiar coincidence that the man he will succeed, Rev. John C. Lawrence, will retire from the Congregational denomination to become pastor of the Advent church in Presque Isle.

"During Mr. Jackson's pastorate in this city he has done much to build up the little chapel on Middle street and has become very popular among his parishioners, who regret to have him leave the city. He is a native of Liverpool, N. S., where he was born May 1, 1864, son of William Jackson. He was

Why should any other cereal be called "just as good" as

Kellogg's CORN FLAKES

Because Kellogg's is known to be the best and most nutritious cereal on the market—
Because the sale of Kellogg's Corn Flakes is enormous as trade returns will show—
Because another large modern factory, the best and most sanitary in Canada had to be built to take care of our constantly increasing trade—
Because the imitator, knowing these facts and having few selling arguments for his own product thinks to create a market for it by comparing it to Kellogg's;
But--the flavor and the sustaining qualities of Kellogg's Corn Flakes cannot be counterfeited. Sold in big packages at 10c. Look for the signature.

The Seventh Heaven of Delight For Women Comes Now

By J. R. HAMILTON
Former Advertising Manager, Wanamaker's, Philadelphia

BARGAINS, Bargains everywhere! Bargains from the stores to you. Bargains from the factories to the stores.

The great outclearing of merchandise in every line is now at its height.

Remember factories must clear their stocks as well as stores. They must get ready for their new season. Their machinery must get busy, their warehouses must grow empty, to make ready for the new stocks.

Every factory is now offering its products to your stores at the most absurd fraction of the regular cost.

And your stores acting as your agent are buying these products and giving them to you far below the regular price you have always paid.

This is not true of any one line; it is true of all lines.

Literally tons of crockery, dishes and glassware are being unloaded now into the stores of Canada. The factories are taking any price they can get.

This is true of furniture, it is true of rugs and draperies and wall paper. It is equally true of saucepans and pianos.

And in the line of wearables, you find the same effort on the part of the manufacturers to clear their merchandise through our local stores.

Dresses, coats, waists, muslinwear, hosiery, shoes—everything that is made in quantities—everything upon which stock is carried, is being closed out now by factories and stores at wonderful bargain prices.

You will find these bargains advertised in this paper today, scores of them, and they will keep on being advertised here until this merchandise is gone.

At a time like this it is almost criminally careless not to go to the stores and buy.

Turn to your advertising now. See the remarkable bargains that are being offered and make up your mind that whatever else you do you will get your share.

DUTY ON CEMENT IS A SHIELD FOR MUCH INJUSTICE

Should Be Removed to Give Maritime Provinces a Square Deal
OCTOPUS IS ARBITRARY
It Gives Cement Users in This Part of Canada Cause to Think About That $15,000,000 of Water in the Stock—The Remedy.

(Daily Telegraph).
Remembering that the $30,000,000 Canada Cement Corporation includes from $13,000,000 to $15,000,000 of watered stock, why should St. John, and other maritime province towns and cities continue to pay excessive prices for cement and submit to delay and annoyance in getting it while the cement company enjoys a protective duty and boasts of the fact that it only ships cement down this way in order to keep its brand before the public?
There is a general feeling that St. John should have a cement industry and that cement should be made duty free to the maritime provinces have been delivered from their present situation by the establishing of a local cement plant, or until the cement octopus has come to its senses.

The whole subject is of timely interest because of the recent appearance at city hall of an agent of the cement merger and the discussion of a proposal to issue provincial bonds for $1,000,000 for the purpose of constructing cement roads.
It is reasonable to suppose that no bond issue contemplating the use of cement will be seriously considered until the maritime provinces have received some measure of fair play. The government allows cement to go duty free into the Canadian West last fall because of the difficulties experienced by people in that section of the country in securing cement at reasonable prices. There is a similar situation now in the maritime provinces. The company which the Sanford Fleming says includes $15,000,000 of water in its capitalization has said that the cement trade in the maritime provinces is not particularly attractive to them, and manufacturers and contractors in this part of Canada are treated as though the company were doing them a favor in selling cement down here.

