Regina Made Prince of Wales Feel at Home During Two Days Stay in City

At twelve minutes to three o'clock on Saturday afternoon the Royal train pulled into the Union Station at Regina and the Prince of Wales who had been awaited eagerly by thousands alighted from the platform of the last car to pay his visit to the capital of the province. It was an ideal weather after the dark cloudy days we experienced during the week.

The prince shook hands with the officials who were present to greet him and for a few minutes talked with the Lieutenant-Governor, Premier Martin, Mayor Black and Commissioner Perry. He started for his carriage, and as he appeared on the south side of the station, thousands who lined the route of procession cheered continually. The R.N.W.M.P. escort under Inspector Caulkin headed the parade.

At every point all along the route the Royal visitor was cheered to the echo. Here and there a veteran would be heard above the crowd yelling "Good Old Prince" and immediately the prince would turn in the direction whence the voice came and shake his hands. He had a smile for everybody, and appeared to be interested in everything that was going on around him. When the royal party reached the Parliament building grounds ten thousand Regians shouted themselves hoarse. Above the din could be plainly heard the thousands of children to the east of main entrance. This particular section made a splendid impression with the members of the royal party who stated this was a unique feature. All the children had little flags which they waved for fully five minutes commencing from the time the prince stepped out of his carriage until he had mounted the platform at the main entrance.

No more beautiful setting for the ceremonies incident upon the Saskatchewan government's and the City of Regina's welcome to His (Continued on Page 4.)

Anti League Senator Nearly Mobbed

ARDMORE, Okla., Oct. 5.—United States Senator James A. Reed was egged from the stage at convention hall tonight as he was being introduced by the mayor in preparation for his speech against the treaty and League of Nations.

The crowd, more than 6,000 strong, went wild as Reed came on the stage, and all light wires to the building were cut. Pandemonium broke loose and cries of derision howled him down, while the audience surged upon the stage. Reed attempted to hold the floor for a few minutes but was forced to make his exit without beginning his speech.

After several minutes of the demonstration a number of women climbed upon the stage and quieted the crowd.

Serious Rioting At Gary

GARY, Ind., Oct. 4.—Serious rioting broke out late today when thousands of steel strikers and others hurled bricks and stones, fought the police, deputy sheriffs and city firemen, injuring probably scores. The local company of militia was notified by city officials to be in readiness for duty.

No shots were fired. The fighting spread virtually all over the south part of the city.

The local hospitals were soon filled with the injured and the city jail, too, was filled with men arrested.

The fighting was of a fierce nature between the squads as well as between individuals, and spread rapidly.

Germans Have Recalled Baltic Forces

PARIS, Oct. 5.—Germany has delivered to General Dupont, commander of the inter-allied mission at Berlin, a memorandum declaring that it has recalled General von der Goltz, commander of the German troops in the Baltic provinces and Lithuania and has stopped pay, supplies and munitions to the German troops there, and is doing everything possible to bring about the withdrawal of the German soldiers in accordance with the demand of the supreme council.

The memorandum insists that Germany has exhausted its means of coercion and requests the appointment of an allied commission to visit the Baltic provinces and verify this fact.

Dominion Parliament in Special Session

Private members' day in the commons on Sept. 29 was productive of debate on several topics, including the conduct of the operations of Canadian forces in France, treatment of returned soldiers and the length of speeches in parliament. In the evening, government business was taken up and the resolution on which the bill relating to the civil service classification is based, was passed.

Retraining and employment of former members of the Canadian forces were the problems before the special committee on bill number ten, on soldiers' civil re-establishment on the same day. The committee held three sessions, and the employment question held attention most of the day.

Private employment bureaus and other organizations, which draw a certain amount of labor from the existing government bureaus, make conditions much harder to handle. Bryce M. Stewart, of the employment branch of the federal department of labor, stated. He outlined the conditions in the various provinces and said that on the whole the prospects for this winter in regard to employment were such that in a normal year they would not cause any anxiety.

There is, however, an apparent uneasiness in every mind, and this would cause people to feel somewhat more anxious than usual.

