GOVT. CIRCLES FEARFUL THAT COALITION CABINET IMPOSSIBLE

(LOOKING TO LAURIER TO SAVE SITUATION)

FURIOUS DRIVE OF GERMANS IS BEATEN OFF BY BAYONETS AND ARTILLERY OF FRENCH

Many Successive Waves of Enemy of Great Strength Are Thrown at the French Line in Champagne, Only To Be Repulsed With Heavy Losses.

Paris, May 31.—Noon.—The Germans attacked the French lines in the Champagne with extreme violence at several points last night. The attacking forces were checked at some places by the French fire and at others at the point of the bayonet, the Germans retiring each time after heavy losses, the war office announced today.

The fighting was particularly desperate in the region of the Teton, the Casque and Mont Haut, the attack being launched in four successive waves after a heavy bombardment from large calibre guns and suffocating gas shells.

The French took prisoners during the fighting, including two officers.

THE OFFICIAL STORY.

Paris, May 31.—The French statement follows:

"There was pronounced activity by the artillery south of St. Quentin, and on the Chemin-des-Dames, north of Jouy, near Cerny, and in the vicinity of Hurtebise, where a number of patrol encounters also occurred.

"In the Champagne the enemy made sharp attacks at several points on our front during the night following violent bombardment in which poisonous gas shells, and shells from large calibre guns were discharged. Northwest of Auberive, and at Mont Blond, all the German efforts were checked, by our fire. The enemy attacked with particular strength our positions at the Teton, the Casque and Mont Haut. We repulsed four different attacks after a struggle of extreme severity. The fighting began at about 2 o'clock, and was continued until daybreak. Broken up by our fire or repulsed by the bayonet, the attacking troops each time were hurled back in disorder to the trenches whence they came, after having suffered heavy losses. Only at one point on the front attacked, northeast of Mont Haut, did enemy troops gain a footing in some advanced positions. We took a number of prisoners, of whom two are officers.

On the left bank of the Meuse (Verdun), the artillery fighting was spirited in the region of Hill 304.

"Two attacks by the enemy were repulsed completely."

TOMMY KEEPS FRITZ IN STATE OF 'NERVES' WITH MINOR AFFAIRS

No Masses of Troops in Action But British Keep Harrying Enemy.

[By William Philip Simms.]

With the British Armies in the Field, May 31.—Local attacks, raids, mutual bombardments, incessant minor activity, continued today all along the front, but there was portentious "quiet" in the strictly military sense. No masses of troops were in action.

A small British attack south of the Scarpe staged this morning was a failure. The Prussians were too wide awake to make the surprise a success. At 3:30 a.m. British guns began an active bombardment of the Hindenburg line northwest of Bullecourt, and for some distance along that sector. Half an hour later the enemy retaliated with a similar period of artillery fire against British positions west of Bullecourt, and southeast of Croisilles.

In the meantime the British nipped an attempted German raid around Fleurbax and set the Boches scurrying back across No Man's Land.

The Germans are plainly puzzled by the lull in the general offensive movement. Their lines are excited into eruptions of star shells and volleys of machine gun fire at the slightest movement in the British trenches.

NO CHANGE IN LAW ON LIQUOR SELLING WHILE CRISIS LASTS

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, May 31.—J. D. Flavelle, chairman of the Ontario License Commission, returned from Ottawa this morning, where he went respecting regulations to restrict the solicitation of liquor orders in Ontario by outside concerns. Mr. Flavelle states that nothing further will be done in the matter while the political situation at Ottawa remains unsettled.

NEARLY 7,000 IN THE MILITARY HOSPITALS

Ottawa, May 31.—The military hospitals commission reports that on May 22 there were 6,778 men under its care, including 5,600 convalescents and 720 tuberculosis patients.

Of the total, 5,524 had returned from overseas, while 1,355 had been invalided without leaving the country.

The total for May 15 was 6,269. There was, therefore, an increase of 509 during the week ending with May 22.

CARRIER BOYS WILL DELIVER MORNING PAPER ON THEIR PICNIC DAY

The annual school children's picnic will be held tomorrow. It is the big day in the year for the kiddies. The Advertiser is anxious to do what is possible to add to their pleasure, and believes Advertiser subscribers share in this desire.

As most of the carrier boys serving Advertiser customers are school boys, it would seriously interfere with 'their day' to require them to deliver the afternoon paper as usual. Consequently arrangements have been made to have them deliver the morning edition instead. Readers of the afternoon edition will doubtless be glad to make this concession for a day in behalf of their faithful little carriers.

Hydro Can Purchase West Shore Assets R.R. Board Decides

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, May 31.—By an order of the Ontario Railway Board this morning, upon application on behalf of Thos. Stothers, trustee for the bondholders, permission is given for the sale of assets of the Ontario West Shore Railway Company, valued at about $120,000, to the hydro-electric commission. This was the line which was promoted by John W. Moyer, whose whereabouts have for some years been sought by residents of Huron County who invested in the enterprise. The attorney-general has repeatedly been assailed in the Legislature for failure to apprehend Moyers, who hypothecated the bonds of this company.

SPAIN NEARS GREAT REVOLT; MADRID SAYS CRISIS GRAVE

Situation So Serious Constitutional Guarantees May Be Withdrawn.

Madrid, via Paris, May 31.—According to the newspapers the constitutional guarantees will be suspended again in two or three days.

Former Premier Count Romonanes has declared to an intimate friend that he regretted that he was not invited to the mass meeting held by pro-Ally sympathizers last Sunday. He said that if he had been present he would have maintained the declarations made in his letter to King Alfonso at the time he resigned. He added that many Liberals who were partisans of the Allies would also have liked to be present. Discussing the same subject with the correspondent of a French newspaper, Count Romonanes said:

"The meeting was of obvious importance. It will perhaps exercise a greater influence on foreign than home policies."

A Grave Situation.

Asked what he thought of the situation in Spain, the former premier declared that it became more grave and more confused every day, and every hour of the day. Questioned as to whether he thought the Cortes would be summoned, Count Romonanes smiled and answered: "I am not too sure of that."

Minister of the Interior Burels has prohibited all public manifestations relative to international questions as "dangerous to the interests of the country, in view of the important diplomatic negotiation now going on." Several such demonstrations had been planned in Madrid and other cities.

The constitutional guarantees were suspended in Spain at the end of March following several strikes and serious disorders throughout the country. It was reported in Washington that a revolutionary movement was in progress, but this was denied by the Spanish ambassador. The operations of the censorship have cut off definite information regarding the recent internal situation in Spain.

FLYING CADET MEETS DEATH AT DESERONTO

Burned To Death in Plane While Flying With Vernon Castle.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, May 31.—W. E. Fraser of Winnipeg, Canadian aviator cadet, was killed and Lieut. Vernon Castle, well-known dancer and aviation instructor, had a miraculous escape at the Royal Flying Corps training ground, Mohawk Camp, Deseronto, yesterday.

Castle and his pupil were just ascending for flight when something went wrong with the engine, and there was an explosion. The machine smashed into a building and Castle was thrown out on to the roof. The cadet was burned to death in the aeroplane. Castle is not badly hurt.

MUST NOT QUIT

Australian Postmaster Says There Must Be Another Conscription Vote.

Melbourne, May 30—(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency).—Hon. Mr. Webster, postmaster-general of the Commonwealth, addressing a mass meeting of over two thousand people, held outside the town hall here today, was loudly cheered when he declared that they must again appeal to the people to adopt conscription. The only other alternative was disgrace. "Australia must not quit," he declared.

FRITCH GOES SOUTH.

Norfolk, Va., May 31.—L. C. Fritch, general manager of the Canadian Northern Railroad, has been appointed general manager of the Seaboard Air Line, succeeding C. S. Lake, resigned.

SUBS TRAPPED ON WAY HOME

London, May 31.—The Daily News' naval correspondent writes:

"Although official secrecy must be stringently observed, it is regarded as significant that a strong impression prevails in outside circles that there is now a greater element of certainty as to the fate of enemy submarines.

"Those theorists who lately have been discussing in the press the probability of the present comparative inactivity of submarines being due to many having returned to port for overhauling with a view to coming out again in force and repeating their earlier performances, are not generally credited in influential circles. They will never come back, for the simple reason they have been trapped on their way home."

GOVT. FOOD COMMISSION TO BE NAMED; NO FOOD CONTROLLER

Ottawa, May 31.—The Government has temporarily abandoned the idea of a food dictator, and is preparing an order-in-council which provides for a food commission instead. This body would consist of five members, but the personnel has not yet been announced.

CASUALTIES FOR MAY NUMBER 106,331 MEN AND 5,902 OFFICERS

Losses Small When Compared With Those of the Somme Drive.

London, May 31.—British casualties as published in May show a total of 5,902 officers and 106,331 men.

The British offensive on the Arras front, involving some of the severest fighting of the war, naturally has resulted in a large increase in casualties over the inactive winter season. Casualties for the last few months have not been received, but in February the total reported was only 1,243 officers and 17,185 men.

The assertion of the British that their losses are 50 per cent smaller than in the Battle of the Somme, notwithstanding the fact that large forces are engaged, is not borne out by the May figures, although in the absence of the casualties report for April, early in which month the offensive was launched, the showing is not conclusive. The casualties recorded in the first three months of the Somme drive were 307,169 officers and men. In August of last year, the second month of the Somme battle, the casualties were 127,945, as compared with 112,233 for May, the second month of the Arras battle.

WINNIPEG RAILWAYMEN ACCEPT BOARD AWARD

Winnipeg, May 31.—Nine hundred employees of the Winnipeg street railway, at a meeting this morning, decided to accept the award of the board of arbitrators, which dealt with the demands of the union for increased pay and better working conditions. The company still has to accept or refuse the award.

Street railway employees have been receiving from 25 to 34 cents per hour, the maximum being reached in the fourth year. They demanded a scale of 28 to 37 cents per hour, reaching the maximum in the third year. The award gives them 28 to 36 cents with the maximum in the fourth year, as well as certain improvements in working conditions. The proposed rate is 28 cents for the first six months, 30 cents for the second six months, 31 cents for the second year, 33 cents for the third year, and 36 cents thereafter. The arbitrators were Judge Myers (chairman), Isaac Pitblado for the company, and R. A. Rigg for the men.

HOSTILE RAIDERS ARE DRIVEN OFF BY HAIG

London, May 31—1:07 a.m.—"A hostile raiding party was driven off early this morning south of Armentieres," says today's official report, on the Franco-Belgian front operations. "We secured a few prisoners.

"There was considerable artillery activity on both sides during the night in the neighborhood of Bullecourt, and on the right bank of the Scarpe."

LOCAL TEMPERATURES.

Following were the highest and lowest temperatures recorded in London during the 24 hours previous to 8 o'clock last night: Highest, 73; lowest, 35.

The official temperatures for the 12 hours previous to 8 a.m. today were: Highest, 65; lowest, 50.

IT WAS NOT SO FOUR MAYS AGO

The hawthorne blooms in England,
And all her lanes are gay,
But there are eyes in England
That see it not today,
And there are hearts in England
The cuckoo calls in vain—
It was not so four Mays ago,
Ere England's youth was slain.

There lies in Severn's valley
An English cricket field,
Where strong young arms of England
No more the "willow" wield;
Unshorn the pitch, neglected
Through months of sun and rain—
It was not so four Mays ago,
Ere England's youth was slain.

The flowers that grow in England
Smile kindly as of yore,
But there are eyes in England
That smile, alas, no more;
But look in mine, pain-haunted.
And fill with tears again—
It was not so four Mays ago,
Ere England's youth was slain.

HORSEMEN WANTED FOR OCEAN VOYAGE

Civilians to look after horses during the voyage across the Atlantic are wanted by the military authorities, according to an announcement made by Lieut.-Col. Brown, assistant adjutant-general, today.

A call has been sent out for civilians to volunteer for this work without joining the army or naval forces, and $35 is offered to foremen and $20 to ordinary workers for the voyage. This would also include food and lodging during the going and return trips. Men who wish to volunteer for this work can get any information they may require by applying to Lieut. Stewart, assistant director of veterinary supplies at Queen's Park.

PARIS STRIKES CONTINUE.

Paris, May 31.—Strikes continue in the various women's industries, including the women railroad employees, who are asking an increase in wages. The companies made concessions, but these were not sufficient to satisfy the claims. Groups of women continue to gather at the labor headquarters and along the boulevards and streets. The police keep them moving, and so far no disturbance has occurred.

CONSERVATIVES ADMIT BORDEN GOVT. FAILED IN WAR REQUIREMENTS; WANT MIXED CABINET

SIR WILFRID IS MAN FOR CRISIS, SAYS SIR L. GOUIN

Knows Nothing of Being Called To Join the Dominion Cabinet.

Quebec, May 31.—Spoken to about the question that he had been called to be a member in a coalition cabinet at Ottawa, Sir Lomer Gouin, premier of Quebec, today said he had not heard of it and added: "The Canadian people may rely on Sir Wilfrid Laurier in this grave crisis."

Asked whether he had met Sir Wilfrid Laurier in Montreal yesterday, he answered that he had.

COALITION CABINET MUST NOT BE PARTY AFFAIR, SAYS MURRAY; BEST MEN DESIRED

Halifax, N. S., May 31.—While he did not hesitate to express the opinion that he believed the situation in Canada demanded as much unity as possible, Premier Murray, when interviewed today regarding the published report that he was to be invited to enter a coalition and win-the-war Cabinet, declined to discuss the proposed personnel of the new Government. He said that the opinion he had advanced a few days ago on the subject of conscription was still his opinion, and he felt more strongly convinced than ever that party administration of public affairs under existing conditions was impracticable and would only lead to undesirable results.

No Party Control Wanted.

The premier said that, in his opinion, coalition government, in order to be efficient, should be constructed on fair and bona-fide lines, and that any attempt toward party preponderance or control was not the kind of coalition that the public were looking for. "Coalition," concluded the premier, "should mean the taking in of men who have the confidence of their respective parties."

Speaking yesterday at a luncheon tendered the members of the Anglican Synod, now in session here, by the alumni of King's College, Premier Murray spoke in favor of coalition. He said that this was no time for party dickering or party strife. It was, he said, a time when the very best should be given, when Liberal and Conservative should lay aside their party feelings and unite for the one great object of presenting a united and unanimous front, not only to Canada, but to the whole world.

Laurier and Pardee Back from Conference With Provincial Leaders, But Govt. Fears Obstacles to Coalition Are Too Great.

LIBERALS NOT LIKELY TO SHOULDER MISTAKES OF PRESENT ADMINISTRATION

Toronto, May 31.—When asked today concerning the probability of his becoming a member of a coalition government at Ottawa, Mr. N. W. Rowell, leader of the Liberal Opposiiton in this province, said he had nothing to say on that question.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

Ottawa, May 31.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Chief Whip Pardee are back from conferences with leading provincial Liberals. They are saying nothing as to the results of their mission. In Conservative circles this morning the fear is expressed that coalition has encountered obstacles which may not be overcome. This fear does not appear to be founded upon any positive information which has been given out, but upon the dread that it is too good a thing to be hoped for.

GOVERNMENT HAS FAILED.

The Conservatives this morning are admitting that the Government has not in many cases risen to the requirements which have confronted it since the war broke. They say that if the Liberals join with the Government at the present time they silence themselves as critics, and practically become parties to Government acts, which are deserving of criticism. They make themselves partners to the national service and the home defence fiascoes, and to the appointment of such an unsuitable person as Sir George Perley to the duties of looking after Canadian business and military affairs on the other side of the Atlantic.

ROGERS AN OBSTACLE.

They also feel that the Liberal minority in a coalition ministry might be forced to compromise itself by agreeing to giving Sir Robert Rogers a post in order to relieve the cabinet of his presence. Then there is the question of filling the numerous Senate vacancies. Already the Liberals have protested that with political truce declared in the Commons the Government is not keeping strict faith between parties by filling all Liberal senatorial vacancies with Conservatives, and piling up a great Government majority in the Senate. Under coalition it is not expected that the Conservative following would consent to the appointment of even a few Liberals to the Upper House.

LEADERS CONSIDERING.

It is clear that all of these things are under the consideration of both Sir Robert and Sir Wilfrid. It is also expected that Sir Wilfrid will not hesitate to recommend some modification of the prime ministers' compulsory service proposals.

Such modifications would not be welcome to the most extreme of the Ontario Conservative members. Though they have made it their business and their pleasure to abuse Sir Wilfrid, at the same time they have always had in the back of their heads profound admiration for both the wisdom and patriotism of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. It is hardly going too far to say that today these qualities of the Liberal leader are the main foundation of the hope that the Conservatives have of a solution of the present difficulty being discovered.

BOTH LOOK TO LAURIER.

Both sides are looking to Laurier as the leader with the ability to rescue the Government and Parliament from the trouble into which national service home guard and the premature announcement of compulsory service have led them. There is also recognition of the fact that Laurier is entitled to concessions and enough liberty of action to enable him to prevent Henri Bourassa gaining the absolute control of the province of Quebec.

Though there is no announcement, the feeling this morning is that Sir Robert may defer for a few days the bringing down of his announced compulsory service measure tomorrow. Time is one of the elements of the situation, and it is recognized that the Liberal leader may require more days in which to organize his situation.

GOUIN, MURRAY, ROWELL INVITED TO ENTER DOMINION GOVERNMENT SAYS GOVT. ORGAN---REFUSAL MEANS VOTE

Ottawa, May 31.—Sir Lomer Gouin, premier of Quebec, Hon. George H. Murray, premier of Nova Scotia, and Newton W. Rowell, Liberal-Opposition leader in the Ontario Legislature, have been invited to enter the Dominion cabinet, according to an article on the political situation published in this morning's Journal-Press.

General Election Soon?

If they refuse, the article contends, there will in all probability be a general election within a few weeks.

The rumor that an election will follow upon a failure of the coalition scheme Sir Robert Borden is reported to have under consideration, caused plenty of excitement in Ottawa today.

The official silence maintained since the premier's conscription announcement in the House was in force today.

Sir Wilfrid Back.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier returned last night from his conference with Sir Lomer Gouin in Montreal. The unofficial gossip about the result of that conference is not favorable to the alleged coalition scheme.

Reports of utterances of Mr. Murray in Halifax seem to indicate that he is not unfavorable to a coalition government. It is recalled that Mr. Rowell is not against conscription.

If Coalition Fails.

There is plenty of talk around the House, all unauthoritative, that if coalition fails the premier will decide upon a cabinet reconstruction, taking new material from the ranks of his own party and jamming through the Parliament an extension measure and conscription as well, the conscription bill to be enforced after voluntary recruiting has been given the final chance. The band of gossips discount the election talk.

Meanwhile it is agreed in some parliamentary quarters that Sir Robert is waiting till the situation clears one way or the other before going on with consideration of the conscription bill, which is said to be ready for introduction to the House.

TORNADO KILLS MANY IN SEVERAL STATES

St. Louis, Mo., May 31.—Tornadoes in Missouri and Southern Illinois yesterday caused the death of at least ten persons and the injury of fifty or more, according to advices today from the various communities over which the storm passed. At Mineral Point, Mo., four were killed and thirty injured; at Palmer three are known to be dead and a number injured, and at Eye one man was killed. In Alexander County, Illinois, two men were killed and another fatally hurt.

