

MR. HYMAN'S RESIGNATION NOT ACCEPTED; INTERESTING TELEGRAMS AND LETTERS

They Show That Mr. Hyman's Health Was Shattered... He Repudiates Insinuations That His Resignation Was Prompted by Other Motives Than Stated.

(Special to The Advertiser.) Ottawa, March 14.—The privileges and elections committee met this forenoon...

Mr. Duflieu read the telegram which was as follows: "Any statement or insinuation that my resignation as a member or a minister was prompted by any other motive than that contained in my letter to Sir Wilfrid Laurier is absolutely untrue."

Mr. Duflieu explained that he made some cuttings from Toronto newspapers the day after Mr. Fowler made his speech in the house, and he enclosed them in an envelope and sent them to Mr. Hyman.

Mr. D. H. Bowen, telegraph operator at London, identified the telegram as to the resignation being the one received at the London office of the C. P. R.

PHELPS-HAYES NUPTIALS TODAY

Marriage of Mr. George C. Phelps, Well-Known Musician, and Miss Minnie Hayes.

The marriage of two well-known young Londoners was celebrated this afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hayes, 629 Wellington street, the principals being Mr. George C. Phelps, organist and choirmaster of the First Presbyterian Church...

The bride was attired in a very becoming gown of white lace, while the bridesmaid, Miss Ada L. Hayes (a sister of the bride), was gowned in point d'esprit, over silk.

At the conclusion of the ceremony hearty congratulations were extended, after which the company partook of a very dainty wedding breakfast.

Among the guests from a distance were Mr. C. S. Clark, of Montreal; Mr. J. K. Clark, of Norwalk, Ohio; Mr. John Phelps, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Phelps, and Mr. Mattie Phelps, of St. Catharines; Mr. Clarence S. Acton, of Toronto; Mrs. (Dr.) D. K. Black, of Greenville, Mich.; Mrs. D. J. Cheyne, of Windso; Mrs. (Dr.) Wellman, of Jamestown, N. Y.; and Mrs. James Acton, Toronto.

The young couple have a large circle of friends who will join in extending their best wishes.

NEW LICENSE FEES

No. 3 committee last evening considered a new schedule of license fees, but it was laid over till next meeting.

Through an error, the schedule presented last night, if adopted, would mean that a fee would be charged for the selling of tobaccos in corner groceries, etc.

"Dear Mr. Aylesworth: For the first time since I joined Charlie on the 26th of November, he has spoken to me of his letters. He asked for them, and I am sorry to say that the few he opened upset him greatly, and I am afraid will undo a great deal of work."

"Charlie looks better and brighter, but cannot concentrate his thoughts on any subject. He seems much worried over an article in the London Advertiser, Nov. 24, to the effect that the resignation of his seat was not legal, and cannot be acted upon.

"Mrs. Hyman said that Mr. Hyman was worried over a statement in the newspapers that Sir Wilfrid had written him about his resignation, as he received no such letter. Mrs. Hyman had all his mail up to the 24th, and there was no such letter from Sir Wilfrid."

The next letter from Mrs. Hyman was dated from Los Angeles, Dec. 27. Mrs. Hyman said that she was writing this while Mr. Hyman was out for a walk, because he had said that every Sunday he was going to make up his mind what to do. Sometimes he looks better, and again worse. Many days he could not sign his name and she had to do it for him. He would not write to her with him all the time. He only saw a couple of papers and an occasional line from their daughter in London.

Another letter was dated December 30, with a note inclosed from Hyman. This note read: "My dear Aylesworth: The wife is writing you today. I simply cannot and I am sorry it cannot be as you and Sir Wilfrid wish. Please tell Sir Wilfrid of my deep sympathy in all his troubles. Heaven bless you, my dear old fellow."

Mrs. Hyman says that she had a letter from Mr. Duflieu about Mr. Hyman running again in London, and she told Mr. Hyman, so as to get it all over. It upset him very much, as well as his work in the department, and the whole matter was reported to the house by the committee. This closed the work of the committee."

Down Go Stocks Again Wall Street Feels Shaky

Leading Stocks Take Another Sensational Plunge Very Unexpectedly.

New York, March 14.—The stock market opened in a turmoil of excitement again today, and after making a momentary stand against weakness, broke again quite generally. Individual stocks were unloaded at rapid declines, indicating the continuance of forced liquidation.

The struggle between opposing forces at the opening was stonied by news from London, where a sharp rebound had occurred after a period of extreme nervousness and the announcement of two failures. The supposition that the worst was thus disclosed at that center prompted some aggressive support at the opening here, and some leading speculative stocks started one to two points above last night.

Reading made a two-point advance, Louisville and Nashville 1 1/2, and some of the Pacifics and trunk lines a point or more. Fluctuations were feverish and violent, and the trend of the market was not clearly perceptible until all Union Pacific made a downward plunge of 3 1/2 below yesterday's closing. Amalgamated Copper fell 3 1/2 points, Great Northern preferred 3 1/4, American Locomotive and Sloss Shonfield Steel 3 1/4, D. and H. 5 1/2, Atlantic Coast Line and Sugar 3, Brooklyn Transit 2 1/2, Pressed Steel Car 5, Northern Pacific 2 1/4, and many active stocks 1 to 2 points.

The stocks which had opened higher were swept to a lower level with the general list. U. S. Steel was liquidated in enormous volume. The renewed slump naturally gave rise to further uneasiness over the continued melting away of prices.

However, it was noted that the bank of England had refrained from advancing its discount rate. Big Slump at Berlin. Berlin, March 14.—Prices on the bourse here today were depressed upon the New York and other advices. Many stocks fell on heavy offers with no takers.

GEO. H. BARR GETS IMPORTANT PLACE

Londoner Is Appointed Head of the Dominion Dairy Department.

A special to The Advertiser from Toronto says: G. H. Barr, of London, has resigned his post as dairy instructor for Western Ontario and head of the dairy school at Stratroy, to enter the Dominion service as head of the dairy department.

BUD McCOURT'S DEATH

Jury Says There Was No Justification for the Fatal Blow.

Cornwall, March 13.—A huge crowd attended the adjourned inquest into the death of Owen (Bud) McCourt, the hockey player, which was held in the court house here tonight by the coroner, Dr. Hamilton. The jury brought in the following verdict: "That the said Owen McCourt came to his death by a blow from a hockey stick in the hands of Charles Manson during the progress of the game of hockey played in the Victoria rink in the town of Cornwall, on the 6th day of March, 1907, and that in the opinion of this jury, although there is no evidence of any ill-feeling previous to the blow, there was no justification by personal provocation for the above blow at the hands of the said Charles Manson. Your jury further recommend that an act be passed by the Legislative Assembly whereby players and spectators engaging in or encouraging roughness or foul play in the game of hockey may be severely punished."

TWO NEW C.P.R. LINERS

Company Has Practically Decided to Build Them For the Atlantic

Montreal, March 14.—The Canadian Pacific has now practically decided to build two new steamships for the Atlantic service, which will take the place of the Empress of Ireland and Empress of Britain. These latter steamers, it is understood, will be transferred to the Orient service, and will provide a faster and better service on the Pacific than any now in existence.

DUKE MICHAEL HELPS

Czar's Brother Contributes $100,000 to Relieve Famine Sufferers.

St. Petersburg, March 14.—The Grand Duke Michael, brother of Emperor Nicholas, has given $100,000 for the relief of the famine sufferers, and has sold to the Peasant Bank for distribution to the peasants, 65,000 acres of his estates in Orel province, at an average price of $14 per acre. The Peasant Bank has now contracted to purchase 8,212,000 acres of land.

THE WEATHER.

Tomorrow—Fair. Toronto, March 13-8 p.m. Showers have occurred today in the Maritime Provinces, and a few snow flurries in Saskatchewan and Alberta.

STREET WATERING BILL

Toronto, March 14.—A bill promoted by Mr. Hodgins (Middlesex) to enable municipal councils to contract with street railways to water streets was passed without discussion. The term of the contract was made five years instead of ten.

NO DANGER OF AN ICE FAMINE

Dealers Get in a Good Supply—Prices Will Remain Unchanged This Season.

The local ice dealers have about completed their harvest for the year, and they gave the assurance today that there will not be the slightest danger of a shortage.

"There will be enough for all this summer," one of them told The Advertiser.

The last two months have not been any too favorable for the cutting of ice; nevertheless the dealers managed to get a very good crop, being able to keep their men at work for 20 days or more. This is much better than a year ago, when much below the usual quantity was secured.

"The dealers who get their supply from the north branch had difficulty this season owing to the large quantity of slush ice that had collected. It was expected that this would be cleared out, but the river remained frozen, and made it a few places which happened to be free of the objectionable class of ice.