The committee was told that there are over 30,000 returned soldiers in the Dominion who are at present unemployed.

Mr. Stewart felt there was bound to be considerable unemployment on the Pacific coast this winter, but could give no estimate of the men who would be out of work. In Alberta the situation has improved and instead of men leaving the province there is an influx. The coal mines are absorbing many men. Saskatchewan was able to hold her own; Manitoba has had a good crop this year, but Winnipeg always has a certain amount of unemployment.

Agriculture and cognate interests were the focus in the commons on Sept. 30. Sir George Foster's resolutions on which are based bills to continue in force for a time after declaration of peace the wheat board and the board of grain supervisors, and the bills respecting salaries of the members of the board of commerce, afforded agricultural representatives an opportunity to put forward their views.

In connection with Sir George's resolution, the minister dealt with fixing the price of Canadian wheat, emphasizing the point that while the Canadian farmers will receive anything above the fixed price of $2.15, the United States farmers will receive the fixed price only. He held out the hope that there would be a considerable market opening for the Canadian product. The discussion developed into a criticism of Canadian millers rather than the measures under discussion. Donald Southland and others claimed that millers, by supplying farmers with adulterated cattle feed, are doing untold damage to agriculture in Canada. When the board of commerce bill came up for second reading the attacks on W. F. Connor, the assistant chairman, broke out anew.

Donald Southland declared that if the board continues to make such rulings as it has made, the movement from the country to urban circles will be aggravated. Referring to Mr. Connor's statement that his hands were tied, Mr. Southland offered the observation that "he was not fettered." Frank Glass thought the members of the board should demonstrate their efficiency and fitness for their duties before their salaries are fixed at the figures proposed.

R. L. Richardson asked the house to give the board a chance to make good. The situation demanded action and the government had done right in naming the board. He thought the farmers were trying to stand pat with their constituencies.

S. W. Jacobs defended the board, expressing the view that it is doing good work.

The bill was given third reading.

Mr. Robb said that the experience of the last two years had shown that the government had not been able to handle wheat to better advantage than commercial bodies trained in the work. There was another feature of the way in which the government had handled the grain and that was the preference which the Grain Corporation gave to the exportation of grain, rather than to products of grain. The government was doing everything possible to smother and destroy milling. Mr. Robb instanced a case where, he said, the government had undertaken to sell wheat to Greece. After making the sale, the government could not get the wheat and commandeered one half of the wheat in the millers' hands in Canada. The result was that less and shorts went up in price.

Dark Cloud on European Horizon Still Present

D'ANNUNZIO IS PLAYING WITH MATCHES—PEOPLE OF FIUME STARVING

FIUME, Oct. 3.—"I consider myself in a state of war with Jugoslavia."

Gabriele D'Annunzio thus spoke from the municipal palace of Fiume, Monday. He announced that measures had been adopted to meet any attack from the enemy. Troops had been sent to the first line of reserves, ready to answer any need. Thus far the Italian Red Cross had not appeared on the scene for the purpose of giving assistance to those within the city if necessary.

The national council of Fiume has sent a message to Foreign Minister Tittoni protesting against the blockade of Fiume, declaring it is bringing about starvation in the city.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—To allow Italy's claim to Fiume, solely on the basis of its forcible occupation by D'Annunzio's irregular troops, in the opinion of members of the supreme council in Paris, would involve recognition by the entente of Rumania's claims in Hungary; Greece's claims to large portions of Turkey and even possibly Germany's claim to rich portions of western Russia. It is felt that admission by the council of the right of any nation to seize territory regardless of pledges to refrain from aggression, would be regarded as tantamount to an abandonment of the basic principles upon which the peace conference was assembled and as threatening a permanent peace.

Plans already are being considered, it became known here today, to apply strong pressure to bringing about a termination of the dispute over the Adriatic question, as well as in other cases where trouble has arisen jeopardizing the authority of the supreme council and threatening to set at naught its decisions founded upon powers conferred by the armistice and peace treaty.