The freight rate is high, and the duty makes the company to fix its prices just at a point calculated to keep out English cement which the maritime provinces can get by water. The cement for Campbellton by the carload will cost the same as if delivered in St. John, and if a car is required by a consumer it will be sent to St. John first, and then shipped back to Campbellton, the buyer being subjected to the extra freight.

Immense quantities of cement are now being used in St. John. Mr. Baxter and Mr. Campbell, Chatham, New-castle, and all over Nova Scotia, and still greater quantities will be required during the next year or two, and obviously the situation demands the removal of the duty and that the first step toward a cure is the removal of the duty. There is already on the statute books legislation enabling the government to deal with this matter by order in council, and the maritime provinces are certainly as much entitled to relief as any other part of the country.

What was done in the case of the West provides the necessary precedent. There can be no doubt that any steps taken by this city or province in the direction of securing the removal of the duty would be heartily seconded throughout the territory east of Quebec, for everywhere in this part of the country it is felt that the cement trust has used and is using harsh and arbitrary methods, and that the maritime provinces will suffer steadily until the situation is corrected by the removal of the duty. That is the first useful step.

I was paid by a man who now works in St. John and he is laughing at your investigation. You, and old Brown and Jack Maynes had nothing to do with me, nor don't know me. We went to the mill at

I staid and touched the light about 20 to 11. She went good. I broke the window as girl said but only for to give her air. I had my I on the girl all the time. Now don't blame Old Brown or Jack Maynes as they didn't know me. I got paid by a coroner man and I will not give him away. I am going to States in a day or two.

BOB SMITH.
P. S.—I never set any other fires.

The foregoing letter, presented to the police court by Mr. Baxter, yesterday afternoon when the investigation into the recent fires in the old grist mill was continued, caused some surprise. He said that he thought the letter might be a practical joke, but there was a possibility that it was true in part. Previous to submitting the letter, Mr. Baxter and Mr. Campbell, Chatham, New-castle, and all over Nova Scotia, and still greater quantities will be required during the next year or two, and obviously the situation demands the removal of the duty and that the first step toward a cure is the removal of the duty. There is already on the statute books legislation enabling the government to deal with this matter by order in council, and the maritime provinces are certainly as much entitled to relief as any other part of the country.

SUSPEND THE DUTY The Borden government should do for the maritime provinces what it did for the west to relieve the situation caused by the shortage of cement.

The demand for cement has been increasing very rapidly in these provinces, and it has been extremely difficult for dealers to secure a supply to meet the needs of their customers.

There has been much talk during the last two years about the prospects for the establishment of a cement industry in the maritime provinces; but, although the trust was alleged to be deeply interested in the development of such an industry hereabouts, no practical steps have yet been taken in that direction.

A representative of the cement trust was recently in this city and province delivering addresses on the value of concrete for road-making purposes.

HARD ON SOCIETY

Queen Mary Resurrects Old Rule at the Court Ball — Youthful Lord Wants African Shooting Trip as Birthday Gift

(Times' Special Correspondence)

London, Aug. 2.—As society would not do anything to make the last week of the season gay, the king and queen gave a court ball. But it would scarcely be called a success and has been much discussed. It was intimated that the queen danced no one else must take the floor and as Her Majesty danced nearly every dance, most of the dancing was done by the new etiquette, not knowing what to do. Some who did not comprehend the new etiquette, joined in the dancing but were tipped with a golden wand by Major Crichton, one of the gentlemen ushers, and requested to desert. People could hardly be blamed for not understanding, for the very good reason that it is an old-fashioned rule revived. The present generation of dancers never remembers what took place in the days of the late Queen Victoria or Queen Alexandra, who had long ceased to perform round dances when she came to the throne.