"To some it meant the hauling, by teams, of every cake of ice cut, instead of being able to cut at the doors of the ice houses and use the motor machinery. The additional expense was rather heavy, but the dealers had to bear that or do without.

"I got at least 200 tons more than last year," one of the dealers said, "and there is no use of complaining. Yes, the people need not fear this summer. There will be abundance for everyone."

RIVER RISES DURING THE NIGHT

JAM OF ICE NEAR WONDERLAND

Trouble Feared if Water Continues to Rise—North Branch Still Blocked.

The Thames, always responsive to the effects of a spring rain, rose four feet from 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon until this morning. At 9 o'clock Engineer Simmie, of the waterworks, reported that it was still rising.

Four feet or more of water was at that hour going over the dam. About 10 o'clock last night the ice in the south branch went away with a rush, and this morning but very little was to be seen floating in the water.

The north branch still remains undisturbed, however.

Men who have been watching the river all winter say that fully ten feet of slush ice is piled in the north branch north of Dundas street bridge.

This slush ice is very hard to move, and while no fears of a flood in West London are entertained, it is thought that if a rainstorm accompanied by a general thaw sets in, the breakwater will be afforded the opportunity of demonstrating its usefulness.

A giant ice jam has occurred down the river near Wonderland. From that point to the dam, the ice remains unbroken in the river. Every piece of ice that floats down the stream adds to the jam, and it is feared that there will be trouble if the water continues to rise.

Tariff Companies Taking Steps to Re-rate the City

All-round Reduction in Insurance Charges To Be Made Shortly By the Fire Underwriters' Association.

A movement is on foot to re-rate London, and it is said the movement will result in an all-round reduction of the rates charged by the tariff companies in this city.

The Advertiser can vouch for the truth of the above statement, because a reporter was this morning shown a communication from the Underwriters' Association, dated February 25, which notified a well-known local agent that the re-rating was to take place, and that it would in all probability result in a reduction in the price of insurance here.

It is understood that for the past three weeks, the Canadian Underwriters' Association has been considering the matter, and an official announcement is to be expected shortly.

Consequently, the mayor's statement that he intends to have all the city's insurance pooled and placed in the hands of the non-tariff companies, as outlined in last evening's Advertiser, is declared to be a mere piece of grandstand play. His worship, the agents say, must have been in possession of the fact that a reduction is likely to take place shortly, and he simply sought to take time by the forelock and relegate to himself all credit for the cut.

Will Do City No Good. "It will do the city of London no good to take the tariff companies by the throat," one of the insurance men said to The Advertiser today. "Despite all assertions to the contrary there has been a steady reduction in rates since 1904, and there is to be a still further reduction."

The reporter was then shown the tariff books of 1904 and 1907, and allowed to make comparison for himself. The result was very favorable to the tariff companies.

In 1904 a Dundas street confectioner paid 90 cents per $100 for one year's insurance on furniture, stock, etc. On the building, $1.25 per $100 was charged.

This year the rates are 74 cents and $1.14 respectively.

RAGING FLOODS HARRY PITTSBURG

Western Pennsylvania and Virginia Under the Water.

ALL RAILWAYS BADLY CRIPPLED

Populace in Peril of Typhoid Epidemic—Hundreds of Homes, and Great Damage Done.

Pittsburg, March 14.—The stage of water reached in the rivers here today was 30 feet, and it was rising eight inches an hour. The lower portions of Pittsburgh and Allegheny and surrounding towns were inundated. The weather bureau says the present flood is the most remarkable on record and the situation is serious.

The health bureau has notified the people to boil drinking water, as the water is poisonous, owing to the flood conditions, and a typhoid fever epidemic is feared. Alarming reports are being received here from all parts of Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia. Ever stream is overflowing its banks, many towns are almost submerged, hundreds of houses are surrounded by water and the people are living in their second floors.

The coal mines along the rivers in the Monongahela Valley are flooded and thousands of miners are idle; mills and business houses have from one to three feet of water in their first floors, stopping business.

Damage to property will be at least $500,000. In Allegheny County several fatalities have occurred on account of the high water and a number of deaths are reported from the river sections.

The danger is increased by heavy ice gorges in the Monongahela and Allegheny Rivers, about 25 miles above the city. One ice gorge alone in the Clarion River at Parker, Pa., is 30 miles in length, and continued rains and high temperature threaten to start it toward Pittsburg.

The Troughgheny and Kickuminia Rivers are swollen and the large volume of water is causing the Monongahela River to overflow its banks. All the railroads entering Pittsburg, except the main line of the Pennsylvania and Pittsburgh and Lake Erie, are crippled. On the Baltimore and Ohio train service is almost suspended, and on the branch lines there is a complete suspension.

Trains on the West Penn division of the Pennsylvania railroad are being brought direct into the city, as they are unable to reach the Allegheny station. Street car lines in the suburbs are either suspended or are running spasmodically, and many persons are having much difficulty in reaching the city.

Johnstown Pa., March 14.—The Coan, Maugh River and Stoney Creek today broke out of their banks following the heavy rains of the past 24 or 48 hours. The street car service has been abandoned and several miles have shut down. Moxham, the aristocrat residential section, is under water, will a rise of six inches more will inundate many of the principal business streets.

Findlay, Ohio, March 14.—The Blanchard River is out of its banks. Many families in the lower sections were forced to the second story of their homes last night, and railroad tracks are under water.

DEATH OF DR. PETERS

Prominent Surgeon Passes Away Unexpectedly in Toronto.

Dr. George A. Peters, son-in-law of Sir Wm. R. Meredith, and professor of surgery in Toronto University, died yesterday afternoon at his home in Toronto.

Dr. Peters' death was sudden, although his illness extended over eighteen months, four of which he spent at the Sea House (Elshopen) in this city. In one department of surgery, the deceased had made his name known to the whole surgical world by the introduction of what is known as Peters' operation, which constitutes in the judgment of the surgical world the most substantial contribution made by any Canadian surgeon. In the Canadian cavalry service, Dr. Peters was a familiar figure. He invented an electrical target which met with the approval of Lord Roberts and the war office.

Dr. Peters had many friends in this district, who will hear of his death with regret.

BAND COMMITTEE HAS NEW CHAIRMAN

Capt. Little Succeeds Capt. W. J. Reid—Band's Fine Prospects.

The band committee of the Seventh Regiment met last night and elected Captain Arthur Little as chairman, and Lieut. Howard Ingram as secretary.

The affairs of the regimental band are reported to be progressing very favorably, and there is every assurance that in a very short time—in fact, when the first parade of the season is held—the organization will be in better shape than at any previous time in its history.

The new bandmaster, Mr. Slater, has had a decidedly uphill row to hoe since taking charge, but he is receiving every encouragement from the committee, which is determined to bring the band to the front.

RUSSIAN ROBBERS BE HEADED EIGHT

Raid Estate and Massacre—Proprietor, Laborers and Witnesses of the Slaughter.

Yel'savetograd, Russia, March 14.—An estate in this vicinity was attacked by robbers yesterday who bound and decapitated the proprietor, five laborers, and a woman and two witnesses of the slaughter. A soldier who hid in a haystack and a child, lost their reason.

The soldier subsequently died in a hospital of delirium. The booty secured by the robbers amounted to $1,000.

SIDELIGHTS ON THE THAW TRIAL

"Brainstorm" the Newest Catchword To Be Added to Law Terms.

New York, March 12.—Whatever happens to Harry Thaw, whether he is convicted of the murder of Stanford White or whether he is acquitted on the ground of insanity or whether the jury disagree and necessitate a new trial, the case has at least made one pungent contribution to the vocabulary sufficiently large vocabulary of American slang.

This contribution is, of course, the word "brainstorm." Dr. Britton D. Evans has testified as an expert alienist in a good many murder trials, and his testimony has been frequently reported in the newspapers, but nothing that he ever said on the witness stand or anywhere else has made such a dent on the public mind as has the brainstorm.

It may be that this word occurs somewhere in the literature of insanity, but nobody, excepting possibly, a few professional students of that sort of thing, had ever heard of it until Dr. Evans declared upon the witness stand that that was what ailed Harry Thaw on the night when he shot Stanford White on the east of Madison Square Garden. Dr. Evans was not, of course, a cerebral meteorologist to size up the weather of Thaw's mind in this way. He was the pioneer, of course, but a few days later Dr. Charles G. Wagner, another expert witness for the defense, declared that a "brainstorm" was a fine word for just such a case, and he subscribed without reservation to Dr. Evans' application of it. Both the experts explained that a brainstorm was a mental fulmination, but, for the general public this was an explanation that didn't explain. Brainstorm was good enough for them.

Had a Nasty Bronchial Cough

As an After Effect of Pneumonia—Nothing Proved Effective Until Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linnseed and Turpentine Was Used.

Many a mother can say, as does Mrs. Parker in the following letter, that Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linnseed and Turpentine has proven a friend to her in time of colds with the little ones.