In Italian circles, it is reported that President Wilson has rejected the proposal of handing Fiume to Italy and has threatened an economic boycott, if Italy persisted in holding Fiume without an agreement having been reached among the powers.

PARIS, Oct. 5.—New appeals for prompt action "to save Fiume from ruin" have been laid before the peace conference and representations also will be sent to United States Senator Lodge by Ruggierio Gothardi, who claims to represent two-thirds of the voters of Fiume, and indirectly more than nine-tenths of them.

Signor Gothardi, with Oscar Battefist, his secretary, on Thursday presented the views of the business interests of Fiume to Frank L. Polk, head of American peace delegation, and on Friday went over the situation with Premier Clemenceau. They said they would forward to Senator Lodge complete data on the situation this week.

Gothardi styles himself president of the democratic autonomist party of Fiume.

Signor Gothardi has published a program containing 19 aims for Fiume, including internationalization, universal suffrage, free exports, freedom from international politics, obligatory military service and other reforms. He lays emphasis in his statement that domination by Italy or Jugoslavia would be equally bad, alleging that the former would absolutely ruin commerce, while the latter would create a dangerous situation.

General Offensive Against Bolsheviki

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 3.—The order of the day for the Russian north-west army on October 2 stated that after some further preparation, a general offensive against the Bolsheviki would begin, large quantities of provisions and war supplies having been received from England and the United States.

"The enemy," it was added, "has been driven into the marshy districts, where he must perish or surrender."

Denikine's Advance
LONDON, Oct. 3.—The outstanding events of the week in South Russia is the rapid advance of General Denikine beyond Kursk, while he has been continuing progress on the rest of his front. He is now only about 240 miles from Moscow, where, it is rumored, martial law has been proclaimed owing to fear of raids. Admiral Kolchak also continues to make progress. The Bolsheviki have evacuated to Bolsk.

Give Big Ships To Beat Bolshe
PARIS, Oct. 3.—The supreme council has decided to hand over to Gen. Denikine, operating against the Bolsheviki, the battleship Volia, which had been sequestered by the British navy in the Black Sea.

The Volia, a super-dreadnought of the latest class, displacing 22,435 tons and carrying twelve 12-inch guns, has shared the checkered career of the Russian Black Sea fleet since the outbreak of the Russian revolution.

French Chamber Ratifies Peace

PARIS, Oct. 2.—The chamber of deputies today ratified the German peace treaty by a vote of 372 to 53.

The chamber then took up the treaties between France and the United States and France and Great Britain.

The Franco-American and Franco-British treaties were unanimously ratified.

A total of 501 votes was cast for the two treaties.

Great Railway Strike Settled

LONDON, Oct. 5.—With dramatic suddenness in the quiet of the London Sunday afternoon, it was announced that the great railway strike, which appeared to have brought the country almost to the brink of revolution, was settled and that the strikers would resume work as quickly as possible.

The terms of the settlement are in the nature of a compromise.

ing resulted in the death, from asphyxiation, of an entire family, Peter Cardinal, his wife and five children, at his residence, 542 Riverside street.

Sheep for Saskatchewan

J. G. Robertson, Live Stock Commissioner for Saskatchewan, is leaving shortly for Ontario and the Eastern States to purchase extra choice rams and ewes for Saskatchewan farmers who wish to improve their flocks. In order to assist the farmers of the province in making a start with sheep and to increase the number of sheep in the Province, the Saskatchewan Department of Agriculture has purchased nearly two thousand young grade range ewes and these are now offered for sale on cash or credit terms. It is estimated that about two thousand more will be purchased to fill the demand from farmers in various parts of the province. No ewes older than four years will be purchased.