Four other Missouri towns, Graniteville, Bonne Terre, Diehlsadt and Bismarck, were reported struck by the storm, but definite information has not yet come from those points.

The twister which took four lives at Mineral Point flattened every structure in the village with the exception of the schoolhouse.

Much property damage was done in Alexander County, Illinois, where two men lost their lives. One of the freaks of the Illinois storm occurred near Mounds, where a ten-ton steam road roller was lifted and whirled for fifty feet.

An automatic block signal on the Iron Mountain Railroad near Mineral Point, put into operation by the wind, warned a Memphis-St. Louis train carrying 400 passengers, who watched the storm destroy the village, and then gave aid to the injured. The victims were placed on the train and taken to Desoto, where they were cared for at the Railroad Y. M. C. A.

BROTHERS UNITED ON BATTLEFIELD AT CAPTURE OF RIDGE

One Transporting Prisoners To Rear Met by Brother.

HUGHES BOYS ELATED

Come Together by Chance After Separation of Two Years.

Brothers reunited upon the battlefield of France after being separated for two years and a half, was the happy experience of Orville C. and Wilfrid C. Hughes, sons of G. T. R. Special Constable John Hughes, as related in a letter received by the latter today written by the elder son, Wilfrid.

The meeting was on the afternoon of May 1st last, and was entirely accidental, as neither was aware that the other was in the neighborhood.

It was just behind the front line trenches at Vimy Ridge after a terrific charge by the British and Canadians, in which a number of German prisoners had been taken. Wilfrid was one of a party detailed to remove a number of German prisoners to the rear, and while they were marching along the road met another party coming up. As the two parties met they exchanged greetings and cheered each other. Wilfrid recognized his brother in the party, and the glad reunion followed, both being allowed a short leave.

Wilfrid enlisted with a draft from the Mechanical Corps that left Toronto in December, 1914. He was gassed at St. Eloi the Sunday before Christmas, 1915, while his unit was repairing wire entanglements.

Orville C., the younger brother, took a lieutenant's course last summer, secured his commission and proceeded overseas with a special draft. Later he was attached to the 135th Battalion.

OTTAWA WANTS TO KNOW WHEREABOUTS OF MRS. MAY MAYNARD

A communication from Lieut. D. McKenna of the officers' estates department, military headquarters, Ottawa, has been received by Chief of Police Williams requesting that information be furnished, if possible concerning the present whereabouts of Mrs. May Maynard, whose last known residence was in this city. The information, the letter states, is required by the department in order to assist in the winding up of her late husband's military estate. If Mrs. Maynard is living in the city or her address known, if such information be furnished Inspector Birrell at the police station, the same will be forwarded to the proper authorities at Ottawa.

ELEVEN FOUND FIT FOR OVERSEAS WORK

Slight improvement was noticeable in the local recruiting situation yesterday when 14 men were examined at the London mobilization centre, of whom 11 were found fit, and 3 unfit for service in the Canadian forces. Eight of the men who passed were from London, and one came from each of three towns, Goderich, St. Thomas and Chatham. Men of Canadian birth led the list with 7, 2 were of English birth, while Scotland and the United States claimed 1 each. The 63rd Depot Battery got most of these who passed yesterday, leading the other units with 4 men, and the Army Medical Corps came next with 2 men. The remaining men were rather evenly divided among several units in the city, the Army Service Corps, the Railway Construction Company, the Canadian Engineers, the Cyclists, and the 25th Regiment Overseas Company at St. Thomas each getting one man.

Two brothers, A. Powell and W. Powell, offered themselves for service yesterday, and when they had passed the medical examination, chose the Army Medical Corps as the unit they preferred to join. Their father has been overseas for some time.

The following men passed the medical board yesterday: G. Vaughan, D. W. Perkuson, A. Powell, W. Powell, T. H. Walker, T. R. Spittal, J. Almas, P. J. McKay, London; H. K. H. Ross, Goderich; J. E. Faulkerson, St. Thomas; H. H. McRae, Chatham.

SON'S WOUND NOT SERIOUS, FATHER HEARS

Mr. P. H. Bartlett, barrister, has received a cablegram from his son, Lieut. W. T. Bartlett, reported wounded, stating that he is in the Andres Keney Hospital, Kingston-on-the-Thames, and that his wounds are not serious.

INVESTIGATORS WILL MEET AT FIRE HALL

The special committee to investigate the charges laid against Lieut. Rutherbough by the Trades and Labor Council will meet in the central fire hall on Saturday night.

There will be additional charges presented. The one under consideration at the present time is that of getting paid by the city while on sick leave, when he received pay for working with the C. S. Hyman Company. He will also be charged with being absent without leave, for which time he received pay. Others are mooted, but no definite information could be obtained regarding them.

The committee will make the investigation most searching, and will get all possible information on the conduct of the department, in an attempt to clear up the atmosphere.

It is possible that some of the members may be disciplined.

UTILITIES REFUSES TO PAY TAXES ON CITY HYDRO LAND

The Collector Contends That $2,300 Is Due Community.

ACT PASSED LAST YEAR

Council Likely To Force Payment After Papers Are Consulted.

The utilities commission has refused to pay the city the sum of $2,300 taxes due the city on assessment of the lands owned by the commission for hydro purposes.

At the last session of the Legislature an act was passed making the lands owned by the commissions liable for taxation, and the tax collector has figured out that the local commission owes the city that sum of money.

Copies of the act will be secured, and the collector will be given the authority of the council to collect the amount.

POSTPONE CASES SO THAT FARMERS MAY KEEP BUSY

Judge Macbeth Urged To Lay Over Jury Actions.

DEPT. MAKES REQUEST

Counsel Expected To Comply in Order To Facilitate Production.

The Dominion department of justice has sent a communication to Judge Macbeth, requesting that he exercise his influence in having as many as possible of the jury cases set down for trial at the June sessions postponed until the December sittings of the county court. The department in making the request states that in view of the need of greater production that it is vitally important at this time of the year that the men summoned from the agricultural districts be not detained any longer than possible.

In view of this, it is expected that a number of the twelve jury actions listed for the April next week will be sent on to the December sittings. It is understood that local lawyers interested in different cases have signified a willingness to urge upon their clients a postponement of the cases where possible.

100 MEN SOON WILL LEAVE FOR EAST

About 100 members of the Overseas Detachment, Canadian Engineers, will form a draft, which will leave for eastern training points at the end of this week. Fifty men will be sent to the Engineers' Signal Training Depot at Ottawa, and the other fifty will go to the Engineers Training Depot at St. John, N. B.

The Signal Training Depot of the Engineers offers wide opportunity to men desiring to serve their country overseas, and at the same time learn something that will enable them to make good in civilian life. Men are wanted to handle horses, to drive wagons, to ride bicycles or motorcycles, and others are trained as telephone, telegraph and wireless telegraph operators. Every man is made a specialist, and the opportunity for clerks, accountants and men of similar occupation is excellent.

FORESTRY COMPANY ALMOST AT STRENGTH

No. 1 Forestry Company, under command of Major Taylor, is rapidly increasing in strength, and it is expected that in a few days it will be up to the full strength of a forestry company. Today the parade state stood at 159 men, and it will be only a short time before the 177 men required will be on the roll. Major Taylor is having all his men inoculated by the A. M. C. officers so that every one will be ready and no delay will be occasioned when the time comes for them to depart for overseas service. Last week 53 men were secured, and this week's recruits to the "Foresters" are: S. Smith, M. Sipple, A. Freeman, A. Cotton, A. E. Turner, W. J. Pedvin, J. H. Reed, P. Tomelow, T. R. Spittal and D. Willis.

EMPRESS AVE. REPORTS SHOW CHURCH TO BE IN HEALTHY CONDITION

Empress avenue Methodist Church was shown to be in a flourishing condition when reports from all departments were presented at the annual meeting last night. During the year monies to the amount of $5,200 were raised by the congregation, which with 61 new members numbered 329. The Woman's Missionary Society raised $246; the Sunday school $631. Enough money was added to the Sunday school building fund to make the total $275. The Sunday school orchestra composed of twenty members raised $103. The Epworth League with its membership increased by twenty-three raised $55. The Ladies Aid raised $245.

The Kensington Sunday School, now under the direction of the Empress avenue board, also presented an excellent report. The amount raised for missions was $730, an amount well in advance of any previous year. Added to this sum was $346 raised by the W.M.S., making the total for missions $1076.

Robert Greene a former member of the congregation presided and congratulated the church on its good showing. The pastor, Rev. J. D. Richardson and the officials were also heartily congratulated. Miss Chapman and Mr. Ferguson contributed several well received solos to the program after which a luncheon was provided by wives of members of the board.

Society representatives on the official board were appointed as follows: H. McLeod, Dr. S. J. T. Bean, C. Fuller, A. Bond, D. Berry, E. Hickson and Thomas Cochrill.

LT.-COL. DAVIS WILL COMMAND 58 HOSPITALS

Advertiser Illustration.

Very Rev. Dean Davis today received a letter from his son, Lieut.-Col. E. G. Davis, who has been in command of No. 3 Stationary Hospital, both at Lemnos and in France, stating that he had been removed from France to England, where he will have command of 58 imperial croup hospitals. Major Clifford Reason, also a Londoner, who has been in charge of Canadian hospitals in England, will take over the command of Lieut.-Col. Davis in France.

The letter in part says:

"At present I am studying the Imperial Croup Hospital system in the neighborhood of London, but will soon be at Shorncliffe, where I will make my headquarters. Altogether I will have 58 imperial hospitals under me. Send letters to O. C. Shorncliffe Military Hospital, Kent, England."

TORONTO PULLED UP ON SPENDING; A HINT FOR LONDON

Queen City Warned of Danger in Recklessness.

HALF-MILLION TO GOOD

Forest City Is Within That Amount of Its Borrowing Power.

The city has reached within half a million dollars of its borrowing powers, but from present indications it will not be greatly added to this year.

Toronto has been going the spending pace, and the city treasurer there has pulled the council up short. However, London is not going to undertake much expenditure this year, that will add much to the already heavy debenture indebtedness.

There are some pavements being laid, the total expenditure of which will not amount to more than $75,000. Of this the city will be charged with only $25,000.

Storm sewers costing $80,000 may be constructed, but this is not definitely settled. Sewers for Knollwood Park are also being considered, adding 60,000 to the amount. There is considerable doubt that these will be undertaken this year.

"We are in pretty fair condition here," said City Treasurer Bell. "We are also being considered, adding $60,000 debt this year, and I do not look for a great increase, in fact it will be very small."

IS ON A HUNT FOR MISSING TREASURE

City Treasurer James S. Bell is on the still hunt for six bags of potatoes. When the mayor purchased the last car of tubers they were sold from the market square and the fire halls.

In tallying up his accounts, Mr. Bell has discovered that six bags are missing, and he is trying to locate them.

Whether they were lost at the fire halls or elsewhere cannot be learned. Fire Chief Aitken will make an investigation in an effort to locate the wandering spuds.

In the meantime the city will be out $24 until they are located.

SHOPLIFTER TEARS HAIR AND SHRIEKS IN POLICE COURT

Young Married Woman and Mother Plead Guilty.

ARRAY OF WOMEN'S WEAR

Valuable Silks From Local Stores Decorate Court Room.

Tearing her hair, throwing herself upon the floor in a fit of hysterical weeping and shrieking at the top of her voice that "I don't care whether they kill me or not," Accello Dermo, a good-looking young married woman, pleaded guilty in police court today to three charges of theft.

Labetta Marillo, a middle-aged woman of the same nationality, also pleaded guilty to two charges, her statements being that the shoplifting had been committed while the two were together. Both reside at 7 Dundas street.

Pile of Costly Articles.

Upon the table in front of the magistrate's bench was arrayed a miscellaneous collection of feminine wearing apparel that would have made glad the heart of any woman. In the commission of the thefts they had exercised good judgment, having selected practically all silk articles.

Each pleaded guilty to thefts from Raphael Mack Company, representing $50; from Smallman & Ingram, $25, and from John H. Chapman, $20. The articles stolen were silk coats, waists, underskirts, scarfs, cloaks and other articles.

Remanded to Jail.

The plea of the Marillo woman was taken through an interpreter, Dominico Cusolito, the younger woman understanding English. Both were remanded to jail for one week for sentence. The stolen articles produced in court were identified by representatives of the above-mentioned firms and turned over to them by order of the magistrate. Numerous other articles recovered at the house will be held at the police station awaiting identification of the owners.

Both women are married, and their husbands appeared in court for the hearing.

Must Support Family.

A citizen appeared in court charged with failing to support his wife and child. The information was laid by the wife, who gave evidence as to her husband's failure to support her and the child. An older daughter and a boarder corroborated the evidence of the wife as to trouble at various times at the house. The husband agreed to pay $5 a week towards the support of the wife and child, which was agreed upon finally by all.

The arrests of both women were made as the result of reports of the above-mentioned firms, who complained as to the loss of many articles. Detectives investigated and recovered the stolen articles.

COALITION GOVT. OR ELECTIONS FACING BORDEN'S MINISTRY

Alternatives Before Dominion Govt. as Result of Crisis.

TO CALL IN LIBERALS

Reported Rowell, Gouin, Murray and Sir Wilfrid May Be Called In.

Montreal, May 30—Sir Wilfrid Laurier was in this city for a few hours today, supposedly ascertaining from Sir Lomer Gouin, premier of the province of Quebec, who met Sir Wilfrid at Bonaventure station, the feeling in this province on the question of a coalition Dominion Government. It is believed that he was told that the Quebec people are against a coalition at present. It is said opposition to coalition is based, to some extent at least, on the fact that it was not suggested by the Borden Government at the beginning of the war, and that if the Liberals joined the Conservative Government now they would have to bear the responsibility of all the acts of the Administration since the war started.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, May 30.—Coalition or election are the paths which the party leaders have the option of taking at the present time. This is the position to which events of war have led.

It is becoming evident that neither Sir Robert nor Sir Wilfrid wants an appeal to the people at this time; neither wants coalition, but apparently both are being forced to it by the necessity for that, or election.

Sir Robert has called upon Sir Wilfrid; the Liberal leader has been given statement of the portfolios which the prime minister would assign to Liberal leaders, to bring about coalition, and to the measure of authority which would be conceded to the Liberal wing of a coalition cabinet.

Sir Robert is handling his negotiations on his own authority, without consulting his followers in caucus. There is much curiosity and some grumbling, but no evidence of rebellion which would force an election.

Consult Rowell and Murray.

Sir Wilfrid is consulting with a few of his party chiefs at Ottawa, and has been in conference with Sir Lomer Gouin, the power of the province of Quebec, in an endeavor to make a satisfactory adjustment of the situation.

It is understood that Opposition Leader Rowell of Ontario and Premier Murray of Nova Scotia have been consulted, or will be consulted before the decision is finally reached.

It appears that both Sir Wilfrid and Sir Robert are earnestly endeavoring to work out a solution without the element of party politics being considered.

If coalition is finally agreed to it is expected that for seats assigned to Liberals, Sir Wilfrid will bring in Sir Lomer Gouin, Mr. Rowell and Premier Murray. He will also have other nominations from his followers in Parliament.

The prime minister also is likely to go outside the House in search of strong men for the new ministry.

Larger Cabinet and War Council.

It is not unlikely that the coalition cabinet will be a more numerous body than the present cabinet, and the proportion is likely to approximate that of the representation of the two parties in Parliament at present, which is about two-fifths to three-fifths. From this enlarged cabinet there is likely to be chosen, as in England, a war council with powers similar to that of the English war cabinet. If Sir Wilfrid enters the coalition Government it will be as a member of the war council.

The seats for incoming ministers will be provided by appointment to the Senate, or, where desirable, by by-election. There are plenty vacancies in both chambers available for occupants.

Under the coalition arrangement the business of the Government will be primarily war. Other matters will be kept as far as possible on a strictly routine basis.

The new cabinet will carry with it compulsory service in some form.

May Delay Conscription.

Possibly there will be some further delay in the application of compulsion, to give voluntary enlistment another chance to provide the men required to keep the Canadian force at the front up to strength. The fact that there are a good many Canadians in training now gives the authorities a chance delay.

Since the announcement of the intention to resort to conscription enlistment has been stimulated to about six thousand a month. If this rate can be but slightly improved upon it may not be necessary to enforce compulsion. However, it is understood that there is to be an immediate call for enrollment so that the country will be prepared for compulsion if it is required.

The coalition will have to deal with the control of food supply and with the railway situation to some extent.

Within a few days the negotiations, now in progress, will have been completed and the country will receive the announcement of the result.

COURT ORDER MEANS MUCH TO HARWICH TP.

Completion of Burk Drainage Scheme Must Go On.

BLENHEIM, May 30. — Harwich Township must complete the Burk drainage works and the highway from Erie Beach Village to Erieau as far as it goes, and do it without delay, according to the order issued yesterday at Chatham at the hearing before Drainage Referee Henderson, in the matter of a mandamus asked for by the Western Peat Fuel Company, to compel the township to do so.

In 1914 a report was made by Engineer G. A. McCubbin of Chatham, providing for, by dyking and pumping, to drain some 1,500 acres of marsh lands in the vicinity of Lake Erie between Erie Beach and Erieau. In this scheme it was provided a road should be built upon an embankment along Lake Erie shore. In the process of the working out of the scheme, difficulty was encountered by cave-ins of some of the banks in the vicinity of Big Creek. The report provided for sheet-piling if found necessary at this place. This the council never did, and consequently the road, which is a good one for a long distance, was never made as proposed.

On Monday the referee, together with Engineers G. A. McCubbin, W. G. McGeorge, Baing of Leamington, Long of the Pere Marquette Railway, F. Wier of St. Thomas, and the solicitors, Pike, Lewis and Bracken, and the council, walked some six miles or more in the rain, inspecting the embankments and scheme. The referee was favorably impressed with the prospects of the undertaking, and expressed hope that the road constructed would be made a better road than the usual country road, as plenty of gravel for road-making is handy, in view of the importance of it to the municipality, as it is along the lake shore, affording a long-felt necessity as a means of travel between Erie Beach and Erieau, where a good highway is greatly needed. The importance of going on with the work was so apparent that no evidence was taken at the trial.

After hearing the report of the engineers, Harwich Council was ordered to pay its own costs out of the township's general funds, and the costs of the company out of the drainage funds of the scheme, and another stage was reached in a long-drawn-out controversy between the council and the Burk drainage scheme. Erieau citizens see a prospect of being able to use a road striven for for many years.

ADVERTISING IS ONE OF THE BIG FACTORS IN LIFE OF TODAY

Fine Address by Milton Alexander at Local Banquet.

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED

T. P. Elliott Again President of Local Club for the Coming Year.

An address by Milton M. Alexander, Detroit, appointment of officers and presentation of new members were the features of the final meeting of the London Advertising Club at Wong's Cafe last night, before suspending during the summer months. The attendance was good, and Mr. Alexander's address opened a discussion on the various problems of the advertiser, which made the meeting a decided success.