Mrs. Walter Hacker, Sydenham, frontac County, Ont., writes:

"Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linnseed and Turpentine has proven a friend to me a time of colds with my little ones. I have tried many others, but have found one just as good. My little boy, about year old, had pneumonia, and was left with a nasty bronchial cough, but Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linnseed and Turpentine is helping him wonderfully and I am sure it will cure him."

"We have also used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills with splendid results, and have great faith in all of Dr. Chase's medicines."

Because of its exceptional success in the cure of croup, bronchitis, whooping cough, asthma and severe coughs and colds, Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linnseed and Turpentine is the "standby" for such ailments in the great majority of homes; 25 cents a bottle, at all dealers. Edmanor, Eaton & Co., Toronto.

NO. 3 COMMITTEE ASKS $6,420 MORE THAN 1906

Market Improvements Are Mainly Responsible For the Increase.

No. 3 committee of the city council last night adopted its estimates for the year, Chairman Gillean, Ald. Garratt, Booth, Gerry and Secretary Bell being present.

The committee this year asks for $6,420 more than the estimates of 1906 called for.

Street lighting will cost $620 more this year than a year ago; $2,000 extra is wanted to improve the market square; $2,700 is asked for a new weigh scales and lavatories on the market; $700 is asked for a street flushing machine, and $400 for a new preparation which it is said will keep down the dust on paved streets, and which the committee is anxious to try.

The following are the figures for both years:

	1907.	1906.
Market expense	$ 550	$ 850
New weigh scales	2,700
Gravel crossings, etc., for market	2,000
Street lighting	27,000	25,800
Street watering, ordinary	8,500
Street watering, smooth pavements	2,250	10,750
Sanitary flusher	700
Westrumite	400
Totals	$44,900	$38,480

Ald Cooper's License.
The committee again wrestled with the auction license arrears of Ald. Cooper.

Inspector McCallum was asked for a report on the matter.

The check was not made out properly and could not be accepted, and further the check does not cover the amount of the alderman's indebtedness to the city.

The committee instructed the inspector to render Ald. Cooper a statement of how much he owes the city. Also to return the check for $40, which is not properly made out.

George Sthathopolus, a Greek, offered the sum of $400 per year for the exclusive privilege of selling nuts, etc. on public places on the city streets.

Inspector McCallum stated that there are at present eleven such licenses at $15 each, the city thus reaps $160 annually from them.

The application was filed, as the committee had no power. A bylaw passed by the council some time ago regulates the granting of such licenses.

No Remission.
The application of the Y. M. C. A. for remission of a license of $30 charged for the Auditorium was refused. It was pointed out that the place is in competition with the Grand Opera House and Bennett's Vaudeville Theatre, both of which are compelled to pay a fee of $30 annually.

Dr. Jarvis presented a bill for $19 for attendance on firemen injured in the Grand Trunk bridge shop fire. It was laid over until a statement has been secured from the fire chief.

City Engineer Graydon presented an estimate of the cost of remodeling the weigh scales on the market, and erecting a new lavatory in connection therewith. Mr. Graydon said the cost of the work would be $2,975. It was decided to place a sum of $2,700 in the estimates for the purpose.

Paving the Market.
The committee also decided to ask the council for the sum of $2,000 for repairing the market square.

Engineer Graydon said it would cost $9,492 to pave the west portion of the square between Talbot street and the market house with vitrified brick; with broken stone, 6 inches deep, the cost would be $1,317.75.

To pave with brick that portion of the square from the west side of the market house to the market lane, the cost would be $4,840.60. With broken stone, $1,217.

Mr. Graydon recommended that instead of spending a large amount on brick paving on a place that is only used three days a week, four or five crossings be put down, ten feet wide; that the west side of the square be bridged up by the teeth in the steam roller and that gravel be put in the low places and the whole re-rolled. The cost of this work he estimated at $1,200.

The committee fell in with Mr. Graydon's idea and decided to ask for the sum mentioned above. The money will also to return the check for $40 to improve the entire square as Mr. Graydon suggests.

NEW AERIAL TRUCK WOULD COST $5,280

No. 3 committee last night discussed the advisability of purchasing a new aerial truck for the fire department.

The Seagrave Ladder Company made a proposal to supply a new truck or remodel the old one, and the committee agreed to endeavor to have the council set aside a sum sufficient to purchase a new ladder, the Seagrave Company to take the old truck if in the meantime it cannot be sold for more money than the company now offers for it.

Mr. W. E. Seagrave was present and addressed the committee. He said that after inspecting the truck he had decided that it would cost $5,280 to remodel the old truck at a very much less cost.

Mr. Seagrave replied that since he had submitted a figure for the work, labor and materials have gone up in price. He added that while $5,000 is a small amount for the old truck he did not know where he could sell it, and it would likely remain dead stock on his hands.

Ald. Booth said it would be better to keep the old truck and endeavor to sell it to some outside place. It was then decided to ask the council to place the sum of $4,780 in the estimates for a new truck, and to endeavor to get the council to sanction the expenditure.

New Designs in Biedermeier

A style of embroidery work that is immensely popular in Europe at present.

The designs are quite different from others, with quaint little flowers much in evidence. We have them stamped in colors on

Tea Coseys at.....25c Centerpieces at35c, 40c, 50c, 75c And Cushion Tops at..... 25c, 50c

The embroidery work is to be done solid in Dresden colors, with Japanese gilt thread introduced in a scroll effect.

Wallachian Embroidery

is also one of the latest ideas. Work is easily done and very effective.

Designs stamped on cushion tops..... 45c Centerpieces 25c to 75c Shirtwaist designs for stamping..... 25c

Hand-embroidered lingerie is exceedingly fashionable at present.

We have some lovely designs in eyelet and solid patterns stamped, ready to work, on

Three-Piece Corset Covers of fine French nainsook, with floss for embroidering included..... 75c CORSET COVERS with beautiful patterns stamped on fine India linen. Eyelet, shadow and solid designs, 25c, 30c and 35c Fancy Goods—East Store.

The New French Trimmings Are Very Beautiful and Neat

The new French Trimmings are noteworthy for the reason of their beauty and uniqueness. The designs are of the uncommon order and the object appears to blend harmoniously a number of different shades in each pattern. Seven different designs in all—with several different color harmonies in each pattern, giving us a widely diversified collection to introduce to you. Per yard.....75c to $1.75

Six different styles of braid are combined in the $1.75 design, with the addition of gold ornaments and fancy rings. Per yard.....$1.75

And Don't Overlook The Elegant Persian Band Trimming

Elegant combinations of rich and dainty colorings—odd designs that are nevertheless wonderfully stylish. Light shades predominate, with gold threads always in evidence. Exceptionally attractive for vest effects. Widths from 1/2 to 2 inches. Per yard.....18c to 65c Dress Trimmings—Main Floor.

Lock Stitch Curtains, New Ideas, $2 to $5.50 Pr.

These curtains are made only by one manufacturer. They have a patent stitch, which gives the curtains unusual strength. For instance, if a thread should break, the curtain would not be in danger of splitting lengthwise if not mended immediately, because the stitch is securely locked in the long thread which prevents the loosening or giving of the cross threads—the curtain cannot come apart in either direction.

We have quite a collection of these new styles to show you in Irish Point, Brussels and Madras effects. Each curtain is a handsome pattern and we would draw particular attention to the Madras weaves, the designs being new and beautifully soft and lacy. White or ivory, at pair $2.00, $2.75, $3.50, $4.00 and $5.50 Draperies—Second—Floor.

NATIONAL DAIRY SHOW

assisting in the organization of the new project. Mr. J. B. Mallory, Belleville, representing the Holstein Breeders Association, announced that he had $300 of an appropriation for the same purpose, and moved:

"That this committee recognize the importance of holding a national dairy show, and that all necessary steps be taken to organize and establish the same."

This was seconded by Mr. John McQuaker, Owen Sound, president of the Western Ontario Dairy Association, who intimated that the association he represented would not be behind with the monetary assistance. He suggested that a pure food show be made a part of the scheme.

The motion was unanimously carried. Where to hold the show was then taken up and Ald. Chisholm and Commissioner Harris presented Toronto's claims, offering north St. Lawrence market and St. Lawrence Hall free of charge.

Peterboro was represented by a delegation twenty strong, who said the city was to build a new market, and it would be suitable for the show. After full discussion it was decided to hold the show in Toronto, provided that the city would give proper accommodation under the proper conditions.

The committee, accompanied by the delegation from Peterboro, will wait upon the Minister of Agriculture and ask for a yearly grant of $4,000 to assist the project.

Mother's Gratitude To ZAM-BUK.

IT CURED HER BOY OF PAINFUL SORES.

Nothing is more unpleasant to the mother than to see her little one suffer from boils, ulcers, etc., especially when the yearling suffers acutely from these painful outbreaks. When boils, ulcers, etc., occur on children it is painful to see the little ones suffer.