Now and again Queen Mary, who is a really fine waltzer, came back to the dais and then the general guests got their chance. The Battenberg princes looked decidedly bored, as they had so few opportunities of asking any of the pretty girls in society, on whom they are so keen, to be their partners, but Prince Arthur of Connaught had the time of his life dancing every other dance with his fiancée and the big banking firm of Messrs. Baring Brothers, who has been the habit of leading out pretty society women.

By the way, when the Queen honors a man by dancing with him it is she and not he who gives the invitation, and the rule holds good also in the case of princesses. People are saying, if Her Majesty is wise, she will rescind this rule of not allowing any one but members of the royal family to dance when she does.

When Lord Ullingford asked for his grandmother, Mrs. Bradley Martin, the wife of a famous American millionaire, who he would like to marry on his birthday, which took place on July 31, he promptly wrote back from Eton saying, "I don't want to go to Africa to shoot lions and tigers." He is crazy on sport, the passion having been inculcated at Balmoral, where he has such a pal with the gillies. His mother, Lady Craven, believes he is the cleverest boy in the world, and when she is about together, they are always taken by those who do not know them, for brother and sister, and his grandmother more particularly, he is a nice boy and not a bit of a prig or snob. Militant suffragists were sadly in need of an active worker and fighter when Lady Sybil Smith offered money to go to Africa to shoot lions and tigers. She is a daughter of Lord and Lady Antrim and the wife of V. H. Smith, a partner of the big banking firm of Morgan, Grenfell & Co. Since fighting for "the vote" made a wreck of Lady Antrim's Lynton, there was no title woman to fight the police. It would be hard to find a greater enthusiastic suffragist than that she is always ready to do that which she desires.

But the poor old Earl of Antrim, one of the old school, with the Irishman's horror of seeing a woman in the public eye, has been frantic and declares that there ought to be a law by which a man can divorce a wife who is a suffragist. When Lady Sybil was recently arrested in the House of Commons with Mrs. Pethick Lawrence, she was more active in her resistance than any other prisoner, and with her jeweled rings gave the policeman a mark that will be there for some time. She says that she is prepared to die for "the cause" and would rather give up her family than do.

Lord Randolph Churchill

A mutual friend tells me that she has just been visiting Lady Randolph Churchill, and that she is immensely interested in the manner in which Lord Randolph had decorated her rooms with her first husband's photographs, which almost lined the walls. On her writing table were two pictures of him, a miniature and a delightful silver point. In the days when she was Mrs. George West not one of these was to be seen.

My informant says Lady Randolph is about to write a book on matrimony, and though at the moment she is smarting under her recent experiences, it will be very witty and humorous, for even now, when she does speak of certain events of the immediate past her sallies both of wit and sarcasm are highly amusing.

"Work," she says, "that's the only way to cure trouble and to make one forget." The Canadian Teachers

The Canadian Teachers are seeing more of England than the average Englishman and probably the most interesting item in their itinerary was the visit to Eton College on Monday last. There they saw the manuscript of Gray's Elegy, Dr. Johnson's desk and the first edition of his dictionary, and the roll of honor containing the names of nearly 1,500 Etonians who fought in the South African war. Dr. Edward Lytton, the headmaster, welcomed them in a graceful speech, and with Miss Lytton and other members of the staff, took them over the famous playing fields, where they witnessed a cricket match. They were also conducted over the school, the chapel and the college library, and they took tea in the college hall. Dr. Lytton said he could not help thinking that this was one of the efforts being made successfully to bring the inhabitants of the two great countries into closer union of spirit year by year. The problems and outlook of Canada were deeply interesting to them all. When he thought of the immigration of so many races into Canada the questions to which they could foresee no answer were: "How will these races

Our Home and Seat of Empire was the subject of an interesting address given by Sir James Grant in the court house last evening, at which Mayor Frink presided. But few attended. Sir James, in the course of his address, compared the prospects of Montreal and St. John, and said that this port must increase in size and importance exactly in proportion to the port of Montreal which was its complement, and he looked forward to seeing the port of St. John three times as important as it is now, within a few years.