In addition to these grade ewes, about two hundred Lincoln-Merino cross bred ewes have been purchased for resale, and the live stock commissioner hopes to be able to get some very choice pure bred breeding stock on his trip to the east. About 30 choice Shropshire ewes, a few of these imported, will be purchased by Mr. Robertson, with some choice Leicesters and Oxfords, and orders will be filled if possible for sheep growers who send their orders in to the Live Stock Branch of the Saskatchewan Department of Agriculture, for choice pure bred ewes or rams. All farmers wishing to buy sheep either grades or pure bred, should communicate with the Live Stock Commissioner, and their orders will be wired to him while he is on his buying tour in the east.

portion as he buys Victory Bonds will the desired aim be realized. The Victory Loan campaign, moreover, exercises a Canadianizing influence on the foreigner. The individual foreigner who buys Victory Bonds takes a big step in the direction of becoming a thorough Canadian. He proves his faith in Canada as the best country in which to live and work and in the great and strong country which she will become in the future. By investing in Canada the foreigner shows that he is quite satisfied with the conditions and that he intends to stay. In the United States leading bank experts estimate that over a million and a quarter foreigners are about to leave that country and return home, taking with them savings amounting to something like four billion dollars. The foreigners in Canada cannot do better with their savings than to lend them to the country in which they enjoy freedom and contentment and in which they are making money. Victory Bonds are the best means for concentrating wealth in the hands of the people who make it and who may be relied on to make Canada a great and prosperous nation.

OUR ORGANISED GRAIN GROWERS

Member Asks About Pending Liberty Drive

Advised to Post Himself on Affairs of Movement Before Entering Complaints.

"Sorrow is wrought, for want of thought, as well as from want of heart," is a saying, which ought to be improvised to read: "Trouble is wrought from want of thought, more than from want of heart."

Some thing of the latter nature is to hand in a communication received at the central office from a grain growers secretary in the federal constituency of Assiniboia. In discussing the approaching Liberty Drive, the writer says: "We received some volumes of printed matter, and the information contained therein was to the effect that an official, or some other commodity would be heard from later with more minute details, etc., etc., but like the cat, he never came back. I am told that there was some sort of dog-banging or display of air force at Carlyle.

are justified in inferring that it is because you have not taken the trouble to read what has been sent you."

"In the first place this movement is not being carried on by the association, a separate body having been elected by the constituency executives for the purpose, therefore, there is no reason why an attempt should be made to confine it to members only of the Grain Growers' Association, nor would it be at all wise to so confine it. If the movement is to succeed it must comprise all who are in favor of the farmers or members of the association or not. If the farmer wish to have the principles of the Farmers' Platform put into effect are they to turn around to others and say: 'We will not allow you to help us. Surely it will be far better to say: 'Come over and help us,' and that is what they are doing.

Now nearly all our members south of town are in Assiniboia, and different ones have been asking me regarding what was being done. Now just when the convention is called we hear of several "d—good grits" going from this side of the mountain to represent the Grain Growers' element at Carlyle. And behold, in search of the records we do not find so much as five dollars from the whole outfit contributed in membership in the last ten years. I tried to get some real members to go down but they said "to h— with the outfit." If they do not let us know "where we are at" from central, we have no right to but in. "Where are we at?"

P.S.—Members tell me of a man soliciting donations that does not even belong to our association.

"We are in receipt of your communication of the 25th inst. with respect to political action, for which we thank you. Since receiving your letter we have verified the fact that your local is on our mailing list, and that being the case you must have received all the literature which has been sent out from this office dealing with this matter. If, therefore, you are not up-to-date with respect to this movement we

THIS WEAK, NERVOUS MOTHER

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Health.

Philadelphia, Pa. — "I was very weak, always tired, my back ached, and I felt sickly most of the time. I went to a doctor and he said I had nervous indigestion, which added to my weak condition, kept me worrying most of the time — and he said if I could not stop that, I could not get well. I heard so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound my husband wanted me to try it. I took it for a week and felt a little better. I kept it up for three months, and I feel fine and can eat anything now without distress or nervousness." — Mrs. J. WORTHMAN, 2842 North Taylor St., Philadelphia, Pa.