Mr. Dargavel, M. P., speaks strongly in favor of the combined show. Mr. John McKee, president of the Ayrshire Breeders' Association, pointed out that the dairy interests had suffered when combined with the fat stock shows in the past, and announced that their association had placed $200 at the disposal of his committee to assist in the organization of the new project.

RALPH CONNOR REPLIES.
Winnipeg, March 13.—Rev. Dr. Gordon (Ralph Connor) has handed to the press a letter which is intended to get himself right in regard to certain utterances which he was alleged to have made during the election campaign.

The committee, accompanied by the delegation from Peterboro, will wait upon the Minister of Agriculture and ask for a yearly grant of $4,000 to assist the project.

SPURGEON TO RESIGN.
London, March 13.—Rev. Thomas Spurgeon, pastor of the Metropolitan Tabernacle, has tendered his resignation, partly owing to poor health, which increases the difficulties of his busy charge. The deacons oppose his resignation and suggest that he take a long vacation. The question will be submitted to a vote of the members of the church next month.

Rev. Spurgeon's pastorate has been marked by a certain amount of latest accord owing to the preference of an element of the members for Rev. Mr. Pearson as pastor. Those members were overruled when they wished Rev. Mr. Pearson to succeed Rev. Charles H. Spurgeon, father of the present pastor, who died in 1832.

WAS IT FOUL PLAY?
Toronto, March 13.—Maggie Wilson, domestic with a Rosedale family, was found lying under Huntley street bridge this morning. She was removed to the hospital and died in the ambulance. Foul play is suspected, as it is stated she had been threatened that she would meet trouble, if she did not keep company with a young man.

LONDON, THURSDAY, MARCH 14, 1907.

TORONTO'S PROBLEM.

The electrical power question has come to a head in Toronto. The city must decide at once whether it will take the plunge into municipal ownership or not.

The Toronto Electric Light Company, which controls the distribution of electrical power in the city, has applied to the Legislature for permission to increase its capital stock by $1,000,000.

The Provincial Secretary tells the municipal authorities of Toronto that there is no reason why the company's request should not be granted.

The city council must now either withdraw its opposition to the company's application, or take the other alternative, which is municipal ownership.

The city of Toronto and the Government of Ontario are now face to face with the consequences of the Niagara power agitation, whether for better or worse. Their decisions will have an important bearing throughout the Province.

WHITNEY'S BOOMERANG.

It is clear that Mr. Whitney, in so readily appointing a commissioner to investigate charges in connection with the administration of the license law in Toronto, had chiefly in view the introduction of the political muck-rake into that particular branch of government.

The "commissioner" habit is one which Mr. Whitney and his followers have acquired since they assumed office. As a means of creating vacancies for the office-seeker it was found to work admirably—so admirably, indeed, that it was decided to make it do scavenger work in connection with the operation of the license system under the former Government.

WEIGHING THE SOUL.

It is funny, but it is true, that there are among our professional men, the graduates of our best institutions of learning, and especially among the doctors, individuals who have been so entirely untouched by the spirit of modern science that they still are sunk in the crudest and most superstitious of materialisms.

MR. STEVENS FOR THE SENATE.

Another vacancy has been created in Western Ontario's representation in the Senate by the death of Senator Casgrain, of Windsor. The name of Mr. N. H. Stevens, of Chatham, has been put forward by his friends, and finds acceptance throughout the western peninsula and wherever Mr. Stevens is known.

Advertiser Patterns

DESIGNED BY MARTHA DEAN.

6810

A NEW SUIT IN STRIPED MOHAIR (6810-6811).

The newest models in street suits show many striking effects, and one which is exceedingly smart is sketched. The material is striped mohair, but the same would be charming in flannel or serge. The jacket is double-breasted, but short and natty, with pockets for convenience and effect. The trousers are rounded at the lower edge to suggest the cutaway styles, and the whole has a trim tailored look.

asked Belle, whose indignation was stronger than Mary's. "Well, not at first." And then he went on to tell them about the thunderstorm and the strange meeting in the ruined abbey, and how the accusation had been drawn from him; and after that Mary again gave it as her opinion that Miss Maturing must be a very designing person.

"No wonder she was afraid when she met you in the castle garden, Robert." "Yes, and to think that I was fool enough to pity her; and then there was that want of anger on her part that was enough to excite any man's suspicion."

"She would certainly have defended herself if she had been innocent—do you not think so, Austin?" But the vicar was again silent; he had left his chair and was walking up and down the room with heavy footsteps; it seemed as though he hardly dared trust himself to speak.

"Yes, of course, she would, Robert. I cannot think how you could have been so forbearing."

"Well, I do not know myself, Mary. There was something about Belle that, almost disarmed anger; she looked so wretchedly unhappy."

"I am glad of it; she will find that her ill-gotten riches will only bring misery to her after all. I declare I can hardly believe in such duplicity and double-dealing."

"My dear! The rebuke came from her husband."

"Let me speak, Austin. I don't wonder at all now that Robert should have felt it so bitterly; it makes it almost unbearable for him and me to do with it."

"No, not quite, Austin." "Isn't it, Belle? Well, I should have thought so." And then the vicar resumed his walk.

"What makes it worse for us all is that she is coming to Bryn." And Mary, who had been rather chilled by her husband's last words, roused herself again to renewed anger.

"I always told myself that I had no hope at all, but you had—one could see it in your face. You were too much excited; you looked a different man that morning when you started. I took myself to task afterward that I had not given you a word of warning."

"I do not think I needed the warning, Austin."

Cost of Pumping Water Would Be Prohibitive

People Would Not Pay For Street-Watering if No. 3 Sought an Independent Supply.

A report submitted to No. 3 committee last night by City Engineer Graydon, re the cost of street watering, shows that if the committee attempted to secure its own water supply, the cost to the people would be prohibitive.

Mr. Graydon says that the ratepayers would have to pay eight or nine cents a foot frontage to have the street in front of their premises watered, and he declares that if he took into consideration the statements of men who contract to have street watering in the past, the cost would be eleven or twelve cents a foot.

Chairman Gillean had the report prepared to show that it is impossible for the committee to go into the water supply business, and that it is the duty of the water commissioners to supply the city with water for street watering.

The committee discussed the report for some time. The water commissioners told us we could get all the water we needed for an expenditure of $10,000," said Ald. Booth.

"That's why I had this report prepared," Chairman Gillean explained. "I want the people to know just where we are at in this matter. We are prepared to go ahead and water the streets at the same cost as in former years, if the water commissioners will get the water for us. But the people would never consent to pay 8 or 10 cents a foot for watering."

The Report. Mr. Graydon's report was as follows: Chairman and members of No. 3 committee: "Dear Sirs.—The chairman has directed me to make a report on the water commissioners' proposal that the city can get water from the river for street watering purposes. The proposition, though quite feasible, for the water is prohibited by the act of 1897, which prohibits the use of water for street watering, using from about 350,000 gallons to 400,000 gallons per day.

The street watering extends east on Dundas street for as far as Charlotte street, on the Hamilton road to Egerton street, on the north it extends as far as Louisa street, and on the south on Wellington street to the river. In London street it extends as far south as Wharncliffe road and Elmwood avenue.

We use about 650 carts of water per day, and a two-horse water cart will cover about three-quarters of a block. As to supply. You could use the well at the London Show Case Company, which is equipped with pump and power, for the northeast section, by laying a pipe from the well to the fair grounds and erecting a tank there. The tank would cost about $500. The 4-inch pipe, laid 12 inches below the surface, would cost $250, and the pumping cost would be $5 per day. This would supply an area west as far as Adelaide, and all the portion north of York street, but you would not readily understand that in this area, and the other areas hereafter mentioned, the carts will have to traverse anywhere from five to ten blocks or more, empty, to get to the loading point, and then cover the same distance loaded (with water) to the water cart, and in consequence your contract prices would be 50 to 100 per cent greater than last year, and very much inferior watering done.

The southeast portion, I mean, say York street east, would have to be supplied from the south branch of the river, say at Adelaide street. A pump, gasoline engine, and rough building and piping, would cost about $1,500, and about $2 per day to operate. There is an empty main on King street from Ridout street to Wellington, that could be used for another portion. You would require about $800 for the station, and a cost of 10¢ per foot of 4-inch pipe, laid at a cost of $40, and an operating station would cost $150, and operating $3 per day.

For the north end, say at Oxford street, you would require a pumping station, costing $1,500, and about $500 for pipe, and $3 per day for operating. For South London another pumping station on the river or some small watercourse, at the same expense—$1,000—and another pumping station at Clarke's bridge, at the same cost, to supply the water from Williams street west to Clarence street, and from York street south to the river—say $1,900.