It remained for these days, he said, to bring advertising to the position it deserved. He pointed out that in the case of the United States it was the power of her publicists that was raising the armies and bringing forth the war loan.

"I believe that advertising is a basic force for good," he said, "and that it will help to eradicate the great evils of the time.

A Big Factor.

"Retail advertising is one of the big factors in our modern life, and has played a big part in making present conditions," the speaker asserted, and showed that a few years ago the installment plan of selling furniture had been unknown, but was brought to the fore by a Boston merchant, who believed in advertising. It was now a fact that the cities noted for their homes were the locations of big installment houses. The towns in which foreign boarding-houses abounded and homes were in the minority, generally lacked the influence of furniture stores with weekly payment plans.

Advertising, he said, must be the force to equalize conditions in the big cities, where row after row of stores of the same size, with the same window displays and with the same goods to sell contained few distinctive features to attract the purchaser. Backing up his advertising the merchant must have a superior product at a lower price.

Aid to Advertiser.

Psychology, he said, was a powerful aid to the advertiser. The basis of appeal needed analysis. Of the $554,000,000 expended in America for retail advertising fully 50 per cent. he declared was not used to the maximum advantage, and a great portion was actually thrown away. Too many advertisers talked to themselves and not to the public. He advised liberal expenditure. Advertising must not be regarded as an expense, but as an investment.

Too much money was sunk in trying to educate the public, he claimed; the wise merchant followed the line of least resistance. There should be three vital questions answered in each advertisement, what was offered for sale, what the price was, and what the article was like. Many mediums of publicity were open to the advertiser, but the backbone of the business was the newspapers. They inspired buyers to the quickest action. Truth, he said, was necessary to the good advertisement.

New Officers.

T. P. Elliot was re-elected president; John J. Foote was elected first vice-president; C. L. Gray, second vice-president and T. H. Yull, secretary.

T. H. Yull was appointed as the club's delegate to the convention in St. Louis. Members of the executive appointed were: Charles Abbott, W. J. Ashplant, E. V. Buchanan, E. S. Crawford, R. H. Dowler, Norman Keene, D. McEachern, H. B. Muir, T. E. Walsh, J. L. Whitehead. New members added were, Claude Sanagan, T. B. Parkinson, J. B. Hay, C. Frank Adams.

RHEUMATISM ENTIRELY GONE

After Twenty-seven Years of Suffering, Swelling and Puffiness Had Disappeared—Not a Pain or an Ache Left.

Kincardine, Ont., April 13.—A most astonishing cure of rheumatism and eczema has been reported here, and Mrs. Ray is enthusiastic in telling her many friends how cure was effected.

Rheumatism and eczema frequently go together, and in this case caused the most keen distress imaginable. All the swelling and puffiness resulting from many years of rheumatism have disappeared, and there is not a pain or an ache left.

Mr. G. H. Ray, R. R. No. 1, Kincardine, Ont., writes: "Mrs. Ray has been using your Kidney-Liver Pills. She was very bad with rheumatism and eczema, and had had that fearful itch for twenty-seven years. It was simply terrible what she suffered. I persuaded her to try $1.60 worth of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. She is now on the last box, and let me tell you she scarcely knows herself, she is so free from both these diseases. All the swelling and puffiness caused by the rheumatism has gone away, and she has gone down in weight 18½ pounds. She never has an ache nor pain, biliousness nor sick headache all these months. She often says herself: 'How glad I am that I know what to do instead of paying doctors so much to make me worse.'"

There is only one way that the poisons in the blood can be cleaned away and the cause of pains and aches removed, and that is by the healthful action of the kidneys, liver and bowels. Because Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills act directly and specifically on these organs and insure their activity they remove the cause of rheumatism and other dreadfully painful and fatal diseases. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE WILL INVESTIGATE PUTHERBOUGH CASE

Fire Chief Must Run Department, Says Controller Little.

PETITION IS LAID OVER

License Board to Report on Request to Sell Near Beer.

The finance committee last night did not go thoroughly into the charge laid by the trades and labor council against Lieut. Putherbough, of the fire department, that he had received pay while on sick leave for working at the C. S. Hyman Company, but named a special committee, composed of Controller E. S. Little, Ald. Ashplant, Harley and Copp, to investigate that charge and others which the trades council will lay. The special committee will meet on Saturday evening and will thresh the matter out, and report to the full committee on Wednesday evening next.

R. H. Hessell and a deputation from the trades council presented the charge, and asked that action be taken.

Controller Shaw wanted a special meeting of No. 1 and No. 2 committees called for next Wednesday evening, to discuss the charges at length, but it was decided to let the smaller committee go into the matter and report later. Ald. Rose wanted a report from the special committee which investigated the dismissal of Fireman Scott, and this will be presented at the next meeting.

Supports Chief.

"If the chief cannot run the department, he should get out," declared Controller Little. "He is in charge, and if he cannot settle matters we should get somebody else who can do so."

Fire Chief Aitken explained that on May 20 he had received a letter from the trades and labor council relative to Lieut. Putherbough, and at once questioned Putherbough, who admitted that he had worked at Hyman's, and had received pay for his work, while he at the same time received sick pay from the city. That was the first intimation he had received, and at once ordered Putherbough to refund the money received from the city.

"We have other evidence to produce, which we will not make public now," said Mr. Hessell. He was instructed to present it to the committee on Saturday evening.

Early Closing.

An early closing bylaw for the druggists will be presented to the council on Monday evening. A large deputation from the druggists was present, and asked that the bylaw be passed. Fourteen out of fifteen seventeen druggists here had signed the document, and City Clerk Baker stated that in view of these circumstances the council must pass it.

H. J. Childs, W. T. Strong, T. B. Taylor and others spoke on behalf of the petition, declaring that the hours were too long now, and with the shortage of help it was impossible to keep open so late at night.

James Duncan, Pottersburg, stated that it would be a hardship on him, as he had put in an ice cream fountain, and a large portion of his trade was done after 8 o'clock.

W. C. Zoellner, of the Standard Drug Company, thought such legislation was a backward step, not in keeping with a progressive city like London. Many citizens could not get down early, and as his company did a big business in cigars, etc., there would be much money lost. There was no difficulty in getting help for his firm.

The deputation admitted that it would be a hardship on Mr. Duncan, but expressed the opinion that certain changes in his store would obviate the difficulty.

Will Be Paid $866.

Henry Macklin, J.P., will be paid $866.80, as his fees for acting magistrate during the interim between the resignation of Judge Judd and the appointment of A. H. Marshall Graydon as deputy. This was the amount he was entitled to under the fee system.

It was also decided to pay Mr. Graydon the rate of $200 a month while he acts as deputy magistrate.

W. M. Warburton, general manager of Interurban Motors, Limited, wanted information as to the routes the council desired for motor busses out of London. His company operated the system between St. Thomas and Aylmer with excellent results, and there were several routes out of London that would pay. It was proposed to expend $15,000 if satisfactory arrangements could be made. Mayor Stevenson wanted a bus line in the city, but Mr. Warburton did not think this would pay. Several routes, one to Lucan, another to Belmont, another to Arkona, and others were suggested, and Mr. Warburton will make a survey and report to the council.

Petition Laid Over.

It was decided to lay over the petition from the hotelkeepers, asking that they be given the exclusive right to sell near-beer, etc., until a report from the special license committee was received.

Assessment Commissioner Grant submitted a report on the separate school assessments of the city, and they will be scrutinized.

"I think this list should be published," said Controller Shaw. "There have been many criticisms, and we want to know the truth. If there has been a wilful injustice done, the assessor responsible for it should be dismissed at once. We want to know if favors have been shown. This report should be sent to the public school board."

The list will be printed and scrutinized and copies sent to the board of education.

Ald. Ashplant wanted information as to the financial standing of the city, the debentures issued, etc., and City Treasurer Bell will be asked to furnish it.

Premier Massey of New Zealand, wrote saying that it was impossible for him to visit London on this occasion.

Much minor business was disposed of.

McALL AUXILIARY.

The quarterly meeting of the McAll Auxiliary was held in the Talbot Street Baptist Church Monday afternoon. After the devotional exercises and business of the meeting Miss Thompson sang "The Lord Is Mindful of His Own." Readings were given by Mrs. Bingham, Mrs. Dale and Mrs. Greenslades, which were extremely interesting, coming as they did from the war swept areas of France, where the people are homeless and starving. The McAll Mission is helping and comforting thousands of these people.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

NATIONAL HONOR AND NATIONAL FREEDOM.

To The Editor of The Advertiser:

Every right-thinking citizen of Canada should feel deeply humiliated and ashamed that their country was represented at the recent imperial conference in England by a man of the type of Robert Rogers, against whom such a strong indictment has been made by Justice Galt of Manitoba. Why should Premier Borden have chosen such a man to be a prominent member of his cabinet, and retain him in office after charges had been laid against him, and hold him in such regard as to have him as his chief companion to attend the imperial conference? Robert Rogers' company was certainly no credit to Sir Robert Borden or to our fair Dominion. The political scandals in Manitoba, British Columbia and New Brunswick have been no credit to the Dominion, and to add to the appalling discredit of the country, we have had as a prominent cabinet minister in the Dominion Government for nearly six years a man of the type of Robert Rogers, and such disgraceful exposures of graft in war contracts as required the resignation of Conservative members, W. F. Garland and A. de Witt Foster, and the resignation from the cabinet of Sir Sam Hughes. Those things ought to make every right-loving citizen blush with shame. Before we boast of Canadian honor and Canadian freedom, and urge the importance of military conscription to reinforce the overseas Canadian contingent in the fight for democracy against the atrocious, tyrannical Huns, we had better set our own Government House in order. Every lover of freedom and honest and honorable government administration in Canada should insist on an immediate general election, and help to get the political conditions of Canada cleansed.

PROMOTING FROM THE RANKS.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

A few days ago, under the heading of "Is Conscription a Practical Remedy?" I outlined a scheme whereby I thought it might be avoided, thus saving all the trouble and turmoil that is certain if compulsory military service is enforced. The scheme I outlined was in brief to democratize the army, pay for the cost of the war out of the extra profits made through expioiting the people, and by an income tax, graded to make those who have it pay the most, and lastly, if the men are not got, let it be understood that from those compelled to serve no promotions shall be made to either non-com or commisioned ranks.

Incidentally I referred to other matters, and one of them has since come to the front, viz., a referendum before putting the act in force. That either this or a general election will take place seems likely at the present time.

However, I am not desirous of canvassing this proposition in this letter; my purpose is rather to offer reasons why the scheme outlined above should be given a trial.

To begin with, it could be made immediately operative, without interfering with prospective plans of conscription. By an order in council the Government can decree that for the future all enlistments must be made to the ranks. There is little need to prove the merits of such a system. Everybody is aware of the evils of the present system. They know that under it men without any qualifications have been placed in positions of preferment—not only so, but that soft jobs have been found for them. It is also common knowledge that under the system in vogue, after training, hundreds of these "kid-glove, feather-bed," politically-made officers have resigned their posts. The rank and file cannot do this, and rightly ask: "Why should the officers be able to do it?" I have discussed the matter with the rank and file both here and in England. Both non-coms and men agree that the present system does not make for efficiency. I will give two typical opinions. I traveled in June, 1916, with a sergeant-major just home from Saloniki. He had 22½ years' service, was well educated, and knew the army regulations from cover to cover. His opinion was that "Until men were promoted from the ranks on merit, the blunders that we all regret will be repeated and repeated." Shortly after, riding in a train from Dover to Shorncliffe, I heard the same opinion publicly expressed by an English ex-army man. The language was more forceful than polite, so I will not repeat it. The train was crowded with Canadian soldiers, and there wasn't a dissentient voice to his proposition that "until promotions were made from the ranks, inefficiency would be the result." In these days of democracy, in view of what is happening everywhere, it is idle to argue that any of class privileges and assume that brains and brass go together. Democratize the army and say with the French: "A marshal's baton is in every knapsack." This class preferment is answerable for another reason why men do not join the ranks, and refer to what is now a notorious scandal, the unjust—nay, damnable—treatment of the returned men. Seventy-five dollars for an eye, as full compensation, is no inducement to join the army. Eight dollars a month to a man who was wounded and only able to work a week or two to keep a wife and two children—the same to another who will never be able to follow his calling again—is no inducement to take the risk. I may say that tardy justice has since been done to the two latter cases. But there are still scores of such cases knocking about, a standing reason against joining the colors. I don't need to give names—almost everybody is acquainted with such cases.

But great are these deterrents, they are as nothing compared to the effects of the graft, the corruption, that prevail on every hand. I refer to the extraordinary profits, to say nothing of the incidents of army contracts. I also have in mind the stupendous rise in prices that has taken place in a land of plenty. The people are being bled white—loaded with debt also, that will hang like a millstone around the necks of the people for generations to come. Nero fiddled while Rome was burning. Our case is worse. While every one of the Allied countries has done something, either through taxation, control, or fixing prices, except for a miserable 25 per cent on extra profits, with plenty of rebates, our Government has done nothing. Let them get busy and tax to extinction these unholy profits. Unfortunately for the voluntary system of enlistment, everyone sees that it is these people who are posing as patriots. It will dawn upon them, too, that they are also loudest in their demands for compulsory military service.

I am not opposing conscription for personal reasons, but for patriotic. All mine have gone that are eligible long ago—one lies under the sod in Flanders, one is in an English hospital, one has been invalided home; the others are doing their bit. Don't tell me that if the things I have touched upon were remedied, that out of the 750,000 eligible men left we cannot get one in seven and a half, if we wants 100,000; or one in fifteen if we want 50,000. If we do not get them, well, decree that no promotions to any rank can be made from among the conscripts. I am, yours,

DANCE AT SPRINGBANK.

An informal dance will be held in the pavilion, Springbank, on Friday evening next, under the auspices of Janey Canuck Chapter, I.O.D.E., in aid of the soldiers' comfort fund of that chapter. It is expected that a record crowd will be present, as the local school children will hold their picnic at Springbank on that date.

VON BUELOW AT ARRAS.

Copenhagen, via London, May 31.—The German Emperor, on his recent visit to the western front, was received at Douai by Gen. von Buelow. Gen. von Buelow was formerly in command of the German forces on the Monastir front, and has recently been brought across Europe to command one of the armies on the Arras line.

In order to encourage the settlement and cultivation of vacant lands in the Western Provinces, the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, through its colonization and development department, of which Mr. J. S. Dennis is the head, has undertaken an active campaign to try and induce absentee owners to cultivate their holdings.

A circular has been issued to some 8,000 absentee owners, pointing out the profits which can be made by cultivating their lands, and showing how many farmers sold their last year's crop for more than the original cost of their farms.

The company offers the advice and assistance of its colonization and development department free of charge, in supplying reliable information as to how to go about getting the land under cultivation, and will send, on request, the fullest details as to routes of travel, customs regulations, passenger and freight rates, and similar data.

In undertaking this campaign the company is following its usual broad policy of Dominion-wide development, realizing that every new settler means greater production to meet the food shortage which at present threatens the world, and which Canada, with its extensive and fertile unplowed areas, can provide. b

WAS TROUBLED WITH SHORTNESS OF BREATH

When the heart becomes affected, there ensues a feeling of a choking sensation, a shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensation, dizziness, and a weak, sinking, all-gone feeling of oppression and anxiety.

The nerves become unstrung, you dread to be alone, have a horror of society, start at the least noise and are generally fatigued.

On the first sign of the heart becoming weakened or the nerves unstrung, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills should be taken. They are just what you require at this time. They regulate and stimulate the heart, and strengthen and restore the whole nerve system.

Mrs. C. M. Cormier, Buctouche, N. B., writes: "Since two years ago I was troubled with a shortness of breath, and sometimes I could hardly breathe. I went to see several doctors, and they said it was from my heart and nerves, but they did not seem to do me any good. One day I got one of your B. B. B. Almanacs and read of a case similar to mine.

"I bought a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and after taking it I noticed such a change that I kept on taking them until I had used four more boxes, when I was cured."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c a box, three boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont.

PATRICIA.

For the last three days of this week Manager Stewart promises three "big time" vaudeville acts as the headline attractions on the bill at the Patricia Theatre.

Willie Mission presents a novelty comedy act. Dillinger and Vester, juvenile dancers, will introduce new features in the terpsichorean art, and Beck and Wood, known as the "nuttiest of nut" comedians, will contribute a snappy line of fun to be interspersed with songs and dances.

H. B. Warner is being featured in a Selig five-act photoplay, entitled the "Danger Trail." The scenes are laid in the far north, and the story is replete with gripping and thrilling situations.

A Vogue comedy, starring Lillian Hamilton, entitled "A Matrimonial Shock," will complete the bill.

AT THE PATRICIA.

How would you like to be imprisoned with fifty pounds of dynamite and with a sputtering fuse leading to the explosive? That was the situation to which John Howland, American engineer, awakened. A fuse led to a box on which he was bound. A slow, creeping glow came toward him! The hour, the minute had come! It was a diabolical plot to take his life! How John Howland's life was saved at the final moment; how a great love came to him with the heart and hand of the Canadian lassie, how the tangle of circumstances were finally unraveled, are incidents in "The Danger Trail," a heart-throbbing romance of love and hate in the Canadian Northwest. "The Danger Trail" is the first Selig drama in which H. B. Warner appears. He is supported by a new leading lady, Miss Violet Heming, and by W. Lawson Butt, Arthur Donaldson and Richard Thornton. This Selig-K. E. S. E. drama will be presented at the Patricia Theatre today, Friday and Saturday.

AT MAJESTIC TODAY.

What is generally regarded by old-timers as one of the most sensational gambling transactions in the history of the west furnished the idea for "The Square Deal Man," according to J. G. Hawks, the author of this latest Triangle-Kay Bee play, in which Thomas H. Ince presents William S. Hart as star.

The incident occurred at Naco, Ariz., and involved the transfer of 40,000 acres of mesa grazing land near the border. It chanced that the owner went to Naco one day and met a party of wealthy eastern capitalists.

One of them suggested that the party repair to the Big Adobe Saloon and "take a whirl at the cards." Plunging heavily, the ranch owner gradually lost, until the sole remaining player opposite him was Al White, the famous Arizona character.

Finally the cattleman staked his 40,000-acre ranch—and lost. Today, it is said, he is working for a salary.

At the time this incident took place Hawks was living near the border in Arizona and quite naturally learned of it. So while casting about recently for an idea upon which he might build a new Hart story he resurrected the facts of this historic transaction.

MONTREAL SOCIALISTS HARANGUE THE CROWDS; OPPOSE CONSCRIPTION

Montreal, May 31.—Socialism made an energetic and varied protest at a demonstration on the Champ de Mars last evening, when speakers of many nationalities and creeds appealed to three distinct audiences at the same time against the enforcement of conscription. All the arguments which have been used of late against the introduction of conscription were used last night, and were joined with the usual Socialistic arguments against war.

REAR-ADMIRAL UPSHUR DEAD.

Washington, May 31.—Rear-Admiral John Henry Upshur, U. S. N., died at his home here last night of heart disease at the age of 94. He was a native of Virginia, a veteran of the Mexican and Civil Wars, and was the oldest living graduate of the Naval Academy.