The majority of mothers nowadays overdo, there are so many demands upon their time and strength; the result is invariably a weakened, run-down, nervous condition with headaches, backache, irritability and depression — and soon more serious ailments develop. It is at such periods in life that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will restore a normal healthy condition, as it did to Mrs. Worthman.

their grits and their torisms in the face of a common enemy. That is where the hope of this movement lies, that all classes are willing to drop their past party affiliations and unite their forces for the common good. May we not count on your people to do the same? Never mind for the time being whether a man is a member of the association or not; if he is helping to defeat the objects of those who are exploiting members and non-members alike, join forces with him. You may be sure he will be given the opportunity eventually of coming inside the association and we do not think he will refuse when the matter is put squarely up to him.

"You ask 'Where are we at?' the answer, you are 'at' just the point where you have placed yourselves, and from now on you MAY be wherever you care to put yourselves on this question. If you are in favor of the Farmers' Platform, some copies of which we send you herewith, come in with those of us who also are believers in it; if you are not in favor of it, then do not complain."

CHAPTER IX. An Item Added to the Family Register.

That first moment of renunciation and submission was followed by days of violent struggle in the miller's mind, as the gradual access of bodily strength brought with it increasing ability to embrace in one view all the conflicting conditions under which he found himself. Feeble limbs easily resign themselves to be tethered, and when we are subdued by sickness it seems possible to do to fulfill pledges which the old vigor comes back and breaks. There were times when poor Tulliver thought the fulfillment of his promise to Bessy was something quite too hard for human nature: he had promised her without knowing what she was going to say—she might as well have asked him to carry a ton weight on his back. But again, there were many feelings arguing on her side, besides the sense that life had been made hard to her by having married him. He saw a possibility, by much pinching, of saving money out of his salary towards paying a second dividend to his creditors, and it would not be easy elsewhere to get a situation such as he could fill. He had led an easy life, ordering much and working little, and had no aptitude for any new business. He must perhaps take to day-labour, and his wife must have help from her sisters—a prospect doubly bitter to him, now they had let all Bessy's precious things be sold, probably because they liked to set her against him, by making her feel that he had brought her to that pass. He listened to their admonitory talk, when they came to urge on him what he was bound to do for poor Bessy's sake, with averted eyes, that every now and then flashed on them furtively when their backs were turned. Nothing but the dread of needing their help could have made it an easier alternative to take their advice. (To be continued.)

"No, I know you won't let your poor mother speak... that's been the way all my life... your father niver minded what I said... it 'ud have been o' no use for me to beg and pray... and it 'ud be no use now, not if I was to go down o' my hands and knees—"

"Don't say so, Bessy," said Mr. Tulliver, whose pride, in these first moments of humiliation, was in abeyance to the sense of some justice in his wife's reproach. "If here's anything left as I could do to make you amends, I wouldn't say you nay."

"Then we might stay here and get a living, and I might keep among my own sisters... and niver crossed you from week's end to week's end... and they all say so... I'm saying it 'ud be nothing but right... anly you're so turned against Waken."

"Mother," said Tom severely, "this is not the time to talk about that."

"Let her be," said Mr. Tulliver. "Say what you mean, Bessy."

"Why, now the mill and the land's all Waken's, and he's got everything in his hands, what's the use o' setting your face against him?—when he says you may stay here, and speaks as fair as can be, and says you may manage the business, and have thirty shillings a week, and a horse to ride about to market? Mr. Tulliver had sunk back in his chair, trembling.

"You may do as you like wi' me, Bessy," he said in a low voice; "I've been the bringing of you to poverty... this world's too many for me... I'm nought but a bankrupt—it's no use standing up for anything now."

"Father," said Tom, "I don't agree with my mother or my uncles, and I don't think you ought to submit to be under Waken. I get a pound a week now, and you can find something else to do when you get well."

"Say no more, Tom, say no more; I've had enough for this day. Give me a kiss, Bessy, and let us bear one another no ill-will; we shall never be young again... this world's been too many for me."