Summary of Cost. Pumping station at fair grounds... $1,750
Pumping station at Adelaide... 1,800

($700) in its estimates, for the purpose, provided No. 2 committee agrees to pay the other half. It was said by the engineer that the flusher will save the cost of two sweepings of pavements a week.

Thus the machine will prove a great saving to No. 2. If the flusher is purchased, No. 3 committee will not need to buy another new watering cart, which will be necessary without it. It was pointed out that the water commissioners have said that in the dry season there will be no water for street watering on any pavement, but the committee went right ahead with its recommendation to buy the flusher. The sum of $400 will also be placed in the estimates for the purpose of using "Westrunite" on a mile of city pavement as a test. It is said the compound will keep down the dust and save the city the cost of street watering.

HIS LORDSHIP IN FLIM-FLAM GAME

Fourth Son of the Marquis of Abergavenny Arrested by London Police.

London, March 13.—Lord William Beauchamp Nevill, fourth son of the Marquis of Abergavenny, is again in the hands of the authorities, and today was remanded at a police court charged with stealing jewels by means of a trick. Lord Nevill was sentenced to five years' penal servitude at the Old Bailey, Feb. 15, 1898, for fraud in connection with a promissory note, the prosecutor being Capt. Spencer Clay, who in 1904 married Pauline, daughter of William Waldorf Astor. In the present case Lord Nevill is charged with stealing a box containing $2,000 worth of pearl and diamond jewelry by exchanging it for a similar box apparently containing the jewels, but which when opened was found to contain two pieces of coal wrapped in tissue paper. According to the testimony of Lord Nevill pawned articles of jewelry at different times and subsequently requested the pawnbroker to bring the jewels to his house with a new contract covering all the transactions.

After the contract had been signed, Lord Nevill produced a green leather box in which the pawnbroker placed the jewels tied up and placed in the box. Lord Nevill then diverted the pawnbroker's attention to a bureau in another part of the room. The man turned away for a moment to examine the bureau, and Lord Nevill shortly afterwards joined his visitor and handed him a box which the pawnbroker supposed contained the jewelry. On examining it a couple of months later he found that it had been changed while his back was turned. Lord Nevill was remanded in $5,000 bail.

MAKING A LADY OF MISS CAMILLE

Lord Aberdare Determined To Ennobel Actress Wife of His Son.

New York, March 13.—The last mail leaving New York for England carried a registered package, for which Lord Aberdare of Duffryn is anxiously waiting in London. It contains a photograph of fourteen young women in the next house liveries of upstairs servants in fashionable homes. The picture was raised to Henry Lyndhurst Bruce, only woods. Also, in a chamois jewel bag, are the broken bits of the negative from which the photograph was printed.

Possessing no intrinsic value, the contents of this package represent an outlay of between $125,000 and $150,000 by Lord Aberdare in one of the most thorough and remarkable searches ever undertaken by the Pinkerton Detective Agency, which was concluded only a few days ago by the recovery of the plate and the photographic prints of fourteen prints made from the negative.

One of the young women in servant's livery in the group is Camille Clifford, the actress and co-star with Edna May, in the London production of "The Belle of Mayfair," whose romantic career her father-in-law that she had been a son of Lord Aberdare, created a great stir in society in England only a short while ago.

Lord Aberdare had at first absolutely refused to recognize his son's bride, but after his first burst of anger he began to take an interest in his daughter-in-law, and, as he could not disinherit his son, he not only forgave the couple, but entered upon a determined campaign to establish a social status for the future Lady of Duffryn. Lord Aberdare announced that he had preserved "The Belle of Mayfair," whose romantic career her father-in-law that she had been a son of Lord Aberdare, created a great stir in society in England only a short while ago.

Then the young woman confessed to her father-in-law that she had been a servant in a fashionable household in Boston, and that while in the Maine woods she had formed one of a group of maid servants whose photograph had been taken by an itinerant photographer. She gave into the possession of Lord Aberdare the copy of the photograph that she had preserved. There were thirteen other existences, she said, as each one of the group had bought a copy at $1 each.

Lord Aberdare forwarded a copy of the photograph to the Pinkerton Detective Agency with the sweeping commission to find the thirteen other prints of the plate and the plate itself, and to destroy the plate immediately it came into possession of the detectives and send him the bits. The work has been faithfully done, but at the very last the secret leaked out.

PROF. LOCKE THE MAN
Dean of the Macdonald College Faculty of Education.

Montreal, March 13.—Prof. George H. Locke, M. A., has been appointed dean of the faculty of education in the Macdonald College and professor of history and principles of education by the authorities of McGill. As a young man he made a brilliant mark in scholarship. He graduated B. A. with honors in classics at the University of Toronto in 1883, and for two years followed by the University of Toronto and Greek at Victoria University. In 1885 he graduated with specialist standing in classics from the Ontario School of Pedagogy. Passing his M. A. examination at the University of Toronto in 1886, he received the degree of bachelor of pedagogy from the same institution in the same year. Mr. Locke then went to the University of Chicago, where he entered upon graduate work in the department of pedagogy. From there he went to Harvard, then back to Chicago, and from there came here to take charge of Sir William Macdonald's college.

A FAST THREE MILES

Neblich, Crack Runner, Reels Them Off in Fifteen Minutes.

New York, March 12.—One of the features of the games of the New York Athletic Club at the Madison Square Garden last night was the race of Frank Neblich, N. Y. A. C., again time, which was substituted in the Longwood event. Two Irish-American Athletic Club men ran in relay against Neblich, who was in fine form. Each of Neblich's opponents ran a mile and a half. H. P. Odell started with him, and Billy Frank, who ran the second relay, won at the tape by twenty yards. Neblich's time was 14 minutes 53 2-5 seconds. The record is 14 minutes and 39 seconds.

HUNDREDS EXECUTED.

St. Petersburg, March 13.—Statistics published today regarding the drum-head court martials show that up to March 5, 74 persons were executed, an average of almost five daily.

TAKE NOTICE that the Municipal Council of the Corporation of the City of London intends to construct the Local Improvement Works set out in the schedule hereunder, and to assess a portion of the final cost thereof upon the real property fronting or abutting thereon, to be immediately benefited thereby, and that the approximate annual rate per foot on the frontage and the number of such annual assessments are shown in the said schedule, and that a statement showing the lands liable to and proposed to be specially assessed for the said Local Improvement Works, and the names of the owners thereof, so far as the same can be ascertained from the last Revised Assessment Roll, and otherwise, is now filed in the Office of the Clerk of the Municipality, and is open for inspection during office hours.

The following schedule shows the estimated cost of each of the proposed works, the amount thereof to be provided out of the general funds of the Municipality, the approximate annual rate per foot, and the number of such annual assessments, as aforesaid:

No. of Works.	Description and Location of Works.	Total Cost.	CITY'S SHARE.	Number of Annual Assessments.	Approximate Annual Rate Per Foot.

Well, it's all over (but the ice-digging) in the local hockey world. However, it won't be very long before we'll all be out sunning ourselves on the bleachers and rooting for the winning teams on the baseball diamond in the same old Indian fashion.

There are not many local people aware that St. Thomas has a joke artist. Yes, a real live one, too. When our Hortons met defeat over Saintville way, we admitted that they had been outplayed fair and square.

When the City League baseball season opens up for business it is altogether likely that the Hortons will be found in the line-up. It is rumored that the Perrin team will drop out, but that is not decided.

And still the merry (?) Longboat argument goes on apace. Here are a couple of Toronto politicians on the matter: "Thomas Longboat, the champion Canadian runner, evidently thought better of that New York proposition of running against Frank Nebrich last night, and stayed at home, avoiding disqualification by the C. A. A. U. Harry Rosenthal, Longboat's much-advertised manager, practically guaranteed the Indian's appearance at New York, but Longboat's ambition to uphold the honor of Canada on the track has evidently over-ruled his manager's plans.

Judging by what the American papers say of Nebrich and Bonhag, the New York runners, and by what we ourselves know of Longboat, a race between the trio would be an event worth going miles to witness. What a shame it is that Bonhag dropped out of tonight's races in New York, and that the C. A. A. U. can't see its way clear to allow the redskin to compete!

While Bonhag ran some slashing races before that time he may be truly said to have learned to run at the Olympic games at Athens last spring. Before that time the crack indoor runner, like most American sprinters, depended upon his finish rather than running "all the way" to distance men.

"Longboat may not be an amateur by a long sight, but he'd have to be a long way worse to hurt anything he might run against in New York. President Captain Victor Buchanan, of the new Amateur Athletic Federation of Canada, which is endeavoring to supplant the C. A. A. U., speaking about the action of the C. A. A. U. in forbidding Longboat to run in New York, says: "If Longboat had made a proper declaration as to his amateur standing and belonged to the federation, we certainly should not stand in his way for a race like this; on the contrary, we would encourage him, if such people as the New York athletic clubs invited him. It seems to me as if the C. A. A. U. simply exert their authority for the pleasure of doing so, and being able to show that they have authority, they seem to think that they are much more important than they are."