A vote of thanks to the speaker was moved by Senator Daniel, seconded by John Connor.

ECZEMA ITCHED AND BURNED

Until She was Nearly Crazy. Began with Watery Blisters. On Ears, Eyes, Hands and Ankles. Could Not Sleep for Scratching. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

Brunswick St., Fredericton, N. B.—"I had a very bad case of eczema. The trouble began with watery blisters and itched and burned until I was nearly crazy. It was on my ears, eyes, hands and ankles. I could not keep the bed clothes over me at night for the smarting and itching. My ears would swell. I would scratch until the blood would run and then form a scab. I could not sleep at night for scratching. I tried everything I heard of without getting any benefit. I used lots of home remedies, such as lard and sulphur, and also was treated for it. Then I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment and they gave me great ease. I used them about four months and I am happy to say I am never troubled now. The Cuticura Soap and Ointment cured me completely." (Signed) Mrs. A. B. Thompson, Mar. 9, 1912.

The regular use of Cuticura Soap for toilet and bath not only tends to preserve, purify and beautify the skin, scalp, hair and hands, but assists in preventing inflammation, irritation and clogging of the pores, the common cause of pimples, blackheads, redness and roughness, yellow, oily, scaly and other unwholesome conditions of the skin. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are sold throughout the world. Liberal samples of each mailed free with 25-p. Skin Book. Address post card, Boston, U. S. A. Cuticura, Dept. 443, Boston, U. S. A.

WONDERFUL DRUG THAT STIMULATES GROWTH OF HAIR

And Revives Pigment-forming Cells That Give Hair Its Natural Color

Hardly any of us are entirely free from dandruff or other scalp affections. Millions of us, so long as the trouble is slight, do little or nothing to cure the same. Other millions are trying to do something, but getting no results, by applying all sorts of fancy colored and fancy named hair "tonics." You are not likely to get much benefit, if any, by using any preparation that does not contain the one known drug that positively stimulates the growth of hair. The safe and sure way is to mix your own tonic, or go to a reliable druggist and have him mix it for you. Here is a simple formula: 6 cc. ordinary Bay Rum, 2 cc. ordinary Lavona de Compose, 1-2 drachm Menthol Crystals. If you choose, add 1 drachm of your favorite perfume. Apply to the scalp with finger tips, night and morning, to destroy dandruff, to stop falling hair, to cleanse and beautify the hair, and to stimulate the growth of the hair. This treatment is recommended to stimulate the growth of the hair even in cases of complete baldness. If your hair is prematurely gray, try it and see if it will not make the pigment-forming cells active enough to completely restore the natural color. This formula contains no dye or artificial coloring matter, but is designed to make nature produce the natural color in the natural way. Any druggist can supply you with the ingredients or mix the tonic for you.

OUCH!

"It says here that there are 25,000 women in New York who are more than 75 years old," said the Old Fogey. "Well, that's only natural," commented the Grouch.

"How's that?" asked the Old Fogey.

"The chorus girls make New York their headquarters," replied the Grouch.

Bobby (to grandmother)—"Grandma, have you ever seen an engine wagging its ears?"

Grandma—"No; nonsense, Bobby. I heard of an engine having any ears."

Bobby—"Why, haven't you heard of engines?"

AN ELEPHANT'S BATH

The elephant enjoys a bath in the streams and pools of his native habitat, but his lordly brother in captivity finds no such comfort in the bath that from time to time is given him. A trainer thus describes the expensive operation: "It takes a week to carry out the process in every detail. It requires the services of three men and costs $800. This treatment is necessary for a show elephant, and, if the animal is a valuable one, the proprietor of the show does not consider the money wasted."

BASEBALL EXTRAORDINARY WHEN THE SPIANS MEET THE SCRIBES TOMORROW

The fatal day is drawing near. In a few more hours remain before those "cheery" actors will meet their doom. This is of course "spherically" speaking, for the reference is to that big game of baseball to be played tomorrow—afternoon on the Marathon grounds between the Thespians in the cast of "The Pink Lady" and the distinguished literary sports who compose the writing staffs of the local newspapers.