During the Mexican War, Admiral Upshur participated in the siege and capture of Vera Cruz. He served in the Perry expedition which opened Japan to commerce, and shortly before his retirement in 1885 was placed in command of all American naval forces in the Pacific.

COALITION.

A SUGGESTION for coalition government was made to Premier Borden early in the war, but it received little attention. Today it is being offered again with more than ordinary insistence. Then the suggestion was made in behalf of the Liberal party, whose leaders were anxious to help in every way possible in the prosecution of the war; now the proposal comes from within the Government circle. Apparently, there has been a decided change of heart. In opposition the Liberals have done all they could to aid in the war; the excuse cannot be made that they have been obstructionists. They have objected to waste of money, to excessive expenditures in non-essential matters, and have fought graft wherever it raised its ugly head, but in every honest effort to promote the Empire's part in the war the Government has had the solid indorsement of the Liberals.

If at this late date the Borden party realizes, what most of the country has realized for some time, that it is not measuring up to the demands of the hour, there is some hope for it, but if it proposes coalition merely to escape an election and the verdict of the people, it is not entitled to consideration from any quarter. Canada should have had a coalition government for the past two years; whether such a government should be formed today depends upon the motive behind the suggestion. The Liberals should not be asked to place themselves in a position where they would be obliged to take the responsibility for much that has been done without their consent in the past. If the organization of a coalition would bring about the desired number of enlistments voluntarily it would be to the lasting glory of Canada, but few people will admit this possibility. The Government as it exists at present can regulate food prices, curb speculation and eliminate wastefulness if it so desires. It cannot, however, blot out its record. It is doubtful if the people are in a mood to continue an administration, made up even in part of the present Government.

AUSTRIA'S PEACE TALK.

AS HAS BEEN the case at every period in the war, when Austria-Hungary was suffering severe defeat a sentiment for peace has become pronounced in the dual monarchy. The resignation of Tisza and Burian from the cabinet is taken as evidence that once more the desire for peace is developing. Probably it would give great moral satisfaction to the world to see the country which first declared war the first to drop out, as it would leave the onus where it belongs, upon the Teuton shoulders.

It may be taken for granted, however, that Austria is not going to lay down arms. Her peace talk at the present time is probably designed for effect upon Russia more than for anything else. A few days ago the official organ, Fremdenblatt, contained a declaration that there was no intention of annexing Russian territory. In consideration of the fact that Austria does not hold Russian territory the statement means nothing. Nothing is said, however, about no desire to annex Balkan territory, particularly Serbia, which Austria does hold.

The war was started presumably to destroy Serbia. Whatever Russia may do, there is no chance of the other Allies acknowledging a separate peace with Austria until Serbia, Rumania, Montenegro, Trente, Triest are restored. To leave this territory in the hands of Austria is to leave the way open for Germany to extend her territory to the Mediterranean, a situation that would be not only fatal to the Balkans, but detrimental to the interests of the whole world.

SELF-GOVERNING CANADA.

AN ADVERTISER subscriber has submitted the following questions regarding conscription and Canada's part in the war:

How does Canada stand regarding self-government in time of war? Could England, through R. L. Borden, force conscription on Canada if she wished without the Canadian Government or people being consulted (supposing Canada be so disloyal as to neglect sending sufficient aid in men) or would it be violating Canada's rights?

The answer to one question is the answer to both. Canada is a self-governing dominion within the Empire in time of war as in time of peace. Whether she takes part in the Empire's wars depends entirely upon herself. The British Government cannot force conscription on Canada or compel Canada to give aid in time of war. Action or non-action depends upon the Canadian Government, which has authority to send men or money or assist in any and every way possible or to withhold assistance of every kind. Canada did not send men to the South African war or to the present war because of compulsion, but as an expression of loyalty and as a matter of duty. The British Government may request assistance but cannot order it.

The Canadian Government may enforce conscription in Canada just as it may bring about a higher or lower tariff. In all its acts it is supposed to represent the sentiment of the country. If it acts contrary to public sentiment it is liable to face defeat at the next succeeding election, but so long as it is in power its mandates must be obeyed.

What course the Government may take regarding "conscientious objectors," if conscription is enforced, cannot be known until the terms of the conscription measure are made public. It is not improbable, however, that Great Britain's plan will be followed here, those having religious scruples against war service being employed in some other necessary work. "Why is England so easy with them" is a question from the subscriber, who asks if Germany makes allowance for the same class of people. There is no evidence that Germany exempts anyone from military service. The ways of Britain are not the ways of Germany. If they were the world would never have been inflicted with this war. It is the freedom of thought and action permitted throughout the British Empire which makes the Empire a unit when democracy and liberty are threatened with extinction at the hands of militarism. It is the freedom of thought and action which Canada enjoys within the Empire which fills Canadians with a desire to fight the Empire's battles.

THE CHILDREN'S PICNIC.

ON FRIDAY the school children of the city hold their annual picnic at Springbank, and everyone will join in hoping that the "fair and warmer" sign will be kept hanging by the weatherman until the day is over and every one of the tired and happy youngsters is safely in bed, for that is all that is needed to realize the fondest dreams of the kiddies.

The day is one of sport and pleasure, but, unperceived by those most affected, it has an influence on the children which is all for good and endures long after the picnic itself is forgotten. Camaraderie is the watchword. All join in making the time pass joyously and little lessons of self-sacrifice and thoughtfulness for others are learned. Bags of popcorn and peanuts are shared with little friends, the swing is cut short to enable others to have their turn and the joy of giving is experienced.

Much of the success depends upon parents and friends. By turning out in as great numbers as possible, taking part in the games and forgetting that objectionable word "don't," they can give more pleasure than by merely supplying the ice cream and candies. May Friday make up to the kiddies for disappointments and rainy days of other years.

FOR CHURCH UNITY.

DEAN HENSON of Durham, Eng., is still laboring at his task of drawing the established church and the non-conformists closer together. One of the most liberal of churchmen as to both doctrine and organization, he is also one of the most evangelical. He believes that the time has come for a new Christian reformation based on that of the sixteenth century.

Speaking at the City Temple in London recently, he contended that the principle of the reformation which four hundred years ago divided Christendom should now be the principle to reunite it. That principle was the freedom of private judgment. It has at last become possible, Dean Henson thinks, for men to co-operate and have fellowship in good works while agreeing to either agree or disagree on points of doctrine.

As Dr. Henson says, "the war has forced into universal attention the political impotence of the Churches within Christendom, and also a rift between them, and the best conscience and intelligence of the modern world" which is losing the church its "moral supremacy." Union, then, is the only way back to this "moral supremacy," a union "no smaller than the whole company of Christian people dispersed through the world." The war, while far from strengthening the influence of the churches among the thinking classes, is reviving superstitions of one kind and another. A reunited and revitalized church should check such retrogression and promote a true religious force among the nations.

It seems to be a case of Sir Wilfrid to the rescue, so far as the Government is concerned.

TO INDORSE CONSCRIPTION.

TORONTO, May 30.—As the result of a petition signed by four hundred citizens, Mayor Church has called a public meeting for Saturday in Queen's Park to indorse conscription.

PUTTING ONE OVER ON MARY

By Rachel Cain.

Mary looked up with surprise at the young man who now occupied the high office stool of old Leslie Curtis. He was strangely out of keeping with the old-fashioned furnishings in the shabby old place. Mr. Curtis with his bent shoulders and shiny old serge suit harmonized so well with his time-worn surroundings when he was present that the sight of the stranger's brand new black and white-checked suit and azure blue tie with its lapis-lazuli pin jarred discordantly on Mary's nerve.

"I've come to pay Aunt Myra's fire insurance," said Mary.

Jimmy Carter looked through the wire lattice with its stingy little archway, intended for the transaction of business. What he saw caused him to slide down quickly off his stool, straighten his tie automatically with one hand and slick back his shining roll of front hair with the other. Mary noticed that his hand was also embellished by a stone of near lazuli to match the pin.

"Certainly," said Jim aloud, reaching for a pen. To himself, "Not so bad for a jay town. Life is looking up a bit. Stunner, she is." And he endured Mary's close scrutiny with satisfaction known only to the conceited male, who, being a product of a metropolis and coming to a small town, thinks the entire population a consolidated admiration society organized for his special benefit.

"What is the name, please?" asked Jim, wondering if auntie and niece might be called alike.

"Miss Myra Grant," said Mary.

The ornate hand slid up one page and down another in a vain attempt at finding the name.

"Nothing doing," said Jimmy. "I don't seem to be able to find it. How do you spell it?"

"G-r-a-n-t," spelled Mary.

Jimmy flushed. "Maybe Uncle Les forgot to put it in."

"Oh, I don't think so," said Mary. "Is Mr. Curtis sick?"

"No—gone away for a three weeks' rest. I'm holding down the job till he comes home."

"If you'll please give me a receipt for it I'll not wait. I know the amount—it's four dollars and thirty cents. I'm in a good bit of a hurry."

"All right," said Jimmy obligingly, wondering what he might do to retain such an attractive patron a moment longer. Mary in her dark blue serge suit, white collar and black hat was, as Jimmy said, very stunning to look at.

But try as he would he could think of nothing, which showed that he was very much disturbed. There was something unusually wrong when Jimmy could think of nothing to say.

Mary folded the receipt and put it into her bag. Then she opened the door to go out, but before she closed it she said sweetly, "If you look in the large ledger with the mottled cover I think you'll find it. You were looking in the school directory, you see."

She was gone! And Jimmy with a curious mixture of shame and rage fumbled awkwardly for a cigarette to relieve his harrowed feelings.

"Smarty!" he said two or three times. "Smarty! Think you're real cute, don't you?" And then finding the "mottled cover," he credited Aunt Myra's money and took the rest of the morning for reflection.

He reflected that he was much too important a person to be made a fool of by a green little village maiden and that he "wouldn't stand for it."

"I know her kind," he declared. "Small town belle. Got all the fellows here queered. Thinks I'm another simp crazy to fall in line. I'll show her that she can't fool with a real man of the world." And he stuck out his chest importantly. "Humph! I s'pose all these folks here think I'm crazy to break in. Can you beat it? They don't need to think that I want to go to their spoony old dances and eat raspberry water ice and cocoa."

Considering that Jimmy's disposition was thought to be good and that he was not usually sardonic, one may readily understand that Mary's little joke had cut much more deeply than it was intended to do. For Jimmy really had planned a campaign of conquest among the charmers of Glencoe. To this end had been purchased the checks and effects in blue.

However, Jimmy changed his mind; that is, about everybody except Mary. For he went to parties and dances and had a generally pretty good time. It was balm on his hurt soul to discover that his being from New York did "cut some ice" with the others. But Mary refused to be impressed and Jimmy consoled himself that she was furious because he wouldn't dance with her. He was right about her being the town "belle." She seemed to have every one in line except him.

In vain he racked his brain for some way to "make her sit up and take notice," as he put it. What kind of grandstand play would "bring her to?" Jimmy was puzzled.

Then he found it. Five towns were getting together to have a concert—a real one, with opera singers in it. Glencoe, being the centre, was chosen as the place d'affair.

So Jimmy decided that to be on terms of sociability with some of these bright lights would establish him forever in the eyes of Mary.

He decided on Gerrone. He had heard that this famous soprano was young, pretty, and therefore most probably approachable. Besides, he had a friend who had a friend who knew her, and he wrote for a letter of introduction.

The day of the concert arrived warm and beautiful. It was late spring and the air was heavy with roses. Jimmy, despising the garden varieties, sent a week's board to New York for a bunch of hothouse ones, and armed with these and his card he started for the hotel. He told everyone where he was going, and whom he was to see. "Really, Jimmy," they would exclaim. "Gerrone! You don't mean it! Well, that's what it is to be from New York and to know all the celebrities."

Jimmy kept on his way, and his way led past Mary's. Mary was in the garden clipping roses. She called him.

"Hello, Jimmy!"

He was so dumbfounded at the sweet sociableness of her tone that he almost dropped the box he carried. Then he recovered. The grand opera business was doing its work. His fame had spread.

"Good-morning, Miss Mary!" His tone was the least bit patronizing.

"Can't you come in?" she invited.

Jimmy thawed. "Why, perhaps I can, a minute. I have an engagement and can't stay long, though."

"I won't keep you. I just thought we'd sit on the porch a minute and have a nice little chat. I've something to tell you."

He was curious. "All right. I have a minute, I guess."

Suddenly Mary gave him an odd look and held out her hand impulsively.

"Jimmy, you're a dear, and I can't do it—I just can't. We all like you, Jimmy, but we'd planned a joke on you and it's too mean. You wanted to put me in my place and everyone resented it so. I—I'm Gerrone, Jimmy, don't you see? Yes, I really am. I was born and raised here and came home to rest when the season was over. I've worked so hard for years. Do I look unsophisticated?"

But Jimmy was speechless. Mary leaned forward wistfully. "Jimmy, don't you like me?" she pleaded.

"I—I was just thinking," he stammered, "that I'm afraid I've fallen in love with you."

U. S. AMBASSADOR AT LAST MAY LEAVE TURKEY

AMSTERDAM, May 30.—Via London.—A dispatch sent yesterday from Constantinople to the Frankfurter Zeitung says that Abram I. Elkus, who was American ambassador to Turkey until diplomatic relations were severed, and who has since been detained in the Turkish capital by illness, was to depart on that day for Switzerland by way of Vienna. Accommodations were provided in a special car on the Balkan express for the ambassador, Mrs. Elkus and 26 others from the embassy were in the party.

POEMS BY WHITTIER

John Greenleaf Whittier, American poet, editor and strong opponent of slavery, died in 1892, but his works live and carry their appeal as strongly today as when he wrote them.

THE PEACE OF EUROPE.

"Great peace in Europe! Order reigns
From Tiber's hills to Danube's plains!"
So say her kings and priests; so say
The lying prophets of our day.
Go lay to earth a listening ear;
The tramp of measured marches hear,
The rolling of the cannon's wheel,
The shotted musket's murderous peal,
The night alarm, the sentry's call,
The quick-eared spy in hut and hall!
From Polar sea and tropic fen
The dying groans of exiled men!
The bolted cell, the galley's chains,
The scaffold smoking with its stains!
Order—the hush of brooding slaves!
Peace—in the dungeon-vaults and graves!

O Fisher! of the world-wide net,
With meshes in all waters set,
Whose fabled keys of heaven and hell
Bolt hard the patriot's prison-cell,
And open wide the banquet hall,
Where kings and priests hold carnival!
Weak vassal tricked in royal guise,
Boy kaiser with thy lip of lies;
Base gambler for Napoleon's crown,
Barnacle on his dead renown!
Thou, Bourbon Neapolitan,
Crowned scandal, loathed of God and man;
And thou, fell spider of the north!
Stretching thy giant feelers forth,
Within whose web the freedom dies
Of nations eaten up like flies!
Speak, prince and kaiser, priest and czar!
If this be peace, pray what is war?

White angel of the Lord unmeet
That soil accursed for thy pure feet,
Never in slavery's desert flows
The fountain of thy charmed repose;
No tyrant's hand thy chaplet weaves
Of lilies and of olive-leaves;
Not with the wicked shalt thou dwell,
Thus saith the Eternal Oracle;
Thy home is with the pure and free!
Stern herald of thy better day,
Before thee, to prepare thy way,
The Baptist shade of liberty,
Grey, scarred and hairy-robed, must press
With bleeding feet the wilderness!
Oh, that its voice might pierce the ear
Of princes, trembling while they hear
A cry as of the Hebrew seer:
Repent! God's kingdom draweth near!

DEMOCRACY.

Bearer of freedom's holy light,
Breaker of slavery's chain and rod,
The foe of all which pains the sight,
Or wounds the generous ear of God!

Beautiful yet thy temples rise,
Though there profaning gifts are thrown;
And fires unkindled of the skies
Are glaring round thy altar-stone.

Still sacred, though thy name be breathed
By those whose hearts thy truth deride;
And garlands, plucked from thee, are wreathed
Around the haughty brows of pride.

Oh, ideal of my boyhood's time!
The faith in which my father stood;
Even when the sons of lust and crime
Had stained thy peaceful courts with blood!

Still to those courts my footsteps turn,
For through the mists which darken there,
I see the flame of freedom burn,—
The Kebla of the patriot's prayer!

The generous feeling, pure and warm,
Which owns the rights of all divine,—
The pitying heart—the helping arm—
The prompt self-sacrifice—are thine.

Beneath thy broad impartial eye,
How fade the lives of caste and birth!
How equal in their suffering lie
The groaning multitudes of earth!

Still to a stricken brother true,
Whatever clime hath nurtured him;
As stooped to heal the wounded Jew
The worshipper of Gerizim.

By misery unrepelled, unawed,
By pomp or power, thou seest a man
In prince or peasant—slave or lord—
Pale priest, or swarthy artisan.

Through all disguise, form, place, or name,
Beneath the flaunting robes of sin,
Through poverty and squalid shame,
Thou lookest on the man within.

On man, as man, retaining yet,
However debased, and soiled, and dim,
The crown upon his forehead set—
The immortal gift of God to him.

And there is reverence in thy look;
For that frail form which mortals wear
The spirit of the holiest took,
And veiled His perfect brightness there.

Not from the shallow babbling fount
Of vain philosophy thou art;
He who of old on Syria's mount
Thrilled, warned, by turns, the listener's heart.

In holy words which cannot die,
In thoughts which angels leaned to know,
Proclaimed thy message from on high—
Thy mission to a world of woe.

That voice's echo hath not died!
From the blue lake of Galilee,
And Tabor's lonely mountain-side,
It calls a struggling world to thee.

Thy name and watchword o'er this land
I hear in every breeze that stirs,
And round a thousand altars stand
Thy banded party worshippers.

Not to these altars of a day
At party's call, my gift I bring;
But on thy olden shrine I lay
A freeman's dearest offering:

The voiceless utterance of his will—
His pledge to freedom and to truth,
That manhood's heart remembers still
The homage of his generous youth.

A WOMAN.

Oh, dwarfed and wronged, and stained with ill,
Behold; thou art a woman still!
And, by that sacred name and dear,
I bid thy better self appear.
Still, through thy foul disguise, I see
The rudimental purity,
That, spite of change and loss makes good
Thy birthright of womanhood;
An inward loathing, deep, intense;
A shame that is half innocence,
Cast off the grave-clothes of thy sin!
Rise from the dust thou liest in,
As Mary rose at Jesus' word,
Redeemed and white before the Lord!
Reclaim thy lost soul! In His name,
Rise up, and break thy bonds of shame,
Art weak? He's strong. Art fearful? Hear
The world's o'ercomer: "Be of cheer!"
What lip shall judge when He approves?
Who dare to scorn the child He loves.

YPRES

The shock of shell, they knew it well,
These men who came from overseas,
For it they bore, through mud and gore,
The brunt of all that had to be:

The German horde, the bomb, the sword,
The poison fumes, to stay their breath;
The deadly flame, 'twas all the same—
When they looked in the face of death.

But on, still on, when hope seemed gone,
No thought of failure, or retreat;
Wounded and blind were left behind
And death seemed better than defeat.