THISTLES LOOK LIKE CHAMPIONS

Defeat Portage la Prairie, and Have Now Only to Beat Brandon.

Kenora, March 13.—The championship of the Manitoba Hockey League was virtually settled when the Thistles defeated the strong Portage la Prairie team here last night by a score of 7 to 0. The cup-holders must still defeat Brandon to retain the world's championship, but after the decisive victory over Portage, who played the wheat city to a tie last Friday, the honors of the league are now virtually conceded to the Thistles, who, with Alf Smith and H. Westwick, of Ottawa, and Mack Chambers, of Winnipeg, are the most formidable team that ever stepped on the ice in Canada.

Ottawa, March 3.—A bombshell will be thrown into the camp of the Kenora Thistles when they meet the champions of the Manitoba League, who are to defend the Stanley cup. Alf Smith and Harry Westwick, of the Ottawas, will not be allowed to play against the Wanderers in the cup game.

Acting Trustee Foran made a statement to the above effect yesterday morning. He said that he could conceive of nothing more unportsmanlike than for these men to go out west to help retain the cup after they had played on a team that was fairly and squarely beaten by the challengers. They had their chance to beat Wanderers and go west for the trophy, but lost it. He regretted, in the interests of good sport, that they wanted to go west and try and help defeat the champions of their own league.

BERLIN DEFEATS THE WANDERERS

Montreal Seven Loses to the Dutchmen in Nip and Tuck Match.

Berlin, March 13.—On the poorest kind of ice Berlin tonight defeated the Wanderers, of Montreal, by a score of 9 to 2. The game was witnessed by about 1,200 people, who cheered the boys to victory.

It was nip and tuck all the way through as to who was to have the lead, the visitors having a slight lead in the first half of two goals—4 to 3. The second half Berlin put it all over their opponents by scoring four goals in the next eight minutes, then the Wanderers scored two, and Berlin adding another, had the lead at the finish. The game was fast and exciting throughout, notwithstanding the heavy snowing.

This game will practically end the season in hockey unless much colder weather sets in. The lineup: Wanderers—Horn, Stuart, Patrick, Glass, Russell, Chipchase, Blackford, Berlin—Selbert, McHugh, Gross, J. Seibert, Knoll, Schmidt, Dumart.

BASKETBALL. WALKOVER FOR SOLDIERS.

In the deciding basketball game at the armories last night, the Wolsley Barracks team had a walkover for the championship in its match with the Army Medical corps, the score being 4 to 13 in favor of the former. The teams were: Wolsley Barracks—Gilmour, Raymond, Oakley, Dunlop, Ryder, M. C. McCall, Thompson, Davidson, Marshall, Widdowson. This game gives the Barracks the championship of the Seventh Regiment League for 1936-37.

MUST BE JOLLYING THE TORONTO FANS

Buffalo "Experts" Pick Queen City Dubs to Finish Fourth This Year.

Buffalo, March 13.—Baseball experts are busy predicting the standing of the Eastern League clubs for 1937. This is the way a leading Buffalo expert picks them: Buffalo, first. Montreal, second. Rochester, third. Toronto, fourth. Baltimore, fifth. Newark, sixth. Jersey City, seventh. Providence, eighth.

To fans familiar with Eastern League standings for the past few years, these figures look queer, but experts all over the country agree that there will be the biggest upheaval in standing in the Eastern this year ever experienced in any league. It need not surprise anyone if later developments show that the teams Buffalo fans have been accustomed to regard as the only teams in the fight for the "altos rans" this year, And, STUDEBVS. CARRIAGEMAKERS, M. Forest, March 13.—The Carriage Company and the high school played a game this evening, which resulted in a victory for the students by the score of 9 to 2. The line-up was as follows: High school—Goal, F. McNiven; rover, D. Brubaker; rover, H. Ed. Schatz; point, G. Langdon; center, E. Ross; wings, C. Hampton and G. McEwen. Carriage Company—Goal, W. Scott; point, B. Scott; rover, J. Brebber; rover, F. Murphy; center, O. Nickason; wings, J. Cringh, H. Leader. Referee, Orley Scott.

NEW-COMER WAS HIGH MAN ON BOWLING MATCH

The ideal bowlers lost out to the Arcade artists in a match game played last night, by a margin of 285 pins. Walter Pratt, who until recently held the championship of Komoka, Indiana, from which place he hails, was the star performer. He made high individual scores, and had an average of 180 for three frames.

Claims Anson Was King of the Baseball Game

To my mind there never was a figure connected with the national game more comparable with Adlai C. Anson, manager of the Chicago National League Club for so many seasons, and now city clerk of the city of Chicago, says Malachi Kirtz, the once-great catcher. I also maintain that no one ever contributed more largely to place the game on the plane it now occupies than this same Anson.

He never stinted his men—he always traveled on the best roads and in the most expensive manner. He always believed that the best was really the best, and that there was no better advertisement for a first-class club than to maintain the highest standard in everything connected with it.

WOMEN ENGAGED IN BUSINESS

Weather conditions and the unavoidable dust and floating disease germs of large shops, factories and streets render the life of the women and girls engaged in business peculiarly exposed to danger. Thousands of our noblest and most deserving young women are the victims of influenza, grippe, colds and catarrh of the nose and throat and lung troubles and consumption.

COMMITTEE SECURES A SUITABLE SITE FOR TUBERCULOSIS HOSPITAL

Purchase May Be Completed This Week—Price Is $6,000—Location a Secret.

The purchase of a suitable site for a tuberculosis hospital for London and Middlesex County may be completed this week—possibly today.

For some time past a committee of the citizens who have interested themselves in the movement to fight the white plague have been looking around with a view to obtaining a property, and they have at last succeeded in finding one which will meet the needs and can be bought at a reasonable figure. A farm of 160 acres, with fine buildings, near Hyde Park, was visited, but as $25,000 was asked for it, the committee could not consider it. Another farm of 100 acres on the fourth concession of London Township, was also considered ideal for the purposes of a hospital, but it was found that the owner placed $15,000 as the price of it.

ENGLISH WOMAN IN DARING TRIP

Crosses Moroccan Desert Under Protection of Raisuli's Orders.

London, March 12.—Whenever there is an enterprise too risky for a man to undertake in these days it generally happens that a woman can be found to do it. Such an enterprise is a journey lately made by a slight, delicate-looking little woman from Tangier to Fez through a bandit infested region, by tortuous roads known only to the natives, and without armed escort of any sort. It is as if Lady Cicely had stepped out into real life from Bernard Shaw's amusing comedy, "Capt. Brassbound's Conversion," in which Ellen Terry is touring in the United States.

The heroine of this exploit is Mrs. Frances Campbell, author of that fascinating novel of child life, "Dearlove," and a book of singularly fanciful and delicate essays, "The Measure of Life." Her husband, who died about five years ago, was a cousin of the Duke of Argyll, King Edward's brother-in-law. By marriage she is related to most of the other distinguished Campbells, who fill more columns of "Who's Who?" than any other family in the United Kingdom. But it is from her own ancestors she gets the heroic strain in her blood, for she is a descendant of Owen Roe O'Neill, a prince of Ulster, who was a famous rebel in his day.

SKIRTS FAILED TO LURE THE GANG

Policeman, in Disguise, Caught Nothing But Several Frozen Fingers.

New York, March 12.—When Detective William Musmecher, of the Bronx Park station, arrived for the morning roll-call today he was met with a gloating snicker by his fellow workers in the paths of crime. He limped with chilblains in his right foot and three of his fingers were frozen.

Musmecher had volunteered on Saturday to capture a band of highwaymen who had been reaping a harvest in the wild glades of the Bronx by holding up and robbing women. He conceived the brilliant idea of disguising himself as a travelling woman, and the footpads with rifles and six-shooters. Capt. McGlynn gave his consent.

Mrs. Musmecher went visiting yesterday. She left at home a fine new gown, a towering picture hat and a quantity of jewelry. The detective donned those and his long and thin chin sprout erased. He took his disguise to the station house and the reserves helped him to get into it. It required the combined efforts of five men to force him to, and when he was finally corseted he could only breathe in short, sharp gasps. He got all his wife's rings on his two little fingers and donned the picture hat at a rakish angle. He was about to saunter forth with his face bare when Capt. McGlynn stopped him.

A GREAT SEASON FOR THE GOLFERS

London Club Looking Forward to it—Professional Secured—Officers Elected

The London Golf Club held its annual meeting Wednesday night, with a good attendance of enthusiastic golfers.

The treasurer's statement showed a balance on the right side with all liabilities paid.