Special honors are to be conferred upon the handsome and youthful athletes composing the news-writers' nine (or possibly there may be more than nine) in that no less than Her Royal Highness "The Pink Lady" herself, Miss Olga DeLangh, is to toss the first ball over the plate. It might possibly be for those poor actor-lads if they'd let her toss 'em all over, for courtesy and chivalry on the part of those many newspaper chaps would surely prohibit their touching her curves, again speaking in the language of the diamond. Miss Moffatt, she of the charming smile, will be in the grandstand and will see what purports to be a ball game for the first time in her life-time, as she is English, and the other ladies composing the pretty and graceful chorus of the company will be on hand to cheer for the boys in pink.

And just think of it! They have had the audacity to announce their line-up. And we haven't even had a chance to think of ours. It doesn't matter much anyhow. If we win, just watch the sporting columns next day, but if we don't win, well—well, that's where we have the advantage.

Here's the line-up of stars, some of whom ascribe their ability to play ball because of the fact that they have read two or three standstill novels. Deery, Merrivell, the all-round athlete, and others to the fact that they used to live near a baseball ground, but the fence was always too high. Litzberg, pitcher; Woodside, Red, catcher; Adams, pitcher; first baseman; Deery, Maurice, second baseman; Mundy, Bebe, shortstop; Wortley, Beverly, third baseman; Travers, Leber, left field; Miller, Moie, right field; Rice, Shanghai, centerfield; Malcolm, John Drew, Bendall, water carrier; Becky, Fernandez, mascot.

Decision for Kid Kennedy
Harry Cones, champion lightweight of New England, sends the Times from Portland, Me., a paragraph to the effect that Kid Kennedy on Friday night met Spike O'Neil in a six round bout and Referee Tom Sawyer gave Kennedy the decision. Cones is Kennedy's manager.

ATHLETIC
Jack Tall set a new Canadian record for three-quarters of a mile at Scarborough Beach on Saturday night when he covered the distance in 1:17.02, the previous record was 1:18. Jack Treanor paced him for practically the whole distance and was leading by about ten yards out twenty yards from the end when he dropped out, and Jack went on and set the new mark.

TROUBLES OF JOCKEYS
Vicarious Attacks by Race Horses and Serious Injuries Inflicted (Pearson's Weekly)
Trouble in the paddock and at the post before a big race is frequently caused by a horse which has taken a sudden and violent dislike to its jockey, and there are numerous cases of well-known jockeys being nearly eaten to death by their mounts.

THE LEAF
The fact that the Toronto team was able to annex only one-half of the twenty clashes staged at the Island Stadium during the last Eastern invasion, shows conclusively that the present aggression under Manager Kelley's management certainly will not do, for it is no secret that unless a team can win the neighborhood of seventy-five per cent of its home engagements, it will not prove a very serious pennant contender.

GOES ON MAKING MONEY
Charles W. Murphy, president of the Chicago National League club, is the best dresser in the game. Murphy is wealthy. He came into baseball on the proverbial shoestring. Now he has much money and he got it all out of baseball.

Through Charles P. Taft, Murphy secured control of the Cubs and Phillips. As the dollars piled up as a result of club's success, Murphy's arrogance increased until he made enemies of almost every newspaper man who had as close contact with him.

His dismissal of Frank Chance and Mortimer Brown, two men who more than any others were responsible for his large fortune, brought down upon Murphy's famous green hat the wrath of the fans. An effort to buy him out failed, and he continues the stormy petrel of the baseball game.

Murphy revels in and strives for newspaper publicity. He realizes that every bit of advertising he gets is money in his pocket, and although some of the things said about him would make a paralytic fight, Murphy has never permitted his personal feelings to interfere with the golden stream at the box office.