Hans Roermann Accidentally Killed

Hans Roermann, eldest son of Johann and Maria Roermann of Zehner, Sask., well known especially among the German speaking population of the province, came to a tragic death on Monday, Sept. 29th, when he was crushed by a binder he was about to repair. Hans was of the age of 21 years when death came and the shock the parents have received through the death of their son is an enormous one. We know that Hans was always a devoted son to his parents, and to miss him must be especially hard for them. Besides the bereaved parents, a brother of the deceased, 19 years old and a sister 17 years old are mourning. Roermann who came to Canada from Hamburg Bremen, Germany, several years ago, where he was conducting a business as building contractor, has had not the best of fortune in this country so far, but he did not lose courage but worked without despair, hoping for a better future especially as he found a source of energy in his children seldom to be seen and apt to finally bring him to the long sought success.

The Courier extends its heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved and hopes that the death of their son as hard as it must have been, will prove to be the dawn of better days in the future. Interment of the deceased took place on Wednesday, October 1, in the Roman Catholic cemetery at Arat, Rev. Boehning of Regina officiating. The burial was attended by a great many people who paid their last respect to the deceased.

Regina Made Prince of Wales Feat at Home During Two Days Stay in City

Royal Highness could have been conceived. The fine white stone building with its beautiful tower formed a noble background for the historic scene. In front, with the platform at the main entrance as the centre piece were ranged the citizens of Regina and Saskatchewan ready to do honor to the heir to the Empire's throne. The young life of the city and the province were well represented, with some three thousand children immediately to the east of the platform and a large number of boy scouts in their picturesque uniform and equipment on the opposite side.

In front of the platform were those who had risked their all in the great war, a solid phalanx of veterans who formed the guard of honor together with their band, and every man with a medal on his breast. There were also there the men who had dared much and who were to receive at the hands of His Royal Highness the little tokens of the country's appreciation of their services. Near by in an honored position were seated the widows and mothers who had given more than all of them in the loss of a son or a husband. Behind them were ranged the nursing sisters and the women who had also done their bit in alleviation of suffering and agony, on the battlefields of Europe.

The Collegiate cadets in their uniform of light khaki lined the sidewalk to the left of the platform. A bright line was lent to the scene by the scarlet splash of the uniforms of the Royal Northwest Mounted police who guarded the approach from the Albert street entrance up to the platform and beyond. These were spaced on either side of the roadway a few feet apart.

Behind the Mounted police on the sidewalk on both sides was a dense mass of spectators, the crowd being greatest opposite the platform where they stretched well back on to the grass behind. To the left, looking out over this view from the buildings, stood the magnificent arch erected by the Saskatchewan government, typifying in its decorations of wheat and oats the wonderful resources of the province's principal industry. Aloft floated a dozen flags of varying sizes. Beyond the arch and the Wascana bridge stretched uphill, ribbon-like, the main link between the city and the government pile, Albert street, crowded with human traffic hurrying towards the scene.

BULYEA CITIZENS PAY TRIBUTE TO DEAD SOLDIERS

The first monument to fallen soldiers of the Great War to be erected in Saskatchewan was unveiled at Bulleya on Sunday afternoon. The memorial, which took the form of a Scotch granite obelisk mounted on a concrete base, cost in the neighborhood of $1,200.

TWO DIE FROM INJURIES

MOOSE JAW. — Both Pat Hayes and Delphas Valerie died here from injuries received last week. Hayes of the day's festivities.

On the platform, silk hatted and black coated, stood the members of the Saskatchewan government and Regina city council and behind them were seated in a semi-circle the wives of the cabinet ministers and of the mayor and aldermen. Above them in the balcony were the invited guests.

The scene was a beautiful one. After the prince had inspected the Guard of Honor, Premier Martin read the address of welcome on behalf of the Saskatchewan Government and the prince replied.

His worship Mayor Black then introduced the Aldermen and read the city of Regina's address, to which the prince also replied.

The prince was then made a life member of the G.W.V.

His Royal Highness took special occasion to visit the three thousand school children. His appearance on the platform opposite their location was the signal for an outburst of cheering and thousands of flags waved their greetings. The prince asked the mayor to give the children a holiday in honor of the event some day next week, and later repeated the request to Mr. Aldridge, acting superintendent of public schools. H.H.H. complimented Mr. Aldridge on the splendid reception which the children of the public and separate schools, the Regina Collegiate Institute, the Regina college and the Normal school had given him, coupling with the hope that they would have an enjoyable day.