The club has engaged a professional green-keeper, who is now on his way here from Stirling, Scotland, and will take charge on April 1. The greens will be put in order at once, and when ready, will be one of the best nine-hole courses in Canada.

It was arranged that monthly handicap matches be held, the first to take place in April. It was also decided to arrange home and home matches with outside clubs during the season.

The fee for membership has been placed at $6. Members of the London Hunt Golf Club are extended the privilege of playing over the course during April and May and October and November for a fee of $3.

The following officers were appointed for 1907:

President—V. Cronyn.
First Vice-President—J. K. H. Pope.
Second Vice-President—James H. Anderson.
Secretary-Treasurer—W. Pope.
Captain—F. P. Hiddell.
Strong committees were also appointed to look after the greens, the handicapping, and the executive work of the club.

LIBERAL CLUB SMOKER FRIDAY

Great Interest Being Manifested in Event—Tonight's Concert in South London.

Great interest is being manifested among the Liberals of London in the smoking concert to be given in Hyman Hall on Friday night. A very unique programme has been prepared, and it will prove decidedly interesting. It will be one of the best yet. Let every Liberal be present.

The finals between wards 2 and 5 for the bowling championship of the Liberal Club will be played tonight at the Liberal Club alleys. It promises to be very close.

There was an unusually large crowd at the weekly whist matches given by the Liberal Club last night, and a splendid evening's play was enjoyed. The Compass whist were out in force. The winners were Messrs. Sanders and Rider, with a score of plus 12. Messrs. Govanlock and Findlay were second with a score of plus 10. The prizes were donated by Aid. Gillman. Mr. Thos. Burns won the progressive game with a score of plus 25.

Concert in South London.

Arrangements have been completed for the concert to be given in the South London Liberal Club tonight. A splendid programme has been prepared, literary and musical numbers being included in it. Every Liberal is invited to attend and to share in the evening's enjoyment.

FLORAL BEAUTIES AT THE CITY HALL

Some Rare Varieties of Carnations and Roses Are Being Shown Today.

Local lovers of horticulture are afforded a rare opportunity today and tonight of witnessing a magnificent display of carnations, roses and other flowers at the exhibit of the Canadian Horticultural Society, the executive of which is meeting today at 2:30 p.m.

To a local firm, Gammage & Sons, must be given the credit for the largest individual display. The exhibition is not a competitive one in any sense of the word, the flowers being put out for the purpose of giving the public an opportunity of becoming more familiar with the art of horticulture.

Experts who have seen the display are of the opinion that it far outclasses any which the society has held up to date. That fact speaks well for the work of the organization which aims to advance horticulture to the highest possible level.

The carnations in particular are remarkable, both for size, color and class. In addition to the many others, there are the wonderful Lawson carnations, which are conceded to have been of more commercial and intrinsic value than any other kind. The history of these remarkable carnations is very interesting. Peter Fisher, of Boston, is said to have originated the flower and later sold a share in it to Thomas Lawson, the famous financier. Some time afterward Mr. Lawson financed a deal whereby the original plants were sold to a Mr. Galvin for $30,000, and named "Lawson" in honor of the wife of the copper king.

Most people have had the good fortune to see carnations of every conceivable red and white hue, but it goes without saying that few have seen the same flower green in color. And yet there are green carnations on exhibit at the city hall today.

Then there are fine displays of Whiteman ferns, Bride roses and Golden Gate roses, peas and geraniums, as well as other favorites.

No admission to the exhibit is charged, and the public are cordially invited.

The list of exhibitors is as follows: Palmer & Sons, Buffalo; F. R. Pierson, Tarrytown, N. Y.; Bassett & Washburn, Hinsdale, N. Y.; John E. Haines, Bethlehem, Pa.; Chicago Carnation Co., Joliet, Ill.; W. Feasday, Brampton; Dale Petate, Brampton; W. J. Lawrence, Toronto; J. H. Dunlop, Toronto; Gammage & Sons, London; F. Dicks, London.

At 2:30 this afternoon a meeting of the executive of the Horticultural Society will be held and the place for the next convention selected.

A CATCHY PIECE AT THE GRAND

"Lovers and Lunatics," a Sparkling Musical Farce, on the Boards For Tonight.

That sparkling musical farce "Lovers and Lunatics" was presented at the Grand Opera House last night. If one were to judge by the merits of the performance, and the popular prices which prevailed, Manager Bowers' popular playhouse should have been packed to the doors. As it was the house was only fair.

The music of the piece, while not entirely new, was catchy and got enough of it, for every number received one or more encores. The humor was wholesome and almost utterly devoid of horseplay, while the entire production was run off without a jar, if any. As for the plot, it was on a par with the average musical farce, and every member helped in the fun-making.

Joe Morris in the leading role, is one of the cleverest delineators of the Hebrew character that has been seen in this city in a long time, and while he was on the stage but a comparatively short time, he left nothing undone, neither did he overdo his part. The fact that the comedian is a Hebrew himself may have had a deal to do with his delicacy in handling the part, but the fact remains that his work was entirely devoid of the overdone features which generally accompany the portrayal of national characters. Morris could sing. Possessed of a rich, tenor, and a high sense of humor, he seems to lack nothing that goes to make up a high class singing comedian.

As a rule, in productions of the kind the star actor occupies the center of the stage almost entirely. Not so with "Lovers and Lunatics." Everybody is given an opportunity to display his or her ability, and the fact that there are no rough spots in the show, speaks well for the entire company.

Next to Morris, the chief funmaker, was J. Maurice Holden, who gave a very clever, but highly ludicrous, impersonation of a spinster whose accented brother proclaimed that she was desirous of annexing a husband for better or for worse.

Miss Florence Little is not only a splendid vocalist, but a very clever actress as well, while the rest of the company, including the chorus, which is up to par, fully met all requirements.

"Lovers and Lunatics" will be presented again tonight, and those who are fond of catchy music, spontaneous humor and an evening of laughs should not miss the opportunity of witnessing this treat.

ADVANCE IN RATES

Storage rates for the old country have been advanced by some of the steamship lines. The advance, on account of the heavy immigration, CONTINUE TO INCREASE.

The London clearing house returns for the week ended today totalled $1,255,100, as compared with $921,065 for the corresponding week of 1906, showing an increase of $324,035.

TAKING SPECIAL COURSE.

Lieut. W. R. Brown and H. Ingram, of the Seventh Regiment, are taking a special course of instruction at Woitley Barracks. Lieut. T. N. Elliott, of the Twenty-sixth (Middlesex) Regiment, is also taking a special course.

WILL ATTEND CONVENTION.

Dr. English, chairman of the board of health, is showing the city that he can go to Ottawa to attend the tuberculosis convention despite the fact that the board of health refuses to pay his expenses. The doctor is paying the cost himself. He will be absent a week.

FULL Y LDOWN STOCK

The steadiness which followed the first bad break lasted until well after 12 o'clock. At that time another precipitate movement developed, and drove prices for some of the leaders to the lowest point of the year. The advanced Copper sold at 91, Reading 106, Union Pacific 139½, and St. Paul 134.

THE RENTON INQUEST

The coroner's inquest into the death of Engineer George Renton will be continued at the police station tomorrow night, when the evidence of Engineer Hardman and Fireman Baker of the International Limited, will be taken. Engineer Hardman left the hospital some time ago, but Fireman Baker was only able to leave the institution this week.

ANGLERS' ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Thames River Angling Association will be held tonight in the Knights of Pythias Hall. The speaker of the evening will be Mr. Allen Kinder, telegraph operator of the G. N. W., before leaving for Winnipeg, where he has secured a lucrative position. A most enjoyable time was spent in games and music, after which a dainty lunch was served by the hostesses. Best wishes were extended Mr. Kinder.

A FINE PRINTING ESTABLISHMENT

There is at present in course of construction in Toronto one of the most up-to-date printing establishments in Canada. It is being erected by Mr. Atwell Fleming, formerly superintendent of the Advertiser job department, who left this city some time ago to associate himself with Hunter, Rose & Co., of Toronto. He remained with that firm for some time, but for the last few years has been in business for himself. The building is being erected on the southeast corner of Duncan and Pearl streets, nearly opposite his present premises, and is in the district which will in future be known as "Printing House Square." Since the Toronto fire a great many firms have erected warehouses and manufacturing establishments in this locality, which is the Upper Canada College grounds. Mr. Fleming's knowledge of the printing art enables him to design a building with every convenience required, and it will be as nearly fireproof as possible. His many friends will learn with pleasure of the prosperity that has been his in the capital city of the Province.

GOES TO MOROCCO FOR HEALTH.

Mrs. Campbell's health broke down last summer after the strain of finishing her "Dearlove." She went to Tangier to recuperate. A large party of hotel women had been arranged to visit the English wife, but she declined to go. But alarmist reports were received that Raisuli was on the warpath and that Moorish brigands were prowling around seeking rich captives for ransom. In consequence all the members of the projected expedition backed out except two women, Mrs. Campbell and her friend, Mrs. Mansell Pleydell.