The Scouts
Fort Wayne, Ind., Aug. 12.—Major League scouts are finding the Central League a profitable hunting ground and are buying the best players right and left, without waiting to take chances in the draft. In the present race of purchases, it is estimated that few players of major league caliber will remain when the Central League season closes, four weeks from now.

Central League team owners are doing all they possibly can to encourage the scouts to watch their men in action, for, on the sale of young players, depends most of the earnings for the managers. While the average attendance of the six cities of the league has been better than ever before, gate receipts will not amount to more than pay expenses, and the owner must look to the sale of players to make his profit.

A few of the players that have been taken recently from the ranks of the Central League are catcher Hargrove to the Chicago Americans, from Terre Haute; Pfeiffer to Brooklyn, from Grand Rapids; Plack and Kroy, to the New York Americans, from Terre Haute; Fabrice and Tutewiler, to Detroit, and Bowman to Cleveland, from Grand Rapids.

Braves Buy Second Baseman
Waco, Tex., Aug. 12.—Oscar Duguey, second baseman of the Waco, Tex., League, team and leading base runner of the league, was sold this week to the Boston Nationals to report at the end of the Texas League's season. The consideration is said to have been $2,000.

Marathons and Fredrickson Have Made Their Gains by Defeating the Other Teams—The Record to Date
It might be interesting at this time of the New Brunswick and Maine League race when the teams are standing the main for their last sport for the pennant to analyze the strategy of the teams and to show how many games each team has won and lost to each of the others.

The Marathons, who are in the lead are credited with 83 victories. Of these 19 have been won by Bangor, eight by the other two teams combined. Neither Plank nor Bender has been used to working often. Bender has appeared only once in the last week, and almost every other day this season, a remarkable performance for him. If he were to work with his system of using his two veterans in parts of games, and I see no reason why he should not, the greatest achievement of his baseball days, in my opinion, it was because of the Marathons, who are in the lead. Bangor has taken six victories from Bangor as the other two teams combined. The Marathons' losses now number 28. St. Croix is credited with the greatest number of wins over the local team, having secured nine, Fredrickson comes second with eight, and Bangor not far behind with seven.

Fredrickson is now second in the league standing. They have likewise taken a large number of games from Bangor. In the other two teams, Bangor has been at the expense of the Maine team; they have taken ten games from St. Croix and eight from the Marathons, ten of their twenty-three losses have been to St. Croix, eight to St. John and only five to Bangor.

St. Croix has up to date won an almost equal number of games from each team, ten of the Borderites' victories were secured from Fredrickson, nine from St. John and strange to say, but at least number, eight, from Bangor. St. Croix has dropped twenty-five games so far, eleven to St. John, ten to Fredrickson, and four to Bangor.

Bangor's fifteen victories look scarce alongside the other teams from Bangor, a very large part of them have been secured in the last few weeks. Bangor has taken most of her games from Fredrickson and four from St. Croix. The forty-one losses are divided as follows: Nineteen to St. John, fourteen to Fredrickson and eight to St. Croix.

The late John H. T'wachman, a well known landscape painter, was essentially an "artists' artist," in that his style appealed more to his colleagues of the art world than to the lay public. Any one familiar with the man and his work would say that the following incident which is related of him might easily be true. A man who had bought one of the artist's paintings wished his opinion on the hanging of the picture and invited him to dine. Mr. T'wachman expressed his approval of the background, of the height at which the canvas was hung, pronounced the light favorable—in fact, he said, there was only one particular in which he would suggest any change.

"And what is that?" inquired his host. "Why," said the artist, "I should hang it the other side up. I always have."—Everybody's Magazine.

A motorist fell this one on himself. Trying out a new car on the road between Cedar Grove and Great Notch, he stepped to pick up an old farmer who looked as if he might like a ride and who admitted that it was his first experience in an automobile. The machine was hitting a pretty good clip when it skidded on a soft spot and ran into a tree. Nobody was hurt, but as the rickety pulled himself up he said to the motorist:

"Well, that was going some. But say, mister, there's one thing I'd like to ask you. How do you stop one of these contraptions where there ain't no trees?"

to come into his stable, and on one occasion when two of the "gyces" came in together to try to groom him he bit off one man's arm completely at the elbow whilst the other only escaped with a badly lacerated ear. After that, while stable boys from England had to be especially imported to look after him.