Their best they gave, for they were brave,
And stopped the rush! You know the rest—
Our country's saved, their names engraved;
Their record's better than the best.

GOVERNMENT TRYING TO FINISH THE JOB OF WRECKING G. T. P. RY.

Hon. Frank Oliver Complains at Rail Removal.

PLACES ARE ISOLATED

Govt. Forced to Send Engineers to See How Wrongs May Be Righted.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

OTTAWA, May 30.—Parliament is taking less interest in House proceedings than in corridor and lobby conferences. Today the seats of the premier and his law advisers were vacant, and the House jumped to the conclusion that they were working upon the proposed modifications of the compulsory service measure. The seats of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Chief Liberal Whip Pardee were without occupants, and it was stated that they were in Montreal consulting with Premier Gouin upon the situation.

The feature of the sitting was a lively row between the Hon. Frank Oliver and the Hon. Frank Cochrane over the tearing up of Grand Trunk Pacific rails to send to France. Mr. Oliver took the position that the Grand Trunk Pacific was being discriminated against in the matter of rail-raising. The reply of the minister of railways was that the rails were wanted for war by France and England, and that those two countries could have anything Canada could supply for those purposes.

Have Spite on G. T. P.

Mr. Oliver said that the Government, having wrecked the Grand Trunk Pacific financially, was now wrecking it physically. By raising the rails west of Edmonton the community of Edson, Alta., and the Jasper Park coal mines were left without transportation facilities. If rails had to be obtained in Canada they should have been taken from elsewhere; but Mr. Oliver believed that they could have been obtained in the United States. The rails already gathered were not yet in France and he doubted that they would be transported there.

Hon. Frank Cochrane replied that Mr. Oliver assumed to know more of the needs of the British Government than that Government itself knew. It was ridiculous to say that the Government was trying to destroy the Grand Trunk Pacific. If it were necessary to win the war the minister said that he would have every rail in Canada torn up. The rails already gathered were at Three Rivers awaiting shipment and from overseas were daily coming cables urging that they be forwarded to seaboard for transportation. Mr. Cochrane said that he proposed to look after Edson and the coal company; he had two engineers there now making the arrangements.

Why Not the C. P. R.?

"Why don't you ask something of the C.P.R.?" said Mr. Oliver.

"Because the C. P. R. rails are of different borings," pointing to Mr. Oliver, the minister of railways hotly exclaimed, "I would like to send him to the front, by heaven, to lay those rails."

"I want the minister to understand," said Mr. Oliver, "that I am represented at the front; is he?"

"I know you are," said Mr. Cochrane, "but you don't talk as if you were. This talk is for politics." He said that Mr. Oliver was trying to turn Canadian war operations into a political game.

"That is what the Government has done from the start," said Mr. Turriff, who, like Mr. Oliver, has lost a son in battle.

Mr. Cochrane stoutly denied the charge that the Government was mixing war and politics.

Dr. Pugsley said that only light rails for front line railways were wanted in France.

Bennett Is "Called."

R. B. Bennett started an attack on Dr. Pugsley in terms which resulted in the Speaker stopping him. He said that the rails had been taken from the Transcontinental because it was the property of the Government and because it could spare rails with little dislocation of traffic.

Hon. George P. Graham said that the policy of the Government apparently was to attack the loyalty of any member who attempted sensible criticism in Parliament. He favored taking what rails were needed to promote success at the front, but discrimination should be shown in taking the rails that as little hardship as possible should be inflicted. It was suspected that the Government was not trying to make a success of the Grand Trunk Pacific.

He did not think that the Government had made as much use as it should of its own railways for the transportation of troops and war materials.

This closed the trouble and the House took up estimates.

GOVERNMENT TO CONTROL STOCKS OF TOBACCOS

Will Not Restrict Supply to Fighting Men.

LONDON, May 30.—It is announced that owing to the shortage of shipping and the consequent necessity of economizing, all available supplies of tobacco, the board of trade will requisition and assume immediate control of all stocks of manufactured and unmanufactured tobacco, including cigars, cigarettes and snuff. The board will fix prices and regulate dealings with the aim of limiting deliveries and sales to the scale of 1916. It is not intended, however, to impose any restrictions on the supply of tobacco to his majesty's forces from overseas.

FIRST HOLLAND LINER SINCE JAN. 31 AT N. Y.

NEW YORK, May 30.—The first liner from Holland since January 31 has arrived at an Atlantic port via Halifax, where she was detained two days for examination. There were 119 Americans among the passengers, of whom 72 were survivors of submarine sinkings in the North Sea and the English Channel.

NERVOUS CHILDREN

From early spring until July is the time that St. Vitus Dance usually develops, and nervous children should be carefully watched during that time for symptoms of the disease. Irritability is one of the first signs noted. The child frets, is quarrelsome and does not sleep well. The jerky movements that characterize the disease comes a little later. The patient becomes pale, languid, and often constipated. The limbs and sometimes the whole body jerks spasmodically, and in severe cases the power of speech is affected. Such a child should not be allowed to study, but should be kept quiet, given a nutritious diet, remain out of doors as much as possible, and above all things given a course of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to build up the blood and strengthen the nerves. Without this treatment St. Vitus Dance may become chronic, and the patient a lifelong sufferer. Mrs. W. A. Squires, Cannington, Ont., says: "A few years ago my only daughter was troubled with St. Vitus Dance. She was so bad she would lose control of her limbs, and her face would become contorted. We had to take her from school and had her under a doctor's care, but it did not help her. After the trouble had gone on for some time we finally decided to give her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and by the time she had taken five boxes she was completely cured and has had no sign of the trouble since."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

BALFOUR DEFENDS PACT MADE WITH FRANCE AND JAPAN

Germany's Reasons for the Charges Are Obvious.

INTENTION WAS PEACE

Sees No Reason for Discouragement in Progress of War.

Montreal, May 30.—Addressing the Canadian Club here this afternoon, Right Hon. A. J. Balfour, British foreign secretary, defended the arrangement made by his Government with Japan and France, and by Sir Edward Grey with Russia, from the charge made by Germany that the combination was formed with a hostile intention to Germany. However, he showed, had these arrangements not been made it would not have been possible to organize immediate resistance against the danger which burst upon the entire world. It was obvious why Germany circulated the claim of hostile intent. The arrangement with Japan was patently outside the German question and the arrangement with France was intended to bring together two great peoples between whom petty but none the less dangerous causes of friction were always arising, differences aggravated as much as possible by the central powers of Europe. There never was an arrangement more sincerely intended to promote the cause of peace.

Hands Across Seas.

After dwelling upon the rich memories the British commissioners would have of their visit to this side of the ocean and of their increased consciousness that across the Atlantic hearts beat in unison with theirs, Mr. Balfour pointed out the inspiration of the feeling that one could leave London and be transported to the farthest west and meet men who had the same opinions on public liberty as one's neighbors in England.

Discussing the war's progress, Mr. Balfour said "there were troubles we had to face when the war began. They have been faced not unsuccessfully. The troubles and difficulties which meet us as the war draws towards its termiation were necessarily of a different kind. They are of a kind that every combatant feels—which I am confident our enemies feel more than ourselves—but which all of us necessarily feel. The chief difficulties arise from the relative exhaustion of men and of material. It is inevitable. I want to say to you that we have no subject for discouragement. It should only suggest and promote more vigorous efforts on the part of every one of the great communities concerned."

Coining Ideas Into Cash

[Pictorial Review.]

A woman living in the southwest found the inspiration for money-making at a moving-picture show. The entrance to the local opera house, located on the second floor of a business block, was through a large, square hall. One warm night last spring she noticed that, as the audience poured out of the picture theatre, it scattered to the various ice cream parlors and drug stores in search of cold drinks. Her own throat was dry from an hour spent in the badly-ventilated theatre.

This woman had less than fifty dollars in the bank, and was working in a five-and-ten-cent store for four dollars a week, which meant that each week she must draw a little on her savings. So she was looking about desperately for some means of adding to her income. The thirsty audience gave her the Great Idea.

The next evening she went back to see the manager of the theatre. She asked him if he would permit her to sell lemonade in the square hall leading to the auditorium. She would pay rent for the space or share the profits with him. As the woman was very much in earnest, he finally agreed to rent her a corner in the hall for three dollars a week. And she must clean up all the mess.

The woman drew on her small fund to hire a helper one day. He moved to the opera house the one good table she had in her home, a screen, a chair, some tea-towels and two pails. At the store where she worked she bought a dozen glasses at thirty cents. Her chief expenditure was for a pressed-glass punch-bowl. A box of lemons and a bag of sugar completed her purchases.

Her family heirlooms included a silver soup-ladle and a really handsome centrepiece trimmed with lace. She dressed herself in a neat wash frock, with a dainty white apron, and, while other people were eating their suppers, she went to the opera house and made her lemonade. The table looked most attractive with its punch-bowl, glasses, lace centrepiece, and a vase filled with flowers.

The first evening she sold about forty glasses. The next evening her trade was even better. At the end of the week, she had paid for her rent, her equipment, and had nearly five dollars' profit. All summer she worked in the store by day and at the theatre by night. By fall she was serving orangeade, grape-juice and lemonade.

The manager of the theatre, who had come to admire her pluck, saw bigger possibilities in her plan. He advised her to make a trip to the nearest city and secure the privilege of selling lemonade, candy, and gum in such moving-picture houses as offered the necessary space. A young cousin now runs the original stand in the home town. The woman, who turned a practical idea to account, is the active partner of the man who once smiled in pitying fashion at her untried plan.

RED CROSS AND C. W. C. A. COLUMN

SOCKS OR A MEDAL?

Recent newspaper articles regarding conditions in French hospitals have aroused much anxiety in Canadian minds. Report has it that the wounded soldiers of our gallant ally have not nearly enough hospital equipment to make their recovery at all hopeful. Our London Red Cross Society communicated with headquarters in Toronto concerning these reports, and received in reply the following telegram from Mrs. Plumptre: "Have wired American Red Cross and Major Blaylock for facts as to conditions in France; also conferred this morning with representatives of British Red Cross now here on mission, who say such conditions, if existing, are in remote French hospitals, to which stores from Canada would probably never penetrate."

There is some assurance in this, that the Red Cross of France may not be so straightened as rumor would lead us to believe, but a little extra effort on our part will put the report beyond possibility. We have not begun to sacrifice as French or English women have done. We have not yet tasted the joy of self-forgetting service. Our own country demands our first and best efforts, but we can surely spare a little from our abundance to the nation that has borne uncomplainingly such anguish as we in our safe Canadian homes have never dreamed.

Miss Bertha McIntosh writes most entertainingly from her post of duty in France.

"We Canadians, one and all," she writes, "both nurses and men feel the dampness here terribly. . . . How I long to see old Canada again!

(That is a message that makes us glad we sent off such shiploads of socks to our boys last winter, and makes us resolve to keep on sending them.)

"I am sitting on the balcony which overlooks the harbor, and right underneath lies one of our hospital ships. It is painted black. It made us feel quite sad today when she came alongside. She had been such a beautiful ship, all white with green bands and red crosses, and at night ablaze with red and green lights. And now the lights are gone, and the ship is an ugly black hulk. The wounded lads are being carried on board, mostly on stretchers, many limping along by themselves. We have had a very strenuous month, but at present the congestion is much lessened. When a big company of wounded come in, we often have, say, 80 new cases in an hour, all to be blanket-bathed, wounds dressed, and finally fed. Each case has to be seen by the M. O. of the ward, and perhaps there will be twenty operations or more from one convoy. Of course, we don't have an experience like that every day, but often we have worked from 7:30 a.m. until 9 p.m. with only ten or fifteen minutes for each meal, day after day, until we would think we could not do another day's work. Then a lull would come, and we would be able to get off for three hours each day for a little rest."

Such a letter makes one ashamed of the little one is doing. We think we are making great sacrifices when we devote a few hours a week to Red Cross work, and knit a sock or so in a month, but after all, how much real sacrifice is the busiest of us women at home making? How much hardship are we enduring that our country may be saved?

The other day one of our Canadian boys won the Military Medal for some conspicuous act of bravery. His comrade wrote home about it, and commented in this wise: "Jimmie's got the Military Medal. It's all right, because he deserved it, but to tell you the truth, I'd jolly rather get a good dry pair of socks any day."

So dry socks must be highly prized in the trenches.

Another ward for Byron comes from Mrs. G. Scandrett, a memorial to her son. One could not possibly commemorate the going out of a dear one in a more beautiful way. Possibly some others may follow the example. There are still a few wards left.

Press Secretary.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

Refreshing Irish Brogue.

Dear Miss Cynthia Grey,—I'm sindin' ye a bit av the wild today from me own wuds, an' hope ye'll take it as kindly as it wuz meant. I don't pick many av the posies, as they look best in the wuds where they grow. As I sit on a log or a bit av a sthump an' see thim all around me, an' the branches wavin' in the wind, the squirls runnin' from tree to tree, an' hear the singin' o' the burds, I feel nearder to Him that made thim all than anywheres ilse.

While away in the winter for a few days, hilpin' some frinds, I shlipt on the ice, that was covered with a flurry av snow, and was decavin' loike, an' bedads! whin I got up me arrum wuz broke an' me elbow dislocuted. It is nearly well now, an' I'm back in me own home, an' it niver seemed so purty an homelike since I've been livin' alone. Me frinds wuz kind, but honie is home, even if there's only wan in it.

From the windys facin' the south I can look out on me orchard. Just over the fince ferninst the house is three Frinch pear trees nigh onto a hunder years ould. They do say that the Frinch fathers who came over the say long ago wid explorers brought the pear seeds wid thim to plant, an' that wuz the way the Frinch pear trees was stharted in this counthry. I don't know, anyhow the're ould, but bear lots av pears yit. To the lift av the pear trees is a tall hickory. I love to see the childer gatherin' the nuts an' it's which an' tother twixt thim an' the squirl as to whose sthore for winter will be the biggest. To the right av the pears an' farder down the hillside is a clump av' lims. I misured wan day from the thrunk av wan av thim an' found it throws a shaddy av 60 feet on that side. It's a foine place to sit on a hot summer's day, an' sometimes I take me friends down an' we sit an' talk an' ate our suppers there. The river is just beyont the orchard.

The childer av the neighborhood intind havin' a bit av a sale, so I planted lettuce an' radishes in pasteboard boxes, an' when me garden waz fit tuk away the boxes an' set all in the ground widout disthurbin' the roots. The lettuce an' some av the radishes will be ready for thim to sell, although the weather has been cold.

Ye'll be afther thinkin' me a garrilous ould chap, so I'd betther shtop.

Passchript.—If ye'll sind me the name an' address av wan av thim bys oversays I'll sind him a pair av socks an' a bite and' sup av somethin' to ate.

Yours respectfully,
PATRICK MICHAEL KELLY.

Ans.—I hunted in my mind for a term to describe you, "Patrick," and it didn't take long to decide that you are a "regular brick." The dear wildwood blossoms and the bits of moss were just as refreshing as your own Irish brogue. Your wholesome letters do our hearts good, so please write oftener, now the disabled arm is better.

Our Country Maiden.

Dear Miss Grey,—I intended writing to your page before, but never got a start made. There are plenty of interesting subjects for discussion at present, anyway.

I am in favor of woman suffrage, and hope our Provincial Government sees fit to give us the vote. I intend voting at the first opportunity. There are a great many things in our fair Canada that need improving, and I am sure the women will help to improve them. Women take a more vital interest than men in moral questions, such as the temperance cause, laws for the improvement of working conditions for women, and jails—in fact, everything that will affect the welfare of the boys and girls. I think women will vote more from instinct than men. I mean a woman will vote for what she feels is right, while a man wants to reason the matter out.

We're not taking the men's place, but simply stepping into our place as their equals. We're not going to be contaminated by associating with them at the polling booths, either. The average man will respect a woman if she respects herself.

I believe it was "O. L." who said that swearing did more harm than drinking. I don't think he is quite right, though both are bad enough. A drinking man always swears. Drink curses the innocent. Those who do not touch it suffer the most. Children suffer all their lives because their parents used liquor.

You have all been talking about that dancing carpet in the Government house. That's not their only extravagance. Listen, ladies! The shrubs and bushes to beautify the Government house grounds cost $2,000. Most of us could have a nice little home out of that, couldn't we? This is war time, too.

I think, "Dad," that "Sweetheart Girl" will need the $100 all right. Anyway, I'm sure she wouldn't waste it, but would keep what she had left for housekeeping purposes.

I am sure a little girlie, who has kept house and made things comfortable for dad for five years is deserving of that amount to do as she likes with. You know she would have saved more than that if she had worked all those years.

Well, I'm not going to ask for crochet patterns, as I gave up the crochet hook for the knitting needle some time ago.

I am a country girl, and am fond of the growing things in the great out-of-doors. It's a pleasure to watch things grow at this time of the year.

Will you please send me the address of "Scottie Frae Dundee" (if too many others haven't beaten me), also of another lonely, each to send boxes to. We have the socks all ready to send.

Well, I must close now, with best wishes to Miss Grey and all the Pageites, COUNTRY MAIDEN.

Ans.—An interesting letter, and one that shows our "country girls" are not asleep by any means. I particularly like to hear of "country maiden's" love for the out-of-doors. Nature is a wonderful teacher if we but study her and learn to love all her moods.

The six daily studies for this week constitute the International Sunday School Lesson for next Sunday. Read the Bible Story on which this study is based, as you ponder the following questions:

"Jesus Betrayed and Denied." John, xviii., 1-18.

Golden Text—"He Was Despised and Rejected of Men." Isaiah, liii., 3.

10. Verses 8-8—Why would you say, or not, that some people take up the practices of religion for its excitement, or for pastime, like others take to politics, to games, or to drinking, and with no higher motive?

11. Verses 6-8—Why did these men that came to arrest Jesus fall to the ground, was it through the power of Jesus, or some other reason?

12. Jesus doubtless had the power, why then did he not slay these men?

13. Verses 10-11—When, if ever, is it right for a Christian to return evil for evil?

Bouillon (Hot or Jellied)
Spring Canapes Hot Toast Sticks
Macaroni and Veal Salad with Rolls
Boiled Oil Dressing
Fresh Strawberry and Pineapple Tarts
Coffee

Spring Canapes

Shape stale bread into rounds, allowing one to each guest. Brush with melted butter, and toast them in the oven. Then spread each with a paste made of cooked seasoned spinach mixed with an equal quantity of sardines (smoked) and a little mayonnaise. Border with hard-cooked egg-white chopped, and fashion a "flower" in the centre of each four bits of pimento and hard-cooked egg yolk.

Macaroni and Veal Salad.

I cupful macaroni in half-inch pieces, ½ cupful sliced crisp radishes, ¾ cupful shredded lettuce hearts, 1½ cupfuls sliced cooked veal, ¼ cupful sliced olives (minced), boiled oil dressing. Additional lettuce for garnishing.

Boil the macaroni until tender. Drain rinse with cold water and chill. Mix with the remaining ingredients, put together with dressing to moisten, and arrange on a bed of lettuce leaves.

Boiled Oil Dressing: A Mayonnaise Substitute.