On Sunday afternoon the prince visited the Earl Grey Sanatorium, where he had chats with the wardens and patients occupying the same. He went there in civilian clothes and afoot, being recognized by a great many people who were informed of the intention of his visit. He was especially greeted by hundreds of Kiddies from the East End for whom he had a friendly smile.

On Monday afternoon at two o'clock the prince left for a hunting trip to the Qu'Appelle Valley. He promised that he would see Regina again.

SICK HEADACHE Mrs. Della Pinkhard of Ferrum, Va., was suffering with sick headache which appeared regularly every two weeks; a few bottles of Form's Alpenkrauter have entirely cured her. Urge West to Lend Its Wheat Money

POINTED OUT TO FARMERS THAT VICTORY LOAN MEANS TWO-WAY PROFITS

Western grain growers, who are receiving $2.15 a bushel from the Government for their wheat, and good prices also for their products, are being urged to invest as much as possible of their profits in the forthcoming Victory Loan.

The Western farmer who invests in Victory Bonds not only places his money in a sound, profitable security, but puts it out to make more money. The Western farmer will have to look far and wide for a more profitable transaction than the purchase of Victory Bonds.

MANITOBA

RETURNED MEN WANTED FOR LUMBER CAMPS

The Finger Lumber Co. of Le Pas, have notified the Saskatchewan employment bureau, that they want at least 1,500 returned soldiers to go to the Pas country for the winter to engage in lumbering operations, and that they are prepared to pay $75 a month, board and lodging, the men, however, to find their bedding.

In view of the expected unemployment in the cities during the winter A. G. B. Lewis, of the bureau, stated an effort would be made to secure a goodly portion of the required number of men in Saskatchewan.

The company is prepared to build special bunk houses of the modern type and to give the best board obtainable, with all attention to the comfort of the men. If the required number of men can be secured the company is ready to erect a picture theatre for the special amusement of the men during the winter.

PROSECUTIONS WILL FOLLOW OVER-CHARGING IN SUGAR

WINNIPEG. — Prosecution by the attorney-general's department of retailers overcharging on sugar will probably be commenced very shortly.

W. R. Cottingham, deputy assistant attorney-general, stated that a letter warning retailers against infringements of the sugar orders is being sent to the Retail Merchants' association and any violations will be immediately taken up by the department.

ALBERTA

ALBERTA WANTS TO REMOVE THE MANGE "CLOUD" IN PROV.

CALGARY. — Livestock men of Alberta, following a meeting with Dr. Torrance, veterinary inspector of the Dominion, here, decided to petition the Dominion department of agriculture to remove the mange lines entirely, within 30 days, and to enforce a strict quarantine on districts known to be infected with mange, also that quarantined cattle certified to be clean by an inspector, be shipped to market points with clean bills of health.

This is the first step in a campaign to eliminate mange from the province and to remove what the stockmen call the "cloud" of mange regulations from the province.

PRINCE INVESTED WITH THE INDIAN ORDER OF 'RED CROW'

LETHBRIDGE. — The Indians of the Lethbridge district on October 2nd invested the Prince of Wales with the dignity of "Red Crow", the chief of the tribe bestowing on him with tremendous formality the title of "Chief Many Smiles." The order of Red Crow is the highest honor which the Indians can bestow, and the ceremonies were brilliant, reviving ancient glories of redskins in parliament. The post war lasted all afternoon and the prince gave up a big slice of his time in Lethbridge to the ceremony.

OTTAWA

OTTAWA. — The Royal Northwest Mounted Police is to change its name. In the house Mr. Rowell presented a bill to amalgamate the Northwest Mounted Police with the Dominion police to constitute one federal police force. Domion Parliament

In reply to a question by Mr. McKenzie, Sir George Foster said that the guarantees made by the government had not involved it in any expenditure.