"Gyces," which became "gyges" through ill health some time before he died, wore a muzzle and the stable-boy was paid extra to look after him.

The Giants in a Slump; What McGraw Says About It

By JOHN J. MCGRAW, Manager of the Champion Giants. (Copyright, 1913, by John J. McGraw)

The Quakers have done well on this trip west and have surprised me by their tenacity in holding on. When they had their slump and lost ten out of eleven games, I figured the team to be in for the season. Dootin deserves great credit for having kept his club in the race after the discouraging slide, and I think it is in the race yet. Dootin, however, has to depend largely on two pitchers, and he is forced to overwork these.

The strain will begin to tell on the club again, too, and I look to see it run into another slump when the westerners visit the east. I do not think the Quakers can possibly hold their present pace for two months more.

It was recalled that last year the Cubs crawled up to within fewer than four games of us in the latter part of August. But we were able to stand them off and finally came through. The Cubs have always been strong against my team, whereas the Giants appear to have a slight edge over the Phillies. We still have eight games to play with the Phillies, one series in each city. If it comes down to a final day, we should win out on these games. Therefore, we are not worrying so much about the Quakers as if we were the Cubs who were crowding us.

Understand, I am not blaming either Birmingham or Lajoie, because I do not think any of the merits in baseball to be a trouble maker. I am criticizing no one since I do not know who was the trouble maker in this instance, if there was one. For a long time there has been bad feeling between the Philadelphia and Cleveland clubs, and I think it is well to permit to exist on my club, and I would get rid of the greatest star in the world if I could.

year in the sea, but periodically ascend large rivers, and it was due to this characteristic that the specimens were caught recently in the River Delph. Not only do they attain great size and weight, but, according to the estimates of some experts, they sometimes live as long as 200 years. Apropos of the fact that Edward II. made the sturgeon a royal fish, it is interesting to note that the flesh, quite apart from the fact that caviare is made from the roe, is always held in great estimation, and in older days was always reserved for the table of the king. Lionel Giles, who has just taken his doctor's degree in Chinese at Oxford, is the first man in the history of that institution to earn such a degree. It has hitherto been granted only as an honorary degree.

A wonderfully attractive story of well sustained human interest, introducing some extremely clever mechanical contrivances, superb scenic, splendid photography, and fine quality acting. The character of the miser is strongly portrayed. The sensibility, cupidty, and heartlessness of the money mad man are drawn with artistic touches; his suspicious nature, too, is impressively revealed, and his tigher light for the preservation of the secret that protects his millions is most realistic. It is a most enthralling film and will hold you in its grip, from beginning to end.

NOT ANXIOUS.
Inquiries as to the whereabouts of James Hayes, who is reported to be missing, were made at his home, 29 Charndon street, this morning. His relatives said that there was no cause for anxiety as Mr. Hayes works away from home most of the time and it is not unusual for him not to write home, so that he might go from one place to another without their knowledge. Consequently they are not at all uneasy about him.

ATTEMPTS TO END HIS LIFE IN CELL

Gallagher Released Only Yesterday, Re-arrested, Tries to Hang Himself

Released yesterday morning, re-arrested last night, and later found hanging in his cell in an attempt at suicide, was the series of incidents through which James Gallagher passed yesterday.

Gallagher had just finished a term for drunkenness, working in the chain gang. The result was that he ended up in Union Station and was taken back to jail.

Between three and four o'clock this morning when he began to realize what had happened, despondency at the prospect of serving another two months in jail came over him and he attempted to hang himself with his suspenders. Fortunately the night watchman happened upon him in time to prevent him carrying out his intention, but his condition was so serious that Dr. D. E. Berryman was summoned to relieve him.