Mix in a measuring cup 2 tablespoonfuls of oil and 2½ tablespoonfuls of pastry flour with the juice of a good sized lemon. Fill the cup with hot water. Then transfer the mixture to a double-boiler and cook until thick, stirring constantly.

Cool the mixture, then beat in one beaten egg yolk, a cupful of olive oil, and then a teaspoonful of salt, 1-8 teaspoonful of pepper and ¼ teaspoonful of mustard. Thin with the egg white whipped stiff.

Fresh Strawberry and Pineapple Tarts

Bake tart shells of chicken fat pastry on inverted muffin tins. Just before serving fill with a mixture of two-thirds strawberries and one-third shredded pineapple—which have been sweetened, seasoned with cinnamon, and allowed to stand in the sun for two hours. Garnish each tart with three tiny cream cheese balls, dusted with paprika or rolled in fresh minced mint.

Salt Sticks (Bohemian)

Six potatoes, flour, 1 egg, butter, salt, caraway seeds.

Cook the potatoes the day before you want to use them and put them through the ricer or colander while hot. The next day take the same weight of potato, flour and butter, and a pinch of salt, mix well with the hands and take a piece of dough and roll out on a board with the palms of the hands until the length of two fingers and as big around as the little finger. Put on wax paper in flat pans, brush the tops with beaten eggs, sprinkle with salt and a few caraway seeds. Bake in a slow oven until light brown.

THE WAR BONNET.

[The Chronicle.]

With all the freedom and bravery for which French art is famed, there has never been a bolder stroke in Paris than the acceptance of two modern hats by the independent artists for their exhibition. These were the product of a master hand, which treated with poetry the spirit of the moment. Flowers and gauze, he worked into a finely-proportioned head covering of mauve. The low crown was encircled with bleeding hearts, red, with a touch of purple. Monotony was halted by a large blue bottlefly. The hat symbolized War and Sorrow and Peace. It was simple and there is only one milliner who is capable of such a lyric combination of deep thought and shallow finery.

MONTREAL ROYALS HELP ROCHESTER CELEBRATION

ROCHESTER, May 30. — Rochester took both of today's holiday games from Montreal, winning in the forenoon, 7 to 1, and in the afternoon, 7 to 0. The wildness of the Montreal pitchers figured largely in the Rochester scoring. BICYCLE PARADE CAUSES INTEREST

G. Wenige Makes Bystanders Stare With Performance on Old-Time Wheel.

Old-time bicycle men who were down town last night sort of missed a heart beat or two as they saw G. A. Wenige and company moving easily along Dundas street on old-time wheels. Mr. Wenige rode a thing of beauty and a joy forever, a little wheel in front and a big one behind, while a companion rode one with wheels vice-versa.

A large crowd of boys followed, urging pedestrians to fall in line and attend the races Saturday at Queen's Park. Riders from all over Ontario and Quebec will be present and the meet promises to be a huge success, with close finishes in order.

LOUIS CHEVROLET WINS BIG AUTOMOBILE RACE

CINCINNATI, May 30.—Louis Chevrolet, traveling at an average rate of slightly better than 102 miles an hour, captured the 250 miles international sweepstakes automobile race at the Sharonville speedway today, but he was only a few seconds in front of his brother, Gaston Chevrolet. Ira Vail was less than a sixteenth of a mile behind the second man, but the remainder of the field was well strung out.

Ralph DePalma looked like a strong contender for more than half the journey, when he allowed Louis Chevrolet to set the pace, while he followed a close second. However, soon after passing the 150-mile mark, DePalma developed engine trouble, and was forced out of it. Earl Cooper likewise ran into hard luck with tire trouble, but managed to continue the race within a mile or two of the leaders during the entire race, came strong toward the end, and captured fourth position. Otto Henning was fifth, and Eddie Hearn sixth.

Barney Oldfield finished eighth in the race; Ralph Mulford ninth. A. H. Patterson tenth, and Joe Thomas eleventh.

St. Mark's baseball team gave the Centennial boys a bad trimming at the Queen's Park diamond last evening by trouncing them 8 to 1, the feature of the game was the remarkable pitching of Lewis who kept the East End hits scattered. Davis and Langford of the St. Mark's team were the stars, each bringing in two runs. The line-up:

St. Mark's—Westam, c; Evans, 1b; Morehouse, 2b; Davis, 3b; Langford s.s.; Langord, r.f.; Sheller, l.f.; Hunter, c.f.; Lewis, p.

The second was a slugging match, both teams running up a big bunch of runs. The Y. team won out, 15 to 10, but as only six of the Askin team was present a victory was not expected. The line-up:

CHAMPIONSHIP TITLE DOESN'T FIZZ ON THE CONQUEROR OF WELSH

New York, May 30.—"The funny part of it is I don't feel like a champion.

"I feel just exactly like Benny Leonard, who was begging for a chance to knock Freddie Welsh out and bring the world's lightweight championship back to America."

That's how Benny Leonard expressed himself today as he described his feelings after he had annexed Welsh's lightweight crown.

"I went home feeling kinda funny and happy, and when I awakened yesterday morning I yelled to ma to give me some dope or something, because I didn't feel a bit different. You know when a fellow's after something right hard and won't rest until he gets it, he sorta feels he should feel like a different man when he finally lands it. But it isn't that way at all. I'm just plain Benny Leonard and glad of it.

"When I got home from the fight there were hundreds of people in front of the house. They yelled and yelled until I stuck my head out of the window. They wanted me to make a speech, but I couldn't say anything. I just held up my hands, yelled: 'I love yez all,' and ran back."

Leonard was asked what he thinks of Johnny Kilbane, the man who started Welsh down the decline by whipping him soundly just before Leonard won the world's championship.

"He's a grand little fellow," Leonard replied, "but I feel sure I'll stop him when we meet. I don't care if it's six rounds or twenty; it just have the feeling that I can do it."

BLUE LABELS HAVE FINE WORKOUT AT TECUMSEH PARK

Manager Ernie Densmore Is Pleased With Last Night's Practice.

From the manner in which Ernie Dinsmore's collection of ball players cavorted round Tecumseh Park in the cool of yester even, the Blue Label bunch should just about beat Chatham or any other gang of ball tossers that come this way. All the boys showed lots of pep, and the game here Saturday at Tecumseh Park between the Blue Labels and Chatham should be well worth witnessing.

Manager Dinsmore was tickled to death last night with the material to hand. Pitchers Flint, Johnston and Hanford all showed lots of stuff, and should have the corn kings eating out of their hands.

Pte. Roche of the 63rd Battery gobbled 'em up round first like a turkey gobbles corn with Thanksgiving Day in the offing. He was good. Brown, at second, looks like a find, and showed great ability with the stick. Tiernan, at third, and "Toots" Doherty at shortstop whipped the ball across the diamond in great shape, while the outfielders, Smith, Dinsmore and Hanford, made some hair raising catches.

The Chatham players who steal on either catcher, Wright and Armstrong, Saturday, can count themselves lucky. The boys did some great pegging last night.

There will be another workout Friday evening at 6 o'clock, and all players are asked to turn out.

THIS SHOULD CHEER UP JENNINGS' HEART

CLEVELAND, May 30.—Detroit took both games from Cleveland today winning the morning fracas, 4 to 1, and the afternoon contest, 5 to 1. Superior pitching upon the part of Boland and Ehmke, and the brilliant fielding of Veach and Young, were largely responsible for the victories which forced Cleveland back into fourth place. Heilman's batting featured the second game, as he made four hits in as many times at bat.

Beatty at Jutland

A Year Ago To-day

led his dashing battle-cruiser squadron against the whole German High Seas Fleet. He not only held them till Jellicoe arrived with his dreadnoughts—he hammered them so hard that they were glad to slink away in the mist to the harbors they have hugged ever since.

Admiral Beatty himself, now Commander-in-chief of the Grand Fleet, is a fitting type of the gallant British tars who guard the freedom of the world. Their sleepless vigil on the Seven Seas has been the dominant factor in changing the Kaiser's dream of world dominion first into a hymn of hate—then into a proposal of peace—and soon now into a plea for mercy.

These are the lean, clean, efficient men who use most regularly and appreciate most thoroughly the Gillette Safety Razor. The Navy certainly believes in clean shaving, and agrees that the Gillette is the only razor that makes it comfortable, or even possible, day by day on a North Sea patrol.

On land as well as on sea the Gillette Safety Razor has made a most emphatic hit with our fighting forces. Yet some of our brave Canadian lads still have to borrow one—or do without! You could scarcely do a better turn to any one of them, soldier or sailor, than to send him a Gillette Safety Razor and a good supply of blades! Then get one for yourself and you'll see how he will appreciate your gift.

IMPLANT CANADIAN PRINCIPLES IN THE FOREIGNERS' MINDS

National Convention I.O.D.E. Has Interesting Discussion.

CHILDREN AND THE FLAG

Speaker Declares Canadian Children Should Adopt American Idea.

VICTORIA, May 30.—This morning's session of the national convention of the I. O. D. E. was given over mostly to the presentation reports from British Columbia, Manitoba, New Brunswick and Saskatchewan. Also addresses and the formal presentation by Mrs. Gooderham the national president of rare British pictures to the Vancouver Normal School. In her address the president said it was the intention to present each provincial normal school, from time to time, with sets of British pictures. While nominally the national executive was making the gift, it really was the entire order, for the pictures were paid for out of the memberships. The report of the provincial chapter of British Columbia showed a total membership of 3,108, an advance of 636 on last year's total.

Canadianize Foreigners.

Following a paper by Mrs. George H. Smith, I. O. D. E. national educational secretary, on "The Educational Work of the Order," in which she discussed at length the necessity of arousing patriotism and national consciousness in the hearts of foreign-born residents of the Dominion, a discussion took place at the conference at noon upon the problems of Canada with the foreign element. Opinion was general that some immediate action should be taken to implant Canadian principles firmly in the minds of foreigners, and to bring to them a full realization that a country worth living in was worth the observance of its citizenship principles.

Should Salute Flag.

Mrs. Ralph Smith of Vancouver, made a speech of considerable length upon this subject, and was roundly applauded. She opened her remarks by likening the national convention to the great clearing house for ideas. As to the foreign element, she emphasized that something must be done at once. However, she said, it was easy to criticize and tear down. But not so easy to offer something constructive. In time Canada would find the foreign question would be an astounding problem, just as it had been in the United States. While she was not a flag-waver, nor a badge-wearer, herself, she thought there had, perhaps, been too much criticism of the flag-waving in the United States. She drew attention to the fact that school children are made to salute the Stars and Stripes every morning. Though Canada was not a flag-waving country, the speaker said, yet the time would come when the school children in this country should learn to salute their flag.

"The time has come," declared Mrs. Smith, "when we must put the foreign-born through the mill and roll them out Canadians. They who are willing to come here and accept all the privileges of this country must live up to the principles of the country or leave it. This is the grandest country under the sun, and if it is good enough to live in and die in, it is good enough to live up to its principles of citizenship."

DESTROYER INTERVENES BETWEEN SHIP AND SUB

Norwegian Vessel Reports Escape From Attack.

BOSTON, May 30.—The Norwegian steamer Noruega, which arrived at an American port today, reported an escape from attack by a submarine while 300 miles off the Norwegian coast. The Noruega was accompanied by a British steamer, and was under convoy of a British destroyer when the Noruega's lookout sighted a periscope dead ahead. The destroyer was notified and slipped in between the steamer and the submarine in an attempt to ram the underwater boat, but the submarine plunged in time to save itself.

ONLY TWENTY-ONE BRITISH SHIPS OF ALL CLASSES SUNK

Warfare on Submarines Continues Favorably.

18 ARE OVER 1,600 TONS

Admiralty Takes Advantage of Good Weather to Combat U-Boats.

LONDON, May 30.—The weekly report of British merchant vessels sunk by submarines again shows a favorable total. Summer weather and the long days favor warfare on the submarine and the admiralty is taking full advantage of these conditions. It is the belief of naval men that as long as these conditions prevail, there is little likelihood that the submarines will make any better showing than in past months.

The losses of British shipping from the submarine war as reported this week total 21, as compared with a total of 30 lost in the previous week. While the losses of vessels exceeding 1,600 tons each remain the same as in the last previous report, the number of vessels of less than 1,600 tons is reduced from nine to only one. The number of fishing vessels sunk is reduced from three to two.

Eighteen British merchant vessels of more than 1,600 tons were sunk during the last week, it was officially announced tonight. One vessel of less than 1,600 tons and two fishing vessels were sunk. The text of the announcement reads:

"Weekly summary: Arrivals, 2,719; sailings, 2,768.

"British merchant vessels sunk by mines or submarines over 1,600 tons, 18; under 1,600 tons, one.

"British merchant vessels unsuccessfully attacked, including one previously reported, 17.

"British fishing vessels sunk, two."

The report invariably includes all mercantile tonnage known to have been sunk by mine or submarine, whether employed by the Government or otherwise.

312,503 CANADIANS SAILED UP TO MAY 1

On That Date 25,475 Were On Duty in Canada.

[Special to The Advertiser]

OTTAWA, May 30.—Sir Edward Kemp stated in the Commons today that the total number of officers and men who had sailed for England up to May 1, last, was 312,503. The number of soldiers on Duty in Canada on that date was 25,475. He said there was no record of the number of men who had been sent back to Canada, as unfit, for military duty.

TOBACCO BEATS LIQUOR AS REVENUE PRODUCER

Slight Decline in Total Inland Revenue for April.

OTTAWA, May 30.—Tobacco has taken the place of liquor as the great inland revenue producer. During April the excise on tobacco and cigars amounted to about one million dollars, while that on spirits was about three-quarters of a million. The total inland revenue for the month was $2,043,533 or just a little less than during the same month one year ago.

LIVELIER FIGHTING IS REPORTED IN GALICIA

Vienna Reports Awakening On Russian Front.

VIENNA, May 30, via London.—The official war office statement tonight says:

"In the eastern war theatre there has been livelier fighting, especially in Eastern Galicia."

RUSS AIRMEN BUSY.

PETROGRAD, May 30, via London.—"The usual fusillades occurred on all fronts," says today's war office report. A Russian airplane dropped four bombs on an enemy position in the region of Stanislavoff. Five airplanes threw about forty bombs over Podgaitze, no injury resulting to us. Our aviators encountered the enemy. One of our airmen was killed."

PEOPLE OF ONTARIO TOLD TO EAT FISH

TORONTO, May 30.—The organization of resources committee of Ontario today adopted a recommendation of the sub-committee to institute an immediate campaign to increase the use of fish as a food and thus relieve other foodstuffs for the Canadian soldiers overseas, the motherland, and Allies.

Another matter dealt with was the appointment of a number of field secretaries to assist in the organization of the province.

BELIEVE LIEUT. RUSSELL DEAD.

INGERSOLL, May 30.—Through reading the casualty list in a Toronto paper Mrs. A. Bichener, Bell street, learned of the death of her brother, Pte. W. Cox, who was killed in the recent drive on the west front. Pte. Cox had resided in Ingersoll for over three years, and for the greater portion of this period was a sectionman on the Grand Trunk. He enlisted with the 168th Battalion and went overseas with that unit. As his father resides in England official word did not come to relatives here.

From private letters received here it is feared that Lieut. Roy Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Russell, has died of wounds received recently in action on the west front. There has been no official word of his death, but two letters received here from soldiers at the front allude to his having died from wounds. Official word of his wounding was received by Lieut. Russell's mother, but there has been nothing official since that time, although the records office has been communicated with. Lieut. Russell enlisted with the 168th Battalion, and was one of its most popular officers. From what has been learned from the letters received it seems that Pte. Russell died on his way to the dressing station, but the strange feature is that no official word has been received. Lieut. Russell was born in Ingersoll, had spent his whole career here up to the time of his enlistment, and he was deservedly popular with all who knew him. He took an active part in the young people's work of the Methodist Church and quickly endeared himself to the men of B Company, of the 168th Battalion.

IS INCITER OF MOBS IN MONTREAL HOLDER OF TORY PATRONAGE?

Dr. Reid Fails To Reply To Pertinent Question.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

OTTAWA, May 30.—Is Tancrede Marsil, who is leading the anti-conscription agitation in Montreal, still handling the Government patronage in Bagot? The question was asked in Parliament today and was not answered by the Government.

In the 1911 election Tancrede Marsil was the Conservative candidate in Bagot. He was defeated in the contest by J. E. Marcile, but as the government changed, the patronage went to Tancrede Marsil, though the seat went to J. E. Marcile. War came and J. E. Marcile sent two sons to the front; conscription came and Tancrede Marsil incited the Montreal mob against compulsory service.

Today, in inland revenue estimates, J. E. Marcile called the attention of Hon. Dr. Reid, who was leading the House, to the case of an assistant appraisor in Bagot named Hammill, who had been reduced in rank and had $300 cut off his salary on the recommendation of Tancrede Marsil. J. E. Marcile wanted to know if the recent performance by Tancrede Marsil would result in the restoration of the officer to former rank and pay.

Hon. Dr. Reid had no reply to make.

Hon. George P. Graham was not satisfied. He wanted to know if the Government still entrusted Tancrede Marsil with the patronage of the riding.

Still there was no reply from Hon. Dr. Reid.

"We know this," said Hon. Mr. Graham indignantly. "Tancrede Marsil was the Conservative candidate for the riding in 1911, and subsequently he has controlled and operated the Government patronage for that riding."

AVIATION INSTRUCTOR KILLED AT BUFFALO

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 30. — Fred W. Zimmer, an aviation instructor, and Seymour H. Knox Jun., a young Buffalo millionaire, who was taking his first flight in a flying course for Government service, suffered internal injuries and head wounds today, when the hydro-airplane in which the two men were riding crashed into a telegraph pole. Zimmer, caught under the engine of the aircraft, sustained a fractured skull and died in the hospital a few hours after the accident. Knox will recover, it was said tonight.

SAVE YOUR HAIR! 25 CENT BOTTLE STOPS DANDRUFF

Every bit of dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

Try this! Your hair appears glossy, abundant, wavy and beautiful.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance, an incomparable gloss and softness; but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

GERMAN SOCIALISTS AGAINST RETURNING OF ALSACE-LORRAINE

Declare That Will Never Be Consented To.

TO RESTORE BELGIUM

British Socialists To Send Two Members To Stockholm Conference.

Copenhagen, Via London, May 31.—The lavish promises of some of the outside intermediaries in the peace movement that the German Socialists and the German Government, in order to arrange peace, would be ready to negotiate a settlement of the Alsace-Lorraine question, under the guise of "frontier regulation," have no basis in fact, according to a statement made to the Associated Press by Dr. Edouard David, one of the most prominent of the German Socialist delegates to the Stockholm conference. Dr. David was emphatic in declaring that no German party and no German Government could or would be found which would consent to the alienation of territory which was regarded as a fixed part of the German empire.

A Purely German Question.

According to the Socialist leader the only alterations of frontier which could be contemplated by the German Socialist party were such minor ones as were based on local conditions and considerations. Among the phrases he used were: "The question of Alsace-Lorraine is purely a German internal one," "Alsace-Lorraine is German land," "The formula of peace without annexation does not apply to Alsace-Lorraine, because there has been no change in possession during the war," "Neither the German Government nor the German Socialists are willing to surrender Alsace-Lorraine."