The latter is the wife of Col. Pleydell, an Englishman whose love of sport has caused him to sojourn long in the land of the Sherifian Sultan. There he met the conqueror of the Spanish colonies, who became a firm admirer of the Moorish chief. He earned Raisuli's gratitude by championing his cause with the British Government when he was an outlaw with a price upon his head.

BANDIT LIKE ROMAN CONQUEROR.

The leader, a tall man, riding a beautiful Moorish horse, was the most arresting personality I have ever seen," she said. "In his immaculate white robes, with his dark blue sulham floating around him over the crimson green, and vermillion of his high peaked saddle, he looked like nothing so much as the returning hero of some prince of the ancient Roman empire, revisiting the land his race had found so tough a hand—a tall man, with an ivory white skin, flashing dark eyes, thin straight brows, high, aquiline features, beard as a cameo, beautifully perfect. The mouth was hidden by a soft, silken hair, as was his chin, but the outline showed hard and resolute through the close cropped hair.

New York, March 14.—When the Thaw trial opened this morning Lawyer Abraham Hummel was recalled to the stand.

Delphin M. Delmas immediately began his argument in reply to District Attorney Jerome as to the admissibility of the evidence Hummel has to offer regarding an affidavit, Evelyn Nesbit is said to have made. In this affidavit, the district attorney stated yesterday Miss Nesbit asserted that Thaw had beaten her when she refused to sign papers charging White with her ruin, and swore that the charge against

Dr. Peters was born at Eramosa, Wellington County, on July 26, 1858, and received his early education at local schools. For some time he taught school, studying for his profession in the meantime. In 1886 he graduated from Toronto University with an M. B., and began the practice of medicine in Toronto. He early received a commission for military life and attained a rank in the Governor-General's Body Guards. Later he organized the Toronto Light Horse, and was given command as major, subsequently being appointed lieutenant-colonel in command.

His pleasure in riding made him an enthusiastic member of the Hunt Club and a splendid follower of the hounds, while his interest in horse shows led him to keep a stable of the saddle horses and to take a lively part in the affairs of the annual horse show. Golf was also one of his pleasures, and he was a well-known member of the Lambton and Toronto Golf Clubs.

In 1890 he was made a fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons, England, and was appointed a professor of surgery and of clinical surgery in the medical faculty of Toronto University.

Both as a surgeon and as a teacher he attained a wide reputation, and his contributions to surgical literature are regarded as valuable and as containing original ideas of importance. He was surgeon to the Toronto General Hospital and consulting surgeon to the Hospital for Sick Children.

A widow, who is the daughter of Chief Justice Sir William Meredith, and two daughters survive him. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon.

—The home of the Messrs. Sutherland, of Komoka, was the scene of a pleasant gathering on Tuesday evening, when a number of friends assembled and presented Miss Josie Sutherland with a beautiful hanging lamp. The evening was spent in music and games.

—A special freight bound for Sarula Tunnel jumped the rails at Strathroy yesterday afternoon. The main line west was blocked for a couple of hours, but the south track, or east main line, was used to allow trains to proceed both ways, so that there was no delay in the service. An auxiliary from London put the locomotive on the rails again.

—The funeral of the late Robert Logan took place at 2:30 yesterday afternoon from the family residence, lot 13, concession 2, West Nissouri Township. Rev. Mr. Snell, of Thorndale, conducted the services, and he was assisted by Rev. D. Rogers, also of Thorndale. Interment was made at Brown's Hill cemetery. The pallbearers were eight nephews of the deceased—Messrs. Frank H. Logan, Geo. Colbert, Richard Bulaya, John Colbert, Joseph Logan, Nelson Bulaya, Earnest Colbert, and Wm. Moscovy.

—The W. C. T. U. week of prayer, which was commenced on Tuesday afternoon, closed with a great deal of interest among the members. Yesterday afternoon the revival in India was the subject of prayer. A letter from Dr. Woodbourne, formerly of this city, was read. Dr. Woodbourne is now at Yellamanchilly and his letter told of the wonderful work being done.

—A very enjoyable time was spent by ninety guests at a dance given by Miss Emma Burch and Miss Ada Metcalf, of Pottersburg, at the residence of Mrs. College, Westminster, on Monday evening. The occasion was one of a series of dances given at Mrs. College's residence. Amongst those present were Mr. and Mrs. McCully, Mr. and Mrs. Rollins, Mrs. Metcalf, the Misses Metcalf, Mr. T. Whitaker, of Hamilton; Mr. Drake and Mr. Sid Dark, of Pottersburg.

INJURED COACHMAN IMPROVES. Samuel Owen, the coachman, who was kicked by a horse on Tuesday afternoon, rested well at the hospital last night, and this morning his condition was reported to be much improved.

SENTENCE WAS SUSPENDED. John Nevills, of Port Stanley, was yesterday allowed to go on suspended sentence by Judge Colter, of St. Thomas. Nevills was arrested in connection with the robbery of the summer cottages at Port, and was convicted of concealing goods knowing them to have been stolen.

FESTIVAL CONCERTS. Mr. Jordan has secured an extra attraction for the afternoon concert, in the appearance of Miss Edna Richardson, the wonderfully-gifted young American pianist, who has just returned from great successes abroad. Miss Richardson will play the Liszt Concert in E Flat at the afternoon concert. The other soloists who appear at the matinee are Madame Marie Zimmerman, soprano; Miss Elaine de Solen, contralto; Dr. Hugo Schuster, bass; and Herr Franz Wagner, cellist. At the evening concert, Mr. Edward Towne, the eminent tenor, of Chicago, will appear in addition to the other singers. The 50-cent seats for the afternoon concert may be reserved at the Opera House. There are still good seats on the evening plan at all prices. As large parties are coming from the nearly towns, who will not purchase their seats until they arrive, it will be as well for those in the city who want good seats to secure them early.

PATTERSON-TALBOT.

A very pleasant event took place at Wyton on Tuesday last, when Miss Mary Agnes Vieta Talbot was wedded to Mr. William L. Patterson, of Glenworth. The ceremony was performed at 10 o'clock in the Methodist Church by Rev. D. Rogers. At its conclusion the guests repaired to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Talbot, where a splendid dinner was served, about forty guests sitting down. Very many valuable presents were received by the bride, who was one of the most popular young ladies of the district. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson left later on a honeymoon trip to Toronto and other eastern points. Upon their return they will reside at Glenworth.

SMITH-ARNOLD. A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Arnold, 506 Nelson street, at noon yesterday, when their daughter, M. Laura, was united in marriage to Herbert H. Smith, of Watford, Rev. D. E. Martin, of the Hamilton road Methodist Church, officiating. The bride looked very pretty in pearl gray tulle, and carried a large bouquet of carnations and smilax. She entered the parlor leaning on the arm of her father and took her place beneath an arch of evergreens. The young couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Arnold, of Dracenoey avenue, city. After congratulations the guests partook of a wedding breakfast. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left on the afternoon train for Watford, where they will spend a few days before leaving for Saskatoon, where they intend making their home.

Pearls imported from Australia and Panama are all of medicinal value. Generally speaking, the Indian pearls command the highest price, because of their superior form (many of them being perfectly round), and their brilliant luster.

TESTED BY TIME—In his justly-celebrated pills, Dr. Zerkel has given to the world one of the most unique medicines offered to the public in late years. Prepared to meet the want for a pill which could be taken without nausea, and that would purge without pain, it has met all requirements in that direction, and it is in general use not only because of these two qualities, but because it is known to possess aervative and curative powers. Discharged near Boston, claims that its smithy is the original forge which inspired the famous verses on "The Village Blacksmith." It is a picturesque old place, and the "spreading chestnut tree" still flourishes in front of it.

RECOGNIZED REGULATOR.—To bring the digestive organs into normal and healthy working is the aim of physicians when they find a patient suffering from stomachic irregularities, and for this purpose they can prescribe nothing better than Parmentier's Vegetable Pills, which will be found a pleasant, medicine of surprising virtue in bringing the refractory organs into subjection and restoring them to normal action, in which condition only can they perform their duties properly.

HEELS OF GOLD. Slippers of cloth of gold dazzled the eyes of beholders last year, but this season mere cloth of gold is not remarkable in New York. Real gold must be a part of milady's footwear. Not whole slippers of 22 karat; holy smoke, not just footwear for which there are made overheads of gold in a Pittsburg Dispatch. graceful openwork design. They go over the heels of satin or silk slippers, which are the color of the gown worn. The delicate colors gleam most attractively through the openwork of gold. Though it may seem to Pittsburg women a great extravagance to wear heels of solid gold, that is a mistake, for the same pair of gold heels may be used on many sets of slippers.—Cor.