This morning Gallagher presented a dejected appearance in court as the result of yesterday's escapades. He was given a remand until tomorrow.

SOUTH END SITE FOR I. C. R. CAR YARDS

Matter Before Commissioners Today—South Side of King Square May Be Paved

The matter of relieving the situation in regard to shipments of lumber, delivery, etc., was discussed at noon today at the meeting of the commissioners, when Frank Williams, representing the matter, submitted a copy of a letter from Mr. Gatlus, of the I. C. R., showing that they were prepared to make a triangular space for storage of cars, but the expense in connection with it would have to be placed in next year's estimates.

They asked the city to lay down a spur in Charlotte street. The space in question is that originally given to Mr. Durant, of sugar refinery note, but which is now in the possession of the Dominion government. The letter was given to Commissioner Agar for consideration.

There was also a discussion of the by-law relating to the hauling of long pieces of timber through the streets, which it was said was being violated. Most of the complaints were made by the length of a stick of timber according to an unofficial record is supposed to be not more than twenty-five feet, if it is to be taken through the city streets.

The possibility of having the south side of King Square again came before the commissioners, when B. L. Gerow discussed the question, appearing as executor of the Robertson estate. It would look from what was said at the meeting that if the estate has already too advanced, that there may be a possibility of the south side yet being paved. It would be a marked improvement.

SOME OF THE INCREASES FOR MEN OF THE I. C. R.

The Halifax Recorder says—It was reported in the city today that the I. C. R. dispute had been settled and that the agreement had been signed by both the management and the employees.

The following are some of the increases in the pay allowed the employees:

Laborers in all departments get two cents an hour increase; hand-tenders will receive a substantial increase in their monthly pay; station porters at various stations along the line will receive a raise totaling about $4.50 a month each; station janitors have also been well looked after, and will receive worth while increases in salary; all freight shed foremen, foremen car checkers (senior and junior), transfer shed foremen, baggage master (station) and the assistants, railway ferrymen (including all classes of men employed on the St. John at Point Tupper and Mulgrave), will also receive good increases in pay.

Locomotive wipers, fire builders, asphalt men, asphalt inspectors, etc., are all mentioned for increases in the new agreement. It is also understood that the charge hands of coal shovellers, as well as the men themselves, will receive substantial increases of pay.

Crossing watchmen, car checkers and so forth, have all been granted liberal increases of pay, as have also been the conductor, dining and sleeping car crews. In connection with the sleeping car men, it might be mentioned that rules have been adopted giving these men much better treatment than they formerly received. In the past it has been the custom for the railway to provide rooms at lay-over points for the crews of the diners, but the sleeping car crews have had to sleep in their cars. Under the new arrangements the same accommodation will be provided for sleeping car men at lay-over points as it is now accorded the dining car men.

A rule has also been adopted whereby a man doing relief duty shall receive the full rate of pay of the person relieved, from the time he takes up relief duty, providing that the pay is higher than that already being received by the relieving man. Formerly the reliever received the full rate of pay until he had held the relief position for some time.

All increases of pay will date back to March 21, and should give the men a handsome addition to their regular checks next month. In regard to the matter of the "confidential clerks" controversy, it is understood that all but those men employed in the general manager's and superintendent's offices have been included in the schedule. It is understood, further, that the men are well satisfied with the agreement reached.

ASSAULT ON EAST END BALL GROUNDS CHARGED

Caretaker Has Two in Court And Tells His Story

Two young men named Orr and Tobin were in court this morning charged with assaulting Edward Graham on the East End League grounds on last Friday. Graham said that Orr had been carrying down the wire screen in the grandstand on the East End League grounds and as caretaker he had intervened. Orr and his friend Tobin, both of whom, he said, had been drinking, had then turned on him, made threats and Orr had struck him. Afterwards they had entered a stable where he was in charge and had smashed a carriage.

The case was stood over until tomorrow morning for other witnesses to be in hand. Both the defendants were allowed to go on depositing $20 each.