In further explanation of the program with which the German majority socialists are going to Stockholm, Dr. David said that it included the "restoration" of Belgium, but his language left it uncertain as to whether he meant financial aid toward restoring the desolated country to its pre-war condition. As far as Russian Poland is concerned the majority Socialists advocate a plebiscite to determine whether the population wishes the establishment of a kingdom under Austro-German auspices or alignment with Russia, either as part of that country or as a Polish state with close relations to its great eastern neighbor.

British Socialists Going.

Stockholm, Via London, May 31.—The Dutch and Scandinavian Socialist committee has been informed that the British labor socialist organization will send representatives to the Stockholm conference. G. H. Roberts and Ramsay MacDonald, labor members of parliament, are expected.

NOT INDORSED BY BERLIN.

Copenhagen, via London, May 31.—The program of the German majority Socialist delegates to the Stockholm conference evidently, from the statements of Dr. Edouard David, one of the leading delegates, carries no indorsement by the German Government. Dr. David clearly intimated that the action of the delegation is only binding upon its party, and that the envoys have no definite pledges or authorizations from the administration at Berlin.

Dr. David does not hope that peace will result directly from the Stockholm movement. The utmost he expects is that the conference will lay a basis for a peace movement in which peace lovers in all countries can unite.

Questioned as to the fate of the reform movement, Dr. David asserted that the reform was sure to come, but did not specify as to whether the change would be effected during or after the war.

INSPECTOR FAILED TO PROVE CHARGES IN KITCHENER CASE

KITCHENER, May 30.—Henry Luft of the Queen's Hotel, New Hamburg, appeared before Magistrate Weir today for selling beer which was above the 2½ per cent standard required by the Ontario temperance act. Inspector Winterhalt who laid the charge produced the report of a Toronto analyst, which showed that the five samples taken contained over 3 per cent. Crown Attorney Bowlby prosecuted, and based his case upon the report of the analyist.

Solicitor H. J. Sims claimed the method adopted by the inspector in taking the samples was not according to Hoyle. The inspector admitted in his cross-examination that he had taken five old empty bottles which he found in the cellar, and hadn't taken the trouble to clean them. He kept the samples over Sunday, and didn't express them to Toronto until Monday, and although the samples were taken on May 5 they were not analysed until May 8. Also the tap with which he tapped the five barrels of beer had not been cleaned before being used.

It was Huther's beer that was sampled, and John Spalinger and Jacob C. Huther, chemists, being 'Varsity graduates, proved to the satisfaction of the court that fresh beer put in old bottles was liable to ferment sufficiently to raise the percentage by at least a half per cent, also that a dirty beer tap would cause trouble. The beer as it left the brewery on May 5 was nothing more than the 2½ per cent variety.

Solicitor Sims examined the witnesses at some length.

His worship held that the beer had left the brewery of the required standard, and that the possibilities were that the second fermentation had resulted after it had left the Queen's Hotel. In dismissing the case he plainly told the inspector he should use every precaution to make the tests beyond question.

BIG RECRUITING RALLY FOR CHATHAM WILL BE HELD ON SUNDAY NEXT

CHATHAM, May 30.—A big recruiting effort will be made in Chatham on Sunday next. Capt. H. B. Kenney of the Dominion staff at Ottawa, was in the city today, and has arranged for a monster mass recruiting meeting to be held in the local theatre on Sunday afternoon. The speakers will be Capt. Hindson, chief recruiting officer of this district, who will speak at the Methodist Church in the morning, and Capt. (Mrs.) Parsons, who will also speak in the Baptist Church in the morning.

HOTELMEN FINED $100

Conviction for Illegal Liquor Sale Made at Mitchell.

MITCHELL, May 30. — On Tuesday August Bauer, proprietor of the Royal Hotel, came before Police Magistrate Davis on the charge of selling liquor on Sunday, May 20, in violation of the Canada temperance act. Bauer was fined $100 and $7 costs.

On that day Messrs. Rod Strachan, Arthur Colquhoun and two young men motored from Stratford to Mitchell, and, according to the evidence, were implicated in the purchases.

A case and a half of confiscated liquor is at present in Magistrate Davis' cellar, and another police court case will take place next week.

Mr. Elliott of Stratford, the inspector for Perth, is looking after his duties well. There have been a number of other alleged cases of selling liquor and of drunkenness in this district. Magistrate Davis says they will all be rounded up in time.

TRIED TO CROSS BORDER

Immigration Men Incensed at Masse's Claims Regarding French Language.

WINDSOR, May 30.—Charging that he has been "inconvenienced" by Canadian immigration officers on duty at the ferry dock here, who held him up because he failed to produce a passport or other proper credentials when he attempted to cross to Detroit recently, J. J. Masse, secretary of the Windsor branch of L'Association Commerciale, threatens dire vengeance upon the immigration officials in general, and up the Canadian Government in particular.

Chief Inspector Orville Adams, who ordered Masse detained at the dock for a time, because of language he is alleged to have used towards Inspector Byrne, received a communication from a local attorney, J. D. Grandpere, today to the effect that Masse has decided to institute an action against the Government for the "inconvenience" caused him. He asks $5,000 damages.

It develops that Masse was told he must apologize to the immigration officer for the statement that he is said to have made that: "A man had no business to hold a Government position without a knowledge of the French language."

Inspector Adams informed Masse that he was wrong, and after nearly two hours' detention, the latter capitulated. The immigration officers were particularly incensed at Masse's statement that "French is the official language of this country."

NOT ENOUGH WHEAT OR IRON IN RUSSIA FOR PRESENT NEEDS

Has Been Impossible to Get Control of Supplies.

PETROGRAD, via London, May 30.—The food minister, M. Pieschehonoff, today unfolded the serious economic situation to the congress of officers' delegates from the front, in explaining that it had been impossible as yet to establish a grain monopoly owing to the complicated organization required.

On the eve of the revolution, he said, there was virtually no wheat available. The supplies had increased in March, but dwindled again in April.

The army requirement was 18,000,000 poods of wheat weekly, but at one time only 5,000,000 arrived. The shipments now arriving were bigger, but were far from normal, and the people would probably be obliged to face a still further shortage. Other grains, especially oats, were also scarce. He feared that even after the grain monopoly was organized the situation would not be improved, because, suspicious of paper money, the peasants demanded raw materials and iron implements in exchange for their produce.

The central committee, which has in charge the regulation of the iron supply, continued the minister, has only 3,000,000 poods of iron on hand, while the munitions factories require 30,000,000. Hence, Russia is on the eve of a catastrophe, he declared, unless the population, particularly the peasants, are prepared for the greatest self-sacrifice.

The superintendent promptly discharged the man who presented the petition, whereupon the other employees walked out.

HEAVY FRUIT CROP FOR BRITISH COLUMBIA

Victoria, B. C., May 30.—Reports which have reached Deputy Minister Scott of the agricultural department convince him that the fruit crop and the general agricultural production of the province this year will be heavy.

The fruit in the Okanagan district will show a 30 per cent increase. There will also be a good increase in the berries of the lower mainland. Other crops in these districts give satisfactory indications. The apple crop will be heavy, but owing to the British embargo the problem of marketing will be serious.

RECIPE TO DARKEN GREY HAIR

This Home-Made Mixture Darkens Grey Hair and Relieve Dandruff.

To a half pint of water add:
Bay Rum ..... 1 oz.
Orlex Compound ..... a small box
Glycerine ..... ¼ oz.

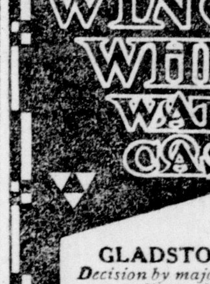

These are all simple ingredients that you can buy from any druggist at very little cost, and mix them yourself. Apply to the scalp once a day for two weeks, then once every other week until all the mixture is used.

A half pint should be enough to darken the grey hair, rid the head of dandruff and kill the dandruff germs. It stops the hair from falling out, and relieves itching and scalp diseases. It promotes the growth of the hair and makes harsh hair soft and glossy.

A FRIEND'S ADVICE

Woman Saved From a Serious Surgical Operation.

Louisville, Ky.—"For four years I suffered from female troubles, headaches, and nervousness. I could not sleep, had no appetite and it hurt me to walk. If I tried to do any work, I would have to lie down before it was finished. The doctors said I would have to be operated on and I simply broke down. A friend advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and the result is I feel like a new woman. I am well and strong, do all my own housework and have an eight-pound baby girl. I know Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved me from an operation which every woman dreads."—Mrs. Nellie Fishback, 1521 Christy avenue, Louisville, Ky.

Everyone naturally dreads the surgeon's knife. Sometimes nothing else will do, but many times Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved the patient and made an operation unnecessary.

If you have any symptom about which you would like to know, write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass., for helpful advice given free.

KAISER CAN'T SINK THE ADVERTISER, SAYS PTE. FRED YOUNG

Paper Always Gets To Boys Overseas.

SERGT. FRITH PROMOTED

Popular Member of 18th Returns To France After Getting Commission.

Ships which carry The Advertiser to the boys across the ocean are never sunk, according to Pte. Fred Young of the 18th Battalion, whose casual and cheery comments on the army have been a feature of these columns for many months. Moral (submitted in all modesty): Put an Advertiser on each ship so that the sub menace may be curbed completely.

Pte. Young tells of many interesting things, including the promotion of Sergt. Joe Firth of the 18th to officer's rank. His latest letter, dated May 13, is as follows:

"Hastings, Sussex, England,
"May 12, 1917.

"Dear Friend—Just a few lines to assure you that the U-boat menace has not disconnected us from our overseas mail. Letters posted in London, Ontario, at 10 a.m. April 23, reached here on May 7, and 'Tisers up to April 21 arrived by same mail. For many moons now every copy of the 'Tiser has reached us O. K., and that is sure proof that Fritz's boasts about his U-boats' efficiency is rather exaggerated.

"British newspapers, with true sportsman spirit, admit the submarine menace and the food controller has put the double-cross on all fancy cakes and luxuries. Of course, that law didn't affect us, as "luxuries" never were a prominent feature amongst the "eats" handed out to us by a paternal government. We get our punk, bung, possy and bully as per usual.

Sergt. Joe an Officer.

"Guess you will be pleased to hear that our old trench pal, Sergt. Joe Firth, is now a full-fledged officer. The K. R. and O. provides for a military salute when passing an officer in the public streets. But the sight of the smiling face of our esteemed pal made us forget King's regulations and orders, and we extended the glad hand of "comradeship," accompanied by heartfelt congratulations. Those who know the big-hearted Sergt. Joe of bygone days will understand the spirit in which he accepted our lapse from military etiquette. With a parting handshake, he assured us that he was once again fit, and destined for France. Floodgates of memory were opened wide as he reiterated the slogan of of the fighting 18th: "Berlin or bust." The home town sure has every reason to be proud of her khaki-clad sons in the firing line at Godnoes.

"'For they know that from the colonel
to the drummer in the band
There is not a single soldier of them all
But would go to blind destruction if their country should demand,
And call it simply DUTY after all.'

Potatoes, Spuds and Booze.

"Our war-tired optimism does not blind us to the fact that submarines are causing anxiety to all thinking men and women, but we are not putting our money—when we have any—on the alarmists who tell us that the common or garden variety of potatoes rank very high in the list of valuable wedding presents, or that breadstuffs will soon meet the fate that John Barleycorn met in Ontario on September 16, 1916. We're from Missouri, and they've got to show us. It is quite true that some of the grocery stores occasionally display the sign, "No potatoes," but bookstores announce in large type, "We have plenty of potatoes—on postcards." Like all true Britishers, folks in this vicinity accept the inevitable with the saving grace of humor.

"War news from the western front shows that we are still winning in a stiff up-hill fight, and anyone whose think-tank hasn't run short of petrol can readily see that Kaiser Bill is heading for the toboggan at breakneck speed. Of course, you might as well expect to see a newly-made corporal carrying his overcoat across his arm without giving generous prominence to the stripes on the sleeve, as to expect the German people to believe that their war lords are heading for the rocks.

Greasing the Toboggan.

"News from America conveys the impression that the Yankees are going to assist considerably in removing from Wilhelm II's pathway any obstacles that would hinder him from reaching the toboggan on schedule time. We are not going into any ecstasies over the Russian situation at the present moment, but we still maintain that men meet with success who in hours of distress can depend on their own backbone.

"Haven't time to tell you today of all the charms of an English seaside in the good old summer time. Throughout the daytime, when old Sol is shining on waters calm as a mill pond, and little children are playing in droves on the pebbly and sandy beach, while nurses and parents watch passing vessels sailing smoothly over sunlit seas, it is hard to realize that Old England is in the throes of war.

"But after the sun has set and the bugles sounded "lights out," as we watch the twinkling riding-lights of patrol vessels that guard our native seas, the words of the song, "We've got a navy, a fighting navy, that keeps the foe at bay," rush to our mind with a thrilling significance when we realize that it is the eternal vigilance of that British navy that is preventing Fritz from dropping 15-inch shells from a Kiel Canal "hideaway" through our bedroom window while we are locked in the arms of Morpheus on our pallet of straw.

"The stamp of headquarters' orderly room on the envelope containing this letter, instead of the usual penny postage stamp, will confirm the report that men who have been overseas and are now on duty in England, can send their correspondence free of postage to Canada, France and the U. S. A.

Prices Still Soaring.

"We are thankful for small mercies. War taxes and unpatriotic profiteers have boosted the prices of things to such a height that if they take one more jump they will be out of the reach of everyone except the men of the Royal Flying Corps. John Bull aptly described the situation when he remarked that England, which was once the land of the free, has now become the land of the 'expensive.'

"Yours, as ever
"FRED YOUNG.

"'Punk,' in army parlance, is bread; 'bung' is cheese, 'possy' is jam, and 'bully' is ?"

70 RECRUITS JOIN THE HUSSARS DRAFT

Although Major Stewart, officer commanding the 1st Hussars Draft-giving Depot, and his officers have not made any public appeal for recruits, and have not yet launched an active campaign to obtain men, yet since the first of this month, a total of 70 men have signed up with the cavalry unit.

The Hussars Depot was authorized to send re-inforcements to the 8th Brigade (Canadian Mounted Rifles) at the front, and Major Stewart expects to start a strong campaign for men for the Hussars in the near future. In the meantime men are coming in a good rate, and a party of about 20 men is now on the way from Windsor to join the Hussars, who it is expected will arrive today.

CITY BREVITIES

MEETS ON FRIDAY.—The board of control will meet on Friday morning, with reports of committees to dispose of. Not much new business is up for settlement.

FED UP ON IT.—City Clerk Sam Baker does not think a man in his position is to be envied. During the month, he attended no less than 38 meetings, which is quite a record in the way of municipal meetings. He is quite fed up on municipal oratory.

FIRE BRIGADES' WORK.—The fire brigades responded to 21 alarms during the month of May. Of these, 17 were fires, 3 chimney fires, and one drowning. Twenty alarms came in by telephone and one by box. The loss for the month was $525 on contents and $250 on buildings.

BUILDING FOR MAY.—During the month of May, 116 building permits were issued by Building Inspector Piper for a total of $95,425. Last May the total was $111,840, a difference of over $16,000. The permits for the year amount to $258,755, as compared with $272,665 for the first five months of 1916.

CONCERT AT THE GROVE.—The Red Cross Society of The Grove are giving a concert in The Grove Methodist Church on Monday, June 4, the proceeds to aid in equipping the X-ray room for the returned soldiers at the Byron Sanatorium. Mr. MacCarthur, district Epworth League president, will address The Grove League Sunday evening.

BANK CLEARINGS FOR MONTH.—Bank clearings for May this year are $829,205 greater than those of May, 1916. The total this month was $9,968,629, while in 1916 it was $9,139,434. Clearings during the past week were $116,113 in excess of those in the corresponding week of 1916, when they totalled $1,938,448. The total this week was $2,654,561.

CONCERT AT BYRON.—Joe Ronan, entertainer, put on a splendid program at the Byron Sanatorium last evening for the returned soldiers. Associated with him were Hugh Overan, pianist; Roy Eaton, boy soprano; Mike McKeough, baritone; Wm. Fleming, comic entertainer, and Gilbert Reynolds, baritone. This is one of the regular weekly concerts under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

HIS TRIP PAID FOR.—The account of Ald. Ashplant for his trip to Montreal in connection with the "Win the War" convention was passed for payment last evening by the finance committee. He was chosen by the board of control as a delegate, but was turned down by the council when presented to that body. He had departed in the meantime, however, and did not learn of the fact until he had read The Advertiser in Montreal. The other accounts have not yet been presented.

NEW NOTICES SENT OUT.—New assessment notices are being sent out to the annexed districts, to obviate any possibility that the city may not be able to collect the taxes due there. Some doubt on this question was expressed some time ago but at the present time, it looks as if the danger was over. However, there may be some changes in the method of work next year, so that this troublesome problem may be settled.

63RD BATTERY DRAFT OF 122 MEN GO TO PETAWAWA CAMP

About 2 o'clock this afternoon, 122 members of the 63rd Battery, in command of Lieut. T. Hayman, assisted by Lieut. Lorne Firth, left the Quebec street station of the C. P. R. for further training at Petawawa.

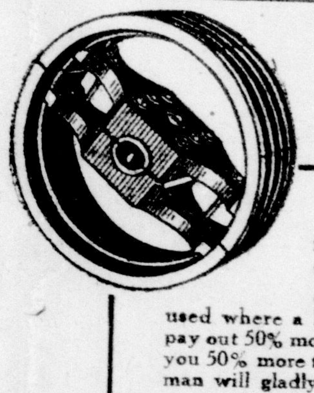

With the advance party of twelve men and an officer who left on Monday, this draft will form a complete battery, and today 134 horses and a full equipment of guns were taken along for purposes of training.

These men have seen much of active service conditions of late, having only recently returned from a 110-mile trek to Galt, and they will be in good condition to compete on favorable terms with other artillery units at Petawawa. It is possible that they will not be seen again in this city as a unit, but will on the completion of their training proceed overseas directly from Petawawa. They will, however, be permitted to return as individuals on leave.

The remaining members of the 63rd at Queen's Park are sufficient to form another complete battery, but they will remain in this city and proceed to Carling Heights' Camp for their summer training in the course of a few days. Quarters for their use are being constructed by the members of the Service Company, Canadian Engineers, this week, and it is expected that these will be soon completed and that the artillerymen will then be able to join their fellow-soldiers in camp at the heights.

In addition to the quarters for the men spacious shelters are under construction for the artillery horses at the camp.

You Pay the Bills, Yes---But Do You Spend the Money?

Too many bills are paid without inquiring whether the equipment was the most efficient for the purpose. For example: Every time a metal pulley is used where a Dodge Wood Split Pulley would serve, you pay out 50% more for the pulley in the first place and it costs you 50% more to operate it in the second place. Our salesman will gladly demonstrate this to you upon enquiry.

BIRTH RATE IN LONDON HAS BEEN CUT IN TWO

Decline From 140 Children Last Year To 88 This May.