MAGIC BAKING POWDER

Contains no alum

We unhesitatingly recommend Magic Baking Powder as being the best and purest baking powder possible to produce. It possesses elements of food that have to do the building up of brain and nerve matter and is absolutely free from alum or other injurious substitutes.

The resolution was carried, and a bill based on it was read a first time. Sir George Foster then moved a similar resolution in regard to the Canadian Wheat Board and the house went into committee on it.

Apart from unexpected developments, parliament is almost certain to prorogue on Friday or Saturday next.

Friends Thought He Would Die

'FRUIT-A-TIVES' Conquered Dyspepsia and Restored His Health.

MR. ROBERT NEWTON. Little Bras d'Or, C. B. "I was a terrible sufferer from Dyspepsia and Constipation for years. I had pain after eating, belching gas, constant headaches, and did not sleep well at night. I lost so much weight—going from 185 pounds to 146 pounds—that I became alarmed and saw several doctors who, however, did me no good. Finally, a friend told me to try 'Fruit-a-tives'.

In a week, there was improvement. The constipation was corrected; and soon I was free of pain, headaches and that miserable feeling that accompanies Dyspepsia. I continued to take this splendid fruit medicine and now I am well, strong and vigorous."

Captain Collings cured the sea for many years, then he sustained a bad double rupture that soon forced him to not only resign where he had long been besides for years. CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAYS AGAIN TO THE FORE

To Operate Daily Trains Between Vancouver, Winnipeg and Toronto, commencing October 5th.

Progress has no age. Onward is ever the slogan of railway development, operation and efficiency. In this forward movement the Canadian National Railway is again to the fore and on the scroll of time, in the month of October, will usher into service, daily passenger trains between Vancouver, Winnipeg, Toronto and Eastern Canada and United States points. It is particularly fitting that the railway company, which, since its inception, has been identified with great scientific transportation, should have been able to carry through to definite accomplishment, the dreams and aspirations of traffic men by this additional passenger service on a large portion of its main lines.

On October fifth, according to official announcement, a daily service from Vancouver, through the Yellowhead Pass, passing Mount Robson and Jasper Park, to Edmonton will replace the present tri-weekly service which has been in operation since that portion of the line was opened for traffic. An additional passenger service between Winnipeg and Toronto will also commence on that date.

With the inauguration of this daily service, the tourist is destined to reap great benefits for with this will come a greater dispatch in train operation, a better maintenance of time schedules, the practical elimination of vexatious delays due to snow blockades, smoother riding, enhanced comforts due to a greater cleanliness and a pronounced improvement of the view from car window and observation platform, as more modern equipment will go with this service.

This Is Better Than Laxatives

One NR Tablet Each Night For A Week Will Cure Your Constipation and Make Constant Dosing Unnecessary. Try It.

Poor digestion and assimilation mean a poorly nourished body and low vitality. Poor assimilation means clogged bowels, fermentation, putrefaction and the formation of poisonous gases which are absorbed by the blood and carried through the body. The result is weakness, headaches, dizziness, coated tongue, inactive liver, bilious attacks, loss of energy, nervousness, poor appetite, impoverished blood, sallow complexion, pimples, skin diseases, and often times serious illness.

Ordinary laxatives, purges and cathartics—alkali, oils, calomel and the like—may relieve for a few hours, but their lasting benefit can only come through use of medicine that tones up and strengthens the digestive as well as the eliminative organs.

Get a 25c box of Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) and take one tablet each night for a week. Relief will follow the very first dose, but a few days will elapse before the system is in the fullest benefit. When you get straightened out and feel just right again you need not take medicine every day—an occasional NR Tablet will then keep your system in good condition and you will always feel your best. Remember, keeping well is easier and cheaper than getting well.

Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) are sold everywhere and recommended by your druggist.

These advantages added to the renewed personal service of the employees, the splendid physical condition of the line and the extent and variety of the scenery make the Canadian National Railways more than ever the route of efficiency, comfort and charm. In short, "The line of transportation that binds and builds a nation."