The birth rate for the month of May shows a startling decline. In fact, there is a considerable shrinkage during the whole of 1917. During the present month there were 88 births registered at the city hall. In May last year there were 140. For the first five months of 1917 the total births were 478, while for the same period of 1916 there were 569, a loss of 91, or nearly 20 a month.

There were 7 illegitimate births during the month, and 25 during the first five months of the year, as compared with 19 for 1916.

The death rate for the month was high, 92 passing away. In May last year there were 77, an increase of 15.

Of these, 19 were over 70 years of age. Pneumonia was the most prevalent cause of death, 9 dying from this disease. Cancer came next with 8, while diphtheria was responsible for 3 deaths. Two died from tuberculosis, and two others from tuberculosis and other diseases.

Prohibition did not altogether prohibit, as two deaths were due to acute alcoholism. Only seven infants succumbed, a very small total.

There was also a decided falling off in the number of marriages, 30 being registered as against 49 in May last year.

The boys outnumbered the girls in the birth column this month, there being 49 soldiers and 39 girl babies.

COUNCIL INACTIVE IN ATTEMPT TO SECURE HOSPITAL

Criticized For Failing To Close For Buildings.

NO WORD IS RECEIVED

Board of Control May Ask the Government for Definite Reply.

London may lose a fine military hospital owing to the lack of energy on the part of the city council.

Some time ago the governors of the Western University offered the college on St. George street for a military hospital to the hospitals commission. The authorities of Huron College concurred, and both made arrangements for teaching outside the building, in order that the Government might have this ideal place for the care of invalided men.

City Council Inactive.

In the meantime, the city council sat tight. None of them bothered about it. London was not represented in the House of Commons, with the result that the whole matter has been allowed to drift, and it seems probable now that London will lose this chance.

"We offered the university, and made arrangements for teaching the classes elsewhere," said C. R. Somerville, chairman of the board of governors. "It would seem now that we would lose this chance of establishing a hospital here with 250 beds. The Government would build additions, with the view of making it permanent. Now the matter has been allowed to drift. The council apparently has put forth no effort to make it certain that the hospital will come here. I fear that it will go elsewhere. It is a pity, as there is no better site for a hospital anywhere than this is. We can do no more."

Ask Definite Reply.

It is probable that some effort will be made by the board of control to get a definite answer from the hospitals commission. If the council gets busy, the hospital will come here. Other cities are wideawake to such things, and lose no time in "cinching" matters. Somebody is sleeping on this job.

EVERY KIDDIE IN CITY IS A SUN WORSHIPPER

Weatherman Keeps Them on Tenterhooks for the Big Picnic.

More than one anxious childish face turned heavenward today as a few scattered raindrops pattered down. "Why all the anxiety over the weather?" asked the lonely bachelor today of his friend, the father of five.

"The school picnic is being held tomorrow at Springbank Park," returned the married man, in pitying tones. "Didn't you know? The school picnic ranks next to Christmas with my family of youngsters. I'd hate to see it rain, for to tell you the truth, I enjoy the afternoon just as much as the kids do."

The weatherman as far as could be learned from an interview this afternoon stood fifty-fifty on tomorrow's line-up. To be exact, he said: "Partly fair, with some local showers." However, the prayers that are sent up tonight for sunshine tomorrow will number legions, and should have some effect on the changeable weather.

"Unless the weather is exceptionally threatening and prospects good for a continual downpour, the picnic will be held tomorrow," said Thomas Rowe, chairman of the board of education this afternoon. "Our experience in the past has been to hold the picnic on the day scheduled if at all possible. However, if it looks like an all-day rain the affair will probably be held on Saturday."

Harris, in charge of the health department in the absence of Dr. H. W. Hill, stated today that the case was diagnosed at once as smallpox and that it was removed from the hospital as soon as the rash developed.

The patient is an out-of-town man who had been in the city for a short time before going to the eye and ear ward for treatment.

WINNIPEG MARKET IS DEVOID OF ACTIVITY; OCTOBER CLOSES LOW

Sells Down to $1.90, Which Is Under Tuesday's Price.

FOOR DEMAND FOR CASH

Only Tough Grades Show Any Stir With Competition for Offerings.

Winnipeg, May 30.—Today's grain market was much the same as those which have gone before in the last month. The only difference was that as far as southern exchanges were concerned there was the seal of formality affixed to the holiday. The local market was officially "open" but the futures market did very little more business than Chicago or Minneapolis. With the wheat market tied down so that open long buying is not permitted, operators appear unable to arouse any enthusiasm in any grain. Wheat was practically stationary today. Oats opened softer, but firmed as a result of unseasonable weather and an absence of offerings.

October wheat had a total range of half a cent for the day, closing at the low spot of $1.90, which was 1⅜c under yesterday. Basis contract prices were pared another four cents per bushel. Oats values dropped ⅜c on May and ⅞c on July. October closed unchanged. Flax broke 7½c and 5½c per bushel. October flax was posted for the first time, at $2.50. Barley advanced one cent.

In the cash division the demand for wheat was poor on everything but tough grades, where the Government drying houses and shippers were competing for offerings. There was not much doing in oats, apart from stuff in store at Moose Jaw, where number 2 and 3 Canadian western and toughs were in good request. The demand for barley was good, but flax was easier.

Cash grain:

Wheat—No. 1 northern, $2.36; No. 2 northern, $2.33; No. 3 northern, $2.28; No. 4, $2.16; No. 5, $2.09; No. 6, $1.60; feed, $1.15; basis contract, May $2.36; June $2.31; July $2.26.

Oats—No. 2 Canadian western, 67⅞c; No. 3 Canadian western, 64⅞c; extra No. 1 feed, 64⅞c.

Barley—No. 3, $1.18; No. 4, $1.12; rejected, $1; feed, $1.

Flax—No. 1 N.W.C., $2.79½; No. 2 Canadian western, $2.76½; No. 3 do., $2.56½.

TORONTO.

Toronto, May 30.—Grain quotations are as follows:

Ontario wheat, No. 2 winter, $2.50@$2.55 outside, according to location.

Rye—$2.

MONTREAL.

Montreal, May 30.—There was no important change in the condition of the grain market today but the feeling was easy in sympathy with the Winnipeg market and lower prices are expected in the near future. The demand was quiet for all lines and the volume of business small.

Corn—American No. 2 yellow, $1.65@1.70.

Oats—Canadian western, No. 2, 80c; Canadian western, No. 3, 77c; extra No. 1 feed, 77c.

Barley—Man. feed, $1.18.

GRAIN.

Chicago, May 1.—Excellent crop reports had a decided bearish effect today on the wheat market. According to one authority, Texas and Oklahoma have the finest crops ever produced in those states.

Opening prices, which ranged from ½@9c lower, with July at $1 94@2, were followed by reactions from the extreme bottom figures, and comparative steadiness at 2½@3c under Tuesday's close.

LONDON STOCK EXCHANGE.

London, May 31.—Money was more plentiful and easier today. Discount rates were quiet. Petrograd exchange closed weak.

The investment and industrial sections of the stock exchange were firm and hardening on the assumption that a portion of the £40,000,000 distributed as a war loan dividend will be reinvested. Foreign issues were steady, and Spanish and Brazilian bonds had a better tone. Shipping shares were in good demand. Peninsular and Oriental and Union Steamship Company of New Zealand were firm on the amalgamation of the two companies. Russian bonds and mine and oil shares were weak, and American securities ruled dull throughout the day.

WALL STREET.

New York, May 31—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—Resumption of market operations over the holiday indicated a further accumulation of buying orders. Leaders opened at gains of 1 to 2 points, rails alone displaying some hesitation. United States Steel was the overshadowing feature on its initial transaction of 12,000 shares at 134¾ to 135¼, an extreme advance of 1½ points and a fraction above its previous maximum. Independent steel shares registered equal advances, also Marine preferred. American Smelting and several specialties. Sugars were again conspicuously active and strong. Steel extended its rise to 135⅝ in the first half hour, other industrials keeping pace with this movement.

Noon.—Steel touched 136 just before noon on further confident absorption in single lots up to 12,000 shares. Other active issues, rails and motors excepted, continue to improve. The more notable gains included American, Cuba Cane and South Porto Rico Sugars at advances of 3 to 9 points, American Tobacco 4, Tobacco Products 2½, Baldwin Locomotive 3¼, American Car 2½, Harvester 2 and Marine preferred 2¾, Industrial Alcohol, Federal Smelting, Superior and Gulf States Steels, Barrett Company, and oils and papers were among the varied stocks included in the broad upward sweep of the morning at gains of 2 to 5 points. Bonds were steady.

1:30 p.m.—Weakness of Russian exchange caused profit-taking in the afternoon, but without material impairment of prices. Steel achieved the new maximum of 136¼, and other industrials and specialties were strong, particularly Alcohol and Fertilizers.

FIRST CHURCH CLASS DOING A GREAT WORK

In connection with the Red Cross work done in this city that of the Bible class of the First Presbyterian Sunday School, is worthy of special mention. This class of young girls is taught by Mrs. C. W. Leonard, there being about 40 members, who meet weekly, in the interests of those serving in France.

An example of the work done last week 100 yards of gauze were prepared for hospital work by this class, in addition to 50 towels, and one dozen pillow slips. This work has been carried on since the outbreak of the war, the supplies being sent to the front through the local branch of the Red Cross Society.

The local Victorian Order of Nurses are also supplied with articles needed in their laudable work by this class. As the work is unlimited, any young girls of this city, not now engaged in patriotic work, desiring to do so are quite eligible to join the above Bible class, and they will be welcomed as new members. The class will meet next Tuesday evening in the class room of the First Presbyterian Sunday School.

WILL PROBE FOOD SITUATION HERE

At a meeting of the special high cost of living committee of the city council yesterday afternoon, it was recommended that Inspector McCallum be given authority to investigate food problems in the city.

He is to see what stores of provisions are here, what is paid for them, how long they have been kept, what they are selling for, in fact, to get all possible information.

Controller Shaw thought this would bring forth much information as to actual conditions here.

The committee concurred in this.

HAVE JOINT MEETING

Lobo and Bethel Young People Meet at Ivan Church.

LOBO, May 30.—The second union meeting of the Lobo and Bethel Young People's Union was held in the Ivan Presbyterian Church on Tuesday evening. An interesting and profitable evening was enjoyed by all present. A program of solos, duets and discussions on the evening's subject was given.

A debate, "Resolved, that intellectual growth is more beneficial than social growth," was well discussed by Edward Wark and Archie Fletcher for the affirmative, and Miss Camilla Zavitz and Malcolm Campbell for the negative. The judges decided in favor of the affirmative. Lunch was served in the basement by the ladies.

THREE ENLIST FROM FOREST CITY LODGE

Forest City Loyal Orange Lodge, No. 762, last evening initiated three candidates, and at the same meeting it was announced by the recording secretary that three more brethren had enlisted in various units of the C. E. F. Gordon Pate, Sydney Snow and S. Lee are the three latest to join the overseas forces.

Sergt. W. E. Elliott, who expects soon to proceed overseas with the Cyclists, tendered his resignation, but the lodge voted to fill his place only temporarily, the deputy chair to be his on return from overseas. Sergt. Elliott is not the first officer of Forest City Lodge to go overseas; the late treasurer, W. Bro. Thomas Pitt, left with the 135th Battalion, C. E. F.

In addition to the initiations mentioned, two brethren were advanced to the royal arch degree, one being Sergt. C. E. Finch, 18th Battalion, recently invalided home.

BROKE HIS NOSE.

Whilst playing ball on Carling Heights yesterday at noon, Pte. Franklin, No. 1 Special Service Company, was struck in the face by a baseball, which broke his nose. His injury was dressed at the military hospital, and is a very painful one. Pte. Franklin was, prior to this unfortunate accident, employed as a clerk at Wolseley Barracks.

RETAIL JEWELERS FORM ASSOCIATION AT CONVENTION HERE

Co-operation Will Benefit All in Western Ontario.

LONDON MAN PRESIDENT

W. G. Young Elected at the First Meeting of the Members.

The Western Ontario Retail Jewelers' Association was formed yesterday at a convention of 100 jewelers from different towns and cities in the western section of the province. The objects of the newly-formed association are to promote good-fellowship among the members of the trade; to co-operate, in order that all may be benefited thereby, and to eliminate any antagonistic elements that are liable to arise as the result of too keen a competition.

The officers elected were: President, W. G. Young, city; vice-president, H. Richardson, Ingersoll; second vice-president, C. H. Hepinstall, St. Thomas; secretary, Gordon Maclaren, Hamilton; treasurer, John S. Barnard, city.

The above officers will act in an executive capacity until such time as further members are added.

In the afternoon the jewelers were taken for an auto drive around the city, out to the grounds of the London Hospital for Insane, and to Springbank Park.

In the evening a banquet was held at the Tecumseh House. W. G. Young presided.

Praises for King.

John S. Barnard, replying to the toast to the King, paid a high tribute to King George. He stated that he had inherited the virtues and characteristics of his illustrious father, the late King Edward VII. In the great crisis through which Great Britain was passing, the King was an outstanding figure.

W. G. Young, the newly-elected president, stated that for some time he had been thinking of the necessity of such an organization.

"I believe the jewelers of Canada have lacked vision," he said. "We have got to have a bigger outlook." This, he believed, would come. He advocated closer relationship, and hoped that the formation of the association would tend to promote the mutual interests of all the retail jewelers in Western Ontario. The jewelers and the public would undoubtedly profit by such an organization. He thanked the members for the honor conferred upon him by selecting him for the position of president.

Welcomed By Mayor.

Mayor Stevenson extended a welcome to the members of the association, and wished the new organization success. He dwelt upon the beauties and advantages of the city, and stated that London was undoubtedly destined to occupy a position as one of the leading cities in the Dominion.

J. Ross of the Trader, a Toronto publication devoted to the trade, proposed the toast to the Western Ontario Retail Jewelers' Association.

Organization Necessary.

Organization, he considered, was the fundamental principle leading to success in any line of endeavor, and the formation of the new association would, he thought, be productive of good results to all members.

The first member of the association to respond to the toast was H. Wilson, Woodstock. He believed that great good would arise from the formation of the association. Mutual interests would be promoted, and good-fellowship would result.

A. E. Cooper of this city believed that if the organization was conducted as it should be, that the co-operation that would result would be of benefit to all.

Pledges Support.

R. L. McGill, Galt, spoke briefly, and wished the organization success, pledging the support of the jewelers in his home town.

W. H. Hepinstall and E. H. Flash of St. Thomas, N. F. Babb, Stratford, responded to the same toast.

Charles F. Jones proposed the toast to the visitors, and in a brief address welcomed them to the city and to the convention.

Stuart H. Lees of Hamilton, responding to the toast, thought that the association would undoubtedly meet with success.

E. Bilyea, Toronto; J. Levy, Hamilton; Charles Wilkinson, Toronto, and Gordon Maclaren, Stratford, replied to the toast, "The Visitors."

J. Levy extended an invitation to the members to hold the next convention in Hamilton, and promised that no efforts would be spared to entertain the jewelers if they selected Hamilton "Below the Hill" for their next meeting place.

WARM WELCOME FOR 24 WOUNDED AND INVALIDED SOLDIERS

Fifteen From District and Seven Are London Boys.

WILL CONVALESCE HERE

Big Crowd of Citizens at the Depot When Train Came In.

A party of 24 wounded and invalided soldiers returned to the city yesterday afternoon at 5:50 o'clock via the C. P. R. In the party were seven Londoners. The men were met at the depot by representatives of the Soldiers' Aid Commission, Returned Soldiers' Club, relatives and friends. They were placed in autos loaned by citizens, a procession was formed, headed by the A. M. C. Pipe Band, and the men taken to Central Military Convalescent Hospital.

Frank C. Dalton, 666 Lorne avenue, enlisted with the 2nd Depot Mounted Rifles, prior to his enlistment being a pressman in the employ of The Advertiser. He was wounded in the Somme fighting in October last during the great offensive, when he was struck in the neck by a piece of shrapnel from a trench mortar. He was confined to a military hospital for five months.

G. McCracken, 659 Marshal street, was invalided home because of asthma.

L. Richardson, 869 Van street, enlisted with the 135th Battalion, later transferred to the 134th, and was finally discharged because of defective vision.

Was At Loos.

T. Montgomery, 150 Gray street, enlisted with the 18th Battalion, and went through the battle of Loos, and later sent to England for base duty, was invalided home because of illness.

J. Johnson, a 142nd member, whose home is at 297 Richmond street, was sent home because he was under age.

Corp. V. Hunt, 49½ Ada street, Chelsea Green, went over with the 135th Battalion, and after doing base duty in England since, has been sent home because of a recent illness.

E. Vaughan, 2 Dreaney street, crossed with the 70th, and has been invalided home due to illness. The remaining men came from out of town.

Wears Gold Stripes.

C. Chivers, Wyoming, enlisted with the 34th Battalion, and returned wearing two gold stripes on his arm, indicating he had been wounded twice. He was wounded first at Ypres on June 3 last, when he was one of a party that made an attack on German front line trenches. He engaged a German in a bayonet encounter, and before putting his adversary out of commission the Hun had stuck him once in the leg. The wound was only severe enough to keep him out ten days, when he returned again to the trenches. He was continually in engagements from then on, when in September, during the opening of the Somme offensive, he was struck in the head by shrapnel just as the British and Canadians were driving the Germans from the village of Courcelette.

Sergt.-Major Francis, a 1st Battalion man, wounded at Festubert, was in charge of the party. He will do permanent base duty in Canada.

Hit at Courcelette.

R. W. Ferren, Charing Cross, enlisted with the 70th, and was wounded at Courcelette in September last. He was shot in the back by a German sniper as he was helping a wounded comrade along the trench to the dressing station.

H. Pierpont, Galt, 18th Battalion, was gassed at Dickiebush as his company were attacking on M. and M. trench.

Harry Foster, familiarly known to the boys as "Scotty," gave his home address at Chicago, and stated that he enlisted at Niagara Falls, Ont., with the 97th American Legion. He was shell shocked during the terrific artillery bombardment before Verdun.

Others who returned, some wounded and other invalided home because of illness, were: A. Lord, Hespeler; G. Vivian, Mitchell; Leonard Eade, Galt; Stanley West, St. Thomas; T. A. Harper, Glencoe; William Rankin, St. Thomas; E. Tucker, Woodstock; H. Evans, Stratford; G. Welsh, Windsor; W. J. Roberts, Ingersoll; E. P. Edwards, Windsor, and Corp. Gustin, Woodstock.

ORANGEMEN WILL CELEBRATE HERE

Arrangements have been made for the Orangemen of London and district to celebrate July 12 in this city. Previous arrangements called for an excursion to Preston, where every Orange order in this part of the province would meet on the above date, but this was found to be almost impossible on account of the curtailed railway service and other conditions.

The railway authorities have announced that there would be no special trains to Preston on the 12th, and that no reduced rates would be offered. In addition to this, many Orange members engaged in farm work would be unable to leave their work in order to journey to Preston.

At a recent meeting it was decided by the committee that London was the best place to celebrate, and it is likely that a monster Orange parade will be held to Queen's Park, where a good time will follow, although the final arrangements have not yet been made.
